Suddenly, two shrieks pierced the atmosphere. When the disciples looked over, fear gripped them immediately.

Miracle Doctor Shenghua and another Elder were slain.

Four Elders were severely injured and on the brink of death while three others had been killed. The Flame Palace's situation was perilous.

If it wasn't for the Spiritual Flame Ball above the Palace Master's Head that allowed him to fight with three experts at the same time, Flame Palace would have likely been defeated by now!

"The Palace Master can't hold on for much longer!"

An attendant of the Fire Palace shivered in fear upon seeing his Palace Master being besieged by several experts.

"Run!"

Shrieks of horror sounded from everywhere. He gritted his teeth and started fleeing.

"Run!"

When the first person started fleeing, more and more followed.

This made the group of Elders of the Flame Palace extremely embarrassed.

However, they couldn't say anything. Battles between Inborn experts weren't something they could interfere with.

"Haha, all of you shall die!"

In the skies, an expert from the Fire God Denomination flapped his fire wings rapidly and violently. Flames started dripping down towards the escaping disciples.

Argh argh argh!

In just an instant, more than a dozen disciples were hit as they cried out pitifully.

"Run! Quick! Run!"

The entire Flame Palace was thrown into turmoil. Everyone was trying to flee and cries could be heard everywhere. It was as though it was the end of the world.

In the skies, the Elders of the Flame Palace shivered in fear.

They weren't a match for their opponents at all.

"Palace Master! Who have you offended?"

The Elders of the Flame Palace were devastated.

"Palace Master Huo Tu, we have joined Flame Palace for protection, not to seek our doom. Please forgive us for not being able to stay with the Flame Palace!"

At this moment, two Inborn experts started fleeing, to the astonishment of Flame Palace.

"Scumbags!"

The Palace Master of the Flame Palace shivered in anger as he witnessed two Inborn experts that had joined them previously fleeing.

"Flame Palace is finished!"

Chapter 257: Dragon Ball vs Flames

(1)

"Flame Palace is finished!"

The group of six remarked softly when they saw the chaotic Flame Palace and the fleeing disciples from afar.

"This could be the most tragic Sacred Sect, since they got annihilated as soon as they were promoted."

Miracle Doctor Blood Man gloated over their misfortune: "Fire God Denomination is much more domineering than Flame Palace."

"After all, they are just a newly promoted Sacred Sect. If they were long-time Sacred Sects like Sword Celestial, Bodhimanda, or Medical Saint, Fire God Denomination would not dare to barge in like this," said Mo Yuan at the side.

"Fire God Denomination wouldn't dare to storm in with arrogance like this if they were Medical Saint sects, not to mention sects like Sword Celestial and Bodhimanda. I bet they would be killed by all the poisonous stuff at the doorstep before they even entered. Flame Palace is still too weak. Otherwise, they wouldn't have recruited experts and disciples through pilgrimage," Mo Qinglong commented nonchalantly.

Sacred Sects had a mixture of strong and weak sects. Medical Saint Sect was one of the strongest ones.

Without any guidance from the Medical Saint disciples, anyone who wished to enter the basecamp of Medical Saint Sect, Medical Saint Mountain, would be eliminated by their defense at the door. Just that alone was good enough to kill dozens of Inborn Experts.

In comparison, a Sacred Sect like Flame Palace that had no foundation would not have set up any defense at the entrance. Any Inborn Experts could enter easily.

"Palace Master of Flame Palace is in danger!" Just then, Maniac Ji was slightly shocked, looking ahead.

Comparing himself with the people in combat, his strength still differed by a lot.

He was not a match for any experts from Fire God Denomination.

"He's doomed!"

Wang Xian looked over. After the two new Inborn Experts members of Flame Palace escaped, they were left with five people. Five against ten, and they were not a match even when it was one on one.

Five Fire God Denomination experts besieged the Palace Master alone.

"The Palace Master is indeed formidable as he managed to survive for so long under the attacks of five experts. It is no wonder that he could bring Flame Palace a step higher to become a Sacred Sect!" Maniac Ji exclaimed.

With the Spiritual Flame Ball above the daunting Flame Palace Palace Master, his combat ability was domineering to fight one against five.

But it was only a matter of time before the defeat.

"I cannot accept it. Flame Palace was just promoted to become a Sacred Sect. I cannot accept this!"

All of a sudden, the Palace Master's despairing and unwilling voice was heard from Flame Palace.

Boom!

An intense explosion resounded in the earth. The Palace Master, who was putting up fierce resistance, suddenly burst into flame.

A Fire God Denomination expert did not manage to dodge in time and got hit by it.

Immense fire shredded the body of that expert into pieces instantly.

"Alpha!" [\[1\]](#)

A Fire God Denomination expert was looking gloomy.

"Take that Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball with us. That thing is of great use to Fire God Denomination."

"Search around and see if they have other treasures in the Flame Palace."

"Darn it. We lost a Prince Realm expert!"

The group of Fire God Denomination experts bellowed with a nasty look as their voices traveled several kilometers.

"Run now!"

"Even the Palace Master is dead now. We're finished. The Flame Palace has completely fallen!"

"How did this happen? I just joined Flame Palace Sacred Sect. How can a Sacred Sect be annihilated?"

Some of the Flame Palace disciples could not believe it as they fled frantically.

The group of Fire God Denomination experts darkened their expressions as they swung their arms. Tongues of intense flames fired off at the surrounding Flame Palace disciples.

Miserable voices were heard again. The end of Flame Palace had finally arrived.

Wang Xian and his people did not strike at all. They were here to exterminate Flame Palace, but someone had done the job for them.

"Let's go. How dare they came to our territory and play punk. I'll make sure they are buried under this ground forever!"

When Flame Palace was utterly destroyed, Wang Xian saw a group of experts from Fire God Denomination rounding up the treasures within Flame Palace. He then jumped down from the tree with a smile.

"Young Master, there must be a lot of treasures within Flame Palace. I bet those Fire God Denomination experts have good stuff with them too!"

Mo Qinglong chuckled as he followed behind.

"What? Are we striking at the nine people from Fire God Denomination? We're not their match!"

Miracle Doctor Blood Man quickly remarked after hearing Mo Qinglong.

"I can handle at most one person. My master can handle two. What about you guys?"

Miracle Doctor Blood Man looked at Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan, Maniac Ji as he said, "We can't beat them!"

Maniac Ji frowned slightly as he cast a glance at Wang Xian with doubts.

"Leave it to me. I haven't fought for a long time!"

Wang Xian smiled as he headed to the entrance without haste.

They came to a path where Wang Xian stood in the middle. He opened his mouth slightly, and a fiery red fireball appeared in his hand.

"I wonder which is stronger, my Dragon Ball or their flame?"

He arched his lips. This fire Dragon Ball was nurtured all the time. Hence, its power could kill an Inborn Expert.

"If I can absorb the Lava Ball of Fire God Denomination and Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball of Flame Palace, the power of Dragon Ball will increase another level!"

Wang Xian revealed a smile on his face as he stood and waited for them to be out.

When Miracle Doctor Blood Man and Maniac Ji saw Wang Xian spit out a ball of fire, they were taken aback. They gasped when they sensed the daunting amount of energy contained in the flame.

"Miracle Doctor Wang is a cultivator of flame too?" Miracle Doctor Blood Man asked with radiance flickering in his eyes.

"Run. Let's flee now! We need to get out of here!"

Just then, a few figures rushed towards their side with haste.

Fear and panic were all over their faces.

"Hur? There's someone ahead?"

"Get lost, you people!"

"Darn, get out of my way. Do you want to die?!"

About eight or nine Flame Palace disciples were looking frightful and malevolent. When they saw the six people blocking the path, they took the weapons in their hands and hacked at them immediately.

"Get out of my way!"

Several people bellowed with no signs of reducing their speed.

"Oh? Seem like someone we know?"

Wang Xian cast a glance over and saw the four young men they had met in the afternoon. At the same time, Mu Wanwan and a few of her friends were following beside them.

"Hiak hiak, a bunch of losers digging their own graves!"

Upon seeing them charging over, Miracle Doctor Blood Man found them funny. With an arm swing, he fired thick blood at them.

"It's them!"

"Oh no, Inborn Experts!"

The bunch of people who were charging over froze for a moment. Instantly, they were struck down on the floor by the blood. Fear was the only thing left in them.

"How is this possible. Why... are they...?"

The moment they fell onto the ground, their eyes were filled with remorse.

"Trash!" Miracle Doctor Blood Man said indifferently.

Wang Xian cast a glance at the Flame Palace deep in the mountain with a pair of abstruse eyes.

After fifteen minutes, nine figures showed up, walking towards them without haste.

Wang Xian held his Dragon Ball in his hand, drawing his lips slightly.

Endnote:

[1] A bible term which refers to the first and the last. Back

Chapter 258: Dragon Ball vs Flames

(2)

"Flame Palace is really trash! They only have a thousand plus spiritual stones!"

"They have spent all their spiritual stones on increasing the ability of the Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball! They barely have any spiritual medicine left!"

"For a Sacred Sect to be this poor... Hehe, they are really trash!"

At the entrance of Flame Palace, a few mocking voices sounded. The nine of them each carried something as they walked out slowly.

Huh?

Suddenly, the nine of them stopped. They squinted their eyes and looked ahead of them.

Six people! Six figures were standing at the entrance and seemed to be waiting for them.

"Eh? Isn't that the beautiful girl from the restaurant?"

Heng Wang, who was standing at the right of the group, saw Sun Lingxiu and was surprised.

"Hehe, pretty. Are you here to offer yourself to me? Haha. Look! Take a look at how attractive I am!"

An arrogant voice sounded from Heng Wang as he scrutinized Sun Lingxiu from head to toe with vile eyes.

"Those are the people we met in the afternoon!"

An old man looked at the group of people in front of him and was baffled. Eventually, his gaze landed on Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

Due to the cultivation arts, he wasn't able to tell the level of Wang Xian and the group. However, he was able to get some clues from Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

"This... He seems to be a vampire!"

"As such, the remaining people shouldn't be ordinary either."

"How dare they wait for us here..."

The group of people from the Fire God Denomination squinted their eyes and looked at Wang Xian's group coldly.

"Since you dare to kill on our land, are you all prepared to be buried here forever?"

Wang Xian looked plainly at them while scrutinizing the nine of them.

"To wait for us here after seeing us in action! It seems like you guys are pretty brave!"

The old man in the center of the group stared emotionlessly at Wang Xian and flames had started flowing in his hands.

"Hehe. We aren't as brave as you guys to come to our land and annihilate an entire sect!"

When Wang Xian saw them carrying something in the back, his smile grew deeper. "That's nice of you to pack the treasures nicely for us!"

"Brat, you must be seeking your own demise!" the old man in the middle growled angrily. A ball of flames appeared in his hand as he launched his attack towards Wang Xian.

Wang Xian was unmoved. With a flick of his finger, the Dragon Ball appeared in front of him.

Rumble!

The flames were absorbed immediately by the Dragon Ball the instant the flames landed on it.

"Huh? A fire attribute spiritual treasure!"

When the old man saw the Dragon Ball that absorbed the flames, his eyes lit up.

"Spiritual treasure! Haha! It's a fire attribute spiritual treasure! It seems like we are really in luck!"

Heng Wang saw the Dragon Ball suspended in the air and got excited immediately.

"Flame Palace has few treasures. This spiritual treasure would make up for it nicely!"

The old man stared at it fervently. Stretching his hand forward, flames shrouded over.

The flames formed a claw made of fire as it grabbed towards the Dragon Ball.

"Annihilate all of them!"

A middle-aged man beside the old man charged ahead enthusiastically and attacked the group.

"Haha, leave that beautiful girl to me. I've got to teach her a good lesson!"

Heng Wang's eyes lit up with enthusiasm. The next instant, he charged towards Sun Lingxiu with desecrating eyes.

"Interesting. How arrogant are they!?"

Wang Xian was clearly getting excited. "Stay behind, guys! Let me handle this!"

Wang Xian was currently Level 7. In his human form, his strength could match Dan Realm experts, which was above the Inborn Realm.

Up to this point, he had never fought with any human Inborn experts. Nonetheless, he could easily kill Inborn level creatures in the sea with a single strike.

Wang Xian stood there without moving. The Dragon Ball in front of him started glowing dazzlingly under his control.

"Xiao Xian, leave that young man with blonde hair to me!" Sun Lingxiu shouted to Wang Xian suddenly.

"Alright!"

Wang Xian was slightly shocked initially. However, eventually, he simply nodded his head as a response to Sun Lingxiu.

It seems like that young man with blonde hair has really infuriated Sun Lingxiu!

"What a strong spiritual treasure!"

When the group from the Fire God Denomination saw the dazzling glow and felt the scorching heat from the Dragon Ball, they were shocked.

"We must definitely get it. Don't let them escape!" an old man from Fire God Denomination reminded the group loudly and enthusiastically.

"Rest assured. None of them are getting away!"

An old man flapped his blue fire wings behind him and shifted to the side.

The other experts of the Fire God Denomination also flapped their wings at the same time, forming a circle around Wang Xian.

In their eyes, they were the hunters. The other party was simply their prey.

"How arrogant and brazen!"

Wang Xian revealed a cold look upon seeing the experts from Fire God Denomination getting ready to hunt him.

Roar!

At this moment, a dragon roar pierced through the atmosphere.

The surrounding experts from the Fire God Denomination looked on in disbelief.

The Dragon Ball that was glowing dazzlingly was transforming slowly into a Fire Divine Dragon! A Fire Divine Dragon from the legends of the Chinese!

The Divine Dragon was five meters long and vivid. At the same time, it was emanating horrifying dragon aura.

"What? This is...?"

"What a horrifying spiritual treasure! What a powerful fire attribute spiritual treasure!"

"Oh my god! It can transform into a divine dragon!"

All nine experts from the Fire God Denomination stared fervently at that Fire Divine Dragon!

It was no different from a living thing. Even its eyes were extremely lively.

Maniac Ji and Miracle Doctor Blood Man, who were standing beside Wang Xian previously, were greatly shaken as they stared blankly at the Divine Dragon.

"Haha! Kill! Kill it!"

The experts of the Fire God Denomination weren't wary at all. Instead, they charged over hysterically.

"We must definitely get that spiritual treasure!" Heng Wang clenched his fist tightly and charged ahead.

"Your opponent is me!" A soft and crisp voice sounded from Sun Lingxiu. Dense Light energy emanated from her body.

An arrow made of Light energy appeared out of nowhere and shot towards Heng Wang.

Swish!

The speed of the arrow was incomparably fast. The speed of Light attacks could easily match or exceed the speed of Wind.

The Light attack disappeared in the blink of an eye.

"What?"

Heng Wang, who was shrouded in flames, was completely caught by surprise as the arrow made of Light energy appeared right in front of him in an instant.

He crossed his wings rapidly in front of him.

Argh!

However, the arrow made of light pierced through the fire wings and into his body directly.

He let out a cry in pain.

"How is this possible?"

Heng Wang couldn't believe what had happened. Blood oozed out from the edge of his mouth as he stared with a deadly look at Sun Lingxiu.

"Blonde trash, how dare you taunt my master. You really don't know where you stand!"

Miracle Doctor Blood Man was cockily satisfied upon seeing his master severely injuring Heng Wang with a single blow.

"Be careful! Kill!"

The old man in the center looked at Sun Lingxiu before reminding the group solemnly.

Roar!

At this moment, the Fire Divine Dragon roared. Its five-meter-long body flew in circles in the air as it attacked the group of experts from the Fire God Denomination.

Chapter 259: Dragon Ball vs Flames

(3)

"Do you think you can stand against us with just that Spiritual Treasure of yours?"

With a pair of icy-cold eyes, the old man who was giving off blue flames jerked as soon as he saw the imposing Fire Divine Dragon.

His blue flames formed into a long spear, bursting with fire and fiery edges.

"Let me slay the dragon!"

The old man wielded his spear and thrust at the Fire Divine Dragon.

When Wang Xian saw the old man striking at the Dragon Ball, he sneered.

The Dragon Ball was almost part of his body after his nurturing.

As such, the Dragon Ball possessed part of the mightiness from Divine Dragon under his control.

The Fire Divine Dragon did not only have the look of a dragon, but it possessed the soul of a Divine Dragon.

Roar!

The Fire Divine Dragon stared at the old man in blue flames with a disdainful look in the corner of its eye. Immediately, it swept its tail at him.

"Hmph, an illusory Divine Dragon will only restore into its original form with my sapphire flame!"

Blue flames continued to flicker in the eyes of the old man. He hurled the long navy spear in his hand at the dragon tail immediately.

Pop, pop, pop!

Suddenly, loud crisp sounds were heard. The navy Flaming Spear fell onto the tail like an egg bashing itself on a rock.

The mighty dragon tail broke the spear instantly, sweeping at the old man forcefully.

"What?"

That old man was appalled.

"Oh no, block it!"

The rest of the Fire God Denomination experts around him were looking slightly surprised. They fired off tongues of flames at the Fire Divine Dragon.

Two of the experts even charged at Wang Xian.

Roar!

Fire Divine Dragon exhibited a contemptuous look in its eyes as it swept its invincible dragon tail.

Bam!

The strong fire dragon tail hit the old man with blue flames. The daunting dragon energy immediately sent him flying off, along with his agape eyes.

"What?!"

The rest of the Fire God Denomination experts were horrified.

Roar!

But before they could react, the Fire Divine Dragon spun around and hurled dragon flames at the two experts who tried to assault Wang Xian.

"What a daunting flame!"

The two Fire God Denomination experts were aghast as they quickly dodged to somewhere far away.

The tongues of flame hit the ground, causing the ground to have a five-meter-long crack with dragon flame ignited everywhere.

"What a terrifying Spiritual Treasure. Is this...even possible?!"

The two Fire God Denomination experts who escaped had a dreadful look as they looked at the fissure on the ground.

"Penetrating Light!"

Just then, a gentle and noble voice was heard.

"What?"

Heng Wang's horrified voice cut the surrounding air, attracting all the attention of the Fire God Denomination experts.

They saw that Heng Wang had the Lava Ball in front of him. He was holding the Lava Ball with both his hands, forming a flaming shield with immense fire on it.

The shield was blocking the beams of lights that looked like the aurora.

The light rays were like inexhaustible domineering lasers passing through the flaming shield.

The shield was quickly dissolving at a rate visible to the naked eye.

"What a formidable lady!"

Every Fire God Denomination expert was aghast.

Heng Wang might have been the weakest among them all, but with the Lava Ball in possession, his strength was equivalent to the strongest one in the group.

Yet, Heng Wang was forced to use Lava Ball as a defense in such a short time. Moreover, he was completely suppressed now.

"Die!"

Wang Xian cast a glance at Sun Lingxiu with a smile. With the Fire Divine Dragon under his control, the dragon scratched one Fire God Denomination expert with its dragon claws.

Mighty dragon claws about half a meter long seemed like they were tearing the void.

Boom!

"Die!"

That Fire God Denomination expert wrapped himself with a pair of fire wings. The flame burst into a sword, thrusting at the dragon claws.

Ka Ka Ka!

However, the sword was grabbed by the dragon claws tightly.

Ah!

A horrifying shriek was heard. Before any blood could drip, it was already dissipated in the air.

Boundless might struck unlimited terror in them!

"This...No way!"

The Fire God Denomination experts were in disbelief.

The guy only had a Spiritual Treasure which had transformed into a Fire Divine Dragon. But the dragon severely injured and killed two of their men.

They were top-notch Inborn Experts!

Moreover, there were another five people from their group who had not yet made their moves.

"Besiege and kill that Divine Dragon first!"

An old man bawled and wrapped himself with flames. Subsequently, he turned into a three-meter flaming giant.

Another five Fire God Denomination experts surrounded the Divine Dragon immediately.

The fireballs they fired were absorbed by the Fire Divine Dragon immediately.

The fire rings that they chained on the neck of the dragon were melted straightaway!

"Hehe, the Dragon Ball was nurtured by the Origin Source of Flame. No ordinary flames can destroy it. The blue flame just now was able to counter the Fire Divine Dragon, but he is simply too weak!"

Wang Xian watched with a smile.

Miracle Doctor Blood Man and Maniac Ji by his side were stupefied by what they saw.

A Fire Divine Dragon transformed from a ball spat out from Wang Xian's mouth could easily fight against eight experts from Fire God Denomination.

Is he still a human?

"God dammit. He's domineering. No wonder my master is fond of him. He's too strong!"

Miracle Doctor Blood Man muttered as he was dumbfounded. He turned around and looked at his master.

"Screw this golden haired lad. How dare he tease my master? Haha, now he's scared stiff!"

Miracle Doctor Blood Man yelled with a contemptuous face as he saw Heng Wang holding his Lava Ball in defense of the Penetrating Lights, sweating.

Upon hearing Miracle Doctor Blood Man, terror surfaced in Heng Wang's eyes.

He could not have imagined that this holy and beautiful-looking girl would be such a terrifying person.

He had wanted to follow his tracker later at night to abduct her and make her his concubine after annihilating Flame Palace.

But now, he only had fear and despair.

If it were not for the Lava Ball, he could have been penetrated by those daunting lights and been completely purified!

"Purify!"

However, he heard a pleasant voice when his thoughts were running wild.

The voice sounded like a devil's call from hell.

He stared with wide open eyes. Suddenly, the beams of light in front of him quickly gathered and formed into the head of a Light Divine Dragon.

The enormous head of the Light Divine Dragon bit him straight away!

"No!"

Terror and remorse were heard from his scream as Heng Wang was swallowed by it.

The fist-sized Lava Ball fell onto the ground.

The head of the Light Divine Dragon and Heng Wang disappeared.

Heng Wang was completely purified!

"Dragon Incineration!"

At this time, Wang Xian let out a soft bellow.

The Fire Divine Dragon in front rolled its body with immense fire encompassing a radius of more than ten meters.

The entire region turned into Fire Divine Dragon's territory as it rolled itself.

Shrieks and screams of disbelief were heard.

The ten of them had annihilated dozens of Inborn Experts of Flame Palace. Yet they were exterminated by one person with a Spiritual Treasure.

Since when did China have such a formidable existence?!

Chapter 260: Generous Spoils of War

Flames raged and a Fire Divine Dragon flew in circles around them.

The surrounding grass and trees had all perished.

Roar!

The Fire Divine Dragon let out a roar, turned over gradually and looked to Wang Xian.

Moving his huge dragon body, he flew towards Wang Xian directly.

Wang Xian stretched out his hand. The Fire Divine Dragon turned back into the Dragon Ball and landed on his hand.

Silence returned to the surroundings once again.

The autumn wind was sighing and the Flame Palace had been annihilated.

Only an old man among the group of experts from the Fire God Denomination was left lying on the floor. As for the rest, they had been reduced to ashes.

At a location a short distance away, there were various bags. Inside the bags were treasures that the Fire God Denomination had looted from the Flame Palace.

"My master is incredible! The idol of my master is domineering and imposing!"

Miracle Doctor Blood Man chanted loudly. No one knew where he had learnt these phrases from.

"Young master, let us go get the treasures!" Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan commented before moving forward to grab the bags.

Even if the Dragon King could shatter the sky or crush the land, they wouldn't be surprised.

In their hearts, the Dragon King was invincible.

Wang Xian nodded his head as he looked at the Lava Ball that had fallen to the ground in front of him.

The Dragon Ball in his hand flew above the Lava Ball and sucked it up.

The Dragon Ball was devouring the Lava Ball gradually as they slowly fused.

The glow of the Dragon Ball grew even brighter and one could vaguely sense a Divine Dragon moving around him.

Under the control of Wang Xian, the Dragon Ball flew to where the old man with blue flames was.

Flames spewed over and the body of the old man was reduced to ashes.

However, a fist-sized blue flame remained suspended in the air.

"This blue flame is really powerful!"

Wang Xian hesitated for a moment before drawing the blue flame towards himself with the Dragon Ball.

Heavenly Flame, Tranquil Blue Flame: Level 9

"A Level 9 Flame! No wonder it could resist the Level 10 Dragon Ball!"

When Wang Xian looked at the ball of Heavenly Flame, he was slightly shocked. He hesitated for a moment and didn't let the Dragon Ball absorb it.

If the Dragon Ball absorbed it, it would vanish completely. This wouldn't bring much incremental increase in strength to the Dragon Ball.

Its effectiveness would be even worse than the Lava Ball.

When the Dragon Ball fused with the Lava Ball, it would retain the effects of the Lava Ball. However, absorbing the Heavenly Flame wouldn't be the same.

The flames of the Dragon Ball were very similar to the Origin Source. All other types of flames could be absorbed by it.

"Young master, we found quite an amount of treasures!"

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan carried over the treasures that had been gathered by the group from the Fire God Denomination.

"Approximately 1,500 spiritual stones, three tufts of Level 6 spiritual medicine and ten tufts of Level 5 spiritual medicine. All the spiritual medicines are of fire attribute."

"Besides these, the most precious of all should be this!" said Mo Qinglong before handing the basketball-sized Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball to Wang Xian.

Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball: Level 9

Inject flames into the body to refine one's physical body.

When Wang Xian looked at the Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball and received its information, he was shocked.

Injecting flames to refine the body was an extremely powerful effect. For cultivators with fire attributes, this would bring great benefits.

Through this cultivation treasure, a Martial Artist could increase his affinity with flames and thus the speed of cultivation.

It could even allow one to break through to the Inborn Realm quickly, and thus was incomparably valuable.

"It's no surprise that the Palace Master of Flame Palace stole it away despite risking him incurring the wrath of the Fire God Denomination. For the Flame Palace, this is too valuable."

Wang Xian heaved a sigh. It was also because of the Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball that the Flame Palace could quickly nurture several Inborn experts and push the Flame Palace to the level of a Sacred Sect.

However, there was a huge weakness in them becoming a Sacred Sect through this method, and that was the fact that their foundation couldn't keep up.

This was also the reason why the Flame Palace was easily annihilated.

"This Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball could be absorbed by the Dragon Ball. After absorbing it, the Dragon Ball would also possess the ability to refine one's body!"

A faint smile appeared on Wang Xian as he placed the Dragon Ball above it.

Suddenly, the Dragon Ball ejected a layer of flames that gradually surrounded the Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball and started fusing with it.

"Take all the treasures along. Let's go!"

Wang Xian looked around before instructing Mo Qinglong and the group.

"Yes, young master!" Mo Qinglong and the group nodded their heads.

Sun Lingxiu smiled and followed behind Wang Xian. As for Miracle Doctor Blood Man, he quickly followed behind Sun Lingxiu.

Maniac Ji looked at Wang Xian in astonishment. Nonetheless, he caught up with him quickly.

In the middle of the night, six figures gradually disappeared from view.

No one had expected the experts that annihilated the Flame Palace were in turn killed easily.

At this moment, figure after figure were heading towards Flame Palace at high speed.

Some were strong experts at the Half-step to Inborn Realm while others were horrifying Inborn experts.

All the experts in Flame City and the surrounding cities were heading there.

"Flame Palace has been annihilated!" The voice of an old man pierced through the silent night.

"How can this be? Flame Palace had just become a Sacred Sect. How can they be annihilated?"

"A Sacred Sect was annihilated? How can this be?"

"Oh my god! Flame Palace is on fire! Flame Palace has really been annihilated!"

"Based on Flame Palace disciples that managed to escape, it was the ten experts from the Fire God Denomination that annihilated their Flame Palace!"

"Fire God Denomination is a powerful Force internationally with a deep history. No one would have expected them to deploy so many experts to annihilate the Flame Palace!"

"Ten Inborn experts easily annihilated the Flame Palace. This..."

"Flame Palace's history is still too short..."

Shocking! Astonishing! All the experts that had rushed over stared at the burning Flame Palace in shock.

A Sacred Sect had been destroyed right in front of them.

"Great. Since the Flame Palace had become a Sacred Sect, their disciples had been extremely arrogant. They deserved to be annihilated!"

"Damn! Those absurdly arrogant Flame Palace disciples had been oppressing all the Families in Flame City. They deserved it!"

While some were shocked, others were cheering.

Flame Palace disciples had been too arrogant recently and had totally disregarded the other Ancient Martial Arts Families and Sects in Flame City.

When they saw disciples of Flame Palace, they had to lower their head.

Now that the Flame Palace was annihilated, although they were shocked, they felt gratified.

From this, one could easily tell that the reputation of Flame Palace wasn't too favorable.

Their behavior was similar to a man who got rich overnight.

"Let's find a place for tonight before heading back tomorrow!"

It was already midnight. Wang Xian, Sun Lingxiu and the group were walking towards the city center of Flame City.

Flame City was a small city. It was serene with beautiful landscape.

Some places in the city had preserved the buildings from ancient times. They were arranged neatly in a row and looked beautiful and dignified.

However, as they were in a small city, there was no one around them at midnight.

Pa pa pa!

Just as Wang Xian and the group approached a small street, they heard rapid footsteps.

Two small figures were running quickly while turning back worryingly from time to time.

They were agile and one could easily tell that they were Martial Artists.

"Rascals, you two sure can hide! I can't believe you managed to hide from us for a month. You have no one to blame except yourself. You guys won't be getting away this time!"

Behind them, more than a dozen middle-aged men were chasing them while mocking them.

Chapter 261: Be Your Teacher?

"Little Sister, run now. Hurry! Let me handle them!"

A little boy was holding a girl's hand as they raced across a serene path.

Upon hearing the taunting voices from behind, the little boy had a hopeless look on his face before he stopped and shouted at the little girl.

"No, brother. I'm not leaving. I'm staying with you!"

The eyes of the little girl were flushed with redness as she shook her head with stubbornness. She bit her lip as she stared at her elder brother.

"Mengxin, be good. Go now. If not, none of us can escape!"

As the little boy spun his head and looked at the dozens of middle-aged men, he pleaded with his sister anxiously.

"Hiak hiak, none of you can escape!"

A dozen middle-aged men gazed at them with a teasing look and approached them just like how a cat would play with a rat.

"You people...stop right there!"

The boy glared at the group of people with anger.

He put out his arms and stood firmly in front of the little girl, protecting her with a pair of determined eyes.

"Wow, this little fellow is great since he knows how to protect his sister. I wonder if you will want to kill us when we kill your sister before you later on. I'm so scared!"

A middle-aged man who was leading the team stared at them playfully as he revealed a ghastly smile on his face.

"You villains, I'll never let you off even if you kill me!"

The little boy gritted his teeth until traces of blood were seen. He stared at the man with a pair of obstinate and vengeful eyes.

"Hehe, what a pair of fierce eyes!"

The middle-aged man stared at the juvenile coldly. "I wonder if you can be fierce when I dig your eyes out!" said the middle-aged man as he approached the two children, looking ruthless.

"Little sister, run now!"

The little boy gritted his teeth. He turned and pushed the little girl away before he took out a sharp dagger from his waist and thrust it at the group of middle-aged men.

"Hehe, you're already a Level 4 Martial Artist at such a young age. You are talented. But it's your fault for coming to this world!"

The middle-aged man raised the sword in his hand with a cold face. Along with the scabbard, he wielded his sword at the little boy.

Bam!

When the sword scabbard hit the young body, the little boy was thrown five meters away from his spot like a doll. He even spat out a mouthful of fresh blood.

"Brother!"

When the little girl saw her brother spit out blood after being knocked down on the ground, tears rolled down from her cheeks immediately. She quickly ran to the boy and threw herself on him.

"Don't kill my brother!"

"Hehe. Lass, don't worry. You'll soon be joining him!"

The middle-aged man put on a creepy smile.

"Hur?"

Wang Xian and the rest walked over slowly. When he swept his gaze across the boy and girl, he felt odd as his eyes glistened.

Seeing them reminded him of himself and his sister, Xiaoyu. They were so similar.

The group of middle-aged men paused slightly when they saw Wang Xian and his gang walking over. With a cold bellow, one said, "Get lost now!"

Sun Lingxiu looked at the pair of children and frowned as she strode towards them.

"Poking your nose around? I guess all of you are digging your own graves!"

The middle-aged man threw Sun Lingxiu and Wang Xian death stares while the rest of the middle-aged men watched them coldly from behind.

Sun Lingxiu ignored the middle-aged man as she continued on her way to the two kids with an unwavering expression.

The little boy gazed at Sun Lingxiu and Wang Xian as his eyes were seeking for help. Subsequently, he turned and stared daggers at the middle-aged man.

"Do you want to die? How dare you come over?"

The middle-aged man stared at the approaching Sun Lingxiu with a ruthless expression as he drew his sword with his right hand.

Boom!

Before Sun Lingxiu and the rest could strike, Wang Xian swung his arm, sweeping blazing flames at the dozen of middle-aged men.

"What?"

All of them stared with wide and round eyes. That was the only word that appeared in their minds before they lost consciousness and vanished in the air as though they had never existed before.

"He's...formidable!"

The little boy who fell on the ground was shaken as he turned to look at Wang Xian in a stupor.

Whoo!

Sun Lingxiu came to them. With an arm swing, a white-colored light entered the little boy's body and healed his injuries straightaway.

The little girl parted her lips slightly as she lifted her head and looked at Sun Lingxiu with tears all over her face.

"Let's go!"

Wang Xian took a look at the siblings and spoke impassively to Sun Lingxiu.

Sun Lingxiu paused for a moment before she nodded to Wang Xian.

The group of people made their way forward once again.

"Thank you, big brother and sister!"

The little boy quickly got up and went to Wang Xian.

"You're welcome. You're pretty good too!"

Wang Xian gave him a faint smile and continued on his way to the hotel ahead.

"Brother, I would like to become your disciple!"

The little boy hurriedly followed beside him and shouted with passionate eyes and a face full of anticipation.

Wang Xian looked at him and shook his head slowly.

"Brother, please. I beg you to take me as your disciple. I will practice hard, and I'll become an expert!"

The little boy was desperate as he pleaded loudly again.

Wang Xian kept his silence and strode ahead.

"Brother, please! I beg you to accept me as a disciple!"

The little boy's voice was shaking and he was almost in tears. He went down on his knees immediately, with a knocking sound coming from the ground.

"Big brother, please accept my brother as your disciple!"

The little girl ran to her brother and knelt down to Wang Xian, just like how her brother did.

Wang Xian paused for a moment. He shook his head gently before he went ahead.

Disciple? You've got to be kidding me. He was not in the mood to be taking in any disciple. Besides, he did not know how to teach one even if he did.

Sun Lingxiu spun her head and looked at the siblings with pity.

"Brother, please accept me as a disciple!" the little boy shouted again.

Wang Xian ignored him and walked into the hotel along with the rest.

The little boy's expression darkened as he stood up slowly. He gritted his teeth while he watched Wang Xian entering the hotel.

"Let's go, sister. I must ask him to be my teacher and master formidable martial arts so that I can protect you in the future. We will not be hunted by someone else, and we'd be able to avenge our mother!" said the little boy with determination as he wiped the tears on his sister's face.

"Okay, I'll follow you!"

The little girl nodded as she reached for her brother's hand.

"Let's go over!"

The little boy followed behind Wang Xian and came to the entrance of the hotel.

He stood at the door and knelt on the ground with a pair of resolute eyes.

The girl followed suit beside him.

"Sister, I'll not let you suffer with me again!"

The boy stroked the head of his sister when she knelt together with him.

"Okay, I trust you. I'll be happy if I can be together with you from now on!"

A smile surfaced on the little girl's face.

Two children were kneeling in front of the hotel without moving an inch!

Chapter 262: Taking In A Disciple

The morning in Flame City was shrouded by faint fog, making this little city look a little like an immortal's realm.

Wang Xian opened the window of his hotel room and gave Xiao Yu and Guan Shuqing a call on his mobile phone.

Eh?

At this moment, Wang Xian squinted his eyes and looked towards the entrance of the hotel.

There were two figures. They were skinny but stubborn and looked familiar to him.

Both of them kneeled in front of the hotel, not moving an inch. The boy and girl looked a little pale and seemed like they might faint at any moment.

"They are really stubborn!"

Wang Xian looked at the boy and girl. The boy was at most fifteen years old while the girl might have been just twelve or thirteen years old.

From the two of them, he seemed to have seen Xiao Yu and his shadows.

However, he was generally luckier. He wasn't hunted by others and didn't have to wander the world.

"They probably have been kneeling here for the entire night!"

Wang Xian was a little moved as his resolve wavered.

He had never thought of taking in a disciple, let alone guiding one's cultivation.

At 7 plus in the morning, the boy and girl kneeling at the entrance of the hotel attracted the attention of many people. Some hotel guests that were leaving stared at them, feeling baffled.

"Two beggars? Why are they begging at the entrance of the hotel early in the morning? How unlucky we are to witness this!"

"They are so young and yet are begging here. I really wonder what their family members are thinking. They must have gone crazy from thinking about money."

As the guests from the hotel walked out one after another, they saw the dirty and skinny boy and girl. They couldn't help but frown and critique.

"These two kids are really pitiful."

Only a city cleaner walked towards the two kids after seeing them. From his pocket, she took out a crumpled ten dollar note and said, "Hey kids, get yourself some breakfast!"

The boy looked at the old woman and shook his head.

"Take it. I still have to work. Get yourself something to eat!"

The old woman threw the ten dollar note on the ground before moving to the side and starting to clean the streets.

The boy and girl didn't say a word and simply kneeled there. They were clearly fatigued but still looked attentively towards the entrance of the hotel.

"Wah! Master, there are two beggars right there!"

At this moment, a group of seven to eight people walked out from the hotel. Among them, a little boy pointed at the boy and girl kneeling at the entrance of the hotel as he exclaimed.

He ran towards the boy and girl excitedly while scrutinizing them.

"My servants, you may rise!"

The little boy was roughly thirteen to fourteen years old. He stood in front of the boy and girl and shouted mockingly while imitating what he had seen on television.

"I have already told you to rise. Why are you still kneeling down? Disobedient!"

The little boy tucked his hands on his waist and was clearly displeased. He continued shouting, "Your young master is asking you to rise! Can't you hear him?"

Hahaha!

The little boy broke into laughter while speaking. He looked to the girl beside and extended his hand over to pinch her face.

"Get lost!"

Seeing that the little boy was reaching towards his sister to pinch her face, the boy that was kneeling down was furious and pushed him away.

That little boy staggered and almost fell.

"How dare you push me! I'm going to beat you to death!"

The little boy was furious to have been pushed away. He lifted his leg and kicked towards the head of the other boy.

Although the little boy was young, he was extremely agile and fast while striking. The force and speed of his kick was even stronger than an ordinary hunk.

The boy that was kneeling on the floor was enraged. He lifted his hands and pushed away the little boy again.

The little boy had the strength of a Level 2 Martial Artist at most. He was still a far cry from the other boy.

Even though the other boy was kneeling down, the little boy was still pushed away.

Argh!

That little boy fell to the ground and let out a cry.

"Xiao Qiu!" A middle-aged man from the group of seven to eight people shouted worryingly and walked over from the carpark slot outside the hotel.

"Master, that beggar hit me!"

The little boy was furious. His face was flushed as he stared at the boy on the ground.

"It's alright. Xiao Qiu, master will teach him a lesson on your behalf!"

The middle-aged man caressed the little boy's head lovingly. His attention then moved to the boy and girl on the ground.

"You two are just beggars and yet you dare to hit someone. You guys really do not know where you stand!"

The middle-aged man stared harshly at the boy kneeling on the floor before turning to his disciple and saying, "Xiao Qiu, hit him the same way he hit you. If he still dares to retaliate, master will teach him a lesson!"

"Yes, master!"

The little boy stared at the boy on the ground and remarked, "With my master here, I'll be the one hitting you!" He clenched his fist and threw it towards the boy on the ground immediately.

The boy that was kneeling down could sense the ill intents of the surrounding people. He gritted his teeth and used his hands to protect himself while the little boy attacked him. However, he didn't dare to retaliate!

"Huh? You are pretty good at taking a beating!"

Seeing that his disciple's fist was blocked, the middle-aged man was surprised and looked at the boy on the ground.

"You're just a beggar! A beggar without parents! Yet you dare to hit me! I'm going to beat you to death! Tsk!" As the little boy spoke, he threw punch after punch at the boy on the ground.

"Don't hit my brother. You are a bad guy!"

The girl beside the boy on the ground was furious as she grabbed the little boy's hand.

"How dare you scratch me? I'm going to hit you! Hit you!"

Seeing that the girl left a scratch wound on his arm, the little boy kicked towards the girl furiously.

"Don't kick my sister!"

The boy on the ground pounced towards the little boy once again.

"How dare you retaliate?"

The middle-aged man threw a kick towards the boy on the ground after seeing him retaliate.

Bam!

The middle-aged man's kick landed on the boy and sent him lying on the ground, grimacing in pain.

"Brother!"

Beside them, the exclamation of the girl sounded.

"Die!"

Within the hotel, while Wang Xian was still hesitating, he saw the incident at the entrance of the hotel. A cold look flashed in his eyes.

He moved like a phantom and jumped down from the sixth floor of the hotel without catching the attention of anyone.

"I'll ask my master to beat you to death for hitting me!"

The arrogant voice from that little boy sounded once again.

"Alright, Xiao Qiu. Don't be so calculative with a beggar. He's not qualified yet!" the middle-aged man smiled and said to the little boy.

Wang Xian looked coldly at the middle-aged man, the little boy and the group that came with them. He walked ahead towards the boy on the ground.

"Brother, are you alright?"

"I'm fine, your brother is fine!"

The boy shook his head and forced out a pitiful smile.

"You are pretty good!"

At this moment, an emotionless voice sounded. The boy turned around and was instantly overwhelmed by joy.

He looked agitatedly at Wang Xian as excitement filled his face.

Chapter 263: Beat Him Up

"Will you accept me as a disciple?"

The boy's face was filled with thrill. He immediately knelt beside Wang Xian with a pair of eyes filled with anticipation.

"Stand up!"

Wang Xian looked at him and patted his shoulder gently.

"Master, if you don't take me as your disciple, I...will not stand up!" The boy said to Wang Xian with some obstinacy.

"That would depend on your performance!"

Wang Xian looked at the boy with a smile on his face. He repeated, "Stand up now!"

With some hesitation, the boy stood up slowly. He supported his numb feet with his hands before he picked his sister up from the ground.

Wang Xian nodded and turned to the middle-aged man and the other boy. Then, he told the boy beside him, "Duel him. Hit him just like how he did to you!"

"Master...he..."

The boy looked at the middle-aged man and hesitated.

"It's okay!"

Wang Xian shook his head and continued, "He has a backing, so do you!"

"Yes, Master!"

The boy brightened up his eyes as he nodded his head with force. He looked at the other boy and walked towards him.

"I, Xiao Ran, want to challenge you!"

The boy walked towards the other boy and spoke with seriousness.

"Hur?"

The boy who was talking to the middle-aged man was slightly stunned. That middle-aged man was also taken aback as he looked at Xiao Ran.

Xiao Ran was earnest as he repeated to the boy again, "I want to challenge you!"

"Haha, a little beggar wants to challenge other people. I think you can get lost and return to your begging!"

The middle-aged man found Xiao Ran funny as he teased him.

"You're an adult. Don't meddle around in the kids' affairs!"

Wang Xian looked at the middle-aged man as he spoke coldly.

"Oh?" The middle-aged man spun his head and looked at Wang Xian with coldness flashing in his eyes.

"Is your disciple afraid to answer his challenge?" Wang Xian looked impassively at the middle-aged man.

"Ha! Just a beggar. I'm afraid my disciple will kill him by accident!"

The middle-aged man threw a disdainful look at Wang Xian. He then looked at his disciple. "Xiao Qiu, show them your Kungfu that you learned from me. Teach that little beggar a lesson!"

"Yes, Master!"

The boy nodded as he straightened his body and got into his ready stance.

Xiao Ran's expression turned cold. Despite his young age, his eyes were sharp when he stared at the boy. "I'm going to attack!"

"Show them what you've learned from me!"

The middle-aged man smiled and spoke to the boy.

"Hehe, what a spoiled child!"

Wang Xian looked at that boy with an aloof expression.

"Lad, watch your mouth!" said the middle-aged man to Wang Xian.

Whoo!

HA!

Just then, Xiao Ran launched his attack at that boy with a frail-looking body.

The young boy let out a cry as he attacked Xiao Ran in his stance.

Bam!

However, the boy was obviously not of the same level as Xiao Ran in terms of their strength and experience.

Bam!

Xiao Ran's fist punched forcefully on the boy, sending his teeth flying out as he landed on the ground.

He did not put up any resistance at all. It was a combat of different classes.

"What? How dare you hurt my disciple. You're asking for your doom!"

When the middle-aged man saw his disciple landing on the ground instantly, he was infuriated.

He reached out his arm to grab Xiao Ran.

Standing at the side, Wang Xian narrowed his eyes and stretched out his hand to grab the middle-aged man by his arm!

Ah!

The middle-aged man let out a scream. He turned his head and stared at Wang

Xian in horror.

"Do...you want to die?!"

"I think it is you who wants to die!"

Wang Xian looked at him indifferently.

"Master!"

Xiao Ran walked over with a thrilled face when he saw Wang Xian stopping the middle-aged man's attack.

"If someone hits you, just fight with him. Don't be afraid!" said Wang Xian to him impassively.

"Yes, Master!"

Xiao Ran nodded his head with force.

"Let me go!" the middle-aged yelled in embarrassment. Wang Xian was still gripping his arm. No matter how he tried to shake him off, he could not struggle out of his grip.

Ka Ka Ka!

Wang Xian looked at the middle-aged man emotionlessly. He moved his arm, and a bone-cracking sound was heard.

Ah!

The middle-aged let out a painful cry.

"Fang Liang!"

"Junior Brother!"

At this time, six middle-aged men who heard the scream turned their heads immediately. They were waiting to fetch someone when they realized the boy was lying on the floor and the middle-aged man was in pain. All of them were exasperated.

"Xiaoqiu!"

"Junior brother, are you all right?"

Six of them walked over and asked with nasty looks.

"How dare you cripple my arm!"

The middle-aged man was shaking as he glared daggers at Wang Xian with a darkened expression. His eyes were filled with killing intent.

"What?!"

"You want to die?"

The group of middle-aged men turned and glared at Wang Xian immediately.

"No, I think you guys are asking for it!"

Just then, a cold voice suddenly cut the air. Daunting oppression enveloped the group of middle-aged men instantly.

"This..."

For a moment, terror struck the middle-aged men. They turned around with shaken bodies.

Several people walked over from the hotel entrance. Two middle-aged men were leading at the front as one of them was giving them cold stares.

Daunting oppression exuded from his body.

"Such oppression. This is...Inborn!"

"Inborn Expert! He's an Inborn Expert!"

A hint of terror flashed across their faces while looking extremely dreadful.

"Hehe!"

Wang Xian cast a contemptuous glance at them. He then turned to Xiao Ran and his sister and gestured for them to walk away.

"They... turned out to be..."

The middle-aged man whose arm was crippled was shivering. He stared angrily at Wang Xian.

"Sect Leader is here!"

"Sect Leader and Vice Sect Leader are here!"

At this moment, the group of middle-aged men looked into the distance with shaken bodies and embarrassed looks. Faint glimmers flashed in their eyes.

They looked at Wang Xian and his clique with ruthless expressions.

"Stop right there, all of you!"

"You're leaving after you wounded Xiao Qiu and my junior brother. I'll make you pay a hefty price for this!"

"Inborn Experts. Do you think you can bully us just because you're an Inborn Expert? It's not going to work today even if you have Inborn Experts!"

Several middle-aged men bellowed coldly at Wang Xian and his clique with radiance flashing in their eyes.

"Oh?"

Wang Xian drew his lips when he heard their cold bellows.

He spun around, gazing at them with a smile on his face.

Mo Yuan and Mo Qinglong threw them emotionless glances with impatient looks.

"Qing Mu Sect is not afraid of you. If you do not give us an explanation today, you'll not leave this place easily!"

Several middle-aged men's barking drew the attention of another group of people who were walking towards them from a short distance.

They wore green uniforms with two elders walking in the middle of the group.

The old man took a majestic gait as he exuded imposing demeanor.

Their eyes were sharp as they turned their attention over here.

Chapter 264: Comparing Number Of Inborn Experts?

"Oh?"

Wang Xian and the rest stopped and stared coldly at the few middle-aged men who shouted at them.

"You can't possibly leave like this today. How dare you cripple our junior brother's arm? We will definitely make you pay twice!"

The group of middle-aged men stared harshly at them after catching sight of their Sect Leader and members walking over.

"Oh? Hehe!"

Mo Yuan looked at the group of middle-aged men and noticed another group of people from Qing Mu Sect walking towards them. His expression turned callous.

Just as the group of middle-aged men was feeling pompous while waiting for the Sect Leader, Mo Yuan suddenly moved.

He disappeared from his original location suddenly as one could only see a black shadow sweeping by.

Argh!

Shrieks of pain propagated through the air.

"You guys... You dare..."

All the middle-aged men were stunned. They looked blankly at Mo Yuan, their eyes filled with horror and disbelief.

"What?"

The group from Qing Mu Sect that was walking towards the incident was shocked. The two old men walking at the front of the group were clearly infuriated.

"How dare you injure the disciples of our Qing Mu Sect! You must be seeking your own demise!" shouted the old man as he led the group over swiftly with his eyes fixed on Mo Yuan.

"How dare you show arrogance in front of us? Do you guys believe you are qualified to do so?" Mo Yuan had completely ignored the approaching group of people from Qing Mu Sect while staring at the few middle-aged men that he had crippled completely with contempt.

"YOU... You..."

The few middle-aged men were gripped by fear. They had never expected themselves to be crippled because of some brazen words. Moreover, they were crippled right in front of the experts from their own sect!

Feeling their crushed Elixir Field, they were desolated.

With their Elixir Field crushed, they would become ordinary people. This made them feel despair.

Swish swish swish!

At this moment, the people from Qing Mu Sect had surrounded Wang Xian and the group. Two old men standing in the middle of the circle looked extremely gloomy.

"Sect Leaders, he... He crippled all of us! He..."

A middle-aged man reported to the two old men while grimacing in pain.

"If you say another word, I'll slaughter you!" said Mo Yuan coldly as he stared at the few middle-aged men.

"YOU..."

The few of them were immediately frightened.

"You guys aren't even going to show us, Qing Mu Sect, the slimmest of respect! Great! Great!"

The two old men turned their heads over and stared at Mo Yuan. From them, strong killing intent and the aura of Inborn experts shrouded towards Mo Yuan.

To attack their disciples right before their eyes...this was completely disrespectful to Qing Mu Sect.

As experts, they would naturally want them to pay a huge price for their actions!

"Sect Leaders, you have to back us up. We have two Inborn experts while they only have one. Yet, they dare to mistreat us!"

Beside them, a middle-aged man pointed at Wang Xian and the group angrily while remarking.

"We will definitely back you up on this incident. Since they dare to cripple you, I'll let them pay a price a hundred times more!"

The two old men glowered at Mo Yuan. "If you don't give us a good explanation today, we will put you down forever even if you are an Inborn expert!"

"Two Inborn experts?" Wang Xian looked towards the two Sect Leaders of Qing Mu Sect and smiled mockingly.

"Are you guys comparing the number of Inborn experts?" asked Wang Xian in a ridiculing tone.

"Within the Underworld, the strong rule. Those who die because they offend the strong will not be pitied!"

One of the old men stared at Wang Xian coldly and demanded strongly, "I'll give you five seconds to give us a satisfactory answer. Don't you ever harbor the idea that you could offend the Qing Mu Sect just because you have an Inborn expert with you!"

The two old men put on an arrogant front as they stared gloomily at them.

"You want a satisfactory answer?"

Mo Qinglong smiled at them mockingly. Suddenly, the atmosphere around him changed. A horrifying and stifling aura shrouded towards the Sect Leader of Qing Mu Sect.

Mo Yuan also released his aura as he pushed back.

"Are you satisfied with this answer?" Mo Qinglong looked plainly at the old men with disdain.

"Hehe! If you still aren't satisfied...!"

Miracle Doctor Blood Man walked out slowly and stared coldly at the group from Qing Mu Sect. "Let's have a fight, and your death will really not be pitied by anyone!"

As he spoke, blood started flowing throughout his tuxedo. A strong scent of blood propagated towards the two old men from Qing Mu Sect.

"What?"

When the two Sect Leaders saw Mo Qinglong and Miracle Doctor Blood Man stepping forward and directing their strong aura towards them, they were horrified.

Rumble!

At this moment, another violent aura shot over.

"This is bad!"

Facing the pressure from four Inborn experts, the two old men were petrified and this was clearly evident in their expressions.

Perspiration covered their foreheads suddenly as they staggered back subconsciously.

As for the disciples that had surrounded them, their bodies had completely gone stiff.

The pressure from the four Inborn experts made them feel like there was a mountain weighing down on them. Their bodies couldn't help but shiver slightly.

Bam! Bam!

A few weaker disciples couldn't withstand the horrifying and dense pressure as they fell to the ground.

"I'm... sorry. If our Qing Mu Sect has offended you guys, please forgive us!"

The two Sect Leaders of Qing Mu Sect were flushed while looking at Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan, Maniac Ji and Miracle Doctor Blood Man with horror.

They had never expected the other party to have four Inborn experts! Four of them!

They still thought they could have easily suppressed the other Inborn expert, as there were two of them. However, to their surprise, the other party had four Inborn experts!

That's twice theirs.

This... Who the hell did these disciples offend?

The two Sect Leaders of Qing Mu Sect immediately begged for mercy. Four Inborn experts could easily annihilate their Qing Mu Sect.

"Hehe. Since we have given you a satisfactory answer, should you give us a satisfactory answer too?" Mo Qinglong said mockingly while staring at the two Sect Leaders.

"We..."

The two old men looked conflicted as they gritted their teeth while withstanding the aura from the four Inborn experts.

The surrounding disciples of Qing Mu Sect were horrified.

As for those few middle-aged men, they were completely dumbfounded and lay flat on the ground.

They had never expected themselves to draw such horrifying enemies because of a spoilt child.

Four Inborn experts!

"I'll give you five seconds to consider!"

Mo Qinglong returned the words back to the two old men.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The two old men were bitter. They gritted their teeth, exchanged glances and waved their hands.

Streams of energy fell on the few middle-aged men that were previously crippled.

Argh!

Shrieks of horror sounded once again. The few middle-aged men shivered violently. Their eyes were filled with despair and desolation.

Their Elixir Fields were crushed previously and now their limbs were crippled by their Sect Leaders.

This made them feel like they had fallen into hell in a day.

If only we had not halted them arrogantly!

Remorse and regret overwhelmed the group of middle-aged men.

If they had not halted this group of horrifying people, neither their Elixir Field nor their limbs would be crippled.

Misery filled their faces.

The strong ruled the Underworld after all.

If you offended an expert when you did not have the strength, your outcome would be devastating.

Chapter 265: Sacred Clan

The crowd gathered before the hotel drew the attention of many people.

In particular, today, when the news of Flame Palace getting annihilated had spread around. Numerous powerful families and sects in the surrounding rushed over here.

Those who arrived early were surprised by what they saw at the hotel entrance.

"Hur? Isn't that Miracle Doctor Wang? And a few Inborn Experts around him?"

"Sure enough. I've said Miracle Doctor Wang's subordinates were those who were pit against Flame Palace during their pilgrimage. Looks like it's the truth."

"Miracle Doctor Wang seems to be on good terms with those Inborn Experts!"

"That is Qing Mu Sect. Why did they provoke Miracle Doctor Wang and his people. Are they digging their graves? Didn't they know that Wang Xian and his people were good enough to go against the Sacred Sect?"

"Seems like some Qing Mu Sect disciples offended Wang Xian and his group. Sigh, Qing Mu Sect is really courting their own doom. Given the strength of Miracle Doctor Wang and those few around him, they are comparable to a first-class force!"

"Miracle Doctor Wang has a strong network. Qing Mu Sect only has two Inborn Experts, and yet they actually provoked him?"

Most of those who arrived early had attended the Pilgrimage of Flame Palace. The group of spectators whispered their comments among themselves when they saw what happened.

When the Qing Mu Sect disciples vaguely overheard the surrounding conversations from the center spot, their faces went green.

Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown.

They might not have paid attention to this name before. But after what had happened yesterday, this name had already propagated around the surrounding provinces.

He was the Miracle Doctor who dared to pit himself against the Flame Palace, to the extent of embarrassing them.

Now, the Qing Mu Sect actually offended such an existence?

Damm, he could even pit himself against a Sacred Sect, not to mention a Qing Mu Sect.

Five to six Qing Mu Sects could not even match up to a Flame Palace.

"Gentlemen, are you satisfied?"

The two Qing Mu Sect Leaders were looking dreadful. They lowered their heads and asked this with respect.

"Hehe, why go to such extent?"

Wang Xian was sarcastic as he walked ahead, "Let's go!"

Wow!

The rest of the surrounding Qing Mu Sect disciples hurriedly gave way as they saw them off with fear and respect.

"You'll be my unofficial disciple from now on!"

Wang Xian spoke to Xiao Ran indifferently.

"Thank you, master. My name is Xiao Ran. This is my sister, Liu Mengxin!"

"Oh? Is she your biological sister?"

"Yes, master. I followed the last name of my father while my sister followed my mother's!"

"Sister, the white-colored light you released the other day was impressive. Can you teach me? I want to become your disciple!"

Xiao Ran and Liu Mengxin were elated as they talked to Wang Xian and Sun Lingxiu.

The group of figures and their voices slowly diminished.

Qing Mu Sect disciples heaved a deep sigh of relief behind them. They were gasping for breath.

The two Qing Mu Sect Leaders also wiped the sweat from their foreheads.

"How did they even provoke such a domineering existence!"

They looked at the middle-aged men who were lying on the floor with cold eyes.

Everyone was commenting on it.

...

A large luxury bus was driving from Flame City to Rivertown at a rapid speed.

Wang Xian was hugging manuals in the car.

These manuals were taken from those Fire God Denomination people which included Cultivation Arts of Flame Palace and Fire God Denomination.

They were the top-notch manuals.

But they were of no use to Wang Xian. He cast a glance at Xiao Ran who looked reserved while standing beside him.

"I think you also practiced fire-attributed manual? Your Art of Cultivation is great!" said Wang Xian, looking at him.

"Yes, master!" Xiao Ran answered as he nodded. But he quickly lowered his head. "It was from my father's family."

"Family?" Wang Xian nodded. "Where did you stay?"

"Shang Jing; Xiao Family of Shang Jing. We came from a huge family known as the Sacred Clan!" Xiao Ran answered without the slightest hesitation or concealment.

"Shang Jing Sacred Clan?"

An unexpected radiance flashed in his eyes.

Shang Jing, the capital of the country, used to be the ancient city where Emperors lived. Now, it had become one of the cities with the strongest foundations in the country.

Shang Jing, a place known to have gathered hidden talents and experts.

In this country, Sacred Sect did not represent a sect, but rather, a Sacred Clan.

However, Sacred Clans were rather scarce as compared to Saint-class sects.

Besides, every Sacred Clan was a powerful family with hundreds of years of legacy. The disciples in the clan could hit more than thousands!

Sacred Clans were not any weaker than Sacred Sects, they were even more united and stronger.

"Memorize these fire-attributed Cultivation Arts!"

As Wang Xian spoke, he grabbed Xiao Ran's arm and examined him.

His physique was considered good, but it was still far off compared to Inborn Constitution.

But Wang Xian did not unblock his eight extraordinary meridians with his Dragon Energy. He had his own plan.

Xiao Ran was only his unofficial disciple, and he would not turn him into a dragon. So Xiao Ran was just a human disciple.

"Yes, master!"

Xiao Ran was showing his excitement as he nodded his head hard to Wang Xian. He took the manuals and began his reading at the side.

Wang Xian nodded with satisfaction. He fidgeted his finger with a ball of blue flames dancing on it.

Even though you're just an unofficial disciple, I'll make you rise above the Sacred Clans. As an incompetent master, this flame is my gift for you!

Wang Xian pondered to himself as he looked to the other side.

Liu Mengxin was sitting beside Sun Lingxiu, watching her with a pair of watery eyes.

This lass wished to possess magical power so that she could treat her brother's injuries in the future.

Sun Lingxiu examined her body before she finally agreed to it.

The bus quickly came back to the city. Maniac Ji bid goodbye to Wang Xian with respect.

After witnessing Wang Xian's capabilities and strength, he was in complete awe.

He could not imagine how Wang Xian could transform a ball into a Divine Dragon and kill eight powerful Inborn Experts.

"Old Mo, there's another villa not far from here. Go and buy that villa, so that Xiao Ran, his sister, and you guys can stay over there," Wang Xian said to Mo Qinglong.

"Yes, Young Master!"

His villa was getting crowded. Wang Xian did not want too many people to disturb his happy sexual life.

"Lass, I roamed around the world for nearly a century. Anyone who sees me must address me as "Sui Huang" in respect. After you marry into the Sacred Clan Sui Family, no one will dare to bully you. All the guys in the Sui Family are outstanding. You can take your pick then!"

"You can marry anyone you like. I'll make the decision for you. In the future, everyone in the Sui Family will treat you with respect!"

"Also, I'll let you have a taste of my strength. Don't be alarmed. Haha!"

Just when Wang Xian and the group of people were approaching the villa, an old man's elated voice was heard from it.

Subsequently, overspreading oppression exuded from it.

Chapter 266: A Powerful Old Man

Rumble!

A strong aura formed a field around the surroundings.

The field was incomparably frightening with immense energy that sent chills down their spines.

Wang Xian and the group were shocked to experience such a powerful field the moment they approached the entrance of the villa.

Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and the group instantly sharpened their vigilance as they walked in carefully.

Wang Xian frowned slightly and was shocked by what he was seeing.

At this very moment, the entire space in front of him seemed to be inside a huge furnace. Standing on the outside, he could still sense a scorching sensation.

"This aura... Could it be a Dan Realm expert?"

Mo Qinglong was astonished as his gaze fixed on the person in front of him.

"How is it? Do you know how powerful I am now? Hey, girl, if you marry into my Sui Family, not only will I give you huge authority, but I will also give you powerful strength! Do consider it!"

The voice of an old man sounded once again. From his tone, one could tell the arrogance and haughtiness.

Standing outside, Wang Xian heard that voice as he walked slowly into the villa.

Once he was in the backyard, he saw an old man in a yellow robe standing in the middle of the backyard.

In front of him, Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and Elder Fang were standing there, looking at the old man in shock.

The old man stared intensely at Guan Shuqing and it was clear that his previous words were for her.

"Xiao Xian!"

Seeing Wang Xian walking in, Guan Shuqing immediately ran towards him with joy.

Huh?

The old man frowned upon seeing how Guan Shuqing reacted. He turned around and started scrutinizing Wang Xian.

"What's the matter? Who is this old fogey?"

Wang Xian glanced emotionlessly at the old man in a yellow robe before asking Guan Shuqing.

Guan Shuqing stuck her tongue out playfully and answered, "This man is our benefactor."

"Benefactor?" Wang Xian was taken aback as he knitted his eyebrows.

"I didn't tell you about this when you called in the morning because I was afraid you would be worried about us. I'll tell you the details in a while," mumbled Guan Shuqing softly.

"Hey kid, you better choose your words wisely."

The old man squinted his eyes and observed Wang Xian. He was displeased about Wang Xian's use of "old fogey." He looked to Guan Shuqing and continued, "Hey girl, is he your boyfriend? He has nothing that stands out. Any kid from my Sui Family would be more outstanding than him. Hmm. I'll get my kids over the next two days for you to take a look!"

"Grandpa, I already have Xiao Xian. Please don't try to matchmake me with others or I will really be angry." Upon hearing the old man's comments, Guan Shuqing replied discontentedly.

"Girl, I'm doing all this for your own good. With your talents, you would not be at the same level as him in the future. You guys belong to separate worlds," the old man reminded Guan Shuqing immediately.

"Alright, old fogey. If you are to call the members of your Sui Family over, I'll let them remain in Rivertown forever!" Wang Xian heard the old men and remarked emotionlessly.

If it wasn't for Guan Shuqing saying that he was their benefactor, Wang Xian would likely have turned this old fogey into a dead fogey.

Tsk!

The old man was taken aback by Wang Xian's remarks. His smile disappeared slowly as he stared at Wang Xian.

A scorching hot and terrifying aura that resembled a furnace gathered above Wang Xian and shrouded him.

With a single thought, the old man could let it fall.

An ordinary person would melt under such an aura.

Even so, Wang Xian still felt as though there was a sun above him and the pressure was incomparably scary.

He frowned slightly and stared coldly at the old man. A stream of dragon power pierced through the furnace above his head and towards the old man.

"It seems like this old man is seeking his death!"

Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan, Sun Lingxiu and Miracle Doctor Blood Man surrounded the old man and locked down on him with their aura.

"What?"

The old man was shocked and looked at Wang Xian in disbelief. Following which, he glanced at Mo Qinglong, Sun Lingxiu and the rest.

His expression was constantly changing.

The aura emitted by the young man in front of him had smashed through his field easily. This greatly impressed him.

Field... This was his field! And the aura from this young man... This, this...

Besides Wang Xian, four people were surrounding him. Not a single one of them was weak either.

This is just a small Rivertown... How can this be!

The old man was thinking constantly as his expression changed. After tens of seconds, his mouth twitched a little and a smile appeared on his face once again. "Haha, I never expected a small Rivertown to be hiding so many experts. I'm Sui Huang. Sorry for the intrusion! It's fate that brought us together!"

As the old man spoke with smiles and in a light-hearted tone, the aura around him changed.

It was as though the intense atmosphere from before had not existed at all.

Wang Xian looked emotionlessly at the old man and retracted his aura.

"Haha, girl. You are indeed someone I have high regard for. Even your boyfriend is so incredible. I can tell that you two are truly in love with each other and will definitely live together for an entire lifetime."

The old man laughed and maintained a sincere smile. "However, I really think highly of your talents. I, Sui Huang, sincerely hope to take you in as my disciple."

Guan Shuqing was taken aback but was more shocked by how fast the old man's attitude had changed.

Wang Xian took a further glance at the old man before saying to Guan Shuqing, "Let's go. Back to the room!"

Hmm.

The old man stood in the middle of the backyard. Seeing them walking into the villa, his mouth twitched a little.

Damn it! How can a small Rivertown have someone so horrifying. Moreover, he's still so young. Did I live my hundred years in vain?

The old man's eyebrows twitched constantly.

I had thought of getting this girl to marry into the Sui Family. Blood ties and family relationships are always better to tie her down. Now, I can only go for the best alternative. I must definitely take her in as my disciple!

The old man revealed a determined look. The next moment, he smiled and followed the group into the villa.

"What kinds of danger did you guys encounter yesterday?" Wang Xian asked Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and Elder Fang caringly.

"A few Half-step to Inborn Realm experts ambushed us. Sect Leader Tang conjectured that they might be from the Flame Palace," answered Elder Fang.

"They practiced Fire attribute Art of Cultivation and are likely to be experts at the Half-step to Inborn Realm!"

At this moment, the voice of the old man sounded once again. He looked to Wang Xian and continued with a smile, "Oh brother, you might not know about this. The situation was really perilous."

"Four to five Half-step to Inborn experts cornered them. That Sect Leader of a small sect couldn't even deal with one Half-step to Inborn expert. Just as they were all about to be killed, I happened to be nearby. I stepped in immediately and saved them. If it wasn't for me, this matter would have been more dangerous."

Elder Fang nodded his head speechlessly. The incident was just as the old man had described.

"Flame Palace?"

Wang Xian frowned slightly and looked to the old man to thank him. "Thank you for extending your help to save them!"

"Aiyoh, you don't have to. If you would like to express your gratitude, let your girlfriend...in other words, that girl...be my disciple!"

"Brother, please don't take this the wrong way. I'm talking about simply taking her as a disciple. My kids could never match up to you. Let me take the girl as my disciple and I'll guide her diligently and groom her to be an expert!"

This old man was trying to get something by harping on his previous assistance!

Chapter 267: Death of Dragonians (1)

Guan Shuqing, Xiao Yu, and the rest of them looked at the old man speechlessly.

The old man came with domineering strength; he was prideful and acted like a child.

When he came to their rescue, he marked Guan Shuqing, saying he would find a boyfriend for her so that she could marry into the Sui Family.

Yet, he wanted to take her as a disciple now. His frequent inconsistency was a mismatch with his image as an expert. Hence, they were speechless about it.

Yet, he was rather cute.

After all, this old man was their benefactor.

Wang Xian also looked at the old man with nothing to say.

The old man had no dignity and temper like an expert. Instead, he seemed more like a rogue by trying to gain returns from the debt of gratitude.

But Wang Xian could not comment on anything.

"I don't think she needs your guidance," Wang Xian said without any excitement in his voice as he did not have a good first impression of this old fellow.

"Why not? I have decades of teaching experience. Several of my disciples are now experts in some regions. I have vast teaching experience, and you can't compare me to any average person."

"I have all the resources and treasures for cultivation. Oh right," the old man said as he fished out something from his pocket with smiles. "Lass, look...what's this? Look!"

"This is the elixir that I refined, Muscle Flex Elixir. After taking a pill, your skin will be as smooth as a baby. Back in those years, the pretty girls in all of Shang Jing were crazy about my Muscle Flex Elixirs. They are priceless. Come, try it!"

As the old man spoke, he took out more pills and handed one each to Elder Fang, Xiao Yu, and Sun Lingxiu.

Sun Lingxiu held it in her hand as the bright energy flashed across. With smiles on her face, she said, "Thank you!"

"You're welcome. My forte is refining elixirs. Refining elixirs is putting various spiritual grasses together to refine more effective elixirs. Lass, if you accept me as your teacher, you can refine Muscle Flex Elixirs and beauty elixirs!"

The old man boasted to Guan Shuqing.

"Really?"

Guan Shuqing's eyes glimmered as she was tempted.

Every girl pursues a youthful appearance.

"Of course. Why would I cheat a bunch of lasses? Become my disciple, and you can have as many elixirs as you want in the future. You could even maintain your current beauty even at the age of fifty to sixty years old."

The old man continued to encourage her with eagerness.

He did not hesitate to reveal what he was capable of just like how he wanted Guan Shuqing to be married into the Sui Family.

Wang Xian smiled at the side. He had also discovered the uniqueness of Guan Shuqing's physique in recent days.

He was speculating whether this had anything to do with mating with his dragon body.

"Shuqing, you can decide on your own!"

Wang Xian did not make any decision for her since the old man, Sui Huang, had formidable strength.

Judging from his look, he seemed genuine in offering to take Guan Shuqing as his disciple.

"Eh..."

Guan Shuqing hesitated.

"Lass, what are you waiting for? An invincible and caring teacher is right before you!"

The old man stared at Guan Shuqing and spoke anxiously.

"Eh, I don't want to leave Rivertown..."

"You don't have to leave Rivertown. This is a trivial matter. I'm used to roaming around. I can settle down in Rivertown from now on."

"But...I still have to go to school."

"It's okay. Given your talent, it will be sufficient if you cultivate after school every day.

"I...I..."

Guan Shuqing continued to hesitate as she could not make up her mind.

"Lass, this is the gift from your master. You'll accompany me to Shang Jing a few days from now for a formal ceremony of disciple acceptance. Don't worry. It will take at most two days!"

Upon seeing the hesitating Guan Shuqing, the old man took out a bangle from his pocket.

The bangle was fiery red in color with a phoenix on it.

"This is the Flaming Phoenix Bangle and is activated by fire attributions. It can form a fire ring during attacks. If you struck unexpectedly, an Inborn Expert would be bound to be seriously injured. Disciple, wear this on your hand!"

The old man self-proclaimed himself as the master when he handed the gift over.

Guan Shuqing took it without realizing it.

"Haha, lass. Now you have to address me as your master," the old man shouted with excitement.

Wang Xian smiled with no comments. He looked at Xiao Ran, "Come over here. As my unofficial disciple, I'll also gift you a thing."

"Yes, Master!"

Xiao Ran nodded and walked over immediately.

Wang Xian flicked his finger, and a sapphire flame emerged from his hand. He encompassed it with Dragon Energy and injected it into Xiao Ran's body.

"This is...!"

The old man stared with eyes agape. He watched the sapphire flame in Wang Xian's hand with disbelief.

"Heavenly Flame. It's the Heavenly Flame!"

The Heavenly Flame entered Xiao Ran's Elixir Field. Wang Xian moved his palm slightly, and the Dragon Ball emerged as it slowly suspended itself above Xiao Ran.

"We will be using spiritual inferno to refine your body. You'll circulate your Internal Energy to integrate with the blue flame. Use the blue flame to replace other fire elements. Hence, it will be painful for you, so bite through it!" said Wang Xian to Xiao Ran impassively.

Xiao Ran nodded his head with force. "Master, I'm not afraid of pain!"

"Good. Sit on the floor with your legs crossed," said Wang Xian. The Dragon Ball grew to be basketball-size slowly as it suspended above Xiao Ran's head.

Steams of fire energy flowed into his body to remove its impurities!

"This...is Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball!"

The old man opened his eyes wide with shock on his face. His expression changed drastically.

"Such a badass!"

The old man looked at Wang Xian and blurted out the words uncontrollably.

Everyone around him was speechless when they heard it coming from an expert.

"Disciple, this sapphire flame is not suitable for refining elixirs. I'll get you Heavenly Flame that is suitable for it. We also have such a Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball too!"

The old man peered at this other person's disciple and assured Guan Shuqing.

"Using spiritual inferno to refine the body is way too painful. I have a way. You don't even have to look for Heavenly Flame because I have my own plans next time!"

As the girlfriend of Guan Shuqing, he would make her turn into a dragon in the future.

Once she became a dragon, the Heavenly Flame would not be of much use to her.

This was the reason why he did not pass Guan Shuqing the Heavenly Flame.

The old man twitched his mouth as he glared at Wang Xian with dissatisfaction. He muttered, "She's my disciple!"

"Master, he's my boyfriend!" Guan Shuqing whispered softly beside the old man.

The old man's face turned black and he made no further remark as he was indignant.

The thing is, the entire Shang Jing would get excited if Sui Huang declared he was going to accept a disciple. But now, not only did he have to coax his disciple, he also had to consider her boyfriend's opinion.

Damm, if it were not for her boyfriend being such a badass, would he be humiliated?

"Xiao Xian, is he the disciple you just accepted?" asked Guan Shuqing with her curiosity piqued. She came over to Wang Xian and observed Xiao Ran whose cheeks were flushed with redness as he endured the tremendous pain.

"He's not bad."

Wang Xian nodded with a smile as he explained briefly to them.

On the other hand, Mo Yuan's expression changed as soon as he answered a call.

Chapter 268: Death of Dragonians (2)

The villa got livelier with more people in it and Xiao Ran was still undergoing the baptism by the Dragon Ball.

He would at least be a Level 6 Martial Artist after being baptized by the energy of the Dragon Ball combined with the Heavenly Flame, Tranquil Blue Flame.

For a teenager of fifteen years old to be a Level 6 Martial Artist, the talent could easily be considered demon-like.

Even the Saints and Saintess from the Sacred Sect or Sacred Clans might not have such capability at this age.

Sui Huang dragged Guan Shuqing aside to explain to her about cultivation and refining elixir pills.

Mo Yuan respectfully walked to Mo Qinglong and reported an incident.

"We couldn't get in contact with them. They might have encountered a mishap?"

Mo Qinglong frowned upon hearing Mo Yuan. He looked at Wang Xian who was talking to Xiao Yu before replying, "Investigate this matter thoroughly. If they encountered mishaps, find the culprit!" A tint of brutality flickered across Mo Qinglong's eyes as he spoke.

At noon, the whole group had lunch together. Sui Huang unabashedly sat down together with them. He even requested that Wang Xian provide him with a room in the villa so he could stay for a long while.

Naturally, he was mercilessly rejected by Wang Xian. Instead, Wang Xian allowed him to stay with Mo Qinglong and the rest in the neighboring villa.

There's no way he would let an old guy live in his villa and disrupt their lives.

In the afternoon, the group went to the top of the villa to take a break. Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan walked to Wang Xian and reported solemnly, "Young master, something bad has happened to two of our dragonians!"

"Huh?" Wang Xian, who was lying under the umbrella and looking at Guan Shuqing and Xiao Yu on the yacht a short distance away, was taken aback and sat up.

"What happened?" His eyebrows knitted a little as he looked at the duo and asked.

"Young Master, although the dragonians split off to roam the Underworld, we have been maintaining communication. The norm would be to communicate once every three days," said Mo Yuan.

He looked at Wang Xian before continuing. "Yesterday, we weren't able to contact two brothers of ours. The dragonians who are in charge investigated the matter and confirmed that they were met with an accident!"

"Two dragonians were met with an accident?"

Wang Xian was a little gloomy, and solemnness gleamed in his eyes.

The fifty dragonians were his most loyal subordinates. They had stayed with him since his rise.

And now, two of them had died.

Although asking them to roam the Underworld was risky to a certain extent in the first place, Wang Xian was still furious to learn about their deaths.

"Who killed them?" asked Wang Xian glumly.

"We don't know. We have not found out who the culprit was, but what we know is that they died during a mission." Mo Yuan shook his head and continued, "We have found the mission. It was a protection mission and the rewards were great."

Mo Qinglong handed Wang Xian a mobile phone.

Wang Xian took the phone and looked at the mission.

It looked just like any ordinary protection mission. The protection period was just two months but the reward was $200 million.

The reward was really handsome but the requirement for the strength of bodyguards was really high too. It requested Level 9 or stronger Martial Artists and there would be no reward if the mission failed.

A protection mission where a Level 9 Martial Artist would die in mission? Furthermore, with the capabilities of the dragonians, they wouldn't have to fear Half-Step to Inborn Realm experts! Wang Xian frowned as he read through the details of the mission.

"Considering the strength of Mo Ersan and Mo Sanyi, there's no way they could have been killed unless there were five to six Half-Step to Inborn Realm experts attacking them together, or an Inborn expert involved," Mo Qinglong continued. "According to the information we have gathered, there are two more Level 9 experts who accepted the mission. All of them died. My guess is that an Inborn expert is involved!"

"Do we have nothing on the enemy?" asked Wang Xian with a frown.

"We do not know yet. Perhaps the issuer of the mission and the one being protected might know something. We are currently investigating," replied Mo Qinglong.

"Investigate it thoroughly. We must definitely find the culprit and take revenge for our brothers!" Wang Xian ordered.

He didn't care who the enemy was or why they killed the two dragonians. This feud must be avenged.

"Yes, Young master!" Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan nodded their heads and left immediately to investigate the matter.

Wang Xian looked at the mission on the mobile phone again. The issuer of the mission wasn't hiding at all. His name was Tang Jiuchao, the richest man of Gui Province with assets of approximately $70 billion.

He was a hugely successful businessman. However, this mission wasn't protecting himself but his daughter.

Wang Xian sank into deep thought while reading about the mission. He noticed that Tang Jiuchao had issued a new mission yesterday.

He was hiring Half-Step to Inborn experts and the rewards were $500 million.

$500 million in rewards for two months was an exceptionally attractive mission.

Wang Xian had never had $500 million.

This amount might even tempt some Inborn experts.

"Master!" At this moment, Xiao Ran and his sister came and respectfully greeted Wang Xian.

"It's done?"

Wang Xian observed Xiao Ran's body attentively from head to toe as he revealed a satisfied look.

Level 6 Martial Artist! After undergoing the refining by the dragon ball, he now had the strength of a Level 6 Martial Artist.

Although his body was still lean, his complexion had changed substantially. His pupils had a tint of blue and his body had a drifting disposition.

Wang Xian smiled faintly and said, "Have something nutritious for the next few days."

"Oh yes," exclaimed Wang Xian as he looked at Sui Huang who was beside him. "Old man, aren't you well-versed in refining elixir pills? Take care of my disciple and refine some elixir pills for him. Feel free to use the spiritual grasses and medicine in the small garden. Make some for Shuqing too. Don't attempt to keep some for yourself!"

Sui Huang, who happened to be in the small garden observing the various spiritual grasses and medicines, was taken aback. The edge of his mouth twitched a little subconsciously.

"These spiritual medicines aren't to my liking!" replied Sui Huang.

"This..." The moment Sui Huang completed his previous sentence, he asked, "Brother, I'd like to ask you something. The attributes of these spiritual medicines are totally different. How did you manage to plant them together while ensuring they survive?"

Sui Huang was an alchemist and he knew a lot about spiritual medicines.

The Sui family also had a garden with spiritual medicines and grasses. There were even Level 6 spiritual medicines in his garden. However, the breeding of spiritual medicine was extremely troublesome with extremely stringent requirements for the environment.

However, spiritual medicine with fire attributes could be planted with spiritual medicine with water attributes in this place. That was darned amazing to him!

"I don't know. They just survived after I planted them there," answered Wang Xian emotionlessly before lying back on the chair.

Spiritual Medicine indeed had stringent requirements for its environment. However, Wang Xian just needed to inject them with Azure Dragon energy regularly for them to survive. Moreover, their growth would also be quicker with the nourishment of the Azure Dragon energy.

"If you have nothing to do, just rest or cultivate. As for the matter regarding cultivation, follow your master's girl. Also, listen to the teachings of this capable old man. He's someone with decades of experience," Wang Xian said to Xiao Ran.

Xiao Ran looked at his own master and the old man at the side before replying, "Yes, master!"

Damn it!

Sui Huang's face turned gloomy. You didn't answer my question when I asked you about breeding spiritual medicines. Yet, you are pushing your responsibilities of teaching your disciple to me?

Chapter 269: Vengeance

Wang Xian did not know how to teach at all. He did not have the capability, and he had a different cultivation system. Hence, he could not teach even if he wanted to.

Since a formidable expert was here, Wang Xian simply got Xiao Ran to follow Guan Shuqing's lessons.

He believed it would be better than teaching Xiao Ran himself.

After a relaxing afternoon, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan rushed back in the evening.

"How did it go?" Wang Xian asked as soon as he saw them enter.

"Young Master, it's a little tricky!"

Mo Qinglong frowned slightly. "According to the updates we've gotten, the richest man of Gui Province, Tang Jiuchao's, daughter seems to be a disciple from one of the Sacred Sects, Heavenly Sound Sect. They are now selecting their Saint and Saintess. As the Saint and Saintess, they have to experience the outside world and accumulate enough strength and experiences before they can become a Saint and Saintess."

"While Tang Jiuchao's daughter was roaming around, someone attempted to assassinate her. It may have been sent by her rivals from the same sect, or Tang Jiuchao's. After all, the more power his daughter gained, the lesser obstacles he had in his business!"

"So many parties are involved in this?"

Wang Xian frowned as it would be more complicated if Sacred Sect was involved.

Heavenly Sound Sect, unlike the newly promoted Flame Palace, had so many experts that even Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan had to be cautious.

"The assassins may not be from the Sacred Sect. They may be from some assassination organizations," Mo Qinglong added as he knit his eyebrows slightly. "If we want to take our revenge, we need to obtain some news from the daughter of Tang Jiuchao. Otherwise, it will be difficult to know who our enemies are!"

Radiance flickered in Wang Xian's eyes. "We must avenge them."

"Young Master, there's a way now. Mo Yuan and I accepted Tang Jiuchao's mission. We'll get close to his daughter for more information." said Mo Qinglong.

"I'll go with you guys!"

Wang Xian hesitated slightly before he made the decision. "Get the rest of the Dragonians to be careful. No more accidents."

"Yes, Young Master. I'll accept the mission tonight. Tomorrow, we'll rush to Gui Province." Mo Qinglong nodded.

"Great!"

Wang Xian nodded too. "We'll set off tomorrow."

"Yes!"

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan left while Wang Xian had his thoughts.

At night, Wang Xian gave a heads-up to Xiao Yu and Guan Shuqing that he would be busy for the next few days. He left Xiao Ran in Sui Huang's hands.

Hence, Sui Huang was indignant.

Damm you for taking me as your babysitter.

But the thought of having a formidable talent as his disciple stopped him from complaining after his mumblings.

The next morning, Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong, and Mo Yuan took a flight to Gui Province.

Sun Lingxiu, along with Miracle Doctor Blood Man, had officially started their business in Divine Dragon Medical Hall.

Gui Province was about a thousand kilometers away from Rivertown. It was a rather far and less economically-developed province.

There were more mountain ranges within the Gui Province. It was important to have mountains in terms of geographical location.

Tang Jiuchao was the richest man in Gui Province. The provincial capital of Gui Province was a not-so bustling second-tier city, Wu Mountains City.

Even though the city was not bustling, it was beautiful for a provincial capital.

"Young Master, according to the mission's instruction, we need to go to Tang Jiuchao's villa for a test!" said Mo Qinglong to Wang Xian.

"Do we still have to get tested?" Wang Xian was unsure as this was his first time accepting a mission.

"Yes, Young Master. They wanted to test if we're capable of the mission. After the test, there's another round of selection too!"

Mo Qinglong nodded. "A total $500 million commission for four selected candidates each. That's a total of $2 billion. Such a huge sum of money could tempt some of the first-class forces."

"Perhaps, some of the Inborn Experts will be here too."

$500 million commission was not a small amount to Level 9 or Inborn Experts. Hence, it was worth it for some of the disciples from powerful forces to take up this assignment.

Wang Xian nodded, and the trio took a cab to the Wu Mountains villa district within the city.

Wu Mountains City was named after the mountains. Dozens of huge mountain ranges were surrounded by luxurious villa zones.

Tang Jiuchao lived in one of the biggest villa zones in the region surrounded by lush trees and beautiful scenery.

The villa occupied half of the mountain top, and it could be considered a manor house.

The trio arrived at the villa entrance and identified themselves.

Seven to eight bodyguards dressed in black were inspecting everyone at the entrance.

Their waists seemed to be bulging with things.

Guns were still a threat to average Martial Artists. Even Inborn Experts could not block out intensive artillery bombardment.

Only those that were known as the Immortals of the Land, Dan Realm experts, could ignore those weapons.

But if it were a nuclear bomb, even Dan Realm experts would be blasted to death.

Wang Xian had no idea if there were any other special weapons to attack individual experts.

The security guards grew in numbers as they entered the villa. It was a huge villa that was seven to eight times larger than the one Wang Xian had near the sea.

"Only the richest man in the province could own this!"

Wang Xian sized the place up with a tint of shock on his face. This portrayed a true-blue rich man.

"Please come with me!"

The bodyguard in black led the way in front and came to the front of the villa.

There was a huge pool and an open space in front of it.

At this time, there were twenty to thirty people at the open space.

"Please wait over here. There are more people to come!" the bodyguard in black told them before he left.

"All of them are Half-step to Inborn Experts!"

Mo Qinglong swept his gaze around and spoke in a deep voice.

Even Half-step to Inborn Experts could not be free of this money temptation."

Wang Xian smiled and waited quietly at one corner.

"A lot of people came!"

Just then, another four men entered. As soon as they looked at the people around them, they had a taunting smile on their faces.

"Don't waste your time over here. We are clinching the mission. You guys...can go back."

Out of the four, one of the middle-aged men swept his gaze around and spoke with a beaming face.

Each one of them was holding a blade in his hands, dressed like a minority race as they exuded harsh and furious auras.

"Hur?"

The cocky voice drew the immediate annoyance of many people around.

Everyone was a Half-step to Inborn Expert...what was there to be afraid of?

"The Four Heavenly Blades?"

An old man spun his head around with impatience. But when he saw the four of them, he was slightly stunned, with trepidation in his eyes.

"What? The Four Heavenly Blades. They're the Four Heavenly Blades!"

"Never did I expect their arrival. Aren't they from the far Beifeng Province?"

"The Four Heavenly Blades, what a familiar name!"

All of them looked at the incoming four people with solemn expressions!

Chapter 270: Who Else?

"The Four Heavenly Blades are four well-known Half-Step to Inborn experts from Beifeng Province. They once killed an Inborn expert together!"

"What? They are that strong?"

"The four of them can kill an Inborn expert? Under normal circumstances, it would be hard for ten Half-Step to Inborn experts to kill even a single Inborn expert."

"What horrifying strength!"

Those Half-Step to Inborn experts in the crowd pulled a long face.

In the Underworld, there was a common saying. Your existence was similar to an ant until you entered the realm of the Inborn. Although Half-Step to Inborn experts were strong, they were nothing compared to Inborn experts.

However, these four men had once killed an Inborn expert. This... was incomparably terrifying.

"When these four men use their Heavenly Blade Techniques together, the strength is incredible. They are widely known and even First-class Forces wouldn't trifle with them recklessly," the crowd whispered.

Their expressions changed when they saw them carrying a curved blade each and walking towards them.

"There are quite a number of experts here!" remarked Wang Xian with a smile.

Any one of these people could be considered an expert in today's world.

"Aren't you guys leaving yet? In that case, you guys better be careful when facing us in a while!" the Four Heavenly Blades Looked across the crowd and remarked coldly.

At that moment, everyone felt that the pressure on them had increased. They frowned and looked bitterly at the four men.

The sudden appearance of these four experts had lowered their chances of getting this mission substantially.

"Is everyone here?" A clearly fatigued voice sounded.

At this moment, three people walked out from the villa.

One of them was a middle-aged man. He was approximately fifty years old and slightly plump.

An old man and a gorgeous lady followed closely behind him.

The old man had scars all over his face and looked intimidating.

As for that beautiful lady, she wore a long white dress and was carrying a green zither behind her. Her long hair was tied up in the same manner as those heroines in dramas about the past.

Her temperament resembled that of an immortal. She seemed out of the world and was very attractive. This kind of beauty was rare in modern times.

Eh?

Wang Xian looked at the beautiful lady and found her to be familiar.

Tang Yinxuan!

When he was in the hostel, Wang Dahai often talked about her. In fact, this rascal even went to another city just to have a look at her.

Tang Yinxuan was a singer and a musician who specialized in zither. She had quickly become known by many since last year.

Although her fame had not spread nationwide, many had a strong impression of her.

Tang Yinxuan had never taken up endorsements or attended any variety shows.

She gained popularity after working with a piano master. Subsequently, she released an album and the songs on it became widely popular.

Her popularity was on par with second-tier celebrities and she had held several concerts.

I heard from Wang Dahai that when he attended Tang Yinxuan's concert, he was so moved that he teared up after hearing her voice and her playing of the zither. It was as though she could sing into his heart!

If she could make Wang Dahai, who is nearly tone-deaf, cry after listening to her music, there are likely other factors on top of her zither skills.

Heavenly Sound Sect used musical instruments as their weapons. By playing and using the attributes of metal and water energy, they could influence their opponents and kill them.

According to records, when disciples of Heavenly Sound Sect played the war instruments on the battlefield, it had the incredible ability to lift the spirits of the soldiers, making them fearless and causing them to forget about fatigue.

Wang Xian looked at the beautiful lady and thought to himself.

"Mr. Tang, those who should be here are already here. Those who aren't here are unlikely to be coming!" an old man said to Tang Jiuchao.

"That's right! Those who should be here are already here. I'd like to thank everyone for coming!" Tang Jiuchao said.

He took a quick glance through the crowd in front of him. There were nearly thirty people and every one of them had a strong disposition.

"Everyone, I believe you all know clearly that I have issued a mission in the Underworld to look for four bodyguards for my daughter. The period shall be for two months. After two months, I will reward each of you with $500 million."

"Now, I need to select four people from you guys. The selection process will be simple. The strongest four will be chosen. Does anyone have any objections!"

"No!"

The crowd of Half-Step to Inborn experts nodded their heads. Some of them were gloomy after catching sight of the Four Heavenly Blades.

"Those who believe they are stronger, please step to your right. Anyone can challenge them but please don't take anything personally!" the scarred old man, who was beside Tang Jiuchao, remarked at this moment. He looked across the crowd and started emitting an aura.

"Inborn expert!"

The crowd was astonished! They looked at the old man in awe and nodded, "That's a given. In the Underworld, the strong rule."

"Haha, that's right! In the Underworld, the strong rule!"

After a peal of loud laughter, four men walked towards the right.

Waving their arms, they held the blades in their hands and their eyes gleamed with arrogance.

"WE are the Four Heavenly Blades and we will be taking these four slots!" the middle-aged man in the middle of the group announced.

"Four Heavenly Blades!"

The crowd looked at the four men who walked out straightway and their expressions were gloomy. Some of their eyes were flickering.

"Four Heavenly Blades?"

Tang Jiuchao and the old man beside him looked over. They were surprised but gradually revealed smiles.

The beautiful lady who was carrying the zither, looked at the Four Heavenly Blades and she nodded her head slightly in approval.

Clearly, they had heard of the Four Heavenly Blades. They were the pinnacle among Half-Step to Inborn experts.

"This mission is mainly for protection and isn't for the four of you to fight together. What's more important is your individual strength. I'd like to challenge!" An old man stepped forward and had his eyes fixed on the Four Heavenly Blades.

"That's right! A protection mission wouldn't possibly allow the four of you to fight together. Hence, individual strength is the best gauge!" a middle-aged man seconded.

The Four Heavenly Blades were strong together but once they were separated, the rest weren't necessarily afraid of them!"

"Haha, fine! Even if it is just one of us, you are no match for us. Old man, I'll fight you!" one of the Four Heavenly Blades said.

A middle-aged man stepped forward and showed his curved blade. The next moment, he charged and attacked the old man.

"Hah!" the old man roared.

He stretched his arms and he had a pair of long metal gloves over them.

"Mountain Suppressing Palm Strike!" The old man shifted his arm and met the attack from the middle-aged man with his palm.

The battle between Half-Step to Inborn experts was not only powerful but also highly destructive.

If those around them weren't Half-Step to Inborn experts, they would likely have backed off.

"Haha, Succession Heavenly Blades!"

The middle-aged man was ecstatic. Holding the blade with two hands, his body turned like a spinning top. The slashes of the blade were incomparably fast and the attacks were relentless.

Bam bam bam!

In a span of just a second, the curved blade had collided with the palm of the old man over a hundred times.

"What!"

The old man was flushed and shocked. His opponent's attacks were relentless, pushing him back constantly.

Bam!

"Scram!" the middle-aged man shouted loudly as he came down hard with his last strike. The old man was knocked back directly.

Splash!

The old man fell into the pond, sending up a huge splash of water.

"What fast swordsmanship!"

"How swift and horrifying! The attacks were relentless. If the four of them combined forces, wouldn't they be just like a meat grinder?"

"Such horrifying swordsmanship combined with agile movements. It's no surprise that they managed to kill an Inborn expert. That's simply too strong!"

The Half-Step to Inborn experts in the crowd looked at the Four Heavenly Blades in awe.

At that moment, the atmosphere seemed to have been frozen. No one dared to step forward.

With the previous display of strength that seemed invincible amongst the Half-Step to Inborn experts, no one seemed daring enough to launch a challenge.

"Haha, who else?" the Four Heavenly Blades looked at the crowd and lifted their heads proudly.

The four released their aura at the same time and shrouded everyone in it.

The combined pressure imposed by the four men was shockingly on par with an Inborn expert.

Once again, they had managed to impress the crowd as a gloomy atmosphere shrouded the crowd.

"Hmm. Don't forget about the three of us!"

"We will be taking three slots then!"

An emotionless voice broke the silence of the room!

Chapter 271: Everyone Here is Trash!

"We'll be taking three slots then!"

An emotionless voice resounded through the open space. Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong, and Mo Yuan were striding to the right with beaming faces.

"Hur?"

"The three of them?"

The voice cut the silence in the courtyard of the villa. All the Half-step to Inborn Experts were slightly taken aback as they looked over doubtfully.

"Three slots for you?"

The Four Heavenly Blades turned to the trio with arrogance on their faces. They revealed a hint of sarcasm. "You don't take the slots. You fight for them with your own strength!"

"There's a lad among them. If you want three slots, you should get on your knees and beg us for it!"

The four of them mocked the trio, especially when they saw Wang Xian.

How dare a lad ask them for a slot?

"Hehe, beg you guys? You better scram!"

Mo Yuan cast his icy-cold gaze at the Four Heavenly Blades. With a swift movement, he attacked them directly.

He did not exhibit his imposing demeanor as an Inborn Expert. Nor did he fully display the strength of an Inborn Expert.

"Seeking your own death!"

Upon seeing Mo Yuan's assault, one of the middle-aged men of the Heavenly Blades' eyes were cold. He picked up his machete, slashing away.

Mo Yuan had no expression. He reached out his hand slowly with his palms opened with glimmering dragon scales.

Whoo-hoo!

With creepy body movements and serial wielding of blades, the middle-aged man of Heavenly Blade struck ferociously again.

An air-rending sound was heard.

The surrounding spectators wore grave expressions as they witnessed the middle-aged Heavenly Blade man's assault.

One after another swift and non-stop slashes. No one could react in time.

"That middle-aged man is blocking with his palms!"

"What? Isn't that a suicide move? His palm could be hacked in a single move!"

The people were astonished by Mo Yuan as he received the blades with his bare palm.

Receiving the Heavenly Blade with a bare palm? That was as good as suicide.

Bam, Bam, Bam!

However, what amazed everyone was the sound of a metal collision that kept coming through.

Mo Yuan's palms continued to slam against the machete, and his speed was even faster than it.

But a weapon was, after all, a weapon. The Four Heavenly Blades had not reached the stage where they could wield their weapons just like parts of their bodies. Wielding weapons was greatly different from using the limbs.

Bam, Bam, Bam!

At this time, Mo Yuan was so fast that the machete could not keep up with it.

He struck his palms on the body of middle-aged Heavenly Blade man. The forceful impact caused him to spit out mouthfuls of blood.

Puke!

He had a drastic change in his expression as he staggered back with eyes full of fear.

"Three of you can strike together!"

Mo Yuan was expressionless. He did not feel anything about defeating the middle-aged Heavenly Blade man.

After all, he was an Inborn Expert, and he was concealing his cultivation level. Hence, there was nothing to brag about.

"Seeking your own death!"

The remaining three middle-aged Heavenly Blades saw Mo Yuan charging at him, and they were infuriated at once.

None of them hesitated. They picked up the machetes uniformly and slashed at Mo Yuan.

"Let's stay harmonious!"

An old Inborn Expert standing beside Tang Jiuchao reminded them when he saw three of them striking together.

"He's too cocky. How dare he challenge the other three Heavenly Blades!"

"That middle-aged man has a formidable physical body that can actually block the offense of the Heavenly Blades."

"The combined force of the three of them was on a totally different level as compared to a solo attack. Gosh, look! The frequency of their strikes matches each other perfectly."

"That is to say, each one of them will attack three to four times at the middle-aged man in a second. Even Inborn Experts have to handle such intensive blade moves carefully!"

"Scary! This is the Four Heavenly Blades' forte!"

Seamless serial attacks. No wonder they could kill an Inborn Expert!

Mo Yuan remained unwavering. He jerked his arm, darting out towards one of them.

Slash!

Slash!

Slash!

"I don't believe you can defend against our full blow!"

Upon seeing Mo Yuan focusing his attack on one person, the three middle-aged Heavenly Blades switched their techniques, bringing their machetes from the top with tremendous force.

Like a crescent moon, their machetes were smeared with cold radiance.

"So what if I did?"

Mo Yuan's expression remained unmoved as he quickly raised his arm to block the machetes.

Bam, Bam, Bam!

Three machetes slashed Mo Yuan's arm, and the imposing force field caused rings of ripples in the pool next to them.

"What?"

"How is this possible!"

Everyone around them drew a cold breath as soon as they witnessed it. Even the three Heavenly Blades were stunned, with a hint of horror in their pupils.

"That physique is formidable. It's absolutely invincible!"

"That's just scary. With such a physical body, I don't think he would get hurt from bombings either!"

Mo Yuan looked at the three middle-aged men impassively. He swung both his arms and assaulted two of them.

Bam!

The two of them were unable to react in time. Both got a hit in their chests. They staggered about a dozen steps back with trembling bodies.

"Do you want to continue?"

Mo Yuan threw an emotionless gaze at the last middle-aged man and asked nonchalantly.

Gulp!

That middle-aged man swallowed his saliva with horror in his eyes. Slowly, he shook his head.

"I want all three slots. If anyone is unhappy about this, you'll have to defeat me first!" said Mo Yuan without a doubt as he swept his overbearing gaze across everyone.

Tang Jiuchao, Tang Yinxuan and the old man beside them were looking doubtful, but they did not refute him.

With such an expert around, it did not matter, even the other two were weaker.

He was domineering and was almost on par with an Inborn Expert.

"Is there any Half-step to Inborn Expert that is as strong as him?"

"He must be practicing some unique cultivation techniques. Even without unblocking his Conception Vessel and Governing Vessel, his physical body is as good as an Inborn Expert!"

Everyone gulped.

He was so strong that he could beat the Four Heavenly Blades easily, even when three of them combined their power.

He was really invincible among Half-step to Inborn Experts.

"Invincible among Half-step Inborn Experts!"

"Invincible! He's invincible!"

Everyone was aghast at the prowess exhibited by Mo Yuan, and none of them had the desire to battle.

Dominating!

"Not bad. You're impressive and almost invincible in the world!"

Suddenly, everyone heard a praising voice.

"But three is too much. You can take one at most!"

An old man spoke casually from a corner of a crowd. Beside him stood two middle-aged men.

With his chin lifted up, the middle-aged man looked prideful.

They looked at everyone.

"We also want three slots."

They swept their gazes across Wang Xian and the rest and eventually halted, looking everyone.

"Honestly, everyone here is trash!"

As he spoke, the old man beside him was serene-looking.

Chapter 272: It's You Who Are Not Worthy

"Everyone here is trash!"

When this sentence was said, those who were around were stunned and outraged.

"Arrogance! You are indeed arrogant! Who do you think you are?"

"Hey, pals, don't be too arrogant. You will regret it!"

"We are trash? Who do you think you are?"

"You are talking big without even showing your strength? How arrogant are you!?"

The crowd looked at the three of them and criticized coldly.

Hehe!

When the old man saw the crowd staring at him angrily, he gave a faint smile.

"Although what my disciple has said is a little crude, you guys are indeed trash in my eyes!" said the old man as he turned his attention to Mo Yuan and eventually Tang Jiuchao.

"Presumptuous! How presumptuous!"

"Arrogant and conceited! Old man, since you are so arrogant, show us if you have the capital to back your words!"

The old man's words had once again enraged the crowd as the crowd stared harshly at the trio.

"Shut your mouth!"

The old man shouted and changed the aura around him suddenly.

Boom!

The terrifying aura of an Inborn expert erupted and swept towards the crowd of Half-Step to Inborn experts with reserves.

"What?"

"Inborn Expert!"

"This... He is an Inborn expert!"

"Inborn expert! It's no surprise that he was so arrogant and disregarded everyone!"

"I hadn't expected this mission to attract an Inborn expert!"

The crowd was shaken. They looked at the old man in awe and exclaimed in fear!

Once the Inborn expert had stepped forward, he dominated the area!

The old man looked at everyone proudly and asked, "Does anyone have any opinion if I take three slots?" His aura was domineering and weighing down on the crowd.

"Would anyone still like to object?" The middle-aged man beside the old man smirked and said, "Since an Inborn expert is here, I guess you guys should be on your way back now!"

"We will be taking three spots. As for the last spot, you guys can fight it out!"

The arrogant voice sounded again but the crowd lowered their heads bitterly and didn't say a word.

Once the Inborn expert had appeared, they had already lost the contest.

"I believe the last spot should go to this person. He's pretty strong and worthy to be with us for the mission," commented the other middle-aged man with a faint smile.

Hehe!

Mo Yuan broke into laughter and turned to look at Wang Xian.

Wang Xian replied with a nod.

They had wanted to keep a low profile initially. However, there were always some who wouldn't let this happen.

If that was the case...!

"However, you guys aren't worthy to do the mission with us!" Mo Yuan looked at the middle-aged man and replied.

Huh?

Huh?

Upon hearing Mo Yuan, the old man and the two middle-aged men were stunned and glowered at Mo Yuan.

The crowd also turned and looked at Mo Yuan with disbelief.

To speak to an Inborn expert in such a manner, that's too cocky!

"I guess you are courting death!" the old man remarked calmly as he looked at Mo Yuan and stretched out his arms.

Shifting his body, he charged towards Mo Yuan like a bolt of lightning.

"It's over! That middle-aged man has offended an Inborn expert!"

"This... He must be too eager to die to offend an Inborn expert!"

"I guess you are the one courting death!" Mo Yuan remarked coldly to the astonishment of the crowd.

Mo Yuan moved too. His palm turned into a claw as he grabbed forward towards the old man's fist.

"Die!" The old man shouted.

His eyes were cold and his punch struck much more violently towards Mo Yuan.

Bam!

As the punch and the claw collided, the situation of Mo Yuan being sent flying back didn't happen. Mo Yuan stood firmly in place, staring emotionlessly at the old man.

A black aura started circling his body. It was an aura from the strong, the aura of an expert.

"What?"

The old man was astonished, his pupils enlarged as he stared at Mo Yuan in disbelief.

"Just someone who has just reached the Inborn Realm, and yet you dare to be so arrogant!"

Mo Yuan didn't speak and the voice was from another person. All the crowd could see was a series of blurred images.

A figure appeared beside the old man suddenly.

Following which, to the astonishment of the crowd, that figure raised his leg and kicked the old man.

The old man was surprised. However, the kick was too fast and terrifying.

Bam!

The old man flew back like a kite with a broken string towards the far end of the area.

Boom!

The old man smashed into the pond heavily.

Psst~

Everyone gasped and stared in disbelief at the events that unfolded.

Their eyes popped wide open and they were speechless.

Wah!

The old man stood up in the pond. His body was still trembling as he stared at Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan.

"Inborn, two Inborn experts!"

A coarse voice sounded from his throat as he walked out from the pond with a gloomy expression.

"Indeed! They are really Inborn experts!"

"Horrifying, this is too horrifying!"

"Two Inborn experts vying for this mission! I wouldn't have come if I knew earlier!"

The crowd was flabbergasted. Even Tang Jiuchao and the other two were shocked.

The scarred old man squinted his eyes and looked at Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan solemnly.

A while ago, Mo Qinglong had sent an Inborn expert flying with a single kick. This wasn't something any ordinary Inborn expert could do.

Mo Qinglong was probably stronger than the scarred old man.

"These three experts will do. These three experts shall share the $2 billion reward!"

Tang Jiuchao was flabbergasted. Happiness gleamed in his eyes as he announced this quickly.

$20 billion to hire two Inborn experts as bodyguards was definitely a great deal.

With them around, they could easily match dozens of Half-Step to Inborn experts.

"Fine!" Mo Qinglong nodded in agreement.

Tang Yinxuan, who was carrying the zither behind her, frowned slightly and started to observe the three of them.

"Everyone, we will be handing this mission to these three experts. Thank you for your time here!"

Tang Jiuchao put his hands together and thanked the crowd.

"Let's go, let's go!"

"A mission that attracted three Inborn experts! Sigh. It seems like I have made a wasted trip!"

"Let's go, there are two Inborn experts. Even if they didn't make up the four slots, it wouldn't be unfair for them to split it evenly among themselves!"

The crowd didn't comment further. They shook their heads slowly and headed out.

Some of them looked at the two dumbfounded middle-aged men with ridicule.

They thought that their master was incredible. Yet, their master was easily defeated by others.

Those who were arrogant wouldn't get a good ending.

"Let's go!" the old man said to his two disciples bitterly after giving Mo Qinglong and the group a harsh stare.

The two middle-aged men pulled long faces as they followed behind the old men and left.

"Haha! Please come in, experts!"

Seeing that the crowd had left, Tang Jiuchao went forward and spoke enthusiastically to Wang Xian and the group.

Chapter 273: Tang Yinxuan

"Let's sign the contract!"

Upon entering the magnificent and resplendent villa, Tang Jiuchao told the trio with a beaming face.

"Sure!"

Wang Xian nodded. Mo Yuan examined the contents in the contract and signed after the confirmation.

"Seniors!"

Just then, a clear voice that was pleasing to the ears like birds was heard.

Such a voice. No doubt she's from Heavenly Sound Sect. Wang Xian pondered to himself as he looked at Tang Yinxuan, who had the zither on her back.

"You possess great and outstanding skills. No average Inborn Experts could ever be compared with you."

Tang Yinxuan looked at them indifferently. Her eyelashes were long, and they moved gently when she talked. It was as though her eyes spoke.

Her voice was a pleasure to the ears, and no one looked as beautiful as her. She was a ravishing beauty.

Sensing their doubts, Tang Yinxuan continued to say, "Just now I saw your moves. Somehow, they seemed familiar. Besides, there is no need for you to take on this task given your strength!"

As she spoke, her eyes flickered with intelligent radiance.

"Hur?"

Tang Jiuchao was stunned for a moment as he fixed his eyes on the trio.

"Hehe, a babe like you is indeed smart. No doubt you're one of the strong contestants for the Saintess of Heavenly Sound Sect!"

Mo Yuan looked at Tang Yinxuan with smiles. They were not surprised when their identities were revealed.

When they decided to expose their real prowess, they had already taken that into consideration.

Tang Yinxuan narrowed her eyes as a tint of surprise flashed in her eyes.

Not many people knew about her identity as the disciple of Heavenly Sound Sect.

"Do you know who killed Ji and Mu?"

Ji and Mu were the fake names Mo Ersan and Mo Sanyi used.

"Ji and Mu?" Tang Yinxuan suddenly understood everything. Subsequently, she shook her head with bitterness. "Honestly, I don't know who killed them!"

"The selection of Heavenly Sound Sect's Saint and Saintess is rather cruel. During the two years, the one who proves herself to be the strongest or has the highest number of subordinates will become the Saintess!"

"During this period, our sect prohibits killings between disciples. But there are always people who cross the line. On top of that, the killer might be the rival of my dad's business."

As she spoke, her eyes were filled with helplessness. "I still have two months before the time is up. My cultivation has reached a bottleneck. Hence, I need to find a way to break through it within these next two months. Hence, we hired bodyguards with a handsome reward. I'm sorry about Ji and Mu too!"

When Tang Yinxuan was talking, Mo Yuan and Mo Qinglong were staring at her.

"We don't blame you for their deaths. But we want the killer to die!" Wang Xian said coldly. Regardless of the reason that caused the death of Mo Ersan and Mo Sanyi, the killer must pay for it with his life.

"From the way they did their job, they seemed to be from an assassin organization. But I can't say for sure!"

Tang Yinxuan shook her head slowly.

"Since they failed the last time, they will definitely strike again. We just need to wait for the killer to appear!" Mo Qinglong said with a calm face.

Tang Yinxuan thought for a moment. "I'm not sure now. After all, I have the protection of two Inborn Experts now, and word has already gotten out."

The trio knit their eyebrows.

"Then we'll wait. Since we took up this mission, we'll protect you for the next two months!" said Wang Xian after weighing his options.

If the killer did not show up after the long wait, he could leave first and let Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan complete the task.

"Okay, thank you. I'm afraid you guys will be busy with me in the upcoming period!"

Tang Yinxuan put on a smile.

"It's okay. We'll ensure your safety. You can rest assured!" Mo Qinglong promised her.

"Thank you!" Tang Yin Xuan nodded.

"Haha, we prepared lunch for you guys. Since you've traveled a long way here, we should grab a bite!"

Tang Jiuchao stood up and invited the trio with a smile.

The three of them nodded and came to a ballroom in the villa.

After lunch, a maid walked over and handed them a schedule.

It was the upcoming itinerary for Tang Yinxuan.

"She has four concerts in the next two months. Looks like it will pose troubles to our protection mission!"

Wang Xian looked at Tang Yinxuan's schedule and shook his head.

Four concerts in four different cities.

This could make things difficult for them in between.

"Looks like she is trying to make a breakthrough in her cultivation through the concerts!" said Mo Qinglong after some pondering.

Heavenly Sound Sect integrated their cultivation with the musical instruments, which was a tedious way of cultivating.

Not only did one need to have the strength, but one also needed to master the musical instrument at a certain level.

Drawing their own spiritual strength as the media, they could attack with instruments as their weapons.

If the cultivation level was not high, it was still manageable. But when one's cultivation level got higher, one could pursue interfering with the mind of anyone through music.

A powerful Inborn Expert from the Heavenly Sound Sect could challenge two people of the same level at the same time.

This was also the domineering part of Heavenly Sound Sect.

"We're setting off tomorrow. Let's follow her around in the meantime, and it'd be better if the killers came for her!"

Wang Xian stood up and headed to the guest room, arranged by Tang Jiuchao.

When he was at the door, he heard a faint zither, playing from upstairs.

The sound was pleasing, and the notes struck his heart. Somehow, he was in a daze.

"What great music!"

Wang Xian was slightly shocked as he looked up and narrowed his eyes.

The wall in front of him slowly disappeared. Tang Yinxuan was playing the zither in the music room before his eyes.

He saw a myriad of musical instruments hanging in the music room.

Wang Xian withdrew his gaze and returned to his room.

The next afternoon, Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan took a flight with Tang Yinxuan to Lian City.

Lian City was a second-tier city with a higher population. It took them two hours by plane to reach it, and it was a few hundred kilometers away from Rivertown.

Like other celebrities, Tang Yinxuan wore a pair of sunglasses and a cap. Given her capability, it was hard for foreigners to recognize her.

"Oh Yinxuan, you're finally here!"

After walking out of the airport, a young man who was gorgeously dressed scurried fervently over.

"Let's go, Yinxuan. We need to make a trip to the concert hall, and have dinner with the sponsor tonight!"

The young man spoke in a high-pitched voice as he looked at Wang Xian and the rest.

"Are these three the bodyguards? Take the back seats, okay? Yinxuan, we need to hurry. Our time is tight!" the young man said anxiously.

"Qingqing, don't be in such a hurry!" Tang Yinxuan said without any emotions. "Turn down the dinner with the organizers."

"No way, Missy. You're now in their turf. They specifically asked you to have dinner with them. If you don't go, they might play some tricks just to ruin your concert!" Qingqing said hurriedly.

Tang Yinxuan frowned before she said, "Alright then!"

Chapter 274: No Idea Of Death Or Danger? (1)

The stage for the concert was in the Lian City Center Stadium. It was a stadium that could accommodate eighty thousand people.

Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan followed behind Tang Yinxuan.

This made Wang Xian feel a little speechless, as he was just following behind a girl instead of finding the culprit that had murdered the two dragonians. However, that's all he could do at this moment.

The young man, who was a little feminine in his actions, was instructing and telling Tang Yinxuan about some matters.

It was clear that this young man was most likely the manager of Tang Yinxuan.

"Yinxuan, the representatives of the organizers will, at most, request that you play a few songs on the zither and ask you for photos during dinner. At that time, please don't reject them. The dinner will last an hour at the most. After dinner, you can return and have a good rest!"

The young man repeatedly reminded Tang Yinxuan. Apparently, he knew about the indifferent attitude of this girl.

"Rest assured. As long as they don't go overboard, everything will be fine!" answered Tang Yinxuan plainly.

"They wouldn't, they wouldn't... I'll be with you and will keep an eye on them!" replied the young man in a hurry.

It was already past seven at night when they walked out of the stadium. The group boarded the car and headed towards a five-star hotel in Lian City.

Qing Mu International Hotel was the best hotel in Lian City and was situated in the city center. The owner also had widespread influence.

When they reached the entrance of the suite of the hotel, four young men in suits stood beside the door emotionlessly.

"Do you all want to look for another place in the hotel to eat? I'll give you a call later," Tang Yinxuan turned around and said to Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong and Moyuan.

Tang Yinxuan knew that there were two Inborn experts among them. Even though they were her bodyguards now, she didn't dare to be rude, and she asked politely.

"Alright. We will be waiting at the entrance for you after we have our dinner!" Mo Qinglong nodded his head. Moving his palm, a ball of black aura fell onto Tang Yinxuan.

"Don't worry. The moment you trigger your spiritual strength, we will be able to sense it!" Mo Qinglong smiled and explained to Tang Yinxuan, who looked a little confused about what had happened.

"Hmm. I'll be troubling you guys then!" Tang Yinxuan nodded her head.

The group of young men at the entrance looked at Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan, feeling puzzled. Tang Yinxuan's attitude towards them was a little strange in their eyes.

Isn't she a little too nice to her three bodyguards?

Tang Yinxuan entered the suite with a young man. Wang Xian took a glance inside and noticed there were four to five young men with two middle-aged men inside the suite. There were Ancient Martial Artists among them, but they weren't very strong nor were they a match for Tang Yinxuan.

"Let's go!"

Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan headed towards the public restaurant in the hotel.

"Don't you guys have eyes!"

Just as the three of them made a turn, they crashed into a group of a dozen people.

A young man from the group didn't manage to dodge in time and knocked into Mo Qinglong. As a result, he was knocked back and staggered several steps before recovering.

Huh?

Mo Qinglong turned around impatiently and stared harshly at the young man.

"What the hell are you staring at me for...?"

"Shut up!"

Bam!

When the young man saw Mo Qinglong staring harshly at him, he berated him immediately.

However, before he could even complete his words, the voice of a middle-aged man interrupted him.

Not only did the middle-aged man shout at him, but he also gave the young man a tight slap on the head.

Instantly, the young man was knocked into a light trance, and he felt the world around him spinning.

"Master..." The young man was initially furious but such emotions were quickly overwhelmed by fear.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, we are really, really sorry about this. This rascal failed to recognize you. If he has offended you, please forgive him. We are sorry, we are sorry!"

"Sirs, we are sorry. Please accept my apologies on behalf of Qing Mu Sect. We have failed to teach him well!"

"We are sorry. Please forgive us!"

At this moment, the young man found that his master had completely ignored him. Instead, he was apologizing incessantly to the three men in front of him.

The fear written over his master's face greatly shocked him.

This was their territory. Yet, his master and an Elder beside him looked so petrified!

Who are they?

"Be careful next time!" Mo Yuan remarked emotionlessly at the group of Qing Mu Sect disciples before leaving directly.

"Yes, yes. We will definitely be careful. We will definitely be careful!"

The group nodded their heads profusely, lowered their bodies and were being as respectful as they could.

Wang Xian and the group weren't paying any attention at all as they left without taking a further look at them.

"Why would we encounter them here?"

Seeing that Wang Xian and the group had left, the few middle-aged men in the group of disciples from Qing Mu Sect wiped the sweat off their foreheads. Their eyes were still filled with horror.

"Master... Master, they are... Who are they?" That young man that knocked into Mo Qinglong previously was baffled as he asked cautiously.

"Who? Rascal! You better not be that arrogant in the future!" When the middle-aged man looked at the young man, he chided furiously.

"They aren't people we can afford to offend. Keep a low profile from now onwards. Don't be so arrogant. Otherwise, you won't even know when you will be slapped to death by an expert."

The middle-aged men chided coldly and stared solemnly at the young man in the black shirt.

"I never expected them to be in Lian City. Relay this information. All disciples of Qing Mu Sect must not offend them. Otherwise, I'll debilitate their cultivation and expel them from the Qing Mu Sect!" the middle-aged man in a black shirt instructed seriously.

Not long ago, they had to apologize in fear to such a horrifying existence even when they were with their Sect Leaders. At this moment, their Sect Leaders weren't around. They had to be even more careful and cautious of them.

If any disciples had no idea of death and danger and offended them, Qing Mu Sect would really be finished.

"What?" The young man was completely dumbfounded.

What kind of horrifying existence would warrant the Qing Mu Sect relaying such orders to the disciples?

"It didn't come into my mind that Qing Mu International Hotel belongs to the Qing Mu Sect. So their nest is in Lian City!" remarked Wang Xian plainly with a faint smile.

"Qing Mu Sect could be considered a respectable sect. They are also one of the strongest forces in this province!" Mo Qinglong added.

However, an existence like this still didn't dare to be arrogant in front of Wang Xian and his group.

The three of them arrived at the restaurant and ordered some dishes.

After dinner, the three of them headed towards the suite. Wang Xian took a quick glance and noted that they were still eating. Therefore, he simply stood by the side and waited.

After waiting for an hour plus, Wang Xian felt extremely bored.

Rattle rattle rattle!

At this moment, sounds of things crashing came from the suite.

"F*ck! How dare you really start a fight!"

A furious roar erupted from the suite. The four bodyguards at the entrance exchanged gazes before pushing the door open and entering.

"You are just a second-tier bitch and yet you dare to act pure and lofty in front of me? Look at your disdainful attitude when drinking with us! You must be tired of living!"

"Let me tell you this! If you can't make us happy tonight, don't even think of leaving Lian City!"

An arrogant voice sounded once again as the four bodyguards entered the suite and stared harshly at Tang Yinxuan.

Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan exchanged glances before looking into the room.

Chapter 275: No Idea Of Death Or Danger? (2)

Tang Yinxuan stood in the room coldly as she fixed her eyes on the people before her with a calm and aloof expression.

The young man was anxiously pacing beside her.

"Gentlemen, Director Yuan, Yinxuan has always been like this. She doesn't know how to get along with others. Why don't you just forget about what happened today, and I'll make remedies with all of you tomorrow?!"

"Tomorrow? Are you thinking of leaving without entertaining us today? If you can't finish this bottle of wine, you can forget about leaving this place!"

A young man stared at Tang Yinxuan with a pair of cold eyes. He looked at her disdainfully. "Trying to act like someone noble? Haha!"

"This fine gentleman over here, I'll drink this up. Yinxuan has a concert tomorrow. She needs to protect her voice. Let me do it!"

The young man picked up the bottle of red wine from the table and apologized with smiles all over his face.

"Scram! Who do you think you are? Such a pervert!" That young man scowled at Tang Yinxuan's manager coldly.

When he heard what the young man said, the manager blushed immediately as he was super embarrassed.

"Hehe!"

Tang Yinxuan looked disdainfully at all of them. "So what if I'm not giving you any face?"

"Haha, how conceited you are. Even a first-tier celebrity wouldn't speak to us in such a cocky way. How dare you, a worthless second-tier singer, talk to us in such a manner!"

Everyone's expression turned cold and they fixed their eyes on him after hearing his remarks.

"Such a pretty girl. Would it be exciting if I just strip you down and post pictures of you on the internet?"

A young man exhibited a lustful look as he threatened Tang Yinxuan with a flat voice.

"Gentlemen, this isn't a joking matter!"

The young man paled after hearing it. He quickly squeezed out a smile as he waved his hands.

He felt difficult, at the same time, he looked at Tang Yinxuan with dissatisfaction.

Tang Yinxuan was a talented and pretty singer spotted by him two years ago.

The moment he saw her for the first time, he had a premonition that she would be popular.

The fact was that Tang Yinxuan had been a total hit as soon as she debuted just as he'd thought.

However, the subsequent developments left him powerless, as Tang Yinxuan refused to accept any invitations from varieties or other programs. Sometimes, he did not know her whereabouts.

Hence, he felt helpless and as if he was being treated unfairly.

If she had focused on the entertainment industry, she would have become one of the first-tier stars with his resources.

"Yinxuan, just drink some with them. It won't hurt to drink a little!"

The young man looked at Tang Yinxuan and persuaded her.

Tang Yinxuan looked at her own manager, looking aloof as before. "Whatever, if they refuse to hold our concert here, we can go to another city!"

"How can we do that? All that we need for the concert is ready. How can we cancel it? This will be a huge loss! How can we do this?" the young man asked anxiously.

"The loss is theirs since they are the sponsors!"

Tang Yinxuan did not care as she looked at the people around her impassively. "We'll just put an announcement on the bulletin board that someone is giving us trouble then. Anyway, they can refund their tickets!"

"I guess you want us to be rough, don't you?"

A young man stared at Tang Yinxuan coldly.

"Whatever!"

Tang Yinxuan threw cold gazes at them as though they were a bunch of garbage. She picked up her zither and walked out!

Bam!

At this time, a bottle was hurled and smashed against the wall beside Tang Yinxuan.

"If you dare to step out, I'll make sure you're famous throughout the country as someone erotic!"

A young man glared at Tang Yinxuan with a darkened expression.

They had invited a second-tier singer for dinner today. Given their identities as the rich gentlemen of Lian City, all they had received throughout was cold treatment.

Even a handshake was a brief and aloof one. Hence, all of them were pissed off.

How dare a second-tier singer put on airs?

The people present here were the richest sons in Lian City.

"What a bother!"

Witnessing the event from the door, Wang Xian and the rest shook their heads.

"Babe, let's go!" said Wang Xian to Tang Yinxuan immediately.

"Okay!"

Tang Yinxuan nodded without looking at those young gentlemen in the room as she walked out.

"Stop them now!"

Several bodyguards at the door responded to the low voice by blocking Tang Yinxuan's way while looking at her coldly.

"If you can't make us happy today, you'll never walk out of this room. We call the shots in Lian City!"

That young gentleman stared at Tang Yinxuan before he looked to the trio outside.

"Get rid of the three of them and lock the door!"

He yelped and raised his glass of red wine while swirling it. "I just want to see how cocky an insignificant second-tier star can get!"

"Hehe, she's my type!"

Next to him, another gentleman did the same thing by picking up his wine glass. He sized up Tang Yinxuan from top to bottom with an interesting look.

"Comparing to those obedient and gentle little sheep, I'm more interested in such a savage horse. Tsk tsk, it must be a sheer pleasure to tame her!"

"Haha, you're right too. We can have a switch of taste today!"

Those gentlemen raised their wine glasses as they observed and made their comments about Tang Yinxuan without the slightest scruple.

The four young bodyguards at the side turned their heads over and looked at Wang Xian and the rest.

"Are you getting lost over here, or do you want me to throw you out?" the young man said to them with a poker face.

The four burly bodyguards gave off an inhospitable aura.

But Wang Xian felt funny with their looks.

The four bodyguards were just ordinary people who were not even Martial Artists. How dare they peer disdainfully and say such a thing to them?

"You're tired of living!"

Mo Yuan extended his arm and slapped them gently.

An ordinary slap that did not take 1 percent of his strength.

Bam, Bam, Bam!

When the four rich gentlemen were teasing Tang Yinxuan in the room with their wine glasses, the four bodyguards were sent flying off.

They smashed hard into the dining table in the middle of the room.

The wine and dishes on the table spilled all over on the four gentlemen with their red wine.

Their elegant yet teasing expressions froze on their faces. All of them sulked as they noticed the four bodyguards who were lying beside the table.

"Very well, you have pissed us off completely!"

"Today, I'll teach you the outcome of provoking us in Lian City!"

One of the young gentlemen darkened his face as he checked the mess on his clothes. He then looked slowly at the group of people.

"Hehe, interesting. It's been a long time since someone dared to offend us in Lian City!"

"Tired of living?"

Chapter 276: Crippling Your Own People

The four young men stared harshly at Wang Xian, Tang Yinxuan and the group. Their lips slowly curved into smirks as they sneered.

Tang Yinxuan reached for her zither as she looked coldly at them.

"Ancient Martial Artists. Hehe!"

One of the young men looked at Mo Yuan. From the way he had defeated four bodyguards in an instant, the young man had determined that he was most likely also a martial artist. He squinted his eyes a little and started observing Wang Xian and Mo Qinglong attentively.

"I'll play along with you!"

The young man took out his phone and dialled a number directly. "Suite 3302. Get everyone here!"

"Oh? They are martial artists?" A young man by the side looked at Mo Yuan and chuckled. "Brother Cong! They dare to hit our guys. You have to teach them a good lesson for me!"

"Rest assured! I'll cripple their limbs and cultivation so they will remember it vividly!" The young man remarked plainly and clearly had no respect for Wang Xian and the group.

Their vision turned to Tang Yinxuan, and a young man from the group said plainly, "How should we handle her then?"

"She will naturally be rotated among us!" a young man revealed a desecrating smile before continuing, "Let me go first."

"F*ck! Can't we just go at the same time? I don't want to be the last!"

"Haha, you sure have strange taste. However, going together is something I'm fond of too! Haha!" The few young men broke into laughter and openly insulted Tang Yinxuan.

"What's the matter, Junior brother Li? Why did you call Xiao Liu and the rest from the hotel?"

At this moment, a voice interrupted their laughter. Another group of four to five young men arrived at the entrance of the suite with the management of the hotel. From the group that had just arrived, one of them stepped forward, smiled, and asked one of the young men that was in the room.

"Oh, Senior brother? Why are you here too?" That young man was taken aback and surprised by the crowd at the entrance of the suite.

"We are here with Elder Liang. I heard that you called Xiao Liu and therefore came over to take a look. What's the matter? Who's the ignorant fool that has offended you?" The one who had just arrived took out a cigarette as he walked towards the young man in the suite.

"Just some rascals who have no idea of death or danger. I was just thinking of teaching them a lesson!" the young man in the suite answered with a chuckle.

"Haha! Those who offend Junior brother Li do deserve to be taught a good lesson!"

The young man that had just arrived saw the four bodyguards on the table in the suite. He smiled faintly and entered the suite.

"I'd like to see who the brazen one is... "

As he spoke and entered the suite, he spotted a few familiar figures. He immediately stopped and his expression change drastically.

"There they are! They are some bodyguards for a second-tier star. A bunch of death-seeking rascals!"

The young man who was addressed as Junior brother Li smirked and pointed to Wang Xian and the group.

He looked to the management team of the hotel that had come with his senior and remarked, "Cripple their limbs and cultivation before throwing them to the streets."

"Cough cough cough... Junior brother Li, your jokes aren't funny at all!" When the young man heard what his Junior brother had said, perspiration broke out on his forehead and his teeth chattered.

"Call the Elder over!" he immediately shouted to the people behind him.

"Yes!"

Those people that had followed him into the suite also noticed the severity of the problem when they saw the three men.

Their faces were covered with perspiration as they ran out, feeling panic-stricken.

"Huh? Senior brother, what's the matter?"

Junior brother Li was taken aback and looked baffled as he stared at his Senior brother.

The young man didn't respond to him. His gaze swept across Wang Xian and the group but he didn't dare to look them in the eyes.

In fact, he was so flabbergasted that he did not dare to speak a word, or even know what to say. Even his legs were trembling a little.

"Senior brother Zhao, take a look at that beautiful girl. If she meets your expectations, we are willing to let you have the first round! Hehe!"

At this moment, the other few people in the suite also felt that Senior brother Zhao was behaving a little strangely.

Their comments instantly infuriated Senior brother Zhao. He shook his head and stood there, clearly flustered and distracted.

Junior brother Li was confused over why his Senior brother was acting this way. The atmosphere seemed to have frozen at that moment.

Tang Yinxuan was baffled. She saw the horrified looks of the young man before looking to Wang Xian.

"Wang... Miracle Doctor Wang... Miracle Doctor Wang...!"

An exclamation sounded from outside the suite. From the voice, one could sense a tinge of bitterness.

At this moment, all the people in the suite looked in shock at the Elder who ran here and was staggering into the suite. His face was as white as a sheet.

At this moment, the Elder could only feel darkness shrouding his eyes as he couldn't help but curse why he was so unlucky.

A disciple of his had bumped into the three of them previously. Luckily, he was around and stopped his disciple on time.

However, another disciple came to report that another disciple of Qing Mu Sect had offended these three distinguished men soon after.

Could it be that fate is screwing our disciples? How the hell did they offend them?

"Miracle Doctor Wang, may I know which insolent rascal has offended you?" the middle-aged man asked loudly the moment he entered the suite.

Anger and misery were clearly evident in his tone. Since fate was screwing his disciples, he might as well be the one punishing the disciple.

"I guess you have to ask the people from Qing Mu Sect?" Wang Xian looked plainly at the crowd from Qing Mu Sect and smirked.

The upper management of Qing Mu Sect would die before offending him. However, disciples of Qing Mu Sect offended him one after another. That's really interesting!

"Miracle Doctor Wang, I don't have to ask. I'll just cripple all those rascals!"

The Elder from Qing Mu Sect remarked furiously and domineeringly. His gaze turned to the rest in the suite and was cold as ice.

"Damn rascals!"

All the young men in the suite were dumbfounded as they witnessed the developments of the incident with disbelief.

The next instant, the Elder from Qing Mu Sect struck.

He expended almost the entirety of his strength as he moved like a phantom through the suite, attacking the four young men and two middle-aged men.

Argh!

Shrill cries resounded in the suite and Junior brother Li was completely petrified.

"Elder Liu, I'm Li Cong! My father is Elder Li!" he screamed in horror loudly.

"In that case, I'll just have to cripple an insolent brat like you for your father!" the Elder of Qing Mu Sect growled angrily as he appeared by the side of that young man. After which, he placed his palm against that young man's limbs and Elixir Field!

"What?"

Argh!

That young man was horrified. His eyes popped wide open and were filled with disbelief.

An Elder from Qing Mu Sect had crippled his limbs and cultivation.

This was an Elder from his own Sect! Why would he do this?

He stared with his eyes wide open at the three men standing by the entrance.

At this moment, the Elder from Qing Mu Sect, who had struck and crippled the six people, walked towards Wang Xian in fear.

"Miracle Doctor Wang... I have crippled them. These insolent rascals have all been crippled. Please don't spill your anger onto the Qing Mu Sect!" the Elder of Qing Mu Sect remarked fearfully and wiped the cold sweat off his forehead.

The few young men wailing in pain on the ground were gripped by fear by what they had just witnessed.

It was no surprise now that the Elder of Qing Mu Sect would cripple their own men!

Chapter 277: Breakthrough Assistance

Even their elder was afraid to offend Wang Xian and his group, let alone allowing his own people to provoke them.

They were simply digging their own graves!

The young men lying on the ground were despondent.

Sensing their crippled limbs and the immense pain, they blacked out immediately.

Wang Xian waved his hands in dismissal when the elder of Qing Mu Sect apologized to him profusely. He then turned to Tang Yinxuan.

"Let's go!"

"Mm."

Radiance flickered in Tang Yinxuan's eyes as she sized up Wang Xian from head to toe. She quickly followed behind him after some ponderings.

Initially, she thought that this youngest man among the group was only the disciple or junior of the other two Inborn Experts.

However, she recalled something. Along with the attitude from the elder of Qing Mu Sect, she thought of someone.

Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown.

In that case, he isn't a disciple or junior. He was the pivot point among the three of them.

Tang Yinxuan pondered to herself as she fixed her eyes on Wang Xian, who was walking in the middle.

"He was ranked eighth on Miracle Doctors Chart at the age of 20, and several Inborn Experts are at his disposal!"

Tang Yinxuan was stupefied as she followed behind.

The sissy young man sulked as he followed behind her. He looked at the three men who were walking in the front with awe.

Initially, he thought they were just three bodyguards. But now, it was completely bullshit.

Can the bodyguards be that dominating?

Besides, he noticed that he had offended Tang Yinxuan, who seemed to be displeased with him.

"Qingqing, you may go back now."

At this time, his expression changed because Tang Yinxuan's emotionless voice came from ahead.

"Yes, Yinxuan!"

He looked sullen, stopped, and headed in the other direction.

"Oh!" Just then, Wang Xian, who was walking in front, suddenly halted. He whirled around and looked at Tang Yinxuan.

"Hur? May I know what's wrong, Miracle Doctor Wang?" asked Tang Yinxuan respectfully after learning Wang Xian's identity.

"Is there a better way to lure the killer out?"

"Lure the killer?"

Tang Yinxuan froze for a moment as she pondered.

"That's right. Lure the killer so that he can strike again!"

Wang Xian nodded. He realized that he could not keep following Tang Yinxuan around passively.

What if the killer didn't show up. Their two-months' effort would be in vain.

Most importantly, they probably would lose the killer if they could not locate him in the meantime.

Mo Ersan and Mo Sanyi would have died in vain.

They could never have died for nothing.

And they could not sit back and wait for the killer.

Tang Yinxuan knit her eyebrows slightly as she walked beside Wang Xian. "One thing that I'm very sure of is that the killer must have tried to assassinate me just to stop me from being the Saintess of Heavenly Sound Sect."

"If the mastermind feels that I'm a huge threat, I might be assassinated again. It's just that I'm unsure if they will take the risk after knowing I have two Inborn Experts beside me."

Wang Xian frowned as he fixed his eyes on Tang Yinxuan. "So you mean the killer will strike again if you have a higher chance of becoming the Saintess?"

"That's right. I'm looking for a breakthrough now. I have the confidence to do so within two months. I can probably take the risk to help you guys then," said Tang Yinxuan to Wang Xian.

"That's too slow. What's your current level now?" asked Wang Xian immediately.

"Peak of Level 9. I'm a half step away from Half-step to Inborn. Once I reach the Half-step to Inborn realm, I'll have a 70 percent chance to become the Saintess of Heavenly Sound Sect!" Tang Yinxuan answered.

"Really?"

Wang Xian nodded his head slightly as he looked elsewhere. "There's a park by the lake. Let's go there, and you can play me a song!"

"Hur?"

Tang Yinxuan was a little doubtful. She hesitated with a nod, but she did not pose any further questions.

It was 9 pm at that time, and the park was almost empty.

Tang Yinxuan sat on a stone bench in a remote corner near the lake.

She looked at Wang Xian and placed her zither on her lap.

"I practice music notes that are water attribution, using the flexibility of water to make a penetration attack."

As she spoke, she placed her slender and fair fingers on the zither.

Dingdong~

As the pleasant sound of the zither played, cool and moist air surged. Wang Xian narrowed his eyes slightly.

He observed the surroundings with his Piercing Eyes.

With his vision, he saw faint water-elemental energy gathering in the air. Tang Yinxuan was controlling the energy movement.

She could make these water elements condense into liquid arrows for assaulting or binding people.

On the surface of the lake, the water ripples began to ripple outwards in the opposite direction.

Fish surfaced out of the lakewater with their mouths open, waiting to be fed.

The entire situation formed a picture of a fairy playing zither with fish paying respect to her.

"You lack something!"

As he gazed upon Tang Yinxuan's petite figure, he froze for a moment as he hurriedly checked her eight extraordinary meridians.

With a tint of sapphire radiance flickering in Wang Xian's eyes, a blue water current encircled him.

The surrounding fish were excited as they leaped out of the water like they were jumping across it.

Tang Yinxuan, who was playing her zither, opened her eyes and looked at Wang Xian with disbelief on her face.

Marine Divine Dragon was swimming inside Wang Xian's eyes, and the surrounding water elements in the air were bouncy and spirited!

"Ready to make a breakthrough!" said Wang Xian to Tang Yinxuan.

Tang Yinxuan was slightly stunned. As she sensed the immense water elements in the air, a sharp radiance flickered in her eyes.

She immediately closed her eyes and stopped the music.

Wang Xian slowly extended out his arm as he guided the Water Spiritual Energy from his hand to Tang Yinxuan's body.

As soon as the Water Spiritual Energy entered her body, her cheeks flushed. She quickly focused, making use of the immense energy to make a breakthrough.

As the water energy kept pouring into her body, the energy in the surrounding air slowly disappeared.

Wang Xian frowned. He walked to Tang Yinxuan and placed his arm on her back.

Marine Dragon Energy streamed in.

Boom!

For a moment, intense and high-class energy was injected into Tang Yinxuan's body. She made a breakthrough immediately since she was already at the peak of her level.

Vague water flowed and circulated in her body rapidly.

"Thank you!"

She opened her eyes with a glimmer of excitement. She tilted her head slightly and thanked Wang Xian with a beaming face.

"You're welcome. I just want to find the killer as soon as possible!"

Wang Xian shook his head gently.

"Me too!"

Cold radiance flicked in Tang Yinxuan's eyes. After all, the target was her.

"I'll display all my power at tomorrow's concert. I'm sure they won't be able to sit around after that!"

Tang Yinxuan regained her aloof look as though nothing could affect her. Her personality was as calm as a millpond.

"Well, don't worry. You will be alright even if your enemy is an Inborn Expert!"

Wang Xian nodded.

"Thank you once again, Miracle Doctor Wang!"

Chapter 278: Draw The Snake Out Of The Hole

A shocking scene appeared in the eighty-thousand-person stadium in Lian City.

A beautiful girl was on the stage and singing in a soft and alluring voice. Fair and slender fingers were playing on the zither while a heart-touching voice resounded throughout the entire stadium.

Several tens of thousands of people stood in the spectator zone silently. They were completely engrossed in the beautiful voice and music.

In a corner of the spectator zone, a few people looked in shock at the stage.

"The music covers a thousand meters and is soothing the souls of everyone. There's also water spiritual energy gathering in the atmosphere! Half-step to Inborn! She has reached the Half-step to Inborn Realm!"

"This is bad. Things are getting complicated. Tang Yinxuan has reached the Half-step to Inborn Realm but missy hasn't. There's only a month left!"

"Now that Tang Yinxuan has two Inborn experts protecting her, we would need at least 500 spiritual stones to hire the Dark Conjurer to assassinate her! That's going to cost us 500 spiritual stones!"

"Let's get back and look through our plans again. Missy must become the Saintess no matter what, and we can't tolerate any mistakes!" a few people whispered softly among themselves before leaving silently.

In a stadium of several tens of thousands of people, no one had noticed their departure.

Wang Xian stood backstage and was watching the performance by Tang Yinxuan. A smile was revealed on his face.

This is what a real singer should be! Her voice is beautiful and she's at the level of a master in zither!

If she was to cry with this voice... Hehehe!

Wang Xian couldn't help but think licentiously for a moment. Following which, he revealed a light smile.

Soon, the concert ended after more than an hour. Tang Yinxuan returned backstage, smiling radiantly.

"Any strong martial artist would be able to tell my current cultivation level. If they are going to make a move, they would likely do so in the next few days!" Tang Yinxuan smiled and said.

"Thank you!" Wang Xian nodded his head at her.

"Yinxuan, your performance was perfect! It is simply stunning and more successful than your previous concerts! Oh my god! You are like a goddess on the stage that captures the hearts of your crowd. I believe that your fame will greatly increase after this concert!"

At this moment, the manager of Tang Yinxuan walked in and complimented her.

Upon hearing the compliments, Tang Yinxuan didn't smile at all. She looked plainly at her manager and said, "This will be my last concert. I won't be appearing in front of the public anymore."

"What? Yinxuan? What are you saying? Please don't joke about this!" The young man was flabbergasted upon hearing her and remarked hurriedly.

"Alright, from now on, you aren't my manager!"

Tang Yinxuan shook her head at him. Becoming a star was just a trial for herself. It was to train her to stand in front of an audience of over ten thousand while honing her zither skills and strength.

Now that her goals were reached, she naturally wouldn't continue being a singer.

The young man's face sank. However, he knew that Tang Yinxuan would not change a decision she had made.

"I'll be staying around Lian City for the next two days. I believe they will strike within the next two days if they are going to do something."

Tang Yinxuan ignored the young man, looking at Wang Xian as she spoke.

"Hmm. Alright. In that case, we shall stay in Lian City for two more days." Wang Xian nodded his head.

...

Lianfeng Lake was a well-known scenic location in Lian City. It was a lake that spanned several dozens of meters and flowed through ten huge mountains. There was a trekking path on the mountains and one could reach the peak by taking it.

There was also a shallow water stream below the peak with beautiful scenery.

As it wasn't a holiday, there weren't many people on it.

Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan arrived at the location below the peak with Tang Yinxuan.

The place was a little deserted and had a few benches along the way. Therefore, the group went over to take a seat.

Tang Yinxuan placed her zither on a stone table and took a look at Wang Xian who was beside her.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, I had not expected you to be a cultivator with water attribute. I believe your strength must be at least at the level of Inborn Realm!" Tang Yinxuan commented curiously.

She was thirty years old this year and her cultivation level had finally reached the Half-step to Inborn Realm. Even when compared to her peers in the Sacred Sects, she could be considered one of the most outstanding disciples.

However, Wang Xian had not only attained the eighth rank on the domestic Miracle Doctors Chart but had also reached the Inborn Realm by the age of twenty. Such talents were exceptional and rarely seen.

This made her a little curious about him.

Wang Xian shook his head, smiled and replied, "Nope, I'm only Level 7 currently!"

"Level 7 Martial Artist?" Tang Yinxuan was taken aback and wasn't convinced. From what he had demonstrated the previous day, how could he only be Level 7?

However, she soon recalled that some Miracle Doctors had extraordinary means. Therefore, she simply nodded her head.

"If there are really assassins later, Miracle Doctor Wang, you've got to be careful."

Tang Yinxuan took a glance at Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan before reminding Wang Xian with a smile.

"Rest assured. It won't be a problem. The two of them can go against four or five Inborn experts at the same time!"

Wang Xian smiled and didn't divulge his true strength.

Moreover, his current Level was indeed still just 7.

Time passed gradually and it was noontime soon. The group got some fish from the stream and was roasting them.

Tang Yinxuan was chatting with Wang Xian until noon.

Pleasing music sounded from below the mountain peak. Wang Xian sat by the side, smiling and watching the beautiful girl in front of him playing the zither.

Tang Yinxuan smiled back at him.

The sound of water flowing formed a perfect melody with the music from the zither. Hearing the perfect melody, one's mood instantly improved.

"Hehe! How fearless is she to be playing her zither leisurely in this place!"

"She must be emboldened by the fact that she has two Inborn experts as bodyguards. After all, that's quite an impressive lineup!"

"The sun is setting and the mountain peak is dyed blood-red from the sun rays. Let's make the red a little brighter with their blood!"

At this moment, eight people stood at the peak and edge of the mountain, looking at the four miniature figures below them while conversing casually.

"Two Inborn experts! Hehe. Leave the two Inborn experts to the four of us. The four of you shall go and slay Tang Yinxuan. Once you guys have killed her, we will leave immediately."

"As for the third person, just kill him if he doesn't know what's good for him!" said an old man with a faint smile.

On his arm, a centipede that was approximately twenty centimeters long was crawling constantly.

"500 spiritual stones! It is worth the time and effort for the four of us to strike!"

An extremely ugly old man lowered his stance slowly.

Rustle, rustle, rustle!

Weird sounds came from all directions and one could see countless poisonous bugs appearing in the surroundings.

There were lots of poisonous bugs as they filled the area.

Spiders, scorpions, centipedes, crickets...

"Hehe, surround them and let the hunting begins!"

An old man let out a heart-wrenching cry and countless snakes charged down the peak at an astonishing speed.

The eight people at the peak of the mountain leaped into the air at the same time, seemingly unconcerned by the fact that they were on the peak more than a hundred meters high.

Below the peak, Wang Xian, who was watching Tang Yinxuan play the zither, sensed something and immediately looked up.

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan stood up, lifted their heads and squinted their eyes.

Tang Yinxuan's stopped playing her zither abruptly as her expression turned cold.

"Is it them?" Wang Xian asked Tang Yinxuan.

"From their clothing, it looks like them. However, I'm not entirely sure!"

Tang Yinxuan looked at the eight people pouncing towards them and was instantly shocked.

"This is bad. They have four Inborn experts!"

Chapter 279: Killing an Inborn Expert With a Single Palm-strike (1)

Looking at the four nimble Elders, there was a huge change in Tang Yinxuan's facial expression, which began to look awful.

"Little did I expect four Inborns from the other party to deal with me! This..." Tang Yinxuan uttered in disbelief, for these were four Inborns.

To her, to have three Inborn experts coming was itself an overstatement, given their status.

It was the norm to have two Inborns followed by a group of seven to eight Half-step Inborns.

Just two of her top-notch bodyguards handling a couple of the Inborn experts would have more than sufficed.

Yet, they were now faced with four Inborn experts with another four Half-step Inborns.

This had far exceeded her expectations.

Who is it? Paying such a huge price just to have me killed.

Tang Yinxuan wondered with a tinge of paleness across her face.

Given the situation upfront, there was no doubt about the impending danger.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, we'd better make our escape now," Tang Yinxuan shrieked in panic. The assassins sent by the opponent were indeed beyond her expectations.

"Trying to escape? Tsk tsk. Can you now?" the Elder smirked.

With one swift leap, he hopped onto the water's surface in front. He gradually lowered himself upon touching the surface.

Venomous snakes slithered out from his sleeves, slowly hissing and slithering their jet-black bodies into the water.

Heads raised and tongues sticking out, the snakes peered at Wang Xian and the gang with ice-cold stares.

More than a score of snakes had slithered out from the sleeves.

It was terrifying to think that an Elder had that many snakes hidden on him.

"Tang Yinxuan, targeted by us Dark Conjurers. Scram now should you three want to live. Otherwise, we'll kill all of you," the hideous Elder told Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan while standing in front of them.

Smack, smack, smack

While the two Elders spoke, a group of eight surrounded the trio, eyeing them coldly.

"You're the same group that tried to assassinate us previously," Tang Yinxuan blurted out. Her face had gone a tad paler as she gripped onto her zither.

"Hah! Your bodyguards back then were pretty good, causing serious injury to two of our Dark Conjurers. But you won't be so lucky today, young lass!" said the Elder with no intention to hide anything, while standing atop the water's surface.

To them, no concealment was necessary, for it already appeared to be mission accomplished this time. Such was the confidence of the experts.

Which was also owing to the prowess of the Dark Conjurers.

"Dark Conjurer," Mo Qingling and Mo Yuan muttered as they swept their gazes across the four Inborn experts coldly, their eyes slightly squinted.

Dark Conjurers, renowned for half a century, were amongst the apex of assassination groups in the underworld.

The group had tried to assassinate experts from the Sacred Sect in several attempts. They even managed to silence a Sacred Sect Elder once.

The same Scared Sect had once made an order to kill, vowing to annihilate the Dark Conjurers, which ended up having been in vain. For they had no clue as to the whereabouts of the Dark Conjurer's hideout.

Since then, the fame of the Dark Conjurers had spread far and wide. Only the Hidden Assassins could be considered on par with them.

"The audacity to kill my Dragon Sect disciples! I shall annihilate you Dark Conjurers," Mo Qinglong hollered as he turned his gaze towards the Elder. His eyes were overwhelmed with a murderous look.

"Dare you to retaliate," the Elder challenged.

"This is interesting," Mo Qinglong rebutted.

"Kill, kill them all," ordered the Elder. With a shift, the few Inborn experts lunged directly towards Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan.

With not a word further, the killings came down swift and decisive as expected of assassins.

What's more, these were explicit attempts made by powerful assassins!

"All of you shall die," roared the duo. With one shrug, an immense demonic aura oozed out of both Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan, rampaging above their heads like an evil dragon.

Their arms were slowly covered by scales, piece by piece. They resembled the arms of a wild beast.

Boom!

Emboldened in a powerful stance, the duo pounced straight for the four Inborn experts with swirling devilish aura.

"Oh? Such a formidable stance," the four Dark Conjurers yelped. Their faces grew heavy at the sight of the duo's stance, slightly taken aback.

"The four of you, kill Tang Yinxuan," ordered one of the Dark Conjurers, who proceeded straight for Mo Qinglong following one swift move.

Venomous worms spilled out from under his feet and followed in his attack.

"Claws of the Devil Dragon!" Mo Qinglong roared.

Looking on coldly, Mo Qinglong extended his arms. The devilish aura scampered from above his head and wrapped itself around his arms. A dragon's claw two meters long was formed, and it began to attack.

"Slaughter," the Elder ordered. With the twitch of an arm, a bone-blade appeared, which he aimed straight at Mo Qinglong.

Below him, venomous worms leaped in masses. They aimed straight at Mo Qinglong for a bite.

However, within two meters from Mo Qinglong, all the worms began to twitch and shiver. They sprawled on the ground, not daring to move.

As Mo Qinglong swept his Claws of the Devil Dragon across, the look on the Dark Conjurer's face changed drastically. He retreated meters back.

"Pinnacle Inborn, he is an expert of the Pinnacle Inborn," one Dark Conjurer yelled.

"Joint attack," another shouted, and together, the two sieged an attack at Mo Qinglong.

Meanwhile, another two went straight for Mo Yuan.

"Just the two of you?" Mo Qinglong said smugly. As he lifted his head slightly, bouts of devilish aura circled and eyed the two, overwhelmed with an urge to kill.

The audacity of them to kill members of the Dragon Sect!

For that they shall be annihilated!

"How formidable!" Tang Yinxuan glanced over at Mo Qinglong in shock.

Yet, upon seeing the four Inborns as they made their attack on her, a subtle change of expression flicked across her face. She strummed her zither gently.

Once the zither was suspended in mid-air, Tang Yinxuan began strumming rapidly.

The melody from the zither switched from its usual lighthearted tune to that of one filled with chill and bloodthirst. Like a thunderstorm, it plucked at heartstrings and pricked at the core.

"Stay right behind me, Miracle Doctor Wang. I'll deal with them!" Tang Yinxuan said to Wang Xian with a heavy look.

Zoom, zoom!

Streaks of water began to form above the tune before transforming almost immediately into four sharp arrows. They darted straight for the four Half-step Inborns.

After the arrows were formed, Tang Yinxuan strummed again.

Voom, voom, voom!

Suddenly, ice needles formed from the water appeared alongside the four Dark Conjurers, surging past.

"Such a powerful melody, no doubt a disciple under the Heavenly Sound Sect. A target worthy of so many top assassins from us!" the quartet claimed.

They were slightly surprised upon seeing the attack but managed to recover quickly with smiles.

"A greenhorn in the world of the Half-step Inborns, regardless of power, shall die," they smirked.

Piercing daggers held by the quartet sliced through the ice pricks before coming straight for Tang Yinxuan.

"Such speed!" Tang Yinxuan said and closed her eyes briefly as they narrowed involuntarily.

Swish, swoosh!

Eerily, water from the stream behind her began ascending towards the sky.

"Oh no," Tang Yinxuan exclaimed. It was at this instant that the black snakes hopped into the water streaks. It forced Tang Yinxuan to open her eyes instantly, where a tinge of embarrassment had flashed across.

Ding!

With the flick of her finger, a water streak transformed into a sword and cut straight at the snakes behind her.

Then came another ambush from the back.

"Hmph, meet your doom!" the four Dark Conjurers claimed. In an instant, they snuck like ghosts and shot over with their piercing daggers!

Chapter 280: Killing An Inborn Expert With A Single Palm Strike (2)

"Heavenly Sound Acute Strike!"

Seeing four assassins approaching her, perspiration broke out on Tang Yinxuan's beautiful face.

Her fingers moved quickly on the zither and dense water attribute energy shot out like a waterfall.

Ding!

"Shit!"

Suddenly, Tang Yinxuan was shocked to notice that a string on her zither broke.

She slammed both of her hands heavily on the zither and a dense layer of water appeared in front of her.

The layer of water that spanned five to six meters and possessed immense energy swept towards the four approaching assassins.

"Haha, there's a saying in Heavenly Sound Sect that goes, 'One perishes or thrives with his instrument!' What an apt saying!"

When the four Half-step to Inborn experts saw the string on Tang Yinxuan's zither break, they smiled with bloodthirst.

The four assassins waved their daggers heavily. Dazzling glow shot out from the daggers and split the layer of water.

Bam!

Crack crack crack!

The four daggers landed on the zither, breaking it. Cracking sounds broke out.

"Let's go!"

Seeing her broken zither, tears welled up in Tang Yinxuan's eyes. Nonetheless, she turned around rapidly and, to the astonishment of Wang Xian, carried him up and fled in the opposite direction.

Uhm...

Wang Xian was shocked to be carried by a beautiful girl.

"This..."

Picking up the scent of Tang Yinxuan, Wang Xian was slightly embarrassed. He had wanted to make his move previously. However, he had not expected Tang Yinxuan to carry him away.

Do I need a woman to protect me?

Wang Xian was speechless. However, he felt a little apologetic when looking at Tang Yinxuan.

She chose to carry him away while sacrificing her beloved zither. This made Wang Xian a little touched.

"Escape? If you can escape from the hands of us, the Dark Conjurers, we wouldn't be known as the Dark Conjurers!"

An arrogant voice propagated, and soon, four hidden weapons shot towards them.

"Shit, hidden weapons!"

Tang Yinxuan was shocked. She immediately stopped in her tracks and dodged the hidden weapons by landing on the water surface.

She had Wang Xian carried in one hand as she was worried he would fall into the water. As she turned around, her face turned as white as a sheet as she saw the four assassins approaching.

Pa pa pa pa!

The four assassins surrounded Tang Yinxuan and stared mercilessly at her.

"Escape? You've got to ask if we, the Dark Conjurers, agree to it!" the four assassins said mockingly while staring at her.

"It's over!"

Tang Yinxuan's pale face stared intensely at the four Half-step to Inborn experts from the Dark Conjurers.

She turned her head to Wang Xian and remarked with a bitter expression, "I'm sorry. I had not expected these assassins to be this strong. Sorry for implicating you in this."

Seeing her apologizing to him, Wang Xian shook his head in embarrassment.

Luring the culprits out was his request and now they were stuck in such a situation.

Wang Xian felt that he had gone overboard by acting weak.

"It's alright. We will be fine too!"

Wang Xian smiled plainly at Tang Yinxuan before scanning across the four Half-step to Inborn experts from the Dark Conjurers.

Huh? Tang Yinxuan was confused to see Wang Xian smiling.

However, Wang Xian's voice sounded at this moment and disrupted her thoughts.

"This... Although my strength is that of Level 7, killing them is still an easy task for me!"

As she heard Wang Xian's response, she saw Wang Xian smiling at her.

Argh!

Four cries sounded around her. Tang Yinxuan was astounded as she looked around her immediately.

Her eyes popped wide open as she looked on in disbelief.

The four Half-step to Inborn experts were being held by water streams. Horror filled their faces as they desperately tried to break free with all their strength.

However, their attempts were futile and their bodies sank below the water's surface. Their eyes were filled with desolation and horror as they slowly sank below the surface.

"Sink!" said Wang Xian light-heartedly.

"Cough, cough... This... How... is this possible?"

The four assassins' eyes widened as their bodies sank gradually towards the bottom of the water bed.

"YOU..."

Tang Yinxuan turned her head around immediately and stared at Wang Xian in awe.

Feeling her arm still wrapped around his body, Tang Yinxuan immediately let go.

"Hehe. I wanted to make a move previously but you... Suddenly..."

Wang Xian shrugged his shoulders as he saw the expression on Tang Yinxuan changing and her eyes shimmering.

"Why didn't you make a move earlier? Tsk!" Tang Yinxuan sneered, turned around and dashed for the shore rapidly.

A poisonous snake attempted to bite her but was sent flying away with a wave and died horribly.

When she reached the shore and saw the zither that had cracked, she took a deep breath, slowly lowering her body and looking desolate.

She picked the pieces up one after another.

Wang Xian smiled bitterly and looked at the battle between Mo Qinglong, Mo

Yuan and the other four assassins. A cold murderous light flashed in his eyes.

Mo Qinglong was pinning down two Inborn experts. He was just like a devil dragon in human form as he swung his dragon claw around.

The two experts from the Dark Conjurer battling him looked wretched. On the floor, the poisonous bugs weren't moving at all. Some were dead while others were shivering in fear.

"Finish that guy quickly and help us out!"

That ugly old man was trying to defend himself bitterly as he shouted to the two experts from the Dark Conjurers fighting with Mo Yuan.

"Damn it!"

The other two experts from the Dark Conjurers were engaged in a bitter battle too. Although they had the upper hand against Mo Yuan, Mo Yuan's horrifying physical body didn't allow them to take advantage at all.

It would be extremely hard for them to defeat Mo Yuan.

How could they be so strong! the four experts from the Dark Conjurers thought to themselves bitterly.

They were planning to flee the moment Tang Yinxuan was killed.

"You shall pay with your lives for killing the people from our Dragon Sect! We will definitely eradicate the Dark Conjurer!"

"Eradicate!"

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan shouted in unison as they launched a fearsome barrage of attacks.

"I'll definitely eradicate the Dark Conjurers!"

Wang Xian walked over and locked onto the four Inborn experts from the Dark Conjurers. The next moment, he struck!

"Shit! Where are An Ying and the rest?"

When the old man that was engaged in an intense battle with Mo Yuan saw Wang Xian attacking him, he was shocked.

A bad feeling welled up in him.

"Just a brat and you're thinking of interfering. Let me kill you first!"

The old man broke free from his battle with Mo Yuan instantly. Moving like a phantom, he attacked Wang Xian.

Bam!

As an assassin, his movement techniques and speed were definitely top class.

The old man was extremely fast as he attacked Wang Xian. However, the speed he was knocked back at was also very fast. It was as though he was hit by a cruising airplane!

A black figure was knocked back!

Bam!

The body of the old man was entrenched into the mountain directly, his eyes still opened wide and filled with disbelief.

"What?"

The other three old men from the Dark Conjurers were completely dumbfounded as they looked across.

They saw... that young man brushing off the dust from his hands casually.

Killing an Inborn expert with a single strike!

"This..."

A short distance away, Tang Yinxuan, who was picking up the pieces of her broken zither, saw it too. Her eyes opened wide and were filled with astonishment. She wasn't as composed and calm as she used to be at all.

"This rascal!"

Chapter 281: Crushed the Dark Conjurer with the Abyss (1)

Finding it hard to believe, Tang Yinxuan gritted her teeth in anger.

How could this fellow have not taken a strike, given his incredulous powers? The fight would have ended long ago had he done so.

Moreover...

As she looked at her zither, she felt more enraged.

To the Heavenly Sound Sect, the destinies of the zither and its owner are intertwined. To make matters worse, this zither had been gifted to her by her mother.

Although this zither was no longer on par with her standards, she could not bear to have it replaced.

In the absence of her mother, the zither helped to alleviate some of her longings.

But now, the zither had been ruined.

...

"You... how is this possible. Just how could this be!" the three Dark Conjurers fighting with Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan shrieked in astonishment. Fixing their gaze at Wang Xian in disbelief, their faces changed drastically.

"All followers of the Dark Conjurers shall die!" Wang Xian proclaimed. Despite his somber expression, he let out a glimpse of a smile.

Since it was an assassination group that had murdered Mo Ersan and Mo Sanyi, they shall be annihilated.

"Spare one, so we can find out about the Dark Conjurer's hideout," Wang Xian said dully.

"Trying to locate our base? Dream on! You're never going to find it, even at the cost of our lives!" the hideous Elder snapped with a grimace. His body was showing patches of crimson.

To which, all surrounding venomous worms were drawn to him. As they flew over, they attached themselves onto his body.

Buzz, buzz, buzz!

The worms penetrated through his skin and into his body, forming patches of blood puss. The fact that they came in shades and hues made them appear all the more grotesque.

"We will seek revenge for us Dark Conjurers. All of you shall perish, including your loved ones!" said the nasty-faced Elder. Meanwhile, the attire on him started to melt rapidly as it gave off buzzing sounds.

A foul smell, with a mix of stale blood and whiffs of venomous liquids, was emitted from his body.

Soon enough, a monster-like creature emerged right before their eyes.

With a swerve, the monster lashed directly for Mo Yuan.

"Run!" two Dark Conjurer experts shouted, a drastic change of expression striking across their faces. With a swift turn, they tried escaping to further grounds.

"Trying to escape? Can you?" Mo Qinglong challenged them as he gave chase.

"Venomous creature?" Mo Yuan quizzed. He looked on coldly as the monster approached, about to attack.

As a member of the bloodline of the Divine Dragon, and one who practiced the Devil Powers, he showed no fear in the face of venom.

"How disgusting!" Wang Xian yelled. As he looked at the creature, which was oozing with the corpse fluid of venomous worms, he flanked his arm.

Streaks of water flowed from the riverbank and gathered over to his side.

Seizing the opportunity, Mo Yuan swept his dragon's claw past and smashed the claw into pieces.

Following the attack, Mo Yuan shifted his stance and chased after the two Dark Conjurer experts with lightning speed.

Given the capabilities of Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan, it took them little effort to apprehend the duo who were seriously battered.

Bam!

Appalled, the two Elders were flung onto the ground, faces overwhelmed by pain and despair.

Raising their heads, they saw Wang Xian and the others approaching, and greeted them with grimaces.

Never in their wildest dreams had they expected to fail this mission.

Prior to this attempt, it had appeared to them that nothing would go wrong, having dispatched four Inborn experts.

Nonetheless, they still failed.

On the other hand, killing them appeared so effortless, thanks to the existence of this formidable trio.

From what they could recall, the only time they'd had to face such formidable experts was more than a decade earlier. During which, the Sacred Sect had sent out orders to exterminate the Dark Conjurers.

The entire Sacred Sect was deployed, and it was only then that the Dark Conjurers felt a looming sense of crisis.

Yet, this trio had given them the same impression this time round.

"Force it out of them. Make them spill out about the Dark Conjurers' hideout," Wang Xian told Mo Qinglong as they stood beside one another.

"Yes, Young Master!" replied Mo Qinglong while nodding. Slowly, he walked over to one of the Dark Conjurer experts and stared coldly in his face.

"Hah! Trying to make us spill on our hideout? Dream on!" the two Elders snapped. They glared on, eyes filled with bloodthirst; and as they turned, they were ready to end their own lives.

Bang!

With quick reflexes, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan reacted swiftly. Kicking at one of the Elder's Elixir Fields, they managed to stop them from attempting suicide.

After all, they had been trained assassins!

"Trying to end your life? How could we let you have it that easy?" Mo Qinglong snorted with a dismissive face.

"Hah! Hah!" laughed the two Dark Conjurer elders. Despite looking miserable, their gaze remained prickly cold.

Extreme disdain swept past their faces.

"You won't get any information from us; not even the Sacred Sect could manage. What's more, you people amongst all?" asked the two elders.

"Seems like there has been some serious brainwashing going on for these Dark Conjurers!" Mo Qinglong responded, slightly embarrassed. With a fling of his arm, he emitted a bout of devilish aura. The aura circled the duo's noses, eyes, and ears; before making its way into their bodies and entering their minds.

In an instant, the duo went into a daze, appearing as though their minds had gone blank.

"Out with it! Reveal your hideout," Mo Qinglong questioned flatly.

"Haha! Haha! Ah, ah, ah!" the two elders laughed goofily. Suddenly, this was followed by a loud cry.

This made Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan uneasy.

"Just kill them," Wang Xian replied, jaded.

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan nodded as they looked on awkwardly.

"Little wonder why they remained in existence, despite the Sacred Sect issuing the order to kill. Each member of the Dark Conjurers has been hypnotized with a mental block. There's simply no way of learning about their base from them!" they said in realization.

"That remains to be seen," Wang Xian interrupted. Looking towards the river flow, he spotted a few of the black venomous snakes and peered at them coldly.

"Oh? Do you have a plan in mind, Young Master?" Mo Qinglong asked, somewhat stunned by the remark.

"There's a way," Wang Xian answered with a faint smile. He wanted to achieve what the Sacred Sect could not.

"This time, we'll wipe out the Dark Conjurers. We'll get ahold of the one who gave the order to kill us, and get rid of them altogether!" Wang Xian proclaimed placidly. As he did so, he stretched his arm out slightly, pointing in the direction of the river flow.

Instantaneously, the snakes shivered. As they lowered their heads, they swam towards Wang Xian, cowered in fear.

Tsk ts. Tsk ts.

Three snakes hissed as they lay beneath his feet, overwhelmed by fright.

"You happen to know where the Dark Conjurers are hiding?" Wang Xian asked the snakes composedly. Meanwhile, a message was being transmitted into their brains.

While the snakes were not bright creatures, they still knew a thing or two to say the least.

The three snakes nodded their heads, as if in response.

"Good!" Wang Xian returned with a toned smile. While the Dark Conjurers could induce a mental block on their assassins, they could not do the same on snakes.

Never would the Dark Conjurers have expected that as a Divine Dragon, Wang Xian could command other living creatures; even understanding them in their language.

Prowess of the Divine Dragon rules the entire animal kingdom indeed!

"Old Mo, summon those Dragonians from the Abyss as well. We should challenge those seniors since they too have founded a similar group. Let's see if we can pick up some of their skills!" Wang Xian instructed Mo Qinglong as he broke out in a radiant smile.

"Yes, Young Master. We'll contact the Abyss right away," Mo Qinglong answered while nodding. "To think that these seven founded the Abyss without a single henchmen. How absurd!" he chuckled.

"Let them be. The Abyss doesn't need much manpower anyway, so long as they're able to helm control over the world!" Wang Xian laughed back.

With the Abyss, we shall crush the Dark Conjurers!

Chapter 282: Crushed the Dark Conjurers With The Abyss (2)

"Tang Yinxuan, for the next month, let me arrange a safe place for you. We have some matters to attend to!"

Walking back from Lianfeng Lake, Wang Xian looked at Tang Yinxuan, who was hugging her broken zither, and spoke to her awkwardly.

"It's alright. I'll go back to my Sect. I will be extremely safe there!"

Tang Yinxuan took a glance at him and soon turned her head back. "I'll tell my father that your mission has been completed."

Hmm!

Wang Xian nodded his head and the group found a hotel within the city center.

On the second day, the four of them took a plane to Ning City. This was the sacred ground of the Heavenly Sound Sect.

Having sent Tang Yinxuan safely into her sect, Wang Xian looked at Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan and asked, "Have they arrived?"

"They are all waiting at the Dong Ling Mountain Range!" answered Mo Qinglong as he nodded his head.

Dong Ling Mountain Range was the largest mountain range in the country and spanned over a thousand kilometers with a width reaching two to three hundred kilometers. It was also the largest primitive mountain forest in the country.

Within this primitive mountain range, there were various kinds of wild animals and a Dong Ling River that was several hundreds of kilometers long.

Famous mountains and huge streams were known to be the breeding ground for monsters.

At the edge of the Dong Ling Mountain Range, Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan approached rapidly.

There were few people in this area and they were surrounded by pine trees, red spruce trees, white birch trees, poplar trees and many other kinds of plants. Every single tree was huge and over ten meters tall.

Between the trees, there was a small path that led to the mountain ranges.

At this moment, barely anyone was using the path.

"Young master, they are in one of the mountain peaks ahead!"

Mo Qinglong pointed to the highest mountain peak in front of him.

Wang Xian nodded his head. Moving off, he was like a huge roc spreading his wings as he leaped several tens of meters in a single jump. Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan followed closely behind him.

"Dragon King!"

At the peak of one of the mountains, seven figures in black attire stood on seven different trees. Seeing that Wang Xian had arrived, the seven of them immediately went on their knees.

"Not bad!"

Wang Xian scanned across the seven people and revealed a smile. Among the seven people, three of them had reached the Half-step to Inborn Realm while the other four were Level 9 Martial Artists.

This was a remarkable improvement.

"Let's go to the nest of the Dark Conjurers!" Wang Xian said to the seven people.

"Yes, Dragon King!"

The seven people lifted their heads. To Wang Xian's surprise, all of them put on masks.

They were masks made of metal with the design of a horrifying and savage devil.

At the location of the forehead on the masks, there was the word "Kill" in red. The mask together with their black attire made them look extremely dangerous!

"That's pretty cool!" Wang Xian smiled as he looked at the seven stunning masks.

"Dragon King, we have a few more here!"

A dragonian took out three more masks and passed them to Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan respectively

"Haha, just right! Ten of us!" Wang Xian laughed as he put on the Abyss Mask.

The mask felt a little cold but was comfortable. It also didn't affect one's breathing and speech. Wang Xian didn't know what material it was made of.

Together with the black casual sports attire he was wearing today, it was quite a good match.

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan also received the masks and wore them.

In that instant, a faint silent killing aura surrounded the group.

"Let's go!"

Moving his arm, a black poisonous snake appeared on Wang Xian's hand. The head of the poisonous snake pointed in a certain direction.

The ten of them moved rapidly as they pivoted off the mountain peaks that were five to six hundred meters tall.

They were just like figures in mythology who could cover several tens of meters with a single leap.

"What a majestic view!"

Wang Xian landed on the tip of a tree on the mountain peak as he looked around and was slightly shocked by the scene.

Within the primitive mountain ranges, there were wild boars, rabbits, chickens and all kinds of animals running around.

As the poisonous snake did not have its intelligence manifested, it couldn't express an exact location. Therefore, the group could only search for the location.

Nonetheless, their speed was incredibly fast. When moving at full speed, they could reach a hundred kilometers an hour.

Splash!

After moving through the mountain ranges for four hours, a huge waterfall appeared in their sight. Below it was a huge river.

This must be the Dong Ling River! Wang Xian thought to himself before taking a glance at the surroundings.

"Let's take a break here. Go get some wild animals to eat!"

"Yes, Dragon King!"

The dragonians nodded their heads and dispersed to the surroundings to look for food.

Wang Xian walked to the edge of the river and looked at the waterfall.

Soon, the dragonians returned with wild chickens, rabbits and some fish.

Wang Xian opened his mouth, took out the dragon ball and placed it on the floor like a piece of roasting equipment.

The wild animals were delicious and more fragrant than typical meals. The aroma of the meat could whet one's appetite.

Wang Xian sat on a stone bench while observing the surroundings with a faint smile.

Rattle rattle rattle!

"There's water ahead. We finally found a water source! This mountain is really dirty. Wash up and let's have lunch!"

"I wonder if we could find that spiritual treasure. Eh! There are people here!"

At this moment, a group of over a dozen people walked out from the forest. The group was made up of men of different ages.

They had uniform style longswords in their hands and everyone wore identical yellow attire.

The group walked out from the forest of the mountain and looked inquisitively at Wang Xian's group.

When their eyes fell on the masks on their faces, they were baffled.

"What a strange group of people!"

"They are most likely martial artists!"

They whispered softly among themselves and headed towards where the river was.

"Xiao Yuan, get a few people with you to hunt some wild animals and start a fire here. We will be taking a break!" a middle-aged man instructed a few young men.

"Yes, master!"

The group of young men nodded their heads before dispersing. Some went into the forest while others went into the river to catch fish.

"I guess they are here to capture that spiritual animal too. It seems like there will be several sects and families who will be here!"

The middle-aged man took a glance at where Wang Xian and the group were before whispering to the two old men beside him.

"Hehe! We certainly must get the spiritual animals. Within this vast mountain range, there are really lots of treasures!" an old man commented confidently as he observed the surroundings.

The middle-aged man beside him smiled and revealed an equally confident look.

"Wandong, come over. Lend me your sword to start a fire!"

Beside them, a young man shouted at the other man.

"Don't use my sword! We can just start a flame by getting a spark from the others."

That young man pouted and directed his eyes at Wang Xian and the crowd.

"All of them are wearing masks and are likely not very sociable!" the young man saw Wang Xian's group wearing mask and reminded softly.

"Haha, we are just getting a spark from them. Moreover, they have to remove the masks at some point to eat! Otherwise, they will have to tear their food into shreds before eating!"

The young man chuckled and walked towards Wang Xian directly.

Chapter 283: Crushed the Dark Conjurer with the Abyss (3)

"Gentlemen, could you spare us a fire to start ours?" a young man said to Wang Xian and the gang as he approached. But soon enough, he was stunned by the sight of the Dragon Ball on the ground.

Emitting a gentle flame, the Dragon Ball helped to roast the peasants and hare caught in the wild.

"Gentlemen, this fire-starter of yours, what... what is it?" the young man asked as he expressed his shock.

"There's no fire to lend. Off you go!" a Dragonian replied to the young man apathetically as he raised his head. Donning a face mask from the Abyss and speaking indifferently, the Dragonian appeared strikingly aloof.

As he saw the Dragonian's icy gaze, the young man turned and stepped away. "Just say so if you don't wish to spare. No need to say there's none when it's just right there!" the young man pouted.

When he returned, he was received by another young man in sarcasm.

"Ah ha! Why did you fail? Like I said, one look and you can tell that group of men is difficult to get along with," the latter remarked snidely.

"Humph, just a few who can't even show their faces! What's so great about them?" the young man complained in resentment.

"Though I have to admit, their fire-starter looks pretty amazing. It's a bead colored bright crimson. And the bead emits fiery red flames from the top!" the young man continued.

"A Flame Bead?" this fellow asked with a face full of doubt, slightly taken by surprise.

To which, the young man replied, "Yeah, a bead. One which emits streaks of flames from the top!"

"A bead?" came a questioning voice. The conversation between the young men was overheard by several middle-aged elders nearby.

Astounded, one of the elders sporting crimson hair began to shift his gaze. He looked over in the direction where Wang Xian and the gang were.

When he spotted the Dragon Ball on the ground, a glow flickered over his eyes as they narrowed.

"What is it, Old Huo?" a one-eyed elder asked. He had a look of doubt on his face, as if sensing something amiss.

"That's a Flame Bead!" the red-haired elder exclaimed while turning his head. As he said so, his eyes squinted into a deep gaze.

"Flame Bead, huh? That's a Spiritual Treasure of the Fire Element!" the one-eyed elder said in response.

"To think that they're using such a gem to feed a fire. What a waste!" the red-haired elder continued.

To which all the middle-aged elders sitting around turned their heads and looked over with sparkling eyes.

Every Spiritual Treasure has its strengths. Those of exceptional powers can even help their owner challenge someone to a class-superseding fight.

The crowd fixed their gaze on the Spiritual Treasure which was sustaining the fire with a glow in their eyes.

After exchanging glances, the elders said "Come on!" in unison and slowly made their way over.

"Greetings, I am Leng Wujian from the Guang Shan Sword Sect!" The red-haired elder introduced himself.

While walking over, he eyed Wang Xian and the gang; but his eyes were mainly fixated on the Dragon Ball.

"Speak!" Mo Yuan answered sparingly.

"Everyone, it's a waste to be using this Flame Bead for a fire. I would like to buy this Flame Bead with fifty Spiritual Stones. What do you say?" the elder offered.

Although Spiritual Treasures such as the Flame Bead and Water Bead were not exceptionally rare, an ordinary Flame Bead would have cost anything between sixty to seventy Spiritual Stones.

Fifty Spiritual Stones, as offered by the elder, was a price much lower than usual rates.

"No, we're not selling. Leave us alone," Wang Xian rejected outright as he looked over at the five.

"Are you not?" the red-haired elder inquired again, completely unaffected by the response.

He briefly skimmed past the people around.

Stretching his hands, ten Steel Beads appeared in each of his palms, each the size of a thumb.

Which thereafter, went straight for Wang Xian and the gang, and began to attack.

But each one of the Steel Beads had not struck them at their vital points, which made it obvious that this was merely a test.

Bang, bang, bang!

A Dragonian swung his arm, and the stones lying around began swerving towards the Metal Beads in counterattack.

Scores of stones had managed to intercept the Steel Beads mid-air.

"Eh?" the red-haired elder exhaled. His eyes dimmed wearily, seeing how one person was all it took to intercept the attack by his ten Steel Beads.

Standing next to the red-haired elder, the one-eyed elder waved his arm at Wang

Xian and gang.

"Haha! Such Kungfu skills you have, gentlemen! I'm in awe!" he praised. [\[1\]](#)

Meanwhile, the one-eyed elder exuded a mild but powerful Inborn aura, which could not go unnoticed.

"Sorry to have disturbed you, gentlemen!" the elder excused himself and gave a wide smile. As he turned around to take his leave, the rest in his company followed quietly and left with glistening eyes.

"Huh?" A few Dragonians gestured as they eyed the elder and company, before turning towards Wang Xian and the gang.

"Kill!" Mo Qinglong ordered in a single word when he saw Wang Xian remaining silent.

"The masked man who stopped my Steel Beads earlier. He's rather capable, a Half-Step Inborn expert to say the least. But the abilities of the other nine are unknown," commented the red-haired elder.

"We'd better not antagonize them since we don't know what they're capable of!" the others chipped in.

"Such a pity though. I wonder what level that Flame Bead of theirs is!" the group of middle-aged elders trailed off as they went.

It was very common for people to kill and loot within these deep mountains and meandering streams.

But they were more alert in comparison, having tested the abilities of the other party.

Zoom, zoom, zoom!

Just then, they heard the sound of stomping coming from behind. The faces of the five intensified and they turned around immediately.

They saw a group of masked men coming straight at them. They were closing in for a fierce attack as ferocity filled their faces.

"What?" the elders screeched, mildly shocked.

"They have a death wish. How dare they attack us!" hollered the red-haired elder. With an unyielding face, he drew his long sword.

"Hah! Do you realize your foolishness for testing an assassin from the Abyss earlier!" a Dragonian ridiculed unsparingly. As bloodthirst filled their eyes, the Dragonians charged directly at the elders.

Mo Yuan too made his move, and he targeted straight for the one-eyed Inborn elder. Whereas the other three Half-Step Inborns focused on the red-haired elder. After all, Mo Yuan was an Inborn Expert as well.

"Assassins from the Abyss?" blurted the crowd from Guang Shan Sword Sect, slightly startled. Faces dimmed as they drew their swords immediately.

"I don't care who you guys are. By attacking us, you're asking for doom!" the red-haired elder and one-eyed elder bellowed in unison. In a change of stance, the duo imposed a terrifying Inborn aura, which surged ahead toward Mo Yuan's group of eight.

"Tsk tsk, I'll send the bunch of you to the Abyss!" a Dragonian remarked.

"Send them to the Abyss!" the rest of the Dragonians chimed in and charged ahead with bloodthirst.

"Send us to the Abyss..." one of the middle-aged elders mumbled.

Little by little, his face was overcome by shock. "You are... Assassins from the Abyss!" the elder shrieked in realization.

"What! Assassins from the Abyss!" five elders yelped in a state of panic.

Assassins from the Abyss, or the Abyss in short, was a group of powerful killers that had newly emerged in the underworld.

The Abyss became known after having wiped out another assassination group within the underworld. In addition, they had risen further in fame when they assassinated an Inborn Expert from the Gambling City within a short time span.

This powerful force had made their mark despite its recent establishment. This no doubt made it a force not to be reckoned with.

Assassins, one of the most haunting existences in the underworld.

Faces on the members from the Guang Shan Sword Sect grew bleak. Never had they expected to incur the wrath of the Abyss Assassins with a mere test.

As for the assassins, they would show no mercy. Incur their wrath, and endless killing awaits!

Endnote:

[1] Kungfu refers to "Martial Arts" Back

Chapter 284: Crushed the Dark Conjurer With The Abyss (4)

"I'll send you guys into the abyss. What a catchy slogan!"

Wang Xian sat by the side and watched the seven dragonians chanting the slogan. On his face, a smile was revealed.

The seven dragonians created the Abyss and wore the Abyss Masks. Together with the slogan of "I'll send you guys into the abyss," they looked extremely attention-grabbing and cool.

He looked plainly at the seven dragonians battling the crowd from the Guang Shan Sword Sect.

These five people from the Guang Shan Sword Sect were rather interesting too. They were probing and trying to find out the strength level of Wang Xian's group initially. When they realized Wang Xian's group were stronger, they immediately wanted to leave.

Wang Xian was sure that if the other party found them to be weaker, the other party would definitely kill them and plunder their valuables.

"A group with no idea of death or dangers! What a stupid way to die!"

Assassins wouldn't be merciful. When the Guang Shan Sword Sect wanted to probe about their strength level, their outcome had been decided!

"Shit! Master, Elders and the Vice Sect Leader are fighting with them!"

At this moment, the disciples from Guang Shan Sword Sect, who were starting the fire and returning from their hunting in the forest, were shocked to see their people engaged in battle.

"I'll send you guys into the abyss. That's the slogan of the Abyss!"

"Assassins from the Abyss! They are assassins from the Abyss!"

"How did Vice Sect Leader and our Elders offend them?"

The group of Guang Shan Sword Sect's disciples were flabbergasted. They immediately grabbed their longswords and stared worryingly at the battles.

The young man, who had gone to borrow a light, was breaking out in cold sweat. Looking at the group of people in black attire and wearing the Abyss Masks fighting with his Vice Sect Leader and Elders, he couldn't help but swallow his saliva.

Luckily, he had not made rude remarks about them. Otherwise...

However, he soon recalled that he seemed to have mocked them previously.

Argh!

At this moment, three cries resounded.

The old man with red hair and the old man with a single eye were surprised as they looked to the side immediately.

"It's time to enter the Abyss!"

A cold and deep voice sounded as the three middle-aged men lay on the floor. Their eyes were wide-open and their expressions were filled with disbelief.

"Die!"

The savage-looking masks appeared in front of the old man with red hair and the old men with a single eye. Feeling the powerful and intense attacks, the two old men were horrified.

"We... Why did we offend them?"

The despair that originated from the abyss slowly crept upon them. Their eyes were wide open as they narrowly withstood wave after wave of horrifying attacks.

Bam!

In less than twenty seconds, two figures smashed heavily towards the waterfall.

Signs of life had completely slipped off their bodies.

"Just two Exploratory Inborn experts and yet you dared to mess with us?"

Mo Yuan looked at the corpse being carried away by the waters with contempt before returning to the side of Wang Xian.

The other dragonians also turned their heads over and returned to their initial position.

However, one of the dragonians paused and looked towards that young man.

"No, no... Don't kill me. Don't kill me!"

That young man, who had mocked them previously, was shivering and flustered as he noticed the assassin from the Abyss that had easily killed his Vice Sect Leader and Elder looking at him.

The other disciples of Guang Shan Sword Sect were also horrified as they stumbled back constantly.

"Your tongue is a little loose. Let me send you into the Abyss!"

That dragonian stared at the young man. The next moment, he moved.

"No... Don't!" The young man waved the longsword in his hand and was screaming with desperation.

Argh... Cough, cough!

Soon, the cries died down. He landed on his knees before falling flat.

Sss.

The dragonian walked back to his position emotionlessly, ignoring the remaining members of the Guang Shan Sword Sect.

The remaining disciples of the Guang Shan Sword Sect were shivering in fear at this moment as they witnessed the development of events.

"Run, run now! They are... They are the devils of the Abyss!"

The group glanced at the ten people wearing masks before running away in the opposite direction in horror.

"We will move out after eating!"

Wang Xian looked plainly at the corpses around him and didn't say another word.

The Abyss wasn't the embodiment of justice. If one had no idea of death or danger and offended them, his outcome would be identical to what the seven dragonians had said.

I'll send you guys into the abyss.

"Let's go!"

After finishing the meal, the group dashed towards the depths of Dong Ling Mountain Range again.

"We are almost there!" After an hour, Wang Xian slowed down abruptly and spoke to the dragonians around him.

He landed on the peak of a mountain and placed the poisonous snake on the ground.

Sss sss!

The black poisonous snake flicked its tongue out before crawling forward rapidly.

Wang Xian and the group followed closely behind.

Sss sss!

Just as the poisonous snake surmounted three peaks, it stopped and flicked its tongue out rapidly. Wang Xian and the group who had been following it were taken aback.

Ahead of them, countless small poisonous bugs lay on the ground.

The black poisonous snake flicked its tongue and these poisonous bugs seemed to have picked up the scent of their kind as they moved aside and opened a path.

"Poisonous bug! This mountain has lots of poisonous bugs!"

Wang Xian squinted his eyes and looked around him. On one of the branches, there was another black poisonous snake resting. If they were careless and were ambushed by it, they would likely die on the spot.

On a stone a short distance away, a scorpion lifted its tail up high. A faint green glow was shimmering on its tail.

"We are likely nearing the nest of the Dark Conjurers."

Wang Xian smiled faintly and commented, "The surrounding defenses of the Dark Conjurers are much stronger than the Flame Palace. Even an Inborn expert could fall and lose his life here if he was careless!"

Wang Xian waved his arms and the grass below the group grew at an astonishing speed.

The grass slowly surrounded them and prevented the poisonous bugs from attacking them or leaking the information of their arrival.

If the assassins of the Dark Conjurers could breed such poisonous snakes, these poisonous bugs would definitely be able to tip the Dark Conjurers off secretly.

Their bodies were almost entirely covered in grass as they followed behind the poisonous snake.

After surmounting two additional mountains, they noticed more and more poisonous animals. In fact, Wang Xian even saw a terrifying poisonous snake that was over six meters long.

The fangs of that poisonous snake were as huge as a person's fingers and looked horrifying. It would likely be able to kill experts below the Inborn Realm.

"Dangers are really lurking everywhere!"

Wang Xian observed the surroundings attentively. When they arrived at the peak, a huge mountain valley surfaced in front of him. Within the valley, there was a lake.

The lake was connected to the Dong Ling River.

The entire lake within the mountain valley was shrouded in fog. Heavenly rocs were flying over the lake and trees were grown around the lake. It was a majestic view.

"Huh? Who would have expected the center of what the poisonous animals were guarding to be such a beautiful lake."

Wang Xian looked down and saw the poisonous snake still crawling quickly. Its target seemed to be the lake in the middle of the valley.

Wang Xian wiggled, released himself from the grass that surrounded him, and followed behind the poisonous snake.

Grr... Woof, woof!

At this moment, an angry roar propagated and shook the atmosphere. The surrounding trees rustled from the shockwave.

"What?"

Wang Xian was taken aback and looked to his left.

Chapter 285: Heavenly Hound

It was a hound, about half a meter long.

It had a really long tail, where its yellow fur was especially luscious, extending for scores of centimeters.

A patch of fur concentrated on its upper front legs was exceptionally long, measuring up to half a meter.

With a full body of thick and rich fur, the hound exuded an overwhelming elegance.

Just then, the hound ascended more than a hundred meters with one leap, ending up on a tree.

Arching its head, the hound roared and howled like a fox. Its sharp eyes fixated on what lay behind.

"Over there. It's over there!" the crowd shouted.

As Wang Xian looked over, he saw hundreds of men chasing after them.

These men were from more than a dozen forces. Amongst them was a group whose attire had a huge "sheng" character written in the middle. [\[1\]](#)

This symbolized the Sacred Sect, one of the great powers.

Meanwhile, this group of men looked terrible. Many of them had even gone stale in the face, aided by others.

It was obvious they had been attacked by the venomous objects lurking around.

Astonished, Wang Xian looked on. He recalled what was said by members of the Guang Shan Sword Sect in their meeting earlier.

They had come to capture the Spiritual Animal, and it appeared that the hound up front could be it.

It was an exceptionally formidable hound. One whose abilities were that of Inborn-level, to say the least.

Yet, as Wang Xian swept his gaze across the multiple forces, he spotted Inborn Experts in every one of them. This made them no less powerful.

A young man looked fixated on the majestic hound as it stood atop the tree. He was wearing the attire with a "sheng" character on it.

"Still trying to escape? Try that again, and we'll make dog soup out of you once we've got you!" the young man boasted with a smug look.

An elder skimmed past the various forces.

"This creature will make a good Sacred Animal, guarding the doors for us Sacred Soul Sect. Therefore, take your leave everyone," he claimed squarely. His face exuded an air of dignity, which tolerated no defiance.

"The able shall own the Spiritual Creature. Even if a Sacred Sect is around, we're not going to make wasteful trips! Otherwise, we'll suffer huge losses," another elder retorted in a low pitch.

Behind him stood several young men. They had been poisoned, their faces a bluish hue and covered in bandages.

"That's right, fair competition. Should your Sacred Sect win by merit, we'll concede defeat wholeheartedly," another elder continued, expression dimmed.

Having expended so much effort, the loss incurred would be great should they simply back off. They simply could not take this lying down. As a display of their determination, all the forces remained where they were.

While the Sacred Soul Sect pored over the various troops, the faces on their members grew darker. "Alright then, it's decided," they replied coldly.

"Charge! Capture the Heavenly Hound, and bring it back to our Sect for taming!"

With the Sacred Soul Sect members nodding resignedly, an elder charged forward. He went straight for the Heavenly Hound, which stood in front of the lake.

"Charge everyone! Charge!" shouted multiple voices while the crowd pressed on.

Upon hearing the commotion, Wang Xian questioned, "Heavenly Hound?" Pondering, he glanced over at the dignified creature.

At the same time, he realized that the venomous snake had made its way into the lake. It was swimming towards the lake floor.

Wang Xian showed little interest in this Heavenly Hound. Instead, he went after the snake in a shift of position. "Come on, we need to catch up with the snake," he hurried.

Yet, as they made their dive and suspended in mid-air, they were suddenly attacked. "Scram!" the opponents shouted. Bouts of counter-attacks came at Wang Xian and the gang.

"Don't block our path. We, Sacred Soul Sect, are bent on this Heavenly Hound", the attackers demanded. As they warned, they continued attacking Wang Xian and the gang.

"Huh," Wang Xian said and squinted his eyes briefly. He paused and landed on the ground immediately.

"Courting death!" Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan snapped. They looked on with savageness in their eyes, as the experts from the Sacred Soul Sect chased after the Heavenly Hound.

They had merely wanted entry into the lake. Yet, they were met with counterattacks and forced to retreat.

"Make way and scram! You bunch of masked men who can show no face!"

Three Inborn Experts from the Sacred Soul Sect darted across the sky. A group of Half-step Inborns and Level 9 Martial Artists followed closely beneath.

They scowled at Wang Xian and gang who were standing in their way.

The power and prestige of a Sacred Sect were obvious to all.

Wang Xian knitted his brows. "Come on. Let's get within the lake first!" he continued with glistening eyes.

Wang Xian paid no attention to the crowd that had gone all green-eyed as they fought for the Heavenly Hound. In one move, he dived straight into the lake.

Casting one final glance at the disciples from the Sacred Soul Sect, Mo Qinglong and the Dragonians followed closely behind Wang Xian.

Splash!

The group of ten plunged into the water.

A handful of disciples from the Sacred Soul Sect stared at Wang Xian and gang, mildly astonished. But they recovered quickly and regained focus on the Heavenly Hound.

Wang Xian and the gang had entered the waters. As Dragonians with the bloodline of the Divine Dragon, they were able to breathe with complete ease underwater.

Even their combat powers would not be the least bit hindered should they battle underwater.

Wang Xian was shocked by the snakes as he saw them swimming towards deep waters.

"Don't tell me the Dark Conjurers' hideout is situated at the floor of this lake?" Wang Xian commented.

The entire lake measured an area of about five square kilometers, making it very large. And the snakes were swimming deep into it.

But, the snakes had not swum towards the center. Instead, they advanced closer to the direction where a mountain range lay.

"Huh? That's..." Wang Xian exclaimed and narrowed his eyes. Looking ahead, he could see a Stone Gate standing three meters below the lake floor.

Behind the Stone Gate lies the mountain peak. To think that the Dark Conjurers have their hideout located within a mountain peak. What's more, their entrance is located in a lake. How covert. Little wonder why they could not be wiped out by Sacred Sects, even with full manpower! Wang Xian thought to himself.

Peering over at Mo Qinglong and the rest, he signaled to them briefly.

The group nodded in acknowledgment and arrived at the Stone Gate.

Wang Xian looked at the Stone Gate which was completely sealed. He extended his arm, and gradually his palm turned gold in color.

Pat, pat, pat!

As he stuck his palm in, it broke the Stone Gate and forced an opening in the shape of a human silhouette.

Shrugging his body once, Wang Xian isolated the lake waters surrounding them.

Boom!

The Stone Gate burst open and glowed from its interior. Wang Xian showed himself in.

He swung an arm and left the Dragon Ball at the Stone Gate. As the Dragon Ball glowed with red lights, it prevented the waters from entering.

"Come on. Let's head inside!" Wang Xian said to Mo Qinglong and the gang. With no further words, Wang Xian peeked over and headed inside.

The entire cave was winding, like a giant staircase, spiraling down as it went.

There were no guards standing watch along the walkway. There was no need for them it seemed, with such an intricate base.

They descended along the staircase. When they reached the end of the path, Wang Xian was shocked by the sight ahead of him.

Everything was beyond his expectations. In fact, it was way beyond.

As it turned out, the Dark Conjurers' hideout was not within the mountain peak, but rather it was beneath the lake.

The entire surface above resembled a marine life park. Transparent glass of unique composition was placed right above the hideout. This prevented the lake waters above from seeping in while allowing sunlight to pass through.

Within the entire base of the Dark Conjurers' hideout, houses of moderate height sprouted in lines. They looked no different from the housing landscape on the ground above.

"So that's how it works!" Wang Xian exclaimed in gradual realization. The base of the Dark Conjurers is located within the mountain valleys.

They had their base built within the mountain valleys, before setting off an explosion at the mountain peak, creating a channel. Linked to the Dong Ling River, the channel allowed the river waters to enter the region, forming a gigantic lake. A perfect camouflage was thus formed.

What a flawless Dark Conjurers' base it is!

Endnote:

[1] Sheng here refers to "sacred" Back

Chapter 286: I'll Send You Guys Into The Abyss (1)

Wang Xian looked ahead. The base under the lake spanned three to four kilometers. It was just like a small town with some poisonous plants planted around it.

In the central location, the words "Dark Conjurer" were engraved forcefully over the entrance.

A blue light shimmered in the eyes of Wang Xian as he looked ahead of him.

Huh?

However, he spotted two humongous animals resting at the two sides of the entrance.

Two huge pythons over fourteen to fifteen meters lay to the left and right of the entrance.

The pure black eyes of the anacondas emitted a soul-wrenching aura. When curled up, they were still three to four meters tall.

Blood Python: Level 10

Extractable Dragon Energy: 15,432

Two Inborn Realm Blood Pythons guarding the door! How extravagant. It seems like the Dark Conjurers are much stronger than the Flame Palace, Wang Xian thought to himself. As one of the top two assassin groups in the Underworld, the strength of the Dark Conjurers was unquestionable!

Wang Xian looked through the entrance and saw assassins living in different rooms.

In this place, there were all kinds of equipment. However, the people in it didn't show any emotions on their faces at all.

Some assassins were raising different poisonous animals in their rooms while others were sitting cross-legged in their rooms and cultivating diligently.

In the middle of the base, there was a huge training ground. The training ground could be separated into three regions.

In one of the regions, a group of teenagers were undergoing gruesome and bloody training. All of them looked younger than twenty years old.

These teenagers had a savage demeanor. Clearly, they could no longer be seen as innocent teenagers.

Addressing them as executioners might be more appropriate.

The savage and cold vibes emanating from them indicated that they had definitely killed humans previously.

This is what a real assassin group is like. Nurturing and training people into killing machines without any personal thoughts.

Wang Xian heaved a sigh when he saw the group of teenagers. Everyone in this place had murderous and savage vibes surrounding them.

Compared with Mo Yuan and the rest before they had become dragonians, the differences were stark.

No matter whether they were male or female, they were now all killing machines.

Close to the middle of the base, there was a relatively large room. Wang Xian took a closer look and saw a group of elders in the room.

There were a total of six elders. They stood in the room and were all looking towards a position above them.

"Huh? They are able to see what's happening above the lake from their room!"

Wang Xian was slightly shocked. The lake was seven to eight meters deep and wasn't exceptionally clear.

Looking down from above the lake surface, one wouldn't be able to tell what was below it. However, the Dark Conjurers were able to supervise the situation above the lake with another method.

Clearly, the sudden arrival of a group of powerful forces had made them feel a little anxious.

However, the few elders didn't show it on their faces. They were very confident about their base and were convinced that no one would find them here.

Even if the group of experts were in the vicinity of the lake.

"The entire Dark Conjurers' base has more than a thousand assassins and six Inborn experts. Furthermore, there are countless poisonous animals and two Inborn Realm huge pythons guarding the entrance!"

Wang Xian squinted his eyes and explained to Mo Qinglong and the group about what he had seen.

"From now onwards, let's send them into the Abyss!" Wang Xian realized that he was in love with this cool slogan as he remarked plainly.

Mo Qinglong and the crowd smirked. Under the disguise of the Abyss Masks, they looked extremely creepy.

"Attack!"

Moving off, Wang Xian shrouded his dragon power towards the two Blood Pythons.

Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and the seven dragonians also struck as they dashed into the base of the Dark Conjurers.

Sss sss sss!

The moment Wang Xian stepped into the base of the Dark Conjurers, the two Blood Pythons lying at each side were instantly triggered.

They stared coldly at Wang Xian with the blood-red pupils.

"I wouldn't want to kill you guys. Keeping you guys alive would be beneficial to me!"

Wang Xian waved his arms as the dragon power weighed on the two huge bodies of the Blood Pythons.

Beside the Blood Pythons, there was a tuft of red poisonous grass. A dense stream of Azure Dragon Energy was injected into it directly.

The poisonous grass started growing frantically and wrapped towards the two huge Blood Pythons.

Wang Xian increased his speed to the maximum and landed two punches on the heads of the two Blood Pythons, knocking them unconscious before they could react.

"Kill!" shouted Wang Xian. He didn't attempt to hide their arrival at all as he shrouded the entire base under his powerful aura.

"Kill. We will send the Dark Conjurers into the Abyss!"

Seven dragonians let out a mechanical-like voice from behind their Abyss Masks which resounded in the entire base of the Dark Conjurers.

"What's the matter?"

Stifling pressure and the cold voice spread to every corner of the Dark Conjurers' base. The upper management of the Dark Conjurers, who were observing the situation above the lake from the room in the central location, were taken aback and instantly turned gloomy.

"Someone has infiltrated our base!"

"This is bad. Our base has been found!"

The six elders were shocked. Moving off, they jumped out from the room through the roof as they looked around them.

"Ten people!"

"Over there! Ten people who are wearing the Abyss Masks!"

"They seem to be the newly emerged assassins from the Abyss!"

The six elders looked across and saw Wang Xian and the crowd at the entrance. Instantly, their expressions turned solemn.

"I had not expected anyone to be able to infiltrate our base. They must die!"

"Ten of them! Kill them immediately!"

The voice of two elders propagated throughout the entire Dark Conjurer base. The next instant, the entire Dark Conjurers base seemed to have come alive. Assassins emerged from various rooms and corners of the base.

Every one of them had bloodshot eyes and was staring at Wang Xian and the group harshly as they emerged from their rooms. They jumped to the roof and looked down on the ten people.

Some poisonous animals also crawled rapidly out of the room.

Poisonous snakes, scorpions, spiders, blood-red ants and large centipedes.

On the ground, poisonous gas shrouded the paths. An ordinary person would die instantly from just a sniff of it.

On the roofs, over a thousand assassins were in position.

Wang Xian and the group paused and stood in a single row in front of the entrance.

The seven dragonians looked solemnly across all the assassins.

Dark Conjurers had lots of experts, including thirty to forty Half-step to Inborn experts. Moreover, these top-class experts specialized in killing and risking their lives. Any single one of these Half-step to Inborn experts would be at the pinnacle of the same level when placed in the outside world.

Together with these poisonous animals, they were incomparably horrifying.

The six elders moved like phantoms as they quickly made their way to the row of houses before the entrance. From above, they looked down coldly at Wang Xian and the group.

"You guys managed to find our base by yourself?" an old lady questioned.

What was horrifying about her was the poisonous snakes above her head. When the old lady spoke, they were hissing and spreading their horrifying mouths.

This made Wang Xian recall a horrifying movie he had once seen.

The old woman's face was full of wrinkles and her voice was coarse. When she spoke, it sounded like the pitiful cries of a ghost. Her eyes were staring at Wang Xian and the group just like how a poisonous snake stared at its prey.

"Yep, just the few of us!"

Wang Xian looked at the thousand assassins and countless poisonous animals in front of him and spoke plainly.

"Alright then. You guys can die now!"

Chapter 287: I'll Send You Guys Into The Abyss (2)

"You guys can die now!"

A ghastly voice was heard from the base of Dark Conjurers underwater. All the surrounding Dark Conjurer assassins raised the daggers in their hands as soon as they heard the voice.

Daggers, the sharpest weapon for assassination.

Deadly and fatal at the sight of the blood.

"Kill!"

Thousands of assassins spun into quick action under the old lady's order. They moved like a gust of wind, stone cold looks in their eyes.

Murderous and savage aura, filling the entire Dark Conjurers' base, could almost make any average person suffocate to death.

The thousands of top-notch killers were simply terrifying.

"I'll leave them to you guys!"

Wang Xian told the rest of the nine Dragonians, including Mo Qinglong and Azure Dragon. He did not make his move as he stared coldly at the six elders in front of him.

These six elders were the most powerful existences of the Dark Conjurers.

In particular, the old lady in the middle, who posed a slight threat to him.

Even though this old lady is not at the same level as Sui Huang, that old thing, it's just a mere difference.

Wang Xian looked at the old lady and pondered to himself.

"Go to hell. You'll become the food of the Dark Conjurers for barging in!"

A Half-step to Inborn Expert of the Dark Conjurers bellowed coldly and attacked them with a swift move.

"Hiak hiak, I'll send you guys into the abyss!"

Seven Dragonians yelped as they stared at the outspreading Dark Conjurer assassins charging at them with bloodthirsty faces.

"Kill!"

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan sprang into action too. Nine of them exuded immense clouds of devilish aura that masked their figures. Only a malevolent and cold-looking Abyss Mask was vaguely seen.

"Claws of the Devil Dragon!"

Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan, along with the seven Dragonians, revealed their maximum strength. Faint dragon scales could be seen on their arms.

The dragon claws formed with demonic aura exhibited black luster and were as sharp as razors.

Bam!

Nine of them knocked against thousands of Dark Conjurer assassins!

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan swept their dragon claws and slashed dozens of Dark Conjurer assassins straightaway.

They were already Pinnacle Inborn to begin with. Hence, they could easily slaughter anyone who was not an Inborn.

Countless poisonous animals who just made their way before them on the ground were trembling with fear. They did not dare to strike. Deep down in their souls, the poisonous animals were fearful of the Dragonians who had Divine Dragon bloodlines.

Dozens of assassins had been killed after a moment of close-quarters fighting.

"Hur?"

Six elders, standing in the middle of a rooftop, swept their icy gazes across Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan.

"Kill them all!"

The old lady in the center gave orders to two Inborn Experts beside her after observing the situation with an indifferent look.

"Yes!"

Bloodthirsty looks surfaced on their faces as their eyes turned red, giving off a violent vibe.

"Ha, I'm your opponent!" Wang Xian said in a cold voice when he noticed that the Inborn Experts on the roof were about to strike.

His voice came through his Abyss Mask, which sounded robotic and cold.

No one could tell the speaker's age by his voice.

"Hur? Then kill this fellow first!"

The old lady looked at Wang Xian with lifeless eyes that seemed offish. The poisonous snake on her head was lifting its head, staring at him with a pair of dark eyes.

"I'll slay you first. How dare a worthless Abyss assassin barge in on the Dark Conjurers!"

As the two old men spoke, they rushed down from the roof, side by side, with daggers in their hands.

The daggers were reflecting green radiance as they were smeared with venom. No one could survive a cut!

Wang Xian quirked his lips at the corner when he saw the two Dark Conjurer Inborn Experts assaulting him.

He reached out his arm, sending a fiery-red ball flying out with rapid speed.

The Dragon Ball emerged ahead of him with sounds of water gushing in.

"Damn you!"

Upon hearing the sound from the entrance, the old lady's expression changed. She grabbed the poisonous snakes on top of her head and hurled them at the entrance.

Hiss!

Only after they were being thrown out, one realized they were three-headed poisonous snakes.

It was terrifying looking with three heads sharing a body.

The poisonous snakes exhibited imposing might as they opened their mouths and spurted out an ink-colored toxic mist.

The toxic mist lingered around the entrance, blocking the incoming flux of the water.

Wang Xian was not bothered by it at all. He looked disdainfully at the two Inborn Experts who darted towards him.

Boom!

The Dragon Ball suddenly exploded into flames, encompassing the two Inborn Experts immediately.

"What a strong Flame Bead!"

The two Dark Conjurer Inborn Experts were appalled. They dodged to the side swiftly.

Roar!

At this time, a soft dragon roar was heard coming out of the Dragon Ball. Soon after, two Dark Conjurer Inborn Experts watched in disbelief as daunting dragon claws emerged from the Dragon Ball.

The dragon claws seemed to be solid, formed out of magma. Drops of magma seemed to be dripping from them.

Boom!

They came down and attempted to claw at the two Dark Conjurer Inborn Experts' heads.

The solid claws were about a half-meter in size each, giving off scorching temperature.

Two of them were aghast with a drastic change in their expressions as they quickly raised their daggers to block them.

Ka Ka Ka!

However, the sound of something breaking was heard when the solid dragon claws tore them with daunting might and temperature.

Ah!

Two painful shrieks were heard, and the two Dark Conjurer experts turned into liquid as soon as the dragon claws struck them.

The Dragon Ball jerked gently as it slowly formed a head, body, and tail of a dragon before Wang Xian.

The Fire Divine Dragon was even more realistic than the one during the fight with Flame Palace. Its mightiness was stronger after absorbing the Spiritual Flame Ball and Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball.

It was almost a Level 11.

"What?"

A Fire Divine Dragon, seven meters long, had appeared in front of the Dark Conjurer experts and killed their two Inborn Experts in a split second.

All four Dark Conjurer experts on the roof had dreadful looks instantly.

"How can this Divine Dragon be possible?"

Radiance flickered in their eyes as they warily watched the Fire Divine Dragon that hovered in the air above Wang Xian.

The Divine Dragon seemed to be a living dragon. They could not have believed it was transformed from a Flame Bead if they had not seen it with their own eyes.

Ge ge ge!

Hiss!

All the poisonous animals were lying on the floor in the base of the Dark Conjurers. Some of them even tried to flee to the distance in horror as they lost all their fighting spirit.

All the Dark Conjurer assassins in the base were taken aback with a tint of shock flashing across their inhospitable faces.

"Today, we'll send Dark Conjurers into the abyss!"

Wang Xian stood there and spoke to the four Dark Conjurer experts with an emotionless voice.

"Abyss Assassins caught me by surprise. I wonder...how did we offend you guys!"

The old lady on the roof squinted her eyes into lines, just like snakes.

"The Dark Conjurers killed two of our people."

"So, the entire Dark Conjurers must be annihilated."

Chapter 288: I'll Send You Guys Into The Abyss (3)

"You... are really brazen!" the old lady stared intensely at Wang Xian and said with her coarse voice.

She looked to the Inferno Divine Dragon but wasn't flustered at all.

"It's still an Inborn Realm existence after all. Today, I'll destroy it. After which, I'll make you into a puppet," the old lady shook her head as she said. She had a rather long neck that made her look rather creepy.

"Kill him!" the old lady said casually. The moment she gave her orders, all the people on the roof disappeared from sight.

"Kill!"

The other three men didn't hesitate at all. They had a hundred percent confidence in the strength of the old lady.

"Hehe, you are also an Inborn Realm existence!"

Within Wang Xian's vision, the old lady had appeared above him, carrying two daggers made of bones in her hands. Her speed was astonishingly fast and her strength wasn't something that Mo Qinglong could match.

However, she was still just an Inborn-level expert. If one was considering her cultivation realm, she was probably at the Half-Step to Dan Realm.

Wang Xian lifted his head slightly and the Inferno Divine Dragon above his head did the same.

Rumble!

A stream of dragon flames spewed forward.

"What a strong spiritual animal!" the coarse voice sounded from the void space.

A faint shadow shimmered and appeared three meters ahead of Wang Xian creepily.

"How quick!" Wang Xian commented plainly about the old lady.

The moment the old lady charged towards him with the two bone daggers, the tail of the Inferno Divine Dragon swept towards her.

Rumble!

The old lady sank the two bone daggers on the tail of the Inferno Divine Dragon. However, she was still knocked back several steps.

Shock gleamed in her eyes as she turned solemn.

"Let me hold this spiritual animal back while you go and kill him. This spiritual animal requires his manipulation to move!"

The old lady quickly noticed the crux of the situation.

She deduced that the Inferno Divine Dragon was a dead thing after all and required the manipulation of a human.

Just as she had expected, the Inferno Divine Dragon required Wang Xian to control it.

Hehe.

Wang Xian smirked and looked towards the old lady and three Inborn experts from the Dark Conjurers attacking him.

"Use all your trump cards!" the old lady added plainly. She extended her hands and stroked her hair, which was tied up.

Her hair was long and could almost reach the floor. When she released the knot, her hair turned completely green.

Although having green hair was a hilarious idea, the old lady in front of him at this moment was definitely frightening. [\[1\]](#)

Her hair was green and was even emitting a faint green mist. Every strand of her hair was like a poisonous snake as it stood up.

Her hair pointed directly at where Wang Xian and the Inferno Divine Dragon were at and it swayed.

A green tinge of light was cast on the old lady's face due to her hair. This made her look just like a vengeful spirit.

The other three Inborn experts from the Dark Conjurers took out small bottles, gritted their teeth and poured the contents into their mouths.

Gulp, gulp, gulp!

A nauseating voice sounded from them. The three experts looked ferocious and emitted strong decadent vibes from their bodies.

It was as though they had transformed from a human into a rotting corpse.

They wouldn't feel pain but would have a substantial increase in defense and potency of attacks.

"Arghhh! I'm going to bite you into pieces!"

The three experts from the Dark Conjurers seemed to be in intense pain in exchange for the horrifying strength from their rotting bodies.

"Haha, this is interesting!" Wang Xian looked enthusiastically at the old lady and three experts. The four people had increased their strength to a horrifying level by using creepy methods.

Even Mo Qinglong wouldn't be a match for any single one of them.

Wang Xian laughed loudly and opened his mouth.

Roar!

The Inferno Divine Dragon flew above Wang Xian before turning into the Dragon Ball and returning to Wang Xian's stomach. After which, Wang Xian stretched his body a little.

Rumble!

At this moment, a one-meter-long divine dragon circled around Wang Xian constantly.

In the end, the divine dragon rested its head on Wang Xian's shoulder.

"Let's fight!"

Taking off, Wang Xian revealed an arrogant and unyielding expression. This was the first time he was able to fight without worries with all he had in his human form.

"I'll let you bring along your assassins from the Abyss to hell!"

The old lady attacked Wang Xian like a poisonous snake.

The three experts from the Dark Conjurers with decadent vibes also attacked at the same time.

"I'm the Dragon King! Now die!"

Wang Xian threw his claws forward. The Inferno Divine Dragon's instantly wrapped around his arm, covering his dragon claws with flames.

Sss sss sss!

The old lady met Wang Xian's claw with the two creepy bone daggers. At the same time, her hair charged towards Wang Xian like a nest of snakes.

Her green hair was rapid and cold like poisonous snakes. Facing her hair was similar to facing thousands of poisonous snakes.

"Rot!"

The daggers of the other three experts from the Dark Conjurers were shrouded in a decadent aura. Above the daggers, a unique liquid was flowing. The moment the liquid dripped onto the ground, it corroded the ground and left a hole, approximately half a meter deep.

Incomparably horrifying!

"Is this witchcraft?"

Wang Xian squinted his eyes. The old lady used the blood and essences of a thousand poisonous snakes and witchcraft to grow her own hair. This allowed her hair to possess horrifying attacking potency and poison.

"How could some poisonous snake essences be compared with a divine dragon?"

Roar!

Wang Xian growled loudly. The moment the soundwaves hit the old lady's hair, her hair instantly lost its attacking ability.

"The dragon rules the world!"

Wang Xian extended his arms and the Inferno Divine Dragon around him moved quickly on his arms accordingly.

Dense flames gathered and shot towards the old lady and the other three experts.

Rumble!

The horrifying flames dried the land completely once again. The old lady's hair was caught in the flames and was sizzling.

Horrifying cries that resembled the cries of a hundred ghosts sounded from the head of the old lady.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The old lady and the three experts from the Dark Conjurers were sent crashing back directly.

Rumble!

Wang Xian waved his arm once again. Scorching hot flames immediately swept towards their bodies.

Argh!

When the flames landed on them, they cried pitifully.

It was as though they were being corroded by acid.

"So powerful. How can you be so powerful? Have you reached the Dan Realm? No, it can't be!"

The old lady looked savage. Only half of her hair remained as she looked on in shock.

The flames had also burnt away part of her clothes, revealing her green body.

She didn't seem to be a human anymore.

Ge ge ge, ge ge ge!

"Kill, kill, kill! I'll send you guys into the Abyss!"

At this moment, Mo Qinglong and the group let out a loud roar. They were drenched in blood by now. Within the short time frame, they had already slain hundreds of Dark Conjurer experts.

If it wasn't for the fact that they had the bloodline of the divine dragon, even Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan would have died under the besiegement of the crowd of experts from the Dark Conjurers.

"You want to annihilate the Dark Conjurers? Let me tell you this! Even a Sacred Sect wouldn't be able to do so!"

Endnote:

[1] Wearing a green hat (having a head of green hair) is symbolism for being made a cuckold. Back

Chapter 289: I'll Send You Guys Into The Abyss (4)

The old woman's voice was hoarse.

She wiped away the blood at the corner of her lips before she jumped onto a roof.

The three Dark Conjurer experts retreated with malevolent faces.

Those fearless Dark Conjurer assassins who were besieging Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan stopped.

All of them moved back uniformly with their usual coldness in their eyes. There was no fear in them.

"Why? Trying to escape?"

Wang Xian glared at those Dark Conjurer experts as he approached them slowly.

Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and the rest moved together beside Wang Xian. All of them had their Abyss Masks on while casting them death stares.

They gave off a bloody, daunting, bloodthirsty and conceited aura.

As the group of Dark Conjurer experts retreated, they followed them slowly.

All of them moved as though they were ferocious men, entering a tiger's den.

"May the Master Conjurer of the Dark Conjurers arrive!"

"May the Master Conjurer of the Dark Conjurers arrive!"

The voice of the old woman was heard while the rest of the Dark Conjurer assassins were yelling at the top of their lungs with overwhelming passion in their eyes.

"May the Master Conjurer of the Dark Conjurers arrive!"

Hiss!

Those poisonous insects that were alive crawled slowly to a position on the middle of the ground.

Eek!

A coffin slowly rose to the ground.

Ka Ka Ka!

Everyone heard the sound of a coffin opening.

"I said not to disturb me if there's nothing important."

An old but clear voice that sounded like metal was heard. The voice was so cold that it did not sound human.

Pa!

A palm slowly reached out. But no, it was not a palm... It was a set of bones.

Stickman. He was totally a stickman.

His arm was almost twice as long as an average person's.

A black layer of skin wrapped around its bones.

"Master Conjurer, please exterminate the enemies for us!"

The old woman immediately knelt down.

"Master Conjurer, please exterminate the enemies for us!"

All the surrounding Dark Conjurer assassins knelt and shouted loudly.

"Someone broke into our base? Just kill them off then!"

The old and clear voice was heard again. Soon after, a figure slowly stood up.

A boney old man rose from the coffin without any flesh and blood on him.

His eyes were protruding out, and his mouth could not cover his teeth. No vitality could be observed from him.

However, this old man that was left with an almost skeletal body turned to look at Wang Xian and the rest.

"Kill them!"

The old man was slow in all his reactions as he had been in his sleep for an unknown period. He only managed to spit out two words softly.

Yet, he disappeared as soon as he finished those two words.

"Someone who is as strong as Sui Huang?"

Wang Xian drew a deep breath at the sudden sight of a coffin that rose from the ground. His pupils narrowed as an old man came into his line of sight in a split second.

"Master Conjuror, please kill them all. They have killed many of our members!"

When the old woman and the Dark Conjurers witnessed the disappearance of the old man, they exhibited immense confidence.

All of them were prideful as they lifted their chins. He was their Master Conjuror.

Invincible Master Conjuror! Their only faith! The founder of Dark Conjuror!

"Oh, serves them right for interrupting my sleep. Their consequences... Let them forever rest in their sleep!"

The ancient and aloof voice cut the air.

All the Dark Conjurers' eyes had fires burning fervently in them. They could not take their passionate eyes away as they watched the Master Conjuror annihilating their enemies!

The scrawny old man's eyes were cloudy as though he was unawakened.

Yet, his speed and prowess were terrifying.

While his voice still lingered in the air, the Master Conjurer was already standing beside Wang Xian.

He raised his palm and aimed for Wang Xian's neck.

Rough and straightforward with a speed that none of the Inborn Experts could match up with.

Invincible posture. Overlooking stance. He had it all.

Pa!

Yet Wang Xian raised his arm and contacted with the old man's arm just when every Dark Conjurer thought their Master Conjurer could easily squeeze him to death.

"You shouldn't come out of your coffin again, and act cocky, especially in front of me!"

Wang Xian's indifferent voice resounded in the entire Dark Conjurers' base.

"What?"

All the Dark Conjurer assassins were shocked to see this.

That Abyss Mask man had blocked the assault of their Master Conjurer. But that was their Master Conjurer!

Even in the beginning when they were taken out by the other party, all of the Dark Conjurers were almost certain they could win when the Master Conjurer was summoned.

They had no doubt that there were no enemies that the Master Conjurer could not eradicate.

They stared at that arm that had collided with the arm of Master Conjurer.

No, that could not be called an arm. That was a monster's arm that seemed like some kind of dragon's claw.

"You're the first person that has forced me to display my full prowess in human form!"

Wang Xian stared at the skinny old man. At the same time, his arm had already turned into a complete dragon claw.

The fleshy dragon claws were not transformed from the Dragon Ball.

It was part of his Divine Dragon's body.

"You..."

The protruding eyes of the Master Conjurer regained clear vision as a tint of surprise was revealed in them.

"Are you surprised?"

As Wang Xian spoke, another arm began to transform into part of the dragon. Slowly, he stretched out his other arm.

"I did not expect I would meet another expert at the same level!"

The Master Conjurer had already regained his clear vision with flesh and blood recovering creepily on his body. He jerked his arm, exuding murderous aura.

"You're still weaker than me!"

Both Wang Xian's arms had turned into dragon claws that were about a meter long. He grabbed both of the Master Conjurer's arms easily.

Terror was flashing in Master Conjurer's eyes. Just now, he had tried to struggle away with his full might, but he could not move a single inch.

This struck fear into him. How...was this possible!

"Since you don't want to stay underground, I'll send you to Heaven!"

Wang Xian scorned even though the old man was in Dan Realm.

However, his strength and body condition were the weakest in the Dan Realm.

How could such a fellow like him dare to crawl out of the coffin and boast that he could destroy him?

Wang Xian raised his dragon claws slowly.

"No!" Sensing that he was in complete confinement, the Master Conjurer panicked.

He lost all of his calm, relaxed, and casual look.

Bam!

A dragon claw was brought down from the top, sweeping up daunting earth-shattering power that hit the Master Conjurer.

Instantly, his body and bones were crushed.

Boom!

His body was sent flying in the air.

The Master Conjurer no longer made any sound.

Ka Ka Ka!

At this time, the unique glass on the top cracked and gave way as the Master Conjurer continued to fly up into the sky.

"This...No way!"

The husky voice of the old woman sounded petrified as she looked on in disbelief.

The Dark Conjurer assassins around looked up, as they were surprised and fearful.

Their faith, the founder of the Dark Conjurers, was sent flying off.

This time, they were all in a total panic as fear loomed over them.

Chapter 290: I'll Send You Guys Into The Abyss (5)

As the creator and strongest expert in the Dark Conjurors, the Master Conjuror had not fought for a long time.

However, the invincible image of the Master Conjuror was vividly etched into their minds.

He was their god and their belief.

Just a while ago, they were at peace and confident to see the Master Conjuror stepping out from his coffin.

As long as the Master Conjuror was around, the Dark Conjurors wouldn't face any grave dangers.

In their eyes, the Master Conjuror could kill many of their enemies in a single strike, even if the enemies might seem very powerful.

However, what really happened greatly tilted their long-held beliefs.

They looked in shock and horror at that Abyss' assassin whose hand had turned into a monster claw.

"Is this his true strength? Just... He didn't even utilize his full strength previously!"

An expert from the Dark Conjurors shivered and his eyes were filled with horror. His rotting body was gradually leaking fresh blood after having consumed the drug previously.

"No... This can't be possible. Our Master Conjuror won't lose!" the old lady cried out in disbelief with her coarse voice.

Defeat wasn't possible. Yet, they had lost so completely. The Master Conjuror had just stepped out, said a few words, took some actions and he was then defeated!

It was as though the Master Conjuror was just a small existence that the assassin could crush easily. The stark differences made it hard for them to accept.

Crack!

Just as the old lady completed her words, the glass above them cracked slowly and the lake water gushed down on her head.

It was as though fate was reminding her that the Dark Conjurers were finished.

"Kill them!"

Wang Xian's emotionless voice resounded within the Dark Conjurers' base once again. This time, they were really going to "send you guys into the Abyss."

...

"Hahahahaha! I said that this Heavenly Hound belongs to our Sacred Soul Sect. You guys are still thinking of snatching it from us?"

At this moment, on the surface of the lake, the group of Sacred Soul Sect experts and disciples had surrounded the Heavenly Hound.

The Heavenly Hound stopped on the surface of the lake while barking indignantly.

A middle-aged man from Sacred Soul Sect stood beyond the encirclement. He looked down coldly at the several forces around and spoke.

The surrounding martial artists felt indignant but could only look helplessly at the crowd from the Sacred Soul Sect.

The Heavenly Hound had been tightly surrounded by them. Moreover, they were just First-class Forces and wouldn't dare to snatch the items of Sacred Soul Sect.

If it were something that had no owner, they might still put up a fight and compete with the Sacred Soul Sect. However, now that the Sacred Soul Sect had surrounded the Heavenly Hound, it was equivalent to the Sacred Soul Sect owning it.

If they still tried to snatch it from them, it would be identical to going against the Sacred Soul Sect.

Sacred Soul Sect was a Sacred Sect with a deep history. It would require all other forces currently around to work together to have a shot against them.

However, how could a heap of loose sand compete with a Sacred Sect?

The disciples of Sacred Soul Sect looked cockily and coldly at the dozen-plus forces in front of them.

The Heavenly Hound was their belonging now!

Bam!

At this moment, a loud explosion sounded from the bottom of the lake. Following which, a figure shot out and flew into the sky.

The sudden appearance of this figure from the bottom of the lake gave everyone in Sacred Soul Sect a scare.

Some Sacred Soul Sect disciples immediately dodged to the side.

"What's that?"

"A human figure?"

"Why would something charge out from the bottom of the lake?"

Everyone was baffled. The disciples of the Sacred Soul Sect and the experts from the dozen-plus forces were shocked to witness the sudden change.

They seemed to have seen a human figure shoot out from the surface of the lake to a height of over a hundred meters before falling heavily towards the surface of the lake.

Everyone looked in shock at that figure.

Bam!

The figure sank into the lake once again, causing a huge splash.

"What's the situation?"

"Is that a human? It can fly freely?"

Everyone looked on in shock.

"Charge! Capture the Heavenly Hound!"

At this moment, an old man shouted enthusiastically as his eyes lit up.

The crowd of the Sacred Soul Sect was shocked. Following which, they realized that the Heavenly Hound, which they had previously surrounded, had charged out of the encirclement while they were distracted.

A young man looked at the Heavenly Hound and shouted angrily, "Shit! That Heavenly Hound belongs to our Sacred Soul Sect!"

Once the Heavenly Hound charged out of the Sacred Soul Sect's encirclement, it no longer had an owner. The surrounding forces had once again gained the rights to compete for it.

"The Heavenly Hound belongs to our Sacred Soul Sect!"

The three Inborn experts from the Sacred Soul Sect released their aura. Without consideration for the surrounding people, a horrifying aura shrouded towards the surroundings. An old man took out a white bead from his chest gloomily.

"Under the illumination of the Sacred Soul, everyone will be enlightened. Everyone will have to kneel down!" mumbled the old man as the white sacred bead glowed in dazzling light.

Carrying the light, he charged ahead of all the forces. With a haughty and cold look, he looked down on everyone as though he was passing judgement.

"Everyone, do not take a further step forward!"

The domineering voice of the old man sounded. The dazzling light shrouded an area of a hundred meters. Within this space, what was left was just endless white.

Even sunlight couldn't shine through it.

"What? Sacred Soul Bead!"

"Shit, who would have expected the Sacred Soul Sect to have brought along the Sacred Soul Bead!"

"Damn it! Although the Sacred Soul Bead isn't that powerful, it could still temporarily halt four to five Inborn experts in the hands of an expert of the Sacred Soul Sect."

The surrounding crowd looked indignant once again. They had not expected the Sacred Soul Sect to be hiding their strength all along.

Once again, they experienced how terrifying Sacred Soul Sect was.

Unfathomable! Their trump card was something they could never match.

"Imbecile! If you still dare to run, I'll slaughter you!"

An Inborn expert from Sacred Soul Sect looked furiously at the Heavenly Hound who was shrouded in strong aura.

"Run? You've got to ask if we, the Sacred Soul Sect, agree to it!"

The disciples of Sacred Soul Sect surrounded the Heavenly Hound once again and locked their eyes on it.

Grrr, woof, woof~

The Heavenly Hound growled and stared furiously at the surrounding crowd.

"Haha! If we let you escape this time, our Sacred Soul Sect would let down the name of a Sacred Sect! You are just an imbecile! Don't even think about becoming a demon!"

The disciples of the Sacred Soul Sect stared harshly at the Heavenly Hound.

"Huff! Forget it. I give up. We can't possibly win against the Sacred Soul Sect!"

"This Heavenly Hound is now the belonging of the Sacred Soul Sect. We have no more hope!"

"It would be hard for the Heavenly Hound to escape this time!"

The surrounding crowd sighed one after another.

Boom boom boom!

Just as the crowd was whispering, more figures flew from the bottom of the lake and into the skies once again.

This time, it wasn't just a single person.

Everyone was shocked once again and this included the disciples of the Sacred Soul Sect.

The crowd's attention fell on the human figures that were dashing out from the water surface.

However, the location they came out from happened to be where the Heavenly Hound was.

The disciples of the Sacred Soul Sect immediately moved aside. As for the Heavenly Hound, it found another opportunity to escape.

"F*ck! Who the hell are they? Are they seeking death?"

An Inborn expert from the Sacred Soul Sect shouted furiously when he saw the Heavenly Hound escaping once again.

Chapter 291: Terror Strikes Amongst the Heroes

The Sacred Soul Sect had gone through pains before they managed to entrap the Heavenly Hound. It would not be long before they finally captured it.

Alas, a black shadow emerged from the bottom of the lake and soared into the sky, before plunging back into the waters. This allowed the Heavenly Hound to escape.

When they exhausted all means to entrap the Hound a second time, another Black Shadow came zipping past yet again.

This time, it was not just one, but up to ten shadows coming up simultaneously.

This gave the Heavenly Hound another chance to escape.

Members from the Sacred Soul Sect were fuming in anger over the constant harassment. It was akin to offending the sect by tugging at the dragon's beard. To which, the offender was courting death.

An Inborn Expert of the sect glared coldly at the ten who landed on the waters. As he did so, he scowled. "How dare you antagonize the Sacred Soul Sect time and again! You're courting death!"

The ten, each wearing a black mask from the Abyss, looked grubby and possessed an air of bloodthirst.

"Ten masked fellows who cannot even show their faces! You've pushed the limits to our tolerance. Should you not come up with a perfect explanation, you'll sink in the lake forever!" an elder warned.

Holding the Sacred Soul Bead in hand, the elder stared at the ten masked men with a somber face.

Upon hearing the commotion, Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and the seven Dragonians frowned. "Huh?" they quipped, before looking in the direction of the Sacred Soul Sect.

"A bunch of lawbreakers. Now take your masks off!" a disciple of the Sect snarled. With a face of fury, he attacked Wang Xian and the gang who were standing near him.

Fancy launching an attack without knowing the details. How overbearing!

"This group is about to meet their doom for disrupting the plans of the Sacred Soul Sect!" said the sect members.

"The Sacred Soul Sect has blown their top. Let's retreat!" The forces standing around panicked.

Bang, bang, bang!

It was at this moment that something more shocking happened right before everyone's eyes.

Figures shrouded in austerity had flung themselves out of the water, from the bottom of the lake.

In no time, more than twenty had emerged.

One could sense the desolation that the group evoked as they remained in utter silence. The old lady standing in the middle was even shivering.

Upon emerging, another old woman let out a blood-curdling shriek, which chilled everyone to the bones.

"It's Heaven's will that we Dark Conjurers are wiped out. But you, Abyss; even if I should turn into a vengeful ghost, I'll never let you off!" she screeched.

Prior to this, the glass shield which defended the Dark Conjurer's base from the top had cracked. From which waters were gushing in at alarming speeds.

Meanwhile, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan had led the seven Dragonians into a massive wipeout of the Dark Conjurers underwater.

Within minutes, only a little over twenty Dark Conjurers were left. Disheartened, they were left in panic and fear.

This was so, even as the most formidable amongst Wang Xian's group of ten, also the one to have killed their Master Conjurer in a single palm-strike, had yet to make a move on them.

As the entire Dark Conjurers' base collapsed, the masked men from the Abyss made a dash for the lake surface. Left with no solution, rushing out was all they could manage.

"Whoever provokes us from the Abyss will be annihilated, even if you're the Dark Conjurers. For which, you shall be banished into the Abyss!" Mo Yuan turned to the remaining Dark Conjurers and said, all apathetic.

Among the twenty left were four Inborns, while the remaining were all Half-Step Inborns.

"Hah! To think that we Dark Conjurers have actually fallen by the hands of the rookie Abyss, after dominating for half a century. Hah! How unexpected. Truly unexpected!" the group ridiculed. Since the assassination of their Master Conjurer, they had lost all will to retaliate.

"I'll send you all to the Abyss!" the Dragonians warned. In one shift, the seven charged forth at striking speed. Along with Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan; they made their way towards the remaining Dark Conjurers.

The surviving Dark Conjurers showed no signs of struggle. They had given up on fighting back. Knowing that the formidable masked man was amongst their opponents, any form of struggle would only prove futile.

Raising their heads, their faces were overcome by insanity and grimacing. Turning towards the sky, they let out a spooky laugh.

"Hah! Even if I should transform into a vengeful spirit, I'll never let you people off!" they vowed.

While they laughed, they exuded an eerie albeit overpowering aura.

Even in death, they would meet their maker smiling with pride.

The atmosphere began to fill with gore, tyranny, brutality, and bloodthirst, which took the people around by surprise.

At that very moment, they could not help but feel shivers down their spines.

Bam, bam, bam!

Soon enough, the remaining Dark Conjurers turned into corpses. As they dropped into the lake, their bodies gradually sunk to the bottom.

"What... What's the catch now?" the crowd asked, in shock as they looked on.

This was abruptly followed by a group of experts emerging from the waters. It was the ten masked men from the Abyss.

To think that those horrifying and tyrannical experts had been slaughtered by these masked men easily...

And the onlookers could still remember the sense of despair in the eyes of those slaughtered.

It was not a case of unwillingness, but rather the sense that it was no longer necessary for them to retaliate. They had felt unfit to put up a fight.

All of this despite the fact that they had a group of twenty, which included several Inborn experts amongst other Half-step Inborns.

Just what sort of experts are those masked men, to be able to force the surviving Dark Conjurers into giving up?

At the thought, the Inborn experts and disciples of the Sacred Soul Sect could not help but gulp.

As for those twenty, the stance they displayed right before they perished was simply horrifying. It was more than what would be needed to wipe out all members of Sacred Soul Sect present.

Everyone began to look over in the direction of the ten masked men.

"Earlier ... just earlier ... The old woman seemed to have said that they're the Dark ... Dark Conjurers..." some stuttered.

"That's right, those killed were the Dark Conjurers. Goodness, so the Dark Conjurers have been annihilated! Wiped out!" others chimed in.

"The Dark Conjurers have been destroyed. How ... how could this be? They're the most formidable assassin group in the underworld. Even the Sacred Sects have found them hard to remove!" a middle-aged elder squeaked.

Meanwhile, the faces on everyone scrunched in utter disbelief, along with shock.

The Dark Conjurers have been annihilated!

Once again, everyone focused on the ten masked men.

"I'll send you to the Abyss! Aren't they the Abyss who have just risen in fame within the underworld?" one questioned.

"The Abyss. The ones with the signature masks, and who will roar confidently before they kill. I'll send you to the Abyss! It's them. It's got to be them!" another replied.

"To think that it's the Abyss who've wiped out the Dark Conjurers. Goodness. Oh, goodness!" more chipped in.

"Frightening. How frightening!" the rest commented.

"The rise of yet another threatening force in the underworld!" the rest concluded.

The multiple forces chirped as they looked at the ten masked men. Overwhelmed by shock, their eyes gushed in fear.

The annihilation of the Dark Conjurers was a feat even the Sacred Sect could not achieve.

"That is not filth on them. That's fresh blood!" one of the Inborn experts mumbled as he stared at the masked men.

Even as an Inborn expert himself, seeing the blood and gore on the ten gave him chills.

"Did you say you're going to let us remain under this lake forever?" Mo Qinglong asked. To which, he turned his head back briefly to look at the crowd from Sacred Soul Sect.

Blop, blop, blop!

While he spoke, the base of the Dark Conjurers collapsed in complete destruction. The surface of the lake started to cave in, and as it did, the waters started bubbling.

Suddenly, dead bodies flushed out of the lake waters from the bottom.

One by one, slow but steady.

Just gazing over, one could spot corpses numbering in the thousands!

Chapter 292: Invincible

"You are going to let us remain under this lake forever?" the voices from the ten people who wore Abyss masks sounded.

The waters in the lake were in turmoil and bodies were moving in the lake. The scene was astonishing and everyone was shocked.

All the people looked at the ten men who wore Abyss masks and couldn't help but gasp.

"Can it be that these ten people have annihilated all the Dark Conjurers?"

"This... This... I didn't expect the nest of the Dark Conjurers to be under a lake in the Dong Ling Mountain Range. What's more surprising is that they were annihilated by the Abyss, who just emerged"

"Sacred Soul Sect... What will they do? Continue to be domineering? Do they dare?"

The group of forces was discussing fervently. Eventually, their attention slowly fell in the direction of the Sacred Soul Sect.

The disciples and experts of the Sacred Soul Sect were breaking out in cold sweat. Fear gleamed in their eyes.

At this moment, they did not have the airs of a Sacred Sect or the dominance they had displayed towards all the other forces previously.

Facing the ten unknown experts who were able to destroy the Dark Conjurers, even those from the Sacred Soul Sect didn't dare to be brazen.

At the thought of the twenty-odd experts who were killed without putting up resistance, they felt a chill down their spines.

There were four Inborn experts and over twenty Half-step to Inborn experts among the group!

The group was powerful enough to warrant special attention from the Sacred Soul Sect.

"Misunderstanding, it was just a misunderstanding. We were wrong previously. It's our mistake and we will leave immediately!"

The expression of one of the experts from the Sacred Soul Sect changed rapidly. He took a deep breath and bowed. Subsequently, the expert gestured to the disciples of the Sacred Soul Sect and left immediately.

Wang Xian watched them leave without saying a word.

"Damn, the Sacred Soul Sect left! That's equivalent to admitting defeat!"

"What else did you expect? For them to fight these people? This is a group that can annihilate the Dark Conjurers. Even the Sacred Soul Sect needs to be careful when dealing with them!"

"That's right, even a Sacred Sect had a hard time dealing with Dark Conjurers previously. When the killing order from the Sacred Sect was issued, the entire Sacred Sect was activated to attack the Dark Conjurers. Even though the Dark Conjurers didn't dare to show themselves, two Elders from the Sacred Sect were assassinated during the siege."

"The Sacred Soul Sect was still acting high and mighty previously. Right now, they can only admit defeat and even give up on the Heavenly Hound!"

"I don't know if the Abyss has the strength that matches those of a Sacred Sect!"

The crowd looked at the Sacred Soul Sect who was leaving and then at the ten people with the Abyss masks, and eventually the Heavenly Hound.

The Heavenly Hound stood in the lake without moving as it was surrounded. It didn't dare to escape. It stood on the lake, licking its wounds and staring at its surroundings coldly.

"Come here!" Wang Xian shouted to the Heavenly Hound.

He looked across the crowd before looking towards the Heavenly Hound, which was not far away. After which, he spread his dragon power over the Heavenly Hound.

"Woof woof!"

The Heavenly Hound let out a deep howl before looking at Wang Xian fearfully.

"His intelligence has manifested!"

Wang Xian looked joyously at the Heavenly Hound and revealed a smile.

"Woof!"

The Heavenly Hound barked again and walked slowly towards Wang Xian.

"Not bad!"

Wang Xian smiled and caressed the Heavenly Hound's head. At the same time, he injected the energy of the Azure Dragon into it to treat its wounds.

"Woof woof!"

The Heavenly Hound stuck out its tongue and licked Wang Xian's hand before rubbing its head against him.

"Damn! Comparing only makes one feel inferior. We worked so hard in the Dong Ling Mountain Range for over a week and couldn't subdue it. Yet, he simply waved his hands and the Heavenly Hound ran over to him!"

"Everyone here feels the same way. Even the Sacred Soul Sect worked hard for a long time for it!"

"This Heavenly Hound is also fearful of the strong. We tried to lure it and it simply ignored us. Now, it ran over to that guy who just waved at it!"

The crowd was speechless. For this Inborn Realm level Heavenly Hound, they had worked hard for several days and paid a huge price. In the end, they only got a few strands of dog's fur.

However, the masked man just waved his hands and the Heavenly Hound ran over. Comparison indeed made one feel inferior.

"Search the information! Also, comb the base of the Dark Conjurers!"

Wang Xian tapped the Heavenly Hound's head and ordered Mo Qinglong and group.

"Yes, Young Master!"

The group nodded and replied. Wang Xian moved and arrived at the bottom of the lake with the Heavenly Hound.

The glass under the lake had broken and the base was flooded. Only the outline of the base remained.

The Heavenly Hound was protected by the water attribute energy. It looked curiously around him and barked a few times.

Wang Xian let out a smile as he moved to the two blood pythons.

The two Inborn Realm blood pythons were bred by the Dark Conjurers through witchcraft.

They didn't have intelligence and only had bloodthirst. This type of animal did not have potential and it would be hard for them to evolve again.

However, once they were able to manifest their intelligence and cleanse their bloodline, they could evolve again.

From blood pythons into serpents, and finally into divine dragons.

Wang Xian kept the two blood pythons mainly to subdue them to become his subordinates.

"Submit!"

Wang Xian moved his finger and two drops of essence blood fell onto the head of the blood pythons for them to absorb.

The two blood pythons were severely injured and couldn't resist it as they absorbed the essence blood directly.

Sss sss sss!

As they absorbed the essence blood into their bodies, the pythons spat balls of blood out. This blood was dark and sticky with corrosive nature.

Pythons have the attributes of Earth. I shall impart to you the cultivation method of the Earth Divine Dragon!

Wang Xian thought to himself as he etched the cultivation arts directly into the minds of the pythons.

Afterwards, Wang Xian looked at the Heavenly Hound and forced out a drop of his essence blood too.

Woof Woof!

The Heavenly Hound barked. It stared hard at the drop of blood on Wang Xian's finger before flicking out its tongue and absorbing it.

"This rascal!" Wang Xian smiled but frowned shortly after. He was bewildered as he looked at the Heavenly Hound.

"What's going on?" He was astonished as he stared at the Heavenly Hound.

Woof!

In the beginning, the Heavenly Hound was still staring at Wang Xian. However, its body started to shiver violently as if it was experiencing a seizure.

Woo woo woo!

Deep cries of agony sounded. Its fur became more lustrous and had a faint glow to it.

Gradually, the Heavenly Hound stopped crying. The Heavenly Hound shook its head lightly and rubbed his head against Wang Xian enthusiastically.

"This is...?" Wang Xian realized that when the Heavenly Hound moved, its fur stood up like wings.

He touched the Heavenly Hound's body and realized that there was flesh growing in places where the fur was longer.

A hound with wings? This rascal assimilated my bloodline to strengthen its bloodline!

Wang Xian was shocked as he looked at the hound and fell into deep thought.

Chapter 293: To the Fore, On a Python!

During this period, Wang Xian had gained some understanding of his essence blood; blood of the Divine Dragon.

The essence blood was able to assimilate the bloodlines of most living organisms.

But it also had a limitation. It was unable to assimilate bloodlines with a grade higher than itself, or those coming from an organism with stronger powers.

Amongst all living organisms, the bloodline of the Divine Dragon was considered as the apex. Yet, as the current abilities of Wang Xian were still too weak, the energy stored in his essence blood remained low.

Hence, the attempt to replace bloodlines of a relatively high grade would impose some difficulty.

As for the experts whose abilities far supersede Wang Xian's, not only would his essence blood be unable to evolve the party's bloodline, it would be absorbed by the party for energy intake.

For the Divine Dragon which leads the Pinnacle, a drop of its blood was enough to turn an ordinary creature into a powerful monster instantly.

"It appears that this Heavenly Hound possesses an extraordinary bloodline!" Wang Xian exclaimed as he stared at the Hound, slightly taken aback. This Heavenly Hound happened to be the first, which was able to absorb Wang Xian's essence blood and convert it as energy intake.

But even so, the essence blood contained the consciousness of Wang Xian. Hence this Heavenly Hound would still be under his control, having absorbed his essence blood.

The abilities of the Heavenly Hound would have to reach a substantial level before it could free itself from Wang Xian's control.

By which, Wang Xian's abilities would also improve immensely as well.

"Young Master, we've got hold of the information. But most of the things have been completely destroyed, along with the death of the Dark Conjurers!" Wang Xian was told, as Mo Qinglong approached together with Mo Yuan and others.

"Did you find information on the missions as ordered by the Dark Conjurers?" Wang Xian asked in response.

After all, they had come to annihilate the Dark Conjurers for a reason. Mainly to find the culprit who ordered to have Mo Ersan and Mo Sanyi killed.

"Yes, we did," Mo Qinglong and the rest replied.

"Good. Let's return then!" Wang Xian nodded back. In quick shuffles, they surfaced from the lake.

Swoosh!

Two giant pythons, each reaching between fifteen to sixteen meters in length, followed closely behind. With thick and muscular bodies, the serpents imposed terror.

"Come on. Let's head for the seaside!" Wang Xian gestured to Mo Qinglong and the rest. As he did so, he hopped onto the crown of a python's head.

The head of one giant python measured two meters across, which could hold a person standing atop comfortably.

Whereas Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and the remaining stood on the python's body instead.

Measuring between fifteen to sixteen meters, these giant pythons would more than suffice in transporting the ten men.

On the other hand, the Heavenly Hound appeared somewhat fearful, as it skipped gently over to Wang Xian's side.

"Go!" Wang Xian instructed the two pythons.

Tsk, tsk!

The serpents hissed, tongues of over a meter sticking out as they did. Nodding their heads in acknowledgment, they glided at charging speeds.

By then, the troop forces who were previously at the lake's side had long gone. There was no one in sight.

The giant pythons were no less imposing in size even as they glided amidst vast mountains. Bringing down trees seven to eight meters in height, they eventually went past mountains and across rivers.

And they continued surging forward in an imposing strike.

Impressive yet domineering all at once.

Meanwhile, disciples of the various forces who had just left chatted casually, as they walked on the mountain.

"Sigh. It would've been great if only we'd gotten hold of the Heavenly Hound. Imagine riding on it for leisure. How impressive would that be!" one imagined.

"You riding the Heavenly Hound? Hah! Why don't you check on your powers? Even if it was captured, do you think a Heavenly Hound of the Inborn level would allow itself to be ridden at will? Even if an Inborn expert wished to have a ride, the hound may not concede to it!" another retorted.

"Then should I wait for the Heavenly Hound to give birth, and ride on one of the puppies after raising it myself? Ha ha!" the former teased.

Upon hearing the disciples' conversation, a few experts walking in front laughed.

"When Inborn beings reproduce, the bloodline of its off-springs will thin. Even so, its abilities would not weaken significantly. Should it display symptoms of reversed evolution, it may even grow up to become an Inborn," one explained.

"Which explains why so many powerful forces are out to vie for one Inborn-level creature. Mainly to get hold of them for their off-spring!" another chipped in.

"But, Inborn beings possess an innate arrogance. Unless one has been raised from youth, it would be very tough for anyone who wishes to ride on one!" a third added.

Boom, boom!

The elders had just finished, when a series of sounds echoed from a distance behind them.

It sounded horrifying, as though a tank had bulldozed past the grounds and was charging towards them.

"Watch out!" an expert amongst the sects warned. His forehead trickled cold sweat as he sensed the force of terror coming for them.

"Out of the way, quick! Out of the way!" the crowd shouted. They spun around and looked behind with vigilance.

Just then, two gigantic creatures appeared. Crowned with hideous heads and creepy eyes, they stuck out barn-red tongues from their wide mouths.

"Goodness!" a female disciple cried out. She looked on, eyes wide. With a stupefied face, she yelled, "Up there ... There're people up there!"

"Giant pythons. Terrifying giants. Out to trample everything!" some of her fellows lamented.

"This is unbelievable!" more said.

"The Abyss. It's the Abyss! And the Heavenly Hound!" they continued.

The two giant pythons were charging at top speed, along with the ten men riding on them.

As Wang Xian heard the ruckus, he turned around, revealing a faint smile.

Meanwhile, the Heavenly Hound exuded an air which overpowered the nearby crowd. "Woof, woof. Howl!" it barked excitedly at the on-looking crowd, even mimicking a fox and ending off with a howl.

How awe-inspiring.

Filled with envy, the crowd of disciples looked on at the group of python riders that just went past.

"What the... That's so awesome! Riding to the fore on a python, how cool is that!" an onlooker squealed.

"When will it be that I achieve that!" another yelped.

"Those are no doubt true experts!" sighed the experts amongst the crowd, even as they were of the same status themselves.

Hence, with ten people on board, the two giant pythons raced straight ahead, towards the Dong Ling Mountain Range.

Along the way, Martial Artists from different sects simply stared when they came across the spectacular sight, faces filled with astonishment.

Carrying all aboard, the giant pythons dived into the sea. Wang Xian transformed into a Divine Dragon, and together the group made their way towards Rivertown.

After five hours, Wang Xian arrived at the villa's doorstep.

Overwhelmed in excitement, the Heavenly Hound shook off the seawater on its body and proceeded to check out its surroundings. Despite its moderate size, the Hound boasted greater intelligence.

"Let's go!" Mo Yuan said. He then took his leave with the seven Dragonians, leaving Wang Xian and Mo Qinglong to return to the villa.

"Young Master, let me go look up information on the murderer!" Mo Qinglong reported.

With a hard drive in hand, he proceeded to enter a computer room. All information on the Dark Conjurers was stored on a desktop.

Wang Xian nodded in approval before plonking onto the sofa, looking all laid back.

Woof, woof!

As it strolled around, curious about its surroundings, the Heavenly Hound let out a bark.

"Come over, over here. Could you transform your appearance a little?" Wang Xian said to the hound as he waved to it.

The appearance of the Heavenly Hound was known by many. Should it be discovered here, it would be easy for others to figure out its ties with the Abyss.

Woof, woof!

The Heavenly Hound barked in response before its fur started to change in color, turning all gold.

Chapter 294: Hold The Plane And Move (1)

"Xiao Xian has been away for several days and is finally back."

"I wonder...did he bring any beautiful girls back this time? Every time he returns, he brings one back!"

At 5 in the evening, Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue's voices sounded from outside the house. Wang Xian, who was drinking tea and lying on the sofa in the living room, was speechless.

"Brother!" Xiao Yu shouted as she entered through the door.

"Your brother is here!" Wang Xian stood up and answered with a smile as he saw the four beauties walking in.

"Wah!" Xiao Yu and the girls shouted in amazement and hurried over.

Wang Xian smiled gently as the side of his mouth lifted. He thought his charm had gotten stronger!

"What a beautiful dog. It is so cute!"

"Look at its eyes! They're glittering! It must be a smart dog!"

"Its fur is so smooth and feels so great!"

The three of them were surprised and delighted as they caressed the Heavenly Hound. Even Elder Fang bent down and was looking at the dog lovingly.

"I..."

Wang Xian felt aggrieved. He didn't expect to be less popular than a dog.

Woof Woof!

Heavenly Hound barked twice and squinted its eyes. It remained stationary and allowed the girls to touch him.

"Cough cough! Did you guys miss me?" Wang Xian coughed as he squeezed out a smile.

"Hehe! Brother! You have been running around every day. It's great that you still know to come back!"

"Perhaps the world outside is much more exciting!" Xiao Yu and Guan Shuqing mocked at him.

Wang Xian laughed it off and said, "I went out to settle some things. Look at this big family! I need to work hard to feed all of you."

"Tsk, excuses!"

Although Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue were still mocking and grumbling about him, it was clear that they had missed him after not seeing him for several days.

The group sat on the sofa and chatted.

"My dear disciple, has school ended?"

Soon, the voice of Sui Huang came from outside. After which, the group saw him walking in with Xiao Ran.

"Master!" Guan Shuqing greeted with a bright smile.

"Oh? Brother Wang Xian is back!" Sui Huang greeted Wang Xian when he saw him.

Sui Huang had a bright smile on his face.

"Yeah," Wang Xian replied with a nod.

"Master!" Xiao Ran greeted and walked over joyously.

Eh? At this moment, Sui Huang was shocked to see the Heavenly Hound lying in a corner.

"Hey, brother, it seems like you got something good on this trip? Inborn Realm Heavenly Hound has only appeared once in history!" He stared at the Heavenly Hound and spoke with a smile.

Woof Woof!

The Heavenly Hound barked at him ferociously when it heard his words. It was apparent that the Heavenly Hound, who had intelligence, disliked what the Sui Huang had said.

"I was just lucky!" Wang Xian replied with a smile.

Xiao Yu and the group were shocked as they looked at the Heavenly Hound. Their eyes widened as they asked, "This dog is an Inborn Realm existence?"

"Yes!" Wang Xian smiled and replied with a nod.

He then looked at Xiao Yu and Guan Shuqing and said, "The dog is an Inborn Realm existence and I won't be giving it to you guys. Instead, I will give it to Qingyue and let the Heavenly Hound stay by her side!"

At this point, Xiao Yu's strength was considerably good. As for Guan Shuqing, she had Sui Huang with her and thus wouldn't be in any danger.

As for Lan Qingyue, even though her eight extraordinary meridians were cleared, she was still rather weak. Having the Heavenly Hound to protect her would make Wang Xian feel more assured.

"Is it true?" Lan Qingyue was ecstatic when she heard Wang Xian. She looked at Wang Xian with affectionate eyes.

"Of course!" Wang Xian smiled.

Xiao Yu and Guan Shuqing both smiled and didn't say anything. Among the three of them, only Lan Qingyue needed to be protected.

"That's great! What's its name? Heavenly Hound isn't a good name. I will call it Tian Tian. Hehe! Not bad, not bad!"

Lan Qingyue walked beside the Heavenly Hound happily and started rubbing its head. She was overjoyed!

"Oh yes, disciple! Now that Brother Wang Xian is here, could you go to the capital with me!" asked Sui Huang.

The objective of going to the capital was to hold the disciple acceptance ceremony for the Sui Family.

As a family with a deep history, taking in a disciple was a matter of importance. The ceremony was also seen as extremely important.

It was especially so for someone of Sui Huang's level. At the same time, this would be a significant event for the Sui Family.

The strongest man in the Sui Family would be taking in his last disciple.

Seeing Guan Shuqing looking at him, Wang Xian nodded in agreement. Since Sui Huang would like to have a disciple acceptance ceremony, he had no qualms with it.

"I will go with you when the time arrives," said Wang Xian. He looked at Xiao Yu and Lan Qingyue who were at the side and asked, "Do you all want to go to Shang Jing to have fun for a few days?"

"That would be great! That was what we are thinking too!" Xiao Yu and Lan Qingyue nodded in agreement immediately. They had smiles written all over their faces.

"Alright, Old Sui, when will we go over?" Wang Xian asked with a smile.

"Tomorrow? I have chosen an auspicious time and date. Let's head to Shang Jing first!" replied Sui Huang with a bright smile.

"Alright. In that case, we will set off tomorrow morning. I haven't been to Shang Jing before. Let's enjoy ourselves in the capital!" said Wang Xian while nodding his head.

"Haha! In the capital, you guys can play all you want. That's my territory and everyone will have to show me some respect. Xiao Qing! As my disciple, you can do whatever you wish in Shang Jing!" Sui Huang said with dominance.

He looked at Wang Xian and lifted his head slightly. It's about time he showed this rascal what he was capable of!

The group was conversing happily as Wang Xian brought Xiao Ran to the side to assess his strength.

To his astonishment, Xiao Ran had reached Level 8 Martial Artist over this period of time.

That was an astonishing pace! However, when he heard that all the spiritual medicine was used by Sui Huang, he felt a little speechless.

As an alchemist, Sui Huang had made use of elixir pills to help Xiao Ran and Guan Shuqing improve their level.

"This old man still has his own methods!"

Wang Xian was glad. Even he could not improve a person's strength this rapidly.

...

The next day morning, Wang Xian, Guan Shuqing, Xiao Yu and Lan Qingyue followed Sui Huang to the capital.

"The ceremony will be held tomorrow. Xiao Qing, you should get ready. The process is simple and is mainly to announce to the rest that I'll be taking a disciple. When you reach Shang Jing today, you can enjoy yourself as you want. There are a lot of interesting places in Shang Jing."

Sui Huang happily lay down on his seat in the plane as he smiled and spoke to Guan Shuqing.

He was glad to be able to take a disciple like her. Finally, he had someone to pass his skills down to. This was also a form of insurance for his Sui Family.

"Yes, master!" Guan Shuqing smiled and answered.

The distance between Rivertown and Shang Jing wasn't far. It would just take two hours by plane.

Boom!

However, when the plane was approaching the Shang Jing Airport, a loud explosion erupted.

Chapter 295: Hold The Plane And Move (2)

Boom!

Dee, dee, dee!

Wang Xian and the gang were lying down, taking a rest on the plane when a buzzing sound was heard unexpectedly.

Soon after, the emergency alarm went off on the plane.

"What's going on? What happened?"

"What happened? Why did the alarm go off suddenly? Did we meet with some extreme weather?"

The passengers stood up immediately, looking panicky as they asked the air stewardess beside them as loud as they could.

"Fasten your seat belt. Please, fasten your seat belt and stay calm!"

There was slight anxiety in her eyes, but she calmed herself down and yelped at the top of her lungs.

Bam, Bam, Bam!

Ah!

At this time, a louder grinding sound was heard while the plane rocked twice again.

"Please fasten your seat belts. We're in an emergency situation, and we're in the midst of resolving it. All passengers, please stay calm!"

Just then, the entire plane was filled with the voice of the flight attendants.

"Hurry, stop them now!"

At the same time, four to five security personnel on the plane sprinted past Wang Xian and the gang's seats, looking appalled.

"What's the matter, hijacking? Or?"

Wang Xian sat up puzzledly as he peered towards the back.

They were sitting in the first-class seats, and there should be more first-class seats in the back.

He looked over his shoulder at Sui Huang.

Boom!

Just then, another booming sound was heard again.

"Ah, are we going to be alright?"

"What the hell is going on?"

The passengers were screaming in horror from the front.

"Someone is fighting on the plane!"

When Sui Huang heard the sound, his expression changed slightly as he unfastened his seat belt immediately with a sullen face.

"You guys stay here while Old Sui and I will check it out!"

Wang Xian immediately stood up and spoke to Xiao Yu and the rest.

"Okay!"

Those girls were wondering as they peered at the back.

"Gentlemen, please go back. We'll take care of this, and we'll settle it soon."

When the air stewardess saw them standing up, she quickly told them this anxiously.

"We'll just take a look!"

Old Sui took out an identification card emotionlessly and showed it to the air stewardess.

She was stunned as soon as she saw the identification card. "Yes, Chief Leader!"

"Hur?"

Wang Xian peered over with a bizarre look. That red identification card seemed terrific!

"If you want one, I can get you one next time!"

Upon seeing Wang Xian's puzzled look, a smile surfaced on Sui Huang's face.

"Let's go!"

Wang Xian shook his head and continued his way in.

"Get lost, I must kill him today!"

When they arrived at another first-class cabin, a figure suddenly flew over.

There was no change in Wang Xian's expression. He even reached out to catch the security personnel who spat out blood from his mouth.

"Thinking of killing me? Since I dared to kill your son, I can even kill you now. Haha, come over and kill me!"

A bossy voice, accompanied by daunting oppression, was heard.

Ah!

Another pained shriek was heard.

Boom!

Another loud bang was heard, sending the entire plane rocking violently.

An air stewardess even stumbled to the side.

There was a slight change in Sui Huang's expression. When the two of them went in, they realized two experts were fighting on the plane.

The entire first-class cabin was in a disastrous state. Two commoners were knocked down on the floor at the side with their faces covered in blood. No one was sure if they were dead or alive.

The security personnel on the plane were all lying on the floor.

There were another seven to eight men around the two experts, confronting each other.

On one side of the plane, a strong gust of wind was entering through two fist-sized holes.

It was looking the worst in the cockpit. Both the pilot and the co-pilot were flying the plane in extreme fear.

Boom!

As they entered, the two Inborn Experts started another round of intense fighting again.

Ka Ka Ka!

The plane could not take the magnitude of the power exhibited by two Inborn Experts. As such, the hole began to tear even wider.

It became a 2.5-meter wide hole with strong wind rushing in, causing the entire plane to shake violently.

Back in the cockpit, several flight attendants fell to the ground.

The mightiness of an Inborn Expert was not something an average person could withstand.

"Stop it!"

Sui Huang swept his gaze across everyone in the plane with a somber expression. He encompassed the duo with his Inborn oppression.

"What?"

The duo in the battle was taken aback as they quickly spun around and looked at Sui Huang.

"How dare you duel on the plane. Are you tired of living?"

Sui Huang walked over to the duo with darkened expressions.

"Scram!"

One of the middle-aged men bellowed at Sui Huang with bloodshot eyes. Soon after, he turned to another middle-aged man, "If I'm going to die today, I'll make sure to drag you down along with me!"

"You alone? Trying to drag me with you? Hehe, since you struck on the plane this time, you're doomed!"

Another skinny middle-aged man quirked his lips and looked at him soberly.

"You struck too. Even if I cannot kill you, you'll die too. So long as you're dead, my revenge is made!" the middle-aged man said as he revealed a bitter smile on his face. A blood feud they had!

"Heh, my dad will not die. You'll die a horrible death instead. This trivial matter can be easily taken care of by the Feng Family! Haha!"

The other middle-aged man did not reply, but a young man with a conceited look behind him spoke.

"Xiao Jing, he's a dying man. Ignore him!"

An old man spoke nonchalantly behind that skinny middle-aged man. Beside him stood another two elders. Three of them turned and looked at Sui Huang.

"Haha, fine. I'll not mind a lunatic. If you continue, the entire plane is going down. Then I'll advise you to commit suicide by jumping off the plane!"

The skinny middle-aged man nodded with a smile as he stared at the middle-aged man in front of him without fear.

"Old Sui, I thought you were cocky? Why is everyone ignoring you?"

Wang Xian swept his gaze across the group of people. The two middle-aged men in a duel were Inborn Experts. Three old men behind the skinny middle-aged man were also Inborn Experts.

"I only return to Shang Jing twice or thrice in twenty years. Many people have forgotten about me!"

Eyes turned cold. Sui Huang had not displayed his full mightiness just now because he was afraid he might affect the electronic equipment in the aircraft.

He slowly swept his gaze across the skinny middle-aged man and his gang.

"Feng Family of Shang Jing. I have heard of it before. I'll deal with this lad. But the rest of you deserve to die!"

Sui Huang looked at the five of them and spoke slowly. He had announced their sanctions immediately.

After Sui Huang finished his sentence, the skinny middle-aged man turned to Sui Huang and said, "Hur? Old fogey..."

Before he could finish his words, Sui Huang extended out his arm.

Five fiery palms immediately reached out and grabbed the skinny middle-aged man and the rest of the people behind him.

"For a long time, no one has dared to call me, Sui Huang, that!"

Chapter 296: Hold The Plane And Move (3)

"For a long time, no one dared to call me, Sui Huang, that!" Sui Huang remarked emotionlessly. After which, five palms made of flames grabbed their necks tightly.

"What?"

The skinny middle-aged man and the several old men behind him were instantly petrified.

The palms made of flames appeared on their necks suddenly. They did not have any time to react to it. To their horror, they realized they couldn't break free from the palms.

However, what really frightened them the most was what the old man had just said.

Sui Huang... Sui Huang... He said his name was Sui Huang!

All large Families and Sects would know what this name represented.

That name belonged to one of the most horrifying old men in Shang Jing.

"Sui Huang, how did... I... We..."

"Spare me your nonsense!"

Coldness gleamed in Sui Huang's eyes. When he moved his arm, the palms made of flames moved.

Crack crack!

The five men's eyes widened and were filled with disbelief. Their bodies trembled violently as they fell to the ground.

They weren't even feeling remorseful at all.

Bam!

"Sui Huang, Sui Huang..."

The other middle-aged man mumbled. Suddenly, his eyes widened and he kneeled in front of Sui Huang.

"Thank you, Sui Huang. Thank You, Sui Huang. They are finally dead! I can now die without regrets!"

The middle-aged man was very agitated and his face was filled with tears. After which, he gritted his teeth and was about to smash his palm on his head.

Bam!

Sui Huang kicked his arms away to prevent him from committing suicide. He then said, "Whether you deserve death will be determined later. For now, seal the two holes for me!"

"Yes, yes! Even if you want me dead now, I wouldn't grumble about it!"

That middle-aged man kneeled and kowtowed before Sui Huang. He stood up and waved his arms. Instantly, a stream of energy blocked the cracks of the plane.

"Brother Wang Xian, you are a miracle doctor. Can you help to treat the injured?" Sui Huang asked Wang Xian after shooting the middle-aged man a death stare.

"Alright!" Wang Xian smiled and replied with a nod.

This old fogey, Sui Huang, is pretty domineering. Wang Xian looked around him, squatted down and injected streams of Azure Dragon energy into those with injuries. Soon, they recovered.

"Chief Leader, can you take a look at the pilots? They... They have lost consciousness!!"

An aircrew member spoke to Sui Huang frantically. At this moment, the alarm system of the plane continued to sound.

"Let me take a look!" Wang Xian replied as he walked over to the cockpit.

The cockpit was damaged by the fight between the two sides and a large hole was left in it.

The pilots had collapsed inside the cockpit.

Wang Xian walked over and was stunned. He frowned, turned to Sui Huang and said, "They're beyond hope!"

"What?"

Sui Huang was shocked and turned solemn.

"What? Sir... Sir... Are they really beyond hope?" the aircrew members and security asked in fear.

"They are gone!" Wang Xian replied and shook his head.

One of the aircrew members rushed to the controls and picked up the radio.

"Mayday! Mayday! Flight Number A934J from Rivertown towards Shang Jing. The pilots on board have encountered danger. Requesting immediate support!"

"Mayday! Mayday! Flight Number A934J from Rivertown towards Shang Jing. The pilots on board have encountered danger. Requesting immediate support!"

The aircrew member was sweating as he called for help.

"This is bad!"

Soon, that aircrew member pressed a few buttons and realized something had gone wrong. He shouted frantically, "The radio is out! The radio is out!"

"There are problems with other action keys too. It's over! It's over!" That aircrew member became even more flustered as he shouted loudly.

"What's the matter?" Sui Huang frowned and shouted, "Calm down!"

Hu hu hu!

The aircrew member took a few deep breaths and replied, "The pilot is dead, and so is the secondary pilot. There's no one who can control the plane now! Furthermore, some equipment is damaged! We.... We..."

Tears streamed down from his eyes as he spoke.

"Let me ask, let me ask," an air stewardess said fearfully.

She picked up the announcement system and said with a trembling voice, "Calling for all passengers. Our plane has encountered a major incident. Is there anyone who knows how to fly a plane!?"

She continued, "If there is, please come over to the cockpit immediately. This concerns the lives of everyone!"

The air stewardess repeated the announcement several times and her voice sounded throughout the plane.

"What? Who knows how to fly a plane? Who knows how to fly a plane!? Get to the cockpit immediately!"

"Oh gosh! The plane is diving downwards! Mum, I don't want to die!"

"It's finished, it's finished! Who knows how to fly a plane! Please get to the cockpit quickly! The plane has deviated from its path and is slanting down now!"

"I don't want to die, I still have a family! My children!"

When the passengers heard the air stewardess's announcement, panic broke out.

However, no one stood up. In this era, a pilot wasn't common.

"Is there anyone who knows how to fly a plane? Please come to the cockpit immediately. We are facing a major crisis!"

The announcement sounded again. However, there was still no one who stood up.

Panic started sprouting in everyone's heart.

"Make a call! Contact the headquarters to see if there are any signals!" Sui Huang frowned and said.

Mobile phones were prohibited on the plane. However, at this moment, he couldn't care less.

"The high-speed movements will affect the signals. Nonetheless, we can give it a try!"

One of the aircrew members replied hurriedly. He then took out his phone and called.

"We are flight number A934J, we are experiencing a major incident, requesting for headquarters aid!" the aircrew member called and shouted hurriedly.

Bzz! Bzz!

From the other end of the phone, an unstable buzzing noise sounded.

"It's not working. The signals are unstable when flying at high speeds. The message isn't getting through. This isn't working!"

"It's over, it's over. We are just three minutes away from the airport. However, the plane is totally out of control and we can't possibly land it properly. The plane is going to crash!"

"The emergency equipment is malfunctioning as well!"

Fear gripped the members of the aircrew as they shouted frantically.

They were out of their means. Based on the current trend, the plane would be crashing.

At this moment, the command center of Shang Jing airport had also realized that they had lost contact with Flight A934J.

"Leader, Flight A934J is still uncontactable. According to the normal flight schedule, they are just three minutes away from landing!"

"Leader, we have turned on satellite tracking. We found a plane flying abnormally!"

"Leader, we received an emergency call from flight A934J. However, the voices were constantly interrupted and we couldn't hear anything."

"Hurry up! Lock down on their position with satellite and identify the problem they are facing. Continue to contact them. We definitely must establish contact with them!"

At this moment, the various leaders from the airline were commanding frantically.

If something was to happen to the plane, the repercussions on the airline would be grave.

If there were a lot of casualties, even the higher management of the airline would need to bear the responsibilities.

"Oh gosh! Flight A945J is totally out of control and is spiralling down," one of the staff members shouted desperately at this moment.

All the management members from the airline looked up. A plane was barreling towards the ground at an astonishing speed.

Everyone trembled and was frightened.

"Dear passengers, I would like to inform you of an unfortunate piece of news. The plane will crash in three minutes. We will try our best to force an emergency landing. Please pray for us!"

At this moment, a desolating piece of news was broadcasted through the announcement system.

"No... No... Don't!"

"How did this happen? How did this happen? I don't want to die!"

"I want to make a call! I still have words for my wife and my children!"

The passengers screamed in fear. Some passengers turned on their phones and tried to convey their last words to their loved ones.

The air stewardesses did not stop them. Instead, they did the same and started drafting their messages.

They were in complete despair.

Everyone felt hopeless. If the plane crashed, how many of them could possibly survive?

Everyone in the cockpit squatted down in despair and their bodies couldn't help but tremble.

"These few rascals! Only causing troubles for others!"

Sui Huang was gloomy and clenched his fist tightly.

"How far are we from the airport now?" Wang Xian frowned and asked one of the aircrews at the side.

"We are roughly fifteen kilometers away."

Boom!

As the aircrew spoke, the plane started turning. The group fell and rolled towards the far end.

"Over ten kilometers."

Wang Xian had a gloomy expression as he looked at the control system. He then pulled the red valve on the end.

Rumble!

With the propulsion system stopped, the plane fell straight down.

"Haiz, Old Sui! Let's give it a try!"

Wang Xian smiled as he spoke calmly to Old Sui who was beside him.

Huh? Sui Huang was stunned. Soon, he nodded and smiled, "If I was alone, I wouldn't be confident in doing this. Since it is the both of us, I am confident!"

"Haha! Alright then! Landing in Shang Jing in this manner wouldn't be a great thing to look back at!" said Wang Xian while shaking his head. After which, he smashed the window in front of him and jumped out of the plane.

"Haha, Landing in Shang Jing in this manner will be the best way for you to remember your trip here!" Sui Huang laughed and followed behind him.

The two of them came to the bottom of the plane. They exchanged glances, smiled, stretched out their arms and slowly pushed against the plane.

Chapter 297: Like God, Like Devil

Boom!

The plane whistled in the air as the entire forty-meter long aircraft started crushing down uncontrollably.

A booming, air-rending sound and the screams from passengers on the plane were heard all over the entire aircraft.

Ha!

Yet two soft bellows were coming from the bottom of the plane.

Boom!

Wang Xian and Sui Huang jerked their bodies, and two large pairs of wings sprang into action on their backs.

Fiery red just like the color of the blood. Sui Huang's pair of wings that resembled lava stones emerged from both sides.

As the two gigantic wings spread out, they spanned across around ten meters which looked terrifying.

A gentle flap would bring about freaky high temperatures. If it was not for his intended protection, the aircraft could have burst into flames.

The wings behind Sui Huang were totally out of their league, compared with those experts of Fire God Denomination back then.

Behind Wang Xian was a pair of fiery-red wings too.

The energy of the Dragon Ball could transform into a pair of dragon or phoenix wings. The huge wings may not be as big as Sui Huang's, but they had also reached seven meters.

Besides, the wings behind Wang Xian were more agile and flexible. Flapping them gently would exude the domineering power of Divine Dragon.

Boom, boom!

Both men raised their hands and exchanged a glance with smiles on their faces.

Another booming sound from the aircraft was heard. But this time, the plane stopped itself from crashing down.

With the help of the two powerful forces, the plane came to an abrupt halt and eerily suspended itself in the air without moving.

"Ah, what's going on? Why did the plane stop moving?"

"Did the plane recover? Is it fixed?"

"Is the danger over? Is it over?"

At this moment, the flight passengers had no clue about what was going on under the plane when they witnessed such an incredible scene.

Their eyes were agape. Some of them had tears on their faces as they asked in a panic.

Even the staff on the plane was puzzled.

"Could it be that Chief Leader and that young man?"

Some of the staff were in a daze back in the cockpit. When the two of them had jumped out of the plane, they were feeling hopeless and had lost all concerns.

Yet, the plane had come to a halt strangely in the air. All of them could not help but gulp.

"We still have hope. The Chief Leader and that young man were powerful ancient Martial Artists!"

A glimmer of excitement flashed in the eyes of a staff member as he spoke, quivering.

"Yes, we're safe! We're safe! That's wonderful! Bravo!"

The staff in the cockpit began to look animated.

"Dear passengers, the plane is now stable. Do not panic, keep calm. We'll be landing safely!"

A flight attendant quickly consoled all the passengers in the cabin through the sound system.

"What?"

"The plane is stable? Great! I thought I was going to die!"

"Haha, wonderful. Wonderful! We're still alive!"

When the passengers heard the voice of the staff on the plane, they were zestful.

The excitement of the aftermath was reflected in everyone's faces.

"Wow, strong and domineering prowess. Is this the strength of Sui Huang?"

The middle-aged Inborn Expert was using his power to block the hole in the first-class cabin. When he witnessed the gigantic fiery wings, he was astounded.

Using their physical bodies, they lifted and secured the entire plane!

"Another ten kilometers away. Let's go!"

With a shout from Wang Xian, Sui Huang made a swift move as he gazed ahead, flapping his wings slightly.

"Haha, go!"

The two of them carried the plane and slowly flew off.

With the two people carrying an aircraft that weighed nearly a hundred tons in the air, their speed was not fast, but maintained forty to fifty kilometers per hour.

"Oh my god!"

"Incredible!"

"Crazy! This is crazy!"

All the staff stopped their work at the headquarters of Shang Jing airport as they were shocked to see what the satellite had captured on screen.

Everyone, with their eyes wide open, stared at the monitor in disbelief.

Two people with gigantic wings were carrying the entire aircraft in the air.

Such a breath-taking scene that seemed god-like struck everyone dumbfounded.

They were flying at an incredible speed even with the plane on their backs. Were they even humans?

They were simply like a God or Devil.

The executives of high management of the airline back at the headquarters were staring blankly at the screen.

"Quick! Organize all the planes at the airport now to allow ample time for that plane to land. Hurry, get the staff to settle this. Also, get the security personnel and seal off the landing area of that plane!"

One of the executives quickly ordered the surrounding staff.

"Yes!"

"Great! How wonderful to have powerful experts to carry the entire plane with their physical bodies. We managed to tide through this crisis. That's great!"

Some of the executives exclaimed elatedly and continued to give orders, "Keep the radio on. Since the plane is now landing, get hold of A934J and ask what was going on, and contact the two mighty experts!"

"Yes!"

The plane was propelled by the powerful force of Wang Xian and Sui Huang. Ten minutes later, Shang Jing airport appeared in front of them.

"People are guiding us below. Let's go down."

Sui Huang peered somewhere below and saw a few staff members waving red flags, signaling to them!

"Go!"

Wang Xian made a swift move, and the wings behind his back disappeared. If his wings were still around at this time, he would be in the limelight.

Sui Huang also withdrew his pair of wings as they lifted the plane while walking in the air.

Gulp!

The surrounding security personnel and the airline executive below swallowed their saliva.

Two experts supported an aircraft, walking in the air. That seemed just like what deities would do.

Boom!

An aircraft that weighed a hundred tons was put down gently on the runway by two experts as everyone watched astoundedly.

"Gosh, they're god-like humans!"

The airline executives ran towards them with fear and respect. They bowed their bodies as though they had met deities.

"Hello, two... two experts! Thank you very much!"

They did not know how to address them as they spoke frightfully.

"Okay, I'll leave you guys to handle the remaining matters!"

Sui Huang was impatient as he saw the people from the airline. He took out his red identification card and waved to them!

"What!"

When they saw that card, their eyes could not help but narrow. All the more respect they had for him.

"Yes, Chief Leader!"

The group of airline executives responded loudly in fear and trepidation.

Chapter 298: Too Senior

"Xiao Xian!"

"Master!"

Beside the plane, Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue had just alighted from the plane when they saw Wang Xian and Sui Huang. They immediately called out to them.

"Xiao Xian, what happened to the plane?" the group of girls walked over and asked Wang Xian.

"Two Inborn experts had a quarrel and implicated the pilots in the process," Wang Xian explained in a simplified manner.

"So that's what happened! I thought someone hijacked the plane!" said Xiao Yu with a smile.

"Sui Huang!"

At this moment, the middle-aged man, who'd had a conflict with the other Inborn experts on the plane, rushed over and greeted Sui Huang with horror.

"I'll investigate this matter clearly. You can go back and wait for my updates!" said Sui Huang plainly.

"Yes, Sui Huang!" the middle-aged man nodded his head respectfully before leaving.

"Master, why is everyone calling you by your name?" Guan Shuqing walked to her master and asked inquisitively.

"Hehe! There's only one Sui Huang!" Sui Huang chuckled proudly. Although his name was Sui Huang, his title was also Sui Huang.

Most people would address him by the title!

"Alright, now that you are in your master's territory, have a good rest and time here. Tell me if there's anything you'd like. Haha!" Sui Huang smiled and led the group to the exit.

"Grandpa!"

When they left the airport, two old men immediately walked over and greeted Sui Huang deferentially.

"Yeah!" Sui Huang revealed a faint smile. He looked at the few black luxury cars ahead before turning to Wang Xian and asking, "Brother Wang Xian, are you guys going with me or...?"

Wang Xian pondered for a moment before answering Sui Huang.

"We would like to walk around the streets of Shang Jing first. We will go to your place in the afternoon tomorrow!"

"Alright." Sui Huang nodded his head, turned to Guan Shuqing and said, "Disciple, if you encounter any problems in Shang Jing, just give me a call. Enjoy yourself!"

"Alright, master! Thank you, master!" Guan Shuqing smiled and nodded her head.

Hehe! Sui Huang responded with a smile. After which, he looked to the two old men by the side and instructed, "Leave a car behind for them. Let's get back."

"Yes, grandpa."

The two old men nodded their heads immediately. After which, they looked to Guan Shuqing and said, "Martial Senior Aunt, feel free to instruct us if you have any needs in Shang Jing!"

Huh? Argh!

When Guan Shuqing heard how the two old men addressed her, she was instantly stunned.

The two old men were at least seventy years old. Although they had taken great care of their looks, one could still see signs of ageing. And now they were addressing her as Martial Senior Aunt.

This instantly shocked Guan Shuqing.

"Haha, my dear disciple. Based on seniority, these two kids should indeed address you as Martial Senior Aunt. It will be fine once you get used to it. I'll give you a good introduction tomorrow," Sui Huang laughed loudly and remarked after seeing Guan Shuqing's reactions.

"Alright, master." Guan Shuqing smiled bitterly and forced a smile at the two old men.

"Brother Wang Xian, we will leave that car for you. I'll be getting back now for the preparations!" commented Sui Huang heartily.

"Alright, Old Sui! Go and handle your matters. I'll walk around the streets with them!" Wang Xian smiled and nodded his head.

Hmm!

"Goodbye, Martial Senior Aunt!" the two old men said deferentially to Guan Shuqing once again.

"Mm, mm. Goodbye!" Guan Shuqing replied quickly.

As Sui Huang and the two old men left, Wang Xian was speechless. He turned to Guan Shuqing and asked, "Shuqing, how old is Sui Huang, that old fogey? His grandsons are already so old!"

"That's my master! How can you call him an old fogey!"

Guan Shuqing rolled her eyes at Wang Xian before replying, "I've asked my master previously. He told me he has lived for more than two jia-zi." [\[1\]](#)

"Oh my god! It's no surprise then. He's still so powerful after two jia-zi. He should be able to live for another few dozens of years."

Wang Xian was shocked. One jia-zi was equivalent to sixty years. Two jia-zi would mean that Sui Huang was over 120 years old.

It's no surprise that the two seventy-plus-year-old men were calling him grandpa.

"Incredible!" Wang Xian joked. If he could live for another few dozens of years, he would really be a living buddha. "It seems like there won't be people with higher seniority than you in the Sui Family in the future!"

"I don't want to have such high seniority. A couple seventy, eighty-plus old men just addressed me as their Martial Senior Aunt!"

Guan Shuqing looked devastated to be called Martial Senior Aunt by seventy, eighty-plus year old men. If that was the case, those of similar age as her would be calling her Great Martial Nanny!

At the thought of this, Guan Shuqing felt her world was spinning. Sometimes, having too high seniority would be extremely embarrassing!

"Hehe, Shuqing! I think that's pretty cool. Just imagine a group of old men behind you and having to greet you with respect!" Lan Qingyue chuckled as she commented.

"Yeah, sister-in-law! I heard from my master that Families with deeper history typically have lots of rules. Considering your seniority, those middle-aged and younger generations might have to kneel down before you. Hahaha! It feels incredible just thinking about it!"

Xiao Yu was visualizing the scene in her mind as she laughed out loud.

"Forget it. That's not what I want. If you guys like it, you can take my place!"

Guan Shuqing rolled her eyes at the two girls who were deriving joy from her misery.

"Haha. Let's go. Let's see where the interesting places in Shang Jing are. Hmm. For lunch, let's go get the roasted duck!"

Wang Xian was laughing at the girl's conversation but interrupted at this moment.

"Let's go!"

Xiao Yu and the group walked towards the car excitedly.

It was an extended Bentley with six seats, a rather luxurious car.

They weren't surprised that a Sacred Clan could easily come out with cars like this.

Mo Qinglong drove the car and brought the group to famous places in Shang Jing.

Shang Jing was known for their roasted ducks. Therefore, they naturally would like to taste it since they were here. At noon, the group toured the Imperial Palace.

The group was still full of energy and enthusiasm at night despite having played the whole day.

All of them were Martial Artists. They wouldn't be tired even if they had been touring the whole day.

"What would you like to have for dinner? Should we eat in the hotel or head out?"

The Bentley drove on the streets of Shang Jing. Wang Xian smiled and asked the few girls around him.

As he spoke, he started observing Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue from top to bottom.

Oh, Lan Qingyue, I haven't gotten my hands on you. Today will be a good opportunity!

"We aren't going back to the hotel yet! We have to go to the night market in Shang Jing. After visiting the night market, we still have to go to the famous Wang Fu Shopping Street! Haha! I'm going to go on a frenzy of a shopping spree!" Xiao Yu, Lan Qingyue, Guan Shuqing and Elder Fang were thrilled and spoke loudly.

"Erm. We have been shopping for the entire day. Aren't you guys tired?" Wang Xian felt a little speechless at their responses.

"Fatigue is non-existent. We should be enjoying ourselves fully since we are in Shang Jing. Xiao Xian, don't think of lazing around. We still need you to carry our bags!" Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing looked at Wang Xian and gave their orders directly.

Wang Xian was speechless. It seemed like he wouldn't be getting his way again tonight.

Endnote:

[1] Jia-zi is a unit of measurement of time in ancient China. One Jia-zi is equivalent to sixty years. Back

Chapter 299: Call Daddy! (1)

"Haha, this is nice. Shuqing, try this. This is not bad!"

"Sister-in-law, this is not bad either!"

"Master, have a try!"

Shang Jing, the richest city with the most robust foundation in the country had the most lively nightlife.

Wang Xian was left without a choice except watching the four of them buying snacks from various stalls non-stop. They looked happy as they chatted.

Yet, they drew attention from countless people along the way.

Four beauties who were the top-notch existences.

Xiao Yu, Lan Qingyue, Guan Shuqing, and Elder Fang were all Martial Artists with perfect figures.

The four of them were rather tall, and they gave off a unique vibe. Even in Shang Jing, a city never short of pretty babes, the four of them could easily overtake any one of them when they walked in a row.

"Let's go shopping."

When the four of them arrived at a renowned shopping center in Shang Jing, they went in with excitement.

Shopping and taking care of their own looks were women's innate tendencies. Even the female Inborn Experts would not lose this born ability.

Finally, they unleashed their born ability by exhibiting an endless amount of energy in shopping.

Clothes, accessories, bags, one after another.

Soon, Wang Xian and Mo Qinglong were following behind with hands full of bags. They were like henchmen, tagging behind the four babes.

Wang Xian shook his head. Imagine him and Mo Qinglong being the dignified experts...and they were downgraded to people who carried shopping bags for others for now.

The four of them shopped til 11 pm before they finally had no choice but to stop. They even agreed to go to another shopping mall the next morning for more shopping.

Wang Xian, who was behind them, stumbled as he almost fell to the ground.

Not that he was feeling tired, but it was too boring for him.

He could not understand this kind of pleasure.

"Here, Xiao Xian. Wear this watch tomorrow. Men must have a watch of their own!"

Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue took out one thing that they bought for him as they spoke with beaming faces.

"Sure."

Wang Xian took it over with a smile. The two of them had bought a nice and luxurious watch that cost over two million.

But he really had no love for the watch. You could imagine that he had to remove his clothes every time he transformed into a dragon. Now, he had another watch that hindered him.

If he forgot to take off his watch, that watch would be gone as soon as he transformed.

However, he could not turn them down.

"Let me find a hotel!"

Xiao Yu fished out her phone and searched for hotels.

The hotels in Shang Jing were quite popular. By this time, some of the hotels might have been fully booked.

The group went into three hotels before they found one on the street.

"Hur? This is the street with the famous pubs of Shang Jing!"

Xiao Yu was puzzled as she looked ahead. This street was the most lively place in Shang Jing during the night.

Women in sexy dresses with pretty and exquisite makeup were all over the street.

Sports cars were parked on each side of the road. The rich people in Shang Jing were far superior to those in Rivertown.

Not even ten Rivertowns could compare with one Shang Jing city.

"Let's go back to our room and sleep!"

Xiao Yu swept a glance around and headed to the hotel ahead without much interest.

It was a five-star hotel which was also rather well-known.

Wang Xian and the gang walked in. As they neared the entrance, Xiao Yu suddenly came to a halt. She looked at the person who stepped out of the sports car with astonishment.

"Hur?" What's wrong, Xiao Yu?" asked Wang Xian in surprise.

"She's Ling Yi. Ling Yi!"

A reply that sounded surprised. Wang Xian was slightly stunned as he turned his attention over and saw a pretty girl. She was surrounded by another three young men and babes as they walked into the hotel.

"She's really Ling Yi. I love her song, "Flying." It's motivating!"

Guan Shuqing and the girls spoke with amazement after they saw her.

"You shouldn't be too surprised if you see some actors and singers. After all, the best art academy is situated here."

Wang Xian smiled.

"I love her songs!" Xiao Yu smiled as she looked at the pretty girl.

Wang Xian chuckled as he nodded. "Are you going on a star hunt? Let's go. We better get back to our room and sleep. It's late!"

"Fine!"

Xiao Yu nodded, but she could not stop looking at that pretty girl with curiosity.

That singer, Ling Yi, also overheard Xiao Yu's conversation. She exhibited a faint smile as she spoke while leaning on a young man affectionately.

"Two presidential suites!"

Mo Qinglong came to the reception and spoke to the front desk staff.

"I'm sorry, Sir. We're only left with one presidential suite!"

"Just one? Then just nice. The girls can take the room. Hehe. Both of you can stay in standard rooms!"

Xiao Yu chuckled as she spoke to Wang Xian.

"Hmm, actually I think I can squeeze in!"

Wang Xian said with a slight contemplation.

"Fat chance!"

Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing blushed as they spoke to him.

"One presidential suite and two suites!" Mo Qinglong told the front desk staff.

"Sure, Sir. That will be a total of $130,000!" the staff said with a smile. Mo Qinglong handed his card over immediately.

"No more presidential suite?"

Just then, a young man's voice was heard.

"Sorry, Sir. The last one has just been booked," the receptionist said with a smile.

"Oh, really?" The young man raised his eyebrow as he pulled out a card and placed it on the reception counter. "The diamond membership card of your hotel. The diamond members have priority over others when the room is booked at the same time!"

The young man spoke indifferently as he smiled at the people beside him.

Wang Xian and the gang were stunned as they spun around and looked at the young man.

He was around thirty years old. Beside him was the pretty singer, Ling Yi, whom Xiao Yu had mentioned just now. They were the people who had come into the hotel at the same time as them.

"This..." The front desk staff was placed in a difficult position. Apologetically, she said to the young man, "Sorry, Sir. I have already swiped their card. So, I'm really sorry!"

"Hur?" That young man was taken aback with a grumpy look on his face.

"Babes, can you let us have your room? I can agree to some of your requests, such as autographs and taking photographs."

Ling Yi knit her eyebrows slightly as she peered at Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and the rest.

Xiao Yu also frowned. She looked at Guan Shuqing and shook her head slowly. "I'm sorry, Ling Yi. We have already booked our room."

Ling Yi was slightly caught by surprise as bewilderment flashed in her eyes.

"I can pay for your room as long as you let us have this one!"

The young man by the side continued to speak.

"Sorry!" Guan Shuqing and the girls shook their heads at the side.

Chapter 300: Call Daddy! (2)

As Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and the group rejected them, Ling Yi and the young man beside her instantly showed their displeasure.

"Hi, beautiful ladies, can you do your idol a favor?"

Ling Yi frowned and asked this to Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and the group.

Huh? Ling Yi's response made the girls feel speechless and they found it hilarious.

Xiao Yu and Guan Shuqing shook their heads and replied, "We aren't overzealous fangirls. We are sorry, we're going back to our rooms."

As they finished their words, they took their room cards from the front counter and prepared to head towards their rooms.

Ling Yi was shocked and embarrassed by the actions of these two fans.

"Wait a minute!"

At this moment, the young men standing by the side got serious. He tilted his chin up slightly, looked at Xiao Yu and the girls and said, "The rooms aren't yours yet!"

After commenting, he took out his phone and made a call.

"Let's go back and sleep!"

Wang Xian had been standing by the side, watching them silently. He found the whole incident hilarious and shook his head as he spoke to the girls.

Carrying their trophies of the day in his hand, Wang Xian and the group walked towards the elevator.

"I said, stand right there!"

Seeing that the group had totally ignored him, the young man's face turned gloomy. "I'm calling the manager of this hotel. If you wish to be chased out of your room, feel free to go up right now."

Wang Xian stopped in his tracks, turned to the young man and remarked, "Are you a dumbass? Embarrassing yourself over a room?"

He couldn't understand how this young man thought. Perhaps he felt he was a notch above others and must stay in the best room!

"What did you say?"

The hand of the young man holding the phone stiffened as he glared coldly at Wang Xian.

"I'm calling you a dumbass. Is there something wrong with your ears?"

Xiao Yu pouted, looked at this young man and was speechless about his conduct.

"Haha! You dare to reprimand me in Shang Jing?" The young man was so angry that he laughed instead. With a sinister smile, he pointed at Wang Xian and shouted loudly.

"Indeed, he's just another brat who is too used to being arrogant in Shang Jing!" commented Wang Xian as he looked at the young man.

"Arrogant? Let your daddy tell you this. In Shang Jing, your daddy can be as arrogant as he wants!"

The young man glowered at Wang Xian before looking across the crowd and saying, "These few girls are rather pretty. I'll give you a way out now. Get out of here or... Your daddy will show you what is meant by arrogant!" He pointed at the group.

"Young Master Yuan, Young Master Yuan. Who is the one who has offended you...?"

Suddenly, a voice broke the standoff. A few middle-aged men walked in through the entrance of the hotel. From the group, a middle-aged man in a suit was shocked to see what was happening in the hotel as he dashed forward and shouted.

"Manager Sun, the service of this place is getting worse and worse. I can't even get a presidential suite here."

Seeing Manager Sun running towards him, the young man remarked harshly.

"How can this be? How can this be? As long as you want it, we will definitely reserve a room for you unless all the rooms are sold. Otherwise, we would definitely not hold them back or not give them to you."

Manager Sun ran forward with a smile to please the young man.

"Is it so? In that case, why did your guys give the presidential suites to others when we arrived at the same time? Could it be that this card you gave me is useless?"

Young Master Yuan looked at Manager Sun and the corner of his lips curved into a smirk.

"How can this be? How can this be? We will give it to Young Master Yuan even if it means not letting anyone else stay in it!"

Manager Sun put on a pleasing smile once again. Following which, he turned around, stared at the front desk attendants and shouted, "What are you guys doing? Can't you handle something so simple? If Young Master Yuan wants the presidential suite, give it to him then! Do you guys still want your job?"

"Manager... We..." The two attendants stammered and felt bitter. However, they could only swallow their pride as they lowered their heads.

"Did you see this? Get out of here now!" the young man chided with contempt, looking at Wang Xian and the group.

"Scram! Since Young Master Yuan wants you to scram, you guys better scram!" seconded Manager Sun.

"YOU... You guys..."

Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and the girls stared furiously at the young man and Manager Sun beside him.

They had not expected the manager of the hotel to give away the rooms they had booked to others.

Wang Xian's eyebrows knitted together. Mo Qinglong, who was standing by the side, stared at them coldly and clenched his fist lightly.

"Good evening, Sirs and ladies!"

Just as Mo Qinglong was about to strike, a rather desolate figure saw Wang Xian and the group. He was shocked and stunned for a few seconds. After which, he immediately rushed ahead.

Deep fear gleamed in his eyes.

Huh?

When the voice of the middle-aged man sounded and he appeared in front of the crowd, the crowd was taken aback. Manager Sun's eyes popped wide open and he was flabbergasted.

"It's you!" Guan Shuqing looked at the middle-aged man and exclaimed.

The middle-aged man looked decadent just like how he had appeared beside the plane in the day.

"Miss, good... Good evening!"

The middle-aged man greeted her in fear once again and looked at Guan Shuqing respectfully.

He was still on tenterhooks about what had happened on the plane earlier in the day. After recalling the entire incident, all he felt was fear.

His enemies had taken advantage of his easily angered personality as they forced him to strike on the plane. In the end, he almost lost all his rationality as he was shrouded in the desire for vengeance.

Subsequently, that horrifying old man, Sui Huang, appeared and killed his arch enemies with a single strike. Those were four Inborn experts!

As for him, he was still awaiting judgement from the old man after he broke the rules on the plane by fighting.

Whether he lived or died fell solely on the words of that old man.

With a whole afternoon to calm down, fear started welling up. If he was dead, what would be the outcome for his family and disciples?

They probably would be killed by his past opponents.

However, just as he was pondering how he could ask the old man to spare his life, he happened to meet this girl.

When they alighted from the plane, his mental state was dishevelled. Nonetheless, he still remembered clearly how that old man had looked at this girl dotingly.

He even called her his disciple.

She's the disciple of that old man and that old man had not taken in any disciple for several dozens of years.

If he could convince the disciple of that old man to put in a word for him, his life might be spared.

He greeted Guan Shuqing anxiously and bowed sincerely.

"What? Good evening, Director Zhou!" Manager Sun looked at this boss in shock.

To his astonishment, the boss was bowing down to one of the girls that he had just tried to chase out of the hotel a while ago...

Bam!

The middle-aged man swung a slap over and chided, "You better watch your words closely next time. This is my last warning for you!"

"I... Yes! Yes, Director Zhou!" Manager Sun staggered back a few steps. His face swelled up instantly as he answered in horror.

"And you guys! Get out of my hotel and you are banned from entering in the future!"

The middle-aged man looked coldly at Young Master Yuan.

"Hehe! You guys deserve it!"

When Guan Shuqing, Xiao Yu and the group saw the situation, they smiled.

Chapter 301: Call Daddy! (3)

"Zhou Qingkong, are you sure you want me to scram?!"

The middle-aged man slapped cold words on that young man, embarrassing him instantly.

The young man looked malevolent as he glared at Zhou Qingkong.

"Hur?" Zhou Qingkong squinted his eyes slightly as he peered at that young man with flickering eyes. Subsequently, he clenched his teeth to show his determination. "I said, get lost, and you better do it now!"

"Fu*k you, Zhou Qingkong. Do you think I'm scared of you just because you're an Inborn Expert? Feng Family didn't annihilate you, so you want Yuan Family to do it?"

The young man burst into outrage as soon as he heard Zhou Qingkong. He pointed at him and chided with an extremely arrogant attitude.

Even though he knew Zhou Qingkong was an Inborn Expert, he did not show the slightest fear. Obviously, his backing was somewhat powerful.

"Hehe, I want you to get out now. You jolly well should do so. Annihilate me? Stop bragging, lad!"

Zhou Qingkong spoke to the young man with a sullen face. He knew which side he should be on by now.

"Fine, you..."

The young man was morose and his face was flushed with redness. He pointed at Zhou Qingkong with constantly changing expressions. "Zhou Qingkong, you better watch out. If I don't destroy your hotel today, I, Yuan Fei, will tarnish my own reputation in Shang Jing!"

"Didn't you hear me asking you to get out?"

Zhou Qingkong gradually turned gloomy when he saw Yuan Fei's behavior, encompassing him with a tyrannical oppression.

"Five minutes. Just you wait."

Yuan Fei felt the magnitude of Zhou Qingkong's imposing demeanor. His face paled, he gritted his teeth, and spoke ferociously.

Then, he turned to Wang Xian and his gang with icy-cold eyes. "And you guys too. Just you wait. I'll show you what it takes to provoke me!"

"Let's go!"

He then turned and spoke to Ling Yi and the other two people next to him while he dug out his phone exasperatedly.

"Hmph!"

Zhou Qingkong was slightly embarrassed. He took a deep breath and turned to look at Guan Shuqing again. "Miss, it's my honor that you stay in our hotel. I hope you have a pleasant rest today!"

"Thank you, Director Zhou!"

Guan Shuqing was delighted on her face as she expressed her gratitude when Director Zhou went all out to offend the young man in their defense.

"You're welcome. Miss, which room are you staying in? I'll show you the way!" Director Zhou said quickly.

"It's okay. We can go over ourselves!" Guan Shuqing shook her head.

"It's nothing. It's my pleasure to serve you!"

Director Zhou shook his head in a hurry as he led them ahead.

Manager Sun, behind him, was a little dumbfounded as he stared at his boss with doubts on his face.

Who was that girl such that his boss did not hesitate to offend Yuan Family?

Wang Xian, Xiao Yu, and the rest went into the president suite.

Boom boom!

After Wang Xian placed his things on the table, Elder Fang opened the window for ventilation, and they could hear the roaring of engines outside.

Smash!

Subsequently, the shattering of the glass window was heard.

"Hur?"

Wang Xian, Guan Shuqing, Xiao Yu, and the rest were slightly stunned as they went to the window immediately.

"What a line-up!"

Elder Fang looked outside with a surprised look. "It's Shang Jing, indeed, with daring people stomping over the hotel of an Inborn Expert!"

At this time, more than a score of supercars were gathered at the hotel entrance.

Each of the supercars was vrooming loudly with unruly young men standing in front of them. They were gazing at the hotel before them with arrogance.

The engine sound from earlier had been from one of the supercars crashing into the hotel rampantly.

Arrogance above anyone else!

"Zhou Qingkong, you son of a bitch. Get your ass out here. Those whores, too!"

A familiar conceited voice was heard, stunning Wang Xian and the rest as they exchanged gazes.

"Let's go down together," Wang Xian told Xiao Yu and Guan Shuqing immediately with a stern face.

"How dare he scold us!"

The girls were infuriated with that young man's cockiness and swollen head.

They put down their stuff and headed downstairs.

Bam!

However, when they reached the lobby, a figure was sent flying to their faces.

He spat out a mouthful of blood with a face as white as a sheet.

"Director Zhou!"

Guan Shuqing was aghast as she exclaimed. She hurriedly walked over and checked on him.

"I'm fine!"

As soon as Director Zhou saw Guan Shuqing arrived at the lobby, he revealed a smile on his pale-looking face. At the same time, a hint of doubt flashed in his eyes.

"Haha, how dare you agitate my buddy? Zhou Qingkong, are you sick of living?"

A disdainful and complacent voice was heard.

The hotel door was knocked down entirely, with a sports car crashing into the sofa in the lobby.

Yuan Fei stood beside it, and he did not feel sorry for the luxurious car that had crashed.

With his chin lifted up, he stared at Zhou Qingkong disdainfully. When he noticed Wang Xian and his gang were walking out, his face turned cold with a taunting look.

All the luxury sports cars had already blocked the entrance of the hotel.

More than a score of cars were parked at the entrance. A young man was sitting in a limited-edition sports car at the center, and he had crossed his legs with a smile as he remarked just now.

Beside that young man stood a domineering middle-aged man. Obviously, he was the one who had struck just now.

Apart from that middle-aged man, in every sports car sat a young man with taunting looks.

They wore branded goods, drove branded cars...the typical rich second-generation who had strong backings.

Other than this group of affluent young men, several middle-aged men and elders were around with several Inborn Experts amongst them.

Such a force was daunting.

"You guys came out. Haha, I'll make sure you kneel over here for the entire night!"

Yuan Fei took a look at Wang Xian and the gang with a stone-cold face.

He was so conceited that, in his eyes, he had high regard for no one.

"He's quite something. No wonder he was such a rich idiot in Shang Jing. They really must have some backings if nobody dares to go against them."

Wang Xian observed Yuan Fei and turned his attention to the rest of the young men and two Inborn Experts at the door. Finally, he fixed his eyes on the young man at the center who had spoken just now.

"His last name is Sui? Is he from Sui Huang's family?"

Upon recalling what that young man had said, he whispered to Xiao Yu, Lan Qingyue, and Guan Shuqing next to him. All of them froze for a moment.

"If that's the case, it'd be interesting!"

Xiao Yu exhibited a teasing look as he looked at the young man in the sports car at the center position. With a smile, he said, "Hey, lad in the middle. Your nanny is here. If you're not paying your respects, then what are you waiting for?"

Boom!

Xiao Yu's words struck all the young men in the sports car dumbfoundedly almost immediately.

How dare a lass speak to Sui Ao in such a manner. Tired of living?

The young man in the middle was slightly stunned as he looked at Xiao Yu, Lan Qingyue, Guan Shuqing, and Elder Fang. With a smirk drawn at the corner of his lips, he sneered.

"Tell me. What do you think of asking them to crawl over to lick my shoes and call me daddy?"

Chapter 302: Crawl On Your Knees Here And Pay Respect To Great Martial Nanny (1)

"Tell me. What do you think of asking them to crawl over to lick my shoes and call me daddy?" Sui Ao looked around him as he commented casually with disdain.

However, just as he completed his sentence, he broke into laughter and answered his own question, "I think that's a pretty good suggestion."

After which, he stood up.

The surrounding group of young men naturally saw him as their leader and got out from their cars.

"Brother Ao, those girls over there are pretty good-looking. Licking shoes might be a little too much. Let me remove my shoes instead!"

"Haha, Gu Zai! Are you trying to stink them to death with your size forty-five feet?"

"I can't imagine the stench of his feet after he removes his shoes. You are too cruel!"

The few young men broke into laughter and joked as they walked towards the hotel.

All of them were swollen with inordinate arrogance.

They were all from elite tier families in Shang Jing. Each one of them possessed considerable strength. Moreover, they had now gathered together and had Sui Ao who came from the highest tier existence in Shang Jing. Therefore, the group was fearful of nothing.

When the crowd walked into the hotel, a middle-aged man and an old man stood to the left and right of Sui Ao respectively. Both of them gave off horrifying vibes.

Sui Ao, who was standing in the middle, looked at Wang Xian and the group with contempt. He walked towards a chair at the side and placed one of his legs on it.

"I, Sui Ao, typically wouldn't argue with girls. However, you guys have offended my brother and therefore you guys have offended us."

Sui Ao squinted his eyes and shouted, "Come here and kneel down!"

"Come and kneel down immediately. Otherwise, we will toy with you till you die!" Yuan Fei stared at Wang Xian and the group and chided before walking to the side of Sui Ao.

"Hehe. You guys are so incredible!" Wang Xian looked at the group of twenty to thirty young men coldly.

"Who are those people? Why are they so noisy?"

"Yeah! Why are they still kicking up a fuss in the middle of the night and disrupting our rest!"

At this moment, some guests arrived at the lobby of the hotel. Clearly, the commotion caused when the car crashed directly into the hotel had alarmed many people.

Seven to eight middle-aged men were in their pajamas. They had tattoos on their hands, with fat drooping down their face. But they looked extremely fierce.

They bemoaned unhappily. However, when they saw the group of young men in the lobby, they were taken aback. Their gaze fell on some of them as their pupils constricted.

"Young Master Zhen, Young Master Feng, Young Master Li!"

The few of them immediately went over to the group of young men to greet them.

However, the group of young men wasn't paying attention to them. Their eyes were still fixed on Wang Xian's group.

"Tsk! You guys must be eager to die to offend Young Master Zhen and his friends!"

A middle-aged man chided Wang Xian and the group to get on the good books of Young Master Zhen.

"Scram!" Mo Qinglong looked at the group of middle-aged men and shouted. Horrifying aura and killing intent swept towards them.

"You are..."

Plop!

The group of middle-aged men couldn't withstand Mo Qinglong's aura fully as they were knocked unconscious and fell to the ground.

After which, Mo Qinglong turned to Sui Ao and the group. Contempt and disdain were written all over his face as he said, "Can you afford the consequences for making us kneel before you?"

"Inborn expert? It's no surprise that you guys are acting so presumptuously!"

Sui Ao squinted his eyes and stared coldly at Mo Qinglong as he continued. "From your accent, I believe you must have come from somewhere other than Shang Jing. Haven't you heard of the saying, 'In Shang Jing, even Inborn experts have to keep a low profile. Otherwise...'"

The middle-aged and old men beside him stepped forward at this moment. The aura of Inborn experts immediately shrouded towards Mo Qinglong as they continued the sentence for Sui Ao: "Otherwise, you will die too!"

"Haha! I wonder who gives you the guts to be arrogant in our territory. Right now, I'll give you five seconds to get here and kneel before us. Otherwise, you guys can forget about leaving Shang Jing. Not even an Inborn expert could escape!"

Yuan Fei's haughty voice sounded once again.

"Don't be so imperious!" When Guan Shuqing saw the arrogant looks of Sui Ao, she was infuriated and continued, "You are Sui Ao? This has nothing to do with you. Stay out of this and don't be arrogant. Otherwise, I'll let my master know!"

"Haha! Imperious?" Sui Ao burst into laughter. "A few foreigners dare to offend my brother. It's only natural that I'll be involved now. Let your master know? Even if your master was here, he would have to kneel before me like you guys. All of you here have to kneel before me today until the sun rises. Otherwise, I'll strip you guys and throw you on the street. You girls are pretty good-looking. I believe there would be lots of people interested!"

"Hehe! Brother Ao, these girls are really beautiful."

"Haha! They are pretty good. However, I still prefer to see the horrified looks of beautiful girls!"

"What a pervert you are!"

As Sui Ao completed his words, the group of young men around him joked and conversed casually. This group of young men wasn't concerned about the strength that Mo Qinglong had demonstrated, or Wang Xian and the group.

"YOU... Great, great. I'll convey what you said to my master!"

Guan Shuqing was referring to Sui Huang when she talked about her master. She had asked Sui Ao to stay out of this but he started insulting them instead.

This infuriated her and made her pull out her phone right away.

"Aiyoh! She's really calling her parents now! Haha, this is interesting!"

When Yuan Fei saw Guan Shuqing take out her phone, he looked at her with ridicule and mocked loudly, "I'll let you call anyone you wish. In Shang Jing, there's really no one we are afraid of."

"Get your master here! I'll let him kneel down in front of me too!" said Sui Ao disdainfully.

Hearing what Sui Ao and his friends had said, a cold light flashed in her eyes.

"Hello, master! Someone is bullying me!"

Guan Shuqing's voice sounded. When she called through the phone to Sui Huang, she immediately spoke bitterly.

"Huh? There're people who dare to bully you when Brother Wang Xian is with you? Where are you? I'll send my guys over!"

In a Siheyuan in Shang Jing, Sui Huang sat with his legs crossed, cultivating. When he heard his disciple, he was taken aback initially. [\[1\]](#)

"His name is Sui Ao. He brought many people with him and they surrounded us. After which, he demanded that we kneel before him and even wanted to strip us and throw us to the streets. I told him that I'd be informing you and he said he would make master kneel in front of him if master was here!"

Guan Shuqing snitched to Sui Huang as she repeated everything Sui Ao had said previously.

"Haha, you really called your master? In that case, tell him to get right here, kneel before us and apologize!"

Sui Ao heard what Guan Shuqing said over the phone and responded loudly with disdain.

Endnote:

[1] Siheyuan is a historical type of residence that was commonly found in Beijing. It is also the basic structure and pattern used for residences, palaces, temples and many others throughout Chinese history. Back

Chapter 303: Crawl Here On Your Knees And Pay Respect To Great Martial Nanny (2)

Sui Huang, with the phone in his hands, froze, standing in the room.

He was stupefied with what his disciple had told him just now. Upon hearing the haughty voice from the phone now, his expression darkened immediately.

The other party wanted him to go there and kneel in front of him. On top of it, it was the descendant of the Sui Family who had said it.

For a moment, Sui Huang's face sank with a cold expression. Not only had his descendant bullied his new disciple, but he even wanted him to go over with his knees on the ground.

This unfilial descendant may have not known the truth, but it was still disgraceful and unforgivable.

"Looks like some of the younger fellows of Sui Family are accustomed to arrogance."

Sui Huang darkened his expression. As the pillar and founder of Sui Family, he fought with his life such that they could become a Sacred Clan and achieve their current status.

Now, he was old. He could only have a few decades of life span left. For the future of Sui Family, he had spent twenty years roaming around the country just to find a successor.

He wanted to find a disciple who could take over for him and inherit his prowess.

Nothing is impossible for those who try. He finally found a fantastic disciple, and he was sure that this disciple would be extraordinary. Her strength could reach his realm easily.

When he turned old, his disciple could still maintain the prosperity of Sui Family for another century.

Yet, a lad from Sui Family had dared to provoke his own elders, and even acted arrogantly in front of him.

Sui Huang had a nasty and cold look. "Disciple, where are you now? Someone will be there in five minutes!"

"I have not been meddling with family affairs for twenty years. It looks like some people have forgotten about how their ancestors worked hard for the family!"

Sui Huang hung up his phone and made several calls. "Get your ass to Fenghuo Love Hotel now. My disciple is surrounded by a lad from Sui Family. He was so arrogant that he asked me to kneel and apologize to him. You better get over and settle it for me now!"

A phone call was made to the current Sui Family leader.

The leader of Sui Family, age 75, was the grandson of Sui Huang. When he heard his grandfather's exclamations, he was so frightened that he almost peed in his pants.

That's right. Almost peed in his pants. His grandfather was a god-like existence to him.

In his impression, his grandfather may have been a mild person, but anyone who provoked him would be as good as digging his own grave.

"Yes, grandfather. I'll bring my men over and check out who that is. I'll ensure Martial Aunt's safety."

A film of cold sweat covered that old man's forehead instantly. As one of the three Sacred Clan's leaders in Shang Jing, when had he ever being so panicky before?

"Ensure her safety? Get it done in five minutes!"

Sui Huang hung up the phone immediately as soon as he finished.

"Yes, yes!"

Despite hearing the dial tone, the old man continued to answer and nod in fear.

Subsequently, he called his siblings one by one with a darkened expression.

"Grandfather is angry. Check who the trouble-maker is now!"

A phone call got all the third generation of Sui Family to put on their clothes and set off in a panic. They were the current headmen, running the family.

If their grandfather was angry, this was serious.

All the cars, one by one, drove out from siheyuan at late hours.

Sui Family had a score of third-generation members, and the number increased when it came to the fourth and fifth generations. Currently, the Sui Family had over thousands of members, blooming with offspring.

"Haha, you finished making your call? Interesting. Let's see who your master is. It'd be good if she was a pretty woman. No fun having an old man."

Sui Ao chuckled loudly.

"Brother Ao, you have unique taste!"

"Haha, what do you know? Brother Ao is growing rapidly. From Lolita, young girls, young ladies to pretty women... we should learn from him!" the bunch of young men remarked with a smile.

"Hmph, I hope you can laugh five minutes from now!"

Upon seeing their cocky faces, Guan Shuqing spoke with disgust.

"All of you will be kneeling before me in five minutes!"

Yuan Fei stared at them with disdain.

"Hmph!"

Xiao Yu, Lan Qingyue, and the rest stared at them coldly. We'll wait and see if you can laugh later.

The bunch of young men smiled and commented on Xiao Yu and the rest, looking at them from head to toe.

Wang Xian and his gang kept quiet.

"Your five minutes are up. It looks like your master is late. In this case, why don't you guys just kneel down now? I don't have the time for you!"

Sui Ao looked at his watch after five minutes and commanded them with contempt.

"Hur?"

At this time, luxurious cars were parked at the hotel entrance with old men walking out from them.

"Brother!"

"Brother!"

"Clan Leader!"

All the elderly people looked over and greeted the old man who was dressed as a clan leader with two golden words, "Sheng, Sui" on his clothes.

"Let's go!"

The old man swept a glance at the rest before he frowned at the sports cars in front of the hotel. A cold smile surfaced on his face.

As soon as he was at the door, he heard the arrogant voice.

The clan leader immediately pulled a long face and walked in.

Those elders behind him were also looking stern.

This incident not only enraged the clan leader, but it also incensed their grandfather.

That man was the fundamental reason for Sui Family to be standing firm.

"Do we need to kneel before you too?"

A voice resounded in the hotel lobby, stunning the group of young men.

Sui Ao was puzzled as the voice sounded familiar to him.

"Who? Get in here!"

He turned around with some impatience in his soft bellow.

"This..."

When the young man at the door turned around, his entire body stiffened up.

All of them parted their lips with wide and round eyes in disbelief when they saw the group of old men arriving at the door.

A total of twenty old men were walking into the hotel with eye-catching family uniforms.

There was another old man with an expensive-looking walking stick standing to the side.

The bunch of young men at the door unconsciously stepped aside with trembling bodies when they walked in.

The atmosphere was so still that they could even hear their own breaths clearly.

"Clan...Leader!"

Sui Ao opened his eyes wide when he saw that all the third-generation members of Sui Family, including his grandfather, were here. All he had was a surprised look.

"Clan Leader, Grandfather, why are you... why are you guys..." asked Sui Ao fearfully as uneasiness surged. But he did not dare to think further.

The Clan Leader cast an indifferent look on Sui Ao, the current most outstanding offspring of Sui Family.

He did not reply to anything as he swept his gaze across Wang Xian. Eventually, he fixed his eyes on Guan Shuqing, and quickened his pace.

The elders behind him sped up at the same time.

Chapter 304: Crawl On Your Knees Over And Pay Respect To Great Martial Nanny (3)

An old man with a walking stick walked at the back of the pack. When he walked to Sui Ao, his body shivered a little as he glowered at him.

"Grandpa, what happened...?" asked Sui Ao cautiously. At this moment, the experts of the Sui Family of his grandpa appeared with him.

"What happened?" the old man growled while trying to keep his anger in check.

To the astonishment of the crowd, he waved his walking stick ruthlessly toward Sui Ao's legs.

Bam!

Crack crack!

Without holding back at all, the walking stick swung heavily on Sui Ao's legs. Sounds of his bones snapping instantly propagated throughout the lobby.

"Argh... Grandpa..."

Sui Ao shrieked in pain. However, the physical pain he felt from the body wasn't what he was most concerned with right now as he looked in horror at the grandpa who had always doted on him dearly.

To his surprise, the old man with the walking stick didn't even pay attention to him after hitting him and simply walked past him.

"This.."

The surrounding group of young men held their breath and they were terrified.

The current clan leader of the Sui Family and every member who held considerable influence in the clan were all here. These twenty people represented the Sacred Clan, Sui Family.

Moreover, they were the ones with speaking rights in the Sui Family currently.

Every single one of them had extremely large authority and influence. Sui Ao was just one of many grandsons when compared to these true big shots in the Sui Family.

Regardless of seniority or standing, Sui Ao was nowhere close.

However, the crowd was soon stunned and horrified by what was to come.

The clan leader of Sui Family and the third generation of Sui Family walked towards the girl that made the call directly and lowered their heads respectfully.

"Greetings, Martial Senior Aunt!"

"Greetings, Martial Senior Aunt!"

...

"Martial Senior Aunt! The clan leader of the Sui Family and the third generation of the Sui Family are addressing that girl as their Martial Senior Aunt!"

"Oh gosh... This... This..."

"The clan leader and a member of the upper management of Sui Family are calling that girl their Martial Senior Aunt. She... She... What's her real identity?"

The surrounding group of young men looked on in horror and disbelief.

When Sui Ao saw his grandpa and the clan leader lowering their heads in front of the girl, his body couldn't help but shiver in fear.

"Martial Senior Aunt... Martial Senior Aunt... Martial Senior Aunt..." He was in a daze as he mumbled. Slowly, fear and horror gripped him.

If that girl was the Martial Senior Aunt of his grandpa, wouldn't that make her the disciple that his great great grandfather was taking in?

Oh gosh! His great great grandfather was an immortal-like existence in Sui Family and the true sole pillar of the Sui Family.

That phone call from before...

At the thought of this, his body started shivering violently. He didn't dare to think about the consequences.

"It's over, it's over!"

At this point, Guan Shuqing was once again embarrassed by the group of old people addressing her as their Martial Senior Aunt. The age differences between them were too huge.

"That... Guys... Get up now! You don't have to be so courteous!"

"It's our fault that Martial Senior Aunt had to suffer such grievances in Shang Jing!"

The clan leader of the Sui Family continued deferentially. The disciple of their grandfather was deserving of them acting deferentially towards her.

The old men with the walking stick turned around, glared coldly at Sui Ao and demanded, "Crawl here on your knees and pay respect to Great Martial Nanny!"

"Yes, yes!"

When Sui Ao heard his grandpa's voice, he immediately crawled over. His forehead was covered in cold sweat.

"Great Martial Nanny, this is all my fault. I failed to recognize you. It's my fault. Please give me another chance!"

Sui Ao had completely lost his pride and arrogance as he kneeled there, apologizing constantly.

The group of young men behind him was paralyzed with fear.

Yuan Fei felt his whole body go numb as he lost all control of it and collapsed onto the floor. After which, he quickly went on his knees.

"I was wrong. I was wrong!"

When the group saw Yuan Fei go down on his knees, they also knelt down in horror.

Sui Ao was the leader of this group. Now that even Sui Ao had to kneel down, they could only do the same in front of the Sui Family.

Tsk!

Guan Shuqing sneered at Sui Ao who was horrified and lost.

You were still so arrogant a while ago! Why are you acting like a wimp now?

"Martial Senior Aunt, grandpa instructed us to handle this matter. We will definitely give you a satisfactory answer!"

Seeing that Guan Shuqing was clearly still displeased, the clan leader of Sui Family spoke immediately.

"Hmm. In that case, I leave this to you. Thank you for rushing here at this hour!"

Seeing the group of old men being so respectful to her, Guan Shuqing spoke gently as she would feel bad if she continued to be demanding.

"It's alright, it's alright. Martial Senior Aunt, do you want to return with us to have a good rest?" the clan leader of the Sui Family asked, revealing a smile.

"No, thank you. I'll just stay here for the night. I'll see you guys tomorrow!"

"Alright. In that case, we shall not disturb Martial Senior Aunt!" said the clan leader of the Sui Family. After which, he looked to the group of old men that had come with him.

"Grandpa is dissatisfied with the current state of Sui Family. Aren't some of our disciples from Sui Family getting too arrogant outside? It's time to teach them a lesson."

"Perhaps some of these juniors have forgotten about the sweat and tears our grandfathers and fathers shed to give us what we have today. It's time we do something!"

As Sui Ao heard what the few old men said, his face turned as white as a sheet.

"Clan disciple Sui Ao has offended his senior and broken the rules of the clan. Your identity as a core disciple of the clan will be taken away and so will the benefits bestowed upon you. You shall now be deployed to manage the company!" The clan leader of the Sui Family gave his orders immediately.

Upon hearing this, Sui Ao felt desolated.

With all his rights as a disciple of Sui Family taken away from him, he could only be an ordinary member of the Sui Family and would have to work for the family. His future might end up even worse than ordinary Sui Family's disciples.

All the young men around him were shocked and horrified.

Sui Ao was the most gifted in the current generation of the Sui Family. He was also ranked tenth on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart.

Yet, everything would be taken away from him as he would be shifted from the core of the family to the fringe businesses.

It would likely be difficult for him to make a comeback even if he made it to the Inborn Realm.

Or rather, without the resources provided to him by the Sui Family, how could he possibly reach the Inborn Realm?

His magnificent life could now be declared as completely finished.

Guan Shuqing looked plainly at Sui Ao. After bidding goodbye to the group of old men from the Sui Family, she followed Wang Xian and the group back to their rooms.

The clan leader of Sui Family looked at the middle-aged men standing beside their Martial Senior Aunt.

"We have investigated the matter in the day. If you do it again, our Sui Family will come and annihilate you!"

"Yes, yes! Thank you! Thank you, Clan Leader Sui!"

When Zhou Qingkong heard Clan Leader Sui, he was thrilled.

His meager life had finally been kept.

His gaze fell on the desolated Sui Ao as he couldn't help but sigh.

You must be too eager to die. As a junior in the Sui Family, you stood up for others and humiliated the disciple of your great great grandfather. If this isn't courting your own death, what else is?

Chapter 305: Arts of Refining Elixir Pills

A storm was over just like that.

However, it did not affect the ebullient mood of the girls at night.

The next day, the four ladies knocked on Wang Xian's door at 4 am or 5 am as they dragged him to see the flag-raising ceremony, all in high spirits.

Wang Xian was speechless. Sometimes, women's energy was beyond imagination.

After watching the flag-raising ceremony, they went to the famous bun shop in Shang Jing to have some buns.

Subsequently, they went shopping again. Wang Xian could only help to carry their shopping bags behind them as he watched the four pretty ladies walking into stores, one after another.

It was only after just past 3 pm in the afternoon that they stopped after receiving Sui Huang's call.

"This is insane!"

Wang Xian let out a brief sigh. The group took a car and came to an ancient district in Shang Jing.

This place was known to be old and ancient because it was filled with Siheyuan.

In Shang Jing, an ancient Siheyuan could easily cost a few hundred million. It was not easy to get a place here even if one was wealthy.

However, there was a mountain known as Shengsui Mountain just right behind the Siheyuan.

Many people did not know why it was named Shengsui Mountain. Only those who knew called it Sui Family, Sacred Mountain. [\[1\]](#)

There were three Sacred Mountains in Shang Jing, which represented three powerful Sacred Clans in Shang Jing.

When Wang Xian and the rest drove a car to somewhere near, someone from the Sui Family Sacred Clan would guide them around.

"Great nanny, please follow me!" said a middle-aged man to Guan Shuqing respectfully as he led the way ahead into Shengsui Mountain.

"Okay!"

Guan Shuqing nodded as she looked around with curiosity.

They were surrounded by Siheyuan. Most of them were connected, and the doors were not closed within.

Groups of well-dressed Sui Family members were either dressing up or exchanging conversations.

Most of them were talking about Sui Family's Laozu accepting a disciple. [\[2\]](#)

They were in awe of it when they were talking about it.

From there, one could tell Sui Huang's status in Sui Family.

"Does the entire region belong to Sui Family?"

Xiao Yu was surprised as she looked around. There were hundreds of Siheyuan around them, spanning an area of several kilometers. This seemed like a small village.

"Yes, this is Sui Family's territory. Our sacred mountain is just ahead!"

The middle-aged man smiled and nodded. He was a little proud, as this was the strength of Sui Family.

"Impressive!"

Xiao Yu, Lan Qingyue, and the rest were slightly stupefied. Just these Siheyuan of Sui Family were worth close to $100 billion. Besides, not everyone could get Siheyuan even if they had the money.

The gang followed the middle-aged man into the mountain.

The entire Shengsui Mountain was landscaped. The peak stood at about forty to fifty meters tall, which was not very high. A cave was found at the center of the mountain.

A domineering flame seemed to be coming out from that cave.

There were quite a number of houses on the mountain that resembled ancient buildings.

"Laozu is staying in this room. You may go in!"

The middle-aged man pointed to a house.

"Sure!"

Guan Shuqing nodded, and the group walked into the room.

"Master!"

"Come in!"

Sui Huang's voice was heard. After Wang Xian entered the room, they saw him sitting in a chair, reading a book in his hand.

"My disciple!"

Sui Huang put down his book and smiled. He was wearing the uniform of Sui Family, with no hair out of place. Every move that he made exuded the superior vibe of an expert.

He looked very different from how he had looked back in Rivertown.

"Master!" Upon seeing Sui Huang, Guan Shuqing walked to him and beamed, "Master, you became more good-looking!"

"Haha, well, I was even more handsome when I was young. Many girls in Shang Jing carried a torch for me!"

Sui Huang chuckled as he stroked Guan Shuqing's head. "Xiao Qing is also a pretty girl. You need to change into Sui Family's uniform later in the disciple acceptance ceremony tonight. I already got them ready for you. Since there's nothing much going on now, go and change your clothes now."

"Yes, Master!"

"Take Xiao Qing in to change her clothes!" Sui Huang instructed a servant in the house.

"Yes, Old Master!" The old servant nodded and looked at Guan Shuqing, "Miss, please follow me!"

"Okay!"

Guan Shuqing nodded.

"Let's follow them and check it out!"

The three ladies went to join in the fun, leaving the rest behind.

"Old Sui, your Sui Family is quite impressive!"

Wang Xian sat down at the side bluntly and began to sip his tea.

"Haha, of course. After all, this is the Sacred Clan, which I founded!"

Sui Huang was very proud as he praised himself shamelessly.

Wang Xian quirked his lips and did not answer him.

Ever since they had towed the plane together yesterday, both of them were less awkward, and their relationship was closer than before.

Besides, Sui Huang may have been old, but he acted like a child. Hence, he was someone easy to get along with.

Wang Xian had a rather good impression of Sui Huang.

"I can tell that you have quite a number of good things in this Sacred Mountain. Old Sui, I want to check it out!"

"Haha, sure. I'll take you around. I've been managing this place for a hundred years!"

Sui Huang stood up with pride. He signaled for Wang Xian to go out with him.

"This is the Sui Family's Sacred Mountain, and it's not just a name!"

Sui Huang gazed at the surroundings and smiled when they were outside.

"What treasures do you have inside that cave?" asked Wang Xian with a smile.

"Let's go. You'll find out when you get there!"

Sui Huang chuckled and brought Wang Xian into a cave in the Sacred Mountain.

They were swamped by the heat as soon as they went in. The temperature inside was at least a hundred degrees.

Any ordinary people would be incinerated the moment they entered. The entire cave was glowing in red.

Wang Xian looked up and spotted two giant Flame Spiritual Beads embedded in the top.

Below it was fuming magma and a few tables for the use of cultivation.

There was a red door deep inside, but he did not know what was behind the door.

"This is our cultivation area. What do you think? Two Spiritual Flame Balls, and one of them is Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball. Not bad, is it?" Sui Huang said with slight contempt as he had spent quite a lot of effort to obtain these two Spiritual Flame Balls.

"Not bad!"

Wang Xian did not rebuke him this time. The two Spiritual Flame Balls were all Level 10, one level higher than the Spiritual Flame Ball he had gotten the other time.

Never underestimate the difference between levels. It marks a significant difference between Inborn or non-inborn.

"Let's go. I'll show you my alchemy room!"

Sui Huang was beaming as he walked inside and opened a door. More than 330 square meters of space popped out in front of them.

In the middle of the room was an alchemy furnace.

Endnotes:

[1] "Sheng" means "Sacred" Back

[2] Laozu is a title usually referring to the founder/strongest of a school or sect in Taoism Back

Chapter 306: Cai Lu Fa Di

Triangular alchemy furnace.

Below the alchemy furnace was tumbling lava. The entire alchemy furnace was green and looked like it was from a long time ago.

Despite being within a cave of a scorching hot volcano, Wang Xian didn't feel the heat at all.

"This is my Triangular Green Alchemy Furnace. I found it from an ancient ruin. As for the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills, I got it from the same place. This is also the root of my ascension!"

Sui Huang smiled and looked at Wang Xian. "I don't know how a demon like you can reach this horrifying realm at such a young age. You probably have your own chance encounter!"

Hehe.

Wang Xian smiled and nodded his head. Subsequently, he turned and looked at the alchemy furnace inquisitively. "I had not expected the alchemy recorded in history to really exist. I wonder if I could concoct elixir pills that grant a person eternal life!"

"Elixir pills that grant eternal life? Haha! That might be possible. Records of emperors in history searching for all kinds of elixir pills to extend their lives weren't just myths. They truly existed," Sui Huang said in a definitive tone. When it came to refining elixir pills, he maintained a confident and reverent attitude.

"Is it really that incredible? Could it be that there were real immortals on Earth in the past?" Wang Xian was surprised and asked as his eyes beamed.

"Perhaps. However, there might not have been!" Sui Huang sank into deep thought and couldn't give a definitive answer this time. "Based on some records, there were definitely more experts in the past than current times. As for the existence of immortals recorded in mythology, I can't be sure."

Wang Xian nodded his head slightly. The world is too mysterious. Based on mythology, there were ghosts and demons that roamed the world and immortals that flew in the air. However, these claims couldn't be verified.

As to whether there were real immortals, no one could be sure. It was especially so for Ancient Martial Artists.

After all, their arts of cultivations had all originated from the past.

"The path of refining elixir pills is vast and deep. If you can become a powerful alchemist, you will gain huge benefits too. As for the value of elixir pills, they are typically valued ten times more than spiritual medicine of the same level," explained Sui Huang.

"Really?" Wang Xian was taken aback as he asked in shock.

"Definitely. The effects of Level 1 elixir pills could match the effects of a Level 2 spiritual medicine," Sui Huang explained as if he was explaining a known fact. "Spiritual medicine in the world is just simple elemental energies and effects. If you could mix them with other spiritual medicine to form elixir pills, the effects of the elixir pills would be several times better!"

"Naturally, refining elixir pills is an extremely difficult thing. It requires great talents and control over fire. At my current realm, I am only able to refine up to Level 5 elixir pills!"

"A Level 5 elixir pills made by me can allow a Half-step to Inborn Realm expert reach the Inborn Realm directly without obstructions!"

"Level 6 elixir pills can allow an Inborn expert to reach the Half-Step to Dan Realm. Level 7 elixir pills can allow a Half-Step to Dan Realm expert to reach the Dan Realm!"

"Wow, that's incredible!" Wang Xian was shocked.

"The path of cultivation requires 'Cai,' 'Lu,' 'Fa,' 'Di.' Based on this sequence, 'Cai' is the first requirement. It represents resources. What's the most important resource for cultivation? That is spiritual medicine!"

"'Lu' represents cultivators who cultivate together. It is about interaction, cross verification and helping each other understand. 'Lu' could also refer to one's master and receiving guidance from one's master. Naturally, it could also refer to couples."

"'Fa' refers to the cultivation method. In other words, it's the secret art of cultivation!"

"As for 'Di,' it's about the location of cultivation."

"'Cai,' 'Lu,' 'Fa,' 'Di' together are a train of thoughts that any cultivators, past or present, can agree to. Resource is the first requirement and therefore you should be able to see the importance of spiritual medicine and spiritual grass!" Sui Huang explained to Wang Xian.

Wang Xian pondered.

As a divine dragon and having the Divine Dragon system, the system could substitute for "Lu." For "Fa," he had the Divine Dragon Transformation. For "Di" he had his Dragon Palace.

He was only lacking in "Cai!"

If the system was similar to the Divine Dragon Cultivation System, would "Cai" appear in the system in the future?

Only by having all four requirements could he become a powerful divine dragon.

As for the notification from the system, he had only learned about the Dragon Palace after subduing three marine animals.

Could it be that I need to reach a certain condition to have the "Cai"?

If that's the case, what should I do?

Can it be that I need...?

Wang Xian's eyes beamed as he looked to the Triangular Green Alchemy Furnace.

Since he had obtained the system, there were few notifications. Moreover, this system was different from common novels he had read.

The system did not issue him a mission or a main path to follow. He had to do the discovery of most things by himself.

"Old Sui... That..." Wang Xian's eyes shimmered and smiled. "Old Sui, can you let me take a look at your Arts of Refining Elixir Pills?"

When Sui Huang heard him, he was taken aback. His expression turned gloomy and looked at Wang Xian with ridicule. "Rascal, you have pretty thick skin!"

"Passable, passable." Wang Xian pressed on and continued, "I'd just like to take a look as I'm interested in it. If I can become an alchemist, I'll send some Level 6, 7 and 8 pills to you after I refine them in the future."

Pfft!

Sui Huang was a little annoyed upon hearing Wang Xian. "Level 7, 8? Do you think the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills is that simple? Disregarding refining elixir pills, can you find Level 7 and 8 spiritual medicine and grass? You sure know how to brag!"

"Hmm! In that case, tell me what I have to do for you to show me your Arts of Refining Elixir Pills?" Wang Xian asked directly.

"You, little rascal!" Sui Huang wasn't pleased when he heard that Wang Xian wanted to learn about alchemy. This was his trump card and the reason for his ascension. However, he recalled that his wife would be his disciple.

He couldn't guarantee that his disciple wouldn't let this rascal know.

"I'm fine with you taking a look at the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills. However, in the future and as long as you are alive, if my Sui Family is in trouble, you have to help them. Besides that, give me some treasures that interest me. Otherwise, don't even think about it!" Sui Huang said with a little disdain.

"I'm fine with helping out but I can't be forever guarding your Sui Family, right? Three times. Three times at the maximum. As for treasures...?"

Wang Xian frowned. He didn't seem to have any treasures at all. Even his spiritual medicine was used up by this old man.

"I'll give you the treasures when I find them."

"In that case, let's continue this conversation when you have something that interests me!" After finishing these words, Sui Huang continued impatiently, "Go, go. I'm not bringing you around anymore. If something interests you, you might just take it away from me considering how thick skinned you are!"

"Damn! Old man! Am I a person like that?" Wang Xian was speechless and asked him this directly.

"You aren't? You just asked me for my trump card. You are not a person like that?" sneered Sui Huang.

"You didn't even give me anything, right?" Wang Xian choked and his voice softened.

"I'm not silly! Who would give you this the moment you demand it!" Sui Huang shot him a deathly glare.

"Alright, I shall not argue with a petty guy like you. When I find the treasures that can interest you, I'll exchange them for your Arts of Refining Elixir Pills," answered Wang Xian shamelessly.

After which, he changed the subject rapidly. "Hehe. Let's go. Old Sui, show me around the place!"

"Tsk. Not calling me an old man anymore?"

"Old Sui, please!"

Endnote:

Cai Lu Fa Di is a phrase used in Taoism to describe the four requirements of Cultivation.

Chapter 307: Getting Something With Nothing (1)

"Sui Huang really lives up to his name. A Sacred Clan, indeed. Impressive!"

Wang Xian saw Sui Family's spiritual medicine garden in a cave and praised Sui Huang.

The space before them was filled with various Spiritual Medicine, and most of them came with fire attribution.

All of the Spiritual Grass was glistening, and all of it ranged from Level 3 to Level 5.

Right in the middle was Level 6 Spiritual Grass.

All the different varieties added up to a few hundred tufts of Spiritual Grass in total with an inestimable value!

"Hmph, stop your bootlicking. Even if you do so, I'll not hand over my Arts of Refining Elixir Pills to you."

Sui Huang snorted with eyes full of haughtiness.

He remembered that this lad had exploded domineering oppression to compete with him when they first met.

Obviously, Wang Xian had wanted to overwhelm him on their first encounter.

Now, he finally gained back some face.

"Heh heh."

Wang Xian was not embarrassed at all despite the fact that his trick was discovered. He laughed, "Didn't you ask me how I managed to raise my Spiritual Grass so easily the other time? This has got something to do with my physique, and I'm a doctor."

As Wang Xian spoke, he walked and put his hand in the garden.

All the Spiritual Grass was glowing with faint luster as it absorbed the immense Azure Dragon Energy injected into the garden.

Whoo!

Wang Xian pretended to be tired as he wiped the film of sweat he purged from his forehead. Then, he smiled at Old Sui. "How is it? Look at the spiritual medicine garden. Don't you think their vitality has increased?"

"That's...true!"

Old Sui was taken aback as he looked at the spiritual medicine garden. The Spiritual Grass grew livelier after Wang Xian placed his hand in the garden. Even those that were dying came back to life completely.

"You're welcome!"

Wang Xian smiled and waved his hands.

Old Sui's face turned black as soon as he heard him. Who wants to thank you?

"All right, it's almost time. Tonight's disciple acceptance ceremony will begin soon!" said Old Sui to Wang Xian.

"Okay, I'll observe from the side and see how you guys hold the ceremony," Wang Xian said with a beaming face as he followed behind.

"Laozu!"

"Great grandfather!"

"Grandfather!"

As soon as they walked out of the cave, they saw the descendants of Sui Family walking toward the Sacred Mountain. They were slightly taken aback when they saw Sui Huang walking out. Immediately, they bowed to him with respect.

"Okay!"

Sui Huang nodded and entered the same room that he had come out of just now.

Sui Family members gazed at Wang Xian with doubts. They did not understand why a young man was standing beside Laozu.

"Master!"

Guan Shuqing, who was waiting in the room, came out immediately as soon as Wang Xian and Sui Huang stepped in.

"Mm, beautiful. Beautiful!"

Sui Huang looked at Guan Shuqing with a satisfied expression on his face and chuckled.

Guan Shuqing was wearing some vintage wear that resembled those uniforms from before the 1950s. Her clothes were all-black with a flower embroidered at the chest.

On it was written, "Two."

This represented the second-generation of Sui Family, and also the disciple of Sui Huang.

Sui Family's uniforms looked the same except for the numbers at the chest to distinguish the generations.

"Yes, you're quite pretty!"

Wang Xian smiled at the side, as the design of Sui Family's uniform was beautiful.

"Let's go. It's almost time," Sui Huang said to them as he looked at the wall clock that was almost striking 5 pm.

Guan Shuqing nodded. The group of people followed Sui Huang to the mountain summit.

There was a small square, half the size of a stadium, on the summit. It did not seem crowded even with more than a thousand people standing there.

On the summit were some tables with food.

The dishes were simple, just like the home-cooked food of any ordinary families.

Back in the center were nine cauldrons. The one in the middle was the biggest, about five meters in size, with flames burning in it. It was surrounded by another eight smaller cauldrons!

The cauldron in the middle was known as the Emperor Cauldron. Starting from the north in a clockwise direction, the eight cauldrons were known as Bao, Du, Cang, Gang, Tong, Fu, Jing, and Kui cauldrons.

Nine cauldrons represented prosperity for the nation and family. This meant that Sui Family would prosper forever.

There was a central seat and two accompanying seats just below it at both sides.

The three seats were empty at the moment. All the members of Sui Family aged five and above were all present. They turned their attention to Sui Huang as soon as they arrived.

"Wang Xian, you shall sit beside me. Disciple, you shall stand at the center position!" Sui Huang said to Wang Xian and Guan Shuqing.

Allowing Wang Xian to take the accompanying seat was a form of recognition of his ability, as though he was on par with Sui Huang. Therefore, he was fit to sit in that seat.

The other accompanying seat was saved for today's main highlight, Guan Shuqing.

Wang Xian and the rest nodded. Lan Qingyue and Xiao Yu took the seats at the furthest end.

Following Sui Huang to the central position, Wang Xian smiled as he took the accompanying seat.

Sui Family members were surprised to see a young man sitting over there. All of them found it unbelievable.

How could such a young fellow deserve to sit on that accompanying seat? What ability did he possess? All the second-generation members were seated below them.

But since Laozu did not make any comment, the rest of the people did not dare to say a word.

"I'm sure you know why we're gathered here today. I, Sui Huang, have taken a new disciple. She will be my last disciple..."

Sui Huang stood up slowly as he overlooked everyone on the stage as he spoke.

Wang Xian did not pay attention to the cumbersome ceremony procedures of the Sacred Clan. Instead, he observed the people below him.

The entire Sacred Clan, Sui Family's, strength was gathered in this place. All the experts in the Sui Family were present.

"23 Inborn Experts. Tsk tsk. Sui Family possesses quite a formidable strength. An alchemist, indeed. He can nurture experts at a rapid speed!" Wang Xian exclaimed. He recalled that the number of Inborn Experts that Flame Palace had, including those who joined at a later stage, was only about 16.

A single Sui Family already had 23 of them. With such a strong expert like Sui Huang around, the Flame Palace was never a match.

The ceremony was usually cumbersome for ancient families. Kneeling and bowing, serving tea, and paying respects took around ten minutes.

"Okay, disciple. Come over!"

After the procedures, Sui Huang beckoned Guan Shuqing over with a beaming face.

"Yes, Master!"

Guan Shuqing smiled and took a seat by his side.

"Congratulations to father for accepting an outstanding disciple. Junior Sister, how are you? These are some gifts. I hope you like them!"

At this time, several elders who were sitting in front stood up on both sides. They bowed to Sui Huang and took out their gifts one by one.

"All of you have put in the effort. Xiao Qing, accept them. They should give you gifts!"

Chapter 308: Getting Something With Nothing (2)

"Yes, master!"

"Guan Shuqing nodded her head. After which, she walked over and said, "Thank you, Martial Senior brothers, for your gifts."

"Hehe, you are welcome. We will be one family in the future. If there's anything we can help you with, feel free to let us know!"

Several ninety-plus-year-old elders replied with smiles.

Although they were old, they were in the pink of health. This might be because they were all Inborn experts.

"Junior Sister, this is a defective Flame Ball. It's a shame that I can't find a complete one. I have been using it for more than ten years and have little use for it now. I'd like to give this to Junior Sister as something you can use to protect yourself!"

"Junior Sister, this is the highest level elixir pill I can refine right now. It's a Level 3 elixir pill and highly nourishing for a girl's skin!"

"I don't know what kind of weapons Junior Sister uses. Therefore, I'd like to give this jade dagger to Junior Sister!"

A few old men took out their gifts and handed them over to Guan Shuqing.

"Thank you. Thank you, Martial Senior brothers!" Guan Shuqing thanked them immediately.

"Hehe, you're welcome. I heard Junior Sister reached Level 9 Martial Artist after just a month of cultivation. We are really embarrassed in comparison. You might just be able to reach the level of our father in the future!"

The five sons of Sui Huang exchanged pleasantries with Guan Shuqing. Clearly, they knew what the Junior Sister in front of them would become in the future.

"Thank you for all your gifts. I really like them!"

Guan Shuqing felt spoilt by the gifts she received. The gifts from them were truly valuable and she really fancied the gifts.

Wang Xian stayed by the side and smiled. The people of the Sui Family were generous and the gifts were all highly valuable.

"It's been close to ten years since I have gathered everyone here. The oldest of the fifth generation children are already twenty-nine years old. Let me see the strength of these kids!" Sui Huang looked plainly at the last row of disciples and shouted.

"Yes, grandpa. Fifth generation of the Sui Family, step forward now! Show your strength to your Laozu."

The current clan leader of the Sui Family stood up and shouted at the crowd of fifth generation disciples.

A group of young people and teenagers stood up immediately. Surprisingly, there were close to a hundred of them.

"Lift the cauldron!" shouted the clan leader.

The group of young people and teenagers nodded their heads and stepped forward to the large cauldron in the middle of the room.

Ha!

A young man shouted as he grabbed a large cauldron. Expending all his strength, he lifted the large cauldron up. His face was flushed as a result.

Ha! Ha! Ha!

One after another, the young people and teenagers grabbed cauldrons of various sizes and lifted them up.

Wang Xian noted that the weight of each cauldron was different. One could tell the strength of them by looking at the cauldron they lifted.

Level 5, Level 6, Level 7, Level 8, Level 9.

Wang Xian looked across inquisitively. Other than a young man who had managed to lift the Level 9 cauldron, the rest were all weaker than this level.

It's pretty impressive for a twenty-five, twenty-six-year-old young man to lift a Level 9 cauldron. However, for a Saint-class force, that's not really acceptable, Wang Xian thought to himself.

At this moment, Sui Huang, who was sitting in the middle, was clearly not very pleased.

As the surrounding people noticed the displeasure on Sui Huang's face, they also started feeling a little fearful.

"The most outstanding disciple in this generation was Sui Ao and we spent lots of resources on him. He has even reached the Half-step to Inborn Realm. It's a shame that he courted his own demise..."

Seeing the displeasure on Sui Huang, the other members of the Sui Family whispered softly among themselves.

"To be only at this level when they are in such a good environment and enjoying such great resources, it seems like this generation couldn't match the previous ones at all!" Sui Huang gave his comments emotionlessly. Saying that this generation couldn't match previous generations was harsh but factual.

"Grandpa, this is my failure. It's all my fault!"

The current clan leader of Sui Family immediately went on his knees and asked Sui Huang for forgiveness. Cold sweat covered his face.

"Please calm down, father!" the group of old men immediately stood up and said.

"You guys must be getting more and more complacent and must have lost the drive from before. The most outstanding disciple actually gathered a group and behaved like a group of thugs against my disciple in the middle of the night!"

Who's the one that gives them the right to be so imperious?" Sui Huang said plainly.

All the other members of the Sui Family felt their hearts skip a beat. The current generation of the Sui Family was disappointing him.

If their Laozu was angry, the whole Sui Family would be shivering in fear.

No one in the field even dared to breathe loudly, for fear of drawing the rage of their Laozu.

Sui Huang's current aura. Hehe!

Wang Xian showed a mouth of teeth as he smiled. He looked at the group of a hundred people standing in the middle of the field. Suddenly, a thought struck him and he revealed a smile.

"Sui Huang, your Sui Family has gotten worse by the generation. When I visited the newly crowned Sacred Sect, Flame Palace, a while back, they had two outstanding disciples who are on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart. It appears that your family doesn't even have one!" Wang Xian said with a mocking tone and his voice resounded in the field.

Everyone could hear him clearly.

The surrounding crowd was taken aback and looked at Wang Xian in shock. They were furious but embarrassed.

A young man said right in the face of their Laozu that the descendants of the Sui Family were all trash. This was equivalent to openly mocking and criticizing them.

It was especially so on this occasion!

When Sui Huang heard Wang Xian, his face turned gloomy instantly. He also knew that his descendants weren't great at all. However, he didn't need an external person to point it out so blankly.

"Please choose your words carefully, young man. Our Sacred Clan isn't something that anyone can look down on!"

"Comparing us with Flame Palace who has been annihilated, you have gone overboard. Rascal! Apologize immediately!" Two old men from the third generation of the Sui Family looked solemnly at Wang Xian and demanded.

Saying this in the face of the entire Sui Family infuriated the members of Sui Family even though Wang Xian was sitting next to Sui Huang.

"Hehe. The mentality of you guys isn't right. You should be ashamed instead of angry over what I've said. Perhaps you guys have lost yourself under the halo of the Sacred Clan!" Wang Xian sat on the elevated platform and spoke to them in a tone as though he was educating them.

Looking at how Wang Xian was behaving, all the other members of the Sui Family felt embarrassed. Sui Huang, who was beside Wang Xian, also pulled a long face.

"What rights do you have to criticize us? What kind of strength do you have?" a young man from the Sui Family stood up and shouted angrily.

"That's right! What rights do you have?" Another young man stood up and questioned Wang Xian bitterly.

If it wasn't for Wang Xian being close to their Laozu, the Inborn experts of the Sui Family might have struck and annihilated him.

"Just four people? That's too few. Come! It's not that I'm looking down on you guys. All the fourth and fifth generation disciples step forward. I'll show you what qualifications I have to say that!"

Wang Xian's lips curved into a smile. Shaking one of his legs while sipping on tea, he looked down on all of them as he spoke. His behavior was like suggesting everyone here was just trash in his eyes.

His arrogant words and brazen expression immediately aroused the anger and fury of all members of the Sui Family!

Chapter 309: Succeed

Boom!

"You're tired of living. How dare you insult Sui Family?"

As soon as Wang Xian finished his sentence, hundreds of disciples of all ages and generations stood up and glowered at Wang Xian.

"Lad, watch how you're talking. Who are you to speak to us like this? Apologize now or else...!"

An outstanding middle-aged Inborn Expert stared at Wang Xian coldly as he spoke.

Hundreds of Sui Family's disciples exploded with immense heat as they gathered like a furnace trying to melt Wang Xian away.

"Just two Inborn Experts?"

Wang Xian shook his head slowly and took a sip of tea before he placed it on the table.

Roar!

A soft dragon bellow came from Wang Xian's mouth. Subsequently, he spat out a Dragon Ball.

Roar!

Once the Dragon Ball came into sight, it turned into Fire Divine Dragon immediately. The seven-meter long Divine Dragon dived towards the fourth and fifth generation of Sui Family's disciples rapidly.

Imposing demeanor and domineering oppression struck fear into all the people around the area.

"What?"

A second-generation old man from Sui Family was aghast as soon as he saw the domineering oppression exploded from the Fire Divine Dragon. He quickly stood up and faced the Fire Divine Dragon.

"Hur?"

Wang Xian frowned slightly as he looked at the old man.

"Sit down!"

As Wang Xian shouted softly, the old man, who was about to stand up, grimaced. His body was trembling violently.

He turned his head with disbelief as he gazed at Wang Xian with astonishment.

The rest of Sui Huang's sons who were around were also shocked as they looked at Wang Xian.

A soft bellow and the imposing demeanor that was exuded was able to trap their leader.

They were dumbfounded by the domineering strength. They swallowed saliva in disbelief.

Could it be?

They looked at Wang Xian in horror, and then back at their father again.

At this point, Sui Huang was knitting his eyebrows at Wang Xian. He could not make sense of what Wang Xian was doing.

But Sui Huang did not make any comment as he, too, realized that the Sui Family members had such a good life that they had forgotten to stay vigilant.

Roar!

Just then, the Fire Divine Dragon arrived above the fourth and fifth generations of Sui Family in the field. Daunting Dragon Power encompassed them over their heads, and the blazing flame struck fear on their faces.

"That's scary..."

A fifth-generation disciple was appalled as he quickly fled to a far distance.

"Divine Dragon, this is the legendary Divine Dragon!"

More disciples collapsed immediately onto the ground, as they were aghast.

Roar!

Another dragon roar was heard. Five to six hundred fourth and fifth-generation disciples let out a sharp and painful shriek as intense flames swept across.

Most of the disciples of different ages were injured as fear crawled all over their faces. They were crying in pain as they rolled on the floor.

Only a handful of people, five or six, stood below with determination as they gazed at the dragon in the sky with pale faces.

"Child, my child!"

"Child, stop it!"

The elders from Sui Family broke out heart-wrenching pleads.

The situation turned chaotic on the Sacred Mountain of Sui Family.

Yet, not only Sui Huang, but the second and third-generation elders also darkened their expressions upon seeing such a situation.

They were not furious at Wang Xian, who had made a joke out of their descendants. Instead, they were outraged by the performance of their younger generations.

"Coward, coward!"

A second-generation old man of Sui Family gritted his teeth. He lowered his head with shame.

Sui Family's Clan Leader was so ashamed that he shook his head.

"Sigh!"

Just then, Wang Xian let out a sigh on the stage. He was looking upset as he took out six glowing beads slowly from his arms.

Six of them were giving off a mixture of sapphire and red glow, which made them look creepy.

Sui Huang was astonished as he stared at the six beads in Wang Xian's hand.

"Old Sui, these are six Meridians Clearing Beads, which I obtained, almost at the expense of my life!"

Wang Xian pretended to be distressed as he spoke. With a swift movement, he appeared in the center of Sacred Mountain.

Only six people were standing in the square at this time, with two middle-aged men, young men, and juveniles each.

Roar!

The Divine Dragon above them let out a roar and enveloped them with six individual flames.

They were the Body Refining Flame from Body Refining Spiritual Flame Balls.

Painful looks were left on the six faces as the flames were injected into their bodies.

The six beads that were glowing in a mixture of sapphire and red colors in Wang Xian's palm went directly into their mouths.

Bam, Bam, Bam!

Wang Xian walked to a middle-aged man and jerked his arm. He injected a gust of Dragon Energy into the middle-aged man and unblocked his last Conception Vessel and Governing Vessel!

Boom!

An immense Inborn power came from him.

Subsequently, Wang Xian swung his arm and came to another middle-aged man and repeat his actions!

Boom!

Another inborn oppression was felt.

At this time, those Sui Family members who had been screaming in pain on the floor, or had been distressed over the scene, were stupefied. All of them watched in shock at what had just happened.

"This...this... "

Two middle-aged Half-step to Inborn Experts had stepped up to Inborn Realm.

At this time, Wang Xian did not stop. He came to the remaining young men and juveniles and repeated what he had just did.

"My...My meridians have all been unblocked..."

An excited voice came from a young girl who was the only female standing in the field.

She looked to be at most nineteen. She was trembling with joy as she sensed the changes in her body.

"Mine too. I have made a breakthrough to Half-step to Inborn!"

Another young man was exclaiming excitedly at the top of his lungs too.

"All eight extraordinary meridians have been unblocked? Made it directly to Half-step to Inborn?"

All the people around were stunned by the six persons as they looked shocked on their faces.

Everyone slowly turned their attention to that young man who had a casual smile as if nothing in the world bothered him.

Wang Xian smiled as he swung his arm. A gust of Azure Dragon seeped into the bodies that were lying around on the floor, whose injuries recovered swiftly.

In a move, Wang Xian leaped to his seat, picked up the teacup on the side, and took a sip.

"We...we recovered from our injuries!"

"Yes, that's true. What amazing medical skills!"

Those people who picked themselves up from the ground were shocked as they observed their bodies.

Suddenly, a young man muttered, "We seem to have missed an opportunity!"

All of them were stunned as they quickly spun around and looked at the six people.

Only they had persisted up to the very end. Now, their eight extraordinary meridians were all unblocked.

This was the opportunity, a big opportunity!

"Thank you, young master, for your kindness!"

"Thank you, young master, for your kindness!"

The second and third generations of Sui Family quickly stood up from their table and greeted respectfully.

They were no longer enraged or infuriated as before, instead showing a high level of respect for this young man since he had done so much for the good of Sui Family!

Chapter 310: Spiritual Island On The Sea

"Thank you, young master, for your kindness!"

Beside the cauldron, the six disciples of Sui Family, whose eight extraordinary meridians had been cleared by Wang Xian, kneeled on the floor respectfully and expressed their gratitude.

Around them, after seeing their seniors had stood up to thank Wang Xian, the other members knew that they had to do the same.

Therefore, they stood up one after another and said loudly, "Thank you, young master, for your kindness!"

Wang Xian who was sitting beside Sui Huang waved his hand plainly. Following which, he turned to Sui Huang and said, "Old Sui, those are Meridian Clearing Beads that I went through great lengths and dangers to get!"

"Alright, alright. I know what you are after, rascal!" Sui Huang gave him a glare before continuing, "Follow me back after this. I'll let you take a look at the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills."

"Thank you, Old Sui!"

Wang Xian smiled, as he'd gotten something he wanted without giving up anything. Nope! He did give up something. Other than putting up a show, he exhausted some dragon energy.

Hehe!

Wang Xian was thrilled. By showing kindness to the Sui Family in this manner, Sui Huang wouldn't be stingy considering his personality.

After all, he had increased the numbers of Inborn experts in Sui Family by six. This wasn't a small gift.

"Alright, I believe you guys have seen the problem today. I don't wish to see this again!" Sui Huang instructed the members of the Sui Family.

The performance of the fourth and fifth generation of the Sui Family was really terrible. This had infuriated Sui Huang.

However, the gift Wang Xian took out was indeed able to make up for some of these weaknesses. This was also the reason why Sui Huang agreed directly to allow Wang Xian to take a look at the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills.

"Who's the young man with our Laozu? He's really incredible. The ball he spat out from his mouth could actually turn into a divine dragon that even Inborn experts couldn't withstand!"

"The ability to heal the injuries on everyone with a wave of his hand is really amazing. If he can sit beside our Laozu, he must be at the same level as our Laozu!"

"At the same level? Oh gosh! He's so young and yet he's already at the same level as our Laozu?"

"Unbelievable superpower! That's what a real expert is!"

As the ceremony ended, the group saw their Laozu leave with Wang Xian. The disciples of the Sui Family were whispering fervently and were clearly in awe.

Even the second generation of the Sui Family had to look at the figure in fear and respect as they sighed.

Wang Xian could hear the constant compliments and worship of the Sui Family's disciples behind him. Subconsciously, he revealed a faint smile.

He followed behind Sui Huang and arrived at a cave enthusiastically.

"This is the book recording the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills. I'm only allowing you to read for a night!"

Within a cave, Sui Huang took out a simple looking book made of parchment paper. On the parchment paper, dense ancient text was written all over.

Luckily, what was comforting was that there were various papers slotted in between the parchment sheets. These were the explanations for the ancient text.

"Alright. Thank you, Old Sui. I'll give you a godly elixir pill after I refine them!" Wang Xian laughed. After informing Guan Shuqing, Xiao Yu and the rest, he took up the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills and started going through them.

Puff!

I hope it works!

Wang Xian took a deep breath.

If he could extract dragon energy from spiritual medicine, he should be able to do the same for elixir pills. Going further based on what Sui Huang had explained, an elixir pill had ten times the effects of spiritual medicine.

That would mean that the dragon energy within the elixir pill was at least several times that of the spiritual grass.

In that case, refining an elixir pill could also allow him to increase his strength level quickly.

Furthermore, although he was able to raise dragonians rapidly to the Inborn Realm, it would be extremely difficult for him to raise them to the Dan Realm.

Even if he wished to help, it wouldn't work.

Therefore, if he could refine powerful elixir pills and if he had the ability to breed spiritual grass and medicine, he could raise the strength level of dragonians to the Dan Realm rapidly or even to a higher level.

Wang Xian flipped through the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills slowly as he memorized each word on it.

[Ding! Grasped the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills.]

After five hours, the notification of the system sounded in his mind. Wang Xian revealed a faint smile.

Name: Wang Xian

Race: Five Elements Divine Dragon (Able to transform into a human)

Level: 7

Dragon Energy: 1,963,421/10,000,000

Superpower: Dominate marine animals (Ability to rule any marine animals that are lower than your own level), Devour any form of marine animals (For extraction of dragon energy), Five Elements Control

Art of Cultivation: Divine Dragon Transformation

Arts of Refining Elixir Pills: Alchemist Apprentice (Refine All Elixir Pills In The World With The Origin Source Flame)

Wang Xian looked at his personal attributes through the system and noticed a new "Arts of Refining Elixir Pills" under his "Art of Cultivation."

Moreover, the introduction of his Arts of Refining Elixir Pills looked much stronger.

Refine All Elixir Pills With The Origin Source Flame!

I wonder how strong the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills is. However, I'm just an Alchemist Apprentice at this moment. Should I try to refine some elixir pills?

Level 3 elixir pills and below would not require an alchemy furnace to refine. However, it would still require a fire attribute cultivator.

It's a shame that I do not have any spiritual grass or medicine with me currently. I'll find time to give this a try after I get back! Wang Xian thought to himself.

The entire Arts of Refining Elixir Pills was written on thirty to forty pages of parchment paper. Other than the first few pages which introduced the method of refining elixir pills, the rest were all elixir pill recipes.

An elixir pill recipe was very important to an alchemist. Without an elixir pill recipe, it would be extremely difficult for one to refine elixir pills by self-discovery.

Wang Xian looked through it for the entire night. Along the way, he visualized the process. Finally, he had completely memorized all the contents on the parchment paper.

"Brother Wang Xian, how are you doing?" The next morning, Sui Huang smiled radiantly as he walked into the cave and asked Wang Xian.

"Understood and digested completely. A grandmaster alchemist is about to surface in this world!" Wang Xian smiled and answered Sui Huang in a joking manner.

"Oh, is that so? It seems like Brother Wang Xian's Arts of Refining Elixir Pills will be surpassing all that comes before you and you will soon rule the world with it!" Sui Huang replied with a little sarcasm.

Hehe.

Wang Xian smiled and handed the parchment book back to Sui Huang. "We will be returning back home today. Old Sui, do you want to go back with us?"

"I'll return tomorrow. I still have some family matters to handle!" Sui Huang answered and shook his head.

Wang Xian nodded his head, exchanged some casual words and left the cave.

"Young master!"

At this moment, Mo Qinglong came to him and reported, "Young master, it's about the dragonians."

"Oh, what's the matter?" Wang Xian asked immediately.

They had found the real culprit behind the incident of Mo Ersan and Mo Sanyi previously. However, Wang Xian had instructed Mo Yuan to investigate the source instead of taking revenge immediately.

"One of our brothers found a piece of spiritual land on the sea!" said Mo Qinglong enthusiastically.

"Spiritual land?"

Wang Xian was shocked and felt confused.

"Mo Shiwu found a well-hidden island in the sea. The island has dense spiritual energy on it. Based on his conjecture, it should be the remains of an ancient sect and there should still be treasures on it!"

"However, the island was surrounded by strong marine animals guarding it. The island was also extremely mysterious. Mo Shiwu didn't find the island by himself. Those that were with him have already informed their families and sects!"

If that was really the ruins of a sect, there might be quite an amount of spiritual medicine in it. It might even have more spiritual treasures!

Chapter 311: Patrolling Yaksha (1)

The ruins of the ancient sect, is the Spiritual Island? Wang Xian wondered with a tinge of fervor.

Since meeting the Sui Family yesterday and having witnessed their possession of countless Spiritual Grasses and treasures, Wang Xian had realized his destitution.

He had two billion dollars cash on hand as capital. But he had since handed all of this to Lan Qingyue, in request that the Lan Family help with the procurement of gold and silver.

The construction of the Dragon Palace was forty-percent complete. Based on estimates, he predicted that the palace would be completed within two more months.

Aside from these two billion dollars, he possessed no treasures otherwise.

He also paled in comparison to the Sui Family when it came to forces and manpower. Currently, the Sui Family had more than twenty Inborn experts. Meanwhile, of the Dragonians in the Dragon Sect, the only Inborn experts were Mo Yuan and Mo Qinglong.

Given their speed of cultivation, it would take another month before the remaining Dragonians could set foot in the Inborn realm.

By then, the abilities of his forces would be rather prominent, with fifty Inborn experts as his henchmen.

The Dragon Palace will need upgrading after its completion. Which means the consumption of resources will be even greater. I'd better prepare beforehand. Would be best if I had the means to earn Spiritual Stones in the long run, Wang Xian thought to himself.

He would have to go all out for these ruins of the ancestral sect, given that he had way too few resources on hand. So much so that even a Level-one force was richer than him.

"Where's the Spiritual Island located? Let's head right over today!" Wang Xian exclaimed to Mo Qinglong without the slightest hesitation.

"It's about five hundred kilometers away from Rivertown, in the open sea!" Mo Qinglong replied. "Young Master, should we gather the Dragonians from the Dragon Sect?"

"Dragonians? That's not necessary!" Wang Xian shook his head.

Since the henchmen from the Dragon Palace are always standing by in combat mode, there was no need for the Dragonians when it came to ocean battles.

Moreover, based on their current combat abilities, the Dragon Palace would, in fact, be far superior to the Dragon Sect.

"Bring Mo Yuan along. The three of us shall rush over from Rivertown," Wang Xian said to Mo Qinglong.

"Yes, Young Master!" Mo Qinglong nodded in response.

Wang Xian came to the Siheyuan and found Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue, Xiao Yu, and Elder Fang. He proceeded to inform them about the plan.

"Returning so soon? I'd planned to have fun for another two days!" Xiaoyu whined.

"Here's the deal. Isn't winter break arriving around the corner? When it does, I'll take you out for some fun!" Wang Xian pacified with a smile. Thereafter, he purchased flight tickets, and together, everyone made their way to Rivertown the same afternoon.

At mid-afternoon, Wang Xian and the group arrived at the villa. Wang Xian boarded the yacht with embarrassment as Guan Shuqing, and Lan Qingyue gazed in dismay.

"Young Master, we'll have to rush over at the soonest time possible. Mo Shiwu has reported sightings of three major Forces gathering around Spiritual Island," Mo Yuan reminded Wang Xian.

"Yep." Wang nodded in acknowledgment. As he stood on the deck, his heart stirred.

Shoom, shoom, shoom!

In the nearby waters, creatures surfaced one by one. As they emerged, they opened their eyes and gathered around a gigantic turtle.

"Follow the Dragon King!" Prime Minister Turtle commanded members of the Dragon Palace. As he did, he shook the mud off himself and opened his eyes slightly.

"Yes, Prime Minister Turtle!" The members nodded in acknowledgment. The force was comprised of Roving Heavens, Roving Girl, Roving Lobster, and Nine venomous sea snakes; they were also followed by Devil Monkeys from the Devil Division, led by Roving Heavens.

Together, the devilish creatures followed closely beneath the yacht as it pressed on.

After a period of cultivation, all members of the Dragon Palace had undergone massive changes.

The appearance of Roving Girl had become increasingly human-like. So much so that an outline of her nose and eyes formed and became more defined, with droplets lining their edges.

As for Roving Lobster, its physical size grew up to three meters. It shimmered in a body of gold, while its two mammoth pincers added to its majestic air.

Being the first two under Wang Xian's wing, the combat abilities of both Roving Girl and Roving Lobster had reached Level 10.

These two aside, the ones with the next most changes were the Devil Monkeys.

Right now, scales had grown on the bodies of nearly eight hundred of them as they glowed in the flames of the Devil Dragon, while their claws and teeth sharpened by the day.

Other than Roving Heavens, whose combat powers had reached Level 11, three of the eight hundred Devil Monkeys had also hit Level 10. The majority of the rest had also reached between Level 8 and Level 9.

It would not be long before all Devil Monkeys could conquer ocean battles, armed with a Level 10 prowess!

The yacht soared ahead, making a dash for the open sea.

Close to seven hours later, Wang Xian and gang finally closed in on where Mo Shiwu was.

"Over here?" Wang Xian asked with squinted eyes as he surveyed the area ahead.

Just then, as it descended at the far end of the horizon, the last rays of the evening sun shone upon the sea surface.

But Wang Xian soon discovered, to his astonishment, a thick fog surrounding the areas in front.

And just up ahead, the misty fog continued to ascend.

The ocean is a magical place, where mystical seas are filled with miraculous creatures.

Wang Xian recalled reading a book; it introduced the oceans as vast seas which held secrets far exceeding man's imagination.

For one, there was the most renowned Bermuda Triangle with its magnetic field. The fields were so unique, they resulted in aircraft malfunctions and the sinking of ships. In addition, there was also the continent which had disappeared in history.

The various mysteries which were yet to be unveiled...

"It's right ahead. Mo Shiwu is on a yacht over there!" Mo Qinglong exclaimed as he pointed to a location on the left.

Wang Xian gazed over. Up ahead, more than twenty yachts had docked in the seas, along with two huge fishing vessels.

On the deck stood many Martial Artists, each staring at the fog ahead.

Vaguely, an island appeared amidst the misty fog.

Yet none of the ships around had dared to make a dash for the island, as if out of fear of something.

As the yacht approached, the arrival of the group drew immediate attention from the nearby crowd.

"Huh?" Some onboard the other ships frowned as they looked over.

"It's my seniors!" Mo Shiwu said to the rest of the crowd. He was on another yacht with more than a dozen onboard.

"Are these the people you've gathered? We've made a pact. Everyone must go all out in order to make it inside. Otherwise, you are not qualified to enter the Spiritual Island!" a young man said bluntly to Mo Shiwu.

"That's for sure. All based on merit!" Mo Shiwu chirped as a smile lifted his face gently. In one move, he hopped onto the yacht which ferried Wang Xian and gang.

"Hmph! Just those few? I'm afraid they're going to perish in the sea," the young man said indifferently while he looked at Mo Shiwu from behind.

To which, another young man swept his gaze across the yacht which had just arrived. He then looked back at his ship, where the yacht flag bearing a thunderbolt logo flew high.

"Mo Shiwu's a formidable one. His seniors are likely Inborn experts, not to be reckoned with. But, regarding this Spiritual Island, the Lei Family is bent on making it ours!" he continued.

"Haha! It remains to be seen who will be the final one to make it inside!" A group of young men sneered at the side.

As Mo Shiwu leaped onto the yacht, he knelt down immediately to pay respects to Wang Xian. "Dragon King!" he greeted.

"Hmm. How're things going right now?" Wang Xian smiled in response and asked as he glanced at the fog ahead.

Just then, a strange creature began to emerge briefly.

With an elongated fishtail, it bore a grim face. It had a long front claw that resembled a two-pronged fork, measuring about three meters long.

A petrifying yet bizarre sea creature, perhaps?

Chapter 312: Patrolling Yaksha (1)

Hu Hu Hu!

At this moment, that creature let out a howl that propagated several thousands of meters.

"What is that creature?" Wang Xian asked Mo Shiwu as he looked at the vague silhouette of a marine animal within the mist.

"Dragon King, that's the Patrolling Yaksha, a creature that existed in mythology." Mo Shiwu looked ahead and continued, "According to records, there were immortal islands in the past. Some of these immortal islands could move above the sea, some could hide themselves and some even had divine beasts guarding them!"

"Patrolling Yaksha is a type of guardian beast in these records. They stationed themselves in a sea region and patrolled the surrounding waters. Their intelligence is extremely high and they possess horrifying strength."

As Mo Shiwu spoke and looked at the Patrolling Yaksha, his expression turned gloomy. "Many Patrolling Yakshas are surrounding this Spiritual Island. Their strength is horrifying. When they are in the seas, even Inborn experts have to be careful."

"Moreover, based on my discovery, this island isn't ordinary. It could be moved. Although the movements aren't significant, there's no doubt that it could be shifted. Some experts estimate that this was a floating island."

"Floating island?"

Wang Xian was taken aback and revealed a shocked expression.

Floating island... This wasn't an island that floats in the skies but on the surface of the seas.

A stone would still sink when thrown into the sea. Yet, an island could actually float on the surface of the sea. That's truly magical.

"The entire island spanned several dozens of kilometers. A cruise sank after trying to enter the white mist but was wrecked by the Patrolling Yakshas around the island. The number of Patrolling Yakshas wouldn't be less than thirty." Mo Shiwu continued his introduction of the island.

"What's the situation now? It's going to be night time soon. What are they waiting for?"

Wang Xian looked at the sky before turning to the twenty-odd ships a short distance from him.

"Based on what an expert has said, when night falls, the surrounding white mist will disappear. Entering at night is far safer than trying to enter during the day!"

Mo Shiwu continued, "When the moon rises and the white mist dissipates, all the ships will charge forward. At that time, occupying an area will be dependent on one's strength and luck."

Wang Xian nodded his head slightly. He looked to the Patrolling Yaksha and a thought struck him suddenly.

"When you receive my order in a while, enter the Spiritual Island immediately. I'll go handle the Patrolling Yakshas," Wang Xian said to them. He removed the watch from his wrist and dived into the sea.

"Yes, young master!"

Bam!

When Wang Xian dived into the sea, he noticed the members of the Dragon Palace were hiding in the depths of the sea.

He turned to his left and looked over.

He saw several human figures within the sea and they were looking at the Spiritual Island.

Huh? They must be water attribute cultivators! Wang Xian thought to himself. Therefore, he did not turn into a dragon immediately and instead swam deeper towards the bottom of the sea.

When he reached a depth of approximately a hundred and ten meters, night had fallen. Below the surface, it was completely dark. Looking down, one would feel that the seabed was within an abyss.

However, day or night had no difference for Wang Xian considering his current strength.

He swam and met up with the members of the Dragon Palace. After which, he stood on the Prime Minister Turtle.

"Greetings, Dragon King!"

The group of Dragon Palace members greeted him respectfully.

"Let's go!"

Wang Xian gestured for the Prime Minister Turtle to swim forward. Standing on the back of the Prime Minister Turtle, he looked at the Spiritual Island.

Rumble!

Prime Minister Turtle moved his huge body and swam slowly towards the seabed.

Soon, they entered the region that was previously shrouded in white mist.

The moment he entered this region, Wang Xian instantly felt some marine animals staring at them.

What horrifying senses. They discovered us the moment we entered this region!!

Wang Xian squinted his eyes and looked above him.

From above, savage and fearsome Patrolling Yakshas charged towards them one after another. There were a total of ten Patrolling Yakshas and the largest of them all was approximately four meters.

One of their arms resembled powerful weapons and was even longer than their bodies. Water flowed rapidly past their bodies.

Hu Hu Hu!

"Scram!"

A cry sounded. From the cry, Wang Xian understood that they were asking him to scram.

Ten Patrolling Yakshas stood in a row. Savageness gleamed in their eyes as they stared at Wang Xian and the group without fear.

Patrolling Yaksha: Level 9

Extractable Dragon Energy: 38,756

Patrolling Yaksha: Level 10

Extractable Dragon Energy: 155,434

"A level 10 and nine Level 9 Patrolling Yakshas!"

Wang Xian showed contempt on his face as he stood on the back of Prime Minister Turtle, looking down on the Patrolling Yakshas. "Let us into the island or die!"

Rumble!

As Wang Xian spoke, Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Heavens and other members of the Dragon Palace stared harshly at the Patrolling Yaksha ahead of them. From them, horrifying vibes started emanating.

"Everyone is forbidden from entering!"

The ten Patrolling Yakshas did not back off. At this moment, one of the Patrolling Yakshas drew a conch out suddenly.

Hu Hu Hu!

A faint but rapid voice sounded and propagated several kilometers through the sea. One could even hear it from the surface of the sea.

"What's that sound?"

On the sea surface, the crowd heard the rapid voices on their ships and were baffled.

"Look! The Patrolling Yakshas within the white mist have disappeared!"

"They have dived into the sea. Patrolling Yakshas are highly intelligent. Can it be that they knew we would be charging in and therefore are thinking of ambushing us?"

The crowd was doubtful and turned solemn.

At this moment, the moon had risen. Faint moonlight shrouded the sea surface, revealing the mysterious Spiritual Island gradually.

With their enhanced sight as martial artists, they could vaguely see an exceptionally beautiful island bristling with life that was surfacing on the sea surface.

All of their eyes were burning with thrill and desire. Nonetheless, they didn't dare to charge forward at this moment.

At this very moment, approximately a hundred Patrolling Yakshas had gathered in front of Wang Xian below the sea.

At the forefront was a six-meter-tall Patrolling Yaksha.

His arms acted like powerful weapons. When he stood up, one could see he had a long fishtail. Water flowed above his arms as horrifying vibes were emitted from it.

"Get out of here or die!" the powerful Patrolling Yaksha at the forefront glowered at Wang Xian and said.

Wang Xian smiled and looked at the crowd of Patrolling Yakshas. Among them, there were ten Level 10 while the rest were Level 9.

"Patrolling Yakshas! Not bad, not bad!"

Wang Xian scanned across the hundred Patrolling Yakshas as he rubbed his chin.

Based on mythology, Patrolling Yakshas were responsible for patrolling the vicinity of the Dragon Palace.

Since the Dragon Palace was about to be built, these Patrolling Yakshas appeared at the right time as they could become the patrolling guards for the Dragon Palace.

Nope! When I build my Dragon Palace, they should be called Patrolling Dragon Sha... Hmm, the name still sounds a little weird!

"Surrender or die!"

Chapter 313: Yaksha Subdued, Off to the Spiritual Island!

As Wang Xian's voice blasted through the sea, an overwhelming aura of Dragon Power buried the crowd of Yakshas beneath.

Powerful forces from Roving Heavens, Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Girl, and Roving Lobster aided in the overwhelming aura.

"Scram, or perish!" the centermost Yaksha warned. Waving its weapon-like arm, the Yaksha carried forth a powerful surge of water and aimed it straight at Wang Xian and gang.

The Yaksha showed not the slightest fear towards them!

"Scram, or perish!" the Yaksha warned again.

In synchronized movements, the remaining Yakshas and their leader aimed the weapons in their arms directly towards Wang Xian and gang.

With actions so uniform, they could pass off as an army.

"Good. Splendid!" Wang Xian complimented. Admiring their discipline, he looked on at the Yakshas with increasing satisfaction. As he did, he swung an arm and ordered, "Get a hold on them, before subduing them all!"

"At your command, Dragon King!" replied Roving Heavens along with the rest of the Dragon Palace members. With an electrifying aura, they lunged directly at the Yakshas.

Wang Xian had no regard for the Yakshas, even with the presence of a Level 11 expert amongst their group of a hundred.

Based on the current abilities of the Dragon Palace members, the Devil Division led by Roving Heavens along with the Nine Venomous sea snakes would suffice in wiping the Yakshas out.

"Intruders shall die!" the Yakshas roared once again in unison. With knifelike coordination, they attacked Roving Heavens and the gang head on.

"Hah!" the group of Yakshas jeered as they swung their arm weapons at the same moment. A water swirl formed atop the forks on their arms and spiraled at frightening speeds.

Vroom!

Roving Heavens let out a roar. With a baton in hand, he charged at the Level 11 Yaksha standing at the center in a bid to attack.

Bam!

Unfazed, the Yaksha struck back at Roving Heavens head on with his weapon-like arms.

Ack, ack, ack, ack! screeched the crowd of Devil Monkeys. As they maneuvered underwater, darting like bouts of Devil Shadows, they seized at the hundred or so Yakshas.

But the Yakshas responded with neither panic nor confusion. Instead, they stood single file like experienced warriors and extended their arm-like weapons.

Boom!

A terrifying force from their weapons surged like massive currents and headed straight for the Devil Monkeys.

They condensed the flows into a mass, and as the sea waters tumbled, a Sea Spear was formed. As it emerged, it struck at the Devil Monkeys like an impending crisis.

"Water Veil! Restore peace to the seas!" a spirited voice commanded. It was Queen Clam. As she flapped the shells on her sides and swung her arms, streaks of blue water flow gathered in front of the Devil Monkeys.

Her shell was slowly turning sapphire, and it appeared more translucent than before.

"Let there be calm seas and fair winds!" the Nine Venomous sea snakes ordered. Rattling their tails, they opened their nine mouths wide. Suddenly, a gust of wind blew amidst the ocean and surged towards the waves which were crashing toward the Devil Monkeys.

Swoosh!

Together, the Water Veil and powerful gale managed to combat the attacks by the Yakshas.

But even so, the facial expressions on the hundred-odd Yakshas remained constant.

Under the leader's command, the Yakshas initiated another attack, with the group changing stance in one swift movement.

Brandishing their weapons, and aided by a strong force from the waters, the Yakshas charged forth at Roving Heavens and the Devil Monkeys.

In one sweep, the force glided through the seas. Like a giant halberd, it scoured through everything in its path.

"Such a powerful attack. To think that a hundred Yakshas can make defense this hard for the Devil Division," Wang Xian uttered in shock as he continued watching the hundred-odd Yakshas.

The Yakshas had attacked in a very synchronized manner. As they did, they induced the surrounding waters along to aid in attack. This heightened their terrifying prowess.

With only a couple more Level 10 experts than the Devil Division, the group of hundred-odd Yakshas had curbed the attack of the Division which had a strength of eight hundred.

Had it not been for the help from Queen Clam and Nine Venomous sea snakes, many Devil Monkeys would have been seriously injured from the attack earlier.

"You have a death wish!" Roving Heavens snarled. As he watched his suppressed juniors, he snapped in a grimace. Baring his fangs, his body lit up in appalling Devil Flames as he flung himself towards the Yakshas.

Roar! Roar! Roar!

The Devil Monkeys howled as the ferocity in them was ignited. Hair standing on end, they flashed their sharp claws and pounced along.

Tsk, tsk, tsk! hissed the Nine Venomous sea snakes nearby, slithering with increasing speed as they did. Staring coldly at nine Level 10 Yakshas with their eyes, they charged forth at them in a flash.

With one leap, Roving Lobster joined in on the attack. Using both of its giant pincers, it snipped away at the Yakshas.

All manpower from the Dragon Palace was out in full force. In an instant, the surrounding seas cowered under the majestic awe of the Divine Dragon.

Schools of fish nearby swam far away, scrambling for safety.

As they cleared the area, the sea appeared all the more vast and deep, which added on to the spookiness.

"What's happening? Why are there bouts of terrifying forces surging from the sea? It's giving me the shudders!" one shrieked.

"Such threatening force. What exactly is happening up front?" another quivered.

"Didn't they say that this is the historical site of a Level-one ancient sect? Why would there be waves of such terrifying forces otherwise?" a third gulped.

On the boats in surrounding waters, all people onboard cast their glance towards the waters.

With the horrendous force surging and the irregular waves, it set everyone out in fear and trepidation.

On the deck of a large fishing vessel stood several elders. As they looked down at the seas, their eyes began to fill with dread.

"To think that a tidal wave had reversed in direction. This tremendous force is no doubt terrifying. As for the creature beneath, it must be from the Dan Realm at the very least! The ocean, how appalling!" An elder shook with a heavy look.

"What should we do, then...are we still vying for this Spiritual Island? Don't forget that this is an ancient First-class island we're looking at. Who knows, the Spiritual Medicine from its garden could even be on par with those from Spiritual Medicine Gardens of the Saint Class!" another elder reminded.

With burning desire in his eyes, he continued, "What's more, given that this is a First-class force, they're bound to possess treasures."

"In ancient times, all the sects and clans were either located within famous mountains and rivers, or on peninsula islands. Idolized by all as the Land of the Sacred. An ancient First-class force is now on par with a current Sacred Sect. Hence we cannot give this Spiritual Island up. Just wait awhile longer!" another elder concluded.

Despite the apprehension owing to the force surging from the deep waters, no one was willing to give up in the face of such an alluring Spiritual Island.

Waiting in silence, they were all bidding for their opportunity.

"Young Master has given his orders. Charge!" a voice shouted. Meanwhile, Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and Mo Shiwu were on a yacht when they heard the command.

Hearts raced, and the trio locked eyes for a split moment before glancing ahead. With one leap, they dashed for the Spiritual Island.

"Someone made their move!" one shouted.

"Having a death wish. It's akin to courting doom. Such terrifying forces are coming from the seas. Yet they still dare to charge over. We'll see. They'll be killed by the marine creatures soon enough!" a second mocked.

"It's Mo Shiwu and the gang he has called. Hmm, this fellow fights pretty well, but it appears he's not very good with his intellect!" the third commented.

"Just as well, someone to help us lead the way!" another bystander cheered.

As the trio charged forward, the crowd looked on with astonishment, but continued nonetheless in anticipation.

In moments, however, they were met with surprise and bewilderment as their faces dimmed. "Huh?" they managed faintly.

With racing speed, the trio flew inside the island parameters, eventually landing on the island without the slightest impediment.

Chapter 314: The Spiritual Island That Was Overrun By Monster

"They got in! They actually got in!"

"How can this be? Where are the Patrolling Yakshas? Why didn't the guarding animals under the sea surface appear?"

"This is bad! Now that three men have entered, should we follow them in?"

At this moment, the three other forces that had gathered in the vicinity were stuck in a dilemma. Three men had charged towards the Spiritual Island. In the end, they were able to get in easily without any obstruction.

This embarrassed the other three forces.

These three forces were all First-class Forces. They were Lei Family from Modu, Wind God Sect from Dafeng Mountain and Water Separation Island from the Sea Islands.

When they saw Mo Qinglong and the other two men enter the Spiritual Island, they were bitter and furious.

"We can't continue to wait like this. Otherwise, all the good stuff will be taken away by those three people. We have to get through too!" On a huge fishing boat, several old men's eyes shimmered.

"In that case, who will test it out first?"

Another old man seemed conflicted. He looked down at the sea surface and still felt heart-wrenching powers from the bottom of the sea.

"Since the three of them got through without any trouble, we shouldn't be in danger either."

"Elders, we can first test it out with a yacht. If the yacht isn't wrecked, we will not be in any danger!" said a middle-aged man while frowning.

Under such circumstances, no one had the guts to charge forward despite seeing others entering the Spiritual Island.

"Try it out immediately!" the old man from Lei Family ordered. Subsequently, a yacht charged towards the Spiritual Island.

When the other two Forces saw it, they frowned. They were also waiting. Once their safety could be verified, they would charge ahead immediately.

"Charge!"

When the yacht reached the Spiritual Island, the surrounding crowd could no longer hold back their urge as they charged rapidly towards the Spiritual Island.

In an instant, a few hundred men flew over directly.

At this very moment, Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and Mo Shiwu who had entered the Spiritual Island first were carefully observing the ruins of an ancient sect. All of them were shocked.

White flowers were grown around the entire Spiritual Island and these flowers were producing a faint mist.

The surrounding white mist had all originated from these flowers.

The entire Spiritual Island was beautiful. However, weeds had overrun some places as no humans had lived on it for a long time.

On a stone path, Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and Mo Shiwu looked in shock at what was before them.

A footprint! It was a huge footprint that was approximately four meters long and was deeply imprinted on the ground.

"What kind of animal would have left this footprint? How can it be so horrifying?"

Mo Qinglong and the group looked ahead and discovered other huge footprints that were all around the entire Spiritual Island.

Around the footprints were several sets of human remains. Some had decomposed, leaving only bones behind.

Many of these bones had cracked. It was clear that this was caused by huge physical impacts.

"Can it be that this Spiritual Island on the sea encountered an attack by terrifying animals in the sea, leading to the annihilation of the entire sect?"

The three of them were baffled. They looked to the side and found several collapsed brick houses around them. Some were even more than fifty percent destroyed.

It was clear that these houses were knocked down by a terrifying animal.

Mo Qinglong and the group turned their attention ahead.

In the middle of the island, there was a huge training ground. Before the training ground was a row of buildings.

These buildings were fifteen to sixteen meters tall. However, even the tops of these buildings had large holes.

"Who would have expected the entire Spiritual Island to actually be wrecked by a horrifying animal in the sea?"

Mo Qinglong was shocked. He moved and approached the central region of the island rapidly.

Based on common understanding, the central location was where most treasures were kept.

Moreover, spiritual medicine gardens would typically be placed in the central region.

"Split up and search for treasures!" Mo Qinglong instructed Mo Yuan and Mo Shiwu before diving towards a building.

No one knew how long ago the sect on the Spiritual Island had been annihilated. All the buildings had clear signs of weathering.

When they entered the room, they immediately started searching it.

"This is... a depository of books. All the books here are really precious and valuable!"

Mo Qinglong scanned across the room. After which, he headed for another room.

A depository of books wasn't particularly useful for them.

"This must be the accommodation of the higher management of the sect!"

Mo Qinglong entered another room. After looking around, he immediately started searching the room.

At this moment, Mo Yuan shouted, "Master, the spiritual medicine garden is here!" Mo Qinglong moved and charged over immediately.

Spiritual medicine gardens typically contained the most precious resources of a sect.

The spiritual medicine garden was located at the back. At that place, there was a pond that spanned approximately a dozen mu. Within the pond and around the pond, various spiritual medicines were planted. [\[1\]](#)

Beside the spiritual medicine garden were several sets of remains.

There were four huge footprints in the spiritual medicine garden. A substantial number of spiritual grasses were dead but there were still several hundred tufts of spiritual grass that were still emitting spiritual energy.

It was especially so for the huge lotus flower in the middle of the pond. The lotus flower was the size of a basin. Amidst the darkness of the night, it was still glowing in white light.

The middle of the lotus flower was an entirely white lotus seedpod with countless lotus seeds in it.

One could easily tell that the lotus flower, lotus seedpod and lotus seeds weren't ordinary.

Mo Qinglong looked across the spiritual medicine garden and his eyes lit up.

"Plucking these spiritual medicines away will be a waste. The best option is to let them continue growing here before plucking their fruits."

Mo Qinglong looked around him. The most precious of them all should be the white lotus flower in the middle of the pond and a spiritual tree beside it.

That spiritual tree had already reached a height of six to seven meters. Based on Mo Qinglong's understanding, this spiritual tree was known as Green Fruit Tree. This spiritual tree should have reached Level 5 or 6.

Therefore, it shouldn't be called a spiritual medicine but a spiritual tree instead.

Other than that, there were at least fifty to sixty tufts of Level 4 and 5 spiritual grass and over a hundred tufts of Level 3 and below spiritual grass.

Perhaps it was because this Spiritual Island had been deserted for five to six hundred years or for an even longer time. With no one harvesting these spiritual grasses, there were a lot of them around.

The value of these spiritual grasses alone is astronomical! Mo Qinglong and the group thought to themselves.

"I found it first. Get lost!"

"I held it in my hands first. Scram or I'll kill you!"

"Do you think my Lei Family is afraid of your Water Separation Island?"

At this moment, noises came from behind them.

Several hundred people from Water Separation Island, Lei Family, and the Wind God Sect had dashed over. The quiet Spiritual Island became raucous instantly.

Although they were shocked by the humongous footprints that were left behind, they were getting frenzied over the treasures they were seeing.

"The spiritual medicine garden is here!"

At this moment, a few young men dashed over. Seeing the spiritual grass in front of Mo Qinglong and the group, they were thrilled.

Endnote:

[1] Mu is a unit of measurement for area. 1 mu = 0.0667 hectares or 666.67 square meters. Back

Chapter 315: Joining Forces

"The spiritual medicine garden is here!" a voice boomed. As it sounded across the entire Spiritual Island, all bickering and commotion elsewhere came to a standstill.

In an instant, figures could be seen darting over at electrifying speeds.

Across the sky, nine Inborn experts soared through the air. When they saw the various treasures in the Spiritual Medicine Garden, their eyes blazed with desire.

With a shrug, they hopped onto the fringes of the garden.

"A Level 6 Spiritual Medicine, goodness! To think it's the Level 6 White Valley Lotus. Ah hah! A ripe White Valley Lotus!" one exclaimed in elation.

"A Green Fruit Tree! Such a Level 6 Tree can produce six Level 5 Spiritual Fruits in a year. While the over-ripened fruits have fallen and turned into compost!" another said excitedly.

"Dozens of Level 5 Spiritual Grasses, and plenty more of those of Level 3 to 4!" a third cheered.

A crazed look swept across the nine Inborn experts. As they scanned their surroundings, their cold stares were overcome by burning desire at the sight of the Spiritual Medicine aplenty.

Should they be able to obtain these Spiritual Medicine, it would no doubt double the prowess of their clans right away.

What's more, they may even attain Sacred Sect status given long-term cultivation of this entire plot, but only if they could possess it.

This was especially so, as this Spiritual Island happened to be a rare floating island. This meant that the island was able to move along the ocean, making it an ideal Spiritual Land.

In addition, there were white flowers growing along the perimeters which emitted a misty fog. Aside from camouflaging effects, the flora could also help gather Spiritual Energy.

Amidst the oceans, this piece of land was surrounded by unpolluted air. Hence its concentration of Spiritual Energy definitely outweighed those from the cities.

The Inborn experts pondered as their eyes twinkled. Meanwhile, disciples of the various forces gathered behind their clan experts, keeping a vigilant watch over the surroundings.

In the brief fight earlier, some of these disciples had already sustained injuries.

"To compete based on merits?" a middle-aged elder asked blandly.

With a glum face, he cast his glance towards the six Inborn experts from the Lei Family and Water Separation Island.

To which, the Inborn experts kept mum, as they continued eyeing each other in order to assess one another's abilities.

The strengths of the Lei Family, Water Separation Island, and Wind God Sect were neck and neck. This time around, each of them was represented by three Inborn experts.

Perhaps variations existed between individual Inborn experts. Yet, should they really start fighting, the outcome remained to be seen.

But one thing was certain: some of them would perish.

The nine Inborn experts continued to observe each other, and in an instant, tension filled the atmosphere.

Meanwhile, the disciples crowding behind gripped their weapons with a heavy look.

A fight could break out any moment now.

"I don't think it would do any of us any good should we start battling it out now. Unless any of you are confident in annihilating the other party. Otherwise, it's bad news to all even if only one should escape!" an elder from Water Separation Island chipped in as he surveyed the six Inborn experts.

When the three leveled forces really started fighting, it would not be surprising should they end up with a Pyrrhic Victory.

Whereas if only one party should win marginally, and should information about the Spiritual Island be divulged, then they would be bound to be attacked by other sects and clans. Who knows, they may even face being seized by Sacred Sects.

All this for one floating island, given its high value. In fact, it was so superior it could make a good Sect ground.

Giving thought to his analysis, the Inborn experts from the Lei Family and Wind God Sect agreed with the elder from Water Separation Island.

"An equal division then?" an elder from the Lei Family asked as he squinted, testing the reaction of others.

"How are we going to do that? This floating island is one huge gem!"

Smiling, the elder from Water Separation Island replied, "How about this? We from the Water Separation Island will take the floating island alone, while you can have everything else!"

"Wishful thinking!" an elder from the Lei Family snapped.

The worth of the entire floating island was no less than the Spiritual Medicine Garden, the secret manual it held, and the like combined.

Just then, the Elder from Water Separation Island who spoke earlier uttered, "Ever thought of establishing a Saint-class force?"

As he finished, the Inborn experts from Wind God Sect and Lei Family could not help but flinch.

They took one look at the crowd around them before turning towards the Spiritual Grass which was nestled in the garden, and breathed somewhat heavily.

Should the three parties join forces, and give it a little more than a decade, they could really end up setting a Saint-Class force for all we know.

A Sacred Sect! One immensely massive entity!

But, to have three forces coming together to set up one Sacred Sect is a huge matter, where interests are complicated and stakes are high. It would take days to sort everything out.

"What we'll have to do now, is to hide this Spiritual Island. To keep it away from the other forces. As for its allocation, the three forces shall discuss it thereafter!" an elder from the Lei Family suggested steadily.

"Alright!" one nodded.

"Agreed!" another seconded the thought.

"Instead of fighting and vying ourselves to our deaths, we might as well join forces!" The nine Inborn experts laughed. To them, this was the best choice possible.

"Gentlemen, it appears that you've yet to ask for our take," Mo Qinglong interrupted. He was with Mo Yuan and Mo Shiwu meanwhile. As he spoke, the trio frowned and scanned the crowd.

"Haha! Oops, we've forgotten about the few outsiders!" an elder joked as he surveyed the trio.

"Outsiders? We made a pact back then. To inform the forces that joined later, and split the share of this Spiritual Island!" Mo Shiwu rebuked while peering at a few young men from the three forces.

"True enough. We've indeed made a pact. To vie for the treasures based on our own merits!" a voice argued.

"That's right. And the treasures are right here. Take them with you if you've got what it takes!" another challenged.

"Haha! Mo Shiwu, if you've got what it takes, you may take all the treasures here with you right away. But if you don't, hah!" a third gloated.

Thereafter, several young men from each of the three forces stepped out and smirked as they eyed Mo Shiwu.

"Show us what you've got. Otherwise, you're not fit to get an equal share of the treasures as us!" a young man provoked once again, this time annoying Mo Shiwu.

"You ingrates. Had I not rescued the few of you at the start, you fellows would have died at the hands of the Yakshas long ago!" Mo Shiwu snapped as he glared at them.

"Humph, weren't you also protecting yourself by saving us? Don't take the moral high ground!" a young man criticized as he stared right back.

"Folks, how would you suggest we handle these three?" an elder of the Lei Family asked the Inborn experts sarcastically.

"Vying for the treasures with us leaves us with no choice but to strike!" an elder announced as he stepped forward with a faint grin.

Gradually, three experts from the Lei Family and Water Separation Island began to follow suit. They had their eyes fixed on Mo Qinglong and gang with a deathly stare.

To which, Mo Qinglong and the gang responded with a burdened look.

Chapter 316: The Roar of The Devil Monkey

On the Spiritual Island, one Inborn expert from Lei Family, Water Separation Island and Wind God Sect respectively stepped forward and looked at Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and Mo Shiwu with contempt.

They walked over slowly with their weapons in their hands, glowing in a chilling light.

"You guys must be courting death!"

Mo Qinglong's eyes were filled with killing intent as he stared at the three Inborn experts walking towards them. Devilish aura started circling around his body.

Mo Yuan transformed his fingers into claws and stared at the approaching group harshly.

"Hehe! Devilish cultivators! It seems like we are going to eradicate devils for the benefit of the world!"

An old man turned solemn after noticing the dense devilish aura being emitted from their bodies.

"Kill the three of them!" an old man shouted. Subsequently, he jumped ahead and charged towards Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and Mo Shiwu.

The three Inborn experts reached Mo Qinglong and the group in an instant. The stifling pressure of an Inborn expert was mixed with their dense killing intent. The three Inborn experts had no plans to hide their aura and killing intent at all.

...

At this moment, Wang Xian, who was on the seabed, did not know about the intense battle that was going on at the Spiritual Island. Wang Xian smiled faintly and looked ahead.

In front of him, a hundred Patrolling Yakshas were pinned down on the floor with grave injuries under the attacks from the Devil Division, nine Venomous Sea Snakes, Roving Lobster, and Roving Girl.

"Surrender to me or die!"

Wang Xian stood on the back of Prime Minister Turtle, shrouded his dragon power towards all the Patrolling Yakshas and spoke coldly.

"I surrender!" The leader of the Patrolling Yakshas looked at Wang Xian and the group in horror. Gradually, he lifted his head.

"Great. This will be the wisest choice you make in your lifetime."

"The Dragon Palace shall be separated into nine divisions in the future. The Devil Division has since been established. Today, I shall confer on you, leader of Patrolling Yakshas, as the Dragon Guard Division. You shall patrol the four seas and guard the Dragon Palace. I shall also bestow upon you the name of Roving Yaksha!"

As Wang Xian spoke, he waved his hands. Drops of essence blood entered the Patrolling Yakshas' heads as Wang Xian smiled.

Devil Division was the main battle strength against the enemies. As for the Dragon Guard Division, they would be responsible for patrolling the surroundings of the Dragon Palace and protecting it.

Although there were only a hundred Patrolling Yakshas, the strength and battle prowess they demonstrated when they worked together were incomparably horrifying.

Moreover, they could move extremely fast in the water. Even Wang Xian was astonished at their speed.

In water, they possessed a speed that even the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes couldn't match.

However, if the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes were above the sea surface, their speed would be a lot faster than it was in the seas.

"Thank you, Dragon King. Greetings, Dragon King!" The leader of the Patrolling Yakshas bowed down in a unique manner as he remarked.

"Greetings, Dragon King!" the surrounding Patrolling Yaksha followed, kneeling down respectfully as they remarked.

"This is the cultivation art for the Water Divine Dragon. Cultivate diligently in the future!"

A thought was sent into their minds. Subsequently, Wang Xian looked at the floating island.

"Eh? Bring me to the bottom of the floating island to take a look!" Wang Xian said to Roving Yaksha immediately.

"Yes, Dragon King!"

After absorbing the essence blood of the divine dragon, a flash of energy beamed from the eyes of the Roving Yaksha. The speed of water flowing on his body became even quicker.

"Dragon King, this is our old nest. We have been living under this island!"

After arriving at the side of the island, the Roving Yaksha pointed to the bottom of the island.

Wang Xian looked across inquisitively. The base of the floating island wasn't connected to the seabed. Moreover, a type of plant was growing on the bottom of the island.

This plant was black in color, similar to the color of the Patrolling Yakshas. They were densely packed and covered the entire bottom of the floating island.

Moreover, this type of plant wasn't just a layer. Instead, there were several layers of them which formed empty spaces each layer.

Wang Xian was surprised to see a one-meter-tall Yaksha moving within these spaces.

"This is...?"

"This is our nest and also our food."

Roving Yaksha swam over, scraped a part of the plant using his weapon-like arm and handed it to Wang Xian.

Wang Xian received it and realized it had strong buoyancy!

"So this plant is the reason why the island floats and can even move!"

Wang Xian was in awe of the mysterious things of the seas. There were all kinds of strange animals in the sea.

"If I convert this island to my accommodation, wouldn't it be...!"

Wang Xian's eyes lit up. He just had to modify this floating island a little to convert it to a mobile base. In fact, he could even pull this floating island to the Bohai Sea.

If he wished to go to other areas, he could also shift it to the Pacific Ocean or the Indian Ocean.

A mobile fortress and base!

Wang Xian's eyes burned with enthusiasm. "You guys, wait for me here. I'm going to take a look at the Spiritual Island!"

After finishing his words, Wang Xian moved and swam towards the Spiritual Island.

As the ruins of an ancient sect, there should be lots of treasures on it. Moreover, he had informed Mo Qinglong and the group to search for treasures while he was under the water.

Wang Xian believed they would have obtained lots of spiritual treasures by now.

"The rewards this time are indeed handsome!"

Wang Xian revealed a faint smile and arrived on the Spiritual Island.

Rumble!

"Tsk! How dare you guys injure our Lei Family's people! Trying to grab these spiritual medicines and spiritual treasures with just the three of you? You guys must be courting death!"

However, he heard a furious roar that propagated through the entire Spiritual Island the moment he landed on shore.

After which, the sounds of collision erupted. Wang Xian squinted his eyes and his expression turned cold.

"Cough cough. All of you shall die!" A weak voice sounded. It was the voice of Mo Qinglong.

"Haha! Kill us? We will kill you right now!" A brazen voice sounded once again. "Still thinking of getting the treasures? Wishful thinking! Even if you were a Pinnacle Inborn expert, we would still kill you!"

"It seems like someone can't wait to die!" Murderous intent gleamed in Wang Xian's eyes. Based on what Mo Shiwu had said, all treasures found should be obtained through their respective strengths.

This was the agreement for the split of treasures on the Spiritual Island.

In Wang Xian's opinion, no one in the three Forces would be a match for Mo Qinglong or Mo Yuan.

Based on the voice of Mo Qinglong, he was clearly injured now. In that case, there was only one possibility. A group of people had attacked them together.

Rumble!

Wang Xian tapped lightly on the water surface. Roving Heavens immediately raised his head above the surface.

"Follow me!"

Roving Heavens gave his orders before jumping onto the shore of the Spiritual Island.

Below him, eight hundred devil monkeys followed closely behind. They were like savage beasts from the bottom of the water as they surfaced from the seas. Every single one of them had an intense devilish flame emitting from their body.

Roar!

Roving Heavens walked beside Wang Xian and let out a cry.

With his six-meter tall figure, he was a towering figure beside Wang Xian. He held a golden rod in his hand.

Behind him, eight hundred devil monkeys jumped onto the shores of the Spiritual Island. The horrifying auras from them masked the moon in the sky.

"Let's go!"

Wang Xian stood up gradually. The group of devil monkeys spread out before charging forward rapidly with Wang Xian.

Grr grr grr!

As the devil monkeys growled, the entire Spiritual Island trembled!

Chapter 317: By Merits?

Grr grr grr!

The Devil Monkeys growled. The entire Spiritual Island trembled as their voices blasted through the air.

Wang Xian narrowed his eyes briefly as he headed towards the center of the Spiritual Island.

With him was Roving Heavens. With a wooden rod measuring five to six meters resting on his shoulders, he followed alongside Wang Xian with a ferocious look.

"What's that noise?" a voice quivered.

Just then, Inborn experts from the Lei Family, Water Separation Island, and Wind God Sect were at the Spiritual Medicine Garden, when they heard the growling of the Devil Monkeys. To which, their faces winced as they darted their eyes around hastily.

"Seems like animals growling, and in large numbers!" one panicked.

"Don't tell me monsters have ascended on Spiritual Island?" the second guessed.

"That can't be. How could sea monsters get on the island? They must be growling in the waters, but do not approach" another reassured.

"Those hair-raising footprints on the island...could they have come from the same monster?" a voice asked.

As it was nighttime, other than the casting of faint moonlight, they were surrounded by pitch-dark on this lone island in the middle of the sea.

Peering into the distance around them, it felt like they were situated amidst an abyss. Given such circumstances, disciples of the three forces could not help but shiver.

Especially with the growling earlier; the way it sounded and felt had petrified them all the more.

"Something's approaching!" an Inborn expert cried out, jerking his head to the right while doing so.

"Many of them!" another Inborn expert added as he turned right as well.

"What?" the rest of the disciples behind exclaimed. Taking one deep gulp, they too looked in the same direction in utter panic.

They were not being timid. Instead, having witnessed the Yakshas around the Spiritual Island, along with the alarming footprints inland, it became too overwhelming.

They were already in fear of the creatures out at sea.

"Haha! Like I've said, all of you shall die. All of you!" voices laughed. It was Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and Mo Shiwu who were lying at a side, resting. They shot up excitedly upon hearing the growls.

Bearing with their physical pains the best they could, they swept their glance coldly across the three forces ahead.

"Shut up!" an Inborn expert snapped as he eyed the trio. With the swing of an arm, he blasted a bout of energy towards the trio.

Bam, bam!

The energy struck directly at Mo Qinglong and gang, which sent them flying seven to eight meters back, before crashing on the floor.

Had it not been for their strong constitution, they would have long been killed by the blows!

"Who are you trying to scare? Fear not, even if the sea creatures should ascend on the island. Their combat abilities would diminish greatly!" an Inborn expert assured. As he did, he raised his long sword, which was flickering with laser lights.

Inhaling deeply, the disciples crowding around clutched onto their weapons.

Grrr, grrr!

As faint, deep growls which sounded like panting approached closer by the second, they sent a faint tremor across the grounds.

Several hundred from the three forces gazed intently at the area ahead.

Boom, boom, boom!

"It has appeared!" someone announced.

"It's coming!" another yelled.

With a murderous demeanor, all men from the three forces braced themselves. They looked ahead at the shadows, which were gradually emerging.

Swish!

Waving an arm, an Inborn expert lit up the sky ahead with a blinding flame.

Boom!

The flame also revealed what was in front of them. At the sight of the figures ahead, everyone stared with eyes wide, in shock.

Under the bright lights, a group of creepy but human-like creatures emerged from about five hundred meters ahead. They were moving towards the crowd, slowly and steadily.

They were mammoth-like in size, reaching beyond two meters in height, with the tallest standing at almost six meters. They were also surrounded by balls of black gases winding around their bodies.

"What ... what are those?" an Inborn expert muttered in a low voice, as he looked ahead with a cringing face.

There were too many of these black human-like creatures, so much so that they had way over-numbered the crowd of disciples.

"Some of them look like monkeys!" an Inborn expert commented. While he squinted at the creatures for a closer look, he gripped his weapon more tightly.

"Fear not. They're just creatures similar to the Water Monkeys!" an Inborn expert from the Lei Family signaled to the disciples behind.

As the two sides were closing in at about two hundred meters, Wang Xian could see Mo Qinglong and gang lying by the side.

"Who is it? Who gave you the audacity to attack my men?" Wang Xian asked the group of three forces as he eyed them indifferently.

Surprised by the noise, the crowd immediately threw their gaze over in Wang Xian's direction.

"Huh? There's someone in there?" a voice questioned.

"To think there's someone across, who's controlling the group of creatures?" another asked.

Only the unknown would be feared. They were actually more relieved than not, when they realized that the group of creatures was under the control of a human.

An Inborn expert from the Lei Family swept his gaze past the group of Devil Monkeys. With eyes narrowed, he tightened his fists.

"Brother, this is Elder Lei here. I think there must be some misunderstanding between us. I seek your understanding, should we have offended you in any way!" the elder said to Wang Xian.

"I'm asking you. Who gave you guys the courage to attack my men?" Wang Xian questioned again, ignoring Elder Lei, this time in an eerily low pitch.

With a change of stance, three Devil Monkeys scrambled over to Mo Qinglong and gang, and lifted them off the ground.

"Young Master, the three forces here have made an alliance. They challenged us to take the things here away, based on merits!" Mo Qinglong reported to Wang Xian with a pale face.

"Hmph!" Wang Xian nodded in acknowledgment. This was followed by a powerful bout of the Azure Dragon's Energy which was channeled into the trio's bodies, healing them as it went.

"By merits, huh? If that's the case, we'll go by merits then!" Wang Xian concluded. He looked casually at the three forces as he nodded, and continued, "If that's the case, we'll play by your rules!"

"Huh?" the crowd from the three forces frowned.

An elder from Water Separation Island contemplated, while his facial expression changed in tandem with his thoughts. He trailed off, "Brother, you possess strong powers, so you're qualified to a share of the Spiritual Treasures on this island..."

"That's right, we're willing to share the Spiritual Treasures here with you!" another added.

"We acknowledge your powers, so that makes you qualified..." a few elders patronized.

"But you guys are not!" Wang Xian cut them off even before they could end their sentences. With that, he ordered swiftly, "Kill them!"

Ack, ack, ack!

Just as Wang Xian concluded his sentence, Roving Heavens lifted his head and roared towards the sky. The long rod which rested on his shoulders crashed onto the ground.

Boom!

With a low rumble, Roving Heavens stared ahead with its eyes bloodshot. Slowly but steadily, it uttered in human language, "Kill! Kill!"

All around, the Devil Monkeys complemented loud growls, followed by a gust of demonic aura purging out of their bodies.

Boom!

As they transformed into numerous black shadows, they swooped straight at the hundreds from the three forces.

Chapter 318: Zhan Lu And Hao Zhong

"What horrifying vibes!"

"This... They are so powerful!"

When Roving Heavens led his Devil Division in the charge, the eight Inborn experts and the injured old Inborn expert were shocked.

The violent aura sent chills down their spines.

Behind them, the disciples of the three forces trembled. Looking at the devil monkeys that were charging towards them, they felt as though they were facing a ten thousand strong army.

"Shit! They have multiple Inborn Realm existences among them!"

The Inborn experts were shocked and felt fear grip them.

"Kill!"

An Inborn expert gritted his teeth and swung the longsword he was holding upward. The glow of the sword spanned several meters and clashed towards Roving Heavens who was at the front of the pack.

Bam!

Roving Heavens smashed his long metal rod towards that Inborn expert domineeringly.

The rod and longsword clashed. However, it was an exercise in futility as the horrifying strength of Roving Heavens instantly broke the longsword in the hand of the Inborn expert.

Rumble!

That Inborn expert also exploded into pieces without putting up much resistance.

"What? How can this be possible?"

Seeing their companions being crushed into pieces, the group of Inborn experts were petrified.

"How horrifying!"

Behind them, the crowd of disciples had witnessed what had just happened. None of them could help but shiver and take steps back.

Roar!

However, the group of devil monkeys charged into the crowd of the three forces.

Argh!

Soon, incessant cries sounded. Without putting up much resistance, they were completely crushed.

Some of these Inborn experts retreated in fear. Seeing how Roving Heavens killed several Inborn experts with a single strike each, they were desolated.

"No... Don't kill me! Please! Don't kill me!" shouted a desperate Inborn expert.

"Just like what you have done, this is the consequences of being weak!" Wang Xian glanced coldly across them and remarked emotionlessly.

Since they had established these rules, they should follow them even if the rules led to their death.

Roar!

Roving Heavens jumped and charged ahead of the group of Inborn experts in a horrifying manner.

Crushing!

Soon, cries started going quiet. Wang Xian looked around him.

"Young master!"

At this moment, Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and Mo Shiwu, who were recuperating, had recovered. They walked deferentially to Wang Xian and explained, "This is the spiritual medicine garden on the Spiritual Island. There are two Level 6 spiritual medicines in it. One of them is White Valley Lotus and the other is Green Fruit Tree.

Mo Qinglong pointed at the two spiritual medicines while looking towards the buildings behind.

"We have not searched the buildings. However, I believe there will definitely be lots of spiritual treasure in them."

"Let's go take a look!"

Wang Xian looked gleefully at the garden of spiritual medicine and grass.

Two Level 6 spiritual medicines were more than what the Sui Family had. As for the remaining Level 4 and 5 spiritual grass and medicine, Wang Xian was just a little worse off than the Sui Family.

I'll be able to refine lots of elixir pills from these spiritual medicine and grass. At that time, I'll sell them in exchange for resources for the Dragon Palace. I should be able to gather most of the required resources.

Wang Xian thought to himself. After a quick walk around the spiritual medicine garden, he headed towards the row of buildings behind it.

Ka Ka Ka!

When they entered the first room, the decayed wooden door fell to the ground instantly. Wang Xian looked around the room before pulling out different drawers enthusiastically as though he was on a treasure hunt.

"Huh? This is a bottle for elixir pills?"

Wang Xian picked up a porcelain bottle. After opening it, he found that the elixir pills in it had already become scraps. He shook his head slightly and continued his search.

Within the rooms, there were all kinds of weapons and jewelry made of jade. Wang Xian even found two hairpins made from top tier jade.

As they combed through the different rooms, Wang Xian and the group found a substantial amount of precious treasures.

"Young master, there's an entrance leading underground here!" At this moment, Mo Qinglong spoke to Wang Xian.

"Huh? Leading underground?"

Wang Xian's eyes lit up. He looked over and saw stairs leading underground, which he walked down immediately.

"This is...? This is the treasure room of the Sect!"

When Wang Xian entered, he immediately saw various exquisite weapons and precious antiques. His eyes lit up instantly.

There were paintings and calligraphy pieces hung on the walls. However, they had decayed and were thus valueless.

"This is...?"

Looking ahead, Wang Xian saw a sword hung on the wall. Below it, there was a zither on the table and a box made of jade.

The three items were in a prominent position in the treasure room. Clearly, they were also the three most precious objects in this treasure room.

Wang Xian's attention fell on the treasured sword hung on the wall.

Weng!

Just as Wang Xian contacted it, the treasured sword seemed to tremble. This gave Wang Xian a shock.

He held the sword scabbard tightly. The entire sword was over a hundred kilograms. For a long sword, this was really heavy.

Wang Xian's eyes burned fervently. Holding the hilt of the sword lightly, he drew it out slowly.

Ka!

A crisp voice sounded. A dazzling gold light shimmered and the sharpness of the sword made Wang Xian's arm tremble a little.

"Great sword! What a sharp sword!"

Wang Xian stared at the long sword. Suddenly, a message appeared in his mind.

Zhan Lu: Level 10

"Spiritual sword! This is a spiritual sword!"

"Zhan Lu! Oh gosh! This is Zhan Lu!"

Wang Xian was shocked and thrilled. Zhan Lu was one of the ten famed swords and regarded as the best among the five unparalleled famed swords.

It was said that it was forged over three years using the best metal and within a cold spring.

"I had not expected this to be Zhan Lu, one of the ten famed swords in history. This historic sword was forged by Ou Yezi. In that case, Ou Yezi must be a grandmaster blacksmith. Otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to forge a famed sword classified as one of the ten famed swords." [\[1\]](#)

Wang drew the famed sword out of its scabbard completely. The bronze shade and the sharp aura around it were dazzling.

Wang Xian moved his arm and injected Metal attribute energy into it. Instantly, a sharp glow covered the sword.

From a far place, one could already sense the sharpness of the sword.

"Great, great. Zhan Lu is known to be the Sword of Benevolence or the Sword of the King. I can use this!"

Wang Xian laughed and put the sword aside. After which, he looked to the zither below it.

A zither that could be placed with Zhan Lu would definitely not be ordinary.

"Hao Zhong?"

The zither was made of wood. However, Wang Xian noticed that the wood showed no signs of decay despite the passing of a few hundreds of years. Moreover, it looked just like a new zither.

Wang Xian moved slightly and the information on the zither appeared in his mind too.

[Hao Zhong: Level 10]

It's another Level 10 spiritual object! This zither wasn't simple but Wang Xian had no use for it and didn't know how to use it.

Looking at this extremely stunning zither, Wang Xian picked it up to take a closer look.

"Eh? There's another long sword below the zither! Enchantment Sword? It seems like the sword and the zither come in a set. This sword is Level 9? What a great treasure!"

Endnote:

[1] This is a real character that forged Zhan Lu in Chinese history Back

Chapter 319: The Wood Dragon Ball

Wang Xian was pleasantly surprised by the two Spiritual Treasures, namely the Ancient Sword of Zhan Lu, and the Zither of Hao Zhong.

Wang Xian had no use for the zither. On the other hand, he was very fond of the sword.

He was not versed in swordplay. Nonetheless, the childhood dream of venturing the world and helping the underprivileged as a chivalrous swordsmen remained rooted at the back of his mind.

Knights looked suave as they wielded their long swords, their main choice of weapon.

Swish, attack at lightning speed!

Swosh, take the counter-strike!

Wang Xian grinned as he roleplayed with the sword, before his sight landed on the remaining Jade box.

"A container carved out of Emerald. Just the container alone is worth hundreds of millions!" Wang Xian exclaimed as he picked it up for assessment. It was not particularly heavy, glowing in emerald-green translucence. It looked incredibly invaluable.

"What's this?" Wang Xian quizzed. As he opened the container, he was stunned at the sight of a jade-green orb. A message flashed across his mind.

[Golden-rain Tree Wood Spiritual Bead: Level 10]

"Spiritual Bead of the Golden-rain Wood. A Level 10 Wood Spiritual Bead!" Wang Xian exclaimed with an astounded look.

Wang Xian had come across many Spiritual Beads. For instance, the two Spiritual Flame Balls of the Sui Family, the two Spiritual Beads which he received from Flame Palace and Fire God Denomination, as well as the ones which he had obtained right from the beginning.

But this was the first time in which he came across a Spiritual Bead of another element.

"I can totally refine this Level 10 Spiritual Bead and transform it into a Dragon Ball. A Wood-element Dragon Ball!" Wang Xian uttered to himself. Picking it up gently, Wang made a light swirl of the Spiritual Bead on his palm. Drops of his essence blood seeped into the bead as it brimmed with life.

Soon after, he opened his mouth and absorbed the Spiritual Bead into his body.

Given the nourishment from his Dragon Energy, the Wood-element Spiritual Bead would transform into a Wood Dragon Ball. Which would also possess incredible powers.

Furthermore, a Wood Dragon Ball is able to improve land arability. By placing it on a Spiritual Medicine Garden, it would greatly boost the growth of Spiritual Medicine within the area.

"A huge profit we've made this time!" Wang Xian cheered as he admired the Ancient sword of Zhan Lu, Wood-element Spiritual Beads, along with other Spiritual Medicine and treasures of the like.

This included the invaluable floating island. To him, these were priceless treasures.

Thereafter, he flipped through the treasure trove once more, but could no longer find anything more valuable than the things which he had on hand.

Wang Xian exited the treasure trove, and continued searching in the neighboring rooms.

As they came to a room within one of the Central Grand Halls, Wang Xian and gang discovered the name of the Sect which had settled on this Spiritual Island.

The island was named Wood Mirage, eponymous to the Sect which had settled on it.

Stone tablets lined the rooms of the Grand Halls. Based on records carved on one of them, it stated that there were more than two thousand disciples on this Wood Mirage Island.

Amongst them was a Laozu, who had attained abilities of the Dan Realm.

"An ancient First-class Sect would be on par with a current Sacred Sect," Wang Xian said, trailing off. He sighed as he looked at information on the stone tablet. While making his way out, he was surprised by the giant footprint ahead which measured close to four meters.

A footprint up to four meters in length. The monster with this footprint must tower over twenty meters in height. It's enough to topple houses hovering at sixteen meters, Wang Xian thought to himself as he assessed the extent of the damage around him.

It was no surprise for a monster of over twenty meters in length to exist within the oceans.

After all, the blue whale measured more than thirty meters, while a sperm whale could reach over twenty meters.

And these were known mammoths on Earth, so it only meant that there were still many out there which were yet to be discovered.

While a blue whale may be gigantic, its combat abilities were much weaker, which made it an ordinary species.

Dawn had arrived by the time Wang Xian completed his tour around the island. As he arrived at the sea, deep in thought, he was immediately received by Roving Yaksha.

"Dragon King!" Roving Yaksha greeted.

"How do we go about moving this island? What's the fastest speed at which it could move?" Wang Xian asked Roving Yaksha in response.

Now that he owned the island, Wang Xian was preparing to put the island through a series of refurbishments.

Turning the entire island into his ideal wonderland, for some future fun, seemed like a good choice.

In this way, there was no future need for cruise ships, for he could simply ride on the island.

That sounded really cool just by the mere thought of it.

"Dragon King, moving the island requires aid from an external force. This can either be a powerful source of wind or tidal energy, or physical strength," Roving Yaksha explained.

He continued, "The island isn't too heavy, given that it's currently floating on the sea. Even we Yakshas are able to move it."

"That said, our moving speed will be very slow, as we can only shift it between the time of sunrise to sunset. Hence the distance moved will not be significant!" he ended.

Nodding in acknowledgment, Wang Xian gave a faint smile. So long as the island can be shifted quickly, he thought.

There were only a hundred Yakshas. But, with the addition of the Devil Monkeys, Prime Minister Turtle and gang, it would definitely speed up the rate at which the island was shifted.

"Prime Minister Turtle!" Wang Xian called out, to which the former immediately moved over.

Bowing his head, Prime Minister Turtle swam over to meet Wang Xian. "Subject here, at your command!" Prime Minister Turtle greeted.

"Bring Roving Heavens and the rest along. We'll shift this island over to the one where the past Dragon Sect base stood!" Wang Xian ordered Prime Minister Turtle.

It would be good camouflage to have the island shifted over, which would make it easier for Wang Xian to order its refurbishment thereafter.

"Yes, Dragon King!" Prime Minister Turtle nodded. Following which, he gathered all the Dragon Palace members to set off immediately, as they prepared to shift the floating island over to the Bohai Sea.

Wang Xian assessed the speed at which the island was shifting. He was very pleased even though it was moving at less than half the speed of a speedboat.

As the Dragon Palace welcomed more members, or with rising abilities of their manpower, moving the floating island would also become much faster.

To the extent where one day, perhaps Prime Minister and Roving Girl alone would possess enough strength or prowess to move the island at hasty speed.

With that, Wang Xian returned onto the island and headed for the Spiritual Medicine Garden. He wanted to test his abilities in the art of refining elixir pills.

He had just arrived in the garden when he bumped into Mo Yuan and Mo Qinglong.

"Young Master!" the duo called out.

"What is it?" Wang Xian asked.

"Young Master, the Dragonians have come with an urgent report. It's regarding the murderers of Mo Ersan and Mo Sanyi. We've got information," Mo Yuan updated.

"Have they been found?" Wang Xian questioned as he lifted an eyebrow.

"We've been informed that the selection day for the new Saint and Saintess of the Heavenly Sound Sect has been brought forward. The ceremony will be held tomorrow and the day after, outside their sect ground entrance in the mountains. During which, the murderers will appear!" Mo Yuan answered.

"But many of their sect experts will be present then. The possibility of the Abyss to carry out a successful assassination is nil," Wang Xian said doubtfully.

"According to the rules of the Sect, once the candidates for the Saint and Saintess have been confirmed, they'll be protected by Inborn experts. It's only when the Abyss has surpassed the Inborn status that they will be able to succeed," Mo Qinglong elaborated.

"Dragon King, should Master and I strike together right away, or should we continue waiting?" Mo Yuan asked.

"Since they've been found, we'll make our move!" Wang Xian replied as his eyes narrowed. "The venue for the selection of the Saint and Saintess by the Heavenly Sound Sect, you say? The one who's able to order the mission is presumably a strong competitor for the Saintess," he continued.

"Let's exact our revenge today!" Mo Yuan and Mo Qinglong chimed in together.

Chapter 320: A Zither As A Gift (1)

Wang Xian didn't like things to drag on in whatever he did. Since he had verified where the culprit had appeared, he would want to resolve this matter quickly.

"Heavenly Sound Sect?"

Wang Xian pondered for a while before asking, "Among the Sacred Sects, what's the strength level of the Heavenly Sound Sect?"

"Among the eight Sacred Sects, the strength of the Heavenly Sound Sect is ranked fifth in the Underworld. It isn't particularly strong but definitely not weak," replied Mo Qinglong.

The eight Sacred Sects and five Sacred Clans were the thirteen strongest forces in China. Every force had a peerless expert that could send tremors to the entire underworld with a stomp of their foot.

Heavenly Sound Sect was located in Ning City. Wang Xian and the group had been there once.

There wasn't any direct flight from Rivertown to Ning City. If they were to travel by car, it would take at least eight to nine hours.

"It's already past 2 in the morning. When we get to Ning City, it will be close to noon!"

Wang Xian looked at the time on his watch and had no intention of wasting any time. "We will head there right away. Both of you, come with me. Let Mo Shiwu attend to the matters of the Spiritual Island. Besides that, get the Abyss along!"

This time, he was prepared to do this under the identity of the Abyss.

Wang Xian still did not wish to enter into direct confrontation with a Sacred Sect. Moreover, with his current strength, he wouldn't be a match for a Sacred Clan unless they were in the seas.

On land, his battle prowess was similar to a Dan Realm expert.

After witnessing the strength of Sui Huang from the Sui Family, Wang Xian conjectured that there would also be Dan Realm experts within these Sacred Sects and clans.

Moreover, a Sacred Sect had a lot more Inborn Realm experts than Wang Xian.

Since the Abyss was already known throughout the Underworld, it didn't matter if their name got a little more publicity.

Wang Xian revealed a faint smile.

Since eliminating the Dark Conjurers, the Abyss was widely recognized as the strongest assassin group in the Underworld.

There were even some members of the Underworld who believed that they possessed the strength of a Sacred Sect and was the most horrifying uprising force at this moment.

"Let's return immediately!" Wang Xian said to Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan.

"Yes, young master!" The two of them nodded their heads.

Wang Xian hesitated for a while, returned to the treasure room and took Zhan Lu and Hao Zhong with him.

"Her zither was destroyed because of me previously. I shall compensate her with this!"

At the thought of the cold expression of Tang Yinxuan with her broken zither, he shook his head slightly.

Holding Zhan Lu and Hao Zhong, Wang Xian headed towards the shore.

A short distance away, a yacht awaited him in the middle of the sea. Other than his yacht, there were over twenty ships in the surroundings.

Wang Xian jumped into the air and landed on one of the ships. He collected it as resources for his Dragon Palace before doing the same for the rest of the ships.

Wang Xian felt it was a little wasteful to convert these ships directly into resources.

When he returned to his yacht, Wang Xian placed the zither in his room. Lying on the bed, he soon fell asleep.

The yacht moved rapidly. When he arrived at Rivertown, dawn had broken.

Wang Xian hesitated for a moment. In the end, he did not make a trip back home first. Instead, he got Mo Qinglong to drive the caravan towards Ning City directly.

When they arrived at Ning City, it was already noon. The seven dragonians from the Abyss had arrived before them.

Wang Xian took out his phone, hesitating for a moment before dialling a number.

"Hello! You..."

From the other end of the phone call, a pleasing voice sounded. It was clear that she was shocked too.

At this moment, Tang Yinxuan was in a five-star hotel in Ning City.

Around the hotel, the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect were hosting a banquet. A 1.8-meter tall young man stood in the middle of the field. He was wearing a set of exquisite and traditional clothing, just like a prince in ancient times.

He stood proudly with his chest up and a cup of red wine in his hand.

A group of good-looking men and ladies surrounded him and were constantly showering him with compliments and pleasantries.

The young man was the Saint of the Heavenly Sound Sect. He had just emerged victorious from the selection today and would likely become the future Elder or even Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect.

Tang Yinxuan took a glance at the Saint in the banquet before walking to a corner of the banquet.

That young man had actually called her! She could still feel the palpitations and shock at the thought of the news she came across two days after she returned to the sect.

At that time, the strength that the young man had demonstrated greatly shocked her. However, all her attention was on her broken zither.

When she heard that the Abyss had annihilated the Dark Conjurers, she stared blankly into space for over ten minutes.

She knew that the young man was taking revenge for his subordinates. After luring out the assassins of the Dark Conjurers and getting some clues, he went to annihilate the entire Dark Conjurer organization.

In that case, the assassin group, the Abyss, was most likely his.

Even a Sacred Sect had to be careful when dealing with the Dark Conjurers. However, the Dark Conjurers were easily annihilated by the Abyss.

And now, the Abyss was classified as one of the existences that one shouldn't mess with.

Recalling that young man and the Abyss, which was in the limelight recently, she felt conflicted.

"Erm... Tang Yinxuan, I'm in Ning City. Are you free now? I'm sorry about your zither previously. Therefore, I brought you something this time!"

The voice of that young man sounded from the other end of the phone. This shocked Tang Yinxuan.

She frowned, hesitated for a while and nodded her head before answering, "Yeah, where are you now?"

"LZZ International Hotel!"

"LZZ?"

Tang Yinxuan was taken aback. That's the hotel she was in currently! "Tell me about your exact location. I'll look for you immediately."

"I'm in a corner of the restaurant lobby!"

"Alright, wait there for me. I'll be right there!"

Tang Yinxuan didn't reject Wang Xian. She was still curious about that mysterious and insanely powerful young man.

Now that he said he had something for her, she would like to take a look.

Tang Yinxuan hung up the phone. She hesitated for a moment before heading for the exit.

"Junior Sister Yinxuan, where are you going?"

At this moment, a voice sounded behind her. Tang Yinxuan frowned slightly but forced a faint smile out.

"Saint!"

She bowed respectfully and continued, "I have some urgent matters and have to go out for a while!"

"Oh? What urgent matters does Junior Sister have to leave in such a hurry? Are you worried about the selection tomorrow?"

The young man had a cup of wine in his hand and exhibited strong confidence. The vibes around him were something that even famous male stars couldn't match.

"Yeah!" Tang Yinxuan nodded her head customarily. "There are some things I have to get prepared."

"Junior Sister, if you agree to what I've suggested, I'll lend you the Sky Devil Zither!" The young man stared at Tang Yinxuan intensely.

"Thank you, Saint, for your kind intentions. I have some urgent matters to attend to and shall leave now. Once again, let me congratulate you on becoming the Saint!"

Tang Yinxuan frowned slightly, gestured and left.

"Saint, hasn't Tang Yinxuan agreed to be your girl? What an arrogant girl! With her current standing, she's not qualified to be with you!"

"That's right. Our Saint is exceptional and will definitely become the management of the Heavenly Sound Sect in the future. For that Tang Yinxuan, her chances of becoming the Saintess tomorrow couldn't exceed ten percent."

"Senior Sister Hu has over an eighty percent chance of becoming the Saintess. Moreover, Senior Sister Hu is the daughter of our Vice Sect Leader and is interested only in you. I feel that Senior Sister Hu is a better match for our Saint!"

Behind them, a group walked forward and spoke to the Saint after hearing his conversation with Tang Yinxuan.

"Enough!"

The Saint's eyebrows knitted together and he was clearly displeased.

Senior Sister Hu? That woman comes from a great background. Her looks and talents are also exceptional. However, she has already lost her chastity and couldn't be compared with the demure and pure Tang Yinxuan.

Chapter 321: A Zither as a Gift (2)

Seeing that the Saint had turned restless, the crowd went silent in an instant. Some of the female disciples looked at Tang Yinxuan from the back with faces of envy.

How does a lass like you with no prominent background deserve favor from the Saint?

With curiosity in mind, Tang Yinxuan walked towards the reception of the hotel restaurant. In favor of the Saint's kindness, she paid no attention to the commotion behind. She had not been supported by such strong backing at Heavenly Sound Sect. She had been discovered by a Half-step Inborn from the Sect by chance, and taken in as a disciple from there.

Through her own efforts, she had ascended to become one of the top disciples in a short span of just over a decade.

Yet, despite having achieved her current status as a Half-step Inborn, she was not very confident in the face of the assessment today.

Given that even the granddaughter of the Vice Sect leader also had to vie for the position of Saintess these days, her Master too had little confidence in her becoming one.

She was bound to lose, should there be a competitor whose natural abilities were paralleled with hers, but came supported by rich resources and strong backing. This was something Tang Yinxuan had found hard to concede.

"Where are they?" Tang Yinxuan asked as she came to the restaurant entrance. She swept a glance inside and saw a familiar figure at the far end.

Walking over, Tang Yinxuan looked at the party's surroundings. He was seated alone.

Whereas another two familiar figures sat at a table nearby.

"Our lovely Tang Yinxuan, to think you made it here so quickly!" Wang Xian greeted with a smile, waving as he saw Tang Yinxuan approaching.

The delicacies on the table had remained untouched. Alongside lay a precious sword and a box, where the latter resembled a zither casing! Somewhat doubtful, Tang Yinxuan looked at Wang Xian and asked, "Young Master Wang, may I know the purpose of you asking me over?"

With a warm smile, the current Wang Xian appeared gentlemanly and dashing. In fact, he looked much more elegant than the current Saint.

But Tang Yinxuan knew better. This young man standing before her was highly likely to be the leader of the Abyss, the organization feared by many.

"Mainly to apologize over the issue of the zither from before!" Wang Xian explained. He noticed that Tang Yinxuan was not carrying any zither on her back. Likely to say, she had not found another one worth bringing around, after the one gifted by her late mother was ruined.

"You don't have to," Tang Yinxuan declined upon the mention of zither. With a cold expression, she remained standing instead of sitting down.

Seeing her slightly glum face, Wang Xian shook his head. "I went to Ning City to settle some matters. It so happened that I obtained a zither yesterday, but I've got no use for it. So I'm giving it to you!" he chirped.

As he explained, he retrieved the Zither of Hao Zhong and placed it in front of Tang Yinxuan.

"I don't suppose you'll want to chat with me while standing. I was the reason why your zither was ruined. So here's one to make it up to you!" he added.

Tang Yinxuan hesitated for a moment, before she seated herself across from Wang Xian and nodded. "I'll decline the zither. Since you've helped to elevate my cultivation, we're even!" she said in return.

"Erm ..." Wang Xian muttered as he rested his back on the chair. "Take it. Having accepted two billion dollars from you and being your bodyguard for several days. We're actually more indebted to you, to be exact!" Wang Xian persuaded.

Tang Yinxuan procrastinated briefly, and looked at the zither on the table before shaking her head. "I've already got one," she rejected again.

"Just take it as you're told. Accept it so we can call it even!" Wang Xian persisted.

With a tinge of dominance, Wang Xian placed the zither at a spot nearer Tang Yinxuan. "We may not be close. But even so, I don't wish to owe anyone anything," he continued.

After which, he gestured towards the food on the table. "Have you eaten? If you haven't, let me give you a treat!" he invited.

Lifting an eyebrow, Tang Yinxuan nodded in reply, "Sure!"

She picked the zither up and placed it on her side, before picking up the cutlery and starting to eat.

Wang Xian took a look at her before starting on his meal.

Neither Tang Yinxuan nor Wang Xian had uttered a word then.

It was an admiration of aesthetics which Wang Xian had towards Tang Yinxuan and her melodic voice. Other than that, he had no ulterior motives.

As Tang Yinxuan was a very slow eater, she had yet to be done even long after Wang Xian had finished eating.

He played on his mobile phone, and had no interaction with her.

It was a rather rare sight. A handsome man and beautiful lady seated together in a corner, having a meal, but with no interaction throughout otherwise.

"I'm going off," Tang Yinxuan said to Wang Xian upon finishing her meal.

"Sure. It's already after ten. Time for me to head back and turn in as well!" Wang Xian replied, smiling.

Tang Yinxuan looked at him with doubt before picking up the zither on her side. Carrying the zither on her back, she headed for the exit.

Wang Xian walked alongside Tang Yinxuan while holding his long sword. Once again, there was no interaction between them whatsoever.

Both of them had just stepped out of the restaurant, when they heard a few shocked voices coming at them.

"Oh? It's Junior Sister Tang!" a voice called.

"It's Junior Tang indeed. Junior, didn't you say you were leaving early for an urgent matter?" another asked.

Tang Yinxuan stood dazed for a moment as Wang Xian remained by her side. Slightly taken aback, he too looked over at the crowd with gleaming eyes.

A figure emerged in his mind, which stood in contrast to the group ahead.

"There's a guy with her. Hey, look everyone. Junior Tang's carrying a new zither on her back!" someone in the crowd exclaimed.

"Who's that young man?" another asked.

The group of disciples from the Heavenly Sound Sect stared at Tang Yinxuan in utter confusion.

Tang Yinxuan had left the Saints' Feast earlier in a hurry. Little would anyone expect to see her meeting a young man here.

There seemed to be more than meets the eye with what was going on.

Upon seeing Tang Yinxuan's look of shock which was soon followed by a frown, the Saint, who was walking in the middle, withdrew his smile.

He scanned Wang Xian over before turning to Tang Yinxuan, and asking coolly, "Junior Yinxuan, didn't you say you had something urgent going on?"

"I did, my friend wanted to give me this zither as a present. So I'm here to collect it!" Tang Yinxuan explained and met them with a calm look.

"Oh? What zither is that? Senior's curious now, junior. You've even rejected my Sky Devil Zither. I'm curious to find out which zither your friend has gifted you with!" the Saint refuted.

As he smiled coldly, the Saint turned to look at Wang Xian. He raised his head slightly and stared down at Wang Xian snobbishly. "Who's this friend of yours here? I'm the Saint of the Heavenly Sound Sect!" he announced.

"Just a nobody, here to present a zither as a gift!" Wang Xian replied plainly as he looked at the Saint.

"Haha! No names mentioned, huh. By all means. I won't remember it anyway!" the Saint smirked.

"Junior Sister, what good zither can a nobody gift you with? Consider my offer. After all, it's your most crucial selection test tomorrow!" he advised Tang Yinxuan.

Dismissing the Saint's words, Tang Yinxuan looked on with a face of dismay and annoyance. She turned to check on Wang Xian, to see if he had been offended.

A nobody? This gentleman here is most likely the leader of the Abyss. How does that make him a nobody?

Right now, she was more afraid of Wang Xian, for fear that he may strike at this Saint any moment and finish him off. After all, she was not sure if Wang Xian would be mindful towards a Saint from the Heavenly Sound Sect.

"There's no need for that. But I'm thankful for your kind intentions, Senior. As for tomorrow, I'll leave it to my own fortunes to see if I can make it as the Saintess!" Tang Yinxuan excused herself graciously.

"Junior Tang, you accepted a gift zither from a nobody right away, but kept turning down the help offered to you by a Saint. Isn't this too much?" a female disciple snapped. She resented Tang Yinxuan with a face green with jealousy.

"That's right. How can a lousy zither from a nobody compare to the Saint's Sky Devil Zither? Junior, is there something going on between you and this lad?" another questioned.

Chapter 322: Saint? One Strike

Several female disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect mocked Tang Yinxuan. They looked at her before turning to Wang Xian.

When the Saint heard what the other disciples had said, he was clearly displeased.

He was the Saint of the Heavenly Sound Sect and had been wooing Tang Yinxuan for some time. All the gifts he wished to give to her were rejected. For the Saintess selection the next day, he disregarded the possibility of incurring the displeasure of the Vice Sect Leader by wanting to lend his Sky Devil Zither to her.

In the end, Tang Yinxuan rejected all his kindness and accepted a zither from an unknown person. Even he would not believe if one said there was nothing between them.

Tang Yinxuan heard the ridicule of her peers and was a little embarrassed.

Cough cough!

At this moment, Wang Xian coughed twice. He looked to the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect and said, "I'm sorry. If you guys don't know anything, please choose your words wisely. I'm a married man!"

Wang Xian continued, "A gift from an unknown person might not always be a shitty item. Besides, I have not heard of all your names either."

Huh?

Wang Xian's response made the crowd of Heavenly Sound Sect's disciples raise their eyebrows. They looked at him and started scrutinizing him from top to bottom.

"You have not heard of our Saint's name? You must be cut off from the world. You can go look him up, the ninth-ranked youth on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart. Hehe! You must not have seen the world!" a young man said with contempt.

"He's just another frog in a well. The only question is which sect he's from. Tell us about it or let us see what you're capable of!" The other young men lifted his head slightly and looked mockingly at Wang Xian.

"Haha, if there's time, you will naturally be able to see it!" Wang Xian smiled and replied with hidden meaning.

"It seems like we have someone who is really confident about his strength. Instead of waiting for another day, why don't we do it today? Show us a little!"

Seeing how casual and relaxed Wang Xian was, the Saint revealed a smirk. Moving his arm slightly, a long flute appeared in his hand.

The metal flute spun in his hand and pointed at Wang Xian. Metal attribute aura circled the flute, giving off a sharp glow in the process.

"This is my secondary weapon, Golden Imperial Flute."

"Saint, this rascal is clearly acting tough in front of us. How could he possibly compare with you? He's just a nobody who talks louder than what he's capable of. I, your Junior brother, can easily defeat him!"

A young man smiled and looked at Wang Xian when he saw the Saint take out his weapon. At this moment, he smiled mockingly and gradually placed both of his hands before his chest.

"

Suddenly, he chanted some music notes. The devilish music headed towards Wang Xian's ears.

Suddenly, strong winds started blowing around them. The chilling cold wind turned into musical notes and struck towards Wang Xian.

The young man stared at Wang Xian with a mocking smile. Clearly, he wanted Wang Xian to make a fool out of himself.

The surrounding disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect also looked on with ridicule.

As disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect, their methods of attacking were creepier than other sects.

They could integrate their attribute energies into sounds. A strong Inborn expert with high music attainments could even make one lose his sense of direction and self.

In their view, an unknown rascal tried to act tough in front of them. That would be equivalent to asking them to humiliate him.

Crack!

At this moment, a crisp sound of a sharp weapon propagated.

A stream of metallic energy disintegrated all the wind attribute musical notes and headed for the young man's palm.

Argh!

The young man cried out pitifully and immediately moved his hands aside. Looking at his own palm, he was horrified.

Long and deep wounds had appeared on his palms. They were so deep that one could see the bones. Fresh blood was oozing out from the wound.

"You dare to attack me!"

The young man revealed a pained expression. He held onto his arm and stared solemnly at Wang Xian.

Sss!

When the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect saw the injuries on the young man's hands, they gasped. Their pupils constricted as they stared at Wang Xian.

Huh?

The Saint frowned and murderous intent gleamed in his eyes. He looked at the treasured sword in Wang Xian's hand and commented, "You are pretty strong but you must be courting death to injure the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect!"

As he spoke, he moved the Golden Imperial Flute in his hand and pointed directly at Wang Xian. The next moment, the metal attribute energy shot out.

It was the disciple of the Heavenly Sound Sect that had started this. However, they ended up chiding Wang Xian. How domineering and unreasonable!

"Saint, this is a friend of mine!"

Tang Yinxuan was shocked. She quickly moved to stop the Saint from attacking.

She was really afraid that the Saint would offend Wang Xian and Wang Xian would kill the Saint on the spot.

Besides that, she was a little surprised by Wang Xian's attribute.

If she had remembered things correctly, he was using water attribute attacks while fighting with the assassins from the Dark Conjurer. However, he was using metal attribute attacks currently.

"Your friend?"

Seeing Tang Yinxuan blocking his attack, the Saint's expression turned gloomy.

"He dares to attack the disciple of the Heavenly Sound Sect. As the Saint, I have to stand up for them. I'll cripple anyone who dares to injure us. Could it be that you, Tang Yinxuan, wish to stop me?"

As he spoke, he stared harshly at Tang Yinxuan. The anger in his heart raged even fiercer.

"Hehe! You started the fight and yet tried to stop me from retaliating. Saint? I've really not heard of the Saint of the Heavenly Sound Sect or the ninth-rank existence of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!"

"In my eyes, Saint? Hehe! One strike is enough!"

Seeing the young man before him trying to attack him, Wang Xian's expression turned chilly. He lifted Zhan Lu in his right hand.

Dang!

"Tsk. I'll let you know the consequences of being arrogant and talking big in front of me!"

Seeing that Wang Xian wanted to retaliate, murderous intent gleamed in the Saint's eyes. He waved the Golden Imperial Flute in his hand.

Wu wu!

As the air entered the long flute, rapid notes were made. A sharp metallic edge shot towards Wang Xian.

Dang!

However, Wang Xian drew Zhan Lu partially out at this moment. The intense metallic edge on it formed a razor-sharp golden sword.

Before the sword left the scabbard, the glow of the sword had already been shot forward as an attack.

The metallic edge from the Golden Imperial Flute vibrated a little in the air before disintegrating rapidly.

As for the sword glow of Zhan Lu, it slashed towards the Golden Imperial Flute in the Saint's hand.

Pa Pa!

Before the Saint could react to it, the sword glow had split the Golden Imperial Flute and was striking towards his shoulders.

"What?"

The Saint was horrified. He immediately dodged to the side.

However, the razor-sharp sword glow still landed on his shoulders. Instantly, his clothes were dyed red from blood.

Pa!

The Golden Imperial Flute split in the middle and fell to the ground, giving off a crisp voice.

One strike was enough to split the weapon of the Saint of the Heavenly Sound Sect and injured the Saint.

"Trash!"

Wang Xian kept Zhan Lu away and looked nonchalantly at the crowd. Without having to pull Zhan Lu completely out of the scabbard, their Saint was already injured by it.

"We will meet again if fate dictates!" Wang Xian looked at Tang Yinxuan and spoke with a smile. After which, he turned around and left, as he felt disinterested.

Tang Yinxuan stood rooted to the ground. After which, she turned to look at the figure behind her.

Chapter 323: Appearance of Hao Zhong and The Soundless Instrument (1)

Insolence, blatant insolence!

"How dare you injure me! How dare you do this to a Saint of the Sacred Sect!" the Saint growled. With a deathly stare, he glared ahead at Wang Xian, who was leaving.

The contempt, and the look of disregard, made Wang Xian appear all the more indifferent.

"Leave your name. In no time, I'll slaughter you, with my own bare hands!" the Saint called out harshly as he watched Wang Xian from behind.

Upon hearing the Saint, Wang Xian stopped short and turned around to look at the young man. "You've lost your chance!" he mocked.

In a fit of anger, the Saint snapped in a grimace as his eyes filled with bloodthirst. He took a quick look at his arm and called out, "I'll kill you soon enough!"

Wang Xian looked back at the Saint. Smiling, he beamed with a glimmer in his eyes before turning to leave.

"Saint, are you alright!?" a voice asked.

"Saint, let me have a look at your injuries. I have some elixir pills with me!" another called out in concern.

The crowd of disciples had barely recovered from shock. To think that the Saint had been injured by a nobody with one mere strike. Just how could this be!

"I'm alright!" the Saint brushed them aside. With a glum face, he took one look at the injuries on his shoulders.

As he watched Wang Xian leave, a young man tried to appease the Saint. "Saint, had the lad not snuck an attack, and had you brought your Sky Devil Zither along, you would've maimed such a lad easily!" he flattered.

"Hmph!" the Saint replied impassively. Displeased, he looked at Tang Yinxuan and pressed her for an answer. "Who is he? Which Sect or Clan is he from?"

Upon hearing the Saint's words, Tang Yinxuan furrowed her brows and shook her head. "Saint, I have something to attend to. I'll return to the Sect now!" she replied before making a direct exit.

"Hold it right there, Tang Yinxuan. The Saint is asking you a question!" a female disciple of the Heavenly Sound Sect yelled at Tang Yinxuan.

Ignoring the call, Tang Yinxuan excused herself again. "Apologies, Saint. I'm feeling unwell. So I'll head back to rest!" she said before hastening her steps. Feeling helpless, she sighed softly as she rushed back to the Sect.

"Well, well, this Tang Yinxuan!" the Saint rebuked. As he watched Tang Yinxuan disappear gradually, he headed straight for the exit with a steely expression.

"Saint!" a few disciples called out with unease.

"Go, get me details of the lad's identity!" the Saint ordered one of them as he turned his head back.

"Yes, Saint!" the crowd of disciples replied hurriedly, shocked by the comment.

The Saint of a Sacred Sect is not someone to be trifled with.

Offenders shall die!

...

As Wang Xian entered the Presidential Suite, he was immediately welcomed by Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and seven Dragonians. "Young Master!" they greeted respectfully.

"Hmm. Just place the information you've got over there!" Wang Xian replied. Acknowledging the gang with a wave, he picked up the documents and headed for the bedroom.

"Noted!" Mo Qinglong and gang nodded, before they headed outside.

Meanwhile, a worn out Tang Yinxuan returned to her room, located atop the ninth summit of Ning City's Nine Peaks Mountain.

As she placed the zither on the desk, she looked to the side, where two zithers rested. One of them was covered in cracks, and bore obvious signs of repair.

But repaired zithers could no longer be used.

As for the other zither, it boasted an all-green body which exuded both extravagance and beauty. This was a zither gifted to her by her Master.

This Green Zither had been obtained by her Master at an overly exorbitant price. According to her Master, it was a Level 6 Zither.

As with all things in life, even weapons are classified by levels, as they are graded similarly to humans. In fact, where grading is concerned, only the classification of Spiritual Grasses and Elixir Pills differ vastly from the others.

Weapons are graded in ascending Levels. And where a weapon has surpassed Level 9, it would then be named a Meta-mortal Spiritual Weapon, also known as an Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

Inborn Spiritual Weapons possess a spirituality of their own. When a weapon ascends to such a level, it gains unimaginable powers.

Take the Ancient Sword of Zhan Lu which Wang Xian now owned, for instance. It is no sword to be owned by mere mortals, given that it possesses Energy of the Gold Summit. An average Martial Artist could even be killed by the sword simply by holding it.

Similarly, an expert Martial Artist of Level eight or above could challenge someone at superseding levels, simply by wielding the sword.

So much so that a Level nine Martial Artist could kill a Half-Step Inborn with the Zhan Lu Sword in hand, which is what makes an Inborn Spiritual Weapon so formidable.

That said, Inborn Spiritual Weapons were few and far between in the current world, as there were barely any blacksmiths left. Along with the Art of Equipment Refining being long lost, all current renowned weapons were the ones passed down from ancient times.

Thus, this Level six Green Zither gifted by her Master was incredibly rare.

Tang Yinxuan looked at the casing which held the zither from Wang Xian. Its appearance was very common, and it even bore a trademark.

"Ling-Yin!" Tang Yinxuan chimed, giggling as she looked at the trademark brand. Ling-Yin was currently one of the top zither brands.

An exquisitely customized zither could cost tens of thousands, while the pricier ones could even fetch more than a million dollars.

Yet, in her eyes, these supposedly branded zithers were no different from the ordinary ones.

They could not compare to the Green Zither gifted to her by her Master, which currently rested by her side.

"To think an invincible expert of his times is this insincere. How miserly!" Tang Yinxuan pouted, looking really adorable.

It appeared she would only reveal this endearing side of her when she was alone.

"How ordinary it is! It's also an ordinary zither which Mother gifted me!" she presumed. She had been prepared to reject this gift from the start, and hence gave little thought to Wang Xian's intentions.

As she opened the casing, a simple yet classic-looking garnet zither emerged before her. Written on it were several traditional characters.

On the center of the zither were two enlarged characters. Stupefied, Tang Yinxuan stared at the two characters in a daze.

"Hao Zhong, Hao Zhong!" she mumbled, repeating the name. Astounded, her face twitched in shock.

She placed her hands on the zither immediately.

Zing, ring, ring!

Suddenly, a melodic note rang through her mind. She shuddered as though she had heard heavenly music.

In an instant, she felt as though she was bursting with energy. Her vision became crystal clear, while the Spiritual Energy in her circled frantically.

"Hao Zhong! To think it's the Zither of Hao Zhong!"

Tang Yinxuan shook at the thought. She caressed the zither with trembling hands, sensing each chord as she went, her eyes filled with disbelief.

"Hao Zhong, the world's number one zither. Used by the Top Zither Artist in history, Master Boya. Subsequently passed on to Duke Huan of Qi, leader of the Five Hegemons during the Spring and Autumn Period. Deafening as it plays, the zither chimes clear like a bell and trumpets like a blowing horn. Legend has it that the Duke played music on the zither during a war to boost morale. And because of that, he emerged victorious and rose to become Leader of the Five Hegemons!" Tang Yinxuan murmured incessantly with burning passion in her eyes. [\[1\]](#)

"Hao Zhong, the legendary Inborn Spiritual Weapon. To think that this..." she uttered under her breath. Gradually, she began to recollect herself as she continued to caress the zither.

Just then, a thought came to her mind, and she flipped the zither over immediately. On the bottom hung an exquisite, long scarlet sword.

It was known as the Enchantment Sword.

Tang Yinxuan bit her lip, blushing as her eyes glinted.

"To think that a married man would do something like this?"

Endnote:

[1] Spring and Autumn period refers to 770 to 476 BC Back

Chapter 324: Appearance of Hao Zhong and the Soundless Instrument (2)

Enchantment Sword, as its name suggested, was a sword of love.

According to the latest historical records, Hao Zhong was given to a woman from her husband. Moreover, the husband had included the Enchantment Sword below the zither for his wife for protection.

The Enchantment Sword was one of the famed swords in history. Although it wasn't as well-known as the ten famed swords, its strength was still well-regarded and known by many.

This was a sword for the ladies and was featherlight. It was forged from frost metal and the water from a frosty pond.

The elemental attribute of the sword was water. It was said that it was just a tinge inferior to an Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

As it was kept with the Hao Zhong zither, it was recorded as Hao Zhong Enchantment Sword by historians.

Recalling the information regarding Hao Zhong and the Enchantment Sword, Tang Yinxuan couldn't help but pout.

She removed the Enchantment Sword from the bottom and unsheathed it.

Shingz!

As the sword was unsheathed, the sound it made was pleasing to the ears, like flowing water.

The entire sword was red other than the edge of the blade. It looked extremely stunning.

The sword was light but exceptionally sharp. It was as though there was water flowing on it.

Tang Yinxuan waved it lightly and the water energy raged. She wasn't well versed in swordsmanship and only knew a little about it.

She looked at the bottom of Hao Zhong. Just as she had expected, there was a sword manual in it.

The sword manual recorded the Enchantment Swordplay.

Hao Zhong is an Inborn Spiritual Weapon while the Enchantment Sword is a weapon exceptionally close to the level of an Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

Tang Yinxuan held them dearly and was really satisfied with them.

However, at the thought of the meaning behind these weapons, her expression changed.

"Since I have accepted them, just forget about the hidden significance behind them!"

She smiled gently and placed the Hao Zhong back into the cover carefully. Looking at the bright moon outside her room, her mood greatly improved. She walked back to her bed and started her rest.

The next morning, the entire Nine Peaks Mountain was shrouded in a festive liked atmosphere. Beautiful music could be heard and the surrounding birds were dancing in the skies.

Other than the alluring music, calls of various birds formed a beautiful melody.

Thousands and thousands of birds were flapping their wings and moving with the music.

All the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect had to practice their musical instruments and cultivate in the morning.

It was especially so for today as the entire Nine Peaks Mountain was filled with all kinds of music.

The selection of the Saint had ended yesterday and the selection of the Saintess would start today.

Tang Yinxuan carried Hao Zhong and arrived at the backyard just like any other morning. She gently cleaned the place where she would be placing her zither.

Placing her zither on the table, the surrounding music had not affected her emotions.

Tang Yinxuan's eyes lit up as she looked at Hao Zhong before her. She placed her slender and fair fingers gently upon it.

Ling!

A musical note sounded. At this moment, this note resounded rapidly throughout a radius of a thousand meters.

"What happened? Why did my zither go soundless?"

"This is strange. What is happening? That musical note previously erased all other sounds!"

"What is this about? What's the issue? Why is my Erhu not making any sound!?"
[1]

At this point, raucous discussion broke out around her. Exclamations and questions came from disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect in all directions.

Tang Yinxuan was taken aback. She stared with her eyes wide open at Hao Zhong, which was placed in front of her. With a bitter smile on her face, she kept it away and returned to her room.

At this very moment, a woman on the main peak of the Nine Peaks Mountain opened her eyes abruptly.

"What's that sound? Could it be the Heavenly Sound Zither?"

"It doesn't sound like... It doesn't sound like...!"

The woman stood up, closed her eyes and wanted to listen attentively. However, the same sound did not come again. In the end, she sat back down, feeling baffled.

...

"Fang Tianhua became the Saint yesterday. I wonder who will become the Saintess today!"

"Do you even need to ask about this? It will definitely be Senior sister Hu. Senior sister Hu is now a Half-step to Inborn Realm expert and possesses the Level 7 Ancient Temple Zither. Among the female disciples, she tops in terms of strength."

"It's still hard to tell. Tang Yinxuan, Fang Jiuhua and Ouyang Yan have all reached the Half-step to Inborn Realm. They are also strong contenders!"

"In my opinion, Senior sister Hu's chances of winning are at least eighty percent. Strength is just one aspect and you should consider their influence too. Many people are supporting Senior sister Hu now. Moreover, Senior sister Hu has two Half-step to Inborn Realm subordinates. One of them even made it to the top 20 of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!"

When the sun had risen, the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect made their way towards the main training field.

On their way there, the disciples were discussing fervently. However, they weren't too concerned about what had caused their musical instruments to go soundless.

Tang Yinxuan carried two zithers as she made her way to the main training field. Along the way, the other disciples greeted her respectfully.

There were also some disciples who simply gave her a cold glare.

The main training field of the Heavenly Sound Sect lay in the middle of the Nine Peaks Mountain. The Heavenly Sound Sect didn't particularly have lots of disciples. For young men and women, there were only approximately a thousand of them.

They had exceptional demeanors and were either handsome or beautiful. In terms of looks, the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect were all outstanding.

Despite that, Tang Yinxuan still shone brightly with her exceptional vibes and exquisite looks.

The disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect arrived at the training field one after another. They stood in an orderly fashion around it while waiting patiently.

The arrival of Tang Yinxuan had drawn the attention of many people.

Other than her, there were also a few other girls who were exceptionally attention-grabbing.

"Senior sister Hu is here!"

At this moment, a scream came from the crowd. Everyone looked over and saw an alluring young lady with an enchanting figure walking towards the training field.

She was dressed in black and looked just like a succubus in the night. Every action of hers drew the attention of all the men in the field.

A large number of male disciples couldn't help but swallow their saliva.

She was one of the few disciples that practiced the Fei Fei Demonic Note.

Two young men followed behind the young lady proudly. Despite being surrounded by outstanding disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect, they were still carrying a slight sense of superiority.

"Eh, take a look! Senior sister Hu didn't bring her Ancient Temple Zither along but another zither instead."

"That's true. It looks a little ordinary. However, with Senior sister Hu's strength, others wouldn't be a match for her even if she used an ordinary zither!"

"The Saint is here!"

At this moment, the Saint, who was dressed in elegant Heavenly Sound Sect's traditional costume, walked out proudly. Over a dozen disciples followed behind him deferentially.

The Saint's face looked devoid of expressions and seemed exceptionally cold, callous but exceptional.

"Saint!" the surrounding crowd greeted the Saint respectfully.

The Saint nodded his head faintly, walked to a seat below the stage and sat down.

This was a seat reserved for the higher management of the Heavenly Sound Sect and the Saint naturally was qualified to have a seat too.

Soon, the Elders, Vice Sect Leader and Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect arrived at the training field.

Endnote:

Er Hu is a two-stringed bowed musical instrument. It is sometimes referred to as the Chinese Violin

Chapter 325: Appearance of Hao Zhong and The Soundless Instrument (3)

"Greetings, Sect Leader!" the disciples greeted as they bowed to an Elder who was gradually making his way to the central seat.

As he lifted an arm, the Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect swept his glance across everyone present, and began to speak.

Meanwhile, ten masked men from the Abyss emerged in a secluded corner just outside of the Nine Peaks Mountain.

These ten men were none other than Wang Xian and his gang.

The information which Mo Yuan and the rest had obtained did not seem out of the ordinary. In addition, as a Sacred Sect, the Heavenly Sound Sect had managed to cover their tracks well enough. Hence, the group could only sneak their way in by means of their incredible abilities and combat powers.

"The Heavenly Sound Sect is unlike the Flame Palace. As a long established Sacred Sect, their defense is no doubt more complicated than one can imagine!" Wang Xian explained.

After which, Wang Xian and gang peered at the nine gigantic summits with heavy looks on their faces.

Yet, other than its impressive heights and majestic beauty, one could barely detect any sense of danger from the nine summits.

They seemed to be nothing more than nine ordinary mountains.

Yet, it was the seeming mediocrity of the mountains which cautioned the group.

After all, the Heavenly Sound Sect was not the Flame Palace, hence its defense was anything but simple.

Wang Xian gazed at the nine typical mountains ahead as he narrowed his eyes. In a quick movement, he changed his position and hopped onto a tree along the fringes of the mountain.

Tweet, tweet!

Just then came a chirp from a tree branch beside Wang Xian. It was a bird, staring intently at Wang Xian as it called out. Soon after, the little bird flew towards the Nine Peaks Mountain and within its vicinity.

"Huh?" Wang Xian frowned in confusion. With quick reflexes, the Power of the Divine Dragon oozed out of him and overshadowed the surroundings.

Tweet, tweet!

The little bird flapped its wings as hard as it could, before it flopped onto the ground.

"So that's how they work!" Wang Xian exclaimed in realization. With a grin, he continued, "No doubt a Sacred Clan. Even the mode of defense is beyond expectations."

Wang Xian observed his surroundings, and noticed an overwhelming number of nests. These bird nests came in all sorts, and had settled on the branches of trees all over Nine Peaks Mountain.

He even briefly spotted a nest which spanned about six to seven meters across, located thousands of meters away.

With such a gigantic nest, one can easily imagine the size of the bird settling in it.

"It must be a flying bird of the Inborn level. The Heavenly Sound Sect has resorted to using flying birds as implicit sentinels numbering up to the tens of thousands. Perhaps even the millions. Seems like there's no way of hiding any entry into the Sect grounds," Wang Xian assessed.

He was mildly impressed by the Sect, which no doubt deserved its sacred status.

By using millions of birds as surveillance, even a mosquito flying in would be clear for all to see.

"That said, these birds can't be that intelligent. They also possess obvious shortcomings!" Wang Xian exclaimed with a faint smile, while Mo Qinglong and the rest scurried over.

"Let's go!" Wang Xian directed. But, as he was about to make a move, a bunch of tree branches clung onto Wang Xian and gang, twining them in like saplings.

In one leap, he sprung forward. The birds around looked over in curiosity. But they soon became indifferent once again, and continued to chirp incessantly while resting on the branches.

They were, after all, ordinary birds with low intelligence.

To the extent that some of them had no idea as to why these few saplings could actually move.

The ten men shot through the Nine Peaks Mountain at lightning speed, and in no time arrived at the peak of one of the mountains.

"Over there!" Wang Xian pointed as he narrowed his focus. In a flash, he landed mid-mountain on one of the nearest summits, and stared coldly at the training field.

Meanwhile, at the training field, a girl dressed in all black was suspended in mid-air with a black Devil Zither. Across from her stood another girl with a refined and graceful face.

Panicking while cold sweat trickled down her forehead, the young maiden clung onto her Pipa as she battled the girl dressed in black. [\[1\]](#)

Standing beside Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong looked at the training field, where Hu Qingqing was.

"That's the girl, Hu Qingqing. Based on the most confidential information from the Dark Conjurers, she's the one who issued the assassination orders." Mo Qinglong pointed out coldly.

"Not only did she order to have Tang Yinxuan killed, she's also involved in two other missions, alongside that young man standing at the fringe. The other two assassinations were carried out successfully!" he added.

Wang Xian surveyed the girl in black, who boasted a charming face and a glamorous figure.

"How unscrupulous. Resorting to killing a fellow Sect member for the Saintess' position. Vile is a woman's heart, more poisonous than a viper's bite or a hornet's sting!" Wang Xian said coldly as he observed.

Thereafter, he swept his gaze across and counted silently.

"There are a total of seven Inborn experts, with more absent. They've either hidden themselves within the Nine Peaks Mountain, or gone travelling!" Wang Xian contemplated in silence. Just seven Inborn experts alone was a handful.

Moreover, members of the Heavenly Sound Sect were known for their incredible combat powers and powerful attacks.

However, Wang Xian and gang had not come to annihilate the Heavenly Sound Sect. Rather, they were just here to kill Hu Qingqing. In addition, they need not clash with the Sect.

"Young Master, should we just charge over and slaughter her right away?" Mo Qinglong asked as he stood beside Wang Xian.

"Kill!" Wang Xian ordered. He had just uttered the word, when he looked below and froze in his tracks. "Hold on!" he shouted.

"Yep!" Mo Qinglong and the rest nodded in response, and hid away quietly.

"Senior Sister Hu's too powerful. She's holding the legendary Copperhead Viper Zither in her hands. That's a Level nine zither! Goodness, where did she get that from!?" An audience member gasped from amidst the crowd.

"A Level 9 zither, plus Senior Hu's prowess as a Half-step Inborn, in addition to the unique Art of Cultivation of our Heavenly Sound Sect; Senior Hu's almost unrivaled amongst the Half-step Inborns!" another added.

"Seems like it's more or less decided that Senior Hu will become the Saintess. She's too powerful. To think that Senior Sister Fang Jiuhua's totally defenseless against her!" one more chipped in.

"It feels like Senior Hu's prowess is about to overpower the Saint's!" a last commented.

And there was Hu Qingqing, standing on the stage. With a charming smile, she fought on without a care in the world. Around the training field, the crowd of disciples watched on in shock and admiration all at once.

The senior management of the Heavenly Sound Sect also gazed at Hu Qingqing, pleased with her performance.

The prowess she displayed was simply impressive.

"The Copperhead Viper Zither's a Level 9 zither. It's enough to qualify as the third most powerful zither within our Heavenly Sound Sect. To think that Qingqing managed to obtain it!" a senior praised.

"I'm taken by surprise too! The Copper Viper Zither along with Qingqing's Fei Fei Demonic Note. She'll be unrivalled in the world of Inborns!" another commented.

"Congratulations, Vice Sect Leader! You've found a successor!" a third cheered.

On the stage, several Elders chatted in whispers to the Vice Sect Leader. Seated in the middle, the Vice Sect Leader responded with a hearty laugh.

His granddaughter would soon ascend to become the Saintess.

On the training field, Hu Qingqing eyed Tang Yinxuan coldly. A look of disdain swept across the former's eye as she glanced at the latter's Green Zither.

"Tang Yinxuan, just concede defeat. You're no match for me. Nor are you qualified to exchange blows with me!" Hu Qingqing gloated.

Tang Yinxuan had been in another battle earlier, where she had defeated Ouyang Yan using her Green Zither. And although her skills were up to par, it had taken her a long time before she emerged victorious in the battle.

This was a huge contrast to Hu Qingqing's easy win.

"Let's have a fair competition, where both of us will use an ordinary zither!" Tang Yinxuan suggested to Hu Qingqing in a composed manner.

""Haha! Fair competition, using an ordinary zither. Tang Yinxuan, are you kidding me?" Hu Qingqing laughed.

Endnote:

[1] A Pipa is a four-stringed Chinese musical instrument Back

Chapter 326: If The Abyss Wants You Dead, You Definitely Will Be (1)

A peal of hysterical laughter broke out from Hu Qingqing. Although her laughter was exaggerated, her alluring voice with her trembling enchanting figure made it hard for one to find it annoying.

Instead, seductive vibes came from her.

Hu Qingqing laughed loudly before looking to Tang Yinxuan again and saying, "Tang Yinxuan, you must be acting naïve. Strength includes weapons, cultivation arts, and cultivation realm. You want a fair battle? Hehe! What a joke!"

As she completed her words, she played her Copperhead Viper Zither lightly. Instantly, several demonic snakes appeared before it.

"I have gone through great lengths to get this Copperhead Viper Zither. You want me to compete fairly with you without it? Hehe!"

Ridicules sounded and the surrounding people looked at Tang Yinxuan with doubts.

"Cough cough! Tang Yinxuan is really something to raise a request like this. She's really... She's really shameless!"

"Haha, that's right. This is the most interesting request I have heard. A fair battle in her view is to restrict her opponent from bringing out a powerful weapon?"

"I'm really impressed. The thickness of Tang Yinxuan's skin is something we couldn't compare with. She's simply shameless!"

"I'm speechless. To obtain the position of the Saintess, she actually raised such a hilarious condition. This Tang Yinxuan must be crazy! She couldn't make it!"

"I have long heard that Tang Yinxuan rarely interacts with others. It will seem like she's most likely an idiot to raise such a request!"

Around the training field, the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect didn't attempt to hide their ridicule after hearing Tang Yinxuan's request.

Based on the current situation, Senior sister Hu would be certain to inherit the position of Saintess. Therefore, the surrounding disciples weren't wary of Tang Yinxuan at all.

Furthermore, they might be able to get on the good books of Senior sister Hu by doing so.

"Haha! Tang Yinxuan, you are really interesting. Weapons are naturally a part of one's strength. You want a fair battle? You are really hilarious!"

At this moment, the Saint who was seated commented. He looked mockingly at Tang Yinxuan and continued, "You don't have a good zither and so you want to restrict others from using one. Tsk! This thought is shameless!"

"That's right. What a naïve thought. Senior sister Hu has a Level 9 unique zither and yet you want her to compete with you on an ordinary zither? In a life and death battle, will one put aside such a unique zither and compete with you on an ordinary zither?" A young man standing beside the Saint seconded and piled on the ridicules.

The Saint's expression turned callous. He mumbled softly, "If I lend you my Level 7 Sky Devil Zither, you might still have a slimmer of hope. If you use that Level 6 zither, your chances of becoming the Saintess are zero. Oh, Tang Yinxuan, you really don't know what's best for you!"

"When I get the information on the brat that gave you the zither, I'll let him experience pain worse than death!"

"The selection of the Saintess is to show the wisdom, strength, guts, and means of the future Saintess. You can keep such a laughable request to yourself!"

The Vice Sect Leader seated on the stage looked proudly at her own granddaughter before glancing coldly at Tang Yinxuan.

"If you know what's best for you, admit your defeat immediately. If you continue, I'll defeat you. You aren't qualified to compete for the position of Saintess with me!" Hu Qingqing said to Tang Yinxuan with contempt.

When Tang Yinxuan heard the ridicules from the surrounding disciples, she was taken aback. A cold light flashed in her eyes.

"In that case, I would like to seek guidance about your strength!"

Just as she finished her words, she placed her Green Zither aside. Carrying the other zither, she jumped and landed in the middle of the training field.

She stood in the middle of the training field, tapped her arms lightly and the zither box behind her appeared in front of her.

"What? Look at the logo on the zither box. Isn't that just an ordinary brand available everywhere?"

"It is! Could it be that Tang Yinxuan has given up on using the Level 6 Green Zither and is choosing to use an ordinary zither instead?"

"She's probably worried that the Copperhead Viper Zither will destroy her Level 6 Green Zither. After all, that was the best zither Tang Yinxuan could come up with!"

"That's highly likely!"

When the surrounding crowd saw the logo and brand on Tang Yinxuan's zither box, they started looking at her with mocking eyes, insulting her.

"Hehe! What a waste of my time!"

Hu Qingqing looked at the zither box in front of Tang Yinxuan. Coldness gleamed in her eyes as she said nonchalantly, "Within five moves, I will destroy your zither!"

"I hope so!"

Tang Yinxuan was nonchalant about the ridicules from the crowd and Hu Qingqing. She tapped the box lightly and sent it flying down.

"Please enlighten me!"

When Hao Zhong appeared before Tang Yinxuan, her entire demeanor underwent huge changes. Cold, prideful with a tinge of holiness.

She placed her slender fingers on Hao Zhong. The zither her mother had given her was where she deposited her longing for her mother.

As for this dull red Hao Zhong, it was the zither she really liked.

"Hehe. I'll let you witness the might of this legendary zither and hand you a convincing defeat!"

Hu Qingqing's expression changed as she appeared to have become one with the Copperhead Viper Zither.

On her arms, music notes coalesced from the demonic aura that was circulating and flowing constantly.

"How many strikes do you think Senior sister Hu will need to defeat Tang Yinxuan?"

"Within ten strikes. Although Tang Yinxuan also possesses Half-step to Inborn Realm strength, the might of the legendary zither isn't something an ordinary zither could possibly match."

"Haha, my guess is within five strikes. Didn't Senior sister Hu say she would at most take five strikes?"

Seeing that the battle was about to start soon, the surrounding crowd was thrilled.

The Saint looked at the middle of the training field and Tang Yinxuan emotionlessly. "Using an ordinary zither from an unknown and insignificant character against Hu Qingqing with a legendary zither, she must be asking to be shamed!"

Sss sss sss!

At this moment, Hu Qingqing started playing. Her five fingers appeared to have become demonic claws as they moved rapidly on the Copperhead Viper Zither.

At that instant, a venomous snake made of eerie and cold energies swept towards Tang Yinxuan rapidly from the Copperhead Viper Zither.

As Hu Qingqing moved her fingers even more quickly, thousands of venomous snakes appeared. They emitted horrifying aura and attacked forward in a wave.

"Senior sister Hu's attacks are too strong!"

"Tang Yinxuan is likely going to be defeated by this strike."

When the surrounding disciples saw what happened, they couldn't help but gasp in awe.

Tang Yinxuan wasn't flustered at all despite facing a large wave of venomous snakes.

She placed her hands on Hao Zhong. Just as the venomous snakes were about to hit her, she played Hao Zhong lightly.

Ling~

At this instant, the surrounding crowd felt as though a downpour had fallen on them.

Sounds of rain resounded in their minds.

That wave of demonic snakes was flushed towards the floor and dissipated as though it was made of ink!

Chapter 327: If The Abyss Wants You Dead, You Definitely Will Be (2)

Ding-a-ling!

The zither began to play, where the notes earlier were just the opening of a tune.

Yet, when the music resumed, the crowd realized that the rain they were surrounded by had begun to trickle like a gentle river flowing.

A mystifying image appeared in everybody's minds.

Just then, Hu Qingqing stood across from the crowd with her eyes wide. Her facial expression changed drastically, as she watched the sight before her in utter disbelief.

Her body began to tremble as her face grew dark and gnarly.

Her demon claws frantically strummed chords on her Copper Viper Zither, and bouts of demonic aura slithered on the instrument. Hurriedly, the aura gathered and transformed into a demonic snake.

Yet, Hu Qingqing was appalled to discover that her recital using the Copperhead Viper Zither had produced not a single sound.

As though the flowing waters were the only existence around right there and then.

Her face showed an unwillingness to concede defeat. Demonic aura then oozed out from her, forming numerous demonic snakes on the Copperhead Viper Zither.

"Ah!" Hu Qingqing snarled while she arched her head skywards, and puffed out demonic breaths.

The demonic breaths too transformed into snakes, and within a short two minutes more than a thousand of them had formed.

The demonic snakes exuded a chilling and steely demeanor, and began to attack in Tang Yinxuan's direction.

Just then, the streams of flowing water glowed in sapphire and surged straight ahead for the snakes.

Once again, the demonic snakes were rendered defenseless. They resembled ink paintings which were watered down and swept clean, as though they had never existed.

"What's the situation? How ... How did I get immersed in another world?" Hu Qingqing shrieked in surprise. Soon after, the crowd of disciples from the Heavenly Sound Sect recovered as though they had just regained consciousness. They gazed towards the arena, looking somewhat lost.

"It's the realm of music! Goodness, to think we've been dragged into a Mirage of Music!" one exclaimed.

"How is this possible? This can only be achieved if one is an Inborn expert of the Ancestral Clan. Otherwise, who's able to ..." a second doubted.

"This sound...goodness, to think Senior Sister Hu's been totally suppressed!" the third gasped.

It was then that everyone focused their attention on the ongoing battle in the training field.

They could see Hu Qingqing strumming away at the zither like a prancing maniac, and yet they could not hear the slightest sound.

On the contrary, Tang Yinxuan rested her fingers on her zither with a look of tranquility while standing across from Hu Qingqing. In a state of serenity, she started playing, and streaks of water flowed gently down the instrument.

The snakes released by Hu Qingqing were wiped out by these gentle flows. The crowd also discovered in shock that the training field had been unknowingly submerged in blue waters. The streaks of sapphire flowed like a stream. Meandering its way over, it moved over to Hu Qingqing and began to circle, as though to envelope her.

"What's ... what's this situation? Why can't I hear Senior Hu's melody? There's only the sound of flowing water I hear. What's going on?" a voice questioned.

"Suppression. It's the legendary Absolute Suppression. The Copperhead Viper Zither's been absolutely suppressed. To the point where its melody has been completely overpowered by that of another zither's!" another explained in astonishment.

"Suppression? How's this possible? The Copperhead Viper's regarded as a legendary Level 9 zither!" another argued.

A look of disbelief swept over the crowd of disciples. To think that a Level 9 zither was unable to produce any notes. This ...

"Inborn Spiritual Weapon. To think it's an Inborn Spiritual Weapon!" a voice blurted out.

Meanwhile, on stage, the senior management of the Heavenly Sound Sect was startled. Even the Sect Leader stood up flabbergasted, as they all turned their eyes to the zither alongside Tang Yinxuan.

"What?" one gulped.

"How's this possible?" another gasped in disbelief.

"A zither that's of the Inborn Spiritual Weapon level. How's this possible! Our entire Heavenly Sound Sect has only got one zither of the Inborn level. The Heavenly Sound Zither. To think ... To think Tang Yinxuan has got one too!" the third uttered.

"If it isn't a zither that's classified as an Inborn Spiritual Weapon, how could it have suppressed the Copperhead Viper Zither like this?" the disciples exclaimed at the top of their lungs. Overwhelmed by shock, they stared at the zither in Tang Yinxuan's hands with glistening eyes.

"That's the Zither of Hao Zhong!" one of them yelled.

To which, Tang Yinxuan began playing once again. She strummed her fingers against the strings gently. In an instant, the surrounding waters flowed over in Hu Qingqing's direction, ready to strike.

"A zither that's classified as an Inborn Spiritual Weapon. An Inborn-level zither!" one shouted.

Hu Qingqing's face soured when she heard Tang Yinxuan's melody. She cringed upon seeing that the water flow was coming at her and, with a quick shift, darted for cover.

It was then that she looked down at her legs in shock.

She was horrified to discover that unbeknownst to her, her legs had been entwined by the water flow.

As though caught in a swamp, she was unable to free herself from the entanglement of the water no matter how hard she resisted.

"Such powerful binding force. Senior Hu's losing! She's actually losing!" someone choked.

"It's only been under a minute, and Senior Hu's about to be defeated!" the second voiced in shock.

"Hao Zhong. Isn't that the Zither of Hao Zhong, the number one zither amongst the Legendary Top Ten?" the third exclaimed.

"To think it's the Hao Zhong, the one regarded as the most powerful of all zithers. Its ranking is even above the Heavenly Sound Zither!" another added.

"Hao Zhong! To think it's the Zither of Hao Zhong!" the last choked.

Upon hearing her words, and seeing for themselves the attack which Tang Yinxuan launched, the crowd was overwhelmed by shock.

On stage, the senior management from the Heavenly Sound Sect eyed the zither intently while it lay in front of Tang Yinxuan. "Hao Zhong, to think it's the Hao Zhong; the Leading Zither of all!" they muttered.

A horrid look was plastered across the Vice Sect Leader's face, while his heart ached like it had been stabbed and was dripping blood, as he watched his granddaughter cocooned in the streaks of water.

"You've been defeated!" Tang Yinxuan announced before she stopped strumming with her fingers. To which, the sound of flowing water disappeared.

The crowd turned their heads immediately, and saw that Hu Qingqing had been wrapped up tightly by the streaks.

And even though Hu Qingqing struggled till her face turned crimson, the wrap remained entirely unaffected.

Such is the horror of the Hao Zhong, along with its prowess!

The crowd watched on dumbfoundedly as the scene unfolded before them. Hu Qingqing had been defeated. Furthermore, the defeat had struck upon her so easily and thoroughly.

It was as though Tang Yinxuan had barely used any of her combat powers, and delivered a sweeping attack with such ease. Like an adult sparring against a child.

Yet, everyone was well aware that Tang Yinxuan owed her prowess and dominance to the formidable zither.

Zither of Hao Zhong, an Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

At the same moment, the crowd recalled the request made by Tang Yinxuan prior to the start of the competition, whereby they would compete fairly using only ordinary zithers.

Back then, everyone had mocked Tang Yinxuan for having lost her senses. They also ridiculed her for being thick-skinned by asking her competitor to use an ordinary zither instead of a formidable one, simply because she had none herself.

It appeared now that the truth was, in fact, the complete opposite.

She had in her hands an Inborn-level Zither, and had been out to compete fairly with Hu Qingqing after all.

At the thought, the faces in the crowd sizzled in red.

They had gauged the kindness and nobility of others using their own mean measures.

"How could this be? How could that chap, with nothing to his name, have gifted Tang Yinxuan with an Inborn-level zither? This can't be. It's impossible," the Saint uttered as though in a daze. As he did, he focused on the zither that rested in front of Tang Yinxuan, remaining seated right behind.

Chapter 328: Killing Openly

"I... admit defeat!"

On the training field, Hu Qingqing mumbled out three words bitterly.

Everyone around could hear these words clearly. As she admitted her defeat, the water flow around her dissipated completely.

The surrounding disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect were shocked as they witnessed what had happened.

Similarly, members of the higher management of the Heavenly Sound Sect were dumbfounded. They looked intensely at the Hao Zhong zither in Tang Yinxuan's hands and took a deep breath.

"Tang Yinxuan wins and will succeed as the Saintess through her own strength. If anyone isn't satisfied, you may step forward now!"

The Sect Leader looked across the crowd and her attention eventually fell on Tang Yinxuan and the powerful zither.

The surrounding disciples had all quieted down. No one was speaking at this moment.

The qualities and strength Tang Yinxuan had demonstrated had made these disciples speechless. In fact, she had won many over.

At this very moment, the surrounding disciples felt more embarrassment. Recalling the ridicule and mockeries that they made about her previously, they felt flushed. There's no way they could still step forward to object to the outcome.

Puff!

Hu Qingqing took a deep breath bitterly. "I'm not convinced. The selection of the Saintess also involves influence and respect from others on top of one's strength.

Just as she spoke, the two young men who had been standing beside her previously moved and came to Hu Qingqing.

A strong aura emanated from them.

Hu Qingqing looked at the two young men behind her and revealed a faint smile. While I was cultivating diligently for the last two years, these two Half-step to Inborn Realm experts have followed me. Moreover, they have established a Second-class Force. Currently, I can mobilize..."

As Hu Qingqing spoke, she seemed to have regained her confidence of before her defeat. She lifted her chin up and spoke loudly to the crowd.

Hua la!

However, another voice sounded from above when she was still speaking.

All the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect were taken aback and lifted their heads in shock.

Hu Qingqing was caught by surprise too as she turned towards the source of that voice.

The higher management of the Heavenly Sound Sect was surprised and looked coldly towards the sky.

A book flew down from the sky and towards the Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect.

At the same time, ten men in black uniforms and the Abyss Masks leapt down from the mountain peak.

When the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect saw the Abyss Masks, they were stunned.

These masks...?

"They are from the Abyss! They are assassins from the Abyss!"

At that instant, the same name flashed across the mind of the disciples. Some even exclaimed out loud.

"Dressed in black and wearing Abyss Masks. They are assassins from the Abyss!"

All the disciples were shocked. The Abyss was the most horrifying assassination group currently. After annihilating the Dark Conjurers, they were widely regarded by the Underworld as being closest to a Sacred Sect. In fact, many regarded them as a horrifying organization that possessed equivalent strength to a Sacred Sect.

Why would the people from the Abyss appear in the Heavenly Sound Sect?

All the disciples were alerted. They held their weapons tightly in their hands and observed the ten assassins that had landed in the training field attentively.

Rumble!

At this moment, all the members of the higher management of the Heavenly Sound Sect, who were seated at the elevated stage, stood up. Among them, there were seven Inborn experts. They immediately released horrifying aura and glowered at the ten assassins from the Abyss.

Hu Qingqing felt suffocated as she looked in horror at the ten assassins from the Abyss that were standing around her. She didn't dare to say a word at this moment.

The two young men standing beside her were petrified. They no longer had the arrogant vibes from before and were on alert.

Pa!

The Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect caught the book that was thrown towards him and glanced at Wang Xian and his group. He squinted his eyes and coldness gleamed in them.

"Assassins from the Abyss, what are you guys here for!?" asked the Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect coldly.

"Obviously, to kill someone!"

Wang Xian looked at the Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect and didn't attempt to hide his intention at all.

"Presumptuous! You dare to barge into the sacred grounds of the Heavenly Sound Sect to kill? The Abyss is really brazen!"

When an Elder heard Wang Xian's brazen claims, he picked up the long flute weapon coldly and glowered at Wang Xian and the group. Murderous intent gleamed in his eyes.

"How arrogant and brazen!"

The Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect turned gloomy. He held the book and asked coldly, "What is this?"

"Take a look and you will know the person we are killing!" replied Wang Xian emotionlessly.

When his voice came through the mask, it became mechanical and cold. This made the surrounding disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect anxious.

"Ten days ago, two of our disciples accepted a mission and were assassinated by the Dark Conjurers. The Dark Conjurers were naturally acting according to the orders of their employer. Therefore, we, the Abyss, have annihilated the Dark Conjurers and found the mastermind. Now, we are here to kill her!" Wang Xian stared right at the Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect and spoke emotionlessly.

However, his response made the surrounding disciples gasp.

Finally, they understood why the Abyss had annihilated the Dark Conjurers.

It was to take revenge against the Dark Conjurers for killing two of their disciples.

To find the mastermind, they had annihilated the Dark Conjurers.

Domineering, horrifying and unable to assess with common sense.

The Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect could feel his eyebrow twitch.

Clearly, he found this answer too shocking and chilling. The Abyss was too domineering and brazen.

The remaining Inborn experts of the Heavenly Sound Sect had all picked up their musical instruments and placed them in front of them. They were all prepared to engage in battle with the imperious Abyss instantly if required.

The Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect looked at the book in his hands. After going through the information in it, his face sank gradually.

The information in the book was printed out. There wasn't any concrete evidence.

"This couldn't be considered as evidence and can't prove anything!" replied the Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect after looking through the information.

"Our Abyss isn't interested in falsifying evidence. We are just letting you take a look. We are still going to kill the mastermind!" Wang Xian remarked coldly before turning to Hu Qingqing.

Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and the dragonians also turned to Hu Qingqing. Their eyes were filled with killing intent.

"You deserve death for engaging the Dark Conjurers to kill two of our disciples!" Wang Xian stared at Hu Qingqing and remarked coldly. Just as he finished his words, Mo Yuan struck.

Overwhelming killing intent surrounded him. It was so dense that it appeared to have materialized.

Turning his five fingers into claws, he struck towards Hu Qingqing.

At this moment, Hu Qingqing's face was as white as a sheet. Cold sweat covered her forehead and horror filled her eyes.

She no longer had the same flirtatious looks, arrogance and confidence as before.

When she saw the approaching Mo Yuan, she screamed in horror. "No! Why are you guys killing me?"

"How dare you kill my granddaughter! The Abyss must be courting death!"

Murderous intent gleamed in the eyes of the Vice Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect. Moving his fingers across the zither, demonic aura turned into sharp edges and attacked towards Mo Yuan.

Rumble!

At this moment, Wang Xian waved his arm. A fireball flew towards the Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect and exploded.

Ka Ka Ka!

The zither broke after a single strike!

Chapter 329: Indomitably Haughty

"No! Ah! Save me, Grandpa!" a scream shrieked from the training field of Heavenly Sound Sect.

Along with the blood-curling scream came an explosive blast.

The zither of the Vice Sect Leader had been destroyed with a single palm-strike. When the crowd saw what had happened, they gasped and cringed in fear.

The faces of the six Inborn experts fumed with rage when they saw the Abyss assassins approaching.

"Courting doom!" one of them hollered.

Zing, zing, zing!

As melodies began to play, countless wind blades, water droplets, demonic snakes and golden needles were fired out from the musical instrument.

Howl!

Right then, a growl from the Divine Dragon came blasting through the air. Following which, an Inferno Divine Dragon situated itself in front of the six Inborn experts, blocking them.

Flames torching like molten lava came spewing out of the Inferno Divine Dragon, which put a direct stop to all the attacks.

In the same moment, Hu Qingqing gazed ahead at Mo Yuan in utter despair. "Ah!" she cried while taking steps back.

While the two Half-step Inborns beside Hu Qingqing broke out in a cold sweat, neither of the young men dared to take a step forward.

"Die!" Mo Yuan roared. Without the slightest hesitation, his fingers transformed into Claws of the Devil Dragon, as he struck at Hu Qingqing in a bid to attack.

Ack, ack, ack!

As Hu Qingqing landed on the ground, she coughed with a weak voice void of hope while she stared, eyes wide in terror.

Even on the brink of death, she didn't have the slightest clue as to who from the Abyss she had killed, and why they got rid of her so menacingly.

She had been radiating with glamour on the stage of the training field just a while ago, with high hopes of vying for the position of Saintess. And yet, the same Hu Qingqing now lay motionless and lifeless on cold ground.

"Abyss, you're goners. I'll get rid of you all!" the Vice Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect roared. As he burst with fury, bouts of demonic aura gushed from the training field and shot skyward.

Clang, clang, clang!

Just then, a frantic melody started to play and it boomed throughout the Nine Peaks Mountain. It had come from the musical instrument held by the Leader of Heavenly Sound Sect.

Tweet, Tweet! Tweet, Tweet!

Upon two chirps, two birds swooped over from individual mountain peaks, surging as quick as fighter planes as they flapped their gigantic wings.

"Trespassers in the Heavenly Sound Sect shall die!" a voice hollered, as numerous shadows came darting out of the Nine Peaks Mountain. Upon emerging, they flew over short distances.

It was seven Elders who had flown out, each gripping onto a musical instrument and exuding a terrifying aura as they did.

Especially so for the elderly lady who emerged atop the most central peak, who displayed an air of dignity with a sparkling zither in her arms.

Leaving their mountain peaks, the experts landed on the training field. They were joined by the two giant birds, which measured up to five meters with wings spread open, as they gazed down upon Wang Xian and gang.

With icy stares and gnawing claws, the birds were ready to attack any time.

"Abyss assassins, you guys are indeed savage. With guts to barge into the sacred grounds of our Heavenly Sound Sect, you can forget about leaving here today. For you shall be buried within our grounds for eternity!" said the elderly lady flatly. With her zither in hands, she swept her gaze across Wang Xian and gang.

"Haha! Seems like the Heavenly Sound Sect's bent on keeping us here till our deaths, with no means to compromise huh?" Wang Xian asked. In a cold demeanor, he surveyed the fourteen Inborn experts.

"Did you think you could leave, after killing our Sect members?" the elderly lady asked without the slightest cringe on her face. She remained expressionless despite being face to face with the renowned Abyss.

So what if they are the Abyss? The Heavenly Sound Sect hath no fear!

"Haha! With just the few of you?" Wang Xian let out a laugh. With a deathly stare, he continued, "Those with the guts to kill members of the Abyss must be prepared for death. Should the Heavenly Sound Sect dare to intervene, then let's have a fight. We'll see who's to be wiped out first!"

As Wang Xian's obnoxious statement trumpeted throughout the entire Heavenly Sound Sect, the entire senior management could not help but narrow their eyes in fear.

They took a look at the formidable seven-metered Inferno Divine Dragon, which currently stood in front of the Abyss assassins. Thereafter, they eyed the particular Abyss member, recalling how he had just destroyed the Vice Sect Leader's zither with a single palm-strike. To which, their faces stiffened in vigilance.

They were obnoxious beyond tolerance for challenging the Sect to see which party would first perish. This made them either lunatics or powerful opponents.

All around, the Heavenly Sound Sect disciples watched on in silence, as cold sweat trickled down their foreheads.

"Huh?" the elderly lady expressed out of perplexity. She frowned upon hearing Wang Xian's words.

"Supreme Elder!" the Leader of Heavenly Sound Sect greeted as he walked over to the elderly lady, placing a booklet in her hands.

Her face twitched as she scanned through the records in the booklet. Her slight surprise was now replaced with anger in her eyes. "Is this information reliable?" she asked.

"It was the Abyss who tossed them over!" the Sect Leader replied.

"Check! Deploy all manpower from our Heavenly Sound Sect, and check thoroughly on this matter! Check, even if it should cost any lives!" the elderly lady snapped in a rage.

To think that a candidate had resorted to employing assassins to get rid of competitors, in order to vie for the position of Saintess... This was a taboo to the Heavenly Sound Sect.

Utterly shocked, the rest of the sect disciples stared at the Supreme Elder. They were clueless about what had caused such anger from the Supreme Elder.

"Even should our disciples from the Heavenly Sound Sect have erred, it'll be up to us to handle it. By stepping onto the Sacred grounds of our sect to commit murder, you Abyss really have no regard for us, have you!?" the elderly lady rebuked blatantly, tossing the booklet at the Sect Leader.

"Haha! Let me tell you, old fogey. We've already killed your men. Should you dare stop us, we'll let the Heavenly Sound Sect run in a bloodbath!" Wang Xian fired back at the elderly lady. Slightly agitated, he glared at the rest of the Sect.

On the other hand, Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and the rest of Wang Xian's gang were oozing with bloodthirst. Having massacred over a thousand Dark Conjurers previously, each of them had come with blood-stained hands.

When their thirst for blood was unleashed, it was more than enough to spark terror.

As for Wang Xian, he too was exuding a strong aura of the Divine Dragon, which shot straight ahead for the senior management of the Heavenly Sound Sect.

With his prowess on full display this time, even the air had intensified as it began to sizzle.

The ground below Wang Xian's feet began to crack apart, and as it did, the crack widened and extended northwards.

Roar!

The Inferno Divine Dragon let out a growl before it descended in front of Wang Xian and transformed into a smaller, one-meter dragon.

The dragon rested its head on Wang Xian's shoulder while staring right ahead at the crowd with its cold and emotionless eyes.

The air of invincibility was enough to spook the senior management from the Heavenly Sound Sect.

"Such stance!" the elderly lady panicked in a brief moment of fear. She could feel an element of fire sizzling up all around her. She even had the hunch that the surrounding air would begin to burn, should that particular one from the Abyss will it to.

"Dan Realm, he must be an expert from the Dan Realm!" an elder standing not too far away mumbled with a burdened look.

"They're unrivalled, given that Laozu's currently away!" the Leader of Heavenly Sound Sect squeaked softly. Having figured out Wang Xian's abilities, a tinge of fear flashed across his eyes.

"What is it? I've already killed your men. Aren't you going to strike?" Wang Xian asked as he gazed past all the Inborn experts from the Heavenly Sound Sect.

Chapter 330: Kill the Saint, Leave With Ease

The taunt resounded within the Heavenly Sound Sect. However, the entire Heavenly Sound Sect quietened down after Wang Xian's voice died down.

No one dared to make a move. The expressions on the Inborn experts from the Heavenly Sound Sect were changing rapidly.

The atmosphere instantly chilled.

Around them, the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect were shocked and horrified.

Feeling that unrivalled aura, their bodies were shivering in fear. They were surprised to see that the members of the upper management of the sect did not react to the taunt.

There were fourteen Inborn Realm experts and two Inborn-level Sacred Birds from the Heavenly Sound Sect right now!

However, they didn't dare to attack the ten assassins from the Abyss.

This...

It's him! It's definitely him!

At this moment, Tang Yinxuan stared intensely at Wang Xian from the side of the training field.

Even though he was wearing the Abyss Mask, she could still recognize him. That familiar figure was his!

The amiable young man who had brought her an Inborn Spiritual Weapon as gift yesterday was currently in their Sacred Sect and had killed the granddaughter of her Vice Sect Leader.

The scene of Wang Xian standing upright and facing off against the experts of the Sect greatly shocked her.

What incredible strength and imposing stance!

Tang Yinxuan couldn't match the figure of the person she had met and had a meal together with yesterday with the one in front of her eyes currently. However, she was certain that it was him!

"Haha! If you guys aren't going to fight, we are leaving then!"

Wang Xian laughed out loud and looked haughtily at the group. Behind the mask, he revealed a faint expression of ridicule.

"Oh right!"

At this moment, Wang Xian turned his head around.

The experts of the Heavenly Sound Sect stared bitterly at Wang Xian. Murderous intent and shame filled their eyes.

"Old hag, you were too arrogant previously. Moreover, the disciple of the Heavenly Sound Sect have killed two disciples of ours. I have to kill another one!"

As he finished his words, his figure disappeared from sight instantly. The next moment, Wang Xian appeared before the Saint of the Heavenly Sound Sect.

"Don't you dare!"

When the old lady saw Wang Xian appearing before the newly crowned Saint in an instant, she was infuriated.

She played the Heavenly Sound Zither instantly and sharp wind blades shrouded towards Wang Xian.

Wang Xian didn't even look back. Waving his hand back, the dragon head around him enlarged.

Rawrr! A wall of flames neutralized all the wind blades.

Seeing this, the experts of the Heavenly Sound Sect gasped. This was how horrifying and invincible a Dan Realm expert was.

At this moment, Wang Xian stared coldly at the horrified Saint of the Heavenly Sound Sect.

He was the young man who provoked him the previous day.

"No. We have no qualms. No... Please don't kill me..."

At this moment, Wang Xian could no longer see the arrogance and haughtiness from the Saint.

He pleaded for mercy in horror and his face was filled with cold sweat. He almost wanted to kneel on the floor.

"Didn't you say you were going to kill me personally?" Wang Xian looked mockingly at the Saint of the Heavenly Sound Sect and repeated the ruthless words he had said to Wang Xian the previous day.

"What?"

The Saint was lost in the instant. However, a figure quickly flashed in his mind.

His eyes popped wide open and were filled with disbelief.

It can't be! How can this be possible?

His inner self was screaming in despair. That rascal from yesterday, that insignificant guy from before...

He's actually the leader of the Abyss! He's the horrifying existence that all the experts in the Sect didn't dare to go against!

Yet, he had actually made a bold claim to kill him the previous day.

He felt strength being sapped away from his body as he slumped onto the chair behind him. His eyes were filled with despair.

Tsk!

Contempt gleamed in Wang Xian's eyes. Waving his arm, intense flames shrouded the Saint.

Ashes to ashes, dust to dust.

"Abyss!"

A deep growl came from an Inborn expert of the Heavenly Sound Sect. Wang Xian turned over and laughed, "Now that we have taken our revenge, the Abyss shall no longer have any feud with you guys. Obviously, if you guys aren't satisfied, our Abyss wouldn't mind playing with you!"

The hysterical laughter resounded throughout the training field. Subsequently, Wang Xian jumped and left rapidly.

Behind him, Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan and the other dragonians followed closely behind and left the Heavenly Sound Sect.

The members of the upper management of the Heavenly Sound Sect pulled long faces and looked bitterly at the rapidly disappearing figures.

They couldn't help but feel helpless.

"If our Laozu was here, we wouldn't have had to suffer such grievances!" the Sect Leader of the Heavenly Sound Sect growled bitterly, clenching his fist tightly.

Ten assassins of the Abyss had barged into their Heavenly Sound Sect and killed two of their disciples right in front of them. One of them was the granddaughter of the Vice Sect Leader while the other was their Saint.

They showed no regards and killed them in a domineering manner.

Puff!

"I'll report this to Laozu. Besides this, settle this matter as soon as possible!"

The old lady took a deep breath. She stared at the book in the hands of the Sect Leader and instructed coldly.

The Abyss had killed their disciples! This was something they would want to make them pay for!

However, the one who had offended the Abyss and resulted in them killing the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect would receive punishment too, regardless of whether she was already dead.

Nonetheless, they wanted to investigate this matter thoroughly. If there were people supporting these people in the dark, they shall not be forgiven either!

The old lady took a glance at the Vice Sect Leader before leaving.

The surrounding few Inborn experts also pulled long faces as they moved towards the main peak to discuss the matter.

"That's too horrifying!"

"The Abyss is simply too strong. They actually managed to intimidate our experts from taking actions!"

"Their strength has definitely reached the level of a Sacred Sect. Otherwise, our Heavenly Sound Sect wouldn't be that wary!"

"Perhaps it's because our Laozu isn't around and the Supreme Elder didn't dare to act rashly. The assassin from the Abyss is too strong. Look at our training field. Even the tough flooring of the training field has cracks of over ten meters long. Is he still human?"

"Our Saint was killed directly. He's really unlucky!"

"The Abyss is indeed incomparably horrifying and domineering, just as the rumors said. The Saint hadn't offended them but was still implicated in this."

The surrounding disciples exchanged glances and whispered softly among themselves.

For the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect, it was as though they had experienced a 10.0 earthquake.

The self-proclaimed invincible Sect was invaded directly and the invaders even killed on the ground.

This had doused their arrogant attitude with a cold basin of water.

"How did Senior sister Hu offend the assassins of the Abyss? From what their leader said, it appears that Senior sister Hu had employed the Dark Conjurers to assassinate their disciples!"

At this moment, the disciples of the Heavenly Sound Sect thought of a question when they looked at the corpse on the stage.

The crowd was confused, baffled, surprised and shocked.

"Who would have expected things to develop like this?"

Tang Yinxuan looked at the Hao Zhong in his hands before looking in the direction where the Saint had been reduced to dust. At this moment, she couldn't help but sigh.

She knew why Hu Qingqing had been killed and also the reason why the Saint had eventually been reduced to dust.

"All of these things were simply the consequences of their actions. The pride of an expert isn't something they could offend. They were too arrogant!"

Tang Yinxuan shook her head slightly and placed Hao Zhong back into the box.

After today's incident, the position of the Saintess was almost certainly hers.

Chapter 331: To Refine All Elixir Pills In The World With The Origin Source Flame

"Young Master, Mo Shiwu has sent word. The floating island is now beside the Bohai Sea. A group of Dragon Palace members is now guarding it!" the Dragonians updated Wang Xian.

After exiting from the Heavenly Sound Sect, seven Dragonians from the Abyss parted ways with Wang Xian, while he rushed over to Rivertown on his caravan.

The original plan was to transform the Bohai Sea island into a base, but it had since been aborted due to the emergence of the Sacred Seas of Swords.

Construction on the island was also left to waste, while the group of Dragonians was given free rein to develop on their own.

As of now, the Bohai Sea island was of minimal use to Wang Xian and gang. On the other hand, the floating island had taken over as the optimal base.

"We'll transform the floating island, and refurbish a part of it into the future base of the Dragon Sect. In addition, we'll refurbish another part of the island into a scenic spot. Yes, and the area shall also serve as a place for residence, fun, and leisure!" Wang Xian elaborated with a radiating smile.

"Yes, Young Master!" Mo Qinglong nodded in acknowledgment.

The caravan sped its way ahead and arrived at the villa before nightfall.

Wang Xian walked into the villa beaming, only to realize that there was no one in the room.

He gave Xiao Yu a call and was told that the group of girls had gone out for a meal and shopping.

"Let's go. Let's head over to the floating island," Wang Xian said, shaking his head.

With one quick shift, Wang Xian dived into the sea and hurried over in the direction of the floating island.

As he was nearing the floating island, Wang Xian could see his group of Dragon Sect henchmen patrolling around the island.

Under their protection, the floating island would never be seized, even if it should be discovered.

For three Level 11 creatures and close to another thirty Inborn-level fighters had spaced themselves out around the perimeter of the island. This made the island impregnable, even if it was attacked by two Sacred Sects at once.

Whereas Mo Shiwu had seen to the clearing up and sorting out of the treasures on the island single handedly, keeping them stored in a room.

After these treasures were sold for cash, there would be more than sufficient funds to commence construction on the island.

Under Wang Xian's orders, the leisure area was to be constructed in resemblance to famous beaches, so it would be very ideal as a relaxation spot in the times to come.

As he arrived at the Spiritual Medicine Garden, Wang Xian saw that the Spiritual Medicine plants were growing well and healthy.

Let's test out my Art of Refining Elixir Pills, Wang Xian suggested to himself. He'd had no opportunity to try it out ever since he had gained the technique.

The Art of Refining Elixir Pills was an ability which Wang Xian now prioritized. His intention was thus to master it as soon as possible.

The most ordinary of Elixir Pills would be Level 1 Elixir Pills. Amongst which, the Qi Accumulation Pill's considered the elementary Elixir Pill. Level 2 to 3 Martial Artists would take them to upgrade a level directly. In addition, the Qi Accumulation Pill's able to help strengthen one's constitution when taken, which would greatly benefit even Level 5 to 6 Martial Artists!

As he stood in front of the Spiritual Medicine Garden, he began to recall individual Elixir Pill recipes.

"Qi Accumulation Grass, and Water Flower!" Wang Xian exclaimed. He remembered that only two types of Spiritual Grasses were required in the refinement of a Qi Accumulation Pill. Whereas there was only one formula to abide by in the refinement of an Elixir Pill.

A Level 1 Elixir Pill would be attained using flame refinement, along with the combination of two types of Spiritual Grasses in a perfected ratio. While a Level 2 Elixir Pill would require the combination of four Spiritual Grass types during refinement, and nine types in the case of a Level 3 Elixir Pill, and so on and so forth.

Hence, a Level 4 Elixir Pill would take up sixteen Spiritual Grass types, given that the formula was the square of the Pill Level in question.

Meanwhile, a stalk of Qi Accumulation Pill and a Water Flower could produce more than one Elixir Pill after refinement, where powerful alchemists could even produce up to three pills in one go.

And these several pills would be worth more than ten times the original value of the Qi Accumulation Grass and Water Flower combined.

Thus the occupation of an alchemist was a very lucrative career. Yet, at the same time, it was one which required substantial investment. Hence, many alchemists ended up losing money as the refinement of Elixir Pills did not come with guaranteed success.

According to Sui Huang, only several forces within the underworld had mastered the Art of Refining Elixir Pills, thus controlling its industry; which makes alchemists even rarer than Miracle Doctors.

The Medical Saint Sect was the best when it came to the Art of Refining Elixir Pills, given that they possessed the most Elixir Pill recipes. Using these Elixir Pills to help save and treat patients, they were thus ranked amongst the top three of all Sacred Sects.

Next came the Medical Tripod Mountain Sect. Not only were they a First-Class Force, but the apex of all, one which even other Sacred Sects maintained close ties with.

There were barely any existing alchemists within the underworld, which explained why Elixir Pills became even rarer.

Wang Xian walked into the Spiritual Medicine Garden, and plucked a stalk of Qi Accumulation Grass and a Water Flower. As the two were Level 1 Spiritual Grasses, there were plenty of them growing in the garden.

To which, he began to recollect the composite ratio of the Qi Accumulation Pill along with the essentials of refining one.

"Based on the Manual on the Art of Refining Elixir Pills, an alchemy furnace is not required for the refinement of Pills below Level 3. It'll only be necessary for Pills of higher Levels. Under stabilized flames, melt the Qi Accumulation Grass and Water Flower. At the moment when they melt, mix the two together in ratios of 1.035 to 2.312 respectively. Thereafter, simmer the mix in mid-fire until the two blend together perfectly," Wang Xian recited.

This involved the melting and ablation points.

As the name suggests, melting points concern the melting of composites. As for ablation, this involves the composite turning into ash.

Where the flames are too strong, the Spiritual Grasses would turn directly into ash, and render the refinement a complete failure.

In addition, there were the opportune moments of blending, and timings to be considered, making it all the more complicated!

Hence, the Art of Refining Elixir Pills was not as simple as it seemed. It would take hundreds, even thousands of practice attempts before one could become an alchemist.

"Humph, let's give it a go!" Wang Xian willed himself as he took in a deep breath. By inhaling deeply, he helped to calm himself down as he sorted his thoughts out.

First came the controlling of the flame temperatures, which had to be neither too high nor too low.

Next came the composite ratios of the ingredients.

The controlling of flames was a piece of cake to Wang Xian. With the Origin Source Flame in his possession, he could therefore change the temperatures of the flame at will.

As Wang Xian stretched his palms out, a ball of flames appeared on both. At his will, he transformed the flames into two small objects which resembled ramequins. Glowing, the two Flaming Bowls seemed to brim with life.

"First, let's try to control and adjust the flames!" Wang Xian said as he looked at the two Flaming Bowls. At his will, the flames on the left bowl darkened in color, while the one on the right remained constant.

"Alright, the two Spiritual Grasses need to be mixed together within one second after they've melted. Plus, they have to be blended according to the perfect ratio. Otherwise, the Elixir Pill will end up as poison instead of medicine!" Wang Xian cautioned.

With one swift toss, Wang Xian emptied the two Spiritual Grasses into the Flaming Bowls.

Just then, the notification came.

Ding!

[Are you intending to refine all Elixir Pills in the world with the Origin Source Flame?]

To which, Wang Xian was mildly startled as his face twitched briefly.

"Yes!" Wang Xian nodded immediately, as his eyes glistened.

Suddenly, Wang Xian noticed changes in the flames in his hands. They turned red, crimson red to be exact, and as the two Spiritual Grasses landed upon the fiery surface, they melted into drops of liquid.

The liquid appeared very eye-catching as it swirled within the Origin Source Flame. None of the liquid had dissipated, as though it had been protected by the flames, which meant that the medicinal effects had not weakened either.

"Tsk! At this rate, it seems like we can bypass many steps in the refining of Elixir Pills!" Wang Xian gasped in excitement.

Controlling the liquids of the two Spiritual Grasses once again, he willed them, this time causing them to commence mixing.

"Blend!" Wang Xian commanded with a glow in his eyes, looking at the four liquid masses.

Chapter 332: The Horrifying Effects Of Refining Elixir Pills

The Origin Source Flame was the ultimate source of flame.

Flame represented succession, life and civilization. On the other hand, it could also signify destruction.

Refining elixir pills with the Origin Source Flame was a perfect display of life.

The flame wouldn't destroy the spiritual grass violently. Instead, it would fuse it perfectly into a new form.

It was just like the sun that emitted flames. Only sunlight could enable better growth of many other living things.

As the Origin Source Flame melted the spiritual grass and enveloped it perfectly, it was able to prevent the loss of the medical effects.

This process had also skipped the most important step of controlling the temperature of the flame.

At the thought of Wang Xian, the liquid of Qi Accumulation Grass and Water Flower fused together into a sphere slowly.

As the Origin Source Flame dissipated gradually, four elixir pills were slowly forming. A glow shimmered on the surface of these pills.

Wang Xian was thrilled and stared intensely at the four elixir pills in his hand.

The elixir pills were white and looked glossy. They were the size of a thumb and perfectly shaped.

At the thought of Wang Xian, the information of these elixir pills popped up in his mind.

Qi Accumulation Pill: Level 1

Extractable Dragon Energy: 2,322

When he saw his first batch of elixir pills, Wang Xian was thrilled. He had succeeded! He had succeeded on his first try!

Eh?

At this moment, Wang Xian's attention fell on the last elixir pill and he frowned.

Broken Qi Pill: Level 1

Couldn't extract dragon energy.

"Broken Qi Pill? Why is there a Broken Qi Pill? Furthermore, I can't extract dragon energy from it!"

Wang Xian's eyebrows knitted together. Suddenly, he recalled that when fusing the two spiritual medicines together, the liquid of the Water Flower wasn't sufficient for the last elixir pill.

Although it wasn't enough, he still managed to gather the remains into an elixir pill.

In the end, he got a Broken Qi Pill.

"When refining elixir pills fail, the product will be poisonous!" Wang Xian sighed emotionally. However, he also discovered a horrifying aspect of refining elixir pills with his Origin Source Flame.

Just as the introduction of the system said, he could refine all elixir pills in the world with the Origin Source Flame.

Even if the elixir pill recipe was wrong, he could still concoct elixir pills. The difference was that the product might be poisonous.

Spiritual medicine could complement and counter each other. When fusing water attribute spiritual medicine with Fire attribute spiritual medicine, an explosion could be caused by an error in the process.

However, this wouldn't happen with the Origin Source Flame. The Origin Source

Flame would ensure they fused together.

"It would be great if all the pills made by the Origin Source Flame were elixir pills." Wang Xian laughed delusionally.

"Using the Origin Source Flame to refine elixir pills would be much easier for me!" Wang Xian was ecstatic. He waved his hand and collected all the Qi Accumulation Grass and Water Flower.

He waved again and the Origin Source Flame appeared. After which, he threw the spiritual medicine into the two red flames.

Soon, all the spiritual medicine had been turned into liquid.

Wang Xian looked at the two bowls of spiritual medicine liquid. Focusing on them, he started fusing them according to proportion.

For him, allocating the proportion was the only thing that he needed to pay attention to.

Explosions, temperature, control of the flame and the loss of medicinal effects weren't issues for him.

In the hands of Wang Xian, refining elixir pills had become a process of squeezing the spiritual medicine into the shape of the elixir pills.

The fusion of two types of spiritual medicine was very easy for him. Soon, droplets of spiritual medicine liquid coalesced together.

Within the spiritual medicine garden, all the Qi Accumulation Grass and Water Flower had been made into elixir pills.

There was a total of approximately 150 elixir pills made.

"A Qi Accumulation Grass with a Water Flower would give four elixir pills. This is one to two more than what Sui Huang told me! Hehe!" Wang Xian smiled and revealed a satisfied expression.

150 Level 1 elixir pills were equivalent to having 150 tufts of Level 2 spiritual medicine.

Currently, the price of a Level 2 spiritual medicine is between $7 million to $10 million.

If all 150 elixir pills are sold, it would be over a billion!

"Haha, refining elixir pills is a really lucrative business. If I can refine all the spiritual medicine in the garden into elixir pills, I wouldn't be far from being able to build the Dragon Palace."

Wang Xian looked at the spiritual medicine around the garden. Based on the recipes in his mind, he started refining.

Level 1 elixir pill, Body Strengthening Pill, could be consumed even by ordinary humans. When an ordinary man consumed it, his strength would increase by one to two times. For cultivators, these effects were weak.

However, Wang Xian wasn't concerned. There would definitely be people who would buy these elixir pills.

Level 1 elixir pills were made quickly.

Soon, he had over thirty Body Strengthening Pills.

"Time to refine Level 2 elixir pills!"

After completing the refining of Level 1 elixir pills, Wang Xian started recalling the recipe for Level 2 elixir pills. After which, he started refining rapidly.

Level 2 elixir pills had strong positive effects for Level 6 and 7 Martial Artists. Level 2 elixir pills that strengthen one's strength could help Level 5 and 6 Martial Artists increase one level directly.

The value of Level 2 elixir pills could reach $3 million to $4 million each.

Level 3 elixir pills had extremely huge benefits for Level 8 and 9 Martial Artists.

Level 4 elixir pills could help a Level 9 Martial Artist break through to the Half-step to Inborn Realm.

As for Level 5 elixir pills, they could help a Half-Step to Inborn Realm expert break through to the Inborn Realm.

Currently, Sui Huang was able to refine Level 5 elixir pills. It was also because of this that the Sui Family had so many Inborn experts.

Level 2 elixir pills required four types of spiritual medicine. However, it wasn't difficult at all.

Level 3 elixir pills required the combination of nine types of spiritual medicine. Similarly, Wang Xian didn't face any difficulty in it.

"Huh? I can't carry on. I don't have sufficient Origin Source Flame!"

When Wang Xian was prepared to refine Level 4 elixir pills, he suddenly found himself in an awkward situation.

He had only managed to get his hands on a small amount of Origin Source Flame. The Origin Source Flame converted from the Five Elements Stone Plate couldn't form sixteen small cups of flame.

"At this point, there was only one way to solve this issue, and that was getting an alchemy furnace!"

Wang Xian recalled something Sui Huang had told him. If he wished to refine elixir pills above Level 3, he would require the use of an alchemy furnace.

The effects of an alchemy furnace were huge. It could reduce the amount of flame needed and increase the success rate of getting elixir pills. At the same time, it could protect him.

When high level elixir pills exploded, the destructive force would be exceptionally horrifying.

"An alchemy furnace is really rare and hard to find."

Wang Xian frowned and looked at the elixir pills before him.

Level 1 elixir pills: 150 Qi Accumulation Pill and 30 Body Strengthening Pill

Level 2 elixir pills: 20 Bone Grinding Pill and 15 Channel Nourishing Pill

Level 3 elixir pills: 20 Soul Enhancement Pill

These were the elixir pills that Wang Xian had refined thus far. Refining Level 3 elixir pills would require nine different types of spiritual medicine. Wang Xian only managed to find spiritual medicine required for the Soul Enhancement Pill in the spiritual medicine garden.

The effects of the Soul Enhancement Pill were extremely potent. It could increase a Level 9 Martial Artist's chance of breaking through to the Half-step to Inborn Realm by twenty percent.

The effects were equivalent to consuming a Level 4 Spiritual Bead.

"Since the Spiritual Bead was sold for $800 million previously, wouldn't that mean that these 20 Level 3 elixir pills would be worth over $10 billion? Together with the other elixir pills, the value would be approximately $20 billion!"

Wang Xian was thrilled and excited.

"Selling elixir pills is indeed lucrative. For now, I need to find a way to sell these elixir pills. At the same time, I need to get an alchemy furnace. Level 4 and 5 elixir pills are the ones that are really valuable and lucrative!"

Chapter 333: Holy Goddess

Wang Xian was now rich; in fact he was now a parvenu.

He was in a great mood, as he hugged onto the porcelain vase which held more than twenty billion dollars' worth of Elixir Pills.

"In the next couple of days, I'll have some rest, and cultivate my Spiritual Grasses." Wang Xian grinned with satisfaction.

He took a look at the time and realized that it was past nine at night. In quick moves, he dashed for the villa.

As he arrived at the villa, Wang Xian saw Guan Shuqing, Xiao Yu, Elder Fang, Xiao Ran and his younger sister practicing swordplay together in the courtyard.

Sui Huang was lying at a side while giving guidance to those at practice.

Currently, Guan Shuqing and Xiao Yu had attained status as Half-step Inborns, which meant Elder Fang was no longer qualified to mentor Xiao Yu. While she may have been Sect Leader of the Thistles and Thorns Sect, Elder Fang's prowess was still below a Half-step Inborn.

Rather than letting Elder Fang take her leave, Xiao Yu decided that she should stay on with her to practice cultivation.

Naturally, Wang Xian did not treat Elder Fang shabbily either, but gifted her with a continual supply of Spiritual Grasses and Spiritual Medicine.

Which had eventually helped Elder Fang to attain the status of Half-step Inborn that she was today.

As for Xiao Ran, his abilities were only that of a Level 8 Martial Artist. Nonetheless, it was a formidable feat considering that he was only in his early teens. Meanwhile, he was accompanied by his little sister, Liu Mengxin, who practiced with him. Having been accepted by Sun Lingxiu as an apprentice, Mengxin not only cultivated herself by practicing the Divine Dragon Transformation, but also the Art of Cultivation by Miracle Doctor Shenghua.

Both of which were attributed to the Light Element.

"Brother!" Xiao Yu cheered.

"Xiao Xian!" Guan Shuqing called out.

"Master!" Xiao Ran greeted.

The group did not stop their practice even as they saw Wang Xian and gang approaching, but continued as they welcomed them with a beam. Wang Xian reciprocated with a smile while he stood in the courtyard and watched briefly.

"You guys continue practicing!" Sui Huang ordered while he continued to lie down on the bench, eyeing Wang Xian with slit eyes as he spoke.

"I've only taken in one disciple, yet I'm here guiding an entire group through their cultivation!" Sui Huang resigned himself to his fate, with his sighs obviously meant for Wang Xian.

"Formidable Sui Huang, a good master who's so rare even in ten thousand years!" Wang Xian laughed as he headed towards his bedroom.

"Not the slightest sincerity in your compliment!" Sui Huang nagged before he continued to guide Guan Shuqing and the group.

Inside the villa, Sun Lingxiu was busy working away in the kitchen. Upon seeing her from the back, Wang Xian smiled as he passed by.

The current Sun Lingxiu was truly impeccable.

When dawn broke the following day, Wang Xian gazed at Guan Shuqing who was still in bed. She had gone back to sleep smirking after she managed to apply for leave.

As Wang Xian walked down the villa, a thought came to mind. I'll take a look at the Divine Dragon Medical Hall! Wang Xian decided, before he hastened his pace over.

He had not been to the Divine Dragon Medical Hall even once since placing it under the care of Sun Lingxiu. But the latter had given him a card just the day before.

The card had held a value of more than two hundred million dollars, which were the takings of the Medical Hall for the past ten days.

This translates to more than twenty million dollars in daily takings, which was much higher than what he had seen during his days over there.

As Wang Xian arrived at the main entrance of the Divine Dragon Medical Hall, he was astonished by the sight before him.

It was just around ten in the morning, but more than twenty people had gathered at the main entrance.

It was a group clad in ordinary wear, consisting of both young and old, many of whom looked like villagers.

They were standing at the main entrance and queuing quietly, no one daring to create a ruckus.

Wang Xian was rather surprised but continued to head inside.

As he walked past the main entrance, he discovered that the interior had been flooded by people. The Miracle Doctor Blood Man was also inside, treating patients and giving consultations.

Several elderly people were lying on the sickbeds. With their shabby attire, it was clear that their conditions back home were less than ideal.

Wang Xian turned to look at the surrounding walls, only to discover that they were covered in all sorts of pennant flags.

On some of them were messages thanking Doctor Sun for her selfless dedication to helping and saving lives.

While others complimented her as "Female Miracle Doctor of Great Chinese," as an expression of gratitude for her contributions.

Pennant flags of all varieties hung on the walls, covering them almost to the brim.

Wang Xian continued to look at the sides and realized that the rules which he had set previously had all been changed.

"To save the dying and aid the injured: Kind-hearted but poor patients shall receive treatment free-of-charge!" one of the rules read.

"Martial Artists of rich families will be charged no less than five million dollars for treatment!" another said.

"This is no doubt befitting of Sun Lingxiu's character!" Wang Xian exclaimed as he saw the amended rules by the doors. He was not the least bit angry over the amendments but instead admired Sun Lingxiu for her benevolent nature.

Having witnessed many life and death situations, and getting accustomed to such partings in the hospital, she had seen for herself countless patients who were unable to afford treatment due to poverty.

Therefore, she chose to treat for free.

Which, of course, was meant solely for the impoverished, the kind but poor people.

All of whom would be placed under the care of Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

While he appeared to be a middle-aged man, Miracle Doctor Blood Man was in fact in his eighties and was able to determine people's character through certain means, which meant no one could go undetermined.

That said, no one had dared to visit in disguise as a poor person, for the Miracle Doctor Blood Man was not a kind soul himself.

After some who had dared to risk it suffered as a result, none had made further attempts.

The first level was meant for treatment of the ordinary folks, while the second level was set aside by Sun Lingxiu for the treatment of the affluent Martial Artists.

With this, Wang Xian made his way up to the second floor.

Just as Wang Xian arrived at the second floor and was about to walk further inside, he was hauled to a stop.

"Hold it right there. Queue up if you're here to seek treatment. Wait at the side," the voice ordered him.

"Huh?" Wang Xian said in shock, as he looked to the side.

It was a young man who had called out to Wang Xian coldly, as he sat at the side with his head tilted slightly skywards.

Beside him were two other middle-aged men.

Aside from the trio, there were two other young men, each with a sword in hand. It was clear that they were from the underworld.

In spite of their air of arrogance, the three young men were very handsome-looking.

There were also two fresh flowers which lay beside side the young duo, looking really gorgeous.

"This? What's with this situation?" Wang Xian questioned, slightly confused. He continued to walk inwards while brushing the young men aside.

"Don't you know the rules here? Access is strictly prohibited when Miracle Doctor Sun's attending to patients!" the young man who had called out to Wang Xian earlier scolded again when he saw that he was being ignored.

"Who are you?" Wang Xian asked indifferently as he eyed the young man.

"You're not qualified to know who I am. Wait here if you're seeking treatment. Otherwise, if you have designs on Doctor Sun, then scram!" the young man hollered at Wang Xian, taking a domineering stance.

"Here to court the Holy Goddess? Identify yourself, and we'll decide. If you're not qualified, then get out at once!" one from the young duo chipped in snobbishly as he raised his head.

Wang Xian found it a tad amusing as he looked at the three obnoxious young men.

Holy Goddess, huh? That must be the title meant for Sun Lingxiu.

"Given Sun Lingxiu's beauty and elegance, ninety-nine out of a hundred men would be attracted. It's only natural that she has suitors!" Wang Xian laughed as he continued making his way inside.

"Stop there. Didn't you hear? Are you courting death?" the three young men threatened as their faces darkened when they saw Wang Xian's dismissal.

As they stood up composedly, they fixed their focus on Wang Xian.

The two middle-aged men glared at Wang Xian with icy stares.

"Eh?" Sun Lingxiu frowned. She was treating a patient inside the consultation room when she heard the commotion outside.

Turning her head over, she looked on in surprise but walked over to Wang Xian with all smiles immediately after.

"Xiao Xian, what brings you here at this hour?" Sun Lingxiu beamed like a blooming flower, which was enough to make hearts flutter.

"I'm here to take a look!" Wang Xian smiled back in response.

"The three wastrel disciples outside haven't been rude to you, have they?" Sun Lingxiu asked blatantly. As she walked to Wang Xian's side, she swept her glance past the three young men.

"No, they haven't. These three look rather professional, they're pretty good!" Wang Xian evaluated with a laugh.

"Haha! I'll make you tea!" Sun Lingxiu giggled. She hurried back into the room to retrieve the teacups and started brewing Wang Xian's favorite Longjing Tea.

[\[1\]](#)

"This ... This ...," the three young men outside the room uttered as they stared at their goddess in astonishment.

"This ... How is this possible ... This can't be, my goddess ..." Their voices trailed off.

Endnote:

[1] Literally translated as "Tea from the Dragon's Well," this is a type of pan-roasted Green Tea from Longjing Village in Hangzhou, Zhejiang Province of China Back

Chapter 334: Mission At The Yellow River

The three young men at the door looked blankly at this scene.

Sun Lingxiu was their goddess and was referred to as the Holy Goddess from Jiang Bei by the entire medical world. At this moment, she was acting so lovingly with a young man!

Even an idiot would be able to see in her eyes her love and interest for the young man.

Moreover, what Miracle Doctor Sun had said had crushed their hearts.

In their faces, she called them three good-for-nothings.

She even asked the young man if the three of them had offended him. If they had, would she throw them out?

On top of it, the response from the young man infuriated them further. The three door guards are pretty good?

Door guards?

The trio pulled a long face, stood there and were shivering a little from anger.

When they saw their dream goddess pouring tea for that young man enthusiastically while treating them coldly, they even had the thought of dying.

"Who's that guy? Why is our Holy Goddess treating him so warmly?" a young man growled in a low voice. He stared bitterly into the medical hall and clenched his fist tightly.

However, he didn't dare to charge in or question.

The reputation of the Divine Dragon Medical Hall was known throughout the Underworld. The title of Holy Goddess and Miracle Doctor Sun wasn't just approval for her medical skills. It was also a recognition of the strength she possessed.

Five days ago, an Elder of a First-class Force had come to seek treatment. The Elder agreed to pay six spiritual stone but refused to pay up after treatment.

The Elder from the First-class Force was then finished off by the Blood Man at ground floor.

The First-class Force was infuriated and sent two Inborn experts to take revenge on the Divine Dragon Medical Hall.

In the end, the two Inborn experts never left the place.

From that day onwards, everyone was shocked to realize that not only did the Holy Goddess, Miracle Doctor Sun, have incredible medical skills, but she also possessed horrifying strength.

She would at least be at the Inborn-level.

Since then, no one dared to kick up a ruckus in the Divine Dragon Medical Hall.

As for the Holy Goddess, Miracle Doctor Sun, she made it to the fifth rank on the Miracle Doctors Chart, an extremely high ranking, within ten days!

The expressions on the three young men changed rapidly. In the end, they walked out bitterly.

"The business is really good!" Wang Xian looked at Sun Lingxiu and commented with a smile.

"Yeah, it's pretty good. We have patients from all over the world coming here to seek treatment each day." Sun Lingxiu revealed a joyous smile. "However, we rarely get payments with spiritual stones!"

Wang Xian didn't mind and shook his head as he replied, "It must have been tough on you."

"Not at all. I'm really happy with the way I'm living now!" Sun Lingxiu replied contentedly. "Xiao Xian, wait a minute for me. Let me treat a patient in the medical hall first!"

Looking at Sun Lingxiu's sincere expression, Wang Xian was taken aback and quickly looked around him.

There was an isolated space near the window. Wang Xian walked over and saw a pink bolster.

He smiled gently and switched on the computer by the side.

After entering the Underworld website, Wang Xian started browsing.

He had various types of elixir pills and wanted to sell them.

One couldn't put things up for sale on the Underworld website. If one wished to sell something, he had to find the buyer himself.

Wang Xian did find people looking to purchase elixir pills. However, these buyers were only looking for a single pill. Therefore, he ignored the request.

When he clicked into the Miracle Doctors Chart, he was surprised to find Sun Lingxiu reaching the fifth rank on the Miracle Doctors Chart.

"Doctor Sun, this is our invitation letter. Our guys will be here to receive you two days from now!"

At this moment, the voice of a middle-aged man came from outside the medical hall.

"Alright, I'll be there on time!"

"Thank you, Doctor Sun!"

The middle-aged man left quickly and Sun Lingxiu walked in with an invitation letter.

Wang Xian looked at it inquisitively.

"This is an invitation letter from our country. They discovered a strange creature and a virus on a plain beside Huangqi City near the Yellow River. If one were bitten by the creature, he would definitely be dead. Furthermore, they found strong venom within the river water!"

"Several hundreds of people had died and the place is now cordoned off. There's a need to find the reason for it soon or the virus might spread to other places!"

"Three days ago, the representatives of our country came to invite me. Once this incident is settled, they will give me a Light Attribute Spiritual Ball," Sun Lingxiu explained to Wang Xian.

"Oh? Strange creatures and viruses?"

Wang Xian was surprised.

"You can't really call them strange creatures or viruses. Instead, the creatures there have undergone a horrifying mutation. Currently, the top mission in the Underworld is also regarding this. If one could help resolve this matter, he could enter the National Treasury and choose two items to his liking.

Sun Lingxiu looked at Wang Xian and continued, "Xiao Xian, are you interested in going to take a look?"

"I can enter the National Treasury and choose any two items?" Wang Xian was shocked to hear Sun Lingxiu.

If there was ever a place with lots of treasures, it was the National Treasury. Considering that the country had issued the mission on the Underworld website, it would mean that there were things useful for Martial Artists.

It wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that there would be lots of Inborn level weapons in the National Treasury.

It was said that there were two to three of the ten famed swords kept within the National Museum.

Besides weapons, there should be other powerful artifacts. These artifacts would likely draw the fervent attention of Inborn experts.

Wang Xian was dumbfounded.

There should be alchemy furnaces in the National Treasury. Moreover, the level of the alchemy furnace I can find there should be pretty high! Wang Xian thought to himself. He immediately clicked into the thread of the mission on the Underworld website.

Just as Sun Lingxiu had explained, the country had issued a mission regarding an incident that happened at Huangqi City near the Yellow River.

Anyone who could identify the cause of the incident would be allowed to take one item from the National Treasury.

If one could resolve the incident, he could take any two items of his liking.

The reward for this mission could be considered really handsome. Wang Xian was almost certain that the reward for this mission would be an object at the level of an Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

Naturally, no one would stop you if you did not wish to take any of these priceless treasures after entering the National Treasury.

Even the experts in the Sacred Sects will likely be attracted by this mission. Moreover, the country even invited and promised various Miracle Doctors various items on top of issuing the mission to the Underworld. This mission is likely not as simple as it might seem, Wang Xian thought to himself. However, after pondering, he still decided to give it a try.

If he could succeed and get a powerful alchemy furnace, it would be much easier for him to refine higher level elixir pills.

"Alright! Let's go together!" Wang Xian said to Sun Lingxiu.

"Alright, let's go together. Xiao Xian, these are some pictures and information on the situation of the sealed village near the Yellow River. You can take a look first.

Sun Lingxiu took out a file by the side and handed it to Wang Xian.

"Alright!"

Wang Xian nodded his head and opened up the file. When he saw the pictures in the file, he was taken aback.

Chapter 335: The Arrogant Young Man from Medical Saint Sect

They were strange, even eerie, and yet ordinary creatures.

There was an ant, a very huge one, and its head held a mass which resembled a mushroom.

Then there was an all-black leech. With a mouth which was entirely split open, its claws stuck out with countless sharp pricks.

Next was a white leech. With teeth on its head, its entire body was smudged in a sticky blood-colored liquid.

While the last was a mosquito, a blood-sucking mosquito with a ghostly face and crimson body.

These were four ordinary creatures, and yet they appeared so gruesome in the photos, as if they had gone through some terrifying mutation.

Furthermore, each of these four otherwise tiny creatures were now the size of a human palm. Which made them all the more horrifying.

Each record was captioned by numerous sentences below.

The four creatures moved at accelerated speeds. Unless one had the abilities of a Level 7 to 8 Martial Artist, it was impossible to dodge their attacks.

In addition, once bitten by such creatures, a person would turn maniac. They would start biting others like a walking corpse and spread the virus to the remaining unaffected.

According to the records, there were currently plenty of these creatures over there, within a radius of thirty kilometers.

"Little wonder why the Miracle Doctor has been asked to order for such a mission!" Wang Xian exclaimed in shock as he read through the records.

Given that only Level 8 to 9 Martial Artists can ensure their own safety in such a place, there would be great hazards should these creatures be able to spread the virus further.

To the extent where irreversible damages and losses were inevitable.

"There'll be someone fetching me in the morning, the day after tomorrow. We'll head over together then!" Sun Lingxiu said cheerfully.

"Sure!" Wang Xian nodded back. He had attended two classes at the university, after hanging around at the Divine Dragon Medical Hall for a while.

When night came, he returned to the villa together with Guan Shuqing and Xiao Yu.

Lan Qingyue had been busier lately, as she was expanding Deep-Sea Jewelry at astonishing speeds.

Moreover, the Zhou Jewelry had been sold to Deep-Sea Jewelry for an astronomical price.

Since the Pilgrimage incident, the Lingyue Sect had been completely scared out of their wits. They were afraid that Wang Xian might really lead a team of experts over to have their Sect annihilated.

Since the Zhou Jewelry had been acquired by Deep-Sea Jewelry, the two had merged to become the nation's largest jeweler.

After which, the company's market value had since doubled.

Thus, Lan Qingyue had been busy handling company matters.

The rest enjoyed a day of thorough relaxation at the villa.

At dawn the following morning, a military Jeep arrived at the villa's doorstep.

A plain clothed militant saluted Sun Lingxiu.

"Sit tight. We'll set off right away!" the militant said.

Wang Xian, Sun Lingxiu and the Miracle Doctor Blood Man got in the Jeep, and in no time arrived at the military airport nearby.

Immediately after, a helicopter flew the trio in the direction of the Huangqi City.

Huangqi City was a Tier 3 to 4 small city, situated near the plains where the Yellow River flowed past.

This time, their destination was set for a region by one of the tributaries of the Yellow River.

The aircraft landed on a makeshift helipad within the plains. As Wang Xian and the rest alighted, they saw many soldiers who had gathered around.

The region was now cordoned off by high-voltage wires, in order to prevent creatures from escaping.

But the method had yielded few results.

Numerous temporary tents were also pitched up front.

The area was also surrounded by many people, accompanied by tens of stationery aircrafts.

"This way please, Miracle Doctor Sun!" a middle-aged man directed as he led Sun Lingxiu and the rest. They ended up at a gigantic tent which stood in the central location.

With one look, it was clear that the tent had been set up as a temporary military command center. It was massive, and would not overcrowd even if it contained more than a hundred.

In fact, the group could already see more than a hundred inside when they first arrived.

Wang Xian squinted his eyes briefly as he swept his gaze across.

The tent was thronging with experts. There were more than a dozen Inborn experts, while the remaining were all Miracle Doctors.

There was a bald Elder who stood out from the crowd. And Wang Xian recognized in an instant that he was Buddhist Physician, who was ranked sixth on the Miracle Doctors' Chart.

Their arrival had turned many heads. Like a firefly which sparkled in the night, Sun Lingxiu shone in a pristine air which could not go unnoticed.

"It's the Holy Goddess, Miracle Doctor Sun!" a group of young men in the tent exclaimed as their eyes glistened. To which, even the middle-aged men could not help but take a few more glances.

"Miracle Doctor Sun, this way please!" said a middle-aged man dressed in military uniform when he saw Sun Lingxiu.

"Sure!" Sun Lingxiu nodded as she walked into the tent.

Inside the tent, there were close to thirty seats which were mostly occupied.

Seated amongst them were people including all the Inborn experts as well as several top-ranking Miracle Doctors.

As Sun Lingxiu had been invited along, it was only natural that she be qualified to sit at the front.

Furthermore, she had the means to, given her current reputation.

"Ack ack! It's rather crowded, but there aren't that many seats!" Miracle Doctor Blood Man joked. As he laughed, he flopped onto a seat and looked around in relaxation.

"The room capacity is limited. Plus people will not gossip when the Miracle Doctors and experts are being seated here!" the middle-aged militant explained with a smile.

Indifferently, Wang Xian also sat down in a seat he found.

He had just settled down when he felt a wave of cold stares surging towards him. Slightly taken aback, Wang Xian turned to take a look.

Beside him, an aged Elder looked on with burning stares. Beside him was a familiar figure - Yan She the Poison Doc.

When Yan She sensed Wang Xian looking in his direction, he acknowledged him with a friendly nod.

"The Sacred Followers Guild!" a voice announced. As it did, Wang Xian saw a group dressed in a synchronized outfit, and felt a slight stir in his heart.

Whereas the Elder smirked as he looked on dryly.

It must be the Master of Miracle Doctor Guang Hua! Wang Xian speculated to himself as he revealed a faint smile, brushing the elder's smirk aside.

"Fellows from the Medical Saint Sect, this way, please!" a voice greeted respectfully at the main entrance. Immediately, the crowd scrambled to give way, freeing up the path.

A young man emerged in the middle of the crowd, with two other Elders walking beside him. Exuding a fragrance of medicinal herbs, the arrogant trio made their way in with their heads held high.

In particular, the young man who was walking in the middle, giving a dry smile while his gaze swept past all who were seated.

With chest puffed out and head held high, the young man stopped briefly when he spotted Sun Lingxiu. Pausing for a moment, a glow flickered across his eyes.

As he hurried his way over, he checked on the sides and looked towards Wang Xian.

"Young lad, could you move over to the seat by the side!" an Elder beside the young man said to Wang Xian flatly, while gesturing with his head low. Meanwhile, the young man remained silent.

"Medical Saint Sect. Even the Medical Saint Sect's here, and with three representatives!" one chirped.

"I know those two Elders. They are the Poison Duo of the Medical Saint Sect. Inborn level experts, highly renowned!" another squeaked.

"Who's that young man? How is it that he's able to stand in between the Poison Duo?" the third asked.

"Can't you tell by looking at his attire? The Medical Saint Sect regards the Hua Family and the Bian Family as their core. There's a Bian character on the young man's attire. He's likely the Core Disciple of the Bian Family!" another explained.

Chapter 336: Insignificant Being!

Scram!

At this moment, the surrounding crowd started whispering. Medical Saint Sect was one of the three strongest Sacred Sects. Every action of theirs could draw the attention of the crowd.

Although most of the people here were from powerful forces, few could match the Medical Saint Sect.

Wang Xian heard the old man. He frowned, lifted the cup by his side and took a sip.

"Aren't there seats right there?" he replied coldly.

Hehe!

The young man laughed upon hearing Wang Xian. He ignored Wang Xian and looked to Sun Lingxiu who was beside Wang Xian.

"I believe this beautiful lady must be the Holy Goddess, Miracle Doctor Sun. I have long heard of your name but I'm still surprised to finally get to see you. You are indeed deserving of the Goddess title!" The young man extended his hand, smiled and greeted, "I'm Bian Yaoquan from the Medical Saint Sect!"

"He's Bian Yaoquan? He's the core disciple of the Bian Branch of Medical Saint Sect and has a high chance of becoming the successor of the Sect Leader of the Medical Saint Sect!"

"The Hua Family and Bian Family of the Medical Saint Sect don't have many descendants. However, every single one of them is part of the core or a member of the higher management of the Medical Saint Sect!"

"Hehe! It appears that even the core disciples of the Medical Saint Sect couldn't resist the charm of Miracle Doctor Sun. The name of Holy Goddess is indeed apt!"

When the surrounding crowd heard the young man's introduction, they began whispering softly among themselves.

Sun Lingxiu lifted her head and looked coldly at the young man. She then looked towards Wang Xian.

There was an old man with lots of scars on his face beside Bian Yaoquan. At this moment, he revealed a horrifying smile.

"You aren't qualified to sit here!" said the old man emotionlessly to Wang Xian.

"Who's that young man?"

When the crowd heard the Poison Duo, they looked towards where Wang Xian was.

Wang Xian had a young face and many people did not recognize him.

Only a few people frowned and sank into deep thought after looking at Wang Xian.

"Oh?" Coldness gleamed in Wang Xian's eyes. The young man and two old men in front of them were incomparably imperious.

"Who is qualified then?" Wang Xian asked emotionlessly while tapping lightly on Zhan Lu with his finger.

"A brat like you is indeed not qualified!" the old man with lots of scars said plainly. Waving his hand slightly, a faint gas shrouded towards Wang Xian.

"Ugly old man, keep your small tricks away!"

At this moment, a faint blood figure flashed across Wang Xian and the voice of Miracle Doctor Blood Man resounded throughout the entire tent.

Huh?

Huh?

Two displeased voices sounded. One was from Bian Yaoquan. Seeing that Sun Lingxiu had completely ignored him, he was annoyed. As for Wang Xian, he wasn't paying attention to him at all. The Poison Duo would settle him.

The second voice came from the old man with lots of scars. When he saw Miracle Doctor Blood Man move, he frowned.

"That is Miracle Doctor Blood Man, a famous Miracle Doctor in Europe. He is now following the Holy Goddess, Miracle Doctor Sun, and sees her as his master!"

"That young man must be... He must be that Miracle Doctor from Rivertown."

"They actually dared to go against the Medical Saint Sect. That's not a wise decision!"

When the surrounding crowd witnessed the developments, they were all shocked.

"Scram! Bring your men along and get lost!" Sun Lingxiu's expression turned cold immediately after seeing that ugly old man attacking Wang Xian with intoxicating poison.

Even if others had attacked her, she wouldn't be this furious.

In her heart, Wang Xian was someone that couldn't be offended. No one was allowed to do so.

A flash of light gleamed in her eyes as she stared harshly at Bian Yaoquan.

Sss!

The surrounding crowd gasped upon hearing Sun Lingxiu. They had not expected the Holy Goddess to chide the people from the Medical Saint Sect.

"YOU..."

When he heard Sun Lingxiu's emotionless remarks, Bian Yaoquan instantly felt embarrassed.

He had been courteous to her and yet she chided him and demanded that he leave!

Bian Yaoquan was really embarrassed and furious to be chided by someone he was fond of in front of the public.

"Die!"

When the Poison Duo heard Sun Lingxiu, their expressions changed as they turned around and glowered at Sun Lingxiu.

"Scram! Is there something freaking wrong with your hearing? Acting all high and mighty when you have just arrived. Which mother f*cker raised you? You guys even attacked others with poison! Bastards, are you courting death!?"

Sensing the two old men staring coldly at his master, Miracle Doctor Blood Man slammed his fists on the table heavily, stood up immediately and went on the offensive verbally with a string of vulgarities in English.

He was in a tuxedo and looked just like a gentleman. However, what he said greatly contrasted his appearance.

Rumble!

The moment Miracle Doctor Blood Man finished his words, the Poison Duo turned green from anger. Horrifying aura started being emitted from them.

"What? You guys want a fight? Hehe! This is going to be interesting!"

Sensing the two old men releasing their aura, Miracle Doctor Blood Man stared at them coldly. Blood mist circulated around him.

"Everyone, please don't start a fight here!"

At this moment, a voice broke the standoff. The middle-aged man in a military uniform walked out and warned them.

"Hey, did you see what they have done. This ugly old man attacked us with poison. How presumptuous of them! They must be treating this as their backyard!"

Hearing the middle-aged man, Miracle Doctor Blood Man released his bloody aura, pointing at the old man with lots of scars as he spoke.

The Poison Duo felt their eyebrows twitching a little as they stared intensely at Miracle Doctor Blood Man with dense killing intent.

"What right do you have to sit here?" Bian Yaoquan looked furiously at Wang Xian and asked plainly.

"He's the ninth rank on the Miracle Doctors Chart, Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown! He's also the youngest of the Miracle Doctors!"

At this moment, the voice of Poison Doc, Yan She, sounded from a corner. He was playing with the poisonous snake in his hand as he made the remark in a light-hearted tone.

When Bian Yaoquan heard him, he was taken aback and started feeling embarrassed.

"Bian Yaoquan?"

Wang Xian lifted his head, looked at the young man and said, "What are you then? You are just an insignificant being. You might have your parents giving in to you in Medical Saint Sect, but you are in the outside world now. Who's going to give in to you? Questioning me? Just get lost!" Wang Xian chided.

The surrounding crowd looked at Bian Yaoquan with ridicule.

There were lots of people here who were from Sacred Sect. Even if they weren't from Sacred Sects, they were Inborn experts.

They might fear the Medical Saint Sect, but if they were afraid of a disciple from the Medical Saint Sect, they would have let down their efforts to reach the Inborn Realm.

"Haha, rascal! Take a look around you. Who dares to act cool if he doesn't have the strength to back it. Take a look at yourself. Among those that are seated, who is a second-generation good-for-nothing? All of them are here because of their strength. The one who isn't qualified here is you!" Miracle Doctor Blood Man mocked coldly.

"YOU..."

Bian Yaoquan's eyes were bloodshot as he stared furiously at Wang Xian and Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

This was the first time his parents had let him out to experience the outside world. Yet... Yet...

"I'm a Level 3 Alchemist! Just wait and see!"

Chapter 337: Horrifying Creatures

(1)

Bian Yaoquan's soft growl resounded in the tent, stunning everyone as they looked amazed.

An alchemist was a valuable occupation by itself. On top of that, he was a Level 3 Alchemist.

Today, most Martial Artists consumed Spiritual Grass directly.

There was a saying in the Ancient Martial Art World: it's easy to obtain Spiritual Grass, but not Elixir Pills.

Spiritual Grass could be found in most of the deep mountain areas or along the riverbanks. They could also be grown through various unique techniques.

However, Elixir Pills were uncommon. Firstly, not many people could master the Art of Refining Elixir Pills. Even Sui Huang viewed the art as an heirloom. Hence, its value was evident.

Secondly, the consumption of the Spiritual Grass was way too overwhelming to cultivate an alchemist within average Forces that possessed the Art of Refining Elixir Pills.

The consumption could reach at least a hundred to thousands of tufts.

An average Force would not be able to afford to consume thousands of tufts of Spiritual Grass, even if the grasses were Level 1.

Hence, an alchemist was a rare occupation with high status.

"I did not expect Young Master Bian to turn out to be a powerful alchemist. What a great talent at such a young age. You're truly someone from Medical Saint Sect."

"You're a Level 3 alchemist at such a young age. You must be gifted. That's a rare talent!"

After Bian Yaoquan finished his sentence, the two Inborn Experts praised him from their chairs.

"Thank you!"

Upon hearing two Inborn Experts expressing their admiration for him, Bian Yaoquan felt he had regained some of his pride. He slightly lifted his chin and snorted to Wang Xian.

"Perhaps some people have forgotten about the saying that all medical skills in the world originated from Medical Saint Sect. Heh, heh!"

The Poison Duo at the side swept their cold gazes across Wang Xian, Sun Lingxiu and Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

"Enough, people. Everyone's here!"

At this time, the middle-aged man in military uniform at the side called out. Bian Yaoquan brushed his gaze coldly at Wang Xian and the rest before he sat down at the side.

"I believe everyone has read the file that I have sent over," said the middle-aged man as he looked at all the people around him.

Everyone sat there quietly as they did not dare to interrupt him. This middle-aged man before them was also an Inborn Expert, backed by the state.

"You should have some understanding about the creatures stated in the file. We invited all the Miracle Doctors here to find out how these creatures turned out to be such terrifying beings!"

As the middle-aged man spoke, he beckoned to the door where several soldiers brought out transparent boxes immediately.

In the boxes were several palm-sized creatures.

They were all the common insects like ants, leeches, and mosquitoes.

Just like the photos in the file, each of them looked terrifying and hideous.

Bam, Bam!

The leeches in the transparent box were leaping violently, causing banging sounds.

The power they exhibited was so huge that it was simply unbelievable.

"Miracle Doctors, come over and take a look!"

The soldiers placed the boxes on the floor while the middle-aged man spoke to the Miracle Doctors.

Without hesitation, Wang Xian stood up, followed by Sun Lingxiu and Miracle Doctor Blood Man. They all came to the boxes.

The rest of the Miracle Doctors also crowded together.

This time, there were less than a score of Miracle Doctors. Amongst which, those ranked fifth to thirteenth on the Miracle Doctors Chart were present. The remaining ones were elders of Sacred Followers Guild, and the Poison Duo from Medical Saint Sect.

The two elders from Sacred Followers Guild were about a hundred years old. They were no longer practicing medicine in public. Hence, they were not ranked on the chart.

However, their strength was not to be underestimated. No one knew how formidable they were.

Thirteen Miracle Doctors stood in front of four glass boxes, as they fixed their eyes on four horrifying mutated creatures.

"Hur?"

Wang Xian stared at the creatures and revealed a baffled expression on his face.

[Cadaveric Ant: Level 7]

[Unable to extract Dragon Energy]

[Cadaveric Leech: Level 8]

[Unable to extract Dragon Energy]

[Cadaveric Black-leech: Level 7]

[Unable to extract Dragon Energy]

[Cadaveric Mosquito: Level 8]

[Unable to extract Dragon Energy]

"Cadaveric? Why is this word showing up in the names of all the creatures?"

Wang Xian observed the creatures with uncertainty, looking surprised.

"These creatures had been sucking fresh blood to maintain their life. They were also evolved with an ability to survive in the water."

The middle-aged man said with a solemn look, "Their combat ability is equivalent to a Level 7 or 8 Martial Artist which is very powerful!"

"What could it be that turned the ants into such horrifying monsters?"

The Miracle Doctors were puzzled by the ants which possessed the prowess of Level 7 or 8 Martial Artists. Ants can indeed kill an elephant now!

"Let me take a look!"

The Buddhist Physician, ranked fifth on the Miracle Doctors Chart, walked to the glass box with the ants and turned on the switch on the box.

Hiss!

As soon as the switch was turned on, a Cadaveric Ant revealed its gigantic teeth as it let out a shriek while biting down on the arm of Buddhist Physician.

Buddhist Physician remained unwavering. He reached out and grabbed the ant with ease.

"A rancid smell. No signs of vitality and pain. They are similar to the legendary zombies!"

Buddhist Physician examined the Cadaveric Ant in his hand and commented indifferently.

"Zombie?"

The surrounding Miracle Doctors were slightly stunned. Zombies did exist, just like the vampires in the western countries.

However, there was a huge difference between zombies and vampires. Zombies were dead before they were resurrected. They had no intelligence, with a natural instinct to suck blood.

But vampires were considered to be humans who had a unique way in Cultivation Arts. They were drastically different.

Zombies had been prone to show up in ancient times. But most of the people tend to incinerate bodies in the modern days. Thus, no such creatures appeared anymore.

Even if there were any, they were easy to deal with too.

"They are really almost like zombies. They are blood-suckers that can't feel any pain. But humans will die after zombies suck their blood. If they suck the blood of humans, they will eventually turn into one of them!"

The middle-aged man added on, "Anyway, we took them to the lab for some tests. These creatures aren't really dead. Some form of energy keeps them alive so that they can continue growing, which marks a big difference from zombies!"

The surrounding Miracle Doctors knit their brows slightly.

"Ack ack, let me see!"

At this time, Miracle Doctor Blood Man was curious since he was a vampire himself. Hence, it was natural for him to feel intimate with such creatures.

The rest of the Miracle Doctors looked at him as they shared the same thought too.

Miracle Doctor Blood Man stared at the box with the leeches. He reached out to the box and opened it, putting his palm inside.

Pa!

Instantly, a leech attached itself onto the palm and crawled up to his arm rapidly.

Miracle Doctor Blood Man did not hinder it as he watched the leech without a word.

The palm-sized leech raised its head, revealing a set of horrible teeth as it threaded its way into the Miracle Doctor Blood Man's arm.

The younger ones who followed the Elders out for experience could not help but shiver when they saw the palm-sized leech squeezing itself into the arm of Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

Chapter 338: Horrifying Creature (2)

"Hehe! It does have the characteristics of a vampire. It requires fresh blood to evolve. When sucking fresh blood, it would inject venom into the body of the host. This venom is really potent and could corrode one's body!" Miracle Doctor Blood Man shut his eyes lightly and allowed the leech to move along his arm. It was an extremely gory scene.

"It appears to be a bloodline cultivator and could evolve quickly by absorbing sufficient fresh blood. This is also an exemplification of a high level bloodline," Miracle Doctor Blood Man explained while showing a shocked expression. In the end, he opened his eyes slowly, looked at his arm and added, "This creature is really horrifying."

Sss sss sss sss!

Wiggling his arm, a leech was forced out. He extended his finger and sliced open the body of the leech.

Networks of red blood vessels connected throughout the body of the leech.

The leech seemed devoid of the sense of pain. It had already extended its teeth and wanted to leech onto the body of Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

"Filthy creature!"

Miracle Doctor Blood Man waved his arm and flicked it into a glass box. Waving his hand again, drops of brownish liquid appeared.

"This is the venom within their body and the cause of their mutation," Miracle Doctor Blood Man said to the middle-aged man in military uniform.

Huh? The eyes of the middle-aged man in military uniform beamed. He said gratefully to Miracle Doctor Blood Man, "Thank you, Miracle Doctor. You can collect an item from the National Treasury after this incident!"

"Hehe! That's generous of you!" Miracle Doctor Blood Man's eyes lit up when he heard the middle-aged man in military uniform.

The surrounding Miracle Doctors were all looking enviously at Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

"Let me take a look at that venom!" An old man from the Sacred Followers Guild said. He tapped on the venom with his hand and stared coldly at it.

"Assimilation! This venom could assimilate one's bloodline. Those who are weaker would be assimilated directly!" the old man explained and his eyebrows knitted together.

"How can we guard against this venom then?" asked the middle-aged man in military uniform anxiously.

"Dark Blood Grass, a Level 4 spiritual medicine. With the effects of the Dark Blood Grass, the venom would be rendered completely ineffective even if it entered the body of a human!" answered the old man.

"Dark Blood Grass?" The middle-aged man in military uniform frowned and asked, "For those who have been infected by the venom, can Dark Blood Grass help in their recovery?"

"Yes!" answered the old man as he nodded his head.

"Level 3 elixir pill, Blood Cleansing Pill, could do the same!" At this moment, Bian Yaoquan lifted his head proudly and spoke plainly.

"Blood Cleansing Pill?" mumbled the old men. He wasn't familiar with it. "Since Young Master Bian is confident, it couldn't be wrong."

"We have over forty soldiers who are infected by this venom and are currently being tied down. Young Master Bian, could you help us with the refining of these elixir pills? We will provide you with the spiritual medicine required. After refining the elixir pills, Young Master Bian can head to the National Treasury to pick a treasure too!"

The middle-aged man in military uniform continued, "Besides that, we will be diving deep to search for the source of this virus. Based on our observation, there might be stronger mutated animals there. At that time, we would like Young Master Bian to refine more elixir pills as prevention."

"Rest assured. Leave this to me! Refining elixir pills is my specialty!"

Bian Yaoquan revealed a confident smile and looked cockily across the crowd. His attention eventually fell on Wang Xian as he smirked coldly.

"Everyone, please wait for me here. I'll prepare your accommodation. I'll leave these four creatures here. Everyone can take a closer look, but please be careful!"

The middle-aged man in military uniform spoke to the crowd before turning to Bian Yaoquan. "Young Master Bian, please write down the spiritual medicine you need. We will prepare it right away!"

"Alright!"

Bian Yaoquan nodded his head and walked to the side to write it down. After which, he handed the list to the middle-aged man in military uniform.

"Young Master Bian, do you require any other items?" asked the middle-aged man in military uniform after taking a look at the list.

"I'm good. I can refine Level 3 elixir pills even without my alchemy furnace!" Bian Yaoquan smiled confidently. Subsequently, he flipped his hand and a green flame appeared on his palm.

"Heavenly Flame! Oh gosh! It's a Heavenly Flame!"

When the surrounding crowd caught a glimpse of it, they were shocked.

"Firmament flame, an exceptional flame for refining elixir! It could also increase the success rate of refining elixir pills!" Bian Yaoquan explained plainly with pride.

"Incredible!" the middle-aged man in military uniform wasn't stingy with his compliments.

"Medical Saint Sect indeed lives up to his name. Even a core disciple has a Heavenly Flame. They must be really rich!"

The surrounding crowd was shocked.

"Young Master Bian, we will send the spiritual medicine over in half an hour," the middle-aged man in military uniform said with a gentle smile.

"In that case, I'll just wait here!"

Bian Yaoquan nodded his head and turned to Wang Xian. He lifted his head slightly and remarked, "All the medical techniques in the world originated from the Medical Saint Sect. However, the Medical Saint Sect isn't just focused on medical skills. We also delve into the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills. The Arts of Refining Elixir Pills is of a higher status than medical skills.

As he completed his words, he turned to Sun Lingxiu before continuing in a cold tone, "Don't be so arrogant just because others are calling you the Holy Goddess. In my eyes, you are just an average woman! Tsk!"

Bian Yaoquan walked to a chair after speaking.

The surrounding Miracle Doctors frowned but didn't say a thing. Even the group from the Sacred Followers Guild didn't retort what Bian Yaoquan said.

There were bases to the claim that all medical techniques originated from the Medical Saint Sect.

The Hua Family and Bian Family of the Medical Saint Sect were descendants of Hua Tuo and Bian He. They were the founding fathers of medical techniques in Chinese history. 99 percent of medical techniques had originated from them. [1]

The medical techniques of the Miracle Doctors around had all originated from the Medical Saint Sect.

The Medical Saint Sect had a long history that stretched back four to five hundred years.

For the Medical Saint Sect, they were more interested in the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills instead of medical techniques.

Only direct descendant disciples of the Hua Family and Bian Family were allowed to learn the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills. As for the external disciples, they were only taught medical techniques.

All the Miracle Doctors and even the medical techniques of the Sacred Followers Guild were leaked from ex-external disciples of the Medical Saint Sect.

Therefore, even though the Sect Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild ranked higher than the Sect Leader of the Medical Saint Sect on the Miracle Doctors Chart, the sacred grounds of medical techniques were still at the Medical Saint Sect.

From their names, one could also tell their intertwined origins.

"The path of elixir pills is the greatest path!" The Buddhist Physician held a string of buddha beads in his hands as he mumbled to himself.

Miracle Doctors saved lives but alchemists could strengthen oneself and others.

Saving and strengthening were different in nature.

The crowd of Miracle Doctors looked enviously at Bian Yaoquan. However, they soon kept such feelings to themselves and started researching the mutated animal in the glass box.

Wang Xian glanced disdainfully at Bian Yaoquan, who believed he was better than the rest!

Chapter 339: I Know How to Refine Elixir Pills Too!

"Brat, tell me how to recover Guang Hua's arm. I can forget about everything in the past!"

Just as Wang Xian was studying the four mutations, an icy-cold voice was heard.

Without looking up, Wang Xian knew it was the elder from Sacred Followers Guild who had been eyeing him the moment he entered.

"Since he lost the bet, he has to bear the consequences. What now? I crippled the young one, and an old one is here to seek revenge?"

Wang Xian spun around slowly as he looked at the Sacred Followers Guild Elder ridiculously.

"Heh, I'm just going to ask you once. Are you telling me or not?" the elder from Sacred Followers Guild asked Wang Xian emotionlessly.

"500 Spiritual Stones, and I'll treat your disciple's arm. Otherwise, forget it!"

Wang Xian stared at him with a smile.

"Fine. I hope you always remain firm like you did now!" Sacred Followers Guild Elder quirked his lips and revealed a cold smile.

Wang Xian turned around and ignored him as he placed his focus once again on those mutated creatures.

He reached out and grabbed a Cadaveric Ant, sensing its internal structure and the blood vessels within it. After doing so, he sank into deep thought.

Based on his speculation, the mutation that occurred on these creatures was not caused by any virus. It was caused by some form of powerful blood.

These creatures had evolved due to the blood and transformed into Level 7 or Level 8 existences.

His deduction surprised him. If a drop of blood could allow ants and mosquitoes to evolve into such a daunting stage, how domineering could that blood be?

What kind of existence is it?

At least, it was much stronger than Wang Xian.

"I must be careful if there's such a daunting bloodline around!"

Wang Xian was slightly stern as such a formidable existence was not something he could deal with at the moment.

"Young Master Bian, the Spiritual Grasses have arrived."

After an hour, the middle-aged man walked in and spoke to Bian Yaoquan.

"Oh? That's pretty fast? How many tufts did you bring for the nine different types of Level 3 Spiritual Grass?"

Bian Yaoquan stood up and asked this with a beaming face.

"We brought 100 tufts per type. How many pills can you refine?" the middle-aged man asked with expectation.

"100 tufts per type?"

Bian Yaoquan was slightly taken aback. Instantly, he answered confidently, "I may be a Level 3 alchemist, but my success rate of refining the pills can hit 20 percent. I can refine about two to three Blood Cleansing Pills at one time. With 100 portions of ingredients, I can refine at least 40 to 50 pills."

"40 to 50 pills?"

The middle-aged man in uniform was looking surprised.

40 to 50 Level 3 pills were equivalent to 40 to 50 tufts of Level 4 Spiritual Grasses.

The value of 900 tufts of Spiritual Grass had increased by more than ten fold.

Only alchemists could achieve such formidable results.

"Wow, that's scary. Using those Spiritual Grasses alone, he could obtain 40 to 50 Level 4 Spiritual Medicine. The alchemist is indeed powerful!"

"He's just too formidable. No wonder Medical Saint Sect did not care about losing out in medical skills, and only wanted their core disciples to practice the Art of Refining Elixir Pills!"

"A formidable alchemist is scary!"

The surrounding crowd exclaimed with shocked faces.

The power of alchemy struck horror in everyone present.

Level 3 pills were extremely useful to a Level 9 Martial Artist. With sufficient Spiritual Grass, an alchemist could quickly enhance the strength of a Level 9 Martial Artist, and even allow them to make a breakthrough to Half-step to Inborn.

Medical Saint Sect was insurmountable due to powerful Art of Refining Elixir Pills.

"The power of Art of Refining Elixir Pills is far from what you can imagine!"

Tints of envy flashed in the Poison Duo's eyes as they looked at the crowd with a disdainful look.

"Young Master Bian, could you help to refine some pills for us if we prepare enough Spiritual Grass? We will, of course, pay you handsomely!"

An Inborn Expert could not help but say this respectfully to Bian Yaoquan.

Initially, all of them had thought that Bian Yaoquan was just some playful and hedonistic disciple. No one had ever felt that he could be such a talented and powerful Alchemist.

So everyone was shocked.

"We can discuss it next time!"

Upon seeing an Inborn Expert speaking to him with respect, Bian Yaoquan curled his lips slightly and spoke impassively.

"Sure, Young Master Bian. Please carry on with refining these pills."

"Young Master Bian, can you show us your Art of Refining Elixir Pills?"

Some experts around him were gazing at Bian Yaoquan with faces full of expectations. Even the Miracle Doctors had glistening eyes.

They wanted to witness the amazing art as well.

"I'll permit you to watch if you keep absolutely silent when I'm refining the pills!" Bian Yaoquan answered proudly.

"Of course. We won't make a single noise. Just hoping you'll broaden our horizons," a Miracle Doctor replied with a beaming face.

Bian Yaoquan nodded with a smile as he gazed at the Spiritual Grass by the side, "Watch closely then!"

Bian Yaoquan was not keeping any secrets at all. Even if he had to refine elixir pills in front of a crowd, they would not be able to learn the art.

Refining pills was harder than becoming a Miracle Doctor.

Moreover, every pill has its own recipe. Without the recipe, one could not possibly refine the pill.

Bian Yaoquan flung his arm and grabbed tufts of Spiritual Grass.

He spread out his left hand, and a greenish flame appeared before him.

The flame was giving off bouncy vitality. Firmament flame of Heavenly Flame was a flame that was suitable for refining elixirs. His father had gone through hardships to obtain it.

Using Firmament flame to refine pills could increase the success rate by 10 percent.

Bian Yaoquan focused and squinted his eyes slightly, giving off a vibe similar to a great master.

In sequence, he hurled the various Spiritual Grasses at the Firmament flame as they began to melt slowly.

All the Spiritual Grasses melted into Spiritual Liquid after approximately thirty seconds.

Bian Yaoquan was looking all serious as he matched the recipe bit by bit.

When the crowd saw Bian Yaoquan refining the elixir pills on the spot, they tried to hold their breath as they watched with full attention.

Hah!

After five minutes, Bian Yaoquan exclaimed with a stern-looking face as three pools of liquid slowly coalesced together.

He shouted out with a film of cold sweat breaking out on his forehead.

"Elixir Pill!"

"Form!"

He yelled again as the flame grew intense before him.

The greenish flame cast a shadow on Bian Yaoquan that made him look like some great masters.

Boom!

Just then, a thud was heard, and the greenish flame exploded in different directions.

The Poison Duo at the side was prepared for it as they swung their arms and suppressed the exploding sparks.

"Done!"

Bian Yaoquan was flushed with redness on his cheeks. With a glistening radiance in his eyes, he said, "Haha, I got two pills. Not too bad!"

When the two pills showed up in front of him, he was looking prideful. He had succeeded on his first try. Such talent made him a peerless genius.

"Marvellous!"

"He just refined the pills in ten minutes, bravo!"

"Young Master Bian is a rare talent. His Art of Refining Elixir Pills is formidable. At his age, he's insurmountable!"

"The most talented youth in this world is you, Young Master Bian!"

All the experts and Miracle Doctors marveled and praised Young Master Bian.

"HA, HA!"

Young Master Bian exhibited an invincible look with hearty laughter. "Talking about Art of Refining Elixir Pills, if I, Bian Yaoquan, proclaim myself to be second among the younger generation, I'm sure no one will claim to be first!"

"Besides, when I improve my Art of Refining Elixir Pills, I can simply use elixir pills to make up for the absence of medical skills. By then, I'll be unrivaled in terms of medical skills and Art of Refining Elixir Pills!"

Bian Yaoquan exhibited from within himself an immense confidence that was commonly seen in heroes.

Poof!

At this time, Wang Xian could not help but give a half-suppressed laugh.

Chapter 340: Frog In The Well

A harsh, disdainful voice sounded and shocked everyone.

The crowd looked towards the source of the voice, trying to determine who the one mocking was, and if he was qualified to do so!

Huh?

When Bian Yaoquan heard this voice, he immediately turned around. When he saw Wang Xian, he squinted his eyes.

The surrounding crowd also looked at Wang Xian in shock.

"Oh, Miracle Doctor Wang, what rights do you have to ridicule me? Who gave you the courage?"

Before Bian Yaoquan even spoke, an Inborn expert stared at Wang Xian and questioned him harshly.

"That's right! The Arts of Refining Elixir Pills are profound. Young Master Bian's Arts of Refining Elixir Pills could already be considered to be grandmaster class. You are a far cry from Young Master Bian," another Inborn expert said with contempt, glowering at Wang Xian.

"Tsk! You better watch your mouth! Otherwise, I'll do it for you!"

Bian Yaoquan's lips curved up slightly as he stared coldly at Wang Xian.

"Hehe! It's nothing much. I just saw an explosion and found it hilarious!" Sensing that everyone's attention had gathered on him, Wang Xian replied with a smile.

"Huh? Brat, do you even know what refining elixir pills is? Do you know the steps of refining elixir pills? Do you know what is meant by elixir formation rate?"

Bian Yaoquan pulled a long face upon hearing Wang Xian. He questioned harshly, "You are just a brat who doesn't know anything and yet you dare to question me? If you don't know anything, just shut your mouth."

"For an alchemist, achieving an elixir formation rate of ten percent could be considered outstanding. Pill explosion is a really common occurrence!" a Miracle Doctor took a glance at Wang Xian and commented plainly.

"Oh? Is it?"

Wang Xian looked mockingly at Bian Yaoquan, turned to the few Inborn experts who spoke up for him and remarked, "I know a little about refining elixir pills too. Moreover, it happens that I know the elixir pill recipe for a Blood Cleansing Pill."

As he spoke, he walked towards the place where the spiritual medicine was placed. He looked at the two elixir pills in his hands, shook his head and commented, "What a waste! In my eyes, your refining skills are too trash!"

Huh?

Wang Xian's arrogant words shocked the surrounding crowd as they all turned towards him.

"Shut up! Do you even know anything about the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills?"

Bian Yaoquan pulled a long face and glowered at Wang Xian. "As a factionless doctor, there's no way you would know about it. Yet, you dared to criticize my Arts of Refining Elixir Pills?"

"I do know a little and am definitely better than you in it!" Wang Xian smiled plainly. After which, he looked to the spiritual medicine beside him and said emotionlessly, "Step aside!"

After completing his words, he moved his arm.

Rumble!

Dull red flames appeared on Wang Xian's hand instantly.

Waving his hand once again, tufts of spiritual medicine flew towards him.

Huh? Seeing that Wang Xian was starting to refine elixir pills, Bian Yaoquan instantly turned gloomy. He looked at the flames on Wang Xian's hand and revealed a mocking smile. "That's just an ordinary flame. Even if you know about refining elixir pills, your elixir formation rate will be less than ten percent. That will be a total waste of spiritual medicine!"

"Look closely! Frog in the well!" Wang Xian remarked plainly. His remarks infuriated Bian Yaoquan as he clenched his fist tightly.

"In that case, I would like to see what you are capable of to be so brazen here!"

The surrounding experts and Miracle Doctors looked at Wang Xian, baffled.

"How would a factionless doctor be capable of getting in touch with the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills? He's just trying to garner attention!" the Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild said, pulling a long face.

Just as the Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild finished his words, Wang Xian waved his arm and nine small cups made of flames appeared before him.

The appearance of nine vivid flame cups shocked the crowd.

"His control of fire is so incredible! He can actually form replica objects with flames. This Miracle Doctor Wang is definitely not weak."

The eyes of an Inborn expert constricted as he looked at the nine small cups.

"He's actually capable of forming replica objects with flames!" Bian Yaoquan shivered in anger but was shocked by what Wang Xian was capable of.

Puff!

In this instant, tufts of spiritual medicine were thrown into each cup as Wang Xian moved his arm again slightly.

The spiritual medicine melted at an unbelievable speed.

"How can this be possible? How could he melt them so quickly?"

Bian Yaoquan couldn't help but exclaim after witnessing the speed at which the spiritual medicine was turned into liquid.

When Wang Xian heard his voice, he remarked emotionlessly.

"Shut up, frog in the well!"

"YOU..."

Bian Yaoquan opened his eyes widely and gave Wang Xian a deathly stare.

Wang Xian didn't pay attention to him. He was focused on the spiritual liquid and gradually fusing them together.

One, two, three.

In a short span of ten seconds, three balls of liquid had coalesced together.

"Elixir pills, form!" Wang Xian shouted. As the flame dissipated, he grabbed the three green pills with his hand.

The green was the same shade as a jadestone and the pills had an alluring glow to them.

"Three elixir pills. Given a hundred sets of spiritual medicine for the Blood Cleansing Pill, I can probably get three hundred Blood Cleansing Pills. Yeah, that's it!"

Wang Xian smiled faintly and handed the Blood Cleansing Pill to the middle-aged man in military uniform.

The middle-aged man in military uniform was shocked to see the elixir pills Wang Xian had handed to him. He took up the elixir pills made by Bian Yaoquan and made a comparison.

To his astonishment, the glow and luster of Bian Yaoquan's elixir pills were a little inferior.

The surrounding crowd was shocked too. The whole process appeared to be too easy and casual. Bian Yaoquan had taken approximately ten minutes to make two elixir pills previously. Moreover, he seemed cautious throughout the whole process.

On the other hand, this Miracle Doctor Wang had made three elixir pills within a minute. Furthermore, he looked casual and relaxed throughout the same process. From this, one could tell the difference in their strengths.

They were on a completely different scale.

"Three hundred elixir pills... This... How could this be possible...?"

A Miracle Doctor felt disbelief and gave a deadly stare at the Blood Cleansing Pills in the middle-aged man in military uniform's hands.

"A hundred percent success rate? Nine hundred tufts of Level 3 spiritual medicine for three hundred elixir pills? This can't be possible!"

"Three tufts of Level 3 spiritual medicine for an elixir pill with effects of a Level 4 spiritual medicine? This is crazy! This is crazy!"

"This can't be. It definitely isn't possible. How can he do this so quickly?"

Bian Yaoquan's eyes had popped wide open. Disbelief was written all over his face. "Even a Level 5 and 6 Alchemist couldn't attain a hundred percent success rate. This couldn't be possible," shouted Bian Yaoquan.

"Nothing is impossible!"

Wang Xian revealed a mocking smirk upon seeing how Bian Yaoquan had reacted. "With your level of expertise, how could you even claim to be unrivalled? What a joke!"

Wang Xian laughed and looked at the middle-aged man in military uniform. "Leave this spiritual medicine to me. Three hundred elixir pills shouldn't be a problem."

"Really? Even if you give us two hundred or a hundred, it would be fine. As long as Miracle Doctor Wang can do it, you can enter the National Treasury to pick a treasure!" the middle-aged man in military uniform said with beaming eyes.

"Alright!"

Wang Xian nodded his head and continued, "I'll need a quiet room!"

"Sure, we will arrange for it immediately!"

The middle-aged man in military uniform agreed without any hesitation. As for Bian Yaoquan, who was standing next to him, he had completely forgotten about him.

For the same amount of materials, one could only give forty to fifty pills while the other could give three hundred.

The two men weren't on the same scale. Therefore, he naturally knew how to choose.

As for that Bian Yaoquan, he could just stay away.

It wasn't that the middle-aged man in military uniform was ruthless. It was just that the difference in their expertise in refining elixir pills was too great!

Chapter 341: The Appalling Yellow River

"How is this possible!"

As the middle-aged man in uniform left with Wang Xian, Bian Yaoquan stood in the same spot with full and round eyes. Those eyes were filled with utter disbelief as he stared at their backs.

He clenched his fist. To think he was the most talented and outstanding disciple of Medical Saint Sect; a Level 3 alchemist at age 30. He had been told that he was a rare genius.

His parents had even told him that he would be the most attention-grabbing genius as soon as he walked out of Medical Saint Sect. He was unrivaled in the younger generation.

Yet, he had received blows one after another today.

In particular from someone who actually knew Art of Refining Elixir Pills, and was so proficient in it. His incredible refining speed and one hundred percent success rate were totally unbelievable.

How could a factionless doctor be so dominating?

Bian Yaoquan was totally stupefied. This blow was extremely harsh for someone who was prideful.

"Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown must have met a good opportunity. Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to achieve such a formidable stage at age 20 with proficient medical skills and Art of Refining Elixir Pills!" an Inborn Expert could not help but exclaim.

"A Miracle Doctor who is only 20, ranked ninth on the chart. This is already shocking. Who could have thought that he is such a powerful alchemist? Miracle Doctor Wang has unlimited potential!"

"He's great. No wonder I heard that Miracle Doctor Wang is strong in his networking with several Inborn Experts helping him. He's actually a powerful alchemist!"

A few experts were discussing in whispers. Some of the surrounding young men and middle-aged men were looking at Wang Xian with faces full of envy.

How could someone be so outstanding?

"Good opportunity?"

The elder from Sacred Followers Guild stood by the side with radiance flickering in his eyes. He squinted his eyes slightly with a glimmer of greed flashing in them.

At the same time, a few experts were deep in thought.

"Young Master!"

The Poison Duo walked to Bian Yaoquan and called out softly. The three of them headed out.

An innocent man gets into trouble because of his wealth.

Wang Xian, a rogue cultivator, did not know that people speculated he could have obtained a great possession because of his performance just now.

Somebody was up to no good now.

"Phew, it's all done!"

Wang Xian had finally refined a total of 330 pills at night.

There was an extra thirty pills.

"Chief, here!"

Wang Xian walked out of the tent and saw the middle-aged man in uniform waiting for him at the door. He smiled and tossed the bag of elixir pills to him.

"Here's 300 of them. I'm keeping some of the extras," Wang Xian said with a smile.

"Hur?" The middle-aged man was slightly taken aback, but soon, he was thrilled. He cast a glance at the elixir pills in the bottle with excitement in his eyes.

"300 was already beyond our expectations. We would be satisfied even if you gave us 200!"

The middle-aged man in uniform smiled, but he was hesitant as he looked at Wang Xian. With a grin, he asked, "Miracle Doctor Wang, are you interested in joining us? I guarantee you that the remuneration would be more than you expect!"

"Sorry, I'm used to being solo."

Wang Xian shook his head and declined.

"If that's the case, we'll not insist on it. I hope we can work together again in the future!"

The middle-aged man in uniform stretched out his hand and replied with a smile.

"Sure!" Wang Xian beamed. Working with the state would benefit him greatly, after all.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, let me take you to your resting place. We'll be entering the zone tomorrow morning," said the middle-aged man in uniform as he looked ahead.

The pitch-black darkness in front looked like an enormous devouring monster at night.

Wang Xian cast his gaze and narrowed his eyes slightly.

When he was back in the tent that he was residing place, someone sent food over. Not long later, Sun Lingxiu and Miracle Doctor Blood Man walked in.

"Xiao Xian!"

Sun Lingxiu sat beside him with a beaming face.

"How did it go, Lingxiu? Did you make any discoveries?" asked Wang Xian to Sun Lingxiu.

"No, I don't specialize in this!"

Sun Lingxiu shook her head slowly as she turned to Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

"Master, there is an appalling bloodline power in them. We must watch our back tomorrow!" Miracle Doctor Blood Man answered with a stern-looking face.

Upon hearing his words, Wang Xian was even more certain about his speculation. "Yes, let's be careful. There must be some domineering things inside. But of course, there's a chance that it's dead. Otherwise, the other creatures would not have mutated!"

Wang Xian guessed that the domineering existence with a daunting bloodline must be dead. When other living creatures fed on its body and blood, they mutated and evolved.

"Okay!"

Sun Lingxiu nodded. They went on to chat a little longer before they turned in.

Wang Xian walked out of his tent and gazed ahead. He hesitated and called off the idea of scouting alone at night.

The next morning, everyone gathered at the same place after breakfast.

Approximately 150 people gathered with 20 Inborn Experts, the weakest ones being Level 8 Martial Artists.

"Today we're going to investigate the situation inside the zone. It's going to be dangerous. Please watch out. Before that, please have a Blood Cleansing Pill each!"

The middle-aged man in uniform from yesterday stood in front of the group and spoke while looking at them.

They nodded and took a Blood Cleansing Pill from the soldiers.

Glances were cast at Wang Xian as he had really refined 300 elixir pills. His Art of Refining Elixir Pills was formidable.

"Let's go. If you meet any danger, stay united and work together!" said the middle-aged man in uniform as he led the group inside.

The group followed behind him, passing through the electric fence.

They came to flat land at this time. One could look far in just a glance with houses vaguely visible in the distance.

There was nothing unusual around the grassland. Everyone was looking around without looking tense.

Given the strength of this group, it was almost comparable to a weak Sacred Sect. Hence, it was a piece of cake having to deal with some Level 7 or 8 creatures.

The group sped up as they continued walking. According to the investigation done by the middle-aged man in uniform, those mutated creatures were likely coming from the Yellow River.

The first thing they had to do was to check the tributary, spanning ten kilometers long and 1,000 meters wide.

The soil was not swampy, but the grass was almost up to their knees.

"Watch your step!" an Inborn Expert suddenly shouted.

All of them were surprised to see a daunting leech heading toward a Miracle Doctor for a bite with its enormous teeth.

Swish!

A sword came in a flash, slaying the leech and cutting it in half.

"Be careful. They can remain hidden in the grass very well with their small sizes. Those who are not Inborn Experts yet must pay extra attention."

The middle-aged man in uniform made a reminder again.

In the past, he had already lost thousands of soldiers in this patch of grassland.

However, it should be slightly easier with all these experts around.

Croak!

Just then, a rapid and coarse croaking sound was heard from far off, stunning everyone!

Chapter 342: Blood Sucking Toad

The sudden sound emanated from afar and surprised the crowd.

The rapid and coarse sound wasn't that of a frog. Instead, the sound was low and deep.

The sound emanated from at least several thousand meters away.

"What's making that sound?"

Everyone was taken aback as they looked towards the source.

This sound had made their hearts skipped a beat.

Several meters ahead of them was a branch of the Yellow River. For a sound to come from such a far place, the one making it would definitely be horrifying.

"Are there other mutated creatures?"

The expression on the middle-aged man in military uniform had stiffened with dismay. He looked ahead with his deep eyes before turning back and speaking to the crowd, "There might be unknown and powerful creatures ahead. Everyone, please be careful!"

The crowd kept their nonchalant attitude in check and started observing their surroundings attentively.

"Let's go! Let's quicken our pace!"

As the middle-aged man in military uniform finished his words, he dashed ahead at astonishing speed.

The crowd followed closely behind and headed towards the Yellow River.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The crowd was really fast. The leeches and ants along the way were alarmed and attacked them directly.

However, the fighting capacity of the crowd was incredible. As they waved their weapons and shot out sword rays, these leeches and ants were split into halves.

"These mutated creatures are everywhere!" said Sun Lingxiu.

The crowd had encountered over fifty mutated animals while dashing for a thousand meters.

Hmm.

Wang Xian nodded his head and looked to the side.

There was a dilapidated village beside him with roughly over two hundred houses. At this moment, there were some dull red blood stains all around this small village.

There were no longer any humans within the village. What was left were corpses of some reared animals.

"We are approaching the Yellow River. Everyone, please be careful!" the middle-aged man in military uniform reminded the crowd.

The crowd slowed down and looked towards the Yellow River ahead of them.

Screech, screech, screech!

The crowd gathered at a dilapidated house with an area marked out for rearing pigs.

Suddenly, all of them picked up dense buzzing sounds. They were shocked and instantly looked to their side.

"Those are mutated mosquitoes. Be careful!" an Inborn expert turned over and shouted with a serious expression.

"F*ck! There are so many of them!"

Everyone was alarmed. Each mosquito was the size of a human's palm. As they charged out of the house by the thousands, the razor sharp edge of their mouths had a strong scent of blood.

At least a thousand mutated mosquitoes were attacking them.

Wang Xian squinted his eyes and looked at the nest of mutated mosquitoes before him. They were known as Cadaveric Mosquitoes. Among them, there was a Level 10 existence.

On top of that, there were many Level 9 Cadaveric Mosquitoes.

"Be careful. Some of these mutated mosquitoes are as strong as an Inborn Realm expert!"

An Inborn expert shouted and reminded the crowd. He was shocked to hear a clang collision sound when he slashed his sharp sword at a Cadaveric Mosquito.

Rumble!

The group of Inborn experts immediately gave their all and did not hold back their strength.

"Aurora!"

"Blood Mist!"

Sun Lingxiu struck at the same time as Miracle Doctor Blood Man. Flashes of brilliance cut through the skies, illuminating the day even more brightly.

As for Miracle Doctor Blood Man, he shrouded over a hundred mutated mosquitoes with his Blood Mist.

Soon, these Cadaveric Mosquitoes fell to the ground like raindrops.

"So strong!"

When the surrounding crowd saw Sun Lingxiu and Miracle Doctor Blood Man's attacks, their pupils constricted unconsciously.

The range of their attack had eliminated one-fifth of the total Cadaveric Mosquitoes.

The group of Miracle Doctors also looked at them in awe. As Miracle Doctors, their battle capacities were much weaker than ordinary Inborn experts.

However, the Holy Goddess and Miracle Doctor Blood Man were completely different from them. Their fighting capacities were off the charts!

The middle-aged man in military uniform also took a glance at Sun Lingxiu and Miracle Doctor Blood Man. After which, he shouted, "Go!"

The crowd was on high alert. Among the thousand mutated mosquitoes they had encountered previously, there was an Inborn level mosquito!

Logically, the center of the source of the virus might have even stronger animals.

It was especially so considering the sound they had heard previously that made their hearts skip a beat.

The crowd approached the Yellow River carefully. The water of the river was incomparably muddy. There was no way one could see the situation below the surface. On the surface, there were floating corpses of ducks and birds.

As this wasn't the main channel of the Yellow River, the river water wasn't flowing. Faint ripples were formed only when faint wind disturbed the calm surface.

The breadth of this segment of the Yellow River was over a thousand meters. It wasn't particularly broad but wasn't narrow either.

The crowd arrived at the edge and carefully observed their surroundings.

"It would seem that the sound from before should have originated from this vicinity," an Inborn expert commented with a solemn expression.

"Let me take a look!" Poison Doc, Yan She, moved his arm and a green poisonous snake dived into the Yellow River.

He still had a black venomous snake with him. Clearly, he wasn't willing to risk the black snake.

"Let me take a look at the river water!" An old man waved his hand and a ball of water flew towards him.

"The center of this part of the Yellow River can reach a depth of fifteen. It is relatively deep compared to other areas," the middle-aged man in military uniform explained to the group.

Wang Xian squinted his eyes. A blue and red light flashed in his eyes.

In his view, the muddy water gradually turned transparent. The situation under the surface gradually appeared in his sight.

"There aren't any fish at all! Not even one!"

Wang Xian was slightly surprised that there wasn't even a living fish in the huge and broad Yellow River.

"That is a Cadaveric Leech!"

Wang Xian turned his head around and looked to his right. A palm-sized leech was resting at the bottom of the riverbed.

Suddenly, that Cadaveric Leech suddenly accelerated and attacked towards the direction of that green snake.

Sss sss!

The green snake was clearly not any ordinary snake. Sensing the Cadaveric Leech, it immediately lifted its head and stared coldly at it.

Swish!

The Cadaveric Leech charged furiously ahead but the green snake wasn't flustered. It opened its mouth and revealed two huge fangs which it sank into the leech. After which, it swam rapidly towards shore.

Croak!

At this moment, a water bubble appeared before the snake. A huge and dreadful toad-like creature was swimming towards the green snake at an astonishing speed.

The toad-like creature extended its tongue. On its tongue, there were various suction cups that looked frightening.

The green snake didn't even have the time to retaliate when it was wrapped by the tongue. After which, the dense suction cups instantly started wiggling.

At a pace visible to the human eye, the green snake was sucked dry. As for that Cadaveric Leech, it managed to survive and fled rapidly.

Huh?

The commotion within the water also attracted the attention of the crowd on shore as they looked on.

Splash!

At this instant, the toad-like creature appeared to have picked up the scent of the humans on shore and jumped out of the water directly.

Bam!

A one-meter huge horrifying mutated creature stared coldly at the crowd.

It had dense, bulging meat balls all around its body and was dull yellow in color. Subsequently, it opened its mouth and revealed its horrifying tongue, which it stuck out and pointed to the sky.

Chapter 343: Corpse (1)

"A mutated toad?"

Everyone was shocked by the toad that suddenly leaped out. They staggered two steps back as they stared at the mutated toad with vigilance.

Croak!

The toad let out a low cry with its tongue moving slowly while it glared coldly at the group of people.

[Cadaveric Toad: Level 10]

[Unable to extract Dragon Energy]

A message popped out in Wang Xian's mind. But he realized that this toad was much stronger than those usual Level 10 creatures.

In particular, the long tongue in its mouth looked terrifying.

"A toad that actually grew to a meter in size? What is this? What caused such a horrible transformation in them?"

A middle-aged man was observing the toad.

"Kill it and dissect it!" a Miracle Doctor holding on to his silver needles announced to the group.

Croak!

Just when that Miracle Doctor finished his sentence, the mutated toad moved.

As its four limbs moved, it charged at one Inborn Expert at a terrifying speed.

"Beast, go to hell!"

Those Inborn Experts standing in front were looking cold as they wielded their swords at it.

Four Inborn Experts struck immediately at it while the rest observed the enormous mutated toad from behind.

Bam, Bam, Bam!

"Oh, no!"

As the sharp radiance from the sword struck the body of the mutated toad, not a single trace was left on it.

This caused a drastic change in the expressions of four Inborn Experts who were attacking it.

Hiss!

At this moment, that mutated toad suddenly extended its tongue from two meters to five meters long.

The overcrowding mouthparts were horrifying.

Poof!

The Inborn Expert was appalled when the toad struck at him. He crossed his arms in front of his chest, defending himself with mighty strength.

However, his defense energy was penetrated just like a piece of paper.

At a speed visible to the naked eye, that Inborn Expert's body shrunk.

Croak!

That terrifying toad was enjoying itself.

"Oh no, that toad has reached Half-Step to Dan Realm!"

The middle-aged man in military uniform was horrified. He quickly waved the saber in his hand, aiming at the tongue of that mutated toad.

"Half-Step to Dan Realm?"

All the Inborn Experts were taken aback by horror. Those experts who had not reached the Inborn Realm quickly stepped back.

"Let's strike together!"

The middle-aged man in the military uniform shouted immediately when his saber bounced off as soon as it hit the mutated toad's tongue.

"Attack!"

All the Inborn Experts were surprised by the power of the mutated toad, which had instantly killed an Inborn Expert.

An Inborn Expert had been killed in a split second with no hope for treatment.

Boom, boom!

The sharp radiance from the swords, fiery whirling weapons, and powerful strikes bombarded the mutated toad.

Croak!

Yet, it ignored all the attacks, assaulting only the middle-aged man in the military uniform.

Boom, boom!

All their strikes left only slight traces on the mutated toad.

"What a dominating defense!"

The surrounding people were horrified. A film of cold sweat was covering the forehead of the middle-aged man in military uniform. "Azure Dragon Saber, slay!"

With both his hands gripping his saber, he blasted a full-blown attack at the mutated toad.

Bam!

The razor-sharp saber, accompanied by Energy of the Gold Summit, only left a half-meter long blood trace on the toad.

Hiss!

The middle-aged man in military uniform leaped and staggered back as he gasped.

"Level 8 weapon and my full-force attack could only leave a slight injury on the mutated toad. What a domineering defense it has. Everyone, watch out!"

"Just now, when my sword hit that fellow's eyes, it only left a faint trace on it. The defense is simply appalling. There's no weakness at all!"

Another Inborn Expert stared at the mutated toad with a sword in his hand, looking nasty.

"What a strong mutated toad!"

Bian Yaoquan and the rest of the young and middle-aged men who were not Inborns yet were horrified as a score of Inborn Experts was staring at the mutated toad.

"We'll trap it. The rest, attack!"

At this time, Sun Lingxiu squinted her eyes as she lifted her palm slowly.

"Ack, ack, let's kill this thing off now!"

At the same time, Miracle Doctor Blood Man stepped forward with streams of blood flowing down from his feet, spreading rapidly towards the mutated toad.

"Holy Light Trap!"

"Blood Confinement!"

After the soft groan from Sun Lingxiu, Miracle Doctor Blood Man followed suit with a bellow.

White-colored lights criss crossed each other. Crimson bloody aura attached to each light ray, trapping the mutated toad in a red-colored cage.

Bam!

The mutated toad seemed to have no other emotions except banging itself into the cage.

However, the double-binding powers caused the toad to bounce off from the cage.

"Attack!"

The surrounding twenty Inborn Experts grabbed their weapons and wielded them at that mutated toad with strong forces.

Boom, boom!

Every attack the Inborn Experts made seemed to be firing a violent explosion.

Bam, Bam, Bam!

Yet, the mutated toad did not seem to feel the pain as it knocked itself against the surrounding trap violently.

"Oh no, the trap can't hold any longer!"

At this time, Sun Lingxiu had a change in her expression. The brightness around her intensified as she looked even more like the Goddess of Light.

"Its defense is too domineering. More than a score of Inborn Experts could not inflict serious injuries on it!"

Those people who were not Inborns were appalled when they saw the light injuries on the mutated toad's body.

"Prison Duo, take my Level 9 weapon, Sky Splitting Blade!"

When Bian Yaoquan saw this from the back, he swung his arm, and a half-meter long weapon appeared in his hand. He yelled at Old Du and flung it.

"Level 9 weapon?"

The surrounding Inborn Experts had a slight change in their expressions. Some of them looked over fervently. Level 9 weapons were incredibly sharp and fearsome.

"Sure!"

Old Du revealed a smile as he reached out his arm and took the Sky Splitting Blade. Drawing a sword radiance that was a few meters long, he encompassed himself in poisonous smoke with a swift move.

Swish!

As the Level 9 weapon cut across, it left an inch-deep wound on the mutated toad.

"Such a sharp weapon. That's a formidable Level 9 weapon!"

Everyone was astonished by the wound left on the mutated toad, which was deep into the bones.

"Awesome. He carried a Level 9 weapon around with him. Is this how affluent and resourceful Medical Saint Sect is?"

"Young Master Bian's self-defense weapon is actually a Level 9 weapon. I really envy him!"

"Even for weapons that are seemingly like decor, his weapon is Level 9. We really can't compare with him at all!"

The rest of the crowd slightly lifted their chins and looked at Bian Yaoquan whose face was full of smiles. They were all envious of him.

Their backings might have been strong, but they were nowhere near this Young Master Bian.

Chapter 344: Corpse (2)

"A level 9 weapon is incomparably valuable. Even an Inborn expert would find it hard to obtain a Level 9 weapon!" Bian Yaoquan remarked proudly. Having a Level 9 weapon was also an exemplification of one's standing. He had something that even Inborn experts didn't have!

"I'll use my weapon to slay this creature!" He looked emotionlessly at the ongoing battle as his lips curved into a smile.

"It's going to get away. Old Du, we will pin it down while you attack it with the Level 9 weapon!" the middle-aged man in military uniform shouted loudly after seeing the mutated toad breaking out of the restraints of the cage.

"Leave it to me. I'll definitely kill it within ten strikes!"

Old Du held the Sky Splitting Blade in his hand and spoke confidently.

"Holy Goddess, be careful!"

At this moment, the mutated toad charged towards Sun Lingxiu. It shot its horrifying tongue at her while fixing its gaze on her.

Sun Lingxiu was slightly surprised and instantly emitted dazzling light.

Swish!

However, a longsword with a golden shine slashed towards the mutated toad while it was in mid-air.

Before the sword reached it, the glow of the sword had slashed it.

All the surrounding experts with weapons in their hands could feel the resonance from their weapons.

Bam!

To the astonishment of the crowd, the golden longsword cut into the head of the toad directly.

The mutated toad fell to the ground.

"What?"

"This..."

The surrounding experts who were getting ready to attack were taken aback and shocked.

That golden longsword was actually able to cut into the body of the toad!

How could that be possible? Despite having it surrounded and attacking it for some time, they were only able to inflict minor injuries to it previously.

"Not bad, it's pretty sharp." A peal of light-hearted laughter resounded and the surrounding crowd instantly looked over.

Sensing the crowd's attention, Wang Xian smiled and pointed the scabbard of Zhan Lu ahead of him.

Bzz bzz!

Zhan Lu, which had pierced the mutated toad, vibrated violently. After emitting a crisp buzzing sound, it flew back into the scabbard.

No blood was left on the razor-sharp blade at all.

"This... That is an Inborn Spiritual Weapon!"

Seeing this, an Inborn expert couldn't hold back and exclaimed. He stared intensely at Zhan Lu in Wang Xian's hand.

"Inborn Spiritual Weapon! Oh gosh! It's an Inborn Spiritual Weapon!"

The surrounding crowd was greatly shocked.

Inborn Spiritual Weapons were weapons often regarded as only appearing in legends. Even though they were Inborn experts, they rarely saw one, let alone possessing one.

Blacksmith and alchemist were both occupations taken up by few. The most powerful and known grandmaster blacksmith was only Level 7.

He could forge Level 7 weapons. However, that's still a huge difference from an Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

An Inborn Spiritual Weapon could be the Treasure of the Clan for a Sacred Clan or Sect.

The reason why they were so horrifying was because they possessed spirituality and the ability to suppress ordinary weapons.

If a Half-step to Inborn expert used an Inborn Spiritual Weapon, he could even slay an Inborn expert.

An Inborn Spiritual Weapon was incomparably sharp and could easily break through the defense of an Inborn expert.

Around Wang Xian, most of the Inborn experts had Level 6 or 7 weapons. A few had Level 8 weapons while only Bian Yaoquan had the Level 9 Sky Splitting Blade.

A Level 9 weapon had already greatly surprised them, let alone an Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

One should note that the Inborn level Hao Zhong had previously surprised the entire Sacred Sect, Heavenly Sound Sect!

"This is Zhan Lu!"

Wang Xian could tell everyone's attentions were fixed on the longsword in his hand. He smiled, lifted it and explained to the crowd.

"Zhan Lu? It's actually Zhan Lu! The top-3 weapon in history!"

"Inborn Spiritual Weapon, Zhan Lu. How incredible! Our combined all-out attack only managed to inflict light injuries on the mutated toad. Yet, Zhan Lu killed it directly. Zhan Lu is so much stronger than Level 9 weapons!"

"Before the Inborn Spiritual Weapon, everything else is just scraps. Even a Level 9 weapon couldn't possibly be a match for it!"

The surrounding Inborn experts exclaimed in shock as they turned and looked at the dead mutated toad.

Behind them, the rest of the crowd stared fervently at Zhan Lu. They were shocked and dumbfounded.

"Inborn Spiritual Weapon! Miracle Doctor Wang's weapon is the Inborn Spiritual Weapon, Zhan Lu!"

"Oh gosh! I thought Young Master Bian was incredible to possess a Level 9 weapon! Who would have expected the sword of Miracle Doctor Wang to be an Inborn Spiritual Weapon?"

"Just a simple wave of his hand and the Inborn Spiritual Weapon killed the mutated toad. What horrifying sharpness!"

"I thought that the sword was just for decoration. I would have never expected..."

"It would appear that Miracle Doctor Wang actually has deeper pockets than Young Master Bian! Powerful medical skills, an alchemist and now his weapon!"

The strength that Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown had demonstrated over the past two days was too shocking.

Even the core disciple of a Sacred Sect with hundreds of years of history couldn't be compared with him.

Bian Yaoquan's jaw had dropped and he was in disbelief. Following which, his expression turned gloomy as he stared bitterly at Wang Xian.

He clenched his fist tightly. This rascal was going against him in all ways.

Murderous intent gleamed in Bian Yaoquan's eyes.

The surrounding Inborn experts consciously and subconsciously looked at Zhan Lu fervently.

"Let me take a look at that mutated toad to see why it has such a powerful defense!"

A Miracle Doctor walked to the mutated toad and started examining it.

"Be careful, everyone. This matter is more severe than a few days ago. Even Half-Step to Dan Realm creatures have appeared!"

The middle-aged man in military uniform spoke with a solemn expression. Now that such a horrifying creature had appeared, would there be stronger creatures?

If there was, he could only invite the Laozus of those Sacred Clans.

He heaved a sigh and ordered his men to handle the corpses of the Inborn experts. After which, he looked to the muddy Yellow River.

Wang Xian was also looking into the Yellow River. He wasn't concerned that he had exposed his Inborn Spiritual Weapon, Zhan Lu.

If the mutated toad had not attacked Sun Lingxiu previously, Wang Xian wouldn't have struck.

Everyone's attention was on the Inborn Spiritual Weapon, Zhan Lu. No one actually noticed Wang Xian's strength level.

Wang Xian glanced at the corpse of the Cadaveric Toad before looking into the depths of the Yellow River.

The breadth of a thousand meters was all within Wang Xian's sight as he used his Piercing Eye.

He walked to the edge of the shore and looked right down.

Sun Lingxiu looked at Wang Xian and came to him. Miracle Doctor Blood Man followed closely behind her.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, be careful!"

Seeing that Wang Xian was about to break away from the group, the middle-aged man in military uniform reminded him.

Wang Xian turned to him and nodded his head. A blue and red glow flashed in his eyes as he continued looking into the river.

Huh?

After walking along the river bank for over two thousand meters, he stopped in his tracks and looked in shock ahead of him.

"That is...?"

Wang Xian stared intensely at the middle of the river.

A group of mutated creatures had gathered there. There were Cadaveric Mosquitoes, Cadaveric Leech and Cadaveric ants that were half a meter in size.

There were also toads that were two meters in size.

A total of approximately thirty horrifying creatures lay there and seemed to be protecting something in the middle of the river.

Chapter 345: Corpse (3)

Wang Xian was slightly taken aback as he saw something in the middle of the Yellow River. He pondered hard.

Those terrifying creatures were far more domineering than those mutated beings they had met just now.

The one-meter Cadaveric Toad just now possessed a strength of Half-Step to Dan Realm.

Yet, the two-meter Cadaveric Toad before him now had already hit Dan Realm.

Two meters in size with faint greyish aura circling around its mustard body, exhibiting domineering demeanor.

The rest of the Cadaveric Ants around were also giving off the same domineering vibe. They quietly lay in a circle.

"More than a score of Level 11 appalling creatures are keeping guard over something in the middle. What's that?"

Wang Xian was stunned as he looked around. Some of the low-level Cadaveric Ants and Cadaveric Toads were loitering around without a mind of their own.

Just then, he saw Cadaveric Leeches and Cadaveric Mosquitoes rapidly swimming towards the opening of the Yellow River.

There were approximately 20 to 30 of them, all looking bloated as they swam towards the Cadaveric Ants and Cadaveric Mosquitoes.

Croak!

They spat out traces of thick and crimson blood that flowed towards the center location.

"This is...?"

Wang Xian stared with his eyes wide open, looking shocked.

They were feeding. Those creatures were feeding on the blood they sucked up from the thing in the center.

"Is that the terrifying existence? Is it nursing itself? With the fresh blood from other living beings?"

Wang Xian was amazed.

If he guessed correctly, this creature was simply too scary as it could produce numbers of Level 11 creatures even when it was injured.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, did you make any discoveries?"

At the same time, there were dozens of people approaching from behind, asking him with smiling faces.

Yan She was right in the middle, accompanied by some Miracle Doctors and Inborn Experts.

"No!"

Wang Xian shook his head. He did not reveal to them what he saw as he knew this bunch of people was not good enough to deal with these appalling creatures.

"The water in the Yellow River is not contaminated at all. According to what we found out, these creatures should be coming from within the river."

As Yan She spoke, he cast a glance towards the Yellow River by the side. "But the water is too murky. My green snake got devoured after entering it. It's too quiet over here without any life forms."

"Yes, there are no life forms here. Not a single fish in such a huge river bank," another Miracle Doctor exclaimed.

"What is the military army going to do with this place?" asked Wang Xian to Yan She with some curiosity.

"They'll kill all the mutated creatures on the grassland before cordoning off the entire riverbank."

As Yan She answered, he looked over in another direction where armed soldiers were rushing in.

The group of Inborn Experts followed the soldiers around, helping them to eliminate those mutated creatures.

Wang Xian looked over as they combed the area inch by inch, wiping out all the mutated creatures. Then they proceeded to search the Yellow River.

However, it was not easy due to the murkiness of the water.

Most importantly, they would sound off those group of terrifying creatures if they ventured into the river. It would be a severe loss until then.

Wang Xian frowned slightly as the group of people began searching along the riverbank.

Just before the sun was setting, the group finished walking around the tributary. Wang Xian had a better idea about the creatures within the river.

"I wonder if you have any findings?" the middle-aged man in military uniform asked all the Miracle Doctors at night.

"According to our understanding, the mutated ants have evolved with special organs that allow them to swim freely in the water. The source of the problem is almost certainly coming from the Yellow River!"

The group of Miracle Doctors shook their heads as not much information had been obtained.

The middle-aged man in military uniform knit his eyebrows slightly and made a decision. "Tomorrow, we'll check the Yellow River. After which, everyone will receive a handsome reward for it."

Miracle Doctors and Inborn Experts nodded their heads.

Everyone witnessed how dangerous it was at the tributary of the Yellow River, especially when the Half-Step to Dan Realm creature slew an Inborn Expert.

Without remuneration, many Inborn Experts would not want to risk their lives.

After dinner, everyone went back to their tents for a rest. Wang Xian stood outside of his own tent and gazed in the direction of the Yellow River. Thoughts were flying around in his head.

There were no stars nor moon in the sky. The weather was somber, and rain was expected tomorrow.

At 12 midnight, a figure disappeared from the temporary base. It flitted like a phantom towards the tributary of the Yellow River.

No one noticed that figure even though experts were all around.

"Let's check it out!"

Wang Xian decided to explore the Yellow River. He'd had his apprehensions in the day, and therefore did not rise above the Yellow River in the air.

With a swift move, he flew a thousand meters high and looked down at the river.

"This is...?" His vision from Piercing Eyes was blocked by a layer of dark energy.

In the air, Wang Xian had a slightly different expression from before as he fixed his eyes on something below.

The grayish energy was similar to the water in the Yellow River, blocking his Piercing Eye's vision in the air.

However, those Level 11 mutated creatures were seen clearly in the surroundings.

"There are more than a score of Level 11 creatures. Unless I turn into a dragon, I won't be a match to them!"

With some hesitation, Wang Xian made a quick move and dived into the Yellow River.

Splash!

When Wang Xian entered the water, there were no water ripples at all. With a thought, he allowed the murky water stream to encompass him completely.

With a swift movement, Wang Xian approached that location.

1,000 meters, 500 meters, 100 meters...

Soon, Wang Xian was 50 meters away from the mutated creatures.

Looking ahead, Wang Xian stared with eyes agape.

A three-meter human-like being was quietly lying in the middle among the mutated creatures.

His body was giving off a disorderly vibe, but the energy it possessed trembled Wang Xian.

"Blood, Suppression from the blood!"

Wang Xian was staring with his eyes wide. The being that was lying without a sound in the water seemed to be suppressing Wang Xian.

Wang Xian may have been weak now, but it was horrifying to find something that could suppress his Divine Dragon's bloodline.

The bloodline of this being is not any inferior to mine. Perhaps it's also a supreme bloodline.

It was an eye-opener to Wang Xian as there were less than five bloodlines that could be on par with that of the Divine Dragon.

Before his eyes now, he had met one on Earth.

"He has no breadth, but his blood is still alive. He has a chance of resurrecting!"

Wang Xian recalled that if he mastered the seventh Divine Dragon Transformation, he could be revived with a drop of blood.

Terrifying!

Chapter 346: Ancient God Kun

Breeder

The lingering will of the blood in the corpse is actually able to control the surrounding creatures instinctively. In this process, it mutates the surrounding creatures to protect itself. At the same time, it is absorbing the fresh blood of these creatures to revive itself. What a horrifying ability!

Wang Xian couldn't believe what he was seeing. He stared blankly at the corpse and his expression was changing violently.

There are lots of living creatures in the Yellow River. However, this corpse only controlled those smaller creatures like ants, mosquitoes and leeches. Why didn't it control the fish? Especially those bigger ones which are around a meter?

Even till now, the biggest living creature it controlled was a toad the size of a palm!

It's because...!

He squinted his eyes and a thought struck him. It's because this corpse is already dead. Even though there is lingering vitality in its blood, the blood does not have sufficient energy. Thus, it can only control those smaller creatures like ants and mosquitoes. Perhaps the creatures it controlled have grown stronger recently and thus it is now able to control toads!

In reality, this corpse does not possess any combat capacity. It instructed some of the creatures to go search for fresh blood required for its revival while leaving behind the strongest creatures to protect itself from being discovered by other living creatures. Once it is discovered, the chances of it reviving would be close to zero!

At the thought of this, Wang Xian's eyes beamed.

This was an existence with a bloodline that ranked in the upper echelons throughout the universe. It was also a horrifying existence that could match a divine dragon. The corpse before Wang Xian currently was a huge trove of treasure!

Wang Xian's eyes were beaming. From this corpse, he gradually emitted the might and aura of a divine dragon.

Psst!

Croak!

At this instant, those Level 11 mutated creatures that were surrounding the corpse noticed Wang Xian and stared at him immediately. Their gazes were cold without any emotions.

Roar!

A soft growl of the dragon emanated suddenly.

Splash!

A five-colored divine dragon appeared in the Yellow River.

This location was just slightly over ten meters deep. For Wang Xian's huge body that spanned approximately seven meters, it was just like a small pond.

Croak!

Buzz Buzz Buzz!

Just as Wang Xian turned into a divine dragon, those twenty-odd formidable mutated creatures charged towards Wang Xian without hesitation.

These creatures couldn't feel the slightest fear or pain. They opened their mouths, revealed their sharp teeth and attempted to sink these teeth into Wang Xian.

Their speed was astonishingly fast and the sharpness of their teeth was comparable to Level 9 weapons.

"Die!"

Wang Xian saw twenty-odd creatures charging towards him and swung his razor-sharp claws at them in response.

Sss sss sss!

Horrifying and densely packed streams of Metal attribute energies instantly covered an area of over ten meters before him.

Boom Boom!

Horrifying clashes rang! These mutated creatures did not have any elemental attributes. However, they did have incomparably tough defenses.

Unfortunately for them, they were facing Wang Xian this time. Wang Xian's current strength level could match a Level 12 creature!

Razor-sharp streams of Metal energies fell on more than ten creatures, leaving behind long wounds.

Even the sharpness of the Inborn Spiritual Weapon, Zhan Lu, couldn't match the dragon claws of Wang Xian

As the pinnacle existence in the entire universe, the toughness of the body of the divine dragon would be among the top three. Together with their elemental attribute attacks, they remained the pinnacle of all existences in the universe.

"Divine Dragon Tail Whip!"

Wang Xian controlled his tail and swept towards the mutated creatures.

Boom boom!

Sounds of explosions propagated throughout the surrounding area spanning ten kilometers.

"What's that sound?"

"What's that sound? I faintly heard a roar!"

"Is there any explosion in the vicinity?"

At the temporary base four kilometers away from the Yellow River, the experts and Miracle Doctors walked out of the tent and exclaimed in shock.

Croak croak croak!

Buzz buzz buzz!

Sss sss sss!

At this instant, a deafening sound that sent chills down their spines rang loudly. Everyone could hear it clearly.

"What? What is that sound?"

"It must be from the mutated creatures. The deep croak was from the mutated toad. However, it's more terrifying than the one we heard in the day!"

"The other sounds were from the mutated mosquitoes and leeches. Oh gosh! What happened?"

Hearing the deafening and rapid cries of these creatures, the group of Inborn Experts was startled.

Ka ka ka!

At this moment, all the lights in the temporary base lit up, illuminating the surroundings and turning it as bright as the day.

The soldiers walked out of their tents and the middle-aged man in military uniform leapt onto biggest tent and stared in the direction of the Yellow River.

The group of Inborn experts exchanged glances before levitating into the air and looking in the direction of the Yellow River.

Boom!

At this instant, they heard a loud explosion that resembled something smashing onto the surface of the river.

Roar!

A frightening roar erupted once again. Looking from afar, they could vaguely see a huge tail sweeping forward.

"What a terrifying aura. I could even feel the threat of death from this distance!"

"What's happening at the Yellow River to cause such horrifying explosions? Moreover... What kind of creature is making that frightening roar?"

The group of Inborn Experts widened their eyes as they looked in the direction of the Yellow River in shock.

Feeling the dominating powers, their hearts were filled with horror.

"There is a powerful creature fighting there. It's so strong that it appears unbelievable!"

The middle-aged man in military uniform stared in that direction and his body was shivering a little in awe.

The cries of the mutated creatures and the mighty roar of the powerful existence had both frightened the group.

They were no match for the creatures in the Yellow River.

"Fight?"

The crowd swallowed their saliva. It was especially so for those who had not reached the Inborn Realm. Every sound that came from there filled them with horror.

They were certain that if they were any closer, they couldn't even stand.

To them, the creatures there were equivalent to gods and demons.

"Could it be that the creature that caused the mutation is fighting other living creatures?" the surrounding crowd conjectured.

At this very moment, Wang Xian, who was in the Yellow River, released a green dragon ball from his mouth.

The surrounding seagrass grew rapidly to the thickness of a human's arm with thorns. Subsequently, these seagrasses wrapped towards all the mutated creatures.

Wang Xian extended his dragon claws and gripped the Level 11 Cadaveric Toad tightly.

Bam!

The Cadaveric Toad was squashed into a heap of flesh instantly. Despite having an incredible defense, it was still killed instantly.

Around Wang Xian, the mutated creatures were all trapped by the thorny seagrasses. The creatures struggled vigorously and were starting to break out of the hold of these seagrasses.

"Just a group of meager Level 11 creatures! Die!"

Wang Xian looked up and opened his mouth widely as the river waters retreated quickly from Wang Xian.

Lava-like flames shrouded towards and covered these mutated creatures.

Endnote:

A Kun is a fish-like creature recorded in Chinese mythology. It is extremely huge and can evolve into a creature that can fly in the sky

Chapter 347: Ancient God Kun Breeder (2)

Boom, boom, boom!

As the flames ascended, they lit up the areas above. The sky above the Yellow River was now covered in flames as though it was raging in a firestorm. It was clearly visible even to those situated more than a dozen kilometers away.

Within the temporary base, the crowd of experts looked on in shock at the burning flames. The monstrous fire resembled those started by fallen meteorites which crashed into Earth.

Despite being several kilometers away, they could still feel a surge of heatwaves coming at them.

Under the lights of the flames, they could somewhat make out a mammoth figure as it flashed past.

"That ... what was that?" a voice asked.

"These destructive flames are so terrifying. Should they land on us, they're more than enough to melt our bodies directly!" another said, shivering.

"What exactly is that battling creature? How is it so powerful? Since when did such a menacing creature exist within the Yellow River?" the third questioned.

Dumbfounded, the crowd of Inborn experts looked on with heavy hearts.

Needless to say, the rest who had yet to attain the Inborn Realm status were overwhelmed by more shock, as their legs nearly turned to jelly.

"Everyone, let's take a look over there," the middle-aged man in military uniform said in hesitation as he surveyed the crowd, while his face twitched with mixed emotions.

"This...", the Inborn experts replied with flickering eyes.

"Given our combat abilities ... We would be lucky if that powerful creature ignores us as we approach. But what if it attacks us ...," an Inborn expert trailed off in a low tone. Even though he had left his sentence hanging, his intentions were already clear.

"Everyone here knows the creature over there. It's not a little tamed animal. Aren't we courting doom by going over?" another Inborn expert asked blatantly.

To ask them over for viewing right now? How could that possibly be? They were never going over, even if one threatened to kill them.

For such risky behavior, no amount would convince them to go over.

Meanwhile, the young militant stood at a side, taking everything in silently, as his face turned glum.

He dared not to risk it.

"Each of their defensive powers is insane!" Wang Xian exclaimed in shock. He was in the Yellow River, facing more than a dozen creatures. In spite of their now charred bodies, they continued to eye Wang Xian emotionlessly.

Their defensive powers were exceptional, even in the face of Wang Xian whose combat abilities were a level higher. Slaying them would require use of the Dragon Claws, and even then this would remain a difficult task.

"You beasts. How dare you stop me!" Wang Xian snapped. In a split second, Wang Xian transformed into a dragon covered in a body of gold. A Golden Dragon of the metal element was most adept at killing.

"Kill!" Wang Xian shouted as he charged ahead, and lunged onto the creatures which feared no death.

Two enormous Dragon Claws swung forward and tore mercilessly.

Zap, zap, zap!

In the air were sounds of tearing made by metallic materials.

Within a radius of five hundred meters, bouts of metallic energy surged through the region and penetrated through all creatures standing in its path.

Having been seriously injured previously, the dozen or so mutated creatures eventually disintegrated into pieces, and fell into the river.

"Phew! That was troublesome!" Wang Xian panted. He looked at the dismembered body parts which drifted amidst the waters, before turning his Dragon Head towards the center of the river. He stared coolly at the corpse which measured up to three meters.

While it had a human form, its body was entirely mustard in color, coupled with a grisly facial appearance.

As opposed to humans, it had neither a nose nor a mouth, although it also possessed a pair of eyes and ears.

On the top of its head, there were two relatively short horns the color of mustard.

Wang Xian did not approach it, nor did he want to do it so flippantly. After all, it was a terrifying creature, hence caution must be exercised at all times.

The corpse lay silently in the water, as though it was in an individual space of its own. A spot on its thigh which was missing some flesh and blood revealed the ivory bones within.

[Ancient God Kun Breeder: Level unknown]

[Unable to extract Dragon Energy]

"The Ancient God Kun Breeder?" Wang Xian said, stunned after reading the message. His face filled with shock.

"The Ancient God Kun Breeder. To think ... it's the Ancient God Kun Breeder!" Wang Xian gasped with his mouth gaping open as his eyes flooded with bloodthirst. This was a murderous intent which stemmed from his bloodline.

"Hmph!" Wang Xian snorted with a heavy look. He calmed himself down the soonest he could, while information on the Ancient God Kun Breeder appeared in his head.

As the Divine Dragon Transformation read, it was the only Pinnacle existence to have ever been recorded, and also the only arch-nemesis of the Divine Dragon to have ever existed.

That said, based on the records in the Divine Dragon Transformation, the Ancient God Kun Breeders were already extinct. Little did he expect to meet one in person.

The Ancient God Kun Breeder, as the name suggests, was a breeder of Kuns.

Hence these so-called Kun Breeders were also the owners of Kuns, giant monsters of the galaxy.

Whereas the Kun, also known as Kun Garuda, were creatures whose existence was almost on par with that of a Divine Dragon.

It was a fish in the sea, but a bird on land and in the air.

The physical size of a Kun could stretch up to thousands of kilometers, making it one of the largest creatures to exist under the sky.

As a bird, the combat abilities of a Kun were more powerful than that of a Golden-winged Suparnin, making it a rare hegemon both on land and underwater.

A creature as domineering as the Kun, which managed to attain status as a Pinnacle, had achieved this due to neither its bloodline nor physical constitution. Its existence was, in fact, thanks to the breeding efforts of one particular clan.

That is, the Ancient God Clan, otherwise known as the Ancient God Kun Breeders.

These Ancient God Kun Breeders reared Kuns by capturing existences of the top bloodlines with the best physical constitutions within the galaxy, and feeding them to the Kuns thereafter.

Amongst the main targets of these Ancient God Kun Breeders were weaker and smaller Divine Dragons, which were hunted and killed.

Based on records in the Divine Dragon Transformation, these Ancient God Kun

Breeders were annihilated after they offended many top-class clans and sects for having killed their descendants.

Their existence was a perverse one, one which was feared and scorned by all.

Wang Xian's face contorted along with his swirling emotions as he looked at the corpse of the Ancient God Kun Breeder.

He reverted to his human form before walking slowly over to the corpse.

With a body size stretching up to three meters, this Ancient God Kun Breeder was not a huge one. Void of any signs of life, the corpse now crumbled in decay, as though it had been dead for thousands of years.

As Wang Xian looked at the corpse, he began to show signs of hesitation.

This corpse must not be left on its own. These Ancient God Kun Breeders are a top-class existence which even Wang Xian was unable to contain.

He did not know if it would bode well or if it would mean evil should this Ancient God Kun Breeder manage to regain consciousness.

It would be too late for regrets for him, should this fellow kill him and feed him to the Kuns, upon seeing that he was a pure-bred Divine Dragon.

"Destroy!" Wang Xian decided without the slightest hesitation. As he spoke, a Dragon Ball appeared in his hand, which he then placed gently on top of the corpse.

The corpse was soon engulfed in flames.

However, Wang Xian was startled with a burdened look; despite the flames raging from the Dragon Ball, the corpse of the Ancient God Kun Breeder did not seem the least bit affected.

Flames from a Level 10 Dragon Ball had not done the least bit of damage to this corpse.

"To think a corpse which has been long dead can still be this menacing!" Wang Xian shrieked in astonishment. With a sudden thought, he placed his arm on the area where the heart of the corpse lay beneath.

"It's the bloodline; his body is still flowing with remnants of their clan's bloodline. I need to obtain it so that this Ancient God Kun Breeder can never come back to life," Wang Xian analyzed.

Zoom!

Through Wang Xian's telepathic sensing, he detected the scarlet fluid the size of fingernails, which was located in the heart of the corpse.

Chapter 348: National Treasury

"Come out!"

As Wang Xian waved his arm, streams of dense dragon energy flowed towards the heart of Ancient God Kun Breeder and surrounded the drop of blood.

A drop of fiery red was pulled out of the corpse.

The drop of blood was moving vigorously as if it was in fear and horror.

Wang Xian looked at the small drop of blood from the Ancient God Kun Breeder. This could very well be the last of its kind.

"There is still the presence of intelligence in the blood! Are these the memories of this corpse?"

Wang Xian looked at the shimmering drop of blood. He moved his hand and ejected dragon energy to erase the lingering spirit in it.

"Argh! This is the only bloodline of the Ancient God that remains! I'm not convinced! Our clan shall live on for eternity!"

A wretched voice rang in Wang Xian's mind suddenly. He was stunned.

"How terrifying!" Wang Xian sighed as he looked at this droplet of blood.

Rumble!

At this instant, the corpse beside him started cracking and was eventually reduced to ashes [Essence Soul of The Ancient God Breeder: Level ???

Extraction of dragon energy not possible.]

"Essence Soul? "When Wang Xian received information about this drop of blood, he was taken aback. Essence soul?

"An Essence Soul is a combination of the essence blood and the soul. In other words...!"

A thought struck Wang Xian suddenly and he was thrilled.

Inheritance, this is an inheritance!

Wang Xian's body couldn't help but tremble with excitement. This was the inheritance of the Ancient God Kun Breeder. If one was to absorb this drop of blood, one would have a high chance of becoming a member of the Ancient Gods and the last Ancient God Kun Breeder in the entire universe.

"It's no surprise that the last words of the voice were 'Our clan shall live on forever!' So this explains it!"

Wang Xian mumbled to himself as he was filled with anticipation and excitement.

Consuming this Essence Soul will allow one to inherit the bloodline of the Ancient God Kun Breeder and become a member of the Ancient Gods. It's a shame that I already have the bloodline of the divine dragon and hence cannot consume it. I can give this...

Wang Xian started considering who he should give this to.

This was a priceless item. Therefore, he would only give it to his closest kin or friends or his subordinates like the dragonians.

"Let's leave this place first!"

Wang Xian put the Essence Soul away and moved like a phantom towards the temporary base.

"Huh? Why is everyone gathered here?"

From afar, Wang Xian noticed that the temporary base was brightly illuminated. All the experts were either standing on top of the tents or levitating in the air.

Wang Xian made a detour and appeared beside Sun Lingxiu.

"Why is everyone gathered here? What are they looking out for?" Wang Xian asked Sun Lingxiu with a bright smile.

"No one dares to head in that direction. The tremors from the battles ahead were too shocking. Xiao Xian, you are really incredible! Have you settled everything?" she asked.

Sun Lingxiu also possessed the divine dragon's bloodline currently and practiced the Light Divine Dragon Transformation. She knew that Wang Xian had been involved in the battle previously.

"It's settled. I believe we should be able to head back tomorrow!" Wang Xian smiled and looked around him.

The crowd of experts gathered to discuss the battle ahead of them. Even though the commotion had died down, no one dared to head over.

Although this happened at midnight, no one was feeling sleepy. They had gathered and were discussing the situation fervently.

On the other hand, Wang Xian was very relaxed and wasn't tense like the others. He returned to his room to take his rest.

On the next morning, Wang Xian learned that the middle-aged man in military uniform had led some soldiers to recce around the Yellow River in the wee hours of the day.

In the end, he brought back the good news that all the mutated creatures had vanished, including those that might be hiding within the Yellow River.

They found the corpses of some mutated creatures in the river.

This shocked everyone in the base but they were relieved at the same time.

The crowd recalled the horrifying battle that had occurred at midnight. Perhaps other creatures had killed those mutated creatures or chased them away.

"Miracle Doctor Sun, this is your reward!"

"Miracle Doctor Blood Man and Miracle Doctor Wang, thank you for your assistance in this mission! Both of you will get entry into the National Treasury!"

At noon, a soldier entered the tent and spoke to them.

"Thank you!" Sun Lingxiu received a jade box and smiled. As for Miracle Doctor Blood Man, he stood by the side and laughed out of ecstasy.

The soldier handed Wang Xian a gold medal and his personal information was recorded on it. With this medal, he would be able to enter the National Treasury to pick an item of his liking.

"Master, this item is my tribute to you!"

Miracle Doctor Blood Man received the gold medal and handed it over to Sun Lingxiu respectfully.

"Xiao Xian, you can have it!" Sun Lingxiu received the gold medal and gave it to Wang Xian.

"You can hold it now. When the time arrives, we can enter the National Treasury together. There might be something you need in there!" Wang Xian looked at her and said with a bright smile.

"Oh, alright! Let's enter the place together!" Sun Lingxiu smiled radiantly as she played with her hair.

Wang Xian was taken aback slightly, smiling as he left the tent.

Sun Lingxiu looked at Wang Xian with adoration and respect. Subsequently, she followed behind Wang Xian.

"Miracle Doctor Blood Man and Miracle Doctor Wang, let me get my guys to bring you to the National Treasury."

When the trio walked out of the tents, the middle-aged man in military uniform walked over with a relieved smile.

Although the incident of the Yellow River had ended abruptly, he was relieved.

"Alright!" replied Wang Xian with a nod.

"National Treasury! You could at least get an Inborn Spiritual Weapon in it."

"Only Miracle Doctor Wang and Miracle Doctor Blood Man are allowed to enter the National Treasury. This mission must have been a great deal for them!"

"Miracle Doctor already has an Inborn Spiritual Weapon. If he gets another, he would have two! This is already comparable to a Sacred Sect!"

"Miracle Doctor Blood Man is clearly the servant of the Miracle Doctor Holy Goddess and she has an ambiguous relationship with Miracle Doctor Wang. After their trip to the National Treasury, they will have three Inborn Spiritual Weapons. Oh gosh!"

The crowd heard the conversation between the middle-aged man in military uniform and Wang Xian's group. They couldn't help but be envious of Wang Xian and Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

"Damn rascal!"

A short distance away, Bian Yaoquan clenched his fist tightly. The rights to enter the treasury would have been his. However, it was snatched away by that rascal!

He stared at the trio, including Sun Lingxiu, with a vengeance. He had noted down his hatred in his mind!

That woman was the first who dared to chide him and chase him away.

"They are going to have three Inborn Spiritual Weapons among them!"

Dense murderous intent gleamed in Bian Yaoquan's eyes. He pulled a long face and turned to the Poison Duo beside him.

The Poison Duo shifted their attention from Wang Xian and saw the expression of their young master. They immediately understood his intentions.

"Their group is rather strong. We will need at least six Inborn experts to be safe!" the Poison Duo commented coldly after pondering.

"Young master, should we ask our men from the sect?" asked Old Du with a sinister expression.

"Our guys from the sect? No, this won't do. I must definitely achieve something to show my parents for this training trip!"

Bian Yaoquan sank into deep thought. As he turned and looked across his surroundings, he noticed many other experts staring greedily at Wang Xian and his group. A thought struck him immediately.

Chapter 349: Two Treasures

"There's more than one eyeing the treasures which he has on hand!" Bian Yaoquan jeered as he swept his gaze across coldly.

The Elders looked over with hesitation. "How do we allocate the treasures with the outsiders?" they asked.

"We'll give them enough Elixir Pills after we inform them prior. I believe they'll agree to it!" Bian Yaoquan replied.

As he spoke, he lifted his head slightly, before glaring at Wang Xian and Sun Lingxiu with bloodthirst in his eyes. "I want that fellow dead. I want that bitch pleading for mercy while kneeling between my legs!" he snapped with a grimace.

As they looked at Bian Yaoquan, the Poison Duo hesitated briefly as their hearts stirred, before nodding in agreement.

"Leave this matter to us!" the Poison Duo replied. As they spoke, they looked across at the crowd before making their way towards them.

...

The National Treasury was located in Shang Jing. Wang Xian and the rest flew over to Shang Jing in the military helicopter, and arrived at the military airport by evening.

"Please follow me!" a stern drill instructor said to them while he led the way.

The trio boarded a military Jeep with the drill instructor, and together they drove towards the Palace in Shang Jing.

Upon arrival at the main entrance of the Palace, two gatekeepers handed four eye masks to the quartet. "Put on the eye masks!" they ordered.

Including the drill instructor who had fetched them over, everyone complied.

Upon receiving the eye masks, Wang Xian and group tied them over their eyes, and began to make their way inside under the directions of two soldiers.

Eye masks were useless on Wang Xian.

They kept walking inwards, and made countless turns, and after many rounds of checks conducted by numerous personnel, the group finally arrived at their last location within the Palace.

Over here was a small mountain.

Constant roars could be heard from the small mountain. In front of the mountain was a boulder, which Wang Xian could clearly see split open, opening up to a staircase which descended to the underground.

"How stringent," Wang Xian exclaimed. The National Treasury was after all, situated in Shang Jing, which was backed by the strongest military manpower. Furthermore, it was located within the Palace.

It was literally impossible for anyone to attempt to trespass.

"Remove the eye masks, and hand them to me!" a voice could be heard from beneath them.

As Wang Xian and the rest followed suit, they looked down the stairs.

A scholarly and poised Elder dressed in Tang Suit welcomed Wang Xian and the rest with a gentle smile. [\[1\]](#)

"You've got only two Gold Medallions, so you can only choose two pieces of treasures!" the Elder explained. To which, he continued, "Follow me!"

Wang Xian and the rest nodded, and together they entered with curiosity.

"Is there anything which you have in mind?" the Elder asked amiably as he led the way ahead.

"Elder, are there any Alchemy Furnaces in the National Treasury?" Wang Xian asked straightforwardly. His main purpose this time was to get into the National Treasury to lay hands on one!

"An Alchemy Furnace? Young man, are you an alchemist?" the Elder asked out of curiosity, while he paused briefly and turned his head over to face Wang Xian.

"Yes," Wang Xian answered with a nod.

"How regretful, we've run out of Alchemy Furnaces. The last one's been taken by the Medical Saint Sect!" the Elder explained as he shook his head lightly.

"Alchemy Furnaces are few to begin with. There were previously three in the National Treasury, but they have since been taken by the Medical Saint Sect and the Medical Tripod Mountain Sect," the Elder continued.

"All taken?" Wang Xian quizzed.

"Not exactly taken. But traded in exchange using Elixir Pills, ha-ha!" the Elder laughed. "If there's anything else you have in mind, I can bring you over directly. That'll speed things up!" he added.

Wang Xian furrowed his brows. To think there were no Alchemy Furnaces at the National Treasury.

"The Secret Manual of the Art of Cultivation, Elixir Pill recipes, Weapons, Spiritual Stones, and cash!" the Elder listed. With a laugh, he continued, "This Gold Medallion is worth twenty billion dollars. Haha! That's two thousand Spiritual Stones!"

"We'll look around ourselves!" Wang Xian acknowledged with a nod.

"Sure, but no browsing of the Secret Elixir Pill recipes. As for the rest, help yourselves!" the Elder said before they went down the last flight of stairs and arrived at a huge space.

Wang Xian and group were shocked by the sight before them.

"My, oh my, this place is a gold mountain!" the Miracle Doctor Blood Man gasped as he peered inside with glowing eyes.

Up ahead was a massive area measuring a radius of two kilometers. It held objects of all sorts, where each and every one of them shone in shimmering light.

"Not that many per se. Many of our nation's treasures have been snatched by some of the international forces!" the Elder shook his head with a tinge of dismay in his eyes.

"True. Thirty years ago, major international forces treated this place as a treasure trove. They went on a mad spree, looting all sorts of valuable resources from here. Spiritual Medicine, weapons, relics ... Had it not been for the emergence of the Guardian Divine Beasts... Tsk tsk!" the Miracle Doctor Blood Man said dryly, clearly aware of some of the history.

"The Guardian Divine Beasts?" Wang Xian asked.

"That's a Nation-guarding Divine Beast!" the Elder emphasized as he stuck his chest out, beaming with a sense of pride.

"The world's most formidable, the Nation-guarding Divine Beast!" the Miracle Doctor Blood Man called out, slightly spooked, as he recalled the legends.

"The Nation-guarding Divine Beasts," Wang Xian uttered under his breath, but did not question further, as he continued to survey the surroundings.

"The Secret Manual of the Art of Cultivation's over there, while this is the Weaponry area. The Elixir-related items are over here along with some miscellaneous pieces. Take your pick over here!" the Elder said to them in a bid to digress from the earlier topic.

Wang Xian nodded in acknowledgment and stepped forward.

As he swept his gaze across, several messages popped up continually in his head.

[Space-shattering Sword: Level 9]

[Giant Watchtower Sword: Level 10]

[Huyang Blade: Level 8]

...

Weapons of varied levels were hanging within a crate, along with Inborn

Spiritual Weapons of Level 8 to 9.

"It's no doubt the National Treasury, there're so many treasures in here!" Wang Xian exclaimed. He was uninterested in the weapons, and harbored few intentions with the Secret Manual of the Art of Cultivation. Thus he made his way over to the area of Elixir-related items.

There were no Elixir Pills in the area, but only Elixir Pill recipes and manuals on the Art of Refining Elixir Pills.

As Wang Xian scanned past, he realized that the area held less Elixir Pill recipes than Sui Huang's, while he knew many of the ones here.

"Huh? A Flame Bead!" Wang Xian called out. He was on his way out of a messier storage area, when he caught sight of the object which was encased in a crystal.

[Barraging Blaze Ball: Level 10]

"A Level 10 Flame Bead," Wang Xian said in excitement. His current Dragon Ball had peaked at Level 10. It would take him several years of cultivation before it could upgrade to Level 11.

Yet, by absorbing this Barraging Blaze Bead, his Dragon Ball would ascend to Level 11 immediately.

Once the Dragon Ball reached Level 11, it could transform into an Inferno Divine Dragon, killing Inborn experts and dealing with Dan Realm experts with ease.

"I'm taking this Flame Bead!" Wang Xian decided. Stretching out his hand, he grabbed onto the Flame Bead.

"One more item to go!" the Elder said casually as he stood at a side. The Flame Bead was an extremely precious treasure. When acquired, it could help an Inborn expert of the Fire element to double their combat abilities.

Wang Xian nodded as he glanced ahead at the voluminous objects.

Strange-looking stones, shimmering bangles, rings, bizarre robot puppets, and wares of all sorts.

A look across, and one could see many items with powers of Level 7 to 8, even up to Level 9.

Especially the strange-looking human stone sculpture, which was, in fact, a Level 9 ancient war marionette.

Zing, zing!

Just then, an unexplained force of attraction came surging over, and Wang Xian felt something inside of him tugging.

He looked over, slightly taken aback.

[Soul-Returning Branch: Level 9]

Endnote:

[1] Tang Suit, or Tang Zhuang, is a type of Chinese Suit Jacket created by overseas Chinese after they left China. It was created towards the end of the Qing Dynasty (1644 – 1911 AD) instead of the assumed Tang Dynasty (618 - 907), where Tang also means the Chinese Back

Chapter 350: Level 11

Weng weng weng!

Wang Xian was shocked as he stared at the branch which had only been the size of an arm previously.

"This is...? In my body?"

Wang Xian felt the desire within his body and an object flashed in his mind. This was something which he had nearly forgotten.

It was the Progenitor Tree, the object that was extracted from the stone-betting rock from Jade Nation.

The Ancestor of All Wood, the Progenitor Tree.

When the Progenitor Tree was first absorbed into his body, Wang Xian had tirelessly practiced for an entire month to provide the Azure dragon energy for it to absorb.

However, it didn't show any signs of movements after taking root within his body.

It did not bring him any major benefits or any changes.

All it did was remained silently in his body.

But now, the Progenitor Tree was reacting rigorously and desired to absorb that Soul Returning Branch.

Wang Xian recalled seeing records of the Soul Returning Tree in an ancient book.

The Soul Returning Tree was a magical thing. If one was to latch a small part of his soul with the Soul Returning Tree, the person's soul would be absorbed by it when he died.

After absorbing the soul, the tree would bear the soul fruit. Through a special method, one could be revived.

This was a divine tree with unimaginable powers that was recorded in the mythology.

He didn't expect he would find a branch of the Soul Returning Tree.

However, this branch has almost lost all its vitality. Furthermore, this is just a Level 9 item and is a far cry from other Inborn Spiritual Weapons.

Wang Xian was having second thoughts.

He was not sure about the truthfulness of the records on the Soul Returning Tree. Furthermore, it wouldn't be a wise choice to get a Level 9 item when there were so many Inborn Spiritual Objects around.

Just as Wang Xian was hesitating, the desire from the Progenitor Tree within his body grew even stronger.

Let's hope that the Progenitor Tree would bring better changes after absorbing this branch. Otherwise, I would have made a dumb decision!

Wang Xian felt a little gloomy. He picked up the Soul Returning Branch and said, "I'll be getting this!"

Eh?

The old man was a little surprised to see Wang Xian pick up a wretched branch.

Although that branch wasn't ordinary, it was at most a Level 8 or 9 item based on his experience. It was still a far cry from an Inborn Spiritual Object.

Nonetheless, he wouldn't mind Wang Xian choosing a wretched branch.

"You can't reverse your decision once you have chosen!" said the old man plainly with a gentle smile.

"Naturally!" replied Wang Xian as he nodded his head.

Subsequently, he looked at the old man and asked, "I heard that Medical Saint Sect and Medical Tripod Mountain Sect could exchange items here with elixir pills. Is this still allowed now?"

"Exchange? That will depend on the elixir pills you are offering and the item you would like to get. If we have the need, we could do the exchange!" the old man smiled and replied.

"I'd like to get some Spiritual Stones!" Wang Xian replied instantly.

At this point, Wang Xian had five thousand spiritual stones. This included spiritual stones gathered by the dragonians and those from the floating island.

He was still short five thousand to have enough to build the Dragon Palace.

Besides that, he had gathered close to sixty percent of all other resources required. As long as he had enough spiritual stones, the construction of the Dragon Palace was in sight.

"If it is just spiritual stones, we can purchase your elixir pills based on the market rates," the old man replied.

"Alright. For Level 1 elixir pills, I have 150 Qi Accumulation Pills and 30 Body Strengthening Pills. For Level 2 elixir pills, I have 20 Bone Grinding Pills and 15 Channel Nourishing Pills. For Level 3 elixir pills, I have 20 Soul Enhancement Pills."

Wang Xian took out some pills of each type as he explained to the old man.

"Wow, so much?" The old man gasped in shock.

The old man beamed and started counting the value of these elixir pills silently. "Two thousand spiritual stones. We can offer you two thousand spiritual stones. If you want more, this deal is off."

"Two thousand spiritual stones!" Wang Xian nodded his head slightly and continued, "These pills are in Rivertown currently? How shall we do the trade?"

"I will give you a number later. You can call this number when you are back in Rivertown. Someone will contact you about the details for the trade!" the elderly man said with a big smile.

"Alright!" Wang Xian replied with a nod.

After exiting the National Treasury, Wang Xian and Miracle Doctor Blood Man put on the eye masks again as they walked out.

Night had fallen and the moon hung high up in the skies when they left the palace.

Wang Xian looked at the time and realized it was already past 9 pm. However, as a city that never sleeps, Shangjing was still well lit.

The skyscrapers around and the shops were still operating. Wang Xian looked at Sun Lingxiu and asked, "What would you like to eat?"

"Hmm? I would like some authentic roasted duck of Shangjing. Speaking of which, this is my first time in Shangjing." Sun Lingxiu looked around her before turning towards Wang Xian and replying with a beautiful smile.

"This is just my second time here. Let's go have some roasted duck!" exclaimed Wang Xian.

Subsequently, they called for a hired car to bring them to the famous roasted duck restaurant.

Miracle Doctor Blood Man saw his master with Wang Xian. Therefore, he pretended to be invisible and followed behind them silently. At the same time, he was observing this prosperous city inquisitively.

After dinner, the trio found a hotel to rest at before heading back to Rivertown the next day.

In the hotel, Wang Xian took out the Barraging Blaze Ball and Soul Returning Branch.

"Devour!"

He spat out the Dragon Ball and watched it slowly devour the Barraging Blaze Ball. The Dragon Ball was the size of an egg but emitted a scorching high temperature.

Wang Xian hurriedly isolated the flames by sending in streams of dragon energy before continuing his observation solemnly.

The Dragon Ball had now devoured the Lava Ball, Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball and the Barraging Blaze Ball.

The three different Spiritual Flame Balls each had their own unique effects. The Lava Ball was dense and highly penetrative, the Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball was gentle, and the Barraging Blaze Ball was violent.

On the Dragon Ball, a faint but vivid image of an Inferno Divine Dragon materialized and appeared savage.

Roar!

When the dragon fully absorbed the Barraging Blaze Ball, faint cries of a dragon emanated from it.

The Dragon Ball started rotating slowly.

Dragon Ball: Level 11.

Witnessing the evolution of the Dragon Ball, Wang Xian was ecstatic.

A Level 11 inferno Dragon Ball could exhibit the power of a Dan Realm expert under his control.

With the support from the Inferno Divine Dragon and while he was in his human form, there would be few Dan Realm experts who could match him.

Wang Xian then turned his attention to the Soul Returning Branch. He picked it up and started to inspect it.

Besides the mysterious energy in it, the branch was no different from any other withered branches.

Wang Xian's eyebrows knitted together. Dense streams of Azure Dragon energy started to flow into the branch.

Weng!

At this moment, the branch seemed to be activated and started to emit a greyish glow.

Weng!

Suddenly, Wang Xian felt as though the Progenitor Tree had extended out a needle-thin extension that penetrated through his body and into contact with the Soul Returning Branch.

To his astonishment, the Soul Returning Branch was pulled into his body.

A sapling the size of an index finger was wiggling in Wang Xian's body. Subsequently, the first branch grew out of the sapling.

The branch was different from the jade green Progenitor Tree. This branch was greyish and it was emitting a greyish glow.

It looked incomparably mysterious.

Wang Xian was astonished as he stared at the Progenitor Tree in his body.

"What is this damn thing? Other than growing a branch, there are no other changes after absorbing the Soul Returning Branch!"

Chapter 351: Ambush

Wang Xian assessed the Progenitor Tree in his body with a heavy look. Yet, he had neither discovered the use of it, nor observed any physical changes to the tree after studying it for the day.

It remained rooted and swaying within Wang Xian's body, completely indifferent about him.

"Forget it. If a young sapling of the Progenitor Tree, which is also regarded as the Origin of All Trees, is able to enter my body, then it should be pretty formidable!" Wang Xian consoled himself. Which was also all that he could do for now as he lay on the bed to rest.

At dawn, Wang Xian, Sun Lingxiu and Miracle Doctor Blood Man rushed for the airport in a rented car after having breakfast at the hotel.

As the airport was located in the suburbs, there were no neighborhoods within a radius of several kilometers.

"Dear guests, how many visits have you made to the Shangjing?" the middle-aged driver asked. As he spoke, he looked through the rearview mirror and smiled at Wang Xian and Sun Lingxiu, while they sat behind.

"Just a few!" Wang Xian replied with a smile.

"Oh!" the driver acknowledged with glee. Just then, his phone rang.

"Hey, Old Wang, what's up?" the driver said as he answered the call.

"The bridge is congested due to a traffic incident? I'm in a rush to the airport. Aye, what rotten luck. Sure, I got it!" the driver replied to the caller before he looked at Miracle Doctor Blood Man who was sitting beside him.

"There's been an accident on the road at the bridge. My coworker said a muck truck has been overturned and toppled on top of a smaller car. The entire car's flattened. How terrible," the driver informed.

"For now, it'll be tough to drive over. I can only take you through a shortcut!" the driver continued, chatting conversationally with the Miracle Doctor Blood Man.

"We're catching the morning flight at 10 am. So long as we don't miss it, it's fine!" the Miracle Doctor Blood Man replied to the driver nonchalantly.

"Relax, not to worry! I guarantee we won't be late. Besides, it's only an additional three to four kilometers of driving," the driver assured with a laugh as he accelerated.

Wang Xian and Sun Lingxiu were not the least bit bothered either, as the two continued chatting softly in the backseat.

Holding onto Sun Lingxiu's Illuminating Pearl, Wang Xian assisted in cultivating it using his Dragon Energy.

This Illuminating Pearl was a mere Level 9, which was a tad too low given Sun Lingxiu's powers.

But, with her physical constitution and Light Divine Dragon Transformation, it would not be long before she could upgrade this Illuminating Pearl to Level 10.

"This Illuminating Pearl would make a piece of pretty good jewelry!" Sun Lingxiu joked gleefully, as she placed it on her neck and gestured to Wang Xian.

"That's because you're pretty!" Wang Xian smiled back.

Sun Lingxiu blushed.

Screech!

"Apologies! Sorry, I need to go relieve myself!" the driver apologized as he stopped the car.

The car was parked along a narrow pathway, where remnants of demolished houses remained on its sides.

There was not a soul around.

Excusing himself briefly, the driver got out of the car before running to the back, as if it was really urgent.

Wang Xian and others remained unbothered.

Pit, pat! Pit, pat!

Suddenly, at that moment, a sound came from underneath the car.

"Oh no!" the Miracle Doctor Blood Man shouted with a contorted expression upon hearing the noise. Wang Xian and Sun Lingxiu were taken by surprise.

Boom!

In the next moment, they felt a powerful wave of energy surging from beneath the car towards them.

With a shudder on his face, Wang Xian picked Sun Lingxiu up and dodged immediately, as the Earth Dragon Energy surrounded the air with the color of custard.

However, Miracle Doctor Blood Man was not as lucky.

Boom, boom, boom!

As the explosions continued, the entire rental car blew into pieces. To the point where more than half of the car turned into ashes due to the blasts.

These terrifying explosions were more powerful than a single all-kill strike by an Inborn expert.

Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh!

The explosions had just ended when a gush of thick, green smog came blowing in their direction.

Tsk, tsk, tsk, tsk!

In the air, the green smog was sizzling, and as droplets of liquid fell to the ground, they began to corrode the land.

As the land eroded, it opened up many little holes the depth of a finger along the pathway.

If a drop of the liquid was this horrifying, imagine the terror of this poisonous green smog which now covered the area of a hundred meters in radius.

Death was almost guaranteed if one remained within.

"The Divine Lightning Column, how powerful. It's almost as deadly as the attacks by one from the Dan Realm," a voice commented.

"Haha! Young Master Bian, we, the Xiao Family, have made this Divine Lightning Column by enduring huge risks, while gathering lightning and thunder. Of course it's very formidable," another replied.

"The poisonous liquid from Old Du really kills without warning. Such potent poison can kill hundreds of thousands. Even an Inborn expert will surely die by coming into contact!" a third voice exclaimed.

"Ack ack! One must use their brains in order to lay an ambush to kill. With so many destructive weapons, slaying three Inborn experts would be such an easy feat!" the last voice boasted.

Right then, on the dilapidated buildings of houses which were soon to be demolished, several figures stood.

There was a total of seven of them.

There was a young man, watching emotionlessly with hands resting on his back. It was Bian Yaoquan.

On his sides stood the Poison Duo.

Alongside the trio were four Inborn experts. Amongst them was a middle-aged man with specks of lightning zapping all over his body.

The second was a thin and frail old man with a dark stare.

And the remaining two were chubby Elders with striking resemblance.

The group of seven were watching the scene below with satisfied smiles.

Meanwhile, the area below was covered in green smog within a hundred-meter radius.

The sizzling noise kept coming, and the area looked like a living hell.

As drops of green liquid fell onto the ground, it gave form to numerous deep narrow holes.

A giant pothole was formed within a twenty-meter radius due to the explosion earlier.

The pothole was five meters deep, and looked absolutely horrendous.

"Seems like inviting you guys over was the right choice." Bian Yaoquan smirked as he looked at the area below.

"Haha, why of course!" the ominous and feeble-looking Elder laughed with a wide grin, revealing his stained teeth.

"Sigh. It's such a pity that the Holy Goddess should die just like this. Truly a pity!" Bian Yaoquan said dryly as he stared at the clouds of green gases which loomed over the area.

"Haha! Young Master Bian's a true gentleman who treasures the ladies. I hope Young Master Bian will not forget to pay us for this mission after!" the two chubby Elders teased as they roared in laughter.

"That's for sure. I, Bian Yaoquan, am a man of my word!" Bian Yaoquan replied conceitedly.

"Ah!" a voice shouted.

"You bunch of jerks!" the voice continued.

Just then, a figure flew out from the explosions and poisonous smog.

The Miracle Doctor Blood Man was drenched in blood. As the fresh coagulated blood soaked him thoroughly, it made him look really pathetic.

He flew out from the poisonous smog, before falling onto the ground in excruciating pain.

The cries from Miracle Doctor Blood Man attracted Bian Yaoquan, who raised an eyebrow.

"Oh? There's a fellow who survived!" Bian Yaoquan exclaimed in excitement as he looked over.

"Haha! He's shed a few layers of skin!" the Poison Duo added as they watched Miracle Doctor Blood Man, as though they were assessing a dead body.

"Tsk ts, are the other two completely dead? How upsetting!" Bian Yaoquan commented. He was somewhat disappointed, upon seeing the Miracle Doctor Blood Man on the floor, crying in pain after flying out from the rubble.

"I even prepared to have some fun with them!" Bian Yaoquan continued, as he raised his brows in a face of discontentment. Whoever offended him shall die!

But, just as he ended his statement, a voice came from amidst the poisonous smog.

"You won't be disappointed!" the voice assured.

Chapter 352: Killed In Ten Seconds

Within the poison fog, an emotionless voice emanated. Following which, traces of light shone out from it.

Sss sss sss!

The surrounding poisonous green fog was vanishing at a rapid pace.

Light gradually illuminated the surroundings.

"What?"

At this point, Bian Yaoquan and the other six men stood on a dilapidated house. Seeing the gradually strengthening light, they were shocked.

"Inborn Spiritual Weapon, It must be a defensive type Inborn Spiritual Object!" the emaciated old man stared at the two figures with his gloomy eyes and said in a definitive tone.

"That's right. It must be defensive Inborn Spiritual Armor or something similar. Otherwise, they would definitely not be able to avoid the explosion of the Divine Lightning Column!" the middle-aged man seconded with a definitive tone.

"Inborn level defensive armor?"

Greed gleamed in Bian Yaoquan's eyes. "First, it was Inborn Spiritual Weapon, Zhan Lu, and now an Inborn level defensive armor? There must be another Inborn level item with him. If I can get all of them...!"

As Bian Yaoquan spoke, he got enthusiastic and agitated.

If he had three Inborn Spiritual objects, he could kill an Inborn expert despite only being at the Half-step to Inborn Realm.

"If I can get three Inborn Spiritual objects, the position of the Sect Leader of the Medical Saint Sect in the future will definitely be mine!"

Ecstasy welled up in him. He looked below him and started laughing, "Haha! Great! You have not disappointed me! You have not disappointed me! It's only interesting this way!"

"All the Inborn Spiritual objects you have are all mine. Miracle Doctor, Holy Goddess, I'll dote on you dearly in the future." Bian Yaoquan laughed hysterically.

"What gives you the courage to assassinate us here!"

Green poisonous fog slowly dissipated under the illumination of Sun Lingxiu's dazzling rays. Wang Xian stood up, lifted his head and stared at the seven figures on the roof of a dilapidated house.

He focused on Bian Yaoquan, who was in the middle, and stared at him with murderous eyes.

If he had not reacted in time to the horrifying attack previously, Sun Lingxiu would likely have suffered grave injuries.

Moreover, even he had suffered some light injuries in the previous explosion.

Fixing his gaze on the seven figures he wanted to slay, Wang Xian slowly opened up his palms.

"That's right! We are going to kill you!"

Bian Yaoquan looked down at Wang Xian from higher ground and revealed an eerie smile.

He looked across at the severely injured Miracle Doctor Blood Man, showed a bloodthirsty expression and shouted, "You shall die today! Kill them!"

The Inborn experts around him quickly exchanged glances.

"Let's attack him together. He has three Inborn Spiritual objects with him!" the Poison Duo said to the other four men.

"Even if he has three Inborn Spiritual objects, he will still die by the hands of the six of us. The youngest Miracle Doctor and a powerful alchemist... What a shame! I just love to kill geniuses!"

Two identical fat old men squinted their eyes and moved in unison towards Wang Xian.

"Die!"

The other four Inborn experts also struck at the same time. From above, they shrouded Wang Xian in their powerful Inborn auras.

Wang Xian lifted his head slightly and saw six Inborn experts approaching him. Contempt was written over his face.

"Since you guys are interested in what I have, I guess I should show it to you guys!"

As he finished his words, Wang Xian opened his palm and the Dragon Ball that emitted violent lava-like heat slowly floated up.

"Spiritual Flame Ball! Haha, that's a good one!"

When Bian Yaoquan, who was on the rooftop, noticed the Dragon Ball in Wang Xian's palm, he was thrilled.

"Spiritual Flame Ball is highly useful in refining elixir pills. Great! I like this treasure!"

Tsk!

Wang Xian sneered upon hearing his laughter.

At this moment, the two fat old men drew large axes from their backs. The axes were entirely black and looked incomparably heavy.

They slashed them towards Wang Xian directly.

"Die!"

Roar!

The voices of the two old men sounded. However, what they received in return was a dragon roar.

A rampaging dragon roar.

"What?"

To the astonishment of the six Inborn experts, the Dragon Ball turned into an Inferno Divine Dragon that spanned close to ten meters.

In the instant the divine dragon appeared, the air in the atmosphere started becoming violent.

The surroundings were filled with violent molecules.

The Inferno Divine Dragon was as real as it could get. Its surface was like lava and flames were raging furiously on it.

The Dragon Ball had assimilated the attributes of the Barraging Blaze Ball.

Roar!

The Inferno Divine Dragon moved and swung its claws towards the two approaching fat old men.

The dragon claws were one meter long and emanated powerful energies.

The two fat old men could feel the powers of the dragon claws and turned solemn.

"Die!"

Moving almost in sync, the two old men lifted the huge axes in their hands. A layer of metal glow shrouded the giant axes, doubling their size to two meters.

Boom!

The dragon claws clashed with the axes.

Ka Ka Ka!

However, the huge, two meter axes were easily pushed back and started breaking apart.

Boom!

As the Inferno Divine Dragon exerted some strength, the giant axes started melting rapidly.

The two fat old men were horrified.

However, the momentum of the dragon claws didn't slow at all as they grabbed onto them.

Argh!

Two pitiful cries propagated. In less than a second, all cries had stopped.

"What?"

The four Inborn experts that were following closely behind were petrified. The Double-faced Heavenly Axe duo had been in the Inborn Realm for more than ten years. Moreover, their combination strike was widely known to be extremely powerful.

Yet, they were killed in an instant.

Fear gripped the four men's hearts.

Before they could react, the Inferno Divine Dragon was already right before them.

"Kill!" the four men gritted their teeth and growled.

Poison Duo waved their hands and balls of poison were hurled towards the Inferno Divine Dragon directly.

However, these poison balls were reduced to dust before they could even reach the Inferno Divine Dragon.

A middle-aged man filled with electric energy held a metal hammer in his hand. He smashed his hammer heavily towards the void space.

Bolts of lightning fell onto the body of the Inferno Divine Dragon.

However, the attacks were still futile.

This petrified the four Inborn experts.

Boom!

The Inferno Divine Dragon swayed its huge tail towards them. The horrifying dragon tail brought with it a force of over ten thousand pounds.

Bam! Bam!

Poison Duo, who were at the forefront of the group, didn't even have the time and space to react.

Their bodies were smashed towards one of the dilapidated houses by the side as though they were rubber balls.

After smashing through a dozen-plus houses, they finally landed heavily on a wall.

Roar!

The Inferno Divine Dragon stretched its head in a motion towards the other two Inborn experts.

The next moment, it spewed flames on them.

Argh!

Raging flames fell onto their bodies and the two Inborn experts felt as though they had landed through the opening of a volcano.

Their eyes were filled with desperation and fear. Looking at the young man standing before them, hatred welled up in them.

The whole process lasted less than ten seconds. Six Inborn experts were killed.

Chapter 353: Boundless Seas, The Choice Of Location For The Dragon Palace (1)

"I haven't disappointed you, have I?"

As the last of the screams dissipated, the Inferno Divine Dragon circled in the air before it leaped in front of Wang Xian, reverting to its form as a Dragon Ball.

Wang Xian stretched his hands to receive the ball before raising his head to face Bian Yaoquan who was standing atop a dilapidated house.

Eyes wide, the current Bian Yaoquan was shivering as he looked below in disbelief.

On his face, drops of perspiration trickled down his forehead, not caused by heat but rather from a chilling fear.

"How can this be? This can't be. It's impossible!"

He could not believe the sight before him. To think six Inborn experts were finished off in the blink of an eye.

That was one destructive Inferno Divine Dragon, along with the formidable Spiritual Flame Ball.

"That's the Dragon Ball for you. How is it?" Wang Xian asked with a faint smile. "I wonder if you've prepared yourself for death, before laying an ambush to kill me?" he continued.

"You ... You can't kill me ... You can't kill me," Bian Yaoquan stuttered as he retreated involuntarily, eyes filled with fear.

He had considered endless possibilities, but the current scenario before him was one which he had not expected at all.

To think a Spiritual Flame Ball would be able to wipe out six Inborn Experts.

Prior to this, they expected that six Inborn Experts would more than suffice in getting rid of the trio.

Yet... But...

"You would be better off dead!" Wang Xian cut off Bian Yaoquan, unwilling to waste more time on him. As he spoke, he fired the Dragon Ball to attack Bian Yaoquan.

"No ... My Father's the Sect Leader of Medical Saint Sect. If you kill me, my father will never let you off ...," Bian Yaoquan shrieked in terror as he saw the Dragon Ball flying in his direction.

"If the Medical Saint Sect should dare come after me, I'll annihilate them!" Wang Xian rebuked with an expressionless face.

Bam!

Bian Yaoquan retreated in fright. Yet, in a flash, the Dragon Ball punctured through his body.

"This... You... For my sake, my father will...," Bian Yaoquan muttered. Eyes wide, he looked at the little hole in his chest, which gradually opened up before it started to burn.

Bian Yaoquan looked on as his eyes filled with a mix of indignation, remorse, and hatred.

"Courting doom!" Wang Xian cut him off indifferently. He looked backward, and saw Sun Lingxiu attending to Miracle Doctor Blood Man and treating his wounds.

The Miracle Doctor Blood Man was in huge trouble, given that Wang Xian had been unable to fend for him when the blast occurred.

Marred with severe injuries, he managed to survive all thanks to his formidable combat abilities.

"A Level 9 weapon's pretty good stuff!" Wang Xian let out a faint smile when he spotted the weapon on the ground. With one leap, he hopped over to the weapon.

"Eh?" Wang Xian uttered while he picked up the Sky Splitting Blade.

As he assessed the body, Wang Xian spotted an elixir bottle made of porcelain around Bian Yaoquan's waist belt. He proceeded over and retrieved the bottle for a look.

"Level 4 Elixir Pill, To think that there are four Level 4 Elixir Pills here!" he cheered in excitement when he opened the porcelain bottle.

"It's a Soul Enhancement Pill, which is one Level higher than a Soul Breaking Pill. By consuming one, a Half-step Inborn can raise the possibility of elevating themselves to the Inborn status by twenty percent!" Wang Xian exclaimed with a tinge of passion in his eyes. The value of one Soul Enhancement Pill was the same as a stalk of Level 5 Spiritual Grass, which would fetch between seven hundred to a thousand Spiritual Stones.

Which was to say, the Soul Enhancement Pills over here were worth close to four thousand Spiritual Stones.

"Given the Elixir Pills I have, together with these four Soul Enhancement Pills, I'll have enough Spiritual Stones for the construction of the Dragon Palace once they are sold!" Wang Xian cheered excitedly. Aside from Spiritual Stones, Wang Xian was also running short on some gold and silver; though not by huge margins.

Besides, they could be bought with money.

And while he was currently broke, Wang Xian could first advance payment from Lan Qingyue's end or even borrow for the time being.

Moreover, he still had more Spiritual Grasses on the floating island.

"Spiritual Stones are the most important when it comes to constructing the Dragon Palace, which will be completed faster when there are enough Spiritual Stones. And as for now, they're sufficient!" Wang Xian grinned. With a swing of his arm, he cremated the body.

"These four Soul Enhancement Pills should be meant as payment for the four Inborn Experts. Seems like I've gained favor then!" Wang Xian chuckled before he came to check on the remaining bodies.

As Inborn Experts, there were bound to be treasures on them, which could easily fetch hundreds of millions when sold.

After a search, some venom and more than a hundred Spiritual Stones were found.

"Is everything alright?" Wang Xian asked as he returned to check on Miracle Doctor Blood Man, who had gone pale.

"It'll take more than half a month to recover. Dammit, they almost squeezed my blood dry!" Miracle Doctor Blood Man cursed weakly, while all color had gone from his face.

"It's good that you're alright," Wang Xian nodded. To which, he turned to face Sun Lingxiu. "Let's go!" he gestured to her.

"Sure!" Sun Lingxiu nodded back, and together the trio made their way to the airport on foot.

Along the way, Wang Xian made several calls. He asked Lan Qingyue, Old Qin and Old Xue to assist him in gathering the final materials needed to construct the Dragon Palace.

Ordinary materials such as steel were a piece of cake for them.

It was already afternoon by the time they arrived back at the villa by air, while Xiao Yu and the others were attending classes.

Miracle Doctor Blood Man headed right back to the other villa to nurse his injuries.

Whereas Wang Xian turned to Sun Lingxiu and said, "Come, let me take you to a place!"

"Oh? Where are we going?" Sun Lingxiu asked in surprise.

"Follow me, and you'll see!" Wang Xian beamed, in a great mood. They arrived by the seaside before they sped over in the direction of the floating island.

"The island upfront is a floating island. It'll be considered as our marine base in times to come!" Wang Xian introduced. Thereafter, he hopped onto the island with a leap.

As Sun Lingxiu followed behind, she surveyed the entire island with wide eyes.

"The floating island...to think it's the legendary floating island. Goodness, Xiao Xian. To think you actually managed to obtain a floating island!" Sun Lingxiu cried out in astonishment.

"I'm planning to start building the Dragon Palace within the next couple of days!" Wang Xian said coolly.

"What? Build a Dragon Palace?" Sun Lingxiu was shocked.

As one with the bloodline of the Divine Dragon, it was only natural that Sun Lingxiu knew about the Dragon Palace and its significance.

It symbolized the real standing of a Divine Dragon Race.

"That's right!" Wang Xian admitted without the slightest concealment, given there was no need for him to hide anything from Sun Lingxiu.

"I plan to construct a stately Dragon Palace amidst this boundless sea!!" Wang Xian shared with passion in his eyes.

"I'll always be by your side, Xiao Xian!" Sun Lingxiu exclaimed. Looking upon a high-spirited and lofty Wang Xian, she let out a faint smile, as if vowing in her heart never to leave till death do they part.

"It won't be long before I, Wang Xian, conquer the seas and this entire galaxy!" Wang Xian asserted while overwhelmed with fighting spirit.

And thus began the conquest of the oceans.

Soon, the Divine Dragon would officially set foot into this boundless sea!

Chapter 354: Boundless Seas, The Choice Of Location For The Dragon Palace (2)

"Currently, I'm only able to build a Level 1 Dragon Palace. However, even a Level 1 Dragon Palace wouldn't be any weaker than the base of a Sacred Sect!"

"A Level 1 Dragon Palace can be established in the depths of the sea. The area of the Dragon Palace could cover a radius of ten kilometers!"

"This is just a preliminary Dragon Palace. In the future, I'm going to build more structures."

Wang Xian didn't know much about the preliminary Dragon Palace. However, he was sure that the Dragon Palace couldn't be built in the Bohai Sea.

Bohai Sea was just a small piece of the seas with a depth of several tens of meters. Wang Xian wasn't certain of the exact height of the Dragon Palace.

However, it would definitely be more than several tens of meters.

The location where he would build his Dragon Palace would at least have to be four to five hundred meters deep.

The location of the Dragon Palace wouldn't stay stationary forever. A Level 2 Dragon Palace would be able to move. In fact, when the Dragon Palace reached a higher level, it could even become a Dragon Nation.

A Dragon Nation could fly in the air directly and would be incomparably powerful.

Wang Xian brought Sun Lingxiu around the floating island. Subsequently, he dived into the sea.

"Prime Minister Turtle, follow me to look for a region in the seas to build the Dragon Palace."

Wang Xian transmitted his orders to Prime Minister Turtle.

"Yes, Dragon King!"

Prime Minister Turtle's huge body floated rapidly. Wang Xian stood on it as they moved rapidly towards the deeper seas.

The sea was beautiful, majestic and unfathomable.

Standing on the back of the giant Prime Minister Turtle, Wang Xian looked around him.

Regions that were tens of meters deep wouldn't be in consideration.

Prime Minister Turtle was astonishingly quick. His current strength had now reached the pinnacle of Level 11. In just a few months, he would be able to reach Level 12.

"We will be entering the Eastern Sea soon. There's a trench in the Eastern Sea that reaches a depth of over seven thousand meters. Moreover, the Eastern Sea isn't too far from Rivertown!"

Wang Xian stood on Prime Minister Turtle and looked ahead of him.

The sea ahead was much deeper. Barely any sunlight could reach this depth.

The density of fish around was also higher.

Wang Xian didn't devour the schools of fish. Instead, he ordered Prime Minister Turtle to swim forward rapidly.

"Huh? That is...? What a huge shark! It's over fourteen meters long!"

Wang Xian looked to his left and his pupils couldn't help but constrict.

That huge shark was looking in the direction of Wang Xian attentively with his cold-looking eyes.

That is clearly the territory of a race!

Wang Xian thought to himself. In the depths of the sea, different races would occupy different territories. If one entered into their territory, the person would suffer horrifying attacks from the race.

Continue ahead!

This was the first time Wang Xian had toured such a huge area of the seabed. This experience also allowed him to understand how horrifying the seabed was.

There were underwater monsters with four huge limbs and looked just like a dinosaur.

There were creatures that spanned over two meters, had countless legs and a tail with spikes that glowed in a dull glimmer.

There were powerful fish that resembled tanks and had horrifying-looking heads.

And there were fish that resembled bats with sharp heads and poison stings.

These species were horrifying creatures that Wang Xian had not seen previously. They loitered within their own territory on the seabed and emitted horrifying auras.

Wang Xian didn't clash with them. Even when these horrifying creatures charged towards him, he simply ordered Prime Minister Turtle to get away rapidly.

"Soon, I'll be competing with you guys for supremacy in the seas!"

Wang Xian's lips curved into a smile as he looked ahead.

"This is...?"

Right ahead of Wang Xian, there were multiple towering underwater mountains.

Each mountain was approximately two hundred meters tall.

Among them, the largest mountain was over two hundred meters tall.

These mountains were densely packed. In an area that spanned several tens of meters in radius, there were twenty mountains.

Other than the mountains, what caught Wang Xian's attention was the faint glow of the surroundings.

The glow came from the jellyfish. In this region, there were lots of jellyfish. They were densely packed and illuminated the area as though it was the day.

"Magical and beautiful! Together with the surrounding mountains, this would be a great location to build the Dragon Palace!"

Wang Xian looked around him and revealed a satisfied expression.

The tallest mountain in the center could become his resting place or the accommodation for the Dragon King.

As for the surrounding mountains, it could be allocated to Roving Heavens and the others.

"This shall be it..."

Wang Xian looked around him in satisfaction. However, just as he made up his mind, he squinted his eyes and looked attentively towards a far place.

Right there, a bloom of humongous jellyfish was swimming towards the various mountains.

Although their speed wasn't fast, their terrifying bodies made Wang Xian worried.

In the middle of the bloom, there was a jellyfish with countless tentacles. It was almost the size of the entire mountain.

It was shaped like an oval and spanned over ten meters. As for its tentacles, they were fifty to sixty meters long.

The densely packed glowing tentacles covered an area over a hundred meters.

"How could there be such a huge jellyfish?"

Wang Xian was shocked. Other than the largest jellyfish, there were multiple jellyfish with tentacles of thirty to forty meters.

The twenty-odd jellyfish together illuminated the entire region.

Before the eyes of Wang Xian, these jellyfish landed on the peak of each mountain.

Their tentacles scattered between the mountain peaks. When looking from afar, the region resembled mountains that were glowing.

"This is the territory of these huge jellyfish!"

Wang Xian's eyebrows knitted together. Clearly, this place had been occupied by this powerful jellyfish race.

"Let's go take a look."

Wang Xian directed his thoughts to Prime Minister Turtle and commanded him to move closer towards one of the jellyfish.

When Prime Minister Turtle was approximately a hundred meters away from a jellyfish, the tentacles of the jellyfish, which were resting on the mountain, moved abruptly.

It was as though they had eyes. Those soft tentacles were covered in razor-sharp needles and pointed towards them.

Swish swish swish!

At the next instant, the densely packed needles that covered the surrounding fifty meters swept towards Wang Xian.

[Aurora Jellyfish: Level 11

Extractable Dragon Energy: 254,433]

"A Level 11 Jellyfish!"

When Wang Xian saw the information about this jellyfish, he wasn't too surprised.

Boom!

At this moment, Prime Minister Turtle made a move. A wall of earth rose from the seabed and completely blocked off the needles from the jellyfish.

"Let's go!"

Wang Xian instructed Prime Minister Turtle after seeing other jellyfish in the vicinity starting to move.

Prime Minister Turtle moved its limbs and left this region rapidly.

The bloom of jellyfish did not give chase upon seeing Wang Xian and Prime Minister Turtle leaving. They slowly landed back on the peak of the mountain.

"The largest jellyfish must be Level 12 while the rest are Level 11."

Wang Xian frowned slightly. Among his subordinates, only Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Heavens and Roving Yaksha were Level 11. It would be difficult to deal with this bloom of jellyfish.

"There are still too many terrifying creatures in the seas. The Dragon Palace still isn't sufficiently powerful!"

Wang Xian felt a little bitter!

Chapter 355: Evolution

Wang Xian stood on the sea surface with a burdened look, after cruising the Eastern Sea for quite some time.

The sky was now dark. As the surrounding area was consumed by pitch black, it seemed like an endless abyss.

"Within the seas, every region is inhabited by a powerful race which controls the best and most scenic spots within their area. Unless we're able to seize hold of a territory, we'll have to construct the Dragon Palace in a corner!" Wang Xian uttered to himself. It was only natural that he was unwilling to have his Dragon Palace built in a corner.

Yet, by not wanting to have it in a corner, he would then have to fight for territory.

With a flicker in his eyes, Wang Xian began to recall the various regions which had interested him earlier.

He was most pleased with the area inhabited by the Aurora Jellyfish. However, it would be hard for the Dragon Palace members to win over the Jellyfishes for now, for they were simply too powerful.

That said, there was one other location other than the ones with the Aurora Jellyfish.

It was an area with coral reefs, inhabited by giant cuttlefish. Each of them measured more than ten meters in length, and had numerous tentacles. Amongst which, there was a Level 12 Cuttlefish, five Level 11 Cuttlefishes, along with scores of Level 10.

The area they covered was filled with coral reefs and looked very stunning, which Wang Xian considered as his second choice.

Aside from this, there was still one more area which was located in an underwater canyon fissure.

Stretching up to tens of kilometers, the fissure was located at about two thousand meters below sea level, amongst the deeper regions of the Eastern Sea.

But the canyon fissure had a shortcoming. It was a little narrow, as it only stretched slightly over a thousand meters across, which made it less suitable as a location for the Dragon Palace.

Moreover, the fissure was inhabited by a group of bat-like creatures which were highly ferocious.

Just earlier, dozens of them had chased after Wang Xian and gang over tens of kilometers.

I'll head back for now. If it doesn't work out, I'll explore other territorial waters, Wang Xian thought to himself.

Wang Xian had no wish to base his Dragon Palace within the four major oceans, as it was not a region which the Dragon Palace could venture into for now, given its current abilities.

Ferrying Wang Xian on his back, Prime Minister Turtle hurried over to Rivertown. It was over ten at night by the time they had arrived.

Back in the villa, Xiao Yu, Elder Fang and the rest had already turned in.

Knowing that Guan Shuqing was also in the villa, Wang Xian crept into the room stealthily before he made his leap.

To which, Guan Shuqing gave him a killer stare when she saw him coming in.

But it was not the first time that this had happened, and soon enough dulcet sounds could be heard from the room.

Although Guan Shuqing was now a Half-step Inborn with a much improved physical constitution, she was still no match for Wang Xian whose powers were simply too formidable.

"Seems like I really have to rope Qingyue into the team soon!" Guan Shuqing wondered to herself in a dreamy state, before lying on the bed and falling into a deep sleep.

At dawn, the sky was somewhat overcast. It was predicted on the phone's weather forecast that downpours would be expected for the next couple of days.

While Xiao Yu and the others went to school, Wang Xian dialed the number as provided by the Elder when they were previously at the National Treasury.

In less than half an hour, three middle-aged men arrived at the villa.

The trio had not spoken much, but merely handed their Spiritual Stones over to Wang Xian in purchase of all the Elixir Pills which he had in hand.

In the next couple of days, resources arrived one by one, which Wang Xian wasted no time in keeping away. He was in an exceptionally good mood, as more than ninety-percent of the materials needed to construct the Dragon Palace had been gathered.

But one issue still bugged him: the choice of location for the Dragon Palace.

It was difficult to snag a good location, given that the combat abilities of some Dragon Palace members were still weak.

By day three however, two pieces of good news came along.

[Ding! The collection of materials for the construction of the Dragon Palace is complete. Please select your construction site!]

At last, the collection of materials meant for the Dragon Palace was completed. The construction could now commence immediately.

While the second piece of good news came from the Dragon Palace members.

As he stood amidst the seas, Wang Xian looked ahead where the nine venomous sea snakes had gathered.

Pieces of long skin were shedding off their bodies as they slithered in quick rhythms, while the pairs of horns on their heads began to grow out.

There were also changes to their heads. They were no longer rounded like that of a snakehead. Rather they had gotten more pronounced and dimensional, which made them appear more sophisticated and majestic than before.

Four small bumps had also emerged from their abdominal area, while their bodies had grown up to around ten meters as they began to fade in color, gradually turning white.

"They've evolved, and upgraded to Level 11! But they've still got more to go if they wish to evolve into Serpents!" Wang Xian cheered in excitement.

The nine venomous sea snakes had always been the stronger of powers amongst the Dragon Palace members, given that they possessed the bloodline of the Wind Divine Dragon. When they joined forces, killing a Level 11 creature became a breeze for them.

Now that they had upgraded to Level 11, their abilities are already beyond formidable even though they had yet to evolve into Serpents.

"The powers within the Dragon Palace are still inadequate. Now that the nine venomous sea snakes have evolved, it has since raised the overall powers of the Dragon Palace by two to three times!" Wang Xian laughed contently.

The nine venomous sea snakes, each measuring ten meters long, were as thick as an adult human thigh. And when they glided in the waters, optical illusions would form along with their trails due to their shocking speeds.

"These nine venomous sea snakes have evolved to Level 11. Now's the time to seize the territory of the Aurora Jellyfish!" Wang Xian said with a glow in his eyes.

Although there were over twenty Level 11 Aurora Jellyfishes, they could well handle a little over a dozen of them with their current prowess.

Together with Prime Minister, Roving Heavens and Roving Yaksha, their chances of success were high.

"Make preparations. We're constructing the Dragon Palace!" Wang Xian ordered cheerfully, before heading for his villa.

As of now, construction workers engaged by Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan had begun with the transformation works on the floating island. Based on estimates, it would not be long before the works were completed.

As Wang Xian stepped into the villa, he saw a group of girls and walked over with a wide smile.

"Qingyue, have you finished settling the company matters?" Wang Xian asked with a grin, before he shamelessly squeezed himself into the seat in between Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue.

"Yep, it's settled!" Lan Qingyue replied as she leaned against Wang Xian's body briefly. "As for now, I can relax for a short period!" she continued.

"Yep. And all of you can follow me to a place tomorrow!" Wang Xian said to them after a moment of hesitation.

He planned to bring them around the Dragon Palace after it had been completed.

Some things cannot be kept in the dark, and Wang Xian had no intention of hiding it either.

It was easy to explain why he could transform into a Divine Dragon; he could attribute this to having succeeded the Divine Dragon's legacy.

During the cultivation on earth, there were bloodline cultivators who would transform into beasts. Hence, although his becoming the Divine Dragon would be astonishing, it would not be considered too atypical to say the least.

"Can't do, we have classes to attend tomorrow!" Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing shook their heads to decline.

"You have to make this trip. I have something to show all of you. Xiao Yu...," Wang Xian refuted.

"Brother, I can't make it tomorrow. I'm making a trip back to Thistles and Thorns Sect with Mentor. The Youth Tournament's commencing soon. I've got to make preparations!" Xiao Yu rejected Wang Xian's offer without waiting for him to finish his sentence.

Wang Xian smiled and nodded back.

Chapter 356: Territory Of A Sect

"Where are we going?"

The next morning, Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing stood on the deck of the yacht, stretched their bodies lazily and asked Wang Xian.

They took a glance at Sun Lingxiu, who was standing by the side, as they pouted discontentedly.

Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue no longer felt any separation between them. However, they weren't very comfortable with the idea of including Sun Lingxiu.

They stared at Wang Xian and made their displeasure clearly known through their expressions.

Wang Xian smiled bitterly and pretended to not have noticed the displeasure. Instead, he hugged both of them and said, "Let me bring you to a magical place, a place you guys would never have imagined!"

"Oh? Where are we going?"

The two girls beamed and weren't particular about this pervert hugging them both at the same time.

Although Wang Xian had not taken down Lan Qingyue over this period of time, he had taken all kinds of advantages of her. After some time, the two girls became used to it.

"It's a secret. You will know once we are there!"

Wang Xian revealed a mysterious smile. The Dragon Palace hadn't been built. However, the system allowed it to be built almost instantly. Therefore, all he had to do was to take down the territory that was occupied by the jellyfish before building the Dragon Palace.

After its establishment, the Dragon Palace would have multiple powerful abilities. At that time, the Dragon Pool, Dragon Gates and other structures would appear.

"Come, let's have some delicious fish and some red wine. How romantic is this!?" Wang Xian smiled radiantly and brought the girls to the restaurant on the yacht.

After this, he went to the fridge to retrieve a piece of fish that was shimmering in a lustrous glow.

This piece of fish was the flesh of an Inborn level fish. The energy in it wouldn't be any less than a Level 2 spiritual medicine.

The flesh of powerful creatures was incomparably delicious. By dipping it in a little sauce, even the Atlantic Bluefin Marlin couldn't compare to it.

Delicious food and wine with beautiful girls as companions!

Sun Lingxiu stood by the side and looked at them with a gentle smile. She didn't appear to be fighting to be with Wang Xian.

This made Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing a little embarrassed. Therefore, they invited her over to chat and eat.

The yacht moved quickly and the members of the Dragon Palace followed closely below the water's surface.

At the forefront, Roving Heavens, Roving Yaksha, Prime Minister Turtle and the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes led the way.

Twelve Level 12 existences!

At the back, there were Roving Girl, Roving Lobster, two Blood Pythons and the Inborn experts from the Devil Division and the Dragon Guard Division.

That was an additional twenty-three experts.

Behind them were a group of Level 8 and 9 existences.

Based on Wang Xian's illustration, Mo Qinglong steered the yacht towards the territory of the Aurora Jellyfish.

The Eastern Seadistrict was vast. Based on the information on the map, the region where the Aurora Jellyfishes were was part of the public seas.

The landscape of the Eastern Sea was extremely complicated, like the mountainous seabed that the Aurora Jellyfishes occupied.

There were lots of mountains in the Eastern Sea. Counting small islands alone, there were more than six thousand.

Occasionally, one could see the islands on the sea from afar.

Some islands were deserted while some were brimming with vitality.

Wang Xian looked into the distance and knew that on one of these islands, there might be powerful Sects or Families.

The yacht steered rapidly forward. Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing had a great time on the deck.

Boom!

Just as they were about to reach the territory of the Aurora Jellyfish, a horrifying explosion erupted.

Wang Xian was shocked and immediately looked to his left.

"Huh? That is...?"

There were three ships that looked distinctly different from ordinary ships.

The bodies of these ships were black and looked incomparably tough.

On the ship, there were many Martial Artists. Every single one of them held a sharp longsword in their hands.

They were attacking the surface of the sea.

In the sea, a horrifying sea creature that spanned several dozens of meters long was tumbling furiously. Several Martial Artists were dashing across the sea with their longswords and slashing the creature.

"That is...?"

Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue were surprised and looked in shock.

"This is...? Hunting strong marine creatures?"

Wang Xian sank into deep thought. The essences of powerful creatures in the seas were all hidden within their flesh.

The value of an Inborn level creature could match a Level 5 spiritual medicine.

In fact, if you encountered unique Inborn level creatures, the value would be even higher.

On land, various experts from different sects hunted sea creatures in various places just to obtain their flesh.

The yacht continued forward and slowly approached the region where the commotion erupted.

Huh?

At this moment, an old man standing at the forefront of the black ship turned his head over, took a glance at the approaching yacht and waved his hand.

On the boat, a black ball appeared in the old man's hand before the old man threw it towards the yacht.

Wang Xian stared at the black spherical object flying towards him. He frowned instantly and waved his hand.

Boom!

An explosion resounded in the air and caused a mushroom cloud.

Seeing his Thunder Clouds Boom exploding in mid-air, the old man on the black ship raised an eyebrow.

"Scram! This is the territory of the Sacred Seas of Swords!" A cold voice emanated from his mouth.

Upon hearing his voice, Wang Xian squinted his eyes.

"Sacred Seas of Swords?"

He raised an eyebrow. Mo Qinglong, who was behind the steering wheel, changed the direction of the yacht immediately.

Wang Xian took a long stare at the old man but did not attack them.

His main priority would be to build the Dragon Palace. He had no time to play around with other forces.

The bottom of the sea is occupied by powerful creatures and the surface of the sea is also occupied by some powerful forces! Wang Xian thought to himself.

Powerful forces could occupy the seas and islands and hunt powerful creatures within the seas.

This jolted his memory about the floating island and the Sect that was annihilated by some horrifying creature.

The seas are not as peaceful as I imagined!

Wang Xian showed a faint smile. It would only be interesting if this was the case.

The yacht continued moving forward. At night, they arrived at the region where the Aurora Jellyfish resided.

This place was roughly two hundred kilometers away from land.

After having dinner with Lan Qingyue, Guan Shuqing and Sun Lingxiu, Wang Xian chatted with them for a while.

Huh?

Seeing that Wang Xian wanted to return to his room to rest, Lan Qingyue was a little surprised.

I'm prepared today but you... Tsk...

She pouted and headed back to her room.

Wang Xian didn't know he had missed a great opportunity.

At this moment, he was at the bottom of the yacht.

"Dragon transformation!"

Without hesitation, Wang Xian dived deeper into the seas. He turned around and looked at the members of the Dragon Palace.

He released his dragon power and looked towards the region before him.

In that region, twenty-odd mountains stood within the depths of the sea. Each mountain was glowing brightly, making the entire region resemble the day.

Around it, countless jellyfish were swimming slowly within the sea.

"This place shall become the base of the Dragon Palace."

Wang Xian revealed a faint smile. From here on out, the Dragon Palace would start from the Eastern Sea and move towards conquering all the oceans!

Chapter 357: Immortal Jellyfish (1)

Boom, boom, boom!

Pat, pat, pat!

The sky above the seas was capricious. As a thunderstorm raged without the slightest warning, it poured rain water on the entire ocean.

Within the ocean somewhere along the Eastern Sea, Wang Xian was maneuvering his huge body underwater, while staring coldly at the world before him.

As the rain continued to rage, it sent crashing waves while throwing the world above into darkness. Yet, underwater, all was still and calm.

The waves had not been tidal, hence they did not give rise to any ripples underwater.

Somewhere ahead, the entire sea had been brightly lit by the jellyfish, which came in colors of all sorts and appeared very dreamy.

Alongside were numerous seamounts, looking all vast and imposing.

Wang Xian looked on with narrowed eyes as he swept his gaze back. "Occupy this place, and build the palace!" he ordered.

"Yes, Dragon King!" the group of Dragon Palace members replied as they gazed off in preparation.

"Let's go!" Wang Xian gestured. With quick reflexes, he shifted himself and charged forward, oozing a dignified air of the Divine Dragon as he did.

Following behind, Prime Minister Turtle and other members displayed a menacing stance as they charged like an imposing army troop.

Pat, pat, pat!

Before Wang Xian and gang could approach, sounds of gushing water emerged. Jellyfishes began to rise above the more than twenty seamounts, swaying their countless tentacles along.

Their pace was somewhat slow, but visually aesthetic, as each tentacle shimmered with lights.

The sloshing of water had come from the largest jellyfish located in the center, and as it swayed, all remaining jellyfish followed in tandem.

As they ascended, their countless tentacles began to reach out towards Wang Xian and gang.

Besides these twenty-over Aurora Jellyfishes, another jellyfish with a tentacle of over ten meters slowly emerged from the back of other seamounts.

Within a radius of tens of kilometers, all the jellyfish began to ascend and fill the sea like a star-studded sky.

However, while the jellyfish had come in astonishing numbers, their fighting abilities were relatively weak.

Their movements were slow, especially the smaller jellyfish, and did not pose the slightest threat to Wang Xian and gang.

Howl, howl!

Together with the rest, Wang Xian, Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Heavens made low growls before they gradually approached.

Zoom, zoom, zoom!

When the gang was about a thousand meters away from the swarm of jellyfish, 23 of them shot their tentacles out. From which, countless Aqua-needles darted towards the gang.

Each jellyfish had more than a hundred thousand tentacles to say the least. With twenty three of such terrifying creatures, there were more than a million Aqua-needles shooting past the waters and coming for the gang at once.

Howl, howl!

Behind the gang, the Yaksha clan from the Dragon Guard Division hollered in unison. As they raised their weapon-like arms, all the Yakshas filed out in a single line and charged ahead towards the opponents.

Waters began to tumble, as they crashed towards the flood of Aqua-needles.

Howl!

Prime Minister Turtle glided gracefully to the seabed, before pieces of the seabed floor were uprooted and thrust in the direction of the Aqua-needles.

"Dragon Journeys the Four Seas!" Wang Xian shouted as he swished his tail. To which, the surrounding waters began to tumble violently.

Boom, boom, boom!

The sea waters began to surge and crash at each other. The battle could break out at any moment.

"Kill!" Wang Xian commanded with no hesitation. With quick shifts, he charged forth at the largest and centermost jellyfish.

The rest of the Dragon Palace members swooped over towards the remaining giant jellyfish.

When they saw Wang Xian and gang coming at them after intercepting their Aqua-needles, the swarm of jellyfish began to wiggle their tentacles.

They stormed up front to meet Wang Xian and gang face-to-face.

[Aurora Jellyfish: Level 12]

[Extractable Dragon Energy: 1,322,321]

Wang Xian took in the information as he narrowed his eyes. They were Level 12 Jellyfish, just as he had expected.

Shoo, shoo, shoo!

The tentacles lashed at Wang Xian like Aqua-whips.

Grr!

Wang Xian let out a dragon's roar, which opened up a vacuum area of around a hundred meters ahead, where the surrounding seawater had repelled beyond.

Wang Xian stared at the tens of thousands of tentacles coming at him, before widening his mouth.

Boom!

A streak of flames appeared within the ocean.

The flames scorched furiously as they lit the underwater into a sea of red.

Tsk, tsk, tsk, tsk!

Tentacles by the tens of thousands sizzled in torching flames.

Zing!

Just then, blue light flickered atop the heads of the Aurora Jellyfishes, which was then dispersed into the tentacles.

Shoo, shoo, shoo!

Sounds of the tentacles sizzling in flames disappeared in a flash, as they began to glow in blue before lashing out at Wang Xian once more.

Pat, pat, pat!

Wang Xian's face cringed when he heard the sound. It resembled droplets dripping onto a stone, eventually hollowing it.

It was petrifying to think that these tentacles, thin as needle thread, could actually cause lacerations on Wang Xian's body.

"No doubt a Level 12 creature," Wang Xian commented. With quick reflexes, he raised his Dragon Claws and tore at the tentacles.

The Dragon Claws flashed with a metallic shine, as they emitted the Energy of the Gold Summit which cut straight ahead, slaying the tentacles along their path.

Tsk, tsk, tsk!

Sounds of sizzling could be heard once again, as the blue light in the tentacles disappeared in the blink of an eye.

Wang Xian soon discovered that the tentacles of these Aurora Jellyfishes were highly resilient, and could not be sliced off easily. Once the blue lights were gone, the tentacles drifted motionlessly as though all energy had been depleted from them.

However, the thousands of tentacles were literally just a drop in the ocean to the mammoth jellyfish, completely negligible; given its physical size, which was comparable to a mountain.

"Be gone, die!" Wang Xian hollered as he looked at the giant Aurora Jellyfish with icy stares, while his own body began to change.

"Roar!" Wang Xian growled. As he swayed to and fro, his body began to emit greyish bouts of the Earth Dragon Energy.

In the Five Elements, Earth repels Water!

As a Dragon of the Earth Element, he was able to repel all creatures of the Water Element.

As he swung his Dragon Claws, greyish bouts of Earth Dragon Energy transformed into smaller, individual Earth Dragons.

Zing, zing, zing!

Within the waters, splashes of mud attached themselves onto the small dragons before wrapping them up. This eventually transformed them into physical Earth Dragons, each measuring up to two meters.

With mouths gaping open, the dragons lunged at the Aurora Jellyfishes, ready to attack.

Shoo, shoo, shoo!

Countless tentacles of the Aurora Jellyfishes shot back at the greyish Earth Dragons in retaliation.

"Dragon's Crunch!" Wang Xian ordered as his eyes looked on in slits. In response, the transmogrified Earth Dragons opened their mouths wide and sank their teeth into the tentacles.

The tentacles withered away, as though devoid of life.

In an instant, several hundred transmogrified Earth Dragons had drained all vigor from the tens of thousands of tentacles.

Zing, zing, zing!

From its gigantic head, the jellyfish let out a soft spurt before shooting blue rays in Wang Xian's direction.

Shoo, shoo, shoo!

"That's ... the Sapphire Aurora Jet!" Wang Xian gasped at the sight of the blue rays cutting straight at him. As he flinched his face, Wang Xian bared his teeth.

Boom!

A bout of energy the color of custard surged forth, thrusting and coagulating to form a gigantic shield. Measuring ten meters in length, the shield looked substantial and heavy.

Shoo!

A streak of the Sapphire Aurora Jet pierced through the shield, and took Wang Xian by surprise.

"Roar!" Wang Xian growled, this time emitting yet another bout of the Earth Dragon Energy which landed right in front of the shield. In an instant, the shield thickened to tens of meters.

The most formidable defense by an Earth Dragon!

Chapter 358: Immortal Jellyfish (2)

The most primitive battle was also the most spectacular battle.

In the sea, Wang Xian was constantly wiggling his huge, seven-meter body.

He constantly ejected Earth dragon energy from his mouth to strengthen the defense of the Earth Dragon.

Densely packed streams of blue Aurora jets shot towards Wang Xian.

Drips of water could penetrate the toughest of objects in the natural world given time. The penetrative force of the Aurora jets would only be even stronger.

If Wang Xian had not transformed into the Earth Divine Dragon, he wouldn't be able to withstand these horrifying Aurora jets.

Grr grr grr!

At this point, Wang Xian heard pitiful cries erupting from all around him.

He immediately turned his head over.

A short distance away, an Aurora Jellyfish also shot identical blue Aurora jets at the Devil Monkeys that were surrounding it.

Streams of Aurora jets penetrated the bodies of these weak Devil Monkeys and they were crying out in pain.

However, these Aurora jets were minute. As long as they didn't hit a vital organ when piercing through the bodies of these Devil Monkeys, they wouldn't kill the Devil Monkeys. This made Wang Xian a little more relieved.

In fact, with the regeneration speed of the Devil Monkeys, they could even recover from these attacks almost instantly.

"Die!"

Roving Heavens stared intensely at the Aurora Jellyfish ahead of him. He was furious and was revealing his pair of incisors. Around him, horrifying devilish aura circulated.

He spun the metal rod in his hand rapidly before him to defend against the streams of Aurora jets.

When the wave of attacks ended, Roving Heavens immediately leapt forward. A mirage of a Devil Monkey appeared behind him as he smashed heavily towards the Aurora Jellyfish.

Swish swish swish!

The Level 11 Aurora Jellyfish reacted by sending its tentacles towards Roving Heavens.

Grrrr, grrr!

Vengeance gleamed in the eyes of the Devil Monkey image behind Roving Heavens. Over a hundred Devil Monkeys leapt forward and attacked the tentacles of the Aurora jellyfish.

The majority of the tentacles of the Aurora Jellyfish were stopped by the Devil Monkeys.

"Die!"

Roving Heavens roared furiously as he went down hard on the Aurora Jellyfish.

Weng!

A huge patch of the blue light on the Aurora Jellyfish instantly dissipated.

Ci ci!

Roving Heavens gritted his teeth and landed another heavy strike on the Aurora Jellyfish.

Bzz bzz!

Another huge patch of blue light on the Aurora Jellyfish subsided once again.

Wang Xian noticed that as the blue glow dissipated, the strength of the Aurora Jellyfish weakened substantially.

Although there wasn't any sign of injuries on the jellyfish, its attack had softened substantially.

At the other end, Wang Xian was shocked to see Roving Girl and Roving Lobster holding their ground against a Level 11 Aurora Jellyfish.

The intensity of their battle surprised Wang Xian.

Roving Lobster stood at approximately three meters tall and had a metal glow throughout his body. He was standing ahead of the Aurora Jellyfish with its razor-sharp pincers pointing towards the Aurora Jellyfish.

Behind him, Roving Girl was constantly manipulating the water around her by moving her arms. She sent streams of water towards Roving Lobster to aid him in battle.

These streams enabled Roving Lobster to accelerate, defend and even allow the formation of tentacles extending from his back.

With these tentacles, she completely neutralized the tentacles of the Aurora Jellyfish.

As for Roving Lobster, he stood face to face with the Aurora Jellyfish in a brutal and direct confrontation.

Streams of blue Aurora jets were shot towards Roving Lobster. In response, Roving Lobster used his two huge pincers to guard himself.

On the surface of its pincers, there was also a thick layer of water shield.

As the Aurora jets pierced through the water shield and landed on Roving Lobster's pincers, sounds of metal clashing could be heard.

These pincers were the toughest parts on Roving Lobster. They were even sharper and tougher than Inborn Spiritual Weapons.

Swish swish swish!

When the Aurora Jellyfish noticed that its attacks were futile on Roving Lobster, it changed its target instantly and attacked Roving Girl instead.

Pa!

However, the Aurora Jellyfish was shocked to see its attacks landed on the clamshell instead.

The Aurora jets didn't leave any marks on the heavy clamshell that had a blue glow. The defense of the clamshell was even more insane than the pincers of Roving Lobster.

Ka Ka Ka!

In this split second, Roving Lobster swung its huge razor-sharp pincers towards the Aurora Jellyfish.

Beside Roving Girl and Roving Lobster, Prime Minister Turtle went against two Aurora Jellyfish at the same time and easily crushed them.

When the blue Aurora jets landed on the heavy shell of Prime Minister Turtle, all they left were small white dots.

Other than having a horrifying defense, the Prime Minister Turtle also had incredible Earth Control ability.

Roving Girl, Roving Lobster and Prime Minister Turtle were the first three subordinates Wang Xian had taken in. The time they had to practice their cultivation arts of the divine dragon was also the longest.

At Level 10, Roving Girl and Roving Lobster could go against a Level 11 Aurora Jellyfish.

As for Prime Minister Turtle, he could even crush two Aurora Jellyfish.

Prime Minister Turtle's strength was also the strongest among all the other members of the Dragon Palace.

Even the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes, which possessed the bloodline of the Wind Divine Dragon, were slightly inferior.

On the other end, the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes were equally incredible in battle.

Although they had not evolved to the serpent stage, they already possessed some strength and might of a serpent.

When moving within the sea, they were just like phantoms. Despite having huge bodies, it was still hard to catch sight of them.

One could really describe them as moving with wizardly elusiveness.

The bodies of the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes shimmered as they approached the Aurora Jellyfish rapidly. At the same time, they carried razor-sharp wind blades that penetrated the Aurora Jellyfish directly.

Complete domination.

For the strongest Dragon Guard Division of the Dragon Palace, Roving Yaksha led a group of Yaksha warriors to fight against three Aurora Jellyfish.

Their attacks were potent and destructive. While fighting and defending together, they were able to kill an Aurora Jellyfish in an extremely short period of time.

However, Wang Xian was shocked to notice no signs of injuries on the jellyfish that had been killed and sank into the bottom of the sea.

The dragon energy within it had already dissipated and it was definitely strange.

After taking a quick glance, Wang Xian turned his attention to the Aurora Jellyfish ahead of him and revealed a smirk.

He suspended himself in the sea and slowly swayed his dragon tail.

Below him, clumps of earth started rising and coalesced into one.

Boom boom boom!

Subsequently, a huge piece of earth flew over, combined and quickly condensed together.

Gradually, a huge twenty-meter-tall earth mountain appeared on Wang Xian.

Roar!

Wang Xian opened his mouth and ejected a stream of Earth dragon energy that surrounded the earth mountain.

Rumble rumble!

The earth mountain condensed further and emanated heavy and horrifying aura. With a movement, the earth mountain appeared above him and was directed towards the Aurora Jellyfish.

Swish swish swish!

Fifty-meter-long tentacles of the Aurora Jellyfish moved rapidly like thousands and thousands of ice needles towards Wang Xian.

Roar!

Wang Xian lifted his head and directed the earth mountain above him to shield his head.

Subsequently, Wang Xian manipulated the earth mountain and pushed it towards the Aurora Jellyfish ahead of him.

The earth mountain carried incredible momentum as it crashed towards the Aurora Jellyfish.

Pa pa pa!

The Aurora Jellyfish wrapped its tentacles around the earth mountain. On the surface, dullish yellow energies clashed directly with the blue glow on the Aurora Jellyfish.

Chapter 359: Vastless Sea, Establishment Of The Dragon Palace (1)

Boom!

Following the crashes due to the violent collision, the huge mountain of earth blew into pieces.

The lights on the tentacles of the Aurora Jellyfish began to flicker, before it eventually disappeared completely.

Atop the jellyfish, its gigantic head measuring ten meters in diameter was lit brightly in blue.

The rays were shielding against the surging earth bits as a result of the explosion earlier.

The entire mountain of earth measured twenty meters in height. Hence its impact during the explosion was powerful enough to send waters as far as a thousand meters away on a violent tumble.

Huge waves billowed even in the deep seas a thousand meters below.

Tsk, tsk, tsk!

Eventually, all remnants of blue light on the giant Aurora Jellyfish blew out.

This caused its surrounding area to dim in an instant.

Meanwhile, within the territorial waters nearby, the area began to darken as the huge jellyfish began losing their glow one by one.

Out of fear and shock, the smaller jellyfish nearby dispersed themselves as they began to scramble for safety. In spite of this, a huge proportion of the jellyfish swam over to the carcass of the Aurora Jellyfish, as they glowed alongside the body which had lost all luster.

Wang Xian smiled briefly as he swept his glance across.

The battle nearby ended quickly, as Prime Minister Turtle and the rest swam over to Wang Xian's side.

"Reports, Dragon King. The Devil Division has lost fifty men, while there are no further casualties from the rest of our men!" the voice of Prime Minister Turtle drifted from behind Wang Xian, as the former made his update.

Wang Xian nodded in acknowledgment, before turning his head over to face the Devil Division.

Casualties were inevitable, since the Devil Division had been the weakest within the Dragon Palace in terms of combat powers; seven hundred or so Devil Monkeys remained out of the initial eight hundred.

That said, the remaining survivors were all Level 8 to 9 combatants.

The weaker ones had all perished in the battle earlier.

"They're still too weak. If only they hadn't died..." Wang Xian sighed. But he soon recovered with a satisfied smile as he surveyed the territorial waters, unable to contain his excitement.

With a change of stance, he swam over to a nearby seamount with no delay. As he rested atop the seamount, he scanned the surrounding areas.

"This is the place," Wang Xian said as he inhaled deeply.

"Construct the Dragon Palace!" he uttered the words with a surge of emotions.

[Ding! The collection of materials for the construction of the Dragon Palace has been completed. Scanning the territorial waters around to assess its suitability for the construction. Do you want to build the Dragon Palace? An elementary Dragon Palace will come with a Dragon King Hall, Dragon Transformation Pool, Dragon's Gate, Sea Stabilizing Immortal Column, Dragon Cave, Dragon Field and Dragon Array.]

The sound from the system explained while Wang Xian listened with stirred emotions.

"Construct!"

Boom!

[Constructing the Dragon Palace!]

The voice, which seemed like it was calling from both Heaven and Earth as well as the primeval era, called out to Wang Xian within his head.

This was then followed by rays of pre-cosmic light which shone in front of him.

The pre-cosmic rays began to scatter out, and shone over an area ten kilometers in radius.

While endless energy began pouring in over an even bigger area a thousand miles in radius.

The weather began to evolve. Energies from the entire ocean, Earth elements, and Water elements including those from aquatic plants, Metal Elements from rocks and stones, as well as Spiritual Energy of all sorts were sapped.

Together, the energies gathered over and grew immensely in strength, as if to split sky and shatter earth, as the pre-cosmic rays continued to shine over the area of ten miles in radius.

Under Wang Xian's astonished gaze, major changes began to take place from beneath his feet.

The entire seamount was going through major transformations at alarming speeds which could be captured by the naked eye.

A majestic Dragon King Hall emerged below Wang Xian.

The majority of the seamount, which measured two hundred meters in height, had been transformed; a huge hole had been dug out from its lower area.

The upper area of the seamount was now supported by two titanic pillars.

Thereafter, a Royal Residence Hall emerged in the middle of the seamount, and appeared absolutely extravagant.

Down below, a golden Dragon Throne measuring three meters in length appeared.

While underneath the Dragon Throne lay the mesmerizing Dragon King Hall, decked in silver and gold.

As coral colonies lined the sides of the hall, shimmering in different hues, numerous sedimentary rocks were placed and spaced out as seats for guests.

The entire Grand Hall occupied a space measuring two thousand meters in radius, making it appear incredibly spacious.

Creak, creak!

[The Dragon King Hall has been completed!]

Right then, behind the Dragon King Hall where three seamounts stood, a giant crater measuring a thousand meters in radius appeared in the centermost region of the seamount range.

Following which, several colorful pillars rooted out, which were gradually embellished by multiple Divine Dragon motifs.

There were nine pillars in all, each measuring fifty meters in length and three meters wide. They were accompanied by Divine Dragon motifs of nine different elements. As the dragons sprawled across the pillar surface, their heads pointed towards the direction atop the giant crater with their mouths gaping open.

The Divine Dragons belonged to the nine elements of Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, Earth, Wind, Thunder, Light, and Darkness.

Yet, there was nothing in the giant crater.

[The Dragon Transformation Pool has been completed!]

Creak, creak, creak!

Immediately after, on the sides of the Dragon King Hall, more than a dozen seamounts began to shift unimaginably.

On the right of the hall, the lower regions of the seamounts began to hollow, where it was replaced by pillars which now supported the entire structure.

The giant hole that was created stretched diagonally underground, reaching up to five thousand meters in depth.

While numerous luxurious caves emerged within its interior, there was one main cave followed by other remaining chambers.

[The Dragon Cave has been completed!]

Boom, boom, boom!

Along with the loud blasts and continuous booms, a Dragon Field measuring two thousand meters wide and six thousand meters long appeared in the middle of the seamount range.

Pop, pop, pop!

The sides of the Dragon Field were lined with multiple weapon racks, although there were no weapons on them.

[The Dragon Field has been completed!]

Zing, zing, zing, zing!

Just then, Wang Xian sensed an object sprouting out from the ground beneath. True enough, a titanic pillar surfaced then and there.

The pillar was located at the back of the Dragon King Hall, measuring five meters wide and two hundred meters long.

On the pillar, the characters "Sea Stabilizing Immortal Column" were embossed in giant gold font.

The appearance of the Sea Stabilizing Immortal Columns caused energies from the area of within a thousand-meter radius to begin surging over. As they poured in, the Sea Stabilizing Immortal Columns began to shine with a brilliant sheen.

It looked majestic beyond comparison.

[The Sea Stabilizing Immortal Columns have been completed!]

Creak, creak, creak!

Beyond a series of gold shimmers, at the four corners of the Dragon Palace, several Dragon's Gates measuring a hundred meters tall and two hundred meters wide appeared.

On the four Dragon's Gate were two words written in giant gold font, which read "Dragon Palace."

A blue ripple appeared in the middle of the gates, as if to create a nebulous divider.

[The Dragon's Gates have been completed!]

Boom, boom, boom!

As the final touch, a formidable energy swirl appeared above the Dragon Palace.

Like raging floodwaters upon the release of the barrage crest gates, underwater energies within the area of a thousand miles in radius began to surge into the Dragon Palace.

The energy surge resulted in the shimmering of the more than twenty seamounts, as though they were brimming with life.

The entire Dragon Palace and its surroundings underwater were brightly lit up, while corals of assorted colors gleamed with radiance.

[The Dragon Array has been completed!]

The energy from the skies continued to be injected into the Dragon Palace, but eventually came to stabilize.

The Dragon King Hall, Dragon Transformation Pool, Dragon's Gate, Sea Stabilizing Immortal Columns, Dragon Cave, Dragon Field, and Dragon Array had all been completed!

[Ding! The Progenitor Tree in the Dragon King has been detected. Should this be transferred into the Dragon King Hall?]

The voice from the system inquired.

"Transfer!" Wang Xian answered with no delay, despite his slight surprise.

Chapter 360: Vastless Sea, Establishment Of The Dragon Palace (2)

Ding!

Just as he finished his words, the jade-green Progenitor Tree that he had no use for and which had always been in his chest area in his body flew out.

The green glow that was emanated from the Progenitor Tree was brimming with vitality. For the entire tree, there was only a single branch which glowed in a greyish light.

Rumble!

The moment the Progenitor Tree appeared, the entire Dragon Palace shook. The Dragon Array was activated and intense energy was extracted from the surrounding radius of a thousand meters.

A vortex of energy formed above Wang Xian's head once again. Feeling the dense energy within the vortex, Wang Xian was certain that if this vortex of energy were to land on him, he would be crushed to death.

All the energy flushed towards and into the Progenitor Tree. The intense energy instantly made the Progenitor Tree glow in a more dazzling green.

As the glow shone brighter, the Progenitor Tree that was just the size of a palm initially was now growing at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Gradually, the Progenitor Tree grew to approximately five meters tall and the only greyish branch on it had also reached two meters. This made the entire Progenitor Tree look a little unique.

The Progenitor Tree remained suspended in the sea while rotating. Eventually, it flew towards the Dragon Throne and entrenched itself behind the Dragon Throne.

As for the branch, it was directly above the Dragon Throne.

Wang Xian was shocked to witness the change to the Progenitor Tree.

[Ding! Dragon Palace Established!]

Rumble!

At this point, peace and silence returned to the entire sea after a loud rumble propagating through the seas and the notification of the system.

However, horrifying images and scenes erupted in Wang Xian's mind.

The majestic Dragon Palace surfaced gradually from the water surface and a Water Divine Dragon that was over several thousand meters long stared solemnly before it.

Behind it, there were countless Crawfish Soldiers, Crab Generals and various species of Dragon Palace members.

Before it, countless humans stood on a large and vast piece of land.

"Kill!"

A wave of sky shaking murderous intent filled with bloodlust swept across.

As the horrifying battle began, the Water Divine Dragon swayed its body and incited a tsunami that swept forward.

Countless incredible humans took it directly and fought with the countless members of the Dragon Palace in a gruesome battle.

At this point, the scene in Wang Xian's mind changed.

Countless humans with incredible auras and majestic armor stood on clouds and were staring into the sea.

A green dragon and countless Dragon Palace members were waiting in the sea. Once again, an intense battle erupted between the two factions.

Fresh blood dyed the entire sea red.

In the vast sea, an Inferno Divine Dragon was swaying its huge body that spanned over ten thousand meters. Behind it, there were various fearsome looking Dragon Palace members.

Before them, there were densely packed groups of wild beasts.

Rawr! The cries of the dragon and wild beasts signalled the beginning of another bloody battle.

The scenes in Wang Xian's mind constantly changed. Each scene was filled with blood and violence.

Among which, this blood was shed by divine dragons, dragon palace members, humans and wild beasts.

There were corpses of densely packed Zergs and a corpse of a divine dragon that was over ten thousand meters long.

There were creatures with wings that emitted light.

There were races with wings that emitted black auras and looked devilish.

There were strange creatures that were burning in flames.

There were various powerful races that roared on land, whistled in the seas and growled in space.

Other than battles, all Wang Xian could see was blood.

[Survival of the fittest! There's no right or wrong in battles between races and battles for resources. To become an invincible divine dragon, you have to experience battles. The path to invincibility is to be laid with countless corpses.]

[The strong rule and the winners take all. Invincible divine dragon shall stand on top of the universe!]

As the images dissipated, the two messages resounded in Wang Xian's mind and shocked him.

Amidst the images that were shown to him, some were regarding divine dragons attacking other races while others were about other races hunting and killing divine dragons.

Survival of the fittest. Resources and survival belonged to the strong. Weaklings had no right to live. They could either choose to drag out an ignoble existence or die.

Every King's throne is built on the corpses of countless living creatures. Blood, war and destruction are inevitable!

Wang Xian's mental state had undergone a huge transformation. The scenes and images shown to him had given him huge thoughts and feelings.

Divine dragons were the highest tier existence within the universe. At the very beginning, divine dragons had been born with destructive forces.

However, the divine dragon race had been shrinking at a horrifying pace.

The top tier bloodlines in the universe were usually few in number.

Creatures like divine dragons were powerful. However, there were also humans in the universe that could get together, Zergs that were huge in number and demon race that were made up of various wild beasts.

When their numbers reached a certain level, they could still slay a dragon.

They could still eradicate top tier bloodline existences.

This had led to the rapid extinction of many creatures with top tier bloodline in the universe.

To prevent themselves from being annihilated, divine dragons had built Dragon Palaces and developed the marine animals. Through this, they had once again regained their status as the most elite race in the universe.

A Dragon Palace was extremely important to a divine dragon.

Dragon Palaces were the reasons why divine dragons could compete for supremacy in the universe.

Wang Xian's eyes beamed and faint majestic aura emanated from his body. He looked at the Dragon Palace below him and the information on the Dragon Palace surfaced in his mind.

Dragon Palace: Level 1

Dragon King: Wang Xian (Level 7 Five Elements Divine Dragon)

Structures:

Dragon King Hall: Level 1 (Increase Cultivation and Regeneration Speed of The Dragon King by 300%)

Dragon Transformation Pool: Level 1 (Absorb Dragon Blood to Transform into Divine Dragon, Dragon Blood: None)

Dragon Gates: Level 1 (Leap Through the Dragon Gates to Become a Dragon. Effective for Level 12 and below Creatures!)

Sea Stabilizing Immortal Column: Level 1 (Main Pillar of Dragon Palace. Ensure Stability Ten Miles Around Dragon Palace. Increase Fighting Capacity of Dragon Palace Members by 50%!)

Dragon Cave: Level 1 (Possess A Thousand Dragon Caves. 200% Cultivating Speed Within Dragon Caves!)

Dragon Field: Level 1 (Increase 100% Enlightenment Rate When Practicing In Dragon Field!)

Dragon Array: Level 1 (Level 1 Spiritual Energy Gathering Array: Increase Spiritual Energy Gathering by 100%; Water Region Array Level 1: Could Resist Attacks From Level 12 Creatures and Below)

Spiritual Item:

Progenitor Tree: Level ?? (Can Revive Level 12 and Below Creatures!)

The information on the Dragon Palace was displayed fully in the mind of Wang Xian. Level One Dragon Palace was the most preliminary Dragon Palace.

The preliminary Dragon Palace was just the model of a Dragon Palace established by the system.

Wang Xian could strengthen the preliminary Dragon Palace and build more structures.

For example, he could build a spiritual medicine garden, an elixir refining room and others.

Other than that, the Dragon Palace could only increase in level after all the structures in it had been increased to Level 2.

When Dragon King Hall increased to Level 2, cultivation speed would increase by 600%.

The materials required would be ten thousand spiritual stones and a ton of spiritual grade metal.

For the Dragon Transformation Pool to increase to Level 2, it would require ten thousand spiritual stones and a hundred tonnes of blood from spiritual level creatures.

For Dragon Gates to increase to Level 2, it would require ten thousand spiritual stones and a ton of spiritual level water attribute materials.

For each level, the effects of the structure would increase by a fold. However, the materials required greatly shocked Wang Xian.

Spiritual level materials and spiritual grade metals would mean materials and metals above Level 10.

The few requirements stated above were already insane. However, it got worse for the remaining structures.

For example, to increase the level of the Dragon Field, it would require a thousand Inborn Spiritual Weapons.

For the Dragon Array to increase in level, it would require ten Level 12 arrays.

Chapter 361: Horrifying Creatures Besieging The Dragon Palace (1)

A thousand pieces of the Inborn Spiritual Weapons, and the Level 2 Dragon Array? I haven't heard of them before!

With regards to the Spiritual Grade Metal and materials...we do have some Spiritual Grade Metal for now, which is the rod owned by Roving Heavens, which weighs 500 kilograms!

Next comes the formidable Spiritual Stones. A hundred thousand of them are required in order to upgrade a building. Are there even that many Spiritual Stones on this entire Earth?

Wang Xian listened with a burdened look. But, as the Dragon Palace came into sight, he cast all doubts to the back of his mind and dived excitedly towards the Dragon King Hall.

Bam!

However, he was resisted by a powerful force as he was descending into deeper waters. In fact, the resistance propelled Wang Xian's body backwards.

"Oh, to think I've forgotten about the Dragon Array's effects!" Wang Xian squeaked in embarrassment. The Level 1 Dragon Array consisted of two Formations, namely the Spiritual Energy Gathering Array and the Water Region Array.

The Water Region Array could prevent trespassing of creatures below Level 12.

Now that the Formations had been activated, even Wang Xian would only be able to enter via the Dragon's Gate.

Should creatures below Level 12 wish to enter the Dragon Palace, they could only do so by leaping over the Dragon's Gate. And for those which succeed, they would either possess the bloodline of the Divine Dragon or other powerful forces, or display innate talent.

Hence, the Dragon's Gate had the gift of being able to sieve out innate talents of creatures. However, as a Level 1 Dragon's Gate, it was only effective in handling creatures below Level 12, while those beyond would be able to barge through based on their combat capabilities.

Moreover, as the Dragon King, Wang Xian held control over the choice of creatures which could make it past the Dragon's Gate.

Upon arrival at the eastern Dragon's Gate, the gate appeared sturdy and majestic, given its massive size of a hundred meters tall and two hundred meters wide.

Wang Xian leaped across the gates excitedly.

Behind him was a crowd of Dragon Palace members, who looked on with zest as though they were worshipping him, while they followed along.

This place would soon become what they called home, and also the territory which belonged exclusively to them.

As all Dragon Palace members possessed Wang Xian's bloodline, they too were able to enter the premises, unhindered by the Dragon's Gate.

Once in the palace, Wang Xian looked around at the pillars which stood at a hundred meters tall, and noted the Divine Dragon motifs of various elements on them.

Despite his body length of seven meters while in dragon form, the place looked nonetheless spacious and awe-inspiring.

Along the left and right were the multiple seamounts which had shifted over earlier, now beautified by the assorted corals growing on them.

The only pity was that most of these seamounts were merely ornaments, as only two out of all of them had been transformed into Dragon Caves.

The grounds of the Dragon Palace were made up of one massive sturdy rock. As Wang Xian willed in his heart, he reverted to his human form.

Now that he had transformed back into a human, the entire palace seemed all the more colossal and regal, enough to impress and shock.

This was no doubt the most sublime Palace to ever exist in the world.

As Wang Xian took in a deep breath, he could feel a boost to his Dragon Energy. The entire Dragon Palace brimmed with ample Spiritual Energy, thanks to the effects of the Spiritual Energy Gathering Array.

As he walked further inwards, he arrived at the Dragon Field. Over here, one could double their efficiency of cultivation regardless of technique practiced.

Multiple weapon racks lined the left and right of the Dragon Field. It remained a pity though, as there were currently no weapons on them.

Wang Xian proceeded further inwards and walked for a whole ten minutes, before he sighted the Dragon Cave on the right.

The Dragon Cave was meant as the place of residence and cultivation for the Dragon Palace members. Living inside could help them reduce the time required to evolve by two-thirds.

Hence, it was the place to accelerate the combat abilities of the Dragon Palace members.

"There are only a thousand rooms in one Dragon Cave. Ten thousand Spiritual Stones will be required for the addition of another Dragon Cave while a hundred thousand will be required to upgrade the cave's level!" Wang Xian contemplated to himself.

The Dragon Cave was no doubt pivotal to the Dragon Palace members. However, given that there were currently less than a thousand members, one Dragon Cave would suffice for now.

That said, there was still a need to construct more Dragon Caves, should the number of henchmen increase in the future.

Wang Xian continued forward. The Dragon King Hall, also the largest building within the Dragon Palace, emerged right ahead.

To enter the Dragon King Hall, one must climb up nine steps, where each was half a meter tall.

With one leap, Wang Xian entered directly into the Dragon King Hall. With a heated gaze, he looked intently at the golden Dragon Throne which stood at three meters tall.

And although it stood at a moderate three meters, the golden Dragon Throne spanned an overwhelming fifteen meters wide. This was enough for Wang Xian to rest atop in his Divine Dragon form, or even lay spread out.

Step by step, Wang Xian walked ahead. On both sides of the hall were many stone benches about five meters wide, meant as the seats for the Dragon Palace members.

As he arrived at yet another nine steps, Wang Xian eyed the Dragon Throne ahead before making his way up and sitting on the center of the throne.

"Greetings, Dragon King!" the crowd of Dragon Palace members behind called out to Wang Xian respectfully, as they remained below the steps.

"Umph!" Wang Xian acknowledged with an air of prestige. As he sat on the throne, all the Dragon Palace members came into clear sight within a single glance.

Thereafter, he stood up to look at the Progenitor Tree behind him. The fresh and green Progenitor Tree brimmed with life while it exuded mysterious powers.

With a faint smile, Wang Xian cast his gaze further back.

It was where the titanic Sea Stabilizing Immortal Column had rooted itself within the Dragon Palace. At a staggering two hundred meters, it bore the words "Sea Stabilizing Immortal Column" in huge gold embossments, which shone in gold flickers.

Whereas towards the far end of the Dragon King Hall were nine pillars, each with a Divine Dragon motif, belonging to the nine elements respectively.

The heads of the dragons were all pointing to the same direction below, where a huge crater stood empty without a single trace of dragon blood.

An area further behind had been sealed off by a range of seamounts.

All in all, the Dragon Palace occupied a space of ten kilometers in radius. Filled with endless miracles, it boasted the utmost extravagance and radiated magnificence.

Wang Xian returned to the front of the Dragon Throne, where he stood with a stirring of exalted emotions.

This was his very own Dragon Palace, a Dragon Palace of the Divine Dragon!

The Dragon Palace has been built using merely ten thousand Spiritual Stones, along with some other materials. This is no doubt a benefit provided by the system. The ten thousand Spiritual Stones aside, the structures within the Dragon Palace would have required at least hundreds of thousands of Spiritual Stone alone.

Wang Xian thought to himself as he looked around. The construction of a Level 1 Dragon Palace was considered a benefit by the system.

That said, given that the system emphasized consistent upgrading of combat abilities through one's own means, this could also be the one and only time when it granted such a benefit.

However, Wang Xian had no clue as to the disasters which this benefit would bring him.

The construction of the Dragon Palace had sapped all energy within the surrounding area of a thousand meters in radius.

Meanwhile, along the surface of the seas, a huge island sat, surrounded by four other islands.

Surprisingly, the archipelago could not be seen from the outside, as if it had been hidden in another dimension!

In the center of the island were numerous cultivation rooms. The experts residing inside were startled when the Dragon Palace was being constructed.

Flying hurriedly out of their rooms, they suspended themselves in mid-air with heavy looks on their faces, as they stared in the direction of the Dragon Palace.

"What's that? Why does it possess such a threatening stance?" one asked.

"Such powerful energy, how terrifying. What exactly has happened? A creepy sea monster? Or a formidable treasure?" the second added.

"Or the emergence of another Ancient Clan?" the third suggested.

As the rain fell on them, it splattered off in reflex; their eyes glistened as they looked on in disbelief.

"A horrifying underwater creature, or...?" another uttered.

At the same time, within the area of a thousand miles in radius, on the floating island of the Sacred Seas of Swords, an elder balanced atop a Spiritual Sword. As he stood, he looked on in the same direction as the others with a face of utter astonishment.

They were completely shocked by the sheer force of energy!

Howl, howl, howl!

Within the same moments and parameters, the various formidable clans, each with a territory of their own, had also experienced a loss of energy while detecting the prominent Spiritual Energy which had gathered in the direction of the Dragon Palace.

To which, the creatures menaced as they growled in the seas.

With their mammoth bodies and perilous stance, the creatures dashed for the Dragon Palace underwater with icy stares.

The newly constructed Dragon Palace was about to welcome its first crisis, a huge calamity in fact.

The system had brought along a major challenge to the Dragon Palace, though assisting with its construction as a benefit.

Guarded against harm, the Dragon Palace shall remain. Failing this, the Dragon

Palace shall perish.

Chapter 362: Horrifying Creatures Besieging The Dragon Palace (2)

The vast oceans were over two times the size of the land and filled with mysteries.

The area of the Eastern Sea reached over 770,000 square meters. It was even larger than some countries.

When the Dragon Palace was established, it absorbed the spiritual energy and other energies from the surroundings that spanned a radius of a thousand meters. This attracted the attention of all the creatures in the vicinity.

Within the thousand meter radius, there was a region filled with coral reefs. It was the territory of a ginormous octopus race with huge tentacles.

From that region, a horrifying octopus that was over twenty meters long swam swiftly towards the Dragon Palace by swaying its huge tentacles.

To its left and right, there were four to five huge octopuses that were over fifteen meters long. Behind them, there were twenty-odd giant octopuses.

They were entirely red in color with huge and bright eyes. Below them, their rows of razor-sharp teeth gave off an eerie glow.

This type of ginormous octopus was also known as King Cuttlefish.

There were myths recorded about these King Cuttlefish in the history of the Western world. They were the famous Krakens who were able to easily capsize a ship.

The squadron of King Cuttlefish approached the Dragon Palace at high speed. Subconsciously, they felt that there would be treasures beneficial to them in that place.

This originated from the instincts of living creatures.

A hundred miles away from the King Cuttlefish, a group of enormous sharks were also swimming towards the Dragon Palace.

Sharks were known to be at the top of the food chain in the sea. However, great white sharks that were known to many were just small animals compared to these enormous sharks.

The shark that led the pack had a huge head that took up one-third of its entire body.

However, the most terrifying part of it was its teeth. It was incomparably large and each tooth was the size of a small child.

Its mouth was exposed and one could easily see the shreds of meat that remained between the teeth.

This shark was over eighteen meters long with a layer of thick fish scales. It constantly emanated strong barbarous and remote vibes.

Other than this huge shark, there were a dozen-odd more sharks around it.

Among which, the most attention grabbing one was a shark with a single eye. Its eye was incomparably huge and was half a meter in size.

The single eye was right above the mouth and made the shark look dreadful and eerie.

The eye was completely black as though it was the depth of the abyss.

The Cyclops Shark swam in the middle of the school with the largest Mega Teeth Shark.

To the East of the Dragon Palace, there was only a single organism swimming rapidly towards it.

However, this creature possessed horrifying wings. That's right! Those were wings! With just a slight movement, it was propelled forward by several thousand meters.

What was most dreadful about it was its size. The body was approximately thirty meters long and could match the largest creature in the seas, the blue whale.

An ancient barbarous and remote vibe emanated from this horrifying body. It appeared to be from a long time ago and possessed a terrifying aura.

The ancient creature, Pliosaurus!

The Pliosaurus wiggled its wings and dashed over two thousand meters forward. Right ahead of him, a school of tiger whales appeared suddenly.

Tiger whales were the strongest known race on Earth. They were daring enough to attack any creatures including the blue whale.

For the portion of the seas that humans knew about, they were the strongest existence.

However, when this school of tiger whales felt the horrifying aura from behind them, they immediately swam away in horror.

Crack crack crack!

However, the Pliosaurus accelerated at this instant. Its huge seven meter mouth bit onto one of these tiger whales and swallowed it whole.

Ka ka!

In another bite, it devoured another tiger whale before swimming in the direction of the Dragon Palace once again.

To the North of the Dragon Palace, creatures with huge heads and armor-like exteriors were approaching. Instead of having teeth, they had two long bony blades that extended from their jaws.

These bony blades were just like the scythes of a reaper. They were razor-sharp and could cut, tear and crush any objects.

They were the Dunkleosteus race from historical times.

Different races were swimming towards the mysterious Eastern Sea due to the appearance of the Dragon Palace.

Other than these creatures, there were also Anomalocaris that spanned two meters and had two huge front limbs. [\[1\]](#)

Over a hundred Anomalocaris were moving rapidly on the surface of the sea.

There were also huge sea pythons that were over twenty meters long. The skin of these huge sea pythons appeared incomparably tough.

There were also swordfish that were over two meters long and gave off a metallic shine. At the tip of their heads, there was a long and sharp edge that appeared extremely unique.

In addition, there was also an extremely huge blue whale that was swimming towards the Dragon Palace.

An ordinary blue whale could grow to over thirty meters long. It was the largest known creature across the land and seas. Some of these whales could even reach the size of some ships.

However, the level of this blue whale was still a long distance away from other marine races.

At this instant, Wang Xian wasn't aware that these creatures were swimming furiously towards the Dragon Palace from all directions.

He was standing within the bedroom for the Dragon King, or his personal room.

The bedroom of the Dragon Palace was situated on the main peak. It was carved out from the peak that was over two hundred meters above the bottom of the sea.

The entire bedroom was huge and spanned over two thousand square meters.

Among which, Wang Xian was most satisfied with that large bed.

As the most elite race that existed, the divine dragon had naturally witnessed countless cultures. The bedroom of the Dragon Palace would naturally have a bed.

Moreover, this bed was extremely huge, luxurious and soft.

The entire bed spanned thirty meters and was round in shape.

Other than the bed, the bedroom had almost everything other humans would require.

This greatly piqued the interest of Wang Xian.

Based on the legacy of the divine dragon, Wang Xian learnt that human-form creatures were the largest race in the entire universe. Many races and creatures could transform into human form.

Gradually, they would pick up some habits of humans!

What a big bed! This is going to be great!

Wang Xian looked at the incomparably huge bed. He sat on it and was satisfied with how soft the surface was. If this...

Wang Xian beamed. At the thought of Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue who were still above the sea's surface, he revealed a thrilled expression.

Hehe!

Wang Xian couldn't hold back his laughter. I'll bring them over tomorrow and we definitely must make the best use of this bed to have an enjoyable night!

Grr grr!

However, just at Wang Xian closed his eyes and let his imagination run wild, a roar propagated throughout the Dragon Palace.

He was taken aback.

"Dragon King, there's another marine race approaching our Dragon Palace."

At this moment, the voice of Prime Minister Turtle reached Wang Xian. Wang Xian raised an eyebrow, got up and headed towards the highest point of the main mountain peak.

At this place, there was a platform with a radius of a hundred meters. Standing there, he could overlook the entire Dragon Palace.

"Huh? That is...?"

At this instant, Prime Minister Turtle and the Dragon Palace members were standing on top of their Dragon Caves and looking in the direction of the Southern Gate of the Dragon Palace.

In the Southern direction, a huge group of King Cuttlefish were wiggling their huge tentacles as they swam towards the Dragon Palace.

Endnote:

[1] Anomalocaris was a shrimp-like organism that went extinct. Back

Chapter 363: Horrifying Creatures Besieging The Dragon Palace (3)

"What's the King Cuttlefish race doing here?" Wang Xian frowned in suspicion. He was surprised at the sight of close to thirty King Cuttlefishes at about a thousand meters away.

At the center of the school was the Level 12 King Cuttlefish, accompanied by five Level 11 at its sides, while the remaining were all Level 10 creatures.

"How timely. I couldn't obtain any Dragon Energy from the Aurora Jellyfish earlier, given that it disappeared from its body as soon as it died. With these tens of King Cuttlefishes, they'll bring me much Dragon Energy." Wang Xian smirked with temptation.

This was the Dragon Palace, the territory of the Dragon King. By battling within an area of twenty kilometers in radius around the Dragon Palace, all Dragon Palace members engaged would have their combat abilities raised by fifty percent.

Moreover, there was another advantage by battling within the grounds of the Dragon Palace, which was the speed of recovery.

Be it the recovery of energy or wounds, they would do so at a much faster rate as compared to other places.

An increase of fifty percent was already considered very high to Wang Xian.

"Go out, and kill all of them!" Wang Xian ordered with a smile. With a change of stance, he prepared himself to exit through the West Gate.

Roar, roar!

However, just as Wang Xian had begun to shift himself, a series of growls could be heard from up front at the North Gate.

The growls came consistently and frequently, sending tremors to the nearby area of tens of kilometers in radius.

This was followed by a series of massive water surges which was coming straight at the Dragon Palace.

Wang Xian frowned with a burdened look as he turned immediately to look in the direction of the North Gate.

And there they were: sharks. Schools of menacing giant sharks.

"It's the Mega-Teeth Shark race!" Wang Xian shrieked with narrowed eyes at the sight of them.

Several days ago, Wang Xian and Prime Minister Turtle had also bumped into this horrifying race of Mega-Teeth Sharks, while they were out selecting the location to construct the Dragon Palace.

Within the entire Mega-Teeth Shark race, there were two Level 12 members along with a crowd of Level 11, making them a much tougher force.

Howl, how, howl!

More groans could be heard, along with a force of terror.

To which, Wang Xian flinched as he looked hastily in the Northeast direction, where he sighted a group of close to fifty terrifying creatures.

They looked horrendous, especially with the megalodon teeth in its mouth. Its all-black body was wrapped in what seemed like body armor.

"It's...the Dunkleosteus! All of which are of the Inborn level or even higher!" Wang Xian gasped with a heavy look.

Yet, this was far from the end, as they were followed by a troupe of over a hundred Anomalocaris, each measuring two meters.

Along with twenty or more horrendous Deep-sea Pythons, as well as a school of Swordfish, each shining with a metallic sheen.

To top it off, there were even more than a thousand Level 8 to 9 Pterygotus, along with another thousand or so bizarre-looking fish.

Gradually, within ten minutes, the area was flooded by close to five thousand frightening creatures.

Each and every one emitted a horror-striking aura.

Howl, howl!

The school of brutal sharks roared as they swayed their large bodies, staring intently in the direction of the Dragon Palace.

The leading Mega-Teeth Shark and Cyclop Shark looked on with glowing eyes as though they were on fire.

They could sense that the energy which gathered here was much stronger than their territory's, which made them very pleased. Hence, they would like to make this space their own.

With a growl, the duo led the rest of their race and dived straight ahead for the Dragon Palace.

Boom!

Suddenly, as the school of sharks arrived above the Dragon Palace, they were resisted with a sheer force of defense.

Bobbing their heads, the leading Mega-Teeth Shark and Cyclop Shark glanced ahead with a confused look.

Howl, howl!

The two sharks growled again. This time, all accompanying sharks crashed ahead with the duo.

Bang, bang, bang!

That said, the defense of the Dragon Array sent them spinning in circles once more. In response, the sharks bared their jaws and stared darkly.

Besides the Mega-Teeth Shark race, the school of Dunkleosteus also came crashing using their bodies, which were as powerful as war machinery.

Tens of Dunkleosteus dived ahead, charging straight at the Dragon Palace, which resulted in successive loud crashes as they collided with the Dragon Array.

Pat, pat, pat, pat!

Loud and crisp smashes could be heard, as the giant King Cuttlefishes lashed their extended tentacles against the Dragon Array.

However, the Dragon Array merely gave off several ripples under the constant bombardment by the respective forces.

"Why have so many powerful underwater races gathered here at the Dragon Palace?" Wang Xian asked. He was puzzled by the tens of thousands of terrifying creatures which had gathered around, amongst which were about eight Level 12 combatants.

In addition, there were even more Level 11 creatures, hovering at about forty.

There were also more than a hundred Inborn level creatures.

The creatures, each with a threatening stance, were dying to enter the Dragon Palace.

Wang Xian looked on with a burdened look while the past flickered in his head.

"There was probably too much commotion during the construction of the Dragon Palace. They were likely attracted over by the two energy swirls!" Wang Xian speculated to himself, as he inhaled deeply.

"Thank goodness for the Dragon Array's protection!" he exclaimed.

The Dragon Array was able to defend against the attacks by creatures of Level 12 and below.

Hence these surrounding creatures would not be able to overcome the defense of the Dragon Array.

Unless they were able to enter through the Dragon's Gate.

That said, the Dragon's Gate was erected to help sieve out outstanding members for the sake of the Dragon Palace. One who wishes to go past the Dragon's Gate must possess extraordinary wisdom, talent and bloodline.

As for these groups of creatures, any attempts to enter through the Dragon's Gate would be immensely tough.

Howl, howl!

Another growl could be heard, just as Wang Xian heaved a small sigh of relief after checking out the surroundings.

This growl was brimming with the utmost austerity and immense compulsion.

And as the growl surged past, all surrounding creatures, including the races gathered here, trembled briefly.

A tinge of fear flashed across their eyes.

The respective races and formidable organisms turned their heads towards the east.

Earlier, there hadn't been anyone at the eastern entrance of the Dragon's Gate.

But now, a ginormous creature gradually swam its way over.

It was a truly magnificent mammoth, as it was over ten meters bigger than the largest creature which had gathered here.

Its physical size was beyond shocking along with its four giant wings. As it inched its way over briefly, it sent the surrounding waters on a violent tumble.

Like a victor which had transcended from the past, its body boasted a rustic and dull aura.

"This...", Wang Xian muttered in astonishment at the sight of the creature.

"Pliosaurus. It's a Level 13 Pliosaurus!" Wang Xian let out a low growl while his face grew heavy at the sight of the Level 13 creature.

After all, this was a Level 13 Pliosaurus.

Wang Xian was currently a Level 7 Divine Dragon. In addition, he possessed the pure bloodline of the Divine Dragon, which was touted as the apex of all bloodlines. Hence, he was able to supersede five levels during combat, in the face of ordinary creatures.

That said, a five-level transcendence would mean that Wang Xian was only able to handle a Level 12 creature. To think that a Level 13 creature had now appeared...

"How... How did it attract such a threatening presence!" Wang Xian choked in trepidation, as his gaze remained fixed on the Pliosaurus.

As the Pliosaurus flapped its wings gently, it ascended above the Dragon Palace.

It then narrowed its eyes and peered at the surrounding creatures with contempt.

Formidable as they were, even the Mega-Teeth Shark, Cyclop Shark and Dunkleosteus had a tinge of fear in their eyes.

Chapter 364: Horrifying Creatures Besieging the Dragon Palace (4)

Roar!

The Pliosaurus lifted its huge head and looked down on the entire Dragon Palace. Eventually, his gaze landed on Wang Xian.

Roar roar roar!

Excitement gleamed in the eyes of the Pliosaurus as he roared loudly.

A message was transmitted to Wang Xian.

"Devour me?"

When Wang Xian heard the Pliosaurus, he was infuriated.

He moved and transformed into a seven-meter-long divine dragon immediately.

Roar!

He let out a furious roar. Extending his mouth to the fullest, he growled, "Scram!"

Roar roar roar!

Prime Minister Turtle and the other members of the Dragon Palace growled in unison and shot cold looks at the surrounding marine races.

"Little thing, I'm going to devour you. I'll be able to evolve further after consuming you!"

The Pliosaurus lowered its head, fixed its gaze at Wang Xian and growled loudly.

The Level 13 creatures had long had its intelligence manifested. From Wang

Xian, it could feel a tremendous amount of energy.

It had the premonition that if it could devour this little thing, it would be able to evolve further. After which, it would be able to enter the broader seas.

Wang Xian's eyes lit up and his heart palpitated violently upon hearing the Pliosaurus.

Roar!

At this moment, the Pliosaurus extended one of its huge wings and slapped it on the Dragon Array.

Crack crack crack!

In just a single strike, crisp cracking sounds came from the Dragon Array. Wang Xian looked up and saw cracks appearing at the location where the Pliosaurus attacked.

These cracks were healing at a very slow pace.

However, Wang Xian was certain that if the Pliosaurus were to attack again, the Dragon Array would definitely shatter.

This won't do. The Dragon Array wouldn't be able to withstand the attacks of the Pliosaurus. Once the Dragon Array is shattered, the Dragon Palace would be destroyed and I wouldn't be able to escape!

Wang Xian's expression changed constantly. At this point, he saw the Pliosaurus moving its wing once again.

"Kill!"

A deep growl came from Wang Xian. He moved and charged out of the Dragon Palace through the Eastern Gates.

He couldn't allow the Pliosaurus to attack again. Otherwise, all of them would die.

Rumble!

A five meter blue ball of water formed before Wang Xian and was shot towards the Pliosaurus.

"Roar! Little thing, you are finally out!"

The Pliosaurus wiggled its huge wing in response to the attack from Wang Xian.

Pa!

Under the dreadful strength of the Pliosaurus, the water ball shattered instantly.

"Die!"

Wang Xian swung his dragon claws towards the wing.

"Roar! Kill!"

Behind him, Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Heavens and the crowd followed Wang Xian closely as they charged out of the Dragon Palace and attacked the Pliosaurus.

Roar!

The Pliosaurus looked in contempt as he saw Wang Xian swinging his dragon claws at it.

The Pliosaurus was almost five times the size of Wang Xian at over thirty meters long. When facing this little thing, it wasn't wary at all.

Once again, it wiggled one of its wings towards Wang Xian.

"You must be courting death!"

Seeing the contempt in the eyes of the Pliosaurus, Wang Xian underwent a transformation. His body turned golden in color as his dragon claws glowed dazzlingly.

Pliosaurus: Level 13

Extractable Dragon Energy: 21,112,344

"Break!"

The glow of the metal extended over a dozen-odd meters in an instant. This strike was the best strike Wang Xian could put up.

Prime Massacre!

The strongest strike!

Ci ci!

Roar!

The dragon claws struck the seven meter wing and spewed blood everywhere.

The entire wing was ripped off under the attack from Wang Xian.

Grrrr, grrr!

The Pliosaurus grimaced in pain. He stared furiously at the broken wing and bloodthirst filled his eyes.

"How dare you injure me! Little thing, I'm going to devour you!"

The Pliosaurus extended its other huge wing and stretched its huge head towards Wang Xian.

"Get lost!"

Wang Xian swung his giant claws from the top to bottom.

A huge five meter dragon claw left five trails of blood across the face of the Pliosaurus.

"Roar! Roar! You shall die! You shall die!"

Having been injured once again, the Pliosaurus tried to knock Wang Xian with its head.

Bam!

Wang Xian was prepared for it. The color of his body changed into that of the Earth Dragon and he used the shield of the Earth Dragon to withstand the attack.

However, the strength of the Pliosaurus was incomparably powerful. Wang Xian was knocked back several hundred meters and fresh blood oozed out from his mouth.

"How dare you injure the Dragon King! Die!"

At this instant, Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Heavens and other members of the Dragon Palace growled in unison. Huge earthy thorns with horrifying wind blades were launched towards the Pliosaurus.

Countless devilish snakes and the huge fork formed from the combined attack of the Yaksha using water streams landed heavily on the Pliosaurus.

"Ants!"

The attacks of the members of the Dragon Palace were much stronger under the 50% buff from the Dragon Palace.

Previously, if it weren't for the buff from the Dragon Palace, Wang Xian wouldn't have been able to injure the Level 13 Pliosaurus.

All the attacks from the Dragon Palace members landed on and wounded the Pliosaurus, infuriating it further.

This group of ant-like existence had actually injured the mighty Pliosaurus.

"With the buff from the Dragon Palace, we stand a chance in the battle!"

Wang Xian licked away the blood from his mouth. A cold light flashed in his eyes and he turned into the Metal Dragon once again. Carrying a powerful and sharp edge, he dashed forward.

"Assist the Dragon King!" Prime Minister Turtle shouted out loud. Members of the Dragon Palace glowed in a gold, blue, black and dullish yellow glow as they attacked in unison.

The physical body of the Pliosaurus was extremely tough. However, it was just an existence with a lowly bloodline. Moreover, it didn't have any cultivation arts.

As for the members of the Dragon Palace, they had all practiced Divine Dragon Transformation. The Devil Division practiced the Devil Dragon Transformation, Roving Lobster practiced the Metal Dragon Transformation and the Prime Minister Turtle practiced the Earth Dragon Transformation. All of them were better in close combat than the Pliosaurus.

Nonetheless, their range attacks weren't any weaker.

Countless elemental attacks exploded on the Pliosaurus.

"Alright!"

Wang Xian beamed. With the strength of all the members of the Dragon Palace, they might just be able to kill a Level 13 Pliosaurus with the assistance of the Dragon Palace.

Roar!

Wang Xian growled loudly. Revealing his razor-sharp teeth, he bit towards the Pliosaurus.

The Pliosaurus, who was defending against the attacks from the members of the Dragon Palace, instantly felt an intense pain cruising through his body.

To the right of his body, a three-meter-long wound was ripped open.

The wound was a meter deep. If it wasn't for its huge body, this strike may very well have been fatal to it.

However, a three-meter-long and one-meter-deep wound on a thirty-meter-long body wouldn't be considered too grave.

Rawr rawr!

The Pliosaurus was infuriated. It wiggled its huge tail and swept towards Wang Xian.

Swish!

Wang Xian's color changed as he turned into the Earth Dragon once again and relied on the earth shield to guard him.

Bam!

Earth Dragon had the strongest defense among all other attributes. However, Wang Xian was still knocked back and threw out blood from the impact.

Wang Xian wiped off the blood from the edge of his mouth and stared coldly at the Pliosaurus.

"Roar roar! All of you here! Kill these ants-like existences for me!"

At this moment, the Pliosaurus turned to the other creatures around him and gave his orders.

Chapter 365: Brutality and Death (1)

Wang Xian's face contorted as he heard the echoes from the Pliosaurus. He spun his head around to check his surroundings.

Meanwhile, up to five thousand terrifying creatures which formed several formidable clams surrounding Wang Xian looked on by the sides with icy stares.

But their eyes glistened at the sound of the Pliosaurus.

The leaders of each clan possessed extreme wisdom, and they could tell that this Pliosaurus, though horrifying, was no match for them.

And yet, amongst all of them, no one except the Pliosaurus was able to break through the defense up ahead, to make it inside the space which they so desired.

Howl, howl!

The Mega Teeth shark, which measured eighteen meters long, roared at its neighboring Cyclop Shark, as though the two were communicating.

Howl, howl!

Immediately after, the two giants let out another growl, before they attacked in the direction of the Dragon Palace members, including Prime Minister Turtle and Roving Heavens.

The school of Dunkleosteus hesitated as they looked on by the side. However, when they saw the Mega Teeth Shark race attack, they too joined in the fight.

As the two powerful races joined forces, the creatures of the remaining races procrastinated no further. In an instant, the looming crowd of haunting creatures sieged towards the Dragon Palace.

While two other weaker clans, namely the Swordfish, which glowed with a metallic sheen, as well as the Anomalocaris, did not join in the siege. Instead, they stared at the Dragon Palace with glistening eyes.

Given that their toughest members were but Level 11 combatants, these two races thus could not compare to the stronger Mega Teeth, Dunkleosteus and King Cuttlefish!

All Dragon Palace members, including Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Heavens, Roving Yaksha, Roving Girl and Roving Lobster, responded with a heavy look, at the sight of the formidable creatures which were coming at them from all sides.

"Kill!" Roving Heavens growled in a low pitch. As he did, he raised his rod and glared fiercely in the direction of the Dunkleosteus.

There were three Level 12 combatants amongst the school of Dunkleosteus.

Howl, howl!

Roving Yaksha roared. "Kill them!" he continued. Raising his weapon-like arm, he lashed out at the Mega Teeth Sharks with an apathetic look.

Slithering their thick bodies, the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes looked on indifferently at the bunch of Deep-Sea Pythons, of which four had made their way over to Roving Yaksha and Roving Heavens.

With a heavy look, Prime Minister Turtle landed on the seabed floor, as the surrounding crust began to tremor.

And so did Roving Lobster and Roving Girl.

"Charge!" they shouted. Right now, with no room to retreat, they could only battle it out. And it was either kill or perish.

Even though there were eight Level 12 creatures amongst the terrifying mass, Prime Minister Turtle and gang would nonetheless battle them the best they could, putting their abilities to the test. After all, they were now boosted by the energy from the Dragon Palace as well as the Divine Dragon Transformation.

Boom!

Howl, howl, howl!

The real battle would break out at any moment, as the opponents lurked. The giant sharks, each measuring over ten meters, the Deep-Sea Pythons, measuring over twenty, the King Cuttlefish as well as the school of Dunkleosteus, which all spanned over a dozen.

Every one of them was a lot larger than the Dragon Palace members.

On the other hand, the Devil Monkeys oozed a devilish aura, and at this moment their population of seven hundred did not appear to be too many.

Moreover, most of the Devil Monkeys were below the Inborn level.

"Be off and die!" Roving Heavens roared. Thereafter, his body mushroomed and grew up to about seven meters. He looked on emotionlessly, while his body blazed with devilish aura.

As he swung his metallic rod, Roving Heavens took aim before striking it at the Level 12 Dunkleosteus with no holds barred.

More than a hundred Devil Monkeys behind him leaped forward and thrust themselves onto the Dunkleosteus.

Bang!

Surprisingly, as the huge rod landed forcefully on the head of the Dunkleosteus, it clanged as though metals had crashed against each other.

The head of the fish was merely dented as it looked up at Roving Heavens with icy stares. Swaying its tail, the fish opened its mouth the widest it could before charging at Roving Heavens with frightening speed.

"Scram!" Roving Heavens scowled as he stabbed his rod towards the Dunkleosteus' mouth.

Creak!

However, in that instant, the Dunkleosteus bit into Roving Heavens' rod using its powerful Megalodon teeth.

Face sullen, Roving Heavens tried to withdraw his rod, only to discover in shock that it had been gnawed on deeply, and would not budge.

The biting force of the Dunkleosteus was no doubt unrivaled.

Howl, howl, howl!

Just then, the tribe of Devil Monkeys started to battle the tens of Dunkleosteus behind.

The sharp claws of the monkeys mauled the bodies of the fish.

As for the weaker monkeys, they could only manage several bloodied scratch marks on the fish.

Creak, creak, creak, creak!

Suddenly, with a shift in stance, several Level 11 Dunkleosteus sank their teeth into a couple of Devil Monkeys.

A clear crisp sound came crackling, as the bunch of Devil Monkeys were bitten in two.

In an instant, blood splattered everywhere, dyeing the surrounding waters crimson.

Howl, howl!

Roving Heavens snarled with a grimace, having lost several descendants in the flick of an eye. As he snapped, he let go of his rod and dived straight at the Dunkleosteus.

It was all or nothing!

Howl, howl!

The Dunkleosteus released the rod and raised its head before it started to chew at Roving Heavens' arm.

The Megalodon Teeth had barely bitten onto a small piece of Roving Heavens' arm but managed to tear off a huge chunk of flesh in the blink of an eye.

To which, Roving Heavens glared with bloodshot eyes.

Creak, creak, creak!

Howl, howl, howl!

Chilling screams and sounds of spines breaking hovered in the waters. All around, tens of weaker Devil Monkeys had perished upon the initial collision.

Only two of the Dunkleosteus had gone belly up after getting mobbed by the Devil Monkeys.

Alongside that, the Yaksha Clan too had met with a formidable opponent. Even as they joined forces, tackling the Mega Teeth Sharks remained no easy feat.

This was especially so in the case of the Cyclop Shark, which proved to be a handful. As its eyes darted shots of black Demonic Aura, it pierced right through the bodies of two Yakshas.

Blood spurted everywhere. In retaliation, Roving Yaksha howled in an angry outburst and led a group of Yakshas with their Sea Spears, before charging at the dozen or so Mega Teeth Sharks.

It was miserable, utterly anguishing.

Within a mere one minute of exchanging hands, more than a hundred Dragon Palace members had lost their lives.

This placed the Devil Division and the Dragon Guard Division at a blatant disadvantage.

The Nine Venomous Sea Snakes were the only ones with the upper hand amongst all Dragon Palace members.

With the bloodline of the Wind Divine Dragon, their combat abilities were naturally much stronger than ordinary creatures.

Their fighting skills only got better, aided by the energy boost by the Dragon Palace.

They moved quick as lightning, forming shadows as they slithered amidst the battlefield while attacking the Deep-Sea Pythons.

Boom!

Suddenly, the bodies of the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes briefly twitched while they were thrashing it out with the twenty-plus Deep-Sea Pythons.

To which, twenty of the pythons froze for a moment as they struggled. Soon after, they turned around and began sinking their fangs into their five Level 11 and 12 comrades.

[Nine Venomous Sea Snakes: Level 11]

[Art of Cultivation: Wind Dragon Transformation]

[Superpower: Ability to manipulate snake clans of Levels lower than oneself, and the ability to control the winds]

The ability to manipulate and control, as descended from its bloodline, had finally revealed its miraculous effects at this instant.

Never had two Level 12 and three Level 11 Deep-Sea Pythons ever expected to be attacked by their own underlings.

In an instant, blood spurted on all ends!

Chapter 366: Brutality and Death (2)

Sss sss sss!

The five Deep Sea Pythons were attacked by five Venomous Sea Snakes. Together with the surprise attacks from their subordinates, the bodies of these five Deep Sea Pythons were ripped apart.

Blade after blade of Wind sliced through them.

Bam!

The five horrifying Deep Sea Pythons finally met their end as they sank to the bottom of the sea.

Leading the twenty-odd remaining Deep Sea Pythons, the five Venomous Sea Snakes swam towards the Dunkleosteus race and the Mega Teeth Sharks.

The pressure on the Devil Division, which had suffered heavy losses, was finally relieved a little.

However, the battles were still extremely brutal. Devil Monkeys were falling each moment.

The Dragon Guard Division that was fighting the Mega Teeth Sharks was also facing the same predicament.

For every shark they killed, they would have to sacrifice several Patrolling Yakshas.

Below them, the King Cuttlefish race had surrounded Prime Minister Turtle.

Streams of poisonous fog had completely shrouded the Prime Minister Turtle and their horrifying tentacles had gripped tightly onto Prime Minister Turtle.

However, Prime Minister Turtle had retracted his head and limbs back into his turtle shell. He lay on the seabed and still maintained his attacks by controlling earth and using Earthy Thorns.

At the same time, he manipulated the earth below him and was digging a huge hole.

Prime Minister Turtle constantly released Earthy Thorn and his aura to suppress the King Cuttlefish.

This squadron of King Cuttlefish was infuriated. They were determined to kill Prime Minister Turtle after receiving the orders from their leader of the King Cuttlefish.

Sss sss sss!

At this moment, the three leaders of the Dunkleosteus race started noticing the number of their kind dwindling rapidly. Subsequently, they let out a furious cry.

The strange fish that had gathered around acted like they had received an order as several thousands of Level 7 and 8 strange fish charged towards the battles frantically.

They were just like piranhas that had picked up the scent of blood as they went on a rampage.

Far away from these battles, the Swordfish race that had a metallic shine and the blue Anomalocaris race retreated further.

They appeared to possess extraordinary intelligence.

Other than these two races which had not entered the battles, all the other races and horrifying creatures were killing the members of the Dragon Palace.

Fresh blood had dyed the region before the Eastern Gate of the Dragon Palace red.

Chunks of flesh and corpses were falling towards the bottom of the sea every second.

The advantage that the Dragon Palace gained from the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes had completely disappeared. Although those Level 7 and 8 creatures were relatively weaker, their numbers were far superior.

Four hundred out of the seven hundred Devil Monkeys had perished within the short time frame.

Only sixty of the hundred Patrolling Yakshas were left. Moreover, deaths were still piling up each second.

Brutality and death had descended upon this region of the sea.

Even so, not a single member of the Dragon Palace had retreated. They had disregarded death and weren't fearful of it.

Battles! Killings!

Roving Heavens was in a complete state of insanity. A Dunkleosteus had ripped a part of his flesh off of him. One could even see the bone from the wound on his arm. Despite that, he still held the metal rod tightly and attacked the Level 12 Dunkleosteus before him with even more fervor.

Roving Lobster moved away from the battle with the Dunkleosteus and started killing the Level 7 and 8 strange fish around him.

With every strike with its pincers, one of these strange fish would die. At this point, the golden surface of Roving Lobster had been dyed red.

These strange fish were too numerous. Gradually, the metal body of the Roving Lobster was being chipped away.

It was especially so behind his back. His shell was broken and his flesh was exposed.

The battle continued for another five minutes.

The surrounding sea region had been dyed red from the blood.

Two-thirds of the members of the Dragon Palace had fallen!

The bottom of the sea was now filled with the corpses of the Devil Monkeys, Patrolling Yakshas and other creatures.

Argh!

Roar roar roar!

At this moment, Wang Xian was bitten again by the Pliosaurus before the Eastern Gate. He was thrown aside and smashed heavily on the Dragon Array.

Despite turning into the Earth Divine Dragon, his body was still covered in fresh blood. Seeing the deaths of the members of the Dragon Palace around him, Wang Xian's face was flushed with anger.

His cold eyes were now filled with frenzy.

Behind Wang Xian, Roving Girl was constantly manipulating water streams to heal Wang Xian's injuries.

The blue Roving Girl was as white as chalk at this moment as she had almost exhausted all her water attribute energy.

"Stubborn ants! I'll devour you!"

The Pliosaurus glanced at the wounds on him once again as it flared up.

Within these few minutes, this ant was attacking without concerns of getting injured. When the razor-sharp dragon claws landed on its body, a deep wound would appear instantly.

And when he attacked, that ant-like existence would undergo a huge transformation and turn into tough earth. This greatly pissed him off.

"I have to kill it. Otherwise, all the members of the Dragon Palace, including me, will be dead. I have to kill it!"

Wang Xian's eyes were bloodshot. As long as he could kill the Pliosaurus, they could retreat back into the safety of the Dragon Palace.

Therefore, he attacked without concern about getting injured in the hope of returning to the Dragon Palace to recuperate after killing it.

However, the Pliosaurus was too huge. Even if it couldn't use elemental attacks, the power was still tremendous.

A swing of its tail could severely injure Wang Xian. If it bit Wang Xian, it could penetrate the scales on his body.

Rumble!

All of a sudden, a dull explosion erupted from the bottom of the sea.

Wang Xian took a quick glance and was greatly shocked.

Below them, the Prime Minister Turtle controlled the earth and created an incomparably huge hole. The next instant, he buried with him the King Cuttlefish race that he was battling.

Over twenty King Cuttlefish were buried below the seabed with the Prime Minister Turtle.

Wang Xian eyes were red with anger. He glared at the Pliosaurus, transformed into the Metal Divine Dragon and shot towards it at extreme speed.

"Kill!"

He was just like a sharp longsword. The dragon claws were like the edge of the long sword while the body of the divine dragon supported the strike.

Desperation. Wang Xian was completely desperate.

At this point, he could only risk his life to gain an opportunity to survive. Despite being covered in wounds, he still had to attack desperately.

"Dragon Spear!"

Wang Xian growled loudly and pierced towards the Pliosaurus.

"Get lost!" the Pliosaurus grunted. Its horrifying tail swept towards Wang Xian.

The tail of the Pliosaurus was over ten meters long. While sweeping rapidly through the water, it brought along unimaginable strength.

Wang Xian was bitter. He gritted his teeth, didn't stop and instead accelerated across.

Crack crack crack!

Just as Wang Xian was about to risk his life to clash with the Pliosaurus, the surface of the seabed suddenly cracked.

Prime Minister Turtle spun upwards and crashed into the tail of the Pliosaurus.

Rumble!

Horrifying collision sounds propagated throughout the vicinity.

"Dragon King, kill it!"

A weak voice resounded. Wang Xian looked over and was desolated to see the shell of Prime Minister Turtle cracking at a rapid pace.

Bright red blood instantly dyed its huge dullish yellow body.

Prime Minister Turtle looked at Wang Xian as its body was swept away.

The tail of the Pliosaurus had been stopped after Prime Minister Turtle gave up his life.

Tears of blood oozed out of Wang Xian's eyes. Burning through the dragon energy in his body, the metal shine of his body glowed even stronger as he accelerated towards the Pliosaurus.

"You are just an ant! Die now!"

The Pliosaurus wasn't concerned that his tail had been stopped. It extended its seven meter mouth and revealed rows of razor-sharp teeth as it tried to bite towards Wang Xian's dragon head.

"Dragon King, I'll stop its attack!"

Suddenly, Wang Xian heard a fatigued but pleasing voice. Following which, he saw a sea clam flying towards the mouth of the Pliosaurus.

The sea clam enlarged to four meters while ascending before landing in the middle of the Pliosaurus' mouth.

Ka ka!

The Pliosaurus bit onto the shell of the Roving Girl. It was taken aback slightly but soon crushed down with all its might.

The clamshell cracked slowly.

The Roving Girl had bought less than a second for Wang Xian.

"I'm going to kill you and devour you!"

In this split second, Wang Xian flashed across like a golden ray of light. His dragon energy had now been completely exhausted.

Bam!

Wang Xian pierced the body of the Pliosaurus like a sword.

However, he was only able to pierce two meters into the horrifying defense of the Pliosaurus and this wasn't fatal.

Luckily, Wang Xian's head was now within the body of the Pliosaurus.

He opened his huge mouth and started devouring the flesh and blood of the Pliosaurus from inside.

Argh! Argh! Argh!

The Pliosaurus grimaced in pain. It spat out the crushed clamshell, extended its huge mouth and bit onto Wang Xian's tail.

At that instant, Wang Xian felt as though his dragon tail had been ripped off of him.

Despite that, he had forgotten the pain in his body, as he was entirely focused on devouring the flesh and blood of the Pliosaurus.

The location Wang Xian attacked was none other than the throat of the Pliosaurus.

He struggled to devour all the flesh and blood and didn't stop for a single instant.

Rawr rawr!

The Pliosaurus cried out in pain. Soon, it lost the strength to hold onto Wang Xian and its voice was softening slowly.

Wang Xian could vaguely hear the screams of Roving Lobster, Roving Heavens and the pitiful cries of the Devil Monkeys.

The King of the Devil Monkey had fallen.

He could hear the gruesome screams of the Yakshas and the sorrow of Roving Yaksha.

Wang Xian's eyes had turned red from anger. He was still devouring frantically. He wanted to completely consume the Pliosaurus as revenge for Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Girl, Roving Heavens and all his subordinates.

The sea before the Eastern Gate of the Dragon Palace had been completely dyed red with blood. The seawater had now become blood.

At this instant, within the Dragon Palace.

On the Progenitor Tree behind the Dragon Throne, the Soul Returning Branch was emanating greyish energy.

In front of the Eastern Gate, the corpses of Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Girl, Roving Lobster, Roving Heavens, Roving Yaksha and members of the Devil Division and Dragon Guard Division flew towards the Progenitor Tree within the Dragon Palace as blurry and greyish shadows.

At the same time, the heads of the nine elemental divine dragon statues around the Dragon Transformation Pool had lit up suddenly.

Before the Eastern Gate of the Dragon Palace, the flesh and blood that harbored dense energy slowly fused into the seabed.

Streams of dragon blood started flowing into the Dragon Transformation Pool from the heads of the nine divine dragon statues.

Chapter 367: Levelling Up And Revival (1)

Aw, aw!

Tsk, tsk, tsk!

Blood-curdling screams resonated throughout the vast seabed. As they did, mammoth carcasses sprawled all over outside the majestic Eastern Gate of the Dragon Palace.

Carcasses of menacing sharks and Dunkleosteus, each over a dozen meters, as well as Deep-sea Pythons stretching close to twenty meters.

But, given their huge physicality, they continued to emit a sheer force of terror even as their now fragmented bodies lay dead on the seabed.

At the same time, their bodies began to dissolve into the seabed bit by bit before vanishing altogether eerily.

Within the area, the strong metallic stench which ran with the blood drifted amidst the waters, before heading towards the Dragon Palace.

The phenomenon was overlooked by Wang Xian, while the only remaining members of the Dragon Palace, the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes, had not noticed it either.

Meanwhile, the battle was yet to be over, as the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes were battling it out with the remaining few Dunkleosteus and Cyclop Shark, aided by the five Deep-Sea Pythons.

At the Eastern entrance of the Dragon Palace, these dozen or so creatures were the only survivors left, while the rest had all perished within the territorial waters.

While the only surviving Nine Venomous Sea Snakes were already bloodied and battered, they still moved at unrivaled speeds and possessed telepathy. Time and again, they managed to dodge the killings thanks to their joined forces.

Howl, howl, howl!

Growling, the remaining Dunkleosteus and Cyclop Shark looked on with fear in their eyes. Since the battle and killings, they were the only survivors of their clan.

As of now, they had lost all ferocity. As they looked at the countless carcasses which were either suspended amidst the waters or lying motionless on the seabed, they intended to run away.

But savagery had been forced out of the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes from the fight, as they rounded up the last of their enemies with bloodthirst in their eyes, vowing to get rid of them.

In revenge for their comrades' death...

Dub-dub, dub-dub!

At a side, the mammoth Pliosaurus which spanned over thirty meters sprawled across the floor motionless, with only the area above its heart still bobbing.

On its head was a large appendage which continued moving about.

The gold appendage had many teeth on it and was on the verge of breaking into several smaller pieces.

Barely hanging, the appendage was merely attached with a dangling bit of skeleton.

The appendage was being tucked and dragged inwards into the Pliosaurus' body.

Wang Xian's body was completely within the Pliosaurus' carcass. He was currently surrounded by a pool of blood, and could not make out anything else around him.

All that he could manage now was to devour instinctively.

In one bite, Wang Xian had engulfed about four to five hundred catty worth of flesh. Bite after bite he chewed, without the slightest pause.

Howl, howl!

Outside of the carcass rang the chilling screams of the Dunkleosteus and Cyclop Shark, before the last of their corpses flopped onto the seabed with a loud thud.

The Nine Venomous Sea Snakes were overwhelmed with fatigue as they swam towards each other and licked the wounds of their buddies before looking around at their surroundings.

One of the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes glided over to the carcass of Prime Minister Turtle. It circled around the corpse before gently bumping its head with its body.

Swish!

The carcass of Prime Minister Turtle began to disintegrate. Eerily, its sturdy shell dissolved slowly into ashes, before the entire body completely vanished.

The rest of the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes swam over to the bodies of Roving Heavens and Roving Yaksha and looked on.

They watched as their bodies made their spooky disappearance.

Finally, the exhausted Nine Venomous Sea Snakes glanced over in the direction of the Pliosaurus' carcass, where their King was also at.

Sensing Wang Xian's physical state, the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes glided over steadily and lay around the giant carcass. Thereafter, they peered about their surroundings.

Beyond the Dragon Palace's parameters were two remaining races.

Namely the Anomalocaris at the Southern Gate and the Swordfish at the Northern Gate.

All in all, the two races totaled over three hundred members. They looked on in trepidation at the harrowing sight of the battlefield.

The Anomalocaris, each a length of two meters, had two walking legs which were flashing with occasional flickers of lightning bolts, as they grew along their all-blue bodies.

The Swordfish, each measuring between two to three meters, had a meter-long sharp thorn growing on each of their bodies.

The creatures gazed at the Eastern Gate, which was now thronging with carcasses. Swaying their bodies along gently, the creatures eventually set their sights on the Dragon Palace.

They stared intently at the entrance of the Northern and Southern Gates. As their race leaders succumbed to temptation, they charged towards the gates.

Their hearts were yearning with a burning desire.

Bam, bam, bam!

The troops of the Anomalocaris and Swordfish surged forth at frightening speeds. However, as they arrived beneath the Dragon's Gate, they felt as though they were being sucked into a marsh, making it hard for them to enter the premises.

That said, this was different from their attempt earlier via another spot. They had tried diving into the Palace by descending from above but were repelled as though they had collided with a solid mountain.

As a result, it sent the Anomalocaris and Swordfishes to violently writhe before they tried to burrow their way in.

Blop!

Alas, one of the Swordfishes had managed its way into the Dragon Palace. Dumbfounded, the fish tried to grasp hold of the Energy within the Dragon Palace with excitement.

Following which, it spun its head over while waving its tail to its other members, sending message after message.

This sent the Swordfish clan into a swirl of exhilaration, as they burrowed furiously, in a desperate attempt to get in.

The same went for the Anomalocaris at the Southern Gate. As one member finally managed its way in, the rest followed along and poured in frantically.

[Ding! Consumption of the Pliosaurus. 21,112,344 Dragon Energy extracted!]

[Ding! Level ascension. Upgrading into Level 8 Five Elements Divine Dragon!]

Right then, just outside of the Eastern Gate, the ginormous carcass which was once the Pliosaurus had now disappeared. As Wang Xian devoured the tail of the carcass, he heard the update from the system before he eventually flopped onto the floor.

"Woohoo!" he cheered. At last, he had devoured the entire body.

Just then, Wang Xian felt excruciating pain all over his body. The pain seared on as if tugging at his heart, to the point where he thought his tail had disappeared.

As he calmed his heart, he tried to make a mental assessment of his physical condition.

"This...," he uttered with a bitter smile. He looked at his battered and bruised body, while his insides were covered in wounds.

The injuries were especially severe at his tail region, where the appendage had almost split open entirely.

He flinched briefly, as the piercing agony caused him to inhale one cold breath.

This was the first time Wang Xian had been bashed up so badly since becoming the Divine Dragon.

"Thank goodness I've upgraded!" Wang Xian exclaimed in relief.

[Name: Wang Xian]

[Race: Five Element Divine Dragon (Able to transform into a human)]

[Level: 8]

[Dragon Energy: 22,563, 21 / 100 000,000]

[Superpower: Rule over the Marine animals (but only those of lower grade than itself), Ability to devour (for Dragon Energy extraction), and Control over the Five Elements]

[Art of Cultivation: Divine Dragon Transformation]

Upon hearing the updates of his current attributes, Wang Xian heaved a sigh of utter relief. As he willed it in his heart, the Dragon Energy within his body started to circulate before it began to heal his wounds.

"Eh? The Dragon Energy's depleting so quickly!" Wang Xian yelped in shock. As his body underwent healing and restoration, the Dragon Energy was being exhausted by the hundreds of thousands.

"Tsk, why is the usage so exhaustive!" Wang Xian complained.

[Your body is in utter ruin. Complete restoration would require five million Dragon Energy!]

At the same moment, the voice from the system explained, which made Wang Xian gasp. Five million, and even the ascension to Level 7 only took ten million.

[The Divine Dragon possesses formidable powers in self-restoration. You may opt to heal naturally on your own, where your body will be restored in a month's time]

The voice from the system elaborated. Wang Xian hesitated for a moment before he paused the restoration process in his body after some brief fixes.

He was somewhat unwilling to part with five million Dragon Energy. After all, he still lacked more than seventy million Dragon Energy for his ascension to Level 9!

Chapter 368: Levelling Up And Revival (2)

"Ahh... I'm finally feeling better after exhausting a million points of dragon energy!"

Wang Xian returned to his human form and stood up gradually on the seabed.

"Dragon King!"

The Nine Venomous Sea Snakes turned around and greeted him deferentially.

Hmm!

Wang Xian looked around him. When he realized only the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes were still alive, he couldn't help but feel sorrow welling up inside him.

He looked further and was shocked to see the surrounding seawater to be in a beautiful shade of blue. There weren't any corpses around or the scent of blood. It was as though the brutal battle previously had not happened at all.

Wang Xian's eyebrows knitted together as he asked, "What happened? Where are Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Girl, Roving Lobster and the others?"

"Dragon King, they have all disappeared. All their corpses fused into the seabed and all the blood flowed in the direction of the Dragon Palace!" one of the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes answered.

"Huh? They disappeared? All the blood flowed towards the Dragon Palace?"

Wang Xian was puzzled and looked in the direction of the Dragon Palace.

"Let's go back!"

Wang Xian headed in the direction of the Dragon Palace. His injuries made him feel extremely weak. Although his level had increased to Level 8, his strength level was similar to where he was before. In fact, he might just be a little weaker than before.

He would require a month of recuperation in order to slowly recover his strength.

"There are still other living creatures?"

When Wang Xian arrived at the Eastern Gate of the Dragon Palace, he was surprised to see two other races of creatures.

He squinted his eyes and a cold light flashed in his eyes.

"Huh? The swordfish race and the Anomalocaris race have entered the Dragon Palace?"

Wang Xian was surprised.

It wasn't easy for a marine creature to leap through the dragon gate. Based on Wang Xian's conjecture, those who could make it past the dragon gate would likely possess tremendous potential.

Divine dragons were creatures with the most elite tier of bloodlines. Their criteria for choosing the members of the Dragon Palace would be highly stringent. Talent, bloodline, intelligence and willpower. None of this could be missing.

Without exaggeration, those who could make it past the dragon gate would all have a high chance of becoming an existence that ranked among the most elite echelons of the universe.

It was beyond Wang Xian's expectation that almost half of the Anomalocaris and Swordfish races had made it into the Dragon Palace.

Wang Xian's eyes beamed. After entering the Dragon Palace and looking across the Anomalocaris and Swordfish race, he waved his arm. Dense streams of dragon energy entered the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes, completely healing their injuries.

"When all of them are in, control them!" Wang Xian ordered the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes. After which, he looked in the direction of the Dragon King Hall.

He moved and headed towards it at a speed half as fast as before.

When he arrived at the Dragon King Hall, he looked curiously at the Progenitor Tree behind the Dragon Throne.

At this point, the Soul Returning Branch on the Progenitor Tree was glowing in an eerie greyish light. On this branch, grey flowers had grown.

The grey flowers were extremely small and covered the entire branch.

Agitation welled up in Wang Xian. He immediately jumped onto the Dragon Throne and looked at the grey flowers in anticipation.

[Soul Returning Flower: Level 12

Each petal represents a soul. Reforge the body and one shall be revived! ]

A message surfaced in Wang Xian's mind. Wang Xian was taken aback but soon got excited.

Reforge the body and one shall be revived... This... Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Girl, Roving Lobster and the others can still be revived!

Wang Xian was shivering in excitement.

"Soul Returning is indeed an insane ability! Who would have thought it could revive the dead?"

"I must definitely revive the Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Girl, Roving Lobster and the others as soon as possible!"

At the thought that Roving Girl, Roving Lobster and the others had died for him, Wang Xian became overwhelmed with guilt. They were his subordinates, his most loyal subordinates!

Whoosh!

At this instant, Wang Xian could vaguely hear the sounds of flowing water.

He looked across and realized that a small pool of dragon blood had filled the Dragon Transformation Pool.

The blood red dragon blood was giving off a faint aroma. Wang Xian jumped and arrived at the edge of the Dragon Transformation Pool.

"This is...?"

Wang Xian opened his eyes widely and stared at the Dragon Transformation Pool.

The Dragon Transformation Pool spanned twenty meters and reached a depth of thirty meters.

At this point, the Dragon Transformation Pool was approximately 5% full. Within this pool of dragon blood, there were drops of highly distinguishable golden blood.

These drops of golden blood were in the shape of a turtle, lobster, Devil Monkeys and others.

There were roughly seven hundred of these drops of golden blood. They were immersed in the blood pool and seemed to be in a state of suspension.

"This is the essence blood I injected into Prime Minister Turtle, Roving Girl, Roving Lobster and others. Now that they have been absorbed by the Dragon Transformation Pool, they were not dissolved. Instead, they are feeding off of the other dragon blood!"

Wang Xian's eyes lit up and he was ecstatic. He went over to the Progenitor Tree and plucked out all the flowers on the Soul Returning Branch.

Based on the soul on the Soul Returning Flowers, he placed them onto the corresponding drop of golden blood.

Bzz bzz!

The dragon essence blood emitted light of all colors. From the essence blood of Prime Minister Turtle, it gave off a dullish yellow glow and an image of a turtle flashed past quickly.

From the essence blood of the clam girl, it gave off a blue light and, similarly, the image of a blue clam girl flashed across.

Roving Lobster's essence blood...

[Would you like to grow and nurture the dragon species?]

At this moment, the voice of the system sounded.

"Grow and nurture!" Wang Xian agreed immediately.

[Growing and nurturing the dragon species would require twenty days!]

The voice of the system responded again. Wang Xian revealed a faint smile. After twenty days, Prime Minister Turtle and the rest would be revived!

Wang Xian looked at the Dragon Pool and the nine divine dragon statues around the pool.

Luckily, he'd gotten his hands on the Progenitor Tree and Soul Returning Branch previously. It was also luck that there was something like the Dragon Transformation Pool.

Otherwise, Prime Minister Turtle and the rest would have really died.

"Although it was a brutal battle, the outcome was still acceptable!"

Wang Xian heaved a sigh of relief.

He dragged his fatigued body towards the bedroom of the Dragon King. He was too tired and exhausted.

When he lay on the incomparably huge bed, Wang Xian instantly fell asleep.

At this very moment, he wasn't aware how anxious Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue and Sun Lingxiu were above the sea surface. In fact, they were a little petrified as they stood on the deck of the yacht and looked into the sea.

There was a storm on the surface. As the raindrops fell onto the yacht, large sounds that resembled ripened nuts falling on a metal sheet resounded.

The three girls didn't care about their safety as they attempted to stare into the depths of the sea.

"No. I want to take a look down there. I want to take a look down there!"

Guan Shuqing shook her head and spoke with a flustered expression. She wasn't concerned about getting drenched by the rain. Her eyes were red but filled with resolve.

"Shuqing, I'll go with you. Xiao Xian will be fine. He will definitely be fine!"

Lan Qingyue gritted her teeth and held tightly to the arm of Guan Shuqing.

"Young ladies, young master isn't in any danger now. Please wait here!"

Behind them, Mo Qinglong, who was steering yacht, tried to dissuade them.

Chapter 369: Blue Whale

After the massive and powerful race siege against Wang Xian, the terrifying oppression and the aftermath of the battle had risen to the sea surface.

Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing, who were in deep sleep, were awakened immediately.

They called out to Wang Xian, but they never found him. Out of panic, they got Sun Lingxiu, and Mo Qinglong, who heard their commotions, walked out.

Mo Qinglong and Sun Lingxiu knew what Wang Xian was doing under the sea. As the terrifying impetus, oppression, and roarings came from the sea, they were all aghast.

However, they sensed that Wang Xian was safe.

After a long time, Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue could not stand still. The screams and bellows coming from the deep abyss of the sea were too horrifying.

The two girls were wearing anxiety all over their faces. As time passed, they were overwhelmed with panic!

Even Sun Lingxiu at the side could not remain calm. She looked towards the bottom of the sea with trepidation, ignoring the pouring rain from the sky.

Rumble!

At this time, a bolt of lightning flashed across the sky, bringing a glimmer of light to the darkness in the ocean.

Boom boom!

"That is...?"

At this time, a horrifying shadow showed up before the four of them. The gigantic shadow was more than 30 meters long.

It was domineering.

"It's an ocean monster. Xiao Xian must be in danger now!"

Upon seeing the appalling figure diving into the sea, Guan Shuqing exclaimed in anxiety and fear. Tears rolled down her cheek immediately.

"Don't worry, that's only a blue whale. It may look huge, but an Inborn Expert can just kill it!" Mo Qinglong explained from the side.

"No way, I want to have a look. I must enter the sea!"

"Me too!"

As Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue spoke, they looked at the pitch-black sea with consternation, striding slowly towards it.

"I'll go with you girls!" said Sun Lingxiu to them. This time, Sun Lingxiu did not halt them.

Mo Qinglong was frowning at the side as he knew he could not stop them either.

"Come with me!"

Mo Qinglong made a swift move and jumped into the sea directly.

Without the slightest hesitation, the girls followed suit and leaped into the sea.

Sensing the whereabouts of Wang Xian, Mo Qinglong swam rapidly towards him.

The ocean was rather deep, and this was the first time these three girls had entered such an appalling ocean. But fear had not taken over them as they only felt worry for someone else.

As they dived rapidly to the bottom of the sea, the slightly weaker Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing almost could not cope when they were a thousand meters below the sea.

Sun Lingxiu, on their side, waved her hand, wrapping them with her Light Energy.

For one who was practicing Light Divine Dragon Transformation like Sun Lingxiu, the ocean was no different from land.

Gulp!

Just then, they saw that gigantic blue whale and swam deeper to the bottom of the sea.

"There's light over there!"

After diving another two to three hundred meters deeper, the group of them stared with their wide-open eyes. They were shocked by what they saw at the bottom of the sea.

"That's a Dragon Palace!"

Excitement flashed in Mo Qinglong's eyes as he fervently looked below. That was his sacred ground.

"Dragon Palace!"

Both Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing were surprised as they turned to look at Mo Qinglong.

"Xiao Xian obtained a Divine Dragon heritage. This is the Dragon Palace that he built underwater. He brought us here to let us visit the Dragon Palace!"

With a pair of glistening eyes, Sun Lingxiu stared at the Dragon Palace below as she explained slowly to Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing.

Lastly, she added, "Xiao Xian wanted to give you two a surprise!"

Both Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing were overwhelmed as they stared dumbfoundedly at the miraculous Dragon Palace in the sea.

The entire Dragon Palace was extravagant, spectacular, and towering, so much so that no other buildings in the world could compare to it.

It was bright within the Palace with all kinds of glowing corals.

There were huge mountains with columns, giving off a golden radiance.

All these struck a deep impression on them.

They swam downwards above the Dragon Array, but they ended up knocking themselves against it.

They were taken by surprise as they touched the array.

Ssss!

At this time, a venomous sea snake sensed something and looked over at Mo Qinglong and Sun Lingxiu. The snake felt a similar aura from them.

"Is the Dragon King around?" Mo Qinglong asked that venomous sea snake directly.

Since they shared the same Divine Dragon bloodline, communication was not a problem.

Ssss!

That venomous sea snake rolled its tongue and reported to the Dragon King Hall after some hesitation.

"That is...? What was that?"

Guan Shuqing stared at the horrifying-looking venomous sea snake and asked this while gaping.

Whatever had unfolded before her was too shocking for her to speak.

"One of the members of the Dragon Palace!" Mo Qinglong answered.

"Dragon King, there are two humans with Divine Dragon bloodline outside."

When Wang Xian was sleeping soundly, the voice of a venomous sea snake came through the Royal Residence Hall.

He patted his muzzy head. "Two humans?"

"Dragon King, it's four humans," the venomous sea snake replied.

"Four?"

Wang Xian froze for a moment, but he quickly thought of Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing. In a swift movement, he darted out.

Wang Xian saw the gang as soon as he walked out of his bedroom.

Making a rapid move, Wang Xian swam towards them.

He peered at the Southern Gate and Northern Gate and spotted eight venomous sea snakes crouching not far away from him. They were staring coldly at the two races.

The two race leaders seemed to be having a conversation with them.

Wang Xian did not have the energy to care about it. He showed up before the girls after walking out of the Western Gate.

"Xiao Xian, you frightened us!"

When the two girls saw him coming over, their eyes were red as tears could not stop flowing down their cheeks. They immediately sprang on him.

Cough, cough!

"I'm fine!"

Wang Xian felt pain all over his body with the knock as he quickly assured them.

"Xiao Xian, are you all right?"

Upon hearing his severe cough, Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue were worried as they looked at him.

"I'm fine. I sustained minor injuries just now. I'll be all right after a recuperation!"

Wang Xian shook his head.

"Hur?"

Sun Lingxiu quickly paced to Wang Xian, and a beam of light entered his body.

"You call these minor injuries?" Sun Lingxiu had a change in her look as beams of Light Energy were cast into Wang Xian's body.

"It's nothing. I'll recover after a month of rest!"

Wang Xian shook his head and threw them an assuring smile. "I wanted to give you two a surprise. Little did I expect some other circumstances to occur. Sorry to make you worry. I'll show you around my Dragon Palace!"

Wang Xian spoke with a smile as he held the hands of the two girls.

"Xiao Xian, are you really all right?" the two girls asked with concern again.

"Yes, look at me. I can fly, I can jump. Do I look like something is wrong with me?"

Wang Xian beamed to them and pulled them towards the Dragon Palace.

Chapter 370: Female Dragon Riders

After leading Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue and the rest into the Dragon Palace, Wang Xian looked at the huge blue whale above him. However, he wasn't too concerned about it.

The blue whale was just a large creature. Its attacking capacity was very weak and it wasn't even in the Inborn Realm.

"The Dragon Palace has four entrances. The Eastern Gate, Western Gate, Southern Gate and Northern Gate. What do you guys think? Aren't the dragon gates majestic?"

Wang Xian smiled and introduced the place to Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue and the rest.

"It feels like we are entering the giants' world. All the structures here are so huge!"

As the girls entered the Dragon Palace, they wrapped their arms around Wang Xian and were dumbfounded by what they were seeing.

Each pillar was at least fifty to sixty meters tall. Some were even over a hundred meters tall.

On both sides, there were majestic mountains. Each step was over half a meter tall.

The path of the Dragon Palace was extremely broad. All these things were new to the girls and they were observing their surroundings carefully.

While the group looked on in awe, Wang Xian stayed by the side and maintained a gentle smile. After walking for ten minutes, they arrived at the Dragon King Hall.

"This is the Dragon King Hall and that's the Dragon Throne. The two rows by the side are for the officials of the Dragon Palace!"

"Dragon Throne!"

"Oh gosh! What a huge Dragon Throne!"

This golden column is really huge. It must be the Sea Stabilizing Immortal Column! Oh gosh! This must be the Sea Stabilizing Immortal Column in the legends!"

"Every engraving of the divine dragon looks so vivid. It is as though they could come alive at any moment!"

Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue pointed at different areas as they exclaimed.

"Behind the throne is the Sea Stabilizing Immortal Column and Dragon Transformation Pool. If one undergoes baptism in the Dragon Transformation Pool, he receives the bloodline of the divine dragon and could evolve into a dragon in the future." Wang Xian continued his introduction.

"Can one really turn into a dragon?" Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue stared at him and asked inquisitively.

"Yeah, it's possible!" Wang Xian nodded his head and continued, "Let's go. I'll bring you guys to the highest point to see the entire Dragon Palace!"

Wang Xian moved and a stream of water surrounded them and brought them to the peak rapidly. Pointing forward, he said jokingly, "Look! This is the empire I have conquered for you!"

Looking down at the entire Dragon Palace, the group was even more in awe.

This place was just like a place of miracles! The sacred ground that only existed in legends!

"Xiao Xian, it's better if you take a break to recuperate!" After looking around for some time, Sun Lingxiu reminded him of this.

"I'm fine. The injuries will heal gradually!" Wang Xian shook his head.

"Where are your wounds? Let us take a look!" asked Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue caringly.

"Uhm... Let's go! I'll bring you guys to the last place! My bedroom!"

Wang Xian chuckled. Moving again, he brought them to his bedroom below.

When Mo Qinglong heard that it was the bedroom of the Dragon King, he didn't follow. Therefore, he continued observing the entire Dragon Palace!

"Wow! What a huge room!"

When they entered, Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue were shocked by how big the bedroom was. The bedroom was over a thousand square meters with incomparably luxurious decorations.

It was especially so for the middle of the room. There was a huge bed that spanned fifty meters. This could very well make it to the Guinness World Records.

"What a huge bed! Why is it so big?"

The three girls were dumbfounded.

Wang Xian chuckled, jumped and landed on the bed. The soft bed was exceptionally comfortable.

"Oh right! Xiao Xian, how did you get yourself injured. Are your injuries serious? Let us take a look!"

Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue walked over and asked caringly.

"Although the injuries are serious, I'll be able to make a full recovery in a month or so," Wang Xian replied with a laugh.

"Let us take a look!" Guan Shuqing kneeled on the bed and pouted. "You don't know how worried we are!"

"Uhm, alright!" Wang Xian hesitated for a while before releasing his top.

His clothes were made from water streams. Therefore, they disappeared with just a thought.

Sun Lingxiu, who was standing by the side, blushed in embarrassment. She took a glance at Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue before heading out.

With the top gone, the wounds on Wang Xian were revealed. Those wounds were still bright red and looked a little horrifying.

Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue gasped and expressed their concerns. "Xiao Xian, does it hurt?"

"It's still alright!" Wang Xian chuckled. He wasn't willing to expend a huge amount of dragon energy to heal his injuries and therefore he still had lots of wounds on him.

Moreover, they looked extremely serious.

"Are there other wounds?" Guan Shuqing tapped lightly on the wounds of Wang Xian, frowning as she asked.

"I have some injuries on my legs too!" Wang Xian chuckled, rolled his eyes and the pants that were formed from the water disappeared, leaving only underwear.

"This..."

The wounds on Wang Xian's legs were even more serious. The two girls tapped lightly on the wounds while shivering slightly in fear.

A sizzling and numbing sensation cruised through him and aroused Wang Xian.

Pop!

At this instant, the underwear that was formed from the water was poked through by something.

Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue were taken by surprise. Soon, their faces were blushing in embarrassment.

Wang Xian looked at them kneeling on the bed. Those alluring figures... He could no longer hold himself back.

He didn't seem to have noticed that something had popped out.

"Argh, I'm hurting. I need treatment!" Wang Xian growled softly.

"Huh?"

The two girls were surprised. They shifted their gazes away and asked, "What happened, Xiao Xian? Where are you hurting?"

"I have a treatment method!"

Wang Xian continued mumbling and started his explanation.

The treatment method required the cordial combination of Yin and Yang and neutralizing the desires of one.

Wang Xian held the hands of the girls and was constantly luring and acting pitifully.

Perhaps it was because Wang Xian was injured. Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue eventually became noble dragon riders.

Real female dragon riders!

Wang Xian was exhilarated to do so with Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing at the same time on the lare, fifty meter bed.

Despite being the proud and noble divine dragon, he didn't feel aggrieved after being ridden. All he hoped for was more instances of such experiences.

After two hours, the three of them slept on the bed.

When Wang Xian woke up, the two girls were already awake and were wearing their clothes

When they saw Wang Xian opening his eyes, they gave him a harsh stare.

Wang Xian chuckled and pulled Lan Qingyue over. "Qingyue, let your hubby give you a present!"

"What's the present? Don't be so touchy!" Lan Qingyue said in a coquettish tone as she fell on the soft bed and covered her body.

"It's really a present and not the billions I gave you last night!"

Wang Xian smiled bitterly. Waving his hand, the drop of Essence Soul from the cabinet beside the bed flew towards him.

"What's this?"

Lan Qingyue turned over. Seeing that it wasn't the billions that he'd given her the previous night, she heaved a sigh of relief and looked over.

Guan Shuqing also stared curiously at the Essence Soul which harbored incredible energy.

"This is an Inheritance from the Ancient God Kun Breeder, a powerful race!" explained Wang Xian plainly.

Chapter 371: Goddess Kun Breeder

"Inheritance? From Ancient God Kun Breeder? What's that?" asked Lan Qingyue to Wang Xian with surprise.

"Take it, and you'll know!"

Wang Xian chuckled. "Shuqing possesses the fire-elemental talent in her cultivation because she has the Suzaku Blood Essence. Towards the later stage of her cultivation, she can evolve into one of the great races in this universe - Suzaku! This Ancient God Kun Breeder's inheritance is as good as Suzaku!"

"Suzaku? Ancient God Kun Breeder?"

Lan Qingyue was filled with disbelief. She did not know about Ancient God Kun Breeder, but she knew about Suzaku. That was the most powerful Divine Beast among the myths, the legendary Phoenix!

"Blood essence of Suzaku?"

Guan Shuqing was taken by surprise. Wang Xian did not shed light on the Blood Essence of Suzaku to her.

But when she thought of the mighty and domineering Phoenix she sometimes dreamt of, all her doubts were finally answered.

"So I have the Blood Essence of Suzaku. No wonder I've noticed I have the natural ability to control fires ever since...that time. I don't even feel the pain when boiling water is spilled on me. My cultivation speed is breakneck. Even Master told me that I'm a rare genius in cultivation!" Guan Shuqing said, enlightened.

"This is the effect of the Blood Essence of Suzaku. It is most likely because you obtained the Inheritance of Suzaku that your strength is boosted." Wang Xian was uncertain as he spoke.

Guan Shuqing had absorbed the Blood Essence of Suzaku. Still, he was unsure if she had obtained the Inheritance of Suzaku.

However, Lan Qingyue would get the Inheritance of Ancient God Kun Breeder after she absorbed the Essence Soul. She would learn all the secrets about the Art of Cultivation from the Ancient God Race!

"Mm!"

Lan Qingyue took the Essence Soul of Ancient God Kun Breeder from Wang Xian and popped it into her mouth.

As the Essence Soul entered her body, immense energy was exuded from her body.

A bout of quaint, dignified, vintage aura slowly dispersed to the surroundings from her body.

With a thought, Lan Qingyue sat on the bed with her legs crossed as she accepted the Inheritance of Ancient God Kun Breeder.

"Her strength is rapidly improving. Within seconds, she has attained Half-step to Inborn Realm. If she possesses the entire inheritance, her strength can hit Level 11!"

Wang Xian was also shocked as he observed the increasing power of Lan Qingyue.

A drop of almost-diminishing Blood Essence, yet, contained such domineering energy. No doubt, the Ancient God Clan was powerful. That was why supreme-class races and clans had to join hands in wiping them out.

"Let's go. We shall leave Qingyue alone!" Wang Xian climbed out from his bed and whispered to Guan Shuqing.

"Mm!"

When they walked out of the bedroom, Sun Lingxiu threw a beaming face as she stared at Wang Xian and Guan Shuqing.

"Xiao Xian, you better pay attention to your health!"

"Hur?" Wang Xian was slightly stunned as Sun Lingxiu sounded as if she intended more than what she said.

"Mm." He smiled. He did not have to move, so there was absolutely no problem.

"Dragon King, the Anomalocaris, and Swordfish races are willing to join the Dragon Palace!"

At this time, a Venomous Sea Snake swam over to Wang Xian and reported respectfully.

"Did they agree to join?"

A trace of happiness was exhibited on Wang Xian's face. He quickly asked, "Have they all jumped over the Dragon Gate?"

"Yes, all of them did. So we gave them two choices. Either we kill them, or they join the Dragon Sect. They chose the latter!"

The voice of the Venomous Sea Snake continued to be heard.

Wang Xian giggled. During the battle, he had already taken notice of those two strange races.

From their eyes, he could see intelligent radiance.

Moreover, Wang Xian felt the power of thunder from the Anomalocaris.

As for the Swordfish race, they had the metallic radiance.

Both races possessed elemental attacks.

Out of those races that had besieged them yesterday, only Anomalocaris and Swordfish race came with attack properties.

Even as mighty as Pliosaurus, Dunkleosteus, and Mega Teeth Shark were, they did not have it.

All they had was a powerful bloodline.

"Bring them over!"

"Yes, Dragon King!"

The venomous sea snake made a swift movement and swam out of the Dragon King Hall.

Wang Xian smiled as he sat on the Dragon Throne.

Guan Shuqing and Sun Lingxiu witnessed the amazing scene with flickering eyes as they stared at Wang Xian with admiration.

"Greetings to the Dragon King!"

Soon, a Level 11 blueish Anomalocaris, with flashing radiance of thunder at its two front limbs, led about two hundred Anomalocaris over. They swam over and bowed on the floor with respect.

Hundreds of Swordfish were floating above the ground as they shouted in synchrony.

"Mm!"

Wang Xian swept his gaze across them with a satisfying expression.

The prawn species was a compelling race. Just take the most common Mantis shrimps, for example. Their two massive forelimbs could strike with great power.

It was so powerful that they could break the aquarium glass.

The Anomalocaris before him had similar forelimbs as the Mantis shrimps. In addition, they had terrifying thunder attribution.

Beside them were Swordfish, a very common marine species. But the Swordfish race before them was very different.

They had a protruding part on their heads, which seemed like razor-sharp swords, giving off a metallic radiance. Any creatures would be killed if they were to be pierced by it.

"Count yourself lucky to join the Dragon Palace. After the other members of the Dragon Palace are resurrected, I'll assign your departments. Now, here's your opportunity!"

Wang Xian slowly stood up and imparted upon them the Cultivation Arts of Metal Dragon Transformation and Thunder Dragon Transformation. After this, he looked towards the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes.

"Take them to the Dragon Transformation Pool for Dragon Blood Baptism."

"The nine of you will guard the Dragon Palace now. After Prime Minister Turtle and the rest are resurrected, you'll also have your Dragon Blood Baptism in the Dragon Transformation Pool!"

"Thank you, Dragon King!"

The Anomalocaris and Swordfish were looking excited as they quickly replied at the top of their lungs.

"Go on!"

Wang Xian waved them off.

"Wow, Xiao Xian. You looked so impressive just now. Dragon King, that's so cool!"

When Guan Shuqing saw the majestic-looking Wang Xian, she walked over with admiration and smiles as she spoke.

"Hehe, of course!" Wang Xian chuckled. "What do you want to eat? You must be hungry. Let's get some food!"

...

For the next two days, Wang Xian recuperated in the Dragon Palace.

Lan Qingyue, who had been receiving her inheritance, suddenly opened her eyes when Wang Xian was sleeping after Guan Shuqing rode on top of him.

A huge beast flashed across her eyes.

A torrent of controlled and terrifying energy was filling her body.

The majestic, quaint, and magnificent aura surrounded her.

But as soon as she spotted Wang Xian and Guan Shuqing by her side, she rolled her eyes.

She walked out of the bedroom with a beaming face. But she knit her eyebrows slightly as soon as she saw the Anomalocaris and Swordfish races.

But after she lifted her chin and saw the blue whale swimming above the Dragon Palace, her eyes were filled with a pleasant surprise!

Chapter 372: Whale Kun

Kun was one of the five strongest and most fearsome monsters in the universe.

Its body could grow to over a few thousand miles. When in the water they could swim. When in the air, they could transform into a roc and fly. It was truly an existence feared by many.

Kun were bred to be warring creatures by the Ancient God race, one of the most elite races in the universe.

The breeding and nurturing of Kun was also the core secret in the Ancient God race and their biggest reliance.

Lan Qingyue's eyes were filled with excitement as she stared at the blue whale that was swimming above the dragon palace.

"The breeding of a Kun will require a great amount of energy. From birth till it grows to a few thousand miles in size, the amount of energy required is beyond imagination. In the breeding of Kun, the most important aspects would be energy extraction and bloodline refining. The more the Kun eats, the faster its power could grow. Therefore, a Kun is also commonly referred to as a Devouring Kun."

"A blue whale needs to consume four to eight tons of food each day. This amount of energy is just sufficient for its daily usage and doesn't include the extraction of energy and refining the blood of what it consumed. Moreover, the bloodline of the blue whale is very pure. It does not possess any tinge of bloodline from strong races and therefore won't face the same limits that were imposed in some bloodlines. Through the Arts of Kun breeding, it can grow into an exceptionally powerful Kun in the future!"

Lan Qingyue mumbled to herself as she stared hard at the blue whale. Her eyes were shimmering with a strange glow and she seemed capable of seeing through the blue whale.

"Let's try breeding it!"

Lan Qingyue looked at the dragon blood in the Dragon Transforming Pool and was filled with excitement. Soon after, she left the Dragon Palace through the Southern Gate.

Lan Qingyue was fast and she faced no resistance in the water. She had a mysterious aura around her and this made her, who was already beautiful, even more elegant.

Oooooo!

When Lan Qingyue approached the blue whale, the gigantic blue whale seemed to have felt something. It turned its gigantic head towards Lan Qingyue instantly.

Oooooo!

The blue whale ejected a stream of bubbles from its blowhole. It wanted to be closer to Lan Qingyue using its head as it could feel a sense of familiarity and closeness with her.

Lan Qingyue smiled when she saw this. As an Ancient God Kun Breeder, she had a disposition about her that made all beasts feel close to her.

"The energy in the blue whale is comparable to an Inborn expert. However, it did not activate it. As a result, even though it has an enormous body, it is still very weak!" Lan Qingyue said softly as she places her hands onto the blue whale's body.

A drop of blood from her hand landed on the blue whale's head. Immediately, a stream of decadent and greyish energy started flowing from Lan Qingyue's hand and encompassed the entire whale.

Oooooo!

The blue whale was swaying its body slightly, causing turbulence in the water. Within his body, huge transformations were ongoing.

The skeletal structure of the blue whale wasn't very strong. As the greyish energy flowed into its body, its body started to decay fast.

Its bones, flesh, organs, and skin started to be mortified.

The energy in its bones, flesh, organs, and skin were extracted and this enormous amount of energy flowed into the blue whale's blood.

Its blood was being refined rapidly and the red and viscous blood started to emit a faint glow.

Soon after, the glowing blood started to flow throughout the blue whale's body.

The whole process lasted for about an hour and the blue whale's skin now looked tougher.

A decadent scent could be picked up instantly.

It was just like a zombie that had died a few thousand years ago.

"Breeding Kun has some similarities with zombies!" Lan Qingyue exclaimed as she witnessed the drastic changes happening to the whale.

Zombies were simply from the corpses of ordinary people. When one died, it could be transformed into an invincible zombie through special rituals.

The current conditions of the blue whale were similar to a zombie, but also had differences. The whale still possessed strong intelligence and vitality.

Ancient God Kun Breeder had been making use of such tough methods to breed a creature with a normal bloodline into an exceptionally strong Kun.

"The strength of the blue whale is now only at the Inborn Realm. I will get some dragon blood from Xiao Xian later. In this way, I can raise the level of the blue whale to Level 11!"

Lan Qingyue squinted her eyes. Through this, she would be able to help Xiao Xian in the future.

Oooooo!

"Master!"

At this moment, the blue whale which was beside Lan Qingyue let out a soft moan.

"Alright! It seems like you have fully received the cultivation arts of Kun. From now onwards, I shall be calling you Xiao Lan!" Lan Qingyue said to the blue whale with a bright smile.

"Yes, master!" Xiao Lan nodded its head and replied. Its gigantic body remained behind Lan Qingyue as a display of deference.

"Xiao Xian is awake! You can just hang around here now!"

Lan Qingyue looked in the direction of the Dragon Palace and saw Wang Xian. The next instant, she went over to the Dragon King Hall rapidly.

"Xiao Xian!"

"What's the matter, Qingyue?"

Wang Xian knew Lan Qingyue had woken up as he did not see Lan Qingyue when he opened his eyes. He then started to scrutinize her from head to toe.

"Hehe, I'm fine!"

Lan Qingyue pounced into the embrace of Wang Xian ecstatically. "Xiao Xian, I have reached the Dan Realm currently after accepting the inheritance of the Ancient God race. Look there! Xiao Xian, that is Xiao Lan, my first Kun!" She pointed at the blue whale which was outside the Dragon Palace as she spoke.

"Is it?"

Wang Xian was astonished! She could start breeding a Kun right after accepting the inheritance of the Ancient God race. These Ancient God Kun Breeders were indeed terrifying!

"Yeah. Xiao Lan is now in the Inborn Realm. It also has a strong defense, so strong that even Dan Realm creatures couldn't injure it. Xiao Xian, can you give me some dragon blood? With it, I can strengthen it to Level 11!" Lan Qingyue remarked with a sense of accomplishment.

"You could bring it to Level 11 with just some dragon blood?"

Wang Xian was dumbfounded. This speed of leveling was a little insane!

"Yeah!" Lan Qingyue nodded her head heavily.

"Alright! Follow me! I'll go get some for you!" Wang Xian nodded his head. After which, he carried Lan Qingyue as he flew towards the Dragon Transforming Pool.

"How much do you need?" Wang Xian looked at the dragon blood inside the pool and asked with a bright smile.

There was lots of dragon blood in the pool but the dragon blood was just Level 11.

The level of the blood was dependent on the blood of the creatures it was absorbed from. The stronger the creatures, the higher the level of the refined dragon blood.

"About a thousand catties will suffice!" Lan Qingyue said with a smile. The next moment, she waved her arm and extracted a stream of dragon blood.

Wang Xian nodded his head. A thousand catties of dragon blood wasn't much. The Dragon Transformation Pool had over ten tons of dragon blood.

These were the refined products of the corpses and blood of creatures that had previously attacked the Dragon Palace.

"Let's go! I'll like to take a look at the Kun you are breeding!"

Wang Xian and Lan Qingyue moved and arrived beside the blue whale.

With a wave of her arm, Lan Qingyue directed the dragon blood she extracted previously into the body of the blue whale directly.

Chapter 373: Immortal Substance

Roar!

Above the Dragon Palace, the blue whale let out a roar like an overlord. Its gigantic body looked even more robust than ever.

The biggest change was found at its head and mouth.

After swallowing the dragon blood, its head became sharper with enormous teeth growing out from its mouth.

The head of the blue whale was huge, occupying two-fifths of the entire body mass. That meant that its head could reach a dozen meters when it was more than thirty meters long.

Each tooth was about three or four meters. All of them were grey, creepy-looking, and extremely durable.

"What a huge change. If it has enough blood, wouldn't we be able to nurture a powerful Kun rapidly?"

[Whale Kun: Level 11]

[Unable to extract Dragon Energy]

When Wang Xian read the information, he was appalled by the speedy evolution process. It was even faster than those members from the Dragon Palace who went to the Dragon Transformation Pool.

"Xiao Xian, the level of the Kun has got something to do with my ability. The Kun that I raise cannot exceed my own level!"

"Moreover, I can only keep one now with my current ability. I'll need to reach a higher level before I can raise another one," Lan Qingyue explained to Wang Xian.

Wang Xian nodded slightly. The speed of raising a Kun, if raised by the Ancient God Kun Breeder, was unbelievable, but it had a lot of limitations.

A supreme-class Ancient God Kun Breeder could at most rear ten Kuns.

Through Lan Qingyue's explanation, the rearing of Kun required feeding of the bloodline. In other words, even if other races got hold of the rearing techniques, they could not rear one.

Now that Lan Qingyue was the last Kun Breeder in this universe, the Ancient God Kun Breeder Clan could only flourish when Wang Xian and her gave birth to their offspring.

"Back at the Yellow River the other time when those creatures were zombified, their sizes actually grew by multiple times. Why didn't this blue whale grow too?" Wang Xian asked with curiosity.

If the size of the blue whale were enhanced by more than tenfold, it would be crazily huge. A creature that was a few hundred or even up to a thousand meters was nowhere to be seen in history!

"The size of Xiao Lan is just nice now. Any bigger will reduce its defense. When it reaches Level 12, it will double its size to seventy meters!" Lan Qingyue explained.

"Level 12 can grow to seventy meters. When it's Level 13, it can grow to more than a hundred meters. That means, it can grow to a few thousand meters when it's Level 17 or 18?"

Wang Xian did some math and stared at the blue whale, "He will become a gigantic warring beast in the future!"

A picture was formed in Wang Xian's mind. Members of the Dragon Palace stood close to one another before this domineering Kun of unknown size.

Conquer the universe and the millions of clans and races!

"Impressive!"

Wang Xian's eyes were brightened up while Lan Qingyue rolled her eyes at him. "Xiao Xian, I want Xiao Lan to enter the Dragon Palace so that he can cultivate here and guard the palace for you!"

"Sure, of course. Haha. Are you hungry? Let's go and have something!"

Wang Xian let out hearty laughter and hugged Lan Qingyue before he swam towards the Dragon Palace.

"Dragon King!"

As soon as he entered, Nine venomous sea snakes swam over with something in their mouths.

"Hur? This is...?"

Wang Xian looked at the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes with a stunned look as he checked out several large bodies.

"The bodies of the Aurora Jellyfish weren't absorbed by the Dragon Transformation Pool?"

He was slightly surprised!

[Immortal Jellyfish: Level 11 (Substance Form)]

[Soul-less State. Resurrect it with another soul.]

"No, even the names have changed. They have become Immortal Jellyfish. I can revive them with another soul!"

The message in Wang Xian's mind reminded him of another thing which was recorded in the Divine Dragon Transformation.

Immortal Substance.

Just as suggested by its name, it was non-perishable. Unless the substance was reduced to ashes, it would live forever.

This referred to vitality, which had a significant difference from stones and soil.

Once a soul entered into one of these Immortal Substances, it could share an eternal life together with it.

Wang Xian had a hesitant look on his face as he looked at the bodies of those Immortal Jellyfish.

If he put some souls into the bodies of these Immortal Jellyfish, they could be revived. Since they would be strong, with powerful assaulting capabilities, they could make excellent subordinates.

However, it was hard to upgrade the Immortal Substances' levels. They could only upgrade when they absorbed another Immortal Substance.

Humans discovered that Turritopsis nutricula can have eternal life. That is to say, Immortal Jellyfish are evolved from Turritopsis nutricula.

"Dig a cave in one of the mountains and place them inside!" Wang Xian ordered the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes.

The Immortal Substance was a powerful existence. Coupling it with Soul Returning Branch, Wang Xian could build an undying jellyfish race.

As such, this was an extremely precious resource that could come in handy in the future.

Back in his bedroom, Wang Xian ordered a Venomous Sea Snake to hunt for food so that he could enjoy a table of seafood delicacy with Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue, and Sun Lingxiu.

The ingredients were made up of high-level marine creatures. If he brought it to First-grade Restaurant, someone would buy it even it was priced at ten million dollars.

Subsequently, Wang Xian stayed in the Dragon Palace for another two days while waiting for Prime Minister Turtle and the rest to resurrect.

On the third day, however, Lan Qingyue received a series of messages on her phone when she returned to the yacht to pass instructions for some development issues in Lan Family.

"What?"

When she read the messages, she was stunned. Immediately, she frowned and leaped into the sea back to the Dragon Palace.

"Xiao Yu, bad news! Xiao Yu is in trouble!"

"What?"

Wang Xian was enjoying his time on his bed when he heard the anxious voice of Lan Qingyue. He shot up and responded with a growing sullen expression on his face.

"Xiao Xian, these are the messages that Sect Leader Tang used to send with Elder Fang's phone!"

Lan Qingyue handed the phone to Wang Xian with a stern look.

There were over ten messages with the first few talking about Xiao Yu and Elder Fang's situation. They had been poisoned when they were sparring with someone. The injuries were severe, and Wang Xian was wanted as soon as possible.

The fact that the messages had been sent two days ago caused Wang Xian to darken his expression rapidly.

"Let's go back now!"

Wang Xian could not wait for Prime Minister Turtle and the rest to resurrect. He quickly walked out of the Dragon Palace and headed for the yacht.

Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue, Sun Lingxiu, and Mo Qinglong all followed behind.

When Wang Xian went back to the room in the yacht, he picked up his phone on the table immediately.

He realized the phone had run out of battery, so he quickly connected it to the charger and turned it on.

There were over dozens of missed calls in which most of them were made by Sect Leader Tang. Wang Xian's expression was even more sullen.

He quickly called back Sect Leader Tang of Thistles and Thorns Sect

"Miracle Doctor Wang, you finally...return my call!"

Sect Leader Tang's old and tired voice was heard from the phone.

Chapter 374: Xiao Yu Met With A Mishap!

"Sect Leader Tang, what happened to my sister?" Wang Xian took a deep breath before asking Sect Leader Tang directly.

"Xiao Yu and her master were poisoned by strange venom. Both of them are currently unconscious. Miracle Doctor Wang, where are you? It would be best if you can come over and take a look immediately!" answered Sect Leader Tang hurriedly.

"Alright. I will return immediately and will reach you by night. Where is Xiao Yu now?" Wang Xian asked with a gloomy face.

"She is in the villa. We have asked Sui Huang for help but there's nothing much he could do!" Sect Leader Tang sounded flustered when she spoke.

"I get it... Please take care of Xiao Yu and Elder Fang. I will head back immediately!" Wang Xian pulled a long face as he hung up the phone.

"What's the matter, Xiao Xian? What happened to Xiao Yu? I got a phone message from Elder Fang too!" Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue walked in and asked anxiously.

They had been in the Dragon Palace over the last few days. At a depth of over a thousand meters, there was no reception at all. As such, they had left their phones on the yacht.

If it wasn't for Lan Qingyue wanting to settle some company matters, they wouldn't have known something had happened to Xiao Yu.

"She sparred with someone and was poisoned in the process. Elder Fang was poisoned too. The message was likely from Sect Leader Tang!"

Wang Xian's expression turned gloomy. Poisoned while sparring? Sui Huang couldn't do anything with the venom?

Although Sui Huang was not a miracle doctor, he was a Dan Realm expert and an experienced alchemist. His understanding of poison wouldn't be shallow.

If there's nothing he could do about this venom, it must be something extraordinary.

"To be severely poisoned when sparring?"

Wang Xian's expression turned gloomier. Dense killing intent gleamed in his eyes.

Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue saw his expression. They immediately tried to comfort and calm him down.

The yacht steered swiftly towards Rivertown.

Their location was rather far from Rivertown and it would take approximately ten hours.

When the yacht arrived at the villa, it was already 8 pm.

Wang Xian leaped out of the yacht and into the villa.

"Young master!"

When Wang Xian entered the villa, Mo Yuan immediately greeted him.

Mm!

Wang Xian didn't speak much and headed for the room directly.

"Young master, Xiao Yu is in the room on the second floor!" remarked Mo Yuan instantly.

Mm!

Wang Xian nodded his head. He didn't take the stairs but instead jumped to the second floor directly and quickly made his way to the door.

Bam!

"Miracle Doctor Wang, you are here! Xiao Yu and her master are still unconscious!" Sect Leader Tang stood up immediately the moment he saw Wang Xian and spoke in a fatigued tone.

"Let me take a look!"

Wang Xian turned his attention to Xiao Yu and Elder Fang. Their faces were as white as chalk without any signs of blood. Around them, a deathly aura was shrouding over them.

Wang Xian reached his arm out and placed his hand on Xiao Yu solemnly. Dragon energy was injected into Xiao Yu directly.

"This is...?"

The moment the dragon energy flowed into Xiao Yu, Wang Xian had a grasp of what was happening inside Xiao Yu.

Densely packed black dots were scattered all over her body. It looked dreadful.

These black dots were slowly absorbing the life energy of Xiao Yu and seemed to have fused with her.

"Cleanse!"

Wang Xian pulled a long face and attempted to cleanse the black dots away with dragon energy.

Ugh!

As the dragon energy cleansed one of the dots, Xiao Yu grimaced in pain. Cold sweat broke out and streamed down her forehead.

Wang Xian turned gloomy. A female disciple from Thistles and Thorns Sect immediately used a tower to wipe away the sweat from Xiao Yu's body.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, Sui Huang said Xiao Yu and her master suffered from the Black Bone Venom and the poison is now deeply rooted and fused with their bodies. Using brute strength to cleanse the poison would be equivalent to scrapping their bones with knives. The pain is still secondary. The main issue is that the Black Bone Venom has fused into their bodies and is absorbing eighty percent of their life energy. Cleansing them will kill only Xiao Yu and Elder Fang!"

Sect Leader Tang was bitter as she spoke. She knew about what Sui Huang was capable of from Elder Fang.

He was an existence that only existed in records. If an expert that was above the Inborn Realm said that they had no hope of recovering, that would almost be equivalent to...

Upon hearing Sect Leader Tang, Wang Xian pulled a long face. He slowed down and used dragon energy to inspect the venom.

Just like Sui Huang had diagnosed, Wang Xian realized how thorny the situation was after inspecting Xiao Yu's body.

This was the first time he'd encountered venom that couldn't be cleansed with dragon energy.

The Black Bone Venom in Xiao Yu had fused with her. Furthermore, the venom was absorbing eighty percent of her life energy.

This resulted in Xiao Yu losing consciousness. If he was to cleanse the venom, he would kill Xiao Yu in the process.

"What a sinister venom! This is equivalent to letting Xiao Yu and Elder Fang spend the rest of their lives in bed!"

Dense killing intent leaked out from Wang Xian's body. He caressed Xiao Yu's head and injected streams of Azure Dragon energy into her body.

When the Azure Dragon energy entered Xiao Yu's body, Wang Xian was shocked to see the black dots absorbing the energy too.

"Sect Leader Tang, did Sui Huang give any other information on the Black Bone Venom?" Wang Xian asked with a gloomy face.

"Nothing else! The so-called Black Bone Venom is also just a name coined by Sui Huang, himself. I have been researching this venom for the last few days and haven't come across anything," Sect Leader Tang said in a dismal tone.

"No information?"

Wang Xian clenched his fist tightly. He looked at Xiao Yu and Elder Fang's pale expressions and was thinking hard for a solution.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, do you have any solutions?" Sect Leader Tang looked at him and asked anxiously.

Xiao Yu was the hope of the Thistles and Thorns Sect and Elder Fang had now reached the Half-step to Inborn Realm. It would just be a matter of time before she reached the Inborn Realm.

If something were to happen to them, it would be a huge blow to Thistles and Thorns Sect.

Wang Xian did not reply. At this moment, Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue and Sun Lingxiu entered the room.

When they saw Xiao Yu and Elder Fang lying on the bed, and the gloomy Wang Xian, their hearts skipped a beat.

Sun Lingxiu was surprised to see Wang Xian's gloomy expression. She waved her arm and dazzling rays shrouded Xiao Yu and Elder Fang.

Huh?

Sun Lingxiu's eyebrows knitted together and she used her Light attribute energy to inspect them again.

When the Light energy shone on their bodies, it was absorbed immediately. Sensing the conditions, she frowned more deeply.

"Dragon Transforming Pool! That's the only potential option now!"

Wang Xian thought hard about this option. The Dragon Transformation Pool had the effect of cleansing one's physical body. With the power effects of the Dragon Transformation Pool, there was a chance the Black Bone Venom could be removed from their bodies.

"Before that, let's try to help them regain their consciousness. After that... "

Wang Xian's eyes were filled with killing intent. He was determined to find the culprit. If the culprit had the antidote, it would be best. Otherwise...

Annihilate the entire clan or sect!

Or perhaps the outcome would be the same with or without the antidote.

Chapter 375: Bloodbath (1)

Zing!

Wang Xian ejected the Wood Dragon Ball of the Wood element from his mouth and into his hand after looking at Xiao Yu and Elder Fang, who were lying in bed.

As he bent forward, Wang Xian placed the Wood Dragon Ball into Xiao Yu's mouth, which proceeded to enter her body.

Instantaneously, the Energy of the Azure Dragon transferred itself from the Wood Dragon Ball into Xiao Yu's body. This returned some blush to her otherwise pale face.

"Xiao Yu, I'm your elder bro!" Wang Xian called out to Xiao Yu softly.

"Huh?" Xiao Yu uttered before she opened her heavy eyelids to look at Wang Xian.

"Elder bro, you're here. That's wonderful. I thought...I'd ever see you again!" Xiao Yu struggled while managing a smile.

"That won't happen, Xiao Yu. If you want to see me, you can do so anytime!" Wang Xian coaxed as he rubbed Xiao Yu's head gently.

"Elder Bro, I won't die, will I?" Xiao Yu asked Wang Xian weakly.

"You won't. With elder bro around, you'll always be safe and sound, Xiao Yu!" Wang Xian assured Xiao Yu with a determined look. "Rest assured, I'll help you recover!" he affirmed.

"Hmm! You're the best elder bro!" Xiao Yu smiled before she turned over to look at Elder Fang who was beside her.

"Elder Bro, please treat my master as well. She was injured because she tried to save me. So you have to treat her!" Xiao Yu pleaded with Wang Xian as she looked back.

"Don't worry, both of you will be fine!" Wang Xian promised confidently.

After a brief moment of hesitation as she stood by the side, Sun Lingxiu ejected the Illuminating Pearl, which she'd obtained prior, from her mouth, and placed it into Elder Fang's mouth.

As both the Wood Dragon Ball and Illuminating Pearl possessed formidable healing powers, they could help the duo in regaining consciousness.

"Huh?" Elder Fang awoke gradually. As she did, she looked on at Wang Xian and the rest in confusion, while her delicate face beamed with a smile.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, Sect Leader, Xiao Yu!" Elder Fang called out.

"Prepare some food!" Sect Leader Tang instructed immediately as he spoke to a female disciple of the Thistles and Thorns Sect.

"Don't worry, I'll make sure you recover!" Wang Xian promised Elder Fang while facing her.

"I believe in your medical skills, Miracle Doctor Wang!" Elder Fang accepted with a beam.

"Hmm!" Wang Xian nodded with ease.

As the exchanges between Wang Xian, Xiao Yu and Elder Fang ended, the female disciple of the Thistles and Thorns Sect came back with two bowls of porridge.

Wang Xian watched as the duo finished their food before he stepped out with a burdened look.

With Sect Leader Tang following behind, the two came to the living room situated at the level below.

"Sect Leader Tang, could you elaborate on the details?" Wang Xian asked with a dull expression as he sat on the sofa alongside Sect Leader Tang.

"Four days ago, Xiao Yu and Xian Fang were back at the Sect Ground to discuss some matters. They happened to receive news about the discovery of an ancient tomb. Interested, they went over to see if they could recover any treasures. In the end, they were attacked by the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect, and struck by lethal poison!" Sect Leader Tang explained.

"According to the information I've obtained, it was the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect who made lewd remarks towards the duo, which led to Xiao Yu exchanging counters with him. In the end..."

"Nine Lotus Sect?" Wang Xian uttered with a cold stare, as savage intention flashed across his eyes.

"They're a First-class Force, with five Inborn experts within their Ancestral Sect, renowned throughout the Liuyun Province. I am to blame for my inability...I couldn't exact revenge for them. So I could only wait for your return, Miracle Doctor Wang!" he explained in humiliation.

This was the sorrow of small Sects, where they could only bow down in silence after having suffered at the hands of the big Sects. They could only swallow the humble pie, even if their disciples were being murdered by the latter. Otherwise, the entire Thistles and Thorns Sect would be wiped out, should they offend the big Sects.

This was also the reason why Sect Leader Tang had hoped for the Thistles and Thorns Sect to ascend and become a First-class Force. Should there be an Inborn expert within the Ancestral Sect, the situation would no doubt improve by leaps and bounds.

"Where's the Sect Ground of the Nine Lotus located?" Wang Xian asked Sect Leader Tang with a heavy look.

"It's within the First-level divisional area of the Liuyun province. But right now, members of the Nine Lotus Sect are all gathered at the ancient tomb of Sky City. It's the burial ground of an expert, where highly treacherous traps have been laid. They're still there!" Sect Leader Tang explained. "There are currently numerous experts from several Ancestral Sects and Clans who've gathered there!"

"Hmm!" Wang Xian nodded in acknowledgment before turning to look at Mo Yuan, who stood at the side.

"Young Master, this is the information I've gathered over the past two days!" Mo

Yuan said as he proceeded forward. At which point, Sect Leader Tang made his exit mindfully.

"Here's the information on the Nine Lotus Sect, Young Master! As you were not around, I did not proceed with anything on my own!" Mo Yuan continued.

Wang Xian took a look at the information on the Nine Lotus Sect before asking, "As of now, how many amongst the Dragonians have attained Inborn status?"

"There are four, excluding my master and myself. Four Dragonians have ascended to reach the Inborn status. Within another month, all members of the Dragon Sect will be able to attain Inborn status!" Mo Yuan answered. "Should I get them over, Young Master?" he asked.

"No need, I'll see to this personally!" Wang Xian declined flatly. He wanted those with the guts to hurt Xiao Yu this badly to know the meaning of trepidation and despair.

Mo Yuan's heart skipped a beat upon hearing Wang Xian's words.

Young Master rarely acts personally. He would never trouble himself if matters could be delegated to us. Seems like someone is going to be down with very bad luck.

When nightfall came, Wang Xian returned to Xiao Yu's room to check on the duo.

They may have regained consciousness under the sustenance of the two Dragon Balls. But while they were awake, sitting up was the most they could manage, as their limbs remained entirely immobile.

Wang Xian's heart ached at the sight of Xiao Yu's plight, which added to his fury.

At dawn the next morning, when the sun had just risen, Wang Xian came into Xiao Yu's room. His heart ached again as he brushed her head gently while looking at her as she woke with a dazed look.

"Xiao Yu, would you like to come along with me? I'll exact revenge for you!" Wang Xian asked.

"Elder bro, he tricked me. He said he'd only use one hand, given his prowess as an Inborn. But, after he started fighting with me, not only did he use both hands, but he attacked me with poison!" Xiao Yu said with a face of spite.

"Silly lass!" Wang Xian exclaimed as he caressed Xiao Yu's head. "Elder bro will exact revenge for you. Come, follow me!" he continued. Thereafter, he bent over to scoop Xiao Yu up before turning to face Elder Fang and asked, "Elder Fang, will you be joining?"

"No, I'll pass. Bring Xiao Yu along!" Elder Fang declined with a smile.

"Sure!" Wang Xian nodded before he proceeded downstairs with Xiao Yu in his arms.

Mo Qinglong had a wheelchair placed at the foot of the stairs.

"You'll have to move around in a wheelchair for the next couple of days. It'll be fine once Elder Bro has neutralized the poison in your body!" Wang Xian consoled Xiao Yu with a smile as he sat her in the chair.

"Hmm, no issue Elder Bro. Other than being unable to move my body, I don't feel hurt anywhere!" Xiao Yu assured Wang Xian with glee. She was obviously in much better spirits now.

"Great. Let's go!" Wang Xian signaled as he pushed the wheelchair from behind, accompanied by Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue on either side.

Sun Lingxiu did not follow along, but instead remained behind to take care of Elder Fang. Whereas Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan followed behind the quartet.

At the same time, the Heavenly Hound tagged alongside Lan Qingyue.

After carrying Xiao Yu into the caravan, the group set off with Mo Yuan driving in the direction of Sky City.

Chapter 376: Bloodbath (2)

The car was moving rapidly and the girls never stopped talking in the car. They were explaining about the Dragon Palace to Xiao Yu and Xiao Yu was constantly amazed by what she heard. She was filled with anticipation to visit it one day.

She had long forgotten about the fact that she had been poisoned. This trip felt just like another tour as she chatted constantly with the other girls.

Xiao Yu spoke about the battle she'd had with the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect.

The young master of Nine Lotus Sect was an Inborn expert. Therefore, Xiao Yu wasn't that dumb to challenge the authority of an Inborn expert.

However, that young master constantly insulted her. He even declared that he could only use one hand to fight Xiao Yu. As a result, Xiao Yu fought with him out of anger.

Although Xiao Yu had not cultivated for long, she was already at the Half-step to Inborn Realm. Moreover, Sui Huang had been guiding her recently. Therefore, she was much stronger than normal Half-step to Inborn experts.

When the young master fought Xiao Yu with only one hand, he wasn't gaining any advantage over Xiao Yu after ten moves. Furthermore, he was pushed into perilous situations constantly.

In the end, he used both his hands and even heavily injured Xiao Yu with the poison. When Elder Fang witnessed it, she attacked with rage and was caught in the venom too.

"Brother, you must teach that rascal a lesson on behalf of me. It would be best if you could abolish all his cultivation so he can't act arrogantly in the future!" Xiao Yu said grudgingly.

Wang Xian smiled plainly and nodded his head.

After witnessing the scenes of the war during the establishment of the Dragon

Palace and the defense of the Dragon Palace subsequently, Wang Xian's mindset had experienced a drastic change.

War and death were what he would have to experience in the future.

He thought of the millions and billions of deaths, the annihilation of entire races and the fall of countries.

This taught Wang Xian that by being strong and powerful, one could have a better living.

If someone were to offend him, he would kill them!

War, to a great extent, had no right or wrong. It was especially so for wars between races and wars for resources.

None of the parties were wrong but billions of lives would be lost in the process.

At this moment, Wang Xian was a lot calmer when facing life and death situations.

When he came across resources, he would compete for them. If others were to compete with him, then a battle would be imminent.

If someone were to offend him or bully the people close to him, it would be the same response. Kill them!

The basis of the universe was as such unless he could become the strongest in the universe and no one dared to offend him.

Wang Xian wouldn't kill the innocent but wouldn't be soft to others either.

He would annihilate the Nine Lotus Sect and everyone affiliated with it would be killed!

This was because he couldn't be sure that the remains of his enemies wouldn't deal a fatal blow to his back one day.

The war between races would usually lead to the annihilation of one side. The side that survived would be the correct side.

Thrones were built upon the corpses of the people.

Sky City wasn't far from Rivertown. The journey took just six hours and the group reached Sky City at around 3 pm.

The car drove towards a suburban area of Sky City.

"Young master, we have arrived!" The car stopped and Mo Yuan spoke.

"Let's alight!"

Wang Xian stood up and carried Xiao Yu to a wheelchair before pushing the wheelchair down from the car.

"Brother, this is the place!"

Xiao Yu pointed at the location in front of them and said, "Those mountains are known as the Sky Mountains. There's a lake there and the scenery is breathtaking. The Ancient Tomb is located right there!"

"Let's go Xiao Yu. I will avenge you!" Wang Xian said with a smile as he pushed Xiao Yu forward.

Mo Yuan and Mo Qinglong were leading the way. Beside the wheelchair, the Heavenly Hound followed closely behind Lan Qingyue.

It kept looking at Lan Qingyue in awe and regularly rubbed against her to show affection.

Six people, a dog and a girl who was in a wheelchair. No matter how one looked at the group, they would conclude that Wang Xian and the group were tourists.

"Stop right there!"

When the six people arrived at the entrance of Sky Mountain, two young men stared at them coldly.

The two young men wore identical white uniforms with black lotuses embroidered on them.

"This area is out of bounds for ordinary people. Leave at once!"

The two young men looked across the group of six. Their attention remained on Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue for a little longer before shouting.

"Nine Lotus Sect?" Wang Xian looked at the two young men and asked emotionlessly.

"Brother, it's them! They are from the Nine Lotus Sect!" Xiao Yu frowned and said to Wang Xian.

"Huh? You know we are from the Nine Lotus Sect?" The two young men lifted their heads when they heard Wang Xian. One of the young men lifted his head slightly, looked down at them and asked, "Which Family or Clan are you guys from? Since you know we are from the Nine Lotus Sect, you should also know the Ancient Tomb of Sky Mountains is now controlled by us. If you want to enter, you need to prove your worth!"

"Eh? That young brat?"

When the young man finished his sentence, the other young man looked curiously at Xiao Yu who was in the wheelchair.

"She's the young girl who was crippled by our young master!"

"Eh! It's really her! What gives you the guts to come again? Are you interested in becoming the concubine of our young master?"

"Haha! She courting her own demise to challenge our young master!" The two young men recognized Xiao Yu and started mocking her.

Upon hearing them, Xiao Yu was infuriated! It was apparent that the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect had insulted her countless times on that day.

"Kill them!" While the two young men were laughing, Wang Xian caressed Xiao Yu's head and spoke plainly.

Huh?

Wang Xian's voice was cold and emotionless and surprised the two young men. They stopped laughing and gave Wang Xian a harsh stare.

"Rascal, do you know this is..."

Before they finished their sentence, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan had already struck.

A palm appeared on their necks tightly.

When the two young men realized what was happening, their eyes widened and they were filled with fear.

"You guys..."

Crack crack!

Boom!

The sounds of the necks cracking resounded. Soon after, cold demonic flames appeared on Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan's hands, burning the two young men.

The two men vanished immediately, leaving only some ashes behind as evidence of their existence.

"Argh! Brother!" Xiao Yu exclaimed when she saw the two men turning into ashes. Her eyes widened as she lifted her head and stared at Wang Xian.

"The path to becoming strong is filled with blood. Showing mercy to the enemies would be showing cruelty to ourselves." Wang Xian caressed Xiao Yu's head and spoke softly. He continued pushing the wheelchair forward and headed deeper towards the mountains.

This was just the beginning!

Xiao Yu's expression changed and she remained silent. After ten seconds, she lifted her head, revealed a smile and commented, "I will listen to you, brother!"

Since a young age, her brother had been taking good care of her. In her heart, everything her brother did was right.

Even if it meant killing and committing arson.

"Yeah!" Wang Xian smiled and replied. He wanted to let Xiao Yu know that this world was cruel and bloody. This was to prepare her for the long journey ahead.

However, he did not require her to change her behavior. The job of an executioner could just be left to him.

Behind them, Guan Shuqing felt a little discomfort. However, she recovered quickly.

Lan Qingyue's expression did not show any changes.

When she accepted the inheritance of the Ancient God Kun Breeder, she learnt about the cruelty of the universe.

In fact, the Ancient God race was the evil side in her opinion. All she wanted to do was just ensure she wouldn't go against her own nature!

Chapter 377: Bloodbath (3)

As part of the sightseeing area of Sky City, the architecture around the Sky Mountain was mesmerizing.

At a staggering 142 meters above the sea level and stretching three kilometers in length, there were nine meandering passes along Sky Mountain laid with treacherous paths. At the foot of the mountain lay the famous Great Stone Buddha Statue, Cliff Inscriptions, Crane-flying Pavilion, Crane-coming Pavilion, Crane-drinking Fountain, Xinghua Zen Temple of the Ming Dynasty, Great Scholar Rock of the Qing Dynasty, Shanxi Assembly Hall, Water Pavilion and Yubei Pavilion, among others.

The place seemed particularly quiet, given that there was no one at the Sky Mountain, which otherwise was usually bustling with life.

"It's up ahead, behind this mountain crest," a voice could be heard saying. Meanwhile, a young man was pushing a wheelchair with a young maiden in it while they were accompanied by four others and a dog.

It was Wang Xian's group of six.

"It's been three days since the excavation of the Ancient Tomb. To think that the objects inside have yet to be retrieved. Seems like what's stored within could be very valuable items," Xiao Yu exclaimed with a smile as she looked ahead.

"Hmm. Let's go take a look. Perhaps we might even obtain a few treasures!" Wang Xian replied with a grin. As he did, he pushed the wheelchair along, which seemed rather effortless, much thanks to the tiled floor laid neatly in brick patterns within the Sky Mountain regions.

They passed by one of the pavilions while on their way up the mountain crest.

"Members from three Ancestral Sects and two Clans have entered. I wonder who the treasures inside will belong to?" a voice asked.

"The Nine Lotus Sect is the most formidable amongst them. Plus they have two Miracle Doctors from the Sacred Followers Guild. So that makes them the most likely!" one guessed.

"But the Liuyun Family is no weaker in abilities. With two Inborn experts, they are also very likely to obtain the treasures once they're inside!" another speculated.

"Tens of people have died, one after another, in the past few days. Including five Half-step Inborns. Those must be some really precious items inside!" the third exclaimed.

"The treasures inside belong to us, Nine Lotus Sect!" the last boasted.

As Wang Xian and the group arrived behind the mountain crest, they heard the commotion from the crowd. Wang Xian looked to the front.

A group of close to eighty people had gathered around. From time to time, they would peer into the underground cave which was situated right in the middle where they hovered.

The underground cave measured more than a dozen meters wide as it extended all the way down, making it hard to see how deep the cave actually stretched.

Along the opening of the underground cave stood about twenty people, who wore synchronized outfits from the same Ancestral Sect. As they stood watch, they fixed their gaze on the nearby crowd to prevent anyone from entering.

The arrival of Wang Xian and the gang had not drawn any attention. As he looked across, his focus eventually landed in the direction of the group which donned the Nine Lotus Sect attire.

In comparison to the rest who had gathered around, the location occupied by the Nine Lotus Sect was obviously much more comfortable.

More than a dozen chairs and tables were lined out beneath numerous parasols which stood by the sides of the members.

Meanwhile, several people were seated while having tea by the tables as they waited in silence.

"Huh?" Wang Xian uttered as he glanced over in a particular direction, with eyes narrowed.

It was a familiar figure, an enemy of the past.

Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi.

Upon the sight of this figure, a look of confusion and suspicion swept across Wang Xian's face.

Fang Huazi was currently seated beside a young man, while his arms, which had been previously maimed by Wang Xian, were now dangling aimlessly.

Yet, the Fang Huazi of now was all smiles while he sat, as though having lost mobility in both arms was something to rejoice about.

"Elder bro, that's the young man!" Xiao Yu pointed out. She glared at the young man who was seated beside Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi with eyes of fury. He was the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect.

"Let's head over!" Wang Xian gestured while looking at the young man. He seemed to be in his thirties, as he exuded an aura of the experts while projecting an image of confidence and arrogance.

Well-loved and highly respected, he was the renowned young master of the Nine Lotus Sect.

The term "Young Master" was rarely coined within Ancestral Sects, while it was more common in clans.

And this position was much more esteemed than that of Saint and Saintess.

"Young master of the Nine Lotus Sect, born with gifted talents. Having achieved the Inborn status at the mere age of thirty-four. It is acclaimed that he will be able to surpass that in his surviving years. Ranked the fifth on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart, his prowess is reputed as a notch above that of the Saint and Saintess from the Sacred Sects!" Wang Xian explained. As he spoke, he wheeled Xiao Yu along towards the location of the Nine Lotus Sect members.

"Huh? Who's that?" a voice asked.

"Is that...?" another trailed off.

In that instant, Wang Xian's voice drew the attention of everyone nearby. They looked the group up and down, after turning over in surprise.

"That's the young maiden from several days ago!" someone pointed out.

"It's her indeed. I heard that she's a Saintess from a Second-class Force, although her gift in cultivation is very astonishing. She's already a Half-step Inborn at such a tender age!" another gasped.

"Pity though. No matter how gifted, she exchanged hands with the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect. The prowess of a Half-step Inborn is still very far off from an Inborn. She's since been completely maimed by him," another sighed.

At the sight of Xiao Yu, who was now in a wheelchair, along with Wang Xian and the rest who stood behind them, the crowd looked on in a state of bewilderment.

"What are they doing here?" the crowd of experts whispered amongst themselves.

The attention of the young master from Nine Lotus Sect and Fang Huazi, both of whom were currently seated beneath the parasols, was drawn over.

"They're really here. Haha. Haha!" Fang Huazi laughed upon seeing Xiao Yu in a wheelchair. This was followed by his intense gaze of animosity when he spotted Wang Xian pushing the wheelchair.

"Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi, so that's Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown?" the young master of Nine Lotus Sect asked. He had not been too surprised by the appearance of Wang Xian and the group, but returned them a condescending look.

"That's right, he's the one!" Fang Huazi replied with hatred in his eyes. His face darkened when he saw Xiao Yu in the wheelchair. "To think he's really got some skills, being able to mitigate the effects of such lethal poison!" he snorted.

"Haha! Miracle Doctor Fang, although she's regained consciousness, it appears she's now incapacitated!" the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect mocked, as he laughed at Xiao Yu.

"I see," Wang Xian uttered in realization, looking at them. They were laughing away in a discussion of Wang Xian and the group without the slightest regard.

It was because of Fang Huazi that this Nine Lotus' young master had resorted to attacking Xiao Yu with such lethal poison.

Fang Huazi was exacting revenge for those maimed arms of his.

"The antidote!" Wang Xian uttered the words coldly, as he demanded it of Fang Huazi with an indifferent look.

"Antidote? Haha!" Fang Huazi laughed before he stood up. "You want the antidote? It was a fair exchange, and the loser should bear the consequences. What about it? And yet you're here for the antidote?" He gloated with a grimace.

"When you maimed my arms and when my master spoke to you back then, why didn't you mention antidotes?" Fang Huazi fired back. "And now, you're here for the antidote? Young lad, this is what you call 'treating others the way they have treated you,' don't you know?" he added.

"Let me be clear. Even if there's an antidote, you're not getting it. Moreover, this poison does not come with one haha!" he continued thereafter.

"Do you know that we, the Sacred Followers Guild, obtained this poison by chance? It's a poison that no one in this world can neutralize. Not even our Sect Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild, nor the world's most formidable Miracle Doctor. This poison comes with no antidote!" Fang Huazi concluded. And then he sneered, "Haha! Haha!"

Chapter 378: Bloodbath (4)

Fang Huazi was laughing hysterically without reservation, as he felt he'd gotten his revenge.

He used to have a bright future but had to sever both of his arms to undergo long term treatment.

Over this period, he had been living in anger and fear. Now that the kin of his enemy had to suffer the same misery or be thrown into even greater despair, Fang Huazi was exhilarated.

A distorted sense of excitement.

"Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi, your arms could still grow out gradually. However, she can forget about standing up in the future!"

The young master of the Nine Lotus Sect revealed a faint smile as he looked at Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi laughing hysterically.

"Haha, you are right! This is the price for messing with me!"

Fang Huazi stared at Wang Xian with a hideous expression. He licked his lips and resumed his laughter.

"It's my mistake for not killing you the last time!" said Wang Xian emotionlessly.

"A factionless doctor dares to kill one from the Sacred Followers Guild? Hehe! How brazen are you?" the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect chuckled in disdain. He scrutinized Wang Xian from head to toe before continuing, "Now that I have seen the youngest Miracle Doctor, you don't look that special to me!"

Subsequently, he lifted his head proudly and turned to Xiao Yu. "What's the matter, wild brat? Why are you here in a wheelchair? Were you missing me already? Hahaha!"

"YOU..."

Upon hearing the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect, Xiao Yu was furious and glowered at him.

"For hurting my sister, you shall die. Everyone in the Nine Lotus Sect will follow you shortly!"

Wang Xian released his grip on the wheelchair, stared at the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect and Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi and walked towards them.

"Oh? You are going to kill all of us?"

When the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect heard Wang Xian, he squinted his eyes and observed the group of six. "With this group? Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown? Hehe! Are you under the perception that we are just an ordinary First-class Force?"

"What are they here for? Courting their own deaths?"

"Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is indeed famous. A factionless doctor that is said to be able to call upon three to four Inborn experts. However, he's still a far cry from the Nine Lotus Sect and the Sacred Followers Guild. He wants to get revenge? That's courting his death!"

"How full of himself is he? Is the Nine Lotus Sect something that a factionless doctor could go against? Moreover, there's still the Sacred Followers Guild!"

Around them, the crowd saw Wang Xian but were discussing loudly without reservation.

A factionless doctor would just be a meager factionless doctor even if he possessed extraordinary medical techniques. When compared with the Nine Lotus Sect or the Sacred Followers Guild, it wouldn't even be a meaningful comparison at all.

The young master of the Nine Lotus Sect stared at Wang Xian nonchalantly. No matter how incredible a Miracle Doctor was, he couldn't be stronger than him.

Wanting to kill him? What a joke!

Pa!

Wang Xian stretched out his hand emotionlessly. From his side, Mo Qinglong threw Zhan Lu into his hand.

"Today, I'm going to start a bloodbath with the Nine Lotus Sect!" Wang Xian wasn't paying attention to the discussion of the crowd as he remarked coldly.

"He's going to do it on his own? Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown must be dumb. The young master of the Nine Lotus Sect is ranked fifth on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart and is an Inborn expert. This isn't a contest of medical techniques. What a dumbass!"

From the crowd, a young man spoke loudly in contempt as he saw Wang Xian receiving the longsword.

Wang Xian revealed a chilling smile and glanced at the young man.

"Hehe, since you are courting death, kill him!"

The young master of the Nine Lotus Sect looked at Wang Xian with ridicule. He picked up the cup of tea beside him, took a sip and ordered the disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect around him.

"Yes, young master!"

A middle-aged man nodded his head before turning to Wang Xian. He said, "You are just a meager factionless doctor and yet you dare to mess with our Nine Lotus Sect? Today, I'll let you be like your sister forever!"

Just as he finished his words, Wang Xian moved.

Although Wang Xian was nursing grave injuries at this instant, he still could match a Dan Realm expert.

His speed was incomparably fast. Just as the middle-aged man finished his words, he suddenly sensed a shadow appearing before him.

His expression changed greatly. Turning his palm, water circulated around it as he shouted loudly, "Now die!"

He slapped his palm forward directly.

Pfft!

"Too weak!"

At this instant, a cold and emotionless voice propagated.

The middle-aged man stared in disbelief as he turned his head over stiffly.

He saw that the young man had his back facing him. It was as though he had not struck previously.

However, when the middle-aged man looked down, he saw a longsword being pulled out of his chest gradually. Instantly, he was filled with shock.

Cough cough! "You..."

The middle-aged man was dumbfounded. Before he could complete his words, he fell to the ground.

Wang Xian pulled the longsword out of the middle-aged man's chest. Without taking a second look, Wang Xian continued walking towards the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect and Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi.

He wasn't walking quickly but brought with him stifling pressure.

"What?"

"What incredible speed and sword!"

"How can this be possible? That middle-aged man from the Nine Lotus Sect is a Half-step to Inborn expert!"

"How could a factionless doctor be so insanely strong?"

That single strike had shocked the crowd as they stared at Wang Xian with disbelief.

The young man who called Wang Xian a dumbass was in a daze. His expression changed constantly as fear gleamed in his eyes.

Huh?

The young master of the Nine Lotus Sect and Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi were taken aback as their mood turned solemn.

"How dare you kill our people from the Nine Lotus Sect!"

When the surrounding disciples from the Nine Lotus Sect saw the middle-aged man killed, they quickly surrounded Wang Xian without waiting for the orders of their young master.

"Kill him!" instructed the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect coldly.

Poof poof poof!

The instant the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect finished his words, Wang Xian struck. It was still that insanely quick speed.

The move was simple as Wang Xian simply slashed across the bodies of the eight disciples from the Nine Lotus Sect.

This time, none of them had reacted to Wang Xian again. Their eyes opened wider and their bodies shivered as they saw their waists.

"So... So strong!"

"Sss! What incredible strength. He's definitely an Inborn expert! He's definitely..."

The crowd gasped and was shocked by what they had just witnessed.

In the previous instant, he had killed a Half-step to Inborn expert. The next instant, he killed another eight Level 9 to Half-step to Inborn disciples from the Nine Lotus Sect. This strength was completely beyond their expectations.

Wang Xian turned to the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect and Fang Huazi as he remarked, "As I've said, I'm going to slaughter every single one of you!"

Bam! Bam! Bam!

Wang Xian finished his remarks as the eight disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect fell to the ground. The eyes of the surrounding crowd had all constricted upon witnessing the development.

The young master of the Nine Lotus Sect pulled a long face and glowered at Wang Xian. He gritted his teeth and said, "Great... Great... I did not expect you to be an Inborn expert. What a surprise! However, even if you are an Inborn level expert, you will still pay the price for messing with us!"

The young master of the Nine Lotus Sect no longer had the same composure as before. He stood up and put on a set of blue gloves beside him.

Fang Huazi sat to the side, eyes shimmering, watching Wang Xian cautiously.

Wang Xian held Zhan Lu and continued walking towards them.

Chapter 379: Bloodbath (5)

"Be off and die!" the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect snarled as he leaped over to attack Wang Xian in a single shift of stance.

His face darkened while the blue gloves he wore shone in sapphire rays with a lotus motif embroidered in the middle.

A lotus mirage had formed above the palm with the glove, as it emitted bouts of ominous energy.

"Ranked the fifth on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart. An Inborn expert with a bright future. Why then, are you courting doom!" Wang Xian called out as the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect lunged at him. To which, he raised his Zhan Lu Sword and slew over with ease.

"Humph, a renowned Miracle Doctor at such a young age. Why, then, are you courting doom!?" the young master shot back with an icy gaze. As he did, a sound resembling that of tidal waves crashing blasted from his body. Suddenly, the lotus in his palm ballooned.

"How dare you kill our disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect! For that, you all shall remain here!" the young master snarled.

Whoosh!

The long sword in Wang Xian's hand went straight for the young master's palm.

As the Zhan Lu Sword slew right above the Lotus mirage, it emitted sound which mimicked flowing water, while the aura of the young master only seemed to gain strength.

Yet, the Zhan Lu Sword sliced through the water Lotus in his hand, and continued to slay toward the blue glove.

"Such a sharp long sword!" the young master shrieked in surprise as his face flinched, although he continued his attacks using his palm.

This Lotus Glove of his was a Level 9 weapon, which feared no sabre or sword.

Blob!

However, at the very instant his palm came into contact with the long sword, the young master gasped in fear while his face contorted.

Bam!

"Ah!" a blood-curdling scream rang in the air.

This made everyone in the crowd look on with wide eyes as they stared at the young master's palm, utterly disturbed.

The palm had been split completely, as the cut extended all the way towards the arm. It almost caused the entire arm to be mutilated into two halves, and looked utterly appalling.

"One move, one move and the Nine Lotus' young master has been seriously injured!" one cried out.

"What sword is that? How could it be this sharp? The blue glove worn on the young master's hand is no mediocre weapon," another yelled.

"To think a factionless doctor's able to take the Nine Lotus' young master down with a single strike. How's... How's this possible!" the third squawked.

"To think you've maimed my arm. To think you've cut my arm up...," the young master cried with piercing screams. Eyes wide, he looked at his right arm which had been split apart, and roared as he trembled.

"Behaving like you're all high and almighty. Your fate was sealed the moment you injured my little sister!" Wang Xian rebuked. As he did, the movements of his arm showed no signs of stopping as the Zhan Lu sword he held slew once again, this time aiming straight for the limbs of the young master.

"You dare to...," the young master snarled in fright. In reflex, his body shuffled backwards for retreat while his desire to escape accelerated his speed.

In the end, like the many disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect earlier, one strike of the sword was all it took.

The esteemed young master of the Nine Lotus Sect stood rooted with eyes wide, as they filled with despair.

Bam, bam, bam!

While the arms detached themselves, the legs gave way and broke; and the entire body just slumped onto the floor.

"To think you... To think you dare, dare to..." the young master muttered. He was still in disbelief at such an outcome.

Just a minute ago, he was still the esteemed young master of the Nine Lotus Sect, one who had been placed on a pedestal.

But now, his body had been dismembered.

How does he possess such formidable prowess?

"Stop! The experts from our Sect will be coming out from the ancient tomb shortly. If you dare kill our young master, all of you will die!" several disciples from the Nine Lotus Sect warned as they circled the entrance of the ancient tomb. They shouted in fear upon seeing their dismembered young master.

Wang Xian did not heed their warnings, but instead glanced over at the young master who was now trembling violently.

The once dashing young master was now staring with hopelessness, having lost all the confidence and prestige of the strong from before.

Fresh blood gushed out of his body.

Wang Xian then raised his long sword, and turned to look at Fang Huazi who was sitting at a side. The latter was now overwhelmed with fear and shock.

"How dare you... maim the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect!?" Fang Huazi snapped as he supported his arms on the table beside him while glaring intensely at Wang Xian.

"I'll let him live a while longer, so he can watch the wipeout of the Nine Lotus Sect!" Wang Xian replied indifferently as he looked back at Fang Huazi.

"Previously, I made a mistake by not killing you. But this time, I won't give you another chance!" he added.

"You... You dare to kill me? I'm from the Sacred Followers Guild, you dare to kill me?" Fang Huazi grimaced while he glowered at Wang Xian. "If you dare kill me, the Sacred Followers Guild won't let this slide. No matter how powerful you are, if you dare to kill me, the Sacred Followers Guild will hunt you down and kill you!" he continued.

"So be it. I'm guessing that your master is here as well. So, I'll let you watch your master die before I slaughter you!" Wang Xian dismissed the warnings. He then wielded his sword and struck in Fang Huazi's direction.

"Don't you dare!" Fang Huazi shrieked while his face contorted. His abilities were nowhere near the Inborn-level. Moreover, given his now handicapped body, his combat powers were merely that of a Level 3 to 4 Martial Artist.

With him having absolutely no means of resistance, Wang Xian went straight in and chopped off Fang Huazi's legs!

"You... The Sacred Followers Guild won't let you off. How dare you hurt me, the Sacred Followers Guild won't ever let you off!" Fang Huazi let out an ear-piercing scream.

"If the Sacred Followers Guild doesn't give me an explanation on this matter, I'll wipe the Sacred Followers Guild out!" Wang Xian hollered with murderous intent.

"Tsk, how savage!" a voice from the crowd yelped.

"To think he said he'll wipe the Sacred Followers Guild out. He's simply too impudent!" another gasped.

As the crowd heard Wang Xian's words, their hearts stirred. Annihilating the Sacred Followers Guild? Even Sacred Sects would not dare to make such frivolous comments.

To think a factionless doctor would have the guts to face the Sacred Grounds of a Medical Sect...

The hearts of Nine Lotus Sect Disciples quivered. To think the young lad standing in front of them was savage enough to talk about annihilating the Sacred Followers Guild.

Little wonder he had maimed their young master, given such unrivalled impudence.

"When the Ancestral Sect experts are out, this insolent lad will end up in a plight worse than death!" one of them scowled.

The disciples stared apathetically at the insolent lad, as they kept vigil over him.

Just then, the disciples heard an utterance coming from the insolent lad. "Kill all of them, every one of the Nine Lotus Sect disciples!" he ordered.

"What?" the crowd around screeched, utterly taken aback. There were slightly over thirty remaining disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect around. But they had not made their moves earlier, as most of their combat abilities were below Level 8.

To think that this Miracle Doctor Wang was about to begin his massacre right now!

Boom, boom!

Two bouts of daunting forces surged right at them just as they ended their words.

Immediately, the crowd snapped their heads back in horror, and looked in the direction of Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan.

The two Inborns projected a stance that far exceeded one of an ordinary Inborn expert. Whiffs of devilish aura circled about their bodies along with their ferocity. This mortified the martial artists, and they held their breath for a split moment with apprehension in their eyes.

Mo Qinglong began to make his move. But he did not attack the disciples of Nine Lotus Sect. Instead, he arrived alongside a young man who stood further away.

Just earlier, this young man had called Wang Xian a dork, sneering with much sarcasm.

He thus deserved death!

Meanwhile, the young man nearly peed in his pants as he looked at the aggressive and sadistic Mo Qinglong.

"No, don't kill me...", the young man pleaded in fear, as he retreated backwards.

"Die!" Mo Qinglong hollered as he lashed his Dragon Claws, and struck directly at the young man.

"Stop right there, how dare you hurt our Mortal Sect disciples!" a voice ordered.

Everyone who had made it into the cave were from First-class forces, while this young man had belonged to the Mortal Sect. The other voice belonged to an Elder of the same sect, as he stood in the center of the rest.

The Elder possessed Inborn-level powers. He hollered when he saw Mo Qinglong blatantly slaughtering his sect disciple, striking a counter-attack with his palms at the former as he did.

Bam!

As the Elder's palm met with Mo Qinglong's claw, his face twitched before he receded.

"You dare block our path, then I'll have to wipe all of you out first!" Mo Qinglong snarled as his body oozed with a murderous vibe.

Behind him, Mo Yuan lunged forth at the Mortal Sect Elder in a single leap, and began to attack.

"What? Annihilating them over a mere disagreement in exchange!" the crowd gasped.

Chapter 380: Bloodbath (6)

"You guys... You guys..."

When the Inborn expert from Mortal Sect saw Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan charging towards him brimming with killing intent, fear flashed across his eyes.

He was aghast and looked to be filled with fear.

The two men before him were too domineering. They attacked his disciple out of nowhere. When he tried to stop them, they wanted to kill him.

Domineering and arrogant!

"If you can't stop the mouth of your disciple from spouting nonsense, we can only let him shut up forever. If you dare to stop us, we'll just have to slaughter you!"

Mo Qinglong swung his Claws of the Devil Dragon rampantly. Dreadful and strong devilish aura was mixed with his bloodlust. This caused the Inborn expert from the Mortal Sect to be overwhelmed with fear.

This momentum was something he could never withstand.

Moreover, there was another incredible expert beside him. This expert also had an identical devilish aura and wasn't someone he could stop.

"I... I'm just trying to protect my own disciple..."

Fear flashed across the eyes of the old man. Facing two experts who were determined to kill, desperation slowly crept in.

Rumble!

In the second strike, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan attacked together.

"Arghh! I'll fight it out with you guys!"

Incredible aura erupted from the Inborn expert from the Mortal Sect as he growled loudly.

Bam!

However, the all-out attempt from the Inborn expert only managed to stop the attack from Mo Yuan.

Mo Qinglong's claws of the devil dragon penetrated through the body of the old man from Mortal Sect and smashed him heavily onto the ground.

The old man from Mortal Sect was killed on the spot.

Just because the disciple from his Sect was vulgar and he tried to protect his own disciple...

The surrounding crowd shivered in fear. Even the Inborn experts of these sects and families felt horrified.

"What incredible strength! Within the Inborn Realm, they have likely reached the Pinnacle. It is especially so for that middle-aged man. He has likely reached the Half-Step to Dan Realm!"

"Sss. Our disciples previously..."

Several Inborn experts turned solemn. They recalled their disciples criticizing Wang Xian previously. Although they didn't use any vulgarities, the two men before them couldn't be judged with rationality.

Domineering and brutal. Because of a single comment, they had killed the old man.

"No... Don't... Don't..."

At this instant, the young man who had been rude previously crumpled on the floor in fear. He looked at the corpse of the expert from his sect as fear and desperation slowly overwhelmed him.

Rumble!

As Mo Yuan waved his arm, a stream of monstrous devilish flames fell onto the young man.

The young man stared, opening his eyes wide as his body was reduced to ashes before the astonished crowd.

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan turned their attention towards the Mortal Sect.

"No. Don't kill us... We have nothing to do with them. Don't kill us..."

When the disciples from the Mortal Sect felt their gazes, their eyes were filled with horror as they begged for mercy.

The disciples from the Mortal Sect were truly terrified. The Mortal Sect only had two Inborn experts and one of them was killed right before them. Moreover, he wasn't even able to put up a fight at all. This petrified them with fear.

It's all the fault of that damned brat! He shouldn't have mocked that young man.

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan looked across them. Seeing the spineless disciples of the Mortal Sect, all they felt was contempt.

Moving again, they attacked the group of dumbfounded disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect.

Argh!

In an instant, pitiful cries resounded within the Sky Mountains. None of the disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect had managed to escape from this massacre.

The fresh blood and pitiful cries resulted in a heavy and solemn atmosphere around the crowd.

"They are going to annihilate the entire Nine Lotus Sect!"

An Inborn expert looked on in shock as the young man with the longsword walked towards the back of the wheelchair and pushed the girl towards the cave.

"This way, please..."

At this moment, the disciples of a few other forces, who were guarding the entrance of the cave, immediately opened a path upon seeing Wang Xian approaching.

Woof woof!

The voice of the Heavenly Hound resounded. It wagged its tail as it moved beside the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect. After which, it bit him and flung him towards the side of the cave.

It did the same to Fang Huazi and threw him beside the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect.

"You... You..."

The young master of the Nine Lotus Sect lifted his head and looked around him. Seeing that all the disciples from the Nine Lotus Sect had been killed, he couldn't help but feel petrified.

"Our Sect Leader won't let you off!" He gritted his teeth as he remarked bitterly.

"I'll not let the Nine Lotus Sect have another day of peace. Moreover, I'm going to let you witness it!"

When Wang Xian heard the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect, he lowered his head and said this coldly.

Cough cough!

The young master of the Nine Lotus Sect shivered in fear. Fresh blood oozed out from his severed limbs as vitality was slowly leaking from his eyes.

No matter what the outcome would be, his future had been determined.

From the high and mighty young master of the Nine Lotus Sect, who held extremely great powers, and an Inborn expert, he had become just a handicapped person now.

Furthermore, he might very well die from these injuries.

This made it hard for him to swallow the truth as he slouched on the floor, feeling hopeless.

Why did I offend a death reaper like him?

"The Sacred Followers Guild won't let you off. They will definitely not let you off..."

From the side, Fang Huazi cursed incessantly.

Wang Xian responded with a cold and mocking smile.

Around them, the corpses of the disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect were scattered all around, filling the Sky Mountains with the scent of blood.

Wang Xian stood at the entrance to the cave and waited silently for the people of Nine Lotus Sect and the master of Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi to return.

Around him, all the other forces were hesitating and eventually chose not to leave.

They wanted to witness the outcome.

The sun set gradually.

It was already into the winter season. As a gust of chilling wind blew past, the surrounding Martial Artist unconsciously pulled their clothes closer to their bodies.

The chilling sensation they felt wasn't just from the chilling wind. It was also from the situation around them.

Corpses were scattered around them and the scent of blood filled the atmosphere.

Ta ta ta!

"They are back!"

The sounds of footsteps broke the silence of the surroundings. The crowd felt their hearts skip a beat as they stared attentively at the cave.

"Hahahaha! An Inborn Spiritual Weapon and the Ancient Spiritual Sword Technique. My Nine Lotus Sect shall kindly accept them this time!"

"The Ancient Spiritual Sword Technique is extremely powerful. Among all the known sword techniques, it could easily rank among the top three. It is said that it is comparable to the Sacred Seas Sword Technique of the Sacred Seas of Swords. With this sword technique, the strength of the Nine Lotus Sect will increase substantially!"

"Brother Wan, can you give me the Nine Lotus Ossein as soon as possible? My disciple still requires it for treatment!"

"Rest assured, Brother Feng! Since Brother Feng has asked, I would naturally not reject!"

From the cave, the sounds of a conversation propagated out. Soon, a group of people emerged from the cave.

The group that came out wore black attire. At the forefront of the group were two old men and they looked a little exhausted.

The raiding of the ancient tomb had brought them substantial rewards this time.

"Scent of blood?"

When the two old men picked up the smell, their eyebrows knitted together instantly.

Chapter 381: Bloodbath (7)

"What's the situation, Clan Leader?" a middle-aged man asked with a frown. He was currently standing behind the crowd, dressed in all black, and raised the question upon smelling the blood stench like the rest.

"This...," the Clan Leader and Elder of the Liuyun Family trailed off.

They had been walking at the front of the group while looking around to assess the situation. They were astonished by the sight ahead.

They glanced across the ground, in the face of tens of dead bodies dressed in white with a black lotus motif. It was obvious that these were members of the Nine Lotus Sect.

When their sight landed on the area beside the cave exit, their faces twitched in shock.

Two grotesque looking bodies lay next to the cave opening. One of them was wearing a white robe embellished with a black lotus motif, and appeared very familiar.

While the other also resembled a close acquaintance.

"It's the young master of Nine Lotus Sect, plus Fang Huazi, disciple of Elder Feng!" the duo cried out with a heavy look. They scanned around once more. There was no one from the Nine Lotus Sect in sight, only dead bodies of their members.

"These few here?" a voice quizzed.

In reflex, the group looked ahead immediately, and saw a young man pushing a wheelchair while he hovered outside the cave entrance.

He was accompanied by a young maiden in the wheelchair.

The pair was standing by the cave entrance in silence, as if waiting for those inside to come out.

"A sanguinary vibe?" one asked.

"Move along, Liuyun Clan Leader!" the rest of the forces hurried in confusion, as they were further inside the underground cave and hence oblivious to the scene ahead.

With their gazes fixed on Wang Xian and company, the two Elders who donned all-black attire leaped into the air with one move. As they landed above the cave entrance, they guarded against the surroundings in vigilance.

"Clan Leader!" several voices greeted. It came from the members of various forces, as well as several middle-aged men dressed in black robes, as they hurried their way over to meet the Clan Leader.

The disciples of the remaining forces also ran over to receive the experts from their Ancestral Sects.

"What's the matter?" the two Elders of the Liuyun Family asked their disciples with a burdened look, after a brief glance at Wang Xian and company.

"Clan Leader!" the disciples called out. They eyed Wang Xian and the group in fear, before continuing with their updates on the situation.

"What happened?" one questioned.

"What's the matter with Nine Lotus' young master and Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi?" the others chimed in.

Right then, the rest of the forces who were following behind had managed their way out. They shouted at the horrifying sight.

The disciples who had been waiting for them outside the entrance hurried over to narrate what happened.

"What's the situation? Make way for the Nine Lotus Sect!" an Elder demanded, while his voice boomed with dominance beneath the cave opening.

Hastily, all the forces stepped back to the sides. With a burdened look, they eyed Wang Xian's group of six. But as they turned back to look at the experts from the Nine Lotus Sect, their eyes glowed. The experts were walking over from the furthest edge of the underground cave.

The news delivered by the group of disciples had simply overwhelmed them.

To think that Miracle Doctor Wang, a mere factionless doctor from Rivertown, had the guts to come all the way here in order to wipe out the Nine Lotus Sect.

They knew that a battle would break out this time, at the tragic sight of the Nine Lotus' young master and Miracle Doctor Fang Huazi.

"Eh? How come there's blood stench coming from above? Why? Did some reckless fellow attempt to barge in?" a chubby middle-aged man asked. He had just emerged from the underground cave with all smiles.

"Sect leader!" a weak voice called out. The chubby Elder was slightly puzzled as he turned over. Yet, when he lifted his head to check, the smile on his face vanished.

He looked forth in the direction where the voice had come from.

In an instant, a murderous aura filled the air.

"Shaoling, you ... why have you become like this?!" the plump Elder cried out with a contorted expression. With a single leap, he dashed to the side of the Nine Lotus' young master as his eyes fumed with fury.

"What happened?" the plump Elder demanded.

"What?" another voice started to ask, upon hearing the commotion.

"Who was it? Who has the audacity to kill my Nine Lotus Sect disciple!" the plump Elder continued.

"Huazi!" The voice who had asked a question before shrieked this time.

As all members of the Nine Lotus Sect emerged from the cave, they were followed by Fang Huazi's master, the Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild, as well as another Miracle Doctor from their Sect.

When they saw the surrounding scene, their eyes went bloodshot with bellicose howls.

As he growled, the plump Elder turned to face the Nine Lotus' young master who was on the ground. "Shaoling, who did this? Tell me, who did this? I'll make sure to tear him to pieces!" he cried with an awful look.

"They're out!" Wang Xian exclaimed with a smile, as he saw that all members of the Nine Lotus Sect had stepped out from the cave.

"Huh?" the crowd asked in bewilderment as they looked over at Wang Xian, whose voice had drawn their attention.

Elder Feng, who was beside Fang Huazi at the time, looked over immediately upon hearing the voice.

"Rivertown's Miracle Doctor Wang!" Elder Feng called out in recognition.

Elder Feng's focus landed on Wang Xian after scanning his group of six. "Is this your doing?" he asked with a narrowed gaze, as it filled with savagery.

"Yep. This is just the beginning. You guys are next!" Wang Xian nodded, before he proceeded to draw his sword.

"How dare you kill my Nine Lotus Sect disciples. I'll make you wish you were dead!" an Elder snapped upon hearing Wang Xian's words. He darted over with one leap and began to attack.

With few questions asked, and few details fussed over.

He with the guts to kill the Nine Lotus Sect disciples, and the audacity to land the Youth Leader in such miserable plight, shall die!

"Nine Lotus Sect? I wonder who gave you the courage and audacity to harm my little sister!" Wang Xian retorted. Taking a stance, he sprung forth to meet the Elder heads-on.

"You're courting doom!" the Elder hollered. With his Inborn-level prowess, he exuded a chilling force of dominance.

"Hmph!" Wang Xian grunted sarcastically, as his sword flashed past.

Pfft!

One strike of the sword. Again, one strike of the sword was all it took. The Elder smacked in Wang Xian's direction with his palm. But, after the sword struck right back, the Elder's attack halted to an abrupt stop.

"And the wipeout begins!" Wang Xian announced as he withdrew his sword. With one quick shift, he bolted towards the crowd from the Nine Lotus Sect and began to strike.

"Huh?" the Nine Lotus Sect members uttered with a puzzled look, as they looked on at the Elder who had initiated the attack.

Why had the Elder's attack halted so abruptly?

Bam!

Under the astonished gaze from the Nine Lotus Sect members and the rest, the Elder's body crashed onto the floor, while he looked on with enlarged pupils.

Blood gushed out from his neck in copious amounts.

"Killing the Elder with one strike of the sword?" one uttered.

"Oh no!" another cried out in realization.

Upon realizing that their Elder had actually died, everyone from the Nine Lotus Sect looked over at Wang Xian, who was now coming for them as they shrieked in panic.

"Kill him!" the Nine Lotus' Sect Leader ordered, as he glared at Wang Xian with eyes wide.

"Kill!" all the experts from the Nine Lotus Sect chimed in unison. As they aimed at Wang Xian, they lunged forward with their palm-strike.

Pat, pat, pat!

Wang Xian wielded his long sword, and slashed away at the bodies of the Nine Lotus Sect experts with incredible speed.

While he was not versed in swordplay, Wang Xian was backed by his formidable combat powers. Coupled with the boost from his Inborn-level weapon, it was a piece of cake for him to slay those whose abilities were a level below his.

Which made killing the Inborns as easy as slaughtering livestock.

"What? How can it be? How can he be this formidable?" the onlookers gasped. They were astonished by the ease of the young man as he killed an Inborn expert with one strike of his sword.

The ease of defeating the Nine Lotus' young master may have taken them by surprise. But, given that he had just achieved his Inborn status, defeating him in one move was not impossible.

Yet, right now, even the experienced and reputed Inborn expert had been slain with one strike of the sword.

And in particular, it was the long sword which the young man wielded, which had also begun its massacre on the numerous experts of the Nine Lotus Sect!

Taking them down one after another, one strike at a time!

Chapter 382: Total Annihilation

"So powerful! So powerful!"

"A person in a single strike. All of them were killed in a single strike. How could Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown have such insane strength?"

"He's just twenty and yet ranked ninth on the Miracle Doctors Chart and has the strength that easily kills Inborn experts. What kinds of insane talents does he have to reach this level?"

Amidst the Sky Mountains, the surrounding crowd looked in shock.

A young man with a longsword in his hand was slaughtering the entire Nine Lotus Sect without reservation.

A person in a single strike. All the experts from the Nine Lotus Sect, including Inborn level experts, were all falling with a single strike.

"His strength is incredible!"

When the Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect saw the experts in his sect being killed easily, he felt a chill running down his spine. Staring coldly at Wang Xian, he clenched his fist tightly.

"How dare you kill our people from the Nine Lotus Sect. Die now!"

Seeing Elders and attendants of the Nine Lotus Sect falling one after another, the Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect was burning with anger. He moved and attacked Wang Xian directly.

The aura around him was no inferior to Mo Yuan. As he moved his palm, his aura had the momentum of a deluge and swept towards Wang Xian.

The surrounding martial artists, who weren't at the Inborn Realm, immediately retreated.

"What an incredible Miracle Doctor! He has hidden his strength too well previously. A master alchemist, a Miracle Doctor and now he's also an Inborn expert!"

Elder Feng stood by the side and witnessed the horrifying acts of Wang Xian. He couldn't help but feel a chilling sensation as his expression turned exceptionally bitter.

"For a person like him, even if we can't become friends, we can never become his enemies. Otherwise..."

Elder Feng clenched his fist tightly. A razor-sharp weapon that resembled a surgical knife appeared in his hand.

"We must definitely kill him. Otherwise, there will be countless troubles in the future!"

Ruthlessness gleamed in the eyes of Elder Feng.

If Miracle Doctor Wang were just a master alchemist or a Miracle Doctor, he wouldn't be wary of him at all.

As an Elder of the Sacred Followers Guild, a Miracle Doctor or an alchemist wouldn't concern him, even if this person was a genius.

However, if the same person possessed insane strength, he couldn't just overlook him any further.

In the Underworld, strength dictated everything!

An insanely talented young man like him would likely have an eighty percent chance of entering the Dan Realm in the future. He could never allow a person like him to get stronger.

"Kill!" Elder Feng shouted coldly. Horrifying aura erupted from his body.

The Miracle Doctors around him followed closely behind him. In their hands, they had identical surgical knives.

"The Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild are taking actions!"

"Oh gosh? Why would the Sacred Followers Guild wants this young man dead?"

"That Miracle Doctor Wang crippled the disciple of the Elder in the Sacred Followers Guild. It's only natural that they want to kill him. In fact, the entire Sacred Followers Guild might just attack him!"

When the surrounding crowd saw Elder Feng attack, they were shocked.

Wang Xian's eyes were chillingly cold. Seeing Fang Huazi's master and the Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect approaching him, he waved his arm.

A dazzling golden glow emanated from Zhan Lu.

"That sword is emanating dazzling golden light?"

"Why am I feeling the treasured sword in my hands trembling violently? What is happening?"

"Inborn Spiritual Weapon! That sword is an Inborn Spiritual Weapon!"

The crowd exclaimed and stared fervently at Zhan Lu in Wang Xian's hand.

"Inborn Spiritual Weapon. It's no surprise why it's so sharp and could kill an Inborn expert in a single strike!"

The Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect gritted his teeth and shouted, "Die!"

A huge, five-meter palm struck towards Wang Xian with the momentum of a deluge.

Boom!

"How dare you injure my disciple! Today, I'm going to annihilate you!"

Elder Feng pierced his weapon towards Wang Xian coldly.

On the weapon, a chilling light gathered into a point and seemed capable of shooting through all objects.

Hehe!

Seeing over ten people attacking him from all directions at the same time, Wang Xian plunged Zhan Lu into the ground coldly.

Bzz bzz bzz!

At that instant, the surrounding crowd felt as though they were being dragged into a dazzling gold world.

Rays of golden light coalesced into sharp weapons and attacked in all directions from Wang Xian within a radius of twenty meters.

"What? This is a Sword Domain?"

Elder Feng, the Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect, and the rest, who were charging towards Wang Xian, were in shock to notice the razor-sharp weapons that appeared from nowhere.

"That's a powerful sword, but you will still die!"

The Sect Leader of Nine Lotus Sect drew a circle around him with his palm. The next instant, a water screen appeared around him.

The water screen was just like taichi as it rotated gradually around him.

Using minimal force, he swept aside the razor-sharp swords.

Ha!

Elder Feng let out a loud cry. At the same time, metallic aura emanated from him and surrounded him completely.

It was as though he had turned into a golden Vajra. As the sword energies fell on him, sounds of metal clashing resounded.

"This is really glamorous and cool!"

Wang Xian looked around him. With the energy of the Metal Divine Dragon, he incited the razor-sharp edge of Zhan Lu and coalesced them into countless razor-sharp sword energies. After which, he attacked in all directions within a twenty meters radius around him.

At that instant, he felt as though he was controlling thousands and thousands of swords.

"However, you guys are still going to die!"

Wang Xian placed his hand on Zhan Lu and smiled gently as he gripped it.

"Die!"

At this instant, the palm of the Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect was already above Wang Xian's head. With a gruesome expression, he smashed down heavily.

However, the golden light on Zhan Lu shone even brighter. Strong and dazzling golden rays caused everyone to tear.

Everyone in the surrounding crowd had now looked away as a painful sensation cruised in their eyes.

Roar!

Suddenly, everyone heard a horrifying roar.

The golden rays coalesced into a five-meter-long divine dragon that met the palm of the Sect Leader of Nine Lotus Sect directly.

The Metal Divine dragon emanated bone piercing rays. He opened his huge jaws and attacked the Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect directly.

"What?"

The Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect was horrified to see Wang Xian's head turning into a horrifying divine dragon.

Retracting his palm, the taichi water screen around him emitted strong blue light and circulated even quicker.

Bam!

The Metal Divine Dragon swung its claws towards the water screen directly.

Bam!

Dreadful energy of the Metal Dragon split the defense of the Sect Leader of Nine Lotus Sect easily and the claws struck heavily into his body.

Fresh blood spattered everywhere.

Bam!

Having knocked the Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect down in a single strike, Wang Xian swung his tail towards Elder Feng and the rest.

Boom!

Strong and powerful dragon energy landed on the bodies of the surrounding people.

"What?"

Elder Feng was greatly shocked and immediately pierced the razor-sharp weapon in his hand towards the dragon tail.

Dang!

What he heard was the sounds of metal clashing. Following which, tremendous force fell on him.

Boom!

As the dragon tail swept across, all the people fell to the ground.

Whoosh!

The divine dragon disappeared and countless long metallic sword energies appeared once again.

Swoosh swoosh swoosh swoosh!

Countless sword energies struck towards the people on the ground.

Argh!

Pitiful cries filled the atmosphere as the surrounding crowd felt their hearts palpitating violently.

Chapter 383: Top Of The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart

"What happened? To think the piercing rays of the Metal Element have stretched over an area of twenty meters in radius!" one gasped.

"It's too petrifying. Is this the combat prowess above the Inborn level?" another squeaked.

All around, the crowd quivered at the endless stream of spine-chilling cries. The area, which was now concealed by the metallic sheen, had made it impossible for them to check out the combat situation inside.

Suddenly, the crowd was taken by storm.

As the golden sheen disappeared gradually, they began to peer in its direction.

Slowly, a figure emerged. It was a young man with a long sword in his hands, while the weapon was rooted upright into the ground.

Countless scratch marks marred the surrounding ground's surface.

Alongside lay the corpse of the Miracle Doctor and Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild, together with several bodies of the Nine Lotus Sect experts.

"To think that one person can take down four Inborn experts!"

"Such formidable capabilities. So that's the prowess of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown? Simply wicked!" the crowd murmured at the sight, and looked on in disbelief.

A young man in his twenties, who was also a Miracle Doctor ranked ninth amongst all within the underworld, had such formidable powers to add. Singlehandedly, the young man had defeated all experts within the Nine Lotus Sect as well as the Elder and Miracle Doctor from the Sacred Followers Guild.

"Such an extraordinary gift is unrivalled and unprecedented, be it in the past or future. Even the first on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart would pale very much in comparison!" the two elders from the Liuyun Family commented as they exchanged glances. Both of them could sense the intense astonishment from the other party.

Such a character was deemed to have unparalleled achievements, as though a dragon had managed to ascend to the highest of skies.

"Phew, flamboyant moves which expended too much energy, especially with my serious injuries, are gaudy and impractical!" Wang Xian commented while raising his head, before he pulled the Zhan Lu Sword out from the ground and looked around.

Ahem, ahem!

Ahem, ahem!

Just then, sounds of two coughing could be heard, as two silhouettes began to pick themselves up off the ground. It was the Sect Leader of the Nine Lotus Sect along with Elder Feng.

"They're dead, to think that they're all dead!" the Nine Lotus' Sect Leader exclaimed with a dazed look. Up till now, he remained clueless as to why the young man had annihilated the Nine Lotus Sect.

This made him shudder.

As he raised his head to look Wang Xian in the eye, the Nine Lotus' Sect Leader pleaded with a tinge of misery, "Can you tell me what feud you have with my Nine Lotus Sect?"

Upon hearing his words, Wang Xian let out a brief smile before he proceeded over and stared at the Nine Lotus' Sect Leader.

"The poison which my little sister's been struck with is affiliated with your Nine Lotus Sect!" Wang Xian replied apathetically as he pointed to Xiao Yu in the wheelchair.

"What?" the Nine Lotus' Sect Leader gasped with eyes wide, shocked by the sight of Xiao Yu, who was wheelchair-bound.

This young maiden, based on his knowledge, was a disciple of a Second-class Force; and also the younger sister of a Miracle Doctor.

Earlier, he had agreed to the decision of his good friend, Elder Feng, when the latter suggested that Nine Lotus' young master inject a poison into the young lady's body when they were exchanging blows.

How could a Second-class Force compete with them, the Nine Lotus Sect?

How could a Miracle Doctor match up against the Elder of the Sacred Followers Guild?

From what he had seen, it was nothing more than the death of one on the spot.

He had not expected the elder brother of this young lady to actually be this terrifying.

Those formidable powers were definitely not of the Inborn realm, but at least a Half-step to Dan Realm. He dared not imagine it as any level beyond.

"You... What do you want?" the Nine Lotus' Sect Leader asked in trepidation. With an awful expression, he wiped the fresh blood off his face.

"Haha, what do I want? Haven't you seen it for yourself? I want...", Wang Xian responded before he raised his Zhan Lu Sword, "not one surviving soul from your Nine Lotus Sect!"

Pfft!

"You...", the Nine Lotus' Sect Leader uttered. But, the Zhan Lu Sword came down on him even before he could continue. As he paused, he felt a sharp pain searing at his chest. With widened eyes, he eventually fell to the ground.

After withdrawing his Zhan Lu Sword, Wang Xian looked over at Elder Feng who stood to the side.

Elder Feng watched as the Nine Lotus' Sect Leader was killed, and narrowed his eyes at the sight of the latter's death. He gazed over at Wang Xian with a contorted look.

"The antidote is kept within the Sacred Followers Guild. If you let me go, I'll give you the antidote. Otherwise, the poison in your little sister's body can never be neutralized!" Elder Feng spoke to Wang Xian in a lowered pitch as his eyes glistened.

"Fang Huazi said that this poison does not come with an antidote, and even the Sect Leader of your Sacred Followers Guild is unable to neutralize it!" Wang Xian spoke flatly as he eyed Elder Feng.

Upon hearing this, Elder Feng's face flinched. Despite which, he continued with an awful expression, "This poison comes with an antidote!"

"Regardless of this, you'll have to die!" Wang Xian retorted. As he shot Elder Feng a look of disregard, he raised the Zhan Lu sword in his hand.

"What, you...," Elder Feng uttered.

Pfft!

Wang Xian did not bear the slightest hesitation. Regardless of the antidote's existence, he and Fang Huazi would have to die.

Should there be an antidote, he would stomp over to the Sacred Followers Guild and ask their leader for it.

Should there be none, those close to Fang Huazi shall perish with him.

"He really killed him. To think he really killed the Sacred Followers Guild Elder right on the spot!" one shrieked.

"Slaying the Elder of the Sacred Followers Guild. This is no doubt a slap in the face to the Sacred Sect. Justified or otherwise, the Sacred Followers Guild will have to seek revenge for Elder Feng!" another added.

"This Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is really menacing, having killed four Inborn experts from the Nine Lotus Sect, as well as the Elder of Sacred Followers Guild. No one knows how things will develop from here. In the face of such a powerful existence, even the Sacred Followers Guild will have to treat this matter seriously!" the third chimed in.

Everyone continued to look on in astonishment, having witnessed the killing of the Nine Lotus' Sect Leader and the Sacred Followers Guild Elder by Wang Xian.

With his long sword in hand, Wang Xian came over to the sides of the Nine Lotus' young master and Fang Huazi before bending down.

As of now, the two had been overwhelmed with despair. While they trembled, their eyes eyes with Wang Xian's as though the Devil had descended upon them.

"Didn't think of this, did you? That you would end up in such a state for staging an attack on my little sister!?" Wang Xian asked as he looked at the young master.

Eyes filled with tears, he sank his head as his face looked dead as dust.

"Isn't it good to be well and alive? Why did you seek death?" Wang Xian concluded before standing up, and began to take aim with his sword.

"This is an ancient tomb, how apt. It'll do as your burial ground!" Wang Xian added.

Upon hearing the comment, everyone around shuddered.

They looked at the young man, both in awe and trepidation.

Thereafter, they watched as the young man walked to the side of the wheelchair and smiled at his younger sister before the duo left with the former pushing the wheelchair.

The rest continued to watch, with no less trepidation than fear, even as the duo went further away.

Behind the crowd, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan approached the bodies of the Nine Lotus Sect members. They retrieved the long sword, also an Inborn Spiritual Weapon, along with the Secret Manual of the Ancient Spiritual Sword Technique, before following behind the sibling duo.

"Simply too powerful. How could such a formidable youth exist in this world!" one of the onlookers gasped.

"What do you guys reckon of his prowess...do you think he's Half-step to Dan Realm?" another quizzed.

The forces left behind crowded around and began to buzz as they watched the figure disappear.

Several Inborn experts who were closely acquainted exchanged glances before frowning.

"I think he's at Half-step to Dan Realm!" an Elder from the Liuyun Family murmured.

"Likely the Inborn Realm. I saw his last defining strike, where the long sword was rooted into the ground while he held it with both hands. It's likely that the last stance was executed by the Inborn Spiritual Weapon in his hands!" another contested.

"One from the Inborn Realm killing four Inborn experts all at once, where the four are all very formidable Inborn experts, too?" the third argued.

"Half-step to Dan Realm's too inconceivable. I reckon he's a Pinnacle Inborn. So he can still achieve what he did, under the boost from an Inborn Spiritual Weapon," the last suggested.

The interactions between the few Inborn experts continued, while they shuddered at the sight of the bodies which were sprawled all over the place.

The prowess of the Nine Lotus Sect had suppressed that of all other forces present. They were also the ones to have gained all the recovered treasures from this ancient tomb excavation while the rest showed zero signs of resistance.

Yet, this was also the powerful Ancestral Sect which had been annihilated by a young man, using one long sword.

The ancient tomb ended up as the cemetery of the Nine Lotus Sect members. Based on the young man's tone, his gang had no intentions of letting the Nine Lotus Sect off.

This was an utter extermination of the Sect!

"The top of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart goes to that young man. The underworld is, once again, experiencing an upheaval!" a voice declared.

Chapter 384: Underworld Shocked

The car left from Sky City, heading towards Rivertown.

It was a six to seven hour journey. Within the span of this time, this incident caused a huge uproar in the Underworld.

The Underworld had the Underworld website to facilitate the flow of information between martial artists, issuing missions and announcing some matters.

The Underworld had never been peaceful. Each day, there would be information about certain families being annihilated, certain experts being assassinated or certain experts reaching the Inborn Realm. To put it simply, the Underworld was a fast-changing and lively place.

All the sects and families paid close attention to the Underworld website to understand what was happening around the Underworld.

Today, a shocking piece of news was released on the website.

Subsequent to the annihilation of the Dark Conjurers, this was the second incident that shocked the entire Underworld.

In the forum of the Underworld website, a thread with a shocking headline popped up.

[Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown annihilated the Nine Lotus Sect with his own hands. All the experts of the Nine Lotus Sect were killed. Furthermore, he has killed Elder Feng from the Sacred Followers Guild and his disciple, Fang Huazi.]

When the thread appeared, it instantly attracted the attention of everyone.

The Nine Lotus Sect was a powerful First-class Force. They had five known Inborn experts, among which the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect was the most famous.

He ranked fifth on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart and had reached the Inborn Realm in his thirties. His exceptional talents were even better than the Saints and Saintess of several other Sacred Sects.

This was a powerful sect with substantial numbers of talents emerging. Among the First-class Forces, they were also one of the strongest.

To become an Elder in a Sacred Sect, one undoubtedly had to be an Inborn level existence.

Moreover, the Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild were also largely powerful Miracle Doctors. Their names might not appear on the Miracle Doctors Chart but their medical techniques wouldn't be any inferior to the top ten on the chart.

Yet, these two powerful groups had been annihilated.

When the people clicked into the threads, they saw photo after photo of corpses. These included the Elders and disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect.

Other than those, there were photos of corpses of Elder Feng and his followers from the Sacred Followers Guild.

When the people saw the large number of experts' corpses, they couldn't help but shiver.

[Four days ago, an Ancient Tomb was revealed in the Sky Mountains in the Sky City. Many forces would likely know about it. In the end, several powerful sects surrounding the Sky Mountains occupied the area. Among them, the Nine Lotus Sect occupied the most central position!]

[A Saintess from a Second-class sect also rushed to the Ancient Tomb in Sky City. She had a clash with the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect and was severely injured and gravely poisoned by him!]

[That young girl was the Saintess of the Thistles and Thorns Sect and its future Sect Leader. At the same time, she's also the sister of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown.]

[Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is the youngest Miracle Doctor on the Miracle Doctors Chart and ranked ninth on it. Poison Doc once complimented him. It is said that Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown not only possesses incredible medical techniques, but he is also a Level 3 alchemist. His talents are exceptional and it wouldn't be an exaggeration to call him the proud son of heaven!]

[Today, Miracle Doctor Wang pushed his sister in a wheelchair and brought two Inborn experts with him to the Ancient Tomb in Sky City. With just a single sword with him, he easily crippled the young master of the Nine Lotus Sect and slayed the disciples of the Nine Lotus Sect!]

[When the Sect Leader of Nine Lotus Sect returned from the Ancient Tomb with the other experts of the Sect and Elder Feng from the Sacred Followers Guild, Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown slew all of them with a single sword. Holding his Inborn Spiritual Weapon in his hand, he fought with over a dozen experts and killed all of them!]

[A miracle doctor, alchemist and dreadful Inborn expert at the age of twenty! Looking through history, he's definitely the only one. Among this generation of youths, who can possibly match him?]

[Who can possibly match him?]

A simple introduction together with several photos instantly shocked everyone who saw the thread.

The first comment on the thread was by the person who had started the thread.

[Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is truly too insanely strong. With just a sword, no one could stop him. Nine Lotus Sect could be considered to be a very powerful Sect. Yet, they were annihilated by him alone. I have witnessed this with my own eyes and I'm still feeling the goosebumps at the thought of it. He's too powerful. Killing five Inborn experts at the age of twenty alone. Among this generation of youths, who could possibly be a match for him?]

The thread had only been up for five hours but had gathered over fifty thousand replies. The fervent attention paid to it pushed it to the front page.

[Is this real? The Nine Lotus Sect is a very powerful First-class Force. They have several Inborn experts. How could a twenty-year old young man annihilate all of them?]

[Unbelievable! When I saw this thread, I couldn't believe my eyes. Is this even possible for a person to be so demon-like?]

[The four First-class Forces, Liuyun Family, West Mountain Sect, Emptiness Sect and Lawless Mountain Sect, were all present and had witnessed it with their own eyes. I was there too and the whole matter was even more astonishing than what the forum starter had described!]

[A twenty-year-old Miracle Doctor, alchemist and Inborn expert... Moreover, he's factionless. How could this Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown be so insanely talented?]

[He's too incredible and demon-like. Twenty years old! How can there ever be such a demon-like existence!]

...

[The incident has been verified. The strength of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is truly shocking. However, he has killed an Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild. This matter won't just end as easily as this!]

[As the saying goes, those whom the gods favor often die young. Although the talents of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown are truly exceptional, the Sacred Followers Guild will not let him off for killing Elder Feng from the Sacred Followers Guild without reservation!]

[I wonder how the Sacred Followers Guild will respond. With their pride as a Sacred Sect, this matter won't end so peacefully.]

[The Sacred Followers Guild will most likely take action!]

[Giving this demon-like existence another ten years, he might very well reach the realm above the Inborn Realm. What an incredible talent!]

[Some people believe that Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown has already attained strength above the Inborn Realm. I just wonder if they are right!]

[Shocking! The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart has been updated. The former number one, Young Master Hai Long, has been pushed down to the second spot. Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown has made it to the top! Moreover, he's the youngest of all!]

[If Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown survives, he will definitely be similar to the Island Master of Sea Serpent Island in the future. As just a single person, he would be an existence that could match up to an entire Sacred Sect.]

On the Underworld forum, all the martial artists were discussing fervently.

There were even people who were certain that if Wang Xian did not die prematurely, he would definitely play an important role in the Underworld in the future.

A twenty-year-old Inborn expert was already enough to impress everyone. Moreover, this twenty-year old expert could even annihilate a powerful First-class Force alone and kill the Elder from a Sacred Sect.

This piece of news spread rapidly to the upper management of each Sect. Regardless of their location, it was also quickly conveyed to the Sect Masters of these Sacred Sects.

A twenty-year-old existence that could slay five Inborn experts was indeed worthy of their attention.

All kinds of information regarding Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown quickly reached the hands of the experts from various families and sects.

The whole Underworld was shaken because of Wang Xian.

All the martial artists were astonished by Wang Xian's strength.

Those terrifying gifts and demon-like talents...

He was someone who put the other youths of this generation to shame!

Chapter 385: Sacred Enforcers (1)

Birds were flying in the sky above an island with viridescent trees, and a kind of captivating flower grew on the island.

The beach was enchanting with a group of vintage-looking buildings in the middle.

The entire island was like a wonderland.

At this time, a group of young men was lying before a wooden house on the beach. There were babes by the side, snuggling affectionately beside these young men.

"Hur? Something big happened in the Underworld!"

Just then, a young man exclaimed with astonishment while he was looking at his phone.

"Things happen in the Underworld every day. Why? What caught your eyes?"

A young man in a black swimming suit was caressing the babe beside him as he spoke with a smile.

"Hai Long, you're no longer the first on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart. Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, aged 20, has annihilated Nine Lotus Sect and slew an elder from Sacred Followers Guild."

That young man was appalled as he scrolled through the thread posts.

"What? Someone replaced Hai Long and took over the No.1 in the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart?"

Several young men sat up around him as they cast their attention to that young man.

Only one young man, who was wearing a yellow robe with a golden dragon embroidered on it, did not sit up. He squinted his eyes slightly.

"It's true. He went up against four Inborn Experts alone and killed all of them. What... what a great strength he has!"

"The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart reviewed him as the 20-year-old demon-like genius. He killed four Inborn Experts with a sword. The formidable results landed him the first position on this chart."

Several young men exclaimed in shock. He killed four Inborn Experts at the age of 20. Just like what the Underworld's critic said of him: a demon-like genius.

"Let me take a look!"

The young man in a yellow golden dragon robe stretched out his hand and spoke to the other young guy at the side.

"Look, Brother Hai Long!"

That man quickly walked over and handed his phone to him.

"With Inborn Spiritual Weapon, he slew four Inborn Experts alone!"

When the young man read the story on the phone, he drew his lips and said, "Perhaps I have not made my move for a long time..."

As he spoke, he returned the phone back to that young guy and sat in his chair without taking this to heart.

"Brother Hai Long, your strength is...?"

When the group of young men heard his casual tone, their eyes narrowed as they tried to sniff out some information.

"If my dad contains his strength at Inborn Realm, I can exchange over ten strokes with him!" Hai Long said nonchalantly.

"What?"

The group of young men was stunned, with disbelief on their faces.

The ability to exchange more than ten strokes with his father was extremely fearsome.

Hai Long's father was ranked second on the Outstanding Experts Chart. He was the true-blue peerless expert and an unrivaled existence.

Once, his father killed an Inborn Expert with just one finger, shocking everyone in the Underworld.

Yet, Hai Long was able to exchange more than ten strokes with his father even though he had controlled his level to be the same as his son.

"Brother Hai Long is invincible among the young generation. When that Wang Xian meets you, he will find out what a real outstanding young hero is!"

"That's right, Brother Hai Long. If he bumps into you, he'll pale into insignificance in comparison!"

Every one of them began their bootlicking.

"Hehe, isn't the competition for the young heroes going to start soon? I'll go and have some fun this year," Hai Long said with a beaming smile as he looked off, exuding immense confidence and superiority from within.

...

"Outstanding Young Heroes Chart? The charts in the Underworld are all jokes. Killing four Inborn Experts just by yourself at the age of 20? Your strength is quite formidable!"

"But, I'll defeat you if I have an Inborn Spiritual Weapon!"

In a quaint house among the towering mountains, a young man drew his lips as he read the message sent by his subordinate.

...

"Amitabha. All martial arts in the world originated from the Ancient Temple. Finally, I have the chance to go out after staying in this monastery for more than 30 years."

Back at an ancient temple, a young monk received an order from his master to make his way out of the mountain. As such, he was smiling from ear to ear.

He stroked his bald head and said, "What a wonderful and attractive world outside. Oh, I have to make a name for myself. Recently, the Underworld has been quite bustling! Hehe!"

The young monk looked greasy on his face with cloudy eyes, and didn't look like a monk at all.

...

The Underworld was experiencing turbulent times with the appearance of a demon-like genius. Everyone was shocked. At the same time, some prideful talents were unconvinced.

The top five rankings on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart were all at the Inborn Realm.

This was a known fact. Many sects and schools also hid their gifted disciples for their safety.

As such, more hidden talents remained unknown.

After all, there was more than a billion people within the country. The probability of a demon-like genius appearing was extremely high.

Back at a vast space surrounded by a dense bamboo forest in a grassland.

There was a palace sitting in the middle of the bamboo forest.

The palace was huge, spanning an area of ten thousand square meters. The entire region was filled with the scent of medicine.

If any ordinary people were to stay in this place, they could comfortably live up to a hundred years old.

There was quite a large amount of herbs planted around the palace. It was incredibly picturesque with the palace pavilions within it.

The signboard titled 'Sacred Followers Guild' was hung on one of the main buildings located at the center of the palace.

"This matter obviously arises because Elder Feng crippled Miracle Doctor Wang's sister with venom. Hence, Miracle Doctor Wang had his killing spree. I think we should plan our moves properly."

"Elder Yan She, our elder of the Sacred Followers Guild has been killed. What plan do we need?"

"Everyone in the Underworld is waiting to see our response. If we don't react to it, I'm sure everyone will think that we're weaklings. We cannot allow this precedent. So what if he is known as the demon-like genius?"

"We should kill him. Since he killed Old Feng, he must die. This is the Sacred Followers Guild's dignity!"

A group of more than thirty fearsome elders were sitting within the hall.

They all shared the same mightiness of a supreme leader as they quarreled within the hall.

However, the chairperson's seat was empty as the Guild Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild was not present.

Yan She swept his gaze across everyone sitting in front of him with a frown as he said, "The objective of the Sacred Followers Guild is to help each other, ensuring the safety of every Miracle Doctor. No one will provoke us if we don't do it first. Now, Elder Feng has been killed because of his own doings. Do we have to take revenge for someone who creates troubles?"

"Hmph, Yan She. Shut up. Old Feng is dead, and it hasn't been that long. He's one of our elders in the Sacred Followers Guild. Aren't we avenging him for when he was killed by someone else?"

Chapter 386: Sacred Enforcers (2)

"That's right. No matter who's at fault in this incident, the one who killed them deserves death. This is to let everyone know the consequences of messing with us, the Sacred Followers Guild!"

Before Yan She could finish his sentence, two old men seated opposite him shouted harshly.

"We will post the image of the corpse of that brat onto the Underworld website and make him the example of the consequences of messing with the Sacred Followers Guild!"

"Send out the Sacred Enforcers! That young man has to be killed. If he had just crippled Elder Feng, we wouldn't have said a further word. However, since he chose to kill him directly, it is a show of disrespect to our Sacred Followers Guild. We have to let him know the consequences!" Another two old men shouted emotionlessly.

Yan She frowned and looked displeased. He faced the group of Elders and said in a solemn tone, "Let's report this to the Guild Leader and see what he has in mind before acting!"

"Our Guild Leader went out to sea three days ago and we aren't sure when he will be back. We can't possibly be waiting for him forever. Yan She, since you don't want to be involved in this, shut your mouth. We will lead a few Sacred Enforcers over!"

At this instant, an old man opposite him stood up and chided. He looked across the group opposite of him. "I'll bring the Sacred Enforcers along with a few Elders. We don't need your involvement. Tsk!"

As the old man finished his words, he headed for the exit. Five Elders stood up, followed closely behind and left.

Yan She was feeling conflicted. The few other old men around him shook their heads, stood up and left without saying another word.

...

"Brother Wang Xian, this incident has been blown out of proportion!"

The journey from Sky City to Rivertown took six hours. Night had fallen when they arrived back at the villa. The moment they stepped in, they saw Sui Huang sitting on the sofa.

"Is that so? All I did was annihilate a First-class Force!"

Wang Xian looked at Sui Huang before carrying Xiao Yu to the sofa.

Sui Huang took a look at Xiao Yu and shook his head. "Brother Wang Xian, your name has shocked the entire Underworld now. Annihilating the entire Nine Lotus Sect, killing the Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild, the number one demon-like genius on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart... Any single achievement is able to shock the entire Underworld! You are much better than I was when I was young!"

"You are making it sound like you are better than me now!" Wang Xian looked at Sui Huang and made a joke.

Upon hearing Wang Xian, Sui Huang raised an eyebrow and was clearly infuriated. "Brat, do you want to have a fight now? With my experiences, I will easily crush you to the ground!"

"I shall not be calculative with an old man like you. Seeing that night has fallen and you are still here, I believe you aren't just interested in telling me this, right?" Wang Xian smiled and sat beside Sui Huang.

"What? Am I not welcome?" Sui Huang stared at him and started scrutinizing him from head to toe. He squinted his eyes and commented, "Are your Arts of Refining Elixir Pills really as incredible as the rumors have claimed? You can now refine Level 3 elixir pills easily?"

"I guess so? I'm a demon-like genius and am not someone you can compare with!" Wang Xian chuckled and his lips curved into a smile.

"You..." Sui Huang choked on his words and stared harshly at him. "You are really arrogant. Now that you have killed an Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild, they will definitely not let this go easily."

"Old Huang isn't in the Sacred Followers Guild currently, and the matters of the guild are managed by the group of Elders. I believe they will be giving you troubles soon!"

As Sui Huang spoke, he looked to Wang Xian. "I haven't managed to get in contact with him. When I do, please let this matter rest!"

Huh?

Wang Xian was taken aback by what Sui Huang had said. The Old Huang that he was talking about was most likely the Guild Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild.

"Give me troubles? Tsk!"

Murderous intent gleamed in Wang Xian's eyes. "This matter isn't something he could just put to rest on his side!"

Sui Huang sensed the murderous intent in Wang Xian's eyes. He frowned and asked in a solemn tone, "What are your thoughts then?"

Wang Xian leaned back on the sofa, looked to his side and saw Guan Shuqing chatting with Xiao Yu. Subsequently, he remarked coldly, "If the Sacred Followers Guild has the antidote, this matter could be put to rest. If they don't, all the families and kin of that Elder Feng will have to die!"

As he spoke, he looked to Sui Huang. "I don't wish to see an incident like this for a second time!"

Sui Huang felt his heart skip a beat when he met Wang Xian's eyes. His eyebrows gradually knitted together.

The overly confident young man before him wasn't his junior. Instead, he was a terrifying expert that could equal him.

As an expert, he would have his pride and bottom line. Clearly, the Elder from Sacred Followers Guild poisoning his sister with lethal venom had completely breached his bottom line.

At this point, it was no longer the issue of whether the Sacred Followers Guild would seek revenge. Instead, it was whether this young man would let this matter slide.

The Elder of the Sacred Followers Guild had poisoned his sister because he was taking revenge for his disciple. This put Wang Xian on the defensive.

Will there be others attacking him once again to seek revenge for that Elder?

As an expert, Wang Xian would never let this happen again. He was going to crush this idea that people might be harboring against him.

In that case, he had to ensure the deaths of all his potential enemies.

This was a very domineering method but was also a method often used by strong experts. Experts wouldn't let this type of risk linger on.

"Brother Wang Xian, can you hold back and not act at this moment. Within five days, I'll let Old Huang give you a satisfactory answer!" said Sui Huang as he looked to Wang Xian.

Huh? Wang Xian was stunned for a moment by what Sui Huang said. Subsequently, he nodded his head and answered, "Alright. Since, Old Sui, you have requested this, I shall listen to you this time. Five days. If this isn't settled in five days, I will go to the Sacred Followers Guild!"

"Alright, five days are enough!"

Sui Huang revealed a smile. Five days was enough time for him to contact the Guild Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild.

As long as he explained the situation, Old Huang should know how to handle it.

This matter had started because of an Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild after all.

"Alright, the old man shall leave. Regarding your sister's situation, I'll ask some of my old friends and see if they have any solutions. My dear disciple, your master shall be leaving now. We will start on refining elixir pills tomorrow!"

After exchanging some pleasantries with Wang Xian, Sui Huang stood up and headed for the exit with a smile.

After Wang Xian finished his dinner, he returned to his room and looked up the Underworld website on his computer.

Seeing that all the comments were about him or matters related to him, he chuckled nonchalantly.

He could be considered as a rather low profile person, as he would leave some matters for the dragonians to handle. If this incident didn't concern Xiao Yu, he wouldn't have acted personally.

However, since he did, so be it. If he became known throughout the Underworld, so be it. As for those comments about him being likely to die young as he was favored by the Gods, he simply chuckled upon seeing them.

It was still not certain who would be dying first.

After Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing returned home, Wang Xian continued browsing for some time before getting into the bed. He was pondering about the situation of Xiao Yu and Elder Fang.

I'll bring them to the Dragon Palace in five days' time!

Just as Wang Xian was resting, the Underworld was still discussing fervently about what had happened today.

When it was close to 10 pm, a new thread appeared suddenly.

[Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown shall die for killing an Elder from our Sacred Followers Guild!]

It was from the Sacred Followers Guild!

Chapter 387: Center Of Attention (1)

Boom!

When the thread appeared, the entire Underworld was overwhelmed by the sanction coming from the Sacred Enforcer and the response from the Sacred Followers Guild.

Every Sacred Sect had a law enforcement department to deal with some external underworld matters.

In another way, to exhibit the mightiness of a Sacred Sect.

Sacred Enforcer was the law enforcement department of the Sacred Followers Guild, targeting any clans and families who were going against the Sacred Followers Guild.

As the only law enforcement team of the Sacred Followers Guild, they had extreme powers.

The entire team was comprised of four Inborn Experts. If they faced stronger opponents, they could send out the elders of the Sacred Followers Guild.

Among all the Sacred Sects, the Sacred Followers Guild was the only sect that was formed by allying ties. Their Guild Leader was the number one most powerful existence on the Miracle Doctors Chart.

The rest who joined were either formidable Miracle Doctors or experts who received kindness from some of the Miracle Doctors.

The elder team of the Sacred Followers Guild had a strong presence as well. Each of them possessed a strength that was Inborn and above. On top of that, they had impressive connections.

The Sacred Sect that was formed by the various Miracle Doctors was ranked at number six among nine other Sacred Sects. They were just short of some foundations.

But even so, a Sacred Sect is, after all, a Sacred Sect.

Not many people could withstand a killing order or a sanction from a Sacred Sect.

Even as mighty as the assassin organization, the Dark Conjurers, was, they could only hole up when the Sacred Sect issued a killing order to get rid of them.

Not to mention, it was an assassin organization that was good at hiding. Now, it was only a factionless doctor, regardless of the fact that he was known as the demon-like genius now.

Everyone hurriedly clicked on the thread. Under the thread title, there were a few words: The dead body shall be revealed.

Everyone in the Underworld was stunned and shocked.

[Looks like the Sacred Followers Guild is utterly outraged. They gave a response immediately on the Underworld website that night, announcing that they would be revealing the dead body. That was an explicit announcement, telling everyone that they are going to kill Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown.]

[Now that the Sacred Enforcer team has made their move, I bet they are rushing down to Rivertown tomorrow. This time, there should be six to seven Inborn Experts or even more!]

[He's doomed. Not many people can survive the killing order from Sacred Sects unless Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown decides to go on hiding without Sacred Followers Guild finding out!]

[Could this rare demon-like genius get punished by the Sacred Followers Guild? But thinking of it, that's the price he needs to pay for killing an elder of the Sacred Followers Guild!]

Some of them from the Underworld website sighed after they saw the thread published by the Sacred Followers Guild in which their response did not come as a surprise to them. As a Sacred Sect, it was normal for them to take revenge for killing one of their elders.

Despite the fact that the other party was equally strong with demon-like talents.

Compared to those who analyzed objectively, there were more people who were gloating at the misfortune or even beginning to sneer at Wang Xian.

[Sacred Enforcers fight anyone brazen. After Wang Xian, there will be others!]

[Who asked you to be insolent. I bet you're shocked now. Haha. What demon-like genius? How dare you play punk. Now, you're getting punished!]

[Anyone going to Rivertown tomorrow? Let's watch the demon-like genius getting himself killed, and we can take a photo too. Haha!]

[All the geniuses in the world who have not grown up are all trash! Only when you're a grown-up can you call yourself a genius. So what if you're a demon-like genius? You're getting punished anyway!]

Many Martial Artists in the Underworld jeered at it. A 20-year-old demon-like existence had attracted much jealousy. Now that he was going to be punished, they were all excited.

Rejoicing in other people's misfortune.

Many people were getting ready to make a trip to Rivertown to watch how the demon-like genius get himself killed.

It was more exciting to watch with their own eyes.

So what if you're a demon-like genius? You're going to get killed.

The entire Underworld was bustling at night.

At the break of dawn, the weather was gloomy. With Rivertown in the rainy season, the sky was grey, and the rain was going to fall.

"Young Master, here's the announcement from Underworld."

Mo Qinglong was looking cold as he walked over when Wang Xian was carrying Xiao Yu and Elder Fang to the roof in the morning.

"What did it say?"

When Wang Xian saw him, he poured himself a cup of tea and walked towards the yard, gazing at Xiao Ran who was cultivating.

"Sacred Followers Guild announced on the website that they will be punishing you to avenge the elder of Sacred Followers Guild," said Mo Qinglong.

"Hur?"

Wang Xian froze for a moment and looked at Mo Qinglong. He raised his eyebrow and squinted his eyes. "Are they going to punish me?"

"Young Master, this was the announcement released by Sacred Followers Guild yesterday!"

As Mo Qinglong spoke, he handed his phone over.

"Sacred Enforcer is the department in Sacred Followers Guild that deals with external affairs. They are formidable and represent the entire Sacred Sect."

"Hehe!" Wang Xian read the message on the phone with a smile on his face. "I was going to look for them. I did not expect they would come looking for me!"

"Now the four Inborn-levels Dragonians are at the villa by the side. So is Mo Yuan."

A trace of murderous intent flashed in Mo Qinglong's eyes.

"No matter the number of people who turn up or who they are..."

"Leave no one alive!"

Wang Xian handed the phone back to Mo Qinglong with coldness in his eyes as he watched Xiao Ran practicing.

Currently Xiao Ran was already in Martial Artist Level 9. It would be slightly challenging to attain a breakthrough to Half-step to Inborn.

Perhaps he would take a few years and probably another ten or so for the Inborn level.

Of course, that was under the circumstance that he did not take any Spiritual Grass or elixir pills. If he had sufficient elixir pills as supplements, he could make a breakthrough to Inborn Realm within a short time.

As for the killing order of Sacred Followers Guild, Wang Xian did not take it to heart at all. He was resting in his villa, enjoying his leisure time. While doing so, a group of strangers stormed into Rivertown.

About seven or eight luxurious black Audi cars drove in from another province with middle-aged men and some elders sitting inside.

Beside them were all the razor-sharp weapons, exuding formidable mightiness.

All of them were in black uniforms with "Sacred Followers Guild" words in the middle of their shirts.

The two cars that were driving at the forefront held all the elders.

Each one of them gave off a vibe of a supreme leader.

As the eight cars steered towards the sea, their target was the Supreme Seas Development Zone.

Apart from the eight unified Audi cars, there were also dozens of cars driving towards the Supreme Seas Development Zone too.

All the young men were sitting within the luxurious sports cars, driving at an extreme speed.

Vroom!

As the vrooming sound was heard, all the sports cars were already parked at the entrance of the Supreme Seas Development Zone.

Apart from those sports cars, there were some SUVs, totaling to more than thirty luxurious vehicles.

All the dashing young men stepped out from those cars one by one.

Some of them had babes in their arms as they smiled from ear to ear, while some of them were simply thrilled.

Chapter 388: Center Of Attention (2)

"Young master Jiang! Haha! You are pretty early!"

A young man alighted from a Lamborghini and walked towards the young man in a Porsche a short distance away as he spoke.

"I'm here for a show and it's only natural for me to arrive early. The men from the Sacred Followers Guild should be coming soon. I might miss it if I'm late!"

Young master Jiang had a head of red hair. He smiled as he observed his surroundings. "There are quite a number of people who came for the show!"

"Haha, of course! We are talking about the most demon-like genius and the number one person on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart. The fact that he will be punished soon is naturally a draw!" From an SUV that was nearby, a plump man alighted with a smile.

"I'm so jealous of him. At the age of twenty, he's a Miracle Doctor that ranks ninth, a powerful alchemist and a horrifying Inborn expert! I would be so happy that I would wake up from my dreams if I had any one of his achievements!"

A handsome man who was wearing a suit and tie alighted from his vehicle. He looked towards the villa as he sighed emotionally.

"Jiang Yuan, Gu Da, Lu Kaiping! You guys must be really free to come all the way here!"

"Aren't you the same too? Otherwise, what would you be doing here?"

"I came here to witness if this Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown is as incredible as he is in the rumors!"

Several young men alighted from their vehicles. Some knew one another while others didn't.

However, all of them were part of the Ancient Martial Arts circle and thus would at least have heard of one another's names.

"Jiang Yuan, isn't this Supreme Seas Development Zone a seaside development of your family?" the young man in a suit walked towards the red-hair Jiang Yuan and asked with a bright smile.

"That's right! It is developed by one of my family businesses!"

Jiang Yuan smiled and nodded. "Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown stays here. He is not an ordinary man. No one in Rivertown dares to mess with him!"

"He's not just capable. Based on the information I have gathered, Miracle Doctor Wang embarrassed the Flame Palace during their pilgrimage. Nonetheless, Flame Palace has since been annihilated!" the young man in a suit said with a bright smile. However, his eyes were filled with jealousy.

Having such terrifying strength and authority at the age of twenty would make anyone envious, including elites from these famous families and sects!

"Flame Palace was just a newly promoted Sacred Sect and paled in comparison to the Sacred Followers Guild. Since Sacred Followers Guild have made such claims, they definitely have the confidence to follow it through!"

Jiang Yuan smiled and continued, "My only question now would be if this Miracle Doctor has escaped?"

"Based on my sources, he is still in the villa. I wonder where he gets his confidence from to wait here for the Sacred Enforcers!"

Tsk! The young man in the suit snorted, "The villa is by the sea. If he wishes to escape by the sea, it won't be easy to find him!"

"You are right. If he were to escape to the sea, even the experts from Sacred Followers Guild would not be able to do anything. However, if he were to escape today, he would have to lower his head and live in shame in the future!" Jiang Yuan nodded in agreement.

"What do you guys think? Will Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown escape?" a young man walked over and asked loudly.

Another young man smiled and made his conjecture: "This is really hard to say. However, my own personal view is that the chances of him escaping are over seventy percent!"

"Haha! Regardless, I'm going to start a thread on the Underworld website and do a live stream for all to see!"

A young man took out his phone, took some photos of the surroundings and started crafting a thread on the Underworld website.

Title of Thread: [Punishment of the Sacred Enforcers. Will the demon-like genius cower like a turtle or would it put up a resistance against the Sacred Followers? Let me make my conjecture first. The genius Miracle Doctor Wang will definitely be dead!]

A thread that was filled with mockeries and some photos of the surroundings was started by the young man.

At this moment, a young man exclaimed, "The vehicles of the Sacred Followers Guild are here!"

Instantly, silence shrouded the area.

Although they were all rich young masters, they were nothing in front of the Sacred Followers Guild.

Moreover, those that came this time were the Sacred Enforcers and Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild.

A single Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild was already more powerful and influential than their entire family.

Eight Audi cars stopped at the entrance of the Supreme Seas Development Zone and a group of people alighted from these vehicles.

"Those... Those are the Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild and there are five of them! They have sent five Elders!"

The surrounding group of young men were astonished to see these old men alighting from the first two vehicles.

The five old men's identities were evident from the clothes they wore.

"Look behind them! Those two Enforcers are captains of the Enforcing Teams. Oh gosh! They have sent two captains over!"

"The rest of the group is made up of twenty-odd Half-step to Inborn experts. Oh gosh! The team that's been deployed this time is so powerful!"

"Seven Inborn experts and twenty-odd Half-step to Inborn experts! Considering the strength of the team that is here, the Sacred Followers Guild appears to be determined to kill Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown!"

"As the Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild are well-versed in medical knowledge, their attacks are much stronger than ordinary Inborn experts. They are definitely not the same as the Inborn experts from the Nine Lotus Sect!"

"Seven Inborns. Seems like the Sacred Followers Guild are placing emphasis on this issue. This Miracle Doctor Wang is doomed!"

The surrounding group of young men discussed softly among themselves.

As for the young man who had started a thread on the Underworld website, he enthusiastically took photos of the experts from the Sacred Followers Guild and uploaded them immediately.

[Sacred Followers Guild has deployed five Elders and two captains of the Enforcement Teams. If Miracle Doctor Wang doesn't escape, he will definitely be killed!"]

After editing his captions and attaching the photos, he sent them out immediately.

At this very moment, the appearance of this post attracted the attention of umpteen martial artists in the Underworld. The whole thread was exceptionally active and the audience was waiting anxiously for new updates.

[Damn it! Seven Inborn experts! This is enough to annihilate a few First-class Forces!]

[Sacred Followers Guild has indeed acted quickly! This Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown is doomed!]

[This is the consequence for offending a Sacred Sect! Even such a demon-like genius is about to be killed! A genius will be falling today!]

There were new comments made in this thread every second. The Underworld Forum was incomparably lively and countless Martial Arts families and sects were paying attention to it.

"Greetings, Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild. I am Jiang Yuan from the Jiang Family of the Northern City. This property belongs to our Jiang Family. Let me bring you over!"

Jiang Yuan mustered up his courage, walked towards the Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild after seeing them alighting from their vehicles, and spoke deferentially.

The few Elders from Sacred Followers Guild looked at Jiang Yuan and glanced at the group of young men who were here to watch a show. The Elders were nonchalant about their purpose and waved their hands.

"Bring us over!" One of the Elders said plainly.

"Yes, yes. Elders, please follow me! According to my sources, that brazen Miracle Doctor Wang is still in the villa. However, I don't know if he has escaped by now!"

Chapter 389: Since You Are Here, Don't Bother Leaving (1)

"How dare he kill the Elder of our Sacred Followers Guild! Even if he escapes to the ends of the earth, he's a goner!" an elder said emotionlessly as he headed inside.

Beside him were four other Elders who looked on with a face of apathy, while a group of aggressive-looking Sacred Enforcers followed behind.

The looming sense of brutality sent chills to the group of youths nearby. Even though they were merely tagging along at the back, they could clearly sense the overpowering aura coming from the Sacred Enforcers.

With his back slightly bent forward, Jiang Yuan directed the way for the group from the Sacred Followers Guild by taking the lead.

The crowd, made up of scores of men, walked into the villa with faces of intense somber.

Towards the end of the path, they arrived at a villa by the sea. Jiang Yuan turned towards the Elders of the Sacred Followers.

"Elders, this is the villa. Miracle Doctor Wang is right in this villa!" he explained respectfully.

"This is the place?" one of the elders asked flatly. With narrowed eyes, he looked beyond the entrance gates of the villa which was currently wide open.

"He's really obnoxious, leaving his doors wide open. Is he waiting for us to enter?" another elder commented with glistening eyes.

"He's asking for doom!" a burly Elder in the middle snorted before striding into the villa with wide steps.

"Be careful, Old Hu. Watch out for traps!" another Elder cautioned as he watched from the back.

"Humph, then I shall experience for myself the powers of this wicked genius!" The burly Elder dismissed the advice with little regard. Thereafter, he braced himself while a powerful force of aura surged from within his body and filled out every inch of space his attire could hold.

"Let's go!" the Elders who had yet to make a move called out before following behind and making their way into the villa.

"Let's tag along. Since the Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild did not chase us away, let's follow behind," the rest of the group whispered amongst themselves.

"Let's distance ourselves further away, lest we get implicated should a fight really break out later," one of them reminded.

"Don't worry, given the prowess of the Sacred Followers Guild, they'll crush that fellow. We're very safe behind them!" another disagreed.

These youths who had tagged along behind the Elders hesitated for a brief moment before following behind their steps into the villa.

Boom!

A loud blast resonated across the sky. The weather was overcast as dark clouds loomed above before rain started to pour.

"Trespassers who take even one step into the villa shall die!" A voice spoke apathetically to the crowd.

To which, the crowd of youths looked inward in astonishment.

Within the courtyard, a young man was resting beneath the parasol by the swimming pool. With a tea set placed beside him, the young man sat idly while raising his head to gaze at the light drizzle with a calm and serene face.

Alongside the young man were seven others, which consisted of four youths and three middle-aged men.

It was the middle-aged man who stood nearest to the young man that spoke.

Amongst the septet, no one could tell the exact background of the four young men. As for the three middle-aged men, one of them looked very eye-catching with his really lengthy hair.

"Haha!" the burly Elder who had arrived by the door let out a dry laugh. His mouth hung slightly open while he stared at the young man beneath the parasol.

"You're the lad who killed Elder Feng? Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown?" the burly Elder asked before he strode inside as ferocity raged in his eyes.

"Trespassers who take even one step into the villa shall die!" another plump Elder laughed as he looked at the warning sign beneath his feet before marching in.

"A factionless doctor who killed our Sacred Followers Guild Elder and pit himself against us. I wonder who gave you such courage. Or should I say, I wonder what gave you the confidence, such that you dare utter these words?" the plump elder continued. Meanwhile, the other Elders flooded their way in one by one.

Immediately after, they were followed by a group of over twenty Sacred Enforcers who shot the eight ahead a murderous look.

"Come on, let's get inside too. Trespassers shall die? What a joke. How obnoxious for someone who's about to meet his doom!" Jiang Yuan smirked as he watched members of the Sacred Followers Guild make their way in. As he joked, he slighted the eight inside the villa dismissively, shooting them a look of disregard.

"Haha, since they've said that trespassers shall die, I'm all the more tempted to get in!" Another youth dressed in a suit giggled as he skipped into the villa.

At the back, the youths who followed along began to scurry in one by one without a care.

As for the middle-aged men who mentioned how trespassers shall die? Have they shrugged it off completely?

"Perhaps they're still unaware of how powerful the forces of the Sacred Followers Guild will be this time!" a youth laughed to himself as he smirked, while posting about the situation online.

He took a couple more photos and attached them along with his post, smiling as he did.

[We've entered the villa of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. Beside him are seven others. What made me laugh though was how they said 'Trespassers who take even one step in shall die!' Haha, how hilarious!]

The youth chuckled till his eyes formed slits. As he laughed, he raised his head and looked into the villa. "Wow, wow, wow!" he cheered.

"Wang Xian. You've killed our Sacred Followers Guild Elder. Accept your doom!"

Just then, the ringing of swords being drawn from their sheaths could be heard. One by one, the Sacred Enforcers began to flash the weapon in their hands.

The atmosphere within the villa was overwhelmed with an omen of carnage.

Astonishingly, even the raindrops dispersed themselves towards the perimeter and beyond, as if in fear.

"Hah!" Wang Xian snickered as he lowered the teacup in his hand onto the table. Raising his head, he looked up and scanned the crowd of experts from the Sacred Followers Guild.

"I did not look for you people. Little did I expect you guys to come looking for me instead. Splendid!" Wang Xian laughed.

"Obnoxious and arrogant young lad!" the burly Elder chided as he looked at Wang Xian, who sat, somewhat aloof. "I have to say, young lad, that you're really impudent. To think you've got the nerve to be waiting for us here. Right now, you've dug your own grave. So I'll leave you a complete body!" he added.

"A wicked genius who has been regarded as a rare occurrence in this millennium. Did you think that you're already invincible? How dare you disregard our Sacred Followers Guild. I'll give you a chance to end your own life now!" another Elder mocked, right after the burly Elder finished.

Just as the second Elder ended his words, a terrifying stance oozed from his body and forced its way over, in an attempt to cocoon Wang Xian.

"Haha, we'll give you a chance to self-terminate!" the rest of the Elders chimed in unison. As they took a step forward, they, too, were oozing with the same stance.

Meanwhile, the group of Sacred Enforcers swiveled the weapon in their hands as they stood behind.

Boom!

Their threatening tenor filled the air within the villa. Across the sky, deafening thunder clapped once again as the drizzle grew into a thunderstorm.

Blob blob!

Yet, there was still not a drop of rain within the entire villa as they had been blocked off by the powerful stance.

Being tough as steel, the stance simply terrified all.

"Simply formidable. They're really too powerful. With seven unrivalled Inborns and over twenty Half-step Inborns, they could even take down nine to ten Inborn experts!" one of the onlookers praised.

"The Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild are too forceful given such stance. Even our Clan Leader falls behind by a huge gap, I'm afraid," another agreed.

"To think that even the rainwater is been forced out of the perimeters. Their stance is truly rock solid. Such is the powerful force of a Sacred Sect. With so many experts, what enemies can they not take out?" the third gasped.

"This young lad is doomed!" the last sniggered.

Chapter 390: Since You Are Here, Don't Bother Leaving (2)

"Just commit suicide now! You are courting death by killing an Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild!"

"That's right! Get on your knees and commit suicide! A Sacred Sect isn't someone a factionless doctor like you can afford to offend!"

"Demon-like genius? Number one on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart? So what if you are? If you offend us, even a genius will be sent into his coffin!"

Feeling the stifling and horrifying aura from the group of experts of the Sacred Followers Guild, the thirty-odd young men who had followed behind were exhilarated and started ridiculing Wang Xian loudly!

"Commit suicide!? Sacred Followers Guild is indeed brazen! Asking me, Wang Xian, to commit suicide?"

Wang Xian stood there and looked at the crowd before him. His expression turned cold as he lifted his head. "An Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild poisoned my sister. I promised a senior that I would only look for you guys five days later. It appears now that my decision then was wrong!"

"Today, every single one of you can forget about leaving!" said Wang Xian. At the same time, he curled his fingers slightly into a claw.

"Haha, you are still thinking of resisting? Fine! Today, I shall kill every single one of you in the name of punishment of the Sacred Followers Guild!"

The burly Elder broke into laughter upon seeing Wang Xian's reactions. He pulled out a longsword from his waist as he waved his arm. "I, Hu Fu, shall behead you personally to avenge Old Feng and in a memorial to his spirits!"

"Haha! The Sacred Followers Guild wants to punish me? Since you guys are here, don't bother leaving!"

As Wang Xian completed his sentence, he charged towards the group of Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild.

"Haha, you are indeed worthy of your name. This kind of arrogance is incomparable!"

Seeing Wang Xian charging forward, the burly Elder laughed brazenly. "I shall claim your life!"

"Kill!" The burly Elder struck and the other Elders behind him shouted coldly in unison.

In an instant, the seven Inborn experts from the Sacred Followers Guild moved. The twenty-odd Half-step to Inborn experts who were wielding weapons also launched their attacks at Wang Xian.

The solemn atmosphere instantly turned into a savage one. The expressions of the group of young men instantly changed upon sensing the intense killing intent masked in the atmosphere.

"The genius is about to die!"

"The show has begun!"

"Haha. That Miracle Doctor Wang is indeed brazen. He is the first person I've seen who is so arrogant! It will be against all expectations if he survives after acting so brazenly in front of a Sacred Sect!"

The group of young men took several steps back and watched in anticipation. They were waiting anxiously for the demon-like genius to be slain!

"Kill!"

At this moment, Mo Qinglong snorted coldly upon seeing the Sacred Followers Guild attacking.

Rumble!

Instantly, terrifying auras could be felt emanating from the seven of them.

Devilish aura circulated around the six of them. As for the remaining middle-aged man, he wielded a longsword and the killing intent from him was even stronger.

"Show no mercy!"

Mo Qinglong's voice sounded again. The group of seven charged towards the Sacred Enforcers.

Huh?

The aura that the group of seven emitted shocked the experts from the Sacred Followers Guild.

"Inborn! Seven Inborn experts!" The burly Elder was astonished and his pupils dilated!

"What? There are seven Inborn experts? Those four young men are also Inborn experts?"

The Elders beside him were also stunned. They looked at the seven of them and were aghast.

These four young men looked like they were at most thirty years old. They would never have expected these four young men to be Inborn experts.

A thirty-year-old Inborn expert would have made it to the top five in the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart.

Even a Sacred Sect would find it hard to nurture this kind of prodigy.

Yet, the four young men before them were all Inborn experts!

"Those who oppose us, the Sacred Followers Guild, will be hunted and annihilated! This includes your families and sects!" the burly Elder shouted gloomily.

Seven Inborn experts had definitely exceeded their expectations!

In their opinion, even though Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown had good connections, he could at most call up three or four Inborn experts.

However, this was under normal circumstances. Considering that he was facing the Sacred Followers Guild, who would be willing to risk offending a Sacred Sect to help him?

The Sacred Followers Guild had been certain after considering Miracle Doctor Wang's connections. It would be a safe estimate to say that only a maximum of one-third of them would help him.

However, seven Inborn experts appeared suddenly. This completely exceeded their expectations.

A force with seven Inborn experts would be considered very strong within the Underworld.

For this enforcement mission, only seven Inborn experts were deployed.

"Kill! Leave no man alive!"

Ruthlessness flashed across Wang Xian's eyes. The next instant, he moved and appeared beside the burly Elder.

His fingers bent like a dragon claw and were packed with dreadful powers.

Argh!

However, before Wang Xian's attack connected, pitiful cries erupted from the surroundings.

The four dragonians who had just reached the Inborn Realm had charged into the group of twenty-odd Half-step to Inborn experts.

Complete domination! With the strong bloodline and powers, the dragonians could be considered as above average among Inborn experts despite just having reached the Inborn Realm.

The dragonians could easily kill these experts who were just at the Half-step to Inborn Realm.

"What? Seven Inborn experts! This... How could this be possible?"

"How could this be possible? How could he summon seven Inborn experts? Moreover, they have no qualms with killing the Sacred Enforcers of the Sacred Followers Guild? Are they all willing to make a Sacred Sect their enemy?"

"Seven Inborn experts! Seven Inborn experts! How did he call upon so many experts? Furthermore, these experts are willing to stand up against the Sacred Followers Guild!"

The surrounding group of young men was astonished when they saw the seven Inborn experts.

No one would have expected that the people who stood beside the young man were seven Inborn experts!

"Those four men were at most in their thirties. How could they be Inborn experts? Where did these Inborn experts come from?"

Jiang Yuan's looked in fear at these Inborn experts that had appeared suddenly.

"The Miracle Doctor did not escape because he was confident in his strength. He didn't mind making the Sacred Followers Guild his enemy!"

The young man in a suit was stunned as he mumbled.

Around him, the other young men were all dumbfounded.

The sudden appearance of seven Inborn experts together with Miracle Doctor Wang who was ranked number one on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart... This force...

"Sacred Followers Guild can't kill him!" remarked one of the young men with a gloomy expression.

Argh!

"Old Hu!"

"Elder Hu!"

Suddenly, a wretched scream propagated throughout the villa.

The group of young men was taken aback and immediately turned towards the direction of the scream.

"What?"

As they looked over, their eyes widened and were slowly filled with horror!

At this moment, the burly Elder had a huge wound in his chest area.

His eyes widened and stared in fear at the young man before him.

Bam!

Chapter 391: Since You Are Here, Don't Bother Leaving (3)

Bam!

The burly Elder fell flat onto the ground while all vitals from his body disappeared in a flash.

Within a short few seconds, another Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild had been taken down, making everyone shudder in utter shock.

This had been an Elder from a Sacred Sect which made him one powerful Elder to think he had been taken down with one strike.

This time, all the young men could see that the young man had not resorted to using any Inborn Spiritual Weapons.

Many within the underworld had rumored that it was because of the Inborn Spiritual Weapon that the young man could defeat Inborn Experts easily.

Yet, the young man had not used any weapons right now.

Nonetheless, he had killed an Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild under such circumstances.

Horror of horrors!

"Young lad, off to hell you go. Otherwise, we, the Sacred Followers Guild, will never rest till one of us dies!" an Elder from the Sect hollered with a contorted look. As he shouted, he aimed for Wang Xian's head with the sharp knife in his hand.

"Never rest till one of us dies? Then all of you from the Sacred Followers Guild shall perish today!" Wang Xian retorted coolly as the Energy of the Metal Dragon made him shimmer in golden.

Under the gloomy weather, the glow made Wang Xian shine like a glorious and powerful monarch.

As he arched his claws, he slashed four other Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild who were standing at a side.

Tsk, tsk, tsk!

As his arm swung past, the frightening golden claws lashed at the quartet. The Energy of the Metal Dragon made the four Elders flinch.

"Buzz off!" one of the Elders shouted as his eye twitched in trepidation.

The seemingly ordinary attacks from this young man had made him sense an impending danger of death.

The golden scratch marks appeared as though they could tear his body apart, causing him to resist them instinctively out of fear.

Wang Xian watched with an apathetic look. Given his current powers, getting rid of an Inborn was an easy feat.

As he saw his claws being restrained by the four Elders, Wang Xian shuffled them about and turned to strike at the Elder who stood in the center of the group.

"Scram!" the Elder barked as he saw Wang Xian's claws coming for him while he attempted to block them by smacking his long sword in front of him.

Creak, crack!

"Ah!" the Elder let out a cry.

Yet, the terrifying claws cut right through the precious sword and stabbed the Elder's chest.

As the piercing scream rang in the air, the hearts of everyone around palpitated.

"You're not of the Inborn level. You're definitely not!" the Elders gasped.

At the sight of how easily Wang Xian had taken down their comrade, the remaining three Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild shrieked with contorted faces, while one of them growled with wide eyes.

"An Inborn expert can't be this powerful. Even if you're Half-Step to Dan Realm, you can't be this strong either!" another Elder exclaimed. As he spoke, he stopped his attacks and retreated several steps back involuntarily before looking at Wang Xian in disbelief.

He seemed very relaxed after killing one of their Elders with a single strike.

Such a formidable feat could not have been achieved by an Inborn expert.

In fact, not even a Half-step to Dan Realm.

While they also had Half-step to Dan Realms within the Sacred Sect, none of them could match up to the prowess of this young man!

As two Elders had been killed, the remaining three from the Sacred Followers Guild shuddered as they looked on with fear.

Just what sort of person had they offended?

"Haha! Did you really assume that I, Wang Xian, fear your Sacred Followers Guild?" Wang Xian snorted as he took a glance at the bodies which lay beneath him. With a shift of stance, he lunged straight at the last three Elders for attack.

"Like I said, all of you will have to die!" Wang Xian howled.

"You..." The trio shook at the sight of Wang Xian coming for them. Their haughtiness and confidence of the past were now replaced with trepidation.

From the looks of it, the mention of "self-termination" earlier...

Ah! Ah!

Just then, a series of piercing screams rang out continuously, drawing the attention of the three Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild.

They saw the leader of the Sacred Enforcers crying out in despair, as one of the middle-aged men from Wang Xian's gang seared right through his body.

They also saw the numerous members of the Sacred Enforcers getting slayed by the other five Inborn experts.

One by one, one move at a time.

Just how could that young man be this powerful?

"Little wonder why you'd dare to wait for our arrival here, and why you'd dare to pit against us Sacred Followers Guild!" one of the Elders choked with his fists tightened while his face seemed very pale.

"How's this possible... This is impossible... Absolutely impossible!" the group of young men who had come in hopes of a good show shrieked with eyes wide. They looked on at the sight in front of them in disbelief.

To think that powerful experts of the Sacred Followers Guild had been massacred without the slightest resistance.

Within a short two minutes, three Inborn experts had been slayed, while the remaining three had no means to resist at all.

"Before this... the Elder of the Sacred Followers Guild had mentioned that he was not Inborn. So that... that means..." One of the youths gulped as he watched in stupefaction.

"Realm above Inborn. He must be at the realm above Inborn, being able to slay an Inborn expert with such ease. He's definitely a legendary Immortal of the Land!" he continued.

"What? How's this possible, he's only twenty years old. How can a twenty-year-old be this powerful!?" the group of young men stared with wide eyes while their legs nearly gave way due to the thorough shock.

"It's doomed. All experts of the Sacred Followers Guild are doomed!"

"So it turns... turns out that he had no need to fear the Sacred Followers Guild at all, given such formidable prowess. Little wonder why he didn't run away!"

"Slaying all experts of the Sacred Followers Guild without the slightest reservation. He's out to become their nemesis!"

Standing in a daze, the young men shook at the sight of the massacre.

They had come to witness the slaughter of the demon-like genius, Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown.

But, little had they expected such an outcome!

A reputable Sacred Sect ended up crushed, slayed with such ease.

Ah, ah, ah!

The blood-curdling screams rang through the air once again. All the young men looked on bleakly as they watched the final three Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild being taken down.

Bam, bam, bam!

The corpses lay on the ground, as though the thunder from the sky had blasted right through their hearts.

As the screams dissipated, another twenty-plus corpses were added onto the ground.

Subconsciously, the young men receded several steps back. In awe and with fear, they gazed at the young man who remained standing amidst the chaos while not a trace of blood could be seen on him.

The young man remained as before, without the slightest stir of emotions, as he appeared calm as still water.

But the crowd had witnessed otherwise, how this young man had taken down five Inborn experts within a mere few minutes.

Where the five were Elders from a Sacred Sect.

Blob, blob!

One of the youths gulped. As his legs began to turn to jelly, he turned around in an attempt to get out of the villa.

He wanted to get as far as he possibly could, away from this hellish place as his heart surged with an outburst of regret and trepidation.

He would never have come here, had he expected such an outcome!

Shaken, the rest of the petrified crowd also tried desperately to make their escape, upon the sight of someone leaving.

"Like I said. Since you're here, don't bother leaving!"

Right then, a satanic voice lingered in their ears.

Chapter 392: Death Of The Sacred Enforcers

"As I've said, since you are here, don't bother leaving!"

Rumble!

Swish!

Torrential rain fell. However, it was not stopped by the terrifying aura this time and the torrential rain fell in the yard of the villa.

Hearing the devil-like noises, the group of young men froze in fear. Although they were thinking of escaping, all they could do now was shiver in fear.

The raindrops that landed on their cheeks were eerily cold. Every single one of them was petrified.

"Wang... Miracle Doctor Wang... This... This had nothing to do with us! We... We are just here to take a look!"

One young man turned and spoke to Wang Xian while shivering in fear. The cold sweat on his forehead together with the raindrops made him look especially wretched.

Compared to his high-spirited self previously, he looked like a completely different person!

Bam!

"Miracle Doctor Wang, I know I'm wrong. I'm wrong...! But please spare my miserable life! Please let me off! We were blinded to have come! Miracle Doctor Wang, I know my mistakes now! Please give me a chance!" Jiang Yuan immediately went on his knees, kowtowed and begged for mercy!

However, it was he who had brought the group of experts from the Sacred Followers Guild previously! Furthermore, he'd added insults!

At this moment, as he saw the blood mixed with the rainwater flowing to him, his eyes were filled with despair and horror. He had disregarded all sense of dignity as he pleaded for mercy.

Bam! Bam!

"Miracle Doctor Wang, it was our mistake previously! Please let us off! I am begging you! I kowtow to you!"

"Miracle Doctor Wang, we were wrong! Please spare our lives! Please spare us!"

All the young men had broken down! When the first one went on his knees, the rest followed quickly. Fear was written all over their faces!

Wang Xian looked at them with ridicule and contempt.

Just a while ago, they were still gloating over his punishment from the Sacred Followers Guild. What about now?

"When you came, didn't you hear what I said?"

"Since you came in, you have made your own decision!"

Wang Xian looked at the group of young men before him. Killing intent flashed across his eyes as he turned around and headed back to the villa.

Since they had made their decision, they would have to pay a price for it!

"No! No! Please don't kill us!"

The young men were in despair as they saw Wang Xian leaving and the four young Inborn experts walking slowly towards them. They were shouting for mercy loudly!

Argh! Argh!

However, the screams lasted only for a short while.

This bunch of elites from various families and sects would never have expected that coming to gloat at Wang Xian for being punished by the Sacred Followers Guild would lead to their death.

Huh?

At this moment, Sui Huang appeared at the entrance of the villa. He looked at the corpses in the villa and raised an eyebrow. He then quickly looked towards Mo Qinglong and the rest before shaking his head and leaving.

The Sacred Enforcers had been annihilated and so had the group of young men who came for a show.

The Sacred Enforcement this time ended with total annihilation.

However, everyone was still waiting for the outcome on the Underworld website. They were waiting to see the Sacred Followers Guild uploading pictures of the corpse of Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown.

That post from the young man was still being discussed actively on the Underworld website.

The number of replies was increasing at an astonishing speed.

[OP, hurry up and update us! What is the situation now? Did Wang Xian get killed?] [\[1\]](#)

[Hurry up! Hurry up! Let us see the demon-like genius' corpse!]

[What a shame! A demon-like genius like him appeared before us like a meteor and will be disappearing quickly like a meteor.]

[Seven Inborn experts and twenty-odd Half-step to Inborn experts. This will be more than enough to kill Miracle Doctor Wang! OP, update your post!]

The replies kept piling up as everyone was rushing the OP to update his post. They wanted to see the scene of the demon-like genius being killed.

Time passed by gradually. One hour... Two hours... Yet, the OP was nowhere to be seen.

The martial artists of the Underworld were as restless as cats on a hot tin roof!

[What happened to the OP? Are you eating shit? Why aren't you updating?]

[Hurry, hurry! What is the situation now!? I can't wait any longer!]

[Yeah. Just look at the novel Invincible Divine Dragon's Cultivation System! Their updates are so fast! Why are you so slow?]

[Hurry up and update, OP! I, your father, have been waiting here for two hours!]

However, just as everyone was waiting for the ending, another thread surfaced.

[All my friends are uncontactable. Those that have gone to Rivertown for the show are all uncontactable! It has been over two hours since I heard anything from them!]

When this thread appeared, it instantly attracted the attention of many people.

When they clicked in and saw the contents, their expressions turned heavy.

Last night, many people had decided to head to Rivertown to watch the Sacred Followers Guild kill Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown. This was known by many in the Underworld.

However, all those people who went to Rivertown were all uncontactable.

Furthermore, the previous OP had gone silent after updating it for some time.

All these facts when pieced together made the rest feel that something wasn't right.

Even the OP who made the new thread felt that something might have happened to his friends.

[Encountered a mishap? Sacred Followers Guild is a reputable sacred sect. They wouldn't kill those who came for the show recklessly.]

If that was the case, only one possibility remained. They were killed by others.

And the "others" could only be Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown.

When someone made this conjecture, everyone was shocked.

[With the experts from the Sacred Followers Guild around, how could Miracle

Doctor Wang kill innocents?]

[What is happening in Rivertown? Where are the experts from the Sacred Followers Guild? Why aren't we getting any information from the Sacred Followers Guild now?]

[I have a bold conjecture. Could it be the Sacred Followers Guild and those who went for the show were all killed by the Miracle Doctor?]

[How could this be possible? The team that was sent down by the Sacred Followers Guild this time around was incomparably powerful! How could they be killed instead?]

The discussion went on. Gradually, half a day passed.

In the evening, a new thread appeared suddenly and took the entire Underworld by surprise.

[We can almost verify that all the experts, Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild and those who went to Rivertown to watch the show have been killed!]

The poster had the name "All-Knowing." It was from the Omniscient Group, the most powerful information agency in the Underworld.

Once the Omniscient Group confirmed an event, its reliability would be a hundred percent.

When this thread was posted out, it was like the Underworld experiencing a 10.0 earthquake.

The powerful experts from the Sacred Followers Guild had all been killed!

All the powerful Elders and captains of the Sacred Followers Guild were dead!

Death of the Sacred Enforcers!

Endnote:

[1] "O.P." refers to the Original Poster in an online thread. Back

Chapter 393: Cover-Shame

[Demise of the Sacred!]

When everyone saw the post uploaded by user All-Knowing, the entire Underworld was thrown into upheaval.

Demise of the Sacred, this was the Demise of the Sacred!

Seven Inborn experts along with twenty Half-Step Inborns.

These forces could easily have made up one-fifth to one-sixth of the entire Sacred Followers Guild, given such prowess.

Yet, they were also the same forces that had been completely wiped out.

[Without a doubt, they must have been killed by Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown. This is really unimaginable!]

[Just how powerful is this Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown? Those were experts from the mighty Sacred Followers Guild, seven of them to add to it!]

[First, he killed the Elder from the Sacred Followers Guild. Next, he slew seven Inborns from the same sect. He's out to pit himself against the Sacred Sect!]

[How tough is this Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown? And how mighty are his forces?]

Within the Underworld, the Martial Artists had spiraled into a heated discussion. The news was simply too shocking for all of them.

Meanwhile, within the Palace of the Sacred Followers Guild, all the Elders sat in the Palace Hall with darkened expressions.

"Five Elders, two Sacred Enforcer Leaders, and twenty Half-step Inborns have been killed. This Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown, he's bent on pitting himself against us Sacred Followers Guild!" an Elder chided with a looming look.

"We've lost seven Inborn experts in one shot, eight including Elder Feng. The Sacred Followers Guild's incurred such major losses within a short few days. We have to seek revenge for this!"

"Right now, this concerns the pride of our Sacred Followers Guild, along with our foothold as to how we establish ourselves in the future. Hence, we have to wipe this humiliation clean!"

The Elders chimed in furiously.

This was a grave matter. It was no longer a matter of right or wrong, given the murder of seven Inborns and twenty other experts. As a Sacred Sect, they would have to get rid of the murderer by all means!

"We'll have to kill Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown!"

"Yes, we'll have to, otherwise our Sacred Followers Guild won't ever have to think of gaining a foothold within the underworld from now on!"

All the elders snapped in aggression. Even Yan She, who had been sitting by the side, sighed as he knit his brows.

Seven Inborn experts had been slain. This was no longer a matter which could be forgiven out of kindness!

"Hmph, kill? Sending yourselves to your graves?"

At that moment, a holler could be heard across the entire Palace.

"Who's that?"

Upon hearing those words, all senior management of the Sacred Followers Guild in the Palace Hall stood up with an ominous expression.

"Who's that? Show yourself!"

"How dare you trespass into our Sacred Followers Guild, asking for doom!"

A frightening aura surged from the Sect's senior management which stifled the surrounding air.

"Alright, why so snobbish?" a voice replied in annoyance. Thereafter an Elder soon appeared within the hall at lightning speed.

"Sui... Sui Huang!"

All the Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild gasped before they stepped up immediately and bowed.

"Sui Huang, what brings you here?" they greeted.

"Had I not arrived, the entire Sacred Followers Guild could have been wiped out by the time Old Huang gets back!" Sui Huang replied with displeasure as he glanced across the crowd of Elders.

"Sui Huang, you...", the Elders began in bewilderment. Slightly irritated, they looked at him with frowns.

The Sui Huang in front of them had been a close friend of their Guild Leader. He was also the Laozu of a Sacred Clan, which made Sui Huang a legendary existence, one who they could not afford to disrespect.

"Just the few of you punks, and you want to go kill that behemoth of Rivertown? From what I see, I think it's best that you guys just stay here and behave yourselves," Sui Huang chided.

"Dammit, you guys are also asking for it. I just told that lad yesterday not to come and create trouble at the Sacred Followers Guild. In the end, you guys went over to seek death by harassing him!" Sui Huang reprimanded them with displeasure. As he spoke, he sat flopped onto a seat by the side and sipped some tea.

"What?" the crowd asked. They were puzzled and shocked by the comment.

"Regarding this matter, you guys should just stay out of it. Wait till I've contacted your guild leader and discussed this with him. To sum it up, just don't go looking for trouble with that Little Demon of Rivertown. Just you guys alone would be sending yourselves to your graves should you go over!" Sui Huang warned the rest.

"Just stay here and behave yourselves. As for Old Huang, that old fogey... I couldn't reach him. Yet he's made me so worried!"

Pat!

As Sui Huang ranted incessantly, he flung his cup onto the table in a display of his discontent. With a change of stance, he vanished from the Palace Hall, leaving behind the crowd of Sacred Followers Guild Elders who looked on in surprise.

"What does Sui Huang mean?" one of the Elders asked in a lowered tone as his face contorted in bewilderment.

"Sui Huang has instructed that we leave that Little Demon alone. Seems like Sui Huang knows that Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown!"

"Furthermore, that Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown is no simpleton. Either he really possesses formidable powers, or he's from a very prominent background; such that even Sui Huang senior has to treat him as someone with equal standing!"

"That young man. Don't tell me he possesses the same prowess as Sui Huang. Otherwise... Otherwise, why is it that even Sui Huang would refer to him as Little Demon?"

Shock gradually revealed itself on the faces of the Sacred Followers Guild Elders. The message within Sui Huang's statements earlier had brought more surprises than they could handle.

Especially these sentences in particular.

I just told that lad yesterday not to come and create trouble at the Sacred Followers Guild. In the end, you guys went over to seek death by harassing him!

Don't go looking for trouble with that Little Demon of Rivertown. Just you guys alone would be sending yourselves to your graves should you go over!

The messages hidden within had astonished them.

"Should that young lad really possess the same prowess as Sui Huang or Guild Leader, or come from an equal force, then Elder Feng really had it coming for using poison to attack his little sister. If that's the case, it's because of Sui Huang's intervention that the other party hasn't made his way here. Otherwise, to think that we'd go seek revenge without even knowing the situation? Haha!" Yan She laughed at the irony of the matter.

Such was the pride of a powerful Ancestral Clan. Should others have killed one of theirs, a powerful Ancestral Clan would seek revenge with neither a care for the cause nor a concern about the consequences.

Yet, the Sacred Followers Guild had obviously compromised themselves by underestimating their opponent this time around!

"What do we do about the discussion that's spreading within the underworld? Surely we can't just sit back and do nothing?" an Elder asked with an awful look. After all, their reputation still mattered.

"Just come up with a random excuse, and we'll discuss this again when Guild Leader is back!" another Elder replied with a darkened expression.

Silence filled the entire Palace Hall of the Sacred Followers Guild as the Elders pondered in a daze.

At night, the entire Underworld was still discussing the massacre of the Sacred Followers Guild experts and disciples of various clans who had tagged along to Rivertown.

Suddenly, the Sacred Followers Guild made an announcement.

[A group of experts from the Sacred Followers Guild have been attacked by ferocious sea monsters. Of which, only three of them have survived. As for other matters, they will be dealt with upon the return of the Guild Leader!]

Everyone within the underworld was dumbfounded by the news.

What is the situation? The group of Elders and Sacred Enforcers of the Sacred Followers Guild had not been massacred by Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown, but instead had been marred to death by ferocious sea monsters?

While the news had been beyond everyone's expectation, most chose to believe in it after a brief moment of bewilderment.

After all, this was an announcement made by a Sacred Sect, so they could not have made the story up in order to lie and conceal the truth.

But what they did not know was that this was the final cover-shame by the Sacred Sect!

Chapter 394: Mutated Divine Dragon

(1)

"They weren't killed by Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown? But based on all other objective signs...?"

In an office in a skyscraper, a middle-aged man wearing a suit saw the reply from the Sacred Followers Guild on his computer screen. His eyebrows knitted together.

Based on the information gathered by the personnel from their Omniscient Group, the experts from the Sacred Followers Guild and the crowd that came to watch the show had not left the villa of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown after entering it.

As to what really happened, they couldn't be certain. Nonetheless, they were sure that these people were dead.

Therefore, their Omniscient Group had announced the deaths of the experts from the Sacred Followers Guild. Following the operatives of the Group closely to ensure hundred percent reliability, they didn't confirm that those people were killed by Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown.

"Were they killed by savage beasts from the sea? Could it be that Miracle Doctor Wang has a dreadful and savage sea beast as a pet? Or could it be just like what the Sacred Followers Guild claimed, that the experts encountered an accident with savage beasts from the sea?"

At dawn, Rivertown was covered in a storm. Most of the truth was masked or washed away. Even the Omniscient Group found it hard to verify most of the information and they weren't a hundred percent certain.

Nonetheless, a lot of martial artists felt more relieved at this point.

If the experts from the Sacred Followers Guild had been killed by Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, that demon-like existence would be truly too terrifying.

...

At this very moment, within a cave abode deep in the mountain surrounded by flowers and birds...

It was a luxurious and beautiful cave abode. A beautiful lady and a burly middle-aged man were sitting in the center. Before them, a group of middle-aged men stood upright and neatly.

"Don't we have any news on Yaoquan yet?"

The beautiful lady gritted her teeth and her eyes were a little red as she questioned the burly middle-aged man before the group of middle-aged men.

"Madam, we still do not have information on young master at this moment."

"From what we gathered from the people around the Yellow River, we understand that young master had some conflicts with Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. Subsequently, we found out that young master contacted the family head of the Lei Family and the Double-faced Heavenly Axe before his disappearance," the group of middle-aged men replied solemnly.

The disappearance of Bian Yaoquan had caused a huge ruckus within the Medical Saint Sect. The Bian branch of the Medical Saint Sect was expending all efforts and resources to investigate.

However, Bian Yaoquan and the Poison Duo had kept their actions completely secretive and hadn't told anyone about them.

"Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown?" The burly middle-aged man sitting by the side frowned as his expression gradually turned heavy.

"With the Poison Duo around, even a strong First-class Force would find it hard to erase them without leaving traces behind. This Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown..."

A gloomy light flashed in the eyes of the burly middle-aged man as he spoke bitterly.

It had been close to half a month! His son had been missing for close to half a month! With Poison Duo protecting him, ordinary First-class Forces would find it hard to kill them without leaving traces of clues behind.

Based on the rumors of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown over the last two days, he would likely possess such capabilities.

"Find out more about this Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. I want every piece of information regarding him!" instructed the burly middle-aged man.

"Yes, Sect Leader!" the group of middle-aged men responded in unison before leaving.

"Qingfeng, Yaoquan will be fine. He will be fine!" said the beautiful lady with teary eyes as she grabbed onto the arm of the burly middle-aged man.

"He will be fine. I'm Bian Qingfeng. No one dares to harm my son! No one dares!"

The burly middle-aged man tried to console the lady. He lifted his head and wore a stern and fierce expression. "If anyone dares to, he will die no matter who he is!"

...

At night, a yacht was steering towards the sea from the villa connected to the sea.

"Brother, will you really be able to cure my master and me in the Dragon Palace?"

It was a little dark and the heavy rain continued pouring. The group sat on the sofa of the yacht when Xiao Yu suddenly asked Wang Xian this.

"Of course. Rest assured. Brother will be bringing you to a place filled with miracles!"

Wang Xian nodded his head with a gentle smile.

When night fell, Wang Xian decided to not wait any further. He got up and brought Xiao Yu and Elder Fang along as he steered towards the Dragon Palace.

He planned to make use of the tremendous energy within the Dragon Transformation Pool to transform the two of them into dragons and cleanse the venom lingering within their bodies.

This was also his last-ditch attempt.

"Really? I didn't get to go the previous time and I definitely have to make it up this time. It's a shame that the final examinations are coming up soon. I'll likely miss it this time!"

Xiao Yu was initially exhilarated but soon pulled a long face as she spoke.

The semester was coming to an end and the final examinations would be starting soon. However, she would likely miss the examination.

"It's alright. I'll settle the matters about your examinations!" Wang Xian smiled and shook his head as he continued, "Where would you like to go for the winter holidays? I'll bring you around!"

"Winter holidays...?"

When Xiao Yu heard Wang Xian, her eyes lit up. "I want to roam the entire country from the South to the North. For the summer holidays, I want to head overseas to play!"

Xiao Yu let her thoughts roam and revealed a satisfied and joyous expression.

"Alright. When you recover, I'll bring you around!"

Wang Xian nodded his head and Elder Fang beside him also smiled.

Next to her, Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue and Sun Lingxiu walked over.

With a group of beautiful girls accompanying him, Wang Xian had a great time chatting and eating.

Late at night, the yacht arrived above the Dragon Palace.

"Xiao Yu, Elder Fang! Don't be too surprised in a while! Let's go!" Wang Xian carried Xiao Yu and supported Elder Fang as he remarked.

To the astonishment of the two girls, Wang Xian carried and pulled them along as they dived into the sea.

When the majestic and awe-inspiring Dragon Palace appeared before them, the two girls were dumbfounded.

Despite having heard about the Dragon Palace from Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing, Xiao Yu was still deeply astonished when she saw the incomparably huge Dragon Palace under the water's surface.

The beautiful Dragon Palace made her feel innate respect and fear for it.

It was especially so when they arrived at the Dragon Palace. Their eyes widened as they stared at the various huge structures around them.

Swish swish swish!

At this moment, several creatures swam towards Wang Xian.

The first to arrive were the Nine Venomous Sea Snakes. They remained stationary before Wang Xian in a respectful manner.

"Greetings, Dragon King!"

"Greetings, Dragon King!"

At this instant, more and more creatures appeared with each being more unique in physique than the last.

They swam before Wang Xian, went down on one knee and greeted him.

"This... Are these the Crawfish Soldiers and Crab Generals of the Dragon Palace?"

Xiao Yu's eyes widened in disbelief as she stared at the Dragon Palace members before her.

Even Wang Xian was shocked as he looked at the crowd before him.

The ones at the very front were the Anomalocaris and the Golden Swordfish race. At this point, the two races had undergone the baptism of the Dragon Transformation Pool.

After the baptism, their form had undergone tremendous changes.

The Anomalocaris was standing upright. Around them, bluish sparks glowed. Two incomparably huge front limbs looked forceful and seemed to be hiding horrifying electric energy.

The stature of approximately 2.5 meters looked extremely intimidating!

Chapter 395: Mutated Divine Dragon

(2)

The sections of Anomalocaris' bodies were filled with massive powers as the shells had turned totally blue, looking more like dragon scales.

In addition to the two huge forelimbs, the small claws had undergone massive changes which had turned into something similar to that of a dragon claw. However, it was still much smaller as compared to its powerful forelimbs.

They had bluish shells with eyes that were blinking with thunderbolts' radiance in it.

The entire Anomalocaris race looked hallowed as they were completely changed from their heads to tails.

"Five Level 11 and One Level 12. The rest are Level 10."

Wang Xian looked at the Anomalocaris race with a surprised look. After the baptism of Dragon Transformation Pool, they had upgraded by a level.

However, Wang Xian was most astonished by the changes in the Golden Swordfish race.

Looking at the complete human form of the Golden Swordfish race, Wang Xian was dumbfounded.

Complete human form.

With a body size of two meters, they had arms and legs just like any other burly men.

The spikes on their heads had disappeared entirely. They were replaced by sharp and long swords in their hands.

The swords were about 1.5 meters long with dragon-head looking hilts. The entire swords were shaped like divine dragons.

The swords were connected with their arms while their entire bodies were encompassed in unusual armor.

Behind their backs, their fins had evolved into pairs of wings. Perhaps they were still weak, which was why their wings were small.

Wang Xian locked his gaze on the Golden Swordfish race who had experienced massive changes, as he was totally caught by surprise.

How did they turn into something humanoid after the baptism?

"Your bodies...?" Wang Xian looked at the leader of the Golden Swordfish race and asked with doubts.

Currently, that leader had hit Level 12 with a body size of 2.5 meters. He was looking almighty with that golden armor.

"Dragon King, the Swordfish race had monotonous attacks because we could only strike with the spikes on our foreheads. Back in the Dragon Transformation Pool when we were forming our shapes, we thought of the humans that we once met. They were holding weapons in their hands, making a variety of attack moves. It was superb. So we thought of transforming into something human-like. But we can restore our previous forms too!"

As the leader of the Swordfish race explained, he jerked his body and transformed back to a Golden Swordfish once again.

"Oh well!"

Wang Xian exhibited a trace of a smile when he witnessed the transformation of the Golden Swordfish.

Given their forms in the past, their assaulting patterns were really monotonous. There was nothing but penetration.

With the new humanoid Golden Swordfish, they could enter human society without having to be discovered.

"Old Mo, you'll teach them how to read and speak!"

After some thought, Wang Xian turned his attention to the sharp swords in their hands again. "Hand them the Art of Ancient Spiritual Sword Technique. Perhaps the Golden Swordfish race can become mighty swordsmen!" Wang Xian smiled as he spoke.

How would it look like if Swordfish practiced swordsmanship?

"It's truly amazing!"

Elder Fang was in total surprise when she watched Wang Xian communicating with a group of terrifying beings. Her eyes flickered as she stared at him.

"Let's go. Xiao Yu and Elder Fang, I need to put you in the Dragon Transformation Pool to remove the venom in your body. After you enter into the Dragon Transformation Pool, your bloodline will evolve to Divine Dragon Bloodline, which means, you can transform into a dragon in the future."

Wang Xian reminded Xiao Yu and Elder Fang. But his primary purpose was to let Elder Fang know about it.

"A dragon?" Elder Fang was shocked, but she nodded with some expectations.

"Haha, I can become a Metal Divine Dragon. But a Water Dragon is fine too since it's pretty. Well, Azure Dragons look good too. Hehehe!" Xiao Yu chuckled with a face full of excitement.

Wang Xian smiled as he led Xiao Yu and Elder Fang through the Dragon King Hall. Under their bewildered gazes, they reached the Dragon Transformation Pool.

Within the pool, Prime Minister Turtle and the rest were still in a slow process of reviving. No one knew how long they would take.

"Xiao Yu, Elder Fang, you'll need at most two days to recover in the Dragon Transformation Pool. In the meantime, call me if you need anything," said Wang Xian to the duo as they nodded their heads with force.

After placing them into the Dragon Transformation Pool, Wang Xian sat by the side and observed them.

When the duo entered into the pool, their vitality increased rapidly.

"Xiao Xian, don't worry. Elder Fang and Xiao Yu will be alright." Guan Shuqing consoled Wang Xian.

"Okay, let's go. I'll get a venomous sea snake to keep an eye over here. Let's get some rest!"

Wang Xian nodded and returned to the Dragon King Hall.

Back in the palace, Mo Qinglong was teaching the Golden Swordfish race how to read and speak. At the same time, he was coaching them on their sword moves.

After the baptism of the Dragon Transformation Pool, the Golden Swordfish race was so intelligent that they could memorize everything they had learned.

In particular, their swordplay. When they trained themselves within the Dragon Field, their efficiency of cultivation could hit twice the speed, which was very powerful.

The Anomalocaris race was instead cultivating in the Dragon Cave.

After taking a look, Wang Xian exhibited a satisfying look on his face. After Prime Minister Turtle and the rest were revived, Wang Xian could lead them to conquer the entire Eastern Sea.

Grooo!

Just when Wang Xian and the others were resting in the Dragon Palace, the Dragon Transformation Pool was undergoing a massive change.

Within the pool, bloody water was bubbling around Xiao Yu and Elder Fang.

The dragon blood within the Dragon Transformation Pool gradually turned black after entering their bodies.

The vague black spots that were stuck on their bones did not disappear from their bodies. Instead, they were growing at an exponential rate.

The black spots slowly spread throughout their bones, where all the white boney areas were turned black.

As the black spots spread themselves, their bodies were slowly getting inky.

Kaka!

The Dragon Transformation Pool allowed anyone to evolve into a Divine Dragon.

But a Dragon Transformation Pool at Level 1 could not support the instant transformation.

Like the Golden Swordfish and Anomalocaris races, their bloodline, physique, talent, and intelligence would be significantly enhanced after the baptism of the Dragon Transformation Pool. They could even change their forms.

Similarly, Xiao Yu and Elder Fang could not turn into Divine Dragons directly after entering the Dragon Transformation Pool. It would take a long period of cultivation to achieve that.

However, the Dragon Blood did not cleanse the black spots within their bodies due to their powerful energy. Instead, they combined to form something even more horrifying.

Their bones were making cracking sounds.

Buzz!

At this time, the black Devil Dragon on the nine columns around the pool was giving off a slight glow.

Xiao Yu and Elder Fan in the pool were undergoing a huge change.

They were evolving into something closer to the Devil Dragon, but yet, different.

To put it more accurately, it was something even more terrifying and hideous than the Devil Dragon.

Their flesh and blood seemed to be perfectly hidden within the bones as the terrifying black-colored bones began to be revealed.

Mutated Divine Dragons!

Skeletal Dragons!

Chapter 396: Skeletal Dragon

Grrrr, grrr!

A soft roar erupted from the Dragon Transformation Pool of the Dragon Palace.

The roar was sonorous and soft but easily propagated throughout the entire Dragon Palace.

"Argh! How did I become like this?"

At this moment, a shrieking scream sounded.

Within the Dragon Transformation Pool, Xiao Yu and Elder Fang stared at each other before screaming.

Their bright eyes were filled with disbelief. After looking at each other, they looked at their own bodies.

Xiao Yu's tears streamed down immediately.

Bones! She was covered in bones that appeared dullish black and glowed in a faint and dull light. Her body looked segmental and each segment was connected to razor-sharp thorny bones.

Her body was approximately five meters long and looked just like a terrifying mystical dragon forged with dullish gold metal.

They were a little different from ordinary divine dragons and had two wings that spanned approximately one meter to both sides of their body.

Although one could say these one-meter-long frames were wings, they were more ornamental than functional. Their dragon claws were entirely black and shimmered in a chilling black glow.

The black Skeletal Dragon didn't appear to be evil at all. Instead, it carried with it a tinge of holiness.

Moreover, it looked incomparably domineering and majestic.

However, this was the conclusion one would get if one used the perspective of a guy. In the eyes of Xiao Yu and Elder Fang, they were just exceptionally grotesque monsters.

"Xiao Yu, Elder Fang!"

At this instant, Wang Xian, who had been in his room previously, came rushing towards the Dragon Transformation Pool after hearing the screams of Xiao Yu and Elder Fang.

"This..."

When he stood by the edge of the Dragon Transformation Pool, Wang Xian was dumbfounded to see Xiao Yu and Elder Fang's current form in the Dragon Transformation Pool.

"Wuuuu! Big brother, I have turned into a monster! I have turned into a monster!" Xiao Yu cried out in fear. She moved and flew towards Wang Xian at astonishing speed.

Crack crack crack!

While flying, the sound of metal clashing was made. She looked domineering and majestic and was just like the Void Skeletal Dragon that existed in the records of mythology.

Wang Xian raised his arms and wrapped them around Xiao Yu's huge head. On his face, he wore a bitter smile.

"Mutated divine dragon! Oh gosh! It's a mutated divine dragon!"

"Xiao Xian, what's a mutated divine dragon?"

At this moment, Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue and Sun Lingxiu, who had followed closely behind Wang Xian, looked at Xiao Yu in shock as they asked.

"Brother, I'm so ugly now. Sob, sob. Brother!"

Xiao Yu's feminine voice came from the Skeletal Dragon. No matter how one looked at it, he would find this to be really weird.

"Hmm. Xiao Yu, don't worry about it. Don't worry about it. You can still regain your human form."

Wang Xian comforted Xiao Yu as Elder Fang also flew towards him. Wang Xian looked at them, forced a smile and said, "This... For you all, this should be a blessing!"

"Wang... Miracle Doctor Wang! How could this be a blessing?" Elder Fang's voice was trembling as she shook her head and stared at Wang Xian.

"From the perspective of a divine dragon, this is indeed a blessing!" Wang Xian smiled and nodded his head before continuing, "I don't understand why you two have become Skeletal Dragons, but this is undoubtedly a blessing!"

"A Skeletal Dragon is a mutated divine dragon with devil attributes. It could also be called a mutated form of a devil dragon!"

"Divine dragons can be separated into nine different attributes of Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, Earth, Light, Darkness, Wind and Thunder. However, there are still mutated attributes besides these nine attributes. Among which, there are Skeletal Dragons and Frosty Divine Dragons!"

"Based on the records of the Divine Dragon Transformation, mutated divine dragons are much stronger than ordinary divine dragons. In every ten thousand divine dragons, there might just be one. To become a mutated divine dragon is extremely difficult."

"The reason why both of you have become Skeletal Dragons is likely to be due to those black dots of venom. My guess is that the Black Bone Venom isn't a kind of poison. Instead, it's an incredible treasure. It is just that when injected into ordinary humans, ordinary humans can't withstand this form of energy and thus show symptoms of being poisoned!"

Wang Xian made his conjecture. Mutated Divine Dragons were rare occurrences within the divine dragon race. It was also extremely difficult to become one.

Now that Xiao Yu and Elder Fang had become Skeletal Dragons, it could be a huge blessing for them.

"Sob sob. Brother, I don't want to become an ugly Skeletal Dragon like this. I don't want to. I want to become other dragons!"

Xiao Yu shook her head unwillingly.

Seeing that huge skeletal head acting like a spoilt child was truly...

Wang Xian could only smile bitterly.

Xiao Yu had been full of anticipation and hope when she entered the Dragon Transformation Pool. She was still imagining herself becoming a beautiful Water Divine Dragon or the majestic Metal Divine Dragon or an Azure Dragon that could control Wood!

As for a Devil Dragon, she had never thought about it.

And yet, she had now turned into the mutated Skeletal Dragon, something she considered to be worse than the Devil Dragon.

"Change back into your human form! Change back to your human form!" Wang Xian smiled and comforted her.

Xiao Yu's eyes were red from crying. Based on the transformation technique, she turned back into her human form with just a thought.

Wang Xian waved his arm and shielded her body. Elder Fang, who was by the side, also returned into her human form. Wang Xian couldn't help but steal a few glances.

Her figure completely triumphed over Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue.

Huh?

"What are you looking at!"

The voices of Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue erupted from his side. Wang Xian immediately turned his head around. Waving his arm, he shielded Elder Fang's body.

Elder Fang's face was flushed. In her mind, the cultivation arts of the Skeletal Dragon surfaced.

Ka ka ka!

Sounds of metal clashing and rubbing came from her. Soon, Elder Fang was covered in black armor.

The battle armor had a black glow and completely covered her alluring figure. Her long hair rested behind her, making her look incomparably cold.

However, perhaps it was because Elder Fang's figure was too exceptional. There was a different kind of charm emanating from her.

Xiao Yu saw the bone armor appearing on Elder Fang. With a thought, similar bone armor covered her body too.

This bone armor was indeed part of the skeletal structure within their bodies. Moreover, it possessed incredible defensive strength.

"Isn't this pretty good? Look at how stunning you are now!" Wang Xian smiled and commented as he looked at Xiao Yu.

Covered in bone armor, they looked just like powerful female warriors.

Xiao Yu looked at her own body and pouted. She was still feeling unsatisfied about it.

Although the bone armor in the human form was cool, turning into the dragon form was too grotesque!

"This... It's better to just maintain the human form!"

Elder Fang showed a bitter smile. Feeling the incredible strength within her, she felt slightly relieved.

Elder Fang felt that these boundless powers were even greater than the Inborn Realm.

It should have been equivalent to the legendary Half-Step to Dan Realm.

"Acclimatize yourself with your own powers and show them to us!"

Wang Xian looked at Xiao Yu and continued, "Both of you have made huge leaps forward in the Dragon Transformation Pool. It isn't about strength, but rather your bloodline."

"The current Dragon Palace is just at the first level. Rationally speaking, it is only capable of breeding dragon species but not giving rise to divine dragons. Now that you all have become divine dragons, you could really call that a meteoric rise!" Wang Xian remarked joyously. He wondered what kind of venom was required to enable Xiao Yu and Elder Fang to transform into dragons directly.

He was thinking of visiting the Sacred Followers Guild when he had the time to see if they still had more of such venom!

Chapter 397: Get Out Of Our Territory (1)

"When you were in your human form, your strength was Half-Step to Dan Realm. After you turned into a Skeletal Dragon, your strength is close to Level 11, and the Divine Dragon Level is at 7. The difference is not that huge!" said Wang Xian after watching the strength exhibited by Xiao Yu and Elder Fang within the Dragon Palace.

Both of them were different from him. They had transformed into Divine Dragons through the Dragon Transformation Pool. Hence, their strength was not much different, regardless of whether they were in Dragon or human forms.

However, Wang Xian was transformed into a Divine Dragon through the system. Hence, there were some differences.

Both of them had upgraded their strength to Half-step to Dan Realm from Half-step to Inborn. That was a great leap in the levels. Very soon, they could advance to Dan Realm, and become the legendary existences of the Underworld.

"Too powerful. I'm simply too powerful now. Haha!"

Xiao Yu had excitement all over her face while Elder Fang was overwhelmed too.

She did not expect she could reach such a daunting stage with her strength.

As she looked at Wang Xian, there was an unusual radiance that flashed across her eyes.

If it were not for this young man, she would not have thought of entering the Inborn Realm, not to mention the legendary Dan Realm.

"Xiao Yu, you are much more powerful than me now. All of you are better than me!"

Guan Shuqing walked to Xiao Yu and spoke with envy.

"Hehe, Sister-in-law, why don't you go into the Dragon Transformation Pool and evolve into a Divine Dragon? In that way, you can also become very powerful!"

Xiao Yu tugged at Guan Shuqing's arm and spoke while smiling.

"No!" Wang Xian shook his head. "Shuqing has the most prestigious bloodline, and it's unsafe for her to enter into the pool. Shuqing, I think you'll be reaching the Inborn Realm soon, right?"

"Yes, soon. I still need at least half a month!" Guan Shuqing smiled.

"Let's have a celebration for Xiao Yu and Elder Fang's recovery!"

Lan Qingyue smiled as she spoke when the gang came to the Dragon King's bedroom.

"It's better to go back to the yacht!" Wang Xian smiled and said after seeing the sizeable messy bed. "I'll get some men to hunt for some food!"

The six of them came to the yacht above the Dragon Palace as they were happily cooking.

Living on the sea was very relaxing.

Having delicate seafood with a glass of red wine in each of their hands... They gazed upon the beautiful sea, looking extremely loosened up.

"It's winter vacation. Let's have some fun on the sea for a few days!"

Wang Xian was lying on the sofa as he suggested this to Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing, and the rest.

"Sure!"

All of them nodded their heads, smiling from ear to ear. Standing on the deck of the yacht, they were gazing at the vast ocean while enjoying the sea breeze.

"Oh, Qingyue, do you know if there are other places like gambling cruises around the sea?" asked Wang Xian to Lan Qingyue with curiosity.

According to Mo Yuan's investigation, there were many recreational zones on the vast ocean.

To humans, the vast underwater world was a mystery.

But on the surface of the sea, it was another paradise to the Martial Artists.

Martial Artists were unable to display their remarkable strength in the bustling urban society unless they were out in the sea.

There were many islands out in the sea for leisure and tourism. Most of the places only received the riches and the Martial Artists.

Things that could be found in the sea were nothing average.

Many of the Martial Artists, clans, and families had placed their focus on seeking marine resources, especially when the mainland had been lacking in resources for the last decades.

"My dad told me before that there is a region with cruises. There are food, entertainment and all kinds of leisure activities over there. Let me call my dad and ask him!" Lan Qingyue replied with a smile.

Wang Xian nodded. Even though the Dragon Palace was stationed underwater, he was still unfamiliar with the ocean.

"My dad sent me a coordinate. Let's go over."

Soon, Lan Qingyue received a reply and told this to Wang Xian.

"Great, let's go!" Wang Xian chuckled.

Wang Xian got Mo Qinglong to steer the yacht while the rest were beaming as they headed to one of the recreational spots in the sea.

The recreational spots were closer to land compared to the Dragon Palace. Hence, they had to make their way back.

"Hur?"

"Xiao Xian, look! There are two vessels ahead. It's about the same as those that we saw the other time!"

As the yacht was sailing along the sea, two vessels that seemed rather familiar appeared before their eyes.

Wang Xian slightly squinted his eyes as he looked over.

The bodies of the vessels were dark in color, looking durable.

There was a banner with a sharp sword flying in the air on the sail.

On the ship stood a mixture of middle-aged men and young men with swords in their hands.

The two vessels were similar to those of three cruises they had encountered not long ago. The only difference was the size of these two vessels. They were much smaller with a size of thirty meters each.

Something white was found on the water surface between the two vessels that looked unusually striking.

Wang Xian and the gang had a clear view this time as it was daytime.

"This is the second time we've run into them. What are they doing?"

Lan Qingyue was a little surprised to see the two vessels. They had also been anchored in the middle of the sea the other time. Now, they were doing the same thing.

"Let's check it out!" Wang Xian told Mo Qinglong and the gang.

He remembered that an old man on that vessel attacked them with some mighty explosives in the last encounter. They were attacking them to chase them out of that region.

Back then, Wang Xian had been anxious about the construction of the Dragon Palace. Hence, he did not bother. This time, he wanted to have a good look.

"What's going on?" We haven't seen any Icefish in the past few days. Where have they all gone? This shouldn't be happening!"

At this time, a middle-aged man was staring at the center spot with an awful look on the Sacred Seas of Swords' vessels not far away.

"Attendant Yun, something has not been quite right these past few days. Not only are the Icefish gone, but also the Qilian fish. We haven't seen any of them within these two days."

The duo was flustered as they spoke.

A young man was holding onto a sword by the side. He was 1.9 meters tall with a striking appearance. He exhibited a prideful demeanor from within. However, he was frowning slightly at this point in time.

The ocean was a substantial treasure-hunting ground. One of the biggest reasons that many sects established their bases in the sea was because of its resources.

They could hunt mighty fish species in the sea through some special techniques.

These fish contained a high amount of energy. Feeding on them was not any different from eating the Spiritual Grass. It was more so that the high amount of energy from the marine animals could allow Martial Artists to enhance the strength of their bodies.

The dominant marine animals in the sea were valuable resources for the clans. These animals were known as spiritual fish.

However, Sacred Sea of Swords had been able to catch not a single spiritual fish in the past two days.

"Attendant Yun, Senior Brother Ma, there's a yacht heading in our direction!"

Just then, a disciple walked over and pointed to the back as he reported to the middle-aged man and that young man.

"Get them out of our territory!" the duo said with much impatience.

Chapter 398: Get Out Of Our Territory (2)

"Get out of our territory!"

An order resounded on the surface of the sea.

On a black ship, a young man carried a sharp blade in his hand and stared harshly at the approaching yacht.

The same words as that night? Their territory?

When Wang Xian heard him, he squinted his eyes.

The seas are just part of the territory of the dragon race. It doesn't matter if it's below or above the surface!

Wang Xian's eyes shimmered.

Dreadful marine creatures were currently occupying the area below the surface of the sea. On the surface, strong and powerful ancient sects had occupied the area. The entire sea had been divided and controlled.

Wang Xian smirked. It appeared that he wouldn't be just competing against creatures below the surface of the sea, but also had to compete with ancient sects above the surface.

He wouldn't wish for someone pissing him off above his head.

The yacht continued cruising forward. He had sufficient time to toy with them. This time, Wang Xian wouldn't just make a detour.

Huh?

When that young man saw the yacht not accelerating or turning around, he raised an eyebrow as his expression turned chilling.

"Seems like someone is courting death!"

At this point, a middle-aged man and the young man walked forward. Their gazes were fixed coldly on the approaching yacht.

They had already been restless previously. Now that they were seeing a yacht approaching them, their mood got worse.

The Yacht Club had alarmed some spiritual fish below the surface of the sea. Over the last two days, they hadn't encountered a single one. Now that this yacht was disturbing the area, it would be harder for them to encounter one.

The middle-aged man and young man gradually drew their swords as they watched the yacht approaching.

Beside them, disciples from the Sacred Seas of Swords on the two ships were looking in the direction of the yacht, smirking with contempt.

"How dare you encroach into the territory of our Sacred Seas of Swords! You guys must be courting death!"

When the yacht was two thousand meters away from them, the young man shouted harshly. His voice reached Wang Xian and the group's ears clearly.

"Continue ahead as plotted!" Wang Xian instructed Mo Qinglong.

"Yes, young master!"

The yacht remained on its original path.

"It appears that there are people who aren't showing any regard for our Sacred Seas of Swords!"

"Kill them! Sink into the sea those who dare to encroach on the territory of the Sacred Seas of Swords," the middle-aged man and the young man instructed emotionlessly.

In the sea, each ancient sect occupied a region. People from other forces could enter the region but were forbidden from capturing spiritual fish in the region and also forbidden from lingering for an extended period.

These were the rules of the sea and were established through strength.

Those who were stronger would occupy a bigger area. In other words, they would obtain greater resources.

Facing the yacht, the Sacred Seas of Swords wouldn't back off at all.

This was their territory. In their territory, others should follow their orders. These were the rules of the jungle, the rules of the survival of the fittest.

Whoosh!

The young man saw the yacht passing by fifty meters away from them. He swung his sword lightly towards the sea.

In the direction where he pointed, the seawater coalesced rapidly into sharp blades.

In an instant, ten longswords made of seawater appeared before the young man.

The middle-aged man beside him did the same. As he waved his arm, seawater formed countless longswords and were sent piercing forward.

"Insolent brats!" the young man snorted. The water swords flew towards the yacht at an astonishing speed.

"Who gives you the guts to be so brazen in the territory of our Sacred Seas of Swords. Are you really that eager to go to hell?"

On the two ships, the disciples of Sacred Seas of Swords saw Senior brother Ma and Attendant Yun strike as they looked towards the yacht with disdain.

Their actions were incomparably domineering.

Above the sea, the rule of survival of the fittest was greatly manifested.

"Interesting!"

Seeing them strike, Wang Xian showed a faint smile. "Let's go and ask them about the sea."

Wang Xian smiled. A huge wall of seawater was raised before the yacht as he waved his arm. It acted as a water shield and took the attacking water swords directly.

Subsequently, Wang Xian leaped into the air and flew towards the two ships.

Xiao Yu and Elder Fang were eager to give it a try. They jumped into the air and flew closely behind Wang Xian.

Guan Shuqing could only pout. Having not reached the Inborn Realm, she was still unable to fly in the air for short periods.

"What?"

"Flying in the air? They are Inborn experts!"

"This is bad! We have encountered experts! It's no surprise that they ignored our warning!"

On the two ships of the Sacred Seas of Swords, the disciples were shocked and stunned to see Wang Xian raising a water wall with a single wave of his arm, and that he was flying towards them.

"That's a young man! He's so young and yet he has already reached the Inborn Realm!"

"There are still four beautiful ladies behind him! Oh gosh! All of them are flying in the air. Five Inborn experts!"

"These Inborn experts are so young. Which powerful sect are they from? How can they be so young?"

When the disciples of the Sacred Seas of Swords saw Xiao Yu and Elder Fang approaching them, their eyes widened and were filled with disbelief.

Senior Brother Ma and Attendant Yun could feel their eyelids twitching violently as they stared solemnly at Wang Xian and the group.

"We are the disciples of Sacred Seas of Swords. May I know what intentions you guys have?"

The middle-aged man and young man saw Wang Xian landing on their ship. Seeing the overly young looks of the group, they were in awe.

Wang Xian looked at the crowd of disciples of Sacred Seas of Swords with contempt and superiority.

"Explain to me the distribution of powers of the sea!"

Wang Xian's eyes landed on the middle-aged man and young man and instructed them directly.

"YOU..."

When the young man saw how Wang Xian was looking down at them, and that he didn't seem to have any regard for them, his expression sank.

"Speak!"

Wang Xian stared harshly at that young man.

Disciples of a Sacred Sect? Your territory? Everything has to be backed with the corresponding strength.

If you guys are the disciples of a Sacred Sect, I alone am the entire Sacred Sect!

Wang Xian had zero favorable opinions of the disciples of Sacred Seas of Swords who dared to attack him.

If you dare to look down on me, I'll stand before you with absolute authority.

"We are the disciples of the Sacred Seas of Swords. This is the territory of our Sacred Seas of Swords!" That young man gritted his teeth, clenched his fist and spoke solemnly.

He emphasized the Sacred Seas of Swords once again. Clearly, he was trying to warn Wang Xian with the name of the Sacred Seas of Swords.

"Your territory? How hilarious? Do you know the consequences of attacking me?"

Wang Xian smirked, looked at the brazen and arrogant young man before him, and moved his arm.

Boom!

The seawater around them turned into a huge water snake and dived towards the young man.

"Don't you dare! You will be making the entire Sacred Seas of Swords your enemy!"

The middle-aged man standing by the side chided loudly when he witnessed Wang Xian attack.

Hehe!

Wang Xian responded with a cold and mocking smile.

That water snake moved at astonishing speed towards the young man.

The young man's expression changed radically. The longsword in his hand glowed in dense blue light as he swung towards the water snake!

Chapter 399: I'll Kill Anyone Who Offends Me

Ah!

To his horror, the young man realized there were only faint ripples when he wielded his sharp sword at the water snake.

With eyes filled with trepidation, he hurriedly receded.

However, the speed of the water snake burst as it wound itself around the neck of that young man.

"You..." Cough!

Fear filled the young man's eyes. When he was about to speak, he felt a fearsome strength that choked him, making him breathless.

"How dare a Half-step to Inborn be so insolent! Are you brazen because you think you're great or is it because the sacred sect is backing you up?" Wang Xian asked disdainfully as he stared at that young man.

"Gentleman over here, stop! We were rude just now. Please forgive us!"

The middle-aged man at the side bowed to Wang Xian with his cupped fist as he looked extremely embarrassed.

The surrounding disciples of Sacred Seas of Swords were looking sheepish as they glared at Wang Xian with tension while holding onto their swords.

They were out to hunt the spiritual fish with no other experts from the sect tagging along. The most formidable ones were two Half-step to Inborns.

"You know you were rude?"

Wang Xian glared at the middle-aged man with contempt as he swung his arm.

Kaka!

A bone-cracking sound was heard. That middle-aged man stared with his eyes wide-opened as he looked to his side immediately.

Bam!

That young man fell on the deck with a loud thud.

All the disciples from Sacred Seas of Swords felt their hearts palpitating violently as traces of fear flashed in their eyes.

"He...He killed Senior Brother Ma. He actually killed the disciple of Sacred Seas of Swords!"

A disciple could not believe his eyes as he exclaimed in a low voice.

"Explain to me the distribution of powers of the sea!" Wang Xian demanded of the disciples of Sacred Seas of Swords.

The middle-aged man had an extremely awful look on his face as trepidation was found in his eyes. He took out a map from his coat and handed it to Wang Xian.

"This is the map of the power distribution in the sea."

"You could have saved yourself the trouble if you handed it to me earlier."

Wang Xian sneered when he took over the map as he swept his gaze across everyone.

"I have already given the map to you. What else do you want?"

Sensing a faint killing intent from Wang Xian's eyes, the middle-aged man slightly darkened his expression as he asked Wang Xian with embarrassment.

"Nothing much. Since you guys made an attacking move on us just now, I want you to receive a move from me too!"

Wang Xian revealed a smile as he expanded his arms.

"You..."

Upon hearing Wang Xian, there was a gloomy look on the middle-aged man while the rest of the Sacred Seas of Swords' disciples drew their swords immediately.

Boom!

Just then, a booming sound came from the waves suddenly.

All of the Sacred Seas of Swords' disciples had a change in their expression as they looked to both sides.

The sea turned extremely choppy as though feeling the anger from God of the Sea.

"Oh no, our boat is sinking!"

One of the disciples suddenly realized the sea level and the vessel were on the same level because the vessel was sinking. All he had was a frightened look on his face.

The sea began to rise, swallowing the entire vessel.

Everything looked as though a terrible disaster had arrived as the vessel continued to sink.

"How dare you kill the disciples from Sacred Seas of Swords. The sect will never let you off!"

There was a drastic change in the middle-aged man's expression as he leaped, making an attempt to flee.

Bam!

However, daunting sea waves suddenly gushed up into the air, throwing him back into the sea.

The vessel sank rapidly. Within a minute, the ocean began to calm down as though nothing had happened here before.

"Let's go!"

Wang Xian swept his glance around before he made a swift movement to the yacht.

"Brother, I realize those disciples from the so-called Sacred Sects or first-class forces were very haughty. They just killed anyone readily and were tyrannical."

Xiao Yu did not feel anything for those people who were drowned in the sea by Wang Xian.

Even though she'd just gotten in touch with the Underworld not long ago, she had a strong understanding of what it was like being in the Underworld.

The disciples of the Sacred Sects and Ancestral Clans considered themselves superior as they looked down on those from the weaker sects.

Some of the experts even struck at those weaker ones when things did not go their way.

Speak with your fists. The rules of the jungle were reflected realistically in the Underworld.

Wang Xian smiled as he nodded. "This is the essence. The elephants don't care for an ant if it's dead. They will not remember it. Nobody will care about the mosquitoes when they are smacked to death either."

Those disciples with a strong background or who came from some families were all prideful and full of self-confidence. They loved to look down on those who were weaker than them.

Dragons were too proud to stay in one place with snakes. That was the logic.

Hence, those Sacred Sects were never in the good books of Wang Xian. So it was with the Sacred Followers Guild. One of their elders was killed, and they just sent their men to kill him without asking for any reason.

The Sacred Sea of Swords was the same. When Wang Xian and the gang were passing through this place from afar, they came under fire from the Sacred Sea of Swords.

It was the same this time. They struck after a warning.

Wang Xian never had a good impression of Sacred Sects. Hence, he would leave no mercy for those who provoked him.

Since you want to talk with your fists, then let's do it. The outcome will be determined by strength.

From now on, I'll not strike if no one provokes me. But I'll kill anyone who offends me!

Wang Xian thought to himself as he looked at the map in his hand.

The power distribution map of the sea region included those zones around Asia.

"There are more than a dozen forces throughout the Eastern Sea. The territory occupied by Sacred Sea of Swords is the largest while there are some foreign forces as well!"

The map was very detailed on the territory distribution around the nearby region. Apart from the Eastern Sea, the rest of the areas were covered by many different kinds of forces.

There were at least thirty forces in the entire Asia region. Among which, some of them could be comparable to the Sacred Sea of Swords.

Apart from that, there were some disordered regions in the sea.

The disordered regions were places no forces were occupying except some smaller forces, including Wandering Sea Groups.

Wandering Sea Groups were similar to pirates who dealt with all kinds of business.

Some of the Wandering Sea Groups even dared to enter the territories of other forces.

"Looks like it's very messy in the ocean as well. Everyone talks with their fists!"

With various forces and Wandering Sea Groups rooted in the sea, it seemed to be extremely chaotic.

Wang Xian briefly exclaimed to himself as he stared at that recreational area, which belonged to the first-class force, Qing Bi Sect.

There was an island surrounded by many cruises making it an attractive tourist spot.

Many affluent people and Martial Artists would go there for some recreational activities.

The yacht was steering toward that region rapidly. After three hours, the cruises appeared before them one by one.

Beside those cruises was a small island that spanned a radius of two to three kilometers.

Various yachts were docked by the side of the island.

Even in the middle of the ocean, this place remained a cool tourist attraction.

Chapter 400: Overseas Wandering Sea Groups (1)

"Oh gosh! It's so beautiful here!"

After parking the yacht beside the island and paying exorbitant fees, Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and the girls alighted from the yacht and looked around the island with anticipation.

The entire island was divided into separate regions. Within it, clean and clear seawater was flowing and the entire island had been modified to include a swimming pool.

Moreover, there were restaurants, cafes, and bars surrounding the pool.

With a huge shade cast on the island, the entire area was exceptionally stunning and the place was ideal for swimming and relaxing.

"The island is a place for relaxing. If you are interested in other entertainment, you can board the various cruises around. There are a total of five cruises providing various services!" the employee at the yacht docking area explained to Wang Xian with a radiant smile.

"Alright, thank you!" Wang Xian nodded his head. He looked around him and revealed a smile.

"It's so beautiful. The water on this island is a hot spring from the sea. This is simply amazing. Xiao Xian, look! There are cruises for accommodation, food, water treatment, and even gambling."

Guan Shuqing looked around her and was ecstatic.

Other than that, there was a beautiful beach where they could even go fishing.

There was also a cruise used specifically to receive martial artists. The entire premise could be said to be the holy land of tourism and wasn't a place that could be matched by other tourist spots in the world.

Similarly, the cost here wasn't affordable by ordinary consumers.

"Go, go! Let's go to the food cruise first before returning for the hot spring, drinking some coffee and lying down for some rest. Haha! This is too great!" Xiao Yu held onto Wang Xian's arms as she remarked joyously.

"Alright, alright!" Wang Xian smiled and nodded his head. The group of six headed towards one of the cruises.

On the food cruise, there were various delicacies from all over the world. One could even find spiritual fish for sale on the top deck.

Xiao Yu and the girls had a sumptuous meal of delicacies.

After eating, the group of them went for the hot spring. They rented a hot spring pool where they could order all kinds of coffee and beverages from the side while immersing themselves and resting in the hot spring.

The day passed quickly as the group rested and relaxed.

At night, there was a bonfire party by the beach. There were unique delicacies and beautiful ladies from all over the world, making the entire beach a place of sin.

However, the order of the entire region was still great. No one was kicking up a fuss and no one dared to do so.

For this place to become such a lively and popular tourist spot, safety and order had to be a hundred percent guaranteed.

At night, at the top level of the accommodation cruise, Wang Xian, Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and the other girls were sitting by the balcony. They were playing bridge while enjoying the beautiful scenery before them.

The island, from a long distance away, was well lit and looked exceptionally beautiful.

Touring here had lifted the spirits of everyone.

"Let's enjoy ourselves for a week here. We can return after the week since we aren't in a hurry, too!" Wang Xian looked at Xiao Yu and the girls as he commented with a smile.

"My master is still asking me to return as soon as possible!" Guan Shuqing stuck out her tongue playfully as she commented.

"It's alright. I'll inform him. I'll raise your strength to the Inborn Realm over these few days. In this case, Sui Huang won't nag at you," Wang Xian chuckled.

He realized something. When the two of them had intercourse, he could increase Guan Shuqing's strength level.

It might be because of the relationship between the dragon and the phoenix. [\[1\]](#)

"Wandering Sea Groups! Get out of the territory of our Qing Bi Sect!"

At this moment, a chilling roar erupted from the sea and propagated throughout the region.

"Hehehehe! We have come to the Qing Bi Sect's territory. Pay us a hundred spiritual stones now and we will leave immediately. Otherwise, don't blame us for going on a killing spree!"

A brazen voice propagated through the night sky.

"Scram, you guys are just a group of locusts! Otherwise, all of you shall die!"

"Haha! You want all of us in the Century Ghost Group to die? Your Qing Bi Sect doesn't have such capabilities yet. Now, we shall grant you a minute to think about it. Give us the spiritual stones or we will start a slaughter here!"

The brazen voice erupted once again and resounded in the sky.

Wang Xian stood up in shock and looked ahead.

At this moment, all the rooms on the cruise lit up after hearing the brazen voice. Many people walked out of their rooms, feeling puzzled.

Amid the dark seas, a ship that was roughly seventy meters long stopped before the island.

The ship had a green glow and was entirely green.

It was extremely creepy and similar to ships used a long time ago. It was made of wood but it looked incomparably tough.

On that ship, the crew members were all carrying samurai swords. They wore green ghost masks and looked exceptionally savage.

"A strange ship!"

Wang Xian was a little surprised by that green wooden ship and recalled the ship of the Sacred Seas of Swords.

The ship of the Sacred Seas of Swords was made from a special metal. When he stood on the ship, he could feel that the ship was extremely tough.

However, Wang Xian wasn't paying too much attention to it when he sank it.

Could there be mysterious pirate ships like those in the movies?

Wang Xian smiled. Subsequently, he looked down at the ship.

"Those are the Wandering Sea Groups. Moreover, they are Wandering Sea Groups from Japan! Scumbags!"

"Century Ghost Group is a rather strong and infamous Wandering Group. They possess incredible strength. Once, they annihilated two weak First-class forces in the vicinity and plundered all the treasures. They must have their eyes set on Qing Bi Sect now!"

"Rumor has it that the ship of the Century Ghost Group can dive ten meters under the surface and cruise rapidly! How insane is that!?"

"The Century Ghost Group is formed by some martial artists from Japan. These scumbags are just like locusts in this piece of sea region. They go around plundering and surprisingly have infiltrated this place today!"

At this moment, voices of martial artists started coming from various directions.

Many people had gathered on the deck and were looking down.

Clearly, many martial artists knew the Century Ghost Group well and hated them.

Wandering Sea Group? Century Ghost Group?

Wang Xian heard them and raised an eyebrow.

He had not expected to encounter the Century Ghost Group after receiving information about the Wandering Sea Groups earlier in the day.

There were many Wandering Sea Groups on the sea from all parts of the world. In this piece of sea region, the strongest Wandering Sea Groups included Century Ghost Group, Hai Jiao, Naka, Night Phantom, and Creepy Snake.

These few Wandering Sea Group were infamous and had annihilated First-class forces previously.

Hai Jiao and Naka were formed by criminals in the Underworld and Century Ghost Group was from Japan, while Naka and Creepy Snake had been established by martial artists from India and Sarawak.

Endnote:

[1] In Chinese mythology, the dragon and the phoenix are often considered to be a couple. Back

Chapter 401: Overseas Wandering Sea Groups (2)

Wandering Sea Groups owned no territory. They relied on robberies to reap benefits.

Many forces hated them, especially those large transportation companies. If they did not pay any fees, the Wandering Sea Groups would hijack the transport teams.

They were much more terrifying than those average pirates.

"Tsk tsk, one minute is up soon. Looks like you don't know what's good for you. All of you will regret it! Haha!"

The haughty laughter was heard, resounding throughout the entire sea region.

"Century Ghosts members, don't blame the Qing Bi Sect for fighting all out with you if you guys don't scam now!"

The angry bellow came with a force that was filled with immense righteousness.

"Just the Qing Bi Sect? Even the Chinese Sacred Sects cannot handle us. Haha, if not for the Chinese Guardian Divine Beasts, that so-called Underworld of yours would already be long gone!"

A disdainful voice was heard again. "Time's up. Since you are ignorant, then... Hiak hiak, Shui Gui. Do it now!"

Boom boom!

When the voice trailed off, there was a sudden loud and violent sound. Under the cruise, the sea began to turn choppy.

Immense energy was coming from the bottom of the cruise.

"You're seeking your doom!"

The eyes of people from Qing Bi Sect turned red when they heard the roar coming from the bottom of the cruise. In a fit of rage, they rushed to the Century Ghost Group before them.

"Tsk tsk. You guys are burning with a frenzy of rage, aren't you? Since you don't know what's good for you, I'll annihilate all of you!"

As the sneering voice was heard, the Martial Artists from the Century Ghost Group, each with a ghost mask, flitted towards Qing Bi Sect's vessel. Both parties engaged in a battle.

In the dark, hundreds of ghosts moved like phantoms, and no one could see them clearly.

"Ah, the cruise is sinking!"

"Everyone, back to the island. Now!"

"Don't panic. Head to the island at once!"

At this moment, five cruises jerked violently at the seaside as the water gushed into the cabins.

Although they were at a shallow spot, the sea level could still submerge half of the cruise.

Members from Qing Bi Sect stood before the cruise and commanded the passengers at the top of their lungs.

"They are blowing the ship from below!"

Sensing the ship was rapidly sinking, Guan Shuqing let out a surprised exclamation!

"Let's get off here!" said Wang Xian to Xiao Yu and Guan Shuqing as he leaped in the direction of the island.

Some of the surrounding Martial Artists were also jumping off from the cruise.

"Oh no, Qing Bi Sect is not a match for Century Ghost!"

"Qing Bi Sect has only two Inborn Experts keeping guard here. I heard there were five Inborn Experts within the Century Ghost Group. That Shui Gui is one of them!"

When Wang Xian had just landed on the island, he managed to overhear two middle-aged men exclaiming as they looked out to the sea.

Everyone turned and looked over. All the hundreds of Century Ghost members who were wearing ghost masks over their faces had made it to the cruise of Qing Bi Sect.

Among which, three people in masks that had flashing green radiance were engaged in fierce battles with two Inborn Experts from Qing Bi Sect.

The rest of the Century Ghost members were waging war with the remaining disciples of Qing Bi Sect.

Fearsome and experienced Century Ghost members could slaughter Qing Bi Sect disciples of the same level easily. As such, there were devastating screams everywhere.

Ah!

"Old Tong!"

At this time, one of the two Inborn Experts from Qing Bi Sect, who was battling in the air, let out a sudden sharp shriek.

"Tsk tsk, trying to stop the Century Ghost with just two Inborn Experts? I ask you not to resist, and yet, you're digging your own grave."

A person with a ghost mask suddenly emerged from the water. He was holding on the sharp claw that caught both legs of that Inborn Expert while he lifted his head and revealed a hideous smile.

Bam!

That Inborn Expert landed into the sea with intense ripples before the water surface finally calmed down.

'Old Tong! Damn you guys! I'll kill you all!"

Another Inborn Expert bellowed in a fit of rage as he exuded a sapphire glow from his body.

"Desperate struggle!"

Three Experts of Century Ghost sneered as their masks continued to give off a greenish radiance that was incredibly creepy at night.

"Haha, some of you will head to the central cruise and take all the treasures away. The remaining ones, start fishing!"

"To-ufo, Iyo, Akajita, let's go fishing! Hiak hiak!"

One by one, those wearing ghost masks charged out from the vessel of the Qing Bi Sect. They were covered in blood as they screamed with a hideous look.

Some of the Century Ghost members headed for the cruise in the center.

That cruise was dedicated to receiving Martial Artists, and they provided auction and trading services. Hence, there were many treasures in it.

Another dozen people flitted towards the island as they stared coldly at all the people on it as though they were prey.

"We're doomed. Qing Bi Sect was unable to stop the attack of Century Ghost!"

"Oh no, they are fishing. Let's run!"

"Run now. We'll not survive if they catch hold of us!"

"They're ferocious. Everyone, run for your life!"

Upon seeing the Century Ghost members breaking down the defense of Qing Bi Sect by killing their experts, those rich folks and Martial Artists who were here for a tour were appalled.

In particular, those Martial Artists had a huge change in their expressions as they hurriedly fled towards the island.

"Fishing" is a term coined by the Wandering Sea Groups. It meant robbing the valuables from the ordinary passengers and Martial Artists.

If anyone encountered a ferocious Wandering Group and got fished, they would be killed!

"Hiak hiak, trying to escape? Can you run away from us?"

A dozen Century Ghost members cast their gazes in Wang Xian's direction with glowing green radiance shooting out from their eyes. They began to hunt them down!

Ah!

Upon seeing the masked Century Ghost members charging towards them, those ordinary wealthy people were horrified as they ran towards the island.

"Hiak hiak, let's start our fishing!"

One of the Century Ghost members in the middle had a perverted look in his eyes as the people before him screamed in panic. Holding onto a dazzling dagger, he licked his lips as he looked at a young woman.

"This bunch of fellows are so cruel!"

Elder Fang displayed a hint of anger when she saw the gruesome look on their faces.

"A bunch of trash. Kill them all!"

Wang Xian swept his gaze across all the Century Ghost members. In a swift stance, he darted towards one of them before him.

"Fishing? I will turn all of you into dead fish! Hmph!"

Xiao Yu exhibited an intoxicating expression on her face. Ever since her strength had greatly enhanced, she'd had no chance to strike at all.

Her quick movement was accompanied by a ferocious aura.

Skeletal Dragon was out for a kill with swift and violent assaults.

Xiao Yu did not like the appearance of the Skeletal Dragon. Still, she had no choice except to sweep up a violent attack.

A loud explosion was given off in the air. With a palm movement, a bone sword appeared in her hand.

The black bone sword was radiating pitch-black radiance as it was wielded at a Century Ghost member who was targeting a young woman.

Chapter 402: Annihilating the Century Ghost

"Huh? You dare to attack us? Haha! Kill these recklessly ignorant fools first!"

When the dozen-odd members of the Century Ghost Group saw Wang Xian, Xiao Yu and the group charging and attacking them, their expressions turned as cold as ice.

The Century Ghost member in the center charged towards Xiao Yu with a dagger that glowed in a creepy green light.

His savage-looking mask glowed dazzlingly. Noticing the speed at which Xiao Yu charged towards him, he was shocked. "Little brat, you are pretty fast. However, let me show you the way of assassination!"

As that Century Ghost member moved his arm, the green dagger left afterimages.

Seeing how arrogant and brazen this guy was, Xiao Yu was filled with contempt.

She slashed down with the bone sword in her hands.

"How fast!"

That Century Ghost member was taken by surprise and immediately blocked it with the phantom-like dagger.

Ka ka!

However, as the bone sword swung over, his dagger was easily sliced into two. At the same time, the long bone sword slashed down at the body of the Century Ghost member.

Pa Pa!

That Century Ghost member stopped. The glow of his mask dissipated gradually, split in the middle and eventually fell to the ground.

His eyes were filled with disbelief!

A stream of blood flowed down from his head.

He had been split in half from top to bottom.

Xiao Yu was taken aback and clearly made uncomfortable by the scene.

"Die!"

At this instant, the other Century Ghost member to the left moved beside Xiao Yu like a specter. He had long claws which emanated a chilling green glow, and he swung them towards Xiao Yu.

Xiao Yu was shocked and immediately stretched her left hand forward. A black bone spike extended out from her arm immediately.

The bone spike was three to four meters long. To the astonishment of that Century Ghost member, the bone spike pierced through his chest.

Seeing Xiao Yu easily kill two Century Ghost members in the blink of an eye, Wang Xian couldn't help but feel his mouth twitching.

The attacks of a Skeletal Dragon were exceptionally brutal.

Considering the toughness of Xiao Yu's bones, these bones could match the toughness of Level 11 defensive equipment.

At this point, even Inborn Spiritual Weapon couldn't put a dent in Xiao Yu's impenetrable physique.

"Kill!"

Wang Xian threw his arm forward and streams of water shot towards the five water spirits before him.

Bam! Bam!

The five water spirits didn't put up the slightest resistance as they were instantly killed and their bodies slashed into two at the waist.

"I'll get those four Inborn realm Century Ghost members. As for the rest, I'm leaving them to all of you!"

Wang Xian looked to Xiao Yu and the group as he spoke. Moving off, he headed over and attacked in the direction where the four Century Ghost members were surrounding the Inborn experts from Qing Bi Sect.

The expert from Qing Bi Sect was covered in wounds. Moreover, there was a layer of poison on these wounds, causing sizzling sounds.

That Inborn expert's eyes were bloodshot. He had totally disregarded his life while battling with the four Century Ghost members.

If the four Century Ghost members hadn't been thinking of avoiding injuries, the Inborn expert from Qing Bi Sect would have long since been finished off.

"A pile of trash and yet you guys dare to encroach on our sea territory and kill the innocent. How presumptuous!"

The four Century Ghost members who were attacking the expert from Qing Bi Sect suddenly heard a voice coming from behind them. They raised an eyebrow and looked at Wang Xian.

"There's another Inborn expert. This is troublesome. Kill him!"

The four Century Ghost members were flushed with bloodlust. Two of them charged forward immediately.

A samurai sword slashed upwards while a razor-sharp claw swung down at the same time.

"Be careful. Their weapons are covered in poison!"

When the expert saw Wang Xian charging forward, he immediately reminded him of this loudly.

"Two piles of trash! I can kill them as I wish!"

Wang Xian looked at the duo charging towards him with contempt. Picking up the scent of blood from them, his eyes turned chillingly cold.

The scent of blood on the duo was even thicker than that on Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan.

One had to note that Mo Yuan and Mo Qinglong had each killed four to five hundred people when they annihilated the Dark Conjurers.

However, the two Century Ghost members had taken even more lives.

"Scumbag, I'm going to cut you up!" The Century Ghost member, who was carrying a samurai sword with both hands, slashed upwards.

"Ant!"

Wang Xian swung his hand and countless razor-sharp arrows shrouded towards the duo.

Rumble!

Thousands and thousands of water arrows shot out in unison towards the two Century Ghost members. However, the arrows were stopped by their weapons and eventually landed on the floor.

The two Century Ghost members' expressions sank.

"This guy is a little hard to deal with!" a Century Ghost member commented as he looked alertly at Wang Xian.

Boom! Boom!

Suddenly, the two of them sank rapidly into the sea.

The seawater was just like a meat grinder and started circulating violently.

Argh!

Screams of desperation reverberated. The seawater was dyed red and soon the commotion died down.

"What?"

The other two Century Ghost members were shocked to see Hai Zuotou and Ni Zhu being slain instantly.

"The sea region isn't a place where trash like you guys can do as you wish in the future!"

Ruthlessness gleamed in the eyes of Wang Xian. As he moved, he appeared before the two Century Ghost members who'd had the Inborn expert from Qing Bi Sect cornered previously.

Argh!

Suddenly, pitiful cries reverberated from the yacht.

When the two Century Ghost members turned around, they saw their underlings being killed off one after another. Bitterness and sadness shrouded their eyes.

"Run!" The two exchanged glances and remarked coldly.

They didn't show any hesitation at all. One of them sprinted away while the other jumped directly into the sea.

"Wanna run?"

Wang Xian's figure shimmered and appeared before the two Century Ghost members instantly.

"How quick!"

That Century Ghost member's eyes shrank. He quickly threw a punch and scattered a green poisonous substance towards Wang Xian.

Roar!

At this instant, a roar erupted from the bottom of the sea. A huge snake emerged, swallowed the Century ghost member, and dived back into the sea.

"Wu Wu is dead!"

The last Century Ghost member called Shui Gui was petrified to sense that the presence of Wu Wu had dissipated completely.

"Shit! Shit! If you let us, the Century Ghost Group, know about your identity, we will definitely let you experience the torture treatment from us!"

Shui Gui dived towards the bottom of the sea frantically.

"What?"

At this moment, he suddenly saw the young man who had attacked him previously before his eyes.

His pupils shrank and fear welled up.

Blop! Blop!

All of a sudden, Shui Gui could sense the surrounding seawater crashing towards him. He held his neck in horror as he attempted to break away from the vice-like grip of the seawater over his neck

"How can this be? I'm Shui Gui. How can his speed in water be..." [\[1\]](#)

"You are just an insignificant spirit!"

Wang Xian took a glance at Shui Gui before making his way back to the surface of the water.

"Thank you. Thank you, brother, for saving my life!"

The moment Wang Xian emerged from the sea, the Inborn expert from Qing Bi Sect hurried over and thanked him sincerely.

"You are welcome. These guys are too arrogant. Since they were in my way, I just had to clear them!"

Wang Xian nodded his head plainly and looked towards the yacht.

At this instant, the commotion on the yacht died down. All the members of the Century Ghost Group had been killed.

"I'd like to express my gratitude on behalf of Qing Bi Sect for helping us out!"

The old man looked at Wang Xian, bowed down and clasped his right fist with his left palm as he spoke. He appeared to have something to add but stopped short of it.

"Young brother, are you Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown?"

Endnote:

[1] Shui Gui could also mean "Water Spirit." Back

Chapter 403: Establishing the Maritime Force

"Hur?"

Wang Xian was not surprised that the old man had recognized him. In the Underworld, not many people could recognize his look.

But many people knew about his strength.

There was only one person in the Underworld who could kill the Century Ghost Inborn members at such a young age. That was none other than Wang Xian.

Hence, the old man from Qing Bi Sect recognized him immediately.

"You're really the Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown!"

The old man cupped his fist again with a tinge of shock in his eyes. "Miracle Wang is indeed the youngest Inborn Expert and the Number One on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart."

"Thank you."

Wang Xian smiled at the old man before he waved a dismissive gesture and flew towards the cruise.

"Xiao Xian!"

Upon seeing Wang Xian, the ladies immediately went over to him.

"What a letdown. I wanted to stay here for a few more days to have fun!"

Xiao Yu grumbled as they observed the ruins around them.

It was hard for them to find such an enjoyable recreation. They felt helpless when such a thing happened in the end.

"We can only head back!"

The surrounding cruises were sinking. Even though they were not totally submerged, they could no longer be used for recreational purposes.

Some of the tourists and Martial Artists were still standing on the island, trembling in fear.

From time to time, they kept looking over at the cruise ships with astonishment.

"Yes, we can only go back. Sigh, what a spoiler!"

Lan Qingyue and the rest shook their heads.

"Let's get back to our yacht. We can go to other places as you wish!" Wang Xian chuckled as he spoke.

"Let's go over now. We still have about ten days before our Chinese New Year!"

They headed to the yacht after much thought.

After they returned to the yacht, Xiao Yu was asking for a Mahjong session. The girls began to crowd around and played Mahjong together.

Wang Xian looked over with his chin lifted, and they reminded him of a scene in the movie, Flirting Scholar. [\[1\]](#)

"Is Miracle Doctor Wang around?"

Just then, a voice was heard from the outside.

"Yes, come up, please!"

Wang Xian walked out of the living room and came to the deck.

That old man from Qing Bi Sect, along with a middle-aged man, arrived, holding things in their hands.

"Miracle Doctor Wang!"

The old man walked over with respect while the middle-aged man put the things on a table.

"Miracle Wang, I'm Duan Muwen from Qing Bi Sect. This is a small token of appreciation. I hope you like it. If it were not for you, we would have suffered a huge loss. Thanks for your help!"

The old man thanked Wang Xian once again.

"Okay!"

Wang Xian took a glance at the things on the table, but he did not turn them down. He looked around with doubt. "Is it very frequent for such a thing to happen?"

"The Wandering Sea Groups will rob a few times in a year. But it is not common for such a formidable Wandering Sea Group like Century Ghost to do it!"

The old man revealed a bitter smile. "There were only four or five powerful Wandering Sea Groups in the Asia region. They don't enter into our waters as they are usually active in the disordered region."

"Disordered region?"

Wang Xian thought of the markings around the disordered region on the map. "Can you tell me more about the disordered region?"

"Of course." The old man waved a friendly gesture while he was thinking of what to say. "The disordered region is a place that has not been dominated by any of the forces. That region is a treasure-hunting ground. All the forces wanted to occupy that region, but it is on the cross-section point of four to five countries. Even those forces and organizations that are as strong as Sacred Sects are looking to occupy it."

"That region is a breeding ground for the Spiritual Medicine, Pure Blood Coral. None of the forces are willing to let go, but none of the forces can get rid of the rest of the forces. As a result, dozens of forces are gathered over at that area, forming a disordered region!"

"Subsequently, the emergence of the sea creatures has stirred up more of a mess in that sea region. Now, everyone is killing one another, robbing Spiritual Grass and treasures."

"Only those who are rather formidable, or ruffians, can conduct long-term activities over there," the old man explained slowly to Wang Xian.

Wang Xian nodded. It was absolutely normal to have killings and robberies in a treasure ground without governance.

When such a situation persisted for a long time, a disordered region in the sea was formed.

"I don't know why the Century Ghost Group dares to invade our territory. The foreign forces are getting brazen. Chinese Underworld power remains weak in the international arena."

The old man exclaimed, "Given our current situation, I don't know how many decades we will take to catch up with the foreign forces!"

Wang Xian smiled and nodded. This was not the first time he heard that the Underworld's forces were weak.

Compared to those forces in the foreign countries, the Ancestral Clans in the Underworld were much weaker.

The Chinese Ancestral Clans liked to keep it to themselves. All the precious manuals would be carefully hidden, and the conditions to inherit them were rather stringent.

To prevent the leak of cultivation manuals, many families and clans only allowed men to inherit them.

Coupled with the history of when the Imperial Court was in power, they wantonly burned all the secret manuals to prevent Martial Artists from creating disorder.

Since then, many secret manuals disappeared. Generation after generation, the almost invincible Underworld had now become the weakest existence in the international arena.

Even the Knight and Mage bloodline from Europe was much more powerful.

This was also the reason why Fire God Denomination dared to infiltrate the Underworld and annihilate Flame Palace.

After chatting with Duan Muwen, Wang Xian realized he was someone who worried about the nation and could not take it lying down that the Underworld's forces were weak.

At the same time, he was also disgruntled with the internal strife in the Underworld.

Those domestic families and clans were killing each other for just an acre of resources, treasures, and spiritual grasses.

Yet, the international forces had already set their eyes on the vast ocean and began to plunder resources from other countries.

Qing Bi Sect often came into contact with these international forces as their territory was located in the middle of the sea. Hence, they often felt great pressure.

Wang Xian listened and chatted with him for half an hour before sending the old man off.

"This Qing Bi Sect is not bad!"

From the conversation with Duan Muwen, Wang Xian came to an understanding that the competition at the ocean was much higher than the peaceful domestic land.

Many of the disciples were not as arrogant as those in the mainland as well.

This had something to do with their living environment. The powerful Ancestral Sects in the mainland raised arrogant disciples that no one dared to provoke. In the long run, they developed haughty and demanding characteristics.

The disciples from the sects in the sea had stayed in a dangerous and competitive environment for too long. They had encountered too many stronger opponents, which developed into their cautious characteristics.

"Disordered region!"

Wang Xian took out that map again and drew his lips.

Whether the Underworld's forces were weak or strong, it was none of his business. But he could take down the disordered region first.

He could start with this region and clean up various clans and forces in the sea.

"Great. The Golden Swordfish are learning how to speak and read. I can build them into a formidable maritime force, wiping out everyone else."

Endnote:

[1] A Hong Kong comedy film from 1993 starring Stephen Chow Back

Chapter 404: Guild Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild

There are still fifty dragonians in the Dragon Sect and if they are to grow stronger, they will be a force that could dominate the underworld.

In the sea, there were also around a hundred and thirty golden swordfish. Suppressing the forces in the sea region in the vicinity shouldn't be a problem at all either.

It would take a huge amount of resources to level up the Dragon Palace. He would have to seize all resources available frantically for future developments.

The forces overseas are really strong?

Wang Xian's lips curved into a faint smile. It would not be long before he led the members of the Dragon Palace into the international stage. It would be just like the present situation where those who were unwilling to submit would all be destroyed!

When the day arrives, perhaps no one will ever say the Chinese Underworld is weaker!

Wang Xian smiled as he plotted out his plans in his mind.

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

Suddenly, Wang Xian's phone rang. He took a glance and realized it was Old Qin looking for him.

"Brother Wang Xian, where are you now?" the voice of Old Qin sounded from the other end of the phone the moment the call was connected.

"I'll be returning to Rivertown soon. What's the matter, Old Qin? Did something happen?" Wang Xian replied with a smile.

He had been keeping in contact with Old Qin and Old Xue all this while.

He had relied on their help to gather the materials required for the Dragon Palace.

"It'll be the new year soon. Let's find a time to have a gathering. Besides that, I would like to ask if Brother Wang Xian would be interested and have the time to attend a banquet for the wealthy and powerful families two days from now?" Old Qin smiled and asked Wang Xian.

"A gathering for the wealthy and powerful families?" Wang Xian was curious and asked, "What is the nature of the gathering?"

"All the influential figures, ancient martial artist families and the super-rich from the Southern Province will come together. This is a gathering of the super-rich and influential people. At that time, there will also be an auction. There should be some good stuff and things relating to the ancient martial arts circle wouldn't be lacking!" answered Old Qin.

Hmm! "Alright. I'll be in Rivertown tomorrow. At that time, let's have a meetup at the First-grade Restaurant," Wang Xian said heartily.

"Alright, alright!"

After chatting with Old Qin for some time, Wang returned to the living room in the yacht. Seeing that the girls were still excited and engrossed in their games, he went to the upper deck to take a break.

At night, Mo Qinglong steered the yacht towards Rivertown.

When dawn had just broken, the yacht stopped beside the villa.

The group alighted and headed towards the villa.

"Oh, my dear disciple! Is Brother Wang Xian around!"

Soon after, Sui Huang's voice resonated in the villa. Beside him, there was a white-bearded old man.

The old man looked much shorter and smaller compared to Sui Huang. However, his eyes were bright and one could easily tell that he wasn't ordinary.

He had white attire that wasn't tainted in the least bit, and had an exceptional demeanor.

"Sui Huang, just come in!"

Wang Xian sat on the sofa while playing with the Heavenly Hound. The girls continued their mahjong game after getting addicted to it on the yacht.

Huh?

Wang Xian looked across and his attention fell on the old man in white attire. He squinted his eyes.

This was someone who was at the same level as Sui Huang.

From him, Wang Xian could sense the aura of a grandmaster. Even Sui Huang didn't have the same aura.

While Wang Xian was observing the old man in white, the old man was also observing Wang Xian and the few people around him.

"Xiao Yu and Elder Fang have recovered?"

Sui Huang was shocked to see Xiao Yu and Elder Fang, who were playing mahjong.

"Old Sui, we have all recovered!" Xiao Yu and Elder Fang stood up immediately and replied joyously.

"Your strength!"

Sui Huang was shocked to feel the frightening energies emanating from Xiao Yu and Elder Fang.

Besides that, he also felt threatened by Lan Qingyue who was beside them.

This made him feel great disbelief.

He had inspected that horrifying venom personally a while back and found it to be extremely tricky. As such, he came to the conclusion that they had zero chance of recovery.

He had also consulted Old Huang, the number two on the World Miracle Doctors Chart. The response he got was "incurable" and Old Huang was helpless about the venom.

Yet, not only had they recovered, but their strength had also reached an incredible level.

At least the Inborn Realm!

"You little devil! You aren't simple and must be hiding a lot of secrets!"

Sui Huang raised an eyebrow.

Beside him, the old man in white attire was shocked.

Everyone in the villa seemed insane to him.

Even the dog that was lying in one corner wasn't simple.

In the entire villa, the one that gave him the strongest threat was that young man.

"All is well as long as they recover. All is well!"

Sui Huang smiled and looked at Wang Xian. "Let me introduce you. This is Old Huang, the Guild Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild and the strongest Miracle Doctor in China. Old Huang, there's some misunderstanding that requires resolving."

"Hello, Old Huang!" Wang Xian looked at the Guild Leader of the Sacred Clan and revealed a faint smile.

"Heroes often emerge when they are young! We have all aged!"

Old Huang looked at Wang Xian and exclaimed in surprise, "I have heard from Old Sui about the incident Brother Wang Xian had with the Sacred Followers Guild. Regarding this matter, I hope we can now put an end to it!"

"Alright. As long as the Sacred Followers Guild doesn't offend me, I won't go offend you guys!"

"Hehe! Offending this little brother has turned out to be extremely costly!" Old Huang laughed plainly.

"Naturally! If there's anyone who targets me or my kin, my only option will be to kill all of them!"

Wang Xian wore a smile and illustrated a fact that was clear to him.

"In that case, this matter shall rest here. The Sacred Followers Guild won't make things difficult for Brother Wang Xian in the future. I can give you my assurance on it. Old Huang, what do you think?"

Seeing the conversation between the two was getting confrontational, Sui Huang interrupted and attempted to mediate.

"Alright. I'm clear when it comes to right or wrong. My Sacred Followers Guild was at fault in this matter. Otherwise, I wouldn't be here!" Old Huang replied frankly.

"In that case, I welcome your arrival. Please take a seat!"

Wang Xian smiled. The Guild Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild was still an upright person who clearly differentiated between right and wrong. Although it was difficult for them to become friends, they wouldn't have to be enemies.

With Sui Huang in the middle, the three of them were able to have a friendly chat for several minutes.

Wang Xian consulted Old Huang as to whether he had any of that venom left. Old Huang responded by shaking his head.

This venom was obtained from a deep valley by an Elder. That Elder had also died from the venom.

Only a small amount was left in their treasure trove which was subsequently taken by Elder Feng.

After Sui Huang and Old Huang left, Wang Xian led a carefree life for an additional two days.

On the morning of the third day, he headed towards Flow City together with Old

Qin and the rest.

The gathering of the super-rich was organized by the richest man in the Southern Province. He had invited all the rich people and families in the Southern Province. Basically, all those who were famous and influential would be turning up.

"The richest man of the Southern Province, Sun Kaian, could even make it to the richest man chart nationally. He has family assets worth hundreds of billions. Not only is he wealthy but he also has strong backing. There should be several hundreds of people turning up this time. However, with the name Brother Wang Xian has made for yourself, even Mogul Sun will have to show respect to you. Hehe."

Chapter 405: Gathering Of The Super Rich (1)

Sitting in the luxurious car of the Qin Family, Old Qin and Wang Xian were exchanging conversations.

Xiao Yu and the rest did not attend the gathering this time, except for Lan Qingyue.

However, she was going with her family.

This was not the first time for a gathering of the super-rich in the Southern Province. Sun Kaian, the richest man, held it annually to recruit talents and investment enterprises.

That was the reason why he was in the top ten richest in the country with his assets. He was the true-blue tycoon and great entrepreneur.

No one was better than him in the entire Southern Province. Even Old Qin was a far cry from him.

However, Qin Family was still ranked in the top three in the entire Southern Province.

"Why would such gathering invite the Ancient Martial Art Families of the Southern Province?" Wang Xian asked puzzledly.

"There are some reasons for it. Mogul Sun was lucky enough to obtain an inheritance when he was young. It was part of Lu Ban's inheritance. [\[1\]](#) So, he entered into the machinery industry and used thirty years to establish the largest machinery group within the country. Then, he took some prescriptions from the Underworld and set up his own pharmaceutical company. The rise of the richest man, Mogul Sun, has got something to do with Underworld. As a result, he invites Ancient Martial Arts Families to the annual gathering."

Old Qin smiled and explained, "Now, his company is based in Modu. There's only a factory in the Flow City, and he only comes here every Chinese New Year."

Wang Xian nodded with surprise.

Using Lu Ban's inheritance to set up a machinery factory and the prescriptions to set up a pharmaceutical group, Mogul Sun must be a genius.

The car was heading to the Southern Province First-level divisional area.

"Langhuan Manor. This is Mogul Sun's manor in Flow City. It's also the biggest manor in the entire Southern Province."

When they reached a manor that was near a lake, Old Qin walked down and pointed somewhere to the front.

"Indeed, the richest man in Southern Province!"

Wang Xian looked ahead with a smile on his face.

The entire manor was near a lake. Although it was known to be a manor, it could also be called a castle.

The estate spanned over an area of at least five thousand square meters. As it was close to the lake, the scenery was beautiful.

Just like what its name, Langhuan, suggested, the place was like a utopia.

"Hur?"

When Wang Xian and Old Qin were heading to Old Xue's car after getting out of the car, Wang Xian spotted a familiar vehicle.

There were hundreds of luxurious cars parked in the lot beside the lake, and four to five helicopters at the side.

Amid those luxurious cars, Wang Xian spotted a heavy-duty motorcycle, the Harley bike.

"Isn't that the one I gave Wang Dahai? Is he here?"

When Wang Xian saw the car plate number, he was slightly stunned. Wang Dahai's family background was not bad. His family owned approximately millions of assets.

But they were still not eligible to be here for this gathering.

"What's wrong, Wang Xian?"

Old Xue walked over he saw Wang Xian's doubtful look.

"I saw a familiar vehicle. Let me make a call!"

Wang Xian laughed. He took out his phone and called Wang Dahai.

"Yo, Old Wang!"

"Dahai, where are you?"

"I'm attending a gathering. Why?"

"Is it at Langhuan Manor? Where are you? I'm at the entrance!"

"Really? You're here too? Great, wait for me there. I'm coming!"

Subsequently, he heard Wang Dahai talking to someone.

"Why is Wang Dahai here?"

After Wang Xian hung up the phone, he raised an eyebrow. "Old Qin, Old Xue, you can go ahead first. I'm waiting for a classmate!"

"Oh? Okay, we'll wait for you inside." Old Qin nodded.

"Sure, I'll be there soon!" Wang Xian nodded as he walked to the entrance of the manor.

"This manor is quite impressive."

As he stood at the doorway, Wang Xian was observing the manor.

"Old Wang!"

Within minutes, Wang Dahai showed up, running to him while calling out for him.

"Dahai, why are you here?"

Wang Xian walked towards him.

"I'm here to visit my Grandpa since it's the vacation now. It's great, my Grandpa brought me here to broaden my horizons!" Wang Dahai was elated as he spoke. "Let's go. I'll take you inside."

"Your grandpa?"

Wang Xian was slightly taken aback.

"My grandpa used to be in the first batch of employees working for Mogul Sun. Now, he's the vice president of the factory in Flow City."

Wang Dahai chuckled. "My dad was even more impressive. He came from the countryside and brought my mum down. But my grandpa looked down on my dad."

Wang Dahai then asked, "Why are you here then?"

"I'm here with friends!" Wang Xian replied.

"Tsk ts, look at this manor. It's simply beautiful. Sigh, how I wish I could stay in such a manor!"

Wang Dahai looked around the manor with an envious face. "Old Wang, don't forget to invite me when you own such a manor!"

Wang Xian chuckled. He observed the manor, and it could not be compared to any average mansions.

The entire manor was filled with elegant and pretty pavilions. Just the maintenance alone would take a dozen workers.

Wang Dahai brought him to a huge banquet hall. The entire hall was luxurious, with hundreds of guests sitting inside, exchanging conversations.

Wang Xian looked around and did not see Old Qin or Old Xue.

"Let's find a place to sit down and talk. The banquet will start later in the afternoon."

Wang Dahai led Wang Xian to a place and took two beverages from a waiter smilingly. Then they sat at a table.

There were other dashing young men and pretty babes at the table. The young men were in neat suits with stylish hairstyles.

The ladies were in evening dresses, exchanging conversations in an elegant posture.

"Cousin, is that your friend?"

A girl whose face was small looked over. As soon as she spotted Wang Xian, she asked this of him puzzledly.

"Yes, he's my classmate. He's awesome. Even though he is younger than me, he has made a fortune for himself!" Wang Dahai replied to that girl proudly.

"Oh?"

Wang Dahai's cousin was sizing up Wang Xian with surprise. Dashing, with outstanding demeanor which was way better than her boyfriend. So she could not help but take a few more looks.

"Why did he dress so casually to attend such an event like this?"

At this time, a young man who was sitting by the side of Wang Dahai's cousin was unhappy that his girlfriend was observing Wang Xian. He threw her a displeased look and fixed his eyes on Wang Xian.

Upon hearing what that young man said, the rest of them looked towards Wang Xian.

A sweater and ordinary slacks with a pair of sneakers. Such dressing was simply out of place in that environment.

Wang Dahai's cousin noticed the displeasure of her boyfriend. She also spotted what Wang Xian was wearing.

"It's a little inappropriate. Cousin, there's still some time. Bring your classmate to change into formal attire. How can he be dressed so casually on such an important occasion? He would only make others feel that he isn't showing them respect!"

Endnotes:

[1] Lu Ban was a famous Chinese carpenter in ancient times Back

[2] Langhuan refers to a utopia in the Chinese mythology where the Heaven Emperor stores his books

Chapter 406: Gathering Of The Super Rich (2)

"It's a little inappropriate. Cousin, there's still some time. Bring your classmate to change into a set of formal attire. How can he be dressed so casually on such an important occasion? He will only make others feel that he isn't showing them respect!"

The voice of Wang Dahai's cousin came across. The young man sitting next to her cousin looked across at Wang Xian with contempt.

"A person's qualities, upbringing, attire and language can show a person's wealth. There are things that a man, who suddenly got rich, can't display. It takes three generations to nurture a noble family."

The young man had his arm across Wang Dahai's cousin's waist. He stared at Wang Xian with a face of smiles but was clearly looking down on him.

Several other young men who were sitting beside Wang Xian smirked and were clearly despising Wang Xian.

A man who suddenly got rich often looked down on the poor while a person from a noble family often looked down on those who got rich suddenly.

For a man who got rich suddenly to become a noble family, it would take at least three generations.

The first generation would provide the capital potential, to hold properties and gain knowledge.

The second generation would hold material capital and would possess the ability to create wealth over sustained periods.

The third generation was when the mental capital was generated.

In their eyes, the young man that came to the banquet dressed so casually wouldn't even have reached the level of the first generation.

In the field, those who were here were all from the richest families, ancient martial arts families or those with extremely wide influence in their cities.

They had an exceptional upbringing and family backgrounds. Without exaggerating, one could call them noble families.

Wang Xian was taken aback upon hearing Wang Dahai's cousin. He took a glance at this outfit and chuckled to himself.

At the only two banquets he had ever attended, people commented about his attire.

However, it was just like they had said. Wang Xian wasn't part of the so-called nobles. He didn't pay much attention to that and simply wore what he preferred to wear.

In his perspective, the so-called nobles were just a joke.

Noble race?

The strong had never been restricted by the customs of the world. Moreover, ordinary people would only look up to the experts with fear and respect. They wouldn't criticize them for their attire.

This was because they weren't qualified to give their comments.

Wang Xian looked across the group and shrugged his shoulders nonchalantly before picking up the cup of fruit juice Wang Dahai had brought for him.

Wang Dahai smiled bitterly when he saw how Wang Xian reacted. He asked softly, "Old Wang, do you want to change into formal attire?"

"I'm good. That's too troublesome." Wang Xian shook his head and replied apathetically.

"This... isn't very appropriate!"

Wang Dahai was hesitant. This brother of his was exceptionally mysterious with strong influence in Rivertown.

He could even donate several tens of millions to the school on a whim. However, this banquet was a gathering of the most super-rich in the entire Southern Province.

Rivertown was just a small city in the Southern Province. Moreover, this was a gathering hosted by the richest man in the Southern Province.

Dressing too casually might give one the impression that he was rude.

Wang Xian smiled and shook his head. He looked to the side and saw two old men walking towards the main hall in ordinary Chinese tunic suits. He asked, "Aren't they in ordinary attire too?"

Pfft!

"Haha! You are really interesting. Really...!~"

"Haha, you are comparing yourself to Old Wu and Old Li? Do you know who they are? They are the family heads of a second-class ancient martial arts family. What gives you the guts to even say that?"

The moment Wang Xian completed his words, the group of young men by the side chuckled and looked at him as though they were looking at a retard.

Wang Dahai's cousin was also taken aback and was speechless.

Initially, she had thought the classmate of her cousin to be a gifted person. She had not expected him to be that dumb as she wondered how Wang Xian had even gotten in here.

"Oh, friend, do you have an invitation card?" Wang Dahai's cousin looked at Wang Xian and asked coldly.

"I came in with my friends!"

Hearing their ridicule and seeing their eyes filled with contempt and looking at him, Wang Xian replied to the lady.

"So that's how it is!"

Wang Dahai's cousin displayed an "as I expected" expression. Clearly, he wasn't qualified to receive an invitation from Mogul Sun.

"Dahai, keep a distance from this classmate of yours. Otherwise, grandpa will be getting some unnecessary criticisms!" Wang Dahai's cousin said softly to him.

"Cousin... I..."

Wang Dahai was taken aback and was shocked. He had not expected his cousin to say such words.

This embarrassed him as his expression turned solemn.

"Dahai, listen to your cousin. Don't bring unnecessary troubles to your grandpa!" the young man beside Wang Dahai's cousin said softly to him.

"Tsk! Cousin, just leave us alone," Wang Dahai replied with a stern face.

"You... I'm not trying to control you. I'm doing this for grandpa... You..." Wang Dahai's cousin stared furiously at him.

"Let's go take a seat by the side."

Wang Dahai pulled Wang Xian along by the sleeves and went to the side.

Wang Xian smiled faintly and shook his head. He followed behind Wang Dahai to a seat by the side.

"Old Wang, please don't take it to heart. My cousin can be quite mean," Wang Dahai apologized to Wang Xian.

"It's alright. I won't be bothered by them. They even claim to be from the noble race," Wang Xian chuckled.

He walked to the side and took two cups of red wine. After giving Wang Dahai a toast, he smiled and said, "It seems like your standing in the family is a little low!"

"Hehe, that's not entirely right. Although I, your brother, am not as incredible as you, I still can inherit a substantial amount of wealth in the future.

Wang Dahai raised an eyebrow and continued agitatedly, "Several of my uncles don't have a son and my grandfather sees me as his grandson. Although my grandfather didn't like my father, he is still pretty fond of me. Otherwise, my grandfather wouldn't have brought me here!" [\[1\]](#)

"So, you are a future tycoon!" Wang Xian looked at Wang Dahai, feeling a little shocked.

"I guess I'm doing fine... I should still be getting at least a few million. Because of that, my cousin isn't very fond of me." Wang Dahai broke into laughter and didn't seem to be too concerned.

After all, he rarely interacted with his cousins. His grandfather had only brought him along this time and didn't bring along his cousins. His cousin had tagged along with her boyfriend this time.

"Xiao You, your cousin is really..."

At one side, Wang Dahai's cousin was unhappy to see Wang Dahai pulling his friend to the side.

"Tsk! His father came from a village. At that time, my grandfather was against their marriage. Now, he is just acting like his father. Those that they knew are all inferior people!"

Wang Dahai's cousin shook his head disdainfully. She felt embarrassed and therefore changed the topic and chatted about other topics with the rest.

Wang Dahai talked about the happenings in the school with Wang Xian. Gradually, more and more people arrived at the main hall.

The entire hall was segregated into different tiers. The older generation would sit at the front, the middle-aged generation sat in the middle while the youngest generation would sit at the back.

The younger generation wasn't fond of moving forward either, as they had fewer things to look out for when chatting with people similar to their age.

Soon, a huge crowd of young men and ladies from the entire Southern Province had gathered.

Endnote:

[1] In more traditional Chinese culture, only the male descendants would receive an inheritance Back

Chapter 407: The Little Prince of Flow City (1)

Dashing young men and pretty babes were all dressed in prim and proper attire as they exchanged conversations with faces full of smiles.

"Gee, there are so many babes here!"

As he spoke, Wang Dahai put his arm around Wang Xian's shoulder while he observed the babes around him with glistening eyes.

"I could work less hard for 20 or 30 years if I married any one of them!"

"Don't you have Su Qian? Why? You want to get another lover?"

Wang Xian raised his eyebrow as he asked Wang Dahai.

"Talking about that, you're the fuc*ing awesome one. The two Goddesses in our school... Tell me, how did you do it? I'm just having my eye candy now. I don't even look at other women when I'm with Su Qian!" said Wang Dahai with envy as he looked at Wang Xian.

"Here's one finger for you to comprehend!" Wang Xian smiled and put up a finger.

"Taka Kato? Erect seven times in one night?" [\[1\]](#)

Wang Dahai stared at him with his wide-opened eyes.

"This is called 'Continuously!'" [\[2\]](#)

Wang Xian smirked as Wang Dahai pointed his middle finger to him with contempt. Both of them began to evaluate the babes around them again.

When guys get together, that is what they do.

But Wang Dahai's cousin and a few around them were full of ridicule and contempt when they saw what the duo was doing.

"Hur? Xiao Xiang?"

When Wang Xian was looking around, he suddenly saw a familiar figure walking in.

A boy walked in as he timidly looked at the crowd around him. Apparently, he was not used to such an environment.

"Xiao Xiang, over here!"

Wang Xian smiled and reached out his arm, waving to that boy.

Upon seeing Wang Xian, Ji Xiang was stunned for a moment before he ran over with a beaming face.

"Elder Brother!"

Ji Xiang's face was filled with happiness as he ran to Wang Xian.

"Why are you here alone? Where's your father?" asked Wang Xian while stroking his hair. Ji Xiang was completely back to an ordinary person with a fair-looking skin tone on his face.

"I told my dad that I wanted to come here alone so that I can be independent. He came here early, but I don't know where he is now!" Ji Xiang was a little shy as he spoke.

"Come, sit over here!" Wang Xian smiled as he patted an empty seat beside him. Seeing Wang Dahai's doubtful look, he explained, "He's a son of my friend."

At this time, Maniac Ji was considered to be a friend, a loyal friend.

When the Sacred Followers Guild came to Rivertown for his life, Wang Xian had not informed Maniac Ji. Yet, Maniac Ji rushed to him immediately.

At that time, Maniac Ji killed several people from the Sacred Enforcer team.

When Maniac Ji came, Wang Xian was astounded. Wang Xian had not asked him to come but he came because of his promise. His promise had put him in a position that went against a Sacred Sect. Wang Xian was speechless about that.

In his heart, he already took him as his friend, and not someone who owed him a favor.

It was his honor to know someone like him in life.

"Okay, brother." Ji Xiang smiled.

"I haven't seen you for a while, and you've grown up!" said Wang Xian as he looked at Ji Xiang.

He chuckled as he replied, "Thanks to you!"

"Haha!" Wang Xian patted him on the shoulder.

"Hur? Another ill-mannered lad?"

"What the... Birds of a feather flock together!"

At this time, Wang Xian's cousin and several young men had disdainful expressions on their faces when they saw another young lad walk to Wang Xian and Wang Dahai.

The shy-looking juvenile was about fourteen or fifteen. His feeble behavior exhibited a lack of confidence which made it evident that he was not someone from a noble family.

Besides, that boy was wearing an ordinary student outfit which was even more amusing.

Wang Dahai's cousin felt embarrassed at once as she threw the trio a disdainful glance.

"Young Master Nan, Young Master Luan, Young Master Feng are here!"

"The top-notch young masters of Flow City are here!"

At this moment, those young men and babes beside Wang Dahai's cousin were astounded when they saw those people who strolled in. All of them turned to those people with trepidation.

"Jingshan, who are they?" asked Wang Dahai's cousin when she saw the aghast look on those people beside her.

"They're the top-notch young masters of Flow City, the future successors of three families which nobody can afford to offend in Flow City."

The young man reminded Wang Dahai's cousin with a stern look.

"Young Master Feng and the rest are walking to us."

Just then, all of them witnessed those few young men walking over.

The few people beside Wang Dahai's cousin hurriedly stood up and greeted them with radiant smiles. "Young Master Feng, Young Master Luan, Young Master Luan!"

"Mm!"

They nodded their heads indifferently as they looked around. After which, they turned their attention to them again. "Are there any seats?"

"Yes, yes. Here!"

The young men beside Wang Dahai's cousin smiled apologetically. "Young Master Feng, Young Master Luan, Young Master Nan, you can sit over here. Please take a seat!"

"Mm!"

The three young men went over and sat down without the slightest humility. Apparently, they did not regard these people highly.

"The three of you go over to the other side and give your seats to us!"

When the young men beside Wang Dahai's cousin saw Young Master Feng and the rest take their seats, they looked at Wang Xian and Wang Dahai and frowned.

Wang Dahai froze for a moment, looking startled. "Why should we go? These are our seats."

"Dahai, get lost now if we asked you to. Stop your whining. Go to another corner with your classmate!"

Wang Dahai's cousin glowered at him with impatience.

"Cousin, why should we?"

Wang Dahai pulled his face, but he stood up eventually and tugged Wang Xian's clothes with a sullen face.

"Ignore them. Let them find their own seats!"

Wang Xian glanced at Wang Dahai's cousin and the rest with a touch of contempt on his face.

"Brat, I asked you to give up your seats, and you should do what I say. Are you unhappy about this?"

When a young man saw Wang Xian's attitude, he stared daggers at him.

"Hurry up. Get lost now and stop being so ignorant!"

When those young men saw Young Master Feng and the rest walking over, they immediately pulled long faces at Wang Xian.

The smile disappeared from Wang Xian's face as he swept his gaze across those young men. "You really treat this place like your house?"

"You, a country bumpkin! Do you think you are fit to sit here? Go to one corner and stay there. Look at both of you, don't you feel embarrassed about yourselves?"

A young man stood up, looking over at Wang Xian and casting cold gazes at the trio.

"These are our seats!" said Ji Xiang weakly with slight blush on his cheek. He had confusion in his eyes when he saw the few young men staring daggers at him and Wang Xian with disgust.

"You, little brat, can jolly well scam to one corner with your bumpkin brother. Look at your attire! How dare you even attend this kind of gathering over here? I don't even know how you guys got in!"

The young man beside Wang Dahai's cousin sneered as he glared at Ji Xiang.

Endnotes:

[1] A Japanese AV male actor that was known for his "Goldfinger" Back

[2] "Continuously" sounds the same as "one finger" in Chinese Back

Chapter 408: The Little Prince of Flow City (2)

"Old Wang, forget it. Let's not be calculative with them!"

Wang Dahai looked at his cousin and the group of young men and felt exceptionally embarrassed. He pulled Wang Xian on the arm softly and wanted to leave.

Wang Xian raised an eyebrow but didn't say a word.

Huh?

At this instant, Young Master Feng, Young Master Luan and Young Master Nan, who were sitting to the side, heard the commotion from the direction where Wang Xian was at. They turned around with radiant smiles, waiting to watch the show.

Boom!

Suddenly, their faces stiffened when they looked across Wang Xian's group and stood up instantly.

"Little young master!"

The three of them exchanged glances before taking a second look to verify. They were shocked and surprised.

"Can you hear us? Bring this little brat along and get out of here!"

At this moment, a young man's voice reverberated. This made the three of them shiver as their faces sank.

"Little brat?"

The three of them looked at the group of young men who were looking down at Wang Xian, Wang Dahai and Ji Xiang. When they heard the group of young men mocking them, their eyelids twitched violently.

The three of them forced a faint smile and walked forward immediately.

"Who's pushing..."

A young man frowned and chided loudly after feeling a huge force pushing him aside. However, when he saw that it was Young Master Feng and his friends, he immediately swallowed back his words.

"Young Master Feng, Young Master Luan, Young Master Nan!" the group of young men instantly greeted deferentially.

However, the three of them didn't pay any attention to the group. The trio forced a smile and walked directly towards Ji Xiang.

It was as though they had noticed it wasn't polite for them to look down. Therefore, the three of them squatted.

The group of young men behind him looked on in disbelief.

They had to be courteous and respectful before Young Master Feng, Young Master Luan and Young Master Nan. Yet, the three of them were currently squatting deferentially before the little boy in the school uniform and greeting him as "Little Young Master!"

Ji Xiang was initially taken aback. However, he showed a smile soon after and said, "Big brother Feng, big brother Luan, big brother Nan!"

"Hehe! Greetings, little young master! Greetings, little young master!"

The three of them responded immediately with smiles. From their expressions, one could easily tell that they were both respectful and fearful.

Others might not know but they knew clearly who this little boy in the school uniform was.

He's the son of Maniac Ji! The only son!

In the entire Flow City, Maniac Ji was the only Inborn expert and the de facto ruler. All the families like theirs could only look up in fear.

The little boy before them was his only son. In other words, one could also consider him to be the little prince of Flow City.

It was just a short time ago that this little young master had appeared before the eyes of the crowd.

Young little master was sent to the third year of high school directly. Also, it was said that several classmates bullied him because of the seating arrangement.

In the end, Maniac Ji headed to the school the next day after learning about his son being bullied and demanded to meet the parents of these kids.

The parents of these kids were arrogant, accusing Maniac Ji of interfering and nagging about matters that should be settled between their kids. They even said that his son deserved to be bullied if his son couldn't do anything about it himself.

The outcome was easily predictable.

The parents of those kids were killed.

There weren't many who knew about this matter. However, as three second-class forces in Flow City, they were well informed about this incident.

In the past, Maniac Ji was daring enough to kill a miracle doctor for his son. For now, there was no way he was going to let the people who bullied his son off.

Yet, these ignorant and brazen parents were chiding and reprimanding his little prince.

"Little young master, is there anyone who is bullying you? If there is, tell us and leave them to us!" said the three young men with radiant smiles.

Ji Xiang smiled at them and didn't say a word.

The three young masters were puzzled to see Wang Xian being so close to this little young master. From it, they deduced that he likely had deep connections with Maniac Ji.

"Greetings, big brother!"

The three young men disregarded Wang Xian's age as they greeted him sincerely.

"Hmm! Get the few of them away!" Wang Xian nodded his head emotionlessly and responded to the three young men.

"Yes, yes!"

Seeing how composed and calm Wang Xian was, Young Master Feng, Young Master Luan and Young Master Nan were even more certain that Wang Xian couldn't be a simple person. They immediately nodded their heads and stood up.

At this very moment, Wang Dahai's cousin and the group of young men completely froze up.

Their eyes were filled with disbelief and horror.

The three most elite young masters of Flow City were actually squatting down and acting deferentially towards a young boy who they had called a brat.

This... This...

This can't be!

This can't be!

Seeing the three young masters standing up, all of them were breaking out in a cold sweat.

Wang Dahai's cousin stood by the side and watched blankly.

"This is a banquet by Mogul Sun and we won't do anything ourselves here. Get out of our sight and wait for your deaths!"

The smiles on the three young masters disappeared as they looked coldly across the group of young men.

"Young Master Feng, Young Master Luan, Young Master Nan... We... We..."

When the group of young men heard the three young masters, cold sweat broke out from all parts of their bodies. Their faces turned pale as they swallowed their saliva, and their eyes were filled with horror.

"Don't let us repeat ourselves for the second time!" said the three young masters plainly. Their gazes were cold and made the group of young men feel as though they had fallen into an ice cellar.

The group of young men were dumbfounded. Their bodies were shivering and they appeared to be thinking of begging for mercy.

"Scram! Otherwise, I'll erase all your families from Flow City!"

Seeing that they weren't leaving, the three young masters issued their last warning.

"We will get lost right away! We will get lost right away!"

The group of young men were desolated as they walked away like distraught zombies.

Wang Xian looked at their back views with contempt before smiling and patting the shoulders of Ji Xiang. He was also checking his strength at the same time.

Level 2 Martial Artist. Pretty good!

"Ji Xiang, these are some gifts from big brother!"

As Wang Xian finished his words, he took out several pills. Three Level 2 and Level 3 elixir pills each. All of these pills were greatly beneficial for cultivation.

"Your father will know when to let you consume them!" Wang Xian explained and handed the pills into Ji Xiang's hands after seeing his puzzled face.

These elixir pills were made from the spiritual medicine Qing Bi Sect had given him. He had made thirteen Level 2 and Level 3 elixir pills each and had intended to exchange them for treasures, if there were any.

"These are... Elixir pills! Level 2 and Level 3 elixir pills!"

Just as the three young masters turned around, they saw the gifts Wang Xian had for Ji Xiang. Their pupils couldn't help but constrict as they looked on with disbelief.

Elixir pills! These were elixir pills!

Level 2 and Level 3 elixir pills were equivalent to Level 3 and Level 4 spiritual medicine.

If one were to use cash to purchase a Level 4 spiritual medicine, he would require $700-$800 million.

Level 3 elixir pills were even more valuable and couldn't be measured in monetary terms.

"Giving out gifts that are worth hundreds of millions casually... This... This..."

The three young masters could feel the edges of their mouths twitching as they witnessed this astonishing incident.

A person like this would never be simple. In fact, his relationship with Maniac Ji might not be that between a senior and a junior.

"Big brother, my father told me to not accept gifts from others casually!" Ji Xiang looked hesitant as he replied to Wang Xian.

"It will be fine. Just tell them it was from me. Your father won't say a thing!"

Wang Xian waved his hand.

It was just a few elixir pills. Although they were valuable, Level 2 and Level 3 elixir pills weren't really precious items to him at this juncture.

Giving them as gifts to the son of Maniac Ji could also be a recognition of Maniac Ji as a friend.

Chapter 409: Everyone Was Shocked

"What should we do? What should we do?"

At this moment, the six young men and babes were paled with confusion in their eyes as they walked to one corner of the hall. They sat there with trembling bodies, faces down, murmuring to themselves with trepidation.

What the three young masters had said was not a joke.

Especially the juvenile who had squatted beside him and addressed him as "Little Young Master"?

Who else could that Little Young Master be in the entire Flow City?

They felt a strong sense of despair having actually offended someone like this.

Those people were lost, breaking out in a cold sweat continuously.

Wang Dahai's cousin was confused as well. Never did she expect that her cousin's classmate would know that juvenile from a terrifying background.

Those three young men were the successors of the supreme-class families in Flow City. They were people who her boyfriend should respect and be fearful of.

Yet, those people were squatting over there, talking to that young boy with all due respect.

Hence, the boyfriend of Wang Daxian's cousin was dazed. He cast his gaze over there when he saw the shy juvenile exchanging conversations with that young man happily. He grimaced.

"We should really let our family know otherwise...," said a young man who was almost in tears as he looked to the few people beside him. They were really petrified.

"Xiao You, your cousin... Your cousin's classmate seems to be on good terms with that juvenile. Go and beg your cousin. Ask your grandpa to beg your cousin. Otherwise, Young Master Feng and the rest will really cripple us!"

The young man grabbed Xiao You's arm and spoke with trepidation.

"Me? Beg my cousin?"

Xiao You was stunned. How could she beg the cousin who she had been looking down on?

"Get your grandpa. Get him to talk to your cousin. Only that young man can save us now. Xiao You, go. Please beg your grandpa!" said those young men who lifted up their chins, staring at her with wide and round eyes.

"I...I..."

"Go on. Do you want to witness our deaths?"

Xiao You hesitated. But those young men grimaced at her.

"Fine, I'll go and beg my grandpa!"

Xiao Yu, with her eyes red, stood up immediately as those young men scowled at her.

"Xiao Xian, your second wife is here!"

At this time, Wang Dahai scoffed at Wang Xian, who froze for a moment before he turned to the entrance.

Lan Qingyue walked into the banquet hall in a maroon gown, smiling from ear to ear. Several middle-aged men from the Lan Family were tagging along with her.

In her maroon evening dress and red high-heels, Lan Qingyue was smiling more often as compared to her previous aloof look.

Lan Qingyue gave off a noble and glamorous temperament after Wang Xian made her a real woman, and after obtaining the inheritance of Ancient God Kun Breeder.

In her heels, her height of 1.8 meters was the center of attraction immediately.

The arrival of Lan Qingyue seemed to have brought a ravishing glow to the entire hall.

"Look, it's the Lan Family from Rivertown. She's the General Manager of Deep-sea Jewelry, Lan Qingyue!"

"Gosh, she is simply gorgeous. That maroon evening dress coupled with her height...Any international models would be a far cry from her!"

"At only 22 years old, she has already assumed the authority of Lan Family, heading Deep-sea Jewelry with a market value of 30 billion. She's the true-blue rich girl and a business tycoon."

"She's just like what the rumors said. The youngest and prettiest rich girl in Rivertown. She's just so beautiful. If I could marry her..."

"Stop spouting nonsense. Do you wish to die? Don't you know whose woman this is? If you continue your nonsense, you wouldn't even know who killed you!"

"Whose woman?"

"Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown. He's the most formidable backing of Lan Qingyue. That person is the real leading figure that could conceal the sky with a single hand!"

"She's the woman of Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown. He is a legendary figure, number one on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart, and number nine on the Miracle Doctors Chart. He's a strong alchemist and an Inborn Expert. He killed an elder of Sacred Followers Guild, but he is still alive. With an order, he could command five to six Inborn Experts. Even Maniac Ji of Rivertown listens to his command!"

"Sss, I recall it now. Not long ago, Maniac Ji brought several families from Flow City to Rivertown, and annihilated a first-class family then."

"Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown is the most terrifying existence in the Southern Province. Not even Mogul Sun could compare to him. Killing an elder of Sacred Followers Guild? That's a Sacred Sect, for god sake!"

When the crowd saw the arrival of Lan Qingyue and Lan Family, they began to comment in whispers.

Lan Family had been in the limelight recently.

Deep-sea Jewelry acquired The Zhou Jewelry at a meager price and became the largest jewelry company in the country.

Their market value tripled instantly, stunning the entire jewelry industry.

Some insightful people knew that it was all because of Miracle Doctor Wang's influence that the Deep-sea Jewelry could acquire The Zhou Jewelry.

And the Goddess-like General Manager of Deep-sea Jewelry was well-known by everyone, not only because of her beauty, but also because Miracle Doctor Wang had annihilated the first-class force for her.

Miracle Doctor Wang was a name that could strike fear into everyone in Rivertown now.

The crowd in the hall was discussing in low voices as they watched Lan Qingyue with envy and respect.

When Wang Xian overheard the discussion, he gave a faint smile and walked over to Lan Qingyue.

"Hur? That young man is walking towards them!"

"Could it be a brainless rich dandy that wants to get to know Lan Qingyue?"

"If he's really a rich dandy, he's obviously looking for his own death!"

"That young man is even dressed in some ordinary casual outfit. He could be some rich dandy. I wonder which upstart family this good-for-nothing came from?"

Almost eighty percent of the people in the banquet hall were looking in the direction of Lan Qingyue.

Lan Family, with their comprehensive strength, could rank in the top five in the entire Southern Province.

But that was under the circumstance of not taking Miracle Doctor Wang into consideration. If he was taken into account, none of the families in the Southern Province could compare with Lan Family.

Not even Mogul Sun's family.

Provoking Lan Qingyue was equivalent to digging your own grave.

"Qingyue!"

However, what shocked them the most was when that casually-dressed young man came to Lan Qingyue.

Those few people from Lan Family greeted him respectfully.

Lan Qingyue was even more happy to take his arm.

"Xiao Xian!"

Lan Qingyue leaned on that young man and called out.

"Damm, that is..."

"Miracle Doctor Wang's name is Wang Xian. That young man is... He's actually Miracle Doctor Wang!"

"Gosh, Miracle Doctor Wang arrived here early, and he was in the banquet hall all along!"

"Fu*k! We did not expect to have someone so formidable hiding among us. If we knew Miracle Doctor Wang was here just now, we would have made friends with him!"

Regardless of whether the people were of the younger generations or the middle-aged generations, all of them were stunned, with regret on their faces.

They did not expect that this person from Rivertown would be here.

Chapter 410: The Son Of The Richest Man

"That... That guy is... Oh gosh..."

Young Master Feng, Young Master Luan and Young Master Nan, who were sitting by the side, were astonished to see Lan Qingyue holding onto the arm of Wang Xian.

"I would never have expected him to be Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown."

"We should have thought about it sooner. Maniac Ji doesn't have any friends. Among those he knows, only Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown could possibly give out Level 2 and Level 3 elixir pills as gifts casually!"

"That guy is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown! If we knew, we should have..."

The three of them exchanged glances before looking in the direction of Ji Xiang and subsequently Wang Dahai. They hesitated for a moment before walking towards Wang Dahai.

"Hey brother, how are you?"

The three of them smiled radiantly and sat beside Wang Dahai courteously. From their tones, one could tell that they were trying to get on the good books of Wang Dahai.

Wang Dahai was taken aback. He could vaguely hear the conversation of the surrounding crowd. Now that he saw three young men with powerful backgrounds walking towards him and sitting beside him, he felt a little overwhelmed and didn't know how to respond.

"Hello, hello... I'm Wang Dahai!"

...

"What did you say?"

At the other corner of the banquet hall, Wang Dahai's cousin, Xiao You, sat before an old man. She had just illustrated what happened previously to the old man. The old man was astonished and his expressions were changing rapidly.

However, they rushed into the entrance of the banquet hall after hearing the conversations around them.

Xiao You also looked across with doubts and was soon overwhelmed with surprise and shock.

"Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown! Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown!"

The old man repeated himself. He looked to his granddaughter, took a deep breath and said, "Tell me exactly how you have offended him previously! Don't leave out any details!"

"Grandpa, we... We didn't know that he is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown! We really didn't!"

Xiao You shook her head in horror and repeated in detail the developments of the whole incident.

The old man's expression changed rapidly. He looked towards where his grandson was and was taken aback once again.

He saw the successors to the three elite families of Flow City conversing with his grandson joyously, smiles never leaving their faces.

"Dahai and Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown are classmates?" The old man regained his composure and asked his granddaughter this.

"Yeah. They seem to be on really good terms too. Grandpa, can you ask cousin to put in a word with Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown and ask him to let Jingshan off...?"

"Don't talk about this anymore."

The old man interrupted her directly and stared harshly at his granddaughter.

"Don't even think about this again. The one you guys have offended is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. It's over for you guys. You should be fine, as you are the cousin of Dahai. As for Jingshan and the other young men, they wouldn't be able to escape. If their families knew about this, they would know to handle it as such. Tsk! Who asked you guys to be so full of yourselves and look down on others?"

"Who gives you guys the guts to criticize Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown about his attire. A character like him isn't someone we can comment on. You can return home now."

"What? Grandpa! You...!"

Wang Dahai's cousin was breaking down and looked at her grandfather in fear.

"Just return home for now. If it wasn't for your cousin, you would be in deep trouble too!"

The old man glanced at his granddaughter and was a little disappointed. He then looked towards his grandson as excitement gleamed in his eyes.

"Who would have expected this kid to know Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown? He's much better than that poor father of his!" The old man smiled contentedly as he mumbled to himself.

...

"It's over. We are totally finished!"

When the group of young men saw the young man they had mocked previously at the entrance of the banquet hall, and heard the exclams and conversation of the surrounding crowd, their faces were filled with despair.

This time, no one could possibly save them.

Recalling how they were criticizing Wang Xian's attire previously, commenting on what made one more superior to others and also demanding him to get lost, the group couldn't help but feel great remorse over their actions.

Even if Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown didn't attempt to do anything to them, with his current strength and status, the outcome would be the same. There would be others who would teach them a lesson.

Their futures were bleak.

"Xiao Xian, you are pretty early. Let's find a place to sit down!" Lan Qingyue held onto Wang Xian's arm as they walked in.

Wang Xian waved in the direction of Ji Xiang and Wang Dahai as he walked in.

Wang Dahai was exhilarated and walked over in a hurry. His plump face was flushed from the sudden "intense exercise."

At this moment, he finally realized how incredible his brother was.

He was simply incredible.

Young Master Feng and his friends followed behind shamelessly and walked towards Wang Xian.

"Qingyue, Miracle Doctor Wang. Are you guys going in?"

Beside them, Lan Qingyue's uncle pointed to a private suite in the banquet hall and asked them this.

"We will give it a pass. Uncle, you can go. We would like to stay here for a while!" answered Lan Qingyue as she shook her head.

Lan Qingyue's uncle smiled and nodded his head. With Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown around, Lan Qingyue wouldn't have to actively engage the guests.

"Miss Lan, Miracle Doctor Wang, please take a seat!"

The moment Wang Xian and Lan Qingyue arrived at the forefront, several elders stood up and spoke.

"Thank you!"

Wang Xian nodded his head and didn't stand on ceremony. He found a seat and sat down.

"You're welcome. You're welcome." The few elders waved their hands instantly.

The attention of the entire banquet hall had all gathered on Wang Xian. This was still the first time the majority of the people here had caught a glimpse of Wang Xian.

Considering his achievements, he wasn't just the king of Rivertown currently. He was the king of the entire Southern Province.

Within the Southern Province, no one was a match for him.

Even Mogul Sun was miles away from him.

Wang Xian, Lan Qingyue and Wang Dahai sat and chatted casually.

Haha!

Soon, a peal of hearty laughter reverberated from the private suite in the banquet hall. Following which, three young men walked out from it.

The leader of the three young men had blonde hair and looked like he had parents with different geographical origins. The other two young men to his sides were rather slim. They looked alike and were conversing energetically with the young man in the middle.

"That's the son of Mogul Sun. I heard he has just returned from overseas."

"Some rumors have it that the son of Mogul Sun has joined a powerful ancestral sect. I wonder if it's true!"

"It's a rare occasion to see the son of Mogul Sun. I had not expected him to return this year!"

The surrounding crowd looked at the mixed-blood young man and discussed softly.

Wang Xian looked over curiously and his gaze fell on the three young men.

"Eh? All of them are martial artists?"

When looking across them, he could feel strong energies from their bodies.

The three of them were all exceptionally powerful.

The son of Mogul Sun was at most twenty-three or twenty-four years old. However, he already had the strength of a Half-step to Inborn expert. His talents were comparable to some Saints and Saintesses of Sacred Sects.

As for the other two young men, they were roughly thirty-three years old. Both of them had reached the Inborn Realm and their talents could be considered to be terrifying.

I wonder which Sacred Sect they are from...

Wang Xian scrutinized the three young men. Considering their talents, they were definitely outstanding disciples raised by Sacred Sects. The only question would be which Sacred Sect they had come from.

Chapter 411: To Establish Grounds and Found Ancestral Sects

"Many thanks to the two Big Bros, Saint Qi and Saint Wen, for coming to grace the occasion. Please guide us along, for future matters pertaining to our Mechanic Sect!"

"Haha, it's no issue. Brother Sun sure is ambitious. To think you've established grounds and founded an Ancestral Sect at such a tender age! I'm truly in awe!"

"Haha, I had considered joining the Dark Sect initially. But on second thought, I decided to forgo that idea and set up my own Ancestral Sect instead. Who knows, perhaps it'll become strong enough to be deemed a First-class force in a few decades. Should luck be on my side, it might just end up as a Sacred Sect!"

With strong confidence, the son of Mogul Sun was conversing with two young men. As he spoke, he exuded an aura which made him seem gutsy enough to challenge all heroes of the world to a duel.

The two young men smiled politely but kept mum otherwise.

It seemed rather inferior, for a Half-step Inborn to be establishing grounds and founding Ancestral Sects. But, some things cannot be helped, given the party's affluence.

There were times when one was considered powerful within the underworld for being very rich. With hundreds of billion worth of assets, it was an easy feat for one to set up an Ancestral Clan.

"Brother Sun, if you wish to establish grounds and found Ancestral Sects, the least you should do is to start taking in disciples, not even one less. In addition, it's best to take in those who are greatly gifted, along with an Elder to help you with the overseeing of matters. For there are many things to take care of," the two young men reminded the son of Mogul Sun.

"I'm well aware of this. Which is why I'm here today at my father's banquet, to take in some disciples. I'll have to trouble you Big Bros to assist me later!" the son of Mogul Sun replied with a grin.

"Within the entire Southern Province, there's only Maniac Ji who's an Inborn expert. Given my powers, I would come in among the top three within the Southern Province. So establishing ground and founding Ancestral Sect is going to be a breeze for me, along with the taking in of several outstanding disciples!"

"Moreover, given my father's influence and our Sun Family's assets, I believe many would join our Mechanic Sect!"

The Son of Mogul Sun assured them confidently. As he looked around at everyone in the ballroom, he made his way towards the center with a prideful beam.

The crowd returned a curious look as they saw the son of Mogul Sun walking towards the center of the ballroom.

"Everyone, may I have your attention!" the son of Mogul Sun said with his head lifted. He cast his gaze at the hundreds around him and continued explaining with a faint smile, "This is Sun Longxuan. And I'm honored to be meeting everyone here!"

As Sun Long spoke, he took several steps to the side.

With the first stride he made, he exuded an air, while his second stride was bolstered by an overpowering stance that shot across the entire ballroom.

"As I've just stepped foot into the underworld, I seek your guidance!" Sun Longxuan introduced.

Boom!

Right as Sun Longxuan ended his words, his attire shuffled, even in the absence of wind. The powerful stance took everyone in the ballroom by storm.

"This stance. Such a powerful stance!" one commented.

"To think that the son of Mogul Sun is a Martial Artist, and one who is this powerful. I'm afraid his prowess has reached a Half-step Inborn!"

"The son of Mogul Sun is currently at most twenty-three to twenty-four years of age. Yet, in spite of that, he's already attained Half-step Inborn status. It seems like he would make the top three within the entire Southern Province!"

"Too powerful. Plus, Longxuan is really handsome! Goodness, if only I could marry him. How great would that be!?"

Everyone in the ballroom reacted with shock upon sensing the stance which Sun Longxuan possessed.

With a father who was the richest man in the Southern Province, he was no doubt a son blessed by the deities since he boasted powerful abilities in his early twenties, which would easily be crowned within the province.

As Sun Longxuan noticed the surprised look on everyone's faces, he smiled in satisfaction and seemed very pleased, with his brows raised.

"I have an announcement to make today!" Sun Longxuan explained with his arms folded behind his back like a Grandmaster. "Given my status as a Half-Step Inborn, I, Sun Longxuan, am here to establish grounds and found sects. Hence, I hereby announce the founding of Mechanic Sect with effect from today onward!"

"Whereas the two beside me are the duo, Saint Qi and Saint Wen, from the Dark Sect. In times to come, they will also assume the role of the honorary Elders of the Mechanic Sect," he continued by introducing his two Big Bros.

"So, what's the Mechanic Sect about?" Sun Longxuan began to talk about his establishment. As he spoke, he spread his palm open where a Metallic Lotus appeared. With a swing of his arm, the lotus took off into the surrounding air behind him.

Zing, zing, zing!

The lotus petals detached themselves before shooting forward.

Bam, bam, bam!

One by one, the petals landed on a table by the side.

Zip, zip, zip!

Under the astonished stares of the crowd, the same table was split neatly into more than a dozen pieces.

The metallic petals returned to the Lotus, where it swirled in mid-air atop the flora as it shimmered in dazzling rays.

"This is the Technique of the Mechanic Sect which is somewhat similar to that of the Dark Sect's, yet entirely different on its own. It's imparted with the Lu Ban Technique and integrates it as one along with the use of mechanics!"

As he spoke, Sun Longxuan stretched his arms out. Pieces began to build upon his body before assembling themselves to form metallic armor.

It resembled a scene from the Sci-fi movie, Ironman.

Creak, creak, creak!

A pair of black wings emerged from Sun Longxuan's back, while his chest area was shielded by a black cuirass.

As he flapped his wings gently, he soared into the air.

The wings folded themselves leisurely in front of Sun Longxuan before lashing open again in an instant. This empowered Sun Longxuan with a dominating aura.

"Such is the trait of the Mechanic Sect where one's internal energy merges with the use of mechanics to become a whole, emitting formidable powers. I dare say, I'm unrivaled within the Half-step Inborn realm, given my current powers as one. Once my choice weapon's been upgraded into an Inborn Spiritual Weapon, I too, can step foot into the Inborn realm by feeding on the weapon's energy through the Reciprocation method!"

"Today marks the start of my Mechanic Sect where I'll need to take in disciples, so that we can work together and build one powerful Ancestral Sect, and gain a strong foothold within the underworld, haha!"

Sun Longxuan burst out in laughter as he spoke before he turned to face the crowd. "I wonder if anyone here wishes to join my Mechanic Sect. Our sect has no lack of resources and funds while our Ancestral Sect grounds have also been built!"

"I'll go. To think, the son of Mogul Sun wants to establish grounds and found sects!" one volunteered.

"How awe-inspiring, establishing grounds and founding sects. While the powers of a Half-step Inborn would suffice for such, to establish grounds and found sects in one's early twenties? This son of Mogul Sun sure has lofty aspirations!"

"Those two young men...to think they're the duo, Saint Qi and Saint Wen, from the Dark Sect! Not only are they Inborns, but they're also Saints of a Sacred Sect!"

"The Dark Sect is renowned for its use of Hidden Weapons. To think the son of Mogul Sun has invited the two Saints over to be his Honorary Elders. The duo, Saint Qi and Saint Wen, are candidates deemed to become the future Sacred Sect Leaders. Now, given the backing from the duo, the Mechanic Sect has immediately ascended to become a First-class force, and one with substantial backing, to add to it!"

"This is truly something. To think Sun Longxuan has managed to invite the Saints of a Sacred Sect to be his Honorary Elders. It's obvious that he has friendly ties with the Dark Sect. Who knows, perhaps the Mechanic Sect might just become a powerful Ancestral Sect within the underworld in times to come!"

The ballroom crowd gasped, surprised by the news of Mogul Sun's son wanting to establish grounds and found sects. Furthermore, he revealed his intention through an elaborate display of prowess. This was no doubt breaking news, taking the entire Southern Province by storm.

At the sight of everyone's astonished faces, Sun Longxuan smiled with overwhelming confidence. "I guarantee those who join the Mechanic Sect a life of endless ascensions and successes. This will be the best choice you've made!"

Chapter 412: Too Trash

A young man couldn't contain his excitement and asked, "Excuse me, Sect Leader Sun. Could you clarify the requirements to join the Mechanic Sect?"

This was a sect established by the son of the richest man in Southern Province. He also had the strength of a Half-step to Inborn expert and two Saints from Sacred Sects as Honorary Elders.

Despite the recent establishment, this sect wouldn't be weak.

Moreover, with the wealth of the son of the richest man, the sect wouldn't be lacking in resources.

"I'll let Saint Qi and Saint Wen hold the assessment in a while. If your talents are great or you are above Level 5 martial artists, you can join directly. Level 9 martial artists can join as an Elder directly. The resources you get to enjoy in our ancestral sect will be beyond everyone's expectations!" Sun Longxuan looked at that young man and answered with a smile.

The threshold of Level 5 martial artist to join wasn't particularly high. Moreover, Sun Longxuan mentioned the resources of the new sect. This tempted many people.

Many martial artists in the hall were moved. Even some first-class and second-class families had the intentions to join the Mechanic Sect.

Joining a first-class force with a strong background could be greatly beneficial for them.

Considering that Mechanic Sect had just been established, joining now might make them the core of the sect in the future.

"I hope I can make it through the assessment!"

"Wow! The Mechanic Sect has just been established. This is the best time to join them. I definitely must get in."

Seeing the crowd being moved, Sun Longxuan was filled with anticipation and satisfaction. He placed both of his hands behind his back and said, "The Mechanic Sect has a complete cultivation legacy directly to the Inborn Realm and even higher!"

"Hehe. Let me assess your talents!"

A young man beside Sun Longxuan stepped forward and looked at the crowd. He opened up his palm and revealed a round ball.

The round ball was densely packed with small holes.

He threw it lightly into the air and the round ball suspended above the banquet hall.

Swish swish swish!

At this moment, countless metal beads flew downward.

The round beads didn't fly down without order. Instead, it was as though they had targets in mind as they landed on selected people.

Two round beads flew towards Wang Xian and Lan Qingyue.

Wang Xian and Lan Qingyue were taken aback. They reached out and caught the round metal beads, feeling a tinge of unexplainable attraction from them.

"This is likely a unique method to assess one's talents. Some cultivation arts require unique cultivation talents!"

Wang Xian looked at the round beads in his hand and explained to Lan Qingyue.

"This Mechanic Sect is really interesting. They are using things like those in sci-fi movies!" chuckled Lan Qingyue.

Eh?

As the round beads fell onto various martial artists in the hall, Sun Longxuan's gaze followed and landed in the direction where the first two beads flew to.

These beads were made from special metals and could sense if one had an affinity to the metal attribute.

The first few beads would go for those with the best talents.

When he saw Wang Xian and Lan Qingyue, he was taken aback slightly.

His attention fell on Lan Qingyue and he was impressed by her beauty. Soon, his eyebrows knitted together and he walked towards her.

"Hey, beautiful girl, the first assessment round bead has fallen into your hand. It would appear you have great talents and are destined to be with my Mechanic Sect!"

Sun Longxuan walked to Lan Qingyue. At a closer distance, he was even more attracted and in awe as he spoke to her.

"Would this beautiful girl be interested in joining an ancestral sect?"

"Nope!" Lan Qingyue shook her head, placed the round bead on the table and gave a friendly smile.

"Oh? That's fine. Join our Mechanic Sect and you will be our first disciple. I would provide you with a large amount of resources and groom you to be an expert. What do you think?"

Excitement gleamed in his eyes as he made his proposal. Not only was he able to get a talented disciple but he would also be able to get a breathtakingly beautiful girl.

"I'm sorry. I'm not interested!" Lan Qingyue shook her head and answered apologetically.

Huh?

Upon hearing Lan Qingyue, Sun Longxuan's face stiffened and his smile was forced.

Rejection! She actually rejected me?

He was the son of the richest man in Southern Province and a Half-step to Inborn expert. Moreover, he had even called upon two Saints from a Sacred Sect, who were both Inborn experts, to prop up his sect.

Any of these three reasons would be an overwhelming attraction against any family or sect in Southern Province. He was certain that no one could possibly reject his personal invitation.

Yet, he was rejected for his very first invitation. This embarrassed him.

Sun Longxuan raised an eyebrow and discontent gleamed in his eyes. "Hey, beautiful girl, are you looking down on the ancestral sect that I, Sun Longxuan, am establishing? Do you think a first-class force isn't attractive at all?"

"This..."

As Sun Longxuan walked towards Wang Xian and Lan Qingyue, the entire banquet hall had gone silent. Everyone looked on in shock at the development.

"Sss... This... Will this end up in a fight?"

"Why do I have a bad premonition about this!"

"Does she need a reason for not joining?"

Sun Longxuan was overly confident and direct to the point of arrogance. Lan Qingyue looked at him with ridicule gleaming in her eyes.

"Haha, of course. I, Sun Longxuan, like to get to the roots of all things. I can say that in the entire Southern Province, not a single force would be stronger than my Mechanic Sect!"

Sun Longxuan contorted his lips into a smile proudly as he stared coldly at Lan Qingyue.

Pa!

"Because your Mechanic Sect is too trash!"

Seeing this brat questioning Lan Qingyue, Wang Xian revealed a smirk, threw the round bead in his hand on the table and answered on her behalf plainly.

Huh?

Upon hearing Wang Xian's response, Sun Longxuan's expression instantly turned gloomy. He turned around, glowered at him and remarked harshly, "Brat, I dare you to repeat what you've just said!"

"Getting to the roots of all things might not be a good thing. Let me say this again: Your Mechanic Sect is too trash!"

Wang Xian stared right back at Sun Longxuan and repeated himself with contempt.

Hahahaha!

Sun Longxuan broke into hysterical laughter. He glowered at Wang Xian with killing intent gleaming in his eyes. He raised an eyebrow and continued, "You dare to call the sect that I, Sun Longxuan, am establishing trash? Come! Tell me about your family or sect. We can have a life and death battle to see who will be annihilated first. Rising through the ranks while stepping on your sect would be a great idea!"

"This.."

"This son of Mogul Sun is... Simply..."

"Is this confidence or arrogance? He's going to cause the downfall of his father!"

"Stepping on Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown to rise in ranks and to establish his authority? Is he going to create a sacred sect?"

Everyone in the banquet hall had turned solemn upon seeing how things had developed. The son of Mogul Sun was pretty strong and had an incredible background. However, why was he so ignorant?

In the entire banquet hall, you could offend anyone but Lan Qingyue and Miracle Doctor Wang. Yet, he chose to do so.

"I don't belong to any sect!" Wang Xian looked straight at Sun Longxuan and answered plainly.

"Haha! Factionless and yet you dare to be so brazen?"

Sun Longxuan looked at Wang Xian with contempt before lifting his head proudly and turning to the entire banquet hall.

"Those who have received the round beads are all qualified to join my Mechanic Sect. Those who wish to join the Mechanic Sect can all come forward right now. Let the sect teach this brat who dares to insult our Mechanic Sect. We will let him know the strength of our Mechanic Sect!"

Chapter 413: Get Over Here, All Of You

"Those who've received the round beads are all qualified to join the Mechanic Sect. Now, get over here, all of you who wish to join the Mechanic Sect. The Ancestral Sect is about to teach a fellow a lesson for humiliating us. We'll give him a taste of our prowess!" Sun Longxuan said conceitedly.

His voice lingered throughout the entire banquet hall.

At his side, the two Saints from the Dark Sect watched with a faint smile.

They followed closely behind Sun Longxuan, an explicit display that they had his back.

As he lifted his head, Sun Longxuan took a glance at Wang Xian before placing his hands behind his back.

Given his father's status as the richest man of the Southern Province, along with his cultivation status as a Half-step Inborn, as well as the support of two Inborn experts who were also the Saints of the Dark Sect, Sun Longxuan was convinced that many would join his Mechanic Sect.

This was no doubt a window of opportunity to many present.

Sun Longxuan's words rang in everyone's ears as every single person in the hall responded with a peculiar look on their faces.

Join the Mechanic Sect, and punish this Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown?

This... Was this seeking death, or insanity at play?

The crowd who received the Spherical Pearl were stunned and speechless before they threw it onto the table before them.

Given its comprehensive legacy for cultivation, strong support backing and ample Ancestral Sect resources, there were many who had wanted to join the Mechanic Sect. In particular, the Second-class families who were especially piqued.

However, the first thing to do now after joining the Mechanic Sect would be to form an enmity with Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown and teach him a lesson.

This sent everyone palpitating as if millions of horses had galloped on their hearts.

This was not the joining of Mechanic Sect, this was seeking death.

While you may have the support of two Saints from a Sacred Sect, this Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown was one who had even dared to kill an Elder of a Sacred Sect; hence what would it matter, even if you were a Saint...

Deafening silence filled the banquet hall, as no one dared to comment, much less stand up to join the Mechanic Sect.

The atmosphere was rather tense.

Sun Longxuan was dumbfounded. He cast a doubtful look across the banquet hall before lifting his brow in a frown.

What happened? Was it not just earlier when many were interested in joining my Mechanic Sect? How come no one has stepped forward?

"Haha!" Wang Xian laughed at the sight before turning to Sun Longxuan and throwing him a sarcastic remark. "There's nothing wrong with referring to your Mechanic Sect as trash. Establishing grounds and founding Ancestral Sects, when not even one person wishes to join? If a person alone would suffice as an Ancestral Sect, then that's pretty interesting!"

"You...," Sun Longxuan uttered with a contorted look. With clenched fists, he stared coldly at Wang Xian before making a sweeping glance at everyone in the banquet hall. "This is your final chance. If you don't grab hold of it, you can forget about joining my Mechanic Sect in the future, for good!" Sun Longxuan warned.

Everyone present was made speechless by his statement, which came with threatening intent.

Who would dare join the Mechanic Sect when you want to get rid of Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown even though you were just established? Would you not be after Sacred Sects in the future then?

Moreover, it remained to be seen if the Mechanic Sect could still exist in the future.

"Fine, alright then!" Sun Longxuan snapped with an overly bleak expression as he clenched his fists.

He had thought of many scenarios but did not expect this one in front of him now, where not even one person was willing to join.

He gritted his teeth and glared at Wang Xian with bloodshot eyes. "Do you know that you're courting doom right now!" he snarled.

The two Saints from the Dark Sect arched their brows along with the comment as they stood beside Sun Longxuan before casting a look at Wang Xian.

"I'm also a relentless one when it comes to chasing answers. Hence I'd like to know, in what ways am I courting doom?" Wang Xian chuckled as he asked Sun Longxuan tauntingly.

"It's rather interesting how you go about coercing people when they don't wish to join your sect." Lan Qingyue shot Sun Longxuan a dismissive look.

"Fine, alright then!" Sun Longxuan conceded with tight fists. "You've completely provoked me today!" he declared as veins began to protrude from his cheeks.

"Where's Miracle Doctor Wang right now, Old Qin? Little did I expect him to really turn up! It's such an honor for me. Please, introduce me to him!"

"I bet he's in the banquet hall right now, haha! Let's get going!"

Right then, a voice could be heard from the banquet hall reception.

Everyone heard it loud and clear, given the silence which filled the area.

Within the banquet hall, the crowd looked on with twisted expressions. Based on the voice, many had come to know that Mogul Sun was here and responded with odd looks on their faces.

To think that the father had asked to be introduced, to the one his son was about to challenge to a duel!

A group of more than a dozen men emerged from another room, and each and every one of them was a mogul of the cities they hailed from.

At the center was a rotund middle-aged man with very small eyes, who looked very shrewd.

With an air of prestige, this was none other than Mogul Sun of the Southern Province.

Along with him were Old Qin and members of the Lan Family.

"Huh?" Mogul Sun uttered. As he came into the banquet hall, he sensed the peculiarity in the atmosphere and swept his gaze across the floor with a slight frown.

When he saw that his son was livid, with a tinge of bloodthirst in his eyes, Mogul Sun hurried over with a puzzled expression.

"What's wrong, Longxuan?" Mogul Sun asked, slanting his brow. "What's wrong?" he nudged a second time, this time taking another look at his son.

"It's nothing, Father!" Sun Longxuan replied with locked brows as he saw his father approaching. "I was just about to teach a reckless fellow a lesson!" he explained.

Behind Mogul Sun, Old Qin and the rest looked on with astonishment as well. They peered at Sun Longxuan before turning to face Wang Xian who was sitting in the forefront and had a bad premonition.

The group headed straight towards Wang Xian. "What's wrong, Wang Xian?" they asked.

"It's nothing!" Wang Xian excused himself without much concern. "There's a hare-brained fellow here, saying he wants to teach me a lesson!" he added.

"This...," Old Qin and the rest trailed off with an astounded look before turning over immediately to face the son of Mogul Sun.

Upon hearing the conversation, Mogul Sun returned with a startled expression and turned to look at his son with an intense glare.

The two Saints, who had been by Sun Longxuan's side all this time, frowned upon hearing the conversation. They exchanged glances with a tinge of shock in their eyes.

"Father, wait till I maim that impudent fellow," Sun Longxuan muttered softly to his father with a bleak expression.

"Shut up!"

Yet, Sun Longxuan had just ended his words when a low growl came from Mogul Sun, as he shushed his son with a burning glare.

"Father, you...," Sun Longxuan began in confusion.

Smack!

Sun Longxuan was stunned. He had yet to finish his words when the slap from his father struck across his face.

"Dammit, are you blind?" Mogul Sun snapped, before jerking his head right back. As he looked at Wang Xian who stood beside Old Qin, he inhaled a deep breath.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, pardon my poor discipline that caused you this inconvenience!"

Mogul Sun walked over and bowed respectfully as he apologized with a tinge of fear in his eyes.

Based on his knowledge of this Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown, he knew that he was no kind soul.

Miracle Doctor Wang had become famous for his killings.

The wipeout of a First-Class force, the battle with Flame Palace, as well as the slaughtering of Sacred Sect Elders.

Along with numerous other titles, such as the top of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart, Ninth on the Miracle Doctors Chart, Master Alchemist.

He was still most renowned for his barbarity and fearlessness.

Hence Mogul Sun, the richest man in the Southern Province, knew he meant nothing much in front of such a man.

Chapter 414: Alchemy Furnace

This wretched kid! I was still thinking of introducing him to Miracle Doctor Wang so he could help him out on the path ahead. Yet, he didn't know what is right for him and even offended Miracle Doctor Wang!

Mogul Sun was exceptionally furious and stood beside Wang Xian in fear.

Wang Xian looked to Mogul Sun with a radiant smile before turning and looking at Sun Longxuan with contempt.

"Are you curious now as to why not a single person is willing to join your Mechanic Sect?"

"That's because I'm Wang Xian!"

That's because I'm Wang Xian.

It was five simple words but the surrounding crowd could all sense the dominance in Wang Xian's words.

Just because he was Wang Xian, not a single person from all the families and sects in the Southern Province dared to join Sun Longxuan's Mechanic Sect even if they had strong desires to.

Upon hearing Wang Xian, Sun Longxuan's eyebrows twitched violently as he gritted his teeth.

Just because he's Wang Xian.

He saw his father bowing down and apologizing in fear and trepidation before his eyes.

This was the very first time he saw his father being so careful before another person. Moreover, he was just a young man.

He clenched his fists tightly and was filled with astonishment.

"Come and apologize to Miracle Doctor Wang immediately!" Mogul Sun pulled a long face, looked at his son and ordered him furiously.

"Father... I..."

"Go!"

At this moment, a voice reverberated from beside him. He was taken aback and stared at the two guys whom he addressed as big brothers in disbelief.

They were the Saints from a Sacred Sect, and even they were asking him to apologize!

Is he someone that even the Saints of a Sacred Sect are wary of?

Who the hell is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown?

Sun Longxuan, who had just returned from overseas, was exceptionally embarrassed. Despite being overwhelmed with humiliation, he walked with heavy steps towards Wang Xian.

"Apologize!"

Seeing his son dragging his feet and being indecisive, Mogul Sun slapped him on his head.

Sun Longxuan lowered his head and didn't dare to say another word. Although he was strong and his father was just an ordinary man currently, even Inborn experts wouldn't encroach on his father's authority.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, I'm... I'm sorry!"

"You should have expected this outcome and not acted as you did. No matter where you are, it's important to learn humility first. It is especially so in the Underworld. If you offend one you can't afford to, you might lose your life!" Wang Xian chuckled as he instructed him.

"Yes, yes. Miracle Doctor Wang is right! This brat was overwhelmed with the power he has and became brazen because of his background. He deserves it!" Mogul Sun nodded his head and agreed with Wang Xian.

Wang Xian waved his hand. Seeing Mogul Sun apologizing to him fearfully and in trepidation, Wang Xian had no intention to be too demanding in this matter.

After all, Sun Longxuan was just an arrogant Half-step to Inborn brat.

"Thank you, Miracle Doctor Wang for your magnanimity. After I learned that Miracle Doctor Wang was coming, I prepared a gift for you. I hope you will accept it!"

Seeing that Wang Xian didn't press on the matter, Mogul Sun was finally able to heave a sigh of relief and quickly commented.

"Hmm! I'm here mainly to see if there's anything good in this trading area. If there is, I'll do a fair trade!" Wang Xian said to Mogul Sun.

"Alright, Miracle Doctor Wang, please come with me. The trading area is right at the back. I'll bring you there!" said Mogul Sun with smiles as he led the way for Wang Xian.

Wang Xian nodded in response and followed behind him with Lan Qingyue.

Seeing how deferential his father was acting towards the young man, Sun Longxuan looked extremely bitter.

He looked at the two young men beside him, took a deep breath and asked solemnly, "Big brothers, who the hell is that guy?"

Saint Qi and Saint Wen looked cautiously at Sun Longxuan and answered, "He's an extremely powerful young man and the number one on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart currently!"

"What? Number one on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart?"

Sun Longxuan was taken aback. Naturally, he knew about the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart. All those who were ranked in the top five were Inborn experts below twenty-five years old.

As for the number one ranked person, he definitely had incredible strength. In fact, he might even have a strength that could match those experienced Inborn experts.

"Besides that, he's a Miracle Doctor who ranks in the top ten on the Miracle Doctors Chart, a master alchemist, and annihilated an entire first-class force previously. He had a conflict with the Flame Palace which was annihilated a while back, and even slew the Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild some time ago," Saint Qi and Saint Wen explained.

That demon-like young man couldn't be described with common sense. Not many people would dare to kill Elders from a Sacred Sect.

Not only did he commit the killings, but he was still alive and kicking at this moment.

Even with their status as Saints of the Dark Sect, they would avoid offending a person like him to the best of their ability.

It was hard to tell if he would disregard their status as Saints of a Sacred Sect and kill them on the spot.

Gulp!

Sun Longxuan swallowed a mouthful of saliva as fear slowly crept up within him. Despite spending most of his time overseas, he still knew about the strength of a Sacred Sect.

That young man has just killed an Elder from a Sacred Sect?

"He's so insane?"

Cold sweat was breaking out on Sun Longxuan's forehead.

"Once, three to four Inborn experts stood up for him before the Flame Palace while risking incurring the wrath of the Flame Palace. He is at least able to summon four to five Inborn experts. Coupled with the fact that he knows no fear, no one will offend him without reasons or if the matter does not concern huge interests," said Saint Qi and Saint Wen while frowning.

It was at least the case for them. This was because a person like Wang Xian wouldn't care about your background.

"It's no surprise that my father was so horrified a while ago!"

Sun Longxuan felt enlightened. He was a prideful person and so was his father.

The connections with Saint Qi and Saint Wen came from his father. Moreover, he had seen his father conversing with the Elders from the Dark Sect. Never once did he see his father trembling in fear and acting so deferentially to them.

The incident today had really taught Sun Longxuan a lifelong lesson:

To keep a low profile at all times.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, the trading today will be starting soon. Let's take a look at some of my collection. I had it prepared for Longxuan's sect previously. However, I don't think he is capable of becoming a sect leader and there won't be a need for this collection!"

Mogul Sun brought Wang Xian to his private room and explained with a radiant smile on his face.

There were tables around them and the table at the center already had things on it.

"Spiritual grass! There are three tufts of Level 4 spiritual grass, some weapons and some machines built from the legacy of Lu Ban. Oh right, I also have a small cauldron!"

Mogul Sun pointed to the center as he explained to Wang Xian excitedly.

Hmm!

Wang Xian nodded his head and turned his attention to the table in the center.

Eh?

When he saw the small cauldron that was half a meter in size, he was shocked. Excitement gleamed in his eyes as he walked towards it immediately.

Alchemy furnace: Level 5

"Alchemy furnace! Oh gosh! This is an alchemy furnace!"

Wang Xian exclaimed in shock as he approached it. When he arrived before the alchemy furnace, he started observing the red alchemy furnace carefully.

An alchemy furnace was something he had been looking for a long time. He couldn't even find one in the National Treasury. Therefore, he was shocked to learn that Mogul Sun had an alchemy furnace!

Chapter 415: The Dragon Sect Assembly: Fifty Inborn (1)

A Level 5 Alchemy Furnace was able to support the refinement of Elixir Pills of Level 5 and below.

That made an Alchemy Furnace far more valuable than an Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

Although this was merely a Level 5 Alchemy Furnace, it would be no exaggeration to say that its worth was equivalent to an Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

Yet, in the hands of one who did not know how to refine Elixir Pills, an Alchemy Furnace would then be worth nothing more than an ordinary Level 9 weapon.

"An Alchemy Furnace?" Mogul Sun asked with a puzzled look, upon Wang Xian's shriek of astonishment.

Obviously, he had no idea that this little Chinese cauldron had been an Alchemy Furnace, as they were very common throughout ancient Chinese history.

The Chinese cauldron had made up a huge proportion amongst the Chinese bronzeware. In ancient times, they had been used by people for cooking and storing meats, along with holding incense or joss sticks as a ritual offering to the gods, before it served as an Alchemy Furnace.

Had it not been for the heat which this little cauldron radiated, Mogul Sun would have deemed it to be like any other ordinary cauldron.

"That's right, an Alchemy Furnace it is!" Wang Xian cheered in excitement, as he gave the side of the Alchemy Furnace a gentle pat.

Zing!

The Origin Source Flame for refining Elixir Pills was sent straight into the Alchemy Furnace.

Vroom!

The Alchemy Furnace came to life as if it had been revitalized. It emitted a gentle red glow while a flame was ignited and shot into the air.

But the heat was latent, and could not be felt from the exterior of the Alchemy Furnace.

With a swing of his arm, the entire Alchemy Furnace suspended mid-air, and he gave it a second pat.

Zing, zing!

The light and crisp tingle sounded once again before Wang Xian peeked into the Alchemy Furnace. As expected, twenty-five crimson bronze wares appeared inside.

All of which were emitting bouts of gentle glow.

The refinement of a Level 5 Elixir Pill would require twenty-five types of Spiritual Grasses which was why there were twenty-five bronze wares within the Alchemy Furnace to hold the individual Spiritual Grasses.

This also meant the maximum capacity of this Alchemy Furnace when it came to the refinement of Elixir Pills.

Sun Longxuan and the two Saints from the Dark Sect had just entered the room when they saw the Alchemy Furnace suspended in mid-air in front of Wang Xian. At the sight, the trio was in awe.

They could sense a formidable force of Flame Energy brewing from within the Alchemy Furnace.

Around them, the crowd looked on at the Alchemy Furnace as it remained suspended while glowing in red light. The miraculous sight had also taken these business magnates of the Southern Province, as well as the Family Heads of various Ancient Martial Artist Families, by utter surprise.

"Haha, not bad. Not bad indeed!" Wang Xian laughed. With a swerve of his arm, he had the Alchemy Furnace lowered onto the ground.

"Here's ten Level 3 and ten Level 2 Elixir Pills. Should you want to refine Elixir Pills in the future, you can come to me. I'll refine them for you free of charge!" Wang Xian exclaimed. With a huge wave, he tossed all the Elixir Pills in his hand over to Mogul Sun.

"What? Ten Level 3 and ten Level 2 Elixir Pills!" Mogul Sun shrieked. He had an inkling when it came to the worth of Elixir Pills and knew that those in his hands were worth several billion.

Furthermore, they could not even be bought with money.

Sun Longxuan stared at the multiple Elixir Pills with a burning gaze.

Elixir Pills were something that even he had not had the chance to consume prior. To think that Wang Xian could actually toss over twenty of them right now...

No doubt a wicked talent.

"This won't do, this won't do! I'm embarrassed to admit it, but I didn't even know of the uses of this little cauldron. Since you have uncovered its purpose, this means that it has an affinity with you, Miracle Doctor Wang. Hence, this Alchemy Furnace shall be my gift to you!" Mogul Sun explained hurriedly.

"Take it, I won't take advantage of you either. The value of a Level 5 Alchemy Furnace is worth far more than these!" Wang Xian dismissed with a wave, not the least bit concerned about the offer he had made.

Other than those Level 4 to 5 which would be very useful to him, these Elixir Pills of Level 2 to 3 served no purpose for him otherwise.

To the point where they were useless even to Xiao Yu, Guan Shuqing and the rest.

"This...," Mogul Sun uttered in hesitation. But he declined to comment further upon seeing Wang Xian's elated look.

"In that case, thank you, Miracle Doctor Wang. Take a look, and see if anything else catches your eye!" Mogul Sun exclaimed in all smiles as he gestured to the items on the counter.

Wang Xian shook his head leisurely after a sweeping glance.

It had been unexpected jubilation to have received an Alchemy Furnace from this place. He had no desire for anything else.

In the deals that followed, nothing else caught his eye, while the best items were merely the few which Mogul Sun had brought out.

However, Wang Xian had been very amazed by the items produced by Sun Longxuan.

There was a pair of wings, crafted using Grade 9 metallic. When worn, these metallic wings would allow a Martial Artist to fly in the air.

These wings were very helpful in the directing and honing of one's internal energy. With extended cultivation, one might even be able to fly unaided simply by prodding their own body thereafter.

"Brother Xian, isn't this really incredible? It caused me such great pains to come up with this!"

"Sis-in-law, take a look at this bangle. With a gentle press, it'll transform into a glove!"

Sun Longxuan introduced it to Wang Xian and Lan Qingyue as he stood by the couple's side. He beamed brightly upon seeing their interest in his creations.

As if a completely changed person, he turned from an arrogant and prideful Young Master to a flattering underling.

There were times when one would be jealous of others who were a little better than themselves.

Yet, when the abilities of others had reached a certain benchmark, even the jealousy of the weaker party would be replaced with admiration and respect.

Wang Xian nodded as he looked at the items and asked, "So you know Equipment Refining?"

"Equipment Refining? I don't think it's considered as such. The Lu Ban Technique terms this as Equipment Craftsmanship!"

With a puzzled look, Sun Longxuan replied while shaking his head.

As opposed to Equipment Refining, Sun Longxuan did not have the means to conjure up powerful weapons through refining. Yet, given a combination of metallic elements, he was able to create formidable weapons.

And the weapons created would be unique ones, such as wings and automobiles.

"Equipment Craftsmanship? That's very befitting. It's very similar to Equipment Refining, but more dependent on the use of metals," Wang Xian remarked.

"While Equipment Craftsmanship is also about improving inferior things and making them better," Sun Longxuan added.

"Nonetheless, this Equipment Craftsmanship is also very impressive!"

Be it Equipment Refining or Equipment Craftsmanship, it did not matter. What Wang Xian had most desired were Inborn Spiritual Weapons.

The ascension of the Dragon Field had required a thousand Inborn Spiritual Weapons.

It was ten at night by the time he arrived at Rivertown.

After two hours of activity on the bed, Wang Xian headed over to the floating island.

"Young Master!" Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan greeted respectfully. They had been staying on the island but came out to receive Wang Xian upon sensing his arrival.

"Hmmm," Wang Xian nodded. "How many amongst the Dragonians have attained Inborn status?" he continued to ask.

"There are already thirteen of them, Young Master. While the rest are also about to step into the Inborn Realm!" Mo Yuan answered.

"Given twenty days, can all of them achieve Inborn status?" Wang Xian asked overtly.

"Yes!" Mo Yuan responded without wavering in the slightest.

"Gather all of them, and call them over. We're close to the New Year!" Wang Xian instructed before strolling over to the Spiritual Medicine Garden.

"It's time for the Dragon Sect's comeback," Wang Xian commented, "and also time to compete within the underworld!"

He smiled, as the edges of his mouth arched upwards.

That day would be coming very soon!

Chapter 416: The Dragon Sect

Assembly: Fifty Inborn (2)

The Dragon Sect consisted of fifty dragonians excluding Mo Yuan and Mo Qinglong. After the death of two dragonians, adding two additional people would top up the number to fifty again.

It had been more than five months since Wang Xian had taken in the dragonians.

At that point, the eight extraordinary meridians of all the dragonians were cleared. After clearing, they would be able to reach the Inborn Realm within a hundred days.

However, as they had to enter the Underworld and undergo trials in the process, their cultivation progress had been delayed.

After five months, only thirteen of them had reached the Inborn Realm.

Now that Wang Xian had gathered all of them and ordered them to cultivate incessantly, it would take approximately twenty days for all of them to reach the Inborn Realm.

With fifty Inborn Realm experts, it would be sufficient for the Dragon Sect to become a Sacred Sect.

Wang Xian wanted to establish a Sacred Sect and compete with other Sacred Sects.

"Mo Qinglong has broken through to the Half-Step to Dan Realm and Mo Yuan will be achieving that soon. As for the other Dragonians, they will be able to match middle-class Inborn experts the moment they reach the Inborn Realm but will still be a distance away from Pinnacle Inborn experts. I have to refine some elixir pills to increase their strength!"

Wang Xian went to the spiritual medicine garden and looked at the spiritual medicine within.

At this point, there were over sixty tufts of Level 4 spiritual medicine, twenty-eight tufts of Level 5 spiritual medicine and close to three hundred tufts of Level 3 spiritual medicine.

In terms of variety, there wasn't a lot. There were roughly forty different kinds of spiritual medicine.

"Level 4 elixir pills wouldn't have many benefits for the dragonians. Only Level 5 elixir pills would be beneficial. However, Level 5 elixir pills would require the combination of twenty-five different spiritual medicine and grasses to refine. I don't have enough Level 5 spiritual medicine and grass!"

Wang Xian looked across the spiritual medicine in the garden and the elixir pill recipes for various Level 5 elixir pills flashed past his mind.

"There's a Level 5 elixir pill recipe where I have all of the spiritual medicine to refine!"

Wang Xian focused on the elixir pill recipe, Devil's Mark Pill!

Level 5 elixir pills had huge effects for Inborn experts. Once the elixir pills were over Level 5, they would typically have an elemental attribute.

For example, water attribute elixir pills would be beneficial for Dan Realm experts with water attribute affinity.

Among Level 5 elixir pills, the stronger elixir pills would also have elemental attributes. Devil's Mark Pill was one of them and happened to be suitable for the dragonians who cultivated Devil's Arts.

However, I would require devil attribute energies to refine Devil's Mark Pill!

Wang Xian thought to himself, Nonetheless, devil attribute energies wouldn't be... Wouldn't be that difficult to find.

At the very minimum, he could get them from Xiao Yu or Elder Fang.

Haiz. It appears that I have to get some blood from Xiao Yu or Elder Fang!

As a Skeletal Dragon, their fresh blood would be exceptionally precious spiritual medicine. Using them to refine elixir pills would be more than sufficient.

Although it felt weird to use the blood of his sister to refine elixir pills, it should be fine if he was just borrowing a little.

Wang Xian could already visualize how Xiao Yu would stare at him.

He chuckled and looked to the other twenty-four types of spiritual medicine required.

Among which, the majority of them were still just Level 3 and 4 currently. He had to increase their levels to Level 5.

For the next two days, Wang Xian would accompany Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue, Xiao Yu and the girls when he was free. As for the remaining time, he spent it on increasing the levels of spiritual medicine and grass on the floating island.

Since he'd obtained the Wood Dragon Ball, increasing the levels of spiritual grass and medicine had become much quicker than before.

During the few days of the Chinese New Year, Wang Xian's villa had also gotten livelier. There were over ten wealthy Rivertown families and moguls who paid him a visit.

Even Mogul Sun brought his son to pay him a visit on the third day of the Lunar New Year.

Wang Dahai also came over excitedly. He finally had his day.

After the incident at the banquet, everyone knew that Wang Dahai was the brother of Miracle Doctor Wang. His grandfather even asked him to stay for the new year and had finally seen him as his grandson.

Because of his connection with Wang Xian, Mogul Sun promoted his grandfather several times.

Those families in Flow City were treating them with warm hospitality and wanted to forge cordial relationships with them. In Flow City, they were in the limelight.

The various guests made the villa incomparably lively.

This was the most boisterous new year Wang Xian had.

After the new year, Wang Xian continued on increasing the level of spiritual medicine and grass.

Level 5 spiritual grass and medicine weren't as easy as those at Level 2 or 3. To increase a Level 3 spiritual grass or medicine to Level 5, it would require more than ten thousand points of dragon energy. Moreover, it would take at least dozens of hours.

Seven days after the new year, tufts of Level 5 spiritual grass and medicine were finally done.

A total of fifteen sets or three hundred and sixty tufts of Level 5 spiritual grass and medicine. All together, Wang Xian had expended over a million points of dragon energy.

He had twenty million points of dragon energy remaining. The million points of dragon energy were well spent. After Dragon Sect had established its footing, it would bring him even more resources and dragon energy.

"Time to start refining elixir pills!"

Wang Xian took a deep breath, placing the alchemy furnace before him and the tufts of Level 5 spiritual grass and medicine beside him.

Beside the Level 5 spiritual medicine and grass, there was another strange item.

It was white and appeared to be a sanitary pad. There was still blood on it.

That's right! That was the shed blood of the Skeletal Dragon during menstruation.

This item had been discovered by Wang Xian by accident when Xiao Yu asked him to throw away the rubbish. When he saw it, he was stunned. After several verifications, he could confirm that there were immense energies within it.

As such, Wang Xian kept it away and was prepared to use it for refining elixir pills.

It felt a little weird. Nonetheless, he wouldn't be the one consuming it.

Refine all elixir pills with the Origin Source Flame!

Wang Xian took another deep breath before placing the tufts of spiritual grass and medicine into the alchemy furnace with the blood from the Skeletal Dragon.

A typical alchemist would have to time the exact moment when they placed various spiritual medicines into the alchemy furnace based on the time the spiritual medicine would take to melt. They couldn't make the slightest error or the spiritual grass or medicine would be burnt to ashes.

Origin Source Flame wouldn't have such issues. Even if the spiritual medicine or grass were placed in it for half an hour, the effects would be kept perfectly without any loss.

Wang Xian threw all the spiritual grass and medicine in at the same time before adjusting the concentration.

He had to concentrate on the distribution of the concentration. Otherwise, he might end up with poisonous pills or useless pills if he made a mistake.

Wang Xian's speed in refining was terrifyingly quick. Moreover, the effects of the elixir pills were kept perfectly intact.

A set of spiritual medicine and grass could roughly give four elixir pills.

If Sui Huang were to witness Wang Xian refining elixir pills, he would probably jump up in jealousy. Refining elixir pills was like a walk in the park for Wang Xian.

Phew!

He had finally succeeded!

When the spiritual medicine and grass coalesced into elixir pills, Wang Xian revealed a satisfied smile.

Sixty pills! Moreover, all of them were Level 5 elixir pills.

The value of each Level 5 elixir pill could reach $7-8 billion conservatively!

When consumed by an Inborn expert, one could gain immense improvements. Such pills were priceless.

"These are different from Devil's Mark Pills! These are Devil's Skeletal Pills! Perhaps it's because I was using the blood of the Skeletal Dragon!"

Wang Xian looked at the Devil's Skeletal Pills that were emanating a black glow. Moving out, he appeared before the floating island.

At that place, fifty dragonians, together with Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan, were sitting on the training ground and cultivating.

Immense black energies had shrouded them completely and each and every one of them emanated incredible vibes with each breath.

After incessant cultivating over the new year, all the fifty dragonians had reached the Inborn Realm.

Any one of them could stir up a storm in the Underworld!

Chapter 417: Xiao Ran's Clan

"Everyone, take a Devil's Skeletal Pill each and swallow it now!"

Wang Xian looked at his Dragonians with satisfaction.

Dragonians were 100 percent loyal and die-hard fans, and that was the advantage. They would not have the slightest hesitation, even if Wang Xian asked them to commit suicide.

In their eyes, he was God.

"Thank you, Dragon King!"

When Dragonians opened their eyes, a virtual image of a Devil Dragon flashed in their eyes as they had one knee down, shouting out respectfully.

Wang Xian swung his arm, suspending the Devil's Skeletal Pills in the air before them.

After the Dragonians consumed the pills, they closed their eyes immediately and absorbed it.

Kacha, kacha!

Soon, a bone-cracking sound came from their bodies as a virtual image of a Skeletal Dragon slowly surfaced above their heads.

The Skeletal Dragon hovered over their heads before slowly entering their bodies.

Their bones had undergone terrifying change. On their skin, the faint dragon scales that surfaced turned into boney scales that looked like some daunting armor.

Their five fingers grew longer, exuding a touch of black radiance.

"Using the blood of the Skeletal Dragon for the production of elixir pills seemed to have had a special effect!"

The Devil's Arts that Mo Qinglong was cultivating came with dark attributes, while the Skeletal Dragon was considered to be the mutation of those dark attributes. As a result, it had strengthened their bones, which turned them into something more powerful.

"Fifty Dragonians. Considering those who had just advanced to Inborn Realm, they could even match up to Pinnacle Inborn. That's how strong the bloodline is!"

Wang Xian smiled as he watched those Dragonians with rapid ascension in their strength.

With the strength of fifty Dragonians enhanced at the same time, their black energies slowly gathered together, forming a Skeletal Dragon.

As the Skeletal Dragon crouched above them, the imposing stance could strike fear into anyone, including experts of the Dan Realm.

...

"That lad escaped. That lad actually ran away!"

"How could he have such domineering strength? This is impossible. It hasn't been long since we last saw him and he has already advanced to Half-step to Inborn."

"That brat was too gifted. No wonder Madam had to take the risk to kill him!"

"He's only fifteen, and he is already a Half-step to Inborn. It's almost a 100 percent chance for him to advance to Inborn Realm or an even higher level. If he grows up, it will be troublesome!"

"I wonder what kind of fortuitous encounter he had to become so powerful, especially with that petrifying sapphire flame!"

At this moment, five people were discussing and standing along a remote road in Rivertown with cold perspiration all over their bodies.

There were charred bodies scattered around on the floor, looking unusually scary.

Spots of fresh blood were spilled around while the ground had several cracks in it. Apparently, a ferocious battle had broken out here.

A fifteen-year-old Half-step to Inborn sounded horrifying.

"If Madam learned about this, she wouldn't be able to sleep from now on!"

Several middle-aged men exchanged gazes with each other. Amongst them, two were Half-step to Inborn, Level 9 Martial Artists. Those lying on the ground were all Level 9 Martial Artists.

Ever since the group of people who were chasing that brat had disappeared, Madam sent an even more powerful bunch of people to kill that brat.

This time, they learned about the news of that brat from the Omniscient Group. Hence, they rushed over just to kill him off. At first, they thought it would be an easy job. But none of them expected that he could slaughter five Level 9 Martial Artists all by himself.

At the same time, he fled from their hands.

"We must report to Madam immediately!"

A middle-aged man suppressed the horror within himself and took out a communication device immediately.

"Xiao Shisan, is everything settled?"

Soon, a wealthy-looking lady appeared in the video call. She was standing in a training field and was not looking into the camera. Instead, she was gazing at something ahead of her, wearing a smile.

"Madam, we are in trouble!"

Xiao Shisan took a deep breath before he lowered his head and answered with a grimace.

"Hur? You let that brat escape again?"

Eyes turned cold as the wealthy-looking lady stared at Xiao Shisan on the screen.

"Madam!"

Through the screen, Xiao Shisan could sense the imposing bearing. His voice was shaking. "We tried to stop him half-way, but he killed five of our people!"

"What? Someone is protecting that brat?"

That wealthy-looking lady raised her eyebrows as vexation became caught in between her locked brows.

"No... not that. He killed five of our people alone. He's now a Half-step to Inborn, a Half-step to Inborn!"

"What did you say?" that wealthy-looking lady shrieked, ruining all her nobility.

"Half-step to Inborn. I don't know what kind of fortuitous encounter he had, but he possesses the strength of Half-step to Inborn. And...And, he's got a terrifying flame!"

Xiao Shisan was shaken as he answered. Such a gifted talent would shine in the sky, causing everything to pale in comparison.

"Half-step to Inborn. A fifteen-year-old Half-step to Inborn? Are you sure you're not talking nonsense?!"

The wealthy-looking lady was in total disbelief as she grasped the device, staring into the screen.

"We're sure. We're 100 percent sure. That brat has a domineering gift!"

Xiao Shisan nodded his head with force.

"Half-step to Inborn. A Half-step to Inborn at age fifteen!"

The wealthy-looking lady was stupefied as she looked at her son in the training field before her.

Her son was eighteen, and he had only become a Half-step to Inborn after he was given a vast amount of resources for his cultivation.

Even so, a son who was a Half-step to Inborn enjoyed a supreme status in the entire Sacred Clan. The word 'genius' was insufficient to describe him.

Even the Laozu of the clan was full of praises for him. He was only eighteen, and everyone already recognized him as the next successor for the Xiao Family.

He was, no doubt, the next successor of the Sacred Clan.

Yet, that brat... that bastard had actually advanced to Half-step to Inborn.

"No way. Absolutely no way. If anyone finds out that he has such domineering gifts and strength, the elders in the clan will be grooming him with everything they have. Till then, Fan'er's status and that hatred from that boy..."

Radiance flashed in that wealthy-looking lady's eyes as she slowly revealed her craziness. "We must stop that brat from growing up. We cannot let him live!"

"You guys will wait there. I'll send an Inborn Expert over!" that wealthy-looking lady commanded Xiao Shisan coldly.

"Yes, yes!"

When Xiao Shisan saw the murderous intent in Madam's eyes, fear took over him as he hurriedly nodded his head.

After they hung up, the wealthy-looking lady was clenching her fist tightly.

At this time, a dashing and handsome juvenile in the training field held his prideful chin up and asked that wealthy-looking lady, "Mum, how was it? Given my current strength, I'm sure I can be in the top ten on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart. Till then, I'll be the youngest hero!"

"That's true. Fan'er, you're the most remarkable one. No one at your age can compare to you. You're the brightest moon in the sky. The rest are only insignificant starlight!"

The wealthy-looking lady had glittering eyes as she looked at her son with a beaming face.

"Of course. I wonder where Xiao Ran, his mother, and his sister fled to. They have been on the run for a year. If I see him again, I'll cripple him with one hand. Haha!"

Chapter 418: The Youngest Inborn Expert

"No matter how insanely gifted you are, you are still going to meet your end here!"

On a deserted road in Rivertown, Xiao Shisan mumbled to himself after seeing the video call disengage.

"What a shame! Now that you have offended Madam... A young hero?"

Xiao Shisan looked at the corpses around him and instructed the few people with him to clean things up.

That Madam was the daughter of the family head of a first-class family in Shang Jing. That first-class family was among the most elite first-class forces, with close to ten Inborn experts.

One could even say that they were one of the strongest existences beneath a Sacred Sect.

At this moment, her status in the family had risen because of his son. That young master had talents that triumphed the entire Sacred Clan and had been widely regarded as the future successor. He was also the most outstanding disciple that was believed to have the highest chance of attaining the level of their Laozu.

In the entire Xiao Clan, that Madam also had incredible influence.

If she wished to kill a brat, that brat would die no matter how insanely gifted he was.

...

"What's the matter? What happened to Xiao Ran?"

In the afternoon, Wang Xian saw Liu Mengxin, whose eyes had turned red and swollen from crying, in the living room when he entered the villa. His attention shifted to Xiao Ran who appeared pale and was lying on the sofa.

Sun Lingxiu was sitting by his side while administering treatment. Clearly, his injuries weren't light.

"He was ambushed and forcefully executed the technique Sui Huang taught him. His body suffered huge damages but this isn't a serious issue. He should recover in five to six days!" Sun Lingxiu turned to Wang Xian and explained.

"He was ambushed?"

Wang Xian's eyebrows knitted together.

The Underworld still wasn't aware that Xiao Ran was his disciple. At the very least, he barely paid any attention to this disciple.

Other than giving him the cultivation arts from the Fire God Denomination, the Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame and some elixir pills, he had basically not played a part in his cultivation path.

He didn't know how to teach his disciple. Even his cultivation knowledge was gained from joining Guan Shuqing when Sui Huang was teaching.

Nonetheless, he was very satisfied with this disciple of his.

He was resilient and willing to endure hardship. Other than his meals, he spent all his time on cultivation.

Whenever he saw him, he would just address him as "Master" softly. At the same time, he would always make him tea and bring a cup to him.

There's nothing Wang Xian would pick on about this disciple.

"Who would ambush a teenager for no reason? Moreover, with Xiao Ran's current strength of Half-step to Inborn, he wouldn't be injured unless he was fighting experts at the same level or higher..."

Wang Xian squinted his eyes and a flash of killing intent gleamed in them.

No matter what, Xiao Ran was his disciple. Although he was just an unofficial disciple, it would still be a slap to his face if his disciple was ambushed by others.

"They are from our family, the Xiao Clan!" Liu Mengxin looked at Wang Xian with his red and swollen eyes and walked towards him.

"Xiao Clan? The Sacred Clan, Xiao Clan?"

Wang Xian was taken aback and sank into deep thought.

Xiao Clan was one of the three main Sacred Clans and one of the five main Sacred Clans in China. They had strength equivalent to other sacred sects.

So the assassination when I first encountered them was sent by a Sacred Clan? A Sacred Clan is pursuing and assassinating two kids?

At that time, Wang Xian hadn't asked about the reasons.

"Mengxin, why is the Xiao Clan pursuing and assassinating you guys?"

Wang Xian glanced at the unconscious Xiao Ran and placed his hand on him. Streams of Azure Dragon's energy flowed into his body and started healing his injuries.

"Our aunt is trying to kill us. Our mother isn't the first wife to our father and we have always been living outside the Xiao Clan. Subsequently, brother reached Martial Artist Level 3 in just a year. Seeing that brother has strong talents, father brought us back to the Sacred Clan. However, that aunt has always targeted us. The resources that had been allocated to us were all snatched away by her. Subsequently, our father died in an accident and that aunt's actions got even more brazen.

"Our mother couldn't stand her taking away our resources and therefore went to reason with the Elders in the clan. However, our food was poisoned after she got back. When my mother learned about it, she decided to bring us away from this perilous place. However, we had not expected to be pursued by assassins. Our mother was killed while protecting us. The last time we saw Brother Wang Xian, we had already been running for a year!" Liu Mengxin clenched her small hands as she spoke furiously.

It might not be just because of your mother. Xiao Ran is probably a factor too! Wang Xian thought to himself after hearing Liu Mengxin's explanation.

In large families, it would be similar to the royal race in the past. Heirs would resort to unscrupulous acts to increase their chances of succeeding the throne. Xiao Ran's gifts had probably encroached upon the interests of some people.

To be able to reach Martial Artist Level 3 without any resources in a year, he must be really gifted. As long as he had sufficient resources, he would definitely still become the most dazzling star even when compared across the Sacred Clans.

The only shame was that his mother was just another woman his father had outside the clan and she wasn't the first wife.

"The quarrels within your family have nothing to do with me. However, it involves me when my disciple is harmed!"

Wang Xian gave a cold smirk and looked at the unconscious Xiao Ran on the sofa.

Let this incompetent master of yours help you for the very last time. You still have to rely on yourself in the future!

Wang Xian had made up his mind. He would be using elixir pills to raise his cultivation realm to the Inborn Realm before bringing him to the Xiao Clan and demanding a fair explanation.

Head to the Sacred Clan and demand a fair explanation.

"Master!"

At this instant, Xiao Ran, who was lying on the sofa, opened his eyes suddenly. He squeezed out a shy smile and struggled to sit up.

Wang Xian didn't stop him, patted him on the shoulders and said, "Have a good rest today. I'll increase your strength tomorrow before going back with you to demand a fair explanation!"

Xiao Ran's face turned red from agitation. Tears streamed down uncontrollably as he thanked Wang Xian profusely. "Thank you, master. Thank you, master!"

Wang Xian smiled and caressed his head before turning around and leaving in the direction of the floating island.

After all, Xiao Ran was still just a fifteen-year-old kid. His life had been tumultuous and even worse than his and Xiao Yu's in the past. At the very least, Wang Xian and Xiao Yu wouldn't have to worry about their safety.

Arriving at the spiritual medicine garden on the floating island, Wang Xian looked around and gathered the spiritual medicine required to refine Level 4 elixir pills. After which, he turned to the two Level 6 spiritual medicines.

The Green Fruit Tree and the White Valley Lotus.

The fruits from the spiritual tree, Green Fruit Tree, were Level 5 spiritual medicine or the equivalent of Level 4 elixir pills. As for the White Valley Lotus, it could match Level 5 elixir pills.

That was similar to the Devil's Skeletal Pill which could greatly increase the strength of even Inborn experts.

Clearly, Devil's Skeletal Pills weren't suitable for Xiao Ran and would only cause side effects. However, he could consume a Level 6 spiritual medicine directly.

Consuming four to five Level 4 elixir pills and several lotus seeds from the Level 6 spiritual medicine, having his conception vessel and governing vessel cleared, together with the body refining effects of the Dragon Ball, Xiao Ran could definitely reach the Inborn Realm.

This was an Inborn expert raised by exhausting immense resources and wealth.

A fifteen-year-old Inborn expert. Even the Sacred Clan would be completely shocked by him!

Wang Xian's lips curved up slightly. Subsequently, he started refining Level 4 elixir pills.

After the massive refining session over this period, the entire spiritual medicine garden had basically emptied out with only a few tufts of spiritual medicine and grass remaining.

He had to start breeding his own or looking for other spiritual medicine and grass.

Chapter 419: Another Attack

Ah!

As deafening screams came through, the painful cries caused hair to stand on end.

Back in the yard in the villa, Xiao Ran was sitting on the ground with his legs crossed. Above his head, the Body Refining Flame was burning over his body.

Even though the blazing flame was specifically used to refine the body, the pain was simply unbearable.

However, Wang Xian remained unwavering at the side. Each time when Xiao Ran's physical body could not take it, Wang Xian would inject Energy of the Azure Dragon to heal his body.

When his skin tore, it would be treated with the Energy of the Azure Dragon again.

At the same time, Level 4 elixir pills were thrown into Xiao Ran's mouth as though they cost nothing. The immense energy in the pills was quickly absorbed and refined.

Boom!

After he had taken all four Soul Enhancement Pills, an intense energy began to rise in Xiao Ran's body. He lifted his head as he could not help but bellow with a shaken body.

"Open your mouth!" Wang Xian shouted at him as he curled his finger and sent three White Valley Lotus Seeds into his mouth.

White Valley Lotus could help to cleanse the physical body, shaping the most perfect Inborn Physique. Compared to Devil's Skeletal Pill, the Spiritual Energy provided would be lesser, but it could strengthen the foundation.

As the Body Refining Flame from the Inferno Dragon Ball kept pouring down on him like a waterfall, Xiao Ran was completely covered by the sticky and thick magma.

With the help of Level 6 Spiritual Medicine White Valley Lotus and Level 11 Body Refining Flame, nothing would go wrong despite the fact that they took a shortcut.

"Absorb the energy and adapt to it. Lay a good foundation!" said Wang Xian to Xiao Ran indifferently as he observed by the side.

After half an hour, Wang Xian opened his mouth and took the Inferno Dragon Ball back.

Xiao Ran, who was glowing in a blue flame, slowly opened his eyes.

A tinge of sapphire radiance blinked in his eyes as Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame rose from his body. Daunting destructive energy came from his body.

Xiao Ran slowly stood up.

Ka Ka Ka!

A bone-cracking sound came from within his body.

The Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame slowly converged into his body with flashing bouts of queer aura.

It was the domineering and majestic stance of an Inborn Expert that was emanating from Xiao Ran's body.

There was a tinge of thrill in his eyes as he turned to Wang Xian with passion and admiration. "Master, I...I actually advanced to Inborn Realm. Thank you, master!"

As he spoke, Xiao Ran went down on his knees with his eyes reddened. His body was shaking with excitement.

"Enough, don't be so excited. Put on your clothes. We're going to Shang Jing this afternoon!"

Wang Xian smiled at him.

"Yes, Master!"

Xiao Ran blushed as he hurriedly ran outside.

Wang Xian shook his head and went back to the villa. He was lying on the sofa, drinking his tea while reading the news on the Underworld.

The most popular event in the Underworld recently was none other than the Outstanding Young Heroes' rankings.

The Underworld would rank the Outstanding Young Heroes bi-annually. As such, many of the supreme talents would rush over to the venue.

If they got ranked, they would receive many resources. If they could rank above the top three, they would have a chance to receive Level 4 to 5 elixir pills, Level 5 to 6 Spiritual Grass, and even powerful weapons.

Xiao Yu and Elder Fang had already returned to Thistles and Thorns Sect during the past few days. Xiao Yu was getting ready to surprise every young hero in the event. At the same time, she was preparing for Thistles and Thorns Sect to upgrade themselves to a first-class force.

Wang Xian did not interrupt her enthusiasm. Given Elder Fang and her strength, almost no one in the entire Underworld could hurt them.

Even if they met a Dan Realm Expert, they were able to go up against them once they transformed into a Skeletal Dragon.

After a rest, Xiao Ran put on his training attire and walked over with a sharp sword in his hand.

"Master!"

"You're ready? Let's go. We'll pick up your sister first!"

As Wang Xian spoke, he stretched his back and spotted the Ancient Spiritual Sword at the side. With a casual movement, the sword was tossed to Xiao Ran.

"Your last gift!"

Wang Xian tossed the Inborn Spiritual Weapon, the Ancient Spiritual Sword, to Xiao Ran as he spoke.

They picked up this Ancient Spiritual Sword when they annihilated Nine Lotus Sect back at the Ancient Tomb. It was initially gifted to Xiao Yu.

But ever since Xiao Yu had turned into a Skeletal Dragon, she has no use for this Ancient Spiritual Sword. The Inborn Spiritual Weapon was no better than the bone sword extended out from her hand. As a result, the sword was left lying around in the villa.

"Thank you, master!"

Xiao Ran took the Ancient Spiritual Sword with thrills. He was looking ebullient.

"Let's go!" Wang Xian said to him. Both of them took a cab to the old street.

After meeting up with Liu Mengxin and Sun Lingxiu, four of them took a cab to the airport.

Liu Mengxin was an unofficial disciple of Sun Lingxiu. Since she practiced the Art of Light, her strength had reached Level 8 Martial Artist.

Given her age, it was rather daunting.

"Where are you flying to?" the driver asked them with a smile on his face.

"To Shang Jing!"

"Shang Jing? Now it's very crowded to go there since everyone is traveling there for a winter vacation!"

The driver chuckled as he spoke.

When the cab was making a turn, a large vehicle stopped in the middle of the road, causing the driver to slam on the brakes immediately.

"God dammit. What a son of a bitch! Do you know how to drive?"

"Hur?"

At this time, Wang Xian spotted the Martial Artists walking out from that car.

They were all armed with swords, looking over in their direction with icy gazes.

"Master, it's them. They were the ones who assaulted me!"

Xiao Ran was getting aggressive as he pointed to the few middle-aged men and exclaimed loudly.

"Again?"

Wang Xian raised his eyebrow and revealed a cold smile. Upon seeing the flustered driver, Wang Xian struck him unconscious with a palm.

"Let's get down!"

Wang Xian sniggered as he spoke when he stepped out of the cab.

"Brat, where do you think you can hide?"

Xiao Shisan glared at Xiao Ran coldly as he smirked, revealing a bloodthirsty look.

"Half-step to Inborn?"

There were two old men, fat and skinny ones, standing beside Xiao Shisan. The fat old man squinted his eyes as he observed Xiao Ran in a half-asleep state.

"Just a Half-step to Inborn Brat, and you want us to strike?"

"It's safer to get rid of such a demon-like existence. Aunt Mei did the correct thing. We're here to ensure this brat is utterly dead, just in case!" said the skinny old man beside the fat old man who had bulging eyes that were big and creepy-looking.

"People from the Xiao Clan? Hehe, we were about to look for you. Little did I expect you to be here beforehand!"

Wang Xian swept his gaze across fifteen of them. Among which, there were two Inborn Experts and five Half-step to Inborn Experts. He could not help but display a cold look.

"Who is he?" asked the fat old man who squinted his eyes.

"Who cares? Kill them all!"

The skinny old man stared with his round eyes as he spoke casually.

"That's true. You guys go on. I want to see what that fifteen-year-old Half-step to Inborn can do!"

The fat old man nodded as he commanded the rest of the surrounding people.

"Yes!"

Thirteen Martial Artists held their weapons in their hands. Xiao Shisan took a look at his comrades and reminded them, "Be careful, this brat can release a powerful blue flame."

"Haha, we've got so many of us here. It will be a piece of cake to kill a Half-step to Inborn brat!"

Chapter 420: Don't Oppress Me Just Because I'm Young (1)

"Xiao Ran, kill all of them!"

Wang Xian contorted his lips upwards and spoke plainly to Xiao Ran who was beside him.

"Yes, master!"

Xiao Ran held the hilt of the Ancient Spiritual Sword tightly in his hand as he stared harshly at the thirteen people surrounding him. Hatred gleamed strongly in his eyes.

It was also this batch of people who had killed his mother and forced them into a life of running desperately.

Killing intent flashed in his eyes as he walked resolutely towards them.

After being pursued for over a year, Xiao Ran felt no fear and trepidation towards killing. All he felt was the desire to slay all his enemies one day.

Today, he was finally going to take the first step towards achieving his goal.

"Kill him as quickly as possible and get back!" The fat old man squinted his eyes as he instructed his men lazily.

"Hehe! Who would have expected a brat like you to recover in two days? However, we have two Inborn experts with us today. There's no way for you to escape even if you had wings!"

Xiao Shisan stared harshly at Xiao Ran as he drew his longsword gradually.

"I won't run again from today onwards. I'm going to kill every single one of you as revenge for my mother!"

Xiao Ran didn't draw his sword. He was reserving it for the two Inborn experts and the rest weren't qualified for him to use it.

"Hehe! Die now! Insolent brat!" Xiao Shisan and the crowd shouted coldly as they charged towards Xiao Ran with their weapons.

"I'm no longer the same kid as a year ago. Don't oppress me just because I'm young!"

Xiao Ran's expression was eerily cold. Looking at the thirteen people approaching him, a tinge of blue flames flashed across his eyes.

"Haha! Insolent brat! Don't assume you can act brazenly just because you have some strength. No matter how gifted you are, you are going to meet your end today!"

Xiao Shisan and a few other men laughed hysterically. Piercing glow flashed on the surface of their swords as they lunged towards Xiao Ran.

Tsk!

Xiao Ran looked at them. Moving both of his hands, a circle of Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flames appeared on his palm. The Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flames were swaying and seemed eager to set the air ablaze.

"Die!" he shouted loudly as he swept the Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame towards the thirteen people.

"Be careful! That blue flame is really powerful!" Xiao Shisan turned solemn and reminded the group loudly.

"Heavenly Flame! Oh gosh! It's a Heavenly Flame!"

In one corner, the fat old man was exhilarated upon seeing the Heavenly Flame.

The skinny old man beside him had his eyes opened widely as he smiled radiantly. "Haha! After we kill that kid, the Heavenly Flame will belong to us."

"Break!"

Xiao Shisan and the group slashed down on the Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flames that were flying towards them.

"Die!"

Seeing them still trying to withstand with their weapons, a cold flash beamed from Xiao Ran's eyes.

The current him wasn't the same as two days ago.

Boom!

He waved his hand and the circle of blue flames raged violently the moment they contacted their weapons.

To their astonishment, the Tranquil Blue Flames grew to over a meter in size and shrouded towards them.

"Shit!"

Xiao Shisan was taken by surprise. The Tranquil Blue Flame was different from previous times. The flames they had seen just a while ago were highly concentrated flames.

Argh!

Instantly, the eight Level 9 martial artists cried out pitifully.

When they saw the blue flames raging on one arm, they immediately tried to put them out by patting it with their other hand.

However, they hit nothing as they waved their other hand down.

Their arm had been reduced to dust before their astonished eyes. Moreover, the flames were spreading quickly towards their bodies.

It was as though they could no longer feel the temperature of the flames as they were reduced to dust like paper.

"How can this be possible...?"

Xiao Shisan was devastated as he looked at the spreading Tranquil Blue

Heavenly Flame on his arm.

When the flames had landed on the Level 9 martial artists previously, the worse it could get was to torch the person. Yet, they were reduced to dust directly this time.

He patted towards his arm rapidly. However, to his astonishment, he hit nothing.

His arm and his body were disappearing rapidly.

His brain didn't register any pain or misery. However, all these things were incomparably frightening.

Argh!

Pitiful cries reverberated. All thirteen people had disappeared creepily.

With a single strike, five Half-step to Inborn experts and eight Level 9 martial artists were reduced to dust.

Incomparably terrifying.

"What?"

The fat and skinny old men who had stayed behind looked on with disbelief.

That fat old man was fully alerted now as he shed his laziness from before. His eyes widened and were filled with confusion.

"It's your turn now!"

Xiao Ran grabbed the Ancient Spiritual Sword by his waist and said, "Now, I'm going to kill both of you. After which, I'll head to Xiao Clan to demand an explanation!"

"Annihilating thirteen experts in a single strike! How can this be? You aren't at the Half-step to Inborn Realm! You have reached the Inborn Realm! A fifteen-year-old Inborn expert!"

The jaw of the skinny old man dropped and his eyes were filled with disbelief. He had completely lost his calm demeanor from before.

"How can this be possible? What kind of chance encounter did you have? Two days ago, you were still a Half-step to Inborn expert. Yet, you have reached the Inborn Realm today and even have a terrifying Heavenly Flame!"

The old man turned serious.

The Heavenly Flame was much stronger than ordinary flames and could substantially increase one's strength.

"Because I have a powerful master!"

Xiao Ran lifted his head proudly while staring harshly at them.

"Master?"

The skinny and old man's attention fell on Wang Xian and the group who had stayed behind through the developments.

"Kid, don't assume you are a match for us after just reaching the Inborn Realm...", the fat old man remarked coldly. He exchanged glances with the skinny old man and attacked Xiao Ran suddenly before completing his sentence.

They were going for the ambush!

They weren't ashamed of ambushing a fifteen-year-old kid. With Xiao Ran possessing the powerful Heavenly Flame, it was worthwhile for them to be unscrupulous.

Huh?

Xiao Ran was taken aback slightly. He had not expected the two Inborn experts to attack suddenly. Therefore, his expression changed slightly as he retreated instantly.

"Kid, die now!"

Blue and red light shot out from the eyes of the two old men respectively. At the same instant, four needle-like hidden weapons shot towards Xiao Ran's forehead and throat.

"This is bad!"

Xiao Ran was taken by surprise. He had not expected the other party to resort to hidden weapons after ambushing him. There's no way he could guard against them.

Dang!

Xiao Ran retreated immediately and rapidly drew out the Ancient Spiritual Sword.

"Icy Flame Devil Needles aren't something your small longsword could stop. No matter how demon-like your talents are, you are still going to die by our hands! Hehe!"

Excitement gleamed in the eyes of the skinny old man.

No matter how talented this kid was and how strong he was, his battling experiences were far lacking.

Pa Pa!

However, the moment Xiao Ran drew the Ancient Spiritual Sword, the face of the skinny old man stiffened instantly. His eyes opened widely as he said, "Inborn Spiritual Weapon! Oh gosh! You... Who is your master? Who could have afforded to give you an Inborn Spiritual Weapon?"

"My master?"

Xiao Ran revealed a chilling and proud smirk, glowered at them and shouted, "Remember this! My master is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown! Now you guys can die!"

"What?"

The fat and skinny old men were completely stunned. Bitterness gleamed in their eyes and they gritted their teeth.

"So what if he is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown? Even without the Xiao Clan, the Liang Family could suppress him!"

Chapter 421: Don't Oppress Me Just Because I'm Young (2)

"Kill!"

The skinny and fat old men exploded with daunting aura when they uttered the word coldly.

Xiao Ran was looking stern as he held his longword, staring at them with vigilance to prevent their sneaky attack again.

However, what amazed Xiao Ran was both skinny and fat old men spun around and fled suddenly.

"Let's go and report to Aunt Mei about this. This brat is a disciple of Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown. On top of that, he possesses the strength of an Inborn Expert!"

Both of the old fellows exchanged gazes and spoke with a heavy look.

That little bastard not only possesses the strength of an Inborn Expert, but his master was also the Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown.

Things got tricky when this little bastard became an Inborn Expert. Now that he has such formidable backing...that will be huge trouble.

In particular, his backing was Miracle Doctor Wang.

According to the review given by the Underworld, Miracle Doctor Wang, and those Inborn Experts he commanded, could go against a quarter of Sacred Sect.

A quarter of Sacred Sect sounded quite scary enough.

Forget about a quarter of Sacred Sect. If Miracle Doctor Wang called upon four to five Inborn Experts, this matter would get even trickier.

Xiao Ran was, after all, part of the lineage of Xiao Clan.

He was assassinated because Aunt Mei had been controlling this using the power of her own family.

Currently, no more than six or seven Inborn Experts from Xiao Clan would totally side with Aunt Mei. The rest of the older generations in the clan would definitely side with Xiao Ran if they knew about him. "

If Miracle Doctor Wang really brought a bunch of experts, sending Xiao Ran back to Sacred Clan as an Inborn Expert, Aunt Mei and Xiao Fan would definitely receive a terrifying blow.

As such, they must deliver the news to her, so that Aunt Mei could prepare herself for it.

"Two scheming old fogeys!"

Wang Xian went expressionless when he saw the two old men launching a sneak attack with secret weapons, now making an escape. With a change of stance, he appeared before them at a crazy speed.

"What's the hurry? Both of you must spar with my disciple!"

Wang Xian sneered as he quirked his lips when he saw the two old men running in his direction.

"What?"

"He's indeed the Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown, living up to his name. What scary speed he has!"

The two old men could not help but narrow their eyes as they braked with an awful look. Then, they stared at Wang Xian with vigilance.

"You can forget about escaping from me. Don't even think about it. You better spar with my disciple!" Wang Xian said plainly to them.

"Well, well, Miracle Doctor Wang. Do you know who you are going up against? Don't assume that you're almighty and that you can do whatever you like. You're not qualified to poke your nose into the Sacred Clan's matters!"

The fat old man stared daggers at Wang Xian and remarked coldly.

"It's my disciple's matter, and so it's mine. Sacred Clan? So what?" Wang Xian scorned.

"Arrogant!"

"Go and die!"

At this time, Xiao Ran raged from behind as he had been tricked by the two old men time and time again.

That embarrassed him in front of his master.

"Do it!"

The two old men exchanged glances. Knowing that they could never escape from Wang Xian's hands, they exploded domineering strength and struck at Xiao Ran.

"Sword of Phantom!"

Xiao Ran gripped his Ancient Spiritual Sword tightly as the faint luster of Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame was exuded from his body. Soon, the sapphire flame enveloped the entire sword.

Sword of Phantom was the swordplay passed down by Sui Huang. It was a compelling swordplay that matched his Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame.

Xiao Ran wielded his sword as though dancing with blue phantoms, which was incredibly spooky.

"Not bad!"

With hands behind his back, Wang Xian smiled as he commented on Xiao Ran's swordplay with a smiley face.

"His strength..."

As soon as the two old men came in contact with Xiao Ran's swordplay, they grimaced.

The formidable Heavenly Flame was annoying enough if it got onto their clothes, because if they were not careful, they would sustain severe injuries from it.

Beside the Heavenly Flame, they also could not handle the sharpness from the mighty Inborn Spiritual Weapon.

Fu*k you!

They did not dare to touch the Heavenly Flame and Inborn Spiritual Weapon. Any person of the same level as Xiao Ran would find difficulty in defending him.

Suppression. It was not the suppression from his cultivation nor his experience, but rather, from his equipment.

Heavenly Flame and Inborn Spiritual Weapon were extremely precious treasures, and yet, he had both of them.

"This freaking Miracle Doctor Wang is too rich to equip this brat with such formidable weapons!"

After exchanging dozens of strokes, two old men had a bad feeling surging from the bottom of their hearts.

If they continued, they would get themselves killed.

If not for the fact that Xiao Ran was lacking experience, they might have already been injured by this brat.

They had to flee. But with a more powerful Miracle Doctor Wang around, they were unable to make their escape.

Despair began to crawl in.

They were here to slaughter the brat. They even thought that, given the strength of Xiao Shisan and the rest, the brat would be a dead body as long as they prevented him from escaping.

Yet, the situation had been overturned utterly.

The master of this brat was preventing them from escaping while that brat was trying to kill them with his own hands.

In the face of the spooky swordplay, razor-sharp Inborn Spiritual Weapon, and the daunting Heavenly Flame, they could only dodge with trepidation.

Argh!

The longer Xiao Ran fought, the more courageous he became. With the Ancient Spiritual Sword in his hand, he slashed the chest of the fat old man who was unable to dodge in time.

Daunting Heavenly Flame and razor-sharp Inborn Spiritual Weapon cut his abdomen straightaway.

Blood did not gush out as the body of fat old man stiffened up.

Xiao Ran swung his arm and enveloped him in a sapphire flame.

Argh!

A hopeless and fearful scream came from the fat old man.

The skinny old man trembled with fear as desperation filled his round, bulging eyes.

"Go to hell!"

Xiao Ran gritted his teeth as his eyes gleamed with hatred. With a twist, he pointed his longsword at the skinny old man and lowered it down.

"Oh no!"

The skinny old man was appalled as he quickly dodged.

Argh!

Another shriek was heard as the skinny old man looked at the long wound on his arm with a sapphire flame burning at a rapid speed.

Argh!

The skinny old man bit his teeth and pulled the dagger in his hand, severing his own left arm.

"I'll kill everyone who chased after us personally to avenge my mother!"

The longsword in Xiao Ran's hand was still gleaming with a daunting devilish-like sapphire flame as he pierced the skinny old man's chest.

"Run!"

This time, the skinny old man did not care if Wang Xian was guarding at the side. To survive, he had to escape with a yell.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, if you dare to stop me, our clan will not let you off. We'll kill all your family members. I advise you not to intervene in the matters of Sacred Clan. Otherwise, the Sacred Clan will be the place to bury you!"

While he desperately fled, he even let out a shrill threat.

Bam!

At this time, the skinny old man felt immense energy at his chest. His eyes seemed to be clouded by astonishment as he looked at the young man before him with disbelief.

"I won't kill you. Go back and inform that mastermind in the Xiao Clan that I'll take Xiao Ran back tonight!"

"Don't you bully my disciple because he's young!"

Chapter 422: Don't Oppress Me Just Because I'm Young (3)

"YOU... You have crippled me!"

Feeling his Elixir Field being completely shattered, the skinny old man widened his eyes and glowered at Wang Xian. His round eyes were bloodshot and filled with hatred and anger.

Wang Xian looked mockingly at him with strong contempt as he remarked, "So what if I did? I'm leaving you alive for now. Go back and inform them we will be coming for them!"

Bam!

As Wang Xian completed his words, he pushed the skinny old man lightly. The skinny old man staggered and fell to the ground, his eyes still fixed on Wang Xian.

Not only had he lost an arm, but he was also crippled. For him, this was worse than death.

"Cough, cough! Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, as long as you dare to step into Shang Jing, I'll let you experience what is worse than death. I'll make you beg me to grant you a quick death!"

The skinny old man was like a devil that wasn't fearful of death as he glowered at Wang Xian and roared.

"Haha, just go! I would like to see how you are going to make me experience something worse than death! Go! Get lost! Tell your family and the one behind it that I'll be coming for them with my disciple!" Wang Xian laughed loudly and walked towards the private-hire car nonchalantly.

"Master, aren't we going to... Kill him? If we let him go, he will alarm the rest..." Xiao Ran walked over, gritted his teeth and spoke as he stared at the skinny old man on the floor with deep hatred.

"It will be fine. Just let him go back and inform the rest!"

Wang Xian's eyes turned chilling. How dare they threaten him! He had initially prepared to bring Xiao Ran directly into the Xiao Clan to question them and demand an explanation.

However, he was not going to wait for them to give him an explanation anymore. He was going to get one out of them himself.

He took out his phone and smirked. The dragonians had now reached the Inborn Realm. Moreover, he was also preparing to establish the Dragon Sect as a Sacred Sect.

In that case, he would allow the dragonians to show themselves before the public eyes.

The first stop would be to face the Sacred Clan, Xiao Clan directly!

Strong desires to fight emanated from Wang Xian. He dialed Mo Qinglong's number on his mobile phone.

"Young master!"

"Gather everyone in the Dragon Sect and come to the airport immediately. We will be going to Shang Jing!" said Wang Xian plainly.

"Yes, young master!" Mo Qinglong paused for a moment before nodding his head solemnly.

"Master, I'm sorry to have disappointed you just now!"

At this moment, Xiao Ran lowered his head and spoke apologetically.

"Your performance was still acceptable. Get yourself ready mentally!"

Wang Xian patted him on his shoulders and got into the rented car.

Sun Lingxiu and Liu Mengxin followed him and boarded the car.

"Brother, you are so incredible!" Liu Mengxin looked at Xiao Ran and complimented him with a blushing face.

"Master will be bringing us to take revenge today!"

Xiao Ran held onto his sister's hand. His heart was filled with agitation and anticipation currently.

"Driver, please continue!"

Wang Xian patted the body of the driver, injected a stream of Azure Dragon energy and woke him up.

"Huh? What happened to me?"

The driver lifted his head, still feeling a little confused as he stared at Wang Xian.

"I don't know. You lost consciousness suddenly and I have been trying to wake you up for a long time. Are you alright?" Wang Xian asked heartily.

"Hmm! What's happening?"

The driver patted his head and felt that his body was in better condition than before. He shook his head and said, "I'm fine and feeling pretty good. Let me send you guys to the airport now!"

The driver smiled and turned towards the large car parked horizontally before him. He continued his complaints. "Damn it! The driver is really inconsiderate to leave the car behind. Eh? There's a guy lying there? Is there an accident?"

"It's fine. That's just a beggar. We went down to take a look previously," Wang Xian smiled and answered plainly.

The group of people who had fought with Xiao Ran had been reduced to dust.

There weren't any trails left behind.

Therefore, the driver didn't suspect anything as he continued driving his car towards the airport.

"Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown! I'll definitely let you have an experience worse than death. Just you wait!"

Behind the car, the skinny old man who was on the floor grumbled as he struggled to get up.

His eyes were bloodshot and looked wretched like a man-eating devil.

The only thing that was supporting his will to live was to kill Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown and stabbing him with a thousand knives.

"Young master, everyone in the Dragon Sect is here!"

When Wang Xian arrived at the airport thirty minutes later, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan walked up to him. Behind them, forty-eight dragonians wore identical black attire with an image of a devil dragon. This attracted curious eyes from the surrounding crowd at the airport.

"Hmm! Go and get the tickets!"

Wang Xian looked across the crowd of dragonians and revealed a satisfied expression.

"Yes, young master!"

Soon, the plane took off for Shang Jing.

At the same time, a private helicopter was moving towards Shang Jing.

On the helicopter, a wretched-looking old man lay. He had closed his bloodshot eyes and was contacting Aunt Mei and the decision-makers of the Liang Family, telling them to wait for him at Shang Jing.

He didn't tell them the details yet.

The plane flew expeditiously towards Shang Jing and so did the helicopter.

As the helicopter had taken off first, it landed on a private airport while the plane was just halfway through the journey.

This was an exceptionally huge manor. The manor was beside a lake and was incomparably beautiful.

At this moment, a wealthy lady and an old man stood up immediately upon seeing the helicopter land.

To their astonishment, they saw the skinny old man staggering out of it with a missing arm. They immediately went forward to help him.

"Uncle Gu!"

"Old Gu, what happened to you?"

The wealthy woman and old man hurried over and were shocked to see the state of the skinny old man.

"I got crippled! Completely crippled! The fat old man was killed!"

The skinny old man was hideous. He looked at the wealthy woman and old man as he said, "We encountered some troubles. That little brat has reached the Inborn Realm. Moreover, his master is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. I was crippled by Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. They are now on their way here to Shang Jing and will be heading to Xiao Clan!"

"What? What did you say?"

Just as the skinny old man completed his sentence, the wealthy woman's eyes popped wide open as she stared in disbelief at the skinny old man.

The old man beside her was also shocked. His body was shivering as he attempted to verify, "Old Gu, are you sure about this?"

"How can this be fake? Otherwise, I wouldn't have been crippled!" The skinny old man grimaced and continued, "It's Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown! It's all because of him that the little brat has grown to become so powerful. We definitely have to stab a thousand knives into him before killing him!"

"Uncle Gu! You are saying that little mutt has reached the Inborn Realm? How can this be possible? It can't be!"

The wealthy lady shook her head in disbelief. It was clear that she was flustered.

Inborn Realm! That little mutt had reached the Inborn Realm and was even stronger than her son!

She couldn't believe it. That little mutt was just fifteen years old!

Chapter 423: Arrival Of the Dragon

(1)

She knew exactly what it meant to advance to Inborn Realm at the age of fifteen.

All the more, she knew what would happen to this fifteen-year-old Inborn Expert if he was in Xiao Clan.

At present, her son was a Half-step to Inborn Expert at age eighteen, and he was already receiving the attention of the entire clan. He was almost selected to be the next Clan Leader of Xiao Clan.

He was receiving personal attention and guidance from Laozu.

The entire Sacred Clan was respectful to a woman like her while her son also received firm support from many elders.

Her son's talent had already received so much attention...what would happen if it was a fifteen-year-old Inborn Expert?

She was almost certain that the entire Xiao Clan would be shaken, and most probably, Xiao Ran would be tagging behind Laozu in the future.

All of these were valid possibilities.

As an Inborn Expert at the age of fifteen, it was too frightening. Not only would it shake the entire Underworld, but the whole world would also be shocked.

His potential was unlimited as he almost had an 80 percent chance to advance to Laozu realm.

The fact was simply too scary.

Besides, when that mull returned to Xiao Clan, he would definitely expose the truth that she had ordered the assassination to kill the three of them, including his mother.

By then, the choice between an Inborn Expert or Half-step to Inborn was clear to Xiao Clan.

After all, she would receive a sanction from the clan, and her son would also be implicated.

That struck terror into her.

"They'll be reaching Xiao Clan tonight. We must not let them through."

The malevolent expression slowly disappeared from that skinny old man's face. "Now, we need to exterminate Miracle Doctor Wang and that mull. Otherwise, the consequences..."

"They must be killed!"

An old man darkened his expression as he bellowed in a low voice with a twisted expression.

"Yes, we must kill them. Kill them all!"

The wealthy-looking lady panicked as she said, "If they entered Xiao Clan, Fan'er would be finished. So would I."

"Calm down. Now we need to think of ways to kill both of them!"

The old man screamed at the wealthy-looking lady with a sullen look.

"Dad, we can just kill them on their way. Just do it on their way and stop them from entering Xiao Clan!"

The wealthy-looking lady nodded and suggested this to her father.

"Intercept and kill them!"

Radiance flashed in the old man's eyes as he squinted slightly. "Call upon all the Inborn Experts from the family here and intercept Miracle Doctor Wang and that mull. Kill them off before they reach their destination!"

"Family Head, I'm afraid Liang Family's strength is not enough to kill that lad," the skinny old man remarked slowly with icy cold gazes.

"Hur?" The old man stared hard at the skinny old man. "We have six Inborns in Shang Jing. Can't we even kill two people?"

"Family Head, that Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown is really domineering. I guess he has already advanced to Half-Step to Dan Realm. That mull possesses Heavenly Flame and an Inborn Spiritual Weapon. Six Inborns are definitely not enough. Not even with another two additions!"

Sss...

The old man drew cold breath as soon as he heard the skinny old man. The wealthy-looking lady was stunned for a moment as panic flashed in her eyes, "Then...then what should we do?"

"Think of a way. A fool-proof plan!"

The skinny old man bit his teeth with traces of blood were seen on his gums. That made him look like a devil!

The wealthy-looking lady had a mixed expression. Her fair complexion and beauty seemed ferocious when her eyes were gleaming.

"I have an idea!"

She bit her teeth as though she had made a grave decision.

"What is it?"

That old man quickly turned to his daughter and asked in a deep voice.

"Today's Fan'er's 18th birthday. We're having a huge celebration in Xiao Clan. If they dare to turn up later on, I'll get an elder from Xiao Clan who is on good terms with us to stop them. Once conflict arises, we'll strike without giving them the chance to speak!" said the wealthy-looking lady with malevolence.

"This is a little risky, but..."

His eyes glittered as the old man nodded his head slowly. "At that time, I'll get all the experts from Liang Family. Once they enter, we'll just attack them, so they have no chance to speak! By then, the experts from Xiao Clan will strike too!"

When Xiao Clan struck, it would be an easy job to exterminate Miracle Doctor Wang. Even though both of them were imba, they would be suppressed.

"Xiao Mei, I'll leave this to you. You must make it work. Otherwise, you'll implicate the entire Liang Family!" the old man continued with consternation.

"Don't worry, Dad. I'll take care of this!"

The wealthy-looking lady squinted her eyes and revealed a faint smile like any vicious person.

"Xiao Clan is located in Xiao Mountain, one of the three Sacred Mountains in Shang Jing!"

When the plane landed in Shang Jing, Wang Xian brought Xiao Ran and the rest out of the airport. They looked in the direction of Xiao Clan, with Mo Qinglong and the remaining Dragonians behind them.

"It's five now. Let's have our dinner and go over there at night. Darkness marks the best time for revenge!" said Wang Xian to Xiao Ran with a beaming face.

"Anything you say, Master!"

Xiao Ran nodded with anxiety at this moment.

They had not stepped into this city for more than a year, which also meant they had been on the run for the same amount of time.

He did not feel the slightest warmth in this place, only coldness!

They found a place and had dinner. Subsequently, they headed for the Sacred Mountain, where Xiao Clan was located.

Xiao Clan was one of the three Sacred Clans, including Sui Clan in Shang Jing. Hence, the territory they occupied was on par with Sui Clan.

Unlike the Siheyuan at the 2nd Ring Road, Xiao Clan was located on the 4th Ring Road.

Xiao Clan's residence was a huge mansion that used to be a royal residence in ancient times. The entire mansion was huge, with hundreds of rooms.

Behind the mansion sat a mountain--the Sacred Mountain of Xiao Clan.

The sun set relatively early during winter. It was about six, and the sky was in total darkness.

However, it was lively in the Welcome Banquet Block of Xiao's Mansion.

Lanterns were hung around the vintage buildings. As they lit up the entire Xiao Clan, it was as though it was a time travel back to ancient times.

"Happy Birthday, Xiao Fan!"

"Happy Birthday, Xiao Fan. You're finally an adult today!"

"Haha, here. Our genius in Xiao Clan. Take a look at the present that I brought you!"

More than three hundred guests were gathered in the Welcome Banquet Block at this moment. All of them were the core disciples of Xiao Clan and Liang Family.

A juvenile in blue-colored Xiao's uniform was standing in Welcome Banquet Block with a proud-looking face as he accepted the presents from his elders.

Six Inborn Experts from Xiao Clan and six Inborn Experts from Liang Family were all celebrating a birthday for him.

Who else could achieve such an honor?

Immense confidence surged within Xiao Fan!

"Xiao's Mansion. We're here!"

At this time, four figures showed up at the entrance.

But more figures were hiding in the dark, waiting for their commands!

Chapter 424: Arrival Of The Dragon

(2)

"What a majestic-looking Sacred Clan. Sui Huang lives in a huge Siheyuan while this is an ancient-looking mansion for the nobles!" exclaimed Wang Xian as his eyes were fixed on the exceptionally huge mansion before him.

There were over ten entrances to the mansion and they were standing before the main Eastern Gate.

Two young men stood on the sides of the gate while observing the surroundings attentively. When they saw Wang Xian and Xiao Ran, they exchanged glances.

"Who are you guys?" One of the young men squinted his eyes and shouted at Wang Xian.

"Seventh generation of Xiao Clan, Xiao Ran! I have not returned since a year ago. Today, I'm back!"

Xiao Ran stepped forward and looked at the incomparably huge mansion before him with complicated feelings.

Once, this was a place where his mother, sister and he had always looked forward to living. However, it was hell for them after they got in.

Not that he was finally back, he was coming for revenge and to announce to the entire Xiao Clan that he, Xiao Ran, was back!

He was still a teenager but was no longer the weak teenager who anyone could bully.

He looked respectfully towards his master before turning to the two young men.

"Oh? Xiao Ran? I have some impression of you. What are you here for?"

The eyes of one of the young men lit up as he asked with a faint smile.

"I'm here to seek grievances for myself. Please bring us to where the Elders of the clan are!" Xiao Ran said solemnly to the two young men.

"Looking for the Elders? Today's the eighteenth birthday of Young Master Xiao Fan and most of the Elders are there currently. Let us bring you over!" The two young men smiled and answered Xiao Ran.

"Alright!"

Xiao Ran nodded his head emotionlessly and looked towards Wang Xian.

Wang Xian smiled in response and nodded his head before following the two young men in.

"Master, something isn't right!" Xiao Ran leaned towards Wang Xian and commented solemnly.

"We will deal with it when the time comes. Let's see what tricks they are up to!" replied Wang Xian plainly.

He had let the skinny old man off to tip off the clan. As such, this matter wouldn't be as simple as it might seem.

Moreover, the two young men that led them in were too casual. Everything was so smooth that it felt a little strange.

Even the young Xiao Ran found it to be weird.

However, Wang Xian wasn't too concerned. In the face of absolute strength, so what if they were a Sacred Clan?

The mansion of the Xiao Clan was huge. After bypassing a pavilion and crossing a river, they arrived at a place with raucous noises.

A vintage-looking building appeared before them and peals of joyous laughter reverberated constantly from the building.

"They are right inside!"

The two young men turned around, faced Wang Xian's and his group and revealed eerie smiles.

Hmm!

Wang Xian nodded his head calmly.

Hehe!

Just as they were about to approach the Welcome Banquet Block, the two young men laughed out creepily.

"Don't kill us! Don't kill us! Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, please don't kill us!"

"What? Our Xiao Clan has offended you and you are here to annihilate the clan? You... You... How arrogant! You must be courting death to be thinking of annihilating our Xiao Clan!"

"How dare you kill the disciples of the Xiao Clan? Our Xiao Clan will never let you off! The Elders in our clan will slay you. Don't assume you are the strongest in the world just because you topped the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!"

"Help!"

Suddenly, the two young men turned their bodies around, staring at Wang Xian and the group while smiling sheepishly at them. At the same time, they were screaming for help in a horrified tone.

The voices of the two men were exceptionally loud and soon reverberated across the radius of a thousand meters.

Their voices even overwhelmed the laughter of the crowd in the Welcome Banquet Block.

Voices in the Welcome Banquet Block died down after the screams of the two young men erupted. Soon after, several figures emerged from the building rapidly.

"Who dares to barge into our Xiao Clan?"

"Who! Who's the one interrupting my son's birthday celebration?"

"You must be too eager to die! Who's Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown? He dares to kill the people of our Xiao Clan?"

Angry roars erupted from several places. The first few to arrive at the scene were the experts from the Liang Family. At the front of the pack, there was a wealthy-looking woman, an old man and the skinny old man who had his arm severed and cultivation crippled.

At this juncture, the three of them were glowering at Wang Xian while wearing cunning smiles.

Argh!

At this moment, it was as if the two young men were possessed by the greatest actors on earth. They turned around and ran towards the experts from the Liang Family while pretending to be horrified.

"They barged into our Xiao Clan and even declared that he will be annihilating us!"

"Haha, this is interesting!"

Wang Xian looked at the two pretentious young men with deep contempt.

He finally realized the plot of the other party. They were trying to label Wang Xian's group with crimes they didn't commit so they could kill them with reasons!

"Both of you really deserve death!"

Wang Xian stared harshly at the two young men trying to escape. As he waved his hand, two sharp spikes made of metal dragon energy shot towards the two young men.

Huh?

The wealthy-looking lady, old man, and the skinny old man were shocked to see Wang Xian attacking. Their smiles deepened and they were even more excited to see what Wang Xian had done.

They didn't attempt to intercept Wang Xian's attacks at all.

Argh!

Two pitiful cries reverberated across the hall. The two young men, who were acting, instantly felt the immense pain cruising through them from their backs. Their faces had turned as white as chalk.

When they turned their heads around, they saw Wang Xian looking at them with ridicule.

The two young men held onto their chests that were pierced through as they looked in the direction of the wealthy-looking lady. They were confused and desperately hoped she would extend aid to them.

However, the wealthy-looking woman simply grinned wickedly while staring at them.

Their eyes widened and were soon overwhelmed with desperation. Soon, they fell to the ground with remorse, confusion, and helplessness!

"Hehe! Great, great! He's indeed Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. How brazen of him to kill the people of the Sacred Clan on their home ground!"

The old man was ecstatic. This had just been a plot initially. However, it had now become the reality and things would get much easier from here onwards.

After killing the people from the Sacred Clan, the feud could no longer be resolved!

"Han Qing! Han Gu!"

At this moment, the Elders of the Xiao Clan had arrived and happened to witness Wang Xian striking and killing the two disciples of the Xiao Clan. One of the Elders growled furiously.

"How dare you kill the disciples of our Xiao Clan! You deserve death for barging into our Xiao Clan!"

The Elder glowered at Wang Xian and the group with strong killing intent.

"Should we strike?"

When the wealthy-looking lady witnessed the developments, she asked her father who was standing beside her.

"Wait a minute. This Miracle Doctor Wang is really arrogant. Let's take a step back and see how things develop. This matter isn't as complicated as we thought. Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is just a man with brawn and no brain!"

The old man squinted his eyes and replied with a faint smile.

The matter had turned out completely different from their expectations. They had concluded that Wang Xian would be looking for the Elders of the Xiao Clan directly, showing them Xiao Ran's talents and demanding a fair explanation from them.

It would now seem like the arrogant Miracle Doctor Wang wasn't prepared to do those things. Instead, he adopted a brazen attitude towards the Xiao Clan and even killed the disciples from the Xiao Clan.

As such, they wouldn't have to rush into taking actions against a guy who didn't know what was best for him.

"Deserves death? Some people in the Xiao Clan are indeed deserving of death! Today, I have brought my disciple here to seek revenge!" Wang Xian responded calmly.

They would have never understood that the actions of the strong weren't something they could predict with certainty!

Chapter 425: Suppression (1)

"Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown, you're too arrogant. How dare you kill the disciples of Xiao Clan. You might be a supreme talent or number one on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart, but you won't leave the Xiao Clan today!"

An elder of the Xiao Clan took two steps forward as he stared at the two disciples who were lying dead on the floor. Murderous intent filled his eyes.

"What a brazen fellow. How dare you barge in and take down our people. Miracle Doctor Wang, are you sick of living after remaining alive, even after killing an elder of Sacred Followers Guild?"

Another elder stalked to one side.

On the other hand, several elders of the Xiao Clan glowered at Wang Xian as they spread themselves around, forming a semi-circle to lock them down with an imposing aura.

"Do you think four of you can just barge into a Sacred Clan as you like? Today, I'll make you pay for killing two of our disciples!"

"Those who barge into Sacred Clan shall die!"

The elder from Liang Family and the remaining five Inborn Experts stood beside those elders of Xiao Clan. All of them sneered as they stared daggers at the quartet.

"Haha, Sacred Clan Xiao Clan? We're here for revenge. Do you think you guys can stop us?"

Wang Xian threw them a taunting look as he swept his gaze across everyone. Eventually, he stopped at the wealthy-looking lady and the people from Liang Family.

With a grin, he said, "By getting us to provoke Xiao Clan, do you think they can kill us all?"

"Today, I'll return justice to my disciple with blood. Everyone, including the Xiao Clan and you people, is bound to die. No one shall live!" Wang Xian bellowed as he placed his hand on Xiao Ran's shoulder. "Your enemies... You must kill them one by one personally!"

"Yes, Master!"

"Haha, fine. What an insolent lad to massacre the Xiao Clan. We, the Xiao Clan, do not share any grudge against you. Even if there is, so what?"

Just then, elders flitted out from the Xiao's Mansion. Their movements seemed like an invincible expert in the movies, drawing afterimages under the moonlight.

Five elders were led by an old lady who had a staff in her hand.

"Yu Niang!"

"Yu Niang!"

One by one, the elders from Xiao Clan greeted the old lady respectfully.

"Great-grandmother!"

Xiao Fan, who was beside the wealthy-looking lady, greeted the old lady happily.

"Hehe, today's Xiao Fan's birthday. Without knowing, you're already 18. Well, well!"

The old lady beamed at Xiao Fan with kindness in her eyes. Subsequently, she spun around. "Today's the birthday of my great-grandson. How dare you barge into Xiao Clan, going around killing people, and even threatening to take revenge on us. If so, I'll use your blood to cleanse all the bad luck!"

As the old lady spoke, the warm smile on her face was filled with coldness when she stared at the quartet.

Xiao Ran clenched his fist tightly as he gazed at that old lady.

She was the great-grandmother of Xiao Fan. That would mean the same to him. He shared the same blood, but the treatments were completely different.

Even his great-grandmother could not recognize him. How depressing this was.

He did not feel the slightest affection for Xiao Clan.

"What a way to put it. Even if there is, so what?" Wang Xian glowered at the old lady. "You'll find out what it would be soon."

With a cold expression, Wang Xian looked across all the Inborn Experts and said with a mean look, "Are these all the Inborn Experts you have? If there are more, bring them over!"

"Haha, you arrogant brat. Do you think that if you're the number one on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart, you can be invincible? We have sixteen Inborn Experts here who can slaughter you like livestock!"

The old man from Liang Family broke out laughing when he saw what Wang Xian was doing. Idiot. A completely idiotic fellow.

The skinny old man whose arm was missing threw Wang Xian a death stare as he revealed a hideous smile. He wanted to witness this fellow getting killed!

"I'll play with you and teach you how it feels to be in despair!"

Wang Xian looked at them as they were pressuring them with numbers. If that is the case, he would do the same thing!

Whoosh!

As his words trailed off, the Dragonians who were in black Devil Dragon attire suddenly emerged on the roofs not far away.

With a swift movement, they flitted in their direction at an amazing speed.

Twenty-five Dragonians. Wang Xian did not call for all the Dragonians, but he would still want to see how Xiao Clan landed into desperation.

Twenty-five Dragonians kept their silence, exhibiting an imposing stance around them.

Ka Ka Ka!

Cracks were formed on the ground when they landed on it.

The Dragonians behind Wang Xian were glaring at all the people from Xiao Clan with murderous eyes.

"Sixteen Inborn Experts? I think it's insufficient!" Wang Xian grinned at the old man of Liang Family and spoke indifferently.

Sss...

The old man, wealthy-looking lady, and the skinny old man were stunned.

It had only taken a second for those Dragonians to make their appearance.

When they saw the twenty-five Inborn Experts in Devil Dragon attire, a shocking look crept onto their faces.

Even the people from Xiao Clan could not help but narrow their eyes when they saw the sudden appearance of Dragonians. Their hearts sank with horror in their eyes.

"Twenty-five Inborn Experts? You actually have twenty-five Inborn Experts? Looks like you guys are prepared!"

The old lady held the staff tightly in her hands as she glared at the Dragonians behind Wang Xian.

"Twenty-five Inborn Experts. Which force are you guys from?" asked an elder from Xiao Clan, who was appalled to see the Dragonians behind Wang Xian.

"Twenty-five Inborn Experts. They are really strong!"

"What's going on? How did Miracle Doctor Wang manage to call upon so many experts?"

The surrounding disciples of Xiao Clan were aghast when they saw the domineering experts. Initially, they'd come here to watch a show.

"Go and kill all your enemies with your own hands!" said Wang Xian to Xiao Ran, ignoring all the shocking experts from Xiao Clan and Liang Family.

"Yes, Master!"

Xiao Ran grabbed the longsword in his hand and stalked forward.

"Whoever dares to make a move will be killed on the spot!"

Wang Xian stared at everyone from Xiao Clan and warned them with an icy face.

"How did this...Why are there so many experts? Why?"

The wealthy-looking lady was in disbelief as Xiao Ran strode forward, staring at her with murderous intent in his eyes.

A film of cold sweat covered the forehead of the old man beside her. He had never expected them to have such a terrifying force.

"The first one that I'm going to kill is Aunt Mei. Come here!"

Xiao Ran lifted his chin with eyes that were filled with killing intent. He stared at her. "You killed my mum and chased us for more than a year just to kill us. If it were not for my master, we would be dead. Today, I'll avenge my mum!"

"Asshole, you want to kill my mum? You're just seeking your own doom!"

Xiao Fan was looking ruthless when he saw Xiao Ran trying to kill his mother. He snatched a sword from one of the disciples beside him and pointed it at Xiao Ran.

Chapter 426: Suppression (2)

Xiao Fan held a longsword in his hand while staring harshly at Xiao Ran.

"Son, don't!"

The wealthy-looking lady tried to stop her son immediately. She was truly worried.

She knew about the strength of Xiao Ran and that her son was a far cry from him. If she allowed her son to fight and the situation to play out, her son would be killed!

"Mom, don't worry. He's just a useless brat. I can kill him with a single strike!"

Xiao Fan looked at his mother before lifting his head proudly, staring at Xiao Fan and walking calmly towards Xiao Ran.

"Son, stop there!"

The wealthy-looking lady hurried over and pulled Xiao Fan back. She shook her head at him and gritted her teeth tightly!

"What's the matter, mom? He is so arrogant! He even declared that he's going to kill you. Let me slaughter him!"

Xiao Fan looked at his mother before turning his head over and glowering at Xiao Ran.

Tsk!

Just as Xiao Fan completed his words, the old lady snorted. She looked across at Xiao Ran and her gaze finally stopped on Wang Xian as she remarked coldly, "Do you think you could suppress our Xiao Clan with just twenty-five Inborn experts?"

Wang Xian looked at the old lady and chuckled. "In that case, summon all the experts in your Xiao Clan over!"

Weng!

The old lady smashed her truncheon on the ground and tremors were sent reverberating through a radius of five to six kilometers. Her eyes were fixed on Wang Xian and she was clearly discontented. "With just twenty-odd Inborn experts, I wonder who gives you the guts to barge into our Xiao Clan and kick up a ruckus?"

Huh?

"What's happening?"

"Strong enemies have infiltrated our Xiao Clan?"

"Let's go take a look at the one who is eager to die!"

"Who? Haha, it's been a long time since I have killed someone!"

A confused voice reverberated from the location of the Sacred Mountain of the Xiao Clan. Soon after, a group of old men moved rapidly over.

One after another, black figures flew towards Wang Xian. Every single one of them released their aura and shrouded the sky over the entire Xiao Clan.

At the same time, the commotion had also alerted the entire Xiao Clan. All the lights were lit and the disciples were all rushing over.

In an instant, twenty Inborn experts arrived and were hovering in a row above the ground while staring coldly at Wang Xian and his group.

"Xiao Yu, these are people causing troubles in our Xiao Clan?"

At the middle of the row, an old man looked down plainly and asked the old lady.

"Uncle, they claim to be here for revenge and have even killed our disciples!" the old lady lifted her head and answered the old man in the middle of the row.

"Oh? They are pretty strong. Twenty-five Inborn experts?"

"Which force do you guys belong to and give me a reason. Otherwise, all twenty-five of you shall remain here forever!"

The row of old men stared down at Wang Xian's group as they demanded coldly.

When the wealthy-looking lady saw the older generation experts from Xiao Clan arriving, she finally heaved a sigh of relief while staring harshly at Xiao Ran and Wang Xian.

"It's true that people act tougher when they get older."

Wang Xian looked at the twenty Inborn experts in the sky and revealed a mocking smile. He turned to the old lady and asked, "Are there any more experts from Xiao Clan?"

The moment he completed his sentence, another twenty-five dragonians that had been hiding themselves jumped into the air under the leadership of Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan.

Splash!

As Mo Qinglong and the dragonians wiggled their backs, pairs of black wings appeared behind them.

The additional twenty-five dragonians released their exceptionally terrifying aura and shrouded their aura towards the twenty Inborn experts from the Xiao Clan.

They hovered in the air just like the experts from the Xiao Clan. The dragonians could do the same as the experts from the Xiao Clan.

"What!"

"How can this be possible?"

"How can there be another twenty-five Inborn experts?"

When Mo Qinglong and the dragonians appeared in the sky, everyone in the Xiao Clan was dumbfounded and horrified.

The group of experts acting tough in the sky shivered after feeling the horrifying aura that was charging towards them. Their expressions instantly turned solemn.

"Fifty Inborn experts! Oh gosh! They have fifty Inborn experts!"

This time, it was the old lady who was completely shocked. She was no longer as cold and composed as before. As she looked across, her face turned gloomier.

"Impossible. This is impossible! How can this kid be...? How can he be...!"

The wealthy-looking lady and the old man from the Liang Family were completely flustered.

The entirety of the Xiao Clan's strength was here with the exception of those not in Shang Jing.

Xiao Clan had thirty Inborn experts. This was definitely a shocking number. However, the other party had fifty Inborn experts.

Fifty! What kind of horrifying force would have fifty Inborn experts?

"Everyone... How did our Xiao Clan offend you that requires you guys to come to Xiao Clan with such a huge line-up?"

In the air, the old man in the middle of the row was exceptionally bitter. Now that his father wasn't in the clan, the strength of the other party could completely crush them.

"Whoever dares to make a move will be killed on the spot!" Wang Xian didn't pay attention to the old man as he repeated himself.

"Aunt Mei, get here!"

Xiao Ran drew his Ancient Spiritual Sword, pointed at the wealthy-looking lady and shouted once again.

The wealthy-looking lady shivered in fear and her face had turned as white as chalk.

She would have never expected such a development.

Initially, she thought they could roll over them by relying on the strength of the Xiao Clan.

However, she was soon filled with desperation as she saw the fifty Inborn experts and the group of experts from the Xiao Clan not daring to make a single move.

Things had deviated completely from her expectation.

It's no surprise... It's no surprise that he dares to kill the disciple of the Xiao Clan. It's no surprise that he didn't approach the Elders for an explanation. So... So he was apathetic... He couldn't care about those things!

In one corner, the old man from Liang Family clenched his fist tightly. His back was drenched in perspiration as he looked fearfully at the fifty Inborn experts in the sky.

"I don't know which force you guys are from. However, if you dare to kill a person from our Xiao Clan, the experts from the Xiao Clan will hunt all of you down!"

Seeing how things had developed, the old lady clenched her fist tightly as she made her threat.

"Shut up! Even if Xiao Quanshan is here, he would have to stand aside and simply watch!" Wang Xian chided coldly.

"YOU..."

The old lady and the surrounding experts from the Xiao Family were dumbfounded. How dare he call our Laozu by his name...

At the same time, they were shocked. Considering he knew about their Laozu, Xiao Quanshan, he must be a maniac or someone with the strength to support his declaration.

Clearly, the surrounding fifty Inborn experts was a glimpse of the strength he possessed.

"Die! Go and repent when you reach where my mother was!"

Seeing the wealthy-looking lady standing there and not moving an inch, Xiao Ran could no longer hold back. He charged towards her with his Ancient Spiritual Sword pointing at her.

"You can't... You can't do this!"

When the old man from the Liang Family saw Xiao Ran attacking, his eyes gleamed with struggles and ruthlessness.

He held the longsword in his hand tightly.

"Die!"

Xiao Ran's eyes were filled with killing intent and he had shrouded a layer of Tranquil Blue Heavenly flame over his Ancient Spiritual Sword.

Capture him! That's the only way out!

The old man from the Liang Family struck and waved his longsword towards Xiao Ran the moment he approached.

Tsk!

Xiao Ran felt the attack coming from his blind spot. Having been on the receiving end previously, he was on alert. He emitted blue flames from his body and the flames on his Ancient Spiritual Sword raged even more violently.

"Liang Family! My grandfather was from a small family and his entire family was annihilated overnight. This matter definitely had something to do with you guys!"

"All of you are my enemies!"

Xiao Ran was brimming with anger as he released his Inborn aura explosively!

Chapter 427: Watching Them Getting Killed One After Another

"Inborn Expert, that juvenile is an Inborn Expert!"

All the surrounding people noticed the spooky sapphire flame exploding out from Xiao Ran's body, and they were startled when the imposing aura spread across the entire area.

That juvenile who looked so young was actually an Inborn Expert.

How old could he be judging from his appearance? Fifteen or sixteen? Everyone was quite certain that this juvenile was not even eighteen!

"How is there such a young Inborn Expert? He's even younger and a level higher than Xiao Fan! An Inborn!"

"Unbelievable. Totally unbelievable. How could there be such a young Inborn Expert in this world?"

All the surrounding Xiao Clan's disciples and Inborn Experts were appalled as they watched Xiao Ran, who exploded all his strength.

"What? Such powerful strength, but how can this be?"

Piak Piak!

The old man from the Liang Family who sneaked an attack was aghast by the aura exploded out by Xiao Ran all of a sudden.

The sword was blocked by that juvenile. But to his horror, his sword was broken in half without his knowing. Only when the broken sword fell to the ground was a shrill sound heard.

"Inborn Spiritual Weapons, spooky Heavenly Flame!"

The old man from Liang Family recalled what the skinny old man had said and turned gloomy immediately.

"Oh no!"

When the skinny old man saw the Clan Leader making a sudden strike, his expression was totally different as great despair surged in his heart.

He told the Clan Leader about the Inborn Spiritual Weapons and the Heavenly Flame. Still, he had not mentioned that they were no match for that juvenile even when he and the fat old man joined hands.

"Clan Leader could have the wrong impression that I was crippled by Miracle Doctor Wang, but he didn't know that I barely escaped from that brat!"

Even though the Clan Leader was stronger than any one of them, the skinny old man and the fat old man were stronger when they joined hands.

"Gone, the Liang Family is completely finished!"

The skinny old man revealed a miserable and desperate expression on his face as he looked at Wang Xian and the surrounding fifty Inborn Experts. He knew that he would never avenge himself.

With trembling hands, he pulled out a dagger from his arms.

This dagger was prepared to slaughter Miracle Doctor Wang.

"I don't want to witness the downfall of Liang Family."

The skinny old man gazed at the dagger in his hands with malevolence.

Poof!

He stabbed the dagger right into his heart.

Bam!

His body fell straight to the ground.

"Old Gu!" exclaimed the horrified experts from Liang Family when they saw Old Gu commit suicide.

Boom boom!

At this time, the entire region was sealed off by an imposing aura.

Everyone spun around. To their horror, they realized the entire region was blockaded by the fifty Inborn Experts who exploded their Inborn aura.

To the air and to the ground!

Every expert in Xiao Clan was petrified by this.

"Stay and witness this. Those who deserve to be killed will die! We'll not strike at unrelated people." Wang Xian plainly warned everyone on the spot.

People from Xiao Clan grimaced. Since when did the almighty Sacred Clan, Xiao Clan, have to be forced to stay put and watch their people being killed?

Since the establishment of the Xiao Clan, there was never a time that they felt so sullen.

But looking at the fifty Inborn Experts, they did not dare to make a single move at all.

Ah!

Just then, a cry of horror suddenly cut through the air.

Everyone hurriedly looked over only to see a bluish flame sticking to the arm of Liang's Clan Leader. The flame was inextinguishable as it quickly spread to the rest of the body.

"No!"

Liang's Clan Leader picked up the broken sword with trepidation as he wielded it at his own arm.

Sss...

"The Clan Leader of Liang Family was an Inborn for thirty years. He might not be a Pinnacle, but it should have been soon. Look at how he was trounced!"

"With Inborn Spiritual Weapon and Heavenly Flame...not many Inborn Experts can compete with this combination."

"How can that Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown be so scary? He is already imba. Now, he actually coaches another domineering existence. Moreover, he's an Inborn Expert!"

Everyone in the Xiao Family had mixed expression.

"Father!"

The wealthy-looking lady let out a despairing cry when she saw her father axing his own arm.

"Clan Leader! Go to hell, brat!"

Liang's Inborn Experts were horrified as they lunged murderously at Xiao Ran for an attack.

Boom!

Instantly, Mo Qinglong, Mo Yuan, and the other three Dragonians charged at that five Inborn Expert when they made their moves.

Average Half-Step to Dan Realm Experts could fight against seven to eight Inborn Experts. Possessing the strength of a Half-Step to Dan Realm, Mo Qinglong could fight dozens of Inborn Experts. Killing one was chicken feet to him.

Ah!

After the Dragonians took the Devil's Skeletal Pills, their domineering bloodline had upped their strength such that they were comparable to Pinnacle Inborn Experts. Mo Yuan was even on par with an average Half-Step to Dan Realm.

Instantly, those five experts who had tried to strike were killed at once!

Blood spattered everywhere!

When the old man of Liang Family heard the screams of his people, he was devastated. With resoluteness in his eyes, he glared at Xiao Ran. "I'm not convinced, you little bastard!"

His body began to burn with blood gushing out of his body, looking horrible.

However, the aura exuded from his body was even scarier.

Growl!

The Clan Leader of Liang Family let out a beast-like cry!

"This is...! This sorcery is known as the Flash of Glory. As more fresh blood burns, more powerful energy will be exploded. The self-consumption is quite high. Hence, it is a taboo technique. Liang Qianguo is burning away all his life!"

When the old man in the air witnessed the scary sorcery of Liang's Clan Leader, his face changed. "For the next ten seconds, he will explode the strength of Half-Step to Dan Realm!"

"Using his own Blood Essence as the trigger to perform Flash of Glory, I'm afraid that brat with Inborn Spiritual Weapon and Heavenly Flame cannot block this!" said an old man with a solemn look. Exchanging life for ten-second glory, the Flash of Glory was domineering.

The aura exploded by Liang's Clan Leader forced the surrounding people to take a step back as horror filled their eyes.

"Kill him, kill him!"

Xiao Fan, with bloodshot eyes, stared at Xiao Ran when he saw his grandfather casting the taboo sorcery.

"Igniting his own blood away just for ten seconds of Glory. Quite impressive."

Upon seeing the old man from Liang Family trying to exchange a life for a life, Wang Xian displayed a faint smile and said, "Old Mo, lend a hand to Xiao Ran!"

"Yes, Young Master!"

As soon as Mo Qinglong spoke, he appeared before Xiao Ran, like a phantom.

With a cold smile, he stared at the Clan Leader of Liang Family.

"Grandpa Mo!"

Xiao Ran was paled by the oppressing aura as he gave a weak cry.

"Mm, Xiao Ran, not bad. I'll stop him for ten seconds for you while you kill him!"

"Darmn!"

The surrounding experts from Xiao Clan twitched their lips aggressively when they witnessed this.

The entire fu*king operating series is distinct. When someone besieges you, your master will take them out. If you're not a match, your master will get someone to replace you. Those that can't outfight you, you can kill instantly!

This is an apparent shielding of them, suppressing them by force.

Yet, as the Sacred Clan, all they could do was watch their shameless act as they performed the massacre!

Chapter 428: His Last Name Is "Xiao" Too

Boom!

In the field, streams of devilish aura were emitted from Mo Qinglong's body. The devilish aura rotated slowly and eventually formed a black shield.

On the shield, there was a vicious looking devil dragon which enveloped Xiao Ran and him completely.

"Attack!" Mo Qinglong looked plainly at the clan leader of Liang Family and remarked.

The clan leader of the Liang Family could feel his eyes twitching violently. His body which was emitting terrifying aura started shaking violently.

Breaking down... He was on the verge of tearing.

He had ignited his life force in preparation to kill this kid. In the end, an existence who was clearly above the Inborn Realm protected him and gestured for him to attack.

This feeling was insufferable.

Argh!

The clan leader of the Liang Family attacked Mo Qinglong desperately.

Rumble!

Horrifying strikes brought upon a strong gale that shook the surrounding. Huge explosions reverberated across the entire Xiao Clan.

However, the attacks of the clan leader from the Liang Family couldn't put a dent in Mo Qinglong's defense. He couldn't break his defense at all.

"Hehe. If I move a little, it's my loss!" Mo Qinglong looked at the clan leader of the Liang Family and commented with ridicule.

"Sss! What a strong defense. That middle-aged man is definitely a Half-Step to Dan Realm expert!"

"He's isn't just an ordinary Half-Step to Dan Realm expert!"

"The clan leader of the Liang Family must be feeling miserable. He ignited his life force to increase his strength temporarily and yet the other party was making fun of his attacks!"

"Liang Family has a good relationship with our Xiao Clan. We..."

When the surrounding Xiao Clan disciples saw what was happening and heard the highly offensive words from Mo Qinglong, they were shocked, feeling complicated and bitter.

Liang Family and the Xiao Clan had been friends for generations. It wasn't the first time that they had a political marriage.

In fact, the most talented disciple in the Xiao Clan currently was the grandson of the clan leader of the Liang Family.

Pfft!

Ten seconds quickly passed and the clan leader of the Liang Family spewed a mouthful of blood. His eyes were fixed on Mo Qinglong and Xiao Ran while he was feeling wretched.

"Continue!"

Mo Qinglong moved his arm and retracted his defense. After which, he said something to Xiao Ran before returning to the side of Wang Xian.

"Let me ask you this. Are you guys responsible for the annihilation of my grandfather's family?" Xiao Ran pulled a long face, held his Ancient Spiritual Sword tightly and stared at the clan leader of the Liang Family, brimming with killing intent.

"Cough cough! So what if we are!"

The clan leader of the Liang Family could sense vitality leaking from his body rapidly. However, he still mustered the strength to glower at Xiao Ran.

"All I wanted was an answer! No matter what, I'm definitely going to annihilate your Liang Family!"

Xiao Ran nodded his head before piercing the Ancient Spiritual Sword into his waist.

"Grandpa! Grandma!"

Xiao Ran mumbled softly to himself. Soon after, he turned his attention towards the wealthy-looking lady and Xiao Fan.

"Father! Father!"

At this point, the wealthy-looking lady had completely collapsed. Seeing the corpses of her father and the members of the Liang Family around her, her body was shivering.

"When you killed my mother and my grandparents, were you ever expecting this?"

Xiao Ran stared coldly at the wealthy-looking lady. With the Ancient Spiritual Sword tightly in his grip, he walked towards her, overwhelmed by killing intent.

"You... Don't you come over! Don't come over!"

Xiao Fan was horrified to see Xiao Ran walking towards him.

A teenager that was even younger than him had the strength of an Inborn expert. This caused the prideful young man to feel completely defeated.

Xiao Ran was truly the most talented and powerful teenager.

Seeing this teenager approaching him, fear slowly crept up.

Xiao Ran lifted his head and looked at this brother of his. With condemning eyes, he remarked, "After killing your mother, I'll kill you."

"Don't you dare! Don't you dare!"

The wealthy-looking lady screamed wretchedly upon hearing Xiao Ran. She looked hideous and glowered at Xiao Ran as though she were a female ghost.

"Great nanny!"

"Great nanny!"

Xiao Fan turned around and called out to the old lady with the truncheon pitifully.

The old lady tightened her grip on the truncheon, turned to Wang Xian and said, "Xiao Fan is the most gifted disciple of our Xiao Clan and the future successor. If you kill him, our Xiao Clan will not rest until one of us has perished!"

"Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, you have killed so many people for your disciple. No matter how deep the feud is, it should be over now. Let the most outstanding disciple of Xiao Clan off as a form of goodwill. Let's end this here right now!" the old men in the air shouted solemnly at Wang Xian.

The threat of the old lady and the reconciliatory tone of the old man were clearly a display of their attitude.

Those who had died previously weren't experts of the Xiao Clan after all. However, if Xiao Ran or Wang Xian were to kill the most outstanding disciple of the Xiao Clan in this generation, they wouldn't just stand back.

"If you guys dare to make a move, I'll annihilate your entire Xiao Clan!" Wang Xian looked at the old lady and declared coldly.

"YOU..."

The old lady was flushed and her body was shivering as she stared at Wang Xian.

The surrounding members of the Xiao Clan were completely silent. That young man clearly wasn't just threatening them. He had the capacity to put his words into action.

Hehe!

Xiao Ran smirked and looked at the old lady before turning to Xiao Fan.
"Asking for help? How ironic!"

"Can you still remember? Two years ago, father asked us to spar after I arrived at the Xiao Clan for the very first time. He asked you to guide me in the Flame Duel but you torched me till my entire body was burnt red. When I asked our father for help, what did you say? 'Xiao Clan has no cowardly disciple and wouldn't need a cowardly disciple who begs for help.' You even asked me to scam!"

"Can you still remember the times you bullied me under the pretense of sparring?" Xiao Ran illustrated slowly. His eyes were turning red and his body was shivering. "Have you forgotten me after not seeing me for just a year? Xiao Fan, I'm Xiao Ran!"

"What?" Xiao Fan's eyes widened in disbelief. He pointed at Xiao Ran and stammered, "You... You are Xiao Ran...? You are that little trash...?"

Boom!

When Xiao Ran completed his words, the entire Xiao Clan was shaken. They were dumbfounded and stared at Xiao Ran in disbelief.

"He said... He said he is Xiao Ran... His last name is 'Xiao'!"

"Xiao Ran! Xiao Ran! His last name is 'Xiao'! Oh gosh!"

"Xiao Ran... Xiao Ran... If I recall correctly, third brother once brought back a lady with two kids. The boy's name seemed to be Xiao Ran!"

The surrounding Xiao Clan members stared at Xiao Ran. Some of them seemed to have recalled something as they mumbled within themselves.

"What?"

The old lady's eyes widened and she couldn't hold back her exclamations. Xiao Ran... Xiao Ran... She didn't have an impression of him.

However, from the words of Xiao Ran, she knew that this teenager was the descendant of her grandson, and her great-grandson.

A direct blood relationship!

"How can this be...? It feels like Heaven is playing a joke on us!"

The crowd of Xiao Clan exchanged glances. They were stunned and felt complicated.

This teenager's surname was "Xiao"! He was a disciple of the Xiao Clan.

A fifteen-year-old Xiao Clan's disciple had barged into the Xiao Clan and started a killing spree.

He was returning in such a manner to face the Xiao Clan.

This embarrassed every member of the Xiao Clan.

The first person to have ever killed his way into the Xiao Clan happened to be their junior!

Chapter 429: Avenged

All the experts from Xiao Clan felt irony and bitterness.

But subsequently, doubts surfaced on their faces.

Why is he here for revenge? He claimed that his mother was killed.

All the experts turned their focus to the wealthy-looking lady, Xiao Fan, and Xiao Ran.

"What the hell is going on?" asked the old lady whose hands were shaking as she stared at the wealthy-looking lady.

The wealthy-looking lady did not answer her. She was pale and quiet.

"Xiao Ran, since you're one of the disciples of Xiao Clan, you'll tell me the truth. We'll stand up for you!" said the old lady to Xiao Ran with a darkened expression when she saw the wealthy-looking lady keeping her silence.

"Get lost!" Xiao Ran bellowed at that old woman, "I don't need the Xiao Clan to stand up for me. Why would I need you now? Haha!" Xiao Ran scorned.

Talking about standing up for him now? Does he still need it?

What were they doing in the first place?

Xiao Ran swept his cold gaze across all the members of Xiao Clan. "The elders from the general office and pharmacy, I still remember what you guys said to my mum when she looked for you. All of you shall die too!"

As Xiao Ran spoke, he pointed the sword at Xiao Fan and lunged forward. "But I'll kill you first so that your mum can feel the pain of losing kin!"

"No! Don't you dare? Don't you dare!"

The wealthy-looking lady screamed crazily. She pulled out a hairpin from her hair and pointed it at Xiao Ran with a ruthless look.

The old lady was shaken when Xiao Ran bellowed at her. With a mixed expression, she could not help but cough.

Her great-grandson had actually turned his back on her and chided her!

"You think you're fit to stop me?"

Xiao Ran looked at the wealthy-looking lady with cold eyes as he slashed the Ancient Spiritual Sword at her.

Ah!

The wealthy-looking lady let out a devastating scream. Even though she was a strong Level 9 Martial Artist, she was not in Xiao Ran's league.

As the sword swept across, the wealthy-looking lady's arm was slashed off. The sword continued its stance as it was wielded at Xiao Fan.

"No... Don't kill me!"

Xiao Fan was petrified as he quickly fled.

As the future successor and the most outstanding disciple of Xiao Clan, Xiao Fan chickened out and dared not fight with Xiao Ran at all.

The so-called Sacred Clan supreme talent was nothing like a clown now!

"I'll kill you with the move that you used to humiliate me. Flame Stream!"

Xiao Ran wielded the Ancient Spiritual Sword. Sheets of Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame transformed into blazing streamers, shooting at Xiao Fan.

Ah!

Xiao Fan did his best to dodge, but both his legs were hit by the sapphire flame.

He let out a painful cry as he witnessed his legs vanishing rapidly. Desperation filled his eyes.

"Son, my son!"

Hearing the shrieks coming from his son when the Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame enveloped him, the wealthy-looking lady cried out in agony.

"What a daunting flame!"

Sigh!

All the people from Xiao Clan were stunned and astonished by what they saw. Their feelings were complicated when they looked at Xiao Fan.

"Go to hell, too!"

Xiao Ran pointed his sword at the wealthy-looking lady and killed her in a single move.

"Come on out, you two elders!"

Xiao Ran cast a look at the wealthy-looking lady and Xiao Fan, who had been reduced to ashes. He felt relieved as he turned to the other two elders.

Both of them had constant mixed expression.

All the surrounding experts of Xiao Clan were watching them.

Yet, no one spoke a word.

Now, they finally understood something, and they were at a loss of words.

Ultimately, it was Xiao Clan's doing that a demon-like Xiao's disciple came here for his revenge.

Based on the current situation, nobody could interfere with this.

That Xiao's disciple had found himself a formidable master.

Upon seeing all the surrounding clan members holding their tongues, the two elders' faces went pale.

They knew that they were completely finished this time.

Never did they expect that befriending that wealthy-looking lady would land them in such a state today.

Indeed, no one should bully the young ones!

With two agonizing cries sounding off in the Xiao Clan, Xiao Ran had eliminated all his enemies.

He'd taken his revenge!

Bam!

Xiao Ran knelt before Wang Xian with tears rolling down his cheeks. "Thank you, master! I have avenged my mum and the rest!"

"Since you've taken your revenge, we can leave now."

Wang Xian patted his shoulder with a smile and got him to stand up. "Let's go. You must practice hard from now on because you can only depend on yourself in the future. The true strength lies in yourself."

As Wang Xian spoke, he slowly stalked out. Xiao Ran stood up with a forceful nod and followed behind him.

Phew!

As the Dragonians retreated, fifty of them simply strutted out of the mansion.

All the disciples of Xiao Clan heaved a sigh of relief but remained silent.

As they looked at the corpses on the floor, there was embarrassment, anger, humiliation, and complicated looks on them.

"Nobody shall breathe a word to anyone regarding what happened tonight!"

The old man in the air slowly descended as he issued warnings to the surrounding disciples.

They could not afford to throw their faces away with someone barging into the mighty Sacred Clan and left after killing a dozen people.

Especially when this was an ironic matter that involved a member of Xiao Clan exacting his revenge.

A victim member returning for revenge was the root of the problem.

If word got around, the entire Xiao Clan would be a laughing stock.

"Laozu has been informed. He's furious about it. If this is not handled properly, everyone will have a difficult life!"

The current Clan Leader of Xiao Clan spoke with bitterness.

This matter involved the most outstanding disciple of Xiao Clan, his mother, and two elders.

They had joined hands to destroy a member of Xiao Clan. Moreover, he was such a super formidable disciple.

A disciple who had advanced to Inborn Realm at a mere age of fifteen.

The severity of this matter infuriated Laozu more than someone killing members of Xiao Clan

"Xiao Ran, Miracle Doctor Wang!"

As the experts watched the figures disappearing into the dark, their eyes blinked. Eventually, everyone exclaimed.

Wang Xian chuckled and, upon seeing Xiao Ran in a trance after exacting his revenge, said, "It's time you think about how you're going to lead your life now!"

Since he had taken his revenge, he had lost the goal in his life.

It was time to think about how to lead his life from now on.

Wang Xian would not interfere with his life. He could only take care of his disciple for the time being and not for his entire life. He would be on his own in the future.

"Thank you, master!"

Xiao Ran lifted his chin and looked at Wang Xian as he nodded with force.

A new chapter of life had begun!

Chapter 430: Everything Settled

"Laozu!"

"Laozu!"

"Father!"

...

At approximately 3-4 am, no one in the entire Xiao Clan was asleep.

In the Sacred Mountain of the Xiao Clan, all the members of the Xiao Clan had gathered. Even ten-year-old kids were present.

When a bald old man flew in, all the members of the Xiao Clan stood up and greeted the old man respectfully.

The bald old man was still reflecting some light, even at night, off his head and had extremely thick eyebrows. Overall, he looked rather comical.

However, everyone in the Xiao Clan was shivering in fear when facing of this old man.

A long time ago, two men had been widely addressed as the Explosive Duo. At that time, they were both exceptionally famous.

One of them was the Laozu of the Sui Clan, Sui Huang, and the other was the Laozu of the Xiao Clan, Xiao Quanshan.

Both of them were fire attribute cultivators and had explosive tempers. Subsequently, Sui Huang started refining elixir pills which wore away his fiery temper.

At that time, members of the Sui Clan recalled Sui Huang's roars reverberating throughout the entire clan when he first started refining elixir pills. Subsequently, refining elixir pills had honed his temper.

This made the members of the Xiao Clan extremely envious. Not only did their Laozu's temper not improve, but it got even worse.

Once, two disciples of the Xiao Clan committed illegal acts. Their Laozu slaughtered both of them before the entire clan without reserve.

Everyone was afraid of his fiery temper!

"Speak! What's this all about?"

The old man stopped in the middle. He didn't sit down and simply looked across the crowd as he demanded coldly.

"Laozu, Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown led fifty Inborn experts to our Sacred Clan at night--"

"Tell me about Xiao Fan first!" Xiao Quanshan interrupted the clan leader of the Xiao Clan loudly.

"Yes, yes!"

The clan leader of the Xiao Clan wiped off the cold sweat on his forehead while recollecting the incident. "The cause of this matter is because a sixth-generation disciple of Xiao Clan married the daughter of the clan leader of the Liang Family. Subsequently, he had another woman outside with a boy and a girl. The boy had exceptional talents and was brought back to the Xiao Clan. He was badly treated by the daughter of the clan leader of the Liang Family. Moreover, she attempted to assassinate them with poison. Subsequently, the three of them fled and were pursued by assassins hired by the daughter of the clan leader of the Liang Family. After a year of being pursued, the mother of the boy and girl was killed. In the end, the boy and girl were rescued by Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, who took the boy in as his disciple. They were here today to seek revenge! Among those who oppressed the mother and two kids, there were two fifth-generation Elders!"

"I don't care how many women or kids you guys have outside the clan. I'm asking you why there are intentional killings and oppression within the Xiao Clan? Tell me!"

When Xiao Quanshan heard the explanation of the clan leader of Xiao Clan, he chided loudly. He looked across every single person before him and remarked, "This even involves the management of the Xiao Clan. Are you guys courting death?"

Xiao Quanshan berated the members of the Xiao Clan. "As for you, you can stop being the clan leader. Our Xiao Clan has the least members among the three main Sacred Clans in Shang Jing and yet you can't even deal with this appropriately!"

The clan leader of the Xiao Clan paled and nodded his head immediately. "Yes, Laozu!"

"Who else was involved in this matter? All those who know about this, step forward now!"

Xiao Quanshan took a glance at the clan leader of the Xiao Clan before berating once again. "I don't believe that only those two trash that were killed knew about this and condoned the oppression. You better step forward now. If you don't, don't blame me for not being courteous if I learn otherwise in the future!"

Below him, some members of the Xiao Clan had turned as pale as chalk. Six women and five old men stepped forward bitterly.

"Tsk! Quite a few of you!"

Xiao Quanshan snorted, "The imprisonment area of the Sacred Mountain happens to be empty. Every single one of you shall reflect on what you've done in it for a year!"

The group who stepped forward shivered and cold sweat had broken out on their foreheads.

"How old is that Xiao Ran now?" Xiao Quanshan diverted the subject and asked.

"Laozu, Xiao Ran is currently fifteen years and eight months old. He possesses a Heavenly Flame and an Inborn Spiritual Weapon!" replied the clan leader of the Xiao Clan immediately.

When he heard about Xiao Ran's age, Xiao Quanshan was shocked too.

He was definitely the only fifteen-year-old Inborn expert throughout history.

"Reaching the Inborn Realm at the age of fifteen!" Excitement gleamed in the eyes of Xiao Quanshan. "He has close to a ninety percent chance of stepping into the Dan Realm in the future."

"That Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown has likely invested huge resources into him to groom him into an Inborn expert. He even gave Xiao Ran a Heavenly Flame and Inborn Spiritual Weapon."

"Damn! Our Xiao Clan finally gets a demon-like talent and yet he ends up going against us. All of you are useless."

"Damn! Get twenty guys to come with me to invite that kid back to our clan. We can't let this type of demon-like talent walk off!" Xiao Quanshan instructed the crowd. Soon after, he moved and entered into the depths of the Sacred Mountain.

"All of you go get yourself prepared to welcome that kid back. When I die, a talented teenager like him could at least still protect our Xiao Clan for another hundred years!"

Xiao Quanshan's voice reverberated across. The next instant, all the members of the Xiao Clan started moving. No one dared to delay or slack off.

...

"Master, I want to become an expert. I want to be able to protect master in the future to repay this gratitude. I want to protect my sister."

On the second day, Xiao Ran looked at Wang Xian and spoke seriously after returning from Shang Jing.

Wang Xian looked at him, smiled, sipped on a mouthful of tea and responded, "Alright."

"Master, I wish to head out and roam the world myself." Xiao Ran paused for a moment before continuing. "Now that my strength has reached the Inborn Realm, I wish to roam the world and achieve something for myself!"

Huh? Wang Xian was slightly surprised. He hesitated for a moment but still nodded his head. "You can choose your own path. The Underworld is scheming and perilous. If you encounter any issues, your master will seek revenge for you!"

"Rest assured, master. I'll be careful!"

Xiao Ran gave Wang Xian a radiant smile. After a year of running, and after experiencing the incidents over the last few days, his mindset had changed substantially.

Even a twenty to thirty-year-old man might not be as mature as him.

Wang Xian looked at Xiao Ran and scrutinized him from head to toe once again.

His composure and determined gaze wasn't something that belonged to one of his age and maturity!

As long as he did not die prematurely, he would definitely not be ordinary!

"Haha, is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown in? I have long heard of the big name of Miracle Doctor Wang and I'm here to pay you a visit today!"

At this juncture, a rough voice came from outside the villa.

Wang Xian was taken aback and said to Xiao Ran, "Go take a look!"

"Yes, master!"

Xiao Ran nodded his head and headed towards the door of the villa. When he saw the bald old man standing before the door, he had his suspicions.

"Who are you? What matters do you have with my master?"

Cough cough!

The bald old man scrutinized Xiao Ran from top to bottom and was satisfied with what he saw. "You are a pretty good-looking kid. I have long heard about your master's name and have brought presents to pay him a visit. Can you allow me in?"

Chapter 431: Outstanding Young Heroes Competition

Xiao Ran pulled his eyebrows together when he saw that old man. He could tell that this bald old man was not someone simple.

But he did not seem to have feigned kindness on his face, and the way he looked at him was a little queer.

Suddenly, he recalled someone.

"Haha, I heard that your master loves tea. This is the Dahongpao grown on the mother trees. One catty costs a few million. No average people can get this!"

The bald old man raised the gift in his hands and grinned at Xiao Ran.

"Come in!"

Xiao Ran looked deeply at him before he walked into the villa. "Master, there's an old man here who admires you. I don't know what his agenda is!"

"Oh? Let the old man in!"

Wang Xian nodded.

As his voice trailed off, a bald old man stalked in as he grinned. His eyes narrowed when he saw Wang Xian.

When Wang Xian looked at that bald old man, he squinted his eyes too as he sensed the daunting energy in his body. He then recalled someone who Sui Huang had mentioned before.

"Are you here to question our sins?" asked Wang Xian to the old man with a grin.

"No such thing. I'm here to express my gratitude to Miracle Doctor Wang. This is the Dahongpao grown from the mother trees. How is it? Does it please you?"

The old man walked over with a broad smile. Without any formality, he sat beside Wang Xian.

"Your business is none of my business." Wang Xian fixed his eyes on the old man with a beam. He turned to Xiao Ran. "Open this and make me a cup of tea!"

The old man twitched his mouth. Since Wang Xian had seen through his intention, his tongue was tied.

If he were to ask Xiao Ran straightaway, he did not think he had a chance. So he wanted to befriend Miracle Doctor Wang, so that he could put in some good word for him.

"Old Xiao, do you want some?" Xiao Ran asked plainly as he looked at Xiao Quanshan when he poured a cup for Wang Xian.

"Okay." Xiao Quanshan was smiling, but his face suddenly stiffened up. His eyes were fixed on Xiao Ran. "You recognized me?"

"I stayed in the Xiao Clan for about a year. I may not have seen you, but I have heard about you!"

Xiao Ran answered Xiao Quanshan without any emotion.

"You're indeed one of us. What a smart boy!"

Xiao Quanshan looked at the nonchalant Xiao Ran and chuckled with embarrassment. He was a little awkward as a bad feeling arose.

This Xiao Ran was simply too calm and too mature. His EQ was far better than those members in the Xiao Family.

The more Xiao Ran behaved in this way, the lower the possibility that he had to bring him back to Xiao Clan.

Xiao Ran gave a faint smile. He placed the teacup before him and signaled for him to drink it.

Xiao Quanshan grinned. Being someone with a fiery temper, this was far trickier than he thought.

Wang Xian giggled by the side. He took out his phone to play, ignoring both of them.

He would not interfere in Xiao Ran's matters. Even if Xiao Ran decided to return to Xiao Clan, Wang Xian had no opinion about it.

"Eh, Xiao Ran. After I found out about you yesterday, I was in grief and melancholy. I rushed back to the clan at night and taught that bunch of people a lesson. Xiao Ran, my poor child. It has been hard for you." Xiao Quanshan gritted his teeth and spoke with a gentle voice.

"I can return to the Xiao Clan."

Suddenly Xiao Ran spoke to Xiao Quanshan.

"What? You agree?"

Xiao Quanshan was stunned as he looked at Xiao Ran with disbelief. Things were going way too easy. This was totally unexpected for him!

"But, I have a few conditions!" Xiao Ran looked at him and added.

"What conditions? Tell me, and I'll fulfill all of them!" Xiao Quanshan stared at him with excitement. He had a vibrant facial expression.

"First, I want to be the Clan Leader of Xiao Clan!"

"Sure, the former one has been kicked out by me!"

"Second, I want to have the right to mobilize Xiao Clan's Enforcer Team!"

"No problem, the Clan Leader has the right!"

"Third, I must have absolute freedom!"

"Haha, this is not a problem!"

"That's all."

"That's all? Only three? I, Laozu, have already prepared eight palanquins to take you back. Haha!" [\[1\]](#)

Xiao Quanshan was so thrilled that he almost jumped. Things were much easier than he thought.

Gosh, no doubt the Xiaos share the same genes as me. Cool.

"Master, I'm returning to the Xiao Clan. Now, I have some power on my own. Tell me if you need any help. I'll definitely assist you in the future." Xiao Ran grinned at Wang Xian as he spoke.

Xiao Quanshan's laughter froze on his face as his lips could not stop twitching.

"Sure. It's good that you're going back to the Xiao Clan, and can become a Clan Leader of a Sacred Clan. I'll wait for you to make a name in the Underworld!"

Wang Xian smiled as he stood up and gave a pat on Xiao Ran's shoulder.

"Yes, master. I'll achieve it!" said Xiao Ran firmly.

"Return with him. You can visit us when you're free. Oh, and bringing some good tea will do. Look for me if you meet any difficulties!" said Wang Xian with a broad smile.

Bam!

Xiao Ran knelt on the floor with red eyes. "Once a teacher, always a teacher. Master!"

"It's not life and death now. Enough, just go." Wang Xian smiled and waved a dismissive hand.

"Miracle Doctor Wang is indeed a loyal friend. We're friends now!"

Xiao Quanshan chuckled as he swung his arm. A folding fan and a Flame Bead were placed on the table.

"This is a small token. Thank you for saving the outstanding disciple of Xiao Clan!"

"You're welcome!" Upon seeing the Flame Bead, Wang Xian put on a broad smile.

"Xiao Ran, let's go. Return to the Xiao Clan with glory. I'll announce to the Underworld the return of my super-genius disciple of Xiao Clan. Haha!" Xiao Quanshan chortled as he spoke to Xiao Ran with thrills.

Xiao Ran nodded and again bowed to Wang Xian before he left with Xiao Quanshan.

"Good tea!"

Wang Xian smiled. The Flame Bead caught his eyes, and he picked it up from the table.

[Purple Inferno: Level 10]

The Flame Bead was not red. Instead, it was giving off a Level 10 purple flame.

Wang Xian was satisfied with the corrosive flame.

"Hey, this fan is not ordinary!"

[Golden Ivory Fan: Level 10]

"Tsk, this Xiao Quanshan is interesting. I gave a Heavenly Flame and Inborn Spiritual Weapon to Xiao Ran. He returned me a Flame Bead and an Inborn Spiritual Weapon!"

Wang Xian chuckled as he flicked his palm. The Golden Ivory Fan unfolded, revealing a sharp metal radiance.

An impressive sharp weapon!

After Xiao Ran's matter was settled, Wang Xian had his free time again.

Together with Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue, Wang Xian spent shameless time with them, enjoying himself, feeling refreshed every day.

Rapid progression in the establishment of the floating island was ongoing while the Dragonians continued to roam around in the Underworld for Spiritual Grasses and Spiritual Stones.

Yet, the Underworld broke out more shocking news during those five days.

[Incredible talent found in Sacred Clan of Shang Jing. Fifteen-year-old Inborn Expert became the youngest Clan Leader of Xiao Clan.]

[Demon-like talents frequently making an appearance. Five thirty-year-old Inborn Experts suppressed three first-class forces and obtained Level 5 Spiritual Grass.]

[Another appearance of the demon-like talents. Seven Inborn Experts who were below thirty killed a sea monster at Sky Mountain. They completed the fourth mission of the Underworld and gained a thousand Spiritual Stones.]

[The son of Hai Jiao, Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island had shown up in the Underworld, aiming for the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition.]

With the sprouting of young talents in the Underworld, everyone was looking to make a name on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!

Endnote:

[1] A figure of speech that refers to doing what it takes Back

Chapter 432: Gathering Of The Outstanding Heroes (1)

The bi-annual Outstanding Young Heroes competition was about to start. For all young disciples, this was a grand event.

They could compete for supremacy among the youths of the Underworld, challenge the strongest experts in their generation and aim to reach the top of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart.

They could become the strongest champion among the youths!

For every young disciple, this was a dream and a form of motivation.

The thought of standing above the entire generation of youths made everyone excited for the competition.

The Outstanding Young Heroes Competition was not just a stage for the young disciples. At the same time, it was a stage for Sacred Sects and powerful forces to display their strength.

The strength of the young generation also represented the future of a force.

As compared to before, the current Outstanding Young Heroes Competition was attracting way more attention.

There were too many geniuses and demon-like talents that had mushroomed out.

In the past, one could be ranked in the top-five when one reached the Inborn Realm. However, the news over the past year had been more and more explosive and impressive.

Even those experienced Inborn experts were at a loss for words over why the current young generation had become so terrifying.

Just a while ago, the twenty-year-old Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown emerged from nowhere. He killed four to five Inborn experts and was widely regarded as the strongest on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart.

The entire Underworld was shaken and countless people were dumbfounded.

However, an even more demon-like existence emerged from the Xiao Clan four days ago. He was an unparalleled demon-like talent which many regarded as having started his cultivation when he was still in his mother's womb.

A fifteen-year-old Inborn expert and the current clan leader of the Sacred Clan, Xiao Clan. He was the youngest clan leader of a Sacred Clan and the very first in history.

When the news came from the Xiao Clan, everyone in the Underworld was shocked.

This had completely refreshed the norms many people had taken for granted. A fifteen-year-old Inborn expert! What a terrifying existence he was.

When they were fifteen years old, how strong were they? Level 3 or Level 4 Martial Artists?

The appearance of one after another demon-like existence made countless people speechless.

When more and more young Inborn experts emerged in the Underworld, people were going crazy about it.

With over ten Inborn experts around the age of thirty participating in the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition, the competition would be exceptionally explosive and competitive.

Those who hadn't reached Half-step to Inborn wouldn't even make it to the chart.

"Brother, are you going for the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition? I'll be going with my master and the sect tomorrow!"

At night, Xiao Yu called and asked excitedly when Wang Xian was having dinner with Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue and Sun Lingxiu.

"Yeah, we are joining in for the show tomorrow," Wang Xian replied with a smile. The entire Underworld had been about the youth competition over the past few years and he had prepared to go and take a look.

To witness the strength of the current generation of experts in the Underworld.

In addition, Wang Xian had another task. That was none other than announcing to all that he would be establishing a Sacred Sect.

The truth was, Wang Xian had some of the matters arranged and settled. For example, the dragonians...

He wanted to shock the entire Underworld with the establishment of the Sacred Sect, Dragon Sect. The current Outstanding Young Heroes competition happened to be a great opportunity.

At that time, the Dragon Sect would be established and he would invite all sects to pay pilgrimage to him.

Wang Xian's lips curved into a smile. "Let's meet at Huashan then!"

"Alright, brother. Haha, at that time, I'll be announcing the advancement of the Thistles and Thorns Sect to a first-class force. Hehe! With my master and I around, our Thistles and Thorns Sect will be known throughout the entire Underworld!" Xiao Yu said contentedly.

"Alright. All hail the great Sect Leader Xiao Yu. Sect Leader Xiao Yu shall be recorded in history forever and will rule the world!" Wang Xian teased.

"Hehe! I'll protect you in the future!" Xiao Yu laughed proudly. After a brief casual chat, they hung up the phone.

"With Xiao Yu and Elder Fang's current strength, no one will likely be a match for them unless you participate too!" Guan Shuqing said to Wang Xian with a smile.

"Yeah, no one will be a match for them!"

Wang Xian nodded his head. Considering the strength of Xiao Yu and Elder Fang, no one in the younger generation could possibly defeat them.

Even Mo Qinglong was a far cry from them now. After turning into the Skeletal Dragons, they could even fight on par with Dan Realm experts.

With their strength, no one would have differing views if they announced their ascension to a Sacred Sect.

"I used to be the strongest and now I'm the weakest!" Guan Shuqing grumbled unhappily.

"You are considering yourself weak? You could release such tremendous flames the moment you reached the Inborn Realm. Even a Pinnacle Inborn expert would be exhausted to death against you!" Wang Xian joked.

A few days ago, Guan Shuqing had finally reached the Inborn Realm.

After reaching the Inborn Realm, the flame within her body underwent huge changes. The flames she could release were even more terrifying than the Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame.

What was most horrifying about her was that the flames within her seemed to be limitless.

When Sui Huang asked her to launch long-range attacks, Guan Shuqing released a full hour of flames without feeling the least bit of fatigue or exhaustion.

With limitless flames, huge long-ranged attacks would be just tricks to her.

Sui Huang was stunned for a long time. The next day, he informed her that he would be heading overseas to get her a fire attribute long-ranged attack skill.

In other words, he was looking for attacking techniques of magicians in Euramerica.

At this juncture, Guan Shuqing could simply act as a flamethrower tower.

"I'm still really weak in close combat!" chuckled Guan Shuqing.

"Alright, let's finish our dinner quickly and go to bed. We still have a long journey tomorrow!" Wang Xian said sheepishly.

Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing rolled their eyes at him while Sun Lingxiu was flushed with embarrassment.

With her current cultivation attainment, she could hear clearly any movements within the villa. Recently, she had heard all kinds of sounds.

On the next morning, Wang Xian headed towards Huashan with the three girls.

Huashan was a mystical place in Chinese novels.

It was most famous for the discussion of swords.

The Outstanding Young Heroes competition would be held in Huashan.

The competition wasn't held in the scenic region of Huashan. Instead, it was an isolated region.

However, the region wasn't open yet.

As the winter holidays had just passed and it was the winter season, there weren't many tourists around.

Nonetheless, there were still lots of people around. Most of them were martial artists who used longswords or short daggers.

They wore neat uniforms from various sects and families and looked exceptionally imposing.

The scholars of Jiangnan couldn't possibly be a match. [\[1\]](#)

Wang Xian was in exceptionally elaborate attire. He had Zhan Lu sword beside his waist and a golden fan in his hand. Three beautiful ladies stood beside him with Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan following closely behind them.

He resembled a rich and young man.

Flap.

The fan was extended. Wang Xian chuckled. "Dears, let's find accommodation first!"

"Can you act more decently? There's a hotel ahead. Let's head there before we climb the Huashan in a while!"

Lan Qingyue rolled her eyes at him. Soon after, the group of six headed towards the hotel ahead of them.

When they entered the hotel, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan stepped ahead immediately to reserve rooms.

Wang Xian stood behind with his fan and beautiful ladies as companions. He was just like a wasted rich young man illustrated in novels.

Endnote:

[1] Referring to the four famous scholars from Jiangnan in Chinese history Back

Chapter 433: Gathering Of The Outstanding Heroes (2)

"Xiao Xian, if I pass you a birdcage now, you'll look like the walking wasted rich young man in the novel!"

After they came out of the hotel, Guan Shuqing teased the way Wang Xian was dressed.

"Really?"

Wang Xian chuckled as he fanned himself.

Bam!

Suddenly, a figure was hurled towards him at this time.

Wang Xian made a quick move and dodged it. He looked over his shoulder and spotted a young man on the floor. The young man held a sword as he spat out a mouthful of blood.

"Haha, what...Prince Jade Sword. Look at you now. Are you fit to be the eighth on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart? Ridiculous!"

Coupled with a scornful voice, a young man stalked over as he checked out the young man on the floor with a slightly lifted chin.

"He's Bei Wuying, the future successor of Bei Family in Yuan City. He also succeeded the Northern Kick, and advanced to Inborn Realm!"

"I think he just advanced into the Inborn Realm. Guess he will have a placing in the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!"

"Prince Jade Sword, eighth on the chart, was easily defeated by him."

"There are so many talents this year. Last time, this successor of the Northern Kick couldn't even make it on the chart. It's a surprise to see him with formidable strength."

Everyone around gasped in astonishment.

It was big news for the eighth ranking on the chart to be easily defeated.

"Ahem, you defeated me with a dozen strokes even after you advanced to Inborn Realm. How dare you be insolent! I'm younger than you by five years old. Within the next years, I'm 100 percent sure that I'm going to advance to Inborn Realm. Till then, no one will know the outcome!" said Prince Jade Sword, who was lying on the floor. Upon hearing Bei Wuying's mockery, he wiped the blood at the corner of his lips with pride.

"Lad, you're still not convinced?"

Bei Wuying darkened his expression at Prince Jade Sword's words. He overlooked Prince Jade Sword and asked.

"Hmph, of course not. You only have a few more years of practice than me. Why should I be convinced?"

Unyieldingly, Prince Jade Sword fixed his eyes on Bei Wuying.

"Don't you know when you're the weaker one, you should endure the hardship patiently? Otherwise, you'll die if you act insolently when you can't outfight others."

Straightaway, Bei Wuying moved as he lunged at Prince Jade Sword with both legs turning into afterimages.

Prince Jade Sword was aghast as he quickly brought up his sword at his chest.

Bam!

Yet, when the terrifying power swept onto his chest, his face was horrified.

"Since you said I'm weak, I'll show you the power of Whirling Umbra Kick!"

Killing intent filled the eyes of Bei Wuying as afterimages formed at his legs.

Instantly, they enveloped Prince Jade Sword.

"Bei Wuying is out to kill!"

"Oh no, that Prince Jade Sword is going to be killed!"

"That Prince Jade Sword did not want to concede defeat either. He didn't want to admit that he lost. If you're not a match of others, you should have just admitted it. Now, he's finished."

Bam, Bam, Bam!

Coupled with the whispers in the surroundings, a loud banging sound was heard.

"Ah... if you kill me, my family will not let you off!"

"Hmph, do you think your family is a Sacred Clan? Would the Bei Family be afraid of you?"

With a frosty face, Bei Wuying did not stop his kick.

Prince Jade Sword groaned without stopping as his eyes were filled with trepidation.

"Go to hell!"

At this time, Bei Wuying gave a low bellow as the afterimages of his legs quickly merged into one. The dark shadow of a kick swept towards Prince Jade Sword.

"No!"

A cry of panic came from his mouth as Prince Jade Sword's body was thrown far away.

In the air, everyone could see his deformed body.

"Courting your own doom!"

There was a murderous aura surrounding Bei Wuying as he swept his cold gaze at Prince Jade Sword's body.

"Sss... he's dead. The number eight on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart was killed by someone who has no ranking."

"He's far too strong by gathering all the virtual images for an attack."

"Could Bei Wuying be the dark horse of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart?"

Everyone looked at him with awe.

His strength was so mighty that he could kill the talent ranked eighth on the chart easily.

"Hmph!"

When Bei Wuying noticed the crowd was discussing him in low voices, he exhibited a haughty look.

"We have many talents this year. How dare a Half-step to Inborn Expert play punk. Really asking for his own death!"

As he spoke, he inserted his hands into his pockets as he stalked by the side with a proud look.

"Get lost!"

Hundreds of people gathered around him, and the way to the hotel was blocked.

"You're the one in our way!"

As Bei Wuying was heading their way, Guan Shuqing was displeased upon hearing his reprimand.

"Hur?"

Bei Wuying raised his eyebrow when he heard Guan Shuqing. He looked over with a pair of ghastly eyes.

He looked around and eventually stopped in Guan Shuqing's direction. "Let me tell you this. There's only one way in this Underworld - the victory road. Losers have no way out!"

"Get lost now!" hee shouted again.

Several young men who walked out of the hotel quickly stepped aside as they dared not refute.

Just like Bei Wuying had said, speak with fists.

"That's right."

Upon hearing Bei Wuying's comment, Wang Xian nodded his head in agreement. There's only one way in this Underworld - the victory road.

"In that case, you can get lost!" said Wang Xian dryly, picking up his Golden Ivory Fan and pointing at Bei Wuying.

"Hur?"

Seeing Wang Xian standing before him, pointing at him with the fan in his hand, there was only coldness in Bei Wuying's eyes.

"Asking me to get lost? Looks like I have to do my killing spree today. More and more people have a death wish!"

"Heh heh." Wang Xian chuckled at his words. He peered at the corpse at the side, "What he said was right. Your strength is just so-so. How dare you put on airs when you just became an Inborn?"

"Hur?"

"Who is this young man? He's so young. I've never seen him before?"

"Not sure which family or Sacred Sect he's from. But since he dares to provoke Bei Wuying, he must be an Inborn-level expert."

"This is going up against Bei Wuying. What qualification does this young man have?"

"Perhaps he's just some rich man's son. He's even holding a folding fan. How coquettish!"

To their astonishment, the surrounding people began to comment about Wang Xian when they saw Wang Xian holding the Golden Ivory Fan.

"Since you said my strength is so-so, come and have a taste of it!"

Rage surged in Bei Wuying's eyes. He had been taunted by ignorant fellows time and time again. It looked like he had yet to establish his reputation.

"I must kill more people to establish the reputation of Bei Wuying so that everyone can respect me!"

Bei Wuying grinned as he revealed a creepy look.

Chapter 434: Gathering Of The Supreme Talents (3)

"I don't care if you are from a Sacred Clan or a Sacred Sect. Just get lost and stop getting in my way!"

A disdainful voice came from Bei Wuying. He lifted his right leg straight away and swept towards Wang Xian's head.

"That young man is finished. Young disciples these days are getting more and more arrogant!"

Seeing Bei Wuying attacking, a middle-aged man shook his head slowly.

Bam!

However, as he finished his words, a clashing sound reverberated. Everyone was taken aback and quickly looked in the direction where the sound came from.

"What? He blocked it? He blocked it with just a fan?"

"He could stop an attack from Bei Wuying? What's the strength of that young man?"

"It can't be! It can't be that the young man is also an Inborn expert!"

Exclaims came from the surrounding crowd as they stared blankly at the young man who stopped Bei Wuying's right kick with a golden fan.

Since when would any young man on the streets have such terrifying strength?

Huh?

Seeing his attack being stopped by Wang Xian and feeling the intense pain cruising from his legs, Bei Wuying was astonished and jumped back immediately!

"It seems like I have underestimated you. Now you can die!"

Bei Wuying jumped into the air and kicked towards Wang Xian's head once again. His legs were moving so rapidly that they left afterimages.

Hehe!

Wang Xian lifted his Golden Ivory Fan and tapped towards these afterimages.

Every time he tapped, Bei Wuying's expression turned a little more solemn as fear crept upon him.

"Shit!"

Feeling his legs going numb, he immediately retreated.

Swish!

At this moment, Wang Xian opened his Golden Ivory Fan.

As he waved his arm, a golden glow shot out from all eighteen parts of the metal structure.

"What?"

Bei Wuying was flabbergasted. Seeing the metal glows that were approaching him rapidly, he gritted his teeth and swung out his right leg with forceful wind.

Ka ka ka!

Argh!

However, the sounds of bones cracking reverberated. Bei Wuying grimaced in pain and fell to the ground.

Both of his legs were drenched in blood. In some areas, the wounds were so deep that one could even see the bone. There were even cracks that appeared on the bone.

Bam!

Bei Wuying fell heavily onto the floor. He looked fearfully towards his legs and his body was shivering.

"You... How can you be so strong?" His eyes widened and were filled with disbelief.

A young brat that popped out of nowhere was able to easily defeat him. How... How can this be possible?

"Lots of young and promising talents have emerged this year. For a preliminary Inborn expert to be so arrogant, you must be tired of living!"

Wang Xian looked at Bei Wuying, who was on the ground, with contempt and returned the same words to him.

"Time to go. Let's go climb the mountain!"

Wang Xian turned around and flapped open the fan in his hand as he spoke to Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue, and the group. After which, the group strutted away as though they owned the streets.

"This... This..."

"Bei Wuying was defeated so easily! That young man is incredibly strong!"

"Who's that young man? Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown uses a sword while that young man uses a fan. I don't think they are the same person. Could it be that he's the demon-like genius from the Xiao Clan?"

"He isn't the demon-like genius from the Xiao Clan. The demon-like genius from Xiao Clan also uses a sword. Moreover, all the people from the Xiao Clan practice the fire attribute!"

"Another young Inborn expert? There are simply too many young Inborn experts that have emerged in the Underworld recently!"

The eighth-ranked talent in the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition had been easily defeated. And now, the one who defeated him was easily crushed by another young man. The Outstanding Young Heroes Competition this year was truly frightening!

Seeing the group disappearing from their sight, the crowd was still dumbfounded.

Other than some people in Southern Province, not many people in the Underworld knew what Wang Xian looked like.

Therefore, they had not managed to make the connection between the young man using a fan and Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown.

Furthermore, many demon-like talents had emerged in the Underworld recently. In their perspective, Wang Xian was just another one.

"The Outstanding Young Heroes Competition this year is indeed going to be more exciting and incredible than before!"

Wang Xian heard the comments of the crowd and couldn't help but smirk. This was because the dragonians would give all final participants a surprise.

"Xiao Xian, let's go to the mountain peak. The sun is setting and we can catch a glimpse of the sunset!"

Lan Qingyue and the girls rushed Wang Xian as they headed towards the peak of Huashan.

There weren't many tourists at the various scenic spots of Huashan. The girls headed towards the highest peak enthusiastically.

When they arrived at the peak of the mountain, the sun happened to be setting.

The evening sun illuminated the entire Huashan, creating a breath-taking scene before their eyes.

"Eh, take a look there! That's the Zhong Fang Immortal Bridge!" [\[1\]](#)

Suddenly, Guan Shuqing pointed in a direction as she exclaimed loudly.

At the southern cliff of Sanqing Hall on Huashan, one could vaguely spot a rainbow-like bridge. Shadows of people overlapped on the bridge as though there was a gathering of immortals.

"Zhong Fang Immortal Bridge!" Wang Xian mumbled to himself as he recalled a poem.

The incredible art of the Heavens, as though walking on the back of the rainbow. High into the sky of the birds and down to the soil of the Capital. People flocking to the extravagant palace while Deity Zijing plays the flute under the moon. When silence filled the night with loneliness, only the faint breeze could be heard.

This was the description of Zhong Fang Immortal Bridge on Huashan.

Zhong Fang Immortal Bridge was a rather mystical scenic spot of Huashan. At different times, one would see different illusions of Zhong Fang Immortal Bridge.

Why does it feel like there's a space at that spot?

Wang Xian frowned and squinted his eyes at the Zhong Fang Immortal Bridge. His senses were telling him that there seemed to be a material spatial world in that place.

As the sun fully set, the illusions of the Zhong Fang Immortal Bridge gradually dissipated. The enthusiasm of the girls also declined accordingly.

"Let's head back. I'm hungry!" Guan Shuqing rubbed her tummy and said with a grin.

"Alright, let's go back!"

Wang Xian put aside his queries as he headed down the mountain with the group.

However, what happened in the competition ground of Huashan today had caused a huge ruckus in the Underworld.

[Bei Wuying, who practiced the "Northern Kick" killed Prince Jade Sword easily. The next moment, a young man with a golden fan easily crippled Bei Wuying's legs.]

[Heavenly sounds linger! The fifth-ranked talent admits defeat to the fairy from

Heavenly Sound Sect!]

[Flower Monk annihilated a first-class force instantly with his buddha beads!]

[A mysterious young man was lifted by four Half-step to Inborn experts on a carriage up Huashan!]

[The arrival of the Sacred Clan, Xiao Clan. The youngest Inborn expert in history shows himself!]

Various bit of information spread from Huashan as the people in the Underworld discussed fervently.

The experts that became known to the public because they'd fought today were enough to shock everyone, and added colors to the Outstanding Young Heroes competition this year.

The mysterious young man with golden fan, the Saintess that resembled a fairy from the Heavenly Sound Sect, the terrifying Flower Monk, the mysterious young man in the carriage and the youngest Inborn expert in history.

And the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island who had announced he would be coming but had not shown himself.

The number of terrifying young experts had now reached six.

This was after the exclusion of the defeated Inborn expert, Bei Wuying.

As for the exact number of supreme talents that had not been discovered, no one really knew.

Nonetheless, the entire Underworld could already expect that the contest of this year's Outstanding Young Heroes Competition would be exceptionally intense and brutal.

It would be a once in a decade festival.

No one knew who would become the champion of the younger generation!

Endnote:

[1] Zhong Fang Immortal Bridge is an illusory bridge near Huashan in China. It isn't a real bridge but one that appears when certain climate conditions are met
Back

Chapter 435: Saints and Saintesses

"Have Xiao Yu and the rest arrived?"

The next day morning, Wang Xian asked Guan Shuqing, who was talking to Xiao Yu on the phone.

"Yes, they just reached the hotel, and they are having breakfast with the members of Thistles and Thorns Sect. We'll meet at the entrance to the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition!"

"Mm, the competition is finally starting today. I can't wait!"

Wang Xian chuckled as he looked at the restaurant in the hotel. Most of the Martial Artists were younger ones while the older generation was tagging along.

The Outstanding Young Heroes Competition is not child's play, and it is normal to sustain injuries or get killed in the competition.

"The competition this year is fu*king crazy. I thought I could get into the top 20 since I'm a Level 9 Martial Artist. Now, there's no chance at all!"

"To get into top 20, you must be at least a Half-step to Inborn, or a supreme-class Half-step to Inborn. Guess who I saw just now? Saint Qi and Saint Wen from the Sacred Sect, Dark Sect. Gosh, the number of young talents at Inborn Levels have almost reached ten."

"Based on past experience, there will be many formidable disciples from the Sacred Clans and Sacred Sects. Only Heavenly Sound Sect, Xiao Clan, and Dark Sect showed up now. I think there will be another three to four Saint-class forces showing up. Besides, the Saint-class forces will definitely send their Saintess and Saint to the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition this year."

"Apart from those Saint-class forces, the disciples of first-class forces would not be weak either. They are at least a half-step to Pinnacle Inborn!"

"The main characters for this chart this year will be those demon-like disciples and the Saintesses and Saints from Saint-class forces. The rest can just sit back and watch the show!"

"This year, we can only sit around and watch. Dig in. We need to get there soon!"

At this time, several young men walked over and placed their swords on the table while exchanging conversations with a sullen look.

Disciples from insignificant sects like them were not eligible to fight with the Saintesses and Saints.

"Let's go!" said Wang Xian to Guan Shuqing and the rest after taking a look at those young men.

"Xiao Xian, will you be participating this time?" asked Lan Qingyue to Wang Xian.

Wang Xian had recovered, but even he was unsure how strong he was now.

"Nope!"

Wang Xian shook his head and headed to Huashan. They arrived at the entrance where they held the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition.

"We'll wait here for a while. Xiao Yu will be here soon!" Guan Shuqing said as they arrived at a stone staircase at the side.

It was crowded with all the Martial Artists from around the country. All of them were in high spirits as they marched inside.

Some of the Martial Artists stood at the entrance, observing those young Martial Artists who entered.

"That's him. That monk who is extremely gruesome. He lacks the benevolence of a monk. Yesterday, a first-class force provoked him, and he just annihilated them straightaway. The Sect Leader, who was an Inborn Expert, was killed!"

"This monk possessed the strength to be crowned as the champion among the younger generation."

The surroundings broke out with exclamations when everyone turned to look at the monk in his robe.

Wang Xian checked him out with curiosity. A fair-looking monk in his kasaya. He had no burn marks, but rather, an odd-looking pattern on his head. Instead of serenity, he exhibited more of an evil vibe.

The monk arched his lips as he walked in with an evil, yet charming smile.

"They're here. That palanquin!"

At this time, a vintage sedan was carried in by four young men. No one could see the profile of that person inside the sedan.

"Haha, is that a babe in the sedan?"

Just then, a harsh and manly voice was heard from behind. Four young men were on the heels of that sedan. They were teasing loudly with their lips quirked as they looked over.

The one in the lead was riding a lion whose fur was thick. His imposing eyes were gazing around with a vibe of a lion king that was simply unapproachable.

Another three young men were riding leopards with two golden birds standing on one of their shoulders.

"Sss, they are the disciples from the Imperial Beast Sect, Sacred Sect. That must be the Roaring Lion, which is an Inborn Spiritual Beast. Scary!"

"What a surprise to see the Imperial Beast Sect this year. In the past few years, they did not send any disciples over."

"A sedan carried by four Half-step to Inborns and the disciples of Sacred Sect riding Inborn Spiritual Beasts. This is getting scarier!"

The crowd looked over with shock.

The four young men who were carrying the sedan paused for a moment and headed inside without much bother.

The young men from Imperial Beast Sect did not say anything as they rode the powerful Inborn Spiritual Beasts inside.

"The Saintess of Heavenly Sound Sect is here!"

"She's beautiful. She really lives up to the name of the Saintess of Heavenly Sound Sect."

"Not only is the Saintess of Heavenly Sound Sect pretty, but her voice is also intoxicating. I hope she can be crowned as the champion!"

Just then, Heavenly Sound Sect's disciples with their musical instruments at their backs walked in. The crowd was looking at them with an obsession.

"She advanced to Inborn Realm in such a short time. It looks like she was given a lot of resources after she was promoted to Saintess!"

Upon seeing the popular Tang Yinxuan carrying the Zither of Hao Zhong behind her, Wang Xian revealed a faint smile on his face.

As if sensing his gaze, Tang Yinxuan peered in his direction. After seeing Wang Xian, she slightly froze before she drew a smile.

"Wow, wow! The Saintess is smiling at me. Did you see it? Did you see it?"

A young man at the side was elated.

"Pretty?"

Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue stood on his left and right with their death stares on him.

"Oh, that Roaring Lion is really overbearing!"

Without a change in his expression, Wang Xian continued.

"You do have a strong desire to survive!"

"Qiao Clan, Sacred Clan is here!"

"See, it's another Inborn. Damn it. There are more than ten young Inborn Experts!"

"Are the Outstanding Five Devil Dragons here? If they are here, they will add on to the number of young Inborn Experts!"

"If Outstanding Five Devil Dragons and Dragon Seven Stars are here, it will be damn interesting. They'll just add up to another 12 Inborn Experts!"

"I wonder where did they come from. They are just too imba. I heard all of them were very powerful."

Everyone around chipped in their comments.

"They are here, disciples of Hua Family, Medical Saint Sect. Another Inborn Existence!"

"The current Clan Leader of Xiao Clan, Xiao Ran, is here too."

"Gosh, is he the current most talented teenager? He's so young!"

Xiao Ran, Clan Leader of Xiao Clan, Tang Yinxuan, Saintess of Heavenly Sound Sect, Hua Mingshan from Medical Saint Sect, Shi Ming from Imperial Beast Sect, Qiao Fuzi from Qiao Clan and Saint Qi and Saint Wen from Dark Sect.

The current most outstanding disciples of the six Saint-class forces.

On top of that, there was Flower Monk, a mysterious person in the sedan, the young man with the golden fan, and Hai Long, the young overlord.

That would make ten of them. If they added up the supreme talents from last year and those that were still hidden, there would be more than a dozen Inborn Experts.

Considering those new emerging people in the Underworld lately like the Outstanding Five Devil Dragons and Dragon Seven Stars, that made more than a score of Inborn supreme talents battling for the championship!

Chapter 436: The Champion Of The Younger Generation (1)

"Brother!"

While Wang Xian was watching the Saints and Saintesses from various powerful forces walking in, he heard Xiao Yu calling him from his side.

"Let's get in too!" Wang Xian said to Guan Shuqing and the girls before walking towards where Xiao Yu was.

Xiao Yu followed the crowd from the Thistles and Thorns Sect and waved towards Wang Xian and the girls.

"Let's go. It's about time!"

Wang Xian scrutinized Xiao Yu and Elder Fang from top to bottom.

Both of them were wearing uniformly black attire which resembled trimmed armor. They also each had a black longsword in their hands.

The skin-tight armor perfectly traced their figures. It was especially so for Elder Fang who had a great figure. The black armor made her resemble the goddess of darkness.

A dark charming aura emanated naturally from her. Her curves were what every man would desire.

"The outfit is pretty good!" Wang Xian took a few more glances before complimenting Xiao Yu.

"Hehe! Don't you think that I have the looks of a heroine now?" Xiao Yu swung the bone sword in her hand as she joked.

"Since it's black, you look more like the Dongfang Bubai!" [\[1\]](#)

"Hehe. Just watch how I'll go on a killing spree today and clinch the number one spot on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!" Xiao Yu remarked proudly.

"Let's go!" Wang Xian chuckled before walking in.

The armor-like outfit was formed from their extended skeletal structure. With their armor alone, anyone under the Half-Step to Dan Realm wouldn't be able to hurt them at all.

"Eh! Isn't that guy with the golden fan that mysterious young man from before?" At this juncture, a young man near Wang Xian stared at him and asked.

The crowd looked over and started observing Wang Xian curiously.

"This... This golden fan teenager seems to be Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. The one beside him is the Saintess of the Thistles and Thorns Sect, Wang Yu. She's also the sister of Miracle Doctor Wang. It has to be! He must be Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. Just look at the longsword at his waist!"

"The mysterious golden fan teenager is Miracle Doctor Wang! It's no surprise now that he could defeat Bei Wuying who has just reached the Inborn Realm. He's Miracle Doctor Wang, the number one on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!"

"Majestic and breathtaking. If it wasn't for Xiao Ran from the Xiao Clan, Miracle Doctor Wang would be the youngest Inborn expert!"

This time, everyone's attention had fallen on Wang Xian.

"Brother, with the folded fan and your five-colored divine dragon shirt, you look really flirtatious!" Xiao Yu teased him.

"What do you know about it?" Wang Xian chuckled.

His white casual attire had the printing of five-colored divine dragons. At the chest area, there were the words "Dragon Sect" embroidered.

Mo Qinglong had it custom made.

Rumble!

"What the... What's that!"

"Inborn spiritual beasts! Oh my god! They are using two Inborn spiritual beasts to pull the carriage!"

At this moment, the group heard a commotion from behind them. Following which, exclams of the crowd could be heard.

Wang Xian and the group looked over and were shocked to see a carriage moving rapidly towards them.

Two golden seahorses with terrifying aura were pulling the carriage. The two golden seahorses were over two meters large and they didn't have legs.

Below the golden seahorses, there was a ball of blue seawater. The seawater pulled their bodies as they moved rapidly forward.

Two ropes were tied to their backs and were connected to a carriage.

A young man sat on it with exquisite golden curtains in front of him to block the dust and sunlight.

Behind the carriage, two middle-aged men followed closely. They had terrifying vibes around them.

"It's the young lord of Sea Serpent Island!"

"He's the only son, Hai Long, of the Lord of Sea Serpent Island who was widely regarded as the second strongest in the country!"

"The entrance of the young lord of Sea Serpent Island is too extravagant! Two Inborn spiritual beasts to pull his carriage and another two Inborn experts following behind. Even the Saint and Saintess of Sacred Clans and Sacred Sects couldn't hold a candle to him!"

"He's the only son of the second strongest man in the Underworld. The resources he enjoys are even more than the Saints of the Sacred Sects. If it wasn't for the sudden appearance of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, the number one spot on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart would still belong to this young lord!"

The crowd was discussing fervently. As their eyes fell on the young lord of Sea Serpent Island, they turned next to Wang Xian and made a comparison.

"What do you guys think? Between the young lord of Sea Serpent Island and Miracle Doctor Wang, who is stronger?"

"My guess would be the young lord of Sea Serpent Island. After all, he's the only son of the second strongest man in the Underworld. His strength isn't something that Miracle Doctor Wang could match!"

"Just take a look at this line-up. It's not even a fair comparison!"

"Although Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is powerful, there are too many supreme talents this year. I'm guessing that Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown would at most make it to the top five!"

"That's my guess too!"

"I'll bet on the young lord of Sea Serpent Island to clinch the championship in a while!"

The surrounding crowd was enthusiastic about the event.

"What an ostentatious display!" Xiao Yu looked towards the young lord of Sea Serpent Island and exclaimed in shock.

"Let's go!" Wang Xian chuckled before walking in.

Behind them, the young lord of Sea Serpent Island followed and entered the area.

More and more people were heading in. When those who were here for a show saw the time, they also headed in the same direction.

More and more people had gathered at the entrance. At this moment, five young men walked forward without expressions.

Soon, another seven young men walked in.

In the end, other than some random people entering the place, another group of thirty young men also headed in.

"Wow, what a huge area." When Wang Xian and the group entered, Xiao Yu instantly exclaimed in shock.

There was an incomparably huge field with a twenty-meter-tall stone monument in the middle.

That's the Named Cliff!

The top twenty supreme talents would earn the rights to leave their name on it based on the rankings.

Around it, there were several elevated arenas to be used for battles.

At the two sides, there were four exceptionally huge service counters.

The competition of the supreme talents would always attract the strongest members of the younger generation to participate. The first reason being one could become famous and the second was the rewards.

The organizer of this competition would also be receiving bets for the competition. Everyone would be able to place their bets.

The organizer would give all spiritual stones, spiritual grass and other items that were earned in the event to the supreme talents.

Besides that, if the challenger were to lose in the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition, he'd have to pay a price. The price could be the weapon one was using or any other items.

One could even get an Inborn Spiritual Weapon here.

Moreover, if one party was dead, everything that belonged to the defeated would be transferred to the victor.

Because of this rule, the battles of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart were a lot more brutal.

However, this was the Underworld. Conflicts would never be lacking. If one had mediocre battle strength, he wouldn't become a supreme talent even if he had amazing gifts.

"Should we go place our bets?"

Xiao Yu looked around her and saw a substantial number of people gathering before the service counters.

"Let's go and take a look!" Wang Xian smiled and walked towards the direction.

When they had just entered the place, the group of young men had noticed their group.

To put it more accurately, they had noticed Wang Xian.

The title of the number one on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart still belonged to him!

Endnote:

[1] Dongfang Bubai is a character in one of the four Chinese novel classics Back

Chapter 437: The Champion Of The Younger Generation (2)

"Young Master, that's Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown."

"Has Uncle Bian found the killer?"

"Not yet, but the possibility of it being Miracle Doctor Wang's doing is quite high. Sect Master Bian has prepared to strike."

"Oh, really?"

"The information that Sect Master Bian received was that Young Master Bian lost contact ever since he reached Shang Jing. Back then, Miracle Doctor Wang was in Shang Jing too!"

"Brother Quan was my playmate since we were young. How dare someone murder him. The killer deserves to die!"

Back at the center of the field stood three people from Medical Saint Sect. Among which, the young man, Hua Mingshan, in the middle was staring in Wang Xian's direction. Flashese of cold radiance blinked in his eyes.

"Miracle Doctor Wang has domineering talents, and his Arts of Refining Elixir Pills was better than Young Master Bian!" an old man at the side whispered to Hua Mingshan.

"Since he can kill Brother Quan, who was protected by the Poison Duo, I don't think he's that simple. He must possess a strength near Pinnacle Inborn!"

Hua Mingshan squinted his eyes slightly together as murderous intent flashed in his eyes as he stared daggers at Wang Xian.

"With an Inborn Spiritual Weapon in his possession, no average Inborn Experts is of his match," said that old man slowly as he noticed the Zhan Lu Sword at Wang Xian's waist.

"Bian Family of Medical Saint Sect is better at refining medicines while the Hua Family is more proficient in combat. I'll take care of this Miracle Doctor Wang, so that Brother Quan can rest in peace too!" Hua Mingshan said at a slow pace.

"Young Master, should we inform Sect Master Bian?" asked the old man with a frown.

"No. Let's meet this guy first!"

Hua Mingshan lifted his chin slightly.

Bian Family and Hua Family of Medical Saint Sect had different fortes. Bian Family was better at refining medicines while Hua Family was more skilled in combat.

Their most outstanding disciples of Medical Saint Sect were Bian Yaoquan and Hua Mingshan.

In Medical Saint Sect, it was easy to groom an Inborn Expert with elixir pills.

Outstanding Young Heroes Chart was not the focus of Medical Saint Sects. As such, they would only send a disciple here to exhibit their prowess every few years.

A disciple from Medical Saint Sect had already attended last year. Hua Mingshan had not been preparing to come this year. But he changed his mind when he found that Wang Xian was attending.

Since young, Hua Mingshan had been taking all kinds of precious elixir pills, and he had advanced to Inborn a few years ago.

Besides, Hua Family's cultivation was wood attributed. With the special Spiritual Grass as supplements, their combat power would be extremely domineering.

All Saint-class forces had their own strong advantages.

...

"Young Lord, that is Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown!"

Two powerful Inborn Spiritual Beasts were lying at the other side of the field while the Young Lord of Hai Long lifted open the veil and looked at the surroundings with some slack.

None of the forces dared to approach this place. All of them stood far away and looked over with awe.

Not even the people from Sacred Sects or Sacred Clans dared to come near them.

As the only son of the second most formidable person in the Underworld, his status was even higher than that of Saint. Besides, the Lord of Hai Jiao was a legend in his own lifetime. Even the Sacred Sects had to beware of him!

"Oh?" Hai Long looked over with a faint smile on his face. "The competition this year is far more interesting than before. So many people are here, which makes the game even more exciting!"

...

Saint Qi and Saint Wen of Dark Sect were standing alongside Sun Longxuan, having conversations as they cast their attention in Wang Xian's direction.

Some of the disciples from the Sacred Clan also looked over with curiosity.

Xiao Ran was standing in the center among Xiao Clan's people. He was beaming as he looked at his master with a sense of pride surfacing on his face. "If my master participates in this ranking, no one will be his match!"

"Hehe, he'll be a bully if he does."

Several elders around him immediately flattered him.

But what they said was from the bottom of their hearts too. Even Laozu also remarked on the domineering prowess of Miracle Doctor Wang for coaching a fifteen-year-old Inborn Expert.

Naturally, he was of the same realm as Laozu.

For such an expert to attend the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition, that would be abuse.

"This time, I'll strive to get a good ranking so that I'll not bring shame to my master!"

Xiao Ran chuckled as his youthful appearance was filled with fighting spirit.

All the eyes of the elders in Xiao Family were filled with admiration and impressiveness as they looked at the young Clan Leader.

...

"Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown?"

Just when Wang Xian and Xiao Yu were standing at the front desk, checking the odds for all the supreme talents, they heard a cold voice.

Wang Xian raised his eyebrows as he spun around.

The familiar outfit with a huge 'Saint' on it indicated the difference in their level of forces.

Medical Saint Sect!

Wang Xian looked at the young man who was staring at him. He cast his sight to the side, and there was an old man and a middle-aged man too.

"What's up?"

"Nothing much. I just wanted to meet you and check with you about something."

Hua Mingshan squinted his eyes a little. "Have you seen my brother Bian Yaoquan?"

"Hur? Your brother is missing, and you're looking for him at my side?"

Wang Xian threw Hua Mingshan a taunting look. He swept his gaze across the surroundings and noticed many people turning their attention in their direction.

"You know what I'm saying, don't you?"

Hua Mingshan glowered at Wang Xian with a cold look. In his hand, he was holding on to an emerald twig that looked like some jewelry.

"What's going on? Why did Hua Mingshan of Medical Saint Sect look for Miracle Doctor Wang? Are they going to spar?"

"The competition has not even started yet. Do they have some conflicts?"

"Through their conversations, it seems like another disciple of Medical Saint Sect was involved!"

The crowd over at the front desk was caught by surprise when they overheard their conversations.

Generally, the battle between a Saint and a supreme talent happened in the arena. Why did Hua Mingshan look for Miracle Doctor Wang?

"I have seen three people from Medical Saint Sect. One young man who was tired of living and another two old men. I'm not sure if you're referring to that person!"

Wang Xian arched his lips slightly as he replied to Hua Mingshan plainly.

"Tired of living?" Hua Mingshan slowly turned the branch in his hand with killing intent flashing in his eyes. "Looks like the death of Bian Yaoquan of Medical Saint Sect really has got something to do with you!"

"Haha," Wang Xian chuckled. "If you're talking about that fellow who was tired of living, just say it. It's not a big deal anyway."

"He's dead!" He beamed as he spat out the words with a casual face.

Hua Mingshan was stunned, and so were the surrounding people. Apparently, they were caught off guard when Wang Xian announced the death so easily.

Hua Mingshan of Medical Saint Sect was clearly questioning Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown about whether he had killed another disciple.

With no clear evidence, no one would own up to offending a Sacred Sect under this circumstance.

Yet, Miracle Doctor Wang admitted it straight away by saying that the person was dead. In other words, it was clear that he had killed that person.

This...

Everyone found it unbelievable. All of them felt that this Miracle Doctor Wang was rather... too full of himself!

"Why? Do you want me to send the body to you?" Wang Xian threw him a disdainful look, "Bian Yaoquan from the Medical Saint Sect attempted to ambush me previously. It was only natural that I send him to hell!"

Chapter 438: The Champion Of The Younger Generation (3)

"Bian Yaoquan from the Medical Saint Sect attempted to ambush me previously. It's only natural that I send him to hell!" Wang Xian's voice reverberated across the crowd. He was completely casual in tone when he said it.

However, a lot of people felt their hearts skip a beat because of what he said as they were clearly dumbfounded.

"Miracle Doctor Wang admitted to killing the disciple of the Medical Saint Sect?"

"This... Is this confidence or arrogance?"

"No matter what, he's too darn cool. He killed the disciple of the Medical Saint Sect just because he tried to ambush him. Moreover, he admitted to it without any fear!"

The surrounding crowd was astonished as their eyes widened and stared at Wang Xian. At the same time, they couldn't help but exclaim at the thought of the incident!

A short distance away, several young men and the disciples of various Sacred Sects raised an eyebrow. They hesitated for a moment before walking over.

This was a huge incident. Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown had admitted to killing a disciple from the Medical Saint Sect.

"Great. Great. I had not expected our brother from the Medical Saint Sect to be really killed by you!"

When Hua Mingshan heard Wang Xian, his face immediately sank as he stared at Wang Xian, brimming with killing intent.

"Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, you are the first person to ever dare to kill the disciple of our Medical Saint Sect. You are also the one that is most deserving of death!"

The old and middle-aged men beside Hua Mingshan also squinted their eyes which were beaming with killing intent.

They had not expected Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown to admit to killing the disciple of Medical Saint Sect so casually.

His casual tone was a clear insult to their Medical Saint Sect!

"Hehe. If you wish to kill me, you'd better be prepared to be killed. Do you think I wouldn't dare to make a move just because you guys are from a Sacred Sect?"

Wang Xian looked at Hua Mingshan with ridicule as he continued. "Since he dared to offend me, he better be prepared to die. The Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild were one example. Your Medical Saint Sect won't be an exception!"

"Damn! How dominant is he! So what if they are Sacred Sects?"

"I have long heard that Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is exceptionally arrogant and today I have finally witnessed it with my own eyes. He's my idol!"

"To be daring enough to admit he killed a disciple of the Medical Saint Sect, it's clear that he's making the Medical Saint Sect his enemy. Now I'm really curious why the incident with the Sacred Followers Guild ended without a clear explanation!"

"It feels like Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is going to get himself killed after offending Sacred Sect after Sacred Sect. The Medical Saint Sect isn't like the Sacred Followers Guild. The Medical Saint Sect adopted a family-style format. The Medical Saint Sect would never just let it go like the Sacred Followers Guild after he killed a disciple of the Bian Family."

"Sigh. I hope Miracle Doctor Wang has the strength to back his words. It's a natural thing to do since the disciple of the Medical Saint Sect wanted to kill him first. However..."

When the crowd heard Wang Xian, they exclaimed in astonishment.

No one dared to say the same things Wang Xian had. If the disciples of a Sacred Sect offended you, you could either tolerate it or assassinate them without being discovered by the Sacred Sect.

Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown was definitely the first one to admit his actions so openly.

"Haha. How incredible! It's no surprise you are ranked top on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart. Just considering your guts, no one would be a match. The only uncertainty is whether you will be finished off by the Medical Saint Sect subsequently!"

At this moment, a coarse voice sounded from the side.

The crowd immediately looked over and realized it was Shi Ming from the Imperial Beast Sect. He seemed to have a little admiration for Wang Xian after the incident.

"Tsk! He's simply courting his own death. For a person to go against a Sacred Sect, he must be tired of living!" At the other end, Qiao Fuzi from the Qiao Clan stared at Wang Xian with disdain as he remarked coldly.

The crowd followed the voice and looked over once again. They saw Qiao Fuzi from the Qiao Clan crossing his arms before his chest with disdain beaming in his eyes.

"So what if he was to go against a Sacred Sect. I wouldn't offend others if they didn't offend me. If the disciple of a Sacred Sect is courting death, he deserves his death. There's no way one should endure the humiliation!"

Xiao Ran from the Xiao Clan had just arrived when he heard Qiao Fuzi. He replied plainly as he stared coldly at him.

Huh?

Qiao Fuzi's felt a little insulted as he turned and glowered at Xiao Ran. His eyes beamed as he commented, "A disciple of a Sacred Clan dares to make such claims?"

"A guy who becomes arrogant by relying on his family or sect will just be trash at the end of the day!" Xiao Ran replied plainly to Qiao Fuzi!

"Sss. F*ck! These words are too domineering!"

"A person who becomes arrogant because of his background will just be trash! Damn! This quote from the demon-like talent from Xiao Clan is just darned passionate!"

"It's no surprise he's a demon-like talent that has reached the Inborn Realm at the age of fifteen. For him to be able to say such words and have such a mentality, we aren't a match for him!"

"Strength rules in the Underworld. People might be fearful because you are a disciple of a Sacred Sect but they would never respect you. Only true experts can command respect. He's indeed deserving of the title of the youngest Inborn expert in history!"

The surrounding crowd looked towards Xiao Ran with shock and admiration. There were few people who could say those words. Moreover, he was a disciple of a Sacred Clan. One could say that there wouldn't be a second person like him.

It's no surprise he could become an Inborn expert at such a young age. Other than the resources he has, he also has the right mentality and attitude.

"YOU..."

Qiao Fuzi glowered at Xiao Ran as his expression changed drastically. They were both disciples of Sacred Clans but Xiao Ran's noble words had completely embarrassed him.

"At this moment, you should be saying you will wait for our contest in the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition and speak with your strength. I will agree to your request!" Looking at Qiao Fuzi, who had turned furious from embarrassment, Xiao Ran commented plainly.

"Lololol... How domineering!"

"I can now understand why the Laozu of Xiao Clan has designated him to be the clan leader. He's simply too cool!"

"He's my idol from now onwards. To speak with strength and not be arrogant because of his background! Haha!"

"Wow. This little brother is so handsome. I'll wait for you to grow up and I'll marry you!"

"With your looks, don't even bother thinking of marrying the young clan leader of a Sacred Clan. He's a fifteen-year-old Inborn expert and could very well reach a higher realm when given time. All I wanted to ask is if the young clan leader is alright with guys? If he's only interested in girls, it's fine too. I can go to Thailand!"

The surrounding crowd erupted into a raucous discussion from what Xiao Ran said. This was the demeanor that a supreme talent should possess.

"Great, great! Just you wait! I'm going to let you kneel before me when the time comes!" Qiao Fuzi's was flushed as he stared harshly at Xiao Ran. His expression had also turned hideous.

"Judging from what had transpired, this disciple of Qiao Clan is a far cry from the young clan leader of the Xiao Clan in the aspects of both mentality and demeanor of an expert!"

"It would seem Xiao Clan has a true supreme talent. This guy will definitely not be ordinary in the future!"

Around them, the elders of the Saint and Saintess were looking at Xiao Ran in awe.

Several Elders of the Xiao Clan, who were standing beside Xiao Ran, were extremely proud. This was their young clan leader and his actions had been exceptionally dominant!

At the side, there were also several disciples from Sacred Sects and Clans who looked at this overly young Inborn expert with surprise and astonishment.

Tang Yinxuan smiled faintly as she looked to Xiao Ran, turned to Hua Mingshan from the Medical Saint Sect and eventually turned to Wang Xian.

"He's still as domineering as before."

Recalling how this young man had annihilated the entire Dark Conjurers because of two disciples, and killed the Saint and Saintess of her Heavenly Sound Sect, she could feel her heart thumping violently.

In this generation of youths, who could be a match for him?

"Great! How domineering! Let me tell you this! No matter who you are and no matter what your reasons, you will die for killing the disciple of our Medical Saint Sect!"

Chapter 439: The Champion Of The Younger Generation (4)

"Great! How domineering! Let me tell you this! No matter who you are and whatever reasons you have, you will die for killing the disciple of our Medical Saint Sect!"

Hua Mingshan's exasperated voice resounded as he stood there, watching Wang Xian with a pair of murderous eyes.

Everyone was taken aback, and at the same time, they were impressed. Miracle Doctor Wang was impressive, and he had guts. But even so, the Medical Saint Sect would not let him off!

Medical Saint Sect was a dominant Sacred Sect that had a long history. Such an existence with a deep foundation was definitely daunting.

Besides, they had powerful alchemists who could cultivate experts that were beyond any imagination!

"You will die!"

Hua Mingshan glowered at Wang Xian as he spat out the words.

Wang Xian raised his eyebrows with a faint smile on his face.

Behind him, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan exhibited a frosty look as they came forward, fixing their deadly eyes on the old man and the middle-aged man beside Hua Mingshan.

"In this case, we shall see!"

Wang Xian grinned at Hua Mingshan.

Boom!

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan released their aura instantly as they locked their domineering vibe on the old man and the middle-aged man.

"Brother, let me protect you. Hehe, I'll handle this fellow!" said Xiao Yu to Wang Xian with a smile. A tinge of coldness flashed in her eyes when she noticed Hua Mingshan staring at Wang Xian with killing intent.

At present, she already possessed a strong power, which allowed her to resolve some matters for her elder brother.

She was no longer the younger sister who needed protection from her brother.

As Xiao Yu spoke, she stepped forward with the bone sword in her hand, giving off a faint demonic aura. She fixed her deadly eyes on Hua Mingshan.

The crowd froze as everyone was shocked.

They struck! The few people beside Miracle Doctor Wang struck instantly.

"Damm, what is this going on? Are they trying to exterminate the people from Medical Saint Sect?"

"They...They are going to fight! It's an obvious life-or-death battle!"

"Impressive. Hua Mingshan has been rattling away for such a long time without making any moves. As a result, Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown is going to strike!"

"They're completely in the bad books of Medical Saint Sect!"

When the crowd saw Xiao Yu, Mo Qinglong, and Mo Yuan, they were appalled!

"Sure!"

Wang Xian nodded in reply to Xiao Yu as he looked at Hua Mingshan with a sneer on his face.

Since they are enemies, just kill them off. What's the point of talking so much!

"Fine!"

Hua Mingshan had mixed expression as he clenched his fist while glaring at

Wang Xian. He swept his gaze slowly towards Xiao Yu. "Today, we'll slaughter all of you!"

Initially, he had wanted to kill Miracle Doctor Wang off at the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition. But he did not expect the other party to be so arrogant.

"You talk too much!"

Xiao Yu scoffed as she moved, lunging at Hua Mingshan.

Hmph!

Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan scorned and made a swift movement towards the old man and the middle-aged man beside Hua Mingshan.

The domineering vibe struck fear into everyone around them, who quickly receded.

"Who's that young lady? She looks so young. How did she explode such daunting power?"

"That's Miracle Doctor Wang's younger sister. It's a surprise that she has also advanced to the Inborn Realm!"

"Another demon-like talent. Damn, why are there so many young Inborns now!"

Everyone was appalled by the vibe exhibited by Xiao Yu. All of them staggered back.

Upon seeing Xiao Yu assaulting him, Hua Mingshan revealed a bloodthirsty and malevolent look. He swung his arm and stuck the emerald twig on the floor.

Ka Ka Ka!

With a single move of his arm, the twig penetrated the hard and durable ground, rooted, and multiplied.

Soon, a two-meter weird tree grew up, bearing twigs with sharp thorns that looked extremely prickly.

"This is the combat style of Hua Family, Medical Saint Sect. The Art of Cultivation they practiced is of wood attributes. If they were in the woods, their strength would be more powerful!"

"This kind of cultivation has a weak combat power at the preliminary stage. But when they advance to the Inborn Realm, they are able to control the plants around them, which makes them a difficult opponent."

"This twig must come from a Spiritual Tree that can be used for controlling combat."

The crowd erupted into discussions when they witnessed Hua Mingshan's way of attacking.

While not many people had seen how the Hua Family struck, they had mostly heard about it.

Even the people from other Saint-class forces were curious to find out. After all, Medical Saint Sect was considered a semi-secluded Sacred Sect, which was rarely involved in any combat.

"I'll slaughter you first, then the other fellow who is tired of living!"

Hua Mingshan stood before the Spiritual Tree as he glared at Xiao Yu with an icy face. With a swing, he injected green energy into the Spiritual Tree.

He raised his arm and brought it down, sending twigs with sharp thorns towards Xiao Yu.

"Hur?"

Xiao Yu hesitated when she saw the twigs attack. She wielded her bone sword at it straight away.

"Oh, ignorance!"

Upon seeing her move, Hua Mingshan's eyes were filled with contempt.

How could any weapon counter the Spiritual Scale Tree? Not only could weapons not counter the twigs, but the twig could also wrap itself around weapons.

Hua Mingshan raised his arm, bringing about dozens of sharp twigs dancing in the air. They darted out towards Xiao Yu, just like flexible snakes.

Hmph!

Xiao Yu snorted as the bone sword gave off black radiance with an edge, slashing all the twigs.

Bang, bang, bang!

"What? How is this possible?"

When the bone sword and the twigs collided, the twigs of Spiritual Scale Tree broke off easily.

Disbelief filled Hua Mingshan's face as he was astounded.

"Hmph, it only has the looks!"

Upon seeing the frail twigs, Xiao Yu was full of disdain. Moving in a quick stance, she lunged with her sword at Hua Mingshan.

"No, it can't be. This is impossible!"

Hua Mingshan could not believe this. The stem of Spiritual Scale Tree stretched forward from behind as the two-meter sharp thorn extended towards Xiao Yu.

"Counter, Point, Slay!"

Xiao Yu maintained a consistent look while shaking an afterimage out from the bone sword.

Bang, bang, bang!

All the twigs from Spiritual Scale Tree broke off easily and fell to the ground.

"This... this Hua Mingshan is so weak!"

"Thrashing! That's so weak. I don't feel that he's as strong as a Half-step to Inborn!"

"Yes, I agree. Medical Saint Sect is well-known for their medical skills and Art of Refining. For their combat skills, eh... They feel so weak!"

"He's inadequate, and yet, he actually declared that he wants to kill other people. Isn't this digging his own grave?"

Everyone was stunned and slightly at a loss of words when they witnessed how easily Xiao Yu defeated Hua Mingshan.

From what they saw, the battle between Xiao Yu and Hua Mingshan was simple.

Her sword cut the twigs easily, and it was a done deal. This Hua Mingshan was a noob!

Argh!

At this time, there were two devastating cries from the side. The old man and middle-aged man from Medical Saint Sect had fallen to the ground with eyes full of desperation!

Chapter 440: The Champion Of The Younger Generation

Rumble!

Argh!

A dull impact noise and two pitiful cries reverberated throughout the competition field of the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition.

The entire crowd had turned towards the source of the noises and everyone was shocked to see the old and middle-aged men from the Medical Saint Sect on the floor.

"Those two middle-aged men with Miracle Doctor Wang are really strong!"

"Really, really strong! The old and middle-aged men from the Medical Saint Sect were completely overwhelmed. Those two middle-aged men that are emitting devilish aura are at least Pinnacle Inborn experts. They might very well be even stronger!"

"Is it my misconception? Why do I feel that the people from the Medical Saint Sect are really weak? They were completely crushed!"

The surrounding crowd were stunned and were discussing softly among themselves when they saw the old and middle-aged men being killed on the spot.

"What! How dare you kill the people from our Medical Saint Sect!" At this moment, Hua Mingshan was furious upon hearing the cries. Fear flashed in his eyes as he growled softly.

Hehe!

Hearing Hua Mingshan, the surrounding crowd found him hilarious.

It didn't matter if Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown was arrogant or simply courting his demise. Now that he had struck, he would be going after your life next.

Saying those words at this point was hilarious.

"The people from Sacred Sects have been arrogant for too long to the point that they believe no one dares to kill them!" a young man mumbled to himself as his eyes fixed on Hua Mingshan.

The surrounding disciples of the Sacred Sects were taken aback as they witnessed the disciples of the Medical Saint Sect being slaughtered before their eyes. They looked to Wang Xian, raised an eyebrow and sank into thought.

"Don't you find it hilarious to say such words now?" Xiao Yu looked coldly at Hua Mingshan as she waved the longsword in her hand towards Hua Mingshan.

"YOU... Our Medical Saint Sect won't let you off. Not a single one of you is getting away. Just wait for the endless revenge from our Medical Saint Sect!" Hua Mingshan screeched wretchedly. Cold sweat had filled his forehead.

Seeing the impossibly sharp bone sword, he gritted his teeth.

Swish swish swish!

The branches of the Spiritual Scale Tree wiggled rapidly and weaved together to become an exceptionally huge wooden spear.

"Is that all you got?"

Seeing the changes to the Spiritual Scale Tree, contempt gleamed in Xiao Yu's eyes as she threw herself forward with the bone sword.

The Spiritual Scale Tree was just like a poisonous snake with sharp thorns. It grew to over five meters long and struck towards Xiao Yu.

"Kill!" shouted Xiao Yu.

The bone sword in her hand emitted a black glow that extended to over a meter long.

The black glow had turned the bone sword into a giant blade that slashed against the Spiritual Scale Tree.

Ka ka ka!

Sounds of the Spiritual Scale Tree cracking reverberated while the bone sword slashed toward Hua Mingshan as though there was nothing in its way.

"No!"

Hua Mingshan was desperate. He dodged, turned around and fled immediately.

"Running? It's a little too late for that!"

Seeing Hua Mingshan running away, ruthlessness gleamed in the eyes of Mo Yuan. He moved and caught up with Hua Mingshan instantly.

Bam!

A terrifying devil claw gripped onto his back instantly.

The next moment, it pierced through his body.

Cough cough!

Hua Mingshan's body stiffened and he was spitting out a mouthful of blood.

He turned around and looked towards the direction where Wang Xian was with disbelief.

"I... Our Medical Saint Sect will never... never... let you off!"

Bam!

Hua Mingshan fell to the ground and vitality deserted him.

When the crowd saw Hua Mingshan being killed before them, they felt a chill run down their spines.

Thinking back, Hua Mingshan was still basking in the limelight a while ago. He arrived here as the disciple of the Medical Saint Sect and one would regard him as a distinguished guest. When he was here, he was looking down on everyone around him.

It was also because of his connection with the Medical Saint Sect that he was brazen and felt that no one dared to offend him. This eventually led to his death.

"He's indeed savage and brutal! How lucky are we... Fortunately...!"

Saint Qi and Saint Wen, who were standing beside Sun Longxuan a short distance away, swallowed their saliva. They could feel cold sweat over their foreheads.

Fortunately, he had not offended Miracle Doctor Wang completely the previous time. Otherwise, even his identity of being the son of the richest man in the Southern Province would mean nothing.

"He's really fearless!" Saint Qi and Saint Wen exchanged glances and heaved a sigh of relief.

"However, this type of person often dies young. No matter how great his talents are, it will just be a matter of time until he is killed because of his arrogance!" A short distance away, Qiao Fuzi snorted. He looked at Wang Xian and contempt flashed in his eyes.

"Those who are insanely gifted often die prematurely. Considering his personality, Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown won't live past a few years!"

"He's too fearless. The Underworld has its rules and a Sacred Sect is a Sacred Sect after all. Considering his style of actions, he won't survive for long!"

"Unless he can run to a faraway place, otherwise, the Medical Saint Sect will definitely finish him off. Even if that means deploying all the strength of the Medical Saint Sect, they won't let him off!"

"He was blinded by anger. In my opinion, Miracle Doctor Wang is too foolish to offend a Sacred Sect completely. The consequences won't be that simple!"

"Perhaps he felt he could be fearless and disregard all rules after living well subsequent to slaughtering the Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild!"

Seeing Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown ordering his men to kill the three people from the Medical Saint Sect, the surrounding crowd was stunned. At the same time, they felt that Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown was fearless.

It was especially so for the disciples from strong backgrounds. When they witnessed the development, they snorted.

The current Miracle Doctor Wang did look incredible when he ordered his guys to kill the disciples of a Sacred Sect in the public.

However, they knew clearly the consequences he had to bear after the moment of glory.

"Hehe! This is interesting. This is interesting!"

Flower Monk looked at Wang Xian and squinted his eyes. "The battles of the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition aren't contests of one's background. They are contests of strength!"

"That's right. The titles of Saint or Saintess mean nothing here. The champion of the younger generation isn't something you can obtain by relying on your background."

A bewitching young man stared at the crowd before turning his attention to Shi Ming from Imperial Beast Sect and revealing a cunning smirk.

He was that demon-like young man in the carriage.

"Hehehe! That's right! The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart is all about one's personal strength. In a while, I'd like to seek guidance from everyone here!" At this juncture, the crisp voice of a lady resonated. The crowd turned around and saw a young girl in the traditional attire of a minority group. She had over ten metal rings around her neck and was flicking her hair flirtatiously.

"Let's meet again in the arena!" a young man commented plainly before turning around and heading in another direction.

The atmosphere of a battle was starting to form. Outstanding young disciples from all over the world lifted their heads proudly while looking at their competitors. They were all confident in what they were capable of.

Having reached the Inborn Realm at a young age, they were all favored by gods and fully confident in themselves.

Even when facing other insanely gifted talents, they didn't feel that they would lose.

They strongly believed they were the champions of the younger generation.

Chapter 441: Sacred Sect: Dragon Sect (1)

"Young Lord, the two middle-aged men behind Miracle Doctor Wang possess formidable strength. One of them should have advanced to Half-Step to Dan Realm!"

"Oh, really? That Miracle Doctor Wang is really one of a kind to have such forces at such an age!"

Back at the center of the competition field, the Young Lord swept his gaze across the three bodies on the floor and beamed.

"He's not bad, but I'm afraid it's going to be over for him after he offended the Medical Saint Sect. Unless he goes into hiding, he'll be doomed!"

"Not everyone could possess invincible strength like our Lord!"

The two middle-aged men were evaluating everything plainly as they remained unwavering when Wang Xian's gang killed the three disciples of the Sacred Sect.

"You're right. Not everyone possesses the strength of my father!"

Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island revealed a prideful look as his father was the goal in his life.

Hai Jiao, a well-known figure in the Underworld who was awe inspiring.

He possessed a reputation that was similar to that of a Sacred Sect.

Not many people knew that his father had annihilated a Saint-class force overseas. He was unrivaled and was one of the best in the entire Asian sea region.

Besides, he knew that his father had far more power than anyone could imagine!

"Which force does the girl from Miaojiang, Flower Monk, and that fair-looking young man come from?" asked the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island as he stepped off from the carriage and looked around the field.

"If I'm not mistaken, the Flower Monk should be from Devil Spirits Temple, and that young man is from Devil Corpse Palace!"

A middle-aged man speculated with a stern look.

"Devil Spirits Temple and Devil Corpse Palace!"

The Young Lord was slightly stunned as he narrowed his pupils. "Two from the diabolism? Is the diabolism emerging?"

"No idea, but if they do, the Underworld will be in chaos again!" the middle-aged man said with a sunken expression as he recalled.

The so-called diabolism was not talking about practicing Arts of Cultivation that were of devil attributes. It was also not referring to those eccentric and unreasonable people who went around killing the innocents.

The true demons controlled corpses, turned humans into puppets, sucked the Blood Essence of others. They inflicted harm on other people just to enhance their cultivation.

This bunch of people and their practice was known by the Underworld as diabolism, as what they practiced was evil.

The diabolism was once being annihilated by Saint-class forces led by Donghua Sacred Sect and the other powerful ancestral sects.

Whereas Nie Wushuang, the Sect Leader of Donghua Sacred Sect, was known to be the number one strongest expert in the Underworld during this annihilation.

Since then, diabolism went into seclusion, and they had not made an appearance for the past fifty years.

"Devil Spirits Temple enhanced their cultivation by condensing bloodlust to extract Blood Essences from humans and other living beings. Subsequently, they will refine and feed on it. Devil Corpse Palace will refine themselves or other people into corpses. The Cultivation Arts of these two sects are extremely gruesome. Since they are here to participate in the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart, I guess diabolism is going to be active again!"

The Young Lord displayed the trace of a smile on his face. "Looks like the opponents that are in my way to attaining the role of champion of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart will be these two fellows "

"Given your strength of Pinnacle Inborn, coupled with a few Inborn Spiritual Weapons, so what if they are from diabolism? Still, they had to go into hiding to survive fifty years ago!"

The middle-aged man giggled as he flattered the Young Lord.

"Haha, even so, we cannot underestimate them. Let's go."

The Young Lord put on a confident look and strode towards the arena.

The crew from the organizer was standing at the stage; all the surrounding disciples were moving towards the stage as well.

Disciples of various ancestral sects divided themselves clearly on one side.

There were five arenas in the field, which could hold five competitions at one time.

Wang Xian, Xiao Yu, and the rest headed for the biggest arena at the center.

The remaining disciples of Sacred Sects were also going for the same arena.

"It's going to start soon. Gosh, I just made a count secretly. There were more than a dozen supreme talents of Inborn level. More than a dozen! That's four to five times more than in the past!"

"There's no chance for us. But we didn't make a wasteful trip since we can watch those outstanding supreme talents fighting among themselves!"

"Those experts below the Inborn levels are going to be awkward. They can only be ranked after the tenth!"

"The ones who came are getting more impressive!"

The young disciples sized up all the mighty supreme talents from the side as they exchanged views in whispers.

When Wang Xian and gang came to the arena, Xiao Ran and his clan members were already standing below the stage. Xiao Ran gave him a hearty smile.

"Long time no see, Miracle Doctor Wang!"

Just then, a voice that was music to the ears was heard from the side.

Wang Xian spun around and saw Tang Yinxuan. With a smile, he said, "Miss Tang, how...are..."

As he greeted her, he could feel the muscles at his waist convulsing. He drew his lips and looked towards Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue beside him.

"Haha, Miracle Doctor Wang is getting more and more suave!"

When Tang Yinxuan spotted Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue by the side, there was an inexplicable look in her eyes. Her voice turned slightly cold.

Cough!

Wang Xian gave an awkward smile and kept his silence.

Several elders beside Tang Yinxuan were puzzled as they looked at her. Then, they whispered a few words to her.

"The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart ranks you by your strength. I'm sure everyone is clear about the rules. Anyone can come to the arena. The top twenty people are able to leave their names at the cliff for people to pay tribute to. It's life and death in the arena!"

At this time, the organizer began to speak from the arena.

It was a brief introduction, and everyone knew about it.

"Without strength that is above Half-step to Inborn, they can forget about going to the arena. It's going to be interesting for this year's ranking!"

A faint voice was heard. Everyone looked over and saw a middle-aged man wearing an outfit with an island on it. All of them revealed a look of awe on their faces.

Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island.

He drew his lips and swept his gaze across all the young people. With a beam, he said, "Twenty. The twenty of us shall take the seats!"

"What?"

Whatever the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island said surprised everyone.

"Twenty? Are there twenty Inborn supreme talents here?"

"Eh, I don't think so. Miracle Doctor Wang and his sister. Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island, Xiao Ran from Xiao Clan, Qiao Fuzi from Qiao Clan, Tang Yinxuan from Heavenly Sound Sect, Saint Qi, and Saint Wen from Dark Sect, Flower Monk and the mysterious young man in the sedan. Including the current three Inborn Experts on the chart, there are only thirteen!"

"That girl with steel rings around her neck should be an Inborn Expert. That makes it fourteen!"

"Another six more people? Gosh, Half-step to Inborn Experts are unable to make it on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart this year!"

All of them looked around. In the past, even Level 9 Martial Artists were eligible to participate. With the numbers of Inborns around, they could not stand a chance!

Chapter 442: Sacred Sect: Dragon Sect (2)

"Weaklings can just stay off or be killed!"

While the surrounding crowd was looking around them curiously, the emotionless voice of a young man resonated.

"Twenty supreme talents! It's only interesting this way!" said another young man.

"My initial aim was to just have some fun here. However, after seeing so many supreme talents, let me have some real fun!"

"The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart in previous years has been inflated. This year is really interesting. For this year, I'll declare myself as the champion then!" The voice of two other young men reverberated.

Every single one of them was hugely confident in themselves as they spoke.

They remained exceptionally confident in themselves despite facing the Saints of Sacred Sects and clans, knowing the battle records of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, and having the Young Master of Sea Serpent Island around.

This was a form of confidence that only the strong experts possessed.

"Gosh! There are six more Inborn experts hidden within the crowd!"

"Oh my god! The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart only ranks the top twenty. Those who haven't reached the Inborn Realm can forget about it. Don't embarrass yourself by participating."

"The contest would be interesting. Haha! Regardless, I'm not qualified!"

The surrounding crowd was shocked by the young men who spoke. Every single one of them was emanating strong confidence.

At this juncture, all the supreme talents weren't hiding anymore and stood at the front. Some had their arms crossed while others held longswords in their hands.

Some had their hands behind their back, lifting their heads slightly and displaying the demeanor of an expert.

The surrounding crowd of thousands of people looked at the twenty people in awe and respect.

As for those Half-step to Inborn experts who were still looking to showcase their abilities on the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition, they were feeling extremely bitter.

The competition this year was simply too insane.

"The last few Inborn supreme talents that stood out were all disciples from powerful first-class forces!"

"All the weapons in their hands look extraordinary!"

"Those that could become Inborn experts at this age are undoubtedly outstanding disciples who are the focus of nurturing in their sects. Their weapons and hidden trump cards are definitely terrifying."

The surrounding crowd discussed fervently.

"Let's get it started!" Xiao Ran looked across the dozen-odd Inborn experts and showed a faint smile. "Since I'm the youngest, let me choose my opponent first. Qiao Fuzi from Qiao Clan, step forward!"

As Xiao Ran spoke, he got moving and flew to the middle of the arena directly. His eyes were fixed on Qiao Fuzi.

"Dumbass! Today, I'll put you, who don't know what's best for you, on the ground!"

Qiao Fuzi's expression turned chilling. He leapt into the air and landed before Xiao Ran while staring harshly at him.

"I'll be taking your sword!" Xiao Ran said plainly while staring at the longsword with savage beast engravings in Qiao Fuzi's hand.

"Haha! I'll slice you down with it!" Qiao Fuzi broke into hysterical laughter.

Dang!

The sounds of a treasured sword leaving the scabbard shocked the surrounding martial artists who were carrying longswords.

"The name of this sword is Despondent Sword. I have defeated three Inborn experts with it. You shall be the fourth!"

Qiao Fuzi pointed his Despondent Sword proudly at Xiao Ran.

Shingz!

"The name of my sword is Ancient Spiritual Sword. I have killed more than three Inborn experts with it!"

Xiao Ran drew his Ancient Spiritual Sword directly and met the cold gaze of Qiao Fuzi.

"Sss... Inborn Spiritual Weapons! Two Inborn Spiritual Weapons! F*ck! The people from the Sacred Clans are darned loaded!"

"An Inborn Spiritual Weapon could increase one's battle strength substantially. Since both of them have Inborn Spiritual Weapons, the outcome of the contest will be dependent on their individual strength!"

"Who do you think will win?"

"Qiao Fuzi is thirty years old this year and his battle experiences are definitely richer than Xiao Ran. Although Xiao Ran is the youngest Inborn expert in the Underworld, his youth is also a weakness! He's lacking in experience!"

"A demon-like talent like him couldn't be assessed using common sense. Let's just watch!"

"Place your bets! Place your bets! You can place your bets on the Underworld website!"

Pa!

Just as the crowd was discussing fervently, Xiao Ran and Qiao Fuzi clashed.

As the Inborn Spiritual Weapons clashed, sounds of metal clashing reverberated through the skies.

Everyone was astonished and watched the battle in the arena attentively.

"Haha! Damn brat! What gives you the guts to be so arrogant with your level of strength?"

After the first collision, Xiao Ran was knocked several steps back. Qiao Fuzi laughed loudly and brazenly as he stared at Xiao Ran with contempt.

Tsk!

Xiao Ran snorted but remained unmoved. He executed his phantom sword technique which was exceptionally frightening.

Qiao Fuzi focused his attention, wiggled his arms and strengthened the golden glow on his Despondent Sword.

"Golden Ray Embodiment!" As he shouted, he turned completely golden and was charging ahead with his sword.

Around the Despondent Sword, golden longswords that were formed from metal attribute energy appeared suddenly.

Over ten golden longswords emitted dazzling rays.

"That's Qiao Clan's Golden Ray Embodiment! The Qiao Clan is known for their Golden Ray Blades. They are extremely deadly and incomparably domineering."

The surrounding crowd was shocked to see Qiao Fuzi emitting golden rays.

"Qiao Fuzi, together with his Inborn Spiritual Weapon, could match those experienced Inborn experts in battle!"

"It will be hard for Xiao Ran to clinch the victory. What a shame!"

The crowd around the arena was analyzing the battle as it progressed. Several members of the Qiao Clan revealed satisfying expressions and looked mockingly in the direction of the Xiao Clan.

However, a few Elders from the Xiao Clan were smirking. This was just the beginning.

Golden Ray Embodiment?

Looking at the blinding golden rays, Xiao Ran squinted his eyes and flexed his body.

Boom!

A chilling yet scorching blue flame was emitted from his body creepily.

The flames covered the Ancient Spiritual Sword and Xiao Ran, turning him into a man burning in blue flames.

"Have a taste of my Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame!"

Xiao Ran swung his long sword and creepy blue flowers emerged around him.

"This move is called Tranquil Blue Flowers!"

Xiao Ran charged ahead without fear.

"Heavenly Flame! Oh gosh! It's a Heavenly Flame!"

"Sss! He got a Heavenly Flame! In the entire Underworld, there are probably only two to three people who possess a Heavenly Flame. Moreover, every single one of them is exceptionally powerful."

Several members of the Qiao Clan were taken aback as their expressions turned gloomier.

"What?"

Qiao Fuzi was also shocked to see Xiao Ran shrouded in blue flames.

Weng!

At this instant, the swaying Tranquil Blue Flowers clashed heavily with the Golden Ray Blades and resulted in frightening explosions.

As the blue flame contacted the golden blades, the golden blades dissipated one after another.

Bam!

The Ancient Spiritual Sword slashed downward and blue sparks sputtered. Qiao Fuzi was flabbergasted as he saw the flames land on him.

"This is bad!"

His golden body was easily penetrated by the Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame and the terrifying temperature sent chills down his spine.

Rumble!

Qiao Fuzi gathered the golden rays towards his chest as he retreated rapidly.

The golden rays withstood the attack for a moment before falling onto the floor of the arena.

Pa Pa!

Two one-meter-deep holes appeared instantly.

"What an incredible Heavenly Flame. The arena was forged using the toughest stone from Huashan. Yet, the Heavenly Flame was able to burn out such terrifying holes!"

The crowd's eyes contracted unconsciously as they witnessed the deep holes on the ground of the arena. Even the Inborn experts frowned upon witnessing the strength of the Heavenly Flame.

Qiao Fuzi's face was covered in cold sweat as he stared at the potholes caused by that blue Heavenly Flame. He was exceptionally impressed and frightened.

"Aren't you going to admit your defeat? If the Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame landed on your body, you wouldn't be able to withstand it!"

Chapter 443: Sacred Sect: Dragon Sect (3)

"Aren't you going to admit your defeat? If the Tranquil Blue Heavenly Flame landed on your body, you wouldn't be able to withstand it!"

Xiao Ran drew his lips with a cold smile as he stared at Qiao Fuzi.

Qiao Fuzi had a huge change in his expression. His body trembled while the palm that was gripping the Despondent Sword grew pale.

An elder below said with a gloomy face, "We lost! Fuzi!"

"Fine!"

Qiao Fuzi gritted his teeth as he inserted his sword back into the scabbard with an awful look. He threw a death stare before he hurled the sword to Xiao Ran.

"Thank you!"

Xiao Ran took over the Despondent Sword with thrills.

Inborn Spiritual Weapons were precious treasures, even in the Sacred Clans.

"The Inborn Spiritual Weapon coupled with the Heavenly Flame has pushed the strength of Xiao Ran close to a Pinnacle Inborn! That's the suppression of equipment. Just like a cannon matched against a gun!"

"Weapons are just part of the strength, so is luck. We've got to admit that!"

Some of the surrounding crowd remarked with envy. The world is unfair. Some people are born to be at the peak, but some people will never reach the summit.

"Looks like there are many experts today!"

Just when a soft voice cut the air, an ominous and pale-looking young man stalked to the front with a smiling face.

The grin was somewhat creepy and cold, which struck an uneasiness into everyone.

He was holding onto a grey umbrella with pictures painted on it.

Those were extremely spooky corpses and coffins.

"Who is that mysterious young man going to challenge?"

"He was sitting in an ancient sedan carried by four Half-step to Inborn Experts. He is a mystery. I wonder which force he came from!"

"He gives off a creepy feeling. I wonder how strong he is!"

All eyes were on that mysterious young man. He opened his umbrella and gently leaped into the arena. The fair and ominous face was looking in the direction of Shi Ming from Imperial Beast Sect.

"Get over here and receive your death!"

"Hur?" He's challenging Shi Ming from Imperial Beast Sect!"

"How courageous is he! He actually asked Shi Ming out to receive his death!"

"He's...challenging the disciple from Imperial Beast Sect. A human and a beast from Imperial Beast Sect are equivalent to two Inborn Experts. With the combination of the two, their combat power is recognized as the strongest existence among the same level!"

"What kind of strength does this mysterious young man possess such that he dares to challenge Shi Ming?"

The people below the arena froze as they looked at the ominous-looking young man who was holding the umbrella with bewilderment. All of them were looking surprised.

Roar!

The one who replied to that ominous-looking young man was not Shi Ming, but the roar from the King of the Forest.

"Haha, Imperial Gale, are you hungry? Let's go, I'll find you a piece of meat!"

Shi Ming stroked the Roaring Lion and laughed loudly as he sat on him.

Roar!

Shi Ming let out a low bellow and made a leap into the arena that was twenty meters away.

Boom!

With the release of immense oppression, Roaring Lion stared at the ominous-looking young man with bloodthirsty eyes while revealing his ghastly teeth.

"Haha, I thought it was a lady in the sedan. I didn't expect it to be a man. What a disappointment!"

The coarse voice of Shi Ming was heard as he sat on the Roaring Lion, looking down at that ominous-looking young man.

"Heh heh!"

That ominous-looking young man giggled, revealing his sparkling white teeth. Without a word, he made a swift movement in an attempt to attack Shi Ming.

"Hmph!"

Upon seeing his offense, Shi Ming swung his arm and assembled a few rods that were found on the Roaring Lion, forming a two-meter long halberd.

Phew!

He swept the halberd forward.

Whoo-hoo!

At this time, dark and cold radiance flickered in the ominous-looking young man's eyes. He pointed the tip of the grey umbrella ahead while looking at the Roaring Lion below.

Roar!

The Roaring Lion lifted his chin as a frightening windstorm made its way to encompass that ominous-looking young man.

The most powerful thing about Imperial Beast Sect was they could launch an assault together with their Inborn Spiritual Beasts.

The strength exploded by the combination of a human and a beast way surpassed two Inborn Experts.

Bam!

Despite the grey umbrella tip having blocked the sword, the ominous-looking young man remained unmoved with the windstorm generated by the Roaring Lion.

He pulled the grey umbrella upwards, releasing a greyish mist that slayed the head of the Roaring Lion.

Poof!

A shriek was heard as the ominous-looking young man twisted his umbrella, floating more than ten meters away.

Boom!

A loud thud was heard as the lion head rolled down the floor!

"What!"

"This...this... "

All the surrounding people were aghast when they saw the lion head rolling out of the arena. Everyone found it hard to believe.

"Single strike. A single strike was all it took to slay the Inborn Spiritual Beast of Shi Ming from Imperial Beast Sect!"

"How is this possible!"

"Imperial Gale!"

All the people watched the scene before them with disbelief while Shi Ming let out a sorrowful cry.

He was so startled to see his Roaring Lion beneath him beheaded. His body shook slightly.

He had actually chopped off his head in a single strike!

"How dare you kill my Imperial Gale!"

Shi Ming was infuriated as he clutched his halberd with bloodshot eyes. With a malevolent expression, he turned to look at that ominous-looking young man.

"Next is you!"

The ominous-looking young man revealed a smirk as he twisted the grey umbrella in his hand for a direct kill at Shi Ming.

"We lost!"

Just then, the golden bird on a young man's shoulder was rotating his watery eyes with a mouth that spoke in a human voice.

Subsequently, that golden Spiritual Bird moved like a bolt of lightning above Shi Ming, grabbed his clothes, and flew down from the arena.

"This!"

That young man from Imperial Beast Sect immediately lowered down his head and greeted, "Elder Feng Ling!"

The golden Spiritual Bird did not pay attention to that young man. Instead, he stared at that ominous-looking young man with golden eyes gleamed with wisdom. "You won!"

"Hur?" The ominous-looking young man looked at that golden Spiritual Bird with wariness in his eyes.

He swung his arm, and he floated down the arena with his grey umbrella.

An empty space was immediately opened up around him as everyone stared at him with an appalled look.

"Invincible. He's simply too powerful with that daunting umbrella!"

"That umbrella is at least an Inborn Spiritual Weapon. But what's that grey mist about?"

"With such a strength, he should be crowned as the champion!"

"What's that golden Spiritual Bird? It speaks human language, and it possesses such domineering wisdom!"

"That golden Spiritual Bird was fast. That disciple of Imperial Beast Sect even addressed it as Elder!"

Everything, including the mighty ominous-looking young man and the mystical golden Spiritual Bird, was incredible.

The Outstanding Young Heroes Competition this time had widened their horizons.

"That greyish mist must be some bloodline that is similar to Kun, which is also a decadent creature. He must be a Pinnacle Inborn!"

"That golden Spiritual Bird has a very high IQ. The Imperial Beast Sect has lived up to their name. The golden Spiritual Bird should be at least a Half-Step to Dan Realm Expert!"

Wang Xian watched in astonishment. He looked around those flabbergasted Martial Artists with an arching of his lips.

You guys can carry on showing off. After you're done, it's my turn!

Chapter 444: Sacred Sect: Dragon Sect (4)

"The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart this year is sick!"

"They aren't just sick. All of them are demons!"

"I thought Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown was incomparably strong. However, that mysterious young man turned out to be even more frightening!"

"Sss. The corpse of the Roaring Lion was taken by that ominous-looking young man. That's the biggest insult to the Imperial Beast Sect!"

"Looking at the circumstances, if it wasn't for that mystical golden spiritual bird that flew over, Shi Ming would likely have been killed!"

Below the arena, the crowd was still discussing. Shi Ming was shivering as he witnessed the corpse of his companion being lifted away. His eyes were bloodshot.

However, the loser had to pay a price in this arena. He couldn't say anything against the ominous-looking young man for taking away the corpse of the Roaring Lion.

These were the rules and no one could break them. Otherwise, he would be looked down upon by everyone.

The remaining supreme talents were also looking at that ominous-looking young man with fear and shock.

"It's no surprise considering that he's from the Devil Corpse Palace. With his creepy attacking methods, powerful physical body and Inborn level strength, there would be few who could be a match for him here!" the young lord of Sea Serpent Island squinted his eyes and commented. "However, I'll definitely be able to defeat him within a hundred moves!"

"It's our turn. Which two brothers would like to spar with us?"

At this juncture, Saint Qi and Saint Wen from the Dark Sect jumped into the air before landing in two different arenas. Both of them smiled radiantly as they issued an open challenge to the supreme talents below the stage.

"Let me give it a try!"

"Let me give it a try!"

Soon, two young men jumped up. Their eyes were fixed on Saint Qi and Saint Wen as they clasped their left fists in their right palms and said, "Please enlighten me!"

"Let's start with something cool. Level 9 Shadow Blades!"

Saint Qi and Saint Wen from the Dark Sect each drew a dagger as they spoke to their opponents.

"Great. It's only interesting this way!"

The other two supreme talents also drew their weapons which had identical value.

"Please enlighten me!"

The contest started once again. However, it wasn't as brutal as before and resembled ordinary sparring.

The contest ended with the Dark Sect losing in one and winning in the other.

Following next, one after another outstanding young Inborn expert went up to the arena.

If they did not have a prior feud, they typically wouldn't risk their lives in battles.

Below the stage, all the proud and talented young men were watching each battle attentively.

From the battles, they were able to analyze and tell who was stronger or weaker than them. At the same time, it gave them a rough idea of the eventual ranking on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart.

As for the remaining crowd, they were shocked by the intense and competitive battles.

Wang Xian was smirking confidently while watching the battles develop.

Up to this point, that ominous-looking young man was the strongest. It would be a little troublesome for the dragonians to defeat him. However, he relied on his bloodline just like the dragonians. The dragonians still have over a seventy percent chance of winning!

As for the rest, they are relatively weaker!

Wang Xian squinted his eyes and his attention fell on the young lord of Sea Serpent Island and the Flower Monk.

Both of them were slightly stronger.

Soon after, the Flower Monk fought with another young man. In less than ten moves, he defeated the young man easily. No one was able to tell his actual strength yet!

The Flower Monk had shocked the crowd with his strength.

To this point, the surrounding crowd had a rough understanding. Based on those who had fought, the young lord of Sea Serpent Island was undoubtedly relatively stronger.

After him, it would be the Flower Monk and that ominous-looking young man.

Also, there was still Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown who had not participated. In their views, Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown should at least be as strong as the three of them.

As for Xiao Yu, not many held high hopes for her.

When fighting with Hua Mingshan, her moves were too simple. As such, no one really found her to be strong.

Suddenly, all the disciples of Sacred Clans, Sacred Sects and powerful forces received a message from their clans and sects.

When they saw the message, they were taken aback and shocked.

The battles of the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition were streamed on the website of the Underworld. Those who weren't at the competition ground had their attention fixed on the Underworld website.

The total bets that had been placed for the current Outstanding Young Heroes Competition had also reached an astronomical figure of over $50 billion.

The entire Underworld was talking about the happenings of the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition. On the forum, there was various analysis on who would become the champion for the year.

However, another thread had attracted more views than the thread on the competition.

The thread was about Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown killing three men from the Medical Saint Sect.

Moreover, this incident had happened before the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition.

At that point, someone had posted about the incident on the Underworld website and shocked the entire Underworld.

When they saw the photos of the bodies, they were terrified.

In the thread, there was a detailed explanation of the flow of events.

[What? Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown killed the disciple of the Bian branch of Medical Saint Sect? And he just killed Hua Mingshan and his close confidants from the Hua branch of Medical Saint Sect?]

[Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown must be really eager to die. Just some time ago, he killed the Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild. Now, he's killed so many people from the Medical Saint Sect!]

[The disciple of the Bian branch and Hua Mingshan were both rumored to be the most outstanding disciples of the current generation in Medical Saint Sect. Who would have thought that they would be killed? This... Miracle Doctor Wang's actions are clearly an open provocation to the Medical Saint Sect.]

[They wouldn't rest till one party perishes! Definitely! The Medical Saint Sect would want to kill Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown even if it meant deploying all the influence and strength of the entire sect.]

[Who would have expected Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown to be so brazen. Not only did he admit to killing the disciple from the Bian branch, he even killed the disciple from the Hua branch on the spot. What an insane person!]

All the martial artists around were initially interested in the battles of the Outstanding Young Heroes competition. However, they started discussing the message after seeing it.

In the short frame of ten minutes, the number of replies had reached a hundred thousand.

The current incident was even more shocking than Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown killing the Elders from the Sacred Followers Guild.

Killing the most outstanding disciples of the Medical Saint Sect had breached the bottom line of the Medical Saint Sect.

At this juncture, it was just like what everyone in the Underworld had expected. When the Medical Saint Sect received the news, the entire Medical Saint Sect was shocked!

"Kill him! Annihilate him and all his family, friends and kin. Leave not a single person behind!"

Within a quiet mountain valley, an angry roar resounded.

In a majestic structure, two middle-aged men sat on two chairs in the middle of the structure. Below them, there was another old man.

Everyone here was gloomy and filled with killing intent.

"How dare he kill the disciple of the Medical Saint Sect. It would seem we have stayed low for too long. I want to shred him into thousands and thousands of pieces right now!"

Besides the screaming middle-aged man, another middle-aged man closed his eyes slightly while leaning back in his chair. Brimming with killing intent, he remarked coldly, "We wouldn't let him live for even a second more!"

The middle-aged man by the side nodded his head. He clenched his fist tightly and instructed, "Take out two Level 6 elixir pills and pay all the price required! Send out our disciples and shred him to pieces!"

"After that, we will go for anyone who is connected to him!"

Chapter 445: Sacred Sect: Dragon Sect (5)

Bian Yaoquan from Bian Family was the son of one of the two Sect Masters of Medical Saint Sect.

Hua Mingshan from Hua Family was the son of the other Sect Master of Medical Saint Sect.

The death of two sons of the Sect Masters who were the most outstanding disciples in Medical Saint Sect outraged the Medical Saint Sect.

[Kill him now. We cannot tolerate it any longer!]

The message was passed to some of the Sacred Sects, Sacred Clans, and ancestral sects.

When they received the message, they were shocked by the benefits promised by Medical Saint Sect in the killing order.

"Whoever kills Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown and his gang, they will get two Level 6 elixir pills as payment. Apart from this, they will also refine elixir pills free ten times. All participants will receive a handsome reward!"

Two Level 6 elixir pills. Those were two Level 6 elixir pills, which were extremely effective in advancing toward Half-Step to Dan Realm.

Besides, they could refine their elixir pills ten times for free. This reward also brightened up the eyes of all forces.

No one in the entire Underworld could compare with Medical Saint Sect in their Art of Refining Elixir. Those ancestral sects had to pay a huge price to get Medical Saint Sect to help in refining elixir pills.

Now, they offered to refine ten times for free. If someone managed to come up with Spiritual Grass to refine Level 6 elixir pills, they would also do it for free.

Regardless of getting Level 6 elixir pills or refining elixir pills for free, it was a great temptation to any forces.

All the ancestral sects hesitated before they sent the message to those disciples at Huashan. It would be best if they could complete the mission.

All the disciples from various ancestral sects below the arena had received the message. All of them revealed a tinge of shock with radiance flickering in their eyes.

"Second Uncle, shall we..."

Qiao Fuzi looked towards several elders beside him and asked with gleaming eyes.

"Those people around Miracle Doctor Wang are quite strong. Besides, a lot of people are aware of this news. It's a surprise that Medical Saint Sect is so desperate to pay such a price for him to be killed!"

"Hmph, he's only courting his own doom since he dared to kill people from Sacred Sects!" Qiao Fuzi remarked with a cold look.

"Find a chance to strike!"

"Hey, brother. Here's the message from the ancestral sect. Should we do it?"

Between Saint Qi and Saint Wen, a young man asked his elder brother at the side.

"What do you think?"

"They want us to strike when there's an opportunity. Let's see how many people do it. If there's a chance, I think we can give it a shot!"

"If we aren't 100 percent sure, don't do it. I've always felt that he's not a simple person!"

"Mm."

"Yinxuan, here's the message from the ancestral sect. Two Level 6 elixir pills and refining elixir pills ten times for free. I think we can do it too!"

Back at the Heavenly Sound Sect, an elder suggested to Tang Yinxuan with fervent eyes.

"No, we can't!"

When Tang Yinxuan saw the message sent by their Sect Leader, she shook her head firmly.

"Hur? The Sect Leader hoped that we could kill him off because the reward from Medical Saint Sect is simply too attractive. Didn't you say both of you were just acquaintances?" the elder from Heavenly Sound Sect asked with a frown.

"Elder Yang, I have decided not to take part in this. He's very mighty, and it's far beyond your imagination!"

Tang Yinxuan spoke firmly with a stern look.

"How mighty can he be? We have four Inborn Experts here. I bet the rest of the people received the same message. By then, we are not the only ones who strike. Participations will also be rewarded handsomely."

Elder Yang raised his eyebrow and rebuked.

"Elder Yang, I know him. His strength..." Tang Yinxuan hesitated. "Not even our Supreme Elder of Heavenly Sound Sect can take him down."

"What?" Elder Yang froze as he looked at Tang Yinxuan with astonishment.

"Yinxuan, are you kidding...?"

"Elder Yang, why would I lie to you? I have seen his prowess."

Tang Yinxuan answered Elder Yang with a serious look.

Upon seeing her serious look, Elder Yang turned solemn with glistening eyes. He murmured, "Is there such a demon-like existence?"

In fact, you guys have seen his domineering prowess before!

But Tang Yinxuan did not say that out loud as she glanced around with a cold smile.

She noticed all the disciples and supreme talents of ancestral sects fixing their gleaming gazes on Wang Xian. A tinge of contempt surfaced on her face.

They probably had no idea what kind of domineering existence they were facing.

Greed marks the original sin and death!

Another five to six first-class forces received the message from Medical Saint Sect.

Among which, five supreme talents' eyes were gleaming with greed and excitement.

None of them knew that the atmosphere in the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition had undergone subtle changes!

"Young Lord, there's a message from our Lord, asking us to complete a mission!"

Two middle-aged men reported to the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island.

"Oh, let me see!"

"Hur? Level 6 elixir pills and free refining elixir pills ten times!"

A tinge of queerness blinked in the eyes of Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island.
"Medical Saint Sect lives up to their name. What a cruel man!"

"Thanks to Miracle Doctor Wang. Otherwise, we'll not have this opportunity!" a middle-aged man said with a smile.

"Yes, I have to thank him. Just perfect, I'll kill him in the arena and win the championship title. Killing two birds with one stone!"

Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island revealed a smile.

"The duels are almost coming to an end!"

Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island observed around with his lips drawn. "Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown, you're the current number one supreme talent on the chart. Get on now so that I can slay you today! Hahaha!"

He burst into laughter and jumped into the arena. With his chin lifted, he glared at Wang Xian, beaming.

"Hur?"

"Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island is challenging Wang Xian!"

"The most exciting duel is here!"

"Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island used to be the number one on the chart. Now Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown suddenly emerged and took over him. We'll find out who is more powerful soon!"

"After their duel, we should be able to tell who is the champion for this year!"

The surrounding crowd was thrilled when they saw Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island issue a challenge to Wang Xian. All of them were looking at the two with great anticipation.

"Slay me?"

Upon hearing Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island, Wang Xian was slightly suspicious.

"Young Master, here's a message from Xiao Ran!"

Suddenly, Mo Qinglong passed a phone from behind.

Wang Xian took over the phone and squinted his eyes as soon as he read the message.

"No wonder he wants to slay me! Haha!"

Upon reading the content, Wang Xian chuckled. "The Medical Saint Sect are quick in taking action!"

"I wonder how many of them in the field want to kill me. But since you guys are up for a game, I will definitely play on!"

Wang Xian laughed as he swept his gaze across everyone. Eventually, he stopped at Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island, who was staring at him in the arena.

"I'm sorry! I'm not participating in the ranking of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!"

Chapter 446: Sacred Sect: Dragon Sect (6)

"I'm sorry! I'm not participating in the ranking of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!"

When the crowd heard Wang Xian, they were taken aback.

"What's happening? Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is not participating in the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart?"

"This... What a turn of events! With his strength, why isn't he participating? It is almost certain that Miracle Doctor Wang would rank in the top three or four. With such results, he could get at least seven to eight hundred spiritual stones at the end of the competition after considering how popular the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition is this year!"

"At this moment, the total bets placed for the competition in the Underworld have reached several hundreds of billions. The top five would each receive at least eight billion. Changing money to spiritual stones would also reap him immense resources. Why isn't he participating?"

"Could it be that he's afraid after seeing so many experts? This isn't his style at all!"

To the astonishment of the crowd, Wang Xian had declared he wouldn't participate. As a result, the crowd was curious and discussing.

The young lord of Sea Serpent Island was also surprised by Wang Xian's decision. He stared coldly at Wang Xian and asked, "What's the matter? Are you afraid? This isn't your style at all!"

Wang Xian smiled plainly and replied, "Hehe! Do I need a reason to not participate? Naturally, you can think whatever you wish!"

"Haha! Great! Regardless, the opportunity for us to fight will be here soon! Rest assured, it won't be long!" the young lord of Sea Serpent Island said with hidden meaning behind his words. Subsequently, he looked to the rest of the crowd.

Ka ka ka!

Suddenly, a layer of frost formed over the surface of the arena. The surrounding temperature was also decreasing rapidly.

A stream of chilling aura emanated from the young lord of Sea Serpent Island. As he moved his hand, a short blade appeared in it.

The short blade was white as snow and was emitting layers and layers of white fog.

This wasn't hot air but chilling air.

At his chest, a frosty round disc appeared gradually. It started turning and his body started turning white.

"I'm the champion of all promising young talents! Who isn't convinced?"

Chilling cold aura swept towards the surroundings. Some of the young men instantly paled.

"You or that monk are both qualified to fight with me!"

The lips of the young lord of Sea Serpent Island curved into a smirk as he emitted chilling aura.

"Amitabha. You are really the son of the Lord of Sea Serpent Island. With such an incredible father, the son couldn't be any weaker."

The Flower Monk stared at the young lord of Sea Serpent Island, the short blade in his hand, and the round disc at his chest. In his eyes, a tinge of fear flashed.

Hehe.

The ominous-looking young man stared at the young lord of Sea Serpent Island. In the end, he shook his head and said, "If you took down the frosty round disc on your chest, you wouldn't be a match for me!"

"Haha! Just shut your mouth if you don't dare to step forward."

The young sea serpent island master stared calmly at the ominous-looking young man and continued, "Be careful or you won't walk out of here alive if you are spouting too much nonsense!"

The ominous-looking young man frowned and snorted, "You can be first this time. I'll be second. Ling Sha! Are you convinced?"

"Amitabha. Since young Palace Master Fu likes to be second, the poor monk here shall be third then!" Flower Monk smiled gently and answered plainly while moving the string of buddha beads with his finger.

"I shall be fourth then! Anyone not convinced?"

After the top three of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart had been decided, one of the Saints from the Dark Sect looked nonchalantly at the crowd. In one of his hands, he was playing with a dagger.

"I shall be fifth. Anyone not convinced?" Xiao Ran took a step forward and looked at the crowd.

"The aura from the young lord of Sea Serpent Island is too terrifying. Even the Flower Monk and the ominous-looking young man admitted that they wouldn't be a match for him. He's definitely deserving of the title of the champion of the supreme talents!"

"It is clear that the ominous-looking young man knows Flower Monk. There's no problem at all with them ranking second and third."

"The leader of the duo from the Dark Sect has insane mastery of the flying dagger. Ranking fourth is also not a problem!"

"Although Xiao Ran from Xiao Clan is young, he possesses a Heavenly Flame and Inborn Spiritual Weapon. Moreover, no one would probably have doubts about him ranking fifth after seeing his battling strength!"

The crowd started commenting after seeing the supreme talents stepping forward and claiming their spots on the chart.

"I shall be sixth. Anyone not convinced?"

The number two on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart from some time ago stepped forward with a long face and announced this to the crowd.

"I'll be seventh. Anyone not convinced?"

"I'll be eighth. Anyone not convinced?"

"I'll be ninth. Anyone not convinced?"

Emotionless calls reverberated across the field and the Inborn level supreme talents jumped into the arena after claiming their spots.

This happened until the eighteenth spot. Eighteen Inborn Realm supreme talents stood in the arena, emitting terrifying aura.

"Anyone not convinced?"

The young lord of Sea Serpent Island looked at the Inborn supreme talents around him. He lifted his head proudly and asked loudly again, "I shall be the champion of the supreme talents. Anyone not convinced?"

The disposition of a champion emanated from his body.

The remaining Inborn supreme talents pulled a long face and lifted their heads slightly.

Regardless, being ranked on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart this year was also a testament to their strength.

"Great. Since no one has anything to say...!"

The young lord of Sea Serpent Island squinted his eyes and looked in the direction of Wang Xian. His eyes were beaming with killing intent.

In the arena, five other Inborn level supreme talents looked towards Wang Xian.

Now that the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition had ended, they knew that it was time for them to make a move.

Below the stage, some sects and families were also eager to strike.

They could also tell that the young lord of Sea Serpent Island had accepted the mission from the Medical Saint Sect. However, this didn't mean that the rewards would belong to them.

Whoever could kill Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown would receive the greatest remuneration.

"The ranking of the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart is over. Get ready! Tsk! This Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown is really arrogant to kill the people from the Medical Saint Sect on the spot. Now that Medical Saint Sect is willing to offer such an insane remuneration, many experts from various sects will be eager to strike. Even Saint-class forces won't be an exception."

Below the stage, the families and sects who had received the message were exhilarated.

The best show after the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart ranking was finally about to begin.

At this very moment, many people were looking at the ranking through the Underworld website.

[F*ck! Why didn't Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown participate? I bet five million on him!]

[The young lord of Sea Serpent Island has declared himself as the champion. The short sword and the round disc on him should both be insanely powerful Inborn Spiritual Weapons. The only disappointment is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown not participating!]

[Is Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown afraid of embarrassing himself after seeing multiple powerful characters on the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart this year?]

[He's probably pondering how he could handle his own matters at this point in time. He's a dead man after killing the most outstanding disciple of Medical Saint Sect in this generation!]

[F*ck! Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown dared to kill the people from Medical Saint Sect. Why wouldn't he participate? The ten million I placed on him was forfeited directly!]

[The Outstanding Young Heroes Competition has finally ended. Although there wasn't a fight at the end, the competition this year was truly satisfying!]

[The supreme talents must have a rough idea of their strength and therefore didn't express opinions against those who were stronger than them. Because of this, they didn't fight at the end. The only disappointment has to be Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown. In the end, he chose to be a coward!]

The Underworld was discussing fervently on the web. As to the fact that Wang Xian didn't participate, many people were shocked and infuriated.

It was especially so for those who had placed bets on Wang Xian earlier. They even hurled vulgarities at him.

If you want to be a coward at the very end, what the hell are you in Huashan for? You might as well just cower in the corner at home!!

You still dare to kill the people from Medical Saint Sect without knowing what's best for you?

Some people were cursing. However, there were others from some families and sects that were watching the live stream. They were waiting for the end of the competition and the death of Miracle Doctor Wang.

"Today, I want to see his corpse!" The members of the Medical Saint Sect stared emotionlessly at the live stream.

"We are not convinced!"

Suddenly, just as the crowd was about to make their move, a unison cold snort reverberated across the space!

Chapter 447: Sacred Sect: Dragon Sect (7)

"We are not convinced!"

While all eighteen supreme talents were overlooking the crowd from the quiet arena, a sneer came and took everyone by surprise.

"Who? Who is not convinced?"

Everyone was stunned as they spun around.

All the eighteen people on the stage froze as they turned to the source of the voice.

Five young men were staring at the group of people on the stage with cold eyes.

"Hur? Who are they?"

"Who are these five people?"

All of the people were puzzled as they gave way to form a path for them.

"We're not convinced either!"

Yet another voice came at this time.

"More people? Why are they here?"

"Gosh, those people on stage are the supreme talents of Inborn levels. Who else is not convinced?"

Once again, the crowd was stunned as they looked in the other direction.

Seven young men. They stared at the supreme talents on the stage with a domineering fighting spirit.

"Twelve of them?"

A supreme talent on stage squinted his eyes as he watched the twelve people stalking towards the stage. Radiance flicked in his eyes.

"Hehe, us too!"

Boom!

"Damm, there are more! If I guessed correctly, those five people are Outstanding Five Devil Dragons. The other seven are Dragon Seven Stars. They just made their names known to the Underworld a few days ago. Little did I expect they would turn up. Who are the other four who spoke?"

"Sixteen? Suddenly, sixteen people sprouted up? If they're not convinced, could they be experts from the Inborn Realm?"

"Fu*k, I thought the ranking was almost over. Who knew there are another sixteen Inborn Experts. Scary!"

"Where did these people come from? There is no information about them. Which clan did they come from? Which sects?"

All of them watched the group of young men below the arena with stunned looks.

"Hur?"

When the group of supreme talents on the stage looked at sixteen young men who exploded immense fighting spirit, their expressions were stern.

"Hahaha, I'm not convinced. Hai Long, you? You are not fit to be the champion yet. Let me challenge you!"

Xiao Yu cast a glance at the group of Dragonians. She was eager to get on the stage when she fixed her eyes on the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island. With her bone sword, she leaped onto the arena.

"Hur? Challenging the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island? Miracle Doctor Wang's sister is simply digging her own grave!"

"She's challenging the Young Lord? That sister of Miracle Doctor Wang is too insolent!"

The crowd was stunned when they saw Xiao Yu jumping into the arena just to challenge the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island. All of them looked at Xiao Yu as though she was some idiot.

That young lady was an Inborn Expert indeed. But she was still a far cry from the Young Lord!

"Haha, challenge me?"

The Young Lord was frowning when he saw the sudden appearance of sixteen young men up for the challenge. He darkened his expression instantly when he saw Xiao Yu charging at him.

"How dare a lass like you challenge my superiority?"

The Young Lord fixed his cold stare on Xiao Yu. The Inborn Spiritual Weapon, Frozen Sorrows, was held in his hand and was pointing at Xiao Yu. "Are you tired of living?"

"Heh heh."

With her bone sword in her hand and a black armor-like outfit, she said, "You? You are not fit to be the champion of the supreme talents!"

"Well, well... Fine!"

The Young Lord revealed a ghastly look. "Since you dared to challenge me, prepare for your death."

Xiao Yu raised her eyebrows as she drew her bone sword to the side. With a quick move, she went for her attack. "Take this!"

"Go on. Challenge him. The winner will be the champion of the rankings!"

"The people on the stage can get down!"

With Xiao Yu launching her attack, there was no hesitation from the Dragonians below the stage. With a swift movement, all of them charged to the supreme talents on the stage.

"Courting your own doom!"

A murderous intent flashed in his eyes when the ominous-looking young man spotted someone assaulting him.

On the side, Flower Monk held his bloody Buddha beads on his neck and exhibited coldness in his eyes.

Boom, boom!

Combat exploded instantly in the arena.

Everyone was dumbfounded by the scene as they parted their lips.

"Miracle Doctor Wang's sister is actually attacking the Young Lord. This is madness!"

"Those sixteen people who sprouted out of nowhere are insane. They actually challenge those supreme talents on the stage!"

"Someone is fighting with the ominous-looking young man and Flower Monk. Where did they come from?"

"They are not wearing uniforms, so they should not be from the same force. I've heard of the Outstanding Five Devil Dragons and Dragon Seven Stars. But who are the other four young ones? Where did they come from?"

"Crazy, crazy. The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart ranking this year is simply too insane!"

All the people surrounding the arena receded immediately.

The entire situation was insane with the sudden appearance of a dozen Inborn Experts challenging all the supreme talents.

This was combat that involved more than thirty Inborn Experts. All the remaining people could only retreat.

At the same time, all the people who were watching the match through the Underworld website were dumbfounded too.

The entire situation was too overwhelming. Those who were not here at the scene would regret it for life.

Many Martial Artists almost fell to their knees as they watched the broadcast.

There are just too many young experts!

Seeing all the Dragonians leaping onto the stage, Xiao Ran was the only one without a rival. Hence, he jumped down with a smile.

Bam!

"What?"

With the sound of the clattering weapons, the sword in Xiao Yu's hand and the Frozen Sorrows of Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island finally clashed together.

Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island had a huge change in his expression as he sensed the immense energy coming from it.

The Frozen Sorrows was a special Inborn Spiritual Weapon given to him by his father. It was incredibly strong, but it was only on par with the opponent's black bone sword.

"Hmph, how dare you call yourself the champion of the supreme talents. You're not fit!"

The black bone-like armor on Xiao Yu exuded faint bouts of black aura. As a Skeletal Dragon, all her battles were close-range.

Her strength, the penetration, and the defense of the bones had reached a horrifying stage.

As a Half-Step to Dan Realm, Xiao Yu could easily defeat the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island despite the fact that he had a powerful weapon.

But Xiao Yu's entire body was a daunting weapon itself.

"Lass, go to hell!"

Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island had a change in his expression when he heard what she said. With a frosty pair of eyes, he looked at her while the Ice Core round disc began to spin at his chest. The ground around him began to freeze.

The surrounding temperature dropped to minus a hundred degree.

"Hur?"

All the Dragonians and supreme talents who were engaged in the duels had a change in their expressions as they hurriedly drew themselves away.

The duels quickly kicked off.

Bam!

Back to the ominous-looking young man, his greyish umbrella tip was pointing at one Dragonian with a disdainful look in his eyes.

"Hmph!"

That Dragonian snorted as he stretched out his palm. The human palm was immediately filled with dragon scales. He caught the tip of the umbrella and revealed a cold smile. "You're not my match. Concede your defeat!"

"Courting your own doom!"

The ominous-looking young man turned cold with a ferocious expression surfacing on his face. A bout of greyish mist surged from his grey umbrella!

Chapter 448: Sacred Sect: Dragon Sect (8)

The greyish mist from the tip of the umbrella had decadent vibes. They had originated from the decadent powers.

An attack that was from one's bloodline.

The greyish decadent energy could substantially negate the opponent's defense.

When the dragonian noticed the energy, contempt beamed in his eyes.

A stream of black aura was emitted from his hand and the dense black mist withstood the greyish decadent energy.

Bloodline? Hehe!

Dragonians had the strongest bloodline in the universe. The corpse-like bloodline wouldn't be a match at all.

"What?" The ominous-looking young man was astonished. Even when facing the Young lord of Sea Serpent Island, he was calm and composed.

However, he was truly shocked by the young man who emitted black energy. Fear flashed in his eyes.

"Burst! Burst!"

At this juncture, an angry roar resounded.

The Flower Monk's expression was filled with bloodlust. At the top of his head where there was a scar, a hideous image of an evil ghost could be vaguely seen.

His pale white face was covered in blood and he looked exceptionally terrifying.

A buddha bead flew towards the dragonian before him and exploded violently.

Creepy fresh blood was released from the exploded buddha beads and flew towards the dragonian like maggots which clung to corpses.

"Ominous spirits infiltration?"

The dragonian wasn't alarmed at all as he charged forward.

The bloodthirsty aura penetrated into the body of the dragonian. However, the noble bloodline of the divine dragon was instantly triggered.

Weng!

The bloodthirsty aura was erased instantly.

"Shit!"

The Flower Monk, whose face was immersed in bloodthirsty aura, was astonished.

"I admit defeat. I admit defeat!"

"I admit defeat!"

"I admit defeat!"

At this moment, several people admitted defeat.

When the crowd around the arena looked to the stage, they were in awe.

The sixteen Inborn experts that had just appeared were all exceptionally powerful. With their immense physical body strength, they had forced these supreme talents to admit defeat.

The supreme talents that were previously standing on the arena with poise were now easily defeated.

This type of attack...!

Tang Yinxuan played her Hao Zhong. Each musical note and stream of water flow restricted the attacks of the dragonian before her. However, her expression was turning more and more solemn.

She was very familiar with this type of attack.

Her vision shifted to below the stage and she saw that young man smiling faintly. At this point, she couldn't help but be surprised.

Weng!

As she waved her fingers, all the musical notes disappeared. Tang Yinxuan clasped her right fist with her left palm, facing the dragonian in front of her before jumping down from the arena.

Sss~

"This... How can this be possible?"

"Those young men that have appeared suddenly are too strong and terrifying!"

"Overwhelming... They were completely overwhelming. This group of people is too powerful!"

When the crowd looked across and saw one after another supreme talent admitting defeat, they were astonished.

"Look! The young lord of Sea Serpent Island, Flower Monk and the ominous-looking young man are all being overwhelmed!" At this moment, a teenager couldn't help but exclaim. His eyes were wide open as he stared at the developments with disbelief.

"What? How can this be possible? Complete domination! How can they be completely dominated!"

"Putting Flower Monk and the ominous-looking young man aside, why would even the young lord of Sea Serpent Island be overwhelmed?"

"The sister of Miracle Doctor Wang is so strong. Look! Every time they clash, the young lord of Sea Serpent Island is knocked back several steps. The thick layer of ice has no effect on her at all!"

The crowd was shocked to witness this.

What incredible strength and tough weapon! How can this be possible? If she wasn't lacking in battle experience...

The young lord of Sea Serpent Island looked extremely hideous. He gritted his teeth and the Ice Core round disc at his chest started spinning. A stream of chilling energy was transmitted to the Frozen Sorrows in his hands.

Swish!

The cold aura almost froze the air. Carrying chilling aura that could even freeze the earth, the young lord of Sea Serpent Island swung out his Frozen Sorrows.

"How can this be possible!"

As the chilling aura swept across Xiao Yu, cracks appeared on the tough arena structure and the air became stale.

However, she wasn't affected at all. It was as though the chilling aura didn't deal any damage to her at all.

Could it be the armor she's wearing?

The young lord of Sea Serpent Island pulled a long face and his eyelids were twitching violently. His eyes were fixed on Xiao Yu's bone sword and the black armor she was wearing.

Puff!

He took a deep breath and the Ice Core round disc at his chest started to spin once again.

Crack crack crack!

A layer of ice was gradually extended over his entire body.

From his arms to his legs, and eventually his head.

In the next instant, the young lord of Sea Serpent Island had turned into a statue of ice.

The Frozen Sorrows in his hand seemed to have merged with his palm. The ice-cold seal had turned his body into a weapon.

"How insane! I can feel a deathly chill even when I'm so far away. The current young lord of Sea Serpent Island is probably peerless among the Pinnacle Inborn experts!"

"That's too insane. Look! The ominous-looking young man and the Flower Monk have also undergone huge transformations!"

Below the stage, the crowd exclaimed in shock. The viewers over the Underworld website were also entirely attracted. Their eyes were opened wide as they stared at their screens, afraid of missing out on anything.

What they were seeing was too shocking.

"I can't believe you have pushed me to this extent!"

The ominous-looking young man started turning white. His skin had lost its glow and was emitting decadent vibes.

The current ominous-looking young man was just like a ten thousand-year-old corpse. Deathly silent, decadent and creepily horrifying!

As for the Flower Monk, a stream of blood tears flowed to his chin. The hideous ghost on the scar at the top of his head stood up and emitted terrifying perversity.

Bloody red mist was being ejected from all parts of his body, making him look incomparably bloody.

The ominous-looking young man looked coldly towards the Flower Monk. From the vengeance he was emitting, no one knew how many people he had killed previously.

The two dragonians smiled faintly and dense dark aura emitted from their bodies. At the same time, their arms were undergoing a tremendous transformation.

Their palms grew over three to four times their initial size and turned into the claws of a beast.

"Interesting! A clash of bloodlines!"

The two dragonians purse their lips as they grabbed forward with their dragon claws.

This was the dragonians in their human form. With their current strength, they could dragonify their claws.

After dragonification, their palms would resemble the claws of the dragon and would be incomparably sharp.

As they grabbed forward, it felt as though they could rip the space apart.

"Bloodline! They are bloodline martial artists!"

"There are extremely few bloodline cultivators. However, they are common in Euramerica. They can even turn into beasts to launch their attacks!"

"Why do that ominous-looking young man and Flower Monk feel so evil?"

"Could it be..."

Some elders who had accompanied the disciples of their families and sects seemed to have recalled something. They became serious and some even felt fear creeping up on them.

"What a high-level bloodline? What kind of bloodlines are those?"

Feeling the energies from the dragon claws, the ominous-looking young man and Flower Monk shivered. They gritted their teeth and launched their decadent energies and bloodthirsty aura towards the dragon claws.

"Just admit your defeat!"

Two chilling calls resounded as the two dragonians grabbed towards the body of the ominous-looking young man and the Flower Monk respectively.

Chapter 449: Sacred Sect: Dragon Sect (9)

"Get decadent!"

"Into Blood!"

The ominous-looking young man and the Flower Monk gave a loud and malevolent cry before they charged towards that dragon claws with grayish decadence and bloodthirsty energies.

"Claws of the Devil Dragon!"

The two Dragonians bellowed coldly, raking their half-meter dragon claws forward.

Ka Ka Ka!

A shattering sound came with a huge change in the expressions of the ominous-looking young man and Flower Monk. With horror, they watched as the daunting claws broke through their defense, ripping their bodies.

Gasp!

Their eyes were full of trepidation as they blocked with their hands in front of them. The terrifying claws with dragon scales stifled them.

Fear of death loomed over them.

"Do you concede defeat?"

The two Dragonians fixed their cold eyes on them as they uttered their question.

"We lost!"

"We lost!"

The two of them trembled with fear as they stared at the two Dragonians.

Bloodline oppression. As Bloodline Martial Artists, the scariest thing was to meet same-level opponents with a more prestigious bloodline.

That would cause great oppression on them. Besides, higher grade bloodlines would be much more dominating than the lower grades.

The two Dragonians withdrew their dragon claws and threw them a faint smile.

Both the Flower Monk and the ominous-looking young man grimaced. But they could only take a deep breath and bow before making their exits.

This was a recognition of the Dragonians' strength.

The Dragonians neither kill any innocent nor push anyone to the end.

"That ominous-looking young man and Flower Monk were defeated!"

"Defeated, they are defeated. The rest of the supreme talents were all defeated. Gosh, these dozen people just won against all the previous supreme talents. Horrifying!"

"Outstanding Five Devil Dragons. No doubt they are the Outstanding Five Devil Dragons!"

"These Outstanding Five Devil Dragons must be from a secluded family. Could it be the previous diabolism?"

"The others were also very powerful. Somehow, they do not seem to have revealed their full power yet."

Seeing that even the ominous-looking young man and Flower Monk were defeated, horror filled the eyes of the surrounding crowd at the arena.

Those supreme talents who were questioning whether anyone was not convinced were all defeated in the arena.

The ranking was completely overturned.

They were unable to react in time in the various combats today.

As they looked at the young men who sprouted out in the arena, tinges of awe flashed in their eyes.

"Second Uncle, where are they from? How is it that they are so mighty?"

Qiao Fuzi swept his gaze across the group of young men with darkening expression below the arena.

"I'm not sure. But I know that ominous-looking young man and the Flower Monk definitely come from diabolism."

The middle-aged man beside him shook his head with eyes looking grave.

"Diabolism? Could those young men come from diabolism too? Those two men could turn their hands into some beasts' claws. I'm sure they are not simple!" said Qiao Fuzi with a stern-looking face. When he was fighting with one of the young men in the arena, he'd already sensed the frightening strength and his combat experience was far from his own.

"There are too many changes to this Outstanding Young Heroes Chart this time!" said the middle-aged man with flickering eyes. "Something big is going to happen in the Underworld!"

"Given my strength, I can't even be ranked in the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart!"

Qiao Fuzi gritted his teeth.

"We need to investigate where these young men came from. But now, all the more we need to kill that Miracle Doctor Wang. The remuneration from Medical Saint Sect could greatly enhance the strength of Qiao Clan!"

"Kill!"

Bam!

Just then, a sudden crashing sound came from the arena.

When the crowd looked over again, it was incredible combat that they saw.

"Why are they giving it all their might?"

All of them were shocked when they saw the Frozen Sorrows of the Young Lord stabbing at the sister of Miracle Doctor Wang's chest.

Using his experience, he got his opponent to stab into his shoulder.

As he battled, this was the only choice that the Young Lord could make. To exchange a strike with a strike!

"Trying to break my defense?"

Upon seeing the Frozen Sorrows sticking on her chest, Xiao Yu revealed a smile.

From the smile on her face, anyone could tell that she was not in pain, and nothing had happened to her.

"Sss, this..."

The Young Lord gasped with a twisted expression on his face. In disbelief, he stared at the dagger in his hand, which could not break the defense of his opponent.

Sensing the immense pain from his shoulder, the Young Lord could not take it lying down.

He turned out to be unmatched with her. He was no match for that lass.

"No..."

The Young Lord took his exit hurriedly out of the arena.

"Hur? Are you throwing in the towel? Do you have cold feet?"

Xiao Yu was astounded when she saw Young Lord flitting out of the arena. She pointed her bone sword at him!

The Young Lord was unusually embarrassed. The ice layer on his head disappeared as he glared at Xiao Yu with a frosty look. The hand holding the Frozen Sorrows was trembling.

"Darn you, darn you!" he murmured as his eyes filled with murderous intent.

"The Young Lord has exited the arena. Is he admitting his defeat?"

"I guess so. This... Dark horse. This girl is the biggest dark horse this round. She actually defeated the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island!"

Everyone fixed their astonished gazes on the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island.

"Heh heh, Now it looks like I'm the champion of the supreme talents!"

Xiao Yu looked at the Young Lord with her chin slightly lifted. "Are you thinking of challenging my elder brother? You're not fit yet."

"You're not fit to be a champion of the supreme talents either. I'm the champion!"

Xiao Yu was elated as she overlooked everyone around her. She was holding her chin up, looking proud!

"You..."

Upon seeing the complacent Xiao Yu, killing intent filled the eyes of Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island. "All of you shall die. DIE!"

Bam!

As soon as he finished his sentence, two middle-aged men emerged by his side in a split second.

"What? What is the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island trying to do?"

"This is...? What does he want to do?"

Seeing the abrupt appearance of the two middle-aged men, the surrounding crowd was taken aback.

"Miracle Doctor Wang, you and your men shall perish here!"

The Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island glowered coldly at Wang Xian and Xiao Yu with a bloodthirsty look.

His words stunned everyone once again.

"Gentlemen, do it now. Whoever kills him shall take the remuneration!" said the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island as he ignored the astounding looks when he swept his gaze across the surrounding crowd.

His words stupefied many people, while some of them were looking confused.

"Fine, we'll take the killing order of the Medical Saint Sect!"

"Haha, let's make this clear in advance. Everyone can kill Miracle Doctor Wang and the people beside him, but we shall not hurt our friendship and compete with each other!"

"The Wu Family will take his life!"

"Gentlemen, we'll go by meritocracy!"

As soon as Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island spoke, some of the families and experts hesitated before they stepped forward.

There were Sacred Clan, Qiao Clan, the renowned Wu Family in Eastern Province, and some of the first-class forces.

Among which, five supreme Inborn talents who had participated in the ranking of Outstanding Young Heroes Chart also walked out with their families.

Eight Sacred Clans, a supreme first-class force actually stepped forward.

Eight forces and twenty-seven Inborn Experts in total.

They laughed and chatted with each other as they stared at Wang Xian and the people beside him like their prey.

"Brother, are we going to take part too?" asked a young man hesitantly to Saint Qi and Saint Wen when he saw more than a score of Inborn Experts were about to strike.

"No, I have a bad feeling about this!"

Another young man peered at the group of daunting young men who had been forgotten on the stage as a premonition surged.

"Yinxuan, are we really not going to do it?" Elder Yang, who was tempted to move, asked Tang Yinxuan once again.

"Elder Yang!" Tang Yinxuan was looking grave. "Just you wait and see someone die!"

"What is going on? What exactly is happening here?"

"Why... why are they suddenly attacking Miracle Doctor Wang? This..."

"The killing order of Medical Saint Sect. Could it be such that some forces strike?"

"Most likely. This is the only possibility now!"

Everyone was astounded to see eight powerful forces, which consisted of one Sacred Clan and seven supreme first-class forces!

On top of that, the son of the second strongest in the Underworld took part too.

"Miracle Doctor Wang is completely finished this time!"

"It'll be difficult for him to escape. Little did I expect he would perish here!"

"Hmph, perhaps he did not expect revenge to come this soon after killing a Medical Saint Sect's disciple. He's going to get killed now!"

"Any forces wish to take part now? If there is, please step out now. If you sneak an attack later, I'll not take it lying down!" Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island warned as he swept his gaze around upon seeing some of the forces walking out.

"That's right. If anyone wants to take part in the killing order of Medical Saint Sect, step out now. Anyone who tries to take advantage later will be deemed as having gone against Qiao Clan!"

Qiao Fuzi also cast his gaze around.

Xiao Clan, Medical Saint Sect, the Inborn Disciple, and the golden Spiritual Bird from Imperial Beast Sect did not make any moves.

"Fine, if that's the case, we'll do the killing!"

Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island widened his mouth as he stared with a ghastly look at Wang Xian.

The remaining eight forces also threw their cold gazes at the prey that they were going to hunt down.

"Haha, well, well. Medical Saint Sect's killing order!"

Wang Xian looked at the group with a slight quirk at the corner of his lips.

"Phew, thirty Inborn Experts. Thirty Inborn Experts want my life!"

He gazed at the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island, Qiao Clan, and the rest. With a faint smile on his face, he said, "Let me make an announcement before you guys strike!"

"I'll give the dying man ten more seconds to live!"

A middle-aged man from Qiao Clan slowly pulled out his sword.

"I hereby announce to the Underworld..." Wang Xian swept his gaze across the surrounding crowd. With a soft yell, he said, "I, Wang Xian, establish Dragon Sect, a Sacred Sect!"

"Where are the disciples of Dragon Sect?"

"Where are the disciples of Dragon Sect?"

An announcement came as a surprise to everyone, including the eight forces.

Boom boom!

A bout of terrifying aura broke out from the arena and the surrounding spots.

The sky turned dark as an immense bout of demonic aura darted into the air.

"Disciples of the Dragon Sect hereby greet the Dragon King!"

"Disciples of the Dragon Sect hereby greet the Dragon King!"

All the Dragonians from the arena made their moves and appeared before Wang Xian with one knee on the floor!

More then dozens of figures showed up before Wang Xian, half-kneeling behind him.

"Greetings to the Dragon King!"

Chapter 450: Dragon Sect's Killing Order (1)

"Greetings, Dragon King!"

Strong aura shot through the skies and ominous clouds tumbled.

The terrifying aura of each dragonian rose from their bodies into the sky and formed an insane devil dragon circling and rumbling.

It was as though they were announcing to the world that the Dragon Sect had descended onto the world!

Dragon in the sky!

Shocking, frightening and unbelievable!

The surrounding crowd was dumbfounded and their bodies shivered violently as they stared at the dragonians with terrifying auras.

Fifty dragonians and fifty powerful Inborn experts.

All of them were kneeling before that young man, Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown.

An invincible vibe filled every corner of the arena of the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition.

"Those dozen-plus young men are... are all the subordinates of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown!"

"Their auras are insanely powerful! Fifty Inborn experts! We are talking about fifty Inborn experts!"

The surrounding crowd was greatly shaken. They stared with disbelief at the fifty dragonians who were kneeling on the floor and were clearly panic-stricken.

"Fifty Inborn experts and a dozen or so of them have defeated all the supreme talents!"

"Over ten supreme talents were overwhelmed. The Outstanding Five Devil Dragons and the Seven Dragon Stars are all subordinates of Miracle Doctor Wang. Their strength could even be considered to be amongst the upper echelons of Inborn experts. This... This is simply frightening!"

Everyone's eyes opened wide as they mumbled.

At this very moment, the young lord of Sea Serpent Island and the group from the Qiao Clan stared at the fifty Inborn experts kneeling before Wang Xian in disbelief.

"This cannot be possible! This cannot be possible!"

The young lord of Sea Serpent Island, Qiao Fuzi, and the rest were a little out of sorts. There were fifty Inborn experts and these experts had just defeated them a while ago.

All of them were the subordinates of Miracle Doctor Wang.

And now, Miracle Doctor had announced the establishment of his Sacred Sect.

Sacred Sect! He just established a Sacred Sect.

Moreover, it's an incomparably strong Sacred Sect!

They swallowed their saliva and their eyes were filled with fear. At this moment, with just thirty Inborn experts on their side, they were going to go against a Sacred Sect.

A Sacred Sect that had fifty Inborn experts.

"The Dragon Sect will be established today. First, I'm going to announce that those who offend our Dragon Sect shall die!"

"Dragon Sect Killing Order: Annihilate all who are going against us!"

"After which, annihilate their families, including the Sacred Clans and Sects!"

Wang Xian looked at the fifty dragonians that were kneeling before him. He lifted his head and turned to the young lord of Sea Serpent Island and the group of experts from the Qiao Clan. Gradually, he revealed an eerie smirk.

"Now that I have said what I wanted, you guys can come and kill me now!"

Wang Xian's lips curved into a smile and he looked at them with contempt.

"Those who offend our Dragon Sect shall die! Those who offend our Dragon King shall die!" the fifty dragonians shouted loudly in unison.

Mo Qinglong stood up and the crowd of dragonians behind him followed. Their eyes were fixed on the young lord of Sea Serpent Island and the group behind him.

"Follow me to kill our enemies!"

"Kill!" Mo Qinglong instructed with killing intent, and the crowd of dragonians responded.

Rumble!

Instantly, devilish aura blocked out the entire sky and the devil dragon roared loudly. Without a moment of hesitation, Mo Qinglong and the group of dragonians charged towards the enemies.

"No, no. We are backing out. We are backing out!"

"It was Medical Saint Sect who issued the Medical Saint Sect's killing order. It has nothing to do with us. Our Wu Family is backing out. We are backing out!"

When the eight forces saw the group of dragonians charging towards them, they were filled with horror.

Those were fifty Inborn experts. Moreover, they were all existences that could match Pinnacle Inborn experts. Even though they had thirty Inborn experts, they wouldn't be a match at all.

Completely and thoroughly overwhelming.

It was especially so for the Inborn supreme talents that had fought with the dragonians previously. They knew clearly how terrifying these dragonians could be.

While fighting in the arenas, they clearly understood that they were a far cry from them. Now that the dragonians were going for their lives with the intent, they would undoubtedly be slaughtered!

The people from the eight forces were flabbergasted and overwhelmed with fear.

Even the group of four from the Qiao Clan were horrified.

"Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, our Qiao Clan is backing out. Since you have established a Sacred Sect, our Qiao Clan wouldn't be willing to make you our enemy!" a middle-aged man from the Qiao Clan shouted immediately.

"Spare no one!" said Wang Xian coldly.

"My father is the second strongest man in the Underworld. Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, are you sure you dare to kill me?"

When the young lord of Sea Serpent Island saw the group of dragonians with terrifying vibes, he also felt fear.

Just a while ago, two of these dragonians had defeated the two supreme talents from Devil Corpse Palace and Devil Spirits Temple. The strength of those two was just a notch weaker than him.

Yet, there were even stronger existences within this group.

"None of you are getting away after offending our Dragon King!" Mo Qinglong responded to the young lord of Sea Serpent Island with killing intent.

Sss!

The surrounding crowd was shocked and cold sweat broke out on their foreheads. Once again, they retreated.

"He's going to kill the people from the Qiao Clan and the son of the Lord of Sea Serpent Island. Miracle Doctor Wang... He's simply..."

"He's no longer called Miracle Doctor Wang. We should be addressing him as the Dragon King. To establish a sect at twenty years old and become the leader of a Sacred Sect, his achievements are unmatched throughout history!"

"The Dragon King would consider one's background when he decides to kill? Just think about the Elders of the Sacred Followers Guild and the disciple of Medical Saint Sect. He would definitely not stop for the Lord of Sea Serpent Island or the Qiao Clan. Didn't the Dragon King say that he's going to annihilate their clans regardless of whether they are from a Sacred Clan?"

"The Sect Leader of a Sacred Sect... A twenty-year-old leader of a Sacred Sect... Moreover, he is the founder of the sect... How terrifying!"

The crowd was shocked to see the dragonians charging ahead, brimming with killing intent.

All of them could feel cold sweat breaking out on their backs.

He didn't care if you were from a Sacred Clan or if you were the son of the second strongest man. He would just kill you without reservations.

"Young lord, please escape as quickly as you can. We will hold them here!"

the two middle-aged men who were standing beside the young lord of Sea Serpent Island said in a hurry and with resolve.

"Uncle Ma, Uncle Bei!"

The young lord of Sea Serpent Island was astonished and stared at the two middle-aged men bitterly.

"Quick! Run!"

When the two middle-aged men saw Mo Yuan and Mo Qinglong attacking them, they were fearful and immediately charged ahead to stop them.

"All of you will die!"

Mo Qinglong had a hideous expression on him. As he waved his arm, his palm transformed into an incomparably terrifying devil dragon claw.

His palm was over a meter long and was much more terrifying than the two dragonians previously.

"If you dare to kill the son of our Lord, our Lord will not let you off!" the two middle-aged screeched loudly. Water flowed rapidly on their bodies and formed various vortexes.

Each vortex was five meters wide and soon the stones on the ground were lifted.

"Half-Step to Dan Realm! They are Half-Step to Dan Realm experts!" the surrounding crowd was stunned once again.

Tsk!

However, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan weren't afraid at all as they charged towards the two middle-aged men.

"It doesn't matter if you are Half-Step to Dan Realm experts! Both of you will still die today"

Arrogant words came from them. The aura that they were emitting was causing the crowd to shiver in fear.

That domineering black devilish aura was truly too frightening.

"It's over, it's over!"

When Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan released their auras, the people from the other eight forces were devastated.

As they saw the remaining dragonians charging towards them, they couldn't help but feel deep regret!

Chapter 451: Dragon Sect's Killing Order (2)

Boom!

"No, don't kill us. We surrender!"

When the remaining Dragonians charged over, the score of Inborn Experts from the eight forces screamed in horror.

Some of them even tried to flee with trepidation.

They ignored their dignity as a clan and as experts when they tried to flee far away.

However, the Dragonians were even faster than them as they flitted over and surrounded them.

"Kill!"

One of the Dragonians charged towards Qiao Clan and those Inborn Experts with a frosty and daunting demonic aura.

"It's over, over!"

Upon seeing that Dragonian charging at him, fear filled Qiao Fuzi's eyes.

That Dragonian was the one who had fought and defeated him within thirty moves in the arena just now. His strength was formidable.

"Kill!"

On the brink of life and death, Qiao Fuzi could only bite the bullet and explode all his might for his last fight.

"Trash!"

With a disdainful voice, that Dragonian's palms slowly transformed into something horrifying.

As Qiao Fuzi witnessed the transformation, he was appalled. He wielded his sword directly at that Dragonian.

As the sword slashed at the dragon claws, it was caught by that Dragonian easily.

"Just you and you think you can kill our Dragon King? I was only playing with you just now in the arena!"

The Dragonian sneered as he raked his dragon claws across Qiao Fuzi's body.

Argh!

With a huge change in his expression, Qiao Fuzi darted his sword at him.

Argh!

A petrifying shriek came from Qiao Fuzi when the dragon claws grabbed and crushed his body straightaway. Qiao Fuzi widened his eyes with fear.

Argh, argh!

At this time, he heard cries from the side. He tilted his head with the last trace of his vitality.

All he saw was the few elders of Qiao Clan and the various Inborn Experts getting killed.

Within less than one minute, more than ten Inborn Experts were struck down.

Cough, cough!

Qiao Fuzi spat out a mouthful of blood as his eyes were big and round, full of remorse.

As the most outstanding disciple of a Sacred Clan and the youngest Inborn Expert of the Qiao Clan, his bright future ended here.

"They are way too compelling. Fifty Dragon Sect disciples killed dozens of Inborn Experts in a split second. Gosh, all of them have strength that is close to Pinnacle Inborn, or are Pinnacle Inborns, themselves!"

"The Inborn Experts of Dragon Sect are way too domineering. All of them can transform their hands into daunting claws, which can actually resist the attacks of Inborn Spiritual Weapons. Their combat abilities are not those that any average Inborn can compare with!"

All the surrounding people twitched their eyebrows as they watched in fear as the Inborn Experts perished one by one.

The strength possessed by thirty Inborn Experts was almost equivalent to that of a Sacred Sect. Yet, all of them had been struck down one by one.

The Inborn Experts, who were striking awe just now, were being massacred.

Looking at those Dragonians who were exuding black demonic aura, all the surrounding crowd had awe in their eyes.

When they looked at that young man before the Dragonians, all they had was admiration and fear for him.

This is a new Sacred Sect and a terrifying one.

"They had mighty strength. They are even more compelling than the elder group of our Heavenly Sound Sect!"

When Elder Yang saw the group of Dragonians kneeling before that young man, he was already taken aback by horror.

Seeing those eight forces who had accepted the killing order from Medical Saint Sect getting massacred by them, his heart quivered.

If not for the strong opposition from Tang Yinxuan, they could be part of the group now.

Given the style of that Dragon Sect Master, so what if it was a Sacred Sect or Sacred Clan? Offend him, and all will die!

"They are really formidable!" Tang Yinxuan was astounded by the fifty Dragonians.

She knew Wang Xian was strong, but the last thing she could think of was him establishing a Sacred Sect of his own.

A strong ancestral sect that was on par with Heavenly Sound Sect.

Those forces and ancestral sects who knew about the mission counted themselves really lucky for not participating in it.

Fortunately, they did not do it.

"Young Lord, run now!"

Just then, another despairing scream was heard.

Everyone hurriedly spun around and saw two Dragonians besieging the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island. He had lost his previous dashing aura and chillness now.

The person who proudly declared he was the champion of supreme talents in the arena just now had his hair spread out with a long wound on his arm. He looked awful as he fought with two disciples of Dragon Sect before him.

If the situation persisted, it would take no time for the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island to be killed.

Seeing their Young Lord in danger, the two middle-aged men revealed desperate looks. They blocked the blows from Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan with their maximum effort and struck at the two Dragonians before their Young Lord.

The two Dragonians had a slight change in their expressions and staggered back immediately.

"How dare you get distracted while fighting with me!"

Upon seeing that middle-aged man who got distracted, he snorted. A bout of demonic aura converged into a hideous dragon head that bit him on both his legs.

"Ah, scram now!"

That middle-aged man let out a cry as water on his body vibrated violently. With a malevolent look, he bellowed, "Old Bei, help me block this!"

"Got it!"

Relentlessness filled the face of another middle-aged man's face as he struck Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan. "I'll fight it out with you guys. Our Lord will take revenge for us!"

"Go to hell!"

Seeing him charging alone at the duo, Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan were looking bleak as they stretched out their Claws of the Devil Dragon and raked at him.

Argh, argh!

On the other side, another middle-aged man let out a deafening roar.

Immense blue energy flowed out and gushed towards the Ice Core round disc at the chest of the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island.

A Half-Step to Dan Realm injected all of his energy into the Ice Core round disc.

The entire round disc was giving off a blue glow that solidified and surrounded them.

Within the blue glow, the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island malevolently stared at Wang Xian with rage and hatred in his eyes.

"I'll ask my father to kill you!"

The Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island let out a miserable cry when the blue Ice Core round disc enveloped him totally. Subsequently, he darted out into the sky at a terrifying speed.

His speed was almost ten times the speed of sound. Moving as though it was the speed of light, the blue glow flashed and disappeared with the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island.

On the other hand, the middle-aged Half-Step to Dan Realm expert lost all the soul in his eyes as he collapsed on the ground.

Argh!

At this time, the other Half-step to Inborn who had blocked Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan also let out a desperate shriek before he fell onto the ground with a thud.

"What's that round disc? How was it able to spur such a crazy speed? That was fast. It felt like a teleport!"

"The two Half-Step to Dan Realm experts beside the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island are dead!"

"In order to let the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island escape, that... that Half-Step to Dan Realm actually sacrificed his life!"

"A Half-Step to Dan Realm sacrificed his life so that the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island could escape through a piece of treasure. This price is simply too heavy to pay!"

"Gosh, the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island managed to escape after paying such a price. The rest were unable to run away. Twenty-seven Inborns and two Half-Step to Dan Realm perished!"

The surrounding crowd was aghast in seeing this.

The newly established Dragon Sect issued a killing order, causing numerous casualties.

Wang Xian was unconcerned about the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island making his escape.

The enemies from the sea were all trash in his eyes.

This was only the birth of the Dragon Sect. When the Dragon Palace emerged... Hiak, Hiak!

Chapter 452: Dragon Sect's Killing Order (3)

Argh!

When the last person from the eight forces had finally died, the entire competition field for the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition went silent.

As a cold breeze blew over, everyone could feel the chill down their bones. This type of chill was more penetrative than what they felt from the young lord of Sea Serpent Island.

Looking at the corpses around them, they couldn't help but shiver.

Among the eight forces, there were subordinates of the second strongest man in the Underworld, people from the Sacred Clan, Qiao Clan, the Wu Family and many other first-class forces.

Only the young lord of Sea Serpent Island among the thirty Inborn experts had made it out alive after two Half-Step to Dan Realm experts sacrificed themselves to help him escape with the treasure he had.

All the rest were killed on the spot.

Looking at the fifty dragonians appearing behind the young man, everyone was truly shocked.

Any force that could establish itself as a Sacred Sect would undoubtedly be a force to be reckoned with over a certain region. From today onwards, that young man would be the same.

His name is the Dragon King!

The Sect Leader of the Sacred Sect, Dragon Sect.

No one had any doubts about Dragon Sect becoming a Sacred Sect and no one would doubt its strength.

Just the fifty Inborn experts before them would be more than the Inborn experts many other Sacred Sects had.

"When he said he wasn't participating in the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition, there were still lots of people mocking him. They accused him of being afraid after seeing the experts and thought he didn't dare to take on the challenge. It would seem now that... Hehe! He definitely has the strength. It is just that he had no regard for those participating at all!"

"Considering he could make so many experts address him as the Dragon King, how strong is he? I believe he is definitely above the Inborn Realm!"

"That's a hundred percent certain. His sister alone is able to defeat the young lord of Sea Serpent Island. He wouldn't be any worse!"

Another unparalleled expert has appeared in the Underworld once again. The Dragon King from the Dragon Sect! the crowd thought to themselves.

Wang Xian looked across and noticed there were still a lot of camera equipment over the entire competition ground for the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition.

All these cameras were broadcasting live for the entire Underworld over the Internet.

At this point, he knew that whatever happened here was known by the entire Underworld.

"Medical Saint Sect's killing order? Hehe! Today, my Dragon Sect shall also issue a killing order to all those forces that fought against us as well as the Medical Saint Sect. We will definitely annihilate all of you in the future!" Wang Xian looked towards a camera and said coldly.

"In three days, our Dragon Sect will be hosting a pilgrimage for two consecutive days. On the first day, I hope you guys will come and our Dragon Sect will definitely be a good host!" Wang Xian's voice resounded and the crowd could hear him clearly.

Those who relied on the cameras for the live stream over the Underworld website had also seen it clearly with their eyes.

Despite being separated by the screen, they could still see and sense the boundless dominance and killing intent in Wang Xian words. All of them were greatly shocked.

[This... This... Is Dragon King from the Dragon Sect declaring war against Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan? We are talking about two Saint-class forces here!]

[He's too domineering and arrogant. After slaughtering everyone from the eight forces, he announced he would be annihilating all of them! That's too insane!]

[Establishing a Sacred Sect at the age of twenty and having fifty Inborn experts as subordinates! This is too shocking! Every action of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown has been shocking the entire Underworld. And now he's issuing a challenge to the Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan!]

[Is he a little too brazen to announce he will annihilate all the forces who accepted the killing order from the Medical Saint Sect? Those are eight forces. Among which, one is even a Saint-class force. If we put the other seven forces together, they could also be equivalent to a Sacred Sect. Together with the Medical Saint Sect, that would be the strength of three Saint-class forces!]

Wang Xian's announcement shocked everyone to the core. He made it clear that he wouldn't rest until either his side perished or Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan perished. That was too terrifying.

Nonetheless, everyone was filled with respect and fear towards him.

No one dared to make it clear publicly to go against the Medical Saint Sect, the Qiao Clan and the other seven forces.

Even other Sacred Sects wouldn't dare to make two other Sacred Sects their enemies at the same time.

"Arrogance! He's too arrogant. He is saying he's going to annihilate our Medical Saint Sect!"

Boom!

At this very moment, within the mountain valley of Medical Saint Sect.

When the two Sect Leaders of Medical Saint Sect saw Wang Xian's declaration over the video, they were infuriated.

While their eyes were glowing with anger, they were also a little shocked.

"He should be counting himself lucky if we don't pursue him. Yet, he's saying he's going to annihilate us. Haha! Great. Dragon King of the Dragon Sect... Great, great!"

The two of them stared furiously at the video. Dense killing intent was leaking out of their bodies. "In three days, it will be the death anniversary of your Dragon Sect."

"Inform the Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect. We have reached the point that this incident won't end without a side perishing. We will be mobilizing all our forces!"

"Although that brat possesses unexpected influence, just the Dragon Sect alone isn't enough to shake the foundation of our Medical Saint Sect. Wishful thinking!" the two Sect Leaders shouted and looked hideous.

The surrounding Elders of the Medical Saint Sect were also brimming with killing intent. The words of that young man in the video didn't just constitute provocations. He was declaring that he wouldn't rest until one side perished.

And he was making the same statement to two Sacred Sects!

A wise Elder pondered for a moment before remarking solemnly, "Sect Leaders, I believe our best option is to ally with the Qiao Clan. The Dragon Sect isn't weak. Moreover, that Dragon King will most likely be above the Inborn Realm!"

"Inform our Supreme Elders too. There's nothing to fear about just a Dragon Sect," the other Sect Leader pulled a long face and shouted.

"I'm just thinking of playing it safe. Since he dares to challenge us and the Qiao Clan, he should be aware of the strength of the two Sacred Sects. I'm only afraid that he's still hiding his true strength," that Elder reminded.

The two Sect Leader of the Medical Saint Sect calmed down and replied, "We will get in contact with the Qiao Clan!"

If Dragon Sect was still hiding their strength, they would indeed be horrifying!

...

"Damn it! Damn it! The Dragon Sect is too arrogant and brazen. It's just a newly established Sacred Sect and yet he dares to be so arrogant!"

Nanjing. Within a mountain peak, a group had gathered at the Grand Hall and was watching the video on the screen solemnly.

The Qiao Clan would never have expected the other party to go to this extent after killing four of their disciples for simply accepting the killing order of the Medical Saint Sect.

It was especially so after learning that the other party possessed such terrifying strength.

If the Qiao Clan had known that the other party was a Sacred Clan, they would have never gotten themselves involved in this.

Now that they had boarded the ship, they couldn't alight. The other party issued a challenge to them directly and even declared that they would be annihilating them.

Domineering and arrogant!

In the Grand Hall of the Qiao Clan, everyone was extremely bitter. A Sacred Sect had declared that they would annihilate them. Moreover, it came from Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown who had been known to be domineering in his actions.

This wouldn't be a joke. No matter how this incident turned out, their Qiao Clan would have suffered a huge blow.

Even if they achieved victory in the end.

Looking at the fifty powerful Inborn experts, the Qiao Clan was fearful despite being infuriated. The entire Qiao Clan didn't even have that many experts.

"Inform Laozu about this and let him decide!" said the clan leader of the Qiao Clan helplessly.

He was regretting his actions. Because of greed, he had accepted the killing order from the Medical Saint Sect. Now, he was forced to go against another Sacred Sect.

Chapter 453: The Seething Underworld

"He's declaring war with one Sacred Sect and another seven first-class forces. This is indeed the style of Miracle Doctor Wang of Rivertown."

"They will be having a Pilgrimage three days from now. They will receive the enemy on the first day and accept Pilgrimage on the second day. What great confidence he has."

"Dragon King of Dragon Sect. From now on, the entire Underworld will be seething with this!"

The remaining forces marveled at that young man who spoke boldly at the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition ground.

Even those Sacred Sects over there felt the tremble in their hearts.

They would have to look up to this young man in the future.

The founder of the Sacred Sect, Dragon King!

"Let's go!"

Wang Xian scanned everyone with the corner of his lips drawn. He looked at Xiao Yu and the rest beside him with a beaming face.

The Dragon Sect was established, and their name was known in the Underworld.

Next, the Sacred Sects would begin competing with each other. He wanted the Dragon Sect to dominate Underworld and rise above any Sacred Sects.

"The Dragon Sect will take over the ranking of the supreme talents this year!"

Mo Qinglong walked behind and cast a glance at the gigantic Named Cliff with the corner of his lips slightly drawn.

He made a move with his huge Claws of the Devil Dragon, raking them across the Named Cliff.

Bam, Bam, Bam!

The dust from the rocks fell off as Mo Qinglong swung his dragon claws from top to bottom. In another swift movement, he returned to behind Wang Xian again.

All of them watched Wang Xian and the gang in silence. None of them dared to utter a word.

When they saw Mo Qinglong fly to the Named Cliff, they looked over.

The cold Eastern breeze swept in as the two powerful words appeared on the Named Cliff.

Dragon Sect.

The calligraphy that seemed to be dancing was filled with unlimited mightiness.

At the entrance, everyone took the initiative to give way to them as they looked at them in awe.

"The Outstanding Young Heroes Chart this time seemed to be prepared for Dragon Sect. Hehe, this bunch of young men took over the rankings like a breeze."

"This is too sick. How on earth did they get their powerful strength at such a young age?"

"I'm afraid bloodshed is brewing in the Underworld three days from now!"

Until those groups of figures disappeared, all of them watched silently. The rest of the Sacred Sects and Sacred Clans in the field began to stalk out slowly.

"Amitabha, this is a terrifying Sacred Sect. All of them are young Inborn Experts!" said the Flower Monk flatly as he fiddled with his bloody beads with a stern look.

"Interesting. It's great that the Underworld gets chaotic. It's time for us, the diabolism they regarded us as, to rise!"

The ominous-looking young man widened his mouth as he swept his gaze across the surrounding experts of the Underworld. With a bloodthirsty look on his face, he said, "The bloodshed is going to start again in the Underworld!"

"Amitabha. I used up half of my beads in the combat just now. It's time to collect some back!"

A bloodthirsty aura surfaced on the Flower Monk's face as he looked around. As he put his palms together, he lowered his head slowly.

The ominous-looking young man looked at him coldly before he strode to his sedan.

Before his sedan, the four middle-aged men stood there without moving an inch. Their faces paled as they sensed a faint domineering aura from the Half-step to Inborn.

"To strengthen the Devil Corpse Palace, I need more corpses of the experts!"

The ominous-looking young man looked at the four middle-aged men with a vague murderous look.

He sat in the sedan and headed out.

"Wow, the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart has been updated!" Xiao Yu exclaimed fervently as she checked her phone when the gang was in the car heading towards Rivertown.

"Why, Xiao Yu? Are you number one?" Elder Fang asked with a smiling face from beside her.

"No, it's not me!"

Xiao Yu pouted with slight unhappiness. "I was the one who defeated the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island. Instead of giving me first place, they gave it to my brother. So unfair!"

"What an uncrowned champion. This is shady. Didn't they say no rankings for those who didn't participate in the competition?" Xiao Yu remarked with dissatisfaction while the rest around her chuckled.

"Establishing a Sacred Sect at the age of 20. Do you think he needs to get in the arena? Besides, you're his sister. How could anyone think Xiao Xian is weaker than you?" said Guan Shuqing to Xiao Yu smilingly.

"That is still unfair. The championship should be mine. The first female champion in history!"

Xiao Yu trotted to Wang Xian with displeasure. But subsequently, she exclaimed with excitement, "Brother, you were simply dashing just now!"

"I have always been dashing!" Wang Xian chuckled.

"The entire Underworld is heated. All of them are discussing Dragon Sect. Brother, the Medical Saint Sect, and Qiao Clan are quite strong. If they really turn up in three days, do we need to get those babies from the Dragon Palace in advance? Haha, and that blue whale of a sister-in-law, Qingyue. I'm sure it will freak them out!"

Xiao Yu held Wang Xian's arm as she commented excitedly, using her imagination.

"Do we need the members of Dragon Palace to be here? Till then, you can just transform into the invincible Divine Dragon and take down a Sacred Sect all by yourself!" said Wang Xian jokingly.

"Brother...You..."

Xiao Yu stared at him furiously. The moment she thought of what she looked like after the transformation, her hair stood on end.

If she had to turn into a Divine Dragon for an extended period, she would be infuriated by her own appearance.

"Okay, Xiao Yu is the cutest of all," said Wang Xian hurriedly upon seeing her angry look.

"I hope all of them will come in three days. Otherwise, the Dragon Sect will need to take the trouble to seek them out one by one!"

A trace of murderous intent flashed in Wang Xian's eyes as he spoke.

He would not let any one of them off who wanted his life.

He would not let off all the forces like Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan, Wu Family, and so on.

They had to pay a bloody price for what they'd done today.

The vehicle continued its way to Rivertown.

They arrived in Rivertown in the evening.

When they entered the city, a fleet of luxurious cars emerged out of nowhere around them.

More than hundreds of them drove by the side of their cars.

Without any communication, these cars lined up in a row in front of them.

With car plates of Rivertown, they escorted the car to the villa.

Subsequently, these people in the luxurious cars did not get out and drove off immediately.

All the big shots of Rivertown were sitting in the cars as they swept a glance with awe at the villa.

That was the house of the Dragon King, founder of a Sacred Sect.

It was the sacred ground of all people in Rivertown.

Wang Xian smiled at those families and magnates who curried favors. Back in the villa, he lay on the sofa comfortably, sipping a cup of tea. He took out his phone and scrolled through the updates in the Underworld.

[Dragon King established a Sacred Sect with fifty Inborn Experts!]

[Unparalleled Dragon King emerged as the champion of the Outstanding Young Heroes. The most terrifying young man, Wang Xian, the Dragon King!]

[Dragon Sect's Pilgrimage in three days. Will it perish or shock the Underworld?!]

[Newly-established Dragon King issued a Dragon Sect killing order to Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan, Wu Family and...]

The Underworld was once again shaken up because of Wang Xian, and this time, it was unprecedented heat!

Chapter 454: Sacred Sect, Devil Sects

The entire Underworld was discussing the establishment of the Dragon Sect. What happened on the competition field of the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition was beyond the expectations of any forces.

Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown killed the disciples of the Medical Saint Sect.

A dozen-odd young men appeared and swept aside all the demon-like supreme talents.

Medical Saint Sect issued a killing order, eight forces accepted it and attempted to kill Wang Xian.

Following this, Wang Xian established his Sacred Sect. The Dragon Sect was formed and killed twenty-nine Inborn experts from eight other forces.

The Dragon King announced the Dragon Sect's killing order. They were going after all the forces who had accepted the killing order from the Medical Saint Sect and the Medical Saint Sect.

Among which, there was another Sacred Clan.

The shocking incidents that happened over the course of a day were even more than what had happened in the entire year prior.

Everyone in the Underworld was shocked and was discussing the events.

And as for the name of Miracle Doctor Wang from Rivertown, everyone had now chosen to call him the Dragon King.

Dragon King of the Dragon Sect. That was also an honorific name for an unparalleled expert, and Wang Xian was clearly qualified.

However, a few shocking announcements were made over the Underworld website on the second day.

"In three days, our Medical Saint Sect will lead all our experts to annihilate the Dragon Sect in Rivertown! Annihilate the Sacred Sect!"

"In three days, our Qiao Clan will lead all our experts to annihilate the Dragon Sect in Rivertown! Annihilate the Sacred Sect!"

"In three days, our Wu Family will lead all our experts to annihilate the Dragon Sect in Rivertown! Annihilate the Sacred Sect!"

...

One after another, a total of eight messages were published on the morning of the second day.

In three days, they would be annihilating the Dragon Sect when the Dragon Sect held their pilgrimage!

The messages were just as the people in the Underworld had expected. Even so, when the Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan made the statements, they still surprised the entire Underworld.

[Battle of the Sacred Sects. It has been a long time since there's been a battle of the Sacred Sects in the Underworld!]

[That's too insane. The insane Dragon King of the Dragon Sect has challenged two Sacred Sects at the same time. Together with the seven first-class forces, the coalition's strength will be beyond everyone's imagination.]

[The Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan have been totally infuriated. No. We can't say that they are infuriated. Instead, it's the infuriated Dragon King that wants a deadly battle against them. In three days, there will be an unparalleled huge battle!]

[If the Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the seven first-class forces were to mobilize all their strength, how many Inborn experts would there be?]

[The seven first-class forces will have roughly twenty-five Inborn experts. As for the Medical Saint Sect, no one really knows. However, as a Sacred Sect known for refining elixir pills, they will have no less than thirty-five. The Inborn experts from the Qiao Clan won't be fewer than twenty-five. Together, that's an insane seventy Inborn experts!]

[Battle of the century! This would be the battle of the century! How is the Dragon Sect going to withstand the strength of close to three Sacred Sects?]

[You can now place your bets on the Underworld website. In three days, will the Dragon Sect be annihilated or will it be Medical Saint Sect and the rest? Time to place your bets!]

The entire Underworld had erupted because of the announcement made by the Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the seven first-class forces.

[The Dragon Sect will definitely be annihilated. The Medical Saint Sect is one of the few Sacred Sects with the strongest strength. Their strength won't be something a newly established Dragon Sect could possibly match, let alone the coalition with the Qiao Clan and the other forces!]

[I'm also of the opinion that the Dragon King of the Dragon Sect is too arrogant to challenge so many forces at the same time. This isn't domineering. It's courting his own demise!]

[He's still young and full of vigor after all. He must have thought that he could go against two Saint-class forces with fifty Inborn experts as disciples. He probably hasn't considered the Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and the Laozu of the Qiao Clan!]

[The Laozu of the Qiao Clan is incredibly strong. In the ranking of the unparalleled experts, he is ranked tenth. He's an old monster that has lived for over a hundred years!]

[The Supreme Elder of the Medical Saint Sect is also definitely terrifying existence above the Inborn Realm. Moreover, no one really knows how many Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect are still alive.]

[Although the fifty Inborn experts from the Dragon Sect are strong, the only one who has the strength above Inborn Realm would probably be the Dragon King. Moreover, the authenticity of his strength has yet to be verified!]

When the domineering announcements were made on the Underworld website, everyone was discussing the topic fervently.

As for the pilgrimage to the Dragon Sect in three days, many martial artists didn't have high hopes for the Dragon Sect after analysis.

Although a newly established Sacred Sect was shocking, the strength of traditional Sacred Sects was beyond the imagination of ordinary people.

It was especially so for Medical Saint Sect which was widely regarded as the Sacred Sect with the most resources.

There were also many martial artists in the Underworld who bluntly claimed that the Dragon Sect would definitely be annihilated and the rise of the Dragon King would just be a flash in the pan.

This was because the second strongest expert in the Underworld, the Lord of the Sea Serpent Island, was an expert that was close to being peerless.

The Dragon King from the Dragon Sect had killed the two experts that were with his son and even attempted to kill his only son.

As the second strongest unparalleled expert in the Underworld, he wouldn't just let this matter go.

Considering the style and personality of the Lord of Sea Serpent Island, he would definitely go after the life of the Dragon King.

At this moment, although Dragon King had terrifying talents, he would definitely be killed if he faced the Lord of Sea Serpent Island.

Undoubtedly.

[The bets on the Dragon Sect being annihilated has hit over fifty billion while those betting on the Dragon Sect annihilating the Medical Saint Sect is a meager billion-plus. Hehe!]

Wang Xian revealed a smile after seeing the comments left on the Underworld website.

Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the Lord of Sea Serpent Island!

Wang Xian's eyes flickered. Just some time ago, he'd been fearful when he first entered the Underworld website and saw these names.

And now, he was going to annihilate them. What an interesting turn of events.

In that case, we will know the outcome in three days!

Ruthlessness gleamed in Wang Xian's eyes.

Huh?

At this moment, Wang Xian suddenly saw a thread being pinned on the top. The thread was started by Dong Hua Sacred Sect.

Just the name of Dong Hua Sacred Sect was enough to guarantee its weight. Everyone in the Underworld had the highest regard for it to the point of worship.

It was also the strongest Sacred Sect.

The strongest expert in the Underworld was Nie Wushuang from Dong Hua Sacred Sect.

All along, there was a commonly known slogan: Dong Hua rules supreme in the Underworld.

One could easily tell the strength and status of the Dong Hua Sacred Sect from the slogan.

The announcement made by the Dong Hua Sacred Sect shocked everyone.

[The return of diabolism.]

The short announcement of only four words still made many people dumbfounded.

Diabolism referred to those who took the lives of people to increase their cultivation.

In the Qing Dynasty, diabolism had once ruled the entire Underworld. The Underworld was filled with killings and crime everywhere during that period.

Subsequently, the Sacred Sects, with Dong Hua Sacred Sect as the leader, forced diabolism into seclusion. And now, diabolism had returned!

When the announcement was made, all the information about diabolism was popping out.

[The competition for the Outstanding Young Heroes Chart has just ended. The ominous-looking young man ambushed a first-class force, killed everyone and made them into zombies!]

[The Flower Monk killed dozens of people with brutal means, sucked out their blood and made them into bloody buddha beads!]

[Devil Corpse Palace, Devil Spirits Temple, Remains and the Reeds Spirits are the four main forces of diabolism. They have surfaced with other hidden forces of diabolism!]

Wang Xian looked at the various messages and frowned. The return of diabolism.

"I heard about it from Sui Huang previously. There are two reasons why the forces of the Underworld are relatively weaker compared to those in the international stage. One reason was because of the disappearance of the nine cauldrons while the other was because of diabolism!"

Chapter 455: The Battle Of The Ages

(1)

The weakening of the Underworld was not a given since ancient times.

In ancient times, the Underworld forces could sweep the entire world around.

Even the Emperors were unable to manage the Underworld back then, and could do nothing but leave them alone.

On top of that, some Emperors were Sect Masters of ancestral sects.

One can imagine how glorious the Underworld was back then.

However, the entire Underworld forces were significantly weakened with the disappearance of the nine cauldrons and the rising Diabolism.

Nine Cauldrons were used to secure the luck for the entire nation. One of the greatest uses for them was to gather spiritual Qi.

The so-called Spiritual Qi was also known as spiritual strength. The Nine Cauldrons could gather Spiritual Energy, and filled the land of China which proved to be much more effective for cultivators.

However, the Spiritual Energy disappeared in the land of China after Nine Cauldrons went missing. With this, Diabolism emerged.

The cultivation of Diabolism relied mainly on bloodline, and Spiritual Energy was just supplementary.

This resulted in a much faster progression in their cultivations for Diabolism cultivators than the usual Martial Artists.

The Art of Cultivation in Diabolism was based on bloodline. They were eccentric people who massacred Martial Artists of the Underworld to enhance their own strength.

This, in turn, sparked a bloodbath in the Underworld with never-ending massacres for decades.

Fifty years ago, Nie Wushuang from Donghua Sacred Sect emerged and gathered a group of Sacred Sects to besiege Diabolism.

As invincible as Nie Wushuang was, he defeated several Sect Leaders of Diabolism, forcing them into seclusion, after which they dared not make themselves known again.

Since then, peace had been restored in the Underworld.

But, the strength of the Underworld dropped by three to four times due to the countless casualties after going through the war with Diabolism.

Back then, the number of Inborn Experts in the Underworld was not more than a hundred people.

As the forces in the Underworld were weakened, those foreign forces who had been eyeing the immense resources and ancient legacies of the Underworld came to plunder. The Underworld had received yet another major blow for more than ten years.

For the last fifty years, only twenty to thirty percent of the strength was restored in the Underworld. As such, it was still weak.

With the rise of Diabolism again, another bloody storm could be looming over the Underworld once again.

The country should be able to impose sanctions on them if Diabolism is going out for innocent killings like they used to. The situation is not as serious as I imagined, but conflicts will increase!

Wang Xian pondered to himself when he read the messages on the Underworld.

The era had changed. With modern technology, even Inborn Experts could not withstand the bombings.

Only when one advanced beyond the Inborn level could they survive under the bombings.

However, Dan Realm Experts had to avoid those strategic weapons too. Not to mention those destructive weapons like nuclear bombs which would cause even Dan Realm Experts to be blown to ashes.

With the government in control, Diabolism would not dare to go around killing the innocent. However, it was inevitable for a bloodbath to occur in the Underworld.

"Diabolism? I don't care if they are members of Diabolism or not as long as they don't provoke me."

Wang Xian scrolled through his phone without any concerns.

However, the Underworld erupted because of the rise of Diabolism. The older generations knew more about it, while the younger generations knew nuts.

[Refining corpses and blood aura sounds very impressive. The thought of controlling dozens of zombies for combat seemed awesome!]

[I heard about Diabolism from my grandfather. They are gruesome. After they kill you, they will extract your Blood Essence or turn you into a corpse. You will not rest in peace even after you die!]

[Even Donghua Sacred Sect had released this message on the Underworld. They must be compelling!]

[The old forces of Diabolism can even take over the entire Underworld. If not for the leadership of Nie Wushuang of Donghua Sacred Sect, the Underworld would still be dominated by Diabolism!]

[The Underworld has been chaotic recently with the rising of Diabolism, emerging Dragon King, and the battle between Dragon Sect, Medical Saint Sect, and Qiao Clan. The entire Underworld is in an upheaval!]

[Anyone want to meet up in a group and watch the battle of the ages in two days? Let's go to Rivertown!]

[The battle is between the Sacred Sects. However, the Dragon King has already mentioned he will be receiving the arrival of Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan. The rest of the forces would be best off avoiding it. Otherwise, they might get killed by mistake!]

[That's right. We should stay a distance away and wait for the news on the outcome. Forget about going over. Otherwise, they will mistake us as people from the opposite party. We can wait for news in Rivertown tomorrow!]

[Wait for what news? The Dragon Sect will be annihilated!]

[Even if we cannot witness the battle of the ages with our own eyes the day after tomorrow, we must wait for the first-hand outcome. Let's head to Rivertown tomorrow.]

Everyone was focused on the battle. Even the rise of Diabolism was not any more impressive than the current battle of the Sacred Sects.

Besides, this battle would not end with the fall of one or the other.

The day before the Dragon Sect Pilgrimage.

As the dominant and longest-running ancestral sect, the valley at Medical Saint Sect was surrounded by a wide variety of plants.

Some of the plants were looking gorgeous, blooming large flowers.

Some of them gave off a faint scent. From afar, the valley seemed like an outdoor fairyland amid the mist.

It was extremely difficult for outsiders to enter the valley. Even Inborn Experts could end up dead in the invisible defense around the valley.

At this time, a group of Medical Saint Sect disciples stood in the middle of the valley.

There were more than five thousand people, including disciples from two families in the Medical Saint Sect. Among which, about five hundred of them were standing over there.

These five hundred people were the core strength of the Medical Saint Sect.

Two white-haired old men in the lead were sitting on the top, with one wearing green, with two emerald arms.

Another one wore a Taoist robe with Eight Trigrams on it with purple sparks on his palms. [\[1\]](#)

Two of them sat there while the two Sect Masters and the rest of the disciples stood below.

"Everyone get ready to annihilate the Dragon Sect tomorrow."

The old man in the Taoist robe sounded flat when he announced this to the five hundred Medical Saint Sect disciples.

His tone sounded gentle as if he was making some usual announcements.

"It seems like Medical Saint Sect has not entered a battle for fifty years. We have been staying too low. It's time we went out and have fresh air!" said another old man plainly.

To them, it seemed like a piece of cake to annihilate the Dragon Sect tomorrow.

"Yes, Supreme Elder!"

The group of disciples bowed and answered below the stage.

They did not have much fighting spirit or excitement.

With two Supreme Elders around, annihilating a new Sacred Sect was not a big deal.

Amongst five hundred people, there were forty Inborn Experts. The rest were either Level 8 or 9 Martial Artists or Half-step to Inborn.

This was how formidable the Medical Saint Sect was. With a vast amount of resources and the daunting Arts of Refining Elixir Pills, no forces could imagine waging a battle against them.

Not to mention they were joining hands with Qiao Clan to annihilate this Sacred Sect!

Endnote:

[1] Eight Trigrams refers to eight symbols used in Taoist cosmology to represent the fundamental principles of reality, seen as a range of eight interrelated concepts. Back

Chapter 456: The Battle Of The Ages

(2)

"They are just a small Dragon Sect after all led by an arrogant kid who thinks he can act as such with just fifty Inborn level disciples. Tomorrow, we will crush them easily together with the Medical Saint Sect!"

At this very moment, within Qiao Clan in Nanjing, a crude and bad-tempered old man sat in the middle. Before him, there were seven to eight hundred people.

Among which, several Inborn experts with terrifying auras stood in two lines to his left and right. All of them had cold expressions.

"Laozu, that brat from Dragon Sect has fifty Inborn experts. Moreover, all of them are very young. He probably obtained some incredible treasures. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to rise up so rapidly."

Before him, an old man in yellow uniform commented solemnly.

He wasn't wearing the outfit of the Qiao Clan. Moreover, most of the people here weren't wearing the outfit of the Qiao Clan. Instead, they were from other families.

The old man that spoke was from the Wu Family. As for the others, they were from the other six families.

The Qiao Clan had gathered the other seven first-class forces.

In the field, there was a total of fifty Inborn experts! Although they weren't releasing their aura, ordinary people would still feel suffocated in their presence.

"A twenty-year-old brat possesses such insane strength and influence. If one says he did not have any mysterious encounter, no one would believe. Regardless, we will know tomorrow!"

Laozu revealed a faint smirk and continued, "They must be courting death to kill the disciples of my Qiao Clan and challenge two Saint-class forces at the same time."

"That's right. That Dragon King is too full of himself. With the Qiao Clan and the Supreme Elders from the Medical Saint Sect tomorrow, annihilating a Dragon Sect will be a walk in the park!" Below the stage, the sect leaders from various sects chuckled.

Initially, the sudden appearance of the Sacred Sect, Dragon Sect, had made them feel hopeless.

They had offended a Sacred Clan. Moreover, it was a terrifying existence with fifty Inborn experts. If the Dragon Sect wanted to take revenge on these first-class forces, it would be a simple task.

However, that brazen Dragon King announced he wanted to kill all of them, including the Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan. He even added that on the day of the pilgrimage, he would be awaiting their arrival.

Absolute arrogance!

Looking at the Laozu and the powerful disciples of the Qiao Clan, they were relieved and excited.

There were already fifty Inborn experts gathered here. Moreover, they had existences that were above the Inborn Realm.

Although the fifty of them might not be a match for the fifty Inborn experts from the Dragon Sect, they still had Medical Saint Sect with them.

The Qiao Clan had clearly contacted the Medical Saint Sect but they had no idea of the exact strength of the Medical Saint Sect.

Nonetheless, they were certain that the Medical Saint Sect would be stronger than the Qiao Clan.

With their fifty Inborn experts together with thirty to forty Inborn experts from the Medical Saint Sect, the Dragon Sect would still be slaughtered even if they had hidden their full strength.

Furthermore, they clearly had more experts that were above the Inborn Realm.

The Dragon Sect must be annihilated and the Dragon King must die!

Everyone was feeling extremely confident.

Today, countless martial artists from the Underworld headed towards Rivertown. They came to the beach enthusiastically and looked at the island a long distance away.

"There! The Dragon King will be holding his pilgrimage on that island!"

"It's too far. We can only wait for the outcome here."

"It will only begin tomorrow. We have to come early the next day!"

"There are some people who have started a thread on the Underworld forum. The Wu Family and the other seven forces have gone to the Qiao Clan. The battle of the ages is about to start!"

Some martial artists were discussing.

More and more martial artists arrived at Rivertown. Almost everyone in the Underworld had their attention focused on this place.

Focus on the pilgrimage of the Dragon Sect!

"Is everything in order?" Wang Xian arrived at the floating island and asked Mo Qinglong with a smile.

"It shouldn't be a problem to hold five thousand people," answered Mo Qingling with a smile.

Hmm!

Wang Xian saw the decorations of the floating island. It was prepared for two days later.

As for welcoming the Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the other forces, it would be on the other island beside it. That would be their burial site!

Two ordinary Inborn experts wouldn't be a match for a single dragonian. Moreover, he had Xiao Yu, Elder Fang, Sun Lingxiu and the girls with him. The crux was Lan Qingyue!

Wang Xian smiled to himself and wasn't worried about the huge battle that would be happening the next day.

Even if they had even stronger experts, he would still be around. The Dragon King of the Dragon Sect!

Standing on the training field built on the floating island, Wang Xian looked to the boundless sea. From him, an aura of invincibility was emitted.

This aura was even above the Dan Realm.

Rivertown was a place with frequent rain. The next morning, the sky was overcast. At about eight in the morning, ominous clouds had gathered and rain seemed imminent.

However, crowds of martial artists had been gathered at the beach of Rivertown since early in the morning.

"Are the Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the other forces here?"

"I don't know. However, since the Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan have made their statements, they will definitely be here today!"

"This is too darned exhilarating. Life and death battle of the Sacred Sects! The loser will probably be erased from the Underworld!"

"News from Nanjing yesterday reported that the twenty-odd Inborn experts from the seven forces have gone to the Qiao Clan. Wu Family and the other forces have mobilized all they could gather!"

"The Wu Family and the other forces can't be passive in this. If they can't annihilate the Dragon Sect today, they will be annihilated in the future!"

"The seven forces are mobilizing twenty-odd Inborn experts. Together with those from the Qiao Clan and Medical Saint Sect, won't the number of Inborn experts reach seventy or even eighty?"

"The strength of the Dragon Sect is too far from the strength of Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan!"

"They are here! Those are the people from the Qiao Clan! They are here!"

At this juncture, a light drizzle started to fall. A group of people was approaching the island with a vengeance.

They had eight hundred or so people. A crude and rowdy old man was leading the group and he was wearing the outfit of the Qiao Clan. From him, one could feel his imposing will without him getting angry.

Behind the old man, all the experts from the Qiao Clan were following, and they had faint smiles on their faces.

The Wu Family and the other forces stood to the left and right of the Qiao Clan.

A strong aura swept forward. Even though they had not released their aura, the terrifying demeanor still shocked those who had gathered at the beach as they quickly moved aside and opened up a lane.

"Sss. That's Qiao Longchuan from the Qiao Clan, a Half-Step to Dan Realm expert. If he's standing behind the old man, that old man must be the Laozu of the Qiao Clan!"

"Indeed! Even the Laozu of the Qiao Clan is here. The vibes from this group of people are too terrifying. Even when I'm several thousand meters away from them, I can still feel a faint pressure!"

"The weakest among them are Level 8 martial artists. In fact, almost everyone at the front is an Inborn expert!"

"About fifty Inborn experts. This... Just considering the strength of Qiao Clan and the other seven forces, they have already gathered fifty Inborn experts. That's the same as the strength of the Dragon Sect!"

The crowd looked at Qiao Clan and the other seven forces in shock.

Just the Qiao Clan and the other seven forces had gathered fifty Inborn experts. Moreover, they were led by the Laozu of the Qiao Clan.

If they considered the even stronger Medical Saint Sect, wouldn't it be...!

"The Dragon King of the Dragon Sect is too arrogant. The Dragon Sect will definitely be annihilated this time!"

"A meteoric rise will eventually end in a gruesome way because of his arrogance!"

Chapter 457: The Battle Of The Ages

(3)

Splash!

Fine rain sprinkled down.

The group of Qiao Clan came to the seaside and stood there while the surroundings plunged into silence. Everyone watched them with horror in their eyes.

"Too strong!" a young man remarked with awe and dodgy eyes.

"Have the people from Medical Saint Sect arrived yet?" a formidable elder from Qiao Clan looked around and asked in a deep voice.

"They're here!"

The old man looked behind him. In green and red uniforms, the group of Medical Saint Sect experts was flitting in their direction.

Two elders were traveling in the sky.

The way they traveled was not comparable to any of those Inborn Experts who could only flit in the air temporarily.

They were hovering in the air for real, just like birds gliding in the air.

On top of that, their speed in the air was not any slower than on land.

In the realm above Inborn Realm, Dan Realm Experts could fly in the sky.

This was another important hallmark of Dan Realm Experts.

"What? Two Dan Realm Experts?"

"They are the Supreme Elders of Medical Saint Sect, from Hua Family and Laozu from Bian Family!"

"Sss, the real unparalleled experts, unparalleled experts!"

"The Laozu of Qiao Clan is also from the same realm. There are three unparalleled experts!"

The crowd watched the Supreme Elders of Medical Saint Sect in the air with disbelief.

Some of the elders within Qiao Clan looked over with appalling looks and flickering eyes.

"The Medical Saint Sect lives up to their name. They have two unparalleled experts who are simply compelling!"

"Medical Saint Sect also brought forty Inborn Experts here. That's great. Now that they have ninety Inborn Experts, it will be a breeze to annihilate Dragon Sect. We might not even have many losses!"

"Three unparalleled experts. Even though the Dragon King is also an unparalleled expert, he will perish under the joint attack of three equivalent-leveled experts!"

The people from seven forces, including Wu Family, had thrills flushing in their eyes. With so many experts around, what was there to be afraid of?

"Old Hua, Old Bian, since we're all here, let's go!"

Laozu of Qiao Clan was not surprised by the two unparalleled experts of Medical Saint Sect. The two strong families, Hua's and Bian's, had been two Sacred Clans since a long time ago. The two families had too many casualties such that they joined hands to establish the Medical Saint Sect.

Hence, it was not surprising to have two unparalleled experts in Medical Saint Sect.

"Let's go. We'll eliminate that brazen brat today. Medical Saint Sect has not struck for the past fifty years. Today, we're out for some fresh air!"

An old man revealed a faint smile on his face.

"Haha, let's go. We shall see what is backing this insolent brat. Haha!"

Laozu of Qiao Clan chortled and ascended to the air, exuding terrifying might.

"Let's go. I'll let the people in the Underworld know today that no one lives after killing the disciples of Medical Saint Sect!" the old man from Medical Saint Sect exclaimed softly. Though it was soft, the voice traveled to miles away.

The three unparalleled experts took to the air and flitted towards the island in the sea.

The disciples of Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan, and the remaining seven forces left and were on the heels of them.

But, they set their foot on the surface of the water and flitted ahead at a rapid speed.

"They are simply compelling. Is this the strength of two Sacred Sects?"

"With close to hundreds of Inborn Experts, who else can't they annihilate?"

"The Dragon Sect and Dragon King are finished this time since there are so many Inborn Experts from Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan. Not to mention the three unparalleled experts!"

The crowd at the beach watched as horror filled their faces.

"That arrogant brat, get out, and accept your doom!"

Just then, they heard an indignant, mighty bellow coming from a far distance.

"I think we can check on the bodies of the Dragon Sect later on!"

"There's no doubt about it. Three unparalleled experts that can overturn anything!"

"Let's quickly place our bets on the Underworld forum. Given the combined strength of Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan, annihilating a Dragon Sect is just a piece of cake," the crowd exclaimed loudly at the seaside.

Meanwhile, news about the battle of Sacred Sects in Rivertown was updated on the Underworld forum.

[Three unparalleled experts are leading over ninety Inborn Experts to annihilate Sacred Sect!]

[Dragon King of Dragon Sect cannot be brazen anymore. How dare he proclaim he'll be able to annihilate Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan. Hehe, they can forget about a Pilgrimage since they will soon be finished!]

Many people were gloating over the misfortune on the Underworld forum as they watched.

Countless people from the Underworld were extremely jealous of a twenty-year-old young man establishing the Dragon Sect. Seeing that the Dragon Sect and Dragon King were about to be annihilated, many people clapped their hands in celebration. Dare you to be insolent!

"Unfortunately, we're unable to watch what is going on inside. It's a battle of the unparalleled experts!"

A young man sighed as he looked out to the sea.

"Let's go. Don't make any moves unless necessary!"

Just then, the crowd at the beach witnessed a score of people flitting towards the island in the sea.

All of them were slightly stunned as they revealed shocking looks on their faces.

"All of them are Inborn Experts. Look at their clothes. They are Sacred Clan, Sacred Clan!"

"What? Which Sacred Clan? What are they doing by heading out to the island now?"

"Sui Clan of Shang Jing. Those are from the Sui Clan. Gosh, they went over!"

"Could the Sui Clan be on the same side as Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan? No, if that's the case, they should have left together with the Medical Saint Sect.

Could it be...?"

"What's the situation now? Is another Sacred Clan involved?"

All of them were slightly stunned when they saw a score of Inborn Experts flitting towards the island. Everyone was petrified.

Another Sacred Clan is involved, and they could be here to assist the Dragon Sect.

"If they were here to assist Dragon Sect, the stakes are getting higher for this battle."

"Four Saint-class forces involved, that's too scary..."

Everyone was shocked.

"Here comes another mighty force!"

At this time, another exclamation came from the side while all turned around immediately.

An old man, followed by a juvenile alongside him.

That juvenile looked very young, with a longsword in his hand.

A group of people was trailing behind them.

"How dare someone try to kill my master. Tired of living!"

Just then, the juvenile at the front let out a cold bellow. With a swift movement, he flitted to the island in the sea, while the old man beside him was hovering in the air.

The various experts on their heels gave off domineering oppression.

"This, this...."

All the people were shocked by what they saw, especially when they noticed the huge word "Xiao" on their clothing. Their eyes were wide.

Xiao Clan, Shang Jing.

"Another Sacred Clan. This is the fifth Saint-class forces. Gosh, is this going to be the battle of the century?"

"The juvenile at the forefront is Xiao Ran. He's the youngest Inborn Expert now. The mighty, young Clan Leader of Xiao Clan!"

Chapter 458: The Battle Of The Ages

(4)

"What did Xiao Ran mean when he said they must be courting death to want to kill his master?"

"There are five saint-class forces! Five saint-class forces are heading to that island right now! That's the strength of about one-fifth of the Underworld! This is insane!"

"Xiao Ran's master definitely isn't from the Medical Saint Sect or the Qiao Clan. If he had said that, could it be...?"

"That old man must be the Laozu of the Xiao Clan. Oh gosh! Another unparalleled expert has appeared. I wonder if the Laozu of Sui Clan is around!"

The appearance of Sui Clan and Xiao Clan in quick succession had shocked the spectating crowd.

It was especially so for the clan leader of the Xiao Clan to make the statement that they must be courting death to kill his master. As a result, many people had an idea in mind.

The Dragon King of the Dragon Sect was the master of Xiao Ran.

This wasn't a baseless conjecture but one of reasoning and probabilities.

First, the Dragon King had reached a higher realm than the Inborn Realm at just the age of twenty.

Second, the sister of the Dragon King had reached Inborn level and even defeated the young lord of Sea Serpent Island before the age of twenty.

Third, there were many young experts in the Dragon Sect.

Combining all three reasons, all the young Inborn experts seemed to be related to the Dragon King.

In that case, the reason why Xiao Ran from the Xiao Clan could reach the Inborn Realm might very well be because of the Dragon King.

If he was the disciple of the Dragon King, one could also foresee the relationship between the Dragon Sect and the Xiao Clan.

As for the Sui Clan, no one really knew the reason. Nonetheless, they must be here to aid the Dragon King.

Two Sacred Clans had come to reinforce them.

"Gulp! Two Sacred Clans are here to aid the Dragon Sect. This..."

"It's hard to tell now who will emerge victorious!"

"Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and seven other forces against the Dragon Sect, Xiao Clan and the Sui Clan! That's a battle of the ages!"

"In that case, it's still hard to tell who will be annihilated!"

At the beach, the spectating crowd looked towards the faraway island with conflicting emotions.

With five Saint-class forces gathered there, that was almost equivalent to one-fifth of the strength of the entire Underworld.

The battle of the ages would be beginning soon!

The appearance of the Sui Clan and the Xiao Clan had caused an incomparably huge ruckus in the Underworld.

...

At this very moment, on the island above the sea, the Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and the Laozu of the Qiao Clan hovered in the air. The disciples of the Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the experts from the seven other forces stood below them and were staring ahead with smiles.

Before them, Wang Xian sat in a chair with a faint smile. Xiao Yu, Elder Fang, Lan Qingyue, Guan Shuqing, Sun Lingxiu and the others stood by his side.

The fifty dragonians stood behind him and stared at the group of people with intense killing intent.

"That's the Dragon King of the Dragon Sect?"

In the air, the Laozu of Quiao Clan looked down on Wang Xian and asked coldly.

"Qiao Clan? Medical Saint Sect? Hehe!"

Wang Xian stood up and looked towards the three Dan Realm experts in the air. His lips curved into a smile as he asked, "Is everyone here now?"

"I admire your fearless bravery!"

An old man from the Medical Saint Sect descended to the ground gradually and looked across Wang Xian's group before continuing. "Fifty Inborn experts! Not too shabby. You are incredible to establish this powerful sect at just the age of twenty.

"However, what a shame! Flippant and insolent, ignorant and dauntless! Those who do not know fear are those who are dead!

"I'll burn you to ashes!"

As the Supreme Elder of the Medical Saint Sect spoke, purplish flames started emitting from his body.

"Hehe. A floating island. It seems like you have inherited the legacy of the ancestral sect. It's no surprise that you have risen so rapidly!"

Another Supreme Elder of the Medical Saint Sect looked around him and eventually focused on the island a short distance away. He squinted his eyes and excitement flashed in them.

A floating island was something that existed in the legends. It was extremely rare.

Huh?

The Laozu of Qiao Clan looked over and greed beamed in his eyes. He turned to Wang Xian and said, "You have enjoyed a meteoric rise but you will fall as rapidly. I'll definitely annihilate you and your Dragon Sect after you offended the Qiao Clan and killed the disciple of our Qiao Clan!"

"Kill!"

All the disciples of the Qiao Clan shouted and released their stifling aura.

The experts from the other seven forces also shrouded their aura forward.

The terrifying aura and intense killing intent from the fifty Inborn experts even caused the rain to stop falling!

"All your fifty Inborn disciples and you are responsible for the death of my son and the disciples of our Medical Saint Sect. Today, all of you will die. I'm not going to let your Dragon Sect have a day of peace!"

"Kill!"

The Sect Leader of the Medical Saint Sect glowered at Wang Xian. "It is impossible for us to live under the same sky after you killed my son!"

"Kill!" all the experts and disciples of the Medical Saint Sect shouted loudly. The aura of the experts shrouded towards Wang Xian.

The air above the entire island solidified.

It was as though there was a separate space. As rain fell on it, it dripped down towards the end.

"Haha! There's no way you can go against us with just fifty Inborn experts! Today will be the day you die!"

The family head of the Wu Family pulled out his longsword with a hideous expression and stared harshly at Wang Xian.

"With just a meager fifty Inborn experts, you dare to announce you are going to annihilate us!"

A Half-Step to Dan Realm old man from the Qiao Clan shouted, "Leave no one alive!"

"Everyone, any feud can be resolved!" At this moment, a voice resounded from behind them.

Everyone was taken aback and immediately turned around.

Twenty people flew over. The one leading the group was an old man in the Sui Clan outfit.

The oldest son of Sui Huang, a Half-Step to Dan Realm expert.

The twenty experts from Sui Clan arrived and headed towards Wang Xian to the astonishment of the Qiao Clan and Medical Saint Sect.

They took a glance at Guan Shuqing and gave a friendly smile before turning to Wang Xian. "Dragon King, my father has asked us to come over. Keke!" the old man chuckled and summarized simply.

Huh?

Wang Xian was surprised. He had not expected Sui Huang to send twenty Inborn experts from the Sui Clan over.

For them to come here under such circumstances, it was equivalent to announcing to the world they were with the Dragon Sect.

A standoff between Sacred Sects like this was scarce.

A part of the reason is because of Shuqing. Nonetheless, this old man is pretty good!

Wang Xian chuckled, "When everything ends, I'll head over personally to thank Sui Huang!"

The old man smiled and turned to face the Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and the Laozu of Qiao Clan. He bowed slightly and said, "Seniors, there's no feud that can't be resolved. Why do we have to resort to violence?"

"Sui Clan?"

The two Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and the Laozu of the Qiao Clan frowned. They glowered at them and replied, "This has nothing to do with your Sui Clan. Could it be that you want to be involved in this conflict?"

"I'm here on my father's order and I'm really sorry about what happened. However, I feel that we could still sit down and talk about it!"

"Tsk! Sit down and talk about it? He dared to kill the disciples of our Medical Saint Sect. We have to take revenge for them. The Dragon Sect must be annihilated today. If the Sui Clan would like to be involved in this mess, don't blame me when things turn ugly!"

The Sect Leader of the Medical Saint Sect stared at the group from the Sui Clan and continued, "Your Laozu isn't here. With just you guys here, we just have more to kill!"

The group from the Sui Clan frowned and looked bitter. "In that case, we have no option but to offend you!"

"Seventy Inborn experts? Great! We just have to kill seventy Inborn experts!" exclaimed the Laozu of Qiao Clan coldly.

"What if you count our Xiao Clan in?"

Chapter 459: The Battle of The Ages

(5)

"What if you count our Xiao Clan in?"

A kiddy voice came from behind, followed by an immense aura shrouding over Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan.

There was no slightest attempt to conceal their strong fighting spirit and killing intent.

Xiao Ran swept his cold gaze across everyone before him as he ran towards Wang Xian. "Master!"

"Mm!"

Wang Xian looked at Xiao Ran with a smile and a nod before he turned to Xiao Quanshan.

"Xiao Clan will only strike once for such a lineup!"

The baldy Xiao Quanshan grinned as he was slightly relieved upon seeing the people from Sui Clan.

It was not his idea to take part in this battle of the Sacred Sects.

After all, this was a Saint-class battle. If something went wrong, the entire Sacred Clan would suffer a huge loss.

Too bad he had promised Xiao Ran, that little fellow, that he had the right to mobilize the enforcement elder team in the clan.

If he allowed Xiao Ran to bring the dozen-odd elders here, that was as good as seeking death. Hence, he simply brought all the people from Xiao Clan here.

"Uncle Xiao!"

When the eldest son of Sui Huang spotted the arrival of Xiao Clan, his eyes were filled with pleasant surprise. Hurriedly, he greeted him.

"Mm, where's Sui Huang, that old fellow?" asked Xiao Quanshan.

"My father is abroad and couldn't make it back!" the old man replied.

"Xiao Quanshan, don't tell me the Xiao Clan is intervening too!"

Laozu of Qiao Clan spoke in a cold voice as he stared at Xiao Quanshan with a darkened expression.

"So what if we do? Damn, can't you see we're already here?"

Xiao Quanshan fired his rage at Laozu of Qiao Clan. He looked at the two Supreme Elders of Medical Saint Sect with wariness. "Hmph, think this over carefully. If a battle were to break out today, it's a losing end for both parties!"

"Ninety-odd Inborn Experts are going to perish over here. Think about it!"

"Xiao Clan, are you making an enemy with the Medical Saint Sect?"

The Supreme Elder stared daggers at Xiao Quanshan with a frozen face.

"I'm not scared!" Xiao Quanshan widened his mouth. "If it's between Xiao Clan and Medical Saint Sect, I may have my concerns. But now, I have Sui Clan and Dragon Sect on the same side. Why should I fear you all?"

"Well, well. Xiao Clan and Sui Clan, it looks like you all are going up against the Medical Saint Sect!"

The Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect was looking menacing.

The appearance of Sui Clan and Xiao Clan had completely disrupted their plans. None of them had expected that the Dragon Sect could invite two Sacred Clans for assistance.

"No wonder you dare to be insolent, killing the future successor of our Medical Saint Sect's Sect Master and bragging to us!"

Radiance flickered in the eyes of the Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect as he stared at the gang before him.

Combining three Sacred Sects, Dragon Sect, Xiao Clan, and Sui Clan, would make more than ninety Inborn Experts on their side.

With one Dan Realm expert, Xiao Quanshan, and the possibility of the Dragon King to be a Dan Realm Expert being eighty percent.

They had greater repression with three against two Dan Realm experts.

However, the battle between Inborn Experts would be a close margin even if they won.

Apparently, Laozu of Qiao Clan realized this as his expression slowly grimaced.

Things had gone far beyond their expectations. With the appearance of Xiao Clan and Sui Clan, they leveled their overpowering strength.

None of them would have thought that the young Clan Leader of Xiao Clan, aka the current youngest Inborn Expert, would be the disciple of the Dragon King!

If a battle were to break out, Qiao Clan would receive a huge blow. Towards the end, those surviving Inborn Experts might not number more than five.

Three unparalleled experts had a dramatic change in their expressions. They did not dare to act recklessly as the price was too huge to pay!

The two Sect Masters of Medical Saint Sect were so infuriated that their bodies trembled.

Their enemy was right before their eyes, yet they could not strike under such circumstances.

They were clear that the damage of Medical Saint Sect was beyond imagination once they made their moves. They may not lose their Sacred status, but a massive loss was guaranteed without a doubt.

"How is this possible?"

The experts from the seven forces, including Wu Family, had terror in their eyes.

Xiao Clan and Sui Clan had come to support the Dragon Sect.

The legendary Clan Leader of Xiao Clan was the disciple of Dragon King.

Even if they could rough it out today, they would only be left with high numbers of casualties.

If they did not start the fight today, how could they resist the Dragon Sect when they seek revenge in the future?

Unlike Medical Saint Sect or Qiao Clan, they were just first-class forces that could not afford to have a Sacred Sect seeking them out to take revenge.

In particular, from such a powerful Dragon Sect.

A touch of despair surged in their hearts.

Given such a situation now, when a fight was unlikely to break out, they could only dismiss clans, ancestral sects, and run!

This was the only way.

"Dragon King of Dragon Sect, we'll mark this grudge since we have plenty of time ahead!" said the two Supreme Elders of Medical Saint Sect coldly as they glowered at Wang Xian with icy eyes.

"Without Xiao Clan and Sui Clan, the Dragon Sect would be annihilated today!"

Laozu of Qiao Clan stared daggers at Wang Xian.

"Oh?" Wang Xian looked at them with interest. His face was full of a teasing look.

"Hmph, let's go!"

The Supreme Elders of Medical Saint Sect cast a murderous gaze at Wang Xian before they told the disciples behind them this with a twisted expression.

"Let's go!" said Laozu of Qiao Clan with a wry look.

Phew!

All the disciples heaved a sigh of relief. It would only be a bloodbath today if they really engaged in a battle today. No one could guarantee their survival.

"Hehe!" Sensing their departing intention, Wang Xian sneered as he lifted his chin slightly. "Did I allow you all to go?"

"Hur?"

"Hur?"

Did I allow you all to go?

All of them were stunned. The Supreme Elders of Medical Saint Sect, Laozu of Qiao Clan, and the rest of the disciples frowned as they turned around with cold faces.

Even the people from Sui Clan and Xiao Clan knit their eyebrows together.

Xiao Quanshan fixed his eyes on Wang Xian with his eyebrows locked. "They are not weaker than us in terms of strength. In fact, they might be even stronger than us!"

"Old Xiao, and people from Sui Clan, the Dragon Sect is very grateful that all of you turned up today. We'll repay the help you rendered to us today in the future." Wang Xian beamed at them. "However, since Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan are present today, they don't have to leave anymore. You all can just stay by the side and look!"

Wang Xian spoke flatly as the Dragonians beside him walked forward.

Wang Xian spun around as he fixed his cold eyes on the Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan. Killing intent flashed in his eyes. "Since the disciples of Medical Saint Sect dared to ambush me, so what if I kill your disciples? If you're here to annihilate me, then I can only exterminate the Medical Saint Sect in return. As for Qiao Clan, this was your end the moment you accepted the killing order of the Medical Saint Sect!"

"Since you have come all the way here, then none of you shall leave today."

"Haha!" He chuckled as he said, "Three Dan Realm Experts with Ninety Inborn Experts. Today, all of you will wage a battle with the Dragon Sect."

"This place will be a grave for all of you!"

Wang Xian's dominance swept across all of them as a bout of murderous aura loomed over the entire island!

Chapter 460: Annihilating Sacred Sects (1)

Everyone was stunned and looked in shock and fear at Wang Xian.

Xiao Quanshan, members of the Xiao Clan and Sui Clan were taken by surprise as they looked towards the disciples of the Dragon Sect.

Clearly, it was impossible for Dragon Sect to go against the Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the other forces.

Although Dragon Sect had fifty Inborn experts that were stronger than the Medical Saint Sect, the coalition of the other parties had ninety Inborn experts.

Moreover, they had three unparalleled experts who had all reached the Dan Realm.

Without exaggerating, a Dan Realm expert could deal with thirty to forty Inborn experts alone if he wasn't occupied by another Dan Realm expert.

That's the strength and terrifying thing about a Dan Realm expert.

With three Dan Realm experts as opponents, how was he going to withstand them? What kind of strength would the Dragon Sect need to have to withstand their attacks?

"Alright, alright!"

The Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and the Laozu of Qiao Clan stared harshly at Wang Xian.

"You want to keep us here? In that case, we just have to kill all of you!"

"Arrogant brat! Kill him!"

Frenzied killing intent beamed from the eyes of the three unparalleled experts.

To keep them forever here and bury them on the island, the only way was to kill them!

"Kill! Today, our Medical Saint Sect will shred you into a million pieces!" the two Sect Leaders of the Medical Saint Sect growled hideously and instructed their disciples.

"Kill him and annihilate them!"

Fires of fury were smouldering in the eyes of the experts from the remaining seven forces. As long as the Sui Clan and Xiao Clan didn't get involved, they had nothing to fear. They were a hundred percent certain that they would roll over the Dragon Sect.

"Kill!"

Qiao Clan and the other seven forces also struck.

The immense battle will and killing intent from ninety Inborn experts instantly ripped apart the clouds.

The ominous clouds in the skies were split in the middle by the terrifying aura and the entire island was shrouded in stifling pressure.

"The fight is really breaking out!"

"Oh my god! Although we are seven to eight thousand meters away, we can still feel the stifling aura from that island!"

"That's close to two hundred Inborn experts! Now that they are clashing, it will be catastrophic!"

"This is too frightening. I really did not expect the fight to break out with both parties having relatively equal strength. I wonder how many will be dead at the end of this battle!"

At the beach, several thousand martial artists awaited the outcome. The terrifying and stifling pressure from the island made everyone shiver.

That's the pressure from over a hundred Inborn experts and several unparalleled experts!

Everyone was fearful. If any Level 8 or 9 martial artists were to approach the area, they would probably be suffocated by the stifling pressure.

The terrifying aura and the killing intent over the island shocked everyone.

"Kill!"

On the island, Wang Xian looked towards the thousand-odd people from Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the seven other forces. Ruthlessness gleamed in his eyes as he shouted loudly.

"Kill!"

Devilish aura shot into the sky from the crowd of dragonians. The aura from fifty dragonians gathered together and a devilish dragon could be vaguely seen circling in the sky.

"Sis-in-law Qing Yue, enchant us! Let my master and I go teach those two old fools a lesson!"

Xiao Yu looked to Lan Qingyue and was eager to give it a go.

"Alright!" Lan Qingyue smiled and nodded her head. As she waved her arm, a stream of greyish mist gathered around Xiao Yu and Elder Fang.

When the stream of greyish mist entered into the body of Xiao Yu and Elder Fang, their aura exploded exponentially in an instant.

A black and greyish aura circled around them and horrifying energy was leaking out of their bodies.

Deathly, violent, dark.

"So strong!"

Elder Fang was shocked to feel the strength flowing in her body.

Her current self could totally match herself in the Skeletal Dragon form.

"Let the three of us finish those three old fools!" Lan Qingyue said with a smile as her body slowly levitated towards the sky.

"Alright!" Xiao Yu nodded her head in excitement.

Ka ka!

Behind each of their bodies, two skeletal wings extended out. As Xiao Yu and Elder Fang wiggled their wings, they flew towards the Supreme Elders from the Medical Saint Sect and Laozu of Qiao Clan together with Lan Qingyue.

"What?"

When the crowd from Sui Clan and Xiao Clan saw Xiao Yu and the other two girls charging towards the three unparalleled experts, they were both shocked and surprised.

"The energies they are emitting from their bodies are terrifying!"

Xiao Quanshan stared fervently at Xiao Yu, Lan Qingyue and Elder Fang. It was especially so for Lan Qingyue. From her, he felt an aura that sent a chill down his spine.

The greyish energy was terrifying.

"That girl has reached the Dan Realm!"

Xiao Quanshan's eyes were filled with disbelief. His eyes widened and stared blankly at Lan Qingyue.

The legacy of the Ancient God Kun Breeder is really insane!

Looking at Lan Qingyue, Wang Xian was shocked.

This was the first time Lan Qingyue fought.

The greatest strength of the Ancient God Kun Breeder wasn't in her battling capacity. Instead, it was in her ability to breed Kun and supporting others.

The Ancient God Kun Breeder could substantially increase the strength of her Kun. She could also release strong enchantments to strengthen the rest.

Just like how it was currently, Xiao Yu, Elder Fang and Lan Qingyue were connected by a greyish stream of energy in the sky.

Xiao Yu and Elder Fang's strength was increased to the level of their Skeletal Dragon form directly and they could go against Dan Realm experts.

As for Lan Qingyue, who could increase the strength of others, her true battling strength wasn't something that ordinary Dan Realm experts could withstand.

"Three little brats are challenging us!"

The Supreme Elders of Medical Saint Sect and Laozu of Qiao Clan felt insulted as they saw the three girls charging towards them.

However, they were shocked and in disbelief when they felt the heart-wrenching aura from them.

"You must be courting death!"

Killing intent flashed in the minds of the Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and Laozu of Qiao Clan.

A Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect waved both of his jade-green arms and dropped seeds onto the ground.

Ka ka ka!

As his arms glowed in a jade-green light, the seeds that had fallen onto the ground grew at a frantic speed to the astonishment of everyone.

In an instant, several brambles grew to the size of over a few tens of meters tall.

These trees resembled tree demons as they waved their branches, which were rough and full of thorns.

As for the other Supreme Elder from the Medical Saint Sect, purplish flames emitted from his body and raged to over ten meters tall.

Dang dang dang!

A space filled with metal attribute energy appeared around the Laozu from Qiao

Clan. Razor-sharp and invisible blades made of metal energy circled a radius of ten meters around him at all times.

Any creature that entered this space would be instantly killed.

That was the terrifying thing about Dan Realm experts. They could coalesce energy around their bodies, shape them and release attacks that covered the entire region.

Every action was just like a superpower!

"Compliments of the Light!"

"Rage and roar!"

At this moment, Sun Lingxiu and Guan Shuqing shouted from the ground.

Rays of light covered all fifty dragonians.

The Light did not disperse the darkness. On the contrary, the Light was protecting the darkness.

Chapter 461: Annihilating Sacred Sects (2)

At this moment, a flaming fowl appeared above Guan Shuqing's head.

The flaming fowl was about five meters in size, exuding a boiling temperature.

Boom boom!

Every flap of the blazing wings fired flaming feathers at Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan.

Each of the flames was dark red, and the temperature was terrifyingly high as they were almost comparable to the Heavenly Flame!

Yet, the flaming feathers on the flaming fowl were shrouding crazily over the place ahead.

Boom boom!

At this time, fifty Dragonians and the experts from Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan, and seven forces went head-on together instantly.

The Dragonians were like emotionless killing machines. The scary demonic aura exuded sent chills to everyone as soon as they engaged.

"Go to hell!"

The five Half-Step to Dan Realm Experts from Qiao Clan and Medical Saint Sect charged at the Dragonians with murderous intent on their faces.

Boom!

The weeds on the ground were growing madly as they attempted to entangle Dragonians, bursting flames at Dragonians.

With the sharp energy at the peak, they wielded at Dragonians.

This was the combat of experts, which was different from those battles with cold weapons in ancient times.

A battle which involved a mere thousand-odd people seemed like a war for a million people.

The offense was so powerful that it was unbelievable.

Ka Ka Ka!

"What? That's a strong defense of light!"

As Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan charged at the Dragonians for the first head-on collision, they were being interrupted instantly by bright defense energy with a glimmer of embarrassment in their eyes.

Roar!

"Go to hell!"

The beast-like bellow came from the Dragonians as they struck forward with their half-meter, scary dragon claws.

Argh, argh!

Before the Dragonians could even make their attacks, there were moaning and despairing shrieks from behind.

All the experts from Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan were stunned. Some of them craned their necks when they saw the tails of the dense flaming feathers enveloping the people at the back like some missiles.

The experts present today were not only the Inborn Experts but also thousands of Inborn and below.

Yet, those experts who were below Inborn level could not resist the daunting flaming feathers a bit.

The dense and terrifying flaming feathers pierced through the Martial Artists easily.

"What a domineering flaming feather. How can an Inborn Expert have enough energy to fire hundreds of flaming feathers in one go?"

Some of the experts cast their attention ahead with an incredulous look in their eyes.

"Light, shield on!"

Just then, everyone heard a soft yell again.

Some of them spotted a beautiful and holy goddess spitting out an Illuminating Pearl from her mouth behind them.

The Illuminating Pearl suspended itself in the air as beams of light shrouded the disciples of Dragon Sect.

That strong light defense could only be penetrated by a full blow from an Inborn Expert.

As someone who had inherited the Light Divine Dragon's legacy, Sun Lingxiu had the supreme-class Origin Source Constitution.

Her talent was not any weaker than a Divine Dragon.

Given that she had advanced to Half-Step to Dan Realm, it was a breeze for her to display a variety of her Light Energy.

On top of that, the defense she released was empowered by the Illuminating Pearl, such that even Inborn Experts had to strike with their full power.

And that was the case when her defense was thinly spread across a vast area. If she were only shielding one person, even Half-Step to Dan Realm Expert would find it hard to bring it down.

Argh!

Another devastating cry was heard from one of the Inborn Experts of Qiao Clan as the terrifying dragon claws of Mo Yuan pierced through the body of an Inborn Expert.

As soon as the battle began, the first Inborn Expert was killed.

Argh!

Soon after, another two Inborn Experts let out shrieks. All of them were coming from Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan.

"Kill that girl and shoot that Illuminating Pearl in the air down!" a Half-Step to Dan Realm Expert cried out with slight changes in his expression when he heard the screams.

"Kill her. We've got almost double the Inborn Experts!" another Inborn Expert bellowed.

About five Inborn Experts made a swift move and slashed the Illuminating Pearl in the air.

"Aurora!"

Sun Lingxiu remained unwavering as her hand flicked. The Illuminating Pearl gave off beams of light that were like endless Aurora lights that pierced through five Inborn Experts.

Argh, argh!

As Aurora passed through, another five screams were heard.

Upon hearing the screams, all the people from Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan could not control the sudden tremor in their hearts.

In less than a minute, eight Inborn Experts had been killed.

Yet, no one from the Dragon Sect had died.

The daunting Light defense and the mighty physical defense of those people from the Dragon Sect struck fear into the rest.

Their individual strength differed by too much.

"Qiao Longchuan, you pin that girl down while I take down that Illuminating Pearl!" a Half-Step to Dan Realm Expert shouted with a twisted expression.

"Got it. Slash them!"

With a furious roar, an old man whose hand was holding onto a sword hundreds of meters away slashed at Sun Lingxiu.

Boom boom!

A hundred-meter-long crack ran up the island by the sword radiance condensed from the metal as it was wielded at Sun Lingxiu.

Bam!

Wang Xian swung his arm and shattered the three-meter metal blade shadows.

Buzz!

Wang Xian opened the Golden Ivory Fan in his hand. As soon as he closed it again with a single hand, the metal fan darted out to that Half-Step to Dan Realm Expert of Qiao Clan.

The metal fan was giving off a radiant glow that was dazzling.

"What?"

As soon as Qiao Longchuan of Qiao Clan noticed that fan, his expression had a massive change. The sword was giving off a searing golden glow as he wielded it at the golden fan.

Ka Ka Ka!

Argh!

The sword was broken, and the man was dead. With a shriek, the first Half-Step to Dan Realm Expert perished!

"He's dead. The Half-Step to Dan Realm Expert perished. That Dragon King is too compelling. Besides..."

The disciples of Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan watched with traces of fear in their eyes.

Generally, Half-Step to Dan Realm Experts only existed in Sacred Sects. Every one of them was domineering.

They were the supreme rulers in the Underworld if none of the Laozus of the various clans and forces were around.

Yet, one had died in this Battle of the Sacred Sects.

Moreover, he was easily killed by the Dragon King of the Dragon Sect.

This Dragon King must be at Dan Realm.

However, such a Dan Realm Expert had only stood there, watching in silence.

On top of that, three ladies had already pinned down their Laozu and Supreme Elders altogether a thousand meters above the sea.

In the air, the deity-like Laozu was completely contained.

Those under Inborn existences at the back were fleeing in panic under the frenzied attack of that flaming fowl.

Nobody dared to look for the girls who were releasing Light and Flame, as there stood the Dragon King of the Dragon Sect.

That Half-step to Dan Realm from just now had marked the consequences for attacking the girls.

A tinge of fear surged in the hearts of all the people from Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan, and the seven forces.

Chapter 462: Annihilating Sacred Sects (3)

"This... How can this... How can this be...? They are too strong and frightening!"

At this very moment, the group from the Sui Clan looked on in horror at the battles developing before their eyes from the side.

In just a few minutes, eight Inborn experts had died from the Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the other seven forces. There was even one Half-Step to Dan Realm expert that had perished.

What was most shocking were the performances of the few girls.

In the sky, three incredibly young girls were going against the Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and the Laozu from the Qiao Clan.

Their terrifying strength enabled them to go toe to toe with the Dan Realm unparalleled experts.

It was especially so for the girl in the middle. The faint greyish energy was completely overwhelming the Supreme Elder from the Hua Family of Medical Saint Sect.

His brambles were withering rapidly within the greyish energy. Even one of his jade-green arms was withering gradually within the greyish energy.

Incomparably frightening!

After which, it would be the disciple of their Laozu. This twenty-year-old little girl was standing there with a firebird circling above her head. Wave after wave of terrifying flaming feathers was shot towards the enemies.

She did not stop at all for a few minutes. Every flaming feather was like a terrifying bomb.

Before her, a seven to eight-meter hole appeared on the island. Those that were injured or killed by the flaming feathers numbered several hundreds of people.

Those who hadn't reached the Inborn Realm couldn't withstand the flaming feathers at all.

"Little Junior Sister seems to have endless fire attribute energy. She hasn't stopped at all while constantly releasing highly explosive attacks. Moreover, she doesn't look fatigued at all. It's no surprise that our father wanted to take her in as a disciple. She's frightening!"

"Yeah. She's really incredible. Under sufficient protection, her destructive powers could even match ten Inborn experts. It's no surprise that grandpa wanted her as a disciple. She's insane and too demon-like!"

"It's not just little Junior Sister who seems like a demon. All the girls around the Dragon King are exceptionally powerful. Three of them are even going toe to toe against three Dan Realm experts!"

The crowd from the Sui Clan was astonished.

"I can now understand why he asked our Xiao Clan and Sui Clan to stay away. With such incredible strength, only Dong Hua Sacred Sect could match them!"

The crowd from the Xiao Clan and their Laozu were stunned and in awe of the battle.

They looked at Guan Shuqing, Lan Qingyue and the girls before turning to their young clan leader.

"Only the Dragon King could raise such terrifying existences. It's our young clan leader's greatest blessing to meet the Dragon King!"

"Incredible!"

Xiao Quanshan, who had been standing by the side, was in awe. He looked to the three girls in the air and his eyes were flickering.

"Who are the three girls fighting with the Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and the Laozu of Qiao Clan?"

"That's what a battle between immortals would look like. The battle between unparalleled experts could split the sky and destroy the earth!"

"The battle is a thousand meters above the sea. That giant tree swaying, flashes of golden rays, purplish flames torching the skies and devilish aura shooting through the skies are what one should expect for the battles between unparalleled experts!"

At the beach, the crowd of martial artists looked up at the six black dots in the sky.

Battle of the ages! That's what a battle of the ages should resemble.

They could hear every homing attack and explosion clearly.

"What the hell is that greyish energy?"

At this moment, the Supreme Elder from the Hua Family of Medical Saint Sect stared at Lan Qingyue with one of his arms trembling.

One of his jade-green arms had withered and lost all signs of life.

As for the other arm, it was also exceptionally dull.

The brambles that spanned over several tens of meters and were hovering in the sky were supported by his powerful strength. However, the brambles had lost all signs of life.

It was over ten times harder to control than usual.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

A short distance away, purplish flames and devilish aura clashed. As the Supreme Elder from the Medical Saint Sect swung his arm, the purplish flames within a hundred meter radius swept towards Xiao Yu.

At this moment, Xiao Yu was on the defensive. Her wings were behind her and she was releasing devilish aura towards the purple flames.

On the other end, Elder Fang was surrounded in the space filled with metal energy. Countless invisible blades made of metal energy flew and attacked her.

As the invisible metal blades grazed by her, they left faint marks on her armor.

"What a terrifying defense. The toughness of their black armor is too strong!"

When the Laozu from Qiao Clan slashed down with his long sword on the wings of Elder Fang, he could only knock her back a hundred meters, but could not break through her defense.

This made him incomparably bitter.

However, other than the Supreme Elder from the Hua Family of Medical Saint Sect, the other two had the upper hand.

Argh!

At this juncture, endless pitiful cries reverberated from below.

The three of them looked down and anger instantly fumed in their eyes.

The elite disciples of the Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan had over ninety percent of their strength all gathered there.

And now, there were several hundred corpses below them.

Incessant pitiful cries came from the disciples of their Sacred Clan and Sacred Sect.

They saw the Dragon King of the Dragon Sect swinging his golden fan towards the Half-Step to Dan Realm experts.

After a few wretched cries, all the Half-Step to Dan Realm experts were killed.

After the few elite experts were killed, Mo Qinglong led the dragonians and killed over ten Inborn experts in an instant.

In the air, the Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and the Laozu of Qiao Clan shivered in anger. Anger and sorrows filled their faces.

"Dragon Sect, you will perish here!"

A Supreme Elder from the Medical Saint Sect roared furiously. Purplish flames welled up from all parts of his body and swarmed towards Xiao Yu.

"This is bad!"

Xiao Yu was caught by surprise and could only fly higher into the sky.

Huh?

However, Xiao Yu was astonished to find that his target wasn't her.

The Supreme Elder of the Medical Saint Sect descended from the sky like a meteor towards the dragonians.

"It's your Medical Saint Sect that will perish!"

A dull gold light glowed in Wang Xian's eyes as he saw the Supreme Elder from the Medical Saint Sect getting ready to attack and kill the dragonians.

"Today, this will be the burial site for the Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan. No one is getting away!"

As he spoke, he moved and charged towards the Dan Realm expert covered in purplish flames.

"Little crook! Even if I have to sacrifice this old life of mine, I'll annihilate all of you!"

A purplish light beamed from the eyes of the Supreme Elder from Medical Saint Sect and his eyes turned red.

"Hehe! You are thinking too highly of yourself!"

Wang Xian moved and appeared before him instantly as a ray of dull gold light.

"Die!"

A golden dragon claw appeared and ripped towards the Supreme Elder from the Medical Saint Sect.

"Thinking of killing me?"

The Supreme Elder of the Medical Saint Sect condensed the purplish flames around him together. The temperature was so high that the flames appeared black.

The dull purplish flames turned into a beast and pounced towards Wang Xian.

Roar!

The cry of a wild beast reverberated. The next moment, the golden dragon claw held the beast by the neck and ripped it apart. Without a loss in momentum, Wang Xian continued his charge towards the Supreme Elder of the Medical Saint Sect.

Boom!

The golden dragon claw penetrated and split the body into two.

An unparalleled expert had fallen!

Chapter 463: Pilgrimage (1)

Splatters!

The drizzle had since turned into a downpour and was kept out of the imposing island.

At this moment, however, heavy rain began to pour on the island.

The island was dead silent. All of the experts from Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan, and the seven forces halted their actions.

They were horrified as they gazed ahead.

Nobody had expected such a situation in just a brief moment of the frightening collision at that location.

The pouring rain showered them with chills.

"No, no. How is this possible? How can it be?"

Disbelief and fearful voices resounded in the air, cutting the moment of silence.

The Sect Master of Medical Saint Sect widened his eyes as he could not trust his eyes when he spotted the corpse on the floor. That was the Laozu of Bian Family!

He was also an unparalleled expert, one of the pillars of Medical Saint Sect.

However, he was instantly killed in that moment of collision!

A Dan Realm expert and an unparalleled expert were lying motionless on the floor.

The blow seemed to have brought them into hell.

"An unparalleled expert was struck down with one stroke. He's the unparalleled expert. How can this be happening? Even the Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect was killed, we..."

The people from seven forces revealed desperate looks in their eyes.

They spun and looked around when they saw their clan disciples and comrades were already down by half.

Yet, there was not even a single death for the Dragon Sect, only five wounded ones who had been taken out of the battlefield for treatment.

Thrashing. An utter thrashing.

In particular in the battle of unparalleled experts. The three girls from the Dragon Sect were able to withstand the attacks of the two Supreme Elders of Medical Saint Sect and the Laozu of Qiao Clan.

Now, the Dragon King of the Dragon Sect killed another unparalleled expert with one blow again.

A strike, a kill.

And an unparalleled expert had fallen.

"Kill!"

Wang Xian let out a soft bellow with a frozen face when he looked at the Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect, who was being torn apart.

"Kill!"

Mo Qinglong let out a yell and rushed to Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan for a kill.

The demonic aura mixing with the fresh blood of enemies had turned the island into a living hell.

"No!"

"We surrender. No, no!"

As soon as the people from the seven forces witnessed the death of the unparalleled experts, they began to break down.

Even the unparalleled expert of Medical Saint Sect was killed, how far could they run? It was absolutely wishful thinking!

Given the current strength of the Dragon Sect, Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan were utterly finished.

Even they brought unparalleled experts here, they were fated to stay on that island.

"Why is the Dragon Sect so formidable?"

Yet, surrendering and despairing only sped up their deaths. Within seconds, another Inborn Expert was struck down.

After losing the Half-Step to Dan Realm Expert, there were no experts from Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan who could fight with Mo Qinglong and the rest.

The one-sided massacre had begun!

"No! Old Bian!"

Another Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect's shrill roar cut through the air.

Wang Xian craned his neck with a cold expression as he looked at the Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect and Laozu of Qiao Clan.

"I told you this place would be the burial ground of Medical Saint Sect. From today onwards, there will be no more Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan!"

Wang Xian made a move and appeared in the air.

Xiao Yu, Elder Fang, Lan Qingyue, and finally, Wang Xian surrounded Laozu of Qiao Clan and Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect in the center.

"When you decided to turn up, didn't you think of such consequences?" asked Wang Xian with a beaming smile as he stared at him coldly.

"Our Medical Saint Sect has been established for more than three hundred years.

Little did we expect it would be destroyed in our hands!"

The Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect trembled as malevolence surfaced on his face. "But, Dragon King, don't be insolent. Someone will avenge us. Someone! Haha, the time will come soon for the Dragon Sect to be wiped out!"

Hysterics filled his voice as he chortled.

A tinge of fear surged within the eyes of Laozu of Qiao Clan as he scanned for his chance to flee.

"Wipe the the Dragon Sect out? I'll wipe the Medical Saint Sect out first!"

Coldness flashed in Wang Xian's eyes as he made a move instantaneously.

Xiao Yu, Elder Fang, and Lan Qingyue followed suit.

There was no chance to flee even for the unparalleled experts in the face of the absolute thrashing strength.

Death shrouded them in a brief moment.

Be it air or land, the Battle of Sacred Sects had arrived at the final stage.

Endless screams resounded.

The desperate cries left the island reeking of blood.

Disciples of Medical Saint Sect perished one by one, and so it was with the disciples of Qiao Clan.

The experts of seven forces had already collapsed onto the floor a long time ago.

Slowly, the screams on the island could not be heard.

Bam!

When the two figures in the air plunged onto the island, it marked the end of the battle of the Sacred Sects.

Medical Saint Sect annihilated!

Qiao Clan annihilated!

The two Saint-class forces were gone from the underworld!

The crowd from Sui Clan and Xiao Clan were dumbfounded by what they had seen. Then they swept their gazes across all the people from the Dragon Sect.

The almost-invincible Dragon King, an insane group of girls, and the terrifying disciples of the Dragon Sect.

Gulp!

They swallowed their saliva with cold sweat breaking out on their foreheads.

Given their current dominating power, the Dragon Sect could annihilate them like a piece of cake, let alone Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan.

"Damm, only when Old Sui and I combine forces could we fight him manage to fight him with his current strength!"

Xiao Quanshan stared at Wang Xian with a somber expression.

By bringing down the Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect in a move, Wang Xian had struck a massive impact on him.

"That was the unparalleled expert who he killed in a single blow!"

He knew that only one person could achieve that in the past - the invincible fellow, Nie Wushuang of Donghua Sacred Sect.

Now, a young, twenty-year-old fellow did the same thing too. He was extremely envious and shocked.

"Announce to the Underworld to come for Pilgrimage tomorrow!" said Wang Xian to Mo Qinglong as he scanned the bodies on the floor.

"Yes!"

Mo Qinglong looked at the bodies and revealed a smile.

"Old Xiao and the rest from Sui Clan, thank you for coming over here. Now that we have resolved our matters, we need to settle some of our issues. If all of you aren't leaving yet, you can stay at our place to enjoy yourself for a few days!"

Wang Xian looked at Xiao Quanshan and the rest of the people from Sui Clan with a beaming face.

"Haha, it's impossible to leave at this time. Tomorrow will be the day of the Pilgrimage. We will be here to support you. I don't think you'd mind, would you?"

Xiao Quanshan grinned as he spoke to Wang Xian.

"Sure, you're most welcome!"

Wang Xian smiled and nodded his head.

"Great, see you tomorrow. Let's go!"

Xiao Quanshan waved his dismissal as he made a swift move as he left the island.

The people from Sui Clan cupped their fists at Wang Xian and left subsequently.

On the Underworld forum, the Dragon Sect had released a message.

[Medical Saint Sect annihilated!]

[Qiao Clan annihilated!]

Chapter 464: Pilgrimage (2)

"The people of the Xiao Clan and Sui Clan are here!"

"Has it ended? Has it ended?"

"It should have. Those incessant cries are really giving me goosebumps. Those were the cries of Inborn experts!"

At the beach, the crowd of martial artists stared in shock at the group from Xiao Clan and Sui Clan moving rapidly towards them.

A while ago, they had heard wretched cry after cry clearly from the island.

They had heard the angry and desperate roar from the skies.

And eventually, the cries gradually died down.

"Those angry and wretched screams from before seemed to be from the Supreme Elders of the Medical Saint Sect and the people from the Qiao Clan!"

"Could it be that these Sacred Sects have really been annihilated?"

"Sacred Sects are annihilated? Sss!"

The crowd gasped and stared fervently at the approaching people from the Sui Clan and Xiao Clan.

Forty to fifty of them got closer and closer.

One young man mustered his courage and asked loudly, "Seniors, may I ask about the situation of the island? What's the outcome?"

"Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and everyone else were annihilated. Get ready for the pilgrimage tomorrow!" An old man glanced at them plainly and replied solemnly.

"What?"

Everyone was dumbfounded and their eyes widened in disbelief.

However, the people from the Xiao Clan and Sui Clan did not elaborate and left immediately.

"Medical Saint Sect, Qiao Clan and the other seven forces were annihilated!"

"Could it be that the Xiao Clan and Sui Clan participated in the battle previously? However, from their appearances, there's no signs of bloodstain on them!"

"From the moment I saw two figures falling to the ground and heard the loud scream, I knew that Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan might be finished. However, I couldn't convince myself. Now that I have heard it with my own ears, it still feels a little impossible!"

"Three unparalleled experts! We are talking about three unparalleled experts! All of them have fallen by the hands of the Dragon Sect. How terrifying is the Dragon Sect?"

"Everyone! Take a look at the Underworld website. There's an account that is most likely belonging to the Dragon Sect. They have made an announcement declaring that the Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan have been annihilated. They also told everyone to get ready for the pilgrimage!"

"They were really annihilated! Two Sacred Sects have been erased from the Underworld! The Dragon Sect is insanely strong!"

"In the battle earlier, Sui Clan and Xiao Clan probably fought too. Otherwise, I couldn't believe that the Dragon Sect could annihilate two Sacred Sects."

At the beach, a crowd of astonished people were discussing fervently.

In the Underworld, this incident had also stirred a huge ruckus.

The annihilation of Sacred Sects. Moreover, two Sacred Sects were destroyed. This was something that could shake the entire Underworld!

Before the battle, everyone could see the terrifying strength of the coalition between Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan.

Close to a hundred Inborn experts and three unparalleled experts. In the face of this strength, any force would have to kneel.

Even if that force was a Sacred Sect.

However, close to a hundred Inborn experts were all dead now.

"The Sui Clan and Xiao Clan definitely played a part. Otherwise, with the strength of the Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan, how could the Dragon Sect annihilate them so easily?"

"Two Sacred Sects against three... Although it is shocking that they were annihilated, it isn't impossible!"

"A hundred Inborn experts have been killed. The strength of the Underworld has decreased substantially!"

"Two Sacred Sects have been erased from the Underworld and the Dragon Sect has risen. After this incident, the Dragon Sect has completely stabilized its footing in the Underworld.

The annihilation of the Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan was like an earthquake in the Underworld.

When the other Sacred Sects and Clans heard the news, they also couldn't remain composed for a long time.

"The death of three unparalleled experts. At that time, although the Sui Clan and Xiao Clan were present, Sui Huang wasn't there. In other words, only the Laozu of Xiao Clan was there. The Dragon Sect would at least have two Dan Realm experts. Based on the information gathered by the people at the beach, it's beyond doubt that the Dragon Sect had at least two Dan Realm experts!"

Various Sacred Sects and Clans obtained reports from different places. All the higher management of these sects and clans had gathered to discuss the incident.

The annihilation of two Saint-class forces warranted their closest attention.

After all, most of the Saint-class forces weren't even as strong as the Medical Saint Sect.

They wanted to analyze the strength of the Dragon Sect to come out with an action plan.

"The Dragon Sect has risen. Send some gifts over tomorrow!"

"The Sacred Sect, Dragon Sect, has a strength that ranks among the top three or four Sacred Sects. Instruct our guys to send some gifts over tomorrow!"

"Don't ever offend the disciples of the Dragon Sect in the future!"

"Sui Clan, Xiao Clan and the Dragon Sect are definitely on really good terms!"

Different messages came from various Sacred Sects.

The Dragon Sect had dominantly annihilated two Sacred Sects. Although this might be largely because of the aid from the Xiao Clan and Sui Clan, it was still enough to command fear and respect.

While the Sacred Sects were hesitating, they still sent their guys to bring gifts for the pilgrimage.

Within the Underworld, various families and sects were astonished to see this piece of news.

A Sacred Sect that shot to the peak by stepping on the corpses of a Sacred Sect, a Sacred Clan, and seven first-class forces was sufficient for them to hold in high regard.

As a newly crowned Sacred Sect, the Dragon Sect would require them to express goodwill and pay pilgrimage to them.

That was despite the fact that many families and ancestral sects didn't have high opinions of Dragon Sect in the past. Some even believed that the Dragon Sect would be annihilated.

Regardless, they had to be respectful towards a fast-rising Dragon Sect.

All the powerful families and sects in the Underworld were mobilized as they prepared gifts and made their way to Rivertown.

It wasn't that they would be targeted if they didn't go for the pilgrimage. However, the birth of a Saint-class force and the rise of a powerful sect was worthwhile for them to head over and express goodwill.

If their disciples were to offend the Sacred Sect carelessly in the future, the Sacred Sect might let them off because of their current decision.

The pilgrimage was dependent on the strength of a Sacred Sect.

When the Flame Palace had announced their ascension to be a Sacred Sect previously, only the sects and families in three to four provinces headed to the pilgrimage.

However, the Flame Palace was a far cry from the current Dragon Sect.

Dragon Sect could make it to the top five of all Saint-class forces just from the strength they displayed in the annihilation of Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan.

Ten thousand sects paying pilgrimage!

Wang Xian wasn't aware of the happenings in the Underworld. He summoned Mo Qinglong and Mo Yuan over and immediately headed to the old nests of the Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan.

Since they had annihilated the Medical Saint Sect and the Qiao Clan, the treasures that belonged to them were naturally theirs for the taking.

"I should have sent the dragonians over in advance. Most of the treasures left behind were probably shifted away by others by now!"

Wang Xian shook his head in disappointment because of his miscalculation.

"Wahhhh! Brother, there are lots of forces congratulating us on the establishment of the Dragon Sect. Among them, there were several Saint-class forces!"

Xiao Yu was scrolling through her phone in the villa and shouted loudly. However, she soon pouted. "Just a day ago, they were still saying we would be annihilated. Heh!"

"There will probably be lots of forces coming tomorrow. Hehe! At that time, I'll participate as the Sect Leader of the Thistles and Thorns Sect!" Xiao Yu remarked loudly. Lan Qingyue, Guan Shuqing and Sun Lingxiu chuckled by her side.

They sat there demurely and looked like goddesses.

Chapter 465: Pilgrimage (3)

"Wow, there are many people!"

"Yes, it's way too much. Look over there. It's Shengling Sect."

"That is the Dark Sect. Over there is Imperial Beast Sect. Gosh, many Sacred Sects are here today!"

At least five thousand people were heading to that island on the following morning.

Those people came from various ancestral sects and clans, in which some were formidable Sacred Sects and Sacred Clans. All these dominating forces embarked on a trip to the island on their vessels.

All the clans and sects were in awe when they stood on their vessels. As they scanned the surroundings, they had only astonishment on their faces.

Too many clans and ancestral sects came from the Underworld. On top of that, all of them were formidable ones.

Those second-tier and below were not qualified to attend.

At least more than a score of first-class forces and six Saint-class forces were present. Over a hundred vessels steered towards the island.

"That's spectacular. Let's go over there too!"

At the seaside, a group of more than thirty people came on a vessel, following another vessel to the island.

"Hur? Congratulations to Thistles and Thorns Sect!"

"Sect Leader Tang, congratulations to Thistles and Thorns Sect that has upgraded to a first-class sect. I'm so happy for you!"

"Sect Leader Tang, I really envy you guys!"

While they were heading towards the island, the Martial Artists beside their vessels spotted them. Immediately, they congratulated Sect Leader Tang with envy.

The group of more than thirty people was from Thistles and Thorns Sect. It was an honor for them to be here today.

Seeing those powerful forces, who he used to look up to, congratulating them fervently with envy, everyone from Thistles and Thorns Sect was proud and thrilled.

"Hehe, it's just a stroke of luck. I will not be the Sect Leader of Thistles and Thorns Sect anymore in the future. I'm getting old, and it's time to give up my seat. Haha!" said Sect Leader Tang to the surrounding people with a beaming face as he cupped his fists.

"It's more than just luck!"

The surrounding forces looked at Thistles and Thorns Sect with envy since the sister of the Dragon King was a disciple of Thistles and Thorns Sect. She would be taking over the Sect Leader role in the future.

From now on, who would dare to provoke Thistles and Thorns Sect with the Dragon King and Dragon Sect around?

So long as the Dragon Sect was around, Thistles and Thorns Sect would have nothing to worry about.

This was what many of the first-class forces envied.

"It's right in front of another island."

"I heard it's a floating island. The legendary floating island, aka an ancient wonderland!"

The group of forces on the vessel were envious when they saw the beautiful island in spring colors.

The floating island was able to travel freely in the ocean. Given such a base camp, it was a treasure that every force yearned.

All of them looked over and spotted four Dragon Sect experts standing at the entrance of the island. Mo Yuan was there to receive them.

"Compared to the Pilgrimage of Flame Palace not long ago, this Pilgrimage far exceeds the Flame Palace!" said one of the Sect Leaders of ancestral sects who went for the Flame Palace's Pilgrimage with a slight exclaim.

Back then, only four to five first-class forces had attended the Pilgrimage of Flame Palace. None of the Sacred Sects had turned up.

Yet, almost seventy percent of the first-class forces from the Underworld would be attending the Pilgrimage of Dragon Sect this time.

Many of the Sacred Sects and Sacred Clans were here too.

"Dragon King, these are the things we got from Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan!"

Back in the hall of the floating island, the entire island was undergoing construction. Only a few temporary buildings were done.

"So little?"

Seeing the items before him, Wang Xian frowned as he shook his head in disappointment.

"When we arrived at the Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan, they had all the things moved. Even the Spiritual Grasses in their herb garden were pulled out. They even smashed the things that they were unable to take away," Mo Qinglong replied with bitterness. He cast his sights on the big alchemy furnace in the center and said, "This alchemy furnace is considered to be the most precious thing in the Medical Saint Sect."

"Mm!"

Wang Xian nodded as he observed the two-meter alchemy furnace.

The entire furnace was purple in color, which looked extremely prestigious.

[Lilac Mist Alchemy Furnace: Level 10]

[Contains purplish Heavenly Flame]

"A Level 10 alchemy furnace can refine Level 10 elixir pills. This alchemy furnace should be one of the most precious treasures in Medical Saint Sect!"

Wang Xian looked at the alchemy furnace with a glimmer of surprise.

This trip proved to be worthwhile, given this alchemy furnace.

"This alchemy furnace was extremely heavy for anyone, even for Inborn Experts, to carry. Besides, it was durable. Hence, it was left behind by them," said Mo Qinglong.

Wang Xian nodded. "Set the furnace in a room and make it an elixir refining room!"

"Yes, Dragon King!"

Mo Qinglong nodded and continued, "Most of the forces who are here for the Pilgrimage have arrived!"

"Let's go over!"

Wang Xian nodded, revealing a smile at the corner of his lips.

As he moved to the site for Pilgrimage, Wang Xian already spotted some of the formidable forces waiting on the island.

Seeing the arrival of Wang Xian, everyone cast their gaze over with surprise, shock, and admiration.

"Greetings to the Dragon King!"

"Greetings to the Dragon King!"

As soon as he arrived, one of them went over to Wang Xian and greeted him respectfully.

The remaining people from the rest of the forces greeted Wang Xian with their fists cupped.

This greeting was a form of respect to an expert and, at the same time, a form of respect to a Sect Master who had established a Sacred Sect.

"Thank you all for coming."

Seeing all the forces standing before him with awe, Wang Xian revealed a smile and said, "At Dragon Sect, we'll not seek anyone's trouble unless someone provokes us. We only have fifty disciples in Dragon Sect, but they follow the same rules when they roam the Underworld. As such, I hope we can live in harmony." Wang Xian laughed as he spoke. He swept his gaze across everyone. "However, we will not give up any resources in the Underworld. Till then, strength will determine!"

His words sounded mild and, at the same time, expressed the attitude Dragon Sect would adopt in the future.

All the surrounding forces heaved a sigh of relief when they heard this.

Before the establishment of the Dragon Sect, the Dragon King was notorious in the Underworld for countless killings. They were terrified that the Dragon Sect would act overbearing and barbarous.

As for the resources in the Underworld, it was a common thing. Competing for the treasures in the Underworld based on strength would not invite any complaints.

"Dragon King is magnanimous. Shengling Sect is willing to get along with Dragon Sect. Several of our seniors here are representing Shengling Sect to deliver some congratulatory gifts to Dragon Sect!"

An old man from Shengling Sect smiled and cupped his fist to Wang Xian. Subsequently, he beckoned to the back.

Making a tribute was, of course, the way to express the friendliness from Shengling Sect.

After Shengling Sect, the various Sacred Sects also sent their gifts.

As for those first-class forces, they paid tribute with all kinds of Spiritual Grasses and treasures.

Wang Xian received them with a face full of smiles.

This is the true-blue pilgrimage!

Xiao Clan and Sui Clan were sitting by the side, watching it with beaming faces.

"Hur?"

Suddenly, the eldest son of Sui Huang, sitting in the middle, had an abrupt change in his expression when he received a message from a disciple.

"What? Did you say something happened to your father?"

His eyes were wide with panic.

"Uncle, Grandpa is seriously injured now. Old Huang of Sacred Followers Guild is now with our clan with severe injuries too!"

Chapter 466: Sui Huang's Injuries

"What?"

Wang Xian looked surprised by the oldest son of Sui Huang. Sui Huang is severely injured? With Sui Huang's strength, there are few who can severely injure him in the entire Underworld.

"How did Sui Huang get injured?" Wang Xian asked with a frown.

"I don't know. Father has been overseas over this period. I have no idea as to how he got injured either. Dragon King, our Sui Clan will have to leave now!" said the oldest son of Sui Huang.

Currently, the Sui Family didn't have a second unparalleled expert. Sui Huang was the sole pillar of the entire Sui Clan. If he were to get into trouble, it would be a destructive blow to the entire Sui Clan.

Wang Xian hesitated for a moment before answering him. "I'll go back with you guys in a while!"

"Hmm. Thank you, Dragon King!" The oldest son of Sui Huang nodded his head.

"What? Xiao Xian? You are saying my master is severely injured?"

After the pilgrimage had been going for about half an hour, Wang Xian brought Guan Shuqing along and followed the rest of the Sui Family members back to Shang Jing.

"Hmm. We are going to take a look." Wang Xian nodded his head.

"How could this... Master said he was heading overseas to get me some art of cultivation. How would he be injured...?" said Guan Shuqing, who was clearly anxious.

"He will be fine. Don't worry about that!" Wang Xian consoled Guan Shuqing and shook his head at her.

Sui Huang had been away for some time to look for cultivation arts for Guan Shuqing. He had not expected him to return with severe injuries.

Wang Xian and Guan Shuqing followed the members of the Sui Family and rushed back to Sui Clan on a helicopter.

"Let's go! We will head back right away!"

When the experts of Sui Clan got off the helicopter, they didn't hesitate at all as they took flight and flew towards the sacred mountain.

Their Laozu getting into trouble was a huge matter for them.

"Great grandpa..."

"How's father doing now? What really happened?" the group of experts from Sui Clan asked in a hurry.

"His injuries are severe. Old Huang is inside and administering treatment to Laozu. He asked us to wait for him here!" an old man said bitterly to the group.

"With master's strength, how would he be injured? How would he be injured...?" Guan Shuqing asked anxiously.

"Let me go take a look!"

Wang Xian took a look around and headed in directly.

"Dragon King, please!"

The group from Sui Clan didn't attempt to stop him. After all, he had been known as Miracle Doctor Wang by the public previously and he was also an unparalleled expert currently.

Wang Xian entered and saw Sui Huang lying on the bed. Both of his arms were gone and he was drenched in blood. At the same time, his body was emitting a creepily high temperature.

The Clan Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild was administering treatment. Beside him, a young girl was helping him out.

Seeing Wang Xian walking in, he picked up a jade-green bead in his hand and heaved a long sigh.

"How are the injuries of Sui Huang?"

Wang Xian took a glance at Old Huang before walking to the side of the bed.

"Huh? Who are you? Didn't we say not to let anyone in now? He will be interrupting the treatment!" said the young girl as she turned around and looked at Wang Xian.

The young girl was in a white dress and had bright eyes. She looked captivating and didn't seem to be a girl from the mortal world.

Old Huang waved his hand at the young girl, turned to Wang Xian and said solemnly, "His injuries are severe. Really, really severe. Both of his arms were severed and his internal organs were torched by a Heavenly Flame. There are also several lethal wounds on his body that are taking a huge toll on Sui Huang!"

The young girl pouted and looked curiously at Wang Xian.

Wang Xian walked to the side of the bed and checked on Sui Huang's injuries. His eyebrows knitted together and he placed a palm on his body.

A stream of dense dragon energy entered.

There's a fire spark in his body!

Feeling the injuries in Sui Huang's body, Wang Xian was astonished.

"It's an injury that has gone deep into his bones. That black fire spark has attached itself deeply in the body of Old Sui. The one who injured him is definitely not an ordinary expert. If it wasn't for Old Sui being a fire attribute expert too, he would probably be finished. That black fire spark is a really pressing issue. If I can find the Eternal Ice Water, I will be able to resolve it. Do you have other ways to erase it?" Old Huang asked Wang Xian.

"Yeah. I can treat Old Sui's injuries!" Wang Xian nodded his head.

"You can?" The young girl looked at Wang Xian and clearly didn't believe him.

"Even my master couldn't heal him. You can?"

"The most severe injury on Sui Huang is that black Heavenly Flame. That Heavenly Flame is too domineering. Old Huang, can you restore the arms of Sui Huang?"

Wang Xian didn't pay any attention to that young girl as he asked the Guild Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild.

"Yeah, I can regrow his arms. The main issue is that black Heavenly Flame in his body. If you can remove it, Old Sui's injuries wouldn't be much of a problem!"

Old Huang nodded his head.

"Alright."

Wang Xian nodded his head. He could also grow Sui Huang's arms. However, it would exhaust an immense amount of dragon energy.

He wasn't surprised that the Guild Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild could regrow limbs. After all, he was number one on the Miracle Doctors Chart in the Underworld.

Even when compared to the entire world, he was second. His medical technique wouldn't be weak at all.

Wang Xian placed his arm on Old Sui's body.

Water counters Fire.

Streams of dense water dragon energy entered Sui Huang's body.

"The owner of the black Heavenly Flame is really strong!"

When the water dragon energy reached the side of the black Heavenly Flame, it was blocked away to the astonishment of Wang Xian.

However, Wang Xian wasn't weak either. Dense water dragon energy surrounded the black Heavenly Flame and slowly extinguished it.

After a dozen-odd minutes, the small black Heavenly Flame in Sui Huang's body was finally erased.

Wang Xian heaved a sigh and said, "The black Heavenly Flame has been removed. As for the other injuries, I believe they will be easy for Old Huang!"

"Yeah." Old Huang nodded his head and took a long glance at Wang Xian. "Miracle Doctor Wang, your medical skills are even more incredible than I imagined!"

"I'm just average I guess!" Wang Xian smiled plainly.

"Medical Saint Sect isn't as simple as you imagined. Be careful in the future!" Old Huang reminded plainly. He retrieved the jade green wood-attribute bead and started his treatment of Sui Huang.

Wang Xian was taken aback by what Old Huang said. However, he simply shook his head nonchalantly.

The young girl scrutinized Wang Xian from top to bottom. "I had not expected you to be a miracle doctor too. You are pretty good!"

"I'll get out now. Please let me know when Sui Huang regains consciousness!"

Wang Xian didn't pay attention to the young girl as he headed for the door.

"Tsk! Who is he? What's there to be arrogant about!"

Seeing Wang Xian ignoring her on multiple occasions, the young girl stared behind her and raised her fist furiously.

"Master, who's that stinky brat?" asked the young girl with contempt.

"Him? He's an incredible young man and a very arrogant one. Qiao Qiao, don't you ever offend that kid. He's a little dauntless!" said Old Huang to the young girl with a smile.

"Tsk. He's just an ignorant brat. What's there to be so arrogant about!" the young girl grumbled. In her place, who dared to ignore her?

Chapter 467: Fire God's Graveyard

"How's my Master, Xiao Xian?" Guan Shuqing asked in eagerness the very moment Wang Xian stepped out.

A hundred pairs of eyes of the Sui people in the Grand Hall were on him as well.

"Not to worry, nothing serious, he should be able to come round shortly," Wang Xian replied with a smile.

"Phew, thank God for it!"

"That's great!" the Sui people exclaimed in great relief.

"That couldn't be better. I'd be riddled with guilt should anything happen to Master because of me," Guan Shuqing added as she heaved a sigh of relief.

With a smile, Wang Xian assured her as he patted her on the shoulder.

It did not take too long for Old Huang and the young girl to make their way out.

"How's my father, Old Huang?"

"Nothing serious, he'll need to rest for a couple of months. He is awake and you may go in now," Old Huang told the crowd.

"We can't thank you enough, Old Huang," expressed everyone, with heartfelt gratitude.

"Don't mention it, it would have taken much longer if not for Miracle Doctor Wang. I'll take my leave." Old Huang gestured with a wave before leaving with the young lady.

The youthful girl gave Wang Xian a black look as she walked past him.

"Hmph!" she went, as she turned around and left the place.

"Let's go in!" Wang Xian was least bothered by her, a lass who did not look any older than eighteen and seemed to be, undoubtedly, a spoiled teen.

"Master!" Guan Shuqing rushed to Sui Huang once she stepped into the room.

Also in the room were the four sons of Sui Huang with the rest remaining in the Grand Hall, not wanting to disturb.

"I'm alright, still alive!" With a tinge of paleness across his face, Sui Huang muttered as he waved.

He gave Wang Xian a glance and joked, "And I owe you one, Dragon King!"

"Haha! Which disrespectful soul has beaten you up so badly?" Wang Xian chuckled.

"Neither were you respectful." Sui Huang gave Wang Xian a death stare while Guan Shuqing, who was beside them, pinched him.

"Haha!" Sui Huang laughed, looking at the duo. He continued as a serious look replaced the smile on his face. "It was the Nether Flame. I was given a hefty hit by one of the Nether Flame experts. There are many powerful experts beyond our region. Sigh!"

"Nether Flame? Why did you end up in a fight when you were supposed to be on an Art of Cultivation quest?" asked the puzzled Wang Xian. Nether Flame was obviously a well-known power within the region which he was oblivious to.

"Someone has found the Fire God's Graveyard in Dubai, where Fire God's legacy and top-notch fire-attributed Art of Cultivation exist. It was when I tried entering the Graveyard that I met the expert and was gravely injured by him!" Sui Huang said bitterly.

"Fire God's legacy? Who could be such an arrogant soul, to have named himself God?" the slightly startled Wang Xian asked in astonishment.

"A foreign fire-attributed expert. He must have been impressively powerful to be called God!" Sui Huang responded.

"Fire God is just one of the many that exist in the world. We have others like the Thunder God, Water God, Demon God, God of Baqi, God of Land and many many more!" With a beam, Sui Huang continued. "In actual fact, these are nothing more than formidable human beings, similar to celestial beings."

"How could we consider one to be God then?" Wang Xian asked out of curiosity.

"The most powerful in the Underworld is said to be the Dan Realm, a realm which Nie Wushuang has surpassed. A level above Dan Realm would be Budding Realm which then leads to the Immortal Realm. This is where one would find Immortals of the Land where they are known as deities in the East and Gods in the West. Above this level comes the Hollow Breaking, but whether this realm to be regarded as Hollow Breaking or Across Cosmic remains unknown," Sui Huang proclaimed placidly.

"Budding Realm? Immortal Realm?" Wang Xian asked in slight contemplation. Given his current combat power, which was equivalent to Level 8 of the Divine Dragon, it would be said to be comparable to Budding Realm.

And Level 9 of Divine Dragon would correspond to that of the Immortal Realm.

After Level 9, First Transformation of Divine Dragon would take place and that would either be the legendary Hollow Breaking or Across Cosmic, which had yet to be confirmed.

"You mean one could still find a 'God' outside our country?" Wang Xian questioned in great bewilderment.

Sui Huang pondered his question in silence. He shook and then nodded his head before commenting, "I heard from Old Huang recently that such a formidable power does exist in our region!"

"Really?" Wang Xian asked, somewhat stunned by the remark.

"Well, I wasn't sure either. It was believed that this has to do with the disappearance of the nine cauldrons which was meant to lock spiritual Qi of the country. This was something that happened a good three hundred years ago!" Sui Huang answered.

Sui Huang shook his head in disbelief. After all, a Dan Realm expert was already more than intimidating!

If a Dan Realm expert could cross the plains at a speed faster than a plane, collapsing a dozens of meter tall mountain with a full-forced strike, how would a level above it be?

It was definitely not an overstatement for such experts to break an immortal's limbs should Immortals of the Land exist. They could topple the mountains and overturn the seas, perishing a city with a population of millions in no time.

"Fire God's Graveyard is indeed a land of immense treasures then!" exclaimed Wang Xian.

"That goes without saying. A corner of the Graveyard was all I viewed. Magnificent and mind-blowing!" said Sui Huang, with a faint sigh.

"I am curious to take a look then. Nether Flame, is that right? I shall avenge you while you stay home to recuperate and leave the search of Cultivation for Suqing to me, Elder," said Wang Xian to Sui Huang with a grin.

"Are you serious? To get yourself into trouble? I suspect that all the best experts of the Asian continent are gathering over there now," remarked Sui Huang as he frowned.

"Oh, have many experts been there?" Wang Xian's brows furrowed.

"It was just a couple of them who had discovered that place, but word spread after my roar!" Sui Huang smirked with a smug look on his face.

"So, that's the reason for being thrashed!" Wordlessly, Wang Xian shook his head. He then looked at Guan Shuqing and said, "You shall stay and keep Sui Huang company for a few days while I make a trip to the Graveyard."

"Be extra careful, Xiao Xian!" Guan Shuqing frowned slightly as she urged Wang Xian.

"Not to worry, you should be aware of my capabilities and know that they are way above your aged Master!" Wang Xian chuckled.

"Get out of here, you little brat!" Sui Huang gave Wang Xian a good stare as he raged.

Deep down he knew that Wang Xian had topped the Dan Realm as he had heard from the Sui people how this man had killed the Supreme Elder of Medical Saint Sect in less than a minute.

And he had been stunned with bitterness upon hearing the news.

With a smile, Wang Xian left the room after saying a few words to Guan Shuqing.

Well, it's time to greet the world and meet our foreign counterparts, instead of dealing with our own people, even if they are the most formidable ones!

Chapter 468: Fire God's Token

Dubai is one of the richest countries in Asia. In fact, it's one of the richer countries even when compared to the entire world.

The "sail ship" hotel in Dubai is the number one hotel in Dubai. Moreover, Dubai has the world's tallest building and other notable structures.

Dubai was an emirate and was famous within Asia.

Wang Xian was on the plane towards Dubai. Around him, those who were heading to Dubai for holidays were all relatively rich people.

Although Dubai was famous, the cost was also very high. It wasn't the first choice of tourism for ordinary families.

When he walked out of the international airport, Wang Xian looked around him. It was indeed deserving of the name of an extravagant country.

"The Fire God's Graveyard is on a volcano island in the vicinity. It should be easy to find an island with a volcano!"

Wang Xian recalled the place Sui Huang had described to him. After walking out of the airport, he hailed a cab and asked the driver, "Where's the island with a volcano?"

Luckily, Wang Xian's command of the English language was still passable and he wasn't facing problems in conversing.

"Fire Spirit Island? You are going to the Fire Spirit Island too? There's quite a number of people who are heading there today!"

The driver was a local and was looking at Wang Xian inquisitively.

"Yeah. I'm going to the Fire Spirit Island to look for a friend!" Wang Xian smiled and nodded his head as he made up a reason casually.

"It's a little far from here and it would be an hour journey!" the driver explained as he drove Wang Xian towards the Fire Spirit Island.

The Fire Spirit Island is about seven to eight kilometers away from the mainland. From afar, one could see the white smoke fuming from the volcano.

Because of the white smoke throughout the year and the occasional flames, the Fire Spirit Island could also be considered a scenic spot in Dubai.

The beach in Dubai was extremely beautiful. The water was so clear that one could see the bottom of the sea. Directly opposite the Fire Spirit Island was a place for tea and snacks.

At this moment, the place was already filled with people. Over four to five thousand people were densely packed in the area.

"There are at most a thousand people here typically. I'm not sure why there are so many people here today!" the driver mumbled. After paying the cab fare, Wang Xian alighted from the car.

Looking across, the entire beach was filled with people. From them, Wang Xian could feel immense energy.

There are quite a number of Inborn experts among the few thousand people here!

Wang Xian stood on the pathway and looked down in shock.

"There are people from eight different denominations here. It's impossible for Nether Flame to occupy the place for themselves!"

"Dubai has also made an announcement that the Fire God's Graveyard is within their territory. If one wishes to enter, he has to pay a hundred million first. Otherwise, they can forget about entering!"

"Dubai is really smart in this. They knew that it would be impossible for them to obtain the treasures inside. Therefore, they could only use this method to get something out of it!"

"The other eight denominations have no other options either. If they really press Dubai too hard, a strategic warhead might be sent here. At that time, no one could even wish to obtain the treasures!"

"It's getting interesting now. Whoever can pay the sum is allowed in. The people from the eight denominations didn't seem to have much to say about it either."

"The entire Fire God's Graveyard is exceptionally huge. Moreover, dangers lurk in all corners. It spanned several tens of kilometers and rumor has it that the Nether Flame has lost a good number of experts!"

"It's a Fire God's Graveyard after all and the residence of an elite expert. Fire God Hephaestus was most known for his equipment refining and his fire demons. The place is likely to be filled with countless fire demons. The eight denominations are probably afraid of suffering grave losses and thus don't dare to enter recklessly. Therefore, they have only sent a small number of people to scout the place!"

When Wang Xian got closer and heard the conversation of the crowd, he was slightly surprised.

The news of the Fire God's Graveyard had been leaked by Sui Huang. He thought this place would be controlled by various powerful forces. However, it wasn't the case.

[Dubai is recruiting guards above Level 9 martial artists. The hundred million entry fee would be exempted. One is allowed to keep half of the treasures obtained. There are currently fifty people who have joined.]

Wang Xian walked deeper in and was shocked by an eye-catching sign.

"Dubai is really smart to recruit guards. Whatever treasures the guards get from the graveyard, they will also receive half of them!" Wang Xian chuckled.

He realized that there were several forces recruiting guards like these. However, they didn't have the same credit rating as Dubai. As such, they could only promise spiritual stones or money directly.

There were even some who were looking for teammates to explore the place together and to help each other out.

To sum it up, the place was completely different from what Wang Xian had envisioned. The Fire God's Graveyard was like a treasured place that required exploration.

Wang Xian looked towards the Fire Spirit Volcano curiously.

"The entrances to the Fire God's Graveyard have been sealed. If I want to enter, I can only go by the main entrance. In that case, I have to pay a hundred million!"

Wang Xian's eyebrows knitted together. Changing the currency from his country to Dubai's currency, he would have to pay $170-$180 million.

This wasn't a small sum. However, if he could obtain treasures from the Fire God's Graveyard, this sum would just be peanuts.

Wang Xian raised an eyebrow and headed towards a room at the side.

"Those who wish to enter the Fire God's Graveyard have to present a Token of Authority which can be purchased with money!"

Just as he stepped into the area, a service attendant explained this to Wang Xian.

"Give me one!" Wang Xian said immediately.

In the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition previously, the Dragon Sect had occupied all the spots. As such, all the rewards had gone to him.

He received over ninety billion in cash.

The only thing Wang Xian wasn't lacking now was cash.

"Alright. This is for you. We are not responsible for any lost tokens!"

The service attendant threw a Token of Authority towards him and spoke plainly.

The Token of Authority was the size of a palm with the words "Fire God's Token" written on it.

Wang Xian walked out and flipped the token in his hand.

Puff!

At this moment, a hand grabbed towards the Token of Authority.

Wang Xian was taken aback. He immediately moved aside and dodged the hand.

At the same time, he looked before him.

Four thievish-looking people appeared before him. All of them had small beards and had samurai swords hung around their waist. All of them were staring greedily at the Token of Authority in Wang Xian's hand.

"Japanese?" Wang Xian raised an eyebrow and stared coldly at the four of them.

"Brat, we are just missing a Token of Authority. Give us the Token of Authority in your hand!" The old man in the middle played with his beard as the other three surrounded Wang Xian.

"Another fight?"

"Just let them fight. The more that die, the merrier!"

"Hehe. That kid is really dumb to purchase a Token of Authority alone. Although a hundred million isn't much, it's still substantial for a martial artist. It's a common occurrence for the weak to be robbed!"

"This is already the third case today. Three people were killed in the previous incident!"

"Those three are martial artists from Team Liuchuan. Eh, that's not entirely right. In their countries, they are referred to as ninjas."

"The kid didn't know the importance of hiding after purchasing a Token of Authority. It's clear that he's inexperienced. Just count this as a lesson!"

The surrounding crowd looked on with faint smiles, as they were already familiar with such developments.

No one attempted to intervene. In fact, some were even regretting not making a move earlier!

Chapter 469: Team Up

"Can you rob and kill anyone over here?" asked Wang Xian to the old man with an English mustache as he surveyed the spectating crowd with an arching of his lips.

"Lad, you're really inexperienced. Hand over that token to me, and I'll spare your life. Otherwise, a new body will be found on the ground!"

The old man with an English mustache grinned with a bloodthirsty look.

Wang Xian chuckled and nodded his head slowly. "I got it!"

As his voice trailed off, he lunged with a swift attack at that old man.

"Hur?"

The four old Japanese men froze for a moment.

"Bastard, Water attack!"

That old man raged as he pulled out his samurai sword from his belt. He wielded it at Wang Xian with a movement that flowed smoothly like water.

"Trash! Slay!"

Wang Xian exhibited a disdainful look in his eyes as he swung his arm and struck at the old man with an aqua blade condensed in his hand.

"Bastard, you're courting your own doom!"

Murderous intent filled the eyes of the old man as soon as he saw Wang Xian condensing an aqua blade at his will, striking at him with a similar movement. His hands accelerated.

"The speed of a Ninja is considered to be top-notch at the international level. One must not be careless when battling with a Ninja. This young man is just too insolent."

"Must be disciples from some clans or forces. Kinda stupid!"

The surrounding crowd watched with a teasing look.

Another five young men and ladies in unique attire walked out of the room. With one look, anyone could tell that they were the natives from Dubai.

The five of them revealed a faint smile as they watched the scene unfolding before them.

Bam!

As soon as the long blade formed by water hit against the samurai sword, the aqua blade broke in half. There was a sneer in that old man's eyes. "Let me cut your abdomen up!"

Shoo!

Just when the voice of the old man trailed off, the broken piece of the aqua blade pointed at the old man directly.

"What?"

That old man was stunned as he raised his samurai sword for a block.

Pow!

Yet, his hands were numbed immediately. To his horror, he realized his arms were wrapped by the water current.

Poof!

During that brief stunned moment, the aqua blade pierced the old man's body.

Wang Xian exhibited a trace of ridicule as he raised his arm, hurling numerous tangible aqua blades at the remaining three Japanese.

Poof!

"How dare people like you vie for that Token of Authority?"

Wang Xian tossed that token in the air with a scornful look on his face.

Bam, Bam, Bam, Bam!

Four bodies fell to the ground.

"What great strength!"

"That... That old Japanese man is an Inborn Expert. He actually got killed within a stroke!"

"Our bad. None of us expected that young man to be an Inborn Expert!"

"Hehe, they finally met their match this time. They succeeded with the previous trio, but now, Team Liuchuan has met their end here!"

Everyone around them was appalled as they stared at Wang Xian with surprise.

A young man who killed one Inborn Expert and three Half-step to Inborn Experts caught them by a real surprise.

"It seems like the crowd was not too impressed by this. Indeed, there's a clear gap between the Underworld and the international arena!"

Wang Xian observed the reactions around him and arched his eyebrows as he prepared to head for the Fire Spirit Island.

"Buddy, hold on!"

At this time, a sudden voice was heard.

Wang Xian paused and spun around when he saw five young people walking towards him.

Wang Xian checked them out and asked, "Anything for me?"

"Are you from Korea?"

The young man in the center fixed his eyes on Wang Xian as he asked him with a beaming face.

"No, I'm from China!" Wang Xian raised his eyebrow. "What's up?"

"Sorry, I didn't expect such a talented young man to be coming from the Underworld of China!"

That young man apologized immediately with an apologetic hand gesture. However, his eyes were filled with more surprise.

"Bro, are you alone? Don't get us wrong. We just want to head to the Fire God's Graveyard with you."

That young man reached out with an inviting gesture.

"I'm alone, but I intended to go in myself!"

Wang Xian shook his head at them before he turned around and walked away.

The five of them frowned slightly while the young man at the center hesitated. He called out again, "Bro, I think we can talk for a few minutes. I'm sure you won't be disappointed. Just a few minutes will do!"

Wang Xian paused as he whirled around and faced the five people.

"This way, please!"

Seeing Wang Xian look back, that young man quickly pointed to a room.

With slight hesitation, Wang Xian looked at the building, which he had bought his token from just now. Apparently, these five young people had some backings.

"Sure!"

He nodded and followed them. The only reason that they invited him over must have been for the Fire God's Graveyard.

Even Wang Xian had to stay cautious when it came to the Fire God's Graveyard. After all, to be known as a God in the international arena must have required one to possess a greater strength than him.

Wang Xian was slightly far from being a God-like being.

The dangers lurking in the Fire God's Graveyard could inflict him with severe injuries.

He followed the five people to a room that looked extravagant.

"Speak up, people, I want to know what you can come up with for me to join you guys!" said Wang Xian to them with a smile.

Out of the five of them, there was a girl who had a veil over her face. Only her beautiful, pink eyes, which looked a little queer, could be seen.

"We have a general map of the Fire God's Graveyard. We can provide you with some weapons. All in all, it's much safer to go with us than by yourself. The chance of getting treasures is much higher too!"

That young man in the center continued to add on.

Wang Xian lifted his eyebrow a little as he scanned the five of them briefly. "Honestly, all of you are somehow...weak?"

All of them halted. There was a twisted expression on the face of that young man. "All of us are at Inborn levels, and we have powerful weapons with us. Five of us can manage even a Half-Step to Dan Realm Expert!"

"With your participation, we have ways to explode our strength to Half-Step to Dan Realm level!"

"Oh? Since all of you are so compelling, you guys can just kill me after that. I will be doomed if I follow you people!" said Wang Xian impassively as he looked at them.

"Don't worry. We can swear a blood oath, and take some cursed beetles. If we defied our oaths, we would die immediately. What do you think?" asked the young man to Wang Xian, staring at him.

"Sure, but it's up to individual strength after we enter!" Wang Xian chuckled as he answered.

"Sure!" The five of them nodded without any comments.

"Great, when are we setting off?" asked Wang Xian immediately.

"In the wee hours of tonight. We'll enter at the coldest time, when the Fire Demon at Fire God's Graveyard is deep in sleep!" answered the young man.

"Sure, we'll meet tonight over here. I'll take a stroll nearby."

Wang Xian smiled and nodded as he headed outside.

"Elder brother, this guy is super arrogant. He thinks he's good, but I don't feel he's reliable at all. Let's drop the idea of going there!"

The girl with a veil pleaded with the young man at the center as soon as Wang Xian departed.

"He's not weak. Sigh, and we don't have other choices. Inborn Experts with water attributes have their own forces. After we lost a Dan Realm expert, we almost wanted to give up. But now, we should give it a shot. If we can find the Holy Water Scripture and Holy Water, all these things will have been worth it!"

"Brother, I still think we shouldn't go," the girl pleaded.

"For your sake, I must find the Holy Water!"

Chapter 470: Daughter

"Dragon King, Prime Minister Turtle and the rest have not been revived yet in the Dragon Palace."

Evening. Wang Xian sat by an outdoor restaurant near the beach and was talking to Mo Qinglong over the phone.

Wang Xian had sent Mo Qinglong to the Dragon Palace to teach the golden swordfish race to read and speak, and at the same time, to check if the rest had been revived.

The time required to revive them had exceeded his expectations.

With the powers of the Soul Returning branch and Dragon Transformation Pool, it would still take more time before they could be revived.

There aren't any treasures in the Dragon Palace currently. Let's hope that I can get some on this trip to the Fire God's Graveyard!

Sitting by the restaurant next to the beach, Wang Xian looked towards the clear seawater some distance away. Before him, there were tourists from various countries in sexy bikinis playing by the beach.

In the sea, a yacht steered by and left behind a long trail of white waves.

"Sister Lingling, you are so annoying. I want to go surfing! I want to go surfing!"

"Have you forgotten that you almost drowned the last time you went surfing? You can forget about it. Just sit here, drink your tea obediently, and enjoy the sun!"

"Tsk! You...! How... Eh?"

Wang Xian glanced over after hearing a conversation coming from his side.

It was between two girls. One was a loli with two ponytails. Her clothes resembled those cosplay costumes and she looked adorable in them. [\[1\]](#)

The other girl was wearing a white skirt. Both of them were chatting casually.

Wang Xian looked over with eyes of admiration. When he noticed that the loli was staring at him, he felt a little embarrassed and turned around.

"What's the matter, Xiaowan? You are finally at the age where you are interested in handsome guys?" the girl teased Xiaowan after seeing her staring at Wang Xian.

"Sister Lingling! It's him! Look! It's him! He's that uncle!"

Suddenly, that loli pointed at Wang Xian and shouted.

Huh?

The girl by her side looked curiously towards Wang Xian.

When Wang Xian heard the shouts of the loli, he also turned his head over. He raised an eyebrow and found them to be rather familiar.

"He's the one who raced with us. The one that rode a heavy-duty motorcycle! It's him!" the loli exclaimed.

Eh?

The girl by the side pondered for a moment, turned her attention towards Wang Xian and was struck by a sudden realization. "It's really him!"

"You are that little brat!"

After the loli kicked up a ruckus, Wang Xian also recalled this little brat.

He met her when he had just had the mysterious encounter. After winning a heavy-duty motorcycle from a guy, he encountered three sports cars. Those two girls were in one of the three sports cars.

At that time, they raced and crashed into a big truck after they went into the opposite lane.

This little brat had both legs broken on the spot and that beautiful girl also suffered a huge blow to her chest.

At that time, he had helped to heal them.

Who would have expected he would meet them here after half a year?

Wang Xian's lips curved up slightly. He looked to the little brat and found her a little more attractive as compared to half a year ago.

"So my daughter is here! Yeah? How are your injuries?" Wang Xian smiled, looked towards the slender legs of the loli and teased her.

He still could recall this little brat asking him to call her mom if he had lost. After the accident, Wang Xian made her call him dad and this little brat did so while crying.

Hmm. The memories were still fresh in his mind.

After all, she was the first daughter he had.

"You... Rascal!"

Seeing how Wang Xian was teasing her, the loli instantly fumed. She gritted her teeth and stared at him.

She could still remember clearly that when she was about to fall unconscious, this guy made her call him daddy.

At the thought of this, she couldn't wait to eat him.

"Xiao Wan, don't be rude!"

The girl by the side pulled the loli by her arm and turned to Wang Xian. With a sincere voice, she thanked Wang Xian. "I'm really grateful for your treatment last time. We heard it from the doctor. If it wasn't for you, we would have been in trouble.

"However, I'm really sorry about it. Because of our family matters, we had come to Dubai for treatment and didn't have the opportunity to express our gratitude.

We really did not expect to see you here!"

Wang Xian shook his head with a smile and answered, "It's alright. What a coincidence!"

"Yeah, what a coincidence," the girl chuckled. Soon, she continued, "I'm Tang Lingling and this little girl here is Mu Xiaowan. She's a little playful!"

"My name is Wang Xian. Please take a seat." Wang Xian gestured for them to sit.

Tang Lingling nodded her head, pulled Mu Xiaowan along and sat down. "Are you here in Dubai for the holidays?"

"Yeah. What about you guys?" Wang Xian nodded his head and asked the girls.

"Our family has business here," answered Tang Lingling.

"Do you know how to swim?" At this moment, Mu Xiaowan suddenly asked him this.

"Huh? Of course, I know!" Wang Xian looked at the little girl and answered with a smile.

"Do you know anything about surfing then?" Mu Xiaowan's eyes beamed and she continued asking.

"It is nothing to me!" Wang Xian said heartily.

"Why don't we go surfing? It's so boring staying here. Let's go, handsome uncle!"

Mu Xiaowan stood up instantly and continued, "To thank you for saving us the last time... Hmm... For the next few days, the great Missy here can bring you around in Dubai. I'll cover your accommodation and meals. What do you think?"

"I'm not interested in surfing today. All I wanted is to sit here and rest!" Wang Xian said heartily.

"This... This won't do..." Mu Xiaowan's jaw dropped. Seeing how Wang Xian was leaning against the chair lazily, she pouted, "When would you be interested in going surfing then?"

"We will see again." Wang Xian found her hilarious and chuckled.

"Mr. Wang, how many days will you be hanging around here?" Tang Lingling asked with a smile.

"I'm not sure yet. It depends."

"In that case, we can be the host and bring you around Dubai. We have been here for half a year and know this place really well."

"Hmm... Alright!"

"Let me treat you to a sumptuous meal. However, you have to bring me surfing. Are you okay with it?"

...

Seeing people from his home country in a foreign land, Wang Xian chatted for close to two hours with the two girls. The little brat constantly begged Wang Xian to bring her to surf.

Eventually, Wang Xian gave in and agreed to her request with a smile.

At night, the little girl brought him to a seafood restaurant. At 9 pm, they bade each other farewell.

The beaches in Dubai were still well lit at night. It was especially so for the beach near the number one hotel in the world. Looking at it from afar, it was breath-taking.

Wang Xian lay below an umbrella on the beach and waited silently.

At midnight, Wang Xian arrived at the seaside punctually.

"Brother, this is a curse beetle that came from your Underworld. After the six of us consume it, I believe you will feel more assured!"

The five people from Dubai had been waiting for him. As compared to the day, all five of them were now wearing capes and resembled those martial artists in China.

"Alright!" Wang Xian didn't ask them about their outfits and the group consumed the curse beetle.

Curse beetles originated from the Underworld and were still widely used internationally.

The promises and constraints between martial artists could be enforced using curse beetles. Those who went against the rules would suffer great consequences.

Even Inborn experts or even stronger existences had to follow the constraints.

"Let's go!"

The five of them didn't speak much. They jumped onto a boat by the side and steered it towards the Fire Spirit Island.

Endnote:

[1] Loli refers to a petite and cute girl. It's a reference to Japanese culture Back

Chapter 471: Fire Demons

Fire God's Graveyard was situated at the top of an active Fire Spirit Volcano.

Nearing this area, one could feel the immense heat coming from there.

Five people stood at the deck of the vessel without a word. Wang Xian cast a look at them. Somehow, he felt that there was something queer about them.

It was as though they were going in for the last fighting chance.

Five of them dressed in oversized clothes with a rain hat on them, and it was hard to distinguish the genders.

But that did not bother Wang Xian. He joined the team to hunt for treasures and the fire-attributed Art of Cultivation. Since they had the map and experience, it would be a lot easier.

"Who's there?"

A loud cry was heard when the yacht arrived at the Fire Spirit Island.

A dozen young men in local attire glared at them coldly.

They had weapons that were not the usual firearms. The gun muzzle was about half a centimeter, which looked threatening.

"We're going in!"

The five people tossed the tokens one by one, while a middle-aged man gestured as soon as he saw the tokens.

"Let's go!"

The five of them called out to Wang Xian and leaped off to the ground. They went ahead with a clear sense of direction.

One side of the island was well presented in front of them as soon as they arrived at the island.

The ground was pitch-black in color with terrifying magma rocks at the side. The temperature over here was at least seventy to eighty degrees.

There was no way for ordinary people to stay here.

"This is...?"

When Wang Xian came to the nearest volcano, he was taken aback by what he saw.

There were ten volcanoes on the entire Fire Spirit Island, and the streams of lava flowing through each of them were connected.

On the mountain before them was written three blazing words: 'Fire God Palace.' The words were burning, and thus, looked extremely impressive.

The entrance was twenty meters wide and twenty meters tall.

Part of it had collapsed.

Five of them went ahead with a blue glow being exuded from their bodies to fend off the scorching heat.

Wang Xian followed along until nine huge entrances appeared before them.

Before the entrance stood over thirty people in different attires, looking at the nine separate entrances.

"Another few are here to die!"

"A bunch of weak trashes are hoping to go in with a fancy dream about taking the Fire God legacy, huh!"

Several Martial Artists in white outfits with a black flame on them scoffed at Wang Xian and the gang coldly.

"Let's go!"

As Wang Xian turned to them, the five people quickly instructed him and entered into one of the caves.

The cave entrance was five meters wide. Upon their entering, the temperature shot up to ten times higher to a temperature of at least seven hundred degrees.

Martial Artists below Level 9 would definitely die if they entered this place.

"Don't provoke the other eight forces. Otherwise, they can just kill you straight away."

"The Fire God's Graveyard was the former Fire God Palace. The palace was divided into nine halls with a main hall that spanned a fifteen-kilometer surface area. It was two times bigger than what the rumors said. Apart from this, the palace had two stories."

"One of the entrances will lead to the side hall, and thereafter the main hall. Each side hall has treasures. But to date, none of the forces have ever made it to the main hall, not even the side ones either!"

The five young people removed their rain hats and tossed them aside.

The rain hat immediately burst into flames, being reduced to ashes. They took off their oversized clothes, revealing pastel blue uniforms. On their uniforms, there were dots of glows.

The only girl among them wore a pastel blue face veil.

"Here!"

The young man in the middle handed something to Wang Xian. He received and took a look.

"Hur?"

[Aqua Star: Level 10]

"This is a precious item from our family. If we can leave this place, you have to return this to us. This is Aqua Star, aka a Hexa-star!"

As the young man spoke, he took out another one as well. All five of them had one each.

"When the six of us stand in a hexagon, the water-energy will be connected, and we can explode Half-Step to Dan Realm's strength. On top of that, if any one of us is in danger, this will allow us to support each other instantaneously."

"In the Fire God Palace, there are countless Fire Demons. These Fire Demons are similar to any ferocious beasts with a mighty strength. As a place for God, some existences are one level lower than him. Every side hall has two Dan Realm Fire Demons!"

"Oh? Two Dan Realms? If there are only two Dan Realms, why couldn't those powerful forces enter till now?" asked Wang Xian with his eyebrow raised.

"Apart from the Dan Realm Fire Demons, there are many, close to eighty Inborn Fire Demons around. These Fire Demons could be comparable to Dan Realm Experts already. Besides, it is extremely difficult to exterminate the Fire Demons in the palace. Hence, two Inborn Experts are required to suppress one Fire Demon. After all, this is the Fire God Palace. Fire Demons in here will have a huge boost to their strength!" the young man explained to Wang Xian.

"Has anyone taken any treasures from the Fire God Palace before?" asked Wang Xian, with his curiosity piqued.

"Yes, this is a palace of the Fire God with many treasures in it. Someone even obtained Spiritual Flame Ball, Fire Spiritual Grass, and even Heavenly Flame before. As a result, this place attracted eight supreme-class forces from Asia within a day!"

The young man continued, "Later, we will have to depend on our own strength for the treasures. Of course, we can divide out those that are easily obtained. I have a map here that states the distribution of those Fire Demons. Follow us!"

"Sure!" Wang Xian nodded, took the Aqua Star, and stood in his position.

The rest of them also remained at their specific positions with that girl in the middle.

Om!

Wang Xian injected the energy of the Water Dragon. At once, the Aqua Stars connected together. He could sense the ability to mobilize the compelling energies from the other five people.

What an amazing Aqua Star. It can allow an Inborn Expert to explode with Half-Step to Dan Realm strength!

Wang Xian pondered to himself.

"Let's go, and keep in the hexagon position, or else it will be ineffective!"

The young man beckoned to Wang Xian, and the group moved forward.

These people are quite good.

Wang Xian remained in the last position, where he did not have to deal with first-hand dangers.

"Be careful. It's the pool of lava ahead. There could be Fire Demons sprouting out from there."

They continued forward where it got spacious at about fifty meters ahead.

A space of about a one kilometer radius, which was twenty meters tall at the ceiling, emerged. Below that spot was rumbling lava that was bubbling with terrifying heat.

Some rocks lined up as steps in the middle.

Wang Xian noticed a Fire Demon bubbling out from the left of the lava pool.

Its body was made up of lava rocks with a pair of pitch-black eyes, exuding a daunting temperature.

Beside the Fire Demon was a fiery-red lotus flower.

"That's the Fire Demon. This pool of lava should be the spiritual medicine garden with fire-attributed Spiritual Grass growing in it. That fiery-red lotus flower is known as the Flaming Lotus, a Level 5 Spiritual Grass!"

Chapter 472: Fire Crystal

Fire Demon: Level 10

Flaming Lotus: Level 5

Wang Xian was astonished to see the Fire Demon and Flaming Lotus in the tumbling lava.

"How deep is this pool of lava?"

Wang Xian looked at the pool of lava that appeared as bottomless as an abyss. From it, he could feel terrifying heat.

He squinted his eyes and looked into the pool of lava.

A red and blue glow flashed in his eyes and the situation of the pool of lava appeared before his eyes. However, layer after layer of fire demons masked his vision and made it impossible for him to see the bottom.

The five of them were shocked by what Wang Xian said. They shook their heads immediately and replied, "We don't know. No one has entered it before."

"An expert from the Fire God Denomination entered into the pool of lava previously. However, he returned with severe injuries. As to what is inside, we have no idea at all!"

"Let's continue our journey forward and get to the side hall as soon as possible!" the young man continued and said to Wang Xian.

"Let's go. For now, let's fly over and avoid the fire demons below us. Once a fight is started, there will be more fire demons appearing!" the young man reminded the group solemnly before taking flight.

Wang Xian followed behind the group.

Grrr!

Just as they entered the air space of the pool of lava, that fire demon turned around and stared at them with his bright and black eyes. At the same time, he let out a growl.

"Be careful. If he moves, we have to kill it instantly!" the young man at the front of the group was worried as he charged ahead rapidly.

Grrr!

At this moment, the fire demon charged towards the girl in the middle. In the process, he brought waves of scorching hot lava with him.

"Kill!"

The young man at the front of the group was stunned. He activated the aqua stars and arrows were shot towards the fire demon.

Boom!

Countless water arrows shot through it and scattered the fire demon into countless pieces.

"Hurry! We've got to move. Fire demons are very sensitive to water attributes," the young man shouted loudly and charged towards the opposite shore.

Blop! Blop!

At this moment, bubbles were rising from the pool of lava. Several heads emerged from the pool one after another.

Their heads were the size of a basketball and they were staring at Wang Xian and the group with their clear and black eyes.

"Let's go!"

The six of them were unmoved. With their speed, they could definitely reach the opposite shore before the attacks of the fire demons reached them.

Puff!

However, a gust of hot wind blew towards them with sparks of fire. The group of youths were instantly shocked.

"Shit! That's flaming wind. We can't get there now!"

The young man was flabbergasted and shouted, "Defend! Withstand the attacks of the flaming wind and the fire demons!"

Huh? There's wind blowing here?

Wang Xian looked ahead of him and was shocked to see the strong gust of wind carrying sparks of fire.

The color of the sparks was even darker than the lava.

Boom!

At this moment, the shape of a hexa-star appeared around them and glowed in a blue light.

Bam! Bam! Bam!

The sparks of the flaming wind fell on it, making clashing sounds. Below them, fire demon after fire demon raised their fists and attacked them.

"Hang in there! All we have to do is to hang in there till the flaming wind is gone!" the young man shouted loudly once again. As he waved his arm, he retrieved the longsword that was hanging behind him and slashed down at the fire demon below him.

There was a total of eighteen fire demons and every one had the strength of an Inborn expert.

Bam bam bam!

However, with the increment of the aqua stars, the battle strength of the five of them could reach the level of a Half-Step to Dan Realm expert.

The girl with a veil carried a blue bow in her hands. Streams of water were flowing on the bow.

As she drew back the bow, the water formed an arrow and shot out directly.

"It seems like I don't have to do a thing!"

Wang Xian looked across before looking down.

Eh?

At this moment, Wang Xian saw five roughly three-meter-long fire demons emerging from the pool of lava and glowering at the six of them.

Rumble!

Each of them carried a huge lava stone and they threw them towards the sky.

When the two-meter lava stones fell on them, the defense of the hexa-star trembled.

"Shit! Those fire demons have the strength of Half-Step to Dan Realm experts!"
The young man turned even gloomier after seeing the three huge fire demons in the pool of lava.

"There's something in the heads of the fire demons. Those must be treasures!"

Wang Xian squinted his eyes and saw a fiery-red crystal in the head of the fire demon after it had been smashed into pieces.

"You guys are too weak. Just stand aside and leave this to me!"

Seeing their attacks, Wang Xian chuckled nonchalantly as he charged towards the sea of fire demons.

"Don't break away from the area of the hexa-star!"

When the young man saw Wang Xian attacking the area below them, his face instantly sank.

The other four were also exceptionally bitter.

Once Wang Xian left, their strength would also be weakened substantially.

However, Wang Xian didn't pay any attention to them. Although the five Inborn experts could be considered immensely incredible among all martial artists, they were still weak in his eyes.

He swung his arm and ropes formed from water streams wrapped towards the fire demons.

Pa pa pa!

As the water rope went around their necks, one could hear the sounds of water sizzling. Wang Xian pulled the rope in an explosive move.

The heads of the fire demons were ripped apart instantly and flew towards Wang Xian.

"What?"

The other five were astonished to witness what had just happened.

The eyes of the girl in the middle flickered as she stared at Wang Xian in disbelief.

"He's so strong to kill those fire demons in a single strike!"

Bam! Bam! Bam!

Wang Xian cracked open the skulls of these fire demons casually. Soon, several fiery-red fire crystals fell into his hands.

[Fire crystal: Level 10]

Inborn-level material! I can use them to forge weapons or aid in cultivation.

Wang Xian squinted his eyes. Each fire crystal was the size of a fist and was emitting heat.

Sss!

The five of them looked at Wang Xian in shock and gasped.

"This is a fire crystal, the essence of the fire demon. It is also the core of the fire demon. Fire crystals possess spirituality and can turn into fire demons!"

Seeing Wang Xian observing the fire crystals, the young man explained this to Wang Xian while feeling complicated.

"Hmm! These are really useful!"

Wang Xian nodded his head and looked to the pool of lava below him.

"We did not expect your strength to be so strong. You probably could rank among the top Half-Step to Dan Realm experts. Now that the flaming wind has subsided, let's get over quickly," the young man took a deep breath and said.

"Wait for me at the opposite shore. I want to take a look under the pool of lava."

Wang Xian looked at the pool of lava and jumped into it directly.

"Brother, it's exceptionally dangerous in the pool of lava. Even an Inborn expert would suffer if he entered it..."

Bam!

Just before he could complete his words, Wang Xian was already completely submerged in the pool of lava. This infuriated the young man a little.

"He is really strong but... too reckless!"

The girl in the middle frowned as she looked at the spot where Wang Xian had dived into.

"His strength has completely exceeded our expectations. However, he likes to act tough and believes he is really strong. I wonder if it will turn out to be a good or bad thing to call him along!" the young man remarked as he stared bitterly at the pool of lava.

Haiz!

A sigh came from the girl.

Chapter 473: I'll Take Care of You All

"Bro, do you think he has reached Dan Realm based on the strength that he displayed just now?" asked the girl in the middle to the young man as she stared blankly at the lava pool.

"How could it be? Even though he can kill five powerful Fire Demons in a single strike, I still don't believe he possesses the strength of Dan Realm!"

The young man shook his head. "He must have some compelling treasure with him!"

"I guess so!"

The girl nodded slowly, and knit her eyebrows. She took an ice crystal from her pocket and placed it in her mouth.

"Another relapse?" The young man rushed to her side with concern.

"I'm fine!" The girl shook her head.

"Don't worry, sister. We'll find the Holy Water!" said the young man said with a firm tone.

As her eyelashes arched upward, the girl revealed a beautiful smile.

"Let's hope that the young man can come out soon!"

...

"Sure enough, it's the Fire God's Graveyard. There are so many treasures here."

Wang Xian entered the pool of lava and was elated by what he saw.

The lava pool was a few hundred meters deep with sticky magma all over. Even an Inborn Expert could get melted in the hot lava.

At this time, Wang Xian gave off a fiery glow, filling up his body with Inferno Dragon energy. Entering this place was no different from entering the ocean.

Fire Demons all were crouching at the bottom, with hundreds of them densely packed together.

They surrounded the central location with a huge lotus flower.

The lotus was two meters in size, giving off a fiery-red glow even amid fire-hot lava.

However, that lotus flower was different from Flaming Lotus. It had a huge stem. To be precise, it was a tree.

Wang Xian was thrilled as he dashed to the bottom of the lava.

Grooo!

The arrival of Wang Xian awakened all the Fire Demons around him. A few hundred dark Fire Demons' eyes were watching him.

"Since there are no Dan Realm Fire Demons, there's no need to fear." Wang Xian drew his lips and braved forward.

Grooo!

At that very moment, a few hundred of Fire Demons charged at him.

"Hmph, go to hell!"

Wang Xian snorted as he brought up both hands. The entire space at the bottom of the lava seemed to be plunged into silence.

"Exterminate!"

With a soft groan, hundreds of Fire Demons shattered, with the fire crystals on their foreheads flying towards him.

"Given my current strength, I'm just a level away from being God-like. Besides, my strength is close to becoming a deity after transforming into a Divine Dragon!"

Wang Xian arched his lips as he came to the gigantic Flaming Lotus.

Getting close to the lotus, Wang Xian noticed the heat given off was not that high.

[Fire God Lotus: Level 12]

"Hur? It's not a Flaming Lotus, it's a weapon!"

Wang Xian was taken aback upon seeing the gigantic Fire God Lotus.

The entire Fire God Lotus' stem was seven meters long while the flower had a size of two meters.

He touched it and realized that it was a metal lotus.

"It's a weapon, a Level 12 weapon!"

Wang Xian was a little shocked as he swung his arm and grabbed the Fire God Lotus.

Buzz!

Suddenly, a terrifying flame shrouded Wang Xian and the color of the flame switched from red to purple to black and eventually to a bloody red.

The bloody red flame turned into a lotus flower which lurched at him.

"What?"

Wang Xian had a slight change in his expression as dragon scales surfaced on his body, giving off an immense flame.

Roar!

Suddenly, furious roars came from the Fire God Lotus. Wang Xian had a slight change in his expression. It was a spirit, and a powerful one.

Om!

Wang Xian shook his arms, and they transformed into two-meter-long terrifying dragon claws while he raked them across the Fire God Lotus.

Buzz!

The Fire God Lotus jerked once before it was finally calmed down.

"Hur?"

Wang Xian stared at the Fire God Lotus while he swung his arm again. The Fire God Lotus gradually shrunk into a 1.6-meter size.

The fiery-red lotus flower was the size of a human head with twelve petals on it.

"This is? A staff?"

Wang Xian was shocked to see this as he sensed a surging and robust fire element coming from it.

There were many elemental Martial Artists in Euramerica also known as mages. These mages who specialized in remote attacks would have staffs as their weapons.

"A Level 12 staff surpasses any Inborn Spiritual Weapons!"

Wang Xian held the staff in his hand as he sensed the incredible power in it. His eyes glimmered with surprise.

With the Fire God Lotus staff in his hand, he felt cool!

Besides, the Fire God Lotus could alter its size, which was extremely amazing.

Wang Xian looked around and noticed the space under the layers of lava was much larger than that above.

"The space over here should be connected with the other routes!"

Wang Xian squinted his eyes slightly as he peered into the distance.

"Fire God Hephaestus specializes in making Fire Demons and refining equipment. Does that mean that a type of weapon is hidden under each of the nine routes? If that is the case, then..."

Wang Xian's eyes were fired up with passion. If there were nine Level 12 weapons, that would be insane.

Let's check it out!

With a thought, he looked to the left and swam out rapidly.

"Oh no, someone took the Fire God's staff!"

At this time, an old man with striking red hair had a huge change in his expression as he growled in another side hall.

"What? Lord Armins, did you say someone took the Fire God's staff? How is this possible?"

The people beside him were stunned as they exclaimed with disbelief.

"It's true. I left some fire to keep a tab, but little did I expect someone to take away the staff of Fire God."

That old man's face was somber.

"But the staff is spiritual. No one can take it if they are too weak. Could it be some other compelling experts from other sects who were here?" the group of experts from Fire God Denomination asked with gloomy faces.

"I'm not sure. Let's act fast. We need to pass through the side hall and get inside. Otherwise, it will be complicated!"

"On the other hand, send someone to investigate this. The Fire God's staff is mighty. If someone got it, we will be able to find out."

"I hope it's not anyone from the other Denominations!" the group from Fire God Denomination remarked with darkened expressions.

"Nope. There's nothing. It's just this weapon. What a disappointment!"

Wang Xian made one round without any discovery of other weapons under the lava pool. Feeling let down, he shook his head.

Then he jumped out of the lava.

Bam!

Wang Xian leaped out from the lava before the five people.

"Hur?"

As soon as they saw Wang Xian with a staff in his hand, they were astounded.

"You guys will lead the way. With me around, there's nothing to be afraid of!"
Wang Xian commented jokingly as he was in high spirits.

The five of them took a deep look at him and the staff before they nodded.

"Bro, it's better to be careful. This is Fire God Palace, the Graveyard of a God!"

The young man took a deep breath solemnly as he reminded Wang Xian again.

"No problem. Don't be such a chicken. I'll take care of you all!"

Wang Xian grinned at them.

Chapter 474: Treasure! Treasure!

When the five of them heard Wang Xian, they almost choked.

However, they didn't say a thing. This water attribute martial artist that they had found at the last minute was surprisingly much stronger than they had expected.

"You got the staff from below the pool of lava?" the girl in the middle blinked her eyes and asked.

"Yeah! Just a small staff!"

Wang Xian smiled and turned it in his hands. The staff looked extremely exquisite and the fiery-red lotus on it was as vivid as it could be.

It was entirely red and one could tell that it's extraordinary with a single look.

"Let's go!" Wang Xian said to the group.

Hmm.

The group nodded their heads and followed.

"There are three paths right ahead of us. Two of them won't lead to the side hall. Instead, you will find the demon rearing caves at the end of the path. There are over a thousand fire demons there and death is almost certain if one carelessly enters it!" As they walked ahead, a three-forked road appeared before them. The young man explained this to Wang Xian.

"Fire God Hephaestus had a weird behavior. Based on records, he rarely interacted with people. Instead, he lived with the fire demons. The entire Fire God Palace is filled with fire demons. As long as we follow this path, we will be able to reach the side hall. There are two Dan Realm level fire demons guarding the place. However, we will also likely encounter several dozens of fire demons on the way. We have to kill these fire demons first."

Perhaps he had noticed that Wang Xian was much stronger than them. Therefore, the young man was explaining it in detail to Wang Xian.

"Two Dan Realm level fire demons? With the strength of your group, I don't think you guys would make it in!"

Wang Xian took a glance at the five of them and raised an eyebrow.

"We have two plans that are worth a try. However, the outcome isn't certain!" The young man hesitated for a moment and chose not to hide any further.

"What plans do you guys have?" asked Wang Xian curiously.

"First, we can lead the fire demons away so my sister can get in. Second..."

"The second plan is to use my blood!"

While the young man was explaining, the girl in the middle interrupted.

Huh?

Wang Xian looked at the girl in shock.

"I have the fire seed from the Fire God in me. Therefore, if we can use our blood, Dan Realm fire demons which are smarter might be able to sense it!" the girl said to Wang Xian.

"Fire seed from the Fire God?" Wang Xian was taken aback and showed a shocked expression.

The so-called fire seed could also be interpreted as a bloodline. In other words, she was a descendant of a fire god.

However, a fire seed was also entirely different from a bloodline. Fire seeds were implanted by experts to ensure that their descendants could become powerful fire attribute cultivators.

The seed could trigger the cultivation talents of their descendants.

The fire seed of the Fire God was also the powerful affinity to fire.

"This doesn't make sense! You are a water attribute cultivator!" Wang Xian stared at the girl and frowned slightly.

"This is because I'm also the descendant of a water god. I've triggered the fire seed and water seed in me at the same time!" the girl explained plainly and a flash of helplessness ran through her eyes.

"This... Incredible!"

Wang Xian was a little speechless. The descendant of a Fire God and Water God!

Although this didn't mean that she was born after a Water God mated with a Fire God, it was still within the last five generations.

In other words, the ancestors of the girl had a Fire God and a Water God within the last five generations.

It wasn't certain that a fire seed or a water seed could be triggered. This depended on talents, body constitution and luck.

Moreover, they would disappear within five generations.

This girl has triggered the fire seed and the water seed subsequently. That's extremely rare but water and fire can't coexist!

"A Water God should be able to erase the fire seed in you?" Wang Xian looked at the girl.

"Among our past ancestors, there was only a single Water God and she passed away!" the young man said with a heavy expression.

"Based on what you guys have said, if there are Dan Realm fire demons in the side hall, there should also be stronger fire demons in the main hall. After you guys get in, what are you guys going to do?" Wang Xian raised an eyebrow and asked inquisitively.

"The stronger the Fire Demon, the more intelligent it is. If the main hall really has a powerful fire demon, it must have lived with the Fire God for a long time. My sister has the fire seed from the fire demon. I believe the Fire Demon won't harm us. We are looking for the Holy Water that was stolen away by the Fire God. The Holy Water can cleanse away the fire seed in my sister's body!" the young man said with a heavy expression.

Hmm!

Wang Xian nodded his head. Since the Fire Demon was the slave of the Fire God, it would definitely not harm the descendant of the Fire God. It would be especially so for a descendant that had triggered the fire seed.

"Now it makes sense why you guys dare to come in with your strength. Let's go," Wang Xian said to the group and walked ahead.

Within the Fire God Palace, the closer one was to the center location, the hotter the flames would be. Even the surrounding rocks were red.

Although the five of them had reached the Inborn Realm, they still had to resist the heat with all their strength.

"There are so many fire demons along the way!" the young man commented solemnly after seeing what was ahead of him.

"Just follow behind me!" Wang Xian chuckled nonchalantly as he walked ahead with the Fire God Lotus. Ahead of him, several dozen Fire Demons stood in the center.

Above them, lava was dripping off the wall as a result of the heat.

Grrrr, grrr!

When the fire demons noticed Wang Xian and the group, they stared at them with their deep and black eyes. At the same time, they charged towards them and attacked.

Wang Xian waved the Fire God Lotus and several lotus flowers flew ahead. When they contacted the head of the fire demons, their heads were blown away.

"Those must be the effects of the staff. That must at least be a weapon that is above the Inborn Spiritual level!"

The group of five was shocked when they saw how powerful it was.

The girl with a veil looked fervently at the staff in Wang Xian's hand.

Along the way, all the fire demons were easily killed. Soon, a huge palace appeared before him.

The palace was approximately fifteen meters tall. As compared to the Dragon Palace, the architecture seemed a little rough.

However, it was no less majestic than the most spectacular Treasure Hall.

From time to time, lava would drip from the ceiling, making it look exceptionally breath-taking!

Far away, they could see two five-meter fire demons resting at the center of the side hall.

Around them, there were over a hundred Inborn-level fire demons. At one end of the side hall, there were various fiery-red boxes.

Several weapons were placed casually around and each of these weapons gave off a strong vibe.

On the walls of the palace, a Spiritual Flame Ball the size of a human head was embedded.

Sss. There are so many treasures around. That Spiritual Flame Ball is at least Level 11. As for those weapons that are casually placed, they are all Inborn Spiritual Weapons. How crazy is this!

Wang Xian's eyes beamed with excitement.

If Inborn Spiritual Weapons were casually placed around and a Level 11 Spiritual Flame Ball was embedded into the wall, those treasures in the box would be even more precious!

This was just one of the nine side halls. There was still the main hall. What kind of treasures would there be in the main hall?

Wang Xian was exhilarated. This was indeed the Fire God's Graveyard that had attracted lots of elite forces in Asia. The treasures of this place were insane!

"Those two Fire Demons are unbelievably strong. A Dan Realm expert from our family was easily killed by them!"

"After that incident, our family also gave up on the treasures of the Fire God. We are only left with the two plans!"

As the young man looked at the two fire demons, fear gleamed in his eyes as he took a deep breath.

Chapter 475: Unexpected Battle

"Two Dan Realm Fire Demons!"

Wang Xian curled his lips slightly as he swept his gaze across all the treasures in the hall.

"Let's enter!" said Wang Xian straightaway.

"We have a defensive weapon that can temporarily resist the Fire Demons. As long as we stall them for a while, my sister and I can go inside. With some luck, we could..."

"Let me test the strength of those Fire Demons!"

Before the young man could finish his words, Wang Xian leaped into the hall.

The five of them were appalled as they quickly shouted, "Bro, the Fire Demons are extremely strong. They'll start to attack you frantically once you enter the side hall. Don't be rash!"

"All of you stay outside!"

Without turning his head, he replied in a soft voice.

He was not being impulsive, but rather, he had no fear of those Fire Demons given his current strength.

Roar!

When Wang Xian stepped into the side hall, all the Fire Demons let out a roar. The two enormous Fire Demons which were lying in the center slowly got up.

A horrifying heatwave rushed at him as the air turned red instantly.

The entire space was covered in redness while some vague figures could be seen from the outside.

"Oh no, there's no chance for him to survive even if he's a Dan Realm Expert when he charged in recklessly!"

The young man had a dreadful look when he saw Wang Xian charge inside.

The girl in the center sighed without many choices. "Let's wait over here!"

"Exterminate!"

Wang Xian scanned all the Fire Demons as soon as he entered the side hall. The Fire God Lotus was shaking in his hand, exuding blazing fiery-red lava.

The lava condensed into a lotus shape that lurched at its surroundings.

Beautiful yet, explosive.

Boom boom!

In a second, a violent explosion took place in the side hall. The flame enveloped the entire area.

Roar!

Roar!

"Hur?"

Suddenly, two enormous figures pounced onto Wang Xian. He raised his eyebrows and hurled the Fire God Lotus in his hand at them.

A tongue of flames darted at the two Dan Realm Fire Demons.

Growl!

The two Fire Demons opened their mouths at the flame and swallowed it down into their stomachs.

Wang Xian had a slight change in his expression as he slammed the Fire God Lotus at their heads.

Boom!

All of a sudden, two gigantic fiery-red hammers emerged from the two Fire Demons' hands. They wielded the five-meter hammers at Wang Xian.

Wang Xian swung his hand as the radiance of the Fire God Lotus glowed to its maximum. A vast Flaming Lotus appeared in front of him to receive the blow from those gigantic fiery-red hammers.

"Earth-raging Flaming Lotus!"

A hoarse and violent voice cut the air abruptly while the ground under Wang Xian cracked all of a sudden. Numerous huge Flaming Lotuses that were condensed from huge flames struck at him.

Wang Xian was appalled. With a switch in his momentum, thick and heavy soil emerged. "Suppressing Earth!"

Immense Earth Dragon Energy brought peace back to the earth again as an Earth Shield blocked the attack of the Flaming Lotus.

"Flaming Sledge Hammer!"

Another bellow was heard. Wang Xian craned his neck upward and saw two mega Flaming Sledge Hammers coming down on him.

"Earth Shield!"

He raised his arm. With a quaking of the earth, bouts of soil surrounded him as the immense Earth Dragon Energy filled the air within a five-meter range around Wang Xian.

Boom!

Booming sound was heard, and the Earth Shield before Wang Xian began to crack.

"Damm, are these the Dan Realm Fire Demons?"

Wang Xian was aghast as he held the Fire God Lotus and staggered back. With a stern-looking face, he stared at the two Fire Demons.

The two Fire Demons glared at Wang Xian with pitch-black pupils and flames exploding from their sockets.

"Earth-raging Flaming Lotus and Flaming Sledge Hammers, all these are battle techniques!"

Wang Xian's expression sank with a mixed look.

Given his current Level 8 strength of a Divine Dragon, the maximum level that he could take down was Level 12 in his human form and Level 13 in dragon form.

However, it was only pertaining to ordinary realms.

If he encountered equivalent-level existences that shared similar prestige bloodlines as him, it would be good enough to defeat them, let alone beating the higher-level ones.

Just like when he met Phoenix, Level 8 was the maximum that he could go against.

Besides, with the stronger opponents he encountered, the levels he could take down would drop.

The Fire Demons were this case as their combat power was far beyond his expectation. Two Dan Realm Fire Demons were actually on par with him.

That was to say, he could only take down maximum Level 11 when confronting Fire Demons.

In the face of Fire Demons, he was only able to take three levels higher than him, instead of the four when in human form.

If there were more formidable Fire Demons in the side hall, does that mean that I can't defeat them even when I transform into a Divine Dragon?

"Battle techniques, battle techniques!" Wang Xian murmured to himself. The Divine Dragons had no battle techniques. In fact, they did not require one as a Divine Dragon was born to have First Divine Dragon Transformation.

As mighty as they were, all they needed was to practice Nine Divine Dragon Transformations, and naturally, they would reach the pinnacle of their race.

The time used to practice battle techniques was better used in enhancing cultivation.

However, some other creatures might be different as they had limited potential. Hence, they could only enhance their strength through various methods, including battle techniques.

With powerful battle techniques, they could gain freaky Superpowers.

"Powerful human relies on weapons to slay a dragon. If I have compelling battle techniques, I could easily exterminate these Fire Demons."

Wang Xian squinted his eyes slightly as he swung his arm, tossing the Fire God Lotus aside.

"Even though I do not have battle techniques, I'm a Divine Dragon!"

Wang Xian's physique had a rapid change.

An eight-meter-long Divine Dragon emerged as he suspended himself in the air, exuding a daunting vibe slowly.

Roar!

With a dragon bellow, the whole side hall quaked violently. Wang Xian slowly swung his tail left and right.

Invincible aura loomed over the Fire Demons.

Growl!

As soon as the two Fire Demons felt the terrifying aura, they trembled and let out soft roars.

"Go to hell!"

Wang Xian made a swift move and appeared on top of the Fire Demons' heads instantly.

Growl!

The two Fire Demons raised their enormous Flaming Sledge Hammers and struck him with terror.

Boom!

Wang Xian stretched out his dragon claws and raked at the hammers.

Ka Ka Ka!

The compelling force swept the hammers aside as the dragon claws continued their downward ripping motion.

As soon as the heads of the Fire Demons were torn apart under the mighty force of the dragon claws, two fist-sized fire crystals appeared before Wang Xian's eyes.

He revealed a smile and restored himself to his human form, grabbing the two fire crystals with his hand.

After turning into a Divine Dragon, killing the two Fire Demons was a breeze.

With a thought, he put on the pastel-blue uniform again. As Wang Xian surveyed his surroundings, he could not hide the thrill on the face.

Treasures, so many treasures!

He finally struck a fortune this time!

With an arm swing, he put the Spiritual Flame Ball on the wall.

[Lava Ball: Level 11]

"This Lava Ball is similar to the Spiritual Flame Balls, which I got previously."

Wang Xian opened his mouth and brought out a Dragon Ball from it. The Dragon Ball immediately engulfed the Lava Ball.

He looked around and chuckled.

Chapter 476: Water And Fire Couldn't Coexist

"There are twenty Inborn Spiritual Weapons! It's no surprise that he's a Fire God known for his blacksmith skills."

"This box is full of Inborn-level metal! There's over a hundred catties of metal!"

"These are... Level 11 weapons! A bow isn't bad either!"

"Eh! This is a bloodline! The bloodline of the Blazing Flame Bird! Some cultivators in Europe can devour bloodline and this would greatly enhance his fire attribute energy."

"This is... Fire Spiritual Liquid! It's greatly beneficial for fire attribute cultivators!"

In the side hall, Wang Xian was searching through the treasures enthusiastically.

Inborn Spiritual Weapons were the most common objects here. As for weapons which were a grade higher, unique bloodline or spiritual objects, every single item would be a treasure which many would fight and compete for.

...

"Why aren't there any sounds now?"

At this very moment, the group of five was looking into the side hall curiously from the outside.

A while ago, those terrifying roars and auras had completely petrified them.

However, those sounds were gone after just a few minutes.

This made them extremely bitter.

"He might be dead...", the young man commented helplessly.

The girl in the middle also shook her head bitterly and said, "The fire demons in there are too strong. There's no way an ordinary Dan Realm expert could stand up against them. In fact, the fire demons are so strong that even four or five Dan Realm experts might not be able to do anything about them!"

"However, we weren't placing all our hopes on him when we first decided to come. Let's use our plan," the young man said with a heavy expression.

"Brother, I guess we should... We should..." The girl was hesitant.

"Prince, take a look... Take a look..."

Suddenly, the other young man standing by the side exclaimed loudly as he pointed to the side hall.

Huh?

The others were taken aback and turned over. At this moment, the raging flames that had dyed the atmosphere red were gradually dissipating.

Once again, peace returned to the side hall.

In the peaceful hall, all of them could see a figure. That figure was none other than Wang Xian who was still busy looking through the treasures.

The group of young men and that girl looked at that figure in shock and surprise.

"How can this be possible... Those are fire demons that instantly killed the Dan Realm experts in our clan. He... He..."

When the young man saw the two gigantic corpses, his body was shivering.

"He managed to kill them! This... His strength..."

That girl exchanged glances with the young man and said, "How can he be so powerful when he's so young?"

The five of them hesitated for a moment before entering the side hall.

At this point, the side hall was in wretched shape. In the center, there was a huge pothole.

Around them, there were countless potholes that had been smashed by the Flaming Sledge Hammer.

Wang Xian lifted his head, took a glance at them and nodded his head with a smile.

"This.."

The group of five stared at Wang Xian blankly. The young man looked around and his attention eventually fell on a location to his left.

At that place, there was an incomparably huge metal door. The door was over a dozen meters tall and seven to eight meters in width.

"That must be the entrance to the main hall!" the young man whispered. He walked to Wang Xian and lowered his head respectfully. "Senior, we were blind to have misjudged your strength!"

Wang Xian chuckled nonchalantly. He looked to them before turning his head to the entrance of the main hall.

"You guy would like to go in there?"

"We have to. Senior, please help us. If we can really get in there successfully, all we want would be the Holy Water and the Holy Water Scripture. As for the rest, those things are all for your keeping!" the young man said in a solemn tone.

"Oh?"

Wang Xian was slightly surprised by his promise. He had not expected the two fire demons to be so strong. If there was a stronger existence in the main hall, he might not be able to deal with it.

"If there are stronger fire demons in there, all we can do is to retreat immediately!" Wang Xian hesitated for a moment before answering.

"If our plans do not work out, we could only retreat," the young man said with a heavy expression.

"I would like to go take a look at the main hall of the god!"

Wang Xian's lips curved into a smile as he turned his gaze towards the entrance of the main hall. "It's better if the four of you just stay behind. You can follow me in!" Wang Xian said to the girl.

"This.."

The young man was stunned and appeared hesitant.

"Alright!" The girl nodded her head and continued, "Brother, it's alright. I can just go over with this senior."

Hmm!

The young man nodded his head and gripped the girl's arm more tightly.

"Let go take a look!"

Wang Xian walked towards the main door leading to the main hall together with the girl.

At the entrance, Wang Xian realized that this was an incomparably huge metal door. He took a deep breath and placed both of his hands on it.

The eyes of the girl were flickering as she stared into it agitatedly. She felt a little relieved.

Ka ka ka!

The large metal door was opened gradually and an incomparably huge hall appeared before them.

At the center of the hall, a ball of flames was still raging.

At the very front, there was a golden throne and a burning branch on it.

"Who's the one disturbing the slumber of my master?"

A low growl immediately attracted Wang Xian and the girl's attention.

Wang Xian and the girl immediately looked over and saw a ten-meter-tall figure getting up gradually.

Around him, there was a spiritual cabinet that was approximately three meters long and glowing faintly.

A ten-meter fire demon!

Wang Xian instantly turned solemn. This fire demon was completely different from those he met previously. There weren't any raging flames on him.

Instead, he wore red fire armor and appeared more like a terrifying giant.

He held a Flaming Sledge Hammer in each hand and had countless fire crystals embedded in his body.

His aura was totally well-kept and one couldn't sense how terrifying he really was.

The fire demon looked at Wang Xian and the girl and eventually stopped on the girl. His eyes flickered and a tinge of hesitation flashed in his eyes.

"I'm..." the girl mustered all her courage and attempted to say something.

"Annoying water energy. Don't taint the divine hall of my master!"

Before the girl could complete her words, the fire demon had picked up the water energy in them. A ray of light shot towards them immediately.

Huh?

Wang Xian was shocked. He waved his hand instantly and a thick water shield appeared before him.

Bam! Bam!

"This is bad!"

The ray of light penetrated the water shield instantly. Wang Xian was caught by surprise and could only retreat with the girl in his arms.

However, a ray of light shot into his body directly.

Wang Xian was shocked. He adjusted his constitution and the fire dragon energy in him instantly erased the ray of light.

What the hell is that attack? How did it penetrate the water shield!

The ray of light wasn't a scorching hot flame and disappeared in the blink of an eye into one's body with a stream of warmth.

Wang Xian was able to erase it only by changing the attributes of his body.

Argh!

However, the girl in his embrace screamed out in pain at this moment.

Wang Xian could feel the chill and heat swapping rapidly in her body.

"Shit! The fire seed that was being suppressed is triggered! Fire and water can't coexist!"

Chapter 477: Legacy of Fire God

Boom!

Wang Xian swung his arm and shut the heavy door of the main hall tight.

Within the main hall, the Fire Demon stared at them with a pair of cold eyes.

Argh!

Once the door of the main hall was closed, a suppressing agonizing groan burst out from his arms.

"Sister!"

The young man was flustered as he ran to Wang Xian upon hearing the devastating cry in the side hall. Worriedly, he looked at the girl.

"Ice crystal, hurry, take the ice crystal!"

The young man hurriedly took out blocks of transparent ice that were giving off energy from the girl's pocket and inserted them in between the brows of the girl.

As soon as the ice crystals touched her glabella, they turned into crystal-clear water drops.

Argh!

However, steam was coming out, and the droplets were seething at the boiling temperature.

"What's going on? How did this happen?"

The young man was appalled, with a film of cold sweat breaking out on his forehead as he repeated himself.

"The suppressed fire seed has been activated. Water and fire can't coexist!"

Wang Xian looked at the girl and knit his eyebrow slightly. He placed his palm on her body, sensing the energy flowing through it.

On her left, it felt like water, while the right side of her body felt like fire.

The water and fire were not ordinary.

What made it worse was that the fire and water were not external factors, but they had already integrated with the body as one.

That was the most horrible situation.

Just like Xiao Yu and Elder Fang previously when the black venom had merged together as one.

"What? Activated? No, no. How did this happen?"

Apparently, the young man knew the consequence of activating the fire seed. Terror crawled onto his face as he shook his head in disbelief.

"Brother, I can't... I can't take it anymore!"

The girl suddenly opened her eyes, filled with despair.

She reached out her hand to grab the young man by his arm while shaking her head.

Just then, her body began to switch between water and fire.

As the fire and water alternated, the difference was huge.

"Why did this happen? We shouldn't have come here. How could this happen?"

The young man revealed an indignant look while his body trembled out of guilt.

Upon seeing the girl's condition, Wang Xian frowned and laid her slowly on the floor.

With his hands on the sides of her body, he instilled the Water Dragon Energy and Inferno Dragon Energy into her body.

The messy water and fire energies were repelling each other without any order, resulting in her inner body being shattered by this energy.

Om!

"Don't resist and try accepting my energy that is entering your body!" said Wang Xian to the girl when he sensed the fire and water energy in her body.

"Hur?"

The young man was stunned as he fixed his eyes on Wang Xian.

The girl was perspiring profusely as she looked at Wang Xian. Sensing the immense energy in her body, she relaxed immediately.

The Water Dragon Energy and Inferno Dragon Energy took over the messy energies in her body while Wang Xian tried to calm them down.

"Her water-attributed and fire-attributed energies are not strong, but it cannot be eradicated!"

Wang Xian raised his eyebrows. As fire seed had originated from the bloodline, he was unable to resolve it, given his current strength.

Not until his strength surpassed the Fire God and Water God.

"Hur?"

Sensing the recovery of energies in her body, the girl stared blankly at Wang Xian with twinkling eyes.

She parted her lips slightly. "Did you just calm the energies in my body?"

"I can only calm them down, but I can't remove them." Wang Xian looked at the girl. "Unless both of my hands are kept by your side. Otherwise, the water and fire seed will wreak havoc again. Just now, that Fire Demon launched an attack, targeting something in your body. It's a bit queer!"

Recalling the previous assault of that Fire Demon, Wang Xian was surprised by that domineering attacking means which he needed to beware.

Upon hearing his words, that girl was stunned and felt the touch of the big hands on her body.

One was scorching hot while the other one was extremely cooling.

The pair of hands were placed on her abdomen area, which caused her expression to change immediately. A flush of redness slowly crawled onto her face and neck.

"This... Senior, can you really calm the energies in my sister's body?"

The young man stared at Wang Xian fervently.

Wang Xian did not answer him as he looked at the girl and knit his brows slightly.

That Fire Demon gazed at that girl for a moment. But he spat out the word 'taint' after sensing the water energy inside her. Did he sense her bloodline or not?

Wang Xian pondered with hesitation.

"Let's go in and give it a try again!" said Wang Xian to the girl on the floor after some consideration.

"Hur?"

For a moment, the girl froze with a pondering look in her eyes.

She gazed at Wang Xian before she nodded slowly. "I sensed the Fire Demon's attention on me just now. It must have been my water attribution that caused him to attack me!"

"I guessed so too. Given your fire seed and your Fire God bloodline, the Fire Demon should not be attacking you," Wang Xian said with affirmation.

A servant for the Fire God should not be killing his offspring. This was for sure.

"But... the water energy inside me!"

"Leave it to me!"

Wang Xian laughed and carried the girl up.

The girl was wearing thick, silicon-material clothes. He could not feel or tell her figure when he picked her up.

Half of her face was hidden behind the blue veil, concealing her appearance.

"Mm!"

The girl let out a soft moan with a face flushed with redness!

"Let's go!"

Without any further comments, Wang Xian walked towards the door of the main hall.

A bout of flames rose from his body, wrapping the two of them together.

"Fire attribution. This..."

The four young men were shocked when they witnessed the flame rising out from Wang Xian's body.

Rumble!

Once again, Wang Xian pushed open the door of the main hall.

"Damm you, insignificant thing. Don't interrupt my master's sleep!"

As soon as the door was opened, a fireball that contained immense daunting energy was hurled at them.

With a change in Wang Xian's expression, a fire shield emerged in front of him.

"I am the offspring of the Fire God. I have the fire seed of the Fire God inside me!" said the girl hurriedly as she hid her face in the chest of Wang Xian when she saw the fireball darting towards her.

"Sir Fire Demon, she is the descendant of the Fire God!"

Wang Xian spoke immediately.

"She has an irking aura with her!" the Fire Demon bellowed.

"I am... I am indeed a descendant of the Fire God!"

The girl turned to the Fire Demon and stretched out her fair arm and shot a drop of blood at the Fire Demon.

The massive Fire Demon stared at the blood droplet that was flying toward him. He sensed a familiar vibe and twitched his entire large face.

"You're really the descendant of my master. Your fire seed has been activated. My master once said that his descendants would obtain his legacy only after the fire seed has been triggered. Otherwise, anyone who comes in here shall die!"

As he stared at the girl, fiery-red radiance was glowing within the pitch-black eyes of Fire Demon.

"Please accept the legacy, descendant of my master!"

The Fire Demon slightly bowed down as he spoke to the girl.

Chapter 478: The Wrath Of The Water God

"Legacy...!"

The girl was stunned and looked in shock at the fire demon with her bright eyes.

After which, she turned to Wang Xian and was clearly looking lost.

"The legacy of the Fire God could help erase the water seed in your body. This is a great opportunity for you!"

Even Wang Xian was shocked. Looking at the girl, he explained it to her.

The legacy of the Fire God was undoubtedly the greatest chance encounter you could get in this world.

However, the requirements for this type of chance encounter were extremely stringent.

Based on what the Fire God had mentioned, there were two requirements for one to inherit the legacy of the Fire God. One of them was to be a descendant of the Fire God while the other would be to trigger one's fire seed.

If one was lacking in either of the two, he would have no chance at all.

And there were very few people who could fulfil both conditions.

Wang Xian carried the girl and approached where the fire demon was. His eyes were fixed on the three-meter spiritual cabinet.

The entire spiritual cabinet was fiery red and was made of fire crystals and metal.

The spiritual cabinet wasn't a spiritual object and had no abilities. However, it was made specifically with Inborn level materials.

Beside the spiritual cabinet, there was a set of old lighting equipment that was still burning.

The fire demon stared at them.

Perhaps it was because he had not interacted with other humans previously. Although the fire demon had gained sentience, his intelligence wasn't high.

He was just like a robot. However, he had a learning capability that robots didn't have.

"That's the Holy Water!"

When the girl saw the other side of the spiritual cabinet, she was shocked to find a silverish-white porcelain vial.

On the silverish-white porcelain vial, there was an extract engraving.

Wang Xian looked at it and was shocked.

[Holy Water Vial: Level 12]

A Level 12 Holy Water Vial!

Wang Xian's eyes beamed with fervor. However, he didn't move. When the girl inherited the Fire God's legacy, most of the treasures would be his.

The edge of Wang Xian's lips curved slightly as he looked at the spiritual cabinet.

Rumble!

The Fire Demon knelt on the floor and pushed the spiritual cabinet aside.

An old man lay in it. The old man looked like a foreigner and wore fiery-red armor. In his hands, there were objects that resembled the hexa-star.

From the appearance, there was almost no difference. The only difference might just be that this hexa-star was fiery red in color.

Together with the hexa-star was a red book kept inside a box.

Fire God's Secret Book!

Wang Xian lowered the girl gradually. Placing his arm on her back, he suppressed the water seed within her.

The girl looked at the Fire God in the spiritual cabinet with mixed feelings.

He was her ancestor. However, this ancestor of hers was a blight in the history of her family race.

The truth was he had humiliated a girl from their family.

This... was also the reason why she had the Fire God's fire seed.

When facing the deceased Fire God, the girl felt exceptionally conflicted.

The fire demon knew nothing about manners. Standing by the side, he said, "The Blazing Stars are objects required for inheriting the legacy. Hold them in your hands, trigger the fire seeds and you can naturally obtain the legacy!"

Mm! The girl nodded her head as she stretched her hands towards the Blazing Stars.

Bzz bzz!

A Blazing Star seemed to have picked up her presence. It shook briefly and flew towards her directly.

Ka ka!

The Blazing Star landed on the chest of the girl. Instantly, all the clothes on her were set ablaze.

Wang Xian frowned slightly. Her clothes were made of water attribute defensive materials. Water and fire would repel each other.

Huh? She has quite a figure. Sss. A goddess!

Wang Xian was dumbfounded. Perhaps it was because she had inherited the bloodline of the Fire God or perhaps she was just a typical foreign goddess. She was really tall, almost as tall as Wang Xian.

As her hair was tied up, it had covered her body and she even wore a veil, so Wang Xian had not expected her to be so beautiful.

Based on a discussion he had with Wang Dahai in school, she was a "da yang ma." Moreover, she was an extremely beautiful goddess. [\[1\]](#)

"You... Don't look at me!"

When the girl felt the fervent gaze of Wang Xian, her weak voice resounded. Her voice wasn't compatible with her figure at all.

Wang Xian rubbed his nose and turned around awkwardly.

Rumble!

Suddenly, the entire Fire God's Graveyard shook. Streams of fiery-red energy swarmed in from nine directions and gathered at the ceiling of the main hall.

Wang Xian lifted his head and saw a huge Spiritual Flame Ball above him.

"Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball! It's at least Level 12!"

Wang Xian was shaken.

Rumble!

At this moment, a loud boom reverberated as though a volcano had erupted.

Boom!

Suddenly, the doors of the other eight side halls were smashed open and thick lava flowed in.

The lava harbored immense energy and flowed towards the ceiling of the main hall.

The lava gathered in the Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball. Following which, a refreshing heat wave shot towards the corpse of the Fire God in the spiritual cabinet. After which, they were transferred into the body of the girl through the Blazing Stars.

This...? What a smart Fire God to come up with this method to pass down his legacy! How unexpected!

When Wang Xian witnessed what happened. He was stunned.

Legacy wasn't as simple as it may sound. If he had simply relied on the Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball to cleanse the body of the girl, there would be a limit. Just like how he had once cleansed Xiao Ran's body and wasn't able to greatly increase his strength. However, if it was done through the Blazing Stars, there would be a medium.

The effects of the medium would be similar to how they had used the aqua stars previously.

"It's no surprise he is a Fire God. His great wisdom isn't what a typical genius could match!"

Boundless and incomparably immense fire energy.

The entire hall was burning.

Rumble!

Outside the graveyard, sounds of explosions reverberated constantly.

The entire island was shaking.

"What happened? What is going on?"

"Why does it feel that the entire island is sinking? What the hell just happened?"

"The door to the main hall is open. What's the situation? Could it be that someone has obtained the treasure of the Fire God or someone has entered the main hall?"

On various footpaths and side halls, the people from the eight denominations and the rest who had entered the Fire God's Graveyard suddenly felt the entire Fire Spirit Island shaking violently. All of them were shocked and alarmed.

They stared solemnly but fervently at the large door leading to the main hall.

"The volcano of the Fire Spirit Island has gone extinct! It has gone extinct!"

"Something grave must have happened. Something grave must have happened in it!"

Those who had been paying attention to the Fire God's Graveyard were astonished.

As they looked in the direction of the Fire Spirit Island, their expressions were changing rapidly.

Within the main hall, dense fire energy swarmed into the body of the girl while the Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball cleansed her body.

Wang Xian avoided looking as he observed the surroundings and eventually focused on the middle of the throne.

The fire demon was right there and thus Wang Xian didn't dare to act rashly. The strength of this fire demon was probably a lot stronger than him.

It was especially so after Wang Xian saw the armor and weapon the fire demon was using. Clearly, those were forged specially for him by the Fire God and would definitely be immensely powerful.

As the clear flames flowed into the girl, her great figure was glowing in a faint red light.

Currently, she was just like a goddess of legends.

Huh? It should be ending soon.

After approximately half an hour, Wang Xian sensed the disappearance of the energy from the surroundings. He immediately looked to the ceiling.

Even the Body Refining Spiritual Flame Ball is turning into energy!

Wang Xian was taken aback. Although this amount of immense energy couldn't make her into a Fire God, reaching the Budding Realm should be easy. As for whether she can reach the level of an immortal, it will still be dependent on her talents, hard work and luck.

Grrrr, grrr!

Ling ling.

At this moment, a roar suddenly reverberated throughout the main hall.

The roar originated from the body of the girl. It belonged to the water and was just like the sounds of a tsunami.

As for that buzzing noise, it came from the Holy Water Vial.

Wang Xian turned his head over immediately and was astonished to see the stopper of the Holy Water Vial being removed by itself.

The vial of Holy Water rinsed the body of the girl.

Water and fire can't coexist!

This was the wrath of the water god.

Endnote:

[1] Chinese lingo. Loosely translated as a tall foreign lady who rides. Back

Chapter 479: All Of These Are Mine?

(1)

Wang Xian was not sure how strong the God was.

But his Inborn Spiritual Weapons already possessed spirits in them.

The spirituality was interlinked, which made sets of Spiritual Weapons possible.

Just as the water seed was about to be extinguished, it made the final struggle.
The struggle drew the spirituality from the Holy Water Vial.

Both of them belonged to the Water God. With similar spirituality, the Holy Water Vial reacted to the Holy Water by instinct.

When Wang Xian spun around, the bouts of Holy Water had already entered the girl's body.

The Holy Water that entered her body was an azure blue color.

This was not like adding oil to the fuel, but rather, the water and fire were completely unmatched.

Argh!

The girl let out a devastating scream when the Holy Water entered her body.

The water seed awakened and began to combat the fire seed again.

The difference from just now was that both fire seed and water seed seemed to possess some spirituality as they began to occupy the body.

For a moment, her body turned red, exuding a burning glow. Subsequently, she turned blue again.

"Oh gosh, this girl is quite miserable!"

Wang Xian had a slight change in expression as though he could feel two energies exploding at any time in the body.

Once they exploded, the girl would, no doubt, be reduced to ashes.

In the past, she had endured the torture of the fire seed and water seed. Now, she had finally obtained the legacy of the Fire God. Such an excellent opportunity, but no one expected this.

One can imagine how domineering the strength of the Holy Water was, since it was contained in a Level 12 Spiritual Weapon.

That was the reason, too, that the water seed was revived, spurring another conflict between water and fire.

The Fire Demon was standing at the side, looking at the girl blankly.

As a combat Fire Demon, he did not know what was going on and did not understand what changes she was undergoing.

The Fire Demon could only stare at her with doubts.

Wang Xian made a swift move and came to the girl. He placed his palms on her body.

One of his arms was red while the other one was blue. He placed both arms on the back of that girl.

"Such tenderness!"

"Hur? She's alternating between hot and cold!"

"Sss, fu*k!"

"It's the Grade 2 of Fire and Ice!"

Wang Xian had a dramatic mix of expressions.

While he had turned into a Divine Dragon during the fight just now, his clothes were turned to ashes.

Subsequently, he had been using his energy to wrap himself just like if had his clothes on. Essentially, he was naked.

Now, this girl was undressed too.

This was secondary. He would not lose control given his character.

However, the girl was experiencing a Grade 2 of Fire and Ice, alternating between hot and cold!

This was not any ordinary fire and ice. It was the hotness and coldness coming from her body.

As a result, it was Wang Xian's natural reaction to get hardened in between his legs as a form of respect.

With both his palms at the back of the girl, it was not hard to imagine when a part of him became hard.

"Mmm-hmm?"

Apparently, the girl sensed something odd from behind her, but the burning heat and the coolness distracted her from her thoughts.

"Damm, the energy in her body is beyond my control!"

Wang Xian took a deep breath as the look on his face changed slightly after sensing the energy in the girl's body.

After receiving the legacy of the Fire God, the energy that was cleansed by the Holy Water was no longer weak like before. It was not something he could easily control anymore.

"Gone, this girl is finished. What a waste!"

Wang Xian felt the massive energy in her and sighed.

At this time, the girl collapsed and fell on Wang Xian.

She leaned on Wang Xian, just like someone without a spine.

Wang Xian slightly frowned and held her with two arms and one leg while he continued to think of solutions.

"What should I do? It'd be a pity if she died just like that. Besides, if she explodes in this place, the entire Fire God's Graveyard will be ruined. There go my treasures too!"

Wang Xian continued to look around his surroundings to see if there were any other spiritual items around.

The Fire Demon beside him was useless, as he could only watch blankly, wondering what was happening.

"Legacy, a medium, Hexa-star!"

An idea suddenly struck Wang Xian when he spotted the fiery-red Hexa-star pattern on the girl's stomach.

The fiery-red Hexa-star seemed to have merged with her body. Wang Xian looked over to another Hexa-star at the coffin.

With an arm swing, the other Hexa-star was sucked into his hand. Followed by a swift movement, he enveloped both of their bodies with flames.

"Throw your Aqua Stars in!" Wang Xian yelled at the top of his lungs toward the side hall where he came from.

While the other four young men were standing outside, waiting in fear, they were shocked when they heard Wang Xian's voice.

Without any hesitation, they quickly took six Hexa-stars and headed for the main hall.

"No entry!"

Knowing that they were a team with the descendant of the Fire God, the Fire Demon let out a yell.

The young man was shocked as he hurriedly threw the Hexa-stars that he was holding.

The domineering stance of the Fire Demon was suffocating them as they receded as soon as possible.

Since the Hexa-stars can convert energy, and the Fire God thought of using Hexa-stars to carry on with his legacy, then this method should work. But... Forget it. Let's get her back on her feet first. Otherwise, I will also be implicated if she suddenly explodes. The entire Fire Spirit Island will be blasted off when these two domineering energies explode. Even I will sustain severe injuries. Till then, I can't even get any treasures!

Wang Xian pondered to himself as he took another fiery-red Hexa-star in his hand.

[Blazing Star: Level 11]

"Be it Blazing Star or Aqua Star, they were made by either the inferno energy or water energy. These energy crystals can enter into bodies!"

Wang Xian swung his arm and inserted the Blazing Star crystal into his belly, forming a pattern on it.

Immediately, Wang Xian realized he could use the inferno energy in the girl's body.

"These two Blazing Stars are a pair. So are these six!"

Wang Xian swung his arm once again and inserted another three Aqua Stars into the girl's body.

When the three Aqua Stars stacked together, Wang Xian also took another Aqua Star and inserted it into his body.

The Aqua Stars, at their own specific positions, could significantly enhance their strength by multiple times.

If they were not placed in specific positions, they could only mobilize the energy between the two pointers.

Such a unique formation acted like an array.

Buzz!

When the Aqua Stars entered into both bodies, Wang Xian had a thought.

Activate the medium!

Energy Exchange!

Wang Xian tried to mobilize her water energy into his own body.

As the energy surged, the water energy entered. Wang Xian suddenly thought of something.

In the five elements, water feeds wood; wood fuels fire.

When the fire circulated into the girl's body, the fire in her was transferred out subsequently.

Fire forms earth; earth forms metal; metal carries water.

The water went back to the girl's body.

A perfect circulation.

Given the fact that Wang Xian was a Five Elements Divine Dragon, he could create a circulation of energy within the girl's body.

As long as the Aqua Stars and Blazing Stars remained in their bodies, the girl would not explode.

"Cold, hot, cold, hot!"

Wang Xian realized that he could control the girl's temperature as he wished. The feeling...

Besides, he realized something frightening.

With this method, he was indirectly taking control of the girl's life.

Chapter 480: All Of These Are Mine?

(2)

All it would take was a thought from him and the girl would explode from within.

This was a rather terrifying thing as he had indirectly gained control of her.

The transmission through the hexa-star is really incredible. I wonder what kind of Spirit Array it used for the direct transfer of energy through the hexa-star!

Looking at the hexa-star on his own chest, Wang Xian then turned to the girl before him.

He patted the girl on her shoulders lightly and woke her up.

"Hmm! I..."

The girl turned around, still feeling a little drowsy. The next moment, she checked on her body and instantly turned away in horror."

"I only did so because I'm out of options!"

Wang Xian shrugged his shoulders and covered his body in flames.

The girl moved away from him and a small fire flashed in her eyes. When she looked at Wang Xian again, her face turned red rapidly. She turned around and her heart was palpitating violently.

"Greetings, master!"

At this moment, the growl of the fire demon woke the confused girl. The fire demon went down on a knee and greeted her respectfully.

The girl regained her senses and looked to the fire demon. "You may get up now!"

"Yes, master!"

The fire demon stood up and remained stationary.

She felt the changes in her body and was completely astonished.

"There's nothing else I can do. I believe you will know the consequences if you choose to remove the hexa-star. I'm just going with what I can. Speaking of which, I have saved your life!"

Wang Xian shrugged his shoulders and spoke with a smile.

"What are your plans now?" the girl took a deep breath and asked while still shivering a little.

"Nothing? I'm only here to seek treasures. Now that you have inherited the position of the Fire God, I'm fine with all the treasures!" Wang Xian said heartily.

With regard to this girl, he really did not have many feelings. Naturally, he was excluding natural instincts.

Other than these natural urges, he didn't even know the name or the age of the girl. There was no way he could develop romantic feelings for her.

It wasn't that he was against it. It was just that he wouldn't make it past Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing.

Now that Sun Lingxiu was staying with them, Lan Qingyue and Guan Shuqing could tell his relationship with her clearly.

This matter wasn't settled yet. If he was to get involved in other matters, his harem would be in real turmoil.

The girl was taken aback by Wang Xian's words and shock was written all over her face.

She waved her arms and lava flowed out from the surface to envelope her. Looking at Wang Xian, she took a deep breath.

"I have to take away the Fire God's Secret Book, the Holy Water Scripture and the Holy Water Vial. As for the rest, you can have them. What do you think?"

"Let me make a copy of the Fire God's Secret Book!" Wang Xian nodded his head and answered.

The main reason he was here was for the fire attribute cultivation arts.

Moreover, Wang Xian was curious about the Fire God's Secret Book. The secret book of the Fire God would definitely have incredible battle techniques and attacking moves. He was eyeing it closely.

"Only I can view the Fire God's Secret Book. Others are not allowed," the girl said to Wang Xian.

"Huh? What about the Holy Water Scripture then?"

Wang Xian raised an eyebrow.

"The Holy Water Scripture is a secret long held by my clan and will never be disclosed to outsiders!" The girl looked a little bitter as she continued, "As for the other treasures, you can have them all."

"This... Let me see what treasures are around first!"

Wang Xian didn't agree. Looking at the fire demon at the side, he walked towards the throne.

The girl glowered at Wang Xian before conversing with the fire demon.

Wang Xian moved his arm and a shield flew into his hands from the side of the throne.

Colored Glass Shield: Level 12

"Even a Level 12 shield was placed casually. Fire God Hephaestus was a really powerful blacksmith," Wang Xian sighed.

He turned around and looked at the girl. "Oh right! Where is the Fire God's Art of Weapon Refining?"

"It's in the Fire God's Secret Book!"

The girl lifted her head, looked at him and answered coldly.

"Explain the Art of Weapon Refining to me," Wang Xian replied with a smile.

After which, his attention turned to the location directly above him.

At that place, there was a branch burning. Looking at this branch had jolted his memories of the Progenitor Tree and Soul Returning Branch in the Dragon Palace.

This branch is constantly burning and seems to have endless flames!

Wang Xian stared at the branch and information appeared in his mind.

[Boundless Branch: Level ???]

Boundless Branch! It's another unique tree branch!

Wang Xian was shocked and reached out to grab it.

Weng!

A unique energy welled up in his body and the Boundless Branch flew into it to his astonishment.

Wang Xian didn't attempt to stop it. As the Boundless Branch entered his body, it disappeared instantly.

In the Dragon Palace a far distance away.

Above the dragon throne, the jade green Progenitor Tree started swaying a little. The Soul Returning Branch shifted slightly and another branch grew beside it.

This branch was emitting a weak and faint flame.

Weng!

The entire Dragon Palace seemed to have experienced some changes. The Fire Divine Dragon head on one of the nine pillars beside the Dragon Transformation Pool lit up.

Following which, the entire Fire Divine Dragon glowed faintly and appeared as vivid as it could on the pillar.

Wang Xian wasn't aware of the changes to the Dragon Palace. As he felt the branch disappearing in his body, he had some understanding in mind.

Progenitor Tree.

The Progenitor Tree once grew in his body and had since seen him as its master. This branch was similar to the Soul Returning Branch and must not have been growing on the Progenitor Tree.

At the thought of how incredibly strong the Soul Returning Branch was, this Boundless Branch would definitely be terrifyingly incredible.

Wang Xian continued to look around and gather the treasures together enthusiastically.

There were over fifty Inborn Spiritual Weapon or even stronger weapons together with a ton of spiritual-grade metal. The materials required for upgrading the Dragon King Hall to Level 2 were a ton of spiritual-grade metal and ten thousand spiritual stones. Now he had finally gathered the metal required!

The Dragon Field required a thousand Inborn Spiritual Weapons. There should be approximately one to two hundred Inborn Spiritual Weapons in the entire Fire God Palace!

Wang Xian was exhilarated. He looked towards the side hall and his lips curved into a smile.

"All these are mine!"

Wang Xian looked towards the middle of the main hall and found the girl and the fire demon lowering the spiritual cabinet into the depths of the lava. They were sending off the Fire God.

"This... Pretty." Wang Xian didn't know how to address her as he looked at her. He smiled and continued, "Can I trouble you to bring all the treasures from the other eight side halls to this place? At the same time, please instruct the fire demons to help me kill a few people!"

Huh?

When the girl heard his request, she lifted her head, looked at him for a moment and nodded her head.

"Great. Kill all the people from the Nether Flame. Thank you!" Wang Xian chuckled, moved to the girl and thanked her by clasping his right fist with his left palm.

Tsk!

The girl seemed a little angry as she turned around and ordered the fire demon to start the purge.

This was the Fire God Palace and the territory of the Fire God.

Now that the Fire God Palace had a new master, those intruders should now be kicked out from the place.

Chapter 481: Four Wives

"Run now! The Fire God is infuriated!"

"All the Fire Demons in the side halls are raging. They are not supposed to come out of the side halls, but now, they are rushing out from them. On top of that, there are even more terrifying Fire Demons!"

"I guess we have disturbed the spirit of the Fire God for the past few days such that all the Fire Demons in the Fire God's Graveyard are on a riot!"

The entire Fire Spirit Island was seething with all the eight Denominations who had entered Fire God Palace rushing out in terror in the middle of the night.

All the Fire Demons in the Fire God Palace were rampaging as they killed anyone they saw. It was utterly terrifying.

There were more than thousands of Fire Demons, over twenty Dan Realm Fire Demons, and a ten-meter horrifying existence.

With such a strength, it simply overwhelmed all eight forces on the spot. All these Fire Demons were so frightening that they surpassed all the eight denominations as a whole.

"God dammit, why do these Fire Demons keep chasing us? Why?"

All the Nether Flame Experts were appalled at the spot that Nether Flame Denomination occupied.

Four Dan Realm Experts with over forty Inborn Experts, marking half the strength of the denomination, were over there.

Nether Flame Denomination originated from Korea before it developed to a supreme-class existence of Asia.

Yet, they were facing eight Dan Realm Fire Demons' assaults with horrifying looks.

These Dan Realm Fire Demons were extremely scary. Not only did they possess domineering defenses, but they also had the compelling Flaming Sledge Hammers which were daunting battle techniques. One Fire Demon could single out three to four Dan Realm experts.

Yet, they were wanted by at least seven Dan Realm Fire Demons and hundreds of Inborn Fire Demons.

Desperation and fear shrouded them.

Growl!

While the group from Nether Flame fled desperately, the ground in front of them began to crack.

Two daunting Dan Realm Fire Demons wriggled out from the underground lava, staring at them with murderous intent.

"Die!"

They let out a human voice and lurched at the Nether Flame gang.

"No..."

All of them let out agonizing shrieks.

They were the first to discover Fire God's Graveyard. Yet, none of them had expected that they would be wiped out at this place.

The entire Nether Flame's strength was cut in half.

"Run, get out of here now!"

At the same time, the other seven denominations were making their escapes in horror. They frantically scampered out of this hazardous land.

"After all, this is the grave of a God. We have interrupted his sleep and angered him. None of the average men can resist the rage of a God."

One by one, the various forces fled out. They hovered in the air as they watched the Fire Spirit Island, giving off a red glow while cold sweat broke out on their foreheads.

"Such compelling Fire Demons!"

When all the Fire Demons sprouted out of the entire Fire God Palace, Wang Xian could not help but gasp.

Thousands of Fire Demons with Inborn strength, more than twenty Dan Realm Fire Demons, plus one Budding Realm Fire Demon.

Such domineering strength was much more compelling than Dragon Sect.

Wang Xian stared at those Fire Demons with flickering eyes before he turned to the girl who was surrounded by lava.

Her fiery-red hair was over her shoulder, forming a ravishing profile.

Unfortunately, her perfect figure was wrapped in the scorching lava.

Wang Xian rotated his pupils with flashing red and blue radiance.

"Hur?"

He sensed a death stare darting at him. Wang Xian blinked his eyes as he did not expect that she could sense his gaze.

"Help me gather my treasures. I'm taking a rest, and I'll be back tomorrow to collect it."

Wang Xian smiled at her as he made his way to the exit.

The girl gazed at Wang Xian blankly as she let out a sigh.

"So many experts around!"

When Wang Xian stepped out of the Fire God Palace, he scanned the surrounding experts that were hovering in the air. Surprise took over his eyes.

There were about four hundred experts, of which over a score of them were flitting in the air a thousand meters above sea level.

That marked the existence of the Dan Realm.

"Given the strength of Dragon Sect, we could only be ranked as second-tier if we compare ourselves to the foreign supreme-class forces."

The Dragon Sect that had brought upheaval to the Underworld only had fifty Inborn Experts.

Besides Wang Xian and the other girls, the most powerful, Mo Qinglong, had yet to advance to the Dan Realm.

Compared to the Fire Demons in the Fire God Palace, they were still a far cry away.

Back at the renowned hotel in Dubai, Wang Xian was lying on his soft and comfortable bed.

He had no worries about Fire God Palace since the life of that girl, who was the successor of Fire God, was now in his control.

Hence, none of the treasures would go missing.

"Sister, you...you actually obtained the Fire God's legacy!"

At this point in time, four young men looked at the girl with disbelief as they came into the main hall in the Fire God Palace.

"Brother, the Fire God Palace was the legacy of the Fire God right from the start. But the condition to inherit it was quite stringent!"

The girl looked at her brother and forced a smile on her face.

"Great, it's the Fire God Palace! Our reputation and power in Dubai will be greatly enhanced. No one in all of Asia will dare to provoke us!" said the young man with shortness of breath and eager eyes.

"The Fire Demon will obey my commands, but I..."

As the girl spoke, she touched the Hexa-stars at her belly and hesitated.

"What's wrong, sister? Oh, where is that powerful senior?"

The young man was looking around elatedly, failing to notice the strange look on his sister's face.

"He... he went back. He should be coming back tomorrow!" The girl hesitated before she replied. "Apart from the Holy Water Scripture, all the treasures in this place belong to him."

"This... All for him?" The young man looked around and nodded with heartache.

The next morning, Wang Xian woke up and headed to the hotel restaurant in high spirits when a middle-aged man dressed in white odd-looking attire walked over.

"Sir, this is for you!"

The middle-aged man must have been a Dubai native, as only the natives would wear such an outfit.

Curiosity piqued as Wang Xian looked at the slim book that the middle-aged man handed over.

"Who gave this to me?"

Wang Xian took it over and had a look.

"By order, it's a secret!"

The middle-aged man shook his head slightly, bowed, and took his leave.

Wang Xian took the white-colored book to the restaurant, found a seat near the window, and ordered his food.

"What is this shit? Dubai women prohibiting intimate contact with men as chastity is very important. The beauty of the girl can only be revealed in front of her most beloved person. The girls in Dubai are extremely loyal, while men can have four wives..."

Looking at the introduction of the book, Wang Xian was speechless with the nonsense.

He flipped to the end of the book and discovered a signature.

Sign off, Hertha Mohakaben Cesid Al Adjaya.

The signature was even written in Chinese characters.

Chapter 482: Surfing

"The name of a foreigner is really long!"

Wang Xian chuckled upon seeing the name before leaving the white book at one side.

The entire book had a detailed introduction to the females of Dubai, the rules of Dubai and some rules that applied to the royalty.

Wang Xian didn't know who Hertha Mohakaben Cesid Al Adjaya was or the purpose of her sending him the white book.

"Could it be this is a trick from Mu Xiaowan, the little brat?"

Wang Xian raised an eyebrow and found this to be highly likely.

At this moment, within the Fire God Palace on Fire Spirit Island.

In just a night, the entire Fire God Palace had undergone huge changes. All areas that were damaged had returned to their original state after the lava flowed past them.

A girl was sitting on the throne in the main hall.

Her dressing today was completely different from the previous day. In her exquisite fiery-red dress, she personified nobility and a fire goddess.

Her nobility and beauty made one want to look up to her.

The first queen in history was just so.

Below her, an old man in a white robe stood before the middle of the main hall. He looked at the girl on the elevated platform with surprise and solemnness.

"Adjaya, since you have made the decision, I won't be adding much. However, I hope you will remain and station yourself in Dubai."

The old man in the middle looked at his daughter on the throne as he remarked.

"Rest assured, father. The Fire God Palace is still here and I won't be leaving. It wouldn't be convenient for the fire demons to leave this place either!"

Adjaya looked at her clanmates before her before looking up.

"Now, this is the only option. Moreover, that guy is pretty strong and quite a nice guy!"

Adjaya looked at the clothes she was wearing. She had broken free from the constraints of her family completely.

Perhaps this type of clothes is more in line with the general senses for aesthetics, she thought to herself. At the thought of the incident the previous night, her eyebrows knitted together and her face was flushed.

"Haiz! You are really slow. I've been waiting for half an hour!"

When Wang Xian walked down from the hotel, he immediately spotted Mu Xiaowan pouting and grumbling unhappily.

"Today's weather is a little cold. Let's find a place for a sunbath!"

Feeling the cool wind blowing, he teased her.

"How can you do this to me? I've been waiting for you for half an hour and even got my surfboard ready!"

When Mu Xiaowan heard Wang Xian, she instantly felt wronged. She pointed to the surfboard beside her and was on the verge of tears.

"Alright, alright. Let's go surfing! Let's go surfing!"

Wang Xian immediately changed his words and stopped teasing her.

"That's better! I'll show you how great I am at surfing in a while!" Mu Xiaowan chuckled happily. Pointing to the surfboard, she said, "Take that along. I'm too tired and you are a gentleman!"

Wang Xian smiled speechlessly. He turned to Tang Lingling and asked, "Aren't you going to join?"

"Perhaps not. I'm waiting for someone!" Tang Lingling shook her head.

Wang Xian nodded his head, carried the surfboard and walked to the beach with Mu Xiaowan.

"Let's go!"

The little brat carried her surfboard and went straight into the water.

"Mr. Wang, please help to take care of Xiao Wan," Tang Lingling reminded Wang Xian.

After giving her a reassuring hand sign, Wang Xian picked up the surfboard and walked towards the water.

Surfing was a popular sport overseas. There were lots of people surfing around them.

There were people from both genders. Some moved up and down along the waves and looked extremely cool.

Wang Xian had not surfed before. However, this didn't mean he wouldn't know how to.

The truth was that all he had to do was to place the surfboard on the water and he could move out like a rocket.

Simple water manipulation would enable him to do so.

Mu Xiaowan, the little brat, lay on the surfboard and tried to paddle with her hands. One could easily tell she knew nothing about surfing and was simply playful.

Wang Xian stepped onto the surfboard and moved with ease. What was a little frightening was that he was moving against the direction of the waves.

Wang Xian controlled the surfboard and made a turn around that little brat.

"Haiz. Is this your level of skills? You can't make it!" Wang Xian smiled and said sarcastically.

"Wow! You are really good!"

Seeing how cool Wang Xian was when moving, Mu Xiaowan was a little dumbfounded.

"I guess I'm still fine!" Wang Xian chuckled joyously. As the incident of the Fire God Palace had ended, he could have a day or two of good rest before returning.

"Quick! Teach me! I want to look as cool as you!" Mu Xiaowan exclaimed at Wang Xian.

"Come, let father teach you. Hold my arm!"

Wang Xian smiled and moved through the waves while holding her.

This made Mu Xiaowan extremely excited, and she even forgot about Wang Xian teasing her.

"Eh, Tang Lingling is here too!"

Just as Wang Xian and the little brat were playing, they saw Tang Lingling entering into the water with a few young men.

"Those are some of our friends in the country. Their families have businesses in Dubai. Look! One of them is even a big star!" Mu Xiaowan pointed and smiled. "One of them is Sister Lingling's boyfriend. As for the rest, they are all perverts. I still have a month till I reach the legal age and yet one of them tried to woo me! He should be given the death penalty!" the little girl grumbled.

Wang Xian chuckled. "Now that you guys are living in Dubai, are your family businesses doing well?"

"That gigantic mall right there was built from the investment from my family, Sister Lingling's family and the families of those young men. We have invested over tens of billions into it. I'll bring you there tomorrow. If you come to Dubai in the future, follow me and you will definitely get to eat the best food!"

The girl patted her flat chest and spoke proudly.

This little girl was pretty cute but her figure was bad. She was more loli than a typical loli.

"Brother, I saw that you are great at surfing a while ago. Come. Should we go to deeper waters?"

Four youths approached Wang Xian on their surfboards and one of them spoke with a smile to Wang Xian.

"That's the pervert!"

Wang Xian could hear the little girl speaking softly, and nodded his head with a smile.

"Come, brothers!"

A young man raised an eyebrow at him and the other young man in front of Tang Lingling was clearly her boyfriend.

There was another guy who was rather known and looked extremely gorgeous.

In other words, he was a star from Korea who didn't have the capabilities to remain there.

"Alright!"

Wang Xian didn't reject him.

"Xiao Wan, why don't you get on my surfboard. You must have heard about my skills. It would still be absolutely safe with the two of us!" the young man with short hair said to Mu Xiaowan.

"It's alright. I'll just go with this uncle. Uncle is pretty good too!"

Mu Xiaowan looked at him and raised an eyebrow. "What do you think?"

"Just get up, my dear daughter!"

"Scumbag! Are you eager to die?"

When Mu Xiaowan heard Wang Xian, she kicked him furiously right away.

Wang Xian immediately grabbed her by her arms and put her into the water till the water was at her waist.

"If you are going to continue kicking, I'm going to release my hand!"

"Scumbag!"

"Again?"

Wang Xian loosened his grip.

"Wahh... I'll stop. I'll stop. It's my fault!"

"That's better. Come, let me bring you surfing!"

Wang Xian laughed loudly and pulled the eighty-catty girl up.

Beside them, the face of the young man with short hair instantly darkened upon seeing them.

The young man beside Tang Lingling whispered softly into her ear and she replied to him softly.

"Huh? Calling him daddy. How uncouth!" the young man snorted.

Tang Lingling rolled her eyes and remarked, "He saved our lives and is the benefactor of Xiao Wan and I. Don't be rude!"

Chapter 483: Playing Dirty?

"Xiao Wan gets along with him very well. Even though they met only a few times, they were already bickering with each other. On their first encounter, Xiao Wan even asked him to call her Mother."

"Perhaps it's because both of them were playing like nobody's business, Xiao Wan was more friendly to him!" said Tang Lingling to the few people beside her with a smile as she watched Mu Xiaowan sitting on the surfboard.

"Hmph!"

The young man with a crew cut snorted as he cast a cold gaze over with a darkened expression.

The rest of the youth chuckled with a curl of their lips. "Let's go over with them. It'll be fun when the waves are here."

The other two youths chuckled as they looked far out with their lips drawn.

"Let's go and have some fun today!"

The young man with a crew cut revealed a sneer as he stepped on his surfboard gently and glided ahead.

"Wow, let's go over there! Over there!" said Mu Xiaowan, pointing ahead. She sat on the deck with excitement as she placed her arms in the water.

"Sure, hold on to my thigh!"

Wang Xian laughed and made a dash.

Surfing is an extreme sport that is considered to be dangerous.

But it is alright if one does not go to the areas with deep waters and tumbling waves.

As they tilted their board slightly, Wang Xian and Mu Xiaowan charged straight ahead.

The waves over there could reach more than four meters high, sometimes even taller than five or six meters.

Only the members of the Surf Club would dare to come to this location at the Dubai Beach. Usual surfers would not dare to come to a place with such tall waves!

Surfing is, indeed, an exciting sport. With a simple Art of Water Manoeuvre, Wang Xian could control the stability of the surfboard.

With the help of the waves, they charged forward directly.

"Go! Let's go over there!"

Seeing the two huge waves ahead, he made a slight movement and dived under the huge waves.

He had to move faster than the waves. If the waves were faster than them, they would be slapped by the waves.

Ah!

Upon seeing the huge waves above her head, Mu Xiaowan exclaimed with excitement. She used her hands to flap at the water in an attempt to speed up the surfboard.

Wang Xian looked down at her and found her funny. If there was a chance next time, he wanted to bring Xiao Yu and the rest here for some fun.

Boom!

"Yeah, yeah!"

The huge wave splashed down while they passed through it, and the lass was screaming in thrills.

Wang Xian chuckled.

At this moment, however, he sensed a ball of seawater aiming at his face.

He was taken aback a little as he lowered his body slightly.

"Hur? Well done, you lad. You are a good surfer!"

A doubtful voice was heard as Wang Xian whirled around to see Tang Lingling, her boyfriend, and the rest of them heading toward them.

The one who spoke was the young man with a crew cut. He was staring at Wang Xian with astonishment.

Wang Xian raised his eyebrows.

"Of course. He may be ugly, but his surfing skills are still okay!"

Before Wang Xian could say anything, Mu Xiaowan craned up her head on the surfboard as she spoke to the young man with a crew cut.

As she spoke, she sized up the four young men.

The four young men, including Tang Lingling's boyfriend and that young star, were obviously worse than Wang Xian in terms of appearance and disposition.

When she said Wang Xian was ugly, her real intended meaning was that they were uglier.

"Heh heh."

Without any mercy, Wang Xian placed his palm on top of her head and made an abrupt leap with the surfboard.

"Ouch, do you want to die!?"

Mu Xiaowan was startled as she hugged Wang Xian's thigh out of panic. Subsequently, she was so fuming that she bit his leg.

"Is your Chinese Zodiac sign a dog?"

Wang Xian quickly pressed her head and glared at her.

"If you dare to scare me, my Zodiac would not be a dog, but a tiger!"

Mu Xiaowan bared her teeth as she stared daggers at him.

"Fine, don't bite me. I will not scare you if you say something nice!" said Wang Xian.

The face of the young man with a crew cut grew darker when he saw this.

"There's another wave ahead. Let's go over!"

Seeing another huge wave rushing in, the young man with a crew cut curled the corner of his lips. With flickering radiance in his eyes, he suggested this to Wang Xian.

"Sure!"

Wang Xian lifted his chin at the young man.

"Then let's go!"

The young man with a crew cut spun his head around and looked at the other two young men.

The duo nodded to him with a smile.

"Charge!"

Mu Xiaowan let out an exciting scream.

Tang Lingling's boyfriend exhibited a smile as he took Tang Lingling forward, putting some distance between them.

Wang Xian controlled his direction. Following the waves, he watched the huge incoming wave.

Behind him, the young man with a crew cut revealed a creepy smile. He steered to the side of Wang Xian easily.

"You must protect Xiao Wan. Otherwise, I'll take you over!" he said to Wang Xian.

Wang Xian smiled and said nothing. Seeing the incoming five-meter wave was just right ahead, he steered and headed for it.

"Let's go!" the other two young men said in a relaxed tone from behind.

"Charge!"

Mu Xiaowan cheered as she looked at the waves on top of their heads.

Whoo!

After the young man with a crew cut exchanged gazes with the other young men behind Wang Xian, he swung his arm, bringing about a gust of strong wind, aiming at Wang Xian's surfboard.

The sudden wind was propelling Wang Xian towards the wave.

Sensing the energy, Wang Xian arched the corner of his lips as he suddenly bent down and shouted to Mu Xiaowan, "We're accelerating!"

Boom!

Just then, the wave, which was estimated to fall in another two seconds, suddenly slammed downward.

With a thought, Wang Xian's surfboard accelerated and sped out as if he was stepping on the gas pedal in the car.

"Oh no!"

"Damm!"

Before the three young men behind could spot Wang Xian, they felt the wave slamming down at them.

They had a slight change in their expressions. With exploding momentum, they tried to flee.

Given their strength, the wave would not knock them down.

Boom!

However, when the waves came down on them, it was as though a great force had hit them.

The three of them were aghast as they were being thrown off into the sea just when they were about to flee.

Seawater gushed into their mouths.

Wang Xian drew his lips slightly as he continued to rush ahead.

When that wave was over, Wang Xian halted and acted surprised as he looked behind.

"Hur? Where are they?"

"Hur? Where did that trio go?"

Mu Xiaowan was also stunned as she checked behind.

Tang Lingling and her boyfriend also spun around in shock.

"There they are. They are climbing up the boards. Those three fellows were thrown off by the waves. Haha!"

As soon as Mu Xiaowan caught three figures climbing onto their surfboards, she exclaimed loudly with an amused look.

"Let's check them out!"

Wang Xian adjusted his direction and came to them while riding on the waves.

"What? Don't follow us if your surfing skills suck. It would be embarrassing if you lost your life over here!"

"Yes, yes. Such trash!"

Upon hearing the two scornful voices, the trio who had just climbed onto their boards were totally embarrassed.

They spat out mouthfuls of blood with purplish faces.

Chapter 484: Be My Husband?

"He's throwing up blood! His body is a little weak!" Seeing them throwing up blood, Wang Xian spoke sarcastically.

Mu Xiaowan was surprised to see them throwing up blood and was taken aback slightly.

"Will they be fine?"

"They will be fine. Why would they not be? I'm an incredible doctor and can tell from a single glance. Other than their bodies being a little too weak, there's nothing wrong with them!"

Wang Xian shook his head.

Mu Xiaowan nodded her head, convinced. She had heard from the doctor after the accident previously. The young doctor that saved them was incredibly good.

"That's great! That's great!"

The three young men in the sea looked extremely gloomy. All of them glowered at Wang Xian in fury.

"What's the matter? Qing Wen, Gao Yang, are you guys alright? Why did you guys fall into the sea?"

Tang Lingling's boyfriend was a little shocked and asked them curiously.

"We are fine!"

The three of them were shivering a little in anger as they climbed back onto the surfboards and wiped the seawater away from their faces.

"It's great that you guys are fine. Why would you guys fall into the water?"

The young man looked at the three of them, puzzled.

"Perhaps they are too trashy!" Wang Xian chuckled, patted the girl's head and said. "Let's go. We are going back soon!"

As he spoke, he moved ahead and away while glancing at the three of them with contempt.

"Let's play for a little longer!" Mu Xiaowan said unwillingly.

"Count me out. If you want, you can ask the three of them to bring you along. Perhaps you could catch a few large sharks for dinner when you fall into the water!"

"I don't want to go with them. Luckily, I did not agree previously. Otherwise, I'd be the one spewing blood. I don't want to do so. That's too gruesome!"

The two of them conversed as they moved away quickly.

The three young men behind them were all martial artists. They could hear Wang Xian and Mu Xiaowan clearly as their bodies shook a little in anger.

The three of them clenched their fists tightly.

When Tang Lingling's boyfriend witnessed what happened, he frowned and said, "Let's go back and get some rest!"

"Let's go back!"

"When are we coming out to play again?"

"Leave it to fate. I'll be returning home in two days!"

"Huh? So fast?"

Mu Xiaowan lifted her head, stared at Wang Xian and spoke unwillingly as she walked out of the water with Wang Xian.

"I don't live here after all and am here for a short trip. I can't be staying here for a long time!"

"Why not? Why don't you just stay behind? You can be my sugar baby. When I want to go surfing, you just have to bring me along!"

"I'm not a man you could afford to keep!"

Wang Xian patted the girl's head, feeling a little speechless. "Alright, go look for your Sister Lingling. I have something to do!"

"Huh? Where are you going? Bring me along?"

The girl pulled his hand as she asked.

"You can't go since you haven't reached the legal age," Wang Xian smiled and said to her.

"Tsk! Guys like you..." Mu Xiaowan looked at him with contempt.

Wang Xian was speechless. After passing the surfboard to her, he said goodbye.

The girl pouted and walked towards Tang Lingling, clearly looking disgruntled.

Wang Xian returned to the hotel and changed into a new set of clothes. After which, he moved and headed towards the direction of the Fire Spirit Island rapidly.

When he arrived at the beach he was at the previous day, he realized that there were still lots of martial artists discussing.

Nonetheless, a large portion of the people had left as compared to the previous day.

With all the people from the Nether Flame perishing, all the other denominations were wary. They hesitated for a while before deciding to retreat for the moment.

If they were to return, their gods would definitely be involved.

These denominations were created by gods of their sects, or they still had existing gods.

As to which denomination still had gods alive, no one really knew.

Some might have passed away or some might have aged. In modern times, there were few occasions where gods surfaced to the public eye.

The only known god around was also the number one existence on the International Miracle Doctors Chart.

Hand of God.

The one who was rumored to be able to revive a dead person.

When Wang Xian arrived at the Fire Spirit Island, he realized the area had been surrounded by the soldiers of Dubai.

He jumped and headed towards the main hall directly.

Along the way, there were countless people in white robes. Wang Xian was able to avoid them easily.

Among these people, there were still several experts.

When Wang Xian entered the main hall, he immediately spotted a girl in a red dress on the throne in the main hall.

Although the girl was sitting, one could still tell that she was tall and slender. On her red dress, flames vaguely flickered.

The entirely red dress fully traced out her perfect figures.

It looked a little like an evening gown but looked more exquisite than one.

On her head, she was wearing a flaming crown.

She was like a goddess and a queen.

"What a huge transformation. That's like the ugly duckling turning into a beautiful swan!"

Wang Xian looked at the girl on the throne in shock. She was completely different from the girl he met yesterday.

The previous night, she was totally covered and even wore a veil. No matter how stunning she was, no one could really tell.

And today, her charm was fully on display. One had to admit that some girls would look extremely breath-taking with a little makeup.

As for this girl, she was like a goddess with just a small change.

He looked across the main hall and found various Inborn Spiritual Weapons and treasures placed in the middle. Wang Xian couldn't help but feel satisfied.

He looked towards the fiery-red hammer in the middle. Beside it, there was a forging table.

A forging table was a little similar to a blacksmith's station.

Only through continuous hammering would a piece of equipment be refined. Refining elixir pills and blacksmithing were completely different.

[Wan Forging Table: Level 13]

[Wan Forging Hammer: Level 13]

Sss!

When the information on the Wan Forging Table and Wan Forging Hammer appeared in Wang Xian's head, Wang Xian gasped.

Level 13! Those are Level 13 Inborn Spiritual items.

"Fire God Hephaestus was really incredible and insanely rich. There are probably few gods who were like him!"

Wang Xian sighed emotionally.

"Did you see the book I sent over in the morning?"

Adjaya lifted her head, placed the Fire God's Secret Book aside, looked to Wang Xian and revealed a faint smile.

"What?"

Wang Xian was taken aback.

"You are a man with a sense of responsibility."

Adjaya walked down from her throne gradually with a strong aura around her. It wasn't just the aura of an expert but also the disposition of the Royal Family.

"What do you mean?" Wang Xian raised an eyebrow and continued, "The random book I got in the morning was from you? And the long string of words is your name?"

"You can just call me Adjaya!"

Adjaya stared at him and continued, "Our country is extremely traditional. It is especially so for my family. Moreover, my life is now in your hands. Therefore...!"

"Therefore...?"

Wang Xian looked curiously at her as she approached him. In her heels, she was a notch taller than him and this made him feel a little embarrassed.

Her lips were bright red. However, they weren't red because of lipstick but simply because this was their natural color.

Even the pupils in her eyes seemed a little red.

Fire Goddess!

"Be my husband and that way you can be responsible for my life!"

Chapter 485: Forced Marriage

"Be my husband and that way you can be responsible for my life!"

Adjaya's voice resonated in the main hall. She sounded calm as she stared straight into Wang Xian's eyes.

Wang Xian was stupefied by her words. He found it unbelievable as he looked at Adjaya.

What made it more embarrassing was he needed to look up at her, which was somewhat humiliating.

"Sorry, I have girlfriends!"

Wang Xian shook his head with a smile, yet, he sized her up from head to toe. A foreign babe...

"The law in Dubai allows you to have four wives. It doesn't matter if you have girlfriends or are married!" said Adjaya to Wang Xian with the least concern.

Wang Xian was speechless upon hearing that. It was clearly indicated that men in Dubai can marry four wives in the book he read this morning.

In addition, there was a lengthy note on how to treat their wives.

That is, to be fair to every wife.

For example, if one buys a bag for one wife, the other three wives must have a bag too. This is a legal requirement.

Wang Xian arched his lips as he scrutinized her from head to toe. "Given the situation now, your life is in my hands. This is not as simple as having a wife. Hmm, there's another kind of relationship which is not bad: a maid!" Wang Xian chuckled and waved a dismissive hand. "But I have no interest in maids. Nor do I have an interest in a wife. I'm content with all these treasures. Oh, and the Fire God's Secret Book!"

Actually, he wanted to call Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue and check if he could bring a wife back.

But it was just a passing thought. He knew the consequences as a fire in the backyard is not something fun.

Hence, he should not have the least bit of greed in him.

"No way. If you die, I'll die with you. I don't want to leave my fate to a stranger. I don't want to die without any knowledge!" said Adjaya coldly as she continued to stare into his eyes.

"First, I'm the one who saved your life, your benefactor!"

Wang Xian frowned at her.

"And this is my gratitude!"

Adjaya looked at him with passionate eyes.

"I don't need such gratitude!"

"You won't lose out even if I marry you!"

"This... My girlfriends won't agree to it!"

Both of them were glaring at each other.

Wang Xian shrugged his shoulders at her. He spun around, headed for the treasures, picked up the Wan Forging Hammer, and examined it.

"Then you can tell your girlfriends to agree if they want you alive!"

Adjaya suddenly made a comment from behind.

Wang Xian was slightly stunned as he cast a glance in the direction of the nine halls where Dan Realm Fire Demons were striding towards him.

The Budding Realm blackie that had been staying in the main hall was staring at him with his pitch-black eyes.

He raised his eyebrows as he stared at Adjaya. "You're playing with fire!"

"If you dared to kill me, you couldn't leave this place either."

Adjaya smiled as she looked at the Fire Demons around her.

"I never expected that I'd be forced to get married someday. But marriage does not mean it can resolve everything."

Wang Xian touched his face slightly as he remarked in a self-deprecating way.

"I believe in my charm!"

Adjaya gave a confident smile.

"You're good, but you can't force it on me. I might as well consider you being a slave to me!"

Wang Xian did not want to continue the discussion with Adjaya.

This was the most absurd thing he'd encountered today.

A foreign babe is forcing me to marry her?

And she's somewhat beautiful.

Yet, he could not even get mad at this sort of thing.

"I'll leave my treasures with you for now. Get me a vessel, and I'll leave in two days!" said Wang Xian to Adjaya.

"If you don't agree to it, you can never leave Dubai!" Adjaya replied confidently.

"YOU!"

Wang Xian pointed his finger at her as he walked to her side.

Adjaya looked at him plainly with a slight curving of her lips.

With some amusement in his eyes, Wang Xian had a thought.

Instantly, tremendous changes happened to Adjaya.

The faint red glow on Adjaya suddenly turned into a blue shade.

With blue eyes and skin glowing in blue radiance, the fuming fiery girl transformed into a gentle and mild water-like woman

Wang Xian wanted to pinch her, but she dodged it.

"Haha, let me feel what it is like to be at Grade 9 of Fire and Ice!"

Wang Xian chortled as Adjaya suddenly became changed from a fiery-red to blue-like water. The transformation just tickled him.

The confidence diminished from Adjaya's face as she stared at Wang Xian lividly.

Given her current state, there was no way she could fight back except to glower at Wang Xian.

"Haha, babe, don't act snobbish. You better behave in front of me, otherwise... Heh, heh! Get me a boat, and I'll leave in two days. Be good!"

Wang Xian chuckled and headed outside.

Adjaya recovered herself with flames rising from her body. She stared at the spot where Wang Xian had disappeared with a mixed expression.

"Perhaps I should imprison you or tie you by my side, otherwise..."

"Damm, I'm actually being forced into marriage for the first time in my life. On top of that, she threatened me with her life. Luckily, she's not an ugly woman!"

Wang Xian walked out of the Fire God Palace, shaking his head.

If he wanted to leave this place, no one could stop him. Not even Adjaya or that Fire Demon.

"But my treasures are still inside the Fire God Palace!"

Wang Xian raised his eyebrows as he came to a restaurant to enjoy his delicacies and the sea breeze.

While he was enjoying his carefree sunny time in the afternoon, a babe actually chatted him up.

Wang Xian could not help but admire his own charm. If not for his attractiveness, that Adjaya would not force him to marry her.

...

"Lingling, Xiao Wan, there will be a business convention in the ballroom of the most luxurious hotel in Dubai. Isn't your friend staying over there? We can invite him over!"

Back at a tea shop by the beach, Tang Lingling's boyfriend suggested this to her and Mu Xiaowan with a smile.

"Yes, since Uncle also stays in this hotel, we can invite him to that boring business convention. My mum even wanted to invite him and show her appreciation for him. Nice, we can have some food after the business convention!" said Xiao Wan excitedly as soon as the young man completed his sentence.

"Mm, sounds good!"

Tang Lingling also nodded in agreement.

"Why not? There will be some heavyweight figures in this business convention, including some who came from Dubai!" the young man said with a smile.

"Who cares? It has nothing to do with us anyway. I'm just checking it out over there!"

Mu Xiaowan dismissed it and spoke without the slightest concern.

The young man chuckled and exchanged gazes with the other three men beside him. A hint of coldness surfaced in his eyes.

Today, they were humiliated and scorned.

He would realize the consequences of doing so soon.

Chapter 486: Business Convention

"Why are you thinking of dragging me to a business convention?"

Wang Xian felt speechless when he received a phone call from that little brat in the afternoon.

"I'm doing this for you! I'm afraid you will be bored at night when you're alone. Alright, alright. You can stop here. Just tell me your room number and I will go look for you when the time is right. My mum is still thinking of inviting you over for dinner to thank you for saving Sister Lingling and I. After the business convention has ended, we can all have dinner together!"

The little brat rattled on. Wang Xian thought about it for some time before agreeing.

Since he was touring around, it didn't matter where he toured.

"Let's go! Let's go!"

Slightly before 6 pm, the doorbell rang. When Wang Xian opened the door of his room, he saw the brat in a lovely dress.

"Let's go. It's on the seventeenth floor of the hotel. I'm bringing you to see beautiful ladies!"

The little brat pulled his hands and spoke with a smile.

"Wait a minute. Let me change into different attire."

Wang Xian put on his shoes, put on his jacket and asked, "What kind of business convention is this? What are we doing there? I hope it won't be boring."

"It should be fine. All the food and drinks are free. Moreover, the hotel has great facilities. Let's go, let's go! Stop asking!"

The little brat hurried him and said, "There will be lots of people coming today. Just the beautiful ladies you will see today will be worth the trip!"

"Let me say this in advance. If it isn't interesting, I'm going to come back and sleep!"

Wang Xian chuckled before following her to the main banquet hall of the business convention.

Tsk!

The little brat pouted in dissatisfaction at Wang Xian. "This is a large scale business convention and all the people who are here are businessmen from all over the world and have invested in Dubai. It isn't a particularly formal occasion and could be seen as a platform for interaction. There are also lots of wealthy families and members of the noble races from Dubai attending it!"

Mu Xiaowan was born into a family with great conditions. Although she might seem playful, she still knew a lot after being immersed in the environment.

While wearing the white dress, she looked more demure and could be considered to be a pretty girl.

Mu Xiaowan entered the place with her invitation card. When they entered, they noticed that there were lots of people who had arrived before them.

This was slightly different from the banquet back at home. In this place, most of the guys had a female companion with them.

It was so for this business convention. All the middle-aged and old men here had young female companions beside them.

There were people from Euramerica and also from Asia.

"How is it? Aren't there lots of beautiful ladies here?" Mu Xiaowan said softly to Wang Xian.

"I'm not here to look at girls!"

Wang Xian looked around. It was a boring banquet but there was lots of food.

There were also all kinds of beverages available.

"Let's go. Let me bring you to see my mum. My mum was still talking about thanking you personally last night!"

Mu Xiaowan pulled Wang Xian along as they walked deeper into the hall.

At that place, seven to eight middle-aged and old men sat around and were conversing happily.

"Mom, this is the uncle that saved us previously!"

Mu Xiaowan walked towards a rather slim but capable-looking lady as she shouted. The lady had short hair.

Huh?

Mu Xiaowan's mother was taken aback and stood up immediately. After which, she explained to the rest.

"Xiaowan, this is the uncle you spoke about? He's at most a few years older than you!"

When Mu Xiaowan's mother saw Wang Xian, she looked him in the eyes and extended her hand with a smile. "Thank you, son, for saving my daughter previously. Since you are in Dubai, just ask Xiaowan to bring you around. If you are free, drop by and I'll make some home-cooked food for you!"

Mu Xiaowan's mother was an intelligent lady. She thanked Wang Xian politely with a radiant smile.

After exchanging some words, Mu Xiaowan brought Wang Xian to a rather empty corner.

"Let's wait for Sister Lingling and the rest here."

Mu Xiaowan brought some fruits with her. "If you want alcohol, you have to get it yourself. My mum doesn't allow me to drink alcohol yet!"

The little brat looked more like a demure lady while sitting here as she spoke to Wang Xian.

"Alright!"

Wang Xian nodded his head. Soon after, more and more people entered the hotel.

Standing near the glass windows, they could see the seaview of the country. Although some were discussing some collaborations, this group of businessmen was still appreciative of the scenery.

Moreover, those who were here were the cream of the crop. Those with less than a billion in assets or even ten billion in assets would probably not be qualified to enter this place.

"Sister Lingling and the rest are here!"

Mu Xiaowan waved her hands towards the entrance. There were four guys and two girls.

Other than Tang Lingling and her boyfriend, the rather well-known star also came with a female companion.

"Look! That's Yang Ze's girlfriend. She's also a star but isn't well-known in the country. Don't be rude!" Mu Xiaowan reminded Wang Xian.

"I don't recognize them!"

Wang Xian took a glance and spoke with contempt.

"Are you those who intentionally spread rumors about stars?"

Seeing how Wang Xian had reacted, Mu Xiaowan joked with him.

"It's really boring here. I might as well go back and sleep!"

"YOU..."

Mu Xiaowan gave him a glare. "Let me get Yang Ze to introduce you to a few small stars!"

"Forget about small stars. Even if they are superstars, I'm not interested!" Wang Xian chuckled. Teasing this little brat from time to time was also rather interesting.

"Xiao Wan, you guys are rather early!"

The group of young men walked over and sat beside them. They smiled as they observed Wang Xian and Mu Xiaowan.

"It's you guys that are late!"

Mu Xiaowan asked Tang Lingling to sit beside him. Turning her attention to Yang Ze, she asked, "Superstar Yang Ze, why didn't you bring a few more beautiful female stars along. I could have introduced them to this uncle!"

"Hehe! I don't know many female stars!"

That young man smiled at Mu Xiaowan before turning to Wang Xian. With a cold smirk, he said, "Moreover, these stars aren't people anyone can hope to get into contact with!"

"If you can find such a beautiful sister, our uncle wouldn't do any worse. Uncle is much better looking than you!"

Mu Xiaowan was direct and didn't hold back her words like a child.

"Hey, sister, you can't just look at the appearance for a guy. You have to consider his manners, upbringing, and other things. The reason why Yang Ze has so many fans is also because of his personality!" the beautiful girl that was with Yang Ze commented.

Mu Xiaowan smiled, patted Wang Xian's shoulders and said, "I'll find you a first-class female star to be your girlfriend in the future!"

Wang Xian chuckled. "What's the use of a star! A princess would be better!"

"Alright then. I'll get you a little princess!" Mu Xiaowan chuckled.

"Pfft! Hey brother, there should be a limit to boasting! May I ask what business your family is in?"

The young man with short hair looked at Wang Xian with contempt as he questioned him.

"You gotta find a pretty princess for me. I'm a picky person!"

Wang Xian didn't pay attention to the young man with short hair at all as he continued joking with Mu Xiaowan.

This made the young man with short hair extremely gloomy as he smiled, embarrassed.

Chapter 487: A Set-up

"Some of the friends from Dubai are here."

At about seven, a group of people arrived at the ballroom in white and black robes with neatly-combed beards.

There were young and middle-aged men.

Behind them stood a group of ladies, wearing black robes without their faces veiled except for Shayla.

The colors were distinctive.

When the group arrived, many people from the ballroom crowded over.

Several young men in white and ladies in black stalked over with beaming faces.

"Come over, ladies and gentlemen!"

Several young men waved passionately at them.

"Hey, it looks like we're late!"

They came over, sat beside them, and replied to them while smiling.

"No, you're not. We came early, but we just had some boring chats. Shall we have some fun later?"

Tang Lingling's boyfriend was having a warm chat with them.

"Sure, no problem!"

"I'm bored, lass."

Wang Xian, who was bored seeing them exchanging conversations, told Mu Xiaowan.

"Why don't I introduce you to some Dubai girls? What do you think?"

Mu Xiaowan suddenly brightened up her eyes and whispered to him, "You can settle down here and marry four wives. Four! The thought of it is thrilling, isn't it?"

"I already have two girlfriends now. Why do I care about which country I'm in?"

Wang Xian chuckled as he spoke.

"It's an exotic taste. Don't you think it's a different world with foreign babes?"

Mu Xiaowan raised her eyebrows at him.

"Xiao Wan, come over here. I want you to meet some people!"

At this time, Mu Xiaowan's mother beckoned her out of the blue.

"Yes, mum!"

Mu Xiaowan was dispirited instantly as she looked at Wang Xian. "Don't go away. I'll be right back."

"My mum is simply too bothersome. She has been introducing friends to me here, and wants me to go to school over here," she muttered as she got up and walked over.

"Lingling, let's have a dance in the center!"

At this time, Tang Lingling's boyfriend cast a glance at Mu Xiaowan and the young men beside him. Then, he pouted his lip and brought Tang Lingling away.

"Heh heh."

The remaining three young men exchanged smirks with a hint of coldness.

"Liang Liang, take this phone and film it."

"What? Film what?"

As soon as they took their leave, Yang Ze fished out his phone with his lips curled as he instructed the female companion beside him.

"This brat is such a nuisance. He embarrassed Qing Wen, Gao Yang, and me. Besides, Qing Wen was pissed at the sight of him. I want you to film what happens later on. I'll make sure he's a laughing stock even abroad, and I want all the people back in China to know about it!"

Yang Ze curled his lips slightly.

Performing such means was as easy as the ABC's for him.

He cast a glance at Gao Yang and Qing Wen with a teasing look.

The short-haired Qing Wen gestured an 'okay' sign. He then turned and muttered to a Dubaian girl beside him with a beaming face.

"Sure!"

That girl revealed a bright smile. There was a trace of a teasing smirk when she looked at Wang Xian.

Yang Ze, Qing Wen, and Gao Yang rested on the sofa and watched with a playful look.

"Hi, handsome. How are you?"

After Mu Xiaowan left, Wang Xian was playing on his phone out of boredom when he heard a sudden voice.

He craned his neck up and was astounded to see a Dubai girl in a black robe.

"Hi, what's up?"

"Nothing, I saw you alone with your phone. Are you that bored?" asked the girl with a broad smile.

"Yes, a little!"

Wang Xian put his phone away out of courtesy.

"Shall we have a dance over in the middle of the ballroom?" said the girl with a smile.

"No, I don't know how to dance. It's okay."

Wang Xian was taken aback. According to the white book given to him by Adjaya, the Dubai ladies did not get intimate contact with anyone, in particular strangers.

What's with the difference here?

"It's rude to turn a girl down!"

The girl was slightly stunned as she spoke smilingly.

"I'm really sorry!"

Wang Xian shook his head. The girl before him was not pretty at all. Besides, he noticed a bunch of people watching them with a playful look.

He stood up to change his seat.

"Hur?"

That girl frowned and reached out to grab his arm.

Wang Xian raised his eyebrow, looked down and caught her arm. He peered over his shoulder at the three young men with disdain in his eyes.

"You bunch of scumbags!"

"Let me go!"

Upon seeing Wang Xian grabbing onto her clothes, she pulled away from him with force.

Ssst!

She was apparently stronger than the average person as her sleeves were ripped off straightaway.

"Brat, are you seeking your doom? How dare you be so touchy over here?"

Seeing such a situation, the three young men stood up immediately and threw him death stares.

Apparently, the other young men in white robes were not that surprised as they stared at Wang Xian with ridicule.

"Have you filmed it?" asked Yang Ze to the female companion beside him.

"Yes, no audio. From this angle, accompanied by some cuttings and lead-in, this shows exactly how he was trying to take advantage of that girl!" that female star said with a broad smile.

"Great. Later I'll get my manager to look for a media outlet for some publicity. This will certainly disgrace him to the max!"

"Hehe, Yang Ze, he should count himself unlucky to provoke you guys."

"Yes, acting brazenly in our territory is as good as seeking death!"

"Molesting and disrespecting our friend here. Brat, you're insolent, huh!" exclaimed Qing Wen as he pointed his finger coldly at Wang Xian.

"How dare you commit this kind of thing over here. Looks like your nose is up in the air!"

Several Dubai friends stood up and sneered at Wang Xian.

"Arrest him and throw him into the cell for a few days. This kind of person is a disgrace to us!"

They were bawling at Wang Xian.

That girl seemed to be shaking in her shoes with her head lowered, clutching onto the sleeves at her arm where it was torn. That look of hers obviously looked like Wang Xian had bullied a Dubai girl.

"A set-up?"

Wang Xian looked coldly at the crowd, who had been staring at him.

The three young men curled their lips. "Such a disgrace to us. Little did we expect you would do such a thing. People like you should be taught a lesson and let everyone know your true nature!"

"Hur? What's going on?"

"What happened?"

At this time, some of the surrounding people overheard the commotion and popped over with curiosity.

The ballroom was huge, and there were over three hundred guests in it. Many of them asked around as they were attracted by the commotion.

"This fellow was touchy to my friend!" said Qing Wen to the spectating crowd with a cold face as he pointed to Wang Xian.

Chapter 488: Princess And Prince

"What? You dare to go against the rules and cause a disturbance here?"

When the surrounding crowd heard the young man with short hair, they were astonished and looked towards Wang Xian.

"You came to our country and won't show respect to the ladies here?"

A rather plump Dubai lady walked over and stared at Wang Xian coldly. "Hey brat, you are a little too brazen!"

"Get the security of the hotel over! Call the police and lock him up for a few days. After which, deport him back to his country and ban him from ever stepping into our country again!"

"He must be courting death to create a disturbance and bully the ladies of our country!"

Some Dubai citizens chanted angrily and stared at Wang Xian as though he was their common enemy.

As for the rest, they simply went along with these furious people.

Dubai was an exceptionally traditional country. A foreigner being touchy and not following their rules had undoubtedly encroached on their bottom lines.

Wang Xian frowned upon seeing the crowd staring and chiding him.

He stared coldly at the group before him and said, "Do you guys know that you are playing with fire!"

"Brat, you are the one that's playing with fire. How dare you be rude here and attempt to molest others! You must be courting death, and you're embarrassing yourself!"

"A person like you shouldn't travel overseas and bring shame to your country. Moreover, a person like you will be looked down on by others in your country!"

Qing Wen smirked and commented sarcastically as he stared at Wang Xian.

"What's the matter?"

All the people in the banquet hall were looking over. When Mu Xiaowan saw them, she immediately ran over.

"What's that matter, uncle? What happened?" shouted the little brat as she squeezed through the crowd.

"Nothing! Just a few damned brats who are trying to frame me!"

Wang Xian revealed a chilling smile as he replied to Mu Xiaowan.

"Frame you? Who's framing you? You are the touchy one and even wanted to pull me out for a dance. When I rejected you, you resorted to violence and even tore my clothes apart!"

That girl that had been lowering her head all along now had tears in her eyes as she stared and shouted at Wang Xian.

"Bastard! How dare you bully the ladies of our country!"

When the girl completed her words, another young man roared at Wang Xian furiously.

"Could this be a misunderstanding?"

Mu Xiaowan looked at the girl, turned to the furious crowd and asked this. She was clearly flustered.

"A misunderstanding? Xiaowan, you can never really tell one's true nature. You have only known this guy for two days but we have seen with our own eyes that this guy was touchy with the lady!" Gao Yang said to Mu Xiaowan.

"That's right. Xiao Wan, you should stay away from people like him!" Qing Wen also interrupted. His eyebrows were lifted slightly as he remarked emotionlessly.

"It can't be. Uncle wouldn't do such things!" Mu Xiaowan shook her head forcefully, lifted her head and looked at Wang Xian.

At one side, Mu Xiaowan's mother frowned. The middle-aged and old men that were sitting around her were also baffled.

After all, Wang Xian was from the same country as them and he had embarrassed them here.

"Get the security of the hotel here to contain him. After which, call the police and get him away. Ban him from entering Dubai forever! He's embarrassing us!" a middle-aged man shouted harshly at Wang Xian.

"That's right! Get the security and ban him from ever entering our Dubai!" a rather influential Dubai citizen glowered at Wang Xian and remarked.

"I feel that there's a need to investigate the matter clearly. My friend wouldn't commit such acts!" Mu Xiaowan looked around and shouted loudly.

Her eyes were a little red. As she lifted her head and looked at Wang Xian, she said, "Uncle, please explain to them. I don't believe you would do such things!"

"There's no need to explain!" Wang Xian smiled at Mu Xiaowan and killing desire flashed in his eyes.

He lifted his head slightly and looked across the crowd. Eventually, his gaze fell on the group before him. "I don't care where we are. If you guys are framing me, all of you deserve death!"

"Deserve death? How brazen! How can you still be so brazen after being caught red-handed in the act! I really wonder who's giving you the guts!" Tang Lingling's boyfriend stood beside her and said to Wang Xian with contempt.

Tang Lingling was frowning but didn't say a word.

"Security, take this arrogant guy away and issue a deportation order. Ban him from ever stepping in!" An old man from Dubai looked at the brazen Wang Xian and shouted loudly.

"Yes, yes!"

As one of the most elite hotels, the security personnel had arrived after hearing about the incident. They nodded their heads at the old man.

Wang Xian smirked and pulled his arm away from the little brat. Killing intent welled up within him.

"What's the matter?"

At this moment, a voice reverberated from the entrance.

Everyone was taken aback and turned around curiously.

"That's..."

Everyone gasped in shock.

"That's Prince Adallen and Princess Adjaya!"

"Why are they here? Why are the Prince and Princess here?"

When the crowd saw them at the entrance, they were astonished.

"I heard that Prince Adallen was conferred as the crown prince suddenly while Princess Adjaya was appointed to supervise. Currently, Prince Adallen is taking over some matters. He's probably here today to get to know us. He's the one we really need to keep a good relationship with in the future!"

"Princess Adjaya possesses unprecedented special rights currently. Even her costumes aren't restricted by the rules!"

"We have to leave a good impression on Prince Adallen later!"

The surrounding crowd whispered while the crowd from Dubai stepped ahead and greeted their Prince.

Seeing a few familiar figures approaching, Wang Xian released the aura around him and smiled.

"What's happening?" Adallen frowned and asked upon seeing a few security personnel holding weapons.

"A foreign brat was rude to our female citizen. We are getting the security to send him away before deporting him," an old man answered while lowering his body.

"Who dares to kick up a ruckus here. Ban him from ever entering our country!" Adallen replied solemnly.

"Yes, Prince. It's our honor to meet our Prince and Princess today!" The old man moved aside and gestured to the Prince and Princess to move in.

"Who's the guy who is causing trouble?"

Adallen lifted his head and looked towards where the crowd had gathered.

"Shit! The prince and princess are here. Now that this guy has caused such a ruckus, the prince won't have a good impression of us. This brat really deserves death!" an old man beside the mother of Mu Xiaowan commented softly with a heavy expression.

The other few middle-aged and old men weren't particularly happy either.

Gao Yang, Qing Wen and the other young man also frowned.

The incident today was blown a little out of proportion!

Nonetheless, it didn't matter. The bigger it got, the worse the outcome would be for that brat.

For example, the national press might be reporting that this embarrassing foreigner attempted to molest a female citizen of Dubai on a banquet attended by the prince and princess of Dubai. He would definitely be deported and would not be forgiven!

Chapter 489: Four Desperate Men

When they thought of the headlines, that bunch of young men revealed faint smiles.

The brat who embarrassed them would be doomed for messing with them.

They stared at Wang Xian with disdain in their eyes.

With a similar smile, Wang Xian swept his gaze across those young men as he wondered if they could still smile later on.

"This is it..."

When the Dubai crowd escorted Adallen and Adjaya over, an old man pointed to Wang Xian and was ready to introduce him.

Before he could finish his sentence, Prince Adallen and Princess Adjaya stalked toward him.

I always heard that Prince Adallen hates injustice to the core. Will he strike?

I guess not. The prince knows his limits!

The old man had two thoughts to himself as he followed them closely.

As soon as the spectators spotted Prince and Princess, they immediately gave way and looked at Wang Xian.

This fellow is finished!

Everyone shared the same thought.

Mu Xiaowan grabbed Wang Xian by his arm with tension.

"This..."

Adallen came to Wang Xian, unsure of how to address him. Suddenly he thought of the things his sister told him. With a broad smile, he said, "Brother-in-law, what a coincidence!"

Wang Xian was stunned, and his face stiffened.

He was not expecting Adallen to call him Brother-in-law right when he saw him.

"Damm!"

"Who's your brother-in-law?"

Wang Xian could not help but swear at Adallen as he turned to Adjaya with a frown.

DAMN!

Upon hearing the crude conversation between Prince Adallen and Wang Xian, everyone was stunned with confusing looks.

The capitalized word 'damn' seemed to have collapsed upon them as they felt lost and unreal. Were they hallucinating?

What's the situation now?

"Interesting. Did you just molest someone?"

Adjaya looked at Wang Xian before turning to the girl beside him with a faint smile.

Accompanied by the crown on her head, she looked extremely noble.

Wearing a crown that symbolized royalty in public was an obvious indicator of the domineering status of Princess Adjaya in the royal family.

"Stop being sarcastic!"

Wang Xian was uncomfortable, seeing her taunting look. "You knew I was here?"

"Everything you do is under my surveillance," Adjaya chuckled as she said frankly. "So, you can forget about running away!"

Wang Xian stared at her with a frown as he was not in the mood for answering her. He spun around and looked at the Dubai lady. Coldly, he said, "Did you see? This is the Princess of Dubai. She's begging me to marry her, and I didn't even agree to it. Look at yourself. With your looks, do you think I would molest you? Who do you think you are?"

Wang Xian stupefied that girl and all the surrounding people with his words.

What the fu*k is this going on?

In particular, the conversation Wang Xian had with Princess Adjaya, and the last thing he said, struck everyone with dizziness.

Their princess had pleaded for him to marry her, yet, he had refused.

All of them found it unbelievable. They immediately turned to Princess Adjaya only to realize that she was glowering at Wang Xian.

The way she looked... like a little woman?

Fu*k!

At this time, they recalled the first sentence that Prince Adallen had said to that young guy.

Brother-in-law?

A middle-aged man could not help but hold onto the leaves in the pot of a decoration plant.

The shock could not be subsided even by holding onto a pot of plants.

That Dubai girl did not know what to do as she looked at Wang Xian. She looked up and saw Princess Adjaya staring back at her.

Gao Yang, Qing Wen, Yang Ze, and Tang Lingling's boyfriend parted their big mouths as they were appalled by what they saw.

"Why? Keeping quiet? Speak up now! With your looks, who do you think you are for me to molest you?"

Seeing the girl keeping mum, Wang Xian glared at her coldly.

"I... I..."

The girl got freaked out by what was happening to her. She panicked, not knowing what to do.

"I knew everything without you telling me." Wang Xian let out cold laughter as he swept his gaze across Gao Yang, Qing Wen, and the rest of the young men. "All of you are setting me up here. What a pity. I wanted to slaughter you guys right away!"

"That, Prince Adallen... Someone is trying to frame me, and they are your citizens. How are you settling this?"

Sensing that Wang Xian was staring at him, Adallen gave a bitter smile. He knew Wang Xian's ability, and his sister's life was in the control of his hands.

They might be a family in the future.

With a darkened expression, Adallen looked to that girl. "Speak now. If I find out the truth myself, you'll pay a heavier price!"

"Prince, not me. It was him. He made me do it!"

She pointed at a young Dubai man.

"No, Prince. I'm sorry. I'm sorry. They were the ones who asked me to find someone to frame that young man to disgrace him. I'm in the wrong, Prince. I confess!"

When the girl pointed to him, that young man quickly replied in trepidation.

A friend had asked him for a favor, so he agreed without any hesitation. However, he had never expected that the man he was dealing with was...

The one the Princess was marrying, the brother-in-law of the Prince.

He had landed himself in deep shit.

He confessed as he trembled, pointing to Gao Yang and Qing Wen.

The confession of the young Dubai guy washed away the glow on the faces of Qing Wen, Gao Yang, and the rest instantly.

Several middle-aged men and elders beside Mu Xiaowan's mother were stunned.

The middle-aged man, who had accused Wang Xian of being a disgrace, paled.

Qing Wen was his son.

Gao Yang's father was among the four people too.

"Bring down their families and companies in Dubai!" Wang Xian said directly as he looked at the four young men, and eventually stopped at Adallen.

Hearing his straightforward words, Adallen twitched his mouth but still nodded. "Sure, don't worry, brother-in-law. I won't let them off. They'll be banned from Dubai in the future!"

Wang Xian and Prince Adallen's words had sent chills to Qing Wen, Gao Yang, and Yang Ze.

Their fathers were breaking out in cold sweat on their foreheads.

"Prince Adallen, we..."

Qing Wen's father was about to beg for his mercy when he looked at Prince Adallen with consternation.

Their family had already moved and settled down in this Empire!

"Shut up. Your son set someone up. As a parent, your sin is unforgivable!"

Before Prince Adallen could say anything, the old man beside him immediately bawled at him.

He knew very well of Princess Adjaya's current status.

How dare someone set the future husband of Princess Adjaya up! Even if you were a family of royalty, you would have to count yourself unlucky, let alone some outsiders.

That middle-aged man paled, with cold perspiration rolling down.

"Wang Xian, can you give my boyfriend another chance?"

Sensing her boyfriend trembling, Tang Lingling pleaded with her eyes red.

Wang Xian lifted his chin to look at her. "Not only will they not be able to stay behind here, but they will also not survive back in their country! He's not getting away!"

Chapter 490: Final Outcome

"Not only will they not be able to stay behind here, but they will also not survive back in their country! He's not getting away!"

A cold voice reverberated in the banquet hall. When Tang Lingling heard Wang Xian, she was stunned and her face instantly paled.

Mu Xiaowan stared blankly as she witnessed the development. She lifted her head and looked at Wang Xian before turning to Yang Ze, Gao Yang and Qing Wen, who were flabbergasted and horrified.

In the end, her gaze fell on Princess Adjaya and Prince Adallen. Suddenly, she had a newfound admiration for Wang Xian.

"Sir, our kids are ignorant. Please allow us to apologize on their behalf. We are from the same country and we hope you can let us off this time!" Gao Yang's father stepped forward and pleaded with Wang Xian in desperation.

Hehe.

Wang Xian's cold gaze glanced past him and fell on the girl of Yang Ze. He walked directly at her and demanded, "Hand me the phone!"

"Ah..! Here you go!" The girl was horrified and her hands were shaking as she handed the phone over to him.

"Not bad! You have even recorded everything! Could it be that you are thinking of editing it and uploading it on the web?" Wang Xian saw the video on the phone, stared at Yang Ze and remarked sarcastically.

"No... Not at all!"

Yang Ze shook his head immediately. Cold sweat had broken out on his forehead.

Hehe.

Wang Xian chuckled sarcastically as he looked across the young men and the middle-aged and old men beside them. "Scram!"

"Please leave!"

Just as Wang Xian completed his words, the old man from Dubai ordered them coldly. "Based on the actions of you guys, we will pursue the matter in the future. In addition, all of you are banned from ever stepping into Dubai!"

The group was exceptionally pale and was a little out of sorts by this moment.

At this moment, a few security personnel stepped ahead and stared at them coldly.

The four young men, together with their female companions and fathers, were brought out of the banquet hall.

After seeing the video on the phone, Wang Xian made a call to Mo Yuan.

After telling him the names, he left the rest for Mo Yuan to handle.

The four young men had dared to try to frame him. Their purpose for this video was clearly to further discredit him.

If he did not have the strong backing he did, he wouldn't know how he would have turned out.

Since he had such strength now, the outcomes for them wouldn't be what they had expected.

"That... Can we sit down and have a chat? As for the rest, please carry on. I'll look for each of you in a while!"

Adallen looked at Wang Xian as he spoke. After which, he spoke to the crowd behind him.

"Alright! We will be waiting patiently, my Prince!"

As the businessmen left, they couldn't help but be surprised and impressed by Wang Xian.

From the attitude of their prince, they could tell that their prince was reserved and even a little fearful towards this young man.

This made them astonished.

Wang Xian shrugged his shoulders and went over to sit down. Adjaya sat beside him while Adallen sat directly opposite to him.

"Greetings, Princess and Prince!"

Mu Xiaowan looked curiously at the prince and princess and greeted them fearfully.

"Hello!"

Adallen and Adjaya looked at Mu Xiaowan, smiled and nodded their heads.

"This is a friend of mine in Dubai. Her family has business in this place. If you can, please help her out in the future!" Wang Xian caressed the head of the little brat and said to them.

"Sure. Since she's a friend of brother-in-law, she's also a friend of ours. Girl, if there's anything you require help with in the future, you can always look for me," Adallen replied with a smile.

"You sure aren't reserved. It seems like you have accepted your identity!"

Adjaya turned and looked at Wang Xian as she questioned him calmly.

"What identity?" Wang Xian's lips curved into a smile as he continued, "Have you prepared the ship I told you about?"

"Marry me and everything is negotiable. Otherwise, you won't be able to leave Dubai. I'm clearly aware of whatever you do in Dubai and every meal you have here!"

Adjaya looked at Wang Xian and smiled.

"You can forget about this. If I wanted to leave this place, you wouldn't be able to stop me!" Wang Xian gulped down a cup of red wine confidently.

"We shall see about that!"

Adjaya lifted another cup of red wine. Her long, slender fingers were around the cup as she smiled and gave a toast to Wang Xian.

Mu Xiaowan was dumbfounded as her eyes widened while witnessing what was happening.

She couldn't contain her curiosity. She pulled Wang Xian's arms and asked softly, "Uncle, what's happening?"

"He's going to abandon me after making use of me!"

Adjaya clearly could hear Mu Xiaowan, and replied plainly.

"Huh? You... You... I had not expected you to be a guy like this! You are really a beast!"

Mu Xiaowan was shocked to hear Adjaya's reply. After which, anger engulfed her as she held onto Wang Xian's clothes furiously and growled.

"Hey! Hey! Don't believe what she has said! Don't tell me you don't believe what I've said..."

"I would rather believe the words from the princess than you! All guys are bad and indeed you aren't an exception. Tsk! I'm looking down on you! I'm looking down on you!"

Mu Xiaowan pointed her middle finger at him.

Adjaya couldn't help but burst into laughter.

...

"Scumbag! You are really a scumbag! It's over! Our Gao Family is through! I'm so going to screw you over!"

Outside the hotel, the fathers of the four young men pointed furiously and started to scold their sons the moment they stepped out of the hotel.

"He's the man of the princess! The man of the princess of Dubai! We have invested billions in Dubai! Now all this is gone! Just be ready to go beg for alms in the future!" the four middle-aged men roared at their sons furiously.

The four young men lowered their heads and didn't dare to say a word.

"Let's get back to our country now that all our assets in Dubai are gone! They are all gone!"

A middle-aged man took out a cigarette and lit it after scolding for some time.

Yang Ze took a deep breath, walked to his father with his head down and said, "Father, we had not expected him to have an identity like this. If we had known... Father, let me raise the family from here onwards. I can earn money!"

Buzz buzz buzz!

At this moment, his phone rang.

He was shocked and immediately picked it up. Instinctively, he wanted to hang up. However, he immediately accepted the call after seeing that it was a phone call from the director of his company.

"Hello, Director Wang!"

"Are you f*cking dead now? If not, you should be! F*ck you! Give up your dreams of being a star. You might as well be a ghost in hell! If you let me see you again, I'll kill you!"

An angry roar came from the other end of the phone call. After which, the other party hung up.

At this moment, his female companion's phone was shaking constantly.

She took out the phone and saw a screenshot her friend had sent her.

Heavenly King Media was the largest media company in the country and Yang Ze was the next superstar they were focusing on grooming. However, the Heavenly King Media had made an announcement on their public Weibo account just moments ago.

[Yang Ze met with a mishap overseas and passed away. Let us mourn in memory of him!]

When she saw the announcement, she was stunned for a full ten seconds.

Chapter 491: In The Name Of The Fire Goddess (1)

Yang Ze was staring blankly at the phone that was hung up while the female star was dumbfounded by the announcement on Weibo.

At this time, several other middle-aged men received various calls.

In less than ten seconds, they'd been plunged into despair.

"What kind of people did you provoke?"

Raging voices came bellowing one by one.

Back in distant China, middle-aged men and old men hung up their phones.

"Of so many people, why did they have to provoke the Dragon King of Dragon Sect? They're obviously digging their own graves!"

"How dare a few insignificant beings provoke a powerful Sacred Sect?"

The current Dragon Sect had already ranked in the top five within the country. Such domineering force need not deal with these magnates themselves.

All they had to do was to release some news, and those magnates would be completely finished.

This was how scary their influence was and the imposing prestige they had for annihilating the Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan.

Messing with Dragon Sect was undoubtedly courting their own doom.

As a celebrity, the media company had announced the accidental death of Yang Ze straight away while a mourning session was held.

The cool breeze filled the night in Dubai while lights brightened the surroundings, bringing relaxing moments.

After exiting the business convention, Mu Xiaowan pulled Wang Xian and her mum to have some food outside.

"Let's go to the supper restaurant operated by my family. You can have as much food as you want!"

Mu Xiaowan tugged Wang Xian by his arm as she spoke.

"Great, then I'll eat to my heart's content!"

Wang Xian chuckled.

"The business in the supper restaurant used to be good. But business declined after the Fire Spirit Volcano died down," said Mu Xiaowan's mum with an elated expression on her face. She looked at Wang Xian with her curiosity piqued.

It was beyond her expectations that her daughter would get to know such a big shot.

In the business convention tonight, the Prince came to her and had a cordial conversation. He even passed her several projects to handle.

All the people around her exhibited envious looks for every project she received.

All of them knew that it was because of her cute daughter, who had brought them closer to the royal family.

Their path in Dubai would have fewer obstacles in the future.

Mu Xiaowan's mother was very grateful to this guy. Seeing her daughter bickering and chatting with him, she would want to bring both of them together, if not for the fact that he might be marrying the Princess and her daughter was underage.

"The Fire Spirit Volcano? The volcano flame will rise again, I guess. It would be nice to have dinner, and enjoy the volcano's view from afar!"

Wang Xian chuckled as he spoke.

"It's really awesome. A lot of couples like to have their dinner here and take photos!"

"Oh, Uncle. Later I'll get my mum to take a few pictures for us!"

As the lass spoke, they took a car towards the Fire Spirit Volcano.

The restaurant was situated at the beach where the trio sat down and chatted.

With the girl livening up the atmosphere, the three of them enjoyed a laid back time.

After their dinner, the lass dragged her mother to the beach to take pictures for them.

"This posture, and this pose. Come on. One, two, three!"

The lass was screaming with excitement on the beach.

Even though it was already 10 pm, there were many people there. Among which, most of them were Martial Artists.

A lot of Martial Artists had not given up on the Fire God's Graveyard. On the contrary, many Martial Artists rushed over after hearing the news.

But out of the eight denominations, five of them had already given up.

The remaining three denominations were waiting for their chances.

"Deity Lady, the entrance of the Fire God's Graveyard is guarded by the Fire Demons, and they are the mighty Dan Realm Fire Demons!"

"There should be one Budding Realm Fire Demon which hasn't struck yet. But it felt suffocating just looking at it from afar."

When Wang Xian and the lass were taking pictures, they heard a voice.

Approximately fifty people were walking towards them from the front.

The outfits of these fifty people were even more unusual than the natives.

In the center was a lady who was holding a creepy skull, burning in black flames, in her hand.

Black runes were painted all over her face and parts of the body, which was revealed. Her profile, along with her outlook, looked malevolent under the dim lights.

"We suffered quite a huge loss this time. If we don't get anything in return, it's totally unacceptable for Nether Flame. This time, we will overturn the entire Fire God's Graveyard to dig out the treasures in it!" said the lady in a hoarse voice. There was fiery heat coming out from her mouth every time she spoke.

"I heard that the Budding Realm experts from Fire God Denomination and Heavenly Flame Denomination are here too!" another old man by the side exclaimed without any expression.

"Lord Nether Spirit, only three denominations are left. They are not giving up on the Fire God's Graveyard that easily. Even Budding Realm Experts have arrived today!" a voice continued to reply.

"It's normal for the rest of the denominations to retreat. Fire God's Graveyard was simply too dangerous for them. Even if they retrieve the weapons made by Fire God or some treasures, it's of no use to them. Only the denominations of the fire lineage will fight for it at all costs."

Another old man who was standing beside the lady looked even more daunting as compared to the lady and Nether Spirit.

His entire body was black. But it was not the tone of a black man, but rather, a carbon black.

It was as though the entire body of the old man had been charred by fire, striking chills to one's spine.

"Uncle, that bunch of people are strange!"

Upon seeing the group of people walking towards her, Mu Xiaowan freaked out and hid behind Wang Xian.

Wang Xian raised his eyebrows as he watched the crowd.

The lady and the other two old men at the forefront were not any ordinary people, as they posed a slight danger to him.

Mu Xiaowan's mother walked over immediately as she held Xiao Wan in her arms while pulling Wang Xian to one side. With astonishment, she watched the bunch of queer people.

"Are they filming a movie?" asked Mu Xiaowan in a whisper.

"Not much fuel is left in the Nether Skull, and we still have a battle later on!" the lady, holding the creepy skull in both hands, murmured softly.

As she carried the skull, the skull suddenly rotated by itself as it aimed at a spot on the right.

Over there sat a quartet of young men who were watching them with curiosity and discussing among themselves in whispers.

When they saw the skull aiming at them, they were horrified as they tried to flee.

Two balls of black flames suddenly darted out from the socket of the skull and hit the four young men.

Without any screams or shrieks, the quartet vanished into thin air.

The black Nether Flame brought the red-colored liquid back to the skull while the black skull exuded a devilish vibe.

Subsequently, the skull turned, aiming at Wang Xian and the rest.

After witnessing what had happened just now, Mu Xiaowan and her mother revealed petrified looks on their faces.

There was a change in Wang Xian's expression too. He swung his arms over to shield them as they flitted away.

The black Nether Flame gave chase. With an arm swing, Wang Xian blocked it off with an immense flame.

"Hur?"

Seeing that the black Nether Flame was being countered, a strange look flickered in that lady's eyes.

Chapter 492: In The Name Of The Fire Goddess (2)

Wang Xian stared coldly at that lady.

As for Mu Xiaowan and her mother, whom Wang Xian had pulled along, all they felt was that they had appeared on the roads all of a sudden. Both of them were still in shock.

However, Mu Xiaowan's mother clearly knew a little about martial artists. She quickly took a few deep breaths to calm herself.

Rumble!

Several luxurious police cars drove over and started cordoning off the area.

"Deity Lady, don't waste precious time on an ant. It's time for us to go!" the old man beside the lady said to her while staring at the Fire Spirit Island before them.

"Hehe, interesting! Such a young Dan Realm expert. I wonder which denomination he's from?"

The lady scrutinized Wang Xian from head to toe before hugging the skull in her hands.

Her eyes and the skull in her hands flickered in a black glow before she smiled and said, "A pretty good brat!"

The two old men by her side chuckled after seeing how she reacted.

An evil and chilling thought reached Wang Xian.

Deity Lady? A pretty good brat?

Wang Xian shivered in chills. With her looks, she looked more like an old hag than a Deity Lady.

Swish swish swish!

At this moment, a group of fifty people flew towards the Fire Spirit Island. From them, one could sense terrifying aura.

"All unauthorized personnel please leave this place immediately. We are sealing off this region. If you wish to die, you can remain behind!"

Cold instructions reverberated while the cops of Dubai put up the seals around the area.

"Xiao Wan, leave with aunt now. Go home and get as far away as possible!"

When Wang Xian saw the experts of Nether Flame flying towards the Fire Spirit Island, he immediately said this to her.

"Uncle... They... They..."

At this moment, Mu Xiaowan was still in shock. She was pointing to the sky and mumbling blankly.

"Let's go Xiaowan, listen to brother. We've got to leave!"

Mu Xiaowan's mother was aware that this incident wasn't something she could handle and immediately pulled Xiao Wan away.

"Be good! Go back and rest!" Wang Xian patted her head and said with a smile.

"Oh? Alright then!"

Mu Xiaowan looked at him, nodded her head and left with her mother.

Wang Xian stood there and frowned as he looked in the direction of the Fire Spirit Island.

When the police saw him standing there, they didn't pay additional attention. There were still many martial artists that remained and they weren't people who ordinary cops could handle.

All they had to ensure was that the locals were evacuated from the place.

"All the terrifying existences from the Fire God Denomination, Nether Flame and Heavenly Flame Denomination are here. They are going to take down the Fire God's Graveyard forcefully this time!"

"I heard the Deity Lady from Nether Flame is here! How incredible is this! Even the Deity Lady is here!"

"The Deity Lady is extremely famous in all of Asia. The Nether Skull in her hands is also a powerful spiritual weapon!"

"There's something strange about Dubai today. In the day, many of them entered the Fire Spirit Island. Could it be that Dubai has gotten some incredible items?"

Wang Xian walked towards the beach and heard the discussions among various martial artists.

Rumble!

At this moment, flames that covered a hundred zhang rose above the Fire Spirit Island and illuminated and dyed the entire sky red. [\[1\]](#)

"Dubai has obtained the Fire God's Graveyard. Everyone, please leave!"

Grrr!

In the air, a soft and crisp voice reverberated.

Following this was a terrifying growl. Everyone on the beach could feel a stifling pressure from this growl.

"What? The uproar yesterday was because of you guys?"

"My Nether Flame was completely annihilated. It would appear that you guys have controlled the fire demons to kill them. Do you know the price of offending our Nether Flame?"

Angry roars erupted and the martial artists on the beach could see a group of experts hovering in the sky above the Fire Spirit Island.

On the volcano, there were over a thousand fire demons which illuminated the entire Fire Spirit Island.

"What happened yesterday was at the most critical juncture of obtaining control over the Fire God Palace. The riots of the fire demons had nothing to do with us and we have no grudge or feud against Nether Flame!" That crisp voice reverberated once again.

"Nonetheless, the losses of our Nether Flame still had something to do with you guys!" the coarse voice of the lady resounded.

"We have no control over the riots of the fire demons. Therefore, we are sorry to the experts from Nether Flame. Our Dubai nation wouldn't want to become enemies with you!"

"If you don't want to, take out sufficient compensation!"

"Are you threatening our Dubai?"

"So what if we are? My Nether Flame suffered grave losses. Since you guys have obtained the Fire God Palace, you have to pay a sufficient compensation. Otherwise, we will have to retrieve the compensation ourselves!"

"Experts from the Fire God Denomination and Heavenly Flame Denomination, do you guys have the same thoughts?"

"Hehe. Dubai was founded by a Water God. You guys would have no use for the Fire God Palace. Why not give it to us?"

"Haha! All treasures in the world have always been decided by the strong!"

The conversation in the air disrupted the silent night. Everyone on the beach could hear it clearly.

"Who would have thought that the treasures have fallen into the hands of Dubai! How surprising!"

"So what if they did. That's the graveyard of a Fire God. Those three fire attribute denominations won't just let it go. Dubai could only negotiate!"

"A Budding Realm existence from both the Fire God Denomination and Heavenly Flame Denomination are here. I just wonder how many came from the Nether Flame?"

"Since Dubai lost the Holy Water Scripture a few hundred years ago, the last Budding Realm expert has passed away. There's no Budding Realm expert left in Dubai and they aren't a match for the three denominations. They are going to just admit their defeat!" A few martial artists were discussing.

"In that case, we could only fight!"

"Grrr! Get out of our territory or all of you will die here!" the crisp voice followed by the roar of a beast erupted. The next instant, one could clearly feel that the temperature around Fire Spirit Island had gone up by several hundred degrees.

A heat wave was formed over the sea.

"Insolent fool! How can a small Dubai possibly be a match for us!"

The coarse voice became a little sharp. A skull was emitting a dull glow.

It was extremely dazzling within the light from the fire.

"They are going to fight!"

"Oh gosh! A battle between Budding Realm experts! A battle that could destroy heaven and earth!"

"Is Dubai courting death?"

The martial artists on the beach were astonished as they continued staring in the direction of the Fire Spirit Island.

Grrr!

A huge and invincible figure jumped into the air and attacked the three denominations immediately.

The terrifying aura sent chills down the spine of everyone.

"F*ck. Snatching my items?"

When Wang Xian saw the battle erupting over Fire Spirit Island, his turned gloomy. He jumped and flew towards the Fire Spirit Island directly.

"What is he doing? Courting his own death? Why is he even thinking of participating in a war like this?"

When the people on the beach saw Wang Xian flying over, they were shocked.

Wang Xian was emotionless. It was as though he was moving instantaneously as he covered a distance of several thousand meters in an instant.

"Huh? This isn't right. Why do you from Dubai know how to use fire attributes attacks? Could it be...you've inherited the legacy of the Fire God?"

An exclamation broke out from the Deity Lady from Nether Flame. In the air, all the experts stared at Adjaya who was standing on the Fire Spirit Island!

"If you guys aren't leaving, don't blame me for not being courteous."

On Adjaya, bright red flames were burning. She held a truncheon in her hands, one that belonged to the Fire God!

Endnote:

[1] 1 zhang = 3.333meters Back

Chapter 493: In The Name Of The Fire Goddess (3)

The truncheon that symbolized the power of a God was giving off a radiant flame, with a maroon Flame Bead embedded on it.

With a crown on her head, Adjaya raised the truncheon in her hands and fired her attack.

"A Fire Demon is trying to stop us?!"

The charred body of the old man from Nether Flame seemed to crack while flaming liquid oozed out from it.

"Burst off!"

The old man stretched out his arm, firing a two-meter-thick fire column at that Fire Demon.

Roar!

That ten-meter Fire Demon craned its neck up and stared fearlessly at that dreadful column of fire.

The length of the fire column spanned over a few hundred meters long.

The daunting momentum could either collapse a mountain or overturn the sea.

"Scram!"

The gigantic purplish Flaming Sledge Hammer in the hands of Fire Demon smashed at the fire column.

Boom!

The fire column was forced back at a more rapid speed, charging towards the charcoal-black old man.

The charcoal-black old man had a slight change in his expression. He opened his chest, which had completely turned fiery-red, just like an endless flaming cave.

The fire column charged at his chest.

"Attack!"

The Deity Lady of Nether Flame revealed a grave expression as the black skull that she was hugging was suspended above her head. Black flames exploded from her eyes.

At the same time, the sockets of the black skull were surging with black flames.

Four beams of flames that looked like Aurora fell onto the Fire Demon.

Sst!

A sizzling sound was heard as the figure staggered a hundred meters back in the air, with four black marks left on its body.

However, the mark did not cause any damage to it, not even breaking down the body armor.

"What strong armor. No doubt, it's the equipment made by the Fire God!"

Deity Lady of Nether Flame exhibited an awful expression while the skull above her opened its mouth with a clicking sound.

"Fire Rain, seethe!"

Another old man came, with his body painted in black runes that were radiating with flames.

Instantly, masses of daunting fire clouds condensed in the sky.

The size of the Fire Cloud was a hundred meters, located amid the empty air.

Whoosh!

Drops of flaming rain descended from the sky.

Growl!

Weak Fire Demons let out painful shrieks below as deep hollows sunk in on their bodies when the Fire Rain landed on them.

The Fire Clouds changed as endless, dense raindrops kept falling onto the Fire Demons.

The earth-shattering scene depicted a forbidden spell cast.

"Fire God, Mu Hua!"

Seeing that the endless Fire Rain kept attacking the Fire Demons, Adjaya stretched her arm out, igniting a fiery glow from the bodies of Fire Demons.

The Fire Rain fell onto it just like raindrops falling on an umbrella.

"The slave of Fire God indeed. You have inherited the Fire God's legacy to possess a Budding Realm's strength at such a young age!"

The husky voice from Deity Lady of Nether Flame was heard again. She turned to the two old men beside her and said coldly, "If both of you aren't making your moves, get lost now. If you want to take advantage of the situation, I'll kill everyone here!"

"Haha, the Fire Demon is compelling. To restrain it, we need at least two to three people. You guys will keep the Fire Demon busy, while we will slaughter that girl!"

The two old men from Fire God Denomination and Heavenly Flame Denomination burst out laughing as they looked at Adjaya. "We can only slay you since you put up a fight now!"

The two of them struck with one holding a hammer, and one holding a sword and shield with flames swirling on it.

The old man with the sword and shield was bursting with Zero-degree Sapphire Heavenly Flames that made his assault a creepy and daunting one.

Roar!

Seeing that Adjaya was under attack, the Fire Demon quickly lunged at them.

"You still want to protect your owner?"

Deity Lady of Nether Flame swung her arm, jerking her body and the skull above her head.

The ten-meter skull that was formed by black flames opened its huge mouth as it bit at the Fire Demon.

"Descend from the Fire Cloud!"

Another old man revealed a cold smile as the hundred-meter Fire Cloud from the sky began descending, crashing down at the Fire Demon.

"Crack!"

The chest of the charcoal-black old man cracked, with two scary fire hands stretching out at the Fire Demon.

Bam!

For a moment, the Fire Demon was twisting with the gigantic flaming skull, hand, and Fire Cloud.

"Roar. Scram!"

The Fire Demon bawled with a furious look on his face as he wielded the Flaming Sledge Hammer in his hand.

A hundred-meter flame swept across the sky with each swing.

"Kill! Little girl, do you think you can fight against us with just a Fire Demon alone?"

The Budding Realm expert with a sword and shield was exuding a sapphire flame. Pointing the long sword at Adjaya, he was closing in on her within a ten-meter range.

Shoo!

Just then, a five-meter-long Flaming Spear popped into the air as it struck Adjaya.

"Kill!"

Upon seeing the incoming attacks from both sides, Adjaya had a dreadful look.

She let out a cry while thousands of Fire Demons, and over a score of Dan Realm Fire Demons, charged at the disciples of the three denominations.

Her truncheon spun and was raised above her head.

The flaming truncheon exploded into a daunting fire column, which dashed for the Flaming Spear.

"You're still too weak!"

Just then, the old man with the sword and shield displayed coldness on his face as a sapphire glow flickered, piercing Adjaya with his flaming longsword.

Adjaya had a drastic change in her expression. Her truncheon continued to spin in her hands.

Dense vivid flaming truncheons were rotating around her.

Boom!

The Zero-degree Sapphire Heavenly Flame on the longsword seemed to pierce through the air and slashed at the defense on Adjaya.

The compelling force hurled her off the ground by a few hundred meters immediately.

"How dare a lass who has just inherited the legacy dare to vie with us. Go to hell!"

Another old man combined with the long spear, exploding a glow of the fire that lurched at Adjaya.

Bam!

Adjaya was appalled. She placed her truncheon across her body while the compelling force forced blood to be spat out from her mouth.

She had just inherited the Fire God's legacy two days ago, after which her combat techniques and skills could not be compared with these old and experienced freaks.

"Ignorant lass, exterminate!"

The old man with the sword and shield held them and lowered both of his arms!

"Sword raises and down the shield!"

Behind Adjaya, countless sapphire swords condensed by Zero-degree Sapphire Heavenly Flame emerged and shrouded the thousand-meter space.

Numerous shields fell from the sky, dashing for Adjaya.

Adjaya paled with despair surging from her heart.

"Oh no, Adjaya is in danger!"

"We're gone. It's not easy for our family to have a Budding Realm expert. Adjaya was just too stubborn. Just give them the treasures since they can't take the Fire Demons away!"

At the same time, everyone from the royal family stood at a rooftop on a building across from the Fire Spirit Island. Upon seeing the developments of the event, they paled and clenched their fists tightly.

"It was a surprise for her to inherit the legacy of all legacies and become the Fire Goddess!"

"What Fire Goddess? She's been chased away by three major denominations now!"

Everyone at the beach watched the battle erupt on Fire Spirit Island with horror.

When the Fire Goddess emerged suddenly, they were flabbergasted.

However, the Fire Goddess was going to perish!

The daunting fire was breaking out around a radius of more than ten kilometers of Fire Spirit Island.

Every blow could destroy Heaven and Earth.

Thousands of Fire Demons jumped to the sky and wrestled with the three major denominations. They killed the disciples of the denominations mercilessly.

Yet, their Fire Goddess was stuck in a devastating plight of the Budding Realm battle.

"The battle is coming to an end. After the Fire Goddess is killed, the Fire God's Graveyard will belong to the three denominations!"

The Martial Artists watched and shouted loudly from the faraway beach.

Roar!

However, at this time, a long roar echoed through the sky!

Chapter 494: The Goddess And The Divine Dragon

The sword and shield covered Adjaya's back and top.

In two other directions, the old man stood silently in the middle with his Flaming Spear. Based on the speed he displayed previously and the horrifying destructive force he possessed, Adjaya had no chance of escaping.

Ahead of her, the old man carried a sword and shield and stared right at her.

Adjaya felt a little sorrow and desolation. Her eyes flickered. She couldn't understand why she had not agreed to their conditions previously.

After all, all these things wouldn't belong to her in the end.

Facing attacks from all directions, Adjaya held the truncheon tightly with both hands.

The strongest final strike!

Grrr!

A dragon roar reverberated across the sky.

The surrounding crowd was stunned. The roar that was filled with endless pressure sent chills down the Budding Realm experts' spines.

Adjaya was astonished as she looked below her.

A horrifying existence was flying towards her while emitting scorching flames.

Adjaya was taken aback. Feeling the horrifying aura that even triumphed over the fire demon, her face turned serious.

The old man with a sword and shield and the old man with a long spear were surprised. Their pupils constricted and they stared fervently at this divine dragon from the East.

Grrr!

Another roar erupted across.

"Adjaya, I'm here! Come! Let's finish them off!"

A voice entered the mind of Adjaya. In the instant she was distracted, she found herself surrounded by a seven to eight-meter-long Inferno Divine Dragon.

The Inferno Divine Dragon was none other than Wang Xian.

He circled around Adjaya and his noble dragon head remained above her.

Ka ka ka!

Above Adjaya, the shield fell on Wang Xian's body and cracked like glass. A densely packed longsword with sapphire flames fell on him, causing crisp clashing sounds.

Wang Xian lowered his head slightly. His entire head alone was already larger than Adjaya's body.

"Come up!"

Wang Xian wiggled his dragon whiskers and placed Adjaya on his back.

She looked blankly at Wang Xian with the truncheon still in her hands.

"It's time for battle!"

The dragon whisker brushed past her face while Wang Xian spoke to her and stared right at the two old men.

When Adjaya regained her senses and saw Wang Xian below her, she was elated.

Holding the truncheon in her hands, she was standing on a divine dragon.

That's a goddess!

Wang Xian didn't mind Adjaya standing behind her. He was accepting of the idea of a female dragon rider.

"Oh gosh. What... What's that? A divine dragon from the East?"

On the beach, the crowd of martial artists was shocked to see the sudden appearance of the divine dragon and Adjaya standing on its back in her fiery-red dress.

The Goddess and the Divine Dragon!

The visual impact instantly made everyone dumbfounded.

"Divine dragon! Why would the invincible divine dragon of the East appear here? Could it be that a divine dragon was living within the Fire God's Graveyard?"

The crowd made their guesses. Their eyes widened and were fixed on it.

"Divine dragon of the East..."

In a building a short distance away, the royalty of Dubai was exhilarated to see the appearance of the divine dragon.

"Why would a divine dragon of the East appear here suddenly? An existence like this is legendary even in China. Why would it appear to protect Adjaya?"

They had doubts in their minds. In the day, they had entered the Fire God Palace. There wasn't any divine dragon in it.

Adallen had an idea and thought. However, he soon shook his head.

Grrr!

"Kill!"

In the sky above Fire Spirit Island, Wang Xian opened his dragon jaws and spewed dense flames on the old man with the sword and shield.

Lava-like flames reached him instantly.

The old man with the sword and shield was shocked and raised the shield in his hand immediately to block the flames.

However, Wang Xian had charged ahead at this moment. The dragon claw fell heavily onto the old man.

"Tsk! So what if there's a divine dragon. Today, I'm going to slay a dragon!"

The old man with the sword and shield was emotionless. As he swung down the longsword in his hand, the Zero-degree Sapphire Heavenly Flame that spanned over dozens of meters was whipped towards Wang Xian.

Bam!

However, as the dragon claws clashed across, the longsword made from flames was shattered instantly. Without a loss in momentum, Wang Xian's dragon claws slashed down on the old man.

"What!"

The old man was astonished. The dragon claw was exceptionally terrifying and reached his eyes instantly. He immediately raised his shield.

On the shield, a blue network of light glowed.

Bam!

However, the indestructible shield started cracking upon impact with the terrifying dragon claws.

The old man shot down towards Fire Spirit Island as though he was a falling meteorite.

Boom!

From thousands of meters above ground, the old man smashed into the Fire Spirit Island, causing a huge explosion.

"Flames. Thousand Severance!"

At this moment, a terrifying Flaming Spear lunged towards Wang Xian.

Adjaya, who was on his back, frowned and moved the truncheon in her hands immediately.

Bam!

Before Adjaya's attack and defense were released, a dragon tail swept towards the spear.

The terrifying force made the old man throw up huge mouthfuls of blood. His Hukou pressure point was ripped apart directly. [\[1\]](#)

Adjaya was taken aback and looked in shock at Wang Xian who was below her. Her attention fell on his dragon scales that were glowing in a beautiful shade of red.

Seeing the majestic body, she couldn't help but grab the horns on his head.

"Hey!" Wang Xian's whisker brushed across Adjaya and he grumbled unhappily, "Watch your hands!"

"Alright, alright!"

Adjaya's lips curved up slightly while her hair danced in the air as the wind ran through it.

Rumble!

Below them, the old man with the sword and shield flew up from the Fire Spirit Island and looked in shock at Wang Xian.

There was a dense network of cracks on the shield he was carrying.

The old man held his spear with shaking arms. He looked to Wang Xian before turning to the old man with the sword and shield.

They exchanged glances and looked to the other three people from Nether Flame that were keeping the fire demon occupied. Instantly, they made their decision!

"Everyone from Fire God Denomination, leave!"

"Everyone from Heavenly Flame Denomination, leave!"

The two of them didn't hesitate a moment as they fled.

When their voices dissipated, they had disappeared from sight.

"What?"

In the sky near them, the three people from Nether Flame that were stuck in a battle with the fire demon saw them leaving. Instantly, their faces turned bitter.

When their eyes fell on the majestic divine dragon of the East and Adjaya who was on it, their faces were exceptionally solemn.

"Kill those scum from the Nether Flame!"

When Wang Xian saw the old man with a sword and shield and the old man with the long spear escaping, he didn't give chase.

With the speed of the two of them, it would be hard for Wang Xian to catch and kill them.

At this stage, if an expert were to flee with all his might, it would be hard to kill him unless there was an overwhelming difference in strength.

However, Wang Xian was burning with killing intent towards the Nether Flame.

It was especially so towards the old hag or their Deity Lady.

Grrrr, grrr!

When the fire demon saw his master and Wang Xian approaching, he was ecstatic. He roared enthusiastically and smashed the Flaming Sledge Hammer towards the void space.

Weng!

The hollow flames appeared and swarmed towards the charcoal-black old man.

"Kill!" Adjaya cried out furiously. Lifting the truncheon in her hands, the volcano below her erupted.

Endless lava swept towards the group from the Nether Flame.

Wang Xian tumbled, made an arc across the night sky and grabbed towards the old hag with his dragon claws.

Endnote:

[1] Hukou pressure point refers to the area between the thumb and the index finger Back

Chapter 495: Making A Name in Asia

"Oh no, let's run!"

Seeing Wang Xian and Adjaya charging in their direction, the charcoal-black old man hurriedly shouted with horror.

"Retreat!" the Deity Lady of Nether Flame commanded loudly, trying to make her escape.

Roar!

"Old hag, you might as well stay here!" Wang Xian barked at the Deity Lady of Nether Flame, tossing balls of immense fire at her.

"Stop her!" Adjaya commanded the Fire Demon.

"Yes, master!"

With a dull roar, the Fire Demon wielded his Flaming Sledge Hammer and smashed at the spot where the Deity Lady was trying to run.

The Flaming Sledge Hammer struck across the sky, drawing a kilometer of flames.

Wang Xian swept his dragon tail and sped up to a hundred meters away from the Deity Lady. He raked her with his dragon claws.

Nine columns of flames tore the empty space. Every hundred-meter-long column of fire was dashing toward Deity Lady of Nether Flame, while Adjaya, on Wang Xian, followed with an attack.

"Scram!"

The Deity Lady let out a shrill cry as she was aghast upon seeing the trio after her life.

The dense black runes on her body rose again as they condensed into a Nether Flame.

The Nether Flame transformed into a black silhouette while she stood in the middle of it.

The black skull ballooned rapidly to a two-meter size, suspending above the silhouette.

"Trying to kill me? Fat chance!"

The Deity Lady of Nether Flame stood in the center of the silhouette, speaking in a clanging voice that sounded like crashing metal.

However, the voice was not coming from her mouth, but rather from the skull.

"God of Nether Flame in possession. All of you must die!"

The God of Nether Flame was a frightful silhouette ten meters in size. It was connected by black Nether Flame runes while a hideous skull was giving off endless Nether Flame.

The lady stood in the air and struck awe into those who were watching this from afar.

The Deity Lady of Nether Flame swung her arm, hurling the daunting Nether Flame and power at Wang Xian and Adjaya.

"Such a queer and compelling offense. Unlike me...I can only spew fire, rake with my dragon claws and sweep with my dragon tail!"

Seeing the attack made by the Deity Lady, Wang Xian was a little envious. He made up his mind to learn all these battle techniques in the future.

"However, given the Fire Demon and my strength, it's sufficient to keep you back!"

Wang Xian's eyes were full of murderous intent.

Wang Xian would not let her off simply because that old hag had wanted to kill them and feed her skull not long ago.

The ten-meter God of Nether Flame might have looked huge, but it was not so for Wang Xian.

He swung his dragon claws to exchange blows with the God of Nether Flame's arm.

Ka Ka Ka!

The loud raking sound was heard as soon as the dragon claws dropped on his arm. The arm that was condensed by the runes of the Nether Flame let out an explosive sound.

Boom!

At this time, the Fire Demon came crashing down on her from the side with a similar body size.

Wielding his hammer down, the black Nether Flame runes burst straightaway.

Argh!

Fear flickered in the eyes of Deity Lady of Nether Flame. With a scream, she cried, "Help me!"

The two old men who were hesitating at the side were appalled!

"You two can jolly well stay here since you dared to come over!"

Wang Xian swept his cold gaze at them.

The two old men had mixed expressions. They were certain that the Fire Demon, Divine Dragon, and the Fire Goddess who had inherited the legacy of Fire God could undoubtedly make them stay if they wanted.

They were not as strong as Deity Lady, and they could barely cope with themselves.

"Deity Lady, see you at the Hall of Nether Flame!"

Two old men exchanged gazes and beamed into blazing rays that disappeared in the sky!

"You two old bastards!"

The Deity Lady of Nether Flame gritted her teeth and bawled with a hideous look upon seeing their departure.

"Old hag, go to hell!"

Wang Xian sprung into murderous action, attacking the Deity Lady with his dragon claws and dragon tail.

Fire Demon did the same thing at the same time.

The three ten-meter freakish masses were battling in the sky.

Every blow was deafening to the ears, while every strike sparked fire.

The group of Martial Artists at the beach were dumbfounded by the battle high up in the sky.

The unparalleled experts with body masses of ten meters were striking with power that was similar to a volcanic eruption.

Every casual swing rumbled the sky with a thousand-meter-long flame.

The ocean below was tumbling violently.

The seething sound of the seawater was incessant.

Every clashing sound of the blows resonated through the sky.

Within a radius of fifty kilometers of the entire Dubai, it could be heard.

Mist was raining from the jets flying in the sky.

This was an effort of Dubai to try to cover up the fight tonight. Otherwise, hundreds of thousands of people would witness this.

Argh!

With a sharp shriek, the God of Nether Flame silhouette was shaking before it slowly broke down.

The skull shrunk once again and lost its former luster.

The Deity Lady of Nether Flame had hair all over her face as she coughed out blood without stopping.

Not until a dragon claw raked over was peace restored in the sky.

Wang Xian circled in the air while the enormous Fire Demon stood by the side, gazing at his master, Adjaya.

All the Fire Demons from the Fire God Palace strode and stood behind Adjaya.

Thousands of Fire Demons were brought down by less than half by the experts from those three denominations.

Noticing her triumph in this war, Adjaya revealed a smile on her face.

She moved and stood in front of those Fire Demons, gazing in the direction of the coast.

"I, Hertha Mohakaben Cesid Al Adjaya, inherited the legacy of the Fire God. I'll protect Dubai from any invasion!"

Adjaya held her truncheon up. The crown on her head, coupled with her red hair and red dress, brought out the goddess vibe within her.

Hearing her declaration, Wang Xian smiled and came to her side, coiling around her.

Gulp!

Time seemed to freeze on that scene while all the Martial Artists on the beach were stupefied.

"Goddess, the Goddess of Fire. She's compelling!"

"Beautiful, what a beauty!"

"She is at most twenty years old, and yet, she owns the domineering Fire Demon, Divine Dragon, and the Fire God's legacy. She's simply the luckiest woman!"

"She slew the Deity Lady of Nether Flame. From now on, the Fire Goddess has made a name in all of Asia. She will have a chance to advance to the God-like level in the future!"

Numerous Martial Artists watched dumbfoundedly as the Goddess, Martial Artist, and Fire Demon returned to the Fire Spirit Island.

After today, another supreme-class expert had emerged from Asia.

The Goddess of Fire, Hertha Mohakaben Cesid Al Adjaya!

"Get down!" said Wang Xian coldly. As soon as Adjaya returned to the Fire God Palace, she sat on Wang Xian straight away while Wang Xian made a flip.

"Heh heh!"

Adjaya stroked his dragon whiskers before she made a leap.

Wang Xian jerked as he reverted to his human form. The flames on him condensed into fiery-red clothes.

"Look, don't you think the fiery-red clothes on you match mine? Even though you're shorter than me, it's okay. I still like you a lot!"

Adjaya stood before Wang Xian, looking at him with a broad smile.

Chapter 496: Diabolism And The Chaotic World

"Have you prepared the ship I told you about previously?"

When Wang Xian heard her saying he was shorter than her, he looked to her feet.

She was still wearing heels. Wang Xian had no idea why some foreign girls would like this type of stuff.

However, with Adjaya's current strength, whatever she wore wouldn't affect her movement.

"If I gave them all the things here today, you would have been left with nothing!"

Adjaya didn't answer him directly. Her eyes were fixed on him and she wore a beautiful smile.

"Your life is still in my hands!" Wang Xian looked at her and remarked plainly.

"Let's not talk about something that will spoil the mood. As long as you agree to marry me, I will naturally send these items to you. Moreover, I can even tell you every word in the Fire God's Secret Book and the Holy Water Scripture. What do you think? I believe the dowry is definitely a sufficient and handsome sum!" Adjaya walked around Wang Xian and commented with smiles.

"Impossible. It's not just I that doesn't agree. My girlfriends wouldn't agree to it either!" Wang Xian answered helplessly. "I can't remain here and play along with you. I've got to get back tomorrow."

Adjaya raised an eyebrow and said, "In that case, I'll return with you. Aren't you interested in the Fire God's Secret Book? If I don't tell you today..."

She didn't complete her sentence and simply stared at Wang Xian.

"You want to go back with me?"

Wang Xian looked at her and his expression was changing. He was pondering what might happen subsequently.

"What? It still wouldn't work? In that case, don't even think about leaving this place!"

Adjaya stared angrily at him.

"Alright. But I have to inform you... Forget it, I'll tell you again when we are traveling. Get your guys to prepare first."

Wang Xian thought about it and saw how she reacted. In the end, he nodded his head helplessly.

"Alright, you can have the ship anytime. If you don't mind, drop by the Royal Palace for a meal!"

Adjaya smiled and wrapped her arms around Wang Xian's arm.

"Alright. However, I have to leave by noon!"

Wang Xian thought about it before nodding his head. Maintaining a positive relationship with the Royal Family of Dubai would definitely be beneficial to him.

"Alright. I'm going back to take a nap. Why don't we go together? After all, I'll be marrying you in the future!"

Adjaya held his arm and blinked flirtatiously at him.

"Sure! Why don't we just do it here!" Wang Xian smiled sheepishly.

Adjaya's body stiffened and she saw Wang Xian's teasing eyes. She snorted and left.

Wang Xian chuckled and headed back to the hotel.

When Wang Xian returned to his room, it was already 2 am.

The next morning, the bell to his room rang when dawn had just broken.

Wang Xian opened the door and Adjaya walked in directly with a set of clothes.

"Your clothes were in tatters yesterday. I got people to custom make some for you. Try it. If you have nothing to attend to, let me bring you to tour the royal palace," Adjaya smiled, handed him the clothes and said as she walked into the room.

"Alright!"

Wang Xian nodded his head. Changing into the clothes he received, he saw that they were fitting. However, what made him speechless was that all of them were bright red.

They resembled a couple's costume with what Adjaya was wearing.

"Hmmm! Not bad. Let's go for lunch!"

Adjaya smiled, nodded her head and walked to Wang Xian to hold his arm before they left the room.

Along the way, they drew attention from countless people.

It was especially so for Adjaya who was wearing a crown. Her bright red clothes and her fiery-red hair were extremely attention-grabbing.

After having breakfast with Wang Xian, they headed towards the royal palace of Dubai.

Adjaya brought him around the royal palace.

At noon, Wang Xian had a meal with Adjaya's parents and her younger brother.

There weren't many people and there weren't many rules.

When Wang Xian saw the King of Dubai, he wasn't reserved and simply chatted casually with him.

"Have you prepared the stuff I told you about?"

After having lunch, Wang Xian waved his hand and said goodbye to Adjaya's family.

"They are prepared. When your guys are here, I'll send some people to bring them over."

Adjaya played with her hair while speaking to him.

"Great. In that case, we will be flying to the capital of China before heading to where I stay!" Wang Xian nodded his head and said to her.

"Anything will do. I'm following you no matter what. I have never left Dubai before. Will China be a fun place?" Adjaya asked enthusiastically.

"It's more beautiful in terms of landscape. Almost everywhere is a desert here." Wang Xian nodded his head and looked at her clothing. "Are you going to take the flight in this attire?"

She looked just how she had previously with a crown on her head. However, she went further this time with a truncheon in her hands.

A Level 13 spiritual staff.

"What's wrong with it?"

Adjaya tilted her head and revealed her fair and flawless neck.

"As you wish!"

After all, she was the Goddess of Flames. No matter what she wore, her strength was still the same.

"Let me send the little brat a message!"

Wang Xian took out his phone and headed towards the airport with Adjaya.

Just as he sent out the message, he received a call from Guan Shuqing.

"Hello, Shuqing?"

"Xiao Xian, when are you coming back?"

"I'll reach Shang Jing in the afternoon. What's the matter?" Wang Xian asked curiously.

"Nothing. Just come back as soon as possible. The Underworld is really chaotic now and the Sacred Soul Sect was annihilated. Diabolism has surfaced recently and there are killings everywhere in the entire Underworld. Just last night, an unparalleled expert from diabolism came to the Sui Clan!"

"Really? Why did he visit the Sui Clan?"

Wang Xian was shocked.

"A warning. They are warning the Sui Clan to not get involved. They are frantically executing revenge on the sects that besieged them fifty years ago."

Wang Xian nodded his head. "It's great that things are fine. I'll be reaching the airport soon. I'll look for you once I arrive."

"Alright, Xiao Xian. I won't feel safe until you're here!"

Guan Shuqing hung up the phone after adding two more lines.

"Your girlfriend?" Adjaya asked curiously. She couldn't understand Chinese and thus didn't know what Wang Xian was talking about.

"Yeah, she's my girlfriend!" Wang Xian replied with a laugh.

"It seems like I'll have to learn Chinese in the future!" chuckled Adjaya.

Wang Xian shrugged his shoulders. He took out his phone and entered the Underworld website.

"I've only been in Dubai for three to four days and there have been such major changes to the Underworld!"

Looking at the various pieces of news on the Underworld website, Wang Xian was astonished.

[Diabolism and the chaotic world. Sacred Soul Sect was annihilated and an unparalleled expert has fallen!]

[The four devil sects of Devil Corpse Palace, Devil Spirits Temple, Remains and Reeds Spirits have shown exceptionally terrifying strength. Devil Corpse Palace easily annihilated the Sacred Soul Sect!]

[Emperor Qi of diabolism wishes to challenge Nie Wushuang, Sect Leader of Dong Hua Sacred Sect, on the peak of Huashan!]

[Vampires, zombies, spirits! Terrifying diabolism!]

All the messages were related to diabolism.

Since the end of the Outstanding Young Heroes Competition, the entire Underworld had undergone major changes!

Chapter 497: Painted Skin

"Diabolism!" Wang Xian murmured as he read the messages on the Underworld forum.

Diabolism's cultivation was circled around the bloodline. Their cultivation means were usually gruesome.

Vampires, ghouls, and cursed venoms were the work of Diabolism.

In addition, they often got in touch with dark and evil stuff during their cultivation, which in turn, distorted their mind and character.

As a result, they were eccentric, fearless, and unorthodox.

Therefore, they were known as Diabolism, which often got besieged and wiped out by the ordinary Martial Artists.

Wang Xian was indifferent to Diabolism.

They arrived at the airport where they took a plane back to Shang Jing.

Adjaya, who was dressed like a queen, was a spotlight wherever she went.

She also received some attention, even in the first-class cabin on the plane.

Adjaya smiled as she did not mind the attention at all.

As a Princess, she could easily disregard the curious gazes cast on her.

When the plane landed at the airport, it was already 8 pm.

Wang Xian walked out of the airport with Adjaya and took a cab to Sui Clan.

Adjaya was looking around with curiosity, and would pose questions to Wang Xian from time to time.

Wang Xian would always answer with a smile while the car continued its journey.

Boom!

Just then, an explosion was heard ahead.

"What an unlucky day to encounter such a thing. No wonder nobody has been willing to drive at night for the past few days."

Upon hearing the explosion ahead, the cab driver was flustered.

Hastily, he made a U-turn.

"What's the matter? Driver?" asked Wang Xian to the cab driver with a frown.

"The night in Shang Jing has been restless for the past few days. It's chaotic. Damn, I'm not driving tonight. I'll drop you guys later without you paying!" the driver said with embarrassment.

Wang Xian knit his brows slightly. "We'll get out here then!"

"Great, hurry now!"

Apparently, the taxi driver learned something from his colleagues, which resulted in him braking the car immediately.

"What's the matter? Have we reached the spot?" Adjaya queried Wang Xian.

"Not yet, but it's not far away from here. Let's walk over!"

Wang Xian shook his head and replied to Adjaya as he looked ahead.

"I'm following you, no matter what!"

Adjaya cast her gaze ahead. The booming sound just now indicated a fight over there.

"Mm, let's check it out!"

Wang Xian nodded.

He was surprised to see Shang Jing in such a mess.

The duo stalked over. Wang Xian raised an eyebrow as soon as a faint bloody mist emerged.

"Hiak hiak, the Dongmen Clan wiped out the devil sects fifty years ago. But fifty years have passed, and today marks the doom of Dongmen Clan! Haha!"

"The Remains will skin all of you and craft you into an art piece. Your bones will be made into perfect weapons!"

"Haha, our Laozu annihilated the Sect Leader of Remains fifty years ago. You still have the cheek to seek revenge now. Courting your own doom!"

"Hiak hiak, the Dongmen Clan will be annihilated in ten days!"

"Hmph, how arrogant!"

As Wang Xian and Adjaya approached, they could hear two cold voices.

Bloody mist lingered in the air while the pungent blood caused Adjaya to frown.

Wang Xian looked over to where a score of young men stood.

They were confronting each other with killing intent filling their eyes.

"Dongmen Clan, one of the three main Sacred Clans in Shang Jing. Remains, one of the four main Sects in Diabolism!"

Two of the forces were engaged in a fight. It was no wonder that they did not care about other things.

Sports cars were parked on both sides. Apparently, the disciples of Remains were ambushing the Dongmen Clan.

"That is...?"

Wang Xian peered at the disciples of Remains.

All ten of them had creepy appearances. There was a mixture of old and young, and some of them were women.

Those ladies looked extremely glamorous and alluring.

On a closer look, these disciples of Remains were extremely queer.

They seemed to be wearing masks, which was made out of human skin.

The Painted Skin? [\[1\]](#)

Wang Xian thought of a phrase. There was an introduction to Remains in the Underworld forum.

They used the bones of deceased experts to refine them into a complete bone puppet before wrapping it with human skin.

Using this unique technique, one can be revived. It was as though they were making a Spiritual Weapon.

Bone puppets with spirituality possessed domineering combat power.

These disciples of Remains obviously did not have the strength to make a bone puppet. But they could plaster painted skin on themselves.

After plastering the painted skin, they would obtain a strong defense.

"How perverted this is. They could really fight with the ninjas from Japan!"

Adjaya had seen through their true colors and remarked with disgust.

"Well, everything from that small country came from us. Too bad they learned all the bad things instead of the good ones!"

Wang Xian shook his head.

Now, he finally understood why everyone wanted to eliminate Diabolism.

Just this painted skin alone required the use of the skin from someone who had just died. Such means were absolutely sick and cruel!

A score of them confronting each other with ten Remains with bones in their hands, and people from Dongmen Clan holding their short swords.

"Let's go!" Wang Xian took a look and said to Adjaya, taking a detour from the side.

Be it Sacred Clan or Diabolism, everything is good as long as they don't provoke me.

"Okay!"

Adjaya cast a curious gaze at them before holding onto Wang Xian's arm, making a detour.

"Hur? Wait? What delicate skin!"

Just then, one of the Remains disciples spotted Wang Xian and Adjaya. She peered over and took a measure of Adjaya.

A girl, who was extremely alluring and pretty, gave off a faint bloody vibe on her face and scarlet lips.

"Hong Niang, let's finish off these fellows from Dongmen Clan before we do other things!" an old man with a wrinkled face said with a frown. Even though he looked like an old man, his voice sounded just like any young person!

"I'll leave it to the nine of you. Such delicate skin, I must collect!"

Hong Niang licked her fingers and chuckled.

"Haha, no doubt this is the Diabolism. All of you deserve to die!"

One of the young men from Dongmen Clan laughed out loud as he swept a confident gaze at the nine people beside him.

"Kill them all!" the young man from Dongmen Clan in the middle exclaimed coldly and rushed out.

Hong Niang ignored all of them and sucked her finger as she strode towards Wang Xian and Adjaya.

With admiration in her eyes, she took a measure of Adjaya, summing her up with eyes filled with surprise and appreciation.

"A foreign babe. I'm still short a foreign babe in my collection. It looks like today is my day. I've made up my mind. When I advance to Inborn Realm, I'll make you my first bone puppet!"

Endnote:

[1] "The Painted Skin" is a short story about how goblins or monsters put on human skin to deceive humans with their looks. It is written by the Chinese writer Pu Songling collected in Strange Tales. Back

Chapter 498: All Of You Are Courting Death

"What is she talking about?" Adjaya frowned and asked Wang Xian upon seeing that flirtatious woman scrutinizing her from top to bottom.

"She's saying she's going to skin you, preserve you and use your bones to build her first bone puppet!" Wang Xian smiled and translated for Adjaya.

Adjaya had inherited the Fire God's legacy and reached the Budding Realm. Yet, a brat that hadn't even reached the Inborn Realm was talking about killing her, removing her skin and building a bone puppet with her bones.

That was truly courting her own demise!

"What?"

Adjaya raised an eyebrow and looked at the flirtatious woman before her in shock.

Argh!

At this moment, screams of desperation resounded from behind Wang Xian and Adjaya.

"Haha! Scumbags from the Remains! When you guys entered Shang Jing, we picked up your trails. Ambushing us? How ignorant and stupid are you guys?"

"Today, all ten of you aren't getting away!"

"Inborn! You are an Inborn expert! Scheming Dongmen Clan!"

"Haha! Nothing is scheming when it comes to dealing with trash like you guys!"

The aura of an Inborn expert shrouded over and wretched cries from disciples of the Remains reverberated. That young man was killing without reservations with the red sword in his hand.

With his Inborn-level strength, it was easy for him to deal with this group of disciples from the Remains who had not reached the Inborn Realm.

"What?"

Hong Niang, who had been scrutinizing Adjaya, was astonished to see five of her companions being killed when she turned around. Fear crept up on her.

"Despicable Dongmen Clan. You guys are as despicable as your Laozu!"

Hong Niang's expression was hideous at this juncture. As she waved her arms, bloody-red mist shrouded forward.

At the same time, she fled rapidly.

"Thinking of escaping under my eyes?"

The young man with the red sword looked at her in contempt. He lifted his head slightly, flew into the air and lunged with his sword towards Hong Niang.

"F*ck you, Dongmen Clan! All of you will be annihilated by us soon!"

Feeling the terrifying killing intent from behind her, Hong Niang was bitter.

"Die! Wretched beings like you guys that wear our human skin!"

The young man lunged forward with his sword towards the back of Hong Niang.

Argh!

Hong Niang cried pitifully and fell to the ground.

However, a naked figure fled at an even more incredible speed suddenly.

"A cicada casting off its skin? She has discarded her human skin!"

The young man was taken aback. In a cold and harsh tone, he continued, "Do you think you can escape like this?"

Holding the sword in his hand, he swung it rapidly.

The blood red sword drew a trail of blood in the air.

Argh!

A wretched scream resounded. The lips of the young man curved into a smile and showed a satisfied look.

He turned around and noticed that all the other nine corpses of the disciples of Remains were now on the ground.

"Brother Liang, you are too incredible! How did you manage to guess that the disciples of the Remains would ambush us? Haha! They would have never expected us to foresee their actions!"

A young man looked at the corpses on the ground and started flattering the young man with the sword.

"Haha! They are really courting their own deaths to enter our territory and go against us!"

Dongmen Liang lifted his head and smiled. As he waved his arm, the bloody-red sword that he had thrown ahead previously returned to his grip.

"Brother Liang, you have grown stronger once again. That's the greatest escape technique of the Remains and yet she couldn't escape from Brother Liang!"

A group of young men gathered over and flattered him.

Dongmen Liang kept his sword behind his back and smiled gently.

From him, one could pick up a superiority vibe.

He looked towards where Wang Xian and Adjaya were and his eyes beamed with excitement.

When Hong Niang from the Remains was approaching them, Dongmen Liang had noticed Adjaya.

Attractive height and figure together with her breathtaking beauty.

With the crown on her head, she resembled a noble goddess.

Moreover, she was a foreigner.

Even though Dongmen Liang had seen many breathtaking beauties, his heart was still set ablaze when he saw Adjaya.

A foreign beauty like her was among the best of the best in the world.

He lifted his head, wore a faint smile and walked directly towards Adjaya.

"Hey, pretty, I'm Dongmen Liang. I hope you aren't shocked by what happened!" Dongmen Liang said to Adjaya with a face of smiles.

She looked at Wang Xian, baffled, as she couldn't understand.

Dongmen Liang was also taken aback. Noticing her confused looks, Dongmen Liang repeated it again in English.

Adjaya understood but simply shook her head and looked at Wang Xian.

"Let's go!"

Mmm!

Adjaya nodded her head with a smile.

Huh?

Dongmen Liang was taken aback and his face quickly flushed red with embarrassment.

The group of young men around him exchanged glances and immediately shouted to Wang Xian, "We saved you guys! Aren't you two going to repay us before leaving?"

"Oh?"

Wang Xian stopped in his tracks and looked at them with ridicule. "How shall we repay you?"

"Since ancient times, beautiful women would repay heroes who saved them with their bodies. In that case, just let the beautiful woman with you marry our Brother Liang! Haha!" a young man shouted loudly.

The others around him nodded their heads in agreement.

Their words were arrogant and their actions were brazen. They were too full of themselves.

Dongmen Liang raised an eyebrow and didn't say a word. However, he was scrutinizing Adjaya from top to bottom and revealed a vile smirk.

"He's giving me dirty looks!" Adjaya turned to Wang Xian and said.

"Their words are dirty and crude too!" Ruthlessness gleamed in the eyes of Wang Xian as he spoke to Adjaya.

"Brat, what the hell are you saying there. Speak something that we can understand. And now... Leave the foreign girl with you behind..."

Looking at their arrogance, Wang Xian shook his head. As he waved his arm, a stream of flames shot towards them.

Huh?

The young man was shocked to see Wang Xian attacking him with flames while he was still speaking.

However, before he could react to it, the flames had fallen on him.

Without any cries, the young man was reduced to dust.

That ball of flames continued to attack the remaining group of young men around.

"What?"

Fear flashed in the eyes of the prideful Dongmen Liang who was standing beside Wang Xian.

"YOU..."

"Why are all of you so eager to die!?" Wang Xian looked at Dongmen Liang with contempt. He waved his arm again and flames flew towards him.

"How is this possible?"

The young man was terrified. He released his aura and blasted it towards the flames.

Bam!

However, the flames weren't affected at all and fell on him.

Boom!

Argh!

Dongmen Liang's eyes widened and were filled with desolation and disbelief.

"I'm from the Dongmen Clan. How dare you kill me...? Argh!"

"Let's go!" Wang Xian looked away in contempt.

Regardless of whether it was the Remains or the Dongmen Sacred Clan, or regardless of whether it was diabolism or the orthodox sects, there would only be one outcome if they offended him.

Death!

Chapter 499: Backyard On Fire And Equipment Refining

"Don't take my arm and stop asking me to marry you!"

"I hope you can write down the contents of the Fire God's Secret Book in these next few days!"

Wang Xian was walking with Adjaya at night on the road of Shang Jing. He reminded her again when they were about to enter Sui Clan's territory.

Adjaya threw him a cold look. "What? Is this a warning to me?"

Seeing how she acted, Wang Xian was helpless. "I don't want my girlfriends to misunderstand!"

"Hmph, that's your business!"

As she spoke, her eyes were suddenly red.

"Hey, can you stop acting like this? It feels like I'm bullying you," Wang Xian hurriedly told her upon seeing her look.

"Are you trying to deny it? I followed you here and gave you all the treasures. You can kick me away anytime now. If I write out the contents in the Fire God's Secret Book, will you ask me to scram?"

Adjaya stared at him with tears welling up in her eyes as she glowered at him coldly.

"No, no. Forget it. Do whatever you want, I won't chase you away!"

Wang Xian went soft-hearted upon seeing her look.

A peerless Budding Realm Goddess who had obtained the legacy of the Fire God had followed him all the way to the foreign land. If he continued to bully her, Wang Xian was really not a man.

"That's better. I don't need you to mind my business. You can't chase me away either!"

Adjaya lifted her chin slightly and walked off.

"You should make a turn over here. You don't even know your way, why are you taking the lead?"

Wang Xian shook his head. He did not understand women.

"Dragon King!"

Upon seeing the arrival of Wang Xian, the people from Sui Clan greeted him respectfully.

"Mm, I'll go over myself!"

Wang Xian waved at the disciples of Sui Clan on the way over and headed for the Sacred Mountain of Sui Clan.

Adjaya, on his heels as she regained her mood, looked around the Siheyuan with curiosity.

"Haha, Wang Xian is here?"

Sui Huang's voice was heard even before Wang Xian stepped in.

"It looks like your injuries have almost recovered!"

Wang Xian walked in with a broad smile.

"Xiao Xian!"

Guan Shuqing trotted over with a beaming face as she tugged his arm.

However, her smile disappeared when she saw the girl tagging along behind him. She studied her curiously.

No, calling her a girl was inappropriate. She looked more like a Goddess.

Guan Shuqing had seen foreign babes before, but it was her first time seeing babes like Adjaya, who was such a ravishing beauty.

Tall and perfect figure, wearing a crown, and a truncheon in her hand. She had a special demeanor.

Guan Shuqing had only observed a similar demeanor on Sun Lingxiu before.

Unlike Sun Lingxiu who was pure light, Adjaya was more like a proud fire that one could not help but take a few more looks at.

"Who is she?"

Guan Shuqing was on her guard as she asked Wang Xian softly. Her eyes were locked on his.

"A friend from Dubai. Her name is Adjaya!"

Wang Xian's lips were trembling as he replied solemnly to Guan Shuqing.

"Friend? What friend?"

"Just an ordinary friend. Don't imagine things, Shuqing. Don't you believe me?"

Wang Xian forced a smile on his face.

Adjaya, who could not understand what they were talking about, smiled at Guan Shuqing.

"Hello!"

Guan Shuqing nodded to Adjaya doubtfully.

Sui Huang walked out and asked Wang Xian with a beaming face, "Wang Xian, did you reap anything this time?"

"Not bad, you don't have to worry about the Art of Cultivation!"

Wang Xian chuckled. With Guan Shuqing in his arms, they walked over. Seeing that his arm had already grown out, he said "I didn't expect you to recover quite fast!"

"I consumed a lot of treasures!"

Sui Huang sat at one side and gestured to Wang Xian.

Wang Xian said something to Adjaya, and she sat on one side.

"Hur?"

Seeing the truncheon in Adjaya's hand, Sui Huang slightly frowned.

"Sui Huang, what's the situation now in the Underworld?" asked Wang Xian to Sui Huang while sipping his tea.

Sui Huang shifted his attention as he slightly pondered. With a sigh, he said, "It's very complicated. Everyone is on their own now!"

Wang Xian slightly knit his eyebrows. "Is Diabolism very strong?"

"Yes, indeed!" Sui Huang nodded. "Diabolism, who kept a low profile for fifty years, erupted with daunting strength all of a sudden. Emperor Qi of Diabolism is going to challenge Nie Wushuang, the Sect Leader of Donghua Sacred Sect!"

Diabolism is frantically avenging the enemies of fifty years ago. Five first-class forces and one Sacred Sect are down. The unparalleled experts from Remains even warned me not to take part in the grudges between Dongmen Clan and them yesterday. Otherwise, they will bring a bloodbath to Sui Clan. They are as overbearing as they were fifty years ago. Donghua Sacred Sect will be joining hands with some Sacred Sects these next few days to either suppress, wipe them out, or make peace with Diabolism."

Of course, that will depend on the war between Emperor Qi and Nie Wushuang!"

Wang Xian nodded slowly. "How many Sacred Sects are involved now?"

"Six Sacred Sects and one Sacred Clan. Eighty percent of the strength in the Underworld is involved, and this is not taking the annihilated Shengling Sect into account," Sui Huang said with a sullen face.

"Seven Saint-class forces. Now, we only have eight Sacred Sects and four Sacred Clans in the Underworld. And yet, we have seven forces involved in it." Wang Xian exhibited a grave expression. "Sui Huang, do you intend to stay out of this?"

"Now, it's not up to me to decide. But if Sui Clan, Xiao Clan, and Dragon Sect can join hands together, it might be worth a try!" Sui Huang said slowly.

"No, I'm not going to get involved. They can kill whoever they like. It has got nothing to do with Dragon Sect!"

Wang Xian chuckled.

"You only have fifty disciples in Dragon Sect. It's easy for you to stay out of this, but not Sui Clan!"

Sui Huang sighed as he revealed a worried face.

There were two lineups at the moment, Diabolism and orthodox sects.

Joining Diabolism was out of the question. But he did not want to join the orthodox sects either.

In order to annihilate Diabolism fifty years ago, there were no more than a hundred Inborn Experts who remained in the entire Underworld.

If things turned out to be the same as before, it would be a bloodbath again.

"I wonder what Diabolism thinks...?"

Wang Xian shook his head slowly.

"What do you think? They are nourishing themselves through fights with fresh blood, corpses, and bloodlust. All these things empower the strong ones. They are just a bunch of devils who have no conscience and aren't afraid of death!" Sui Huang said with a sullen face.

They did not want to participate in this war, nor did they want Diabolism to win. If they won, it would be darkness for them all in the future.

This was a difficult choice and also a helpless one.

"Come and look for me if you're in trouble!"

Upon seeing Sui Huang's troubled expression, Wang Xian spoke to him with a broad smile.

Regardless of whether it was God or Devil, they would only become corpses if they made enemies with him!

Chapter 500: Equipment Refining And Backyard On Fire

Walking out from Sui Huang's room, Wang Xian sent Adjaya to another room immediately before bringing Guan Shuqing to another room.

With time on her side, Guan Shuqing started examining Wang Xian and Adjaya.

Wang Xian had long thought of an explanation. He illustrated Adjaya as a patient that required him to treat her over a few days.

Moreover, he told Guan Shuqing that Adjaya was the princess of Dubai and the princess of Dubai wouldn't marry a man from a foreign country.

Guan Shuqing accepted his explanation with doubts.

Tsk!

In the room a short distance away, Adjaya faced Wang Xian's room and snorted.

"He's bullying me because I don't understand Mandarin. Learning a language is an easy task for me!"

As she mumbled to herself, she dialled a number and soon opened up a video conference.

Several professional Mandarin professors appeared before the screen and started teaching her Mandarin.

To the astonishment of these professors, Adjaya quickly mastered one after another phrase.

"Morning!"

The next day morning, Adjaya was at the door of her room when Wang Xian walked out of his room.

She was wearing an earpiece. When she saw Wang Xian, she greeted, "Morning!"

Huh?

Wang Xian was taken aback. "Good morning! How did you..."

"Xiao Xian, my luggage!"

At this moment, Guan Shuqing's voice disrupted his words. Wang Xian looked at Adjaya, baffled. She had reverted her attention to her phone while he helped to carry Guan Shuqing's luggage!

"It's time to go. We will be heading back to Rivertown directly," Wang Xian shouted at Adjaya who was looking at her phone screen and wearing an earpiece.

Adjaya nodded her head and followed behind them.

Guan Shuqing was curious as to why Adjaya was constantly looking at her phone. However, she did not ask her.

She still trusted Xiao Xian deeply. Moreover, Xiao Xian had explained a lot to her yesterday.

Wang Xian was glad to see Adjaya acting in this manner. They took the plane and left for Rivertown.

On the plane, Adjaya was still looking at her phone and didn't say a word.

"Dragon King!"

When they arrived at Rivertown, Mo Yuan drove the car over and greeted him respectfully.

Since the Dragon Sect had been established, they had not been addressing Wang Xian as Young Master. Instead, they called him the Dragon King directly.

"Huh? Have all the things arrived?" Wang Xian asked Mo Yuan.

"They have arrived and all the treasures have been moved to the floating island!"

"Alright!"

Wang Xian nodded his head.

"Xiao Xian, today's Saturday. Qingyue and the rest are waiting for you in the villa!" Guan Shuqing said to Wang Xian.

"Although we were only separated for a few days, it felt like three years!" Wang Xian smiled sheepishly.

"Look at how happy you are!"

Guan Shuqing rolled her eyes at him. Soon the car left the airport and drove rapidly towards the villa.

"We are getting out here!"

Seeing Lan Qingyue, Sun Lingxiu and Xiao Yu waiting by the doors, Wang Xian said this to Adjaya.

Mmm!

Adjaya nodded her head. She removed the earpiece and put her phone away. From her, a strong sense of confidence was exhibited instantly.

"Xiao Xian!"

"Brother!"

Lan Qingyue, Xiao Yu and the rest immediately shouted.

Wang Xian smiled upon seeing them and opened up his arms.

"Eh? This is...?"

Lan Qingyue noticed Adjaya, who was following behind Wang Xian, instantly. She frowned and asked about her curiously.

Any woman would feel a strong sense of danger from Adjaya.

"She is from Dubai..."

"I'm Hertha Mohakaben Cesid Al Adjaya. You guys can call me Adjaya. I'll be Wang Xian's future wife. You are calling Xiao Xian brother? One, two, three, four... Four is just right. In Dubai, a man can have at most four wives!"

Guan Shuqing was smiling and prepared to introduce her as the princess of Dubai and as a patient of Wang Xian.

However, before she could finish her words, Adjaya's voice resounded.

She spoke in perfect Mandarin.

As Adjaya spoke, she stepped forward and held onto Wang Xian's arm. She tilted her head and asked, "How's my Mandarin, Xiao Xian? Aren't I incredible? I've spent a night mastering Mandarin. Are you surprised? Are you happy?"

Are you surprised?

Are you happy?

When Wang Xian heard Adjaya speak Mandarin, his face stiffened.

Looking at Adjaya, who wrapped her arms around his with a smile, his body couldn't help but shiver.

Guan Shuqing's face instantly stiffened and sank.

Lan Qingyue's smile had also disappeared.

Two furious glares fell on Wang Xian.

Wang Xian could feel dense killing intent and saw Guan Shuqing and Lan Qingyue clenching their fists tightly.

"Scumbag! Didn't you tell me she's your patient?"

Guan Shuqing glowered at Wang Xian and her eyes were a little red!

"This... This matter isn't like you..."

"You are still trying to lie to me?"

Guan Shuqing gave him a harsh stare before storming into the villa furiously.

Lan Qingyue had also turned as cold as ice as she followed Guan Shuqing into the villa.

Xiao Yu was in shock over what had happened. Sun Lingxiu was also caught by surprise. She looked at Adjaya, smiled at her, and hesitated for a moment before returning to her room.

"Brother, you are doing things you shouldn't. Everything's on fire now!"

Xiao Yu stared at him before running into the villa.

Haiz!

Wang Xian heaved a long sigh.

"I can accept you having four wives. It wouldn't do if you had more!"

At this moment, Adjaya, who was beside Wang Xian, remarked suddenly.

Wang Xian felt like his head almost exploded. "Hey, miss, can you tell me about the Art of Equipment Refining in the Fire God's Secret Book first?"

"Miss? Xiao Xian, do you think I should get a Chinese name in the future?"

Adjaya was baffled, tilted her head and said, "Oh right! Those girls seemed a little angry a while ago. I'll go comfort them in a while. I believe they will accept me!"

Wang Xian looked to the sky. His expression had changed greatly as he walked towards the villa.

"I had not expected him to have a mistress outside. He's a scumbag! He's the biggest scumbag! If she was sister Lingxiu, I still could accept it. But he brought a foreign girl back and lied to me, saying that she's his patient..."

The moment he entered the house, he heard Guan Shuqing crying.

Wang Xian's body stiffened, and he turned to glare at Adjaya before entering.

When Xiao Yu saw her walking in, she immediately gestured to Wang Xian and asked him not to come any closer.

Wang Xian rubbed his nose and went to Adjaya. "Tell me about the Art of Equipment Refining."

"Sure. I have prepared it for you!"

Adjaya took out a few pieces of paper and handed them to him.

"Oh, right. I believe you have seen what happened a while ago. Please don't give me any more troubles!" Wang Xian looked at Adjaya and said solemnly.

"Leave this to me. If they can accept me, I'll stay by your side. If they can't, I will leave. Will this do?"

Adjaya looked solemnly at him suddenly.

"Alright!"

Chapter 501: Alliance Of The Orthodox Sects

Sigh!

Wang Xian heaved a sigh and shook his head while looking at the villa before he headed outside.

A man has a home that he cannot return to. How sad it is!

But he had brought it upon himself.

One must bear certain consequences of having his harem.

Wang Xian walked to the sea. With a swift movement, he hovered to the floating island.

It had been some time, and the construction of the island was almost complete. The buildings were all up and running.

Treasure Vault, Elixir Refining Room, and now there would be a new addition - Refinery Room.

Wang Xian revealed a smile on his face when he came to the Treasure Vault and saw a truckload of treasures.

There were more than three hundred Inborn Spiritual Weapons, but all of them were, however, fire-attributed Spiritual Weapons, which were not practical to Dragonians.

In addition to the myriad of weapons, the rest were fire-attributed materials.

Using the fire-attributed material to make weapons would not necessarily refine only fire-attributed weapons. Still, it would require materials of other attributes to neutralize it.

Wang Xian was unsure of the details.

Wang Xian took out the Art of Blacksmith from the Fire God's Secret Book that Adjaya had passed to him.

From the Level 13 Spiritual Weapon in Adjaya's hand and over three hundred Inborn Spiritual Weapons, one could tell that Fire God Hephaestus' forte was refining equipment.

His skill in smithing was definitely top-notch.

The Art of Blacksmith was a long-lost skill in the Underworld. As such, all Inborn Spiritual Weapons were extremely precious, so much so that even Sacred Sects would treat them as valuable items.

If Wang Xian could smith out different Inborn Spiritual Weapons, he could arm Dragonians to the teeth.

In addition, this could also enhance the level of Dragon Palace.

"Refine weapons using low-grade material to make high-level items!"

Wang Xian read the first line of the note and continued.

"Dragon King!"

At this time, Mo Yuan's voice was heard from the outside.

"Hur?"

He frowned slightly. "What's the matter?"

"Donghua Sacred Sect sent someone here to invite the Dragon Sect to join the alliance of the orthodox sects. They urged you to attend as all the Sacred Sects, Sacred Clans, and first-class forces from the Underworld will be present!" said Mo Yuan.

"Alliance of the orthodox sects? When is it?"

Wang Xian knit his eyebrow slightly.

"Tomorrow at noon at the Dong Hua Ritual Grounds!" Mo Yuan answered.

"Call upon some Dragonians to go with me!"

After some consideration, Wang Xian instructed Mo Yuan.

"Yes, Dragon King!"

The alliance of the orthodox sects was equivalent to the Underworld joining hands.

"It seems like the war between good and evil is inevitable!"

Wang Xian frowned slightly as there would be many unparalleled experts participating in the war.

Since Inborn Experts were the main strength in this war, their deaths made perfect sense.

That included unparalleled experts. For those who had yet to become Inborns, they would be on their own to stay alive.

"Let's check them out."

Wang Xian stood up and walked out.

"Dragon King!"

Soon, Mo Yuan brought twenty Dragonians to Wang Xian and greeted him with respect.

"Where is the Dong Hua Ritual Grounds?" asked Wang Xian to Mo Yuan.

"They are located at the North Mountain, which is the most central spot in the country. We need eight hours to reach there!"

"Get ready, and we'll set off soon," said Wang Xian to Mo Yuan. With quick movements, he flitted to the villa.

When he reached the entrance of the villa, he tip-toed in.

"Brother!"

Seeing Wang Xian coming in, Xiao Yu quickly walked to him.

"What's the situation now?" asked Wang Xian in a low voice.

"What else?" Xiao Yu rolled her eyes at him. "In the past, I still thought of finding a boyfriend like you. But now, you might as well kill me to have a boyfriend like you!"

"Eh... I'm heading out later. Donghua Sacred Sect is organizing an alliance of the orthodox sects, so I'm going over later!" Wang Xian asked Xiao Yu, "Are you going too?"

"Yes, Master just called me to go over. I heard that Donghua Sacred Sect was not only the one leading, but there are also another six forces turning up. No one dared to reject!"

"Don't go. Stay at home and watch over them for me," Wang Xian peered at the rooms and said to Xiao Yu.

Xiao Yu rolled her eyes. "Then I'll inform my master!"

Wang Xian nodded, stroked Xiao Yu's hair, and giggled.

Xiao Yu threw him a dirty look. "The two sisters-in-law are infuriated. You better go out and stay clear for the time being!"

"Okay!"

Wang Xian smiled and nodded as he headed outside.

Donghua Sacred Sect was the strongest Sacred Sect in the Underworld, and it was recognized as the most powerful force.

Nie Wushuang, Sect Leader of Donghua Sacred Sect, was the ultimate expert in the Underworld. Donghua Sacred Sect was the one who took the lead in establishing the alliance of the orthodox sects against Diabolism fifty years ago.

Today, the alliance of the orthodox sects was taking form once again.

When Wang Xian led twenty Dragonians near Dong Hua Ritual Grounds, it was night time.

Dong Hua Ritual Grounds were situated in the most central region in China, which was next to a small county.

"Are you all from Dragon Sect?"

Just as they entered the small town, several young men in yellow outfits walked over and cupped their fists as they asked.

"Yes!"

Mo Yuan, standing by the side, nodded to the disciples of Donghua Sacred Sect.

"Please follow us into the mountain. We have prepared your accommodation!"

The young man gestured to them with a beam.

"Sure!"

Wang Xian nodded and went into the mountain of Donghua Sacred Sect.

Several young men were staring at Wang Xian with curiosity. One of them hesitated before he said, "I presume you're the Dragon King!"

"Mm." Wang Xian nodded nonchalantly.

Seeing his lukewarm reaction, these young men raised their eyebrows and kept quiet!

Whoo-hoo!

Just then, eight people hovered through the air and entered the range of mountains ahead.

"Let's hover over!"

Wang Xian gazed at the road ahead, which was several kilometers away before they could reach their destination. Given the speed of these young men, they needed to walk for another ten minutes at least.

"Dragon King, only the Inborn Experts of our sect can hover in the air. Flying is prohibited for other sect members!" a young man explained to Wang Xian with a broad smile.

Wang Xian raised his eyebrows and said impassively, "Donghua Sacred Sect doesn't respect their guests!"

"Heh!"

Those young men chuckled upon hearing his comment. They had faint pride surfaced on their faces. "Dong Hua rules supreme in the Underworld. This is our rule, and the respect shown to Donghua Sacred Sect from the guests!"

Respect?

A hint of disdain flashed in Wang Xian's eyes while he did not utter any words.

Seeing Wang Xian keeping mum, those young men deepened their smiles and lifted their chins while leading them into the mountains of Donghua Sacred Sect.

Towering mountains with flying cranes and cries of the ancient apes.

Majestic buildings stood among the mountain range while water tumbled down from the mountain in the center just like a wonderland!

Chapter 502: Lord of Sea Serpent Island

"Everyone, this way please!"

A few young men gestured to Wang Xian and the group and pointed to a mountain peak as they spoke.

"This is one of our mountains used for welcoming guests. Everyone in the Dragon Sect can stay in it for the night!"

Wang Xian nodded his head slightly as he headed in.

The group of young men didn't follow. They smiled and watched Wang Xian and the rest walk away.

"How incredible! That twenty-year-old teenager is a Dan Realm existence and created a Sacred Sect alone!" a young man commented with envy.

"Tsk! He just got darned lucky!" the other young man by the side remarked with jealousy.

"Let's go. Tomorrow, an alliance between the orthodox sects will be formed. In the near future, we will have to engage Diabolism in battle. At that time, please be careful, everyone!"

"Under the leadership of Dong Hua Sacred Sect, Diabolism will definitely be easily annihilated."

A group of young men discussed enthusiastically as they walked away.

Wang Xian arrived at the tallest structure on the Guest Peak. He looked at the yard from the door before heading into his room.

"Dong Hua Sacred Sect is really something. They have a dozen-plus Guest Peaks just for welcoming their guests. A giant mountain sect was established over hundreds of mountains in this area. How majestic!"

When Wang Xian entered the yard, he looked ahead of him.

Raucous discussions reverberated from below. Wang Xian saw various sects entering with many of their disciples in awe of the mountain sect of Dong Hua Sacred Sect.

Even disciples from Sacred Sects were shocked when they entered the grounds of Dong Hua Sacred Sect.

Sui Clan was incredible and had hundreds of Siheyuan. However, they were nothing compared to the hundreds of mountains that Dong Hua Sacred Sect occupied.

"Dong Hua Mountain Range is indeed worthy of the name of the strongest force in the Underworld!"

Below the mountain where Wang Xian and the group were, some disciples of other sects exclaimed in shock.

Dong! Dong! Dong!

At this moment, the sounds of a bell ringing reverberated across the Dong Hua Sacred Sect.

The bell could be heard from all corners of Dong Hua Sacred Sect. At this moment, disciples of Dong Hua Sacred Sect came out from their mountain peaks.

Each mountain peak had a huge training field before it. Their disciples were practicing diligently in the training fields.

A soft roar reverberated across the sky of Dong Hua Sacred Sect.

Wang Xian stood on the mountain peak and looked ahead. He squinted his eyes and was a little shocked.

"The number of disciples in Dong Hua Sacred Sect is a little beyond my expectations. Seven to eight thousand disciples are distributed over forty to fifty mountains. Moreover, their strength is on average stronger than most of the Underworld!"

Even the area beneath a waterfall a long distance away was filled with disciples training.

Each and every disciple was proud of their sect.

Wang Xian looked on for a little while longer before returning to his room. He retrieved the paper that had the Art of Weapon Refining written on it and continued reading.

[Ding! Comprehended the Art of Weapon Refining.]

When he finished reading the entire illustration, the voice of the system resounded in his mind. Wang Xian's eyes beamed with excitement.

It was just as he had expected!

[Name: Wang Xian]

[Race: Five Elements Divine Dragon (Able to transform into a human)]

[Level: 8]

[Dragon Energy: 19,634,210/100,000,000]

[Superpower: Dominate the marine animals (Ability to rule any marine animals that are lower than your own level)]

[Devour any form of marine animals (For extraction of dragon energy)]

[Five Elements Control]

[Art of Cultivation: Divine Dragon Transformation]

[Arts of Refining Elixir Pills: Alchemist Apprentice (Refine All Elixir Pills With The Origin Source Flame)]

[Arts of Equipment Refining: Blacksmith Apprentice (Refine All Equipment With The Origin Source Flame)]

Refine All Equipment With The Origin Source Flame! It is just like the Arts of Refining Elixir Pills!

Wang Xian was exhilarated. He knew clearly how insane his Arts of Refining Elixir Pills were.

If the Arts of Equipment Refining were as incredible, it would be a piece of cake for him to craft Inborn Spiritual Weapons in the future.

"I've got to give it a try after getting back, and equip the entire Dragon Sect to the teeth!"

Excitement gleamed in Wang Xian's eyes.

The night passed quickly. On the next morning, Wang Xian went down the Guest Peak at around ten in the morning.

As compared to the day before, Dong Hua Sacred Sect was livelier today. Several powerful sects and families from the Underworld were touring the place or conversing.

Wang Xian looked around and led the group of dragonians to walk around the place.

"That is...? Dragon King from the Dragon Sect!"

"He's the Dragon King. All the disciples behind him are the disciples of Dragon Sect. I have heard that they are young. Now that I have seen it with my own eyes, they are really unreasonably young!"

"How great would it be to have such incredible strength at such a young age!"

"Annihilating the two Saint-class forces, Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan! The rise of the Dragon Sect was built upon the corpses of those two Saint-class forces!"

"The Dragon King is really handsome. To stand at the pinnacle of the Underworld at such a young age, he's definitely Prince Charming in the eyes of the thousands of ladies in the Underworld!"

When the disciples of various sects saw Wang Xian, they discussed softly.

Wang Xian heard the comments from his surroundings and chuckled. He walked to the large cauldron in the middle and started curiously observing the materials used to make this cauldron.

Level 10 material! What a shame that this is just an ordinary cauldron. The creator didn't know anything about equipment refining.

"Please make way! Please make way!"

At this moment, shouts could be heard.

"Sss. That is..."

"Who would have thought he would be here? Oh gosh! Dong Hua Sacred Sect really has its weight in the Underworld!"

"Now that every Sacred Clan and Sacred Sect is here, he's here too!"

"The Lord of Sea Serpent Island has a feud with the Dragon King from the Dragon Sect. The Dragon Sect almost killed the son of the Lord of Sea Serpent Island previously!"

"The young lord of Sea Serpent Island is also following behind."

Raucous discussions broke out. Wang Xian raised an eyebrow and ruthlessness gleamed in his eyes.

The previous time, that young lord of Sea Serpent Island wanted to kill him.

After he had managed to escape, Wang Xian asked Mo Qinglong to find the location of Sea Serpent Island. In the end, they couldn't find any information.

"Father, there they are! It is that guy! It is them!"

At this moment, from the back, the young lord of Sea Serpent Island looked around proudly as he immersed himself in the fearful and respectful gazes of the crowd.

When he heard the surrounding crowd discussing softly, he looked over and his eyes were filled with anger.

He turned to his father and spoke with killing intent beaming in his eyes.

Hai Jiao had the looks of a middle-aged man and stood at approximately two meters tall. Two huge horns grew from his back and every step of his would bring strong water flowing around his body. He was just like a giant beast walking on the land.

When Hai Jiao heard his son, he turned and looked towards where Wang Xian was.

Wang Xian also turned his head over and stared coldly at Hai Jiao.

Hai Jiao didn't say a word and walked directly towards Wang Xian.

The dozen-odd Dong Hua Sacred Sect disciples that were following frowned and immediately rushed over.

Other than that, there were ten old men behind Hai Jiao. Each and every one of them had savage killing intent circling them as though they were beasts.

They were all staring at Wang Xian and didn't bother to hide their killing intent.

"You are the so-called Dragon King?"

Hai Jiao walked to Wang Xian. His face was covered with hair and emotionless, and he questioned Wang Xian in a deep voice.

Wang Xian stared at Hai Jiao and smirked. "Are you here with your son to apologize?"

Chapter 503: How Dare Insignificant Ants Intervene?

"Apologize? You really think too highly of yourself!"

Hai Jiao glowered at Wang Xian coldly. "You injured my son and killed my men. I was busy these past few days, and didn't have the time to kill you!"

"Is that so?" Wang Xian curled his lips. "I sent someone to look for your island, but I didn't find it. If I knew where your island was, both of you wouldn't be here today!"

Boom!

Boom!

Tit for tat.

Wang Xian and Hai Jiao stared daggers at each other.

A surge of aura exuded from them. As the two clouds of aura collided, the surrounding space seemed to be distorted.

However, their aura was not revealed in any way. When experts advanced to a certain level, they could perfectly control the aura exuded.

When the two auras knocked against each other, none of the people around them noticed that the contest had begun.

Hai Jiao was staring at Wang Xian with astonishment as he narrowed his eyes.

The Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island clenched his fist and stared at Wang Xian furiously.

But he dared not act insolently as Wang Xian was a compelling expert.

He knew the power of a Dan Realm Expert, but he had no fear, as his father would be slaughtering him.

Gulp!

"A confrontation. Will they break out into a fight?"

"The second strongest expert in the Underworld is facing the youngest unparalleled expert from the new Dragon Sect. If they were to battle, it would be another battle of the ages!"

"Be it Dragon King or Hai Jiao, the two of them are almost invincible. They are the brazen existences. Unless one of them admits defeat or dies, they will need to tough it out!"

Seeing Wang Xian and Hai Jiao gazing at each other coldly, the surrounding atmosphere was frozen as the people around them were shocked to see this.

Some of the experts from Sacred Sects also looked over with flickering eyes.

"Lord Hai Jiao, we should go over!" some of the young disciples of Donghua Sacred Sect hesitantly and cautiously said to Hai Jiao upon noticing the situation.

"Dragon King, please excuse us and let us through!" a young disciple of Donghua Sacred Sect lowered his chin and said to Wang Xian plainly.

This disciple was one of those young men who had received Wang Xian and his gang yesterday.

Wang Xian looked at that young man with an eyebrow raised. "You guys walked to my side and expect me to give way?"

"Dragon King, Lord Hai Jiao is the VIP that Donghua Sacred Sect invited. You're in our territory, so please give way!"

The young man craned his neck up and told Wang Xian this before he turned to Hai Jiao and revealed a flattering smile.

"Ants."

Wang Xian swung his arm and released traces of killing intent in his eyes.

Upon seeing Wang Xian making his move, Hai Jiao remained unwavering except for his slightly lifted eyebrow.

"How dare you, an insignificant ant, intervene in the experts' affairs."

Under the shocked and astonished eyes of that young man, Wang Xian grabbed his neck and stared coldly at him.

"Cough... You..."

The young man flushed with redness when his neck was seized. He glared at Wang Xian with a dreadful expression. "You... this is Donghua..."

Bam!

Wang Xian jerked his arm, and an explosion was heard around the limbs and Elixir Field of that young man.

Argh!

The young man let out a cry of horror, which resounded in Donghua Sacred Sect.

"I wonder how the mighty Donghua Sacred Sect disciplines their disciples. Such trash actually tried to taunt experts!"

Wang Xian waved his hand and hurled the young man out.

"Argh, no... My limbs, my Elixir Field. You actually crippled me. You crippled me!"

The young man who was thrown to the floor spat out a mouthful of blood. He felt his body shake with terror. His body was huddled up and his eyes were full of despair.

His Elixir Field and four limbs had been completely destroyed.

Sss...

"Dragon King actually crippled a young disciple of Donghua Sacred Sect!"

"He's completely crippled. Besides, it's hard to heal injuries caused by such an expert. He's finished totally!"

"He's asking for his own death. How can a young disciple of Donghua Sacred Sect interfere in the conflict between the Dragon King and Hai Jiao? Both of them are Dan Realm Experts. A fellow who is yet to be an Inborn actually intervened in experts' matters!"

"He's such an idiot. An ant is dreaming of interfering in conflicts between two unparalleled experts. He should count himself lucky for not getting himself killed!"

"Maybe that disciple of Donghua Sacred Sect did not expect that the Dragon King would cripple him straight away!"

The surrounding crowd watched coldly as the disciple of Donghua Sacred Sect rolled and screamed in pain on the floor.

Thinking that you are the disciple of Donghua Sacred Sect, and you can poke your nose in experts' matters?

It would be okay if the other party was just an Inborn Expert.

But you're digging your own grave by poking your nose in the conflict between the second strongest expert in the Underworld and the Dragon King of Dragon Sect.

In addition, you were still ignorant, trying to please Hai Jiao, who has made an enemy of the Dragon King.

How can a disciple who is not even an Inborn provoke such an unparalleled expert?

"Senior!"

Several disciples of Donghua Sacred Sect stiffened up as they ran to that disciple with panic.

"An ant has no right to talk." Hai Jiao swept his gaze at the young man before he glowered at Wang Xian. "But I'll slay you for hurting my son and killing my men!"

"Hehe, rest assured that you guys will not live long!"

Wang Xian looked at Hai Jiao and the Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island with a broad smile and unconcealed killing intent in his eyes.

"Great, I look forward to it. Haha!"

Hai Jiao chortled and walked inside with an icy-cold face.

The Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island threw a death stare at Wang Xian before he followed behind his father.

Wang Xian chuckled. He took a glance at the young man who was rolling in pain on the floor before he walked to one side.

Several disciples from Donghua Sacred Sect fixed their gazes at Wang Xian and gritted their teeth in fear.

"What's going on?"

At this time, two middle-aged men flitted over with the daunting aura of Inborn Experts. One looked at the ancestral disciple on the floor and asked this with a grave expression.

"It was the Dragon King from Dragon Sect who did it. He crippled Senior Xue's four limbs and Elixir Field!" a disciple replied with a dreadful look.

"Dragon King?"

The two middle-aged men frowned as they placed their arms on the young man with a darkened expression.

"It's completely gone. His life is finished. Why did that Dragon King cripple him?" asked the middle-aged man with a gloomy expression.

"Because... Because Senior Xue tried to intervene in the conflict between Hai Jiao and the Dragon King. As a result, the Dragon King crippled him straight away!"

A young man wiped the cold sweat from his forehead.

"Intervene in their matters?"

The two middle-aged men had a change in their expressions as they fixed their eyes on the fallen young man. "You aren't even an Inborn. Yet, you tried to interfere with two unparalleled experts? Are you seeking death?"

Chapter 504: Dong Hua Rules Supreme

The young disciple from Dong Hua Sacred Sect lay listlessly before the two attendants of Dong Hua Sacred Sect as despair overtook him.

He had not expected the Dragon King to cripple him directly.

Over the last two days, he had received various Sacred Clans and Sacred Sects. They were all courteous towards him.

Therefore, he had thought that the Dragon King wouldn't do anything to him even if he was trying to get on the good books of the Lord of Sea Serpent Island.

However... He was too naive. He was naive to the extent of challenging the authority of an expert.

No matter what, he's not showing any respect to us when he cripples our disciple in our sect. He really has no regard for us!

When the two middle-aged men saw their young disciple on the floor, their faces sank and they mumbled, "Report this incident up."

The two of them moved and left immediately. As for the young disciple on the floor, he was carried away by the other disciples.

"He's indeed the Dragon King. No matter which sect you are from, you will still be killed as long as you offend him!"

Around them, the disciples of other sects couldn't help but sigh after witnessing the event.

Before the Dragon Sect was established, the Dragon King was already known to kill disciples of other Sacred Sects. The Dragon Sect was even established on the corpses of two Saint-class forces.

The Dragon King wouldn't care if you were from the Dong Hua Sacred Sect or if you were the second strongest man in the Underworld.

Dong! Dong! Dong!

At this moment, the sound of the bell rang. The disciples of Dong Hua Sacred Sect guided all the sects towards the Dong Hua Ritual Ground.

"Everyone from Dragon Sect, please follow me!"

A female disciple of Dong Hua Sacred Sect walked to Wang Xian and spoke fearfully.

In less than ten minutes, the news of the Dragon King from Dragon Sect crippling a disciple of Dong Hua Sacred Sect was known by all other disciples.

Hearing about the wretched state of their senior, they couldn't help but feel a chill running down their spines.

An attendant and a female disciple were sent to receive the Dragon Sect.

Mmm!

Wang Xian nodded his head, followed beside the female disciple and headed towards the Dong Hua Ritual Ground.

Dong Hua Ritual Ground was two to three thousand meters away and one had to cross ten mountains to reach it.

An incomparably huge ritual ground appeared before them. On the other end, there was a huge lake.

In the middle of the lake, there was a stone statue that was over twenty meters tall.

"That's a stone statue of our Dong Hua Supreme Saint, the founder of Dong Hua Sacred Sect!"

The female disciple of Dong Hua Sacred Sect stole a glance at Wang Xian as she introduced it softly.

"Dong Hua Sacred Sect has close to seven to eight hundred years of history. Am

I right?" Wang Xian asked.

"Eight hundred and seventy-three years to be exact. This year is the eight hundred and seventy-third year since the founding of our Dong Hua Sacred Sect!" the female disciple replied with pride.

Wang Xian chuckled. All the disciples of Dong Hua Sacred Sect had an innate pride and confidence.

"Dragon King, please find a spot you like!"

At the ritual ground, the female disciple pointed to a place that was relatively ahead of the rest.

Wang Xian looked across and saw the Sui Clan and Xiao Clan. He immediately walked over with a radiant smile.

Beside Sui Clan and Xiao Clan was the Sacred Followers Guild.

"Brother Wang Xian!"

When Sui Huang and Xiao Quanshan saw Wang Xian walking towards them, they immediately exchanged greetings with him. The Guild Leader of the Sacred Followers Guild and their disciples also looked across.

Sui Clan, Xiao Clan and the Sacred Followers Guild each had ten Inborn experts that had come.

"Sui Huang, Old Xiao! Have you guys just arrived today?" Wang Xian asked with a smile.

"Yeah. We heard what you did a while ago. You really are a magnet for trouble!" Sui Huang shook his head and chuckled.

"What are your thoughts about the alliance of the orthodox sects after deliberation?" Wang Xian chuckled and asked directly.

"We can't let diabolism take control of the Underworld. Therefore, I have discussed with Old Xiao and Old Huang. If we can't avoid it, we just have to join in!" Sui Huang answered solemnly.

Wang Xian nodded his head. When one was in the Underworld, not all things could be decided by themselves.

Even Sacred Sects couldn't do as they wished in the face of the battle between the orthodox sects and diabolism.

"I have a batch of fire attribute Inborn Spiritual Weapons. If you guys are interested, bring Inborn-level materials to exchange. It would be best if you have devil attribute materials!"

Wang Xian hesitated for a moment before informing them.

In the battle between the Dragon Sect, Medical Saint Sect and Qiao Clan previously, the Dragon Sect had owed them a favor after they came to their aid.

This favor had to be returned.

Moreover, the three-hundred-plus fire attribute Inborn Spiritual Weapons were too weak for him.

Now that he had mastered the Arts of Equipment Refining, he could rely on it if he could get a batch of Inborn-level materials.

Sui Huang and Xiao Quanshan were taken aback and were shocked. "A batch?"

"Regardless, I can equip both of your clans fully. Naturally, this is dependent upon you two having sufficient Inborn-level materials to exchange!" Wang Xian said heartily.

"Brat, how did you get your hands on so many Inborn Spiritual Weapons?" Xiao Quanshan and Sui Huang's eyes beamed with excitement.

These were Inborn Spiritual Weapons that they were talking about. Between battles of two Inborn experts, the one with the weapon would be certain to win.

For a Sacred Sect, it would be rare to find three or four Inborn Spiritual Weapons!

"Do you think I'm like you? Getting almost killed in an overseas trip?" Wang Xian looked to Sui Huang and teased him.

"How dare you, brat! How dare you make fun of me now!" Sui Huang stared at him and continued, "Do you really have that many fire attribute Inborn Spiritual Weapons?"

"Of course!" Wang Xian nodded his head and continued, "In fact, I have Level 11 weapons that are above the Inborn-level!"

"What?"

"Weapons for Dan Realm experts?"

Sui Huang and Xiao Quanshan could feel their breathing getting rapid as they stared fervently at Wang Xian.

"Bring your stuff to me to exchange!" Wang Xian replied with a laugh.

The expressions on the two of them changed rapidly. They were thinking hard about what materials they could offer in exchange for weapons they could use.

The Guild Leader of Sacred Followers Guild looked at Wang Xian in shock.

The female disciple beside him still pouted and observed Wang Xian with discontent.

"Alright. We will bring the stuff over tomorrow. With Inborn Spiritual Weapons, the losses of our two clans will be substantially lower!" Sui Huang and Xiao Quanshan answered in a hurry.

Wang Xian nodded his head and looked around. He saw that over thirty sects had gathered in this place.

In the entire field, there were over ten thousand people.

No one was weaker than martial artist Level 7. One could say that almost ninety-five percent of the forces of the Underworld had gathered in this place.

He looked ahead and saw an elevated platform near the center of the lake.

On the elevated platform, there were a hundred-odd stone benches. No one was sitting there.

"The people from the Dong Hua Sacred Sect are here!"

At this moment, Wang Xian saw the people of Dong Hua Sacred Sect arriving.

There were over a thousand of them. In the middle, there were four old men with snow-white hair. One of the old men had a sword-shaped walking stick.

A hundred people or so walked towards the elevated platform.

As they walked over, they were like an army of a thousand soldiers. From them, one could feel a stifling pressure.

"Inborn! All of them are Inborn experts! Oh gosh, is this the real strength of Dong Hua Sacred Sect?"

"They are too strong. In the Underworld of China, Dong Hua rules supreme!"

"Sect Leader Nie Wushuang isn't here. Could it be that Sect Leader Nie Wushuang is getting ready for the big battle in a few days?"

The surrounding sects were shocked to see the elite experts from the Dong Hua Sacred Sect walking forward.

A hundred Inborn experts would match three Sacred Sects!

Chapter 505: Mobilize Everyone In Dragon Sect

A line of more than a hundred people slowly walked up the central elevated platform.

The old man who was holding the sword-shaped walking stick turned around, facing everyone below him.

He swept his glance across everyone and revealed a smile at the presence of all the Saint-class forces from the Underworld.

"I, Nie Wuya, will be hosting today's alliance of the orthodox sects as Sect Leader Nie Wushuang is in his cultivation, preparing himself for the battle two days from now," said the old man slowly. Behind him sat hundreds of experts on stone benches.

Among which, Hai Jiao took the middle seat, looking expressionless.

None of them spoke. Wang Xian sat in a chair, watching them quietly.

In addition to him having a seat, only the Dan Realm Experts of Sacred Sects could have a place.

The rest of the Inborn Experts from Sacred Sects could only stand behind.

"I'm sure everyone knows about the situation in the Underworld now. Diabolism is on the rise, and they have been going around, killing the innocent. They're unorthodox, fearless, gruesome and bloodthirsty. We'll not have peace for as long as Diabolism exists!" Nie Wuya looked at the people and said slowly.

"Today, the Donghua Sacred Sect invited all of you here to form an alliance between all the sects and clans in the Underworld. We will eliminate Diabolism and restore peace to the Underworld!

"Does anyone have any objection to this alliance of the orthodox sects? If no, the rules remained the same as they were fifty years ago!

"Fifty years ago, every ancestral sect would dispatch their experts, including seventy percent of the total Inborn Experts, fifty percent of their total number of disciples. Would anyone like to voice out anything about this arrangement?"

Nie Wuya swept his gaze across the ground.

"The Sacred Seas of Swords will not be participating in the alliance!"

An old man's voice was heard.

The crowd froze briefly before looking over to the source of the voice.

An old man was standing straight before the Sacred Seas of Swords. There was a chair beside him, but he did not take it.

As he spoke, he was expressionless, with razor-sharp eyes. He had five sharpened swords at his back too.

"Hur?"

Nie Wuya's brows furrowed as he looked at that old man.

The old man craned his neck upward and said, "The Sacred Seas of Swords have been living in the sea, and we have rarely stepped into the Underworld. As such, you can settle your own business. I'm here personally to make my stand clear just to give face to Donghua Sacred Sect!"

"Hur?"

Nie Wuya raised his eyebrow slightly. "Fifty years ago, Sacred Seas of Swords fought with us side by side. Are you going to back out now? Diabolism may not let you guys off!"

"Why should we be afraid of Diabolism when we're in the sea?"

A faint smile surfaced on that old man's face.

Gazing at the old man, Nie Wuya remained silent as he cast a look at Hai Jiao beside him.

"Old Cai, the Sacred Seas of Swords is, after all, a clan in the Underworld. This concerns the life and death of the Underworld. How can you guys turn your backs on us at this juncture?" Hai Jiao stood up slowly and remarked with a smile as he stared at the old man from the Sacred Seas of Swords.

"With you guys around, insignificant Diabolism will be easily annihilated. Sacred Seas of Swords is staying out of this!"

That old man looked towards Hai Jiao with a frown. His voice was somewhat cold as he spoke.

"You can't put it that way. I'm also based in the sea, and Diabolism has got nothing to do with me. But since the Underworld is in trouble, I feel that all the clans and sects should shoulder the responsibilities together. Otherwise, the peaceful environment that we establish through our arduous effort will be enjoyed by someone else. This is simply unfair!"

Hai Jiao responded with a broad smile while watching that old man.

"That's right. The battle between the orthodox sects and Diabolism involves everyone and every force. All of us should contribute to this. We used our blood to path a road, and it's not for others to cross it as they wish!"

Nie Wuya stared at the old man and remarked plainly.

"Old Cai, in view of the current situation, the entire Underworld is like a row of dominoes where one fall affects everyone. To put it bluntly, we're all in the same boat. If someone wants to jump off now, don't ever come back to this boat again. Otherwise..." said an old man with a green coat from a Sacred Sect, Jiutian Sect. He turned to Old Cai of the Sacred Seas of Swords.

He did not finish his sentence, but the implied meaning was obvious.

"We don't know how many losses will we suffer from this war. In the event that we suffer overwhelming losses, wouldn't the Sacred Sect who did not participate in the battle reap the benefits without lifting a finger?"

An old man from Dongmen Clan threw a cold gaze in the Sacred Seas of Swords' direction.

Old Cai darkened his expression when he saw seven Dan Realm Experts from seven Saint-class forces staring at him with an unpleasant look.

"Old Cai, this is the time for the orthodox sects to work together against the common enemy. I hope the Sacred Seas of Swords can join us!" said Nie Wuya with a beam as he provided an out for the Sacred Seas of Swords in a timely manner.

Radiance flickered in Old Cai's eyes. "Fine, but we faced a crisis earlier on, and we're only left with dozens of Inborn Experts. So, we can only send ten Inborn Experts!"

"Sure, as long as the number hits seventy percent of the total Inborn Experts, it will do!"

Nie Wuya nodded without expression. He knew very well that this was just an excuse for the Sacred Seas of Swords.

But he did not expose this since their sect was situated in the middle of the ocean. Donghua Sacred Sect would not know how many Inborn Experts they had in the first place.

Seventy percent of the strength was just a rough estimation.

"Sacred Seas of Swords will send ten Inborn Experts. The Donghua Sacred Sect will be sending seventy Inborn Experts, four Dan Realm experts, and four thousand disciples!" said Nie Wuya slowly, taking the lead.

"Four Dan Realm Experts!"

Everyone gasped at the number. Four Dan Realm Experts! It's the Donghua Sacred Sect indeed.

"Dongmen Clan, twenty Inborn Experts!"

"Dark Sect, twenty Inborn Experts!"

"Sui Clan, twenty Inborn Experts!"

"Xiao Clan, twenty Inborn Experts!"

"Heavenly Sound Sect, twenty Inborn Experts!"

...

All the Sacred Sects were unaware of the numbers of Inborn Experts each sect had. Twenty Inborn Experts might have been less than seventy percent, but it was close enough.

With several Sacred Sects consecutively reporting twenty Inborn Experts, everyone followed suit with an unspoken understanding.

Nie Wuya nodded his head with satisfaction upon hearing the numbers reported by various Sacred Clans and sects.

Then he slowly fixed his gaze on Wang Xian, who had been keeping mum.

"This must be the recently emerging Dragon Sect. It's considered to be unprecedented in history for a Dragon King to possessed such strength at a young age.

"Medical Saint Sect, whose elixir pills marked the foundation to our victory fifty years ago, has been annihilated by Dragon Sect. Luckily, we still have the disciples of Dragon Sect around.

"During the supreme talents' contest, disciples of Dragon Sect triumphed over two outstanding disciples of Diabolism. Since Dragon Sect is filled with compelling experts, I think your sect can contribute more for the Underworld by sending the entire Dragon Sect, as there aren't any average disciples in the sect either. What do you think?"

Nie Wuya looked at Wang Xian and asked him this with a broad smile.

"Oh?"

Upon hearing Nie Wuya, Wang Xian raised an eyebrow with coldness flashing in his eyes.

Chapter 506: What Has Diabolism Got To Do With Me?

"I have a question. For this alliance of the orthodox sects to eliminate Diabolism, how are we going to act? Who will be issuing instructions, or will it be based on the consensus of a group of Dan Realm experts?" Wang Xian looked at Nie Wuya and asked plainly.

"I wonder if this brother has heard of the saying, 'Dong Hua rules supreme in China's Underworld.' This elimination of Diabolism would naturally be under the leadership of our Dong Hua Sacred Sect. Moreover, considering the strength that our Dong Hua Sacred Sect is mobilizing, it shouldn't be an absurd demand for us to lead, right?" Nie Wuya answered as though it was just a natural order to expect.

"Why are you asking my Dragon Sect to mobilize all our strength then?" Wang Xian looked at Nie Wuya and questioned him coldly.

Nie Wuya raised an eyebrow at Wang Xian and said with a smile, "This is mainly in consideration of the suppression the experts from the Dragon Sect could have on Diabolism. Next, if the Medical Saint Sect was still around, our battle with Diabolism would be a lot easier. Now that the Dragon Sect has annihilated the Medical Saint Sect, it's only reasonable that you guys make up for it. Moreover, the Dragon Sect has no ordinary disciples. Other sects and families will be mobilizing five to six hundred of them and maybe even a thousand. Asking you guys to send fifty people isn't unreasonable at all!"

Hehe!

Upon hearing Nie Wuya's explanation, Wang Xian chuckled in contempt. He stood up and spoke loudly. "You should know about this too. Our Dragon Sect has no ordinary disciples and has just fifty Inborn experts. In that case, why should I join the alliance of the orthodox sects and accept the commands of your Dong Hua Sacred Sect?"

As Wang Xian spoke, he looked across everyone on the elevated stage. "With the fifty Inborn experts of the Dragon Sect, who dares to offend us in the Underworld? Would Diabolism dare? Even if they did, so what? Is my Dragon Sect afraid?

"In the Underworld, regardless of whether the orthodox sects rule or Diabolism rules, what has it got to do with my Dragon Sect?

"Regardless of whether it's Diabolism or the orthodox sects, none of you could affect our Dragon Sect. You want our Dragon Sect to mobilize all our strength and listen to your orders? What gives you the guts to even think of it?" Wang Xian chuckled and stared at Nie Wuya. As he spoke, he ensured that every word was clear to everyone.

Ordering his Dragon Sect? How dare he!

"This... This..."

When the surrounding forces heard Wang Xian, they were all stunned.

Everyone looked at Wang Xian and frowned.

"I hate people ordering me around. Give me a reason for my Dragon Sect to join the alliance of the orthodox sects!"

Wang Xian smiled and issued the last question to Nie Wuya.

When Nie Wuya heard Wang Xian, his expression turned solemn.

He would have never expected Wang Xian to make such remarks.

Wang Xian's lips curved into a smile as he stared at Nie Wuya.

His original intention was to not join the so-called alliance of the orthodox sects. Yet, Nie Wuya wanted him to send the entire Dragon Sect in. This made him even more against the idea.

What rights do you guys have to order my Dragon Sect?

"Now that all the sects in the Underworld are in, is your Dragon Sect thinking of isolating yourselves away from us?" Nie Wuya stared at Wang Xian and asked solemnly.

"In that case, our Dragon Sect chooses to go our own way!"

Wang Xian met Nie Wuya's gaze.

"Brat! I had thought about killing you but Brother Nie stopped me and asked me to think of the bigger picture. Now that you are not joining the alliance of the orthodox sects..."

Suddenly, a voice that was filled with killing intent resounded.

Boom!

A terrifying aura shot through to the sky. A roar that resembled the fury of water seemed to have come from the sky.

Hai Jiao stood up from his seat emotionlessly and stared at Wang Xian.

"Haha, kill me? If this wasn't the territory of Dong Hua Sacred Sect, you would have become a corpse by now!"

Wang Xian laughed heartily. He looked harshly at Hai Jiao before looking across the crowd from Dong Hua Sacred Sect.

Nie Wuya stared at Wang Xian as his face sank. "I have long heard that the Dragon King of the Dragon Sect is exceptionally brazen. Today, this old man has finally witnessed it. Crippling a disciple of our Dong Hua Sacred Sect and now with your brazen claims. You really are young and impulsive!"

"Hehe! What's with it? I'm already giving Dong Hua Sacred Sect face by not killing the disciple. If you guys want to make us an enemy, I wouldn't mind either!"

Wang Xian licked his lips and stared at all the people from Dong Hua Sacred Sect.

"Arrogance! Really arrogant!"

"That's a hundred Inborn experts and four Dan Realm experts. Yet, he dared to make such claims!"

"How ignorant and fearless for him to openly challenge Dong Hua Sacred Sect!"

"Now that I have seen it today, he's really arrogant. Too arrogant, in fact, to have the guts to make Dong Hua Sacred Sect his enemy!"

The surrounding sects and families from the Underworld looked at Wang Xian and commented.

Rumble!

Just as Wang Xian completed his words, the hundred-plus experts from Dong Hua Sacred Sect stood up. Terrifying auras shot to the sky as they stared harshly at Wang Xian.

As long as the old man before them gave his instructions, they would definitely kill this arrogant brat.

Sui Huang and Xiao Quanshan sighed upon seeing how confrontational Wang Xian was.

"Now that Diabolism is on the rise, could it be that you guys still want to start a battle of Sacred Sects?"

"Since Dragon Sect isn't willing to join, why do we have to force him? If we push him to the opposite side, it will be greatly harmful to us!"

Sui Huang and Xiao Quanshan spoke solemnly.

At the same time, they were clearly expressing where they stood.

The surrounding Sacred Sects frowned.

A Sacred Sect not joining wasn't an outcome they wished to see.

"Since the Dragon King is so arrogant to say that Diabolism has nothing to do with him, what else can I, Nie Wuya, say? For now, my only advice is to watch your own actions!"

Nie Wuya saw that Sui Huang and Xiao Quanshan interrupted and knew that this wasn't the time for internal conflict. Therefore, he remarked coldly.

"I have a feud with this brat. Today, I'm going to kill him here. Does anyone here have an opinion on that?" Hai Jiao shouted across.

His eyes were fixed on Wang Xian and brimming with killing intent. "I thought of killing you after settling this matter. Since you are looking for death, I will fulfil your wish right now!"

As he spoke, he moved.

Rumble!

The sounds of seawater tumbling reverberated across instantly. Hundreds of meters of seawater instantly formed behind Hai Jiao.

The depth of the seawater reached over ten meters and it was suspended in the air.

"In that case, I shall see who's going to die today!"

Seeing Hai Jiao attacking, killing intent beamed from Wang Xian's eyes. He moved and met his attacks.

Boom! Scorching hot flames blazed the sky. Several hundreds of meters of space around Wang Xian was shrouded in flames.

Fire and water instantly filled the sky above the Dong Hua Ritual Ground.

"They... They are going to fight!"

"They really are going to fight. The second strongest expert of the Underworld versus the Dragon King from the Dragon Sect!"

"The people from Dong Hua Sacred Sect didn't say a word. It would seem that they won't be interfering!"

"Doesn't the Dragon King use metal attribute? How did he release fire attribute energy suddenly?"

"What a terrifying aura! The battle between unparalleled experts could really destroy heaven and earth!"

When Hai Jiao charged across and Wang Xian met his attack, the color of the sky changed instantly.

Flames and seawater occupied the entire sky.

Nie Wuya and the experts from Dong Hua Sacred Sect looked at Wang Xian, who was emitting endless flames, solemnly.

That's definitely the strength of a Dan Realm unparalleled expert.

Hai Jiao definitely lives up to his name as the second strongest expert in the Underworld. Even I am no match for him. That arrogant brat will definitely die! Nie Wuya thought to himself while staring grudgingly at the two men in the air!

It would be best if the Lord of Sea Serpent Island could kill this arrogant brat. This will save us from further troubles! Experts from some Sacred Sects thought to themselves.

With regard to Hai Jiao being the second strongest expert in the Underworld, they had absolute confidence. Killing a brat shouldn't be a tough issue!

Chapter 507: Enemy Defeated In Four Moves

"You killed two of my subordinates. I'll annihilate you, then the Dragon Sect today!"

Hai Jiao stood in the air, a thousand meters above ground with tumbling currents surging behind him as he spoke coldly.

"Annihilate my Dragon Sect?"

Immense killing intent flickered in Wang Xian's eyes as he opened his mouth and spat out his Dragon Ball.

"I'll kill you today, then your son!"

As soon as he finished his sentence, he dashed out to Hai Jiao immediately.

"I'll kill you within five strokes!"

Hai Jiao waved his arms, and two horn-like weapons appeared in his hand. The ocean tumbled into a terrifying being with horns.

"You're not even at the Budding Realm, and you dare to be arrogant!"

Wang Xian exhibited a disdainful look with the Dragon Ball suspended over his head. Flames from a radius of hundred meters were drawn to the Dragon Ball, condensing into an eight-meter Inferno Divine Dragon.

"The first stroke: Sea Serpent to the sea!"

Coldness flushed the face of Hai Jiao as he held his double horns and confronted Wang Xian.

"Then I shall take your first move!"

Wang Xian's arm stretched to two meters long with terrifying dragon claws. The sharp dragon claws were heated to high temperatures.

Bam!

An explosion was heard as soon as the double horns and dragon claws knocked against each other.

It was the explosion of water and flames.

Growl!

The moment they collided, the Inferno Divine Dragon above Wang Xian had already clashed head-on with the sea monster with horns.

Boom!

Sst!

The Inferno Divine Dragon seemed to be alive as it raked its sharp claws and bit at the horns.

A dragon flame was spewed while a cloud of mist that rose from the seawater within a hundred meter range quickly diminished.

"What?"

When he and Wang Xian collided head-on with each other, he was appalled as his power and the water energy in the air were diminishing at a rapid rate.

"Sea Serpent strike through!"

Hai Jiao grabbed the double horns with an immense amount of water energy gathered on it. He swung his arms, and two high-speed spinning water energies twisted together.

The spinning water energy ballooned into a pail-size, several hundred meters long, being hurled at Wang Xian directly.

"Sea Serpent, a Sea Serpent after all!"

Coldness surfaced on Wang Xian's face as he swung his hands. The Inferno

Divine Dragon above his head swayed its domineering figure and charged towards the terrifying water current.

Boom boom!

As the water energy evaporated, the steam that rose up to the sky condensed into clouds.

Drops of rainwater began to fall.

"How? How could he be so strong?"

Young Lord of Sea Serpent Island, at the Donghua Ritual Ground, was stupefied as he craned his neck up to watch the battle in the sky.

That lad, who was younger than him, was able to compete with his father!

He found this to be unbelievable!

"The Dragon King of Dragon Sect is formidable. He's on par with Hai Jiao!"

"Their strength was much stronger than average Dan Realm Experts."

"Is this the strength of the Dragon King? He's indeed mighty. It's already been two strokes, and Hai Jiao is still at a disadvantage!"

The group of forces watched the scene in shock.

Hai Jiao was the official second strongest recognized in the Underworld. Yet he was only on par with the Dragon King of Dragon Sect.

"This Dragon King!"

